

Godly Choice 361

Chapter 361: Full score, 750

"Let me what?" Fang Xue looked at her in surprise.

"It's just that I deliberately pretended not to go to school with my brother, so I gave you this time."

Li Feng said this in a playful tone, Fang Xue immediately snorted, and reached out to pinch Li Feng's cheek, "Your brother is a badass, Li Feng, you are not a good person either!!"

"Hehe, I know I was wrong, Xiaoxue spare my life."

The two girls are laughing and playing, forming a beautiful scenery in front of the school.

I can see two school-level beauties chasing and playing, this is absolutely not daring to imagine before, and only when Li Yun and Fang Xue become boy and girl friends, the relationship between these two beauties will improve.

In the morning, the head teacher, who was full of spring breeze, walked in with a lot of test papers with a few classmates.

"Examination paper?"

"It's changed so fast."

"The teacher worked overtime on weekends, right"

"Sure, so many things have happened."

"Is Brother Li full score?"

"I think it must be!"

There was a commotion in the crowd, and before the head teacher announced, one of the classmates grabbed the test paper and quickly distributed it.

Among them, Li Yun's test papers were taken care of, and every time they found one, the students rushed to circulate it first.

"Brother Li Chinese, 150!"

"Brother Li Mathematics, it's still 150!"

"What about the rationale?"

"Hiss!" A classmate gasped, "300, full marks!!"

"I'm Cao, Brother Li is Brother Li, one subject is worth four of us!"

Class 14 is a poor class, and many of them failed to get a score of 300 or more. It is definitely not an exaggeration to say that one subject has four subjects.

"What about the final English? Is it a perfect score? Is it a perfect score? It must be!"

Everyone eagerly searched through a pile of English test papers, so that other people's test papers were thrown on the ground, but no one cares now. Anyway, the highest scores of poor students are 70 or 80, which is not worth paying attention to.

Finally, someone found Li Yun's test paper, he immediately raised it, and solemnly announced: "Brother Li's English score is—"

"Say Nima!"

"Yes, what's the selling point now!"

"If you drag on, I'll beat your mother so hard that your mother can't recognize you!"

"Hey, brothers, don't worry." The person holding the test paper wanted to play some tricks, but he didn't pay attention and was snatched away by the test paper.

"Brother Li's English is also a perfect score, a perfect score of 150!!! A perfect score of 150!!!"

"I'm Cao!"

The class was completely boiled, and the people in the surrounding classrooms all poked their heads out of curiosity and looked around. After hearing the news, more and more people rioted. Eventually, the entire teaching building shook and boiled, sinking into a sea of cheers.

"Full score, 750!!!"

"Brother Li is too good!!!"

"Brother Li is awesome!!!"

Listening to the cheers of thousands of people, Fang Xue couldn't help showing a smile of joy and happiness on her face. At the same time, she was also very proud.

The boyfriend's full score first made her more happy than her own test score.

Similarly, Li Feng smiled very happily.

Li Yun is her younger brother, and also the person she has depended on and closest to her in this life. As long as he has a good life, Li Feng will be happy in her heart.

This is the psychology of being a sister, and there is another, it is the attachment to one's lover.

The two women were separated by a few tables, but at this moment they had a sharp heart. Looking at each other, Fang Xue and Li Feng showed the same feelings in their eyes.

For them, for Li Yun, they are willing to compromise and accept each other.

"Quiet."

Chapter 362: Fang Da's school flower is also full marks

Fang Xue's head teacher stepped onto the podium, and said with a spring breeze: "Our school's results on the mock test were quite outstanding. Li Yun got a perfect score of 750. Of course, our class is not bad!"

The students in the fast class were taken aback.

Li Yun got full marks, they are not bad at first, meaning that they also have full marks in the class? !

"Who gets the full score?"

"Dai Yuankai? He is in the top three of his grade!"

"Or Fang Yuanming? Last time he was fourth."

Everyone whispered to each other, but few people guessed that it was Li Feng or Fang Xue, because although these two could get the top ten results, they were unable to succeed and it was difficult to get full marks.

But this time, they guessed wrong.

The head teacher announced the top five rankings while handing out the test papers.

"Fourth place... Dai Yuankai, with a score of 701!"

"Third place, Fang Yuanming, 705 points!"

