

Godly Choice 4281

Chapter 4281: go back

Li Yun and them stayed in the Hidden Sacred Valley for three days, Fan Linglong spent two days dealing with things, and the next day was to accompany them to play in the valley. As the saints of the six gates, Wan Nishang and the three of them did this for the first time. Visit the Hidden Sacred Valley with a leisurely mind

However, even though they were very curious about the Spiritual Qi Rift, they didn't go in and check it, leaving it to the strength to increase later.

For the past three days, Li Yun also had a very comfortable life. Fan Linglong's double bed was transformed into a large bed, which could accommodate seven or eight people. Li Yun and the others were chatting on it at night and slowly. Exchanging emotions, but Qing Sheng still did not suffer from Li Yun's misfortune. She was always calm and quietly reading a book. Li Yun only got intimacy with her a few times, and then went on a date with her later.

When they left, Fan Linglong, Wan neon clothes, Wan Qingya, and Wan Qing concubine were all radiant and ruddy. It can be seen that although they scolded Li Yun as shameless and hateful as a pervert, they still liked it very much. of.

"Shall we go to Liudaomen next time?"

After leaving the Enchantment of the Hidden Sacred Valley, Wan Qingya still had some thoughts, and actively proposed.

Her sister's face flushed, she stretched out her hand to squeeze her sister's cheek, and said, "It's just over, do you think about it again? You can't do this in your mind. You haven't read the Buddhist scriptures recently, right?"

Although the scenery in the Hidden Sacred Valley is very good, there are few things to play. Wan Qingya and Concubine Wan Qing have been wandering in the valley with Li Yun since the second day, under the cliffs, under the shade of the trees, by the river, and among the flowers. Wait, I felt the scenery all over the place.

Until now, Concubine Wan Qing recalled that she felt a little weak in her legs.

The villain Li Yun is a big bull and he is tireless at all.

"What?" Wan Qingya blinked innocently, "I just said to visit Liudaomen, but I didn't say that when I visited, I would go crazy together...well."

She covered her mouth, and after speaking, she said about their three days.

"Six doors? Okay." Li Yun was still in the mood, and was the first to agree.

"Go to hell!" x3

Except for Fan Qingsheng and Wan Qingya, the three beautiful beauties who had been with him for three days in the hidden sacred valley scenery all gave him a wink.

Li Yun and Wan Qingya looked at each other and smiled. Qingya still muttered something. Obviously sister and mothers also like it very much. It's your sister every time you are the longest.

Concubine Wan Qing gave her another burst of chestnut, and she finally stopped.

"Let's go back."

Li Yun held Qingsheng's little hand, it was really hard for her these three days.

When Li Yun and Qingya were playing in the Hidden Sacred Valley, Fan Qingsheng did not join, but she followed silently, watched them, read the book, and saw that they were messing around with Li Yun. Fortunately, the Hidden Sacred Valley has been No one can disturb Fan Linglong, the new Holy Master.

"Li Yun."

Sage Fanqing raised those cold eyes and asked softly: "Is it over?"

Regarding the Hidden Sacred Valley and the Six Doors, and about the gods, almost all the secrets have been revealed. If it is said that it is over, it also makes sense. I will leave the rest to the later to slowly explore.

"ended."

Li Yun scratched Qingsheng's Qiong nose and said with a smile: "It's not over. We will have a long time to come, and there will be a long, long time before the end."

"Yeah." Fan Qingsheng replied lightly, his eyes seemed to show a little smile.

These days, although she did not participate in Li Yun and their pranks, she was very happy.

Chapter 4282: pressure

"Okay~~"

Wan Qingya smiled and hugged Li Yun's arm, "For a long time, for tens of thousands of years, millions of years, we will all play together, go to the Antarctic, the North Pole, the islands, the hidden sacred valley of the six gates, and the places of the gods. , Play it all again!"

Concubine Wan Qing blushed, and the same goes for her master and mother Fan Linglong.

The play that Qingya this girl said was not just going to play, but also going with Li Yun, husky, and even the girls from Zhonghai City, forming a group to go around the whole world in a mess.

One hundred years in a country, ten thousand years?

