Chapter 81: Brother Hu wants to take refuge

In the end, Xue Ji threw down a 500,000 bank card with a black face, and got into a few cars with his hands and left.

Just before leaving, he glared at Li Yun with bitter eyes, as if he was still not convinced, and wanted to make trouble.

Li Yun smiled at this, he has a system in his body, and his strength is rapidly increasing. Is he afraid of such people?

"Eldest, eldest brother, I will only be able to mix with you in the future!"

Brother Tiger was crying with a face, and he and a few of his men who had been following him were thrown down by Xue Ji. I don't know if it was because Xue Ji was angry with him, or because Brother Tiger's last begging for mercy made Xue Ji feel shameless. Light.

Li Yun ignored him and transferred 100,000 yuan to the boss. As it was today's loss, the food stall was expected to stop for a while, and wait until the matter subsided.

He also gave Fan Xiaoli one hundred thousand to compensate her for the furniture that had been robbed and sold off by Brother Tiger, as well as to subsidize the family, and asked her to take the money by herself, not to her father.

Brother Hu seemed to have spotted Li Yun and sincerely apologized to Fan Xiaoli, saying that they were wrong last time.

Fan Xiaoli's complexion improved a lot. After knowing that the master behind her was not Brother Tiger, she didn't complain too much to him.

In the final analysis, the reason why her father was lured to gambling was because the hidden casino opened by Xue Ji had dedicated people to trick some people into gambling.

After everything was settled, Li Yun left his boss and drove home on his bicycle.

"Big Brother!"

Brother Hu was cheeky and stopped in front of Li Yun, and he insisted on admiring Li Yun as the boss, and several of his men followed him.

"Do not be silly."

Li Yun shrugged, "I'm not interested in taking you people as subordinates at all."

"Yes, it's normal for Big Brother to look down on us, after all, we don't have much abilities!"

Brother Hu was not angry, but instead smiled and said, "But big brother, we bad guys also have a little effect. For example, I am very familiar with Longyang County inside and outside. What do you want to know, brother? As long as you give me an order, I can find it right away!"

"Oh?"

With a move in Li Yun's heart, Brother Tiger immediately saw it, and once again assured him that he was absolutely useful.

"All right, let's find a place to chat."

Pushing his bicycle, Li Yun came to a stone table in the shade of the trees and sat down, listening to the recommendation of Brother Tiger.

Through dialogue, Li Yun learned that Brother Tiger is named Qian Hu, and he is in his early thirties this year and has been in the gray area of Longyang County.

After working as a security guard, seeing places, collecting debts, and being detained for several months for gathering people to fight, it can be said that there is no place in Longyang County that Qian Hu is not familiar with.

Li Yun smiled and said, "Then do you know who Hu Xiaomeng was last time?"

When Mr. Hu came, he was sitting in the food stall with his back to the crowd, so Li Yun recognized his identity.

"Hu Xiaomeng?"

Qian Hu was stunned, then he laughed, with an expression that I understand.

Even though Hu Xiaomeng is a little small, she has a very outstanding temperament, and with her cute appearance, anyone with a discerning eye can see that Hu Xiaomeng will definitely be a peerless beauty in the future!

"Talk about business!"

"Uh, yes!"

Qian Hu quickly put away his slanderous mentality, and said, "I don't know Hu Xiaomeng. I guess he is from Zhonghai City. There is absolutely no family in Longyang County that can raise a girl with that kind of temperament."

Li Yun smiled. It seems that what Qian Hu said before was pure fart. He hadn't even seen Fang Xue. It can be seen that what Qian Hu knew was the information of the small people in the market, and he didn't know what the top family was doing.

Chapter 82: The lion has a big mouth

Through understanding, Li Yun knew the reason why Xiaomeng Hu and Brother Hu appeared last time.

There was a Ma Tsai who saw the delicate and elegant Fox Xiaomeng walking on the street at night, and looked around with curious eyes, so Ma Tsai stepped forward to talk, trying to lure Fox Xiaomeng to play in the casino.

Unexpectedly, the casino went to the casino, but suddenly two bodyguards came out and took the casino away. More than 20 thugs, and Xue Ji, were all laid down by Fox Xiaomeng's bodyguards.

"Finally." Brother Tiger said embarrassingly: "I was forced to be a guide by her and took her around in Longyang County..."

