

Godly Choice 4251

Chapter 4251: Old things (middle)

"After that," the holy lord continued to say calmly: "That young man lived a happy life."

"?"

Had it not been far away from him, Wan Qingya would have cursed.

She thought that there would be unexpected plots in the future, such as the murder of his wife, the murder of his son, the exile of the old husband by the emperor, or the involvement of some major rebellion. That was the result?

"Just like this?" Fan Linglong asked, staring closely at the Holy Lord.

"It's almost like this."

The holy lord nodded, "After marrying the prime minister's daughter and having sons and daughters, the officialdom went smoothly. There was neither greed for meritorious advancement, nor as a clean stream or as a corrupt official. He worked steadily. After a few years as an official in Beijing, he went to other places, his wife and children. Then he followed, and returned to Beijing more than ten years later to become an official and became the mainstay of the imperial court. The daughter married a good family, the husband and son-in-law loved him, the mother-in-law was kind, and the son married the right lady who was respectful and respectful. He was also admitted as a Jinshi and went out. As an official, the other son became a military commander, and he was the emperor's personal guard in the capital."

The few people looked at each other. Such a person is almost the best life in ancient times. If nothing else, he will die at the age of 60 or 70. The children will keep their filial piety for one to three years. They will pay respects on New Year's Day and will remember him in a hundred years. There are very few people.

This kind of life is almost like this.

"No unexpected plot?"

Concubine Wan Qing asked in a deep voice from a distance.

"have."

Everyone's expressions were horrified.

"It can also be said that there is no."

"...You play with me!"

Wan Qingya shouted.

"Hahaha."

The holy lord laughed, "If you insist on talking about accidents, I'm afraid it is the young man, oh, it should be the high official. When he was in his fifties, he was too much to be an official. The new emperor was a little jealous of him. I gave him a concubine in an attempt to make his family feel uneasy, and then see how he reacts."

"whispering sound."

Wan Nishang scoffed at this, "The ancient concubines have nothing to say, even the loving couple, the husband will not say anything when marrying a concubine."

"indeed."

The Holy Lord nodded, "That high official thought so too, he didn't care. His wife did not care about the concubine at all, so she arranged a place for her to live in a courtyard by herself.

However, the concubine was restless. "

His tone finally changed, as if he was about to talk about important points.

But in fact, these things are still short of the parents. There is no cultivation of immortality, no martial arts, no medicine, no immortal law, nothing. The high official did not say that he met noble people and started practicing. Many years old, in ancient times, almost half of them stepped into the coffin, no matter how good the talent is, they can only wait for death!

It's just that the short things in the parents, from the mouth of a strong soul and light realm, have a unique story.

"Why restless?"

Wan Qingya cried out from the peach tree: "Did you force the high official, or did you attack his son?"

The words are rough and not rough. His words are to guide everyone to think about that. After all, a restless concubine can only think about this.

The holy lord smiled slightly: "Yes, not right. The concubine used some methods to make the magistrate's wife show mercy to her, so she asked her husband to consort with the concubine, and she would give birth to a son and a half daughter in the future. She will end up in retirement."

Chapter 4252: Old things (part 2)

"This is a good thing." I have been in the arena for many years. I know that women in ancient times had no children by their side. How miserable they are when they grow old. If some women did not give birth to a son, they would be kicked out of the house after the death of their husband. Room.

It's not alright to have a daughter. After all, the daughter is already married, unless another son inherits the house to survive.

That's why Fan Linglong said it was a good thing. Even if the concubine used the means to give birth to one and a half daughters, it would be a good thing for her, just suffering the lady.

But since the lady has given birth to compassion, it proved that she has also approved her.

"Then gave birth to a son? Or a daughter?"

Wan Qingya asked again, she wanted to see how this story would develop!

"The concubine finally gave birth to a son." The Holy Master said with certainty.

"Oh, what then?"

Everyone is a little weird, what's so strange about this story?

"I haven't finished talking yet."

