Chapter 4211: Sea search

After checking the map, Wan Qingya said with regret.

Li Yun stood up on the deck and said indifferently: "It is normal to change. After all, it has been tens of millions of years since the gods were active in those days. Even the moon is far away from us, a few centimeters away every year, tens of millions. A year away from hundreds of thousands of meters, let alone the islands on the sea?"

"The moon is moving away from us?"

Wan Nishang glanced at the sky subconsciously, and only muttered when he noticed the day.

Li Yun smiled: "Neon clothes, you should learn something, lest you can't keep up with the times."

"Humph!"

No objection, probably agreed.

"Okay, let's go."

Li Yun didn't entangle this topic, and said to the three women: "We let this yacht stop here, and it's okay to drift some distance. Anyway, we can fly and we will be able to find it soon."

Concubine Wan Qing said: "It's about looking around with the yacht as the center, right?"

"Yes." Li Yun looked at Qingya: "The main force is Qingya. After all, you are holding a bamboo leaf, and you will be with her. Qing Concubine and I rely on each other and divide into two teams to find out."

Wan Nishang nodded slightly. She knew that Li Yun had a certain ability to break through barriers and see through the illusion, and she might be able to find the hidden purple bamboo forest.

Zizhu Forest is the target they are looking for this time. I don't know where it is. I only know that the sleeping place of Guanshiyin Bodhisattva is here.

"Ok, act if you don't have any comments!"

"Yes~~~!"

Wan Qingya wanted to be with Li Yun, but the business matter was important, and she didn't act like a baby, so she happily flew up with her mother and flew towards the distance of the sea.

Li Yun didn't worry too much about them. Not to mention the strength of Wan Nishang, she said that Wan Qingya would have no problem flying in the sea, and the storms would not be able to hurt her, unless it was attacked by a large number of sea monsters. She is struggling to deal with it, and only when she loses her way will there be a little chance of accident.

"Uh, they..."

The crew members on the ship were all stunned when they saw Li Yun and the four flying away.

It turned out that they were carrying four superpowers. It's no wonder that the four of them chartered a boat, and now they flew away to find something. Could it be that there are ancient ruins nearby?

However, give them ten courage, and dare not drive a yacht to search, not to mention whether they can find it, even if they find it, they will not be able to enter those dangerous ancient relics, so stay on the yacht honestly and have the right to vacation. NS.

This search is one day.

Except after the four of them flew back to the yacht for a simple lunch at noon, the rest of the time, Li Yun and Qing concubine, and Qingya and the swan clothes on the other side, all searched on the vast sea.

Relying on satellite mobile phone positioning, Li Yun can still determine their location.

From morning until evening, until half of the red sun was submerged in the sea, the sea water was dyed golden yellow, and Li Yun also found nothing.

"Let's go back."

Li Yun rushed two or three kilometers away, shouted Concubine Wan Qing who stepped on the sea.

He and Wan Qingya have been flying for a day. Except for the occasional fishing boats or ocean-going freighters, plus some school of fish monsters wandering in the ocean, there are also some seagulls flying by in the sky.

Concubine Wan Qing didn't respond, and kept her head down.

"what happened?"

Li Yun flew away quickly and fell beside her.

"Li Yun, look..." Concubine Wan Qing passed the phone, her expression turned a little bad. "The last time I saw them, they were there. Now I watched them for another minute, they are still there!"

Chapter 4212: Shrinking island

Li Yun's face changed slightly, but he quickly calmed down and comforted her: "It's okay, maybe they are eating, and the elegant mouth just can't control it. Let's go and take a look!"

While comforting, Li Yun's movements did not stop, pulling up Concubine Wan Qing, and the two quickly flew towards Qingya and Nishang's mother and daughter.

"Nonsense!"

Concubine Wan Qing refused to believe Li Yun's words, Yubai's small hands held his palms tightly, showing her nervousness: "Even if the girl wants to eat, she won't stay in one place forever. Although she usually Li Ai was a little foolish, but she was still very reliable when doing business."

Li Yun smiled and said, "In this case, that's a good thing."

"Um?"

Concubine Wan Qing looked at him puzzledly.

