

Godly Choice 61

Chapter 61: Ding, do what is righteous, reward 50,000 money

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Take the opportunity to rob the jewelry store, reward random escape type advanced martial arts, evil value 1000.

Option 2: Stand up to protect everyone, capture robbers, reward money, justice value 30, experience points 1000, Fang Xue's favorability +10, charm value +3.

Choice 3: Ignore, eat melons quietly, and reward random gift bags*1. "

Signaling Fang Xue to retreat, Li Yun stood up calmly and said to the thief in a flat tone.

He discovered one thing, the evil value would increase crazily as long as one bad thing was done, and the justice value would increase very slowly.

However, the system's three views are quite positive, only rewarding money when doing good deeds.

The thief was obviously stunned. He probably didn't expect someone who was not afraid of death would come forward.

"Give you two choices."

Li Yun also gave the thief a multiple choice question in a wicked way: "First, put down the folding knife, kneel down and beg for mercy, maybe I can beat you a few times less."

The thief laughed angrily, "What about the second?"

"Second," Li Yun squeezed his fist and walked towards him in a leisurely manner, "I was beaten by me, then knelt down and begged for mercy, and then broke a few bones, it depends on when you begged for mercy!"

Everyone in the jewelry shop was speechless. This boy is very handsome, but he is too mad!

Although what he said was also very handsome, all the women present looked at him intently.

"You are numbly looking for death!"

The thief was enraged and rushed over with a folding knife, with a cruel smile on his face, he knew it was not the first time he had done such a thing!

"Ah, Li Yun!" Fang Xue hung a heart in her throat. She knew that Li Yun was very strong and could defeat school kings like Lu Shan.

But this thief with a knife is completely different from Lu Shan, he really dares to kill!

"Don't worry, it's a small matter."

Facing the thief who was leaping forward, Li Yun leaned forward flexibly, and then slapped a palm, hitting the thief's back with a scream, spouting a mouthful of blood, and falling to the ground. Can't get up anymore.

"It's over?"

Everyone was stunned. The thief who was arrogant before and threatened everyone with a folding knife is now knocked to the ground by Li Yun?

"Wow, brother is amazing~!"

The little boy clapped his hands and shouted, "Look, mom, this elder brother is so amazing, I will be like him in the future!"

Li Yun smiled at him, "Children, it's a good thing to be brave when you see righteousness, but you must protect yourself first, don't be impulsive, bad guys can be very powerful sometimes!"

"Don't be afraid, there are people like my brother!" The little boy's milky words eased the atmosphere in the store.

"What about you? Did you kneel down?"

Li Yun looked at the thief's girlfriend indifferently. The latter was already pale and without the slightest sense of resistance, he chose to kneel down and take out the stolen goods.

Everyone found out that the thief partner had actually stolen several pieces of jewelry!

"Okay, you can call the police."

Li Yun waved his hand and motioned the clerk to deal with the rest.

"Ding, the host made a choice, and the rewards (56000 for money, 30 for justice, 1000 for experience points, Fang Xue's favorability +10, charisma +3.) have been issued"

Li Yun was very satisfied, and the reward money just offset the money spent in the jewelry shop.

"Li, Li Yun."

Fang Xue walked to Li Yun, her beautiful eyes were full of infatuation and admiration, her small mouth opened slightly, and she said shyly: "Just now, you are so handsome~, I like it very much, this is a reward~"

"award?"

Chapter 62: The whole street belongs to my house

"Hmm...reward~"

Fang Xue said this sentence in an enchanting tone, and Fang Xue closed her eyes, stood on her tiptoe, and kissed Li Yun's face.

It was just a moment, and soon separated. Li Yun didn't even have time to feel the feeling of her flapping. Fang Xue turned around shyly and said with a trembling voice, "Don't think about it, this is just a reward, um, beauty. Reward for heroes!"

"Of course, it's not a reward for a boyfriend or girl friend, I know." Li Yun smiled lightly and did not tease her, otherwise the shy Fang Xue was afraid that she was not going to use a girl's trick to deal with her boyfriend-pinch the waist.

Everyone in the jewelry shop applauded. A beauty is a hero. Li Yun and Fang Xue are a match made in heaven!

Of course, there are also girls who are dissatisfied with their boyfriends, "Huh, look at someone else's boyfriend, he is so handsome, has a sense of justice, and has great skills, look at you again!"

