

GOF 1361

Chapter 1361: Hunting A Venerable

Han Fei had decided to hunt a Venerable, but he wasn't in a hurry.

In Forge the Universe, Han Fei turned into white mist and spiritual energy suddenly surged in all directions. The spiritual spring suddenly disappeared by a million catties, which stunned the old turtle again.

The old turtle knew that Han Fei must have done something else. This wasn't the first time. Besides, it must be related to the calabash.

The old turtle could even guess that Han Fei was making a deal with the little calabash.

However, every time he saw this scene, he was a little frightened. No matter how cheap spiritual energy was, it was still a million catties! How could he squander it so easily?

Han Fei, on the other hand, didn't find it inappropriate at all. He was deducing the Soul-Attracting Art, which had too many drawbacks. He didn't feel comfortable using it.

However, this technique was indeed much better than the Void Lines.

Above all, the Void Lines weren't really invincible. Although there were many benefits, there were still restrictions. For example, the soul and vitality absorbed wouldn't be too much. The memories of creatures could only be read in segments.

This experience woke Han Fei up. Only then did he remember that Void Fishing was actually only a book jointly written by nine kings. Although it was extraordinary, the king realm was actually just the Sea Establishment realm, with many other realms above it.

This was not to say that Void Fishing was bad. This technique was definitely top-notch. Otherwise, there wouldn't be such a strange scene where heaven and earth cried when the book was finished.

However, comparing the Soul-Attracting Technique to the Void Lines, Han Fei found that although the Void Fishing Technique's comprehensive effects were better, its single effect might not be the strongest.

Han Fei even wondered if he could summon lightning through deducing the seventh level of Void Fishing to help him finish cultivating his golden body.

However, Han Fei soon gave up the idea.

The sixth level of Void Fishing corresponded to the Venerable realm. Then, the seventh level should correspond to the king realm.

With his strength as an Explorer, if he were to deduce a king-level technique rashly, even if he used up all his trump cards, he might not be able to hold on. Besides, the deduction would definitely cause a huge uproar.

Han Fei quickly shook his head. He had thought too much. Now, he just wanted to spar with a junior Venerable, but he had thought so much...

The reason why Han Fei wanted to deduce the Soul-Attracting Art was that if there was a chance, he could use the Venerable's memories to learn about the situation in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City.

After all, the Blood Sea Divine Wood City was the most mysterious place in the sea where the Water-Wood World was located. Under normal circumstances, the Millennium Snappers wouldn't leave the range of the Blood Sea Divine Wood City.

However, as long as anything happened, the Blood Sea Divine Wood City was never absent.

The Blood Sea Divine Wood City never went to war, but they would always do one thing: try to expand their territory.

Only this point was unbearable to the White Shell Royal City and the Water-Wood World. We are fighting, and you are expanding your territory... Who could bear this?

Therefore, the White Armor Emperor and Queen Life had once stopped fighting for a period of time, planning to jointly clear the Blood Sea Divine Wood City.

However, in that battle, the Blood Sea Divine Wood City sent nearly a hundred Venerables over.

Within the range of the Blood Sea Divine Wood City, Patriarch Blood Demon used the power of the Blood Sea Divine Tree to fight two kings alone without being defeated. Only then did the battle come to an end.

The White Armor Emperor and Queen Life were not stupid. They knew that the recuperation in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City was only temporary. In the future, once Patriarch Blood Demon recovered, she would definitely attack them.

Therefore, the White Shell Royal City and the Water-Wood World usually tried their best to deplete the Blood Sea Divine Wood City's strength and suppress its development.

Every century, the two parties would attack the Blood Sea Divine Wood City at least once, not for anything else but to investigate the strength of Patriarch Blood Demon.

That was all Han Fei knew.

As for why he was only investigating the strength of Patriarch Blood Demon instead of destroying a group of strong masters from the Blood Sea Divine Wood City, Han Fei didn't know.

