

Godly Choice 3761

Chapter 3761: Pope

It is equivalent to saying that Huang Xuan's Nuwa Empress, or the Jade Emperor, Sanqing Dao Zun, Pan Gu, etc., they suddenly said that this land belongs to them.

Just ask, what do you guys who live in this land think?

Is it to give in, or to obey, or to fight with reason, or to fight with the Jade Emperor?

When Liao Huaguang thought of this picture, he felt that it should not be too beautiful.

Outrageous.

"Moreover." Xiao Mingzhu said again: "Li Yun's suggestion to Sakura is to occupy only one hundred kilometers of land in ten years. In the future, the number of believers will be used to expand the scope. If more and more people from the outside world become the goddess of Amaterasu Believers, then this land will gradually change to the supremacy of theocracy, at least on the surface, it is ruled by Ise Jinzakura."

Still outrageous.

Liao Hua sighed in his heart that mankind has walked out of the feudal era. Now because of the gods, it is time to return to the situation in which the emperor or the pope ruled the people?

This is simply a blasphemy against modern civilization!

However, if the goddess said that if disasters really come, between freedom and survival, I am afraid that most people will choose to survive, that is, they will choose to believe in gods and gain protection.

The goddess Amaterasu does not force everyone to believe in her. She seems to see the future. When disaster strikes, people will gather in Ise Jingu to worship her.

And the Ise Jinzakura stood in front of the gate of the shrine, spreading the goddess' beliefs.

Who could have imagined that the little girl who was very stupid to speak in the group last night will become a pivotal, even one-and-one, big figure in the Sakura Country in the future?

"Okay." Liao Hua rubbed his temples, "I have seen too many outrageous things in the past year, not bad, Miss Xiao, I look forward to the performance of you, Li Yun, and that Mijinko. The casualties are minimized!"

"It doesn't have to be a fight either."

Xiao Mingzhu made a smile.

"Mingzhu, do you want me to help?" Zhao Tianfeng asked bubblingly.

"Me too?" Gong Qingyu also said.

"Me?" Next came the Sage of Fan Qing. Li Yun's powerful confidantes all expressed that they could go to the cherry blossom country to help her, Li Yun, and the godson.

Fang Xue, Li Feng, Cai Wei Caixia and other girls who hadn't been practicing for a long time could only keep silent and didn't get involved in the chat of the "strong ones".

They want to talk, but they can't talk.

Xiao Mingzhu said: "Not for the time being. Let me see how those people react. If we can't beat them, we can still escape to the Qinglian Immortal Mansion."

"Qinglian Immortal Mansion has become a plug-in for you!"

Shengzi Xiaosu bubbling, and said a very modern sentence: plug-in.

Xiao Mingzhu greeted her, and immediately asked, "Holy Son, do you have any thoughts on the current situation in Sakura Country?"

No matter how unreliable this little blonde loli is, she is a  after all. Well, a  in the mortal incarnation is equivalent to a god.

"No opinion, I am not the goddess of destiny, and I can't speculate about the decisions of those people."

Shengzi said with a smile: "I'm looking forward to how those mortals will treat that crazy woman? Accept it, or beat her violently, or... Use seventeen or eight nuclear bullets to smash her divine bow !"

Those in the group who knew her identity were silent.

They know that this saint child is also observing the reaction of the cherry blossom country to see if modern people can accept the coming of the gods!

Chapter 3762: Countermeasure

Kyoto, House.

"How dare they, how dare they, how dare they do this!!!"

After seeing the statement issued by Ise Jingu on the Internet, the prime minister was furious and knocked all the documents on the table to the ground with a wave of his hand. His eyes were red, like a lion that had been irritated, and roared in anger.

Ise Jingu's request to segregate a hundred kilometers of land was like a slap in his face, leaving the parliament blank.

In the parliament, everyone who saw this scene showed a weird look. Some people were equally angry, some were thoughtful, and some began to live up their minds-Ise Jingu is so powerful, I am afraid that it might not really master the transcendence. The power of this era, in other words, is that Amaterasu is strong enough to ignore any modern weapon attack.