"You think, if they stop, it means that they probably found the Zizhu Forest."

"Isn't that dangerous? How could it be a good thing! We are not with them again!"

Concubine Wan Qing spoke very fast, and her cares overflowed, appearing on her pure and beautiful face, which was especially moving.

"No, it's a good thing."

Li Yun squeezed her little hand, "The bamboo leaves that Arhat gave us are for us to find Guanshiyin Bodhisattva in the Purple Bamboo Forest. Since they have found them, they won't say that they are in danger, so don't worry."

He didn't actually say that if the golden rohan set a trap, Wan Qingya and Wan Nishang's situation is indeed a bit dangerous now.

However, this probability is very small. After all, to come to Buddhism, she also got the approval of the holy son Xiaosu. She understood the style of dealing with those Bodhisattvas and Buddhas in Buddhism and would not harm the elegance, so Li Yun was asked to bring her.

"I hope, let's speed up a little bit."

"it is good!"

Consort Wan Qing's speed prompt has been raised to the fastest speed, but Li Yun can still take her faster!

The two of them drove through the air, and in less than seven or eight minutes, they crossed hundreds of miles of the sea and arrived at the place where Wan Qingya and Wan Nishang's mobile phones were fixed: a magical island whose scale was reduced a hundred times.

"This!"

Li Yun and Concubine Wan Qing looked stunned, the island in front of them was really weird.

The island seems to have just emerged from the sea. At most four or five people will stand on it and it will be very crowded, but on this island, there are hundreds of high mountains, surrounded by clouds, falling waterfalls, flying cranes, strange mountains and strange mountains. Stones, lakes, bamboo forests, and large farmland and grass huts, and in the mountains, there is a faint Buddha hall, and the Buddha statues inside are extremely small, but you can see it at a glance.

Looking down on this meticulously carved island from top to bottom, it seems that you can still hear the sounds of Buddha, muyu dong dong, and the sound of scripture chanting faintly in your ears.

"This is an island that has shrunk thousands of times. It is the sleeping world of Buddhas and Bodhisattvas!"

After being shocked for a long time, Li Yun finally spoke.

This island is obviously a huge condensed island, and the hundreds of peaks and the farmland houses alone are enough to prove that its actual size will never be low.

In fact, Li Yun has seen several such small worlds that seem to have sleeping gods.

The first is that of the son Xiaosu. She put her sleeping place in the South Pole and constructed a peach blossom village deliberately, just not for the sake of being too boring.

Second, the black pyramid is also inhabited by people, but that person is a traitor.

Chapter 4213: Enter the island

The island Li Yun saw right now was more magical than what he had seen before. For example, the small world created by the son Xiaosu was no better than the one before him.

The farmland houses alone are bigger than the Taohua Village created by Xiao Su, not to mention there are hundreds of peaks, and there are faintly... Taoist temples on the top of the mountain? !

"Taoist temple?!"

Li Yun looked at one of the peaks in amazement, and almost didn't doubt his life.

The Buddhism's Zizhu Forest Small World (called this name temporarily) is actually connected with things like Taoism.

"What's wrong with this, isn't it normal?"

After seeing this ethereal and extraordinary island, Consort Wan Qing calmed down a lot, and opened her eyes to find Qingya and Master in it, but unfortunately, the scenery and white cranes and birds can be seen from the outside of this island. I can't see anyone, I only vaguely know that the farmhouse is indeed human, but I can't see it.

"Right."

Li Yun nodded. Hua Xia's culture was deeply influenced by Buddhism. Those gods who wanted to come to Taoism, and even the gods in ancient myths, had a good relationship with Buddhism.

For example, Yuanzi, the ancestor of the earth immortal in Wuzhuang Temple, as well as the gods in the heavenly court, will call some Buddhas and Bodhisattvas at banquets. For example, the most famous flat peach event invited Xitian Buddhas, Bodhisattvas, and holy monks. There are some golden arhats who also specifically named the Antarctic Guanyin in the south, and they are all invited.

From this we can see that the relationship between Heavenly Court and Buddhism is really extraordinary. There are conflicts and entanglements of interest, anyway.

