

Godly Choice 3521

Chapter 3521: clean

After busying for a long time, the gift-giving operation was finally over. The neighbors in the neighborhood praised the beauty of the daughter-in-laws that Li Yun found, and they all went away contentedly.

They were not very surprised that Li Yun, the grandson adopted by the old man, brought back a few daughters-in-law, because in their concept, Li Yun was already developed, he was rich, and quite rich.

As a rich man, it is nothing to bring a few girlfriends back. Li Yun, who was once Xiaoyunzi and now, is really capable. Not only does he make a lot of money, he is even so good at finding a girlfriend.

"Put your things home first, and then go to dinner with you later."

Li Yun asked Wang Houliang and others to go back first, but he returned to his hometown with a few women.

"Here... is where you used to live?"

One of Fan Linglong's purposes in coming to Longyang County is to see the home where Li Yun once lived.

But after entering this two-bedroom, one-bedroom old man, she was still surprised.

In previous years, she has not seen a worse house than this, but Li Yun's achievements at the moment, coupled with his strength and ability, makes it hard to imagine that Li Yun would live in such a place before.

"Well, sister Linglong, sister Qingsheng, and Qingzhu, I will show you around."

After returning to her hometown, Caiwei seemed to suddenly become an extroverted and lively character. Not only did she smile happily, she also took the initiative to introduce this two-bedroom and one-bedroom to the three girls. They used to be here with her brother and sister Li Feng Things of life.

Unfortunately, Li Feng didn't come back this year and can only talk about it later.

"Here is the room where my sister and I live. My sister is in the lower bunk, and my sister and I are in the upper bunk."

"Yeah, yes, this is the homework desk. My brother used to teach us homework here... It's a pity that my brother is too busy now, which is really annoying."

"Sister Linglong, are you in college now?"

"Ah? Sister Linglong, you are five hundred years old? Impossible, right?"

It was the first time for Fan Linglong to talk about her age in front of the sisters, because she had only revealed it in the fairies before, so the sisters were surprised.

"Really." Fan Linglong liked the sisters very much and said with a smile: "I, I have lived for five hundred years...but not surprisingly, you will live for hundreds of years in the future Reiki era."

"Can't it take your time?" Caixia suddenly said a nonsense.

"What take it slow? Cultivation? Yes, I will teach you!" Fan Linglong promised, "It is not a problem to let you all turn into the Void Returning Realm. It is not a problem to live for hundreds of years."

Caiwei and Caixia looked at each other, giggled and thanked Linglong sister.

In fact, what they care most about is that in this way, they can live with their brother for hundreds of years...

"There are many beauties."

Li Yun smiled and said, "Didn't you say that you want to live here tonight? Let's clean it up, and then go to have a meal with them and come back tonight."

The women nodded, and Fan Linglong and Fan Qingsheng, two masters of the Void Returning Realm and the Soul Bright Realm, also came to help, and they did not use the magic to remove the dust, but worked together to move the room in and out with Li Yun. All cleaned up.

By the way, the two sisters were talking about Li Yun's childhood. This is a problem that my brother used, this is a bowl that my brother broke, and this is a toy that my brother bought them when he was seven years old, and so on.

Let the two masters and apprentices of the Hidden Sacred Valley know more about Li Yun.

As for the little princess... she can only lie on the bed and sleep a lot.

Chapter 3522: The princess and Linglong

After cleaning this old house and looking at the newly renewed room, Fan Linglong wiped the sweat from his forehead and smiled at Li Yun: "I didn't think you were really that big. I thought you were some old monster costume. You are here to lie to me!"

Li Yun looked embarrassed, "Linglong, do you feel like an old cow eats tender grass?"

"screw you!"

Caixia and Caiwei both covered their mouths and laughed. They felt more and more that the sister-in-laws her brother was looking for were very interesting. Even this sister Linglong, who was said to have lived for hundreds of years, would lower their heads and accompany them to clean up. What kind of airs will you put on.

Of course, the same is true for Sister Qingsheng and Princess Yongning.

"Husband~~"

At lunch, Princess Yongning got up on time and was a little surprised when she saw that she returned to this old house, but she quickly saw Fan Linglong.