Li Yun was speechless, this fox Xiaomeng was really pretending to be innocent and cute, and his stomach was filled with naughty and cleverness, otherwise he would not come out to hang out at midnight! "Okay, let's be here tonight!" Li Yun stood up.

"Brother Li!"

Brother Tiger hurriedly said: "Do you think our brothers are easy to use? Brother Li, we promise to do it for you desperately!"

Li Yun shook his head faintly, "I won't get involved with a group of punks. I'll talk about the future in the future."

After speaking, Li Yun left without stopping at all.

The few people who were left looked at each other, and the one beside Brother Tiger said dissatisfiedly: "Brother Tiger, you begged him in such a low voice, but this B still doesn't give us a good face, I think..."

"What do you know!"

Brother Hu stretched out his hand and patted his head vigorously. He looked at Li Yun's back with enviousness, "Brother Li is a really awesome character. People like Xue Ji can only open a small casino in their entire life. Roll around.

However, Brother Li can soar into the sky. Longyang County is definitely not his stage. The future Zhonghai City must have a place for Brother Li! understand? You idiots! "

"But Brother Li said he wouldn't get involved with the punks..."

"Who the * is a bastard?!" Brother Tiger knocked on his head again, and said angrily: "Can't you be a * ideal? You will be a * forever? You will find a job for me tomorrow! "

"I am back."

"Ah, brother, you finally came back, come and see this, something big happened!"

At ten o'clock in the evening, as soon as Li Yun entered the house, Li Feng pulled him anxiously and handed him the phone.

The cute faces of the twin sisters on the side also showed anxious expressions, and the weaker characters were plucking, and even tears came out in a hurry.

"Don't worry, speak slowly, nothing can't be solved!"

Li Yun smiled and scratched Caiwei's little nose before reaching out to take Li Feng's mobile phone.

On the screen, there is a list of hot searches on Weibo. The hot searches on the rivers and lakes have not gone down yet, and there is a new hot search.

"#"Zonghengjianghu" author Lion Big Opening#?"

Li Yun frowned slightly, "What kind of hot search is this? Someone is hacking me?"

"There is a blogger called 'What's New in Entertainment Circle' said that my brother wants to sell one million." Caixia explained hurriedly.

"Uh, it's 'Zhengjiang Jianghu' written by my brother who wants to sell for one million." Cai Wei said weakly and corrected.

"When did I want to sell a million a song?"

Li Yun was also puzzled, but seeing that the sisters were both very worried, he reached out and rubbed their little heads, "Don't worry, I'll take care of it. You go back to sleep first, and you have to go to class tomorrow!"

"...Yes~!"

The sisters agreed reluctantly, but after their brother came back, they did feel more at ease and believed that his brother could solve this problem!

After they left, Li Yun walked to his room and turned on the computer, ready to see what was going on.

Li Feng naturally followed him, and after entering the room, he closed the door quietly.

Chapter 83: What's new in the entertainment industry

"What's new in the entertainment industry: Tell everyone a joke: a new song that is the number one hot search, selling for one million."

The corner of Li Yun's mouth twitched, and he didn't know how to spit out this passage, there were too many slots!

Click on the comment, which is also very exciting.

"The hottest search is No. 1? Refers to 'Zhengjiang Lake'?"

"What dare you sell for a million? Lions don't even have that big mouth [panic]!"

"I, Cao, don't even have a composer, so I dare to sell one million?"

"Jiandang group demons are shocked, now not only are ghosts and gods shocked, even the majority of netizens are shocked!"

"For this kind of songwriter who doesn't have a B-number, I just want to say one thing: how far away, how far away!"

"The most shameless news this year [laughs and cries]!"

Looking at the comments of these netizens, Li Yun couldn't laugh or cry, and said to Li Feng: "I didn't want to sell the song for a million, and I don't know where this person got the fake news!"

Immediately afterwards, the blogger of "What's New in Entertainment Industry" posted another Weibo explanation.

"I want to popularize science for everyone. If you want to buy a song in the circle, from the lyrics to the composition, it is usually 30,000 yuan a song, and the more famous musicians will sell it for 100,000 yuan.

To cite a few examples, "Eastern Guangdong Love Story", the singer only spent 5,000 yuan in copyright fees, but made 100 million yuan on this song.

