

Godly Choice 3631

Chapter 3631: guest

"Let's go in."

Li Yun whispered again, bringing Xiao Mingzhu, followed by the nervous Yamaguchi Ken, and the three of them stepped into the Ise Shrine together.

This shrine is very large, divided into two palaces, an inner palace and an outer palace. After entering the torii gate, there is the outer palace. There is a small pavilion without walls in front of it. It should be used for tourists to wash their hands and worship the gods.

Unlike the imaginary tourist Ruzhi, the empty interior of Ise Shrine, with fallen leaves and snow all over the ground, reveals a three-point desolation and sadness.

It's right to think about it. Now that there are gods in Ise Shrine, it is naturally impossible for ordinary people to come in and worship.

"woo woo woo woo."

Just as Li Yun crossed the torii and officially entered the empty Ise Shrine, there was a sudden cry of suppressed woman in front of him.

The sound is heard, sad and bitter, making people feel sad while listening to tears.

But at this time and place, in the empty Ise Shrine where a mysterious * lives, this cry is a bit strange, making people feel that they are chilling after hearing it.

"Who!?"

Xiao Mingzhu couldn't help but screamed, staring at the front closely, and Shen Nian cautiously moved forward.

She kept in mind the teachings of Li Yun and Fan Qingsheng that although divine consciousness is an invisible and intangible existence, it does not mean that it cannot be detected by others. On the contrary, in the presence of some high-level existences, divine consciousness exuding is equivalent to telling the other party herself. Location.

In addition, although divine consciousness is not a physical body, it is more susceptible to injury. Once a person receives a heavy blow, a person will be hit * the head, dizziness and dizziness are the lightest, and the seven orifices will bleed and the divine soul will be damaged.

Therefore, with divine consciousness, you have to be more careful.

However, it was the first time for Xiao Mingzhu to investigate in actual combat with divine intent, but received feedback smoothly.

Behind a small palace not far in front, under two adjacent trees, a woman seemed to be wiping her tears with a panic gesture, holding something in her hand, and walked out quickly.

When this woman appeared in front of the three of Li Yun, Xiao Mingzhu saw that she was holding a broom used to clean the snow. She quickly glanced at the three of Li Yun and walked a few steps here. But he stopped quickly and said in a low voice and sadly: "Several distinguished adults, I'm sorry to disturb you."

She regarded Li Yun as a priest and maiden from outside, although it was strange that Xiao Mingzhu did not wear a maiden costume.

"You are.....?"

Xiao Mingzhu took the initiative to ask questions in Chinese, with some caution in his eyes. Now, everyone in Ise Shrine is worthy of suspicion and caution.

Li Yun looked at this woman carefully, no, it should be said that she was a witch!

This witch is about thirty years old, wearing a very traditional witch costume, that is, a white coat, and the lower part of her body is wearing a red hakama-something similar to a skirt, but on her feet are not socks called white-footed bags. It is a normal female cloth shoes, which may be related to her cleaning up instead of performing a ritual to serve the gods.

—As for why Li Yun knows so clearly, I can only say that Gong Qingyu nestled in him at night and dragged him to watch so many animation works, not for nothing.

"Guest, you... Huang Xuan countryman?"

The witch asked in surprise. What surprised both Li Yun and Xiao Mingzhu was that she was actually speaking Chinese.

It seems that being a maiden who cleans the fallen leaves and snow in Ise Shrine is not that simple, just like a monk in Shaolin Temple who graduated with a master's degree.

Chapter 3632: Ohwa Miko

Seeing her average Chinese level, Xiao Mingzhu took the initiative to say in Japanese: "Yes, we are from Huang Xuan country... tourists!"

"Visitors!!!"

The witch in her thirties with a broom in her hand seemed to be shocked, her face full of disbelief, and she repeated several times: "Are you really guests? How come there are guests here? You..."

It wasn't until Li Yun and Xiao Mingzhu nodded their heads with certainty that the witch leaned the broom against the wall in a panic, walked quickly in front of Li Yun and Xiao Mingzhu, and performed a very respectful etiquette to the two of them, saying:

"The distinguished guests came from afar, but the lower palace... becomes what it is now." She sadly said: "I am afraid that the distinguished guests will be disappointed. Please wait for the two distinguished guests to visit the main palace."