"Second place!"

The head teacher paused for a moment and looked at Li Feng, his eyes filled with smiles and admiration, and said: "This time the second place has made a lot of progress. Although the ranking is not much different, the score is better than the first. Three are over forty points higher!"

What?

More than forty points? !

The classmates were dumbfounded. Fang Yuanming ranked third with a score of 705. Then the second place—probably Li Feng. She actually got 745 points or more, close to full marks? !

Li Feng's heart was pounding, expecting the head teacher to say it was her.

Soon, Li Feng's dream came true.

"Second place, Li Feng, 748 points!"

"Wow!"

The classmates in the classroom couldn't help but exclaimed, two points short of two points, full score is only two points!

What's more, what kind of medicine did Li Feng take, and in less than a month, he went from about 700 to 748 points. This is incredible!

This kind of exaggerated score line is difficult to achieve in the low segment, let alone the 700 score line, it is almost impossible.

It's totally a fantasy!

The head teacher smiled happily: "Student Li Feng has made great progress this time. He was only deducted two points for his Chinese composition and ranked sixth in Zhonghai City. It is quite an achievement!"

The classmates applauded, Li Feng was a little bit shy, but when she met Fang Xue, she saw the smile on her face faintly triumphantly.

victory?

wrong!

Li Feng quickly woke up and quickly asked, "The head teacher, what is Fang Xue's score?"

Everyone, including the head teacher, laughed. From very early on, Li Feng had been fighting with Fang Xue. Especially since a month ago, the two of them have never been humbly in every aspect. They must have won the other.

"Hee hee~, this time I guess I'm relying very well." Fang Xue looked at the head teacher confidently, who nodded with a smile, "Yes. Li Feng, your progress is great, but Fang Xue is not bad. Even slightly better!"

Li Feng suddenly bulged his cheeks, it seems that Fang Xue is really the first!

"First place, Fang Xue, 750 full marks!"

After the head teacher announced, the classroom became quiet, and they were already frightened.

The school flower, full score of 750, the same score as her boyfriend, the husband and wife both became super masters and tied for the first place!

Fang Xue's face blushed and accepted everyone's congratulations. She believed that Li Yun would be very happy when she heard the news. Moreover, her parents and family members would also be very happy when they knew her full marks!

"The school will hold a commendation meeting for you in a few days, and there will be scholarships for the first 50 grades!"

The head teacher smiled and announced a piece of good news, Fang Xue's full score, which means that he can also get the school bonus.

Chapter 363: Ding, PhD-level archaeological knowledge

Li Yun learned that Fang Xue had a perfect score, and after Li Feng had a high score of 748, he came to the outside of their classroom after class to congratulate them.

Fang Xue looked at Li Yun with a weird expression. According to common sense, it was impossible for her and Li Feng's performance to improve so quickly.

The only possibility is that the pill that Li Yun gave them improved their memory and made their performance improve by leaps and bounds.

"Speaking of which, my spirit has improved recently."

Li Feng also agreed with Fang Xue. Li Yun was about to say something, but the phone rang.

"Qingyu?"

"Well, it's me."

Gong Qingyu sat in the position, holding a paintbrush in his hand, slowly depicting Li Yun's appearance: "Li Yun, I heard that you got full marks on the test?"

"Aren't you the same?" Li Yun smiled.

There were four people with full marks in this mock test, Li Yun, Fang Xue, Gong Qingyu, and Song Yidao.

But everyone knows that although it is a perfect score, Li Yun's score is higher than others!

"Ding, the host defeated everyone in the second mock test (blemish), won the first place, rewarded (Gong Qingyu favorability +3, experience value +300,000, free attribute points +1000, purple gift bag* 1. Additional bonus skills: Archaeological knowledge (doctorate level) has been issued!"

Coincidentally, when Gong Qingyu called, Li Yun happened to receive a reward from the system.

Doctor-level archaeological knowledge?

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. He didn't have much interest in antiques, and he probably didn't have the opportunity to use this skill.

It's a pity that Gong Qingyu's favorability level only reached 99, which was almost 100.

The two didn't talk for a while, when Fang Xue suddenly intervened and asked, "Li Yun, is the person who called you Gong Qingyu?"