Then, here comes the point!

What I said above is the price of lyrics and composing!

And a certain song that sells for a million, there is no composer, and the author is a high school student, so I can only hehe. "

The comments below were all hehes, and they looked unusually dazzling.

"Brother." Li Feng was next to Li Yun, with a worried expression on his beautiful face, "What can I do? This blogger is obviously slandering you!"

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Find out the black hand behind the scenes and report to the police. Reward justice value +10, wisdom +200, random green gift bag*5.

Option 2: Directly call the police, reward justice value of 1.

Option 3: Find out the black hand behind the scenes, walk the way for the sky, and teach the opponent severely, then call the police to deal with it. After choosing, you will get a perfect arrangement of "Zhengjiang Jianghu", rewarding several points for justice, several points for all attributes, and a random blue gift bag*3. "

Triggered the selection event again?

Li Yun looked at Option Three with fiery eyes. There is no doubt that the option with full attribute rewards is the best!

"System, I choose the third item!"

"Ding, the host has made a choice, and the advance reward (perfect arrangement of "Zhengjianghu") has been distributed."

The arrangement was sent directly to Li Yun's computer desktop, which made him very satisfied. With this thing, it is much easier to operate!

"You villain~"

At this moment, Li Feng scornfully pinched his waist with his hand, and said blushing, "When is it all, I still want me to do that for you!"

Li Yun was taken aback, he didn't have that idea!

Then I remembered, just now he looked at the third option with fiery eyes, and Li Feng was right in front of him, so he was equivalent to looking at Li Feng with fiery eyes, no wonder she misunderstood.

"Huh." A shy blush appeared on Li Feng's beautiful face. He stretched out his hand and slowly went down, his voice softly and mellowly: "However, I am willing to help you... These days you have accumulated too much pressure, and you must be very tired. ?"

"hiss!"

Being held by her, Li Yun took a sigh of relief, and quickly grabbed her hand, and said with an embarrassed expression: "Wait, wait until I finish this matter of slandering me, I already have an idea of how to do it!"

Chapter 84: Ding, God-level computer knowledge

"Oh really?"

Li Feng said brightly, "Brother, what do you plan to explain? Do you know who is hacking you behind?"

When she was talking, her slender and white hands were always placed on a critical part, making Li Yun almost unable to control her transformation into a jackal.

He looked back and found that the door of the room had been locked by her, probably because she was afraid that Caiwei and Caixia would accidentally see it.

"Ahem."

Li Yun forcibly suppressed the evil thoughts, and while operating the computer, he explained to her: "I only talked to a man named Zhu Cheng about copyright, and there is a high probability that he is hacking me."

"Huh? Brother, do you want to post a screenshot of the conversation on Weibo?"

Li Feng was very happy and clenched his hands unconsciously, as if working hard.

Because of her actions, Li Yun straightened his waist and pretended to be unmoved and said: "Yes, but this is not enough, because I have no evidence that he did it, but you can rest assured that your brother I will With some computer skills, it's easy to find evidence, just look at me!"

"Huh? When did you learn computer technology?"

"I'm a genius, your brother, who went to school online." Li Yun tried to keep calm while operating the computer, "Ahem, your hand moves slowly."

Li Feng helped him like this, Li Yun felt comfortable, but he couldn't operate the computer at all!

"Hee hee~"

Li Feng covered his small mouth with his left hand and smiled secretly: "You bastard, you go to cold water in the afternoon, do you want me to help you? Now if I take the initiative, you don't want it, hum, I won't let it go, I want Personally check whether your computer skills will work even if someone is disturbed!"

Li Yun was painful and happy, he had to get it done quickly, and then he could teach Li Feng who had become a little devil in front of him!

"I will post a Weibo to explain the bargaining of previous songs, which proves that I didn't have a big talk."

Li Yun talked as much as he could, distracted himself, and didn't think about Li Feng's actions to help him now.

"Then, I will investigate who the blogger of this entertainment industry is. The hot search is because of him. This person is the key suspect!"

"Let me look at him... hiss, Li Feng, slow down!"