There is a big difference between the shrine and the shrine.

Li Yun glanced at her flushed cheeks and the faintly visible tears on her face, and asked curiously: "I think you seem to feel sad about what happened to Ise Jingu. Are you a witch? Support the oracle of the Amaterasu God?"

Ancient witches did not necessarily believe in gods, let alone modern ones.

In modern times, there are still people with pious beliefs, and I am afraid that only some countries with strong religious atmosphere can have them.

Of course, it does not rule out that Sakura Kingdom and Huangxuan are also found in the country, but it is very rare. That Ise Jinzakura should be a fanatic, otherwise he will not get the faith of Amaterasu Omikami, and become so arrogant and want to rule this nation.

"I....."

The witch stopped talking, glanced at the shrine, lowered her head silently, and shook: "No, guest, I can't say it! But please believe me, now in the shrine...it's not convenient for you to pick up guests as soon as possible. Let's go!"

"Don't worry, we are here to solve the god...Ah no, it is to uphold friendly exchanges and believe that love can influence everything!"

Li Yun summoned the Leap Fire God Sword and asked Xiao Mingzhu to vomit: "This is your love?"

However, she also summoned the Bingling Sword to enhance her image as tall and tall.

In any case, the witch was taken aback by Li Yun's methods, and finally with Yamaguchi Ken's explanation, she finally believed that Li Yun was here to solve the problem, not... to die.

"You...oh, forget it, please come with me!"

The witch agreed, and after looking around to see no one, she led Li Yun and a few people around to the back of a palace. After seeing that there was no one around, she stopped.

She still looked terrified and said: "Now if the young palace secretary finds out, you will be dead."

Omiya is the person who assists Omiya in the management, and Omiya is the highest priest, usually a male, responsible for the general affairs of the shrine.

As for other tasks related to the worship of the gods, the priest will take care of it. As for the witches, they are only responsible for worshipping the gods, regardless of other things.

However, because the shrine's responsibility is to worship the gods, although the shrine maiden does not manage affairs, she has a very high status and prestige.

"I want to know what happened in Ise Jingu!"

Li Yun went straight in and asked the witch who could only come to sweep the floor, staring into her eyes and asking seriously.

Xiao Mingzhu was startled. This question was a bit strange. Could it be that Li Yun found something?

"This....."

The witch named Ohwa showed a wry smile, "The gods we have served for thousands of years have brought us unimaginable disasters after they suddenly descended..."

Chapter 3633: Phantom

Everyone seemed to have guessed something from the wry smile of the Ouhua Miko.

Sure enough, in her mouth, Li Yun, Xiao Mingzhu and Yamaguchi Ken heard another version of the coming of the gods.

That day, the phantom of Amaterasu Oki suddenly descended, and the dazzling sunlight-like light shone on the entire Ise Shrine. At that time, the shrine was up and down, all rejoicing, thinking that it was Amaterasu Oki who appeared on the overseas islands. After the big event, he was finally willing to drop the oracle to guide them to find the way forward in the Reiki Age.

In the words of the imaginary maiden, "The Omiya, the young priest, the priest, Niyi, the palace music master, and the maidens, all rejoiced, knelt down outside the Imperial Shrine, waiting for the Prince to listen to the Amaterasu. The oracle passed down by the Great God."

But what happened later was described as unthinkable.

At that time, the Owha Miko also knelt among hundreds of clergy, she was only in the outermost area, but she also witnessed everything that happened after the Great God descended from the phantom!

"At that time... I only heard an exclamation of Miko from the Imperial Palace. The voice was loud and panic, full of fright. We were originally bowing our heads respectfully and waiting for the god. After hearing Miko's scream, they all raised their heads."

"But I saw...I saw the emperor's palace, a green gas burst out, covering a group of priests and witches."

When Oka said this, Yamaguchi couldn't help but exclaimed: "Green gas?!"

Xiao Mingzhu glanced at him, and Li Yun was not so yelling, he was too calm!

