

Godly Choice 711

Chapter 711: Pinch the handle

Qingzhu opened his mouth, and finally said angrily: "Well, this is not a magic weapon, it's just some wood carved with spells, which is similar to rune paper."

Sage Fanqing did not speak, but he was still a little shocked in his calm heart.

Even rune paper, if it can be mass-produced, is quite an amazing scene.

Li Yun asked about the specific address of the factory, and then asked if He Canghu was starting to cultivate, and the answer was yes.

He Canghu obtained a cultivator method called "Bone Refining". During this time, he worked hard and studied, and he finally entered the door and became the most basic Qi practitioner.

"It turns out that bone training is a method that can make one's own bones incredibly hard, and at the same time, it can also control the evil forces remaining on the corpse."

Li Yun nodded, but Qingzhu cried out in surprise, "That's not right."

"Why, why is it wrong?" He Canghu was shocked again in his heart.

"Even if you have a practice method but don't have spiritual energy, how can you practice?"

Qingzhu raised his own question.

In ancient times, there were many so-called adventures. Someone accidentally fell into a cliff. After entering the cave, he would gain the magic skills left by the senior master and become a peerless master.

But now there is absolutely no possibility of such a person, because even if some cultivation method is obtained, he will not be able to cultivate in the age of the end of the law.

He Canghu's face was extremely ugly, saying it was not, not saying it was not, saying that he would be killed, it was too difficult!

Fortunately, at this moment, Your Excellency Lou heard a voice: "Head, I have something to confirm with you!"

"It's the three elders!"

He Canghu was overjoyed and just had the opportunity to change the subject!

But he didn't expect that Sage Fan Qing stood up and said, "Li Yun, let's go to the factory to see."

Qingzhu was taken aback, and the Lord Saint took the initiative to invite Li Yun to go with him?

"Also."

Li Yun also stood up, and finally asked a question: "In two days, where does the saint of the six magic gates want you to protect?"

"...A cave, twenty kilometers away from Zhonghai City, is called Heifeng Mountain."

"Black Wind Mountain? I understand." Li Yun smiled, "We will see you there then."

"Ding, the host made a choice, questioned He Canghu, rewarded Fanqing Sheng's favorability +0.2, Qingzhu's favorability increased (Fanqing Sheng dowry maid), experience value 260,000, green gift bag*2, additional rewards for Fanqing Holy Friendship +1"

He Canghu didn't know what expression he was making, and he wanted to cry without tears.

Qingzhu took a few steps, then turned around to look at him: "Li Yun, don't you want to punish this guy? If he reveals the news that we have been here, will there be any trouble?"

Fan Qingsheng also glanced back at him, and said a sentence that made He Canghu's hair stand upright: "Should I erase this memory from him?"

For a moment, He Canghu's back became cold, and there was a buzz in his mind.

This ***** can actually erase people's memories! ?

"Don't be so troublesome."

Li Yun walked outside the door lightly, leaving He Canghu with the last two words:

"Budget maid."

When the third elder went up to the third floor, when he saw the headmaster, he saw that his face was extremely pale, and he thought that he had gone crazy during practice.

"Head?"

"roll!"

A turbulent evil erupted from He Canghu, and the three elders were so scared that they ***** off, hurriedly avoided, went outside, and looked back, his palm was like a mad tiger. He was insanely destroyed in the training room and beat all the tables, chairs and cups rotten.

The maidservant was the words he used to curse the Saintess of the Six Demon Sects behind his back. Li Yun had grasped his handle, making it impossible for He Canghu to sue!

The dilemma is about He Canghu's current predicament!

Chapter 712: Lidakang Factory (Part 1)

The three of Li Yun left Feihumen and returned to find the car that had been parked on the grassy ***** before. Li Yun started the car and drove to the factory that made the gloomy wood of the spell.

"Is there really a factory that can manufacture gloomy wood in batches?" Qingzhu was the first to issue a question-because her sage lady is not talkative, most of the topics are initiated by her.

"Is there no relevant record of your hidden sacred valley?"

Li Yun asked curiously, he also felt that using modern assembly lines to create the gloomy incantation technique was a bit outrageous.

Now it's just making incantation wood. If it is to make magical items in batches in the future, the six magic gates will have one magical item, wouldn't it be invincible in the world?

