

Godly Choice 641

Chapter 641: Four guests (below)

In the end, the four guests on stage were: the star Bai Liwen, the well-known beauty blogger Bei Xiaolou, the first-line female anchor of a live broadcast website Sweet Devil, and a local celebrity Sun Xiao in Longyang County.

Everyone can see that Sun Xiao is basically a soy sauce maker and is far less well-known across the country than the first three.

The only guests participating at the scene were Li Yun and Jiang Nengyang, and the rest did not appear on the stage, because ordinary people have no reputation at all, and they were just cannon fodder in the previous issue.

"Then, the exciting selection will begin immediately!"

The host took the microphone and said passionately: "All the contestants present are very famous, but who is more famous?"

Is it the famous celebrity Miss Bai Liwen, or Bei Xiaolou, a beauty blogger with tens of millions of fans and a daily sales of 20 million yuan, or a new Internet celebrity sweet demon with hundreds of millions of popularity and a signing fee of up to 50 million?

Or, is it a dark horse that came out halfway through, the perfect genius Li Yun, and the unknown player Jiang Nengyang? Let us look forward to the next selection! "

The enthusiasm of the audience was ignited, and they began to cheer.

Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry. The host's speech level is not low. It's just a local celebrity, Sun Xiao. Why don't you mention it?

"Then, let's invite our first guest, Sun Xiao, the abbot of Longyang County local TV station, to come on stage!"

The selection method is very simple. The guests come on stage, introduce themselves, the judges collect data, and the audience scores (10%), and finally the result is obtained.

The so-called data refers to the degree of discussion on the Internet.

"Sun Xiao...Final score: 33460!"

The audience did not know how to react. Is this score high or low?

Fortunately, the comparison soon came out.

"The second guest, Sweet Devil, has 6 million Weibo fans, 7.6 million discussions, 5.6 million search engine indexes, and the judges judged social influence 2.1. The final score: 1.02 million 4512!"

Everyone was shocked at this moment.

Local famous talents have more than 30,000 points, but this network's popular anchor actually has more than 1 million?

Sure enough, the abbot of the local TV station has no reputation on the Internet. It is estimated that Sun Xiao is here to serve as a foil.

"Thank you, thank you everyone!"

The sweet devil is as the name suggests. He looks like a first love face. He is even more lovable when he smiles. He seems to be quite satisfied with his performance. At least the first three can get it, and he can get a bonus of 100,000!

Bai Liwen sat aside and smiled without saying a word to show her congratulations, but Li Yun clearly saw that Bai Liwen was holding a winning ticket.

"The third guest, the well-known food blogger Bei Xiaolou!"

"Wow, Bei Xiaolou is also quite an amazing celebrity. He used to sell cosmetics live, and sold 5,000 sets in ten minutes, each set worth 998 yuan!"

Li Yun was a little surprised. It's rare for men to sell cosmetics.

"...Social influence: 2.4, final total score: 2.551145!"

Everyone was in an uproar, how popular Internet anchors can't be compared to Bei Xiaolou?

"Thank you for your support! If you like, you can also come to my shop to buy cosmetics~! I will give you a 20% discount."

Bei Xiaolou is a fair young man with pale lipstick on his lips, which looks very enchanting and attracts the attention of women at the scene.

It's just a bit of a girly talking, but Li Yun saw that it seems that the current aunts and aunts like this kind of girly boys?

"The fourth one is also the most familiar star we are most familiar with. On the surface, the most well-known star: Bai Liwen!!"

Chapter 642: 23.45 million points

The famous celebrity Bai Liwen, who had been in the fire, and now the heat has receded slightly, smiled at the internet celebrity anchors and well-known beauty bloggers before stepping onto the stage elegantly and calmly, and greeted the audience.

"Hello everyone."

"Wow!!!"

The vast majority of the audience became enthusiastic. Bai Liwen was more than thirty this year. She was already famous ten years ago. Coincidentally, most of the people who came to buy a house were in their thirties, and they all knew Bai Liwen's fame.

Li Yun is sure that the developer deliberately selected her as a guest.

Because if you hire some current traffic stars and butter niches, this group of owners will not know at all, but Bai Liwen, who is now in the second-line position, is familiar to the owners.