"Prime Minister." The Defense Minister quickly suggested: "We must respond immediately and resolutely refute the request of the madman at Ise Jingu. Otherwise, the citizens of the outside world will look down on us and believe in the god..."

That  is naturally Amaterasu.

Just fighting against the gods in my country's myths and legends made the prime minister's loyal lackey ministers feel a little guilty, for fear that they would be killed by a sharp sword falling from the sky in the next moment.

"You're right!" The prime minister said coldly: "Immediately hold a meeting of the two houses, so that all members of the Council will immediately use the influence of various channels to refute Ise Jingu's rhetoric in the media and order the * Ise Jinzakura. Stop the obvious infringement immediately!"

"Prime Minister, should we directly block all media related to Ise Jingu?" someone suggested.

"Okay, do it now!"

A series of actions were issued from the prime minister's residence. Countless people were waiting for the two sides to compete. Should they see their tricks, or did the Mikami directly use his supernatural power to kill the mortal?

What the prime minister and the ministers who followed him did not expect was that the move to block the media that released Ise Jingu's news was opposed by a large number of parliamentarians.

Some TV stations even ignored the banning order and rejected the banning order from the prime minister's mansion on the grounds that Ise Jingu was the shrine of Amaterasu, the kingdom of Sakura, and the decision would greatly affect the people.

In addition, many media have carried out a lot of reports on the grounds that the Prime Minister's Office is confronting Ise Jingu. Two hours later, almost every TV station broadcasted a statement about Ise Jingu, which caused it again. Countless sakura people's discussion.

"Really? Ise Jingu requires a hundred kilometers of land?"

"Huh? It's that simple?"

"Simple? This is a separatist land! This is a country in the middle of the country!"

"Of course I know, but it's only a hundred kilometers. Of course it's simple. The opposite is Omikami, the real god. The legend is the Omikami who created our country of cherry blossoms. Her shrine and Mikami only require a one-hundred-kilometer apprentice. Is it simple?"

"I also think this request is not far from the mark. After all, we are all the people of Omika."

"The country in the middle of the country, it doesn't matter if it is split or anything. Didn't that goddess say that there will be disasters in the future, we have to believe in her."

"What disaster? Really?"

"I heard it is a monster in mythology."

"Haha, you are still discussing, those wealthy people will buy land near Ise Shrine in the future. In the future, 100 kilometers near the Shrine will be safe land!"

Chapter 3763: Wei Yi

Ise Jingu.

Li Yun, Xiao Mingzhu, and the little witch, the three came to the gate of Ise Jingu, under the red torii, facing the crowds of people who came to watch.

In fact, there are many people who are not afraid of death or believe that there will be missiles falling. In addition, Xiao Mingzhu said that ordinary people can be used as "hostages", so that the parliament will be a little more afraid, and will not directly launch short and medium-range missiles. .

In addition, these ordinary people are also a good propaganda outlet, which can win the trust of more people, so Xiao Mingzhu suggested that the little witch come out and meet these people.

"It's Mikami!!"

The noisy crowd, after seeing Ise Jinzakura who appeared in the red and white witch costume and holding a magic mirror, there was a loud cheer. At least 100,000 people crowded around in a dense crowd, even Li Yun was shocked when he saw it.

Isn't it said that there are very few true believers who come to Ise Jingu?

"Li Yun, what should I say?"

Ise Jinzakura has already entered the state of Mikami, her small face is full of majestic expressions, and the divine mirror in her hand emits a dim dim light. This is also Li Yun's suggestion. Before the matter is resolved, it is better to The defensive magical instrument was revealed.

I want to come to this thing to be given by the goddess Amaterasu, it should be able to stop the explosive attack of discussion.

As for Xiao Mingzhu, Li Yun's guardian has always been around her, so she is not worried that something will happen.

It's just that no matter how majestic Mikamiko can handle such a big scene, after all, there are a hundred thousand people in all directions, looking at her with fanatical, curious, and excited eyes.

