

Godly Choice 3791

Chapter 3791: Turn offensive

He almost yelled out the last sentence, as if he was screaming at the people around him, and as if to cheer himself up and take courage.

But even idiots should know that the beautiful country controls the cherry blossom country only for profit. If there is no profit, or if they offend the powerful and mysterious Ise Jingu, if the beautiful country feels it is not worthwhile, they will leave without mercy. Leave.

All of them who remain will be sent to the court to be tried by the nationals!

"Prime Minister, Prime Minister."

A congressman tremblingly brought a laptop computer, visited it on the stage, and said with a trembling voice: "Your Deputy Prime Minister..."

"What do you call him?!"

The prime minister suddenly became angry and shouted sharply.

The legislator was so frightened that he weakened his legs and sat down on the ground. He hurriedly said, "No, no, yes, it is Masato Uchiyama. He, he sent a message saying that the prime minister must make a video call with him in person, otherwise, there will be consequences. conceited!"

No one dared to object, the prime minister did not even make a decision, and a minister eagerly connected the video invitation.

In the notebook screen, Masaru Uchiyama was full of spirits, followed by several ministers who followed him, surrounded by a large area of media, everyone looked beaming.

They seem to have seen the country of Sakura officially get rid of its son's identity and gain the true independence that they have longed for for nearly a hundred years!

"Straight!"

Masato Uchiyama spoke bluntly, and Yoshitsune warned: "You must have seen the scene above the shrine just now. Don't think that this is the most powerful power of the gods. Mikako has obtained three artifacts from Omikami. It is also the artifact of our country of cherry blossoms, should you all know it?"

In the house, more than two hundred houses gathered in front of the laptop and nodded frantically.

Nonsense, they certainly know the three artifacts of their own country.

Yata Mirror, Eight Chiqiong Gouyu, and Kusanaru Sword, also called Tiancongyun Sword.

The power of Yatayama is now known to all around the world. A random move can counteract the attack of five missiles, and a random move destroys the five most powerful fifth-generation aircraft still flying in the sky.

The Yata Mirror, which has not fully revealed its power, is so powerful in the hands of Mikako of Ise Jingu. What about the other two artifacts?

Not to mention that Yata Mirror doesn't seem to be an offensive weapon. The sword that symbolizes the emperor's force to conquer Kusanaru is the real weapon for attack!

If Ise Kamakura pulls out the Kusanaru sword, how good will it be? !

In the entire House, the expressions of more than two hundred members became weird.

Masato Uchiyama hasn't really stated his purpose. The two hundred or so members already know what he wants to say and what he wants to say.

"Turn off the computer immediately!"

A minister who was loyal to the prime minister yelled and gave orders.

Then, the surrounding members all looked at him with warning eyes. The guards who knew the details of the matter were not so stupid that they obeyed the prime minister's orders.

Almost in the blink of an eye, the situation in the House changed drastically.

"I know you are still watching, but it's okay, I just want to tell you one thing!"

Masato Uchiyama connected to a video call, in which a typical Huang Xuan nationality's face appeared, and he was still wearing a military uniform.

"You, collude with Huang Xuanguo!!" A minister shouted.

"What is collusion?"

Masato Uchiyama laughed and said, "The cooperation with Mr. Lee was carried out under the witness of Omikami. In addition, our Mikami will marry Mr. Lee as a proof of the friendship between our two countries!"

Chapter 3792: Shut up idiot

The words of Masato Uchiyama once again plunged everyone in the chamber into a weird atmosphere.

In fact, they have not thought of uniting with Ise Jingu to bring the Sakura Kingdom to a new height. However, there is a father on the head of the Sakura Kingdom. The former prime minister is the father's loyal son. The prime minister can't do anything against it. Dad's matter, what Dad said, he can only do it.

But when these congressmen were still going to wait and see for a while, Deputy Prime Minister Masato Uchiyama decisively joined the camp of Ise Jingu, and immediately repaired with Huang Xuanguo, attracting their fighters to fight against the beautiful country as a father!