Therefore, Bai Liwen caused a sensation as soon as she appeared on the stage. Li Yun is sure that she is definitely the highest in the audience rating this item!

"It's nice to be here to meet my fans. I thought I was overwhelmed, but I didn't expect that there would be so many supporters of my audience here."

Bai Liwen held the topic in his hand, and said in a condensed tone: "Really, I am very happy to see so many people who support me, I am very touched in my heart! I am really touched!"

Li Yun: "..."

You say a few times over and over again, aren't you tired?

But this is the case with celebrities, who can control the emotions of the audience very well—except for Liu Xianxian, who simply relies on her strength to mix in the entertainment industry and does not need these bells and whistles.

After Bai Liwen spoke, he sang a song on the spot, and many people passing by were squeezed in to watch. For a while, the sales hall was full of people. It was a small concert!

"I'm Cao, it's Bai Liwen!"

"It's really her, I didn't expect Ankang Apartment to invite her to do activities!"

"And the female anchor, Sweet Demon."

"Anchor? Anchor and celebrity can't be compared at all? Who will watch the anchor when you watch the live audience?"

"Tsk tsk, the female anchor is a celebrity on the Internet, but in reality, it is far from the celebrity aura!"

A burst of discussion came to my ears, and the sweet devil's smile began to stiffen. If it weren't for 200,000 (one hundred thousand bonus), she wouldn't come to this horrible place to engage in activities!

After singing a song, Bai Liwen glanced at several guests, with unspeakable pride in her eyes.

"This guy must be showing off!"

Li Yun heard the words spoken bitterly by the Sweet Demon King, of course, speaking in a very small voice.

"The fourth guest, Bai Liwen, has 43 million fans on Weibo, 150 million discussions, 6,350 search engine index, and the judges judged the social influence of 5.1, and the final score is—"

The host paused deliberately.

Everyone was startled by this data, holding their breath and waiting for the result.

"Erasing the fraction, the score is: 23.45 million points!!"

Spike!

There is no doubt that the star Bai Liwen kills the female anchor and the beauty blogger from all aspects of the data, and the two together are not enough for her!

There was a lot of cheers at the scene. These people complained that they could not get the first million, but now they see Bai Liwen win the first place, but they are happy for her.

At least it wasn't the female anchor who took the first place, did it?

"Oh shit."

The sweet devil applauded and smiled congratulations, but his mouth was fragrant and cursed directly.

Being treated as a foil is uncomfortable for anyone.

"Fortunately, the old lady is not the bottom, and there are two stupid rivals on stage.

Li Yun was stunned. I can understand your feelings, but you can't call me stupid. Are you ignoring me?

Chapter 643: I am at least 50 million

Seeing Li Yun look over, the Sweet Demon King gave him a stare, as if to say, my old lady just looks down on you, why?

Seeing what she meant, she didn't care about Li Yun's feelings, scolded whenever she wanted, pretending to be superior?

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Slap the sweet devil on the face, so that she can't take the third place, reward sweet devil favorability +80, experience value +100,000, blue gift bag*2.

Option 2: Face-slapped star Bai Liwen, so that she can't get the first place, reward Bai Liwen's favorability degree +80, experience value +300,000, purple gift bag*1.

Option three: I want it all, the reward is combined. "

Li Yun turned his gaze, and said silently in his heart: System, you go to Laozi.

He is not a bulldozer. He wants to push everything when he sees it. These two women are worthy of the standard of Bai Fumei, but one has a grumpy personality, and the other is more than 30 years old. He is not a bit worse than the girl around Li Yun. He is too lazy. Bother.

Even if there is a good impression of 100, I don't bother to care about it!

The sweet devil raised his eyebrows, looked at Bai Liwen, and said, "I really admire your face. As an ordinary person, he is a bit famous at best. I dare to come and compete with us. What do you think?"

Want to peach.

Li Yun said lightly: "Are you talking to me?"

"uh-huh."

"Hehe, I still said that. I participated in this event and it was the result of crushing other players."

"!!!"

The Sweet Demon King was stunned, unable to maintain his image, and looked at Li Yun with big eyes, "You said you can crush us?!"