The holy lord smiled and said, "Although the high official was in his fifties at the time, he was still in good health. In current terms, he was a handsome uncle, haha."

Everyone didn't laugh, so why was it so strange?

"So that concubine didn't want to do it after rounding up the room with him."

"Do it?!"

Everyone was very surprised.

"Um."

The holy lord chuckled: "I didn't say before. Her origin is quite unusual. She is from the Six Doors, and she escaped."

Everyone looked at each other, a concubine had such a bizarre origin, or that a woman who practiced spells actually became a woman of the imperial court?

This is really weird.

And it escaped.

"Escape?"

Is there anyone in the world who knows six things better than Concubine Wan Qing? no!

If there is, there must be only Wan Nishang, the former saint.

"Generally speaking, those who are willing to enter the six gates are unscrupulous and ambitious."

Wan Nishang added to her daughter: "If she escaped, it proves that she has offended a certain strong man or stole something, otherwise it will be impossible to escape."

Everyone in the six doors is arrogant, but the management is very lax. As long as you complete certain assigned tasks, you can get resources for practice. If you can't complete it, then I'm sorry. Get out of the six doors, six doors. Never raise waste inside.

The sage took a deep look at Wan Nishang, but still did not speak.

"indeed."

The Holy Lord nodded again, "She did steal something, and that thing happened to need a reliable man to cooperate with her experiment, so she used means to marry the high official. The reason is that. The high official once helped her parents, and she knows what she is, so she trusts each other."

"Oh." Wan Qingya didn't care about those things, and asked: "What did she stole? What do you mean by doing it? You said that she gave birth to a son for a high official. Isn't it because she fell in love with a high official?"

After Congliang, the female demon from Liudaomen fell in love with a committed man. Although this kind of story is a bit old-fashioned, it is still loved by many people. After all, Congliang is also a favorite plot.

"...It should be love."

The Holy Lord was silent for a long while before answering Wan Qingya, and continued: "Otherwise, she would not be a couple with him for 20 years, and only after the wife's old age, would she begin to implement her plan."

Chapter 4253: Failed plan plan!

Everyone finally heard the difference, and they all looked at him.

The holy lord did not sell Guanzi, and continued: "They have lived as a husband and wife for 20 years. During the period, the concubine adjusted the body for the high official, so that he could consummate the house in his seventies, but because there was no more elixir She didn't have the energy to prolong her life. After the high official's original wife lived 75 years old, she finally died."

At the age of seventy-five, he is tall and thin now, let alone ancient times.

"After the death of the wife who had a good relationship with her, her husband was also getting thinner, and it was impossible to manage it well, so she finally embarked on her plan with a cruel heart."

The saint tells the story from the perspective of the concubine, making people wonder if the protagonist is her?

"In fact, the so-called plan, she is not too sure whether she can succeed, her cultivation base is not good, she has just cultivated the **** realm, is close to the cultivation base of the virtual return realm, and has been away for many years, and her mana has been exhausted. 8. As a result, she only has one chance, success, all is well, failure, then everything will stop."

The concubine escaped from the six gates. Thirty years was not worth mentioning to the practitioners. She would definitely not be able to return to the six gates, let alone seek refuge in the Hidden Sacred Valley. She could only walk one way to the dark.

It's just that until now, everyone hasn't known what the so-called plan is, only until a man is needed to cooperate, and it is an extremely reliable cooperation, plus it is dangerous, it is likely to make that man lifeless.

It's no wonder that after this "concubine" escaped from six gates, he found the high official as her husband, and she had been a husband and wife with him for more than 20 years, serving the high official with the gentle body of a cultivator for many years.

Li Yun felt that the concubine must have feelings for the high official, but she did not completely abandon her plan. When the high official was about to die, she finally took action.

"Next," the holy master slowly said: "The concubine obtained the trust of the high official, and found some death row prisoners, collected their flesh and blood and put them into their own belly."

Everyone was surprised.