Logically speaking, strength could be faked for a time. If Patriarch Blood Demon pretended to be unable to be defeated but secretly became an emperor, the situation in this sea area would change again.

Besides, if they didn't deplete the Venerables in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City, what if the Blood Demon Venerables flooded in the future? Although they only had one king, they had more Venerables!

Han Fei didn't understand why Queen Life and the White Armor Emperor would tolerate the Blood Sea Divine Wood City. Therefore, he wanted to get to the bottom of it.

Buzz!

After a moment, the spiritual energy vortex suddenly stopped.

Information popped up in Han Fei's head.

Soul Searching Technique (Venerable-level Ultra-quality)

Introduction: This is a forbidden technique that violates the Heavenly Dao. It can forcibly peep at the souls of others. If the other party releases his soul, it has no effect on him. But if the other party forcibly resists, it may cause harm to both parties.

Deduction Art: Soul Breaking Eyes

Deduction Cost: One wisp of Chaos Energy

Shortcoming: If the other party is stronger than the soul-searcher, the latter is easy to suffer a backlash.

Note: If you can peep at the other party's soul, there is a certain chance that you can peep at the other party's Great Dao.

The Soul Searching Technique he got from this deduction was obviously much better than the Soul-Attracting Technique. The old turtle was indeed keeping it a secret from him and didn't trust him completely.

However, Han Fei keenly noticed that if he wanted to deduce a technique above the Venerable level, the cost became Chaos Energy. But now he didn't even know what Chaos Energy was...

Also, there was a note: "There's a certain chance to peep at the other party's Great Dao."

This stunned Han Fei. Was this Soul Searching Technique so powerful? Was there a certain chance that he could see through the other party's Great Dao?

If he knew the other party's Great Dao in advance, could he destroy the other party's Dao runes? This was a f*cking great technique. No wonder the old turtle didn't want to teach him.

...

Half a day later.

Ji Yue keenly noticed a person, who was Ye Long.

She still remembered the scene of this person counterattacking.

However, the counterattack was fine, but it wouldn't be right if her strength suddenly increased.

Ji Yue thought to herself, This person's comprehensive strength has increased by nearly 20%? Had she been hiding her strength? Why?

Of course, Ji Yue didn't know that who was in this body was now the Fish Dragon King. However, the Fish Dragon King had already read Ye Long's memories and had worked very hard to lower his strength standard.

However, being a top Heavenly Talent was different from being slightly talented.

No matter how weak the Fish Dragon King was in Han Fei's eyes, he was actually ranked tenth in the White Shell Royal City. How could ordinary people compare to him?

In terms of speed, movement technique, strength, physique, soul, and so on, the Fish Dragon King was much stronger. Therefore, he had been pretending very hard to be weak.

It was precisely because of this disguise of the Fish Dragon King that Ji Yue wasn't quite sure. Otherwise, if the Fish Dragon King's strength suddenly increased by 50%, Ji Yue would probably immediately take him out and interrogate him.

"Well, I have to pay more attention to this person when I go back."

Ji Yue nodded slightly. Suddenly, she felt a chill down her spine and her heart suddenly skipped a beat.

She didn't even have the time to look back as runes floated behind her. The moment the runes appeared, a red leaf blade was put against her back at the same time.

After doing this, Ji Yue immediately looked back.

Crack... Ding!

The rune shield shattered in an instant, and the red leaf blade was sent flying.

"Time law?"

Ji Yue's heart trembled. She hadn't seen the enemy yet, but she had discovered the law of time in horror.

The opponent's attack had changed the law of time. Therefore, this person could sneak attack her in an instant. Otherwise, it would have been impossible for her not to notice it before the opponent approached her.

However, just as Ji Yue confirmed that this was the law of time, in the next second, she felt that her soul was stabbed and painful. The reason was very simple. When Han Fei used the Momentary Time, he also used the God Scaring Stab.

Splash!

The moment a fish skin map appeared in the air.

"Roar!"

The roars of a hundred beasts shook the soul.

