Ember glowered at the unconscious Cathy with an unholy grin on her lips.

"I thought she would be tougher after enduring such a long time as a stuntperson. Who would have known how easy it is to knock her out?"

"What would you like me to do now, Miss Shaw?" The thugs who had kidnapped Cathy whispered.

"Send her to Room 1102. Dick will be there soon."

"Yes, Ma'am."

Immediately, the thugs picked Cathy up to carry her to the room. However, when they were carrying her to the other room, a piece of jade ornament fell out of her pockets.

The jade ornament glittered like a star as it lay on the carpet, catching Ember's eye.

She recalled hearing Chris accidentally telling her that the jade ornament was instrumental in her

She thought of taking the jade ornament with her when she left the slums, but she was not able to find it.

She did not expect Chris to give Cathy the fool such a precious ornament.

Did you think you could find your mother, Cathy? Dream on!

An international conference was happening in the study room.

Dick thought that although he was old, he would be useful that way.

Sitting in his chair at the top of the table, Adrian frowned as he listened to a blonde woman explaining the new business strategy in French.

The conference carried a stern atmosphere even though it was conducted online, so much so that it was nearly suffocating.

His yell silenced the conference call immediately, and the people on the other end of the

It would be more than half an hour since Cathy was snatched off the streets. Hence, Adrian did not dare to say whether she was safe.

Immediately after the door to the hotel room was flung open, a metallic stench of blood spilled out of the room.

As Adrian ambled into the room, the simmering scent of blood began to boil over.

When he finally arrived at the bed, he had to steady himself before touching her hand but could not stop himself from trembling. "Cathy..."

That was the first time he called her name, and he had no idea that it would be in this scenario.