However, she is also very curious, is this green gas a reward from Amaterasu?

"Could it be that the gods rewarded you for serving her for thousands of years?"

Thinking like this in his mind, Xiao Mingzhu couldn't help but ask.

Let Li Yun take a look at her.

"What am I doing?" Xiao Mingzhu felt a little guilty.

"Nothing, I just think you have a good idea, it's amazing."

"Um?"

"Because this green gas, combined with the tone of the Ohwa Miko, is obviously not a good thing!"

Xiao Mingzhu ignored Li Yun and looked at Xuhua to verify.

"Yes...no no, I don't know, I really don't know!!"

After accepting Li Yun's words, Xuhua quickly vetoed it, and became very excited, her voice was much louder, and her expression was even more panic: "I, I, I... only saw the emperor kneeling at the time. The people outside the gate of the Great Shrine were flushed, and they were holding their necks in pain, as if they were pinched in their throats and couldn't breathe. When I was shocked and unable to react, they all fell to the ground one by one!"

Xiao Mingzhu's eyes widened.

If this is a reward from the gods, it would be too frightening. Could it be a violent reaction to transform the body?

"I, I was terribly scared, yelled, stood up and ran back, but after a few steps, I felt that I could not leave Yuko alone in the Imperial Shrine, so I yelled Yuko inside. My lord, the result, the result..."

"what happened?"

"I, I heard, a hissing voice came from the Imperial Palace, very hoarse, very ear-piercing, like countless snakes crawling, I was really scared to death, just like the others, I was not fascinated. People have escaped!"

Xuhua's words made Li Yun and the three of them haven't recovered for a long time.

This story is indeed very bizarre.

Chapter 3634: Bizarre things

It was so bizarre that Xiao Mingzhu didn't know whether to believe it or not. After all, there were many differences from what happened afterwards and the information that Nobita Yamaguchi gave her.

"Strange." Li Yun looked at the Xuhua witch, "Now that the priests and witches are still alive, does it prove that the green gas is harmless? Also, why are you still here? Later in Yi What happened in Shijingu?"

There was silence for a long time before the Ohwa Miko shook her head and said: "Indeed, the green gas emitted by the Great God did not harm the people in Ise Jingu. I was afraid to leave the temple, but after a while I worried about those who stayed inside. Miko, can't help but turn back again."

"After returning to the Grand Shrine, I found that they are all awake... No, they should have been sitting up, all sitting outside the Grand Shrine, but their expressions are a little strange, like fanaticism, and look sluggish. To the Grand Shrine."

"I stayed in the distance and watched for a long time, before Yuko slowly walked out of the Imperial Palace, and solemnly announced the oracle from the Great God: Command the Emperor to come and worship!"

"After that... it became like this."

The maiden Owha glanced at Yamaguchi Ken, and she also knew what the Yamaguchi family came for.

Li Yun touched his chin, "According to what you said, the green gas is actually a reward given to you by your great royal god. It makes you great. Isn't everything normal? Except for your great royal god, who is a bit ambitious. If you want to rule outside the mortal, everything is normal."

Although it was a bit arrogant to let the Emperor of the Sakura Kingdom come to pay homage, except for his father abroad, only the gods worshipped by Ise Shrine, the ancestor of the Emperor Amaterasu, were qualified to give orders.

Other gods are not qualified, because the Emperor is a descendant of Omikagami, and other gods are not qualified to order him.

"But....."

The maiden Xuhua smiled bitterly, "I don't know other things, and I don't dare to speculate about Omikami's thoughts, whether he wants to rule... But I know one thing!"

"What's up?"

"Those who have inhaled the green gas have... lost their minds!"

"Um?"

Xiao Mingzhu was surprised, but it was not without psychological preparation. After all, the green gas she described earlier gave people a very evil and terrible feeling. It is not surprising that there is another side effect of losing his mind.

"It's... it's completely different from before!"

Owha Miko found an adjective, "I dare not say anything to other people, but the few witches I worked with, I know very well that they don't have much awe of the Omikami, and it is even more impossible for them to give a false impression on the Omikami. The shadow queen became a fanatical belief in the gods, but... after they did not run away, but inhaled the gas, they became different!"

