Chapter 471: Ten Great Ferocious Insects of Ancient Times

With this "Gu Worm Theory", the safety of official personnel has a greater guarantee. Although Li Yun can solve the gu poison, after all, the clone is lacking and cannot be taken care of at all times.

At the same time, the four middle congenital stages of Uncle Zuo all looked at Li Yun with fiery eyes, and they were obviously also very interested.

Li Yun didn't answer right away. He quickly flipped through the contents of the book, and after a long period of indulgence, he replied in their expectant eyes: "You can read this book!"

Suddenly, everyone showed surprise expressions.

"but!"

Everyone's expressions became tense again, Li Yun definitely has the dominance of the words now, and they have to listen to what they say!

"You can understand the habits of Gu worms, but it doesn't mean you can refine them!"

Li Yun closed the "Gu Insect Theory" and warned: "Most of the gu worms in it are extremely insidious, contrary to social morality, for example, there is a ghost worm.

It needs to put a special scorpion larva into a tomb where the feng shui phase is the seven ghosts locking the corpse, and then kill nine women born in the lunar year and cultivate with the scorpion larva to obtain this gu worm. ! "

Everyone heard the scalp numb, and the back was chilly.

Gu worms are indeed evil things, whether they are three souls, six souls, or ghosts, the cultivation methods are extremely vicious, it can be said to be frenzied and exterminate humanity!

It can be said that once you embark on the path of raising Gu, even people with normal three outlooks will become a murderous metamorphosis!

"Then Li Yun, you nine-winged black feather butterfly..." Long Xingyun looked at the black feather butterfly resting on Li Yun's shoulder, "Are you going to train him?"

As soon as this sentence came out, Liao Hua did not show any unexpected expressions.

Gu worms are very insidious, but if Li Yun did this, maybe he could be accommodating, as long as he didn't violate the law.

After all, Li Yun was the only official who knew about mysterious things such as Gu worms and zombies.

Li Yun frowned slightly and opened the Gu Insect Theory again.

"Let me take a look at the origin of this nine-winged black feather butterfly... well, there really is!"

Li Yun found it quickly and quickly browsed the records inside.

"The Nine-winged Black Feather Butterfly is said to be one of the ten greatest evil insects in the ancient times. I obtained it from an ancient cave mansion that had long been deserted. The name was also learned on the stone wall of the cave mansion.

At first, it was in a cocoon-like sleep. After taking it out of the cave and injecting a trace of mana, the worm immediately wanted to live.

It's a pity, it's a pity that today's world fairy law has long since fallen, and this worm will inevitably die after it is born. If it is cultivated, the resources invested by the entire Six Demon Gates may not be sufficient.

In desperation, I can only seal this and save it for later.

Characteristics: Each time a wing is born, a magical power is obtained. When the nine wings are reached, they will go up to the blue sky and go to the underworld.

Cultivation method: According to the records in the cave, the black feather butterfly is born with the magical power of devouring, and can eat all kinds of energy-rich things. "

Li Yun frowned, stretched out his hand and gently grabbed it quietly on his shoulder, looked at the surrounding black feather butterflies with a pair of curious eyes, and carefully observed it in the palm of his hand.

This butterfly can make the fairy ridiculously easy?

"Babbling." The black feather butterfly flapped its wings and made a series of clear and sweet voices, which seemed to be in a very happy mood.

Being able to make a sound already means that she is not an ordinary butterfly.

With the crowd watching, she flew up again, took one step, and stopped one step, as if to let Li Yun follow her.

Chapter 472: Decide

"Where are you going?"

Li Yun understood what she meant, and everyone followed behind the butterfly.

Unexpectedly, the black feather butterfly just flew into a storage box in the room and got in.

Li Yun probed and saw that there was half a black silkworm cocoon inside. The black feather butterfly rushed on the cocoon. The wings behind it flapped lightly, and the black cocoon turned into powder and poured into her body.

Everyone was shocked by this scene, this butterfly is also amazing!

"Ah, I understand!" Gong Lianyi looked at the black feather butterfly and said: "I saw in the book that some insects eat their egg shells, seeming to supplement their nutrition?"