At this moment, Han Fei's soul power had already recovered, which was much higher than when he was at his peak state. This was why Void Fishing was so terrifying and why Han Fei dared to split his soul.

At this moment, the strength of Han Fei's soul was incomparable to that of an ordinary Half-Venerable. Under the dual soul attack, even Ji Yue, as a Venerable, was inevitably dizzy.

However, she was still a Venerable. No matter how chaotic Ji Yue's mind was, she knew that she had to summon a battle suit.

However, Han Fei had already held the sword with both hands and poured all his spiritual energy into it. The 60% disassembled spiritual energy attack made Snowmourne shine and illuminate half of the secret realm.

As the sword was drawn, the void turned white, and snow flew all over the sky.

Crack... Crack... Crack... Crack...

Even a high-quality divine weapon was shattered by this sword.

Han Fei frowned. In this sneak attack, he had used all his killer moves but still failed?

With another thought from Han Fei, the Infinity Water wrapped Ji Yue.

Rumble!

Han Fei knew that once the Infinity Water appeared, the battle here must be over in an instant. Otherwise, it would definitely be detected.

The moment Han Fei attacked, the Sacrificing Punch exploded.

Like a nuclear bomb, Ji Yue was smashed into the bottom of the sea and didn't even have a chance to react.

"Huff!"

After the attack, Han Fei launched the Sacrificing Punch again. At the same time, the Swallowing Technique absorbed a huge amount of energy. Activating the Star Teleportation Technique, Han Fei had already held the Embroidery Needle and attacked with all his strength.

Boom Boom Boom ~

Without the protection of the Divine Weapon, Ji Yue was first bombarded bloody by the Infinity Water, and then she took Han Fei's Sacrificing Punch at close range, with her chest penetrated.

Before this blow was over, another blow came. At this moment, Han Fei had used the Monkey King's Three Thousand Sticks.

Blood Demons' physique was not strong in the first place.

Or rather, most people's physique couldn't be as strong as Han Fei's. Therefore, the continuous bombardment had almost killed Ji Yue.

However, the old turtle shouted, "Remember, Venerables can revive with blood. Don't bombard her anymore when she's heavily wounded. Lock the void and crush her body inch by inch."

As the old turtle spoke, Han Fei tried to buckle Ji Yue with the Void Lines.

However, at the next moment, Han Fei found he miscalculated. This person's soul actually blocked the Void Lines.

At the moment when Han Fei made a mistake, Ji Yue had a chance. The runes all over her body lit up and were about to burst out.

Han Fei suddenly stepped back and held the Embroidery Needle. "Knock on the Heavenly Door."

Shua!

A spear broke through the air, and the Embroidery Needle burst out a pillar of light. The power of a Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasure was manifested at this moment.

“Pfft!”

Half of Ji Yue’s body was shattered, and Han Fei activated the Star Teleportation Technique again, intending to destroy this person with one blow.

However, Han Fei hadn’t arrived yet.

With a loud bang, Ji Yue blew herself up.

The void exploded, and Han Fei took the opportunity to crash into the void. At the last moment, Han Fei didn’t forget to cast out his fishing hook and caught Ji Yue’s Sun-Moon Shell.

As soon as he entered the void, the fish skin map spread and a teleportation array appeared. Ignoring the blood spurting out, Han Fei had already drilled in.

After Han Fei disappeared, only a second later, a blood-colored treeman appeared.

Sweeping with her perception, she found that no one was around. The treeman reached out and grabbed, and a bloody mist gathered. The bloody mist intertwined and condensed into a person in a moment. Who else could it be but Ji Yue?

Chapter 1362: Scold the King

However, even if Venerables could revive with a drop of blood, it wasn’t without limit. The price of reviving with a drop of blood was very high, and after self-destruction, the price of reviving with a drop of blood was even greater.

Ji Yue was horrified and hurriedly said, “Thank you for saving my life, Patriarch.”

