

GODS' IMPACT 381

Chapter 381: Naughty Nun

Zach's snake was still inside Ninia, so when she got on top, she orgasmed once again because of a different pleasure.

The feeling of riding his snake was entirely different from when she was lying down. She could feel his tip reaching all the way to her womb, bringing her further pleasure.

"Anh~ Yes~ Yes~ Yes! Why does this feel different~? We are doing basically the same thing, right?"

"That's the magic of dual cultivation," Zach responded with a grin.

She rode him like an amateur, although she was simply going with the flow to satisfy her thirst. Occasionally switching from pure up and down motions to rotating her hips. Combined with the way her cave massaged him and began taking the shape of his snake, Zach couldn't hold it anymore.

"Here comes the second holy dose~!" He groaned as he let out his load, filling her up once again.

"Aaanh~ I can feel it~ I can feel your holy water is filling me up~"

Zach did the same thing he did after ejaculating for the first time. Ninia wanted to ask what he was writing on her cave and why he was doing it, but she was so lost in the pleasure that she didn't care about anything else.

Even though Zach had just filled her up with his holy water, Ninia didn't stop riding him. It was as though Zach's dose made her even more horny. She was shaking her hips at a slow pace as though she wanted to enjoy every second of it.

As the time passed, both Ninia and Zach got immersed in it, and their sex drive increased instead of decreasing.

Ninia increased her pace and said, "Is it weird that I am having more impure thoughts even though you have been cleansing me?"

"Don't worry about it. I will keep cleansing you until you reach the state of zen," Zach replied with a grin on his face.

Ninia's breasts bounced as she shook her hips, and Zach couldn't help but grab them. He squeezed them gently and pinched her nipples using his thumb and finger. Because of that, Ninia got a little tighter.

"Do you like it when I do this?" Zach asked with a curious look on his face.

"I like your touch~ I feel happy whenever you touch me. And I feel satisfied when your holy sword is inside me~!"

"Wow. You are not even shy anymore. I like it."

"I am going to cum~" Ninia moaned. "What about you? I like it when we cum together. And the feeling of getting filled up with your holy water is so thrilling that I want to get filled like that all the time~!"

Zach sat up while pulling Ninia's breasts and squeezing them. He sucked her nipples left and right and then pushed her on the bed on her back.

"Yes~"

He grabbed Ninia by her waist and pulled her body back and forth.

"More~ More~" she begged.

Zach also started moving his hips back and forth and slowly increased his speed as he got close to ejaculating. And Ninia began moving her body up and down to make it easy for Zach to shoot everything inside her.

He could feel Ninia's cave walls clenching his snake from all sides. She had gotten so tight that it was getting hard for Zach to move back and forth.

"Do you want my holy water?" Zach asked with a mischievous smile on his face.

"Yes~ Yes~ I do~ I want all of it~"

Ninia was desperate for the shot that she was trying her best to hold her orgasm as she wanted Zach to ejaculate together. Zach knew Ninia wouldn't cum until he shot his water inside her, but he had other plans.

He wasn't going to shoot just yet. He wanted to tease Ninia and make her more desperate. He hadn't forgiven for what she had done to him in the first round. But now that Ninia was vulnerable, it was his best chance to make the best out of it.

That's when Zach planned to fill her up to make her as satisfied as possible.

"Anh~! Anh~! Yes~ It's about time~ I can't hold it anymore~" she moaned.

"Heh!" Zach smirked at her and said, "I think I am out of holy water."

"No~ Give it to me~ Or I will die~" She moaned loudly.

At that exact moment, Zach released everything inside Ninia's thirsty cave, and Ninia ended up orgasming at the same time.

"Aaanh~ Yes~ It's feeling me up~ Keep shooting it inside me~"

Ninia's entire body twitched as her cave swallowed every drop of Zach's holy water. He once again did the same thing as the other two times, but Ninia was lost in the heavens.

He scoffed and grinned after seeing the orgasmic and satisfied look on Ninia's face.

'Let's take a rest. It's her first time, and I already filled her up three times.'

"I will pull it out now," he said as he tried to pull out his snake from her cave.

"No~!" Ninia once again wrapped her legs around Zach and said, "Keep it inside. You said you will continue until I am fully cleansed."

Zach squinted his eyes at Ninia and said, "If you say it with a face like that... I will start humping you again."

"I don't mind~ I don't want it to stop~ Keep ravaging me until you are satisfied~"

After hearing those words, Zach once again started moving his hips slowly. He could feel his juice mixing inside Ninia's cave, which was working as a lube.

'Why is she so tight? I can't just get enough of it! Elves are awesome!'

Just like Ninia, Zach didn't want to stop yet. He wanted to keep railing Ninia for a bit longer, and Ninia wanted Zach to nail her forever.

"Yes~ Yes~ Harder~ Go deeper~ More~ More~" she moaned. "Make sure you cleansed every part of me."

Once again, the room was filled with Ninia's moans. She had gotten sensitive, and her sexy moans were the proof.

A few minutes later, she ended up orgasming again, and Zach couldn't hold it anymore either. He ended up releasing his load inside Ninia's tight cave, and only then she let go of Zach.

"Aanh~ Yes~ Another one~ Fill me up~" She moaned.

'That's four... enough for forty pills,' Zach uttered inwardly as he wrote something on her cave.