Li Yun guessed that what she said was right, because after the black feather butterfly absorbed the black cocoon, it flew back to Li Yun's shoulder. A pair of beautiful black wings were put away, and it looked like a lovely nap after eating.

"Black Feather Butterfly... I'll keep it for now." Li Yun helplessly stroked the little guy's wings lightly. The little guy was very useful, his tight body trembled, and he tightly grasped Li Yun's clothes and fell asleep. Finished.

"But I still don't recommend that you raise Gu worms."

Li Yun returned to the topic just now, scanned the crowd, and said in a flat tone: "So I plan to remove the method of raising gu in this book, and then pass it to you. What about your opinions?"

Said it was asking for their opinions, but everyone could tell from Li Yun's tone that he had already decided to do so!

"Of course I support you, Li Yun." Gong Lianyi and Gong Qingyu expressed their opinions, and Zuo Shu and others were not good to say anything.

Liao Hua nodded, "It's okay, most of the Gu worm cultivation process is unreasonable, and it also requires special cultivation methods. Li Yun, I agree with your decision!"

Li Yun smiled, "Just don't blame me, because there is a saying that the more you know, the faster you die. There are many powerful and evil people in the six magic gates. Some of them may come to Li Sheng avenged his revenge, but if the Six Demon Sect's methods of raising Gu are spread..."

Everyone was surprised.

Especially Uncle Zuo, who was born in Jianghu, knows how much a school attaches importance to the exercises of his own town.

If there are disciples who dare to spread sect mentality without authorization, then everyone who hears and sees has only two choices.

Or, join the martial arts.

Either, die!

After all, the foothold of a sect is basically the cultivation method, and the cultivation method is gone, so what about the sect?

Of course, most sects choose to kill people directly, and there is no chance to join the sect!

The Six Demon Gates act strangely and evilly, and it is impossible for people to join the sect at will!

Li Yun had already talked about this, and everyone naturally had no opinion anymore, so this book was left in Li Yun's custody.

"Let's go and see other rooms."

Opening another closed door, a scene greeted the eyes, made everyone gasp.

I saw a room of more than one hundred square meters, densely hung with many cages, which contained various insects, not only the five common poisons, but also half-gu insects that had mutated—those that mutated from ordinary insects to half insect.

What's even more amazing is that in a prison surrounded by barbed wire, there are thousands of insects that have almost become Gu worms, gathered on a human body lying on the ground, constantly gnawing his flesh and blood, and even flow out. The blood was all swallowed by these Gu worms, not a drop of it flowed to the ground!

Chapter 473: The Vicious Way of Nourishing Gu

"this is?"

Gong Qingyu was so frightened that he held Li Yun's arm tightly, Gong Lianyi was uncomfortable, hiding behind Li Yun, some dare not look at this terrifying picture.

This sense of horror is different from what I have seen before.

Gu worms gnaw on human corpses, making them of the same kind inevitably a kind of sympathy.

In addition, these gu worms are densely packed, which can easily cause intensive phobia and a very disgusting feeling.

"It seems to be...Mo Liang?"

Li Yun wasn't sure, so he slapped the barbed wire, and immediately, the Gu worms scattered and fled.

From the performance point of view, these worms have not yet fully become Gu worms, otherwise they should be extremely combative and would not be afraid of Li Yun's fright.

—Perhaps Yu Lisheng wanted to cultivate a powerful Gu worm inside the wire fence using the traditional way of raising Gu.

"It's really him!"

After the worms dispersed, Mo Liang's scarred body was exposed, and the worms had bitten them so badly.

But the scary thing is that the bugs didn't bite his vitals, such as his neck, heart, aorta, head, etc. These were not bitten by the bugs.

This caused Mo Liang to be unable to move, to die, and to die. He could only helplessly feel his own flesh and blood being bitten bit by bit.

This terrible treatment is comparable to ancient torture: Ling Chi was executed.

Perhaps it is more terrifying than Ling Chi!

Uncle Zuo swallowed, "Allowing the bugs to kill him slowly and deliberately is also part of cultivating Gu worms? This...too cruel!"

After seeing this scene, he completely gave up on Gu worm's cultivation method.

Killing Mo Liang makes the insects more cruel, and may absorb Mo Liang's feelings of despair and resentment before his death, gnawing his soul after death, and so on.