What about ten thousand years from now?

Why do you think so much? As long as their husband is with them, they will be willing for tens of thousands of years, and it will be a big deal again. Besides, the world after 10,000 years will be different from the world now.

Is there space?

"Ah, I look forward to it~~~"

Wan Qingya came over, blushing a bit, and said with a chuckle: "Husband, let's go back to the big villa tonight, and play with them, right?"

"no!"

Wan Nishang sullen his face, "You come home with me tonight and leave time for them!"

"Well, do you have a turn? Okay, tomorrow night."

"Nor tomorrow night."

"Hey? Why? I want it, husband, okay~~"

"Uh, go ask."

"Yes, I'll go to the fairies to ask!"

Amid the noise, Li Yun took them back to Zhonghai City.

The evening was another day when the women gathered together. After Gong Qingyu and the others heard about what happened in the Hidden Sacred Valley, they were both surprised and regretful about Ji Yongnian's affairs, but also happy that they finally resolved a big matter.

"In other words, can you finally calm down?" Gong Qingyu squinted at Li Yun, waiting for his answer.

During this period of time, Li Yun spent almost a few days in Zhonghai City, and then went out for a few days, and the women got used to it.

But now that the Hidden Sacred Valley and the gods have come to an end, he can always accompany them, right?

"Go to class together?"

Fang Xue said in anticipation that Xiao Mingzhu, who was in the same class as Li Yun, looked over with shining eyes.

"It can be, but..."

Li Yun spread his hands, "I might have to visit Lingxian every few days. I decided to see her during the Chinese New Year, but now I am not free."

"There are also Xiaomeng and Tianfeng from Beijing, and Liuli and Feiyao from Penglai Island, right?"

Xiao Mingzhu said the names of these girls, which made Li Yun even more guilty. He owed enough. Until the end of August, stay with them.

"Um."

Li Yun nodded.

"If you want to go, go." Gong Lian said softly, "As long as you are safe outside, you can go and see them. Lingxian I remember saying that she wants to open a hospital. I paid attention to it and bought two. Sanjia, I don't know if she wants to use it when that happens."

The girls didn't have any opinion, but Li Yun was surprised to feel that Lian Yi's words were really bold enough, and several hospitals said they would buy it.

However, money is just like running water to him, so he doesn't need to care.

"Well, when I go to see Lingxian, I will come back to accompany you to class!"

"Hehe, brother, take us and Xiaoxiao to the amusement park, right?"

"Well, all... well, by the way, a date."

Li Yun looked at several women, including the Saint Fanqing, Concubine Wanqing, Gong Xiaochun, they did not date them, and there was also Fan Linglong and Wan Nishang. When a large group of girls got together, Li Yun's The pressure is particularly great.

But take your time.

Chapter 4283: Goodbye Lingxian

Three days later.

Li Yun entered the Tiandan Gate and after passing through a small forest, he walked along the gravel road. He smelled a scent of herbal medicine from a distance. After a few steps, he saw a large colorful herbal garden in front of the garden. Enclosed by a wooden fence, there is a pavilion in the middle of the garden with a teapot and cups on it. It has a wide view around it. It must be very comfortable when drinking tea while smelling the fragrance of herbs.

However, Li Yun did not focus his attention on the pavilion, but at a glance, he saw a slim and slender woman in the garden, in front of an elegant wooden house.

The moment he saw her, Li Yun's heart felt warm.

The woman in the white skirt turned her back to him, and in front of him was a pot for cooking herbs. She and another young girl were busy cooking things. The smoke was rising, and the girl and the woman coughed and coughed. .

"Wow, elder sister, it's going to explode."

As more and more smoke came out, the young girl screamed, hurriedly pulled up the white skirt woman and turned around and fled.

Puff~.

The lid of the covered iron pan was lifted off, and more smoke came out, causing the two of them to hurriedly hide further.

only.

".....what."

The woman in the white dress, who was so smoky and tearful, was stunned. She stared in front of her, her original white and beautiful goose egg face, with an expression of error and astonishment, whispered: "Fragrantberry, I seem to have a hallucination... .."

"What illusion?" The person in front of her slowly approached and asked with a smile on his face.

