

Godly Choice 3751

Chapter 3751: Show your strength (part 1)

"it is good!"

Ise Kamakura immediately agreed with Li Yun's words, ready to do it.

"and many more."

When a group of people on the opposite side paled with fright, Li Yun stopped the little witch and said seriously: "As a * child, a true * witch, Sakura, you can't listen to anyone blindly. You must think twice, know. ?"

Xiao Mingzhu's face was weird. On the contrary, he was the one who persuaded the little witch, which was really weird.

The group of people in the house had the same idea.

"I believe you!"

Ise Jinzakura said firmly.

"I believe we must think independently."

"I believe Li Yun, are you not enough?"

"What if I am wrong?"

"Then I would be wrong too."

"..."

Li Yun was helpless, facing the stupid Mikami, he could only use Amaterasu to scare her:

"Independent thinking is what every Mikami should do, otherwise if you do something wrong, the Mikami will be blamed. You listen to what others say."

".....Ok."

Ise Kaminakura actually didn't quite understand the logic in Li Yun's words, but she still thought about it hard and said, "I still believe in you!"

She added: "Li Yun, what you said is quite right. This is the shrine of the Great God God, but these people don't respect this place at all. When I just came, I heard someone clamoring, which shows that they respect the Great God God. There is no heart."

This time, Jae's face changed drastically.

The arrogant and arrogant congressman before, was even more so scared that his legs trembled and looked at the prime minister asking for help, as if saying: save me!

"So, these people are very annoying. I want to establish the majesty of the Omikami, and no one should look down on it!"

Ise Kamakura looked at these people, her stupid expression gradually faded, and she changed back to the solemn, powerful Mikami.

The witch of the gods is already online.

"Ise Jinzakura!!"

An old man stood up, leaning on a cane, with a pinch of hair that is unique to the country of Sakura under his nose, and shouted sharply: "Don't forget, I recommended you to be a Mikami in the first place! Without me, how can there be any? You now?"

Xiao Mingzhu looked at the little witch with some worry. If what the old man said was true, then he was like a mentor to Ise Shinzakura, and he could not be easily treated to him, otherwise it would be easy to bear infamy.

"Are you... Oshima Kei?" Ise Kanzaku tilted her head and looked at him for a long time, finally recognizing the old man.

"presumptuous!"

Another person stood up and yelled coldly: "Ise Jinzakura, you really have no respect for the elders at all, so you dare to call Mr. Oshima by the name!"

Xiao Mingzhu felt relieved inexplicably.

Sure enough, Ise Jinzakura, who is a Mikami, immediately sank her face, stepped forward and stared at him: "I am Mikami, a maiden of the Mikami, and no one except Mikami can let me shout with a respectful name. They, Oshima Kei, if I remember correctly, it was my parents who brought me to the shrine, and you only supported this, but in these years, you have never come to the shrine to worship!"

"What do you mean?" The old man's expression changed a little.

"Don't understand what I mean?"

Ise Kaminakura said coldly: "You are not a believer of Omikami at all. Why should I respect you? What qualifications do you stand in front of me? Now I am very dissatisfied with your performance. The shrine does not welcome you!"

"you!"

The old man was so angry that he almost smashed the ground with a cane!

"Humph!"

Ise Jinying raised her hand, and a beam of light gathered in her hand. Her expression became more and more sacred and majestic, like a god, standing high, judging the sins of these mortals:

Chapter 3752: Show strength (below)

"You all disrespect the Great God. It's really disrespectful to come to the temple gate early in the morning to speak wildly. You are limited to leave the temple within three minutes, otherwise!!! Humph!!!"

A golden sword appeared in her hand, and a white mirror appeared around her body, circling her.

And on the neck of Ise Jinzakura, there was still an emerald green jade hanging over her body.

Two defensive treasures, an amazing sword with amazing lethality, set off the boundless power of Mikami. Before she drew the sword, she made the Prime Minister and the group retreat ten steps in fright, all huddled in the corner of the house.

Four or five bodyguards guarded the prime minister loyally, but their legs were trembling with fear, and they had no illusions about whether they could resist the sword of this sword.