All this is to cultivate stronger Gu worms!

Such a vicious method, I believe that as long as the human nature has not been wiped out, the people who have left a trace will not do it!

Only the most maddening murderers, who have completely distorted personalities, would do such cruel things.

"What do you want to say?"

Mo Liang was not dead yet, Li Yun saw his lips move, as if he was saying something, a pair of eyes showed a look of despair, and they became devoid of brilliance and vitality.

"Kill, me?" Liao Hua learned lip language and understood what Mo Liang wanted to say.

Everyone was silent and seemed to have no opinion on it.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Use a small recovery pill to rescue Mo Liang, let him accept the trial of the law, reward justice value +300, white gift bag*3, medium recovery pill*1.

Option 2: Ignore, no reward.

Option 3: Kill him by yourself, reward +100 for justice. "

The system again gave a selection event. Li Yun didn't hesitate to shoot and killed Mo Liang (Silvin's pistol had recovered one bullet).

It is true that saving Mo Liang can gain more justice, but he has no hope of survival. The psychological shadow of being bitten by insects is too great, killing him is a relief.

"boom!"

With a gunshot, Mo Liang died.

Li Yun silently mourned for him in his heart. When Mo Liang was involved with the Six Demon Sect, he was already doomed to perish.

An ordinary person in the body refining realm, mixed with the world of practitioners, isn't this looking for death?

"Ding, the host has made a choice, and the reward (justice value +100, extra bonus charm value +5) has been issued!"

Chapter 474: End action

The corner of Li Yun's mouth twitched, and the system sometimes notified the extra rewards in advance, and sometimes hid them again, which is really cheating.

However, he hadn't received the Charisma reward for many days, and he thought he was at the top.

Too high a charm value is not a good thing. If Li Yun takes a look, he will be fascinated by the girls and pursue him frantically, crying to give him monkeys or something, if the other person is very beautiful and has a good personality. Li Yun found it very difficult to refuse.

"What a happy trouble!"

In Li Yun's heartfelt emotion, tonight's action officially came to an end.

Li Yun didn't bother to ask for the things in this training room. He left it to Liao Hua to arrange some medical experts and professors to take the bugs away, perform tests, tests, and dissect them to see if they could find more useful things.

"Brother Liao, am I leaving now?"

Li Yun and Liao Hua greeted him. He was still directing the follow-up with a group of Zhonghai City leaders. Hearing that, Liao Hua took the time to smile at him, "Okay, Li Yun, you go first. Let's take care of the rest!"

"If someone is accidentally poisoned, you should contact me first. If you don't have time to contact, use the detoxification pill I gave you. However," Li Yun smiled: "My pill is not unlimited. Remember to save some use. It's really expensive!"

"Understand, don't worry, I know everything!"

Seeing him patting his chest, he assured that Li Yun and Qingyu had left, returning to the hotel and driving away.

He gave Liao Hua a medium-sized detoxification pill and a few small ones, so that he could use it when someone accidentally got poisoned and his life was dying.

Li Yun estimated that Liao Hua might try to test the detoxification pills to see if they could be copied. However, Li Yun estimated that it would be impossible to copy the things produced by the system. If Liao Hua did this, he would only be destined to toss about it.

Back at the hotel, the boss looked at Li Yun with a wrong look.

Li Yun took the initiative to greet him, and then said, "Boss, why don't you close the shop and sleep?"

"I....."

The boss had a bitter face and looked helplessly at the large number of cars around, "Can I leave?"

Too many people came to the psychiatric hospital, including the police, the police, the fire brigade, and the soldiers responsible for maintaining order and protecting everyone. Later, there were some doctors, nurses, experts and professors wearing white coats, and even wearing gas masks. All came. Come here to deal with follow-up matters.

What's more, there are people from the city's landscaping management department who drove a medicine tanker to kill all the insects scattered nearby to prevent disasters.

Tonight, for the staff of Zhonghai City, it is destined to be a sleepless night.

"It doesn't matter to you, right? You can go!" Li Yun said a good thing for the boss, but the boss pointed to the distance.

Li Yun looked over. It turned out that it was Zhou Guangfu, who was delivering food. He was being questioned by the police about delivering food to mental hospitals in the past two decades.