"It's... I saw him."

"who is he?"

"It's... my fiance."

"Yes?"

The person standing in front of the woman in the white skirt stretched out his hand, wiped away the tears on her face, and pushed her messy hair away, exposing her gray face.

The two looked at each other.

The tears of the woman in the white dress gradually disappeared, and she gradually saw the person in front of her. Her small cherry mouth gradually opened and widened, and finally, with a cry of ah, she called out:

"Li... Yun!!!"

Xiang Berry, a young girl, was taken aback.

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. She hugged the woman in the white skirt, the Shangguan Lingxian who had been making alchemy at Tiandanmen, in her arms, wrapped her arms around her slender waist, and looked at her at close range.

"Is it a surprise?"

Li Yun said with a smile.

After spending a few days with Fang Xue and the others in Zhonghai City, he quickly decided to visit Shangguan Lingxian, without notifying anyone, and the girls in the group did not say, just to surprise Shangguan Lingxian.

Now it seems that this surprise is really too big.

Shangguan Lingxian was stunned for a while, and then suddenly hugged Li Yun, showing an overjoyed smile, with his soft body pressed against him, and asked: "Li Yun, is that you?"

"It's me."

"Really you?!"

"It's not me, who else would dare to... pinch your face?"

Li Yun stretched out his hand, squeezing the face of the fairy psychic doctor.

The familiar feeling came up, making Shangguan Lingxian finally dared to be sure that the person holding him in front of him was her lover.

The joy in my heart reached the highest level, Shangguan Lingxian plunged into Li Yun's arms, hugged him tightly, and whispered: "Li Yun, I miss you so much..."

"Well, I miss you too. I just came to see you now. It's really my dereliction of being a boyfriend and a fiancé."

"No... I'll be satisfied if you can come."

Chapter 4284: Look in the mirror

Li Yun and Shangguan Lingxian hugged each other tightly. I don't know who took the initiative. The lips of both sides quickly closed together, and it was Shangguan Lingxian who took the initiative to hold Li Yun's face and stood on tiptoes with passion Kiss him.

Xiang Berry on the side was stunned. It was the first time she saw Sister Lingxian like this... warmly.

In the past, Sister Lingxian had a spring breeze but alienated attitude towards any other men who tried to approach her. Men could approach her and talk to her, and she was also willing to help treat patients or explain medical techniques to brothers and sisters.

But if those men want to chat with her alone, I'm sorry, sister Lingxian will not agree at all, and even when she wants to make some flattering actions, sister Lingxian will tell her seriously that she has a fiancé, so Stop doing such a thing and so on.

But now?

As soon as Sister Lingxian met her fiancé, she just... she proactively stood on tiptoe and kissed him eagerly regardless of her own image.

The kiss was so affectionate, so lingering, that Xiang Berry suspected that if Ling Xian sister and her fiancé met alone in the evening, I'm afraid they would kiss and walk towards the house.

Then, to, to... It took several hours to walk out of the house.

Oh, so ashamed.

Xiang Berry covered her eyes with her small hands, and her palms covered her red cheeks, but in the gaps between her fingers, there were two big smoky eyes, looking straight at the two of them.

Sister Lingxian's fiancé, so handsome...

He was so gentle to Sister Lingxian, he kept hugging her slender waist so that Sister Lingxian could kiss him easily.

"Huh~~"

I don't know how long it took before Lingxian Sister and that Li Yun slowly ended this passionate and affectionate kiss. Xiang Berry could see that his hands and feet were soft, he could hardly stand up, and his face blushed transparently.

She saw it, a silver silk thread connected the lips of the two.

Very powerful.

Sister Lingxian, very powerful~.

"Like it?"

Li Yun squeezed the face of Shangguan Lingxian with a blurred look, and smiled: "Little Cat, can you be sure it is me now?"

"Um~~~"

Shangguan Lingxian's tone was lazy, and his tender eyes kept looking at him for a long time before he realized: "Why call me the little cat...?"

"You look in the mirror yourself."

"Uh?"

Shangguan Lingxian took out a mirror from the space ring, looked into the mirror, and his cheeks turned redder.