I have to say that the game is very beautiful. If it succeeds, the countless forces in Sakura will be liquidated. At least 90% of the 200-odd members present will be forced to resign from the post of parliament. The future Sakura National Assembly will be Masato Uchiyama, no, the one from the Sakura Shrine to be precise, Ise Jinzakura...or Li Chaoren, controlled!

The only prerequisite is that Ise Jinzakura, the Mikamiko, can defeat the beautiful country head-on tonight, and destroy a base in the beautiful country with an absolute crushing force.

Otherwise, it is not enough to destroy five fighters!

You know, beautiful country, the crazy world's most powerful country, has built nearly three thousand f35s. If it enters a state of war, it will be able to reactivate the retired fighters in just one week.

By then, there will be tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands of fighter jets roaring in.

One round of bombing can destroy the small island of Sakura Country.

Of course, the premise is still that Sakura is worthy of them!

"Give you half an hour to consider."

Masato Uchiyama gave the final confession and said coldly: "I have agreed to Huang Xuanguo's request for assistance in the strike, and I have asked them to cooperate with Ise Jingu to drive out all foreign forces!"

More than two hundred parliamentarians all silenced.

"You are crazy!" The prime minister gritted his teeth and said bitterly: "Without the beautiful country, can we fight against Huang Xuanguo?! By then, it will only be a super king!"

"You are crazy."

Masato Uchiyama looked at him coldly, "Our Great Imperial God trusts that Mr. Li, but you abandon the gods of our country and go to the black man? Haha, and imprisoned the Emperor in the palace to prevent him from coming out. , The emperor is the descendant of the Great God, if you anger the gods, you will end up like those five fighters and be destroyed in a bang!"

The congressmen looked at each other, and their eyes showed some horror.

The commotion became more intense, and the prime minister gritted his teeth and roared: "Be quiet! Everyone listens, no one is allowed to betray any..."

"Shut up, you idiot!"

A congressman interrupted him roughly.

"You!" The prime minister was furious, and when he slapped the table, he ordered the guard to drive him out.

"Shut up! Look at the photos I just received!"

The congressman was equally angry, and with a bit of panic, opened a satellite photo that was just sent to him in the phone.

Everyone who saw this photo took a breath.

The place photographed by the satellite is clearly located in Yokosuka, which is...the place where their father garrisoned!

It was supposed to be extremely tightly guarded, and any Sakura countryman would have to search a thousand times if he wanted to enter, but at this moment it turned into a sea of fire and ignited a raging flame.

Chapter 3793: Who is an idiot

To be precise, it was on the surface of the sea, a Big Mac was blazing, illuminating the nearby sea for dozens of miles.

"impossible....."

The prime minister fell to his seat on the stage, his eyes gradually shrouded in boundless fear.

"Quickly, I want to see the photos of the scene!" A congressman called and shouted at a subordinate near Yokosuka.

"Mr. Senator, no, it's not good, die, die..." A terrified voice came from the phone.

"Baga, you are dead!"

"No, no, yes, it's the base, a lot of deaths..."

"Baga, I know a lot of deaths, I need it right now! Know the scene! What the **** is going on!? Report it immediately!"

"Yes Yes."

Later, more photos were sent back-although my son was very well-behaved, it was not that he hadn't left a hand, and he was able to quickly photograph Yokosuka, Kaki, to illustrate this point.

No one is willing to be a son.

The photos were crossed by everyone, and with the explanations on the spot, many congressmen gradually understood what.

In fact, I don't understand anything at all.

"I, I, just, just a few minutes ago, had been paying attention to the situation in Yokosuka. Suddenly, I saw a shooting star in the distance. Slowly, uh, not very slowly, just five or six seconds. Flew over Yokosuka."

The man stammered and explained that from his tone of voice, he could hear how shocked he was at the time. "Then the meteor circled Yokosuka once, or maybe twice. In short, it, it just pierced one end. Entering the sea...no, no, it is facing the ship's root, passing through its tail and out of its head. With countless explosions, this meteor is again and again in Yokosuka Port. It took a turn, and then it was easy...returned back to the original road!"

