Chapter 96 What Else Did I Say?

Karen fell face down onto the floor. She gritted her teeth in pain and stood up. "Yoel, why don't you go to hell?"

"If I do, who would get to see your face when you fall?"

Yoel smirked calmly and leaned against the stair railings. "Mr. Apollo would like to go home. He asked me to look for you to send him back."

"Otherwise, why would I want to see you?"

Karen pursed her lips and was certain that he did not hear her phone conversation with Lisabeth. Then, she breathed a sigh of relief before walking away from him furiously.

"Ms. Davies."

Yoel looked at her walking away and said indifferently, "Adrian is fond of Cathy."

Karen paused her step.

She turned around and glared at him. "Why are you telling me this?"

"I just want you to be clear."

Yoel stretched lazily and said, "When Adrian's brother brought you to the Bolton family, he had intended for the family to adopt you as a daughter."

"No one thinks of you as Adrian's fiancée or plan to engage you with him. At the most, you are Adrian's adoptive sister. Therefore, don't make assumptions."

"He never liked you. Even though you helped him find Arius and Abner years ago, it does not change how he feels about you."

"If you dare to do anything to Cathy, I believe he would not hesitate to choose his beloved wife over a sister he never liked."

"Once that happens, not even Andy, his brother, can help you."

Karen's face turned pale.

In the next moment, she pushed aside her panic and turned to Yoel with a smile. "What do you mean?"

"Cathy is my sister-in-law. I've always wanted to befriend her. Why would I want to harm her?"

"Furthermore..."

Karen glanced at him indifferently. "You said it yourself that I am just an adopted daughter of the Bolton family. Why would I dare to do anything to Adrian's wife?"

After that, she turned around and walked away gracefully.

Yoel stood at his spot and coldly watched her walk away.

Meanwhile, Apollo had a good time chatting with Cathy in her room. When he saw Karen come in, he smiled and said, "Alright, that's all for today. It's quite late, so you should get some rest."

"Okay."

Then, Apollo smiled and said, "I haven't introduced her to you yet."

"This is Karen Davies. Adrian's elder brother, Andy, brought her back as an adoptive sister. She has been staying with the Bolton family for ten years, so she is almost like a daughter to me!"

After saying that, he turned to Karen. "Karen, why don't you come here to greet your sister-inlaw?"

A flash of hatred appeared in Karen's eyes.

However, it was almost too brief to be noticed.

Then, Karen looked at Cathy warmly and said, "Cathy, nice to meet you."

"I had heard from Arius and Abner that Adrian married a beautiful woman. It made me wonder how beautiful could this woman be."

Her long lashes fluttered as she regarded Cathy for a moment. "I didn't expect you to look this beautiful. Your beauty is worthy of Adrian."

It was not the first time someone praised Cathy for her beauty. However, Karen's compliment made Cathy uncomfortable.

Despite the discomfort, Cathy still smiled politely and said, "It's nice to meet you too."

"Adrian frequently talks about you."

Karen's eyes brightened at Cathy's words.

She pouted her lips and said, "Has Adrian mentioned me to you?"

Cathy was stunned for a moment. "Yes... Yes, he did."

In actuality, neither Adrian, Arius, nor Abner had ever mentioned that the Bolton family had an adopted daughter.

If not for Apollo, Cathy would never have known that such a person existed.

She was just being polite when she said that Adrian talks about Karen.

She didn't expect Karen to take it seriously.

Apollo seemed to notice Cathy's awkwardness. He frowned slightly and said, "Let's chat some other time. We will be seeing each other often since we are a family."

"It's getting late. Karen and I should be going."

Karen pursed her lips and hesitated for a moment. Then, she took a deep breath and pretended to be calm as she looked at Cathy's face. "I knew it. Adrian still cares about me."

"Cathy, let's chat another time!"

With that, she turned around and helped Apollo out of the ward.

Cathy leaned against the bed and felt confused as she watched Apollo and Karen leave.

What is wrong with Adrian...

I have been living with him for more than a month, but he still hasn't formally introduced me to his family. He hardly ever mentioned them.

But after what happened today... He let Master Apollo visit me?

Cathy could not understand what he was thinking.

"Don't let yourself be bothered by what Karen said."

While Cathy was in a daze, Yoel suddenly brought dinner to Cathy. "Don't listen to her nonsense. Adrian never treated her as his fiancée."

Cathy's hands shook as she accepted the tray.

"She was Adrian's fiancée?"

No wonder Karen was behaving strangely. She even emphasized that Adrian cares about her.

"She never was!"

Yoel sat on a chair by the bed, "It is only what other people said. Adrian and Karen were never engaged. Furthermore, Adrian was never interested in her."

Cathy looked down at the food and said in a dejected tone, "Is that so?"

She could not remember much about what happened before she fainted. She could only remember Adrian saying that they would not divorce.

It made her even more confused.

If me giving birth before bothers him, why won't he divorce me?

If he doesn't mind, why... Why did he make me face his previous fiancée upon regaining consciousness?

Is he reminding me that other women want him too?

Cathy gripped her fork tightly as she thought about this.

After a while, she put down her fork and said, "I'm not hungry."

Yoel put a hand to his forehead in frustration. "Can you not overthink?"

"Adrian only has you in his heart."

"You must not let others affect you."

Cathy looked at Yoel and asked, "Since he had a fiancée, why did he marry me?"

Yoel was rendered speechless.

He realized that he had said something wrong.

Yoel had planned to follow Karen to Cathy's room. However, he kept being stopped by nurses on the way. Therefore, it took him some time to get here.

By the time he arrived, Karen had already left.

His heart sank when he caught Karen's delighted expression.

He was worried that Karen had said something bad to Cathy. Thus, he rushed in to comfort her.

However, he had messed things up instead...

If Adrian finds out that I caused Cathy to misunderstand and made her too sad to eat...

With this thought in mind, Yoel took a deep breath and said, "Cathy, don't let what Karen said bother you."

"Let me tell you a secret."

"Adrian fell in love with you at first sight. After meeting you for the first time, he told me you are the only one he wants. He has fallen head over heels for you. He loves you so much that he would go to the ends of the earth for you."

"He also said...."

"What else did I say?"

Suddenly, a low male voice came from the door.