"Ahem, my girlfriend is also prettier than my girlfriend."

"What did you say?! Say it again?!"

"My wife, forgive me, I dare not!"

When such a big event happened, the store manager naturally rushed over quickly. This shrewd store manager of more than forty, after knowing that Li Yun would help, he enthusiastically gave Li Yun a 50% discount, and always praised him in the process. Fang Xue is beautiful, beautiful and generous, gentle and lovely.

Leaving the shop with a few pieces of jewelry, Fang Xue glanced at Li Yun cautiously, and secretly breathed a sigh of relief when he saw that his expression had not changed.

"what happened?"

"No, nothing!" Fang Xue said with a guilty conscience.

"Is this store yours?"

Li Yun smiled and pointed out the reason for Fang Xue's guilty conscience, making the latter startled, and an embarrassing expression appeared on his beautiful face.

"How did you know?"

"Because the store manager is a very shrewd person at first glance. He gave me a 50% discount, which is equivalent to giving me more than 20,000 yuan. It is obviously impossible. In addition, he has always been courteous to you, combined with his age, you can guess the truth."

"Huh, you are so smart!"

Fang Xue pursed her small mouth, and said defiantly: "I was worried that you would feel inferior because of this, but seeing Li Yun you are now like this, I am completely relieved!"

The boy she likes is a man who is neither arrogant nor humble, who can stand upright, how can he care about her family's hundreds of billions of wealth?

Li Yun does not have any inferiority complex. After all, he now has a magical system and his future achievements are limitless.

"Listening to you, Xiaoxue, I'm wondering how much money does your family have?"

"This..." Fang Xue hesitated, pointed quietly at the surrounding commercial street, ran his finger across a large circle, and smiled secretly: "This commercial street, and the commercial street on the other side of the county seat, has half of the shops. It's all from my family!"

Li Yun: "..."

What else can he say?

The one who is right in front of Colonel Fang is a white, rich and beautiful, with a net worth of billions. I heard that her family is only her daughter, and she will inherit all these family properties in the future.

"Okay." Li Yun twitched, took the initiative to hold her soft little hand, and whispered softly: "I am very grateful for the favor of a Bai Fumei. I will work harder in the future to strive to be worthy of the daughter. you!"

"Hate~!"

Fang Xue laughed out loud, hugged Li Yun's arm tightly, and hit his shoulder with a small head, but said softly, "Even if the poor boy does not have the wealth, Miss Qianjin likes to be poor. Boy~."

Li Yun's heart trembled. He originally wanted to tease Fang Xue, but he didn't expect to be excited by her truthful words.

With such a confidant, what else is he dissatisfied with?

Chapter 63: There are rewards for pampering your girlfriend

The two held hands and strolled for a long time, finished shopping in the commercial street, and then ran to the nearby museum for a round. As it approached 11 noon, there was finally no other place to go to play.

"Xiaoxue, where are we going next?"

Li Yun looked at Fang Xue, and unexpectedly found that the other party's face was a little blush, his mouth was slightly open, and a little bit of sweat oozes from the tall and small bridge of the nose, and he seemed a little tired.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Spoil your girlfriend, buy milk tea for her, let her take a break, reward Fang Xue's favorability +1, and give a random gift.

Option 2: Ignore, continue shopping, no reward. "

Li Yun was stunned, this is also an option?

But do you spoil your girlfriend? He likes this option event!

"follow me."

Li Yun didn't wait for Fang Xue to return, so he took her to a small milk tea shop, "Let's rest, wait for dinner, and we will be here at noon!"

"Um."

Fang Xue softly agreed, feeling a little moved in her heart.

As soon as she felt a little tired, Li Yun was keenly aware that she let her rest, and Fang Xue's gentle attitude warmed her heart.

"Ding, the host has made a choice, and the reward (Fang Xue's favorability +1, a random gift) has been distributed!"

The corner of Li Yun's mouth was hooked. Fang Xue's favorability has risen to 96, close to 100, which is the full quota. If he doesn't make the last step in the future and collects one blood, it is estimated that it will be difficult to rise to one hundred.

However, as long as the favorability level rises to 100, and as long as Li Yun does not do very bad things in the future, such as hurting her family, Fang Xue's favorability for him will not drop anymore.