The next thing, many congressmen know: the aircraft carrier Regen exploded directly, from the beginning to the end, or from the end to the end, the meteor obviously penetrated the entire aircraft carrier and detonated the storage inside. Countless ammunition.

Then, the meteor swept around Yokosuka's base in a sweeping posture, killing soldiers who didn't know how many beautiful countries, and detonating an unknown weapon arsenal before leaving in a leisurely manner.

"This....."

Many parliamentarians looked at each other. Why did it seem to be over if they haven't fought yet?

They don't need to pay attention to what the meteor is. It's a mysterious shinto technique. It's the Kusanaru sword that is one of the three artifacts of the cherry blossom country held in the hands of Mikami, or it's taken by the Yata mirror. The magic light is also good.

Anyway, this shooting star must have been emitted from Ise Shrine—perhaps it was the handwriting of Mr. Li, Superman Li.

But anyway, Ise Jingu won!

And hard and chic, winning leisurely, those modern weapons of the beautiful country can't play any role at all, and they were destroyed by Ise Jingu a few hundred kilometers away!

The Yokosuka base that was once indisputable is now turned into a sea of flames.

Chapter 3794: Long live His Royal Highness Mikako

More than two hundred parliamentarians and dozens of ministers fell into a weird silence.

I don't know who started from, everyone gradually turned their attention to the prime minister.

Not asking the prime minister's idea, but... looking at him with a cannibalistic look.

"Long live your Royal Highness!"

One of the councillors shouted.

No one responded, but some guards were approaching the prime minister in silence.

"You guys!" The prime minister sat on the stage, and didn't even have the strength to get angry.

"Long live your Royal Highness!"

Another person shouted loudly, but still no one responded.

However, several guards had already stepped onto the stage and slowly walked towards the prime minister. They stretched out their hands, as if to catch him and not let the prime minister escape.

"Omikami is the faith of our cherry blossom country!!!"

A minister's tone was firm: "Anyone in Sakura should believe in Omi. We are the people of Amaterasu!!!"

"Long live your Royal Highness!"

Dozens of parliamentarians yelled at the same time, their tone was full of enthusiasm. I don't know if it was pretending or pretending?

Someone shouted to everyone: "Huang Xuanguo is a friend of our cherry blossom country for generations. We have had exchanges since the Tang Dynasty. We can establish diplomatic relations with a powerful country like Huang Xuanguo. Under the leadership of Amaterasu and Mikako, together It is the responsibility of the people of our Sakura country to fight against the evil and beautiful country!"

Several guards rushed up and grabbed the prime minister like wolves. They also shouted: "Long live your Royal Highness!"

This slogan became the program of action for these parliamentarians. They rushed to catch the prime minister and some of his loyal ministers.

"Don't catch me, don't catch me! I betrayed, I betrayed, no, no, I am not betrayed! I want to report corruption to the prime minister, I want to..."

"Shut up, you bastard, your Royal Highness is something you can call? You running dog from a beautiful country!"

"No, I am not, I am really not, I was forced by the prime minister! He forced me!"

"Don't arrest me either, I am a citizen of Sakura Country, and a citizen of Omikami!"

"..."

More than two hundred parliamentarians tore each other in a mess. Twenty or thirty loyal subordinates of the prime minister were caught by this group of parliamentarians and hundreds of guards who rushed over and pressed them underground—these guards who came over were originally. I don't know what happened yet, but when they saw the flames of Yokosuka Port, they all shouted "Long live your Royal Highness," and then scrambled to arrest the prime minister.

After more than ten minutes of trouble, this farce soon ended, because everyone knew that the cherry blossom country was going to change.

The world will change too.

"Invite reporters in right away, hurry up!"

A minister was elected to act as a temporary spokesperson, and he immediately ordered.