There are no lack of evil spells in the six gates, and there are many ways to practice Gu, but if the flesh and soul of others are directly incorporated into the body, some evil spells are still vaguely carried out in the way of fertility. See.

"I don't remember this spell." Wan Nishang said directly. She used to be a saint and lived for hundreds of years. She hadn't seen it before, and almost disappeared.

"That is the magic she realized from the thing she stole."

The Holy Lord explained.

Li Yun felt a little scalp numb, and the wife who had been with him for many years, perhaps she was still very gentle in the past, everything was well-behaved and soft, but she was secretly studying a treasure stolen from the six doors, and delving into an evil from it. Spells.

How can you not make your scalp numb?

But the high official trusted her.

In other words, actually trusted her!

"Is it an excuse to resurrect her wife?" Wan Qingya guessed.

"Correct."

The Holy Lord said calmly: "That's what the concubine said. If it succeeds, some may indeed resurrect the wife, but it didn't succeed, it failed, and the high official died."

Everyone was waiting for his follow-up, but there was no follow-up.

The holy lord said: "The woman was prepared for failure. After the death of the official, she was ashamed for a while, but for the child in her womb, she still survived. At the time, amidst all the discussions, she gave birth to a big man. The official's son."

Chapter 4254: Confused

"Wow!"

Wan Qingya exclaimed, "When her husband died and gave birth to children, people at the time couldn't point to her spine and curse?"

Li Yun glanced at her, Qingya also deliberately changed her husband to her husband? Husband is called him, evasive?

"Ah, that's not right!"

Wan Qingya screamed again and looked at the Holy Master in surprise: "The son of the concubine is actually twenty years later?!"

She remembered that the holy lord said before that the concubine gave birth to a son for the high official, but she didn't expect the birth to be 20 years later?

Everyone also looked towards the Holy Lord, could it be that this son is the protagonist?

"Yes, twenty years after the concubine married the high official, she gave birth to a...son for him."

When talking about his son, the Holy Lord paused, his expression seemed to change a little.

"This son... is it you?"

The Holy Master, who had been silent, finally spoke slowly, revealing the reason for the change in the expression of the Holy Master.

Everyone suddenly realized that he had said so much just to tell his own life experience? The life experience of the son born to a traitor from Liudaomen and a court commander is indeed somewhat unusual.

But it's still wrong.

Fan Linglong stared at the holy lord with electricity, and asked in a quiet voice: "If you are an outsider, how did you get into the Hidden Sacred Valley?!"

The holy lord did not answer the questions of the two men, with a leisurely tone and an ethereal expression, and continued: "After the concubine gave birth to her son, she knew she could no longer continue to live in the family of the high official, so she created a scene of suspended animation in the fire. With his son who was just born less than three months old, he flew away and settled down near a village by a river."

Li Yun is keenly aware of the problem, and he remembers it so clearly-or to tell these things, I am afraid that he knows these things well, or even experienced them personally.

But as Fan Linglong said, how did he get into the Hidden Sacred Valley?

Is that concubine's son, he?

"After that, the concubine relied on some residual mana to lead a fairly prosperous life, and raised her son by herself."

"Until 14 years later, she and her son are in the same room."

"what!!"

Everyone was startled. What happened to the concubine and the son of a high-ranking official?

Li Yun was also a little shocked. Although it was messy in ancient times, er, there are also these things in modern times. For example, some emperors often engage in unconventional things. The pharaoh country that Li Yun had visited before, in order to maintain the orthodoxy of blood, father and daughter, Sisters and younger brothers, older brothers and older sisters, mothers and sons are all recorded in the annals of history.

But the emperor's family can, but ordinary people can't.

The concubine and his son have such an unusual relationship, and they will be scolded no matter where they are placed.

"It's really chaotic." Wan Qingya briefly commented, "What then? Give birth to a son again?"

"Yes."

The Holy Lord's brief answer shocked everyone again, and the relationship was messy enough.