"It's impossible in theory."

Only Fan Qingsheng could utter such a beautiful voice. She explained: "I have observed that kind of rune carved on the gloomy wood. It is a kind of spell related to absorbing resentment and cultivating evil spirits and ghosts.

If you want to carve these runes, you need to slowly inject mana into the wood while carving them, so that they can have special powers! "

Li Yun nodded. According to Fan Qingsheng's explanation, this method is basically impossible to mass-produce the gloomy wood incantation.

"Could it be that the magic puppet is portraying the spell?"

"Spell puppet? What is that?" Qingzhu was puzzled, she had never heard of it.

"Uh...like a paper crane."

Li Yun didn't need to look back to know that Qingzhu now despises him as an'overseas casual repair.

Sage Fanqing glanced at him, and paper cranes were supposed to be something that every practitioner knew and had roughly touched.

But Li Yun didn't know anything about it, which made people doubt other origins.

"Paper cranes are used to spread credit, and attached to it is a spirit of the master. They can only do superficial work, and can't do complicated ones."

The Sage Fanqing pondered for a moment, "Maybe the magic puppet you mentioned is more appropriate. If the spirit is used in a special way, can it be like a computer..."

Her voice was getting smaller and smaller, and she seemed to be lost in thought.

The little maid Qingzhu was surprised. The words that the Lord Saint said recently were more than the sum of the previous half a year!

In the previous meetings, the Lord Sainte nodded and shook his head when facing the Lord Gu and several elders, or agreed with a hum, and seldom expressed her own opinions.

But now with Li Yun, she seems to be more...like talking?

Li Yun has a weird face. Like the people of the Six Demon Sects, Sage Fanqing is also thinking about ways to integrate spells and modernization?

The people of the Six Demon Sects manufacture incantation gloomy wood in batches in the factory, which has clearly shown that they do not reject modern technology.

Perhaps, a technological change that swept through the Six Demon Gates and the Hidden Sacred Valley, and even foreign practitioners, is happening?

"The more complicated things are, the more...interesting."

A smile curled up at the corner of Li Yun's mouth, increased the accelerator pedal, and the car drove toward the outskirts of Zhonghai City.

He can't wait to see what the factory that manufactures the gloomy wood of spells in batches is like!

Soon, the car stopped by the road.

Compared with the previous Feihumen, this factory named Lidakang is closer to Zhonghai City, surrounded by common suburban facilities such as residential houses, factories, farmhouses, and auto repair shops.

Lidakang is not far away. The factory is very large, with at least 2,000 employees. It occupies a very large area and has complete facilities in the factory.

Chapter 713: Lidakang Factory (Part 2)

In addition to the production plant, it also includes employee dormitories, canteens, canteens, basketball courts, table tennis tables, and even a small Internet cafe for employees to use online.

The above information was collected by Li Yun from the Internet. After a few cursory glances, he turned his head to look at Saint Fan Qing who was sitting in the back seat of the car, smiled slightly and said, "Should we go in directly or sneak in?"

Sage Fanqing lightly opened his vermilion lips, and said without a change in his expression: "Listen to you."

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Go in, reward experience value +500,000, strength and agility +2500, purple gift bag*1, random martial arts to increase one level.

Option 2: Dive in, reward experience value +300,000, all attributes +500, blue gift bag*3.

Option 3: Notify Concubine Wan Qing, and walk in openly. Rewards: Option 1 doubles the rewards, Fan Qing Sheng Faith Degree-5, Wan Qing Consort Favorability Degree -10. "

Seeing the last option, a black line appeared on Li Yun's forehead.

The two saints of Nima are both negative, so who would want to choose?

and many more.

Li Yun suddenly thought of a question.

When he destroys the plan of the Six Demon Gates, Concubine Wan Qing will surely know that he and the saint of the Hidden Sacred Valley are entangled with each other. At that time, the favorability level is estimated to fly down three thousand feet and directly drop to 0. NS!

The Sage Fanqing also knew that he knew Concubine Wan Qing, and his affection could not be maintained!

So speaking of it... he might as well be a bit mentally disabled and just choose third!

"Shall we go in directly, how about?"

Li Yun looked at Fan Qingsheng, her beautiful and cold face, with no cannibalistic scent of fireworks, made him sigh again, this woman is really awkwardly beautiful.