Her voice became louder unconsciously, and it was heard by several people on the stage and many audiences.

Li Yun nodded calmly, "My score is at least 50 million."

50 million points? !

A group of people were stunned again, and the judges looked at him as if they were neurotic, even Bai Liwen found it funny.

She has been famous for many years and has made dozens of TV series and movies, several of which have a ratings of over 4, the box office of the movie is 500 million, and several albums have been released.

Not to mention the many years of acupuncture, advertisements, announcements, photos, etc.

It took ten years of hard work to get a score of 20 million today, but this little high school student actually said that he could get 50 million points, twice hers? !

"Host, let this arrogant guy roll down!"

"Yes, get out!"

Fans of Bai Liwen shouted directly, and many of the audience also accused Li Yun.

"If you get the top score, you feel like you're awesome?"

"Obviously, it's floating."

"Have you been bragging, can you compare to the celebrity?"

A group of people ridiculed, Jiang Nengyang coughed, stood up and said: "The event is not over yet, and my score has not yet come out, let's rate me first!"

The host breathed a sigh of relief and gave Li Yun a warning look, so that he would stop bragging, otherwise it would not end well.

"Jiang Nengyang?"

The judges looked on the search engine and found that there was nothing but an ordinary person. According to the scoring standard, it was estimated to be about 100 points.

The audience booed.

"Actually, I still have a pen name, maybe you are more familiar with it." Jiang Nengyang said slowly.

"pen name?"

"Three potatoes."

As soon as the name was reported, the sales hall immediately became quiet.

Everyone looked at this gentleman with glasses, and couldn't help but think in shock that he was just three potatoes?

Chapter 644: I haven't commented yet

How famous are the three potatoes?

First place in the annual income ranking of national writers, with a total income of 1.3 billion!

The novel "The Continent of Fighting Qi" has long occupied the No. 1 list of search engines in the novel category for 18 months, unprecedented in history!

The novel "Across the Stars" has a movie box office of 2 billion, and it is announced that there will be three series of movies and other works in the follow-up, ambitiously want to hit the Marvel universe of Huang Xuanguo!

Every one of his novels can become a national best-selling novel. People from sixty to eight years old can't put it down. The routines in it have supported countless small white writers, and he can be described as a trend-setting figure. !

"You, you, you are three potatoes?!"

The host just happened to be a fan of the grudge series. Seeing the idol at the moment, the whole person was stunned.

"good."

Jiang Nengyang nodded and smiled: "I am currently serializing "Selection System" on the Cyan Fruit Novel Network. Welcome everyone to read and comment!"

Li Yun: "..."

Very strong.

Needless to say, the fame of the three potatoes is no stranger to the best-selling novelist even if the people on the scene have not read his novels or watched movies adapted from his novels.

In the end, Jiang Nengyang's fame score was 24 million, which was more than Bai Liwen's.

What surprised Li Yun was that instead of being angry, Bai Liwen got close to Jiang Nengyang's enthusiasm. He even said that he liked his novel very much and hoped to cooperate with him further.

Hearing this, Li Yun realized that Bai Liwen wanted to play a role in a movie adapted from Jiang Nengyang's novel.

Although she was very famous ten years ago, the competition in the entertainment industry was too fierce. Nowadays, the former actor can't avoid going out or making money from web game advertisements, let alone Bai Liwen.

"24 million points, really unexpected!"

The host said excitedly: "I, the judges, and Manager Zhu all thought that Miss Bai Liwen would be the first place in today's fame competition, but unexpectedly, a dark horse came out halfway through! The three potatoes are also from Longyang County. I also plan to buy a house and settle in our Ankang apartment!"

The owners are also excited. The three guests will definitely not buy a house here, but Jiang Nengyang is different. He is here to buy a house and participate in the event by the way!

Living in the same place with three potatoes, it must be very face-to-face!

The atmosphere at the scene was very hot, no less than when Bai Liwen sang, the host hit the iron while it was hot and shouted with the microphone:

"I announce! The first place in this popularity competition is—"

"and many more!"

A young man with a sunny temperament interrupted him, the host looked upset, and the audience stared at him.

This guy doesn't really think he can score 50 million points, right?

"It is not my fault."