There is no doubt that as long as Ise Jinzakura swings his sword, they will be divided into two halves!

"Little, Sakura, don't mess around."

There were also acquaintances of Ise Jinzakura in the group. They hurriedly stood up to adjust, cold sweat dripping from their foreheads.

"I won't mess around!"

Ise Jinzakura emphatically said while holding the excalibur.

This sentence made the opposite person breathe a sigh of relief, and even the prime minister wiped the sweat from his forehead.

"but!"

One but, let their hearts touch their throats again.

"If someone is disrespectful to the Omikami and speaks loudly in the shrine, I will definitely not spare him!"

Ise Jinzakura pulled out the cloud sword in the sky, and the golden brilliance that bloomed out made the amazing aura of the divine sword that had not really been pulled out of the sheath, covering the entire Ise Jingu, and all the priests and maidens looked in shock. Here.

This Kusanagi sword is more terrifying than imagined!

"Forget it, there is nowhere to show you my strength."

Ise Jinzakura retracted the divine sword into its sheath again, and the four or five people on the opposite side could not bear the momentum. They threw their legs and knelt on the ground.

No one laughed at them.

Because these people have the same feelings, they can stick to it, relying on one breath to hold on.

"Huh~"

Ise Kamakura didn't know what to say, and waved his hand and said, "You all go, don't come anymore!"

Xiao Mingzhu glanced at Li Yun, and took the initiative to stand up and say, "Wait, let me say something."

"This is Ise Jingu."

After everyone looked at her, Xiao Mingzhu calmly said: "I believe you have also seen the power of Mikamiko. Therefore, no matter what you think, is it in awe or want to use her, you will remember it to me. Live, the gods have the final say!"

"Including." Xiao Mingzhu glanced at the crowd, "The law of the cherry blossom country in your hands, in Ise Shrine, you must also give in! The reason I believe you can understand that this is the Amaterasu Omikami who believes in Ise Jinzakura Since ancient times, this shrine has been the land of gods. Any mortal law has lost its effectiveness since Ise Shenzakura got its true inheritance!"

"You have only one choice. Recognize that this place belongs to Ise God Sakura and Goddess Amaterasu. Let go of your identity and power, and treat Ise God who is now standing in front of you with the attitude of the administrator of the secular country facing the messenger of the gods. cherry!"

Xiao Mingzhu's words have already been made clearly.

If this group of arrogant and arrogant people still don't understand, then Ise Jinzakura deserves to drive them out.

Ise Kamizakura looked at her and added: "Mingzhu is right, I will do what she said!"

Chapter 3753: Break up

Li Yun laughed in his heart. He was sure that the little witch must have not understood what Xiao Mingzhu was talking about just now, and probably understood things related to the Great Imperial God.

That is: this is the shrine of the Omikami, no one or anything can be presumptuous here!

Including the laws of Sakura Country.

"Don't choose yet?" Li Yun smiled, "Do you have to see your Mikoto completely become your enemy? Tsk tsk, against a divine envoy holding three, no, four artifacts, I I admire your courage and boldness!"

Without joking, Ise Jinsakura's power is now enough to defeat an ordinary Void Rebirth Realm in a few strokes. With the help of Omikami's power, she may still have the ability to fight with the Soul Bright Realm or more than a dozen Void Rebirth Realms. One.

The premise is that Amaterasu has enough power to lend her.

Regarding the power of the gods, Li Yun has never doubted since seeing the weirdness of Qing Girl's charm technique.

As long as the goddess Amaterasu has enough power, Ise Shenzakura can even kill the soul and light realm with one move, and with a magic trick, it will sink the island country of Sakura.

Divine Envoy is such a perverted profession, totally unreasonable.

Of course, the premise is still that the Amaterasu goddess really still has such a powerful power.

"We..." The prime minister completely lost his former composure and hesitated.

"Get out of the arrogant people first."

Li Yun said lightly.

"Correct!"

Ise Kamizakura immediately agreed, "All those who disrespect Omikami will leave immediately! And you, Oshima Kei, I don't like you either, you also leave immediately!"