"Sister~!"

For Fan Linglong, Princess Yongning respected and got close, and happily ran over and hugged her.

That year, four hundred years ago, it was precisely because of Fan Linglong's action that she could stay alive and sleep until Li Yun brought her out. It can be said that Zhu Shue's life was attributed to her parents, Fan Linglong, and Li Yun, jointly maintained by the three parties, without any party, she has long since disappeared.

Therefore, Princess Yongning is very close to Fan Linglong, and her partner Qingsheng is also very close. When watching TV at night, she spends the most time with Qingsheng, and obediently reads books with Qingsheng sister.

"Okay, little girl, go wash your hands, wash your face, brush your teeth, we have lunch!"

Fan Linglong smiled and patted her little head.

After coming to Zhonghai City, when she really saw Princess Yongning, she was still very happy.

The reason is also very simple. Princess Zhu Shue of Yongning is also one of the few people she has known since hundreds of years ago, especially Princess Yongning has another effect on her, that is, the little princess who is born sick and weak, but has an optimistic nature. Spirit.

When Fan Linglong felt pessimistic and low because of the aging of her friends, it was the little princess's cheerfulness that infected her. That's why Fan Linglong took the action and laid down the 28-star formation of the sun and moon to maintain Princess Yongning's formation. vitality.

Now I see this little princess from the Ming Dynasty again, see her cute smile, and once again be held by this little girl called Sister Linglong.

To be honest, even Fan Linglong, who has lived for hundreds of years, was so moved that he almost shed tears.

As for the little princess... At that time, she was really holding her and crying, which caused Fan Linglong to coax her for a long time.

"Well, Yongning will come right away, everyone will wait for me."

Zhu Shue looked around and found this small two-bedroom, one-living bathroom. He trot over and mumbled in her little mouth: "My husband and sister Linglong are real, they don't wake me up... and Cai Wei, you guys, it's also very bad, you can only pinch my face after cooking~~~oooo."

"Haha~"

"Gluck, the little princess is so cute."

Several people were amused by her small appearance, and even Sage Fan Qing glanced at it more.

However, after seeing Princess Yongning's healthy appearance, Fan Linglong's eyebrows became a little more sad, and he glanced at Li Yun with a questioning look.

"fine."

Li Yun gave her a calm look, "My pill is enough for the little princess to maintain a normal life and be healthy, of course...except that she still loves to sleep."

Chapter 3523: Miss

"Your pill really worked for her, but I still can't figure out the reason for her illness."

Fan Linglong frowned slightly, "Perhaps... the little princess loves to sleep because I set up a formation and let her sleep for hundreds of years, so I will observe and observe in the future... By the way, have you let the two of you watch? "

Those two people refer to Qing Girl and Xiao Su.

"No, I won't show them for the time being." Li Yun shook his head. He actually didn't trust these two people from his subconscious mind.

This is normal. After all, no one will trust a person whose true identity has not been revealed. Online chats about men and women who are irrational go out.

After chatting without a word, the little princess came out happily with her white tender hands, "Eating and eating, husband, we haven't been back to our hometown for a long time to eat~"

Princess Yongning actually came to this old house. For her, this is her husband's hometown, which is naturally her home. Although it is not her hometown, it does not prevent Princess Yongning from marrying a chicken and a dog, following Li Yun. Let's regard this as her other home together.

For Princess Zhu Shu'e, the palace is her first home. Besides, wherever the husband lives, her home is.

From Villa No. 36 in Huangting Mountain, to Mansion No. 3 of Sister Qingyu, to these two houses in Longyang County, they are all her homes!

"Well, sit down quickly, we will rest after dinner, and then go to buy New Year goods." Li Yun smiled.

As the New Year's Eve is approaching, no matter what you do, there is a joyful New Year flavor.

"New Year!"

Princess Yongning's eyes lit up, and her cute little face showed a look of nostalgia: "Husband, I used to... well, last year, hehe, when I was celebrating the New Year in the palace, the eunuchs were going to prepare the New Year's goods. In fact, Yongning watched, making a symbolic meal of dumplings with the mother and the queen, and doing the rest for the maids~"

In ancient times, the queen was the representative of the world of mother rituals. In early spring, some queens had to weave cloth by themselves to set an example for the women of the world.