Chapter 382: Making Essence Pills

Three hours passed, and they continued their holy ritual. Zach had been taking the lead as Ninia was tired, but she didn't have enough of the heavenly pleasure.

Ninia couldn't endure the pleasure and ended up orgasming once again. She relaxed her body but kept her hands and legs wrapped around Zach.

Zach's libido was ready for further heavenly shots. His snake wanted to explore Ninia's cave even more.

The two once again switched positions, with Ninia on all fours and Zach behind her. Without hesitation, he once again penetrated his snake inside of her.

"Anh~ I like this position~ It feels like you are punishing me~"

The first thrust was just the beginning. Zach didn't show mercy this time, pounding her as hard as he could without hurting her.

Her boobs jiggled wildly. Her soft ass rippled with every thrust. Seeing it, Zach couldn't hold it anymore and shot his holy water for the ninth time.

Ninia was an Elf, and her body could withstand longer than the other girls. Even Aria, who was in the mortal's body, had many limitations. But Ninia, whose sexual stamina outclassed many others, was already starting to tire out after so many intense orgasms with Zach.

Her mind was in a wonderland of pleasure, floating in the clouds, but before she could drift off to dreamland, she heard a voice that came like a seductive devil.

"Did you think we were done already?" he said with a grin.

Zach turned her on her side, grabbing one leg and lifting it in the air as he continued to pound her.

"We aren't done yet at all. Not by a long shot."

He once again grabbed her boobs into his hand, pinching her nipple and slightly twisting it.

"Nhm~ Mmh~ Aahhnn~!"

Ninia was barely conscious. Her mind was blank, her only thoughts being a pleasure. Her body had lost every other feeling, only focusing on the hot snake sliding in and out of her cave and the holy water that dripped out of it.

After a few minutes, he released the tenth shot and repeated his usual procedure.

'That was the tenth shot. Enough for one hundred essence pills.'

Zach had a mischievous smile on his face as he watched her. His other hand that wasn't pleasuring her boobs snuck its way past her cave towards another unused entrance.

'I have never done this before, but I think Ninia might like this. Not to mention, her womb is almost full of my essence. One more, and she will start leaking it.'

Realizing what was about to happen, Ninia slightly woke up from her daze.

"W-wait! That's-!"

But she was too late. His finger slipped into her second hole uninhibited. It was a new kind of pleasure Ninia hadn't felt before, and as Zach slowly added a few more fingers, a sense of pain also joined.

"I never did this before, so this would be my first time as well," Zach said and plunged his wet snake inside another cave.

"Wha—!~!"

As it was wet and mixed with their juices, it entered inside easily without much effort. But oddly enough, Ninia welcomed it. The mixture of pain and pleasure only made her feel better.

"But why are you using that hole~!" she moaned with a groan.

"I can't use your pussy anymore."

"Why not?"

"It's filled with my essence. Did you forget we also have to gather essence?"

"Oh!" Ninia exclaimed loudly and said, "I totally forgot about that!"

"I don't blame you. But don't worry, I remembered."

"But you wasted all your essence inside me! We had to father it in a vessel, right?"

"Yes, but ain't no way I was stopping every time I was about to cum and fill it somewhere; creampieing feels awesome. And besides, even after that, I would have had to extra and purify it from the remaining waste. Most of it would have been wasted.

The essence is a delicate elixir, and you need to store it in a suitable vessel to contain it. Even then, it will turn into waste eventually. And guess what?"

He asked while humping Ninia.

"What—anm~?"

"The womb, or rather the girl's insides, happens to be the best vessel of all. So whenever I released my holy water inside you, I extracted it from the waste and filled it in your womb. Currently, your womb contains pure and raw essence, which I will later extract from you, and it will also save my time from purifying it.

The stuff dipping right now is nothing but a waste. It doesn't contain the essence. But if I had continued using your pussy, the raw essence in your womb would have dripped out. That's why I am using your back entrance. Not to mention, it's so fucking right! Don't you dare say you aren't enjoying this!"

Ninia puckered her lips and said, "I never said I am not enjoying this. But I didn't like how you plunged your sword inside me without warning."

"I wanted to see your surprised reaction, and I have got to say that it was precious!"

A few more hours passed, and it was already afternoon. Zach had managed to release enough essence for two hundred pills, but that was still nowhere near the actual amount needed.

Zach, of course, wanted to keep railing Ninia, but she passed out after orgasming over a hundred times. After that, Zach extracted the raw essence from Ninia's body and began creating the essence pills.

Typically, it would take him time to create them, but since he was making them in the size of a nail, it took surprisingly less time than he had expected.

He made one pill in a minute, but he soon got used to it and divided his contraction into two. He started making two essence pills in a minute by using both of his hands. If he had four arms, he could have been able to make four in a minute.

He thought he should at least make as many pills as possible and give them to the NPCs, so they don't lose their faith in him.

Chapter 383: Out of Essence

An hour passed while Zach continued making the essence pill while Ninia drifted to the heavens.

He thought Ninia would wake up by the time he finished making two hundred pills, and then they would continue the ritual, but that seemed impossible now.

"I guess they will have to do the work with 200 pills for now," he muttered.

He opened his menu to see how many pills he had made, but as his hands were busy, he was using voice commands to control it, which he had never done before.

'I saw a few players yelling skill names in the dungeon expedition. At first, I thought they were being lame and cringy by shouting the skill names, but it turned out they were activating the skill using the voice commands.'