"I recite strange scriptures every day. I don't understand what it is. It is not the words of the Great God or other gods. It is a language I have never heard of!"

And they have become very madmen, scolding those who oppose the Omitama. "

Yamaguchi was a little embarrassed.

Then Ohwa Miko listed some of their changes, including becoming restless, or devoutly fanatical. Anyone who said something bad about Omikami or Sakura Shrine would be attacked by them.

For example, in the first few days after the phantom of the Great God God descended, many tourists came to inquire and worship.

Chapter 3635: weird

But some of these tourists accidentally said, what kind of god, I didn't see it at all, is it true?

When such words were heard, it happened to be heard by a witch who had inhaled the gas. The witch's expression suddenly became savage, and she rushed up and broke the tourist's neck alive!

When she said this, Xiao Mingzhu couldn't help but feel chills in her heart.

After inhaling the green gas "rewarded" by Amaterasu, these maidens and priests became very powerful, and their physical fitness was so abnormal that they could choke an ordinary person's neck abruptly.

"I know this too."

Yamaguchi finally found a chance to interrupt: "The tourist's name was Ono Chizuru. After the incident, because of the horror, the tourists were frightened and fled, and the Metropolitan Police Department quickly came out. The police...but it turned out. Yes, a priest came forward and repelled the people from the Metropolitan Police Department, and then conflict broke out. The people at the shrine drove away the Self-Defense Forces who were originally responsible for protecting the shrine.

And after that, the Mikami personally issued an oracle order, so that Emperor Zhaowa came to Ise Jingu to receive instruction! "

From the description, Xiao Mingzhu could imagine how shocked the Sakura people at that time were.

Ise Jingu was originally only a vassal of the imperial palace. In the past, it was only used for the emperor to worship the gods, because certain things were separated separately.

But as a result, Ise Jingu had become the one who ordered the emperor instead, and the Amaterasu Omikagami they believed in allowed them to accept the rule of the gods.

Faith collapses, enough to make people collapse.

"Any other unusual things?"

After knowing that it was almost the case, Li Yun looked into the shrine, ready to enter it, and explore the reality!

"Yes...the priests from other places came from all over the world after receiving orders from Miko. Originally, when they heard about the oracle from Omikami, more than half of them expressed disbelief, and many expressed doubts.

But these priests and maidens entered the Imperial Shrine, and after they came out, they all became enthusiastic believers in the gods, fully supported the gods, and held the right to rule the country in their hands! "

Yes, it can make hundreds of priests and witches change their minds, and the mystery and horror of those green gases have risen a few steps.

Li Yun said: "Then, let's go in and take a look to see if your priests and maidens are so fanatical! Let's take a look at the * child..."

"Is it really that beautiful?" Xiao Mingzhu glanced at him squintingly, and she didn't have to say it personally, making people feel her jealousy.

After all, whether it is from Nobita Yamaguchi or from the mouth of the Owaha Miko, the Mikako named Ise Kamakura has a very high status and prestige. Even without the phantom blessing of the Omikami, her status is It was also an existence comparable to an emperor-at least before she resigned from the post of Ise Jingu, her status was no less than that of anyone.

After all, the witch of the gods is more than just a simple talk.

It used to be very noble, but now it has the blessing of the * ghost. Ise Kanzakura's status and strength are almost limitless, and according to Oka and Yamaguchi Nobita, the beauty of Ise Kanzakura has been strictly enforced in the past. The selected Mikami is also the most beautiful.

Noble, beautiful, and solemn.

It was the thought that came up in the minds of all the people who had seen Ise Kamakura. Even if she became the spokesperson of Amaterasu's violent reign, it would not compromise her beauty.

Chapter 3636: The greater the responsibility

"What nonsense!"

Li Yun smiled at Xiao Mingzhu who was interrupting him, and the smooth forehead flicked, "How come I meet every beautiful girl, you all seem to be about to... well, I admit that it was me before. That's a little bit affectionate, but I swear, I won't be like that this time! What Ise Jinzakura, no matter how beautiful she is, as long as there is no problem, I will just beat her!"