"last year?"

Cai Wei looked at Princess Yongning suspiciously, and then wanted to understand, she couldn't help but stepped forward and hugged her: "Little princess, are you all right? We will be a family in the future, don't be too sad."

"Well, Yongning is not sad at all, just a little bit, a little bit nostalgic~"

For others, including Fan Linglong, whom Zhu Shue met 400 years ago, for others, 400 years is a very long process, but for Princess Yongning, in her impression, last year She also celebrated the New Year with her father, queen and mother.

But "this year" came four hundred years later, to celebrate the New Year with her husband, sisters, and sister-in-laws.

The gap is really only she can feel it.

"Okay, okay, eat!"

Li Yun gave her a big drumstick, which caused Zhu Shue to be irritated. "Husband, people don't like to eat chicken drumsticks~~ People are already big girls, and they can give her husband a baby next year. Why? Can you eat chicken legs?"

When it comes to giving birth to offspring, among the girls around Li Yun, Zhu Shue is undoubtedly the most persistent.

After all, the ancient girls, the education they received from their childhood was to teach their husbands and children. The first thing after marrying is to give birth to offspring to the husband, and everything else can be left alone.

Chapter 3524: Buy New Year's Goods (Part 1)

According to the etiquette learned by Zhu Shu'e, when she gets married, there will be a dowry maid, who will teach her to be with her husband, and the maid sent from the palace, who will personally supervise her and the maid to make a child. Even if she and her husband want to make a child together, or don't want to make a child, they all have to be approved by the mother.

Of course, mothers are accommodating many times, but she is still very annoying. Zhu Shu'e still likes modernity. There is no mother and there are not so many rules.

It's just a pity that the father and mother are gone...

Fortunately, her father and mother are dead, and now she has a husband and sisters who don't compete with her. The sister-in-law is also very cute. She has nothing to extravagantly ask for, as long as she gives her husband two or three births. Fat boy, it's enough to open the branches and leaves for the Li family~.

"Husband, next year..."

"Ah, let's talk about next year's affairs next year!"

Li Yun quickly interrupted Zhu Shu'e, causing the little princess holding the chopsticks to puff up her cheeks, unspeakably cute.

Since that time of mischief in the bath, the little princess of Yongning who knew everything about men and women suddenly became very obsessed with raising children. What Li Yun said, she insisted, and even said that she could raise her by herself, let Li Yun Don't worry about things like other sisters.

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry.

The little princess is still just a small thing now, she has a mediocre body, basically does not have the innate conditions to raise a child, plus sleeping for 16 hours a day, it is even more impossible to raise a child.

Li Yun hasn't mentioned that he was just a freshman. According to Princess Yongning's concept, her husband has no children at the age of eighteen or ninety. It is simply her fault that she will be "out of seven", that is, her wife will be divorced.

"Hurry up!" Li Yun squeezed her smooth and white cheeks, which made the little princess reluctantly replied "Yes~"!

Until now, she has not officially consummated her husband, she has to think of a way.

...

After eating and resting for a while, Li Yun took a few women out to buy New Year goods. Because of being too concerned, Fan Linglong had to use a small spell to make the people around automatically ignore their existence, instead of turning a blind eye, but seeing Their faces are automatically forgotten.

"There is such a spell?"

Li Yun smiled at Fan Linglong and said, "I think Xianxian will definitely like this spell very much. She is a big star and is always onlookers when she goes out."

"Liu Xianxian?" Even though she hadn't seen it in person, Fan Linglong had already spoken to her in the group.

"Um."

"Humph... wait, don't move."

Fan Linglong picked up his mobile phone and looked at him buying new year goods, and at the lively little princesses, cute twin sisters, and cold-hearted apprentices around him, he took a video and sent it to the fairies.

Li Feng: "Oh, it's a pity that I'm not here..."

Hu Xiaomeng: "Woo, I miss the food that Brother Yun cooked by himself... If I can eat the New Year's Eve dinner cooked by Brother Yun myself, it would be even better! It's a pity that I will celebrate the New Year in Beijing this year.