Zach looked at his MP and noticed it was 10X times more than he had before he dual cultivated with Ninia.

'Dual cultivating with Ruli didn't do anything. Perhaps because my soul powers weren't awakened. But when I did it with Aria, my MP doubled. Same with Victoria. But it increased by 10 times when I did it with Ninia.

I have heard that witches and elves are prone to be the first choice in dual cultivation, but I had no idea that the benefit was this huge. Not going to lie, I would rather prefer to have sex all day with the girls and cultivate MP than cultivate MP by sitting in a lotus position or resting.

I think I dual cultivated for around five hours. So it's safe to say that my MP increased by 2x in one hour. Still, this will be my first time seeing more than 100,000 MP...'

Zach smiled slightly and muttered, "I still remember the days when having 1000 MP was a big deal for me. Most players still can't have more than 1000 MP even after reaching level 50."

He opened his inventory and saw he had already made 197 pills.

PHEW!

"I wanted to take a rest so badly. I haven't slept ever since I last met Aurora. I must let my body rest before I fight the main boss of the realm."

KNOCK~ KNOCK!

'Who is it? Layla? But she wouldn't knock. She has no need to knock as she can travel within the shadows and directly enter the room.'

"Who?"

"It's me, Victoria. And why are you in Ninia's room? And why is the door locked? What's going on?"

"Umm... wait for a minute, please."

Zach hurried and made three more essence pills with the remaining essence he had left.

"It's been a minute already," Victoria said from the other side of the door.

"Just a second." Zach made the last pill and let out a weary sigh. "Finally done."

He then opened the door and invited Victoria inside.

"What took you so long?" he asked with puffed cheeks. "And where is everyone? I came to check here, expecting Ninia to be out as well, but you replied instead. What are you doing here—"

Victoria stopped when she saw Ninia sleeping naked on the bed.

"..." She glanced at him and asked, "Did you r*pe her?"

"No, what the fuck? Why was that the first thing to come out of your mouth?"

"Because it's so sudden! I did expect this to happen one day, but I never expected for it to actually happen!"

"You said the same thing Aria said when she walked into Ninia giving me a blowjob," Zach sighed with a groan.

"Wait, what? When did that happen? And what happened while I was sleeping?" she asked with a confused and curious look on her face.

Zach told her everything that had happened after Victoria fell asleep.

"So much development! Why did it have to happen when I was sleeping?!"

"Forget about that already. I need to make more pills, but I am out of essence."

"Oh? Good luck, I guess?"

"I said I am out of essence."

"And...?" Victoria asked with a puzzled look on her face.

"I am inviting you to have sex with me, you dumbo."

"Who are you calling a dumbo! And if you wanted to have sex, then why didn't you just say so? Don't use your 'profound' words to make it sound like something really important," Victoria retorted and quoted 'profound' with her fingers.

"I thought that was obvious..." Zach scratched the back of his head and glanced at Victoria from the corner of his eyes before saying, "So... let's start?"

"No."

"I have to admit I did not expect that."

"I just woke up after a nice damn sleep. And I am not really in a mood to... you know..." she shrugged.

"Oh?" Zach raised his brow and uttered with a confident look on his face, "I can make you horny in no time."

"Is that so?" Victoria stripped herself and sat naked on the bed. "Go ahead and try it."

Zach locked the door to avoid the cliché and began eating Victoria's cake.

"I wonder if this is called a threesome?" Victoria asked curiously.

"Not really. Nina is not taking part in this, so I don't think it can be called a threesome."

Three hours later, Victoria had also passed out after receiving ten loads from Zach.

"Today is an awesome day."

Zach spent an hour creating another one hundred essence pills.

"Now I have three hundred pills. That's around 30% of the required amount, but I guess they will have to wait for tomorrow. It's already evening, so the NPCs must be waiting."

Zach looked at his shadow and uttered, "Urluk, return to me with ten lesser rank demons."

The second Zach said that, Urlurk emerged from Zach's shadow and knelt before him with ten lesser rank demons.

"How's the marking going?" Zach asked calmly. "Oh, my bad. I forgot you guys can't speak."

[It is going well... My Liege...] Urluk responded in a hoarse and broken voice.

"....!"

Chapter 384: Wholesome Night

"You can speak?!" Zach exclaimed after hearing Urluk speak for the first time.

[Since you named me, I evolved to a higher being. I can now freely converse with you, my liege,] Urluk responded calmly.

"I see. You should have let me know then."

[I had no idea I could speak either. I tried to speak just now, and I was able to. However, I believe the other demons you named haven't evolved to my level yet.]

"So they cannot speak?"

[Precisely,] Urluk nodded.

"So, how is the marking going again? How many players have been marked?" Zach asked curiously.

[Over sixty thousand players have been marked. But more remains. It will take a maximum of two more hours to complete your task, my liege.]

"Hmm..." Zach hummed in wonder and pondered for a few seconds before opening his menu and crafting two palm-sized boxes. He then filled the boxes with the essence pill and said, "Give one pill to one NPC."

Urluk took the box in his hands and asked, [What should I tell them if I run out of pills?]

"Tell them they will get them in the morning as breakfast," Zach chuckled softly.

[As you wish, my liege.]

"Take the lesser rank demons with you so the task can be completed faster. And once you are done, I want you to return to the garden and help the other undead to mark the players.