"The concubine and him went to live elsewhere. No one knew about her relationship with him, and the two recovered the fact that they were husband and wife."

"But that son is still getting old day by day, and the concubine has little mana left, so he can barely make him live to fifty years old. This time she has no extra mana to cast that spell. In the end, she decided to nurture her with her own life. His offspring, both of them died when their son was born."

Everyone really doesn't know what to evaluate.

Obviously it is a history of entangled love and hatred for a hundred years, but weirdness is revealed everywhere, especially the concubine.

Chapter 4255: generations

She escaped from the six gates, and then sacrificed herself with the high officials and her son. A series of operations were so strange that people could not judge her.

"Where are the two sons?"

Wan Qingya asked casually, this story is too long.

"Before the two of them died, he had commissioned a trusted friend to adopt his son by his side after he and his wife, the concubine, died. Fortunately, his friend did his job very well and treated his son. As if he were living with him, knowing that he didn't like reading, I taught him some superficial martial arts."

Li Yun said: "That is to say, this son is already in the third generation, starting from the imperial court order."

"Yes, the third generation son."

The holy lord was expressionless, and continued to tell: "Relying on years of experience, he showed his talents in martial arts. After the age of fourteen, he was able to worship famous sects and learned a higher level of vitality movement exercises. At the age of 30, we can achieve congenital perfection."

Everyone still has no idea about this. The weakest people in this room are the Void Rebirth Realm, and they can hang several ordinary Void Rebirth Realms. They are congenital consummation, and they are as weak as children in front of everyone.

"Finally started martial arts." Wan Qingya was a little impatient, "This is the third generation son, how long is this story?"

"There are still a few more generations."

Ignoring the strange glances around him, the Holy Master continued: "The 30-year-old is congenially consummate. He can only be called a genius, but he cannot be called a peerless genius."

His potential is quickly exhausted, and he knew it very early. In this regard, when he was twenty-five years old, he married a young daughter of his adoptive father and gave birth to some children."

"Unfortunately, when his wife gave birth to the last young son, he accidentally got poisoned by the enemy and died after three months. His wife also died not long after giving birth to the young son."

"The youngest son-now in the fourth generation, he has also shown amazing talents. He was born at the age of ten, born at the age of thirteen, congenital at the age of twenty-two, and at the age of forty, he is a rare martial artist in a century. Learn genius."

"However, out of fear, his wife insisted on refusing to give birth to his youngest son. He had to imprison his wife and give birth to the youngest son with her. When the others arrived, they only found the husband and wife. The corpse, and a small baby that just crawled out of the mother's body."

This story finally moved to a weird place.

Everyone who heard this has already noticed the unusualness of this story: the male protagonist of each generation will give birth to a son with his wife and then die.

Especially the fourth generation, why is the wife afraid? Moreover, the fourth-generation son crawled out of his mother's body, and the **** picture seemed to be reflected in everyone's mind, full of evil feelings.

No one spoke.

"Fifth Generation."

The holy lord slowly said: "He is more powerful than the previous generation. He has reached the congenital Dzogchen, this perfect martial arts realm that no one has reached for thousands of years. This time, he finally attracted the attention of the six gates, a return to the virtual realm. The Venerable sent his disciples and led him back into the six gates."

"Since then, he has soared into the sky, and after entering the Dao with martial arts, he has become a strong man in the Void Return Realm within a hundred years!"

"I see!!"

Fan Linglong looked at the holy lord firmly: "That person is called the homecomer, it is your father!!"

Suddenly, everyone finally talked about people they were familiar with.

Chapter 4256: Amazing insider

"I know him too."

Wan Nishang said: "It's called Ji Ming. He entered the Tao with martial arts. During the battle of the sacred demon, he hooked the daughter of the Valley Lord of the Hidden Sacred Valley. Relying on his achievements in reconciling the relationship between the two factions, he has since become the only one who is a hidden sage. Son-in-law Gu is also a member of the Six Dao Sects."