The movement in his hand stopped for a while, Li Feng smiled beautifully, gave him a magnificent eye, and said coquettishly: "I just think my brother is so handsome now, so he screams at Fang Qiu, and makes me look up to my sister~"

"Ahem, worship can't be too fast, otherwise I will be distracted when collecting evidence, and it will be bad if I leave my feet behind."

"what?"

Li Feng was taken aback, and his movements could not help but stop. The five lush white jade fingers also loosened, and said anxiously: "Then I will not help you first. I will talk about it when you get it done."

"Don't, continue to help me."

Li Yun is feeling comfortable now, how can he stop? So Li Yun decided to use skill pill to upgrade his master-level computer knowledge!

"Ding, the skill pill has been successfully used, and the master-level computer knowledge has risen to the god-level!"

Feeling the horror of God-level computer knowledge, Li Yun was determined in his heart. It is estimated that few people in the world can catch him on the Internet. On the Internet, he is the only God!

"Okay, finally done! None of these people can get away!"

Li Yun tapped his  on the keyboard like flying away. He collected all the evidence on the Internet and set it up, just waiting for the moment when the news came out.

"Brother, what did you do on the Internet... Um!"

Li Feng also wanted to ask, the next moment, she was put down on the computer desk by Li Yun.

The fierce fire in Li Yun's heart had been burning for so long because of her actions, and what I was waiting for was now, how could I still be able to bear it!

Chapter 85: Navy leader

Feng Yuande, a fat middle-aged male.

He is the owner of Yuande Network Technology Co., Ltd., his Weibo name is: What's New in the Entertainment Circle, with more than seven million fans.

In name, he is the boss of a technology company, but in reality, Feng Yuande is a leader of the navy!

There are more than a dozen people under his hand, who specially help him post on the Internet with rhythm, either by reposting his Weibo, or using tools to open countless trumpets to completely detonate something.

For example, now, the author of the cross-border rivers and lakes, the lion opened his mouth.

"Hey, I made one hundred thousand by posting a Weibo, and this money is too comfortable!"

When Feng Yuande watched the Weibo he sent out to the hot search on Weibo, he not only fulfilled the employer's requirements perfectly, but also brought him hundreds of thousands of fans, and Feng Yuande smiled.

With the money to take it again, the number of fans has risen a lot. In the future, these fans will create opportunities for him to make money. How can he be upset?

Originally, he didn't want to pick up a list of only 100,000 remunerations, but he recently raised a nice subordinate for Xinbao, and he was short of money in his pocket, so Feng Yuande took this order. "The author of the black "Zhengjiang Jianghu" asked for a price. High' list.

But even Feng Yuande didn't expect that the Weibo he sent out soon became popular, and he was once ranked first in the hot search!

"It seems that it has wiped out the heat of the original vertical and horizontal rivers and lakes."

Feng Yuande smiled with satisfaction, his eyes inadvertently saw a woman working overtime outside, his heart moved, and he shouted at the door: "Cici, come to me, I have something to look for you!"

A slender female subordinate came in, and was about to ask something, but Feng Yuande screamed at the door.

The female subordinate suddenly understood, and gave him a grin, and gave him a roll of eyes: "My boyfriend is still on a business trip."

"Hey, I value him and give him a heavy responsibility!"

"Fuck you, when I don't know what you want to do, you sucker!"

While complaining, the female subordinate still closed the door, walked over and squatted in front of Feng Yuande, working hard.

Feng Yuande became more comfortable, but what he didn't know was that behind him, there was a laptop that just opened, and the camera had been turned on quietly, recording this picture.

The next day, a complaining Weibo detonated the entire Internet and attracted countless netizens to watch. The entire entertainment circle, even half of the Internet, was blown up by this Weibo!

"I wore a green hat: Today, my girlfriend entered the boss's office and locked the door."

The first sentence at the beginning, as well as the ID of the blogger, made countless male netizens cry for tears and commented:

"Brother, be strong!"

"Don't cry, stand up!"

"Don't think about it, maybe your girlfriend made a report to the boss!"

"Yes, it's normal for the subordinates to report to the boss, don't think too much!"

"Wear the prairie hat. From now on, you will be crowned king!"

"Be strong!"

The first sentence at the beginning is so maddening, which makes netizens look forward to the next thing even more.

But even with the psychological preparation, they were still stunned. Some celebrities' fans trembled with anger and ran to the Weibo "News in Entertainment Industry" to swear.

come out and get beaten!!"