If all the task ends, return to my shadows and take a long rest. Tell the same to Cerberus, and if he doesn't listen, let me know."

Urluk nodded and uttered, [I know he will not listen.]

"Heh. You got that right. But hey, now that you can speak, you can annoy him inside my shadow," Zach scoffed softly.

[If I do that, he will complain to you.]

"Yeah..."

Urlurk returned to Zach's shadow and used the other shadows to travel within shadows to travel faster.

SIGH!

Zach let out a weary sigh and laid down on the bed between Victoria and Ninia. He had covered them under the blanket after they passed out so he could calm his little brother.

He closed his eyes and cleared his mind to get a nice nap, but his meditation was disturbed when both Ninia and Victoria turned to their sides and wrapped their arms and legs around Zach.

Under normal conditions, Zach could have been happier. It was a dream of all men, including Zach, to be able to sleep with two naked beauties at the same time.

'I think most men in the world have sex at least once. They experience normal sex, while some experience threesomes and the rare foursome. I don't think anyone would have had more than... umm... let's say five partners at the same time.

Unless it was some kind of orgy or a gang bang. I am talking about lovers. To be honest, I have heard quite a few cases where a person has intimate relations with multiple people. But harem is quite rare unless you are a big shot or a really powerful person.'

"I must really be a lucky person to have such lovers who love me in spite of who I am..."

Zach enjoyed being a sandwich between Ninia and Victoria, but he soon received a message from Aria.

[We are almost at the church.]

Zach sat up and equipped his clothes before leaving the room and waiting for them at the entrance.

A few minutes later, Noah, Elina, and Aria arrived. Elina and Noah seemed really tired, so Zach patted them and praised them for their hard work.

That was something his father did to him after his training every day, and he liked when he was praised.

'I don't think I have ever been a good son or a brother, but I want to be a good husband and perhaps a good father too,' Zach uttered inwardly.

"How many floors did you clear?" he asked calmly.

"Twenty-five..." Noah replied with a gloomy face.

"That's actually great! So why do you look so down?"

"I wanted to clear fifty floors..."

"You know, even a guild of thousands of members had a hard time clearing the first twenty-five floors for the first time. You two did a great job."

Zach turned to Aria and asked, "Everything okay?"

Aria nodded and said, "After clearing the first twenty-five floors, we took a detour while enjoying the beautiful sunset. Then we decided to eat at the restaurant."

"Oh, so you guys already ate?"

"Yeah," Elina answered. "I told Aria to call you and the others, but she said you must be busy doing something important."

"Yeah, I was busy."

Elina walked past Zach while rubbing her eyes and said, "I am sleepy now, so I will go to Ninia's room and sleep."

"Okay— wait."

Zach used telepathy on Aria and said, 'Ninia and Victoria are passed out in Ninia's room. Ask her to sleep in your room tonight.'

"Elina." Aria called out to Elina and said, "How about you sleep in my room tonight?"

"Why?" Elina asked with a confused look on her face.

"You know this is our last night here, so I wanted to plan things with Victoria and Ninia for the night. And you will be disturbed if the lights are on and we keep talking."

'I am making a Goddess lie. But technically, it's not a lie since we are going to discuss our plans later,' Zach uttered inwardly.

"Alright. I will sleep in your room."

"I will also go to sleep in my room," Noah said. "I bet my body is going to ache a lot tomorrow when I wake up."

Now, Zach and Aria were alone. They looked into each other's eyes with a smile on their faces.

"Looks like you had a lot of fun today," Aria remarked.

"Yeah."

She showed him the bag and said, "I brought food for you three."

"Let's go to the room then."

Zach took Aria to Ninia's chamber, and the moment Aria stepped inside, her lungs were filled with Zach's smell.

"Wow..." she sniffed. "This room reeks of your smell."

"I will bring the plates. You should wake the girls up."

Zach left the room to grab the plates, and when he returned a minute later, he saw Victoria and Ninia fighting.

Zach, Ninia, and Victoria ate dinner while Aria watched them from the bed. Ninia and Victoria were still naked and didn't bother to cover their bodies. After eating for a while, Zach began eating Aria, who was waiting for him. Ninia and Victoria ate dinner while Aria enjoyed Zach's sausages.

Once they were done eating, they also joined and spent the entire night with a wholesome foursome.

Chapter 385: Preparation for the Battle

When Zach opened his eyes, he was crushed by all the sides. Aria was crushing him from the right, Victoria from the left, and Ninia was on top of him with his snake still inside her dripping cave.

"This is heaven..." he muttered.

Then, he closed his eyes again and fell asleep. Yes, it was morning, and Zach humped the girls all night and just fell asleep.

He had extracted enough essence to make eight hundred more pills and placed them on the table beside the bed. He planned to make the pills right away, but he was too exhausted to even move his finger.

When he woke up, the girls weren't in bed or in the room.

"..." He slowly sat up and leaned on the wall to process his thoughts on what had happened before he fell asleep.

"Last night was amazing, dammit. I feel so fucking refreshed right now that I can go fight the realm boss right away!"

He got out of the bed and stretched his hands in the air. After warming up his body, he let out a yawn and covered his mouth so he wouldn't get lazy.

"Now, time to create the pills. I wonder if Aria would help me if I ask her."

He turned to the table, only to see there was no box.

"...did Aria take it?"

He wore his clothes and left Ninia's chamber in a hurry.