Everyone present has heard of this history, and it is also legendary.

"To be precise, it's lost."

The Lord's face was a little sad, "The lost traveler is not my father, he is me."

"what?!"

Everyone was surprised at first, and then thought of a possibility--almost impossible possibility, which made them feel as if struck by lightning in an instant, so shocked and astonished that they were beyond words.

"good."

The Holy Lord sighed and said: "I am Ji Ming, and I am also Ji Ming's son Ji Yongnian. I am also Ji Ming's father, Ji Ming's grandfather, and grandfather... The imperial order officer whose parents have both died is me, the imperial order officer and concubine. The son I gave is me, and the offspring born to my concubine and son are still me."

Everyone only felt that the waves in the sea of knowledge were turbulent, and the three views of common sense were greatly shocked.

In the story that the Holy Lord just told, every male protagonist is him, and every generation of son is him.

Li Yun thought of many things in an instant.

In the beginning, the Holy Lord was just an ordinary young man whose parents had died. Later, he became a court commander and married a concubine who defected from the Six Doors, and his fate changed.

"That concubine, what was stolen, is the six mirrors of reincarnation?!"

Wan Nishang stood up abruptly and looked at the Holy Lord as if he were still stubbornly.

"Six Paths of Reincarnation... Isn't this a fairy artifact of the Six Paths?"

Concubine Wan Qing was very surprised.

"Yes, the fairy is fine, it hasn't been stolen."

Wan Nishang also knows about Liudaomen.

Both sects of cultivating immortals have a magical artifact. If the six sects lose the artifact, they will surely dig the ground and find it out. It is impossible to let that concubine carry it with him for twenty years!

"The so-called Six Paths of Reincarnation," Afraid that Li Yun and Fan Qingsheng would not understand, Wan Nishang explained: "Its greatest effect is to continuously release spiritual artifacts for use by people in the six doors. It can be said that there is no such thing. There are no six gates in the face of a mirror. However, according to ancient legends, it is also the key to controlling the six reincarnations. If you master it, you can control the reincarnation of life and death in the world, and you can be free...reincarnated!"

Wan Nishang looked at the Holy Lord again, reincarnation, isn't it realized in him?

The concubine was not married to her son, she gave birth to her husband's reincarnation. No wonder the two have been in love for decades, and it is no wonder that the concubine desperately has to cast another reincarnation spell before she died.

"good."

The holy lord said sadly: "My wife, after performing reincarnation for the second time, she ran out of oil and died. Fortunately, after a lifetime, the reincarnation state has merged with me, and I was able to reincarnate twice in the back. But that's all. If I don't have mana to support the reincarnation realm, it will not be able to bring me to reincarnation again, so I tried my best to attract the attention of the six gates and worship inside the six gates."

Everyone understood that he only knew the six gates at the time, but didn't know how to find them. It was only from his wife that he learned that the six gates would attract some martial arts geniuses. That's why he continued to practice hard. After three lifetimes, he finally reached the congenital perfection. , Worship into the six gates.

Chapter 4257: the truth

All the truth is revealed.

"Are you worthy of that wife who was imprisoned by you?!"

Concubine Wan Qing shouted sharply.

She remembered that in the fifth life, his wife was unwilling to use reincarnation spells on him, so he was imprisoned and died.

Everyone looked at the Holy Lord, and the atmosphere became cold and solemn.

"... Over the past thousand years, I have been sorry for too many people."

After a long silence, the Holy Lord slowly said: "My first wife, the prime minister's daughter, she and I are very affectionate, but because once, I saw the concubine taking off her shoes and washing her feet in the back garden. I persuaded my concubine to round up the room with my expression."

Combining the previous events, Li Yun understood what happened: the concubine who escaped from the six gates wanted to experiment with the six reincarnations, so he hooked him by taking off his shoes and washing his feet in the lake in the back garden.