"You opened Yuande Network Technology Co., Ltd.? It's amazing, you're awesome! How many * scandals in the entertainment industry are all made up by you!"

Chapter 86: Green Hat's Fury

"The incident of the illegitimate daughter of City Big Brother, the King of Heaven is out of skepticism, the popular actress stays overnight at a male friend's house, the Kun Kun chicken you are too beautiful incident... These are all you concocted and came out?"

you are so cheap! Not only did you make news, but you also snatched your girlfriend and cuckolded him. You are so bad at home!"

"Fairy Scouts come here to gather! At the beginning, a star slandered our fairy buns and boyfriends, and they change three in a year. This is the list that this cheap B blogger took!"

"Swear this blogger to death, guard the best fairy sister!"

At 6 o'clock in the morning, Feng Yuande, who was awakened by his subordinate's phone call, saw his out-of-control Weibo comments, and his entire face was pale.

"What's going on? How did they know?"

"I wore a green hat and broke the news? Grass! It must be your boyfriend!"

Feng Yuande was furious, slapped Cici who was sleeping beside him fiercely, and slapped her awake.

Cici covered her face and still didn't know what was going on. Feng Yuande slapped her again and cursed, "Hurry up and call your boyfriend and ask him to delete that Weibo!" "

Fortresses are usually captured internally.

Cici's boyfriend has followed Feng Yuande when he started the company and clearly knew everything about him. Now, after being put on a green hat, this man who 'must be strong' chose to stand up and take Feng Yuande to death. All the wicked things that have been passed are tremblingly exposed!

If one fails, Feng Yuande will be arrested by the public security organs, and will not be able to get out after being in jail for a few years!

"Fight, no way!" Cici said in a panic.

Feng Yuande calmed down, it seemed that the other party was determined to kill him.

"Don't panic, I went to withdraw the hot search first."

Therefore, Feng Yuande spent five million to withdraw this hot search, and almost lost all the money he made in a year.

Then, Feng Yuande posted another Weibo, stating that someone was slandering him. He would reserve the right to prosecute and he must return his innocence.

"Go to the company!"

After rushing to the office to destroy the evidence, Feng Yuande looked slightly worried, "As long as there is no evidence, who can do with me? Humph!"

He turned to look at Cici, only to find that her face was pale, her hands were shaking all the time, and the phone was almost unsteady.

"What are you looking at? What the * happened?" Feng Yuande had a bad feeling in his heart.

"My boyfriend him, he, he..." Cici looked panicked and couldn't even speak.

Feng Yuande grabbed the phone and took a look. He collapsed on the ground with only one glance, his legs shaking like chaff, and a smell of urine quickly permeated the office.

There was a video playing on the phone. It was Cici who walked into this office, then locked the door, and showed a dark smile at Feng Yuande, as well as the video squatting in front of him.

"I wore a green hat: The adulterer and adulteress took advantage of my business trip to mess around. If it hadn't been sent to me by an enthusiastic netizen, I wouldn't know about it!

Good, Feng Yuande, good, if you put a hat on me, I will let you wear handcuffs! ! To die, everyone die together! ! "

At the end of the blog post, there is also a file attached, which records the account book of Yuande Technology Company since its establishment, who and which companies have naval business dealings with, and even the process of bargaining is clearly screenshots.

The comments of netizens are also very exciting.

"666, this is the end of the same family!"

"Brother, your operation really surprised me!"

"So, don't green others!"

"Hahaha, come out and work!"

Chapter 87: Goodbye Fang Xue

After Li Yun got up on Monday morning, there was no Li Feng by his side.

He also maintained his first-year male figure, and didn't really do anything with Li Feng, but only helped each other to vent their inner flames.

"Fang Xue, Li Feng..."

Li Yun was distressed about how to deal with the relationship with these two big beauties. On the one hand, he was his real girlfriend, and on the other hand, he was his wife who had a deep relationship with him. He did not want to give up either.

However, if you really want to have two beautiful beauties like flowers and jade, Li Yun must have powerful power!

There is a saying that it is good that beauty is only worthy of the strong (mistake)!

"Brother, get up and eat breakfast."

"Come on, sister!"