Can you kiss it?

Fan Linglong is speechless, why is it so weird!

She now knows the characters of these girls better, Hu Xiaomeng and Su Muxin, plus a Jin Liuli who babbles from time to time, the three formed a silly team, basically the most active people in the group.

Other people...

"Look at me."

Chapter 3525: Buy New Year's Goods (Part 2)

Shangguan Lingxian also sent a video in which she was wearing a white dress and playing rice cakes with her mother and several aunts.

As the eldest lady of Shangguan's family, Shangguan Lingxian certainly doesn't have to make rice cakes personally, but these are also symbolic. In her mother's words, these are Huang Xuanguo's traditions and cannot be thrown away!

Even the eldest lady of Shangguan's family can't be left behind.

"Me, me, this is my house! [Video]"

Su Muxin also posted that her hometown is in eastern Guangdong, where lion dances and flower markets are indispensable for Chinese New Year.

"mine."

Gong Qingyu also posted a paragraph. In the video, she and Aunt Lian didn't make any special preparations. They were just making a female celebrity. It seemed that they were unfettered in Zhonghai City. After returning to the Gong family's hometown, they were immediately killed by her mother. Let her do some things that girls should do.

Needlework, weaving, embroidery, etc., all of which are supposed to be learned by the ladies of the palace tradition.

As a result, Gong Qingyu has become an abandoned house girl who can only watch animation and painting, and drink happy water!

As Fan Linglong posted a video of Li Yun, the fairies soon became lively. The little fairies from all over the world posted their own videos, such as Xia Feiyao, Jin Liuli and so on.

However, Shan Ruqing sent a paragraph of Xiaoxiao's words:

"I envy my sisters... Xiao Xiao, I can only be alone at home with my mother, so pitiful~"

"Aren't you still in Zhonghai City? Just spend time with Li Yun @茹卿姐."

"He is going back to Zhonghai City on the 30th New Year?"

"I want to go back too, I'm so tired in my hometown."

Fan Linglong looked at the news in the group, and a touch of warmth emerged in her heart.

She hasn't felt the taste of the New Year for a long, long time.

In the Hidden Sacred Valley, I don't know when it started, it's not new year. The last time she celebrated the New Year, she should have spent the year with her best friend in the capital.

Fortunately, after she had the Qingsheng, she spent several years alone with the Qingsheng when she was a child, but it was very simple, without firecrackers, and no couplets, which was completely different from now.

"Brother, shall we buy two couplets?"

Caixia squatted at the place where couplets were sold in the market, turned her head and shouted at Li Yun.

"Three, there is also a pair at Huangting Mountain... By the way, or a pair at Mansion Three?"

"Huh? It feels weird to post couplets in the bungalows, but it's fun, let's post them? Let me ask sister Qingyu!"

The little princess dragged sister Linglong and sister Qingsheng to pick the couplets, while Li Yun bought a bunch of snacks and fruits, which he can eat tonight, as well as these few days and nights.

The three smaller girls were chattering and dragged Fan Linglong to stroll happily. They succeeded in infecting the "Senior Linglong" who had lived for hundreds of years with a smile. They walked around the market with a few little girls, and Fan Linglong followed Together, Princess Yongning explained to Caiwei and Caixia two "modern people" how they celebrated the New Year in ancient times.

But of course, whether it is Fan Linglong or Princess Yongning, the "year" they have experienced is not the year that the common people spent 400 years ago. Fan Linglong is barely better. She spent the New Year together with Zhao Xiaoqing's best friend. , Understand a lot of processes to increase the flavor of the year.

As for Princess Yongning, she is completely ignorant. She only knows how to eat and drink, and by the way, go to each concubine one by one to collect new year money-ahem, as the queen's daughter, she is qualified to collect a lot of new year money.

Chapter 3526: I like Chinese New Year

"Qingsheng, what are you thinking?"

Li Yun watched Fan Linglong and the three little girls, plus Fan Qingzhu, who was finally online, mixed into the crowd to buy things, and he was holding the little hand of the saintess, standing among the crowd of people buying new year goods. , It is like a pair of incompatible people, unable to blend in.