This time, Oshima Qing didn't dare to talk more nonsense, and left his head silently.

Before leaving, he gave Ise Kamizakura a cold look.

"Oh right." Li Yun looked at him, then glanced at Xiao Mingzhu.

Xiao Mingzhu immediately understood, and stretched out his hand to Oshima Kei. "Sakura, this person is disrespectful to you, and he will probably be disrespectful to the shrine, and will cause trouble behind his back. You have ordered that other people are forbidden to have any contact with him until he Sincerely regretting it, I will come to Ise Jingu and kneel down to worship Omikami."

"Sure enough!" Ise Jinzakura immediately agreed again, staring at Kei Oshima and said: "I feel a strong malice in you, I order, prohibit...prohibit? In short, prohibit anyone with you Kei Oshima Come and go!"

She didn't even know whether her order was useful or not. In short, according to Xiao Mingzhu's words, it must be correct.

Oshima Kyushu's face is very wonderful.

It's not going to go, it's not going to stay.

"What about other people's decisions?"

Li Yun looked at the people in the house and waited for their decision.

The face of the arrogant and arrogant person before was even more ugly.

"Mr. Li, don't rush to kill!" The Prime Minister said coldly, "After all, you are just a shrine, but we have 100 million people. As the prime minister, it is impossible for me..."

"Then there is nothing to talk about?"

Li Yun interrupted him, "Sakura, let them go away right away, these people are not here to talk about things, but want to use you, want to use Ise Jingu!"

"Well, I believe you, these people have bad intentions!"

Ise Kamakura saw that they were uncomfortable a long time ago, and immediately ordered them to be expelled.

After hearing this order, Omiya remembered to rush to try to recover.

"Omiyaji!!"

Ise Jinzakura raised her voice and said loudly, "Are you going to the people outside, or continue to believe in Omikami? These people are clamoring in the shrine, and we don't welcome them!"

Chapter 3754: Meeting

"This....."

Mikami's words are still naive, but now who dares to despise her again?

Immediately, Omiya stepped back and let these people leave.

There is no doubt that Ise Jinying, Xiao Mingzhu, Li Yun, these three people have endured countless murderous glances from the group of people who left, as if the next second after they left, they would use powerful missiles to blast this place. For the ruins.

To be honest, Li Yun is looking forward to such a scene.

"Li Yun!"

When those people left, Xiao Mingzhu couldn't wait to say to him, "Aren't we too reckless? Didn't you take the initiative to repair the relationship between Ise Jingu and the outside world? Now their prime ministers are here, but you take the initiative. Offend them."

Omiyaji and others also looked at Li Yun with uneasy eyes.

As for Ise Jinzakura, she has no sense of security, she just wants to guard Ise Jingu, whoever comes to hit anyone, whoever hits here, she will go to hit anyone.

"At this time, at another time."

Li Yun shook his head and wanted to say something, but looked around and saw that many people in Ise Jingu looked at it with concerned and worried eyes, and then changed his mind.

"Sakura, let's have a meeting, just say... Ise Jingu is the time to live and die."

"what?"

Ise Jinzakura was at a loss, "Who is hitting us again? I'll hit them right away!"

"...Do it."

"Oh."

...

Hundreds of people from Ise Shrine gathered in front of the Imperial Shrine, waiting for Mikami to speak, but most of them looked at Li Yun with a pair of eyes.

Because they knew that now Mikami had completely trusted this man, and his words were the most important.

"I believe you also know. The Prime Minister came here just now and was driven away by Mikami and I. Before leaving, he gave us a grudge look, probably because he wanted to avenge me or Ise Jingu. ."

Li Yun's words caused more people to fall into silence.

Had it not been for Ise Jinzakura sitting next to him, it is estimated that at least ten people would have stood up immediately, pointing to his nose and yelling.

This is ridiculous!

Obviously, Ise Jingu had just gained the limelight last night and won the favor of Omikami. Countless people around the world are paying attention to this matter. In Sakura, there are millions more people who want to visit the shrine.