According to the introduction of the system, the degree of goodwill is 100, which means that Fang Xue has deeply saddened Li Yun. Li Yun does what she wants to do, and Fang Xue, who is deeply rooted in love, unconditionally obeys.

Of course, Li Yun would not do too much. He was a good person with normal three outlooks. How could he go against Fang Xue's wishes and do those things in high school!

"System, turn on random gifts." Li Yun opened it smoothly.

"Ding, get a small Jidan."

Small building base Dan? It happened to be used by Fang Xue. Her health was a little bad. The system gave him this reward on purpose, right?

Li Yun quietly took out the reward from the inventory, and asked Fang Xue to eat a small-sized Jidan based on the reason that "this is a traditional Chinese medicine ball that can warm the body".

"Warm up your body?"

Fang Xue took the pill in doubt. She believed Li Yun so much now that she naturally wouldn't doubt what he was doing.

Even if it was poison, as long as it was given to her by Li Yun, Fang Xue willingly took it.

When the pill was lowered, it immediately turned into a warm current, and all the limbs became warm, and Fang Xue was sweating slightly again, but the whole body was not comfortable enough, and she just felt that she could go shopping for a whole day!

"Li Yun, is this...?" Fang Xue was from an extraordinary family background, but she had never eaten something like this before, so she knew immediately that it had a different origin, and it must be very precious!

"Don't worry, it's a good thing."

Li Yun scratched the little nose of Xue Xia below. The latter did not avoid it. Instead, his face became shy, and he looked around, then quickly came over and kissed Li Yun again on the cheek.

"Hee hee, this is also a reward~" Fang Xue gave Li Yun the eyebrows of a maid, and the beautiful appearance of the beautiful and unpretentious looks made Li Yun tickled.

"Xiaoxue, if you have time, give me more rewards." Li Yun held her little hand, and Fang Xue said proudly, "It depends on how you behave, hehe~"

Chapter 64: gaming room

In the end, Li Yun finally got some rewards and kissed Fang Xue's smooth and delicate cheek as well, feeling the soft and smooth touch of her cheek.

Sure enough, the taste of Fang Da's school flowers is very wonderful.

But of course, after the kiss, the big colonel's eyes rolled in exchange, which made Li Yun quite wronged.

Why would she reward her if she wanted to, why couldn't Li Yun want to reward her?

This society is really unfair!

"Huh~"

Colonel Fang made a sweet snort, which made Li Yun's bones crumble.

After a sweet lunch, the two left the commercial street and went to hang out in the street where Li Yun often played when he was a child.

It was once flooded with Internet cafes and game halls, but most of them have now died out, and only a few are still holding on.

"Huh? Li Yun, did you skip class back then?"

Fang Xue, who has always followed the teachings of her parents and teachers, widened her eyes. She couldn't believe Li Yun would do such a thing.

Li Yun smiled, "Boys have skipped class more or less, well, at least they have the idea of skipping class. Let's go, let's go into the game hall and have a look, since you want to understand my past."

"Hate, who wants to know your past? I'm just bored to stroll around, huh~!"

The school flower is arrogant again.

The two entered a game hall hand in hand. This game hall is a bit strange and newly opened. This seems very strange today when the game halls are generally closed down.

Fang Xue's arrival attracted the attention of many idle young people in the game hall. They whistled at Fang Xue, coaxing the big beauties to play with them.

However, after Li Yun took the initiative to teach a few social youths, the group of people finally calmed down, and only dared to keep their saliva on the side to appreciate the beauty of Fang Da's school flower.

"It's messy!" Fang Xue, who was hiding behind Li Yun, stuck out his tongue. In places like the game hall, her parents and teachers had warned her many times not to come. Now it seems that it is indeed messy.

"People who are idle and bored will come here to play, after all, there is not much entertainment in the small county."

Li Yun shrugged and said that he was not surprised. He had seen more chaotic things in Internet cafes.

Fang Xue nodded and looked forward. There was a game console in the middle of the hall. There were many bear dolls and other gifts in a transparent cabinet inside, and many people were watching.

"Let's go and see."

Li Yun took her closer and found that it was a lottery machine. One dollar of game currency was drawn once. The prizes ranged from the newly produced fruit machine worth 10,000 yuan to the marbles with only a dime.

"Grass! Marbles again?"

"I'm paralyzed, this store has a pit, I haven't seen anyone draw a prize of ten dollars!"