In this way, this island is more powerful than the Taohua Village of Shengzi Xiaosu, and it makes sense-this island is shared by the Buddhist and Taoist families, and the small world built together, can it not be big?

It should be said that it is still small!

"Taoist temple!"

Li Yun was full of enthusiasm. He planned to observe some of the Taoist temples and temples in the mountains, but he immediately thought of the two of Qing Fei and Nishang, so he could only temporarily put it down for observation.

"Let's go in?"

Li Yun asked Concubine Wan Qing, there was no way to stay outside, and it was very likely that the island appeared because Qingya came with bamboo leaves. Once it was missed and the island disappeared, it would be beyond regret.

"Okay! Go in!"

Concubine Wan Qing didn't hesitate, grabbed Li Yun's palm tightly, and let him take herself in.

To be honest, if you enter such a small world that has shrunk thousands of times, you will feel a little worried, but in order to find your sister and master, you can only fight.

"go!"

Li Yun didn't think much, pulling Concubine Wan Qing, the two figures plunged into the island.

A magical scene appeared. Li Yun and Concubine Wan Qing had previously thought that the island was less than 20 meters below them, but once they fell, it was as if they had been flying for a full minute after being separated by thousands of mountains and rivers. After the small peaks, farmland, houses, trees, and bamboo forests that were originally seen expanded to the size that normal human eyes can see, he took Concubine Wan Qing's hand and fell to the ground.

"Arrived."

"Well, people have also appeared."

In this way, there is no restriction on the use of divine minds. Concubine Wan Qing scanned the surroundings with divine minds and quickly saw the people in the village.

The place where Li Yun landed was also outside the village. Like Taohua Village last time, he did not rashly choose to appear in the village, otherwise it would easily arouse the vigilance of the villagers and cause things to go wrong.

Chapter 4214: Kyushu

Although all the villagers in Taohua Village were made by Xiao Su. But according to Xiao Su's words, those people are not fake, they are between the real and the fake. Li Yun can't figure out what she wants to say. It's probably that the realm is too low to understand.

"Let's go in and take a look." Li Yun said.

Did not land directly to the village, but always have to go in.

"Don't fly directly?"

Consort Wan Qing is a little anxious. She knows there are weirdness and dangers here, but if she can find Qingya and Master sooner, she can feel more at ease.

"Don't worry."

Li Yun squeezed her hand and let it go, "If the two of them have entered here, it means that there is nothing wrong for the time being. We are too anxious, but we outsiders will become unwelcome people. "

"...Okay, okay, you decide, I'll follow you."

"Then go."

Li Yun took her along the road extending from the village towards the village.

The village is relatively large, with thousands of households. From what we have seen from the outside, there is another village on the left side of the village after two or three peaks. In addition, there is another village on the farther side of the river. A bigger village.

In other words, there are at least two to thirty thousand people living here.

"Maybe they were a village before, but later they gradually divided and became several villages."

Li Yun told Concubine Wan Qing his guess.

In a place with a population of 20,000 to 30,000, it is impossible for everyone here to know everyone, so the appearance of Li Yun and Concubine Wan Qing did not cause a sensation. However, Li Yun's short hair and modern clothes, as well as Concubine Wan Qing's leggings plus a coat, the dress of the two people still aroused the curiosity of the surrounding villagers.

People in ancient clothes, either silk or satin, or coarse linen, they are looking at Li Yun, and Li Yun is also looking at them.

Generally speaking, life here still retains the appearance of the feudal era hundreds of years ago, except that there are more things for worship. In the halls of every household, there are statues of gods and Buddhas, and the clothes of these people, Accessories, decorations, hairstyles, there are also traces of Buddhism and Taoism.

For example, a monk with shaved hair walks on the street, and people passing by don't look at him much. This is a very common role.

Including those wearing Taoist gowns.

In addition, the content of their discussions is also somewhat interesting.

"There is no relationship between the two, the difficulty and the easy, the long and the short form each other... Brother Zhang, what's the interpretation of this sentence?"

"The unspoken teaching, the benefit of doing nothing, are unattainable in the world."

"See Su Baopu, less selfishness and few desires...Who can be safe for a long time? The movement will lead to life."