Those who practice magic have skin white as jade, presumably the little feet of the concubine are also white and smooth, only slightly exposed once, which surprised the saint master who was still the imperial order officer at that time.

"I'm sorry Yan'er too."

The Holy Lord said again: "She gave birth to me. From the look in my eyes when I was born, she recognized me and guessed the function of the six reincarnation mirrors, but she did not despise me, nor was she disappointed, but took me. When I left and raised me, I was treated like a mother and a wife... Many years later, Yan'er also sacrificed herself and let the reincarnation state merge with me. I am sorry for her."

"I'm also sorry to Xiao Ru. She was very timid. After learning about my incident, she refused to do so. I comforted her. But when she was 60 years old, I finally couldn't wait. She was just an ordinary warrior, and she was barren. I couldn't give birth to the next me, so I imprisoned her and lied to her that if we fail, we will die together... She believed it."

Everyone was silent, Wan Qingya was very uncomfortable, how could that little Ru be so stupid? Sixty years old, or stupid? No, no, she just confessed her fate, gave her life and made her husband perfect...

"I'm even more sorry to Xuemei...your Aunt Mei."

The Holy Lord looked at Fan Linglong. The Xuemei in his mouth was Fan Linglong's Aunt Mei and the daughter of the former Hidden Sacred Valley Lord.

In Fan Linglong's original perception, the Holy Lord is the son of Aunt Mei, but in reality, the Holy Lord is not only the son of Aunt Mei, but also her husband!

"Xuemei is a lively and cheerful girl. She trusts me very much. I said that I had no choice but to join Liudaomen. She believed it and helped me break through the Void Return. She brought me to the Hidden Holy Valley and met her father. ."

"After... after I got married, I told her what happened. She was shocked. After thinking about it for a few days, she forgave me, but she told me not to continue this kind of thing."

"It's just... I'm not reconciled. After becoming the Void Returning Realm, I can do more things. I will reincarnate myself with a ray of soul and become my child and her."

"She...should have discovered this."

The holy lord looked at Fan Linglong, who clenched his fist, looking like he was about to collapse and explode.

Li Yun went and hugged her shoulders to comfort her.

"Yes, Aunt Mei found it!"

Fan Linglong looked at the Lord indifferently: "She is very sad, standing alone on the edge of the cliff, standing for a long time."

The Holy Lord was silent, and sighed for a long time.

Chapter 4258: Believe it or not

Fan Linglong said coldly: "Aunt Mei also told me that if one day the Hidden Sacred Valley is destroyed, it must be because of her!"

The saint master lowered his face, and such a secret and strange thing happened under his nose. An evil person who had been reincarnated many times had actually become the valley owner of the Hidden Sacred Valley!

Only one person noticed such a ridiculous thing in the Hidden Sacred Valley, and it was not enough to perish ten times.

"She still doesn't believe me, how could I destroy the Hidden Sacred Valley?"

The Holy Lord sighed: "However, for a person like me, it is also human instinct that she doesn't believe, and I don't blame her."

"Do you still want to blame others?!" Wan Nishang stood on the other side of Fan Linglong, and said coldly.

"Indeed, I can't blame others."

"Whether you believe it or not, when I know about reincarnation, my greatest wish is to let those who I missed and whose vitality has disappeared reappear in front of me."

His wives?

"Humans cannot be resurrected. To be more precise, after their souls disappear, they are destined to not...resurrect!"

Li Yun wanted to pretend to be forced, but suddenly remembered that his girlfriend Xiao Su, the former Goddess of Light, hadn't he been resurrected before? Although she said it was an incomplete resurrection, it was an illusion, not a phantom, or a human being, but for ordinary people, these resurrected people are no different from living people.

"Really? It's man-made, who knows."

Obviously, the Holy Lord did not believe Li Yun's words, and retorted with a slight smile.

"Do you think it's right for you to do this?"

Fan Linglong suppressed her anger, and the people she had known since childhood suddenly became an elder, and the Holy Lord was still reincarnating. I'm sorry I don't know how many people, imprisoned wives, violated morals, wives turned mothers, and so on.