Unfortunately, Li Yun will offend her severely soon!

"Can."

Sage Fanqing nodded slightly, opened the car door and walked out, looking at the factory gate in the distance, but suddenly, he felt a wary look at her.

This look came from the person standing next to her, Li Yun!

"...?"

Sage Fanqing turned his head and looked at him with a questioning gaze, wondering in his heart, not knowing why he would look at himself guardingly.

Feeling embarrassed by her look, Li Yun was a little flustered, coughed, and said, "Sage Fanqing, do you know I know Concubine Wan Qing?"

She nodded.

"Actually, it was a coincidence that I knew her. I didn't have much contact with her. It was like a normal friend relationship, similar to me and you."

Me and you?

friend?

Sage Fanqing has a different emotion in his heart. Does the man in front of him regard her as a friend?

In the Hidden Sacred Valley, there are no friends, only brothers and apprentices, and no one in the Hidden Sacred Valley will visit. Everyday after completing the practice of the Sacred Fanqing, he can only read a book with the Qin. Although the hidden Sacred Valley like a fairyland is beautiful, I've been watching it since I was young, and I've long been tired of watching it.

But now, when she traveled abroad for the second time, one person said it was her friend...

"Humph!!"

The little maid Qingzhu glared at Li Yun: "You really have a close relationship with the Six Demon Sects, and you have a relationship with that demon girl. If it weren't for...Look, for the sake of your help to the Lord Saint, I would have killed it with a single sword. You! Humph!"

Sage Fanqing continued to remain silent, and for the first time a complicated expression appeared in a pair of clear and calm eyes, just looking at Li Yun like this.

Chapter 714: Made a death

"This... ahem!"

Li Yun smiled bitterly: "I and Concubine Wan Qing are like a mutually beneficial friend relationship. I learned a lot about practitioners from her, but even I don't understand why she gave me this news. Maybe she didn't care, maybe it was the cold-blooded and ruthless inside the Six Demon Gate.

For example, I killed a nobleman and two sects of the Six Demon Gates, and she didn't seem to be angry, which made me very strange. "

Concubine Wan Qing said that she would like to thank Li Yun for helping her kill a nobleman, but Li Yun didn't dare to believe her words rashly, so until now she dared not look for her again.

".....you are lying!"

Qingzhu stared at him: "Just you, a rookie in the Qi refining stage, how could you kill the venerable of the Six Demon Gates? If I meet them alone, I have to run away. How could you be able to kill! You must be lying. !"

Li Yun shrugged and looked at Saint Fan Qing. Sure enough, the saint who opened the eyes slowly nodded, confirming that Li Yun did not lie.

"How could it be..." Qingzhu was extremely aggrieved, looking like he had been hit hard.

"My magic weapon is very strong, and the other party happens to be in a weak state, that's it."

Li Yun explained a little bit, Fan Qingsheng didn't care about it, and asked softly: "What are you going to do now?"

Qingzhu also looked at him, feeling a little uncomfortable inexplicably.

"It's very simple." Li Yun smiled slightly, "I want to inform Consort Wan Qing that we are here!"

"what!?"

Qingzhu was taken aback, his eyes widened.

As soon as the Fanqing Shengli thought about it, he understood Li Yun's purpose for doing this. The doubts in his heart suddenly disappeared, and his eyes were faintly smiling: "Okay, you can tell her, I am here waiting for her to come. !"

This sentence is extremely domineering, as if to reproduce the shocking battle between the hidden sacred valley and the two sages of the six demon gates, the sage Fanqing, as the sage of the hidden sacred valley, once again challenged the witches of the six demon gates!

Qingzhu's breathing became tense. If the Saintess and Concubine Wan Qing fight against the enchantress, the situation will undoubtedly be very unfavorable for the Saintess.

After all, this is the place where the Six Demon Sects have been entrenched for many days. The Saintess has no foreign aid except her!

If the demon girl sent someone to besieged shamelessly, Master Saint might be...

"No, you can't think so!!"

Qingzhu shook his head abruptly, Lord Saint is the most powerful, and will surely be able to defeat the witches of the six magic gates!

Li Yun was also shocked by the bravery and boldness of the Vatican, and he secretly said in his heart that he deserves to be a saint!