"Hahaha, another group of fools have been pitted, how can fruit machines be so easy to handle?"

After a couple spent fifty yuan and got nothing but a bunch of marbles, the people around scorned and laughed.

It seems that the chance of this lottery machine is extremely low and it is a trick.

"I didn't try either." Fang Xue bought ten yuan of game currency excitedly, and threw it in.

"Ding Ding Ding~"

Five thank you for your patronage and five marbles.

"Woo, why is this!" Colonel Fang's face collapsed, she really didn't have any luck.

"Li Yun, so angry~"

Fang Xue coquettishly said to Li Yun. Although ten yuan is nothing to her, the feeling of throwing it away for nothing is still very uncomfortable. It is good to lose a prize of three yuan, but it only has marbles!

Chapter 65: You tell me the probability

"I'll just say, this store definitely has a pit!"

The couple who just smoked 50 game coins but half of them were marbles screamed. Amidst the noise, a middle-aged man with a vicious face, a big waist and a dragon pattern embroidered on his chest walked out of the back room.

"Grass! Which kid would dare to run wild in my game hall?!"

The brawny dragon-printed man shouted, and the game hall instantly became quiet, and everyone's eyes dodged his gaze and scanned.

As for the little couple, now they dare not breathe.

Li Yun curled his lips.

People who dare to open game halls, discos, and bars are more or less capable. They don't have a background. They all eat black and white. They have a good relationship with the small gangsters in the county. Otherwise, the gangsters will make trouble every few days. These stores will never go on!

However, Li Yun can't look at his girlfriend angry for nothing!

"boss."

Li Yun looked directly at the fierce boss, and faintly said, "Is there something wrong with your game console? My girlfriend, plus this couple, have smoked a total of 60 times. Except thank you for your patronage, all of them are Marbles, this is obviously not in accordance with probability!"

Li Yun pointed his finger at the probability of winning a note on the game console. It said that a doll worth 10 yuan had a probability of winning a prize of 5%, plus something with 3 yuan and 5 yuan, and the total probability was absolutely low. It will not happen that there are only marbles and empty space for 60 consecutive times!

"Probability?" The boss of the dragon tattoo sneered. "I don't understand this, but I also know that the chance of a lottery ticket is one in ten million. Isn't it the fuck?"

"That's because millions of people bought it!" Fang Xue interrupted. The boss immediately looked at her with a fierce look, with a greedy look in his eyes, and looked up and down Fang Xue's tall and graceful figure.

"The little girl is so beautiful!"

The boss looked at him squintingly, and said with a smile: "Why don't you accompany Lao Tzu to sleep for one night and let you draw the prize pool?"

"you!"

Fang Xue gave him a puffing look, the mountains undulating in the proud place, and finally snorted, ducked behind Li Yun, and didn't care about this kind of person!

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Help your girlfriend get ahead, teach your boss, reward a random senior martial arts book, a few points of experience, Fang Xue's favorability +1, charm value +3, and a few blue gift bags.

Option 2: Swallow your breath and reward random gifts*1.

Option 3: Alarm, reward justice value +10. "

Advanced martial arts?

Li Yun was overjoyed, but his face was calm, blocking the boss's view of Fang Xue, and asked, "I don't know what the boss is called?"

"The brothers on the road call me Longtou brother!" The boss looked proud, and deliberately showed the Rolex on his wrist in front of Fang Xue, indicating that he was very rich.

But what he didn't know was that Fang Xue's family had enough money to buy a house of Rolex!

"Brother Dragon Head."

Li Yun nodded, reached out and took out a red one-hundred-yuan bill, pinched it with his fingers, raised his head to the boss, and said with a smile: "Well, I'll have a fun too, winning or losing at will."

Brother Longtou smiled mockingly, "Hehe, do you want to give me money? It's okay, please, don't blame me for not reminding you, don't blame me for not getting the prize!"

"No, how can you blame the leader, after all, you can win the lottery every ten thousand times, and it's normal for me to miss 100 times."

Li Yun emphasized: "No matter what prize I win, I won't have any opinion. Of course, if I hope I win a good thing, you, the leader..."

"Of course I don't have any opinions!"

Chapter 66: Game arcade in question

Brother Longtou patted his chest to make sure that he came down, smiling, and looking at Fang Xue with a wicked look.

Li Yun whispered to Fang Xue, asked her to follow, and then started to throw coins into the game console as if she didn't need any money.