As a result, in the morning, Li Yun drove away a country's prime minister!

There was no talk at all between the two parties, and the people even waited for a few hours, waiting for Mikami to finish their prayers, only to be driven away.

In any case, from where to look, it's Li Yun's fault, right?

"I know, you are blaming me."

Li Yun said lightly: "I feel that I am unreasonable, but in fact, it is not me who is unreasonable, but your godson, the great  of your faith."

"what?!"

Everyone is confused again, why?

Ise Jinzakura blinked and asked why?

Only Xiao Mingzhu was thoughtful and thought of something, but he was not sure whether Li Yun also thought that way.

Li Yun asked a question: "If those people just said, let Sakura hand over three artifacts, would you not hand over?"

"Of course not!" Ise Jinzakura replied without hesitation, "This is Omikami's thing, not theirs!"

"The prime minister made it clear that he would not retrieve two artifacts!"

Omiya couldn't help but interrupt Li Yun's words.

"That's what you think?" Li Yun smiled slightly.

"certainly!"

"Okay, if you take a step back, does he want to rent three artifacts?"

Chapter 3755: Theocracy and kingship

"This...maybe agree, of course, it depends on what Mikamiko meant."

Omiyaji answered vaguely, and his thoughts are probably those of the majority of people present.

Li Yun said again: "Then if they don't borrow it, just let Sakura hold the artifact and go out and help?"

Omiya couldn't answer, so he could only look at Mikako.

Ise Jinzakura thought for a while, shook his head, and said simply, "I don't know."

She seldom goes out and always lives in Ise Jingu. If someone asks her to help, Ise Jinzakura really doesn't know what to do.

Because once she left, she would stop praying in the morning, afternoon and evening.

"I will ask again."

Li Yun continued: "If there is a huge disaster in the outside world, or a problem that can only be solved by a  child with a magical tool, the prime minister can't wait to force an order and give you two choices, one, lend them the magical tool, and two, let the royal How would you choose the son of God?"

"This..." Omiya was even more vague, "Well, it depends on the situation."

"If you borrowed the artifact and the prime minister turned his head to attack you, how would you choose?"

"This is definitely not promised!"

Not only Omiyaji, everyone was shocked and resolutely refused to lend three artifacts.

"Okay, then don't borrow it." Li Yun said again: "If the prime minister asks Mikako to take action, but you happen to be holding the festival, Ise Jinsakura, as Mikako, must personally abbot the festival. Do you agree or not?"

Ise Jinsakura covered his head, how could there be so many choices?

A group of priests and witches were silent.

Li Yun said again: "To be more extreme, if the Great Imperial God orders you to ban the loan of three artifacts and prohibit helping outside unbelievers, but the external situation has been so corrupt that 10,000 people die every day, and countless monsters are eating people. Only Ise Jingu can deal with the monsters. Do you follow the orders of the Omikami or the orders of the outside prime minister?"

Omiyaji, and everyone else looked at Ise Jinsakura.

"Of course I listen to Omikami!"

As Mikamiko, Ise Jinsakura answered loudly as a matter of course.

"now it's right."

Li Yun spread his hands, "So, this is the reason Ise Jingu must be tough."

No one said anything against it.

Xiao Mingzhu looked at Li Yun with admiration. Yesterday afternoon, Li Yun still wanted to maintain the relationship between the shrine and the outside world and help Ise Jinying's situation become better.

But today, he immediately changed his mind and took the initiative to let Ise Jingu provoke the anger of the outside world.

The key is that this change made Xiao Mingzhu convinced.

What Li Yun said just now is actually two words: divine power!

"Theocracy?"

After listening to Xiao Mingzhu's reminder, the confused Ise Kamakura still didn't understand.

The priests and witches in the audience looked at each other, they already understood.

Xiao Mingzhu smiled and said: "The meaning is very simple. Ise Shrine has become different. You have a decisive power, but the gods you believe in will issue orders that are contrary to the outside world. This is the oracle, and it is also Theocracy."

"Omikaze wants you to listen to her, but you are limited to living in this country and are governed by the law. Therefore, if you believe in Omikami and follow her oracle, you will definitely encounter when the oracle violates the law. ."