"Oh, Master Zach, you are awake!" Noah was the first one to greet him.

"Yeah." Zach glanced around and asked, "Where are the girls?"

"Umm... I don't know. Elina wasn't in her room either."

'Did Aria perhaps make the pills and go to distribute them to the NPCs? But there is no way she can make 800 pills in...'

Zach looked at the time and noticed 4 hours had passed since he had fallen asleep.

'Let's say she was able to make the pills at the same speed as me. That's 120 pills per hour. Even if she woke up soon after I fell asleep, she would have only made like 480 pills.'

Zach messaged Aria and Victoria, and they soon replied with: [We will be back in half an hour with breakfast.]

"I guess I will take a bath in the meantime." Zach patted Noah's head as he walked past him and made his way to the bathroom.

After taking a bath, he sat with Noah and waited for the girls to return.

'Come to think of it, the girls were moaning last night. I wonder if their moans were audible in the last room. I don't really care, but Noah is a kid.'

Zach turned to Noah and asked, "What level are you now?"

"I reached level 20 when I went to the dungeon yesterday, and Elina, I think, reached 24," Noah responded instantly.

"That's quite a jump, honestly. Reaching levels 20 and twenty by clearing just the first 25 floors of the dungeon is actually great. I didn't know they gave that much EXP," Zach mumbled.

"Umm..." Noah gulped down anxiously and said, "We cleared up to floor 50 yesterday."

"What?" Zach raised his brow in confusion and said, "But you guys said you only cleared the first twenty-five floors..."

"Well..." Noah averted his gaze and didn't finish his sentence.

"What is it? You have been acting kind of strange. Are you hiding something from me?" Zach asked with a little annoyed look on his face.

"You have been asleep for two days straight...."

"What?!" Zach exclaimed in astonishment and immediately opened his menu to check the date.

After confirming what Noah said, Zach let out a big sigh and muttered, "I have been asleep for 48 hours. No wonder I felt so refreshed."

"Yes," Aria replied from behind.

"Good... morning...?" Zach greeted the girls awkwardly.

"You have already taken a bath. That's good. Come, let's eat breakfast. We brought you many things," Victoria said with a gentle smile on her face.

"You must be hungry after sleeping straight for two days," Ninia added calmly.

Everyone ate breakfast, while Zach was even more confused than before.

"I don't understand..." he said while chewing. "I know I was exhausted, but to sleep for two days is... refreshing. Why didn't you girls wake me up?"

"We tried to, but you wouldn't open your eyes," Victoria responded. She then pointed her gaze at Ninia and said, "Ninia was freaking out. She thought you had entered into another slumber or something."

"I would think the same," Aria quipped.

"Let's just say I had a really nice sleep. I needed a rest after my body was fucked up inside and outside by the demonification. I should have slept instead of overworking myself," he sighed.

"That's not your fault, my Lord. It's because the NPCs made a ruckus that you have to stay away for the entire night," she said the last part with a flushed face after remembering the night of the holy ritual.

"Oh, yeah." Zach turned to Aria and asked, "I guess that's already taken care of?"

Aria nodded and said, "Yes. Although making that many essence pills took me a while, I took my sweet time making them. But some of the essences were wasted as it started losing its effect after some time."

"As long as it's done." Zach pondered for a few seconds before saying, "So now everything is taken care of, right? Or am I forgetting something?"

"I forgot to mention that Ninia ate quite a few pills while I was making them," Aria added.

"But its smell was so tempting that I couldn't—!" Ninia stopped after Zach pointed his gaze at Elina and Noah.

'Seriously, I went out of my way to ask them without involving any words, and these girls are just...'

"I will leave for my battle with the realm boss then."

"We will come," Victoria said.

"Yeah," Aria nodded.

"No. I want to go alone."

"Do you... not want our help...?" Victoria asked hesitantly.

"It's not like that. But... the boss is most probably an Angel. I don't want you girls to get involved in this stuff. Especially you, Aria. If the gods learn that you are still alive, they can try to pull some tricks."

"You are right. Maybe it's for the good that I can't use my divine powers. That way, they can't sense my presence."

Chapter 386: Bitter Sign

An hour passed after they all finished breakfast.

Noah and Elina were getting ready to go to the dungeon with Aria, while Victoria was planning to clear the tower to get some rare items.

Zach was sitting in one of the pews, and Ninia was sitting beside him while hugging his arm tightly.

"Uhh... Ninia. I need to leave soon."

"I know."

"..." Ninia had been like that ever since he told her that he was going to fight the realm boss alone.

"Are you ready to ascend together with me?" Zach asked calmly.

"But I am not level 100. Are you sure I can ascend?"

"Well, I know a way, but I haven't officially tried it yet. However, I am sure it will work, so don't worry." After a brief pause, he chuckled softly and quoted, "Have some 'faith' in me."

Ninia understood the reference right away, and her face flushed in response.

"I still find it hard to believe that we did something like that."

"Yeah, it's a fresh experience for me too. We crossed the boundaries and performed a forbidden ritual."

"But I don't regret it." Ninia smiled at Zach and said, "It was the best night of my life."

"Mine too."

Aria and Victoria arrived from their room and stood in front of Zach and Ninia.

"Would you two stop flirting?" Aria commented.

"Yeah. Now you are already lovers. No need to flirt like this."

"Relax, girls. This is her first time." Zach defended Ninia.