"If Concubine Wan Qing comes, I will choose to help you."

Li Yun smiled slightly and made a very positive assurance to her.

The strange emotions in the heart of Sage Fanqing became more intense, and this sentence undoubtedly touched her deep inside, making her think again about the meaning of the word 'friend'.

However, Concubine Wan Qing is also his friend.

"Why do you help me instead of helping her?" He was puzzled, so Fan Qingsheng asked.

"It's very simple, because the six magic gates are not a good thing!"

Although he still doesn't know whether the Hidden Sacred Valley is good or bad, at least Fan Qing Sheng gave him a very good feeling.

After sending a text message to Concubine Wan Qing, Li Yun imagined it with nasty fun, wondering if she would jump up when she saw the text message.

"Ding, the host made the choice to die, reward: experience value + 1 million, strength and agility + 5000, purple gift bag*2."

Chapter 715: The leisurely concubine Wan Qing

"...Randomly raise a martial arts level twice: Diamond Finger, from high-level to god-level. Fanqing Sage Favorability-5, Wanqing Concubine Favorability -10. Extra reward: Fanqing Sage Favorability +11."

God-level King Kong finger!

Seeing the word God-level, Li Yun instantly became excited, and after a cursory glance at the God-level King Kong finger information passed from the system, Li Yun was even more satisfied.

After reaching the **** level, the power of the diamond finger has soared more than ten times!

With the strength of the innate level, Li Yun is now poking out with one finger, and can easily poke a hole in the steel plate. Coupled with his god-level ethereal footwork, Li Yun is sure that the ordinary early innate warriors, he It can be discarded with a finger!

"Van Qing Sheng Friendship Degree +11?"

Li Yun glanced at Fan Qingsheng with a weird expression. Her favorability for herself had reached 79.3, and then rose to 80, which is the boundary between ordinary boy and girl friends.

To have a cold and holy fairy Chuchen as a girlfriend, think about it...

"how?"

When Fan Qingsheng looked at him, Li Yun quickly coughed and walked towards the factory gate.

"Go, let's go in and see what's inside!"

"it is good."

Fan Qingsheng kept up with him, and after treating Li Yun as a friend, her heart returned to Gujing Bubo again.

However, there seems to be something different, which makes her feel a little happy every time she looks at Li Yun.

In the presidential suite of a luxury hotel, a saint who changed her residence again, is now lazily hiding in the room watching TV, wearing a high-end silk nightdress, and her beautiful white legs and red fruits are exposed. The demeanor is enough to make any man, even a woman, crazy about it.

But unfortunately, there was no one in the presidential suite, and even the maid serving the saint was not allowed to enter, so she could only open another room next to her, ready to listen to orders at any time.

Suddenly, the seductive saint's cell phone rang, indicating that a text message had arrived.

"Who sent a message at this time to disturb me to rest? Next time I saw Xiaoqing, I asked Xiaoqing to pull him out and chop him out to feed the dog!"

When there was no one, Concubine Wan Qing used her clear and sweet voice to speak, which was completely inconsistent with her seductive appearance at the moment.

She picked up the phone and found that the sender was Li Yun.

"I went to the Lidakang factory."

Inexplicably, this **** sent the wrong person, right? ! What Lidakang factory?

"Next time I see him, I have to ask him to give me an extra detoxification pill! He actually sent me the wrong message!"

Concubine Wan Qing muttered and threw the phone aside. Just as she was about to continue to watch TV lazily, another message came from her phone.

"Why is this **** endless? Isn't it cursing...what!?"

The moment she read this text message clearly, Concubine Wan Qing's whole person seemed to explode: "Together with Saint Fan Qing, visit my factory???"

For a long while.

Concubine Wan Qing's expression gradually calmed down, and she let out a cold snort, her eyes became extremely cold, and even the temperature in the luxurious presidential suite suddenly dropped several degrees.

"Hehe, I really deserve to be the one that my Concubine Qing concubine valued, and he actually got mixed up with that bitch. It's really okay!"

Concubine Wan Qing quickly thought about Li Yun's purpose for doing this, and was also thinking about Li Yun's origins, and at the same time thinking about how the pretending **** of Saint Fan Qing met Li Yun.