Gong Qingyu also heard Fang Xue's words. The two did not meet. They were hundreds of miles apart, but they seemed to be looking at each other in the air, and their eyes collided fiercely.

"You are?"

"Fang Xue, Li Yun's girlfriend, got full marks in this exam."

Fang Xue showed off her strengths without any scruples. Similarly, Gong Qingyu also introduced herself: "My name is Gong Qingyu, and I come from a first-class family in Jianghu. I have cultivated in the early days and like painting. I'm already preparing to publish my first comic, and the score... the full score is very easy for me."

"Really? How many times did you last?"

"748, it should be taller than you."

"...I will never be worse in the future, because I have Li Yun!"

"Then wait and see."

Li Yun was shocked by the conversation between the two women.

Gong Qingyu, a cold and introverted lady, really comes from the Jianghu family, and she is actually a congenital cultivation base, much higher than Li Yun!

"By the way, Li Yun, forgot to tell you one thing."

Gong Qingyu smiled, "Do you remember Fang Hao?"

"Remember some."

Li Yun's tone was flat. Fang Hao had fought him for a while. Of course, he was not Li Yun's opponent at all, so Li Yun didn't take him to heart.

"What's up with him?"

"He was dropped out of Plinton University."

"Um?"

"Because he colluded with your school's math teacher and announced your test papers in advance. After being known to Plinton University, he withdrew his acceptance letter!"

Gong Qingyu's tone contained a hint of happiness. Obviously, she had been annoyed by Fang Hao during this period of time.

Li Yun shrugged, "He is also responsible for this."

Chapter 364: Gong Qingyu's invitation

"Yeah." Gong Qingyu was silent for a while, and whispered: "Li Yun, when will you come to Zhonghai next time, I...somewhat miss you."

Fang Xue looked at Li Yun jealously, and almost reached out and pinched his waist.

"I want to paint with you, hehe~" Gong Qingyu added again.

Li Yun looked at Fang Xue innocently, saying that nothing happened to him and Gong Qingyu, really!

Fang Xue snorted.

"I will probably go to Zhonghai City on Wednesday," Li Yun replied.

"what?"

Gong Qingyu and Fang Xue both looked at Li Yun in amazement. It was not until Li Yun explained that they were going to the company and Fang Xue reluctantly agreed to come down, but they still murmured something like "The company is headquartered in Longyang County Okay' things like that.

Gong Qingyu's heart moved, and she said shyly: "Then do you have a place to live in Zhonghai City? Yes, do you want to come to live with me?"

"Um?"

"Don't, don't get me wrong." Gong Qingyu quickly explained: "I live in a place other than my house. I live alone. Moreover, there are many rooms here, not apartment-style, enough for you to live in!"

"When I think of it, I will ask you about painting techniques." Gong Qingyu added.

Li Yun looked at Fang Xue, there was no doubt that even if he wanted to go, he had to agree with his girlfriend.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Agree to Gong Qingyu's cohabitation invitation, reward experience value of 10,000, and a random gift (limited to Gong Qingyu). If you agree, the host's prospective girlfriend Gong Qingyu will be in a better mood, a genuine woman Friend Fang Xue's mood deteriorated.

Option 2: Reject, reward Fang Xue's mood to improve, and Gong Qingyu's mood is down. "

Li Yun has a black line. Does the system trigger a selection event in this place?

Nyima's choice will make the other party's mood worse. It seems that his merciless behavior will bring countless troubles.

"Humph, go if you want!" Fang Xue pursed her mouth and turned her head, and took Li Feng's arm, saying that she didn't want to talk to Li Yun now.

"This... Gong Qingyu is my friend, she and I..."

Under the scrutiny of the two women, Li Yun first explained the origin of Xia Gong Qingyu, and then said: "Xiaoxue, when I come back, I will visit your uncle and auntie once, right?"

"Really?" Fang Xue turned her anger into joy immediately, and no longer pursued the question of where Li Yun went to live.

And Li Feng...Li Yun held her little hand, the two looked at each other, and Li Feng compromised.

"Huh~!"

Li Yun secretly breathed a sigh of relief. Too many confidantes are not enough, it is tiring.

"Reward experience value of 10,000, a random gift: a comic outline and a brief introduction, Gong Qingyu's mood becomes better, and Fang Xue's mood becomes better. Congratulations to the host, choosing the hidden option!"