If it hadn't been for that  to appear, they would have rushed into Ise Jingu.

"Just say what you want to say."

"what?"

The little witch looked at him in confusion, obviously not realizing Li Yun's meaning.

"That is, tell us our decision, and the oracle passed to you by the Great God God, and say it again!"

Li Yun pushed her forward, and then whispered: "Remember, the voice should be louder, after all, there are so many people in front of you, try to let everyone hear the voice of the witch from the Great God God!"

"Hmm, I understand!"

Sure enough, the little maiden became excited when he mentioned the Great Imperial God, her anxiety and tension disappeared, she became extremely confident and holy, and she took the initiative to take a step forward and said loudly, "Everyone!"

The voice was not very loud, perhaps because she felt it was not enough, the little maiden cleared her throat again, held the magic mirror in her hands, and raised Yata Mirror above her head.

"Transfiguration [the majesty of Mikamiko]"

"!!!"

The 100,000 people in front of them retreated in fright, causing riots after another, and they were shaken back by Yata Mirror like a sea wave.

"Huh!"

I saw a light enveloped the little witch, her small body suddenly grew, growing higher and higher in the light, like a beautiful girl transformed in an animation, a slim and petite figure from crawling on the ground to standing with the sky above her head. , Turned into an upright appearance, at least a hundred meters tall, the magic mirror in his hand seemed to compete with the sun in the sky, emitting a dazzling light.

Everyone was dumbfounded, Xiao Mingzhu was speechless, Li Yun helplessly vomiting blood.

He really turned into a Mikami!

In this way, let alone the 100,000 people nearby, if she grows taller, she will be able to compete with Mount Fuji, and 100,000 will be trampled to death.

"Fa, heaven and earth?"

Li Yun is indeed about to vomit blood. This little witch was definitely not that strong before, but she gained all kinds of knowledge passed on to her by the true goddess Amaterasu, and the ghost knew how many spells she had learned.

Chapter 3764: Omita said

Now she, as long as she is willing to make a move, she can definitely match the power of the Soul and Bright Realm.

When Li Yun received a call to Fan Linglong, he knew how shocking Fan Linglong was after seeing this scene through various channels.

"Li Yun, are you really okay on your side?!" Fan Linglong couldn't think that the world was changing too fast. She was still invincible in the Soul Bright Realm half a year ago. How can she be a child who is less than twenty years old now? Girl, are they all that good?

"I'll tell you later, where did you see it?"

"Watching the live broadcast, yours has become the focus of global attention. It seems that many satellites are aimed at you. Be careful."

"Will do."

"Hmph, Xiao Su's girl laughed again, saying that you don't need to perform anymore, and you will be able to... anyway."

After talking about it, Fan Linglong hung up the phone, because Ise Jinzakura had started a speech, and Li Yun obviously had no time to talk to her.

"...As Omita said, everyone in the Sakura Country is her people. Anyone who believes in Omita can be sheltered and deal with future disasters."

"Da Yushen also agreed to Li Yun's proposal. The shrine does not accept outside laws, and people from outside who enter the shrine must not be arrogant and arrogant. This is absolutely not allowed!"

"No one is allowed to be presumptuous in and around the shrine, the former prime minister, and any other ministers, I am very angry!"

The 100-meter-high Ise Kamakura stepped on the ground with a bang, and stepped out of a large hole in the road.

Everyone was so scared that they could not run away, fearing to provoke this 100-meter-tall Mikami. In fact, they were already terrified when Ise Kamakura grew bigger, but they didn't dare to escape. .

I really didn't dare to escape, unless I bet that Ise Jinzakura would not chase them, otherwise, a 100-meter-tall person could just take a few steps to catch up with them.

Only after listening to the lecture, the crowd showed weird expressions again.

This Mikami... is more naive than they thought.

She was not like those big people, she said very decent words, no scenes, no threats, no warnings, she just used a...very easy-going tone to say everything Ise Jingu did. Decided, to pass every oracle of Omikami to the outside world.