"Subhuti White Buddha Yan, Blessed One, there are many sentient beings..."

All of these are very common discussions. People in this place seem to do what they love most every day, which is to practice Taoism and Buddhism? !

"This Xiongtai."

Li Yun and Concubine Wan Qing walked, and a man came to meet him and bowed to him.

Li Yun looked at him and saw that the man's face was full of surprise, and the eyes of Concubine Wan Qing were full of surprise.

It seems that beauty is a popular existence no matter where it is, even in ancient times.

"Hello."

Li Yun also made a courtesy, which may not be done very well, but he didn't care too much. He was not an ancient person, and he was almost courteous.

"Hello?"

The man was shocked by this weird way of greeting him. After a while, he smiled and said, "This Xiongtai, doesn't seem to be from here?"

Chapter 4215: Can fly

"Indeed not, here is it?"

Li Yun was very calm and stopped the agitated Concubine Wan Qing. He was not panicked because he was recognized. The last time he entered Xiaosu's Taohua Village, he was also recognized at a glance.

In this small world where gods live, as long as the moment you enter, you may even observe it with your eyes outside, and you will have been noticed by the gods in the small world.

It is quite normal to be recognized.

"Sure enough, it's an outsider!"

The man couldn't help but looked at Concubine Wan Qing several times, just like those who couldn't control their eyes when they saw beautiful women, he wouldn't be rude because he was an ancient person. However, his eyes were very clear and did not change. The look in the eyes of adultery.

Concubine Wan Qing frowned, and uttered a clear drink: "What is this place? And, have you ever seen my sister? That is, someone who looks exactly like me!"

In recent days, Concubine Wan Qing no longer hides her true face. She looks exactly the same as Qing Ya and is easy to recognize.

"Uh, oh, here, this is the small world of Kyushu!"

The man replied quickly.

"Kyushu Small World?" x2

Li Yun and Concubine Wan Qing glanced at each other. Huang Xuan was divided into Kyushu in ancient times. This place should be the land of Hua Xia originated from ancient times, and it is appropriate to be called the small world of Kyushu.

"There are often outsiders coming in here?" Concubine Wan Qing asked.

"Not very often, occasionally, occasionally."

The man was a little awkward in front of a beauty like Concubine Wan Qing, and said things like a bamboo tube pouring water, and some people around came to join in the fun, but it was not too much. It should be known about outsiders.

I also know that this is a small place, and the outside world is the real big world.

But the magical thing is that the people here don't seem to have the idea of leaving here, just a little curious about the outside world.

Maybe it's because there are immortals here?

From the supplementary explanations of the man and the people around him, Li Yun knew a lot about this.

First of all, it is indeed divided into three villages, which can also be called three small towns. About 40,000 people live in the three small towns, but there are still many living in the mountains and practicing Taoist parenthood.

People here can generally live more than 200 years old, and it's not uncommon to live a long life of 500 years. This may be one of the important reasons why they don't want to leave. After all, they know that outsiders can live 70 or 80 years old, and fools go out. .

Secondly, there are Buddhism and Taoism here, Buddhism.

But both Taoism and Buddhism can only become a monk after marrying a wife and having children. Especially Buddhism, monks are not allowed to become monks at will. Only people with advanced Buddhism are qualified to become monks, and the rest are just believers.

Li Yun expressed his understanding that in such a small world, if everyone is a monk, then the people in this small world will soon become extinct.

at last.

"Can you fly here?" Concubine Wan Qing asked directly. She couldn't wait to find her sister and Nishang.

"Huh? Miss mean flying?"

The man thought for a while, "Only ascetics who have reached a certain level of cultivation can fly, but only occasionally I can see them flying out of the mountain to buy some things, and then quickly return to the mountain...We don't know the mountain How many people live there."

"That means it can fly? Thank you, these are for you!"

Concubine Wan Qing took out some gifts that she carried with her from the space ring—snack bags, potato chips, and biscuits. After throwing them to the man, she lifted Li Yun and flew into the sky.

"Huh? Ah...?"

The man took the snack bags in a hurry, and when he looked up, the two of them had already flown away.