Li Yun saw that Zhou Guangfu's whole body was withered, and he was no longer arrogant.

"Then I can't help it." Li Yun patted the boss on the shoulder, and comforted: "Don't worry, things will pass soon, and you will be able to do business normally in the future!"

The boss was very grateful for this, and kept saying that if Li Yun comes back in the future, he will give him a 50% discount!

Li Yun smiled, said goodbye to him, and drove out of here.

Tonight is really tiring, Black Feather Butterfly is asleep on her stomach, but Li Yun has one last thing to do.

Chapter 475: Gu Pan Shengzi

Li Yun and Gong Lianyi were sitting in the back seat of the car, and Qingyu was driving in front. When there were only three people in the car, Li Yun could finally talk about some more private topics.

"Lian Yi." Li Yun held her little hand, took out the Gu worm theory, and said softly: "Will you care about the decision I made?"

"What decision?"

"The decision to let you not read this book on Gu Insect Theory!"

"Will not."

Gong Lianyi smiled and shook her head. She had already taken off her disguise mask, and restored her fox and coquettish appearance, as well as graceful and feminine temperament. This smile seemed extremely gentle.

"Li Yun, Qingyu and I both support your decision, and will not blame you for not showing us this book, because you must have your reason for doing this, and we can understand it." Gong Lianyi is very Said affirmatively.

Li Yun smiled, scratched her soft palm, Gong Lianyi's face flushed, and her body trembled, making her whole body itchy by his small movements.

"Actually, it's not that you can't read it." Li Yun explained: "First, I don't want Uncle Zuo so many people to know. Second, I warned Liao Hua not to pass this book to too many people, so as not Out of control!

After all, the human heart is separated from the belly, and the Gu worm should be treated with caution! "

After a pause, Li Yun said again: "If you think you can show it to him, you can choose to give this book to them later."

Gong Lianyi said in surprise: "You mean, let us also read the entire part of this book?"

"Of course!" Li Yun scratched her little nose, "I believe in you, and in Qingyu! You will definitely take this matter seriously."

Gong Lianyi smiled. Suddenly, she glanced at Gong Qingyu who was driving, and then took the initiative to kiss Li Yun on the cheek.

"Thank you, Li Yun..."

Gong Lianyi's face blushed, she didn't know what to thank Li Yun, but suddenly wanted to give him a kiss to express her inner excitement.

"...Aunt Lian."

"what?"

"I saw!"

Gong Lianyi's face was red and hot, Li Yun laughed, and actively stopped Gong Lianyi and kissed her fragrant lips.

Gong Lianyi's eyes widened first, then, trembling, passive, stiff, unable to resist.

After that, the body softened again, jerky, responsive, clumsy, sweet, and happy.

In the end, Gong Lianyi fell softly into Li Yunqi, enjoying the rare intimacy with him.

After a long time, Gong Lianyi said quietly, "Yun, this is my first kiss."

"Ok, I know."

Li Yun caressed her hair. The fox-beautiful woman now has blushing cheeks, tender eyes, looking forward to her posture, charming and unspeakable, soft and delicate, and beautiful in appearance, which really arouses people's love.

It's a pity that Qingyu was still driving ahead, and it seemed that he was jealous, but did not interrupt the intimate communication between the two.

"Lianyi, I will be nice to you in the future." Li Yun added, "There is also Qingyu, as long as you follow me, I will definitely not let you down!"

Gong Lianyi was about to talk, Li Yun pressed her finger to her small mouth, and smiled: "Of course, this situation has developed now, even if you don't follow me, I will take you away!"

His domineering tone made Gong Lian Yifang's heart tremble, and she forgot what she wanted to say before, and now she just wanted to hug her lover tightly.

Chapter 476: Two golden flowers in the palace

It's just that Gong Lianyi's heart is full of affection for Li Yun, but there is still a trace of worry that prevents her from fully investing in...

"What are you stealing for?" Gong Lian, who was driving in front, asked fiercely.

In fact, she was jealous.

"Snatch it," Li Yun raised his eyebrows, and said in a frivolous tone: "Of course I want you two beauties to be my wife!"