A beautiful woman inside—not boasting, but a fact, her face was stained with red glow after she kissed her long-lost lover, her original tenderness was replaced by continuous affection.

But on her face, there were all sorts of dirty marks, like smoke coming out, covering the white skin, ugly.

"Ah!"

Shangguan Lingxian turned around and fled into the house. How could she be embarrassed to appear in front of her lover like this?

"Wait, I'll help you."

Li Yun grabbed her little hand.

"Woo, no, Li Yun, no... I'm alone, I'm enough! Wait, wait... Well, badass, why are you so anxious."

Xiang Berry was completely stupid, the couple completely forgot about her, walked to the door of the wooden house, kissed each other again, and then went into the back room.

After a long time, sister Lingxian blushed, her cheeks had become clean and white, her hair had been combed, and her clothes had changed into a light blue dress.

Chapter 4285: Changed

Wait, changed clothes? !

".....what!!"

Xiang Berry let out a dazed voice to express his inner surprise.

Because there is no dressing room in the wooden house, there is just a living room to receive outsiders, and there is also the bedroom of Lingxian sister, which has a wardrobe.

If Sister Lingxian's fiancé enters the dormitory with her, then he must, must have seen Sister Lingxian's..., the process of changing clothes! !

Sister Lingxian, change clothes...

Xiang Berry covered her mouth, looked at the approaching Shangguan Lingxian dumbly, a thought flashed in his mind, blurted out: "Sister Lingxian, you should have worn... wear a bellyband?"

"Dudou?"

The Shangguan Lingxian, who didn't follow her thoughts for a while, was still in a panic ignoring Xiang Berry, and was stunned.

Then I realized that what Xiang Berry said was when she and Li Yun were changing clothes in the house just now.

"me....."

Shangguan Lingxian blushed again, and he was so cramped that he didn't know where to put his feet.

Li Yun hugged her slender waist, and said to Xiang Berry seriously: "How is it possible."

Xiang Berry breathed a sigh of relief, sure enough, he was still wearing a bellyband, it is impossible not to wear it, she said.

"Just now your sister Lingxian was smoked so that her whole body smelled of fireworks and herbs. How could she not change it? Of course it was all replaced."

Fragrant Berry: "..."

She was just stunned, okay?

In other words, when she was in sister Lingxian's bedroom, she all... changed her clothes? Right in front of this man? He even helped to change it?

"No nonsense!!"

The shy and annoyed Shangguan Lingxian stomped his little feet, and stretched out his hand to squeeze Li Yun's waist. It was very light. It was completely different from the pinching strength of the Qing concubine and the others. Lingxian still loved him after all. .

"Where...Where is it." Shangguan Lingxian blushed, as bright and rosy as the rising sun, and said with a trembling voice: "Of course I, I'm wearing a bellyband... You have been doing bad things all the time. Always come to bother... let me change... for a long time."

Her voice became smaller and thinner, and her head dropped deeply.

Isn't this just telling the whole process to XiangBerry?

It's so stupid!

Seeing Li Yun laughed.

And Xiang Berry, who was so staying that he didn't know how to think, his mind was full of Shangguan Lingxian wearing a bellyband, showing his beautiful body in front of the person she liked, his face blushing with this light blue. Dresses.

In the process, Sister Lingxian didn't know how many times she had been kissed by him. This man must have restless hands and feet, right?

Sister Lingxian is so beautiful and has such a good figure, it's strange that he can be safe!

After wearing a light blue dress, maybe... Maybe, he helped to tie Lingxian's waist because Xiangberry discovered that the way Lingxian ties the waist is not the same as before. The same, it was obviously * with someone else's help!

It turns out that it's like this between couples.

"...Fragrant berries?"

Shangguan Lingxian's face was flushed, and she woke up the little sister who was full of strange thoughts. She was a little shy and told her: "Just now... sister Lingxian I am sorry for you, forgot you, you, you, don't take the matter just now. Speak out, okay?"

Before Xiang Berry answered, Li Yun said, "What's the matter, I'm your fiancée. I'm coming to visit you. I can't kiss you for a while?"

