Chapter 83 Please Shut Up

Cathy was a little flustered.

Chris had reminded her that these skills were only to be used during emergencies, and she should not let anyone know about them when he taught her these.

The reason was the same: The birthmark on her lower back will cause her trouble.

But there were only Xavier and her at the set just now. If she hadn't done anything, Xavier would have bullied her.

Not only did he see it, he also asked her where she had learned these self-defense skills from...

She did not expect Flynn to witness all of this.

The woman coughed awkwardly. "You've mistaken."

After that, she hurriedly changed the subject. "Mr. Jasper the Superstar, why are you at our shooting scene entrance so early?"

"For the same reason as you."

Flynn did not continue to probe Cathy. "I arrived at the scene too early. I was bored because there wasn't anyone. So, I wandered around."

He took a deep breath of his cigarette. "I did not expect to witness such a big secret from walking around."

"No wonder I've been feeling that Xavier's acting skills has declined." "Now that I think about it, he has been in constant trouble while filming ever since he announced

He had overheard her conversation with Xavier.

Cathy pursed her lips embarrassedly. "Mr. Jasper the Superstar, have you eaten yet? Let me buy

Flynn smiled. "Sure."

Because the restaurant was located in front of the shooting set, the boss of the restaurant was used to having celebrities come to eat at his restaurant.

When he saw Flynn, he extended his warm welcome and provided them with a small private room

He closed the door of the private room. Cathy took a deep breath and put the food in front of Flynn. "Mr. Jasper."

on the second floor. "Mr. Jasper is very popular. It is best to be more cautious."

Cathy had invited him for breakfast because she was afraid that they would meet another eavesdropper on the set.

She took a deep breath and looked at Flynn with a smile. "I will keep your secret well!"

Cathy: "..."

"However."

"What?"

"Yes."

"No, I don't think so."

She coughed lightly. "I already have two sons."

"It is what you have seen."

Flynn has fans everywhere.

"What the hell!"

When Cathy arrived at the set once more, the doctor who was treating Xavier had just left. He leaned weakly against the chair as he glared at Cathy viciously.

Although Xavier had planned to agitate Cathy several times during the shoot, Cathy successfully avoided them. After that, he was discovered by the chief director and he was then reprimanded.

"Why did he have to have breakfast with mommy?"

Abner was confused. "Arius, aren't you a hacker?"

Arius calmly answered the cold man. "Daddy, don't blame me for not reminding you." "Mommy texted me. She said she was going to get some groceries."

He paused. "Is she in the mall near the studio?"

She went to a public place like the fresh market and was spotted by Flynn's fanatical fans...

Arius finally sighed in relief when he heard the beeping sound on the other end of the phone. His

Arius picked up a glass of water reluctantly and took a sip. "Abner, do me a favor."

Both of them went to a nearby restaurant.

"You're not someone who would expose other's private matters, would you?"

She did not want to have any further scandals with Xavier. Flynn glanced at her nonchalantly. "Don't forget that you have my secrets too."

Cathy hesitated. Then she remembered that she had met Flynn's adopted daughter before...

Flynn threw her a short glance. "I have a question for you."

She coughed lightly and turned her face away. "Can I not answer this question?" If she said that she had never given birth before, she would feel sorry for her lost child.

"Have you ever had a child?"

The woman finally felt relieved.

Flynn lowered his head and stirred his porridge lightly. "Ariel wishes for you to be her mother." With that said, the man raised his head to look at her. "Are you interested?"

But if she said yes, she would have to explain this to a stranger.

Flynn sighed lightly. He did not continue the topic anymore.

After both of them finished breakfast, they went back to the shooting set.

work. After all, they were going to shoot a movie together in the future. But most of them were demeaning Cathy.

In the Boltons family villa, Abner read those ugly messages. He almost dropped his phone. "Arius, what should I do?"

After he finished speaking, he sent the folder to Adrian's email.

"She probably doesn't know yet that she is being scolded online." Adrian's voice stiffened slightly.

"Yes." "Tell her not to wander around. I'm going there for her right away!"

The man hung up the call immediately after that.

Abner was confused as he stood aside to watch. "Arius, what are you doing?"

Arius glanced at him and replied calmly. "I'm only five years old."

"But you are older than me. To me, you are old!"

"Arius, you are amazing! Go on!"

When Abner heard his brother asking him for a favor, he instantly became excited. His eyes