But in fact, the reporters have been waiting for a long time. Although it is now more than ten o'clock in the evening, they immediately rushed in when they heard that they could enter.

Then, they also saw the photo of Yokosuka turned into a sea of flames on the big screen.

"what!?"

A group of reporters were so shocked that their jaws dropped. The reporters who were also on the side of the prime minister all followed along and shouted "Long live your Royal Highness!"

They are not stupid, they know at a glance that the battle between Ise Jingu and the beautiful country is over, Ise Jingu won the victory and destroyed the base of a beautiful country.

Chapter 3795: applaud

"Citizens...The parliament unanimously decided to remove the current position of Naoto Zai, and to investigate the sin of betraying the country, seeking refuge in a beautiful country, intent on opposing Ise Jingu, and abandoning the gods we believe in in the Sakura country!"

The minister in charge of speaking righteously uttered a series of righteous words. There was no objection from the people present. Even the congressmen who were kneeling on the ground in detention followed chanting, "Your Royal Highness is ours. Pointing lights" and so on.

—Calling Yujinzi long live may not necessarily forgive their sins, but it can certainly alleviate their sins and push everything to the prime minister.

Because, as more and more things are confirmed, everyone has truly seen the power of the gods!

His Royal Highness the Godzi of Ise Jingu, she may not be able to kill more than a dozen aircraft carriers and 100,000 planes in one go, but she definitely has the power to protect Ise Jingu, any modern weapon that wants to penetrate her defenses. , Or kill her, it is almost impossible!

As long as Ise Jinzakura is still there, and she can continue to communicate with the goddess of Amaterasu, she will naturally be invincible, and Ise Jingu will never fall!

What if there are hundreds of thousands of fighters in a beautiful country?

These fighters will cost millions of dollars at one time. Unless the beautiful country really sends out a large number of troops to carry out a ***** massacre on the cherry blossom country, and completely conquer this place, otherwise, Ise Jingu is destined to win!

Moreover, that mysterious meteor that can fly hundreds of kilometers and wilfully destroy a base is a beautiful country, and it is also a sword on the heads of all enemies who intend to attack Ise Jingu.

As long as someone dares to attack, this meteor will span thousands of miles and behead the enemy!

May I ask, who is not afraid?

"From now on!" The minister who spoke loudly shouted out the decision: "His Royal Highness will lead us through future disasters and welcome all the monsters produced by the explosion of spiritual energy. We will surely usher in a beautiful tomorrow!"

Everyone applauded and shouted long live His Royal Highness.

Regardless of whether they are sincere, but the rise of Ise Jingu in the future to become the most powerful force in the kingdom of Sakura is a foregone conclusion.

Moreover, everyone vaguely heard another meaning of this minister: it is to respect the ***** child as the head, not the deputy prime minister Masato Uchiyama.

Some people sneered in their hearts. The struggle for power is always the most concerned issue of these politicians. Long live the Royal Highness of God, all are slogans!

His Royal Highness is said to be only seventeen years old this year, and he is very naive in speaking and doing things. He does not pay attention to external affairs, and only focuses on serving the Omit.

In the future, if Sakura Kingdom really respects her as the supreme ruler and turns her into the existence of a pope, she will definitely not govern the country herself, and the power will still be delegated to the parliament.

At that time, it was another **** storm.

Of course, I may not think so far now, and I will spend tonight first.

"Everyone, there's another news!"

A reporter looked at his mobile phone and said hurriedly: "From the news released by Ise Jingu Omiya, the two flying formations invited by Mikako, the two teams flying the beautiful country from Okinawa and Sasebo to support. A total of twelve fighters were driven away, and two of them f35 were taken down..."

Everyone was stunned again.

Chapter 3796: Guilty

"Nonsense!"

A minister denounced: "It's not Huang Xuanguo's fighter, but the fighter who accepted the invitation of Godko and was blessed by the gods, understand?!"

A group of reporters froze, then nodded frantically.

They heard what the minister meant.

"Then we now...?"

A minister issued a question and looked at the surrounding members and reporters.