Chapter 4216: Reunion

Li Yun and Concubine Wanqing flew towards the second village. Fortunately, they had just arrived not far from the village when a cheerful voice came from below:

"Husband~~! Sister~~!"

Concubine Wan Qing's expression turned into surprise in an instant, her figure quickly descended, pulling Li Yun to the ground, and seeing the familiar figure right in front of her, she finally couldn't help it, and gave Wan Qingya a tight hug. live.

"You girl... I'm so anxious to death!"

"Hee hee, sister, I have to work hard. My mother and I are fine. We saw the island and wanted to inform you, but the island suddenly sucked us in...Neither I nor my mother dared to mess up. Go, stay outside the village and wait. After a short time, sister, you and husband are here."

Wan Qingya was also very happy and told Li Yun and her sister what she had encountered.

Li Yun smiled and looked at the neon clothes who finally met, took a step forward, and hugged her tightly.

"Neon clothes, are you okay?"

"Asshole... without your hug, I want to hug my daughter!"

Wan Nishang pushed Li Yun away with a blushing face, and took Qing Fei's hand to look around, then nodded in satisfaction: "Now we are all here, we can explore this place...what is hidden!"

"Then you need to ask, there must be gods~"

Wan Qingya left her sister's arms and threw herself into Li Yun's embarrassment. She smiled and said, "I think there are at least ten gods living here. Just now I was curious to go up to the treetops and take a look. The mountains over there are all Taoist temples. There are so many temples~"

Wan Nishang's willow eyebrows furrowed deeply, "It's hard to do now...So many gods, even if their strength degrades a lot, they are not something we can resist, so we must not conflict with them later!"

Li Yun had no problem with what they said.

There are indeed many gods here, otherwise it would be impossible to maintain such a large space.

There are more than one hundred peaks, rolling into mountain ranges, hills and valleys. Under the cliffs, in the deep mountains, and on the tops of the mountains, I don't know how many gods there are.

For example, Erlang God, Tota Heavenly King, Thousand Miles Eyes and Wind Ears, Nezha, Heavenly Soldier Heavenly Generals, etc., these are not even Buddhism, and Li Yun couldn't believe what would happen to those gods after being alarmed.

"Fairies...should know that we are here."

Concubine Wan Qing also looked into the mountains, "At least the gods who control this small world already know our arrival. We should keep a low profile. We will find the Guanshiyin Bodhisattva and leave... Well, find her first, and then take a look. ."

She was a little nervous, after all, they were asking Guanshiyin Bodhisattva, asking Bodhisattva for help, asking others, or asking God, and they didn't know what the price would be.

"Then let's go to the bamboo forest."

Li Yun glanced at the village, "I won't go to the village to rest for now. When I passed by just now, I saw a large bamboo forest in the distance. Let's go there and look for it."

"Okay, fly away, hurry up, otherwise the sky will be dark." Wan Qingya urged. The sky inside this small world is the same as the sky outside, it's close to dusk.

"How can this work!"

Wan Nishang flicked her daughter's forehead strangely: "You were frizzy just now, but now you want to mess around again, no!"

Wan Qingya bulged her mouth. She was too excited. As long as she solved her physical problems, she could live with Li Yun and them carefree without worrying about the sudden disappearance.

Chapter 4217: bamboo forest

"All right."

Li Yun stretched out his hand and rubbed the elegant little head: "Since we have swept the pagoda religiously the day before yesterday, then we will walk again now to express our sincerity, do things to the end, and let's go."

Li Yun took the lead, Wan Qingya followed, and said, "Why is it not religious to fly in the sky? And the day before yesterday, what's the point of cleaning the pagoda with magic techniques and cleaning the pagoda with your hands? Is it different?"

To be honest, Concubine Wan Qing agreed with her sister's opinion and felt no different.

As for Wannu Clothes, I didn't think too much. It is not a humiliation to clean the pagoda by hand, and it is not difficult. If this can help Qingya, she would rather clean a hundred pagodas!

"Perhaps." Li Yun touched his chin, his eyes "deeply" and said: "This is the sense of ritual that life needs!"

"Sense of ritual?"

None of the three women could understand such Versailles and such profound words.