Without the magic of Fan Linglong, Li Yun and Fan Qingsheng had already become the focus of the market.

"No."

Sage Fanqing shook his head gently.

Li Yun stretched out her hand and scratched her little nose, and smiled: "My Qingsheng is not good, isn't my Qingsheng never lying?"

"I didn't lie."

Sage Fanqing denied Dao, and his small hand clasped his big hand tightly, "I just sighed in my heart, but didn't have any thoughts."

"Oh?"

Li Yun's face was weird for a simple reason.

The surrounding atmosphere is full of human fireworks, the liveliness and prosperity of the mundane world, when people are about to celebrate the New Year, prepare for the new year, and spend money to buy all kinds of things, this kind of fireworks is exactly the time to show it vividly.

There is no better time to express the word "worldly prosperity" than this time.

Can Qingsheng?

She is as cold as ever, with no joy or sorrow on her beautiful face, making outsiders think that she doesn't like the atmosphere of the New Year at all.

Moreover, the words used by the Sage Fanqing just now are very literal, even her master, who has lived for hundreds of years and is still in the soul and light realm, has integrated into the atmosphere of the New Year in the small county.

Only Brahma is pure and holy.

Still cold as a fairy, otherworldly.

She stood in the crowd of people coming and going, like a fairy who thought she had come to the mortal world, silently watching the prosperity of the world.

Perhaps in the next moment, she will fly away and completely disappear in front of Ordinary Su Zi's eyes.

This is also the reason Li Yun has been following her.

"I..." Fan Qingsheng's little hand clenched Li Yun's hand even more. After a long time in a daze, he slowly said, "It's just that I like the present very much."

"what?"

Li Yun swears that he can be regarded as one of the people who know the Sanctuary of Vatican the most in this world.

But it is still difficult to guess what she is thinking at the moment.

"real."

For the first time, Van Qingsheng used such a word to express what he wanted in his heart.

She likes this New Year's atmosphere very much. Her coldness seems to be disintegrated by Li Yun and the surrounding New Year's lively atmosphere. Van Qingsheng even feels that she would rather live in a lively street without aura than in the cold. In the deserted sacred valley.

Thinking back to her over the years, every time at the end of the year, it was only the master telling her stories, or cooking a few more dishes, to end the year.

In the evening, continue to practice.

The same is true for New Year's Eve.

But after going out to the outside world, she felt many different things.

Outsiders, after a year of hard work and study, they will gather together, buy a lot of things, and spend the New Year's Eve happily.

This is a very rare experience for her.

She even felt that spending the New Year in person with Li Yun and the people around her had brought her even greater changes in her mood than the previous half a year of cultivation!

Sage Fanqing can be sure that she has touched the side of the soul and light realm, but she is not in a hurry to break through. After the New Year event is over, she has time to practice well.

Now, she only needs to follow Li Yun and Master and watch them lively New Year, even if she didn't participate in it, it was enough.

"Li Yun, I like Chinese New Year very much!"

Chapter 3527: Like now

"Uh, good, good!"

Li Yun was a little bit dumbfounded, and couldn't help but stretch out his hand again, and then scratched the bridge of the arched nose of the lady of the saint again, watching her bear with her eyes closed, very cute.

It makes people feel warm.

The so-called Chinese New Year, in fact, is this kind of feeling, right?

The ritual is not important, the important thing is that when the person comes back, the heart comes back.

"Qingsheng, let's go buy fireworks."

"Fireworks?"

"It's something to play on New Year's Eve, hehe, I wanted to play when I was a kid, Caiwei and Caixia were also arguing to play, but unfortunately there was no money at the time, now I will make up!"

Li Yun didn't know if Fan Linglong and the others bought the fireworks and firecrackers. They probably bought them, but Li Yun decided to bring Qingsheng to buy some too.

He probably understands that Qing Sheng actually likes this kind of lively things. Her personality is undoubtedly cold and lonely to the extreme, but it seems that because of her deserted nature, she needs such a lively atmosphere to break away. Her dusty temperament.

Otherwise, it may be the day when the Sage Fanqing will ascend to an immortal and leave the mortal world completely.