Chapter 4286: Not in a hurry

Shangguan Lingxian blushed, glared at him angrily, stammered, "Kiss...whatever, it's, of course, it's possible, but you, you just...shameless, follow me into the house, why? It's easy to tell others? I'm so ashamed to die, I blame you~!"

The shy Lingxian punched him in the chest again with a small fist.

Li Yun smiled, holding her slender and smooth wrist, softly comforting: "It doesn't matter, even if others know it, they will just say that we have deep feelings, and we are so affectionate just when we meet, no matter what they say."

Shangguan Lingxian bulged, "Anyway, it's not allowed... Fragrantberry, don't tell me, okay?"

"Well, sister Lingxian don't worry, I will never say it!"

Hearing sister Lingxian begging her, Xiang Berry finally reacted and patted her small chest to make sure.

If this were to be said, the men from Tiandanmen and Jianghu would definitely go crazy one by one.

"Lingxian, did you fail in alchemy just now?"

Li Yun looked at the iron pot in front of the wooden house, and changed the subject to avoid Shangguan Lingxian's continued embarrassment.

"Uh-huh."

First he responded with a violent nod, and then Lingyi Fairy collapsed with a flushed face remaining, and said in mourning, "The other steps are all right, but it's almost impossible. It always fails. It has always been a conflict of nature and hates death. ..."

Let the gentle and holy spiritual doctor say things like hate death, it can be seen how long this matter has entangled her, of course, it is also because Li Yun is by her side, which can make her act like a baby.

If it was someone else, it would be impossible for Fairy Spirit Doctor to say such a thing.

Xiang Berry on the side was dumbfounded. It was the first time she heard Sister Lingxian's sorrowful tone. Before, every time she and Sister Lingxian were doing alchemy, every time she failed, Sister Lingxian was very fast. Cheer up, and encourage her not to get discouraged, there will always be a day when she gets out of practice.

But as soon as her fiancé came, sister Lingxian said... I hate to die, this is what happened.

The contrast is so great, it's incredible.

"Uh."

Li Yun said helplessly: "Come slowly, don't worry, we still have a lot of time... I don't know much about alchemy, I'm afraid I can only help you burn the fire."

"Whee."

Shangguan Lingxian covered his mouth and smiled, quite eager to try: "Then... let's try it now? I am alchemy, you burn the fire~"

"Is fire normal? Or use my spirit fire?"

"You can't use spirit fire! I plan to use ordinary fire to refine the pill, so that it can be popularized...Come here, come and help me~"

Shangguan Lingxian took Li Yun to the iron pot where the black smoke had just appeared, and started to tinker with enthusiasm.

Xiang Berry lay hands on the side, watching the couple sing their husbands, and soon set up another boiler's pill.

"Lingxian, are you all refined before?"

"What kind of pill is this? The type of physical fitness? Or the type of detoxification?"

Li Yun sat on the small wooden bench, helping her to keep the firewood stable while chatting with her.

On the other hand, Shangguan Lingxian held a wooden spoon and kept stirring in the iron pot, adding something from time to time.

The simple way of alchemy opened people's horizons. Li Yun wanted to take out the spoils he had seized before, a certain spirit furnace, to use for her, so as not to stir the pill soup indiscriminately without having a clue.

Chapter 4287: Alchemy

"boom."

With another black smoke coming out, this time Li Yun and Shangguan Lingxian couples cooperated in alchemy, which also failed.

Fortunately, before the iron pot exploded, Li Yun promptly covered it with his hands, blowing the black smoke aside, so that Shangguan Lingxian was saved from being smoked again.

"Oh, I failed again."

Shangguan Lingxian had dirty hands and miserable face, showing a cry of mourning to Li Yun.

Xiang Berry opened her mouth and wanted to say, every time you fail, Sister Lingxian, don't you always cheer up quickly? Why is it so...fragile this time?

Could it be that... you just want your boyfriend to comfort you?

Next Li Yun's actions, and Shangguan Lingxian's reaction, proved Xiang Berry's guess.

"It's okay to fail, just find out more reasons."

Li Yun comforted Shangguan Lingxian, hugged her into the sorrow, cheered her up, and Shangguan Lingxian quickly cheered up and continued alchemy again.