Gong Lianyi was so ashamed that she hid in Li Yun's shame and dared not see anyone.

"Go to hell!" Gong Qingyu cursed shyly.

"Qingyu, don't worry, you will be there soon."

"What about me... ah, I don't want it!"

Li Yun didn't say what it was, but Gong Qingyu already knew what it was, and her heartbeat couldn't help but speed up a lot.

Sure enough, after she drove the car back to the mansion, Li Yun got out of the car first, pulled her out of the driver's seat, took her slender waist, and hugged her tightly.

Afterwards, he kissed her bitterly.

"Um~!"

Gong Qingyu's long eyelashes trembled, and finally closed slowly, responding to Li Yun jerkily.

For a long time, the points are lost.

Gong Lianyi, the classical and dignified beauty, was blushing on her beautiful cheeks at this moment. The beauty was so beautiful that all the bodyguards were dumbfounded.

Strictly speaking, this was her first kiss. Last time, she simply took a bite of Li Yun.

"Still jealous?"

Li Yun asked with a smile.

"...Huh!" Gong Qingyu snorted, seeming to express dissatisfaction.

"Huh? Still jealous? That can't be helped, let's do it again!"

"Well, don't, you big scumbag, ooh... I'm not jealous!"

After letting go of the charming Gong Qingyu, Li Yun hugged Gong Lianyi, who was also flushed with shame, and was close for a long time.

In the mansion, the maids and bodyguards were very happy to be back home, although it is now more than 3 o'clock in the evening.

Unexpectedly, Li Yun, the  kid, actually openly embraced the two golden flowers of their palace, and wanted to be intimate, making the two girls blush!

But!

Gong Qingyu and Gong Lianyi, these two beauties, one big and one small, let him be frivolous, without avoiding them, they looked shy but happy.

For a moment, everyone was stunned.

"Hello everyone, I have brought your young lady and Miss Gong back safely!"

Li Yun cheeked, embracing the two women into the mansion like a hug from left to right.

Then, Gong Qingyu, who was ashamed and annoyed, bit her shoulder again.

"Don't let go? You pervert!"

Gong Qingyu blushed and held Aunt Lian's hand, and the two beauties disappeared in front of Li Yun like this, and would never give him another chance tonight!

"pity."

Li Yun smiled and licked his lower lip. It seemed that there was still the sweet taste of two female cherry lips. They were exceptionally delicious. They really deserved to be the two beauties of the palace family. Li Yun was deeply happy to have them.

The only pity is that Gong Lianyi seems to still have concerns, and her favorability stays at 98, but she refuses to rise.

No words for a night.

Li Yun went to bed after taking a shower, ready to sleep until noon the next day, but unexpectedly, at 7 o'clock in the morning, he felt a strange tingling sensation on his face, as if someone was there. Use his hair to scratch his nose.

"Caixia, don't make trouble!"

Li Yun waved his hand in a daze. He thought it was Caixia who was making trouble. This girl had liked doing this since she was a child.

But after the thing was shot, the missile didn't let go. Instead, it got more and more vigorous, and it bounced * his face, and it kept making clear and sweet screams.

"Eh, ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!"

"...Black Feather Butterfly?"

Chapter 477: Transformation, Black Feather Butterfly

Li Yun was a little more sober now, it turned out that the nine-winged black feather butterfly he adopted last night was making trouble.

"You little fellow!"

Li Yun leaned against the head of the bed dumbfounded, reached out his hand and nodded her wings, the black feather butterfly innocently made a crisp cry again, as if to say hello to Li Yun.

No, this cry is very urgent, a voice that is longing for something.

"Little guy, what do you want to say?"

Li Yun looked at her suspiciously, the black feather butterfly flew back and forth, a pair of beautiful black wings flapped more and more eagerly, and finally flew fiercely to a plate of fruit on the table, the wings shook, and seven or eight apples suddenly turned into powder. , Into her body.

Then, the black feather butterfly flew back quickly, looking at Li Yun longingly with a pair of small eyes.

".....I understand!"

Li Yun slapped his head, it turned out that this little guy was hungry!

But Black Feather Butterfly was still not full after eating seven or eight apples. It seemed that ordinary food was nothing like nothing to her.