"This is actually the Middle Ages, the struggle between theocracy and kingship!"

Chapter 3756: Decide

After Xiao Mingzhu pointed out the reason why Li Yun suddenly became strong, the people at the scene continued to be silent.

They couldn't think of it. Not long ago, it was a shrine that had nothing to do with the world, but a shrine that offered sacrifices to Omikami with peace of mind. Suddenly, it would become...theocratic?

Li Yun looked at the dazed Ise Jinzakura, and added: "I originally wanted to discuss with the prime minister of your country how Ise Jingu will gain a foothold on this island nation in the future, but seeing that the prime minister is not strong Ken bowed his head, and the people around him all looked high.

And you. "

Li Yun pointed her out in particular.

"Me? What's wrong with me?" The little witch was still confused.

"You are also the one who refuses to bow your head!"

Li Yun couldn't stand it anymore, stretched out his hand to poke her forehead, and said helplessly: "You want to control the temple completely, and you want to execute the oracle, but let me be more polite, the great imperial * you believe in, even She is a good * who understands righteousness and knows how to care for mortals, but she is always a * and possesses great power. From this perspective, her existence itself is incompatible with the country as a violent institution. One side voluntarily retreats, or really asks the other side, otherwise there will be problems!"

The state is an organ of violence. This sentence was not said by Li Yun, but in the political class of middle school.

"so it is."

Xiao Mingzhu pondered for a long time, but could not figure out a solution.

She very much agrees with Li Yun's statement, but can't think of how to solve it, because historically, theocratic power and the king's power have fought against each other for two thousand years. It was not until the Western Renaissance and the rise of science that people knew that God did not exist, and theocratic power gradually weakened.

But after a series of inexplicable things happened last year, aura, ancient ruins, monsters, and gods, etc., all slowly surfaced.

The battle between theocracy and kingship in the Middle Ages is likely to happen again.

And this time, it is necessary to add the weapons possessed by human beings and the powerful power possessed by the gods.

The strength of the two sides far exceeds that of a thousand years ago. Once they really fight each other, it is probably the lightest to die tens of millions of people. If one is not dealt with, most of the human beings will die directly, and the rest can only survive under the protection of the gods.

After all, if they really fight, Xiao Mingzhu believes that the gods who restore their true strength will still be stronger than the most powerful nuclear bullets of mankind. The individual powers of the gods are too mysterious and powerful.

"So, so, what am I doing now?"

Ise Kaminakura asked weakly, "Li Yun, do you mean that the shrine will definitely fight with people outside in the future? They don't respect Omikagami, right?"

"It's not disrespect, but you might offend their interests."

"Benefits? But, this land is obviously owned by the Great God!"

The words of Ise Jinzakura caused a commotion among the priests in the audience.

They agreed with Mikamiko's statement.

Amaterasu took charge of this land and dispatched Shenwu Tian. The Emperor's Lower Realm to take charge of it. The emperor is still there today, but he was taken away by those people and became a mascot. He can't even come to worship today. Great God.

—After the events of last night, the emperor did not come to the shrine to worship. He was obviously restricted to the palace and not allowed to come out.

"That's how it is said, but after so many years... Well, this matter is difficult and difficult to say, but it is easy to say and easy to handle."

Chapter 3757: One hundred kilometers

Li Yun smiled and touched the head of Ise Jinsakura, "After all, I still rely on strength to speak, Sakura, I will wait for you to make a statement, if you are sure to execute the oracle of Omikami in the future, and you want to completely control the shrine! "

"Of course! Then I will post it."

Ise Jinying understood Li Yun's meaning this time. He was afraid that he would conflict with those outside and let her make the decision.

But in the future, she will definitely execute the oracle of the Great God, and it will definitely cause contradictions to outsiders. If this is the case, just point it out now!

"What am I going to post?"

Ise Jinzakura sat up straight, with a serious expression on her small face, "Am I going to say, Omijin returns, in the future you must listen to Omijin, otherwise, try to defeat me?"

