His gaze was domineering and unyielding as usual.

Cathy looked at him and felt her heart quiver. She pursed her lips and said, "I just thought that a man of your position..."

A man of his position would care about this.

Adrian tightened his grip on her chin, causing Cathy to frown in pain.

would be too exhausting to keep bringing up someone's past."

Cathy looked at him with a surprised expression.

"I don't mind your past and won't look into it."

She instinctively held his hand and said, "Thank you..."

"Why are you thanking me?"

Adrian could not help smiling as he looked at the blush on her cheeks. He quickly pulled her into

"Even if someone tries to threaten you, you have no reason to be afraid."

Adrian hugged her soft figure and said unhappily, "To be honest, I still minded a little."

The air in the room turned warm and sensual.

"But I have changed my mind."

"I have been hurt many times about this matter. Therefore, a child is not enough."

He is trying to take advantage of this matter.

you already have Arius and Abner. If you have more children..."

Cathy did not know how to reply.

Cathy was rendered speechless.

"I would love a lively home."

Adrian's eyes darkened.

Then, the door opened.

"Therefore, I..."

Adrian frowned and knocked her head lightly. "Silly, when did you learn to talk back like this?"

Cathy rubbed her head and pouted. "You said it yourself that you like lively places..."

In the next moment, he had his hand on her neck and was kissing her.

Until...

"Dr. Bailey, why are you crouching by the door?"

She seemed unusually alluring with her lips pouted.

Outside the room, a new nurse was shocked to see Yoel crouching by the door. "It's 10 p.m. Why

Yoel got up from the floor and glared at the nurse. "Why does it have to do with you? Are you my mother?"

The nurse was stunned by his response and pursed her lips before walking away.

Adrian stood at the door with a stern expression as he glared at Yoel. "I never took you as an eavesdropper."

"Consider this from my position. One of you is my close friend of many years, while the other is my new patient. If the both of you fought, I would be in huge trouble."

Yoel cleared his throat and said, "I was worried the both of you would start fighting."

He dragged Yoel back and said, "I need you to prepare for her discharge." Yoel frowned and looked at Adrian. "Are you sure you want to discharge her this late at night?"

Adrian looked at him with a chilling gaze. "I would like to be intimate with my wife tonight, but

"Why don't you let her stay the night? She can be discharged tomorrow."

What the heck? I am still single. Does he have no consideration for my feelings?

She had heard Adrian and Yoel's conversation.

Adrian pulled her into his embrace. "I don't like hospitals."

"I prefer not to stay here if we don't have to." Years ago, Arius and Abner's mother was sleeping in a hospital when a fire...

At the time, he had heard from Andy that the woman he had slept with had given birth to two

Therefore, he had canceled all his plans and took a flight overseas to search for her.

However, he arrived at the hospital only to see it engulfed in a sea of flames...

Adrian closed his eyes. Memories of that great fire appeared before his eyes.

After Yoel left, Cathy approached Adrian and said, "Adrian, are we going home tonight?"

"Sure."

From then on, he was against staying in hospitals.

She looked at the empty folder and threw the mouse to the floor.

Ember furiously swept everything off the table.

"Or will it scare Cathy into leaving him?"

What kind of spells did this witch put on him?

How can this be?

Once Ember had smashed everything, Dorian slowly lit a cigarette and said, "Will smashing everything make Adrian care about you?"

Ember bit her lower lip and turned to Dorian. She looked on the verge of tears. "Dad!" "Please don't say something like that! I am at my wits' end because of Cathy!"

"Without those photos and videos, we have nothing against Cathy! We have no way to control her

Now, everything is gone... Dorian frowned and took a deep drawl of the cigarette. "Don't you still have Xavier Carter?"

Suddenly, she slapped her forehead.

I can still make use of Xavier!

"A husband and wife should have an equal relationship." "If I minded about your past, you should do the same too. Only then would it be equal." "One should fully appreciate a person in the present and not keep looking at the person's past. It

Those were the gentlest words she had ever heard from him. Adrian caressed Cathy's dewy lips with his thumb and announced firmly,

"However, your future belongs to me alone." His deep voice made her heart skip a beat. Then, warmth surged inside her heart.

"No one can hurt you as long as I am alive." Cathy rested her head against his chest and said softly, "Okay."

Cathy stiffened and quickly tried to get out of his embrace. However, Adrian tightened his embrace the moment she began to struggle. He continued to hug her and said, "Initially, I wish for you to give me a child."

"Since you like lively places, I should bring you with me whenever I have to film something. There are plenty of people on film sets."

Cathy pursed her lips. Since she could not free herself from his embrace, she let him hug her. "But

It was so sudden that Cathy widened her eyes in shock.

Adrian and Cathy immediately stopped kissing when they heard the nurse's voice.

Soon, she softened beneath him and let herself sink into his passionate kiss.

"Cough..."

Yoel looked away and did not dare to meet Adrian's cold gaze. "I was only listening for a little bit. Once I confirmed that the both of you were not fighting, I was relieved!" After that, he immediately turned around to escape.

Then, she looked up at Adrian with eyes gleaming like crystals. "Can you let me off for tonight?"

He wriggled her nose and said, "Yes, but remember that you owe me one."

On the other hand, Dorian sat on the couch quietly, watching her go on a rampage.

All these years, Cathy did not dare to oppose me because I had scandalous evidence against her.

Ember furrowed her brow. Xavier Carter?

Oh, yes!