The last time she went to take the college entrance examination, it was actually the same as the new year.

"Do you want to play?" Fan Qingsheng looked at Li Yun.

"It's fun, let's go, let's buy more, and then we will put enough!"

"Um."

Sage Fan Qing grabbed Li Yun's hand and asked him to lead herself through the crowd of ordinary people buying New Year goods. She looked curiously and calmly at the people around her, following Li Yun in her footsteps, as if being caught by him. Lead in this world.

"Li Yun."

"Um?"

"I like it now!"

"Hahaha?"

"real."

"Qingsheng, you repeat what you said just now!"

"Because I like it, so I have to say it."

"Ahhhh, my saintly lady, has anyone ever said that you are actually very cute? So cute that I want to hug you and take a bite!"

"have."

"Who?"

"You. You said, I'm cute."

"..."

Li Yun couldn't stand it in the end. Such a saint was so cute that he couldn't help but hug her, hugged her slender waist, and kissed her fiercely!

"Wow!"

I don't know when exclamation sounds sounded around.

Fan Linglong in the distance was taken aback, and suddenly patted his head: "The spell has failed!"

As a result, Li Yun and the fan Qingsheng who were kissing were taken pictures with mobile phones by unknown number of people, and Li Yun hurriedly slipped to Fan Linglong's side and asked her to make up another spell for herself.

After buying a bunch of New Year goods, Li Yun returned to his hometown with a group of girls who even the little princess carried a bag in both hands and were full of things to eat and play.

A group of girls who were exhausted, followed Li Yun to the class reunion in the evening, and met Fang Xue, and both parties smiled bitterly.

Li Yun simply drank a bit of wine, and then dragged Fang Xue to the balcony to talk about love, but it didn't take long for Sage Fan Qing to come out, saying that she didn't like the atmosphere inside.

So they became three people talking about love together, coughing cough.

After the party was over, the next morning, Li Yun brought five more girls from the Lady of Saint to visit Fang's house. After another lunch, he finally returned home.

This time Fang Xue also came, because Li Yun celebrated the 29th New Year in his hometown tonight and will return to Zhonghai City tomorrow, so tonight is equivalent to celebrating the New Year in Longyang County, and tomorrow he will return to Zhonghai City.

"Cook the noodle soup and paste the couplet, Caixia, little princess, come and help!"

"Yes~!"

Chapter 3528: New Year's Eve

Posting couplets is very interesting. They used flour boiled in a paste. Li Yun still remembers that he used this when he was a child. The paste bought at the commissary was too extravagant.

Of course, although roux is cheap and clean, it is not without its shortcomings. It is easy to drop. Often the couplet will fall off after only three to two months. However, at that time, the couplet will also be disastrous by the wind and sun. Don't care so much anymore.

"Qingsheng, you can post this."

Li Yun smiled and gave the couplet on the right to Sage Fanqing, and asked the lady who had been quietly watching to paste the couplet with her hands. This is probably the first time she posted the couplet. Although there is no joy, anger, sorrow, and joy on her face, But everyone can see from her serious expression that she is very happy.

To use the words of the little maid Qingzhu whispered, it is when the saintess is super serious when doing these things.

Judging from Li Yun's performance when he went to buy New Year goods with her before, it is obvious that Saint Fan Qing is spending this year very seriously-although she can't see it on her face, she can feel her seriousness.

"After the couplet is posted, what should I do?" Li Yun smiled: "Do you still remember Caixia? When Grandpa was here before, what else do you need to prepare for the New Year? Don't forget to ask your sister for help."

"dumpling!"

"Nonsense, dumplings are from the north, and we are dumplings in the south!"

"Hey? Zongzi?"

The little princess Yongning is a little greedy. After she came to modern times, she has never eaten modern zongzi.

"Then make zongzi!"

With a wave of his hand, Li Yun made a decision as the head of the family and asked Fan Linglong, who had been paralyzed on the sofa, to follow along.

"Me? I have wrapped rice dumplings, so I just wait to eat... Hmph, don't want to get up."

"Come here, sister Linglong will come together, otherwise they will all become old adults."

"What old man?"

In the end, the lazy Fan Linglong was pulled up and made rice dumplings with her daughter at the dining table.