Although it is inappropriate to say something to Ise Jinzakura, which is now 100 meters high, a thought arose in everyone's mind: There is such a Mikami, or Ise Jingu is a good one, maybe.

"Omikami said."

As if realizing that he is now a bigger body, Ise Jinzakura stopped stomping, and finally said: "You can believe in Omikari, or you can believe in other gods, but Ise Jingu is a hundred kilometers away, It's all the land of the Omikami, no one can do anything that hurts the world, and we will not accept any disrespectful behavior. This land must be owned by us, and you are not allowed to come here!

otherwise. "

Ise Jinzakura once again held the Yata mirror high and threw it high. This mirror rose into the sky like the sun, and countless spots of light fell like flames. All of them fell within a radius of about 100 kilometers. , Seems to be warning, and it seems to be dividing the realm of the gods.

The incomparable strength has shocked countless people.

Li Yun frowned slightly. The current Ise God Sakura is indeed very strong, not weaker than his full shot. If the power just gathers together to fight, it can be comparable to the Linglong of the Soul Bright Realm.

Chapter 3765: Protesters

Maybe Fan Linglong will win the battle, but Ise Jinzakura still holds three real artifacts. If the artifacts are played out, Fan Linglong may not be able to win.

As for Li Yun, he has a plug-in, but he can still hide if he can't fight.

He was not too disappointed with this result. Ise Jinzakura's power is the power of Amaterasu Ogami. Even if he obtains a system plug-in, he can grow into a mortal who can compete with Mikami's Ise Jinzakura in just one year. It's not bad anymore.

"You guys are all gone."

The tall light of Ise Kamakura slowly shrinks, and finally he said: "If you want to worship, wait until I fight against those who oppose. I will fight whoever opposes. I will fight until they obey the Omikami. The oracle does it!"

Everyone was stunned, what a simple idea!

Does this Mikami really rely on his fists to eat?

But... the ability to have a fist the size of a locomotive can indeed subdue all opposing forces.

Moreover, Ise Jingu has set out its own conditions completely, and it requires a hundred kilometers of land, not too much.

If you don't give it to her, you can only speak with your fist.

The crowd was in a commotion again, and most people left contentedly, but there were also many who were not afraid of death and chose to stay.

The reason for staying is also very simple. Now that I have shown my loyalty to Ise Jingu, when I become a believer in the future, I will get more blessings.

Maybe it can become the onmyoji in ancient legends, using various spells to rival the abilities of those with supernatural powers.

Ise Jinzakura didn't care about them, and her figure gradually shrank back.

Li Yun observed from a close range and found that she was not really getting bigger, but just using a layer of light to support it. The body of Ise Shenzakura was still that big, but she manipulated a huge body of light, as if a phantom shell, so it looks huge.

When the incarnation of light shrank back, people around could see clearly.

"Li Yun, how about what I just said?"

After the incarnation of the light shrank back and merged into the Yata mirror, Ise Kamakura couldn't wait to run up to Li Yun and asked his opinion with a smile.

Judging from her smiling face, the little witch is obviously very proud of her performance just now.

"not bad!"

Li Yun smiled and said: "Although the speech is a bit clumsy, at least he didn't lose face to your Da Yu Shen."

The little witch had her small face bulging when she heard the first half sentence, but she was happy again when she heard the latter sentence.

Omitama admitted that it must be good.

"Of course I won't lose face to the Great God..."

"Mikako!"

When the little maiden wanted to talk to Li Yun, four or five people in suits and leather shoes walked up the path, carefully walking past the stone steps that were stepped on by Ise Kamakura just now, and came to Li Yun with a nervous expression. .

"who are you?"

Ise Jinzakura asked with a cold face.

Xiao Mingzhu looked at them and thought for a while, "Did you come with those people before?"

"Yes, yes, no, no, we are not together!"