Li Yun is speechless, hidden options? This is all messy, but the outline of the comic is pretty good, Gong Qingyu should like it.

Time passed quickly, and it was Wednesday in a blink of an eye.

In fact, the school originally planned to hold the commendation meeting on Wednesday, but after learning that Li Yun was going to ask for leave, the principal insisted that the commendation meeting was held yesterday.

This time the scholarship is very generous. Li Yun and Fang Xue each received a scholarship of 100,000 and took a group photo, saying that they wanted to stay in the school history for the admiration of younger students.

Li Feng ranked second with 748 points and also received a scholarship of 50,000. Although Li Yun has a lot of money now, he can earn 50,000 yuan with his own efforts, which makes Li Feng very happy.

If this were placed two months ago, when Li Yun was still working at a food stall, Li Feng would not even dare to win a scholarship of 50,000 yuan.

There is no doubt that all these changes are due to her brother.

Chapter 365: There must be a place for me in Zhonghai City

Wednesday, eight o'clock in the morning.

"The D1031 train arrives in front of the station. It is the terminal station of this train: Zhonghai City Tianqiao Station. Passengers are requested to get off the train in an orderly manner. Welcome to take another ride..."

With the sound of the train's announcement, the train drove into the extraordinary Dusky Bridge moving station.

Li Yun closed his eyes and opened his eyes, took his luggage, and walked out of the station with the crowd.

Tide crowds, noisy stations, tall buildings towering in the distance, luxury cars driving on the road...

All this highlights the prosperity and excitement of Zhonghai City.

This is a huge city with a population of 40 million. Countless people made their fortunes here, and countless people went bankrupt and had to return to their hometowns.

"The last time I came, I was a poor boy with nothing."

"But when I came this time, I have become a billionaire that everyone envy!"

Standing at the exit of the station, Li Yun looked at a 400-meter-high building in the distance, his eyes faintly revealing an ambition, which was burning.

"In the future, there will also be a building of my own in Zhonghai City, creating an era that belongs to me, and letting people all over the world know my name Li Yun!"

Li Yun is not aimless.

Su Muxin's father, Su Tengyun, has a net worth of 500 billion and a market value of 4 trillion Nantian Technology Group, and has R&D centers all over the world.

There is more than one high-rise building owned by Su Tengyun? The headquarters of Nantian Technology Group, Nantian Building is 360 meters high and employs tens of thousands. Everyone is an elite talent in the science and technology circle, and can even be called a scientist. Nantian Group also has no less than 100 people!

And Li Yun now only has Wu Ke, an excellent industry leader, and he is not engaged in research and development.

"Thousands of tall buildings rise from the ground. Today's job fair is the first step in the development of my Baiyun technology!"

The corner of Li Yun's mouth bends, and he took out his mobile phone and called a person who had agreed to pick him up.

"Qingyu, you are here..."

"On your left, do you see it?"

"what?"

Li Yun looked over in surprise and saw a white BMW car. It seemed that it was not the same as the last time. When he looked over, the window of the car had been rolled down, revealing a man wearing a white costume dress in a waterfall style. A beautiful girl with her black hair rolled up and dressed as a lady.

This beautiful girl smiled brightly at her, and she was so beautiful.

Everyone who came out of the station was dumbfounded.

"What a nice view!"

"Who is this Bai Fumei? So beautiful!"

"Classical beauty, my God, how can it be so beautiful!"

"I'm so sour, who is this man?"

In the envy and jealous eyes of everyone, Li Yun walked over and opened the door of the BMW car to enter the car.

The moment they opened the door, everyone saw the classical beautiful girl sitting in the car. Although she was wearing complicated ancient costumes, they could still see how slender and slender this beautiful girl was, in any aspect of the girl. , Are enough to be called perfect!

After entering the car, Li Yun smelled a light girly body fragrance, as charming as an orchid.

When Gong Qingyu saw his nose move, he knew that this guy must be smelling...

Thinking of this, Gong Qingyu's cheeks flushed, and she quickly lowered her head.

"Qingyu, trouble you."

"Hey, don't say such things!"

Perhaps it's because Gong Qingyu often watches anime, and her tone of voice at this time is the same as that of the girls in the anime, tender and soft, which makes people very enjoyable.