Li Yun spread his hands innocently, "After all, I have also been on stage. How many points do you have, do you have to give me a comment?"

Although there are not many purple gift bags, maybe you can get gold-grade equipment?

The three potatoes pushed their glasses, and said with a smile: "Indeed, little brother Li Yun is also the top scorer. I also like the song "Zhengjianghu" that I wrote. I especially like to put it when writing big scenes in novels. Come and listen, it feels so good.

Host, you should also give the little brother a score, maybe you can get third? "

Chapter 645: 8.07 million

The top three of this event have bonuses. The first place is a three-bedroom house, the second place is 300,000 yuan, and the third place is 100,000 yuan.

The sweet devil's face turned black.

Dare to take her third place, can only get an invitation fee of 100,000?

Beauty blogger Bei Xiaolou also looked dumbfounded, saying that the bonus of 300,000 yuan has changed to 100,000. Who can stand it?

"This... well, I was negligent."

The host was still very upset. Originally, the atmosphere, rhythm, and lighting were all in place, so I was almost announcing that the three potatoes were the first place this time. As a result, the boy Li Yun still got in, and it was uncomfortable if he couldn't get up and down.

Li Yun smiled and said, "Brother Jiang, I am not likely to be third, but I am sure to be the first!"

"Oh? So confident?" A curious color flashed in Jiang Nengyang's eyes. His wife also glanced at Li Yun, wondering why he was so arrogant.

Think you can compare three potatoes with the top score and one song?

Kind of naive.

"Li Yun, male, 18 years old, from Longyang County, studying at Zhicai High School..."

The judges began to analyze Li Yun's information and collected data on the Internet to determine his final score.

"Weibo fans, five million sixty thousand!"

When this data was reported, everyone felt a little surprised, it seemed a little too much.

"The number of topics, 23 million."

"Search engine index, 16 million!"

"Social influence, 3.8."

"and many more!"

Sweet Devil was the first to object, with a face of questioning: "He wrote a song, why is the social influence 3.8? I am an anchor and also bring happiness to people, how influence is 2.1!"

She actually wanted to raise this question a long time ago. She always felt that the judges were biased against the female anchor!

A gray-bearded judge frowned, "I don't understand the female anchor, but Li Yun's top score has a positive influence on students in Zhonghai City, and even students across the country, 3.8 is not too high!"

"Female anchor, everyone knows, hehe." The audience laughed, and the sweet devil glared at these people and sat down unhappy.

Anyway, she can't get third, and she doesn't need to pretend!

"In the end, Li Yun's reputation is worthy of—" The host took a note with a surprised expression on his face, and glanced at Bei Xiaolou, which made the beauty blogger suddenly nervous.

No way? Thirty is gone, 100,000 is not there?

"Total score: 8.07 million!"

The audience hissed, they didn't expect Li Yun's score to be so high!

Li Yun's statistics are similar to those of Bei Xiaolou. It is estimated that the final social influence is 1.5 more than him, so the total score becomes very high.

"This....."

Bei Xiaolou's smile froze, 300,000 is so gone?

He is a magnificent beauty blogger with tens of millions of daily sales and 40 million fans-although he is buying fans, he is no better than a high school student, which is really embarrassing!

"Hahaha, very good!"

Jiang Nengyang patted Li Yun on the shoulder, "I saw little brother, your temperament is extraordinary, as expected, my vision is not bad."

Eight million, ranked behind Jiang Nengyang and Bai Liwen.

The Sweet Devil gave Li Yun a roll of eyes: "Didn't you say that you can be the first? Why don't you speak now? Huh."

Li Yun shrugged, "I also find it strange that the judges don't ask me whether I have any other identity."

Everyone was stunned. Does he also have a pen name?

The gray-bearded judges frowned, glanced at the screen, and said, "You mean the position of the chairman of Baiyun Technology? I have counted this for you. Although you are rich, you are not famous!"

"God sanctions."

Chapter 646: God sanctions

"what?"

Hearing the name Li Yun said, the people around were once again taken aback. Why hadn't they heard of the name? Is this a pen name or something?

"God sanctions?"

The host and the judges all looked puzzled, they had never heard of the name.