The crowd was dumbfounded, and their faces were strange.

If you use innocent words to say domineering things, Ise Kanzakura is the only one in the world?

But Xiao Mingzhu felt reasonable inexplicably, it was just too normal!

Yachi Orochi tried to do something like this before, but Ise Kamakura faintly felt that something was wrong, so she resisted.

But this time she met the real Amaterasu, and received a real oracle.

If Amaterasu let her rule this land, Ise Jinzakura would probably do it without hesitation.

"Too exaggerated, too domineering."

Li Yun smiled helplessly, pondered for a moment, and said: "However, as a god, dignity is still necessary. If this is the case, you will have to make a statement. From now on, Ise Jingu and the surrounding 100 kilometers The land will be the land of the gods."

Everyone was silent, only Ise Jinzakura clapped her hands and exclaimed with joy: "Okay~!"

Of course she is happy.

Because of this, the status of the shrine has become extremely sacred, and the surrounding land of 100 kilometers can also be used as a residence for believers. She has long expected that many people will come to worship in the future.

"Is this okay?" Xiao Mingzhu hesitated and asked.

This question is also a question that emerged in the hearts of Omiyaji, the priests and maidens of hundreds of shrines.

One hundred kilometers, it's not much, it's not too small, it's a bit larger than the land occupied by a small town. If all these lands can be included under the jurisdiction of the shrine, it's like saying...Ise God The palace becomes the country within the country of cherry blossoms!

Just like the Vatican, it is also the status of China.

But the council is willing to give it?

Even if it's not much in a radius of 100 kilometers, what if Ise Jingu is greedy? After gaining a foothold in the future, do you want more?

Is it to expand the sphere of influence step by step, and finally annex the cherry blossom country, turning it into a theocratic country?

Wait, there are many issues that need to be considered.

"Nothing is good."

Li Yun smiled slightly, "Divine power has already emerged. Rather than challenge the limits and tolerance of the outside world step by step, it is better to just show your own requirements and clarify your needs. Let me be your kind words."

Li Yun looked around for a week, "In Ise Jingu, except for Ise Jinzakura who is a Mikami who is able to stand on his heels, you are just making up the numbers!"

A group of people are extremely embarrassed.

"The struggle between theocracy and the parliament will surely produce a lot of messy upsets in the future." Li Yun looked at Ise Kamakura, "Do you think you will have time to deal with it?"

Ise Jinzakura shook her head quickly, expressing her denial.

Chapter 3758: collision

She wanted to pray in the morning and noon, read books and study at other times, and then sit in the shade of the tree in front of the Grand Shrine and have a cup of afternoon tea.

As for other things, as long as there is no oracle coming down, she doesn't want to worry about it!

"now it's right."

Li Yun said: "So it's better to do it in one step. While Xiao Mingzhu and I are here, we will help you. No, we will work with you to fix the outside world. Those who should show their strength, show their strength, should kill some people, kill some people. , In short, show the power of the gods and force the prime minister to convene a meeting and pass a resolution to recognize the transcendent status of Ise Jingu!"

Omiya Secretary looked at Li Yun in surprise: "Mr. Li, what do you mean...we are all leaving?"

He heard Li Yun's implication.

"Correct."

Li Yun waved his hand, "Except for us and Mikami who stayed, you all left Ise Jingu and will come back when the matter is over."

Omiya was silent for a while before kneeling and bowing to Mikami, and said: "Others can leave, but I will never leave, Mikami, no matter what kind of battle occurs here, I will swear to Mikami. Coexist and die!"

Everyone glanced at each other, and they all bowed to the ground, "Oath and Shrine..."

"okay!!"

Li Yun interrupted them, "Fuck me all. I don't want to say the second sentence. I don't want to wait until the end and you come back. I don't want to wait for the end of the matter, and Sakura becomes the commander of a bare pole."

"It's so decided!"

Li Yun looked at Ise God Sakura, "Go pray, tell Omikami about this, and ask her for her opinion. If she doesn't plan to do anything in the next few decades, then all my words just now were farts. If she can support, then do it!"