Chapter 366: Take the classic beauties to eat at the roadside stalls

The luxury BMW car drove towards the city center. Outside the window was a lively scene of busy traffic. Inside the car was a quiet and lovely classical beauty. This kind of enjoyment is estimated to be enjoyed by few men in the world.

Li Yun took out his mobile phone and contacted Wu Ke, then turned to ask her, "Qingyu, have you had breakfast?"

"Hmm...not yet."

In fact, they had already eaten it, but Gong Qingyu wanted to eat with Li Yun, so he panicked.

"Sorry, let you pick me up early in the morning, are you hungry?"

"It's okay." Gong Qingyu glared at Li Yun angrily, and his small mouth pouted slightly: "I didn't eat breakfast and you didn't know you would invite me to go with you. It's true."

Li Yun smiled bitterly, "I want to go with Qingyu, too, but my company's job fair starts at 8:30, so...Should Qingyu eat alone this morning? I'll book it for you at the hotel. Seat? It just so happens that Mingyue Building has a place where you can have breakfast."

"Huh? Forget it."

Gong Qingyu's slender palm touched his belly, "I'm not too hungry yet."

Li Yun nodded. Generally speaking, when girls say they are not too hungry, they are really hungry.

As long as they say they don't want to eat, they are really not hungry.

The BMW car went all the way, half an hour later, it came to Gong Qingyu's school, which is in front of Mingyue Building.

The two got out of the car in front of the building and asked the driver to drive the car into the underground garage.

Gong Qingyu thought Li Yun would go upstairs directly, but he did not expect that he took her little hand and led her to the school.

"Li, Li Yun?"

Gong Qingyu's cheeks became more blushing, her hand was gently held by Li Yun's big hand, Gong Qingyu could clearly feel the temperature of his palm, and the unprecedented contact with the boy made this martial arts family born, The girl with a very strict tutor blushed.

"Let's go buy some breakfast, Qingyu, do you know where there is a snack street near the school? Generally speaking, there are snack streets around the school." Li Yun smiled, Gong Qingyu's small hands are white and smooth, as a man who often draws cartoons. The hands are also very slender and slender, and they are very comfortable to hold.

The two maids who had been following Gong Qingyu were dumbfounded. The lady is really going to buy breakfast on the street?

The two maids looked at each other and both looked like they wanted to talk, but the lady seemed very happy now, and they didn't feel the interest to disturb her.

"I, I don't know." Gong Qingyu blushed and lowered his head, without breaking Li Yun's hand, and whispered: "I rarely eat breakfast outside, so I don't know much about the school."

"Not very few, is it not at all?" Li Yun broke Gong Qingyu's little lie, and made the latter pouted: "My family wouldn't let me eat out, saying it was very unhealthy. But I don't think it's anything. I decided to make an exception this morning and eat out with you, Li Yun!"

Li Yun pretended to exaggerate and said: "It turns out that Qingyu, you are still a young lady, would you like to eat at the roadside stall?"

"What are the roadside stalls? I can still eat mobile food stalls!"

Gong Qingyu said unconvinced, so Li Yun really bought a breakfast with her at a street food stall.

"A meat bun, a vegetable bun, and a cup of soy milk, here you are!"

Gong Qingyu didn't come back to his senses until the hot bun really put his finger.

"This, this is the meat bun on the street?!"

"Correct!"

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, Gong Qingyu held the meat buns with the action of treating rare treasures. Fortunately, she was already cultivated, otherwise the meat buns just out of the oven would be very fragrant, but it was really hot.

The skin of Gong Qingyu's small hands was very delicate and could not withstand ravages.

Chapter 367: Fairy skirt with wide sleeves

Li Yun's words are not exaggerated at all. Gong Qingyu looked at the meat buns in the bag over and over, saying what to experience the life of the public, and observing the texture and texture of the meat buns will help draw better cartoons.

Li Yun felt that Gong Qingyu was completely nonsense. Did she never eat meat buns at home?

However, given that Gong Qingyu only said these words proudly, as if she was selling cute, it would not be offensive.

The two maids behind him did not speak during the whole process, for fear that the lady who was experiencing life would anger them.

"Come on, let's go up."

"Um."

The four people entered the building and came to the 30th floor office area where Baiyun Technology is located.