But how come it sounds like a second grade?

Like what the elementary school students said when they were fighting, I am the Great Demon King, I am the Jade Emperor, I am the Monkey King and so on. The second one is extremely compelling!

"God sanctions... God sanctions?!"

But someone in the audience reacted, looking at Li Yun with horror, and said in shock: "So you are the world's number one hacker who defeated the demon army!!"

Many unidentified audiences continue to be confused, sounding exaggerated, defeat the demon army, the world's number one hacker?

What a big tone!

Li Yun said calmly: "There was an incident recently that may not be known to many people in China, but foreign countries named this incident God sanctions, also called God Judgment Demon Army. You can go abroad to search for it."

The gray-bearded old man frowned, opened the web page again, selected the largest foreign search engine, and typed in the English words God sanctions.

Suddenly, as many as...one, one thousand, one hundred thousand, ten million, one billion? !

A full 1.2 billion searched information is all news and discussions related to God's sanctions!

"I'm Cao, so many?!"

Another judge called out directly, and after a while, all the judges gasped.

Li Yun's search index in the international community is one order of magnitude away from Bai Liwen and the three potatoes!

so horrible!

"Da Niu, the real Da Niu, I never thought I saw the legendary world's number one hacker with my own eyes today!"

The audience in the Internet technology circle knew what happened. He looked at Li Yun with admiration and almost worshipped him.

Seeing that everyone did not understand, the audience explained excitedly: "About two months ago, there was a virus that ravaged the world, called the Bitcoin virus. This virus caused tens of billions of losses and affected thousands of people. Ten thousand, but when the world's security companies and top multinational companies were at a loss for the virus, one of our high school students from Huang Xuanguo stepped forward."

He looked at Li Yun admiringly: "The pursuit of millions of miles, sweeping hundreds of millions of computers, from this end of the earth, chasing to the other end, down to the broilers controlled by ordinary people, up to the security servers of top companies, all are transformed. As his battlefield with hackers.

In the end, the two sides fought for thousands of rounds in the fruit machine server. Our country's talented high school students defeated hackers in one fell swoop, exposing the home addresses of ten of the world's top hackers, a hacker organization called the Demon Army, and shocked the global police. ! "

Pursue millions of miles, sweep hundreds of millions of computers!

Everyone was shocked and lost, and it was hard to imagine how tragic and spectacular this hacker war was.

"I remember!" Someone suddenly realized: "At that time, I heard that the global hackers were violent, and I was stuck in the game!"

"It turned out to be that thing!"

Everyone finally reacted. At that time, there was indeed a ddos attack that paralyzed the global network, but they did not expect that the trigger turned out to be the handsome high school student in front of them!

"Ashamed." Li Yun said helplessly: "I didn't know it would cause the hackers to stir up agitation. Fortunately, it was handled in time."

"Isn't this taken for granted?"

Someone silently complained that your actions at the time shook the global hacker circle, and those hackers who feared that the world would not chaos immediately regarded you as an idol. Don't explode. It's strange to move!

Chapter 647: One billion thirty million, spike

Li Yun turned his head and smiled at the host, and asked, "How many points do I have now?"

The host has been scared silly.

Compared with the second-tier star Bai Liwen, or the beauty blogger, or the best-selling novelist Jiang Nengyang, Li Yun's deeds are completely out of them!

It triggers a global hacker carnival, sanctions the demon army, comes and goes freely on the fruit machine server, treats the servers of the world's top companies as a battlefield, remotely controls the satellites in the sky, and so on.

This series of deeds is simply amazing, and it is as magical as a fantasy!

"Finally, Mr. Li Yun, your total score is..."

The host's tone trembled, and he said tremblingly: "One billion thirty million!"

Everyone's mouth opened into an O shape, Jiang Nengyang also stared at Li Yun with wide eyes, everyone was frightened by the astronomical number.

Thirty billion?

Jiang Nengyang's reputation is high enough, but compared to Li Yun, it can only be worth a fraction of him.

And the two million points scored by the female anchor, the Sweet Devil, was even thrown ten streets away by Li Yun!

"That's it." The gray-bearded judges said with a smile: "Li Yun, your social influence, we have always thought that it can be rated as 10, and the weighting value is very high!"