Judging from the bastard's previous performance, it is impossible for him to get to know Fan Qingsheng earlier, otherwise he would not be so idiot, even ordinary Gu worms.

Chapter 716: Another hacker

"How did the **** meet the Sage Fanqing?!"

Concubine Wan Qing recalled the message after the **** appeared. She appeared in Longyang County and killed one of the puppet Taoist's spiritual thoughts, frightening him and fleeing in embarrassment.

Then...

"Longyang County? Huangting Villa Community?"

After finally figuring it out, Concubine Wan Qing showed a dazed expression. That bastard's little girlfriend lived in the imperial court villa complex. No wonder the two knew each other.

"Then these two people got together and came to Zhonghai to investigate?"

Concubine Wan Qing laughed playfully. If Li Yun breaks the saint of the Hidden Sacred Valley, the Demon Gate will definitely treat him as a guest. Maybe the six masters will make an exception and jointly decide to seal Li Yun. For the Lord, enjoy the wonderful benefits!

Concubine Wan Qing, who knows that Li Yun has a few flower-like girlfriends, is very confident in him!

"and many more."

Concubine Wan Qing suddenly thought of a question. If Li Yun breaks the saint of the Hidden Sacred Valley and seizes her red pill, the credit will naturally be enormous. Then, will the six Lords let her also serve Li Yun?

"Bah, even if they want me to do this, I still don't want to be with that bitch!"

Concubine Wan Qing's face blushed, she quickly put the thought behind her, and called her maid, Xiaoqing, Xiaolan.

"Miss, do you have any orders?"

Xiao Qing and Xiao Lan are a pair of sweet-looking twins. They took the puppet Gu's sub-gu and could not betray Concubine Wan Qing in their entire lives, but judging from the names they call Concubine Wan Qing, they have a very good relationship with Concubine Wan Qing.

"Go and call Wu Nengyu."

"Yes!"

Not long after, a 27-year-old man, wearing a costume but wearing glasses, came to Concubine Wan Qing and bowed to her respectfully: "Master Saint, where do you want me to invade?"

At the first sight of Concubine Wan Qing, Wu Nengyu's eyes flashed with a look of fanaticism and infatuation, but he was well hidden behind his glasses, and no one could find it.

"Lidarcom Factory."

Concubine Wan Qing chuckled, "I want you to invade, control all the cameras inside, and send the picture back to me, can it be done?"

She deliberately said these words in a coquettish and teasing voice, her voice soft and soft, almost like a kitten scratching people's heart, Wu Nengyu actually trembled his legs, almost soft to the ground.

Xiao Qing glanced at him contemptuously, ordinary men couldn't stop the young lady's demon posture, the voice alone was enough to make him surrender!

Humph, so-called men are just like this!

As for the maid Xiaolan, she didn't bother to look at Wu Nengyu at all. If it wasn't for the young lady who needed his hacking skills, such a person would be wishful thinking to even see the young lady, let alone follow her all the time.

"Can it be done?" Concubine Wan Qing asked again, her voice becoming colder.

"Yes, you can, you can do it!"

Wu Nengyu finally came back to his senses, and quickly opened the notebook, called up the hacker intrusion software he had written before, and found the network address of the Lidakang factory, and quickly intruded in.

"Master Saint, look." Wu Nengyu showed off the screen to Concubine Wan Qing, "Here is Lidakang's front door camera. Three people are walking by, one of them is male and the other is... well, beautiful! "

After seeing the tall woman in a red dress, Wu Nengyu opened her mouth in shock.

He suspected that he saw a fairy.

Chapter 717: I am the Nine Nether Witch

The picture from the surveillance camera was not very clear. In addition, it was at night and the lights were not too bright, but it was enough for the four people present to see clearly that the person wearing a light red skirt, standing at 1.75 meters, has a cold and holy temperament, just like in the picture. Humanly beautiful woman.

"She is the saint of the Hidden Sacred Valley, the Sage of Fanqing!?" Xiaoqing muttered to herself in shock.

She and Xiaolan had imagined the appearance of the Sage Fanqing countless times before, and it was not that they had never imagined the holy and noble appearance, but after seeing the Sage Fanqing, Xiaoqing was still shocked by her peerless temperament.

"hehe."

Concubine Wan Qing pretended to be careless, but stared at this woman, who would surely become her mortal enemy, the Saintess of the Hidden Sacred Valley.