In the daytime, in front of the Caixia Caiwei sisters, Li Yun and Li Feng regained their relationship with the sisters and brothers, and there was no trace of interaction between the lovers.

He and Li Feng were originally like sisters and brothers rather than lovers.

After seeing Li Yun, who looked more handsome after putting on neat clothes, Li Feng's face was reddish, and he couldn't help thinking of what happened last night, and quickly lowered his head.

Li Yun smiled slightly, naturally knowing the reason for her being like this.

"Eat and eat!"

Li Feng turned the subject away and said, "Brother, we are going to take the city-wide mock test this Thursday. Are you sure you can get high scores in the other two subjects?"

"I'm not sure of high scores." Li Yun smiled.

"Huh? Brother!"

The twin sisters looked at him in surprise, and Li Feng was a little worried, "How about passing it? Brother, your science and English are so good, don't take too much language and math! When you come back in the evening, I will help you make up lessons! "

Li Feng blushed slightly. If she stayed alone with Li Yun, she would definitely make up the flames.

"Ah, I haven't finished it yet!" Li Yun smiled: "I'm not sure about the high scores, the full marks are still okay!"

"I hate it, I'm kidding again!" Li Fengjiao yelled, beautiful eyes with a shy smile, unspeakable moving, and Li Yun was stunned for a moment.

"Hehe, can your brother get a score of 750?"

Caixia couldn't see anything, but Cai Wei glanced at her brother quickly.

Her sister became more and more feminine, and, last night, Cai Wei got up in the bathroom and heard something vaguely in her brother's room...

After eating breakfast, Li Yun and Li Feng came to the school gate side by side. Just when they got there, Li Yun saw the familiar figure standing at the school gate at a glance.

"Li Yun!"

Slim Fang Xue, who was waiting in place, saw Li Yun, her beautiful eyes lit up immediately, trotting over happily, and took his arm, "Hehe, you are finally here!"

Seeing her flowery smile, Li Yun felt warm in his heart, stretched out his hand and scratched her little nose, and said softly: "Why are you waiting for me here? No need to wait next time, we can meet at school!"

Li Yun couldn't bear to let his girlfriend stand at the door.

"It's okay." Fang Xue blushed slightly, leaning on Li Yun happily for a long time before saying hello to Li Feng.

Li Feng was sour in her heart. She and Li Yun had a relationship with a brother-in-law, not a brother-in-law, but the close relationship between the two still did not dare to be exposed to outsiders.

"Ah, yes!"

Fang Xue suddenly thought of something, and quickly asked: "Li Yun, did you really write "Zhengjianghu"?"

Because of the second semester of high school, she rarely surfs the Internet, and her mother told her the news.

When she heard the news, Fang Xue was surprised and delighted. In this way, wouldn't Li Yun be recognized by her parents soon?

Chapter 88: Spread all over the campus

Li Yun nodded with a smile, and was about to talk, but the campus morning radio rang at this moment.

"Students are welcome to listen to this morning's campus radio. I am the host Shuxian... I wonder if you listened to a song on the Internet recently? It's called Zonghengjianghu."

Hearing the crisp voice of the hostess, Fang Xue widened her beautiful big eyes and looked straight at Li Yun, as if to see him through.

"Maybe some classmates know, or maybe some classmates don't know. This song, which has been on Weibo's hot search twice, is the lyrics and composition of our school, Grade 14 of the third grade, by a boy!

This talented, well-studied, low-key, deep, handsome, gentle, and energetic boy named Li Yun! ! "

Kang Ge, the female host of the radio, was so excited that Li Yun was very embarrassed to praise Li Yun.

The surrounding students cast their eyes on Li Yun. After Li Yun posted the arrangement last night, the student chat groups, post bars, Weibo and other places of several schools in Longyang County have long circulated this song wildly. song.

In addition, Li Yun's name has spread throughout the middle schools, high schools, and even elementary schools in Longyang County!

The hostess said again: "Although this song is about a man's chivalrous arena, but the lyrics are magnificent. As a girl, after hearing this song, Shuxian's heart will also ignite with pride, and I can't wait to write him ten. Eight sets of test papers!"

"Next, let's enjoy this song from Class 14 of Senior High School, which was written and composed by classmate Li Yun, "Zhengjianghu"!"