It was then suddenly realized that Li Yun destroyed the demon army and did justice, so that billions of computers around the world do not suffer from the threat of Bitcoin ransomware. The full score of social influence is very reasonable!

"I didn't expect such a high score." Li Yun humbled, he thought it was about 50 million, but he was really crushed.

"Okay, that's great!"

Manager Zhu had a red face, and when he walked over, he took Li Yun's hand and said cordially and enthusiastically: "Mr. Li wins glory for the country and fights against foreign hacker organizations. The mock test is even more outstanding, leading the students in Longyang County to become positive. This is the pride of our Longyang County! I solemnly announce that the first place in this event belongs to Mr. Li Yun!"

There were hundreds of people in the sales hall, no one raised objections, and everyone was very satisfied with the result.

Li Yun also came to Ankang Apartment to buy a house. In this case, maybe their children can receive the guidance of the future college entrance examination champion, and they will be touched!

"Ding, the host won the first place, reward justice value +100, money +500,000, experience value +100,000, agility +500, purple gift bag*1."

"Ding, the host slaps Sweet Devil and Bai Liwen on the face, rewards the two girls with a favorability degree of +80, an experience value of +400,000, a purple gift*1, and a blue gift bag*2."

The corners of Li Yun's mouth twitched, which really increased his favorability?

Glancing at the Sweet Demon King, it turned out that the female anchor changed her previous contemptuous attitude and kept secretly giving him a surprise.

And the star Bai Liwen, the attitude towards Li Yun has changed from passersby to friends, and has always wanted to come over.

"Manager Zhu."

Li Yun ignored them, turned his head and said to Manager Zhu: "I plan to buy a larger house here, preferably a five-bedroom house, or a big house that connects with each other. Money is not a problem!"

"Huh? You want to buy a big house?"

"Yes, the bigger the better."

"Okay, that's great!"

Manager Zhu was overjoyed and repeated this sentence again. The red light on his face became more intense, and he quickly asked people to bring a set of promotional pictures of the top-notch house and enthusiastically introduce him.

"Mr. Li, let me tell you that this house is called Emperor Zunxiang. It belongs to a duplex building. It has two floors and a total of 500 square meters. There are eight rooms and two living rooms. The two houses are connected together and are specially designed for high-end. The luxury residence prepared by the people cost three million just for the decoration!"

Chapter 648: Emperor's exclusive duplex building

Manager Zhu's fanciful flattery made everyone around him look at him.

The total price of such a luxurious decoration should not be less than 10 million, and it is also a duplex building with two floors above and below, and it will not be too cramped for a family to live.

The sweet devil's eyes lit up, and he looked at Li Yun several times carefully, and the more he looked, the more he liked it.

Sunny temperament, handsome face, slender figure, and the overall appearance will never lose to those male stars.

Coupled with being rich and a top hacker, even if he loses his fortune in the second half of his life, he can easily make a comeback.

"Such an excellent boy, am I blind before?!"

Seeing that Li Yun was really planning to buy this luxurious house, the sweet devil's eyes showed admiration even more, and he kept leaning towards Li Yun, and almost hugged his waist to show his heart.

Li Yun calmly avoided the female anchor, and asked: "Manager Zhu, has your house been renovated for a long time?"

"Of course, move in with a bag, free to help move, we will take care of all the procedures, no need for you to bother!"

Manager Zhu took a big deal, hesitated, and said with a smile: "It's just a little expensive. After all, it is a five-hundred-square-meter duplex, and the decoration is also top-notch."

"Manager Zhu, don't you understand?"

The abbot quickly said: "Mr. Li Yun has opened a company, and the valuation has already exceeded 10 billion!"

"what?"

Except for the judges, everyone was surprised. Li Yun's company has a market value of tens of billions?

They thought it was just a company of Li Yun playing tickets, but they didn't expect it to be comparable to the valuation of a listed company!

The sweet devil screamed in his heart, oh my god, this is definitely the fifth of the diamond king, no, absolutely rich and handsome, I must seize it, within a month, no, within a week to marry him!

"Student Li Yun is really young and promising." Bai Liwen also praised from the side. When the sweet demon saw it, he immediately understood that this woman must also want to seduce Li Yun. She is really shameless, she is in her thirties!