One of the middle-aged men with a little bald hair bowed and bowed to Ise Jinzakura, and quickly explained: "His Royal Highness, although we came with them in the morning, we discussed with them afterwards. I feel that the Prime Minister's decision is ridiculously wrong!"

Ise Kamakura did not respond to their words, but looked at Li Yun.

Chapter 3766: proposal

This performance was seen in the eyes of the people on the opposite side, and they were more certain in their hearts: The person who can really call the shots is this Mr. Li from Huang Xuanguo, that is, the extremely powerful Superman Li!

"I see, keep talking." Li Yun nodded without comment.

"Yes! Your Excellency Li Yun."

The bald middle-aged man said again: "Me, Masato Uchiyama, the Minister of Health, the Deputy Minister of the Ministry of Transportation, and the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries. After a brief discussion, the few of us decided to jointly oppose the decision of the prime minister. His Royal Highness Mikoto discussed it."

Li Yun smiled and said, "In other words, do you think that a hundred kilometers of land can be ceded?"

Xiao Mingzhu was a little surprised, his words were really straightforward.

"Yes, not right."

Masato Uchiyama nodded and said respectfully: "Omikaze is the faith of our country of Sakura. Nowadays, the world is changing, disasters occur frequently in various places, and when monsters are rampant, Omikari can reappear in the world. It is the luck of Sakura country. This matter, no, I had an idea earlier, if I write down my belief in Omijin in the constitution, and use the constitution to stipulate Omijin's rights and some small and insignificant obligations, then I think, It is also possible for the land of one hundred kilometers to be under the jurisdiction of the Great God's Envoy!"

He immediately added: "You only need to abide by some customary rules. For example, the shrine cannot kill people at will, nor can it force others to believe in it, etc. A hundred kilometers of land is equivalent to an autonomous region. Your Excellency Li Yun, what do you think?"

In the end, Masato Uchiyama didn't even ask Mikami's opinion, but directly asked Li Yun.

Ise Jinzakura blinked, as if it made sense, much better than the prime minister.

"Little Miko, what do you think?" Li Yun didn't answer immediately, but asked Ise Kamakura's opinion.

"I?"

Ise Jinzakura hesitated and said, "The oracle cannot be violated. What should you do if the oracle conflicts with your decision?"

Masato Uchiyama smiled awkwardly. After looking around no one, he whispered: "His Royal Highness, I can guarantee that this one hundred kilometers of land is completely under your control, but on the surface, you need to give the people a Attitude...Of course, this must be your jurisdiction. It just means that you can't kill people at will, you can't force others, etc. These sensitive human rights issues..."

"Surely you won't kill people at will! Omikami is a good god!"

Ise Jinzakura glared at him, and Masato Uchiyama smiled awkwardly.

Li Yun motioned to Xiao Mingzhu.

Xiao Mingzhu nodded and said to these people: "Meaning, you plan to unite some people in the parliament who oppose the prime minister to find a way to reach the decision of the shrine in order to obtain the support of Mikami?"

"...Yes!" Masato Uchiyama nodded through gritted teeth.

There is no doubt that to find a way to segregate a hundred kilometers of land can only be an order issued by the prime minister, and the resolution of the two houses can take effect.

In other words, Masato Uchiyama tried to oust the current prime minister and become prime minister himself.

Xiao Mingzhu asked again: "Then what position are you? Now."

"Now I am the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance!" Masato Uchiyama said in a deep voice.

"Person number two, it's not easy." Li Yun said.

"Jane is not simple, it depends on the means."

Chapter 3767: joint

Xiao Mingzhu said indifferently that they said: "You have a very high status, and I believe you have some means, but Ise Jingu is facing great opposition now. We can't easily agree to your request, so let's, if you can It affects the decision of the House to prevent those missiles from falling on our heads so quickly, or if the public opinion in Sakura can be turned to us, Mikami will agree to cooperate with you!"

"Uh-huh."

Ise Kamakura nodded fiercely, but said nothing, just agreeing anyway.