The little witch wrinkled her nose and glanced at him angrily: "It's so vulgar, really, okay, okay, I'll go ask the oracle, you will wait until I come out."

She also knew that the matter was urgent, so she ran to the Grand Shrine without saying a word.

"Where is the pen in charge of writing?" Li Yun turned his head and said to the group of people: "The previous one hundred kilometers is the most important condition, and there are some additional matters that can be negotiated, for example, within one hundred kilometers. The parliament can send someone to take charge of the management, and it can remain unchanged, but when the oracle conflicts with the executive order, the oracle must be the first."

Someone took it down quickly.

"In addition, one hundred kilometers is only a ten-year condition. In the future, if 10 million people believe in Omikami, then this land will need to be expanded to 500 kilometers. If most people in the Sakura Kingdom believe in Omikami, then Ise God The palace will replace the parliament and become the administrator of the cherry blossom country!"

Xiao Mingzhu couldn't help laughing.

Ise Jingu replaces the parliament of the Sakura country? Ise Kamakura becomes the chief priest and also the prime minister of the country?

The picture should not be too beautiful.

Vaguely, Xiao Mingzhu understood what Li Yun wanted to do. He just wanted to watch the excitement and help Ise Kamakura at the same time, to see how the outside world would see if theocratic power appeared, and how ordinary people would look like. reaction.

Anyway, this is the country of Sakura, no matter what the turmoil, how many people died, it is the country of Sakura.

Li Yun is definitely guilty, but he is just putting things that will inevitably happen in the future to be completed within one day: that is, directly declaring the emergence of theocracy.

The fierce collision between theocracy and parliament, ancient gods and modern gods, what kind of wonderful or terrifying sparks will it produce?

It's really exciting.

Chapter 3759: watch the news

Jae and others walked out of Ise Jingu with a gloomy look, and as soon as they stepped out of the gate of the torii gate, before they walked down the road, a minister could not help but jump out and shouted, "It's too shameful! It's shameful! This Ise Shrine is getting more and more lawless!"

"Yes, Ise Jingu is so arrogant that I must teach them a lesson!"

"That's right. Yesterday they dared to go to the palace to * Kusanagi sword and Qiong Gouyu. Will they dare to go to the Parliament building and take our place tomorrow?!"

"That Ise Jinzakura, the smelly girl is the worst!"

"Smelly girl is really damnable, she's less than twenty years old this year, right? You dare to talk to the Prime Minister like that!"

"rude!"

"There must be a lesson to that Mikamiko!"

"stupid!"

The defense minister beside the prime minister screamed, interrupting the anger of these people.

Everyone was silent, everyone knew that the Minister of Defense was a celebrity next to the Prime Minister, and he couldn't offend him.

"The Prime Minister doesn't know what you said?"

The Defense Minister angrily rebuked, "Ise Jingu wants to teach them a lesson, but it can't be messed up. Do you know what the power of the gods is? If the Kusanaru sword flies over and cuts your heads with a sword, just follow Just like the fairy sword over there, can you defend it?"

A group of people stopped talking, and some of them touched their necks and shrank.

"Then let's leave here first, I don't believe that the sword can fly so far!"

But he didn't even believe this sentence, because the night before, the Kusanaru sword flew out of the imperial palace and flew to Ise Jingu like a meteor.

It is enough to see that the god, or the power of the * child, is not trivial.

A group of people urged each other, no one dared to stay for long, and left Ise Jingu in a desperate manner.

This scene happened to be filmed by the tourists who came to worship and uploaded to the Internet, which immediately attracted thousands of onlookers.

The reason for so many people is also very simple. Ise Jingu has now become the focus of the world. Anything will be magnified. This group of ministers and congressmen of the Sakura country have not received the farewell from Ise Jingu. They are so dingy. Leaving, it is obvious that the negotiation has collapsed.

For a time, many people felt a sense of urgency from the wind and rain.

"Jingle Bell."

Li Yun received another call from Liao Hua from Zhonghai City. He desperately wanted to know what the reaction of Ise Jingu was and was there another oracle?