Li Yun's head is very big, he just can deal with a few words, turning his head and saying to Manager Zhu: "As long as it is a house under 20 million, I can take it out, but I have to see it with my own eyes."

"Of course, of course!"

Manager Zhu smiled as if he had picked up a million, "The total price of this house is 12 million. Mr. Li Yun, you won the first place in this event. I will give you a 20% discount directly. It only costs 999. In addition, it also covers all the chores such as moving, connecting to the Internet, purchasing other furniture, and giving away 10 years of property fees, electricity and water bills, so that you can live more worry-free, don't run around to pay the bill every month!"

In 10 years of property water and electricity, 2,000 a month, roughly converted to about 200,000, which is quite sincere.

"Okay, I'll go over with you at noon and pay if I'm satisfied, how about?"

Li Yun was quite satisfied and checked in with a bag to save trouble.

Not counting Baiyun Technology's shares and technology, he still has 30 million in his account, and the system rewards him with money from time to time, which is enough to spend.

"That must be fine!"

Manager Zhu laughed happily. Selling this set only raised his salary for half a year, and he had a good relationship with a rich man, and he might use it one day in the future!

The sweet devil saw her eyes straight, and she could also put out 10 million, unlike Li Yun behind a company with a market value of 10 billion.

Therefore, she became more and more enthusiastic about trying to get close, which made Li Yun annoyed.

at this time.

"Brother, come on, princess..."

Chapter 649: Slender and delicate princess

Hearing the slightly eager voice of her sister Li Feng, Li Yun was taken aback. Turning to look around, she found that she was carrying Princess Yongning on her back, and hurriedly following Fang Xue and Caixia behind her. The expressions of the four girls looked a little anxious.

And Princess Yongning's little face showed a look of pain, her eyes closed and she breathed quickly.

"What happened to Yongning?!"

Li Yun hurriedly hugged Zhu Shu'e from Li Feng's back and swept away with divine thoughts, and found that she was very weak now, and a mysterious force could be vaguely felt inside her body, causing Yongning's body to be infected again.

"I don't know, it seems to be tired." Fang Xue looked at her worriedly. "At first I thought it was Sister Yongning who was not used to shopping, but she was getting short of breath. I planned to take her to the hospital, but she said she must I want to come back to you."

"Husband."

Princess Yongning opened her eyes, her eyes filled with self-blame and exhaustion, "I'm sorry, Yongning's body doesn't seem to be getting better..."

"Nonsense!"

Li Yun hugged her slender waist, let the weakened her lean on her whole body, stroked her hair and said, "Your husband, I have great powers, and a small illness can't help me!"

The sweet demon on the side was stunned. This delicate and tender little beauty is called Li Yunfujun?

She took a closer look at Princess Yongning and found that although this little beauty looked very immature in her age and her body was just beginning to grow, her facial features were extremely delicate, her temperament was weak and affectionate, not to mention a man, she saw it as a woman. To such a fragile little girl, I can't wait to hug her into my arms and love her.

Although the sweet demon looks good, but compared with this delicate little beauty like a dodder, it is completely the difference between heaven and earth!

Not to mention that this little beauty is obviously of noble birth, and has a sense of nobility, which makes one unavoidably embarrassed.

"Yes, sister Yongning, don't be afraid!" Fang Xue also comforted her, saying that Li Yun must have a way to treat her.

Sweet Devil, and everyone around him saw the problem.

Not only the weak little beauty is Li Yun's wife, even this tall girl with cold temperament and tall figure is also close to Li Yun.

Coupled with a beautiful sister of the same level, and a pair of cute twin sisters with different personalities, everyone suddenly realized.

"No wonder Mr. Li Yun wants to buy a 500-square-meter house!"

Manager Zhu was very jealous. The others were Jinwu Cangjiao, and only one was hiding. However, Mr. Li Yun spent tens of millions and lived with five beautiful beauties, enjoying the happiness surrounded by all the beauty.

"I'm Cao, this is too cool!"

Manager Zhu couldn't help but become jealous and hated. If he has five, no, as long as there is one such beauty, he can definitely spend tens of millions, just to win the beauty!