According to records found by Yu Li Sheng in the cave, the black feather butterfly needs to eat something rich in energy to successfully evolve into nine wings.

"Energy rich, nuclear power plant?"

Li Yun's brain hole was wide open, but it is estimated that it will not work. The system rewarded him with a Jidan, this thing is very precious, belonging to the golden grade item, the black feather butterfly should eat this.

Sure enough, after Li Yun took out the Zhujidan, the little guy's eyes lit up, and he happily circled Li Yun's head. When he threw on the Zhujidan, his wings vibrated again, and a happy face was about to build the Jidan.' Eat down'.

Then, the black feather butterfly flew pitifully in front of Li Yun.

"Not enough?" Li Yun was shocked.

This is the first time that he has obtained Zhujidan. If the black feather butterfly can only eat Zhujidan, he will definitely not be able to raise it!

Nodding, Black Feather Butterfly still feels hungry.

Li Yun had no choice but to put out all the pills, and the Black Feather Butterfly cheered and pounced on them to swallow them.

"no!"

Li Yun grabbed her beautiful black wings and told her with a serious face that he could only take one small pill a day through various methods!

Li Yun only had less than a hundred pill for building foundation pills, nourishing skin care pills, detoxification pills...

Therefore, if the black feather butterfly must take a lot of medicine to survive, Li Yun really can't afford this little guy.

Does it really take her to oil plants, nuclear power plants, and absorb that energy?

Although I haven't tried it, according to the knowledge of chemistry and physics, it should not work!

"Beep!"

Black Feather Butterfly understood Li Yun's meaning, pondered for a long while, and after obtaining Li Yun's consent, swallowed all the more than 20 pills, and then turned it into a black silkworm cocoon.

...

"Then she became a...little elf?"

At noon, after Gong Qingyu got up, he was surprised to see a little girl who was only three inches tall in the palm of Li Yun's hand, happily jumping around.

After asking, I learned that she was the nine-winged black feather butterfly!

A butterfly turned into a little girl with a human appearance. This magical change made both Gong Qingyu and the girls dumbfounded.

"so beautiful!"

Gong Qingyu leaned forward and looked at Black Feather Butterfly carefully, and found that she was only ten centimeters tall and looked like a cute little girl of seven or eight years old. She was wearing a black dress with thick black hair that fell straight to her hips.

The skin is very fair and delicate, and the complexion is as white as fat, which forms a strong contrast with the black hair.

Beautiful, delicate, and small, like a fairy in a fairy tale.

In fact, the black feather butterfly is now a cute and beautiful elf!

Chapter 478: Ba Ba, An An

Li Yun raised the index finger of his right hand. Suddenly, Black Feather Butterfly seemed to see something interesting, and suddenly jumped on his finger, happily grabbed the index finger and practiced the horizontal bar, still babbling in his mouth.' Ba Ba "What do you think about?" and so on, like a sentence that a child just learned to speak.

"She still talks?!" Gong Lianyi looked at Black Feather Butterfly in surprise.

"Correct!"

Li Yun explained: "I have a high IQ. I can understand and understand what I tell her, but I can't speak very well, like a two-year-old child."

"Don't all children be like this."

Gong Lian Yimei showed a smile, holding Black Feather Butterfly cautiously——Only when Li Yun told Black Feather Butterfly that these two people were not bad guys and could be trusted, Black Feather Butterfly accepted her.

"Qingyu only spoke when he was two years old when he was a child. I remember it clearly."

Gong Lianyi raised the black feather butterfly in his palm, and said with emotion: "This little guy is really cute, Li Yun, will she lose her wings when she becomes a human?"

"That's the black dress on her body, and," Li Yun cut a sip of an apple and handed it to Black Feather Butterfly. The latter's eyes lit up and grabbed the apple the size of her head and ate it happily.

The food was fairly fast, and it was over in a few clicks.

"It's amazing!" Gong Qingyu looked very surprised, this little guy ate something that was relatively large, but his stomach didn't bulge at all.

Li Yun smiled and said, "Her ability to smash food by flapping her wings is gone."

"what!?"

Gong Lianyi was a little pity, "How come the Black Feather Butterfly became weaker after becoming a human."

