Chapter 33 I Will Never Take This Risk

"In that case, you better make Willow Xenos kneel and apologize too."

Cathy pouted her lips, "And everyone who had looked down on me in the past, the director, screenwriter, producer, all of them must kneel before me."

Adrian was quite surprised by what Cathy had to say.

He squinted his eyes and laughed, "Done."

Cathy then turned to him, "Do you need a list of names?"

With a smile, the man said, "It'll be handy."

"But I could find out who they are even without one."

Is this man serious?

Cathy stayed quiet.

She sighed, "I'm just joking."

Following that, she wound down the window to let fresh air into the car.

The cool air was as refreshing as they come. She could feel herself revitalized, "I was pretty badass when I rejected Mr. Hanson earlier. I told him that I'll take care of myself without your influence."

"I find it quite embarrassing if I needed your presence to make others trust me."

Adrian stared at her face silently.

While Cathy was not afraid to lock eyes with him.

Moments later, he turned to face the road, "I will be there, whenever you need me."

Does that mean he's agreed to it?

She continued with smiling eyes, "I will never hold back if I ever need your help."

His actions stunned Cathy.

While he did not feel anything odd about what he was doing, he continued rubbing her head before taking it back and resting his head on it.

She could not help but steal a few glances at him.

Cathy could feel her soul leaving her shell.

Cathy was not an exception.

She could not ignore the comments and face them calmly.

While she was entranced, her phone went off and quickly brought her back to reality.

"The director just told me that Mr. Hanson has agreed to kick you out of the studio."

The words 'Willow Xenos' appeared across the screen. Cathy drew a deep breath and answered the call, not forgetting to press the record button.