Masato Uchiyama hesitated. Xiao Mingzhu glanced at him and said, "Don't want us to directly issue a statement to support you. You can stand here and talk to Mikami. It's already a powerful boost. If nothing can be done, then you simply don't mention it again, our Mikako can persuade others with his fist!"

Ise Jinzakura flashed her little pink fist.

She is not afraid of conflicts with the outside world at all. After all, those people are bad people, and coming to Ise Jingu is a cause for trouble.

This time she would not feel guilty when hitting someone.

As for the 100-kilometer land issue... Ise Kamizakura didn't feel too much at all. She didn't ask anyone within this land to leave. She just announced that she would occupy this land. Who stipulated that this land belongs to Sakura?

If it is Sakura Country, it is also the Omikami, not the Prime Minister and the House.

"But....."

Masato Uchiyama still hesitated, and tentatively asked, "I don't know what benefits will be gained by believing in Ogami? Your Majesty Miko, you may not know that if people from outside see that it's good, they will turn quickly, even if it's a kind of Fictitious things, such as...Believe in the Great God God, you can get peace of mind, we use this to promote, etc., can it?"

Both Xiao Mingzhu and Li Yun glanced at him in surprise. They are indeed members of the House of Representatives, and they all do a set of propaganda posters.

"Peace of mind? There must be."

Ise Jinsakura didn't understand so many metaphors. She replied straightforwardly: "Believing in Omikari can get shelter, and Omikagami has given me some cultivation methods. As long as I believe in Omikami, I can practice, and in the future, it can become very good. Great, against those mutant monsters."

Masato Uchiyama brightened his eyes and asked urgently, "Is there really a spell that can be practiced?"

"Yes, it was given to me by the Great Royal God."

"That's great!!"

Masato Uchiyama rubbed his hands in excitement, and his eyes were red. "In this case, we will definitely win. The people's fear of those mutated monsters will prompt them to believe in the Great God. Only the gods can fight against future disasters. The prime minister is really wrong, he will definitely regret it!"

"?"

Ise Kamakura didn't quite understand why he was so happy.

"Hahaha, His Royal Highness Godzi, Your Excellency Li Yun, and Miss Xiao!"

Masato Uchiyama named Xiao Mingzhu's name, took the initiative to bow, and saluted the three of them: "Don't worry, you three, I will definitely win this public opinion battle. Omikami is the supreme * who can save and protect our cherry blossom country! "

Li Yun watched them leave with a weird expression. Is it that simple?

It seemed that he still underestimated the power of the gods, and that he could make the deputy prime minister fall to the palace at once, which could prove a lot of problems.

Ise Jingu doesn't even need to win the current struggle, it just needs to take root, and the balance of future victory will definitely fall here.

Chapter 3768: quarrel

Kyoto, Parliament.

Unlike the usual prestigious and solemn House, the House at this moment seems messy, everyone is arguing fiercely, trying to persuade each other, or contact some other people, refer to the news from all parties before making a decision.

"Prime Minister, I still don't approve of recklessly ordering an attack on the shrine!"

A congressman stood up and shouted out in a roaring voice, successfully attracting the attention of many congressmen present.

"Shut up!"

The prime minister slapped the table on the stage angrily, "I'm asking you to come up with a plan to attack Ise Jingu, instead of making you still arguing about whether to do this!"

"I don't approve of doing this."

As soon as the Prime Minister's voice fell, another member of the Diet stood up, adjusted his clothes, and said to many members: "The Prime Minister's decision is not to be passed or not, for the time being, less than one-third of the people who came to hold the House meeting today Second, it is impossible to reach and pass this important decision. In addition, did you not find out that the deputy prime minister did not appear?"

Many congressmen were stunned and looked around, but they really didn't find Masato Uchiyama.

However, although Masato Uchiyama is the deputy prime minister, generally speaking, unless the prime minister is out of order, there is nothing for the deputy prime minister. The weight of speaking in the chamber is a little better than that of a minister. Therefore, Masato Uchiyama has not appeared so far. It was not discovered until now.

"Where did that guy Uchiyama go?!"