Aria and Victoria glanced at each other and then looked at Zach. They shook their heads and uttered, "Look, he has a new favorite girl."

"I don't."

Zach got up and stretched his hands in the air, or at least he pretended to. But after stretching his hands, he spanked Aria and Victoria, which made a loud noise.

PLAT!

"You..." Victoria placed her hands on her butt and turned around, while Aria's face flushed.

"What the..." Victoria made some distance from Aria and said, "Don't tell me you are into this stuff?"

She asked Aria.

"I am not!" Aria denied it instantly.

Zach showed his hands to Aria and Victoria and asked with a grin on his face, "Want another?"

"No, thank you!"

"Heh." he chuckled softly and said, "Aria, you are going to the dungeon with Noah and Elina, right?"

"Indeed."

"How many floors do you plan to clear? You have already had them clear the first fifty floors, and I personally don't think they can clear more," Zach stated.

"I think so too. But they said they want to clear the first fifty floors again for practice."

"Hmm..." After pondering for a second, he said, "Why don't you take Ninia with you? She will get some fighting experience. I am also curious to see how the level-up system works for the NPCs."

Aria turned to Ninia and asked, "Do you want to come?"

"I could, but what about my duty as a healer?"

"If I recall correctly, no players came to get healed yesterday, am I right?" Victoria asked Ninia.

"Yes," Ninia nodded.

"That means most of the players in this kingdom are now strong enough."

Victoria took out her old sword from her inventory and handed it to Ninia while saying, "Here. Take this. Your secondary class is already set as a healer, and you will have to choose your primary class before you reach level two."

Ninia glanced at Zach and meekly asked, "What class should I choose?"

"Whatever you are good at. But I personally think you shouldn't choose swordsman or bandit class. It requires stamina. If possible, try the ranger class," Zach calmly suggested.

"I will try."

"Wait a damn minute." Aria squinted her eyes at Zach and said, "Why are you replacing my character?"

"What?"

"I am a healer and a ranger. If Ninia chooses the same classes, my character will be replaced," Aria retorted.

Zach looked at Ninia's chest and then at Aria's.

"Hmm~" he hummed in amusement and said, "Ninia wins this round."

"Argh!" Aria groaned and rolled her eyes as she said, "I will give her my old weapon if she chooses the ranger class."

He kissed Aria on the lips and then kissed Victoria. After that, he turned to Ninia and saw her puckering her lips.

"So hot..."

He kissed Ninia on the lips, but Ninia suddenly wrapped her arms around his neck and began kissing him passionately.

"Hey!" Aria and Victoria pulled them apart and glared at Ninia.

"Why would you do that?" Ninia puffed her cheeks and said, "You two have been with him for such a long time. I am sure you have kissed him hundreds of thousands of times, so why don't you let me match that number?"

"It's against the rules!" Aria and Victoria said in unison.

"Rules?" - Ninia.

"Rules?- Zach.

Both Zach and Ninia were confused as to what Aria and Victoria were talking about.

Aria shrugged her shoulders and said, "Aurora made rules about harem, and we have to follow them."

"Of course..." Zach chuckled awkwardly.

Ninia squirmed a little and meekly asked, "Do you think Lady Aurora will accept me?"

"Don't worry." - said Aria.

"Yeah." - said Victoria.

They shot a glance at Zach and uttered, "I am sure Aurora had already seen this coming from miles away."

"I bet," Victoria seconded.

"I am getting ganged up on by the girls. I better leave!"

Zach left after kissing the girls for the last time.

He ascended to the last realm of the first maid realm and reached the secret location on the map.

"After I reached level 100, many things got unlocked. I have got extra maps too, so I know where exactly I will find the den of the Realm boss. But first..."

Zach opened the portal to Aria's domain and walked inside.

"I want to see Aurora."

Zach reached the throne but noticed Aurora was sleeping.

[Master, you are here,] Milo greeted Zach.

"Hey Milo, when did Aurora fall asleep?"

[An hour ago,] Milo responded.

"Oh..."

[Should I wake her up?]

"Oh, no. Let her sleep. I came here to see her. Let me know when she wakes up."

[As you wish, Master.]

Zach turned around and walked away, but he was stopped by Milo.

[Master.]

"Hmm?"

[Are you okay?]

"Of course, I am okay," Zach responded with a wry smile.

[You look like you are in pain...]

Zach bit his lips and smiled bitterly at Milo before saying, "What are you talking about? I had an amazing night of my life."

After saying that, he left to fight the Realm boss.

Chapter 387: Unlimited and Infinite

After exiting Aria's domain, Zach made his way to the secret location by riding on Cerberus.

[My liege, are you sure this is the place?] Cerberus asked curiously.

"Yeah. All the secret spots on the map have been marked, and this is the only place which is not marked."

[But I don't see anything here. It's a cliff.]

"Not on the map. I have to find a way to reveal... hmm..." Zach pondered for a few seconds and said, "Cerberus, you can fly, right?"

[I Have wings, so yes.]

"Can you fly with me on top of you?"

[As long as you don't fall.]

"Then start flying," Zach ordered.

[To where?]

"Just fly forward. I will let you know."

FLAP~ FLAP!

Cerberus flew forward and kept flying.

"You can go faster."

[Okay.]

A few seconds after Cerberus picked up speed, Zach fell down.

[My Liege!]

"Calm down! I jumped on purpose."