Xiang Berry looked completely speechless, it seemed that as long as Ling Xian sister's fiancé was with her, Shen Bin, she was a fragile girl, not a persistent spiritual medicine fairy.

The two of them once again sang and sang their husbands together, continuously refining five or six furnaces of elixirs, each time they exploded directly towards the end.

Either one minute early, or one minute late, and after the explosion, for example, a lot of black smoke is emitted, without exception.

Had it not been for the people in Tiandanmen who had known it for a long time, they thought the mountains and forests here were on fire.

"What's wrong? Is there some material missing? But I obviously added a blending agent according to the book..."

"Again!"

"eat first."

"Can't eat..."

"If you can't eat, you have to eat, come here and I will cook for you."

"Are you cooking? Okay, let's continue after eating~"

I happily ate the food cooked by Li Yun with Xiang Berry, and Shangguan Lingxian returned to the iron pot with him to continue her firewood alchemy business.

The practice lasted until the evening, when the sun went down, and the number of failures caused the atmosphere between the three to become silent. They didn't dare to talk about related matters, just silently practice alchemy.

There were too many failures, so much that Shangguan Lingxian was embarrassed to let Li Yun burn again. Of course, Li Yun was still helping her.

"boom!"

With the black smoke coming out, this pot of medicine once again declared a failure.

The three of them didn't speak directly, Xiang Berry no longer dared to look at Shangguan Lingxian, for fear of seeing the disappointed face of Lingxian's sister.

And Shangguan Lingxian... didn't dare to look at Li Yun, with a stiff expression on his face, stammering:

"No, it's okay, I, I have some plans, which will definitely succeed... Li Yun, you, you go to rest first, I..."

Shangguan Lingxian, I won't come out anymore, Li Yun pinched her face with one hand, just like before, pinched her face into a funny expression.

Shangguan Lingxian was crying.

"Don't be stubborn."

Li Yun squeezed her face with his fingers, "Failure is failure. I know that it is Shangguan Lingxian, but I didn't lie to myself like this. If you make a mistake, you must find the reason for the error instead of stupidly insisting.

"But I... woo, Li Yun, you are right, I... failed to refine the pill."

Li Yun hugged her, and Shangguan Lingxian cried and plunged into him. In front of him, Shangguan Lingxian was extremely fragile, especially when he failed for several months and saw success in front of him, but he couldn't catch it.

Chapter 4288: Ask for help

Li Yun wiped Shangguan Lingxian's tears with a handkerchief, and she quickly stopped.

She is not sad, but wronged. She has worked hard for a long time, but she is still unable to achieve success because she is still close to success.

Li Yun didn't come again, she didn't know how long she could hold on, she was too tired.

"Lingxian, have you ever wanted to ask for help outside the court?"

Li Yun smiled slightly, "For example, ask those older sisters and younger sisters?"

"Which ones?" Shangguan Lingxian was still a little bit stunned. After a while, he reacted: "Sister Linglong, sister Qingsheng? They can ask, oh, there are three more in the group. Wan Nishang and the others are also familiar. Alchemy?"

"Yes. You can ask them, how?"

"OK."

Li Yun was afraid that Shangguan Lingxian would disagree and thought she would want to refine it with her own strength. However, Shangguan Lingxian didn't have so much thought. She just wanted to refine the pill, and then give the pill to other people. People use the elixir of the Reiki Era as soon as possible to cope with the next crisis.

Shangguan Lingxian took out his mobile phone and looked at Li Yun with some anxiety.

"It's okay, ask." Li Yun said with a smile: "The people in your fairy group, they are all very idle, and they will definitely be happy to help you advise."

"okay!"

Looking at the still smoking iron pot, Shangguan Lingxian finally made up his mind, isn't it just to ask them? I will be with them in the future... I'll be with Li Yun to make a fool of myself, and I have to do more shameful things. It's nothing to ask for help.

"Everyone...sister, sisters, I want to ask one thing."

Shangguan Lingxian blushed a bit and sent a message in the fairies group. The little fairies in the group were called sisters, and of course they also called out their names directly. Anyway, it was convenient to come.

