Chapter 164 Searching for Molly

The office was hushed. Conversations turned to a standstill.

Cathy set her vacant stare at him. Her brows were drawn together.

Не...

Did he mean... She's more important than Molly to him?

"We were not in a relationship. It was only because I was drunk, and we had sex."

Sitting on the sofa, the man ate the meal gracefully with a pair of chopsticks in his hand, "Molly for me in the hospital with her two children."

Listening to the man's gruff voice, Cathy clenched her fists involuntarily.

Adrian glanced at her stolidly, "My reaction in that instant was more shock than surprise."

"At that time, my second brother called and told me he had found her, and that she was waiting

The man said while taking a sip of the soup, "Cathy, I hope you can understand that Molly has

It was overwhelming for her to hear him say that.

She opened her mouth as if she wanted to say something, but nothing came out.

"But you are."

"Indeed, Molly is important to me. Without her, I wouldn't have my two lovely sons now."

"If she hadn't died, I would have married her and taken care of her."

never been my lover, and I never had feelings for her."

After speaking, he placed the bowl down, "But there was no 'if'."

"You don't have to doubt my feelings for you because of what other people say, okay?"

He sounded passionate yet sincere.

"Then why did you meet Molly alone without Arius, Abner, and me..."

"If I'm so important to you just as you confessed..."

It was also due to the fact that he didn't bring her along.

It wasn't just because of Rory and Karen's false information but...

And even his past.

Adrian forced a wry smile.

exhausted because of me."

Cathy was speechless.

Cathy was charmed.

Not only did he not take her along, but he did not tell her about it as well.

After a long while, she bit her lip, "There is one more thing I want to know..."

He turned around and knock Cathy's head with his hand, "Did you forget something?"

The man coughed sarcastically, with a hint of mockery in his voice, "The night before, you were

But...

She wanted to meet Molly.

"Why do you want to find her?"

The woman frowned, "What's the matter?"

The memory of their all-night sex flooded her mind instantly.

The woman's face turned stinging red in sudden realization!

She fell into a drowsy sleep and then woke up; it was already time for lunch.

Adrian shrugged upon seeing her dazed in her flashbacks, "I saw that you were sleeping so

When he'd finally let go of her, it was already three or four in the morning.

That night... she was indeed shagged-out by him. She was emptied.

"If this time you couldn't make it, there will be plenty of opportunities."

However, he didn't expect his wife would be misled by trickery.

Cathy bit her lip. I didn't expect this incident would take an unexpected turn...

She breathed a sigh of relief, and pulled his sleeve in embarrassment, "I'm sorry."

"I thought we have a lifetime together. You will have the time and chance to know about Molly."

Yet she... misunderstood him and blamed him because of hearsay.

Adrian curled his lips, "Actually, before yesterday's incident, they hadn't mentioned Molly for

"And you managed to incite them to mention Molly again."

"Otherwise, why would they use a dead person to stir up a storm?"

"Do you mean... that Molly could still be alive?"

"I even doubted if Molly was still alive, but they didn't want me to find her."

Molly's family had already been taken care of, and asked me not to interfere."

His words struck a chord in Cathy's mind.

After eating the last bit of rice, Adrian put down his chopsticks, "Why bother to be so secretive if

"This shows that they realized that apart from Molly, they can't find anything that could upset

Cathy furrowed, "Then what if...she is really alive?"

The man's voice was cold and low, "She never came back to see Arius and Abner."

"I don't care if she had any reason. She shouldn't avoid me and ignore the children no matter

"Why should I look for a woman who abandoned her own blood and flesh? Her own children?"

She wanted to justify for Molly. She felt like explaining to him that Molly wasn't a bad mom and

Moreover, Molly would be her rival in love if she was found. Not only she would lose Arius and Cathy unconsciously squeezed her hands together.

For some reason, she clamored at Adrian's words.

Abner's love as a mother, but she would also lose Adrian.

She was not Molly herself.

But she couldn't help but feel ridiculous when she realized the urge for explanation.

For some reason, she felt very strongly about searching for her.

To find her.

She had this inkling...

She and Molly were connected. Somehow.

To ask her why did she abandon Arius and Abner?

Cathy clutched her head in confusion.

There was an urge in her that was asking her to look for that woman.

After a long while, she raised her head and looked at him with bright eyes, "I want to find Molly, Adrian."

Adrian, who was cleaning up the table and chopsticks was stunned, upon hearing that.

"I don't know."

The woman looked away in frustration, "But... I just want to find her."