People are panicking now and don't know what to do.

"Of course I was holding this sinner and going to Ise Shrine to ask for sin!"

A minister pointed his finger at the prime minister. It should be said that he was the former prime minister!

Everyone agreed that the former prime minister rushed to the palace to invite the emperor's family to the Ise Shrine overnight.

...

"ended?"

Xiao Mingzhu couldn't help asking as she watched the golden arrow fly back to Ise Jinsakura's hand.

She doesn't yet know the situation at Yokosuka Port, but she can probably guess it.

After the five fighters were blown up, Li Yun said that he could not wait passively, and let Ise Kamakura take the initiative to fight against the beautiful country, so that they could rest in peace in the future.

Then the little witch thought for a while, took out the golden arrow that Li Yun had given her before, prayed for a while, and threw it out.

The golden arrow disappeared into the sky, and it took a few minutes before it flew back.

"have no idea."

Ise Jinzakura yawned, wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes, and said sleepily, "When I prayed before, Omikami gave me a way to use this arrow. I just threw it out and told It destroys the enemy's home, and I don't know what it did."

Xiao Mingzhu and Li Yun looked at each other, and both of them came up with almost the same information.

The first is that the Amaterasu Omikami has been paying attention to the "mortal" situation, so he passed some spells to Ise Kamakura.

The second is that the magic arrow is really powerful, can have independent thinking, know who to hit, and can accurately find the position. It is a very terrible weapon.

Finally, this weapon can only be effective if it uses the correct formula.

In other words, even if Li Yun didn't send arrows to Ise Kamakura, he himself didn't know how to use it. It is estimated that even the son Xiaosu didn't know how to use it.

In the end... the little witch is really boring and tired, she wants to sleep.

"Little witch, don't sleep, there will be results!"

Xiao Mingzhu received information from the captain of Huang Xuanguo's flying formation. From the captain's shocked tone, he knew that the golden arrow had destroyed a beautiful country's base, and that the Yokosuka port was swept by the arrow...

"sharp!"

Chapter 3797: Xiao Mingzhu willingly

Xiao Mingzhu no longer knew what words to use to describe the power of this arrow.

As a witness to the whole process and personally inquired about the little witch who used the golden arrow, Xiao Mingzhu knew the inside story better than others.

But the more I know, the more I feel in awe.

Awe of the power of the gods.

The little witch did not seem to have done anything. She just accepted some knowledge from the goddess Amaterasu, and used two artifacts that have survived from ancient times: one is a Yata Mirror, the other is a mysterious golden arrow whose name is unknown. arrow.

Then, throwing the arrow out, the little witch yawned and waited.

What is she waiting for?

What was waiting for was a modern base in a beautiful country, swept by golden arrows, the aircraft carrier staying on the sea was directly penetrated, detonated ammunition, exploded into fragments, countless ammunition warehouses on the base were also hit by arrows and detonated together. .

How many people died?

No one paid attention, at least in Sakura Country, Huang Xuan Country, and Ise Jingu, no one paid attention to how many people died in Beautiful Country.

But it can be guessed that at least thousands, or even tens of thousands of soldiers in the base were turned into fly ash in this sudden explosion, and it was impossible to find the dead body.

Xiao Mingzhu did not blame Ise Jinying, let alone Li Yun. This is a battle between "two countries"- Ise Jingu is also a power.

How can there be undead in war?

Not to mention the death of 10,000, or the death of hundreds of thousands, no one will blame the two countries in the war.

Because it is no longer necessary.

Both sides have torn their skins, dead people couldn't be more normal.

"Sakura, will you... blame yourself?"

Xiao Mingzhu was a little worried that Ise Jinying would feel guilty after knowing that she had killed so many people.

"Blame yourself? Hmm...No way."

Ise Jinsakura shook his head, "They took the initiative to attack the shrine, and the people from the beautiful country have always stayed in my country, and they don't believe in the gods. They are bad guys. Although not all bad guys deserve to die, they deserve to die tonight. ! Right, Anada?"