"Well, a sense of ritual!"

Li Yun took them to the bamboo forest on foot, and said, "What is the sense of ritual? For example, when we worship the ancestors during festivals, we will use livestock and joss sticks, but each of us understands that it is impossible for a dead person. After eating, the so-called sense of ritual is somewhat similar to sacrifice."

"Ranking." Concubine Wan Qing mocked her lips, saying that she did not approve of such an explanation.

"Another example."

Li Yun gave another example: "When eating dinner, a picnic does not actually make the food delicious, but when we eat lunch and dinner in the wild, we always have a sense of joy, which is also a sense of ritual. ."

"This is because I am in a good mood!" This time it was Wan Nishang's turn to attack Li Yun.

"For another example."

Li Yun smiled again: "We will give some flowers to the person we like on holidays, or give the ring to each other when we propose, etc. These are all rituals!"

".....gab."

The two women reluctantly agreed with this explanation, but they did not refuse such a gift.

Wan Qingya nodded, "I understand, the sense of ritual is to prove to others that our attitude has become upright and show our intentions?"

"Yup."

Li Yun agreed and said: "Life needs a sense of ritual, because our daily life is too boring, we need things like holidays to stimulate, the sense of ritual... We clean the pagoda by hand, and use magic to clean, there are two different things, when we clean the pagoda, we will also feel very happy, right?"

Of course Wan Nishang and Wan Qing concubine could not agree, only Qingya and honest, nodded fiercely with certainty. At that time, she did not feel tired, and chatted with her husband, sister, and mother slowly to ah, Buddha Tower, give her a very comfortable feeling.

If possible, she would like to come to such a thing.

However, even if you clean the pagoda, it's better to do other things.

"Okay, let's not talk about this, let's speed up our pace, try not to talk about it, lest...cough cough." lest there be ears on the wall.

After all, this is the place of others, and every word and deed may be heard by others.

Wan Qingya obediently closed her eyes, followed Li Yun, and took her sister's hand, but her eyes kept looking left and right, looking up and down, observing the Taoist temples on the distant mountains.

The more I look at it, the more I feel terrified. I really don't know how many gods are hidden in this place. It's terrifying.

Chapter 4218: Black Bear Monster (Part 1)

So after arriving at Zhulin, Wan Qingya was extraordinarily honest, but the three people around her were slightly surprised at her.

"Bamboo forest...Purple bamboo forest? Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva?"

Concubine Wan Qing looked at Li Yun. She still remembered that Li Yun told them that the purple bamboo forest is the residence of Guanshiyin Bodhisattva in the South Sea. However, the bamboo forest in front of the four of them is not purple, but a very ordinary green color. Bamboo forest.

But these bamboos are tall and green, with distinct bamboo sections, green bamboo leaves, and a thin layer of fallen leaves underneath. A winding path paved with stones extends into the depths of the bamboo forest. This scene is just for people to see. When I arrived, I felt relaxed and happy. I only felt that the bamboo forest was deep and the scenery was elegant, and my mood also calmed down.

In particular, there are a lot of birds singing on the bamboo, which makes it more peaceful and pleasant here.

"It is said to be."

Li Yun slowly walked into the bamboo forest, and the three women followed along.

But after walking out a few steps, Li Yun thoughtfully, arched his hand toward the bamboo forest, and said respectfully: "The bamboo forest has a way. It must be inhabited. The younger Li Yun is offended."

There is a gravel path in the bamboo forest that extends to the depths, which is enough to prove that there are people living inside. Since there are people living, you should always pay a visit to the other party's home.

If the other party is a mortal and speaks politely after such a distance, of course it is not necessary, but the other party is likely to be a * or a bodhisattva. Walking into the bamboo forest is equivalent to walking into the land of gods. Being polite is required .

"Junior Wanqing and elegant, come to visit Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva~~"

Wan Qingya also learned something, and said to the depths of the bamboo forest with her hands, her voice sounding like a little girl deliberately learning from an adult, especially cute.

Concubine Wan Qing held back a smile, and her mother, Wan Nishang, also bowed to the depths of the bamboo forest, but the two of them did not speak.