"It's no wonder that people from the rivers and lakes are rumored to be the Nine Heavens Profound Girl." Xiaolan deliberately belittled the Sage Fan Qing, and said with a cold snort: "She looks like a cold posture, but she still doesn't know how to be charming. ! You say yes, miss?"

"Nine Heavens Profound Girl?"

Concubine Wan Qing chuckled, "Then I am the Nine Nether Witch, I will kill her Nine Heavens Profound Girl!"

"...Miss, how can you say your own witch?"

Xiaoqing weakly corrects, although she knows how her own lady is not like a saint, she is indeed a witch-but on the face of it, the lady is a saint!

"That said, I am a saint, not a witch, let alone a witch!" Consort Wan Qing smiled, not caring that Wu Nengyu was beside her.

"Huh? Miss, they are so bold!" Xiaolan pointed to the screen and said, "Look, Li Yun he swaggered into the factory gate."

"who?!"

The security guard at the factory door noticed someone approaching and immediately shouted vigilantly.

Afterwards, he was shocked for a moment.

Because he saw the Holy Vatican.

"This is Lidakang?" Li Yun's tone was flat.

"Yes, it is!"

It took a long time for the security guard in her early thirties to react. He walked out of the security room quickly and glanced at Saint Fan Qing up and down. She was more and more surprised. This woman is so beautiful!

"Is your boss called Huang Runxi?" Li Yun asked patiently.

"So what?"

Realizing that his purpose of coming here is not simple, the security guard's face darkened: "Who are you? Why don't you come here in the middle of the night! Go and go, be careful that I ask someone to come and take you away!"

"That's right." The security squinted at the little maid behind Fan Qingsheng, "If two beauties want to find a job, you can come and have a careful chat with me. We'll have a long conversation all night. I promise to recommend you a good job! Hehe...poof!"

When he laughed lustfully, his stomach hurt suddenly, and then the picture in front of him quickly rotated, with a bang, the whole person directly slammed on the automatic retractable door, and he opened his mouth and vomited a mouthful of blood.

"you!"

The security guard's face was pale, his stomach and back hurt so that he grinned, and he didn't even have the strength to make people feel like a person!

"Long talk all night?"

Li Yun slowly stepped forward and asked condescendingly, "Do you know who I am? Do you know who she is? Do you know who your boss is?"

After asking three questions in a row, the security's face showed a frightened expression. I, mine, and I couldn't say a word for a long time.

"Huh! I'll teach you a little lesson, and be careful not to confuse your upper body!"

To warn the little security guard who was on the brain, Li Yun skipped him and walked into the factory. Fan Qingsheng and the little maid followed.

Chapter 718: Security captain

Lidakang covers an area of more than a thousand acres. After passing the security booth at the entrance, Li Yun first saw several basketball courts, but now it is more than ten o'clock in the evening, there is no one on the court, and the factory in the distance is lit up. Bright, it should be on the night shift.

"Qing Sheng... saint?"

Li Yun looked at Fan Qingsheng with a questioning gaze, not knowing what to call her for a while.

Calling the full name is a bit too unfamiliar, and calling Qingsheng is too intimate, so just call the saint.

Sage Fanqing nodded slightly, looked at the distance and said: "It feels very bad for me, it's not evil, but...very evil."

Very evil?

"Jingle Bell!!!!"

When Li Yun was puzzled, a shrill sirens came from the security booth behind him, and the security guard got up struggling to get up and sounded the alarm.

In an instant, the security guards patrolling the factory area and the employees resting in the dormitory building all agitated. Soon, the security guards patrolling all rushed over with a stick.

"What happened?"

"Who pressed the alarm?!"

"Grass, someone broke in!"

"What broke in, it's a big beauty, hehe~!"

Seeing this scene in the monitor screen of the laptop, Consort Wan Qing couldn't help but laugh, and pointed to the guard who was gritting her teeth and said: "Xiaoqing, wait and reward this guard for her dedication to face the **** of the Hidden Sacred Valley. And dare to say'talking all night long', brave!"

Xiaoqing laughed out loud, if anyone in the Six Demon Gates dared to face the sage of the Hidden Sacred Valley, they would dare to molest her, and she would be guaranteed to be rewarded by the Lord Elder!