After the little witch knew that the matter was over, she threw herself into Li Yunqi happily, and asked him with her face up.

Now she likes to hold Li Yun like this more and more.

"Yes, the little witch did the right thing!"

Li Yun stroked her little head, "Those fighters are people who will go to the battlefield and will take up weapons to attack us. They are not all worthy of death, but they can't deter some people, nor can they make some want to control the world. He is the boss, and the arrogant people all over the world have to listen to it, stop!"

It was already obvious who he was talking about.

Xiao Mingzhu smiled and teased: "I think after the beautiful country tonight, many of them will feel disappointed, because in the future they will no longer be able to search for the world's wealth by printing US dollars!"

The hegemony of the U.S. dollar comes from the strength of their country. Once there are strong challengers, the so-called U.S. dollar hegemony will quickly fall.

Li Yun also smiled and said, "They should and must get used to the future world as soon as possible!"

"Hahaha~!"

The two laughed together, and tears came out.

Just like Ise Jinzakura who yawned again now, and tears came out-well, the little maiden finally couldn't stand it anymore, her slender hands embraced Li Yun's waist and buried her head in his chest. After rubbing Li Yun's chest, he fell asleep quickly.

Good boys go to bed before ten o'clock in the evening.

"That's probably it tonight, Mingzhu, let's go back to sleep." Li Yun held the little witch and stood up.

"Don't resist sleeping with our little witch?"

"What nonsense, I am..."

"Just want to kiss?"

The expression in Xiao Mingzhu's eyes was a little bit more shy and expectant.

Li Yun's heart was hot, he took the initiative to kiss her, and asked in a low voice, "Tonight?"

".....Um."

Xiao Mingzhu bit her lip and nodded lightly.

Just tonight.

Because tonight is the most special day, she will never forget it all her life.

At this special time tonight, Xiao Mingzhu is willing to give herself to someone she likes.

Chapter 3798: go outside

The next day Ise Jinying woke up and found that she was not lying in Li Yun's sorrow, but curled up next to Xiao Mingzhu. She was confused for a while before she woke up, and when she sat up on the tatami mat with a yawn, she found out. Neither Li Yun nor Mingzhu got up.

And the two are hugging each other.

And neither of them wore any clothes.

and.....

"what!!!"

Ise Jinzakura covered her small mouth and screamed, awakening the two newlyweds who had only fallen asleep until after two o'clock last night.

"Little Miko, don't make a noise."

Xiao Mingzhu said in a daze, covered her head with a quilt, and fell asleep again-at least she didn't want to wake up now, let Li Yun, a villain, deal with this scene!

Last night, she gave herself to Li Yun, and then, it was more than two o'clock.

The little witch was sleeping on the side.

Xiao Mingzhu didn't know why she was so crazy, nor was she afraid of waking up the little witch, so she was messing around with Li Yun on the tatami, and the result was that she didn't want to get up at all this morning.

I didn't think about it in the afternoon.

Eat anything at noon and continue to sleep until three or four in the afternoon.

"You, you, you, you!"

Ise Kamakura's head was dizzy. She looked around again and found that the floor was covered with sheets from unknown sources.

The clothes of Li Yun and Xiao Mingzhu were in a mess, and Ise Jinzakura took a closer look, and found that there were hickeys left on their faces and necks. It was obvious that...

"You guys did a bad thing last night!!"

Ise Shen Ying rushed to Xiao Mingzhu, who was asleep, and shook her shoulders: "Don't sleep, get up and say what bad things you did without telling me?!"

Xiao Mingzhu covered the quilt more severely, and refused to show her face because... her face must be full of the redness that remained from last night, and now she is shy again, she must be even redder.

"Ahem!" Li Yun couldn't sleep anymore, and quickly explained: "Last night we wanted to find another place, but Sakura kept holding me, so... I had no choice but to be here... well, you know."

Ise Jinzakura stayed for a while.