Walking out of the stairs, and not long along the passage in the building, Li Yun heard a loud noise coming from the front. This is a kind of noise made by many people gathering together and everyone talking quietly.

The two of them walked over, and they saw an office area of more than 500 square meters, which was neatly decorated, with desks and chairs, computers, coffee machines, drinking fountains and other office supplies. There were more than two hundred people waiting for interviews.

"so many people!"

Gong Qingyu, who was carrying a bun bag and soy milk, was surprised, "Are these all coming to the job fair?"

"if not?"

Just when Li Yun was about to answer her, a man's voice came in. He glanced at Gong Qingyu up and down, and a faint flash of surprise flashed in his eyes: "Beauty, aren't you here to participate in the signboard?"

As mentioned earlier, Gong Qingyu is a cold, classical beauty, even though she behaves like a normal girl in love when she and Li Yun are together.

But Gong Qingyu is still the independent, arrogant and deserted daughter of a big family in front of outsiders.

Therefore, Gong Qingyu didn't bother to answer this man's question. He only glanced at him with a cold look, then turned his gaze to see the specific process of the interview announced by Wu Ke and several HRs.

—These things she has never experienced before, and may be helpful for drawing comics.

"you!"

Ignored by others, or ignored by a classical beauty, the man suddenly became very angry, yin and yang ridiculed:

"Don't think that you can be arrogant and arrogant if you are a beautiful woman. Who do you show in an ancient costume? I don't know how much the clothes of this sorrow bag cost, will it not be a 100 yuan piece of goods?"

Sincerely speaking, Gong Qingyu's white dress is elegant and gorgeous. The waist is tied with a waist to set off Gong Qingyu's slender and graceful figure. The cuffs, bow tie and waist are also embroidered with beautiful patterns. , The overall dressing style is very elegant and smart, it is impossible to buy 100 yuan!

But Gong Qingyu held the steamed soy milk at the roadside breakfast shop for less than five yuan. This kind of low-level breakfast completely destroyed the ladylike temperament of Gong Qingyu, if it weren't for her to be really beautiful. Everyone thought she was a swollen face and pretended to be fat.

"Uh."

Li Yun realized that something was wrong. Gong Qingyu was wearing a classic undergarment. She shouldn't buy steamed buns at a street stall. Instead, she should sit in an exquisite palace and enjoy the service from the maidservant and breakfast. Well-known chefs carefully prepared various snacks and snacks three minutes in advance.

This is in line with Gong Qingyu's noble, dignified, and cool temperament.

"I'm sorry." Gong Qingyu smiled faintly, "My wide-sleeved fairy dress is for people who like it, not for some yin and yang people!"

Chapter 368: Wear it for those you like

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Choice 1: Maintain your prospective girlfriend, make her happy, reward experience value +50,000, medium-sized Jidan*1 (limited to Gong Qingyu).

Option 2: Do nothing, no reward. "

Li Yun was a little surprised, not because of the system prompts, but because of Gong Qingyu's words.

Is this a confession in disguise if you wear it to someone you like?

After all, Gong Qingyu came here to pick him up this morning, and also put on this fairy dress!

"you!"

The man was even more angry, and gave Li Yun a sour look. The young couple must be a couple. The woman is very beautiful and proactive, which makes people very envious. Why don't they have such a girlfriend!

Many people who applied for the job all around looked over, without exception, when they saw Gong Qingyu, both men and women showed amazing expressions.

Gong Qingyu's beauty is enough to make everyone who is a woman feel amazing.

"Who is this beauty?"

"Looking at a very young age, didn't you come to apply for the job?"

"Haha, never come to apply for the receptionist!"

"I think it's really possible. Think about it. You didn't come to apply for the receptionist. Who would wear an ancient skirt?"

"I'll go, if she is a Taiwanese lady, I would be willing to come to this company if I cut my salary by 30%. This beauty is so beautiful!"

"It's really beautiful, like a beauty who came out of a costume drama. It would be nice if she had her 'micro words'."

A touch of unwillingness flashed in the man's eyes. Why is this beauty someone else's girlfriend? Can't it be hers?

With the mentality of ruining if you don't get it, the man sneered and said mockingly: "Little beauty, this is not a place for you to watch the excitement. Get out now, what nonsense? Do you know what this place is?"

"What is this place, I think I know better than you."