The prime minister roared with a sullen expression, "Let him roll over and see me! No one will be seen within half an hour, let him go!"

Many people were silent, bowed their heads and dared not speak.

However, there are still many congressmen who resolutely oppose the Prime Minister's decision, thinking that they cannot attack Ise Jingu without authorization, otherwise they will offend the gods and they will all die.

However, many parliamentarians expressed their agreement, especially some parliamentarians who resolutely safeguard the interests of the Sakura country. They will never allow the country to be divided by others. These people firmly stand on the side of the prime minister, and the two sides quarrel.

"Shut up!!"

The prime minister stopped the crowd again, "I have the final say on this matter, whoever dares to object, throw it out!"

"My Prime Minister!"

Some people who insisted on opposing shouted out in grief and indignation. They seemed to see the future gods dispatched. That Ise Jinzakura led tens of thousands of powerful priests and maidens, calling on thousands of believers, using spells and holding modern weapons. The battle, a tragic scene of heavy casualties on both sides.

Anyone who died is a native of Sakura!

"If you don't agree, you can resign and leave now!"

The prime minister scolded coldly.

Immediately, more than 30 members of Congress threw down their membership cards, leaving a sentence "You will regret the Prime Minister, you are a sinner of the country", and they were about to leave the parliament building.

But when they reached the door, their footsteps stopped.

"Why? I don't want to go anymore?"

Someone sneered and looked at the door, but they were all stunned.

The council fell silent for an instant.

A black man with a burly figure and a very strong appearance, with four or five people wearing military uniforms and various medals, stepped into the most important center of the cherry blossom country.

The security guards did not dare to stop, and the agents responsible for defending here did not feel obstructed. Nearly 300 congressmen and dozens of ministers at the scene closed their mouths.

Their father is here.

"Mr. Aoxing, why are you here?"

Chapter 3769: Dad is coming

The prime minister, who had previously yelled at the councillors and ministers, saw the black man in front of him, and ran away from the stage as if his son had seen his father, and ran all the way to the black man with a flattering smile.

The prime minister of a country is so humble and bowed to people from other countries, nodding his eyes and showing a low smile. If this scene is spread out, I am afraid that netizens of other countries will be laughed out of his teeth.

But in the parliament, none of the hundreds of people dared to laugh, and the black man called Aussie walked in slowly. When he was scanned by his cold eyes, many members bowed their heads with guilty conscience.

Don't dare to look at "Dad".

As for the prime minister's subservient behavior, they have even taken offense.

After all, there had been such a scene not long ago, and their prime minister bowed and saluted the black man - and it was still on a formal diplomatic occasion.

The scene was accurately captured by the reporters and spread across the world in an instant, causing all netizens to jokingly say that this is how my father taught his son.

"Mr. Aoxen, why did you come in person?"

The prime minister smiled again, "If I know you are coming, I will definitely pick you up outside!"

Many of the other parliamentarians did not dare to speak, but many echoed, showing the same flattery as the prime minister.

"I'm not coming, are you afraid that you are about to surrender again?"

Mr. Aoxin stepped onto the stage and said with a sneer.

The English word "again" instantly changed the expressions of many congressmen.

As we all know, the reason why the father's country has the son of Sakura is all because he defeated them 70 years ago and accepted their surrender, thus acknowledging the godson of Sakura.

So this "surrender again" is particularly interesting.

"How, how come."

The prime minister smiled awkwardly, "We have decided to crack down on the forces of Ise Jingu, and we must not allow them to cut a hundred kilometers of land such absurd behavior!"

"Shut up!!"

A congressman who was planning to leave earlier retorted angrily: "Prime Minister, don't you feel embarrassed when you say this? See who this person is?!"

He angrily pointed to the black Mr. Aussie, and roared: "This man is a mastermind in our country, forcibly demarcating nearly half of the forbidden area in Kyoto, our country's airspace, but his own plane can't fly. Go, this, this, this..."

The congressman almost couldn't catch his breath, and his extreme anger made him blush.