Enough to make people with normal three views feel sick!

"Right or wrong, it doesn't matter anymore."

The Holy Lord Feng Qingyun said calmly: "I have come to this point, and there is only one obsession in my heart. I want to see more possibilities. Whether it's humans or this world, I also want to see the past. Those people, in order to achieve this goal, I can sacrifice some unrelated people, of course, not including you."

The Holy Lord smiled slightly, "I am not hypocritical or ruthless. I am just a normal person who has been reincarnated many times. I take good care of the people around me. If I can plan smoothly, it would be great. If not, sacrifice some. People, it's okay. In this regard, Ten Thousand Faxian is very similar to me."

Everyone was shocked by his three views, and they didn't know what to say.

"if,"

Sage Fanqing, who had not spoken all the time, finally slowly said: "I blocked your way, will you kill me?"

Fan Linglong looked at her with some worry in her heart.

The Holy Lord is very good to Qingsheng. He used to be a good elder, but now...

"Sage Qing girl." The sage master said in a deep voice: "Don't talk about feelings with such a person, his hypocrisy has been carved into his bones!"

"Hahaha."

The holy lord laughed and said to the holy master: "Your words prove that you and I have drank tea so many times, but you still don't understand me, so you are not as clever as Qing Sheng."

The sage is unmoved: "I don't think that a person who hides his identity can easily let people see through his heart!"

"Really, that's a shame."

Everyone immediately became vigilant, but Sage Fanqing did not move and kept looking at him.

"Qingsheng, your question is very good."

Chapter 4259: God Game

The Holy Lord continued: "If the person I value blocks my way, then I will try every means to get around. I really can't get around, and I will also think of a way to get the best of both worlds... When I imprisoned Xiaoru, Actually, I was ready to die with her, but I was alive again."

"Weigh the pros and cons, and then choose." Fan Qingsheng's voice revealed a kind of inexplicable Qing Ling, and his words revealed the essence of his words.

Let him remain silent for a long time.

"you are right."

The holy lord's voice was ethereal: "If they also become obstacles to my way, I will weigh the pros and cons, and then make a choice. I did not cherish the person in front of me, but when I lost it, I would regret it."

Li Yun understood that he could clearly recognize his shortcomings, but he could not change it.

There are many people like this, but the power of the Holy Lord is too strong, making people think that he is more decisive and cruel, but no, he also has this problem.

"Go underground and confess with them!"

Fan Linglong said coldly.

The people present have increased their vigilance, or that they have been vigilant about the Holy Lord. Now that Fan Linglong says this, they are even more worried that the Holy Lord will suddenly attack.

"You want to kill me?" The Holy Lord asked Fan Linglong back.

"Do you think we can't do it?!"

"No, I just want to know why."

"Humph!"

Fan Linglong held back her anger, because she knew that getting angry with such a person would not help. He had already stepped into his mind, and his thinking was so stubborn that no one could change it. If he was angry, he would not change anything.

Probably not even ashamed!

After living distorted for so many years, his heart may have been distorted, even though he still felt that he was doing those things just to pursue something.

"Killing you is for the good of the world!" Fan Linglong said coldly, "A person like you has no courtesy, justice and shame, and regards human life as something that can be sacrificed."

"Those who started the war are not the same?"

"No, you and them are different!"

"Yes."

The Holy Lord looked at Fan Linglong for a long time and smiled softly: "Perhaps you are right, but my goal has basically been achieved. Gods have already appeared. If they have a way to change the world or resurrect the dead, I will take it sooner or later. When you get it, the road has appeared. You kill me now, and you kill me in the future are the same."

Li Yun understood what he meant, "You have mastered the six-way reincarnation mirror?!"

The hidden meaning of the Holy Lord is that he can reincarnate infinitely and quickly regain his power, and now he cannot be killed at all here.