"I don't know what Li Yun would do." Xiaolan looked at him curiously.

"This guy walked into my factory so arrogantly. Isn't it easy to guess what he wants to do?"

Concubine Wan Qing asked Xiaoqing to take a plate of grapes and sit with her beautiful legs overlapped. She watched Li Yun and Fan Qingsheng's movements as if she were watching a play. His relaxed and graceful movements made Wu Nengyu, who was operating the notebook, unable to help swallowing. Drooling.

Xiaoqing's face was pleasantly surprised. The appearance of the young lady means that the winning ticket is already in hand!

"Boy, who are you?!"

Holding a black iron rod, the tall and tall security captain stood up and shouted at Li Yun, but when he saw Saint Fanqing, he couldn't help but feel shocked.

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Cut melons and vegetables all the way in, reward free attribute points +5000, experience value +500,000, purple gift bag*3, and additional random martial arts skills.

Option 2: Show your identity, walk in awe-inspiring, reward skill: whimsical. "

Li Yun suddenly understood that he couldn't get inside without relying on force.

"Tell Huang Runxi to come out and see me."

"What?" The security captain came back without a moment's response to who Huang Runxi was.

"Tell Huang Runxi to come out and see me." Li Yun repeated in a flat tone, "Huang Runxi, your factory director, that is, the deacon of Feihumen, do you understand?"

"Flying Tiger Gate!"

The pupils of the security captain shrank in an instant. As a small leader, he naturally knew that this factory was actually a Feihumen industry, and the director was also from Feihumen and belonged to a huge force!

But because he knows this, it doesn't mean that his men know.

"Grass, what is Feihumen?!"

A security guard with a hot personality, holding a stick at Li Yun's waist, is a stick, full of strength, and a strong wind: "I don't know Feihumen, I only know that if someone breaks into the factory, he will have to beat him up!"

Chapter 719: Beat in

The clubs roared, and the surrounding security guards clamored, yelling to teach Li Yun a lesson.

The next moment, Li Yun stretched out an index finger.

Suddenly, the surroundings became quiet.

An index finger blocked a one-meter-long thick steel rod!

The scene in front of us was shocking and horrifying, and stunned a group of security guards!

"what?"

The security guard who hit with a stick had a dull expression on his face. He only felt that his steel rod had hit an extremely thick sponge. The power disappeared instantly, there was no back shock, and no feedback, just like the one just now. The stick did not hit at all.

"Don't be so impatient."

Li Yun said faintly, and then flicked his finger, and with a swish, the steel rod instantly broke away from the security guard's hand, and his wrist almost dislocated with the tremendous force.

boom!

There was a deafening roar, and everyone turned their heads subconsciously. They saw that the steel rod had penetrated the basketball hoop like a cannonball and disappeared into the night, and I don't know how far it flew!

For a while, all around was dead.

"Get down."

Li Yun smiled, "This matter is not something you can participate in. You all leave here to avoid the limelight, understand?"

"Gooooo!"

The people who came back to their senses swallowed their saliva and looked at Li Yun with the look of a monster. After hearing what he said, they nodded all together and hurriedly gave up a path.

"Ah, that's right." After two steps out, Li Yun turned around and said to them: "By the way, notify all the employees here, saying that someone is making trouble and the factory is temporarily closed. In addition, you can also report to the police. Go ahead."

The security guards were scared to death. This person is so rampant. Is there any background?

After he left, the security captain made a secret call.

"Which direction did they go?" the person on the phone asked eagerly.

"The workshop behind the factory is the place where ordinary employees are prohibited from entering!"

"You trash, stop them, I'll be right there!"

When the phone was hung up, the security captain glanced at Li Yun and the fairy-like figure, and scolded his mother in his heart. How the **** did this stop?

The opponent is obviously a master of the acquired realm, and the steel rod can be discounted with just a flick of his fingers. He will stop him unless he is tired of life!

"Old, boss, what shall we do?"

A group of security guards looked at each other. Someone broke in, but as security guards, they didn't dare to stop them. They would definitely lose face when they said that they would definitely lose face.

The captain of the security had a brain teasing, and finally gritted his teeth and closed his eyes: "Hit me!"

"What?!" Everyone was surprised.

"I **** said it, hit me! Hurry up!"