Many congressmen looked at him pityingly, even those congressmen who opposed him before could not help but feel sad at this moment.

But no one would stand up and agree with him.

Dad beats his son not by reason, but by his fists.

There are more than a dozen bases in the Sakura Country, like a chain of shackles, which locks the country, let alone a hundred kilometers of land, 100 million people in the Sakura Country are all kneeling.

The son kneels to the father.

"hehe!"

The black Aussie sneered, "You Sakura people, finally said it! Yes, so what? You are a defeated country, what qualifications do you have to negotiate? Are you not convinced? Ask me how many airlines I have Mother, it depends on whether you are convinced or not convinced!"

Everyone was silent.

Who is the black Australian?

If the emperor is the emperor of their cherry blossom country, then this Ao Yu is the emperor's father, that is, their supreme emperor.

Chapter 3770: Announce

No member of the Kyoto Assembly dared to stand up.

Several security guards walked in, seeming to take away the congressman who dared to stand up just now.

"Don't worry."

The black man waved his hand angrily, "Wait for me to say a few things, and when I'm done, I will judge this man."

Still no one dared to object.

"Sit down all for me!"

A foreign official screamed, and all the deputies sat down honestly. The more than 30 deputies who had planned to leave before can only stand by the wall with their hands down and their heads down.

"I'll announce a few things."

If the prime minister had a meeting before, there were still some quarrels or discussions, but this black Australian, the chief of the beautiful country sent to the cherry blossom country, he did not give the parliamentarians and the prime minister any place to discuss at all, he just announced .

As if to say, son, you have to listen, and you have to listen if you don't!

This is the fate of a country without dignity.

Many parliamentarians sitting in their positions showed sad expressions and listened indifferently to what the black man said.

But there are also many people who listen carefully to the lecture, and undoubtedly performed the respectfulness of their son to father.

"Sakura Country, will go to war with the gods!"

A word from Aussie caused the quiet parliament to riot in an instant.

"Your military guard will join forces with the warships of our beautiful country to fight the so-called ancient gods!"

"Resolutely do not allow anyone to occupy this land separately!"

Aoxen's words were loud and loud, but what they said made everyone's hearts half chill.

This is their land, not yours.

Besides, don't you own it too?

It's just these words... still no one dared to say it.

No, there are still people.

"Shameless!"

It was not the previous person, nor the person standing by the wall, but a member of Parliament who had been silent before sitting in his seat.

He finally couldn't help it, slapped the table, and yelled: "Don't you just want our warriors to stand in the front and experiment with your beautiful country to see how powerful the gods are? Are you still joining hands, yes? Your fleet will go first, we will be behind..."

"boom!"

A gunshot hit him in the shoulder, and all the councillors fled in panic.

Another gunshot.

"Be quiet!"

Aoxie sneered: "If you are willing or unwilling, this decision must be implemented, otherwise, it will all die to me!"

There was dead silence in the parliament.

"Sir." A foreigner took the satellite phone and said suddenly: "Just now I got the news that the deputy prime minister of Sakura Country has colluded with Ise Jingu and issued a joint statement..."

Deputy Prime Minister? !

Many congressmen are full of surprises, Masato Uchiyama has rebelled?

The prime minister wiped the cold sweat from his forehead, not knowing what to say for a while.

Aussie glanced at the prime minister coldly, then turned around and asked, "What statement?"

"Say, say...Ise Jingu allows people who believe in that * to gain powerful power to fight against the mutant monsters. The deputy prime minister called on all the people to believe in the gods together, and said that the goddess Amaterasu was originally in their mythology. The * of refuge, now just stepping out of the age of mythology, will lead the cherry blossom country to glory again..."

Speaking of the latter, his voice became lower and lower, and he was obviously frightened by the content of this statement.

As for why you are frightened, just look at the surprise expressions on the faces of these congressmen.

That great god, not only can only bestow the power of Ise God Sakura, but also the power of ordinary people to fight against mutant monsters!