Concubine Wan Qing felt unnecessary. As for Wan's neon clothes, it was because she had lived for hundreds of years. If the person living in it was not a bodhisattva, but a certain practitioner in the village who was younger than her, she would claim to be Junior, isn't that embarrassing?

There were Li Yun and Qingya paying respects, it was enough, and she waited until she saw the people inside to salute.

"Let's go."

Li Yun smiled at the three girls: "I think we should be able to express our sincerity. If the person in the bamboo forest is a senior with a high level of cultivation, then we should be able to know our arrival."

"Oh~~"

Wan Qingya followed her husband's footsteps, then quietly took out the bamboo leaf and took a look, nothing happened.

However, the trip of the four of them was very smooth. They walked along the gravel road for more than ten minutes-mainly because the four did not go fast. They passed through the verdant bamboo forest all the way to a mountain, at the foot of the mountain. , I looked up and saw a courtyard between the foot of the mountain and the middle of the mountain.

After walking a few steps further, I saw a big rock with three big characters: Luojiashan.

By the stone, a huge black furbolg was leaning against the rock and fell asleep.

"what!!"

Wan Qingya yelled, hurriedly guarded, and exclaimed, "This bear demon is so big!"

Concubine Wan Qing also opened her eyes wide. This black bear was indeed strange and looked like a human when she fell asleep.

Wan Nishang stopped Qingya, frowning and said: "This black bear... is a little weird."

"Hahaha."

Li Yun laughed, and put his hands together in the courtyard in front of him. After three prayers, he shouted: "Junior Li Yun, come and visit Guanshiyin Bodhisattva!"

Chapter 4219: Black Bear Monster (Part 2)

Of course it is inappropriate for Guanyin Bodhisattva to call himself a junior.

But Li Yun couldn't think of what he claimed, so he could only use juniors. Moreover, the characters on this mountain gate stone are clearly Chinese characters, which proves that the Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva fully understands the culture of Huang Xuan country and already uses Chinese characters. Rather than the words on Asan's side, maybe even the Buddha.

Moreover, before the Bodhisattva Avalokitesvara enlightened the Dao, he was also an ancient person of Huang Xuan country. Maybe the Bodhisattva was different from the Bodhisattva Li Yun thought before.

"Huh? This is it?"

Wan Qingya was surprised.

"Yes, Luojiashan."

Li Yun pointed to the huge boulder, "This is where Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva lives in seclusion. Well, the premise is that no future generations will forge words at will."

The three women were very happy, and Wan Qingya urged: "Then let's go in, leave this black bear alone, let it continue to sleep!"

"Um....."

Li Yun thought about it, "I'll leave it for now. This black bear seems to be called the Black Bear Monster. It is the guardian of Luojiashan, and it can be regarded as an old senior... with high strength."

It seems a little weird to call a monster an old predecessor, but after the monster becomes the mount of the Immortal Bodhisattva, it is no longer a monster, but has a "weave". For example, the mount of a saint can be used by holding a diamond ring. Majesty is not simple.

"puff."

Wan Qingya's puffed mouth was discouraged, but she didn't say anything, just wait, because the scenery here is pretty good anyway.

Wan Qingya couldn't sit still, and walked around in front of the mountain gate, which made her sister very upset. She flashed over several times to catch her back.

But before long, Wan Qingya was restless again. Seeing that black bear was sleeping, she even wanted to poke it to see if the monster's fur was hard--the shiny black bear fur. It's literally.

"You girl, don't rest assured."

A woman's voice with a smile and cursing came from a distance, Wan Qingya was startled, and looked up at the courtyard.

The three of Li Yun were also taken aback. The Bodhisattva kept watching?

The black furbolg was also taken aback, his huge body sat up, and the huge bear's paw was standing on the ground without actually being trapped in the ground.

Moreover, after seeing the four of them, the black fur monster actually showed a humane expression, and he opened his mouth and shouted: "So you are here, don't call me, let the Bodhisattva wait, it's none of my business. ."

Wan Qingya covered her ears. This is probably just a normal speech, but the voice is still too loud.

The mother and daughter of Wan Nishang understood, and it was true that they were known by the great power on this island as soon as they came in, and even Guanshiyin Bodhisattva knew their intentions, so they sent this black bear to wait here.