Xiao Mingzhu muttered, "If you really are a beautiful girl in kimono, would you be willing?", but he just muttered and didn't say it.

She actually believes that Li Yun will not take the initiative to provoke girls, but she is afraid that those girls will post them shamelessly.

To be honest, if there is really a very good girl who does not compete with them, is cute, beautiful, well-behaved, and loves Li Yun very much, it is not the girl he does not marry that is placed in front of Xiao Mingzhu, let her decide whether to allow Li If Yun accepts her as a harem, Xiao Mingzhu is really not sure whether she can be cruel and refuse the girl coldly.

"Uh, actually, it's not like that."

Li Yun and Xiao Mingzhu had some unscrupulous dialogue, which embarrassed the Owaha Miko, "Sakura was a very well-behaved child before, but a great god...it made her unreasonable, I don't know why this happened!"

Xiao Mingzhu pursed her mouth, and could only comfort her: "Don't worry, if that * is really making trouble, we will definitely help you!"

She really felt that Li Yun usually went out to take risks, not all of them were nervous and exciting, and there was a deep sense of responsibility.

To use a movie line is, the greater the ability, the greater the responsibility.

Of course, this is also for those who still have a conscience and a sense of public morality. If they are similar to some rich people who are in the eyes of money, they only want to spend money on their own without giving back to the society at all. Such people basically There is no such thing as a "greater responsibility" idea!

"Thank you for your answer."

Li Yun nodded to the Ouhua Miko, and relieved her: "Don't worry, if the people in the shrine are not voluntarily controlled by their minds, then I will try to save more people."

The people in Ise Jingu are all from the Sakura country, but Li Yun doesn't think that everyone in this country deserves to die. Of course, from the perspective of the two countries, the people in the Sakura country are very hateful people, but it is specific to a certain person. Or from the perspective of looking forward to the future, the people of the two countries should put aside their hatred and develop together.

This is also Huang Xuanguo's national strategy, and Li Yun also agrees.

Therefore, Li Yun will definitely save those who can be saved, and try to save those who cannot.

If each of the priests and maidens in Ise Jingu needs a recovery pill from Li Yun to rescue him, he is probably reluctant to give up the recovery pill. The recovery pill can only be given to the Ise Shenzakura, or the one in the shrine. An important person.

The rest can only fend for themselves.

"Mr. Li, Miss Xiao, you..."

The maiden Xuhua was shocked. After watching the two for a while, she was silent for a while before she sighed in Chinese: "Huang Xuanguo is still an outstanding man after all. The rich history is not comparable to our small country. You have noble qualities, and you are willing to come. Help us, what else do I need to keep this broken body? Please let me guide you into the shrine and lead the way for you!"

Leading the way is undoubtedly to offend Amaterasu Omikami in the shrine, and also to offend Ise Jinzakura.

Chapter 3637: Atonement

But at this moment, the Owha Maiden was not too nervous or afraid, but calmly took over the fate of leading Li Yun and others into the shrine.

Li Yun couldn't help but glanced at her high, and was a little surprised that the people of the cherry blossom country indeed had a certain spirit worthy of admiration.

People cannot be blindly arrogant. Li Yun can despise the entire cherry blossom country, but he cannot deny that their citizens have a certain spirit in it.

He still remembered that CCTV played a TV series called Toward the Republic. The plot was turbulent, involving many countries in the old era.

One of the short stories that impressed Li Yun the most was that a woman from the Sakura Kingdom was kidnapped by the war machine, madly trying to donate her strength to the country, even betraying her body, but the money she got was invested in it. In the donation box, just to buy a battleship.

People in this country are so crazy!

In other words, crazy, showing a bit of bravery, maybe this is the spirit of the katana?

Of course, Li Yun is by no means only praising the Sakura Country. In fact, Huang Xuan's spirit is no worse than that of the Sakura Country. Even from the perspective of fairness and justice, Li Yun can pat his chest and is very proud that he is Huang Xuan. Chinese!

