

GODLY CHOICE SYSTEM

Chapter 5: Sister Li Feng

At this moment, there was a sound in his pocket, and Li Yun's heart moved, and he quickly took out this second-hand mobile phone that cost only 300 yuan.

"Account*9600 deposited 3435 yuan at 20:51 on September 25, and the available balance was 7801 yuan."

Li Yun's eyes widened suddenly, just to help an aunt pick something, the system really rewarded so much money?

Don't look at it for only three thousand yuan, this is already Li Yun's salary for a month of hard work, and his family of four people's living expenses for more than a month!

Originally, his family only had more than five thousand yuan, and his sister had more than one thousand, but now it has suddenly increased by more than three thousand, making Li Yun almost smiled and cocked his mouth with joy.

"calm!"

Li Yun forced himself to calm down and checked the deposit reminder on the phone again before exhaling for a long time.

With the god-level selection system in place, these three thousand dollars are just the beginning!

But it was so cool!

Li Yunan resisted the excitement in his heart, and hurried to the nearby ATM machine. After personally confirming the deposit, he took out another thousand yuan and put it in his pocket, smiling, humming and buying vegetables to go home.

When he got home, Li Yun saw a beautiful shadow on the balcony, busy preparing lunch.

"sister!"

Li Yun yelled, and the girl turned her head. When she saw him, her beautiful eyes showed a smile, "Brother, have you come back from buying food? Bring it and let it go first. I will prepare the food before I prepare the food."

The beautiful and gentle girl in front of her was named Li Feng. Like Li Yun, she was born in an orphanage. The two grew up together, relying on each other, and have a deep relationship.

Li Yun put the vegetables he bought on the balcony. The old man who adopted him is not wealthy. The family has only two bedrooms and one living room. There is no kitchen and can only be used as a balcony.

"what?"

When Li Feng saw that Li Yun had bought so many dishes, he was surprised at first, and then complained a little: "Why did I buy so many? How much did it cost? Let me see, roast duck, muscles, ribs, wow, Brother, you!"

Poor people need careful planning to spend money, no wonder Li Feng was taken aback.

"Hahaha! Don't worry, your brother, I made money today!"

Li Yun smiled and gave Li Feng a hug, and handed out five hundred yuan to Li Feng, "Sister, here is the money. This is the data fee to be paid."

"Hey?"

Li Feng's face turned red, and he hurriedly said, "The data fee doesn't need to be that much. Where did you make the money?"

"Take it, buy two clothes for the rest!"

Li Yun said it badly, and finally let her accept the matter.

Of course, Li Yun didn't reveal how he obtained the system, which was a bit weird after all.

Staring at his younger brother for a long time, Li Feng suddenly laughed out loud, poked out his head, and imprinted him intimately on his face, just like he did when he was a child.

"Anyway, you are my brother~"

"Ahem, I know."

Li Yun was a little embarrassed, Sunshine's handsome face was slightly embarrassed.

He and Li Feng are not sisters and brothers, and they have deep feelings. When adolescence is restless, they will inevitably have some strange thoughts.

It's just that the two of them didn't break. Before the sisters grew up, they had always been sisters and brothers rather than lovers.

"Okay, okay, you go out and I'll cook by myself~!"

Li Feng pushed him out, ready to make a sumptuous lunch.

Li Yun was about to leave, and the system had another prompt.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Go to the living room to watch TV and reward a random gift.

Option 2: Help Li Feng, reward skills: intermediate cooking, charm +1. "