Li Yun stood up and gave him a condescending look: "Are you here to apply? My name is Li Yun, don't you know if you recognize me?"

The people around exclaimed, and Wu Ke who was not far away showed a smile.

But the man thought the exclamation around him was because he couldn't understand Li Yun's behavior of 'breaking in', so he said more arrogantly: "My name is Zhang Wei, I'm applying for the position of deputy general manager of the marketing department at Baiyun Company, and, I don't need to know you as a young person, don't think how much face you have!"

Deputy general manager?

The people around who applied for the job showed expressions of astonishment and looked at Zhang Wei with foolish eyes.

He actually dared to apply for the deputy general manager, but he didn't know who Li Yun was. Isn't this a fool?

The corner of Gong Qingyu's mouth bends, revealing an expression of watching a show, and he opened the bag and took out the meat buns.

"Well, it's actually quite delicious."

Gong Qingyu opened her mouth and took a bite, savoring the taste.

Everyone couldn't help but look at her a few more times. This classical beauty was very beautiful when she ate, and her small cherry mouth was moisturized as crispy. Even if she was holding a meat bun, her appearance was quite elegant.

Zhang Wei was stunned for a moment, and was fascinated by Gong Qingyu's elegant and beautiful eating.

This kind of beauty, if this kind of beauty were his girlfriend... that would be great!

Li Yun smiled: "My face is not great, but it is not small, enough to make your interview unsuccessful, nothing more."

"what?"

Zhang Wei looked at him in surprise, "You said you made me unsuccessful in the interview? Why? Just because you have such a beautiful girlfriend? Pooh!"

Chapter 369: Are you eunuch

Li Yun smiled faintly, "Whether you believe it or not, this is true!"

"Mom, mentally retarded!"

Zhang Wei gave Li Yun a roll of eyes, "Are you two idiots? With a five-yuan bun, don't think that you are the eldest lady, are you worthy?"

"Miss?" Gong Qingyu interrupted, "I live in the rental sector. I heard that a house was sold last year. It was not big, it was only 300 square meters, worth 12 billion. What do you think? Am I the eldest lady?"

Rent|Boundary?

Everyone was taken aback. It was a product left over from the old times in the rented realm of Zhonghai City. It is close to the busiest wharf, the busiest commercial street, and the most famous attraction in Zhonghai City.

Anyone who has been there knows that there are more than 20 bungalows built by the invading foreign aristocrats more than 50 years ago.

As time comes to the new century, the leasing sector has become a beautiful landscape in Zhonghai City, and the more than 20 bungalows there have become one of the most famous attractions in Zhonghai City.

Outsiders don't even know the price of each bungalow. Many people even think it is officially owned, but they didn't expect someone to live there!

Moreover, Gong Qingyu also revealed the price of those bungalows, 12 billion, 300 square meters!

It is equivalent to saying that one square meter is worth 40 million! !

This exaggerated price is many times higher than the so-called "Emperor Community" and "Tiangong Community" on the market!

"I heard that the courtyard houses in Beijing had sold 1.2 billion five years ago. I didn't expect the houses in Zhonghai City to be more expensive!" Someone murmured.

"Siheyuan...I'm Cao!"

"Owning a courtyard house on the second ring road of Beijing, where the land is worth a lot of money, is equivalent to owning a golden mountain!"

Everyone was shocked, but after thinking about it, it seemed to be taken for granted.

Most of the courtyards in the capital were the residences of former wealthy families. The palaces of those princes Baylor had long been nationalized.

However, the houses in Zhonghai rented the territory of i, but once lived in the nobility, symbolizing rights and status, of course, the price is different.

"12 billion houses!!"

Zhang Wei was frightened, and he was stunned for a long time before he came back to his senses. He insisted: "You said you live in a bungalow worth tens of billions? Huh, I also said that I live in the first ring of the capital, which is the Oney Palace. Yeah!"

"Are you a eunuch?" Li Yun asked immediately.

"What?" Zhang Wei didn't react yet.

"The  also lives in the palace."

Li Yun shrugged innocently, "You said you live in the palace, not an eunuch, what is it?"

"Hahaha, yes, the  also lives in the palace!"

Everyone laughed, Zhang Wei, a guy with a bad personality, is also like a majestic emperor, but just the kind of  who makes small reports and is very sinister!