Whether it is the sacrifice of oneself in ancient times or the century-old struggle in modern times, the anti-US assistance to North Korea, two bombs, one star, etc., it all proves that the people of Huang Xuan country have more commendable courage and wisdom, and will not compete with the cherry blossom country. Like these small countries, they become vassals of others!

Acknowledge the advantages of others and recognize your own shortcomings, but do not deny the shining advantages of your own people!

The mediocrity refuses to admit that others have something. Traitors know that they only see the first two, but they don't. They don't want to admit that Huang Xuan's strengths are that they only know that the moon is round abroad.

For example, a certain Fangfang, a certain Zhouzi.

"it is good!"

With a sharp turn in the center of his mind, Li Yun happily agreed to Xuhua's request.

The witch is willing to sacrifice herself for justice, and Li Yun will not refuse her.

Xiao Mingzhu looked over in amazement, and after looking at the relieved expression on the face of Miko Xuhua, he seemed to have thought of something and did not object.

"thank."

The witch Xuhua thanked her again, and whispered: "This is my way of redemption... please come with me."

Atonement, probably referring to the fact that when Amaterasu came, she was so scared to run away, right?

Li Yun glanced at her again, turned his head and said to Yamaguchi Ken: "Now I have a guide. I don't need you to follow, you can go out and wait."

"No, no, Mr. Li!" Jianqiang Yamaguchi endured fear in his heart, "I will definitely follow you into the shrine. This is my promise to the Patriarch!"

"whatever."

Li Yun shrugged, "When you encounter danger, you will hide far away, and I will not save you."

"Don't worry, Mr. Li Yun." x2

Owha Miko and Yamaguchi Ken said at the same time.

Li Yun nodded, and after taking a look at Xiao Mingzhu, he took the initiative to walk out, "Let's go, the matter will be over soon, and I can go back for dinner in the evening."

In winter, the sun sets very quickly. It is only four or five in the afternoon, but the sky is already a little dark. In addition, Ise Jingu is located deep in the mountains, and it is inaccessible without tourists.

"Please follow me, two distinguished guests."

Ohwa Miko walked forward quickly and formally assumed the role of a guide-this was originally her job in Ise Shrine after retiring from the position of worshipping the Miko in recent years.

Chapter 3638: The origin of Kagura dance

Li Yun and others returned to the main entrance of the shrine.

"Excuse me, two distinguished guests." Xuhua Miko asked respectfully: "You two want to enter the shrine directly, or do you want to..."

Li Yun smiled and said: "According to the general rules, um, just treat Mingzhu and me as tourists."

"Yeah, it's rare to visit Ise Jingu once, what if it's not fun?"

Xiao Mingzhu also laughed and said, for some reason, after seeing Li Yun's handling of the matter this time, and personally participating, she seemed to become more and more similar to Li Yun, and she became more free and easy to deal with unexpected events. .

When I was on Penglai Island last time, I don't know if it was because she had a bad relationship with Li Yun and didn't recognize his character, or because Li Yun was worried about the world and brought unknown disasters because of his spiritual energy, so he didn't show Chic character.

In short, Xiao Mingzhu didn't really feel the indifferent state of mind when Li Yun faced things until then!

"OK."

The Owha Maiden looked around, "Then, for two distinguished guests, I will carefully introduce Ise Shrine, the largest and most sacred shrine in our cherry blossom country..."

When she said the last words, the witch's tone was obviously weakened a lot, as if she hadn't been so emboldened.

If you think about it, you can understand that the shrine that was supposed to be the most sacred shrine dedicated to the main god, Amaterasu Omikari, has now become an enemy of this country, and the shrine is full of tourists, and there is not even a single visitor to the shrine.

The only two of them were Huang Xuan countrymen who came to solve their problems in the Sakura country!

This has to be said to be an irony.

"This is for hand washing?"

Li Yun pointed to the pavilion without walls and asked.

"Yes, that is the 'hand water house' in the shrine. Before visiting the gods, you need to keep your hands clean. This is a respect for the gods."

The witch Xuhua slowly walked out of her sorrow, and walked in small steps, leading Li Yun into the shrine slowly step by step.

"There is Nazza's place, and the priests such as the young palace secretary are usually there."