One, two, ten, twenty, no matter how many game coins Li Yun put in, the ones that come out will always be marbles worth 50 cents and thank you for your patronage.

Soon, all a hundred game coins were put into it, and there was still nothing.

"Hahaha!"

Brother Longtou patted Li Yun on the shoulder, "Little brother, it seems that you are out of luck, how about it? Would you like me to help you pump?"

"No." Li Yun shook his head with a wry smile, but quickly gritted his teeth and said: "I don't believe that I can't get good things out. Let's get another five hundred game coins. Brother Longtou, help me get the game coins and bring another Come on the chair, today I will follow the lottery machine on the bar!"

"Five hundred? Good!" Leading brother's eyes lit up, and he immediately followed Li Yun's instructions.

"Li Yun." Fang Xue pulled the corner of Li Yun's clothes worriedly, and whispered: "Stop playing, shall we go?"

"Don't go!"

Brother Longtou said in a hurry: "You must finish the five hundred dollars today. You are not allowed to go if you don't finish it!"

"That's what you said."

Li Yun shrugged, holding Fang Xue's little hand, squeezing her soft palm, and beckoning her not to worry, "Xiaoxue, you come to pump for me this time. I'll go online to see if there is any transfer method."

"...Well, we'll leave when we finish the five hundred."

Fang Xue reluctantly agreed and started tossing game coins into the lottery machine.

More than 20 people quickly gathered around Li Yun. After seeing the pile of game coins around Fang Daxiaohua, all of them showed an expression of watching the show.

Many people have known for a long time that this lottery machine will never be able to draw good things. It is a gadget used by the boss to trick unfamiliar customers.

Therefore, Li Yunhao's behavior of throwing five hundred yuan is no different from stupid in their eyes!

"This idiot is quite rich, but it's a pity that his girlfriend is so beautiful, but he followed this idiot!"

"No way, I guess this stupid is a nouveau riche, the kind who just demolished!"

"Woo, I'm so sour, nouveau riche have such beautiful girlfriends!"

"This figure is convex and backward. This looks is more beautiful than a big star. If I can play for one night, I will be happy to live ten years less!"

The unemployed young people around arbitrarily commented on Fang Xue's figure and appearance. The leader was not good enough. When Li Yun spent the five hundred dollars and aroused him, maybe his girlfriend would leave him because of this. By then... ..Hey-hey!

"Li, Li Yun?"

Fang Xue had thrown three hundred game coins, her hands were tired, but she still couldn't see any unexpected rewards other than marbles, and she was disappointed in her heart.

But she turned her head to look at Li Yun, only to find that the other party was just playing with her mobile phone leisurely, and it seemed that she didn't pay attention to anything here.

"let's go!"

Fang Xue dropped the game coin, held his hand violently, and said with an imploring look.

When a senior colonel looked at her with this look, she believed that no man could refuse her request.

"Finish!"

Li Yun hooked his mouth, stretched out his hand and scratched Fang Xue's upturned nose, and said with a smile: "Xiaoxue, you vote for another one. If you don't win the special prize, we will go!"

"...Okay." Fang Xue's face flushed, and she decided to trust Li Yun again.

"Special prize?"

Brother Longtou put his hands on his chest and snorted disdainfully: "If you win the special prize, my * name will be yours!"

Chapter 67: Ding Dong, special prize, a 9th generation fruit machine

Li Yun smiled, "Li's surname is actually pretty good, you can consider it."

"You  want to die?!"

"hehe."

Li Yun ignored him and motioned to Fang Xue to go to the coin lottery draw.

"Humph!"

Brother Longtou turned his eyes, he laughed, turned around and shouted at the crowd around the audience: "Everyone has heard it. This guy said he will draw a special prize later, and if he can't get it, he will give me my last name and say he wants When my son, hehe, this is the first time I have seen such a person!"

Many unemployed young people in the society laughed and laughed, saying that they couldn't draw the special prize and asked Li Yun to call the leader to be his father.

Li Yun shook his head helplessly, too lazy to pay attention to these people, and said: "Xiaoxue, coin!"

".....Um."

Fang Xue became very nervous, had she not been for Li Yun by her side, she would have escaped from this smoky place long ago.

Taking a deep breath, Fang Xue dropped a game coin.