Zach kept falling, but he eventually stopped mid-air for some reason.

"So I was correct. This place is invisible..."

Chapter 388: Surprise Plan

Zach tried his best to remember the slogan he had deciphered after rearranging the words in the celestial language.

"Thou who dares to enter, must look upon the gods; for thou who challenge the monster inside, must only be saved by the god's grace."

The door shined brightly, and Zach stepped back and waited for the door to open, but it suddenly stopped shining.

"..."

'Did I get the slogan wrong? I think I said the same thing I said at that time.'

Zach once again placed his hand on the door and uttered, "Thou who dares to enter inside, must look upon the gods and... no."

SIGH!

"Thou who dares to enter, must look upon the gods; for thou who challenge the monster inside, must only be saved with the help of god's grace."

The door slammed open, and the ground beneath Zach's feet moved and pushed him into the room.

THUD!

Zach looked back to see the door had disappeared. He glanced around and muttered, "Well, at least this looks like a final boss room. So I should expect one... hopefully..."

Zach walked further in and yelled, "Come out to play! I am bored!"

It was indeed a throne room, but not like how one would expect. It had a throne in the middle of the chamber with nothing else inside or around except the dozens of pillars holding the structure.

Zach walked to the throne, which was facing its back to him, hoping someone would be sitting on it, but it was empty.

"Well, do it."

Zach sat on the throne in a relaxed manner and waited for the boss to appear.

'This better not be another puzzle room instead of a boss chamber, or I will be so pissed that I don't know what I will do.'

A few minutes later, Zach heard footsteps from the far end of the chamber, but he didn't bother to look. Seconds later, he heard footsteps from the opposite side, then from the back, and ultimately from the front.

"Stop these petty games and show yourself, you coward."

The footsteps walked to the closest pillar and stopped behind it.

"So you are a shy coward?" Zach scoffed arrogantly.

The next second, a male angel walked out of the pillar with his wings wide open and chest puffed.

"It's a surprise that a mortal was able to make—"

"You are the same dipshit as that day who talked about food chains, am I right?" Zach interrupted the angel and asked, "What's your name?"

"Why would I tell my name to a mere mortal? Know your place, you foolish—"

"Shut the fuck up! You are a dog of gods. You are even lower than me. You should know your place. Oh, right!" Zach clapped his hands and said, "Why don't you lick my shoes? And while you are at it, massage my legs too."

"You—!" The angel flapped his wings and flew in the air before shooting magic attacks at Zach.

However, Zach didn't move an inch. He absorbed all the magic with the help of his gloves and said, "Try something else. I am not in a damn circus, you clown!"

The angel raised his hands and conjured a glowing ball resembling the sun.

"...."

Zach knew it wasn't the same entity who had attacked his family on that tragic day, but he couldn't help but recall the events again.

Without caring for what the angel was about to do, Zach asked, "Do you know a god named Ikaris? He calls himself the sun god."

"Die you, lowly—!"

FWIP!

Zach whistled, and Cerberus jumped out of his shadow.

[As we planned, eh, my liege!]

Cerberus attacked the angel and pinned him down to the ground. The angel tried to break free but to no avail.

"Don't struggle. Cerberus alone can defeat you even without using all of his power," Zach stated. He then leaned back on the throne and sat sideways so he could spread and stretch his legs on the hand rest.

"Who are you?!" the angel shouted.

"Answer my question. Do you know a god named Ikaris?"

"I might have heard his name. He is only of the heavenly Gods; different from the Gods I serve," the angel replied instantly.

"Where can I find him?"

"I don't know!"

After a brief silence, Zach opened his mouth to ask, "Do you know someone named Deus?"

"Never heard of him."

"Is that so?" Zach clapped his hands and said, "Do your thing, Cerberus."

[With pleasure, my liege.]

"What are you— no! Arrrrghhh!"

Cerberus buried his fangs into the angel's hand and ripped it out of his body as the blood spritzed on the ground.

"Hey, hey. Don't get too excited. We must keep him alive for the interrogation," Zach scoffed. "But then again, he is useless. He doesn't know anything."

Zach got up from the throne and crushed the angel's leg with his feet.

"If you tell me something important, I will let you live."

"The Gods! They don't care what happens in this world! They are not punishing the humans— it's just for timepass! They are planning for something big!" the angel uttered in a broken voice.

"Something big?" Zach raised his brow with an amused expression on his face and asked, "And what is that?"

"I don't know!"

"Cerberus, your turn," Zach chuckled.

Cerberus plucked out the angel's other hand and said, [My liege, I always envied the wings of gods and angels. Why do they look so pretty? While mine doesn't even appeal to anyone?]

"I have absolutely no idea. But you should ask the angel. He should know it."

Cerberus began plucking out the angel's wings with his claws before asking, [Answer me, angel.]

"Stop! No!"

Zach crushed the other leg of the angel with a sinister smile on his face.

"Answer him, you shit!"

"That's because they are monsters! All the monsters and demons have to look ugly! They are evil! They are malice! Only the Gods and divines are allowed to look beautiful!" the angel yelled at the top of his lungs.

"Oh, no. Cerberus, he called you ugly."

Chapter 390 Underwhelming Fight

"Say, Cerberus. I am bored. Do something to entertain me," Zach ordered Cerberus.

[Like?]

"Sing me a song."

[My apologies, but I don't know how to do that.]