It's just that the black bear fell asleep, leaving Li Yun and the four to wait here for so long in vain.

"It's you!"

Wan Qingya didn't suffer, and didn't care what it was, she stared at the black bear, "We have come very quickly, and it has been less than an hour since we came here. Are you still asleep, are you so tired?"

"Qing Ya!"

Wan Nishang was taken aback, and quickly grabbed his daughter, and said apologetically to the huge black bear: "Sorry, my girl child has nothing to say, and there are those who work for a long time."

"It's obviously its fault..." Wan Qingya wanted to mutter, but her mother covered her mouth.

"I am not a sage."

Chapter 4220: visit

"Now in this world, what can I do without sleeping? Also, I am not a venerable person. You can call me a black bear."

The black fur monster first answered Wan Qingya, and then answered Wan Qing concubine, and then the bear's paw pointed to the inside: "The Bodhisattva is inside. You walk along the road and walk to the backyard. When you see the lotus pond, the Bodhisattva is there. That's right. There is also a distinguished guest visiting today, who is...oooooo."

The words behind the black furbolg couldn't be said, and another woman's majestic and beautiful voice sounded in the air: "Talk more, you lead the way, let them... come in."

When talking about them, the woman paused, wondering if she didn't want the second person to enter.

"How about we..."

Wan Nishang hesitated for a while, but finally didn't say anything-if she didn't feed it in, it would not be impossible for her, Qing Concubine and Li Yun to stay outside.

Judging from the attitude at the moment, the people inside, no, they are gods, and their tempers are pretty good. Even if Qingya offends them, it won't offend too much.

"Yes, yes, female... oh oh."

The black furbolg wanted to name that person again, but he was slapped on his head by some kind of force, and he almost turned around three times on the spot.

Now the black furbolg has learned a lot, and he doesn't say anything, he keeps his mouth shut, and leads the way forward.

"It's disturbing."

Li Yun ignored that much, took Wan Nishang's hand, called the two sisters, and followed the black bear inward.

Wan Nishang glanced at him and murmured in his heart, this guy was really careful, even the expression she wanted to say just now was in his eyes, and he knew what she wanted to say.

The four followed the black furbolg through a garden and entered a classical courtyard. The style is no different from an ordinary ancient courtyard, except that the furniture is not so expensive and the window grilles are also common, but Jane is revealed everywhere. Ya, symbolizes the indifferent fame and fortune of the master here-all have become bodhisattvas, can you not indifferent to fame and fortune?

Behind the yard, there is a large clear lake. Many bright lotus blossoms are planted on the lake, or buds, or lotus seeds have been produced, or have withered, and so on.

After the lotus pond, there is a pavilion. Under the pavilion, two beautiful women in dresses are sitting opposite each other and drinking tea.

"Uh." Li Yun paused, and the concubine Wan Qing and Wan Nishang who had been paying attention to him, immediately looked over.

"No, nothing, just... a little surprised, cough."

Li Yun coughed to conceal his inner heart. After all, the Guanyin Bodhisattva in his impression was all holding a jade purifying bottle and stepping on the lotus throne, a picture of Guanyin Bodhisattva, who is compassionate to heaven and human beings.

As it is now, wearing a simple dress and a simple hairpin on her head, it is very different from the appearance of another woman sitting and drinking tea and chatting.

However, thinking of the "Journey to the West" novel that once Sun Wukong came to the Zizhu Forest to rescue soldiers, Sun Dasheng once again ran into the appearance of the Bodhisattva wearing home-made clothes. He didn't react at all, so he wanted to leave when he called the Bodhisattva.

The results of it? The Guanshiyin Bodhisattva, dressed in homely clothes, did not panic. After he was dressed neatly, he and Monkey King left the Zizhu Forest to help Tang Seng.

So, no matter whether it is a Bodhisattva, Buddha, gods, or saints, all human beings have an everyday aspect, with joy, anger, sorrow, and joy. Bodhisattvas probably also exist.

As for love and love, they are too vulgar, and the Bodhisattva probably disdains it, and the gods are the same.