"You, you, you!" Zhang Wei blushed with a thick neck and roared: "I am the emperor!!"

Everyone continued to laugh, this guy is also the emperor? Then they are the Jade Emperor!

"Ahem!"

Wu Ke came over, cleared her throat and let everyone look at him, and said to Zhang Wei: "I don't know if you are the emperor, but here, even the emperor has to listen to our chairman. So, please you left!"

"Wu, President Wu?"

Zhang Wei was stunned, why did Wu Ke come over? And also opened up to maintain Li Yun.

Wait, he meant, Li Yun is the chairman? !

"Which  dare to come to our company to make trouble!?"

Qian Hu brought his little brothers over aggressively. After seeing Li Yun, he immediately opened his eyes and smiled, flatteringly moved: "Hello boss!"

A few HRs behind Wu Ke glanced at each other and shouted to Li Yun in unison: "Chairman, good morning!"

"Good morning, chairman!"

Chapter 370: Just show affection

All employees of Baiyun Technology salute Li Yun respectfully. Zhang Wei's face turned pale and his body was shaky.

He was so blind today that he could not recognize Li Yun, and after seeing Gong Qingyu, an extraordinary young lady, he even wanted to make her his girlfriend!

"Your name is Zhang Wei?" Li Yun glanced at him lightly, "As the chairman, I decided to give an order."

Everyone listened respectfully.

Under the respect of dozens of employees, Zhang Wei was shocked to find that he did not dare to look directly at Li Yun anymore.

This young man who looked only seventeen or eighteen years old showed a kind of power that only the chairman and president can have, and he can't breathe.

"I announced that at Baiyun Technology, you can eat buns and soy milk for breakfast in the morning!"

"what?"

Everyone was directly stupid, but then they looked at Gong Qingyu one after another, and what she was holding in her hands was the meat buns and soy milk!

In other words, this weird order was issued to protect Gong Qingyu!

After understanding, the girls all looked at Gong Qingyu with envious eyes. It is simply the dream of all women to have a 'dominant president' like Li Yun as a boyfriend!

"Whee."

Gong Qingyu covered her mouth and snickered, her eyes full of happiness and touch, moved the person she liked to protect her so much, and even gave such weird orders in public.

"As for you, Zhang Wei." Li Yun said indifferently: "I don't know what your previous job was like, but depending on your personality, all kinds of yin and yang weirdness make me and my girlfriend very angry. Therefore, Baiyun Technology does not need an employee like you, please leave!"

Everyone looked at Zhang Wei with joking eyes. He could not bear Li Yun. It was obvious that Zhang Wei was unable to apply for the position of deputy general manager.

—Is there anyone who is applying for a senior executive who does not investigate the company's background and information before coming?

Zhang Wei's lips trembled with anger, but he couldn't say a word, so he could only leave in a desperate manner.

Li Yun smiled and said to everyone: "The interview continues, I'm just here to take a look."

By the way, show off your affection with your girlfriend?

Everyone can see that Li Yun doesn't care about the results of the interview at all, he cares more about the feelings of his girlfriend!

But it's right to think about it, there is such a daughter who is a girlfriend, who doesn't hold it in her palm to spoil her?

"Ding, the host made a choice, and the reward (experience value + 50,000, medium-sized Jidan*1 (limited to Gong Qingyu)) has been issued!"

For this reward, Li Yun is fairly satisfied.

The small Jidan can make Li Feng, Fang Xue and the others healthy, and even faintly break through to the body tempering state.

And the medium-sized Jidan, it is estimated that it has benefited a lot of warriors in the acquired realm. If it is eaten in the congenital realm, it should have the function of conditioning the body.

Li Yun temporarily put the medium-sized Zhu Jidan in his inventory, and waited to go to Gong Qingyu's house at night, and then gave it to her along with the previous comic plot outline.

The interview officially begins.

Wu Ke and HR (human resources management department for short) divided the interview into three processes.

The first step is the group face, that is, Wu Ke interviews multiple people with a few HRs and gives scores to the interviewees.

The second is the technical aspect. The team leader and manager of the technical department will be interviewed individually and a score will also be given.

The third is an individual interview with HR to analyze a person's personality and values to see if he is suitable for Baiyun Technology.
