

GODLY CHOICE SYSTEM

Chapter 4: Help others and get money

The effect of 100 points of physique is so strong!

Li Yun looked at his current property panel.

"Host: Li Yun.

Physique: 130 points.

Strength: 50 points.

Spirit: 80.

Wisdom: 70 points.

Agility: 50 points.

Charm: 10.

Owned items: None. "

Looking at his personal panel, Li Yun was ecstatic. The various attributes of a normal person are only around 50 points, and if they are properly trained, it is about 200 points, but boxing champions and special combat soldiers can reach 1000+.

Li Yun is confident that the various qualities of his own body obtained by the system can reach thousands or even tens of thousands of points, a point that the world will look up to!

And more importantly, he wants his family to live a happy and stable life!

"Zhang Dong."

Excited in his heart, but with an indifferent expression on his face, Li Yun squeezed his fist, walked to him and shook it vigorously, causing Zhang Dong to shrink in fright.

"Remember it for me, don't trouble me in the future!"

Li Yun said lightly: "Otherwise, I will make you unable to eat! Humph!"

After all, Li Yun went straight away.

The face of Zhang Dong who was left was green and white. When was this kid so powerful?

"No, I can let you ride on my head and poop?"

A hint of resentment flashed in Zhang Dong's eyes. He had been rampant in Zhicai High School for many years. Except for the rich second generation in the school, everyone else walked around him. How could he tolerate Li Yun, a little orphan + poor ghost?

Thinking of the eldest brothers he knew outside school, Zhang Dong said viciously: "Boy, wait, see if I can teach you a lesson!"

Li Yun didn't pay attention to Zhang Dong. After obtaining the system, he was excited at the moment and couldn't wait to trigger more selection events.

Quickly came to the vegetable market. Li Yun's family lived near the school. His sister was also in Zhicai High School. The middle school of the two younger sisters was not far away. Therefore, the family would go home for dinner at noon-that's okay. Save a little money.

And Li Yun usually comes to the vegetable market to buy food with Li Feng, except for the exam today, so exceptions.

"Ouch!"

When he walked to the door of the vegetable market, an aunt who carried a load to sell cherries at the door of the vegetable market accidentally slipped and fell. The red cherries in the load were scattered and spread on the ground like a red blanket.

The crowd came and went, and the anxious aunt's tears were about to come out.

Li Yun hadn't moved yet, the system prompt rang again.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Step forward to help and reward a few yuan.

Option 2: Open the mouth and complain about the auntie blocking the way, reward skill: Fangs and mouths.

Option 3: Ignore, just walk over, no reward. "

Li Yun frowned slightly, this system is really interesting, rewarding money directly for the pleasure of helping others?

real or fake?

He and his sister Li Yun are now short of money to buy counseling books, and they don't know how much they can reward!

As for option two, given his character and personality, he would definitely not choose!

"Auntie, let me pick it up for you!"

Li Yun walked up enthusiastically, knelt down and picked up each cherry carefully, and carefully dried the dust on it.

"Thank you, thank you so much boy!"

The aunt thanked Li Yun, took more than a dozen cherries, stuffed them into a bag and handed them to Li Yun.

Li Yun refused. To an ordinary fruit seller, more than a dozen cherries are worth a lot of money. As a poor family, Li Yun has a deep understanding of this. He hasn't eaten fruit for more than half a year.

"You guy, take it!" The aunt forced it into Li Yun's hand. "These cherries are stained with dust, so I am too embarrassed to sell them directly. You can take them back and wash them and eat them. Don't dislike the aunt for giving you these! "

"No, how come, thank you auntie."

She said that before Li Yun accepted it.

"Ding, the host makes a choice and rewards 3435 yuan!"