Xiaoxue: "Lingxian?"

Qing Guo Meiyu: "Lingxian hasn't seen it for a long time. If it's no accident, have you seen Li Yun?"

"Wow, it's Sister Lingxian." Hu Xiaomeng also bubbled up, she was online anytime, anywhere.

"Yes, I, um, Li Yun came to me."

Shangguan Lingxian hurriedly replied that the sisters were too enthusiastic, and she couldn't stand it as the central focus.

"Ask, what's the matter?" Gong Qingyu said generously.

"Are you going to make alchemy materials again? I still have them here, and I will send them to you right away." Jin Liuli, who sits on Penglai Island, is even more generous.

"No, it's not... I mean, I have been failing in alchemy recently, so I would like to ask a few sisters to help."

Shangguan Lingxian asked nervously.

"I'll help you call people, @玲珑丁当, @我见618羽衣舞, @圣女大人, @清冽如水, @清雅清雅."

Hu Xiaomeng gave a few people with the highest cultivation level to Aite in one breath. Everyone's screen name is full of characteristics. Of course, the screen name in the group is changing at any time. Who changed into what.

"Alchemy? Use ordinary firewood?!"

I've seen Neon Dress Feather Dance—Wan Neon Dress, and I was directly shocked. She couldn't think that there are people who use ordinary firewood or even ordinary iron to make alchemy under the world, and she can't even think that this whimsical person is the people around Li Yun.

"Yes, yes, is there any problem? It should be possible...I feel so."

Suspected by a strong man in the Soul and Bright Realm, Shangguan Lingxian's tone was not confident.

Wan Nishang was silent directly.

Chapter 4289: Divination

She just wanted to say a word, good fellow, really good fellow.

If the diehards of the Six Doors and the Hidden Sacred Valley knew how to make alchemy with Fan Tie and Fan Huo, wouldn't their eyes and jaws be scared off?

"This...I can only say that it is very good and powerful."

Wan Nishang recovered from her injury. After she went online for a while, she also learned all kinds of messy Internet language. She was afraid that she was using it incorrectly, so she quickly explained: "I mean, a very special idea, maybe you are right, @ Fairy, can you describe it in detail?"

Fairy Fairy: "Huh? How did my name become like this...Ah, okay, I will post some pictures in the group. Sister Nishang, please help me take a look."

"Hehe." Hu Xiaomeng made an expression, indicating that it was not she who changed Lingxian's name.

The girls unanimously decided to beat her next time they meet.

Shangguan Lingxian put up some pictures of the failure and wrote the detailed process. After it was done, several other people, Fan Linglong, also went online. Several people who had been cultivating immortals were surprised about her. They were actually surprised. This is the first time I have heard of such a thing.

But after reading it, Concubine Wan Qing said directly: "It's an eye-opener, sister Lingxian, you almost succeeded, I feel almost like it."

"Yeah, it's almost... but that's it, it just doesn't work."

"Don't worry, more than a dozen times will be fine. Although I am not a pill, I also know that a new kind of pill can only be figured out after a few years. How long have you refined it?"

"Uh, I also understand what Sister Wan said, but...it seems like there is no time now."

Shangguan Lingxian expressed his thoughts and made them all admire again.

However, each of them is a pill cultivator, and the knowledge they know is of no reference to Shangguan Lingxian who uses common fire and iron to make alchemy.

Therefore, if they want to get answers, they have to send these pictures and information back to the school, and ask those alchemists to study them carefully.

"Do you want me to divination?" Fan Linglong said suddenly.

"Divination?"

"Well, it just depends on God's will... Wait for me, it will be fine soon."

In less than five minutes, Fan Linglong went online again, and directly stated the result of the divination in the group: "In your third step, add two pieces of ice, stop for five minutes, and then refining, you will be successful. ."

"[what]"

"?"

"real?"

A group of fairies made expressions in the group, and even Shangguan Lingxian was dumbfounded: "Sister Linglong...Is that all right? Really? Is it that simple? Isn't it...there is something special?"

"No, that's it."

Vatican Linglong mysteriously said: "The result of my divination is like this. You only need to add fist-sized ice cubes to your iron pot during the third step... Li Yun's fist-sized fist. And then it succeeded."