Immediately afterwards, the vigorous and exciting music rang, and the whole campus was reverberating with this song that seemed to burn youth and make people work hard.

Some boys were so excited that they were crying and howling, and the girls around also looked at Li Yun with shining eyes. Some idiots had already taken out their notebooks and wanted Li Yun to sign them.

"Hurry up and go away~"

Fang Xue dragged Li Yun away, her small bulging mouth, without thinking about it, she knew she was jealous.

Li Feng was amused. She and Fang Xue had been in the same class for three years. Fang Xue had always acted very cold, with not many friends, speaking very reserved, and she felt like she was a thousand miles away.

Unexpectedly, after Fang Xue fell in love and fell in love with her younger brother, she seemed to be a different person, and Li Yun couldn't stick to it!

When the three of them came downstairs, Fang Xue was still a little jealous. However, she quickly thought of one thing and said quickly: "Fortunately, it was accidentally revealed that Feng Yuande was the navy's affairs last night, otherwise Li Yun would be yours. It's troublesome if the song is rhythmic!"

"Ding, trigger the option event, please choose from the host:

Option 1: Tell Fang Xue the truth about last night, reward justice value +10, skill: be sincere (passive, make people feel your sincerity).

Choice 2: Lie, make Fang Xue, reward skills: nonsense (probability makes people believe your words more), evil value +50.

Choice 3: Conceal, no reward. "

There are also options at this time?

Looking at the system prompts, Li Yun started to think.

Judging from the two awards, his attitude towards Fang Xue is actually choosing whether he will be righteous or evil in the future.

Although it is only a small choice, as the saying goes, don't try to be evil.

If you lie once, you must use a thousand lies to round up your lie.

Chapter 89: Li Ge Niubi

After thinking it through, Li Yun shook his head decisively, "It's not an accident, I did it!"

"Ding, the host has made a choice, and the reward (justice value 10, skill: sincerely) has been issued!"

"what?"

Fang Xue was taken aback, and quickly remembered that Li Yun was a hacker, and suddenly realized that everything last night was under Li Yun's control!

"Xiaoxue." Li Yun asked seriously, "Will you despise me for using such a move?"

It is always bad to use hacking techniques to monitor others, although it is because Feng Yuande offended him first!

"No, no." Fang Xue waved her hand quickly, took the initiative to hold Li Yun's big hand, and said quietly and sincerely: "That person is a badass, Li Yun, you can use some ugly means to deal with him, this is also OK. Chivalrous righteousness, hee hee~"

A satisfied smile appeared at the corner of Li Yun's mouth.

Fang Xue's family is in business, and she is the only child. Her parents should allow her to be exposed to some dark sides, so Fang Xue can accept this kind of hacking to complete the counterattack.

Fang Xue was about to ask about what happened last night. Li Feng hurriedly pulled her away, her beautiful face was full of shyness, and she also made an excuse that she was going to read early. Fang Xue wanted to know what happened last night and she could ask her!

Li Yun was stunned when he saw the blush on his sister's face. Then he thought that when he was monitoring Feng Yuande last night, Feng Yuande and the woman named Xiqian were doing things in the office.

On the other hand, Li Yun and Li Feng appreciated the interaction between the two in the office and performed it live. Li Feng also squatted in front of Li Yun and did the same thing as Si Qian...

Ahem, no wonder she blushes, sins, sins.

Li Yun quickly put away his evil thoughts, and when he came to the classroom, he received the attention of the classmates.

"Brother Li is awesome!"

Wang Houliang slapped Li Yun's flattery, "Brother Li's cross-border rivers and lakes, when he was writing lyrics, he was listed on a hot search, and when he was composing, he was listed on a hot search again, and both times were the first in the hot search. How can this be? It's awesome!"

"That's it!" A boy who went to the Internet cafe with Li Yun the night before also boasted: "Two hot searches on Weibo, the whole school, no, the whole Longyang County asked who else?!"

"Nobody, just brother Li is the only person in Longyang County who has been ranked No. 1 in the hot search twice!"

"Thousands of words come together into one sentence, let us shout together:"

"Brother Li is awesome!!!"

The male and female classmates in Class 14 all started booing, and Li Yun helplessly helped. Although the grades of this group of people were a bit poor, they were also very emotional, and they were touched by their loyalty.

The first class, physics class.