The security captain raised his fist and punched the person next to him, shouting: "Hurry up and beat him. When the boss comes, you won't be able to beat you!"

".....so it is!"

There were screams, and not long after, a group of security guards were lying on the ground, as if they had experienced a fierce battle.

"Puff chuff~"

The little maid Qingzhu snickered, covering her mouth, and said softly: "Look at you and scare others to kill each other. I think you are worse than the people of the Six Demon Gates!"

"Blam me?"

"Huh~, don't you blame it? It scares people to death as soon as you shoot it! It's just a smiling tiger! Cold blood! Ruthless!"

"I'm not cold-blooded to you, Qingzhu, haven't you heard a word? The kindness to the enemy is the cruelty to yourself"

"...Anyway, I blame you! Humph~"

After chatting with Tsundere's little maid, Li Yun walked through the factory area and the dormitory building, and walked to the back of the factory, where the evil spirit exuded that Sage Fan Qing said.

Chapter 720: Want to settle in Zhonghai City

On the way, when I entered the factory for the first time, the curious little girl Qingzhu sneaked to the window, looked inside, and said in surprise: "Hey? Bad guy Li Yun, look inside, they seem to be working. Eh!"

The factory workshop is brightly lit, and there is a steady stream of products on the assembly line. Everyone is working with their heads down. No one notices, and there is no time to find the little maid looking at the window.

"It's at work." Li Yun answered her.

"Huh? Why do you still have to work at night?"

"...Because it wants to be efficient, or rather, because it wants to make money."

Li Yun didn't know how to explain the concept of two shifts with the noble-born masters and servants of the Vatican and the Qing Dynasty. Modern technology has created a lot of wealth, but it also brings an unimaginable burden.

Although people in ancient times were productive, at least they could rest during the slack.

Modern people spend three hundred and sixty-five days at work, most of the time, 12 hours a day, and go to work at night.

In a sense, modern people have worked harder than ancient people!

"so it is."

After listening to Li Yun's explanation, the second monk Li Yun was confused by what Fan Qingsheng said, so he asked her why she said that.

"The reason for development."

Sage Fanqing looked at the workshop and said with a little emotion: "People outside are very hardworking. No wonder they have created all kinds of extraordinary things that shocked the elders."

Li Yun smiled: "Because the industrial revolution has brought about qualitative changes, the overall wisdom of mankind has risen rapidly, and the things created are naturally more and more magical.

He thought of Princess Yongning who had been sleeping for four hundred years. When the princess came to the city for the first time, she kept asking Li Yun if this world was an immortal world, but she couldn't see enough.

"Um."

Sage Fanqing nodded slightly. The Hidden Sacred Valley is very closed, but he also knows the earth-shaking changes that are taking place in the outside world. Some elders are still worried that if a nuclear bomb flies near the Hidden Sacred Valley, their enchantment will be able to block this powerful Weapons.

Compared with the Six Demon Gates, the threat from the outside world to the Hidden Sacred Valley in the past century has been even greater, which was unimaginable before.

The Hidden Sacred Valley and the Six Demon Gates have been aloof for thousands of years, but after entering modern society, things may not develop as before.

"Qingzhu."

"Master Saint has any instructions?"

"Think of a way to exchange some money. After solving the problem of the Six Demon Gates, we will buy a house in Zhonghai City."

".....what?"

Qingzhu opened his mouth wide in shock. Saintess, does he want to settle in the outside world?

How does this work!

The outside world is so dirty, there is no aura, it is fine to travel for a month or two, but settled...

"To buy a house, I want to live in Zhonghai City." Fan Qingsheng was very firm, and added: "To live for at least a few months."

The little maid Qingzhu wanted to cry without tears. If the elders and the head knew about this, she would definitely be punished!

This is because although the Saintess is extremely talented in cultivation, her personality...has some problems.

It was her fault that she could not take care of the Lord Saintess!

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Send a set of 50 million house to the Holy Spirit, and reward the Holy Spirit of Fanqing +0.1.

Option 2: Send a set of 2 billion houses to the Holy Spirit of Vatican, rewarding the Holy Spirit of Vatican +0.2, and the host has a chance to get another chance to contact Bai Fumei.

Choice 3: Do nothing, reward skill: straight man of steel. "