Black Feather Butterfly seemed to understand Gong Lianyi's words. Li Yun stroked her head with his fingers. Black Feather Butterfly immediately became happy again, jumping from Gong Lianyi's soft palm to Li Yun's arm. superior.

She followed her arm to the pocket of Li Yun's shirt. After yawning, she went to sleep, holding the soul-raising ring that Li Yun carried with her.

"Baba, Anan~"

Before going to bed, he also said something Li Yun taught her.

"So, that's it."

Li Yun shrugged and explained: "It's not actually getting weaker, but the black feather butterfly is adapting to the current environment."

After Black Feather Butterfly ate his pile of pills, she managed to grow a second pair of wings. Amazingly, she lost the ability to smash food by flapping her wings, but gained the ability to eat food with her mouth, just like a human being.

The wings were also retracted and turned into dresses, and the magical levitation ability was naturally gone.

All this is to adapt to the world where spiritual power is scarce now.

Li Yun speculated that ancient myths and legends may be true. There were indeed demons, ghosts, gods and gods, and powerful gu worms like nine-winged black feather butterflies.

But in modern times, the aura has declined, and the monsters and ghosts are almost extinct. It is absolutely impossible to cultivate the nine-winged black feather butterfly in its entirety.

As a result, the Black Feather Butterfly converged her ability and reduced her energy consumption to adapt to this world where aura was scarce and there was no heaven and earth treasures for her to devour.

In a sense, Black Feather Butterfly is indeed very strong!

After listening to Li Yun's analysis, Gong Qingyu looked at him with questioning eyes: "So, Li Yun, your pills can cultivate black feather butterflies?"

"I don't dare to talk about training, I promise she won't die." Li Yun smiled. He still likes black feather butterflies. This little guy is even more cute after he becomes a human form. He will give her a small pill for a few days. Fruit rice is acceptable.

Chapter 479: Ding, considerate

Seeing what the two women wanted to ask, Li Yun said, "Well, you don't need to know the source of my pill. Although this thing is very precious, I can still produce some."

Gong Qingyu spit out her little pink tongue cutely, "Li Yun, you must come from a hidden school similar to the Six Demon Sects, right? Humph, don't think I don't know!"

Li Yun shrugged, neither admitted nor denied, let them and others guess what they want.

Gong Lianyi frowned slightly, as if thinking of something, but didn't dare to ask.

Li Yun found her expression and was about to ask a question when the system prompt came.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Ask what Gong Lianyi is struggling with, reward Gong Lianyi with +1, random green gift bag*2, and obtain skill: understanding.

Option 2: Do nothing, no reward, Gong Lianyi will continue to struggle. "

Li Yun was stunned, what was Lian Yi struggling with?

It stands to reason that Gong Lianyi is now the innate late cultivation base, the real power elder of the palace family, and the excellent junior Qingyu, plus Li Yun is also very good to her, with the peach wood sword in his hand, which is completely unnecessary. Worry about something.

If you have to worry about something, then it can only be...

"Lian Yi!" Li Yun looked at her, "Are you thinking something in your heart? Tell me about it to your husband!"

Gong Lianyi was so ashamed that Li Yun actually called her wife in front of Qingyu at this time, making her blush all over.

Gong Qingyu gave Li Yun a roll of eyes, and she went to ask Aunt Lian what she was thinking.

"Actually, it's nothing." Gong Lianyi hesitated, and said embarrassingly: "I just... I just think that Li Yun, you have a lot of magical pills, maybe it can be cured..."

She is embarrassed to say the following words.

Li Yun has a pill, but it is for people close to him. Although Gong Lianyi also took the pill given by Li Yun, he couldn't take the initiative to let him give it to others.

Otherwise, it seems to be insatiable.

"It's okay, let's talk." Li Yun smiled and said: "Your husband, me, nothing else, there are still plenty of pills!"

"Big bragging!" Gong Qingyu glared at him with an aura, but he didn't object to Li Yun's taking advantage of them.

Gong Lianyi glanced at Li Yun gratefully before telling what she had struggled with before.

In fact, it is very simple. It is an old senior of the palace who was injured a few years earlier, and has been recuperating for these years, but it has not been effective.