It seems like that... she slept in a daze last night, only knowing that she was being held back by Li Yun, and then vaguely heard something, asking her to let go. She didn't want to let go, she wanted Li Yun Sleep with Xiao Mingzhu on the tatami with her.

Then, she seemed to hear something and she couldn't remember.

"Then you...what did you do last night?"

Ise Jinzakura was still a little confused, tilted her head, and looked at the mess around her.

"...You will understand in the future, well, get up quickly, don't you want to pray in the morning? We fought a battle last night, and now it is time to tell your Omikami the good news!"

Li Yun deliberately led the topic to the Great Imperial God. Sure enough, the simple little maiden was so good to deceive. She hurriedly opened the sheet, rang the bell again, and let the maid come in and serve her dress.

"Cough cough cough cough!"

Li Yun hurriedly stopped her and said seriously: "You can't let the maid in today, Sakura, you can go out and change your clothes."

"Ah? Why?"

Ise Kamakura became strange again. She always felt that after last night, something she didn't know had happened.

Chapter 3799: Come back first

How should Li Yun explain what happened to Xiao Mingzhu at two or three o'clock last night?

"Anyway, Sakura will go out to change clothes this morning!"

Li Yun made an excuse and pointed to the surrounding chaos: "Last night I played with your sister Mingzhu in the house. It was messy and it was not easy to see people."

"Oh, that's how it is."

The little witch suddenly realized that Li Yun secretly breathed a sigh of relief. Although stupid people are stupid, sometimes they are not so easy to deal with, just like now.

For another example, the next sentence of the little witch:

"A kiss game?"

Ise Kamakura leaned in front of Li Yun, staring straight at him, and asked!

"what?"

Li Yun was shocked, but Ise Shinying pointed to a very obvious mark on his neck, then pulled on the blanket of La Xiao Mingzhu, and pointed to another mark on her white neck that was shrunk in the sheet. —The super white and rich Miss Pearl, of course, is desperately pulling the quilt and not showing it to the little witch.

"Look, you both have it!"

Ise Kamizakura made an expression that I was a great detective.

so cute.

Li Yun looked embarrassed, and it was indeed a bit too jolly last night, mainly... how to put it.

Xiao Mingzhu is beautiful and has a very good figure. In addition, he hasn't been idle for several days, and Ise Jinzakura is sleeping next to him, so yesterday it was a bit beyond expectations.

Had it not been for Xiao Mingzhu's ability to surpass the consummation of the innate realm now, I am afraid he would not have paid attention to him for several days.

"Yup!"

Li Yun prolonged the tone and answered the little witch.

Ise Kamakura was satisfied, her face flushed, and her voice was expectant: "Then... I want too."

"What do you want?" Li Yun didn't react for a while.

"To... kiss!"

The little witch's face showed a lovely blush, her eyes blinked, panicked.

Li Yun's heart was shaken, and he said to her pettingly: "Okay...when you come back from prayer, let's kiss again."

"Bad!" Xiao Mingzhu, who was stuffed in the quilt, said something dully.

"No, kiss now, kiss now, pray and come back... and kiss too."

Ise Kaminakura somehow mustered up the courage, pouting her thin lips, and kissing Li Yun's face with a chuckle. He smiled and looked at Xiao Mingzhu who was buried in the quilt, happily got up from the tatami, picked up some of her clothing and jewelry, and ran out with bare feet.

Then he said: "Hanako, let's go outside."

"Yes."

The voice of the fourth person caused the two people in the room to petrify on the spot, among them was Xiao Mingzhu hiding in the quilt.

Before Ise Jinying left, she stepped on something on her foot, turned her head and glanced at Xiao Mingzhu again, as if she understood something, a smiling face appeared on her small face, a little shy.

"Uh, Mikako, let's go out first."

Hanako Miko no longer dared to raise her head, she couldn't even imagine those things, otherwise she would be disrespectful to Mikako.

But even if I didn't look at it, the messy traces on the floor when I entered the room just now made the Hanako Miko already deeply imprinted in her mind.