Although this is a matter of the Sakura Country, it involves a goddess who was born in the world and the first goddess to appear publicly in the world. It is of great significance. Every decision of Ise Jingu will be placed on many human beings. In front of the country's dignitaries, as a reference to treat other gods in the future.

Therefore, Liao Hua and the domestic leaders eagerly wanted to know the inside information.

After all, Li Yun is now in Ise Jingu, and he has a very good relationship with the Mikamiko.

"The oracle? There is no oracle, just agree with Mikaiko's decision and let her do it."

"What decision?"

"The decision is... to watch the news!"

"news?"

There was a beep to hang up the phone, Liao Hua was very helpless, he didn't dare to get angry because he wanted Li Yun.

And he has a feeling that Li Yun is getting more and more mysterious, and what he is doing is getting more and more elusive. He seems to hide some things, and his sense of isolation from the outside world is getting stronger.

If Liao Hua had not known him before and still had some friendship, I am afraid I can only call people close to Li Yun instead of contacting him directly.

Chapter 3760: heat

"Let me see, what's new... smell, what!!?"

Liao Hua opened a mainstream website of Sakura Country, and on the front page of the headline, he saw the shocking news headline at a glance:

"Omikami comes, and Ise Jingu requires this land to be owned by Omikami!"

In an instant, Liao Hua thought of countless things.

That Amaterasu God, a mighty goddess who has survived since ancient times, wants to rule the cherry blossom kingdom? !

Could it be said that when other gods on the earth revive, they will also have such a demand? Must rule mortals? Must maintain faith?

After a long time, Liao Hua opened the news with a trembling hand.

After reading it, he fell silent and fell into contemplation.

Countless people around the world have had similar ideas, and after being shocked, they have expressed their opinions.

The discussion of countless people flooded various forums and websites like a tsunami, and the related heat rushed to the top of the list in an instant.

"#天照大御神"

"#伊势神樱"

"#Theocracy"

"#One hundred kilometers"

"#伊世神宮"

After several hot trends completely occupied the rankings, more than half of the netizens turned their attention to this matter.

Half of netizens are hundreds of millions of people.

Li Yun went to a news website casually, and all he saw were discussions related to it, as well as fierce chats among the people in the group.

"What's going on?"

Hu Xiaomeng suddenly jumped out, "Isn't it good yesterday? Why did you suddenly split the land of Sakura Country today and become a country in the middle of the country? Religious country? @伊势神櫻, 小巫女, you want to be Pope?"

"Development is so fast." Fang Xue couldn't help saying, she still felt a sense of division after reading the news in the group.

Ise Jinzakra showed a cute look in the group before, and she said her voice is also cute. Why is she suddenly becoming a pope?

And he looked like he was going to fight.

"It won't work like this." Xiao Mingzhu came out to explain to the women in the group instead of Li Yun: "The prime minister of Sakura Country came to us this morning. Their attitude was very tough. When the two sides collided, Sakura couldn't give in. So After comprehensive consideration, Li Yun decided to issue a statement on the proposal to show off directly."

"So...no wonder."

"The appearance of gods will challenge the old order, and conflicts will definitely arise." Shan Xiaoxiao also said.

Caiwei looked a bit the same. It was obvious that Shan Xiaoxiao was an eight or nine-year-old girl who had just started elementary school, but why did she speak so old fashioned?

People in the group who don't know her will probably think she is a girl of the same age as Gong Qingyu and just as smart, right?

"But it's still too fast!" Liao Hua couldn't help but say, "We had a meeting last night and guessed that the great royal * would do something, but it was only the next day that you announced the occupation of one hundred. Kilometers of land, I think the parliament of the cherry blossom country will never agree to it. No country will agree to split the apprentices."

Xiao Mingzhu said: "It's not the same, it's not split, it's the goddess Amaterasu here."

"Uh."

Liao Hua, as well as the women and others, had nothing to say.

It's really different.

Invasion of other countries, or separatism of land, are all things done by outsiders.

Even if the insiders engage in rebellion and division, they are also not allowed.

But this time, the person who split the cherry blossom kingdom was the highest * in their myths and legends.