"Uh, okay, I'll give it a try,"

Fan Linglong said it mysteriously, and Shangguan Lingxian couldn't find a good way, so she could only try it according to her statement.

Wan Nishang said in the group: "It is recommended not to have too much hope, you can try, but... this guy's divination is outrageous nine times out of ten."

"How can it be so exaggerated? Ten times at least eight times!"

"Really? How do I remember that you went to the casino with me once and almost lost a contract to sell it."

"You just signed the contract to sell your body. You are waiting for you! See if I won't teach you a lesson!"

Fan Linglong was angry and went directly to her real pk.

Chapter 4290: The magical effect of ice cubes

"In the third step, add ice cubes."

"The size of the ice cube... the size of Li Yun's fist, ah, Li Yun, come on, let me measure how big your fist is!"

"Added, added in, and then? Wait five minutes? Oh yes, then wait five minutes...Oops, I forgot to ask Linglong sister if I want to put out the fire."

"It's too late? Oh, yes, it's too late, oooo, you can only let it happen."

"continue!!"

After one operation, the last step was reached. Shangguan Lingxian's beautiful and holy face was full of tension. In the past half a month, every time it failed at the last step, this time...

It seems to be different from before.

"Put it in."

Li Yun smiled and held Shangguan Lingxian's small hand, holding it up, and putting the handful of ground herbs in her hand into the opened iron pot.

Shangguan Lingxian was trembling, letting Li Yun control the whole process, but she was so nervous that she didn't even dare to open her eyes, and slowly let go of her hand.

Brush lala, the herbs fell into the hot iron pan and mixed with the medicinal medicinal juice inside. The fragrant berry had been waiting long ago, picked up the iron spoon and stirred vigorously in it, and then covered the iron pan.

Cang Dang.

The firewood continued to burn.

Shangguan Lingxian stared at the flame in a daze. No matter what Li Yun and Xiang Berry were talking about, she didn't hear it. Xiang Berry, the girl, was chatting with her fiance. There was a lot of worship and admiration in her words, and Shangguan Ling Xian also did not hear.

Xiang Berry is her follower, she believes in Xiang Berry.

"It seems to be successful this time?"

The flame gradually disappeared, but no black smoke came out of the iron pan. Li Yun touched his chin and looked at Shangguan Lingxian, only to see that she was still staring at the iron pan in a daze.

"Sister Lingxian? Senior sister? Sister~~~!"

The unbearable Fragrant Berry yelled and awakened Shangguan Lingxian. She hurriedly said: "Failed again? Let's do it again and refining one more time. It will definitely succeed!"

"Puff~~"

Xiang Berry couldn't help laughing, and said softly: "Really, Sister Lingxian, you didn't even lift the lid, how did you know that you failed? There was no black smoke this time, definitely...probably...I think There may be changes!"

Xiang Berry originally wanted to say that she would succeed, but seeing sister Lingxian's obsession, couldn't bear to let her down again, so she changed her mouth.

Li Yun chuckled lightly, patted Shangguan Lingxian's fragrant shoulder, and said, "Go, go and see, and see how our Linglong High Priest's divination is going to be successful, and if it fails, it must be Linglong High Priest. wrong."

"High priest?"

I was shocked by this weird name, and then Shangguan Lingxian reacted, and said slyly, "If we fail, then we are also wrong. Don't talk about sister Linglong... well, let me see."

As she said, she stepped forward decisively, not caring that the lid of the iron pan was too hot, and opened it directly—her physique, putting her hands in the fire would be fine.

The lid was lifted, revealing a pot of viscous pill inside, which was transparent. The surface was dotted with dozens of black pills, not particularly round, but clearly visible, they were pills!

Shangguan Lingxian was stunned, Xiang Berry also widened her eyes as if seeing a ghost, and subconsciously said, "Success?!"

"Successful?"

Li Yun also looked suspicious, took a step forward, took a black pill from the pot, smelled it, and a strange smell came over his face, but it was not unpleasant, it should be herbs and some monster blood. The flavor of a medicinal pill after mixing and refining.