Later, she and a few trustworthy maidens will clean up Mikami's bedroom.

"Huh, I blame you!"

After the two left, Xiao Mingzhu lifted her head from the quilt, Ming Yan's face was red, and she was stunned by the suffocation she gave Li Yun a full of anger.

She had a hunch last night, but the fourth person actually saw the chaos in the house.

Chapter 3800: Xiao Mingzhu's opportunity

Xiao Mingzhu was crazy last night.

Perhaps it was because they had been playing "temporary boyfriend and girlfriend" for a semester with Li Yun, and there was no confession game. As a result, once Mingzhu Xiao released his enthusiasm last night, he liked it very much, and even some indulge in it.

Or maybe it's because Li Yun and Fang Xue, Gong Qingyu, Su Muxin, and Xiaojiao are on the third floor of the mansion, or on the third floor of Villa No.36 in Huangtingshan, and Xiao Mingzhu is in the Fairy Group again, knowing them. He and Li Yun often didn't rest until 8 or 9 o'clock until 2 midnight. In addition, because they were still live broadcast in the group, they were faceless and skinless, which caused Xiao Mingzhu to be dazzled by ears and eyes, and she became a little girly.

After all, she is just a girl who has just entered her freshman year and is not yet a sophomore. She has watched so many live broadcasts in the Fairy Group. Xiao Mingzhu said she was not touched. It must be fake.

It's just that no matter how excited she is, she will only go to Li Yun, and the two will take a walk together in Zhonghai University, hugging and intimacy.

When the love is strong enough, Xiao Mingzhu and Li Yun will go to her dormitory in China Overseas University together, and be intimate with him for a longer time.

It is precisely because he can act as a couple with Li Yun at any time, so Xiao Mingzhu can always bear not making the last step with Li Yun, even her good sisters around her, Li Yun's confidantes, and even her good girlfriend Liu Xianxian. I went to Zhenbei Film and Television City for five days with Li Yun, and went crazy for five days.

But even so, Xiao Mingzhu still feels that there is still a lack of opportunity between herself and Li Yun, an opportunity that allows her to give herself to him willingly without leaving any regrets.

Until yesterday, this opportunity finally arrived.

She and Li Yun came to the cherry blossom country, where she met the maiden who served the gods, Ise Jinzakura.

Then, she and Li Yun entered the sea of knowledge of Ise Shenzakura and helped her defeat the monster Yaki Orochi in ancient mythology!

Then a series of stimulating and nervous things happened, even affecting the eyes of the whole world, causing the beautiful country to suffer a big loss, and also allowing Huang Xuanguo to usher in a rare development opportunity in history, the first chain of conflict, and the blockade. world.

All kinds of things, Xiao Mingzhu will never forget.

Compared to weddings, she is more willing to remember her all over the world, to remember her and Li Yun's contributions, and to remember when she was standing by Li Yun's side.

In this day, handing over to him is the most memorable way for Xiao Mingzhu.

So... Xiao Mingzhu became crazy last night, she didn't intend to leave any regrets, and did her best.

Fortunately, Li Yun was strong enough, as the sisters in the group said, just like a bull.

Whee.

"Pearl."

Li Yun didn't get up, and hugged Xiao Mingzhu who was suddenly giggling again, kissed her lightly on the forehead, and smiled: "What's the matter? A silly look?"

It is said that women who have just experienced the transition from girl to woman have their most sensitive minds. According to Li Yun's previous experience, this is indeed the case.

So he didn't plan to get up this morning, so he first coaxed the rich and beautiful girl next to him.

Oh, white rich and beautiful girl, turned into a white rich and beautiful woman.

"You are so stupid!"

Xiao Mingzhu hit him once and complained: "It's all to blame you, the Huazi Miko must have laughed at us just now!"

"What's the matter? Anyway, we will leave later."

"What a ruthless man! Don't you plan to come back to see Sakura?"

"Well, that's right, the little witch will not leave with us, let's talk about it."