"This is an Ema Hang, a place dedicated to wishing visitors to worship, and there is an Ema (a wooden sign) hanging on it."

"This is the Kagura Hall. It is a place for the witches who worship the gods. On festivals or on the days of worshipping the gods, they go up to perform dances to please the gods. Of course, I am no longer worshipping witches, but just ordinary witches. I used to go up and dance. After... Usually I would dance with a Kagura bell while shaking the bell. It's a nice and beautiful dance."

"Hahaha."

When Xuhua Miko looked at the empty Kagura Hall with a look of nostalgia, Li Yun suddenly laughed, and everyone looked at him in surprise.

If it weren't for his identity, I am afraid that Li Yun had gone crazy.

Because... the maiden Xuhua still missed the sentimental time, but you laughed out loud, didn't you hit others in the face?

"Honorable guest...?"

The maiden Xuhua was a little confused, and the guest played the cards completely inconsistent with common sense, like a madman.

"Sorry, sorry, I just thought of the origin of the Shenzhu Dance, so I laughed out loud!"

Li Yun apologized in a serious and sincere manner.

Xiao Mingzhu was suspicious again. Does this guy have any strange ideas?

"The origin of Kagura dance?"

Ohwa Miko looked at him suspiciously, "Kagura Dance...and its origin? Isn't this the dance that the predecessors of Miko thought of to please the gods? What is its origin?"

Chapter 3639: myth

"You do not know?"

Li Yun looked at the witch Xuhua, and after getting an affirmative answer, he nodded clearly.

It seems that the mythology of Sakura Country is also very missing. Even Oka, who is a maiden, does not know the origin of Kagura Dance.

"Ahem, let me talk about the origin of the so-called Kagura dance!"

Li Yun glanced at the sky meaningfully, and began to explain to the three of them: "The so-called Kagura dance actually originated from a story, and it is exactly a story about Amaterasu Omikami!"

"Oh?"

Owha Miko is surprised. She has been in the shrine for almost 30 years. She thinks she has read a lot of books about myths and stories, but no one has ever recorded the origin of Kagura dance...

However, there are very few books about gods, and many of them are fabricated by predecessors, which is not enough to believe.

But Mr. Li Yun's conclusive appearance is not like a story, it is more like a real occurrence!

"In other words, the Amaterasu God of Sakura Country actually has two younger brothers or one younger brother and one younger sister, do you know that?"

"Yes, Susanoo and Tsukiyoshimizu!"

Xuhua quickly replied that this is also recognized, and there are also shrines for the brothers and sisters of these two gods in Ise Jingu, where they can be worshipped.

Li Yun said: "You may not know that this Susano man is actually not a good product."

The witch Xuhua almost tried her best with Li Yun, but in the end she gritted her teeth and endured it.

Even Yamaguchi feels a bit outrageous, shouldn't Mr. Li Yun be slandering their cherry blossom country?

Xiao Mingzhu raised her eyebrows, "Why is this not a good method?"

"This Susano is brave and brave, but his personality is also a mess!"

Li Yun explained: "He was acting erratically in Gao Tianyuan, and Tian took care of his younger brother and excused him. As a result, Susano jumped on the roof and caused a weaving goddess to die from fright. The gods blamed him, and Tian Zhao felt ashamed. Yu Jianren, he hid in Tianyan—this is a cave formed by a god. Amaterasu hid in it and covered the entrance of the cave with a boulder. Then, things suddenly broke!

Do you know why it broke? "

"Why?"

Xiao Mingzhu asked very cooperatively.

The Owha Miko was shocked, because she had heard that the place Amoiwato was recorded in some ancient books, but she and the other maidens never knew what Amoiwado was for. They only knew Amaterasu Omikami. There are other gods who attach great importance to this place, and have discussed something here.

But what exactly it is, there is no record in the ancient books!

"Think about it." Li Yun smiled and said, "What kind of * is Amaterasu?"

"Goddess of the Sun!" Xiao Mingzhu replied, and then clapped her hands, and suddenly realized: "I understand, Amaterasu is the sun god. She hid in the cave of Tianyanto. The outside world is naturally dark, and the other gods will definitely do. If you panic, the earth will fall into darkness... Just like our myth, Li Yun, you told me that Houyi shoots the sun, it's almost the same, right?"