What Gong Lianyi didn't say was that she didn't really care about the life and death of the elder named Gong Mingjian. After all, Gong Mingjian didn't know her well, and Gong Mingjian had been alive for a long time, and the end was approaching. Inevitably, manpower is irreversible.

She wanted to treat the old man, but she actually had another important consideration.

Gong Mingjian still has a very respectable position in the family summary. If Li Yun cures him, he can reduce the resistance from the family and marry her and Qingyu...

"That's it." Gong Lianyi's face blushed, and her voice trembled a little. If Li Yun can heal Gong Mingjian, she will definitely be recognized by the palace family. By then...

Li Yun nodded, and said confidently: "I know, don't worry, it's very simple for me to treat illness and save people, and I can get it done by giving you a pill."

"Ding, the host has made a choice, and the reward (Gonglian Yi +1, random green gift bag*2, acquired skill: understanding) has been issued!"

Chapter 480: Gong Mingjian

Just when Li Yun said that only one pill can heal Gong Mingjian, the system prompt came again.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Give a recovery pill to Gong Lianyi, let her turn the pill around Gongming Sword to take, reward skill: Luban ⑨, mentally retarded 250.

Option 2: Give the medium recovery pill to Gong Lianyi, no reward.

Option 3: Ask Concubine Wan Qing about Gong Mingjian, and reward a white gift bag*1. "

Li Yun looked dumbfounded, what kind of weird option is Nima's!

250 mentally retarded? Is it a mobile game called King?

Judging from the three options, the third option is undoubtedly the most correct, but the reward is too small.

Moreover, what is the relationship between Gong Mingjian and Concubine Wan Qing? Shouldn't...

Li Yun was taken aback. Could it be that Concubine Wan Qing is actually over a hundred years old, right? !

Li Yun couldn't help but feel a chill when he thought that the hot and charming "girl" was actually an old man with wrinkles.

This is sensational! !

"Don't be so hurry." Gong Lianyi waved her hand quickly, "The elder is not too serious. Wait... after some days, I, I and Qingyu," her face became very red, Gong Qingyu The same is true of his face.

"You and Qingyu will take me back to the palace?" Li Yun teased, successfully causing the shy Gong Qingyu to explode, pinching his waist and squeezing.

"Ahem, alright!"

Li Yun held Gong Qingyu's little hand without moving her, and said with a serious face, "I'm afraid it's not that simple."

"what?"

"Your palace family is considered a big family. I must have invited a lot of doctors to see Gong Mingjian over the years, right?"

The two women nodded.

"If it can't be cured, it means it's not a simple physical problem, maybe other aspects are involved, and it needs to be considered long-term!"

".....do not know."

Li Yun smiled, did not explain too much, put this matter aside for the time being, and talked about it later.

Later, he had to contact Concubine Wan Qing. The recent development of things kept hitting him in the face, which made Li Yun very embarrassed.

After lunch, Li Yun did not stay long, and chose to bid farewell to Gong Qingyu's two daughters and return to Zhonghai City.

"Qingyu, Lianyi, take care!"

Li Yun gave the two beauties, the young and the young, a hug, and walked into the car that Gong Lianyi had prepared for him under the reluctant gaze of the two women.

Gong Lianyi ordered a driver to drive him back to Longyang County. Li Yun did not refuse. This saved the trouble of going to the station to buy a ticket. All he had to do was to sit in the car along the way.

With his current relationship with the two daughters of the palace family, he no longer needs to care about these little things.

"The son." The driver asked respectfully: "Is it near Zhicai High School in Longyang County? I'll set up the navigation."

"Correct."

Li Yun got into the car and sat down. Gong Lianyi was really nice to him. This car was her car, worth tens of millions, the sofa was very soft, and Gong Lianyi's body scent still faintly remained in the back seat, which was extremely comfortable.

The driver's driving skills were very good, and the car slowly set off. Li Yun relaxed, took out his mobile phone and chatted with Fang Xue and Li Feng for a while, telling them that he would return to Longyang County in an hour.

Then, Li Yun made a call to someone who he didn't really want to communicate with.

"Hey~~~"

There was a lazy woman's voice on the phone, her voice soft and lazy, as if she was a seductive woman leaning on the bed, staring at you with seductive eyes.