Li Yun was sure that he would only see the scene where a Soul Ming Realm and a Returning Realm were used to make rice dumplings.

Zongzi, rice cakes, dumplings, and all kinds of messy things have been tried anyway. After making too much, Li Yun and a few girls gave some to their neighbors.

In fact, when I lived here before, between the left and right neighbors, the wrapped rice dumplings and so on would give each other a tasting to see how their respective craftsmanship was.

The happy New Year atmosphere will last until the end of the Lantern Festival. Of course, in recent years, there has been more entertainment, but the New Year atmosphere has decreased a lot.

However, for Li Yun, who intended to let the three Vatican and Qing Sages and the little princess feel more New Year's taste, he still did all the procedures step by step.

The only regret is that the display of fireworks is prohibited in the community, because this is an old community, and fireworks can easily cause problems.

In desperation, the fireworks event on Lunar New Year's Eve could only be cancelled.

"Oh, what a pity~"

The little princess Yongning was holding a handful of fireworks, which she bought with the sisters. She wanted to have a good time together tonight. She also took a small pill specially to maintain her energy, but in the end she couldn't let it go.

"It's a pity, I can't play it tonight, but tomorrow night!"

"Tomorrow night?"

"Well, we will return to Zhonghai City tomorrow."

After hearing this from her husband, Princess Yongning became expectant again.

"What's fun, isn't it just fireworks? Yongning, go to bed, let's squeeze a bed tonight!"

As Fan Linglong said, she picked up the little princess and brought it back to Li Yun's room.

Chapter 3529: Li Yun on the sofa

Of course, it used to be Li Yun's room, but it certainly wasn't tonight.

He wanted to sleep with Fan Linglong, Fan Qingsheng, as well as the little princess and the little maid, but unfortunately, the little maid and Fan Linglong resolutely did not allow them and forced him out.

In the end, Li Yun could only sleep on the sofa. Fortunately, he was a big man. The sofa for a few nights could not be more normal. I think when relatives came here from his grandfather's home, he also slept on the sofa.

However, with the death of his grandfather, the relatives in the countryside of his hometown were basically cut off. Originally, when his grandfather was alive, the relatives of Caiwei and Caixia's parents did not wait to see their sisters. After all, they were only girls and basically cut off contact.

In the future, Li Yun didn't plan to  his grandfather's bones back to the countryside. He would just keep it in a cemetery near Zhonghai City. His grandfather's life has been around since his youth, but his son and daughter-in-law died in a car accident. He was left, an old man, dragging his four children.

Fortunately, Li Yun and Li Feng are both promising, and they can inherit the incense of the Li family in the future.

Sister: "You actually slept in your hometown... Caiwei and Caixia slept in the original bed, where is the little princess? Where are the saints?"

In the evening, Li Yun was lying on the sofa playing with his mobile phone. Li Feng sent back a message from Zhang's family and asked in shock.

"Qingsheng and her maid slept in your bed, and Linglong slept in my bed with the little princess."

"You sleep on the sofa? [Laughs]"

"Otherwise, sleep in the bathroom?"

"Hehe, brother, you really are... why don't you live in a new home?"

Li Yun thought for a while and replied: "Qingsheng wants to experience the feeling of living in her hometown. Although she didn't say anything, I can see that there is also the little princess. She has never lived in her hometown. Don't worry, live for two. No problem at night."

"Let the saint, senior Linglong, and a princess sleep in two bedrooms and one living room... Forget it, you just have to be happy."

Li Yun asked her about her situation again, and Li Feng smiled and said, "I'm okay here. My mother is now treated as a guest. Even my sister has become a daughter, and she has received a lot of resources and support. Anyway, I don't understand and don't want to participate. My sister asked me to learn, but I don't want to learn."

Li Yun's sister, whose real name is Zhuang Nianliu, is actually called Zhuang Siliu. She is from a martial arts family. A lot of things have happened. This is the first time she has returned to her home for the New Year.

It is probably the last time, and Li Feng will not bother to go back in the future.

"Then don't learn."

"No, you have to learn!"

"Don't you want to learn?"