Xiao Mingzhu felt that the myths and legends of the ancients were very simple. How could the nine suns exist in the sky? There are nine suns in the solar system. Is the gravitational incompleteness messed up?

It doesn't make sense to call the Golden Crow the sun. How big is the sun? How big is the Golden Crow?

In short, to Xiao Mingzhu, the myths are all strange, but it does not prevent her from understanding the essence of the myth: Amaterasu hides, then in the myth of the cherry blossom kingdom, the earth will definitely fall into darkness.

Chapter 3640: Amiyato

"Guess it."

Li Yun smiled and said, "Amaterasu hid in the cave and sealed the cave entrance with a huge stone. Gao Tianyuan and Weiyuan Kingdom were all plunged into darkness. Weiyuan Kingdom is actually called Weiyuan Zhongguo, in the myths and legends here. , The place where Susanoo ruled. And Takatenhara is the place where Amaterasu Omikagami and other gods live."

Gao Tianyuan...

The maiden of Ohana knew this term, but she couldn't help but said, "If Amiyato is really that place, then... how did Omikami come out?"

It turns out that what she had seen before was that the gods gathered in Teniwato to get the Omikami to come out of the cave?

From this point of view, this is indeed a big deal!

"The Sun Goddess hid in the cave!!!"

Xiao Mingzhu glanced at Li Yun strangely. Why did his voice suddenly become louder... Ah, wait, isn't this guy...?

Taking a look at the inside of Ise Shrine, Xiao Mingzhu understood!

No wonder Li Yun laughed before, it turned out to be for this purpose!

Li Yun continued: "The world is so dark that the gods are very worried and don't know what to do.

Fortunately, at this time, a very unknown, but aunt of your Amaterasu, the goddess of the eight meanings and gods, also called the goddess of Sijin, came up with a way. "

Xuhua grew up her mouth completely dumbly, and this eight meanings and gods? She is actually higher than Amaterasu's seniority? !

They don't even know the gods of Da Yushen's parents, but this Huang Xuanguo's Li Yun knows the aunts of Da Yushen!

Who is he?

"any solution?"

Xiao Mingzhu asked again in cooperation. She now understands Li Yun's intentions, so she is particularly excited.

What could be more exciting and exciting than angering a god?

"Skin God is actually a * who symbolizes wisdom. She summoned many roosters and screamed in front of Ten Iwato, which surprised the sun goddess in the cave.

Then, the God of Sijin asked him to smelt iron and make a spear. Then order 'Ish Lidu's life' to make a mirror, and order 'Jade Zu Ming' to make a gouyu string. "

Xuhua suddenly opened her eyes.

Yamaguchi was also surprised.

Because.

"This mirror and Gouyu are two of the three national treasures of your cherry blossom country, the eight-foot Qiong Gouyu and Yata Mirror."

What Li Yun said, almost shocked Xuhua to lose her mind.

Including her, the people of the Sakura country only know that they have handed down three artifacts from ancient times, the Kusana Sword, the Eight-Shaku Qiong Gouyu, and the Yata Mirror.

But I never knew how these three things came from.

They didn't finally know the origin of these three artifacts until they were told from Li Yun's mouth, how could they not be shocked! ?

Moreover, two of these three artifacts were actually related to the Tian Iwato incident, and they were all made under the orders of the eight meanings and gods.

The importance of this * of Sijin is self-evident, but there is no shrine in Sakura in which she is dedicated to her!

At this moment, Xuhua even felt like the sky was spinning.

"It's not over yet."

Li Yun smiled and said: "This Sijin * hung two magical pieces outside Tianyan. After everything was prepared, he ordered a * named 'Tiandian Woman's Life' to hold a bamboo leaf and step on an inverted stand. Dancing on the empty barrel of Tiantian. The Tiantian woman danced so hard that her clothes slipped and her shoulders were exposed, but she still obeyed Sijin's orders, jumping, jumping, singing, and embarrassed. It's so funny that the gods of Gao Tianyuan burst into laughter!"