With a ding sound, the lottery machine began to make the sound of the turntable rotating, and the patterns representing various gifts flashed quickly on the screen, and finally, it stopped slowly.

"Dingdong, congratulations, I won the special prize, a 9th generation fruit machine, worth 12,800 yuan!"

Under the gaze of everyone, the pointer stayed on the special prize, and then the lottery machine played the cheerful music of the special prize.

"how is this possible!"

Brother Longtou shrank his pupils and shouted out, "I clearly asked people to set the probability to...0."

He shut his mouth in time, but everyone knew what he was going to say, and everyone looked at him with contempt.

"Li, Li Yun, were we really hit?" Fang Xue's beautiful eyes widened, her face in disbelief.

"No way, no one can stop if luck comes." Li Yun shrugged, turned his head and said to Brother Longtou: "You think so? Brother Li Longtou!"

"Brother Lee Longtou?"

Everyone repeated it, and couldn't help but laugh. Even Colonel Fang couldn't help but laugh, covering her mouth.

"You  want to die!"

Brother Li Longtou was about to get angry, Li Yun waved his hand to stop, and said lightly: "Don't worry, there are still half of the game currency bought for 500 yuan, wait until the draw is over, Xiaoxue, continue to draw!"

"Um!"

Fang Xue was struggling now, her hands were not sore and her waist was not painful, and she happily put another game coin in it.

"Ding Dong, congratulations, I won the first prize, a fruit machine of the 8th generation, worth 8800 yuan!"

Everyone was dumbfounded, and Brother Longtou's eyes were almost staring out, his mother was hit again?

"Xiaoxue, go on."

"it is good!"

"Ding Dong, congratulations, I won the first prize, a fruit machine of the 8th generation, worth 8800 yuan!"

"My Cao!!!"

There was a sensation among the crowd. There was one special prize and two first prizes. The odds of multiplying them were terribly low, but Fang Xue was able to draw consecutively?

The people who had previously criticized Li Yun for being Silly were all dumbfounded at the moment, they felt that they were Silly.

Three mobile phones add up to 30,000 yuan, which is simply cool!

"What the * is going on?!"

Brother Longtou was furious. He lost 30,000 yuan in just one minute. Who can stand it?

"Hahaha."

Taking the prize out of the prize pool, Li Yun shrugged, "There is no way, as you said earlier, Li Longtou, there is a one in ten million chance that there is a lottery ticket. My girlfriend won three times in a row, it's not surprising, right? Everyone, what do you think?"

"Not surprisingly!"

Everyone said in unison, their belly bursting with laughter, and they just waited to see the good show of Brother Longtou.

Chapter 68: Won three hundred prizes

Li Yun said lightly: "Xiaoxue, continue to smoke, and finish the rest!"

"I smoke Nima!!!"

Brother Longtou blushed with a furious appearance. He was stimulated by Li Yun's words again. He couldn't help but screamed, squeezing the big fist of the casserole, and slapped Li Yun fiercely in the face.

"Don't get excited."

In the horrified eyes of everyone, Li Yun calmly squeezed his fist with one hand and squeezed it lightly. The dragon head brother suddenly screamed like a pig, his face pale.

"Forgiveness, forgiveness, brother, I was wrong, let me go!"

Brother Longtou hurriedly begged for mercy, Li Yun's palm was almost like a pair of iron pliers, firmly locked his fist, leaving him with no ability to resist!

"Huh! Life and death!"

Li Yun flicked it casually and threw away the leader like trash. The shop assistants and thugs around were afraid to put a fart at this moment, and let Li Yun and Fang Xue continue to draw the lottery.

"Dingdong, congratulations, I won the second prize, a PS4, worth 3,600 yuan!"

"Second prize... One Switch, worth 3200 yuan!"

"Second prize...Three-day trip to Zhonghai City (group of 5 people), worth 5500 yuan!"

Everyone was completely stunned.

Li Yun and Fang Xue took turns to invest in game coins, winning each time, and from the highest special prize, from high to low, all the way to the seventh prize!

More than two hundred game coins actually swept the entire prize pool, worth nearly 100,000 yuan!

"Brother, can't I call you big brother?" Longtou knelt on the ground, crying with bitter tears: "It's not easy for me to make some money, big brother, let me go!"

"Hehe." Li Yun smiled indifferently. "You said before that you must let me finish 500 yuan today, and I won't be allowed to go if I don't finish it? Why do you want me to stop now?"