"Hmm... then how about dancing?"

[I don't think I can dance, my liege.]

"Hmm~" Zach hummed in amusement as he looked at the half-dead angel. "Why don't you make him dance?"

[My liege, one needs hands and legs to dance, and he has neither of that.]

"True. How about singing?"

[His tongue should no longer work because of the poison,] Cerberus responded calmly.

"But he can scream, right?" Zach asked with a smirk on his face.

[Of course. As long as he is alive,] Cerberus nodded.

"How long do you think he will stay alive before he dies completely?"

Cerberus inspected the angel's body and said, [I would say about twenty minutes.]

"Twenty minutes?! I don't have that much free time. Do something entertaining in the meantime."

Cerberus pondered for a while and uttered, [As you wish, my liege.]

Cerberus opened his dragon mouth and spat fire at the angel.

"Argh!"

The angel's body slowly burned as he screamed, while Cerberus and Zach watched the show with amused expressions on their faces.

The angel's body twitched in every way. He rolled on the floor, but the fire didn't go out.

"Heh!" Zach snickered and uttered, "Angels live in the heavens, demons live in hell. Yet, an angel is on fire now, or should I say... experiencing a living hell?"

Now that makes me wonder, if humans and their souls go to heaven or hell after death, where does the angel's soul go after death? If they return to heaven, doesn't that mean they can't die?

However, if I remember correctly, mother told me that when divine entities such as angels and gods die, they get mixed with the universe and provide energy from there. I don't know if that's true or not, but if mother said it, then it's obviously true."

Amid the pain and unbearable suffering, the angel heard everything. He was curious about Zach's mother— although Zach was talking about Erza, the angel knew nothing.

The angel's skin had burned, and his flesh began to roast as the smell spread in the chamber.

"Ew! It stinks!"

[I was lowkey expecting to eat him, but since you said it stinks, I shall stop myself.] Cerberus stated.

'Crap. Now he is sulking. Let's cheer him up,' Zach uttered inwardly.

"Say Cerberus, this angel said that the demons and monsters are supposed to be ugly, and only angels and divines are allowed to be beautiful. However, who looks the most ugly in this chamber?"

Zach circled around the throne and climbed on top of it. No, he didn't sit on the seat; he sat on top of the slat while placing his feet on the seat.

[This angel, of course,] Cerberus responded while looking at the dying angel.

"Correct answer! You score 69 points!"

The angel eventually stopped screaming as he got closer and closer to death's door. He didn't have the strength or sense to do anything.

A few minutes later, Cerberus turned to Zach and asked, [My liege, once this angel dies, who would be the most beautiful in this room?]

'What the—! That's a trick question, isn't it? Damn, Cerberus is getting sassy. He is learning from me, huh? Well, a disciple can't defeat their master.'

"That would be you, Cerberus," Zach replied in a calm voice.

[What about you, then?]

"I am, of course, handsome rather than beautiful."

While Cerberus and Zach were having a buddy talk, the angel was taking his last breaths. And a few seconds later, the angel died.

[Congratulations! You have defeated the realm boss!]

"Heh!"

[Congratulations! You have gained the title- Supreme Warrior!]

"That's lame."

[Congratulations! You have unlocked a secret location on the map- Angel's Castle!]

"I should have gotten this sooner."

[Congratulations! The Angel's Castle now belongs to you!]

"Ehh... I don't really need it. What will I do with this place anyway? I am going to ascend to the higher realm now. Not to mention, I have my own church and a nun," Zach groaned.

[Congratulations! You have received a reward for defeating the realm boss!]

"I doubt it's going to be something useful," Zach sighed.

[Congratulations! You have acquired a piece of '????' as a reward!]

"Oh!" Zach exclaimed in amusement. "But they have to stop congratulating me every time."

Zach opened his inventory and mixed all the four pieces of '????'

"It better be something useful, or I will be pissed. I think I have said this many times already, but this will be the last time since I have acquired all the pieces!"

Zach clicked on 'craft' and waited for it to process.

"..." He was feeling the same as one would feel while checking the results of the exams online.

[Congratulations! You have obtained a ring!]

"...." Zach raised his brow and sighed in disbelief as he muttered, "Why am I even surprised? I should have expected this."

Zach opened his inventory and selected the ring to drop it, but he gazed at the description and decided to keep it.

'Spatial ring.'

"Well, this could be useful. Let's test and review it later."

SIGH!

"That fight was seriously underwhelming. What do you say, Cerberus?"

[I always ask you to rest and take it easy, my liege. You don't have to do anything. You can spend your time with the ladies, while I clear this game for you,] Cerberus asserted with a confident face.

"That sounds tempting, but sadly I can't do that. I am Zagreus Astaroth, son of Deus and the demon queen Lilith. I was born as a key to annihilation. Gods? Angels? Heavens? Divines?

None of that matters. If my existence is to end the era of gods, then I must live by it and do what I was born for. I... will eliminate everything that stands in my path! I will be at the top!"

Zach opened his menu and clicked on the name section. Since the players were allowed to have a nickname instead of showing their player or real name to everyone, Zach decided to set his nickname too.

He inserted the words and added a nickname.

"Not going to lie... it kind of looks edgy..."

[Hmm?]

"I set my nickname."

[What is it?]

"It's actually embarrassing to say it out loud, so I will say it only once." After a brief pause, Zach uttered, "It's 'Overlord'."