The physics teacher who invigilated Li Yun last week walked in with a smile and looked at Li Yun. The first sentence was: "Student Li Yun, congratulations on writing a very nice song!"

Everyone clamored again and praised Li Ge for his greatness.

Li Yun was embarrassed now, "Teacher, do you know all about it?"

"I didn't know it." The physics teacher smiled: "But when I came to school in the morning, I suddenly heard the campus radio, and I was so excited that I would like to print ten test papers for you immediately!"

"No teacher!" the students wailed.

The extra-printing of the tenth test paper, for the poor students and seniors in Class 14, is killing people!

The physics teacher was right. After the campus broadcast hostess Shu Xian's vigorous promotion, some people who didn't know Li Yun also knew about Li Yun's deeds.

Including the third year experimental class.

Chapter 90: Li Yun is my boyfriend

Zhikai High School Experimental Class.

After class, while listening to music and relaxing, someone played Li Yun's "Zhengjianghu" with multimedia.

"Hey, this Li Yun is so amazing, he even wrote a passionate song!"

Zhou Xianming's face darkened, and he looked at the speaker with cold eyes, Yu Xiannian.

If ordinary people praise Li Yun, Zhou Xianming can ignore it, but this is not easy in the first year!

Not only did he rank among the top three in his age, he also opened several companies in his family. Although his family property was not as good as that of Shangxian, he was much better than Zhou Xianming!

What's more special is that Yu Xianming also pursued Fang Xue at the earliest, but Zhou Xianming defeated him and made him retreat, not daring to get involved with Fang Xue again.

"Yu Xiannian actually thinks Li Yun's song is amazing?!"

Zhou Xianming clenched his fists and thought angrily, but what he didn't expect was that after Yu Xianyear's words came out, he actually got a response from the students in the experimental class.

"Yeah, I listened for two hours last night, and today I got up and listened for another two hours, but it still sounds good!"

"Tsk tusk, Li Yun from class 14 has not good grades. I didn't expect to write songs so well!"

"This is the rhythm to get hot. I heard that the principal held a meeting this morning to praise Li Yun."

"It's so nice~~ No wonder even Liu Xianxian reposted it!"

"This is the second time Liu Xianxian has reposted Li Yun's Weibo, great!"

Zhou Xianming gritted his teeth with hatred, and his knuckles became white from pinching his fists. The better Li Yun is, the more likely it is that Fang Xue and him will be together...

"Li Yun is my boyfriend."

"what!?"

Zhou Xianming was frightened and furious. When he walked to Fang Xue's side, he suddenly heard Fang Xue say to one of her friends, Li Yun is her boyfriend? !

Everyone turned their gazes over. Fang Xue glanced at Zhou Xianming, with a trace of pride on her face, and repeated: "I said, Li Yun is my boyfriend. On Sunday, I went on a date with him. !"

Everyone was dumbfounded, and for a while, the experimental class was quiet.

Fang Xue has a good background, excellent grades, and elegant temperament. Although there is some high coldness, this does not affect her status as the dream lover of the boys in the experimental class.

She is also a well-deserved school bachelor of Zhicai High School, and those who chase her may have a strengthening group!

Fang Xue returned from a high school transfer from Zhonghai City, and has not accepted anyone's confession for two years. At most, it was because of his family background, he got closer to the boys such as Zhou Xianming and Yu Xiannian, but he never had a warm feeling. [The performance of ignorance.

But now, Fang Xue took the initiative to announce that Li Yun is her boyfriend? !

"Humph."

Li Feng, who was sitting not far away, snorted slightly, feeling sour.

"how is this possible....."

Zhou Xianming's face was pale, how long did Li Yun and Fang Xue have known each other? How soon did they develop into a relationship between men and women?

No, that's not right, it must be Li Yun's scumbag who used * tricks, that's why Fang Xue was bewildered!

"Fang Xue, is it Li Yun that kid..." Zhou Xianming hurriedly asked.

How can he not be in a hurry?

Zhou family can have hundreds of millions of assets, all because of Fang Xue, if it is not for the Fang family's face, no one would want to do business with Zhou family!

"No, Zhou Xianming, you are wrong!"

Fang Xue said seriously: "Li Yun is very good, I like him very much, he also likes me very much, we really love each other!"