"Brother, I was wrong, please forgive me once!"

Brother Longtou gave himself a few big mouths, hit them very hard, and slapped, as expected to be able to open a game hall, cruel to others, and cruel to himself.

"I shouldn't adjust the odds of winning in the backstage! Pop!"

As he said, he slapped himself again.

"I shouldn't offend you, big brother! Pop!"

"Big Brother, when you were sitting on the chair, I should have seen how good you are, Big Brother!"

Brother Longtou only recalled now that Li Yun's calm and unreliable appearance at the time was obviously that he had found a master to invade his game console control backstage and adjusted his chances of winning to the highest level.

"Okay, don't show off, this time you provoke me, you have to admit it!"

Li Yun ignored his plea and took away the prizes above the second prize, leaving Fang Xue to pick a few extra pieces of the rest.

The rest.

"Come over and get what you want," Li Yun pointed to the remaining items in the prize pool, and said to the crowd of onlookers: "You are welcome, although you are a group of small gangsters, I looked very unpleasant, but you were also cheated by the boss. After that, all come over to empty the prize pool!"

"My Cao?"

Everyone was shocked, and then rushed over to grab the prize. Among them, the leader's action was the fastest, directly from kneeling on the ground, turning into a vicious dog to pounce on food.

"Pale, it's all my stuff, don't grab it!"

"Fuck! What is your thing? This is what the eldest brother rewarded us!"

"Damn you bastards, come over and help me get the prizes!" The leader yelled to his shop assistants.

"Thank you, big brother for the reward, big brother will come again next time!"

"Lai Ni...Ma, uh, brother will come again next time!" Longtou hurriedly changed his words.

The scene was chaotic, Li Yun and Fang Xue smiled at each other, and each went out holding a bunch of the most valuable things.

Chapter 69: Ding, Fang Xue's favorability is increased by 1

"Ding, the host makes a choice and rewards (advanced martial arts: King Kong finger, experience 5135 points, Fang Xue's favorability +1, charm value +3, blue gift bag*3. Has been issued!"

When Li Yun walked out of the game hall, the system issued generous rewards.

Among them, King Kong refers to what Li Yun is most satisfied with.

This trick is known as Shaolin's 72 stunts. Not only can it exert a powerful force in the Body Tempering Realm, it can also mobilize zhenqi even in the Hou Tian realm. It can be protruded with one finger, and the intensity of the blast is comparable to bullets, broken gold and broken stones are not a problem!

And the system directly rewards King Kong pointing to the advanced level, which makes Li Yun's move more powerful and powerful enough to be used as a trick at the bottom of the box!

As for Fang Xue's favorability, it has reached 99 points, which is almost full!

If the favorability reaches 100, it means that Li Yun can do whatever he wants, and she will not object to it.

"Li Yun~"

"Ahem!"

Hearing Fang Xue's call, Li Yun pulled back his reverie and asked sternly, "What's the matter?"

"Um?"

Fang Xue went over and looked at his face carefully. She always felt that Li Yun was thinking about something bad!

"Xiaoxue!"

"Huh~"

Fang Xuejiao snorted, reached out and pinched Li Yun's waist, causing him to yell out, and then said with satisfaction: "I just want to ask, why did we draw so many prizes? You controlled the lottery machine. ?"

"clever!"

Li Yun pinched Xue's little nose and explained: "The lottery machine cannot always have a low probability, because someone from the Administration for Industry and Commerce will come to check it, so I speculate that the lottery machine is connected to the Internet and there is a control backstage Control the odds of winning."

"So you think of a way to hack into and control the background?" Fang Xue's eyes widened, "You know how to hack?"

"I know a little bit." Li Yun tickled the corner of his mouth. "It's easy for me to hack into the console, so let's sweep away the prizes of the leader!"

"Amazing!"

Fang Xue's beautiful eyes smiled, looking straight at Li Yun, and said bluntly, "My boyfriend is so amazing, how can I reward you?"

When he was in the game hall, he always called her his girlfriend. Fang Xue was happy in her heart and admitted Li Yun as her boyfriend on impulse!

Moreover, it seemed that her voice was expecting something.

Li Yun looked at her beautiful little face and the bright red mouth, Fang Xue also looked at him shyly, her eyes facing each other, the dark and sweet affection filled, the heads of the two young girls who were in love were slowing down. Approach slowly.