"Stupid brother, the adult world is forcing yourself to do things you don't want to do!"

"..."

"Hehehe, okay, I won't tease you anymore, I will go back after the Lantern Festival is over, dear~"

".....Dear."

I don't know who to learn from. Li Feng used to talk to him after calling and chatting, but since joining the Fairy Society, every time she ends the chat, as long as she doesn't talk to Li Yun during the day. If you are intimate, you will definitely end with the word kiss.

Recently, it seems that Xiaojiao and Yaoyao have also been infected.

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. After putting down the phone, he looked at the door of the room and poked out a small head.

"Plucking Wei?"

"Yeah~"

"Not asleep yet?"

"I miss my brother."

Caiwei sneaked out of the room, got into Li Yun's arms, covered herself with the blanket on the sofa, and shrank into Li Yunqi.

Like a kitten.

Chapter 3530: love you forever

"What do you mean by missing me... didn't you just sleep?"

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, and squeezed her little face, "Could it be that the little maid snoring?"

The Lord Saint certainly doesn't snore, after all, the snoring of the saint will affect the image too much-ahem, the saint goes to the vegetable market to buy vegetables, lives in a two-bedroom and one living room, or sleeps on the upper bunk, It seems to affect the image...

"Puff... My brother is necrotic, so Sister Qingzhu didn't snorted."

The girl in her arms squeezed, her cheeks leaned against his cheeks, and the exhaled breath hit Li Yun's face directly, itchy.

"Why take so long?"

"cold."

"Go back to bed when it's cold!"

Li Yun patted her, Cai Wei's face flushed, she twisted her body, and whispered a mutter that Li Yun couldn't even hear. Li Yun could only vaguely hear such words.

"What's so small?"

"Huh, it's nothing."

"Inexplicably, do you have something to tell your brother?"

Li Yun waited patiently for Caiwei's words. As the head of the family, of course he must be patient with his sister.

only.....

"No, nothing."

Caiwei's face blushed, but she refused to say any more, which made Li Yun more and more inexplicable.

In fact, the girl in her arms, Li Caiwei, and another girl sleeping in the room, Li Caixia, the two sisters grew up, but Li Yun took care of them more.

Their biological parents passed away very early, and their grandfather was going to collect scraps again. This is one of the reasons why his grandfather went to the orphanage to adopt him and Li Feng.

Adoption is of course not compliant, but a lot of things were pretty random more than ten years ago. As long as someone is willing to adopt, the orphanage will not care about it.

Li Yun still remembers the first day he came to this house, after he followed his grandfather into the door, it was Plucking who opened the door for him and Li Feng.

At that time, she was just a ignorant little girl. Seeing Li Yun who was four years older than her, she was still very scared and fled back to the living room in a panic.

However, after Plucking Wei, she became the one who sticks to him most. She followed Li Yun wherever she went, and she wanted to sleep together at night. This was the case for both the sisters. He didn't move until Li Yun entered junior high school. Go and sleep in a bed with Grandpa.

It was quiet in the middle of the night, and neither brother nor sister spoke.

for a long time.

"Hey, go back to sleep."

"Well, brother."

"what?"

Cai Wei said to him in a very low voice, but in the dark night, it seemed unusually clear, "Caixia and I will follow her brother for the rest of our lives. In the future...the future will be the same as my sister, the same thing as her!"

"The same thing as Li Feng?"

Li Yun was taken aback, then Plucking came up.

I don't know how long it took before the little girl fled back in a panic.

Li Yun subconsciously reached out and touched his lips, and a thought flashed in his mind: Is it true that he really wants to be a child husband? !

hiss!

This setting is really outrageous, and it is necessary to be scolded by readers in the novel and discard the book on the spot.

The setting of Tong Yangfu can only be placed in female-frequency novels.

"Ding Dong."

Li Yun received a message. At first he thought it was from Caiwei, but he opened the button and found that it was Caixia.

She has never slept.

And Caixia also saw Caiwei's visit to the living room to find him, and even she knew what her sister was here for.

Because the message she sent...

"Brother, I love you the most~~~! I love you forever, la la la~!"

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, and returned her an expression of going to bed.

The sisters are still young, let's talk about the future.