"The gods have a way to kill you." Wan Nishang sarcastically said: "Since the Six Paths of Reincarnation Realm is something they created, there must be ways to restrain it, what do you think?"

The Holy Lord smiled and said: "Of course, including my existence, are all in the plans of those gods."

Everyone was stunned.

"I guessed it a long time ago."

The holy lord smiled: "When the six mirrors of reincarnation were brought out for the first time, it was just a small fragment. Later, I studied it and found that this mirror cannot be divided, at least in the Soul and Bright Realm.

This means that the six mirrors of reincarnation that the concubine stole at the beginning were actually given to her deliberately by a certain god.

The purpose is to cultivate people like the Holy Lord...?

Or, what other purpose is there? !

But it is almost certain that the Holy Lord also knows very clearly that he is a **** of the gods!

Chapter 4260: The next valley owner

The Holy Lord is just a **** of the gods.

Li Yun thought of many things in an instant, including his system, including Nie Xiaoqian who was originally sealed by Fan Linglong, and the ghost gate that Nie Xiaoqian entered after his death, the voice of the woman behind the book of life and death, and the remains of many gods.

Even the island where he went with Wan Qingya not long ago, the Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva he met, was tricked by that woman, and spent a mischievous night with Wan Nishang's three daughters and so on.

All of these show, or prove, that the shadow of the gods is everywhere.

They may not show up too many times, but their influence is in every aspect. The more you come into contact with these things, the more you can feel the gods looking at you behind your back. As long as you pursue these things, you will never be able to avoid the gods.

"Then you are really miserable enough to become someone else's pawn."

Wan Nishang said mockingly, she still cares about Fan Linglong very much.

It's just... Li Yun has been affected by AOE (wide-area attack). Was his system made by a god? Did the woman who was with Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva a few days ago want to beat him up, or is it a "chess player" who is already laying out him?

Although the woman did not mean anything to him, Li Yun always responded a little.

"There are not many people in the world who can be used as flags."

The Holy Lord chuckled, "However, I am not sitting still, I have decided not to reincarnate, but to find the truth in this life, and now the only thing I can't let go of is the Hidden Sacred Valley."

"hehe."

Saint Master sneered, obviously no longer believed his nonsense.

As his old friend, the Holy Lord did not defend himself, but said: "I saw the signs of the Hidden Sacred Valley. Forcing those people to stay is only aggravating the risk of conflict, so I will hide the Holy Valley. The treasures in the valley are hidden and left for future inheritors."

"In your eyes, maybe a 'traitor' like me is not qualified to appoint the next Holy Lord, but." He looked at Li Yun and smiled: "If I come to appoint the Holy Lord, the first choice is you, Li Yun. ."

"I?"

"Yes, you are most suitable for the next Lord."

"I'm not from Hidden Sacred Valley, I don't know anything about the situation here."

"Never mind the minutiae, being able to see through is the most important thing."

Seemingly time is running out, the Holy Master continued: "The second one is suitable, Concubine Wan Qing."

"I!?"

Concubine Wan Qing was almost shocked.

"Yes. You are also suitable to be the Holy Master of the Hidden Sacred Valley, at least you are not a fool. You have performed well in several actions, and you can retreat in the end, being cautious and very suitable for leading the Hidden Sacred Valley."

"The third one, Qing Sheng, you have a cold temper, although you are not suitable for being a valley master, but if you have Li Yun as a military adviser, you can sit in the position of the Holy Master."

"Fourth, Linglong is not good for you. You are easily driven by emotions, but like Qingsheng, you can find Li Yun to advise you."

"Fifth... my old friend."

The holy lord looked at the holy master sitting opposite him and sighed: "Although you have no intention of being a holy lord, if you sit in this position, you can make the valley peaceful, and the hearts of the people will not float, but that's all. It's just that you can keep it, but you can't open up. It's okay that the external situation has not changed any more. Once the world changes drastically, you will definitely not be able to keep up with the changes of the times. Decline slowly."