"Xiaoxue, can I ask for the reward myself?"

Li Yun raised her chin and asked gently.

".....Um."

Fang Xue slowly closed her eyes, waiting for someone she likes to * her first kiss.

Although I have only met Li Yun for less than a week, Li Yun's handsome appearance, gentle performance, combined with meticulous care, and the personality charm demonstrated today, have deeply moved Fang Xue's heart and made her willing to become His captive.

Fang Xue was also very sure, convinced that Li Yun would be good to her in the future, and that Li Yun was a person worthy of her life, not just the relationship of her first love.

"Miss!"

Just as the two black-clothed bodyguards were about to overlap, the two black-clothed bodyguards trot out of their hiding place and abruptly interrupted the love exchange between the couple.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Continue to kiss Fang Xue, reward Fang Xue's favorability degree +1, experience 5000 points, high probability trigger event: Fang Huyu's anger.

Option two: give up, reward skill: shrink head turtle. "

Chapter 70: Ding, Fang Xue has a good impression of over 100

Does Li Yun still use selection? Even a man can't be a tortoise!

Therefore, Li Yun ignored the warning from the black bodyguard, bowed his head and kissed Fang Xue Yanhong's petals.

Soft, moist, sweet, and wonderful.

Unfortunately, because of the wrong occasion and timing, Li Yun only enjoyed Fang Xue's deliciousness for three seconds before letting her go.

"Li, Li Yun!"

Fang Xue screamed, her delicate body leaned softly against his arms, her cheeks flushed, her beautiful eyes closed, she looked ashamed.

Her heart has melted into a soft water, filled with affection for Li Yun.

"Ding, the host made a choice, and the reward (Fang Xue's favorability +1, 5000 experience points) has been issued!

"Ding, congratulations to the host for successfully obtaining the full favorability of a girl, extra 5000 experience points and a red envelope!"

"Red envelope: there is money 88888 inside. After opening it, you will get a special skill: conquest (effect: at a special time, make the host energetic, fight endlessly, and not fall!)

Li Yun hugged Fang Xue's waist, feeling very excited and joyful in his heart.

Being able to have such a beautiful schoolgirl love her, full of favorability, means that she will never change her heart in the future, plus the gain of 10,000 experience, it is even more exciting, he now has nearly 20,000 points Experience!

As for the effect of the conquest in the red envelope, well, every man likes it.

The only pity is that Li Yun hasn't had a chance to verify this skill yet, so he can only save it later, and then slowly verify it with Fang Xue or Li Feng.

"You! Even with Miss...!"

The two bodyguards looked at each other. They were assigned by Master Fang to protect Fang Xue. In addition to preventing bad guys, the other purpose was to prevent some  from getting close to Fang Xue. After all, the eldest lady of the Fang family, not all men can get involved!

But now, Li Yun actually took away the first kiss of the young lady in front of them, this is simply! What makes them even more depressed is that they still can't get angry, because maybe Li Yun will become the aunt of the Fang family in the future, and they will be dead after the autumn is settled!

"Li Yun, am I going back?"

"Well, see you tomorrow."

Fang Xue's agitated mood slowly calmed down. Now that she has given her first kiss, there is nothing to worry about. Li Yun is stronger than she thought, enough for her strict father to recognize him!

So, Fang Xue stood on tiptoe, took the initiative to kiss Li Yun's head, and shyly fled into her red Maserati.

Li Yun gently rubbed his mouth with his fingers, it seemed that Fang Xue's sweet taste still remained on it, making him very excited.

"Ahem!"

Li Yun turned his head and said to the two bodyguards whose jaws were both scared off, "You protect Xiaoxue and go back. Tell your master, I will see him personally!"

The two bodyguards were taken aback again.

Going to see him in person shows that Li Yun is confident that Fang Xue's father will recognize him!

Fang Xue sitting in the car filled with sweetness in her heart, and two blushes appeared on Qiao's face again.

When Li Yun met her parents, did it mean that she was going to be married?

Although the progress is a bit faster, Fang Xue is looking forward to that day earlier when she is willing to marry Li Yun...

Watching Fang Xue's red Masatura leave, Li Yun felt a little emotional.

Although he doesn't know how much this Masatura luxury car is, it is estimated that no five million can be won.

This also means that Li Yun needs to work harder, and there is still a long way to go for him and Fang Xue.
