

GODLY CHOICE SYSTEM

Chapter 6: Ding, intermediate cooking

Li Yun raised his eyebrows, is there such a good thing?

Without thinking about it, he directly chose to help Li Feng.

"Ding, the host makes a choice and rewards intermediate cooking skills."

There are dozens of home cooking methods, as well as some well-known cuisines, Li Yun grasped in an instant, and can use them proficiently, just like a master chef who has been cooking in a restaurant for many years!

"Sister, I'll help you!" Li Yun confidently walked to the balcony, "I'll be the chef today, let you and Caixia. Caiwei see my cooking skills!"

"Go, go, you work in a food stall and you are not a chef, so you still want to show off your cooking skills?" Li Feng teased. The two brothers and sisters have a good relationship and don't care about this joke.

"Who said that? Your brother, I am extremely talented. I have already learned all the skills of a chef by working at a food stall. Let me take it!"

Seeing that Li Yun didn't seem to be joking, Li Feng said with a weird expression: "The head of the family really wants to show off his cooking skills today?"

The head of the family is not a joke, and now this family is all maintained by Li Yun.

"Of course, sister, you are optimistic!"

Li Yun confidently picked up the kitchen knife, and skillfully cut half of the roast duck open, and then cut the washed green peppers with a fast and incomparable knife method.

For a while, the small kitchen was filled with the clatter of crisp kitchen knives hitting the cutting board.

Slice the ginger, pat the garlic to loosen, chop, and set the frying pan on fire...

Li Feng's beautiful eyes were full of surprise. When was her brother so powerful?

"Wow, it smells so good~"

When Li Yun was cooking, there was a clear and sweet voice from the door. A lovely-looking girl came to the balcony and saw the roast duck on the chopping board. When she saw the roast duck on the chopping board, her eyes lit up and she stretched out her hand. Go grab a piece and try it.

"Snapped!"

Li Feng lined up her hands and said with her arms akimbo, "Caixia, what do you want to do? I want to eat without washing my hands?"

"Woo, yes~" the girl pursed her mouth aggrievedly.

"Caixia, all right, wash your hands and eat!"

Li Yun turned his head to look at her amusedly. This young girl who is as pure as a spring flower bone is the granddaughter of the old man who adopted him, Li Caixia.

And walking in from the door, she looked exactly the same as Caixia, she was the sister of the twin sisters, Li Caiwei.

The two are 14 years old this year, in the second grade, their younger sister is lively and naughty, and her sister is quiet and introverted.

After the grandfather passed away, the relationship between the four of them grew stronger.

"Okay, done, let's eat!" Li Yun brought the last dish.

"Woo, today's food is so rich, and it's much better than usual~"

"Humph, your brother is cooking today!" Li Fengyou complained.

"Huh? Sister, what you said is true?"

Li Caixia looked at Li Yun in surprise, and then leaned in to look at him carefully. There were two blushes on her small face, and she said intoxicated: "My brother is still so handsome, and the cooking is so delicious. No wonder my sister likes his brother so much, hehe. ~"

With a shy expression on Caixia's face, she got caught up in her mind. She quickly turned off the topic and asked in a low voice, "Brother, why did you buy so many dishes today?"

"Well, not much, we will all eat so well in the future, or even better!"

Li Yun scratched Caixia's little nose, and solemnly promised to the three of them: "In the future, my brother will let you all have a good life, and you won't endure any more hardships!"

Although the three of them didn't know why Li Yun made such a promise, they were still very moved. The two sisters also printed it on Li Yun cutely.

After eating, the three of Li Feng took a nap. Li Yun was so excited that he couldn't fall asleep either, so he simply went outside to try his luck to see if the selection event could be triggered again.

"Huh? Isn't the one walking in front frowning as a school flower from our school?"