"Manager Zhu!"

"If I could have a beauty..."

"Manager Zhu!"

"Ah, here it is!"

Manager Zhu reacted. He was a little confused, and immediately came to his senses. He quickly said, "Please, Mr. Li Yun, please. There is a lounge here. Let this little girl take a good rest. No one can bother! "

The underlying meaning is that it is perfectly fine for the six of you to rest together!

Princess Yongning was ignorant and could not understand what he said. The rest of her confessions were the same, but Li Feng understood because of her relationship with Li Yun, she couldn't help but snorted, ignoring the thoughtful manager Zhu. , Followed Li Yun into the lounge.

Chapter 650: Clue of the Nine Heavens Fairy

Sweet Devil wanted to follow up, but found that he couldn't get into their team, so he had to sneer.

"Some people try to get up when they see Gao Fushuai, it really doesn't save face."

Bai Liwen said something weirdly, and the sweet devil suddenly became furious, "What did you say?!"

"I didn't say you again."

"Hehe, indeed, some people are happy and happy when they are young, and they are labeled as innocent girls by the major media, but they don't know how many dirty things are done behind them, but when they are old, they can only lick their faces and want to eat tender grass, which is really funny. !"

"Smelly girl what are you talking about?"

"I didn't say you again!"

Jiang Nengyang watched the two women quarreling, and smiled at each other with his wife. The two did not enter the lounge, and it would not be too late to see each other when they had the opportunity.

Li Yun in the lounge was in doubt.

It stands to reason that he has given Princess Yongning a medium-sized recovery pill, which should have cured her, but why is she still sick again?

Checked with spiritual thoughts, Princess Yongning's internal organs have no problems, and they are all very healthy and full of vitality.

Is it necessary to restore the pill?

"Husband, husband."

Princess Yongning's panting subsided a bit, a blush appeared on her small face, and she would sit up if she was struggling, "Husband, I'm fine, I'm just tired."

"do not move."

Li Yun held her, hesitated, and still took out a recovery pill.

The reason for the hesitation is not to feel distressed for the recovery pill, but that he has three left. After using up, if Princess Yongning gets sick again...

Fang Xue breathed a sigh of relief. In their hearts, Li Yun took out the pill to show that Princess Yongning could be cured!

"Yongning, open your mouth."

"Um."

Princess Yongning opened her small mouth obediently and looked at Li Yun with happiness, waiting for her husband to feed her the medicine.

According to the previous experience, as long as she took her husband's pill, her weakness would be relieved, and her whole body would be warm and comfortable.

at this time.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Give Princess Yongning a recovery pill and reward the princess for not getting sick for two months.

Option 2: Take a medium-sized recovery pill and reward the princess for not getting sick for one month.

Option 3: Eat a small recovery pill, reward it for half a month without getting sick, and reward the nine-day fairy clue.

Option 4: Repair with Princess Yongning 2. Rely on passive skills to relieve her illness and reward Princess Yongning for not getting sick for three days. "

Li Yun's movements suddenly made Princess Yongning quite puzzled.

"Eat this one."

Li Yun calmly changed the small recovery pill. Princess Yongning didn't know why, but she still ate it obediently, closing her eyes and showing a comfortable expression.

Li Feng's eyes became a little weird.

Fang Xue and Caixia might not understand, but she has experience with Li Yun, so how could she not understand the meaning of this action.

Somewhat evil, and Li Feng is sure that her villain brother will treat Princess Yongning like this in the future.

"Ding, the host has made a choice. Princess Yongning will not get sick again within half a month, and will be rewarded with an additional clue to the Nine Heavens Fairy: Fan Qing Sheng."

Holy Brahma! ?

Li Yun was surprised. He knew that this name was a woman who somehow had a 65 favorable opinion of him in a certain selection event.

But Li Yun had never met her before, and he couldn't imagine that he was actually connected with the Fairy Jiutian four hundred years ago!

Bringing all kinds of clues together, Li Yun is sure that Fairy Nine Heavens and Fan Qingsheng have any relationship, and it must come from the Six Demon Sects or Hidden Sacred Valley.

There is a high probability that they are from the Hidden Sacred Valley.