The blood-colored treeman perceived for a moment. “Strange aura. This person’s realm is not high, but his strength is surprisingly strong. If you hadn’t detonated yourself in time, you would have died. Fine, since he escaped so quickly, he must have thought of a way out. However, this secret realm is useless now. Don’t use it again.”

Holding back her heavy injuries, Ji Yue hurriedly said, “Yes, Patriarch.”

The blood-colored Tree-Man said casually, “Forget it. You’re too heavily wounded. Go back to recuperate!”

...

On the other side.

Han Fei hid in Forge the Universe and cast the Holy Light Technique on himself. At this moment, his wounds were healing at a visible speed.

The old turtle said, "See? Although this person isn't a new Venerable, she's still far away from the peak of a junior Venerable. Even so, she's not someone you can easily defeat now. This is the difference between an Explorer and a Venerable..."

Han Fei gritted his teeth. "Her strength might be weaker than mine."

The old turtle shook his head slightly. "It's not because of strength, but because of the gap in the realm, the difference in the use of spiritual energy, and the difference in soul reaction... Your mistake is to try to shake the opponent's soul with a technique that has a chance of error. The soul is a person's most secret power. You've cultivated your soul and have a calabash secret treasure. Do you think others don't know how to protect themselves?"

Han Fei was finally convinced.

However, Han Fei wasn't sad. This was the first time he tried to hunt a Venerable, so he had no experience. Unfortunately, the Soul Searching Technique he prepared didn't come in handy.

But no matter what, this sneak attack made Han Fei clearly realize a problem: it wasn't enough for him to skip levels to challenge. Although he was strong enough to shake a Venerable, before he reached the peak, the gap was still very large.

With this attempt, Han Fei immediately knew the significance of the existence of the peak and the half-venerable realms. This was more like a division of strength, which was closely related to the disassembling of the Great Dao and spiritual energy. To put it more bluntly, this was related to a person's talent.

Regarding this matter of hunting a Venerable, the Blood Sea Divine Wood City didn't find any leads. In the end, the investigation could only end in failure. This matter, just like how Xue Qin discovered a mysterious creature, became another mysterious event.

Ji Yue was even puzzled. How did that person appear in the trial field? Besides, since that person had come to the trial field, why didn't he kill those Heavenly Talents but attack her?

These were all unsolved mysteries.

In the mysterious sea, there might be many similar unsolved mysteries every day. If you wanted to explore them one by one, you would never be able to finish.

One month passed.

Water-Wood World, Dark War Port.

In these two or three years, there were too many battles between the Water-Wood World and the White Shell Royal City, which even exceeded the total number of battles in the past century.

In fact, this kind of war of no scale could only be regarded as training. It seemed that there wouldn't be a large-scale war in the short term. The four battlefields of the Water-Wood World became relatively safer.

As long as the Venerable didn't take action, the Dao Seeking-realm great demons could hold the line. Even if the war was more frequent, it wouldn't be as large.

At this moment, the Dark War Port had already released the Fearless Barrier, and a large number of creatures in the Dao Seeking realm and Sea Demon Realm poured into the Dark Water Domain. Here, there had been a battle for days.

Outside the Fearless Barrier, there were occasional Dao Seeking sea demons passing by. The powerhouses of the two sides even met occasionally and bickered with each other.

But this day was different.

On this day, outside the Fearless Barrier, five people transcended the tribulation at once.

This was a rare occasion. Even in the Water-Wood World, on average, one or two people transcended the tribulation a year, and it was already rare for one person to successfully transcend the tribulation. After all, as time went on, there would be a hundred explorers in a hundred years, and more than 5,000 explorers in ten thousand years. This was the backbone of a force.

This time, five people transcended the tribulation, which shocked everyone in the Water-Wood World. These five people were all people who had participated in the battle on the island and survived. Their opportunities really made many people envious. However, the probability of death in such a trial was extremely high. Ten people went, and six people returned. Among them, there was still Han Fei who disappeared.

Chong Liuliu, Chong Xiaochong and Phoenix-Head Seven survived. They kept bragging about how powerful Han Fei was, how he defeated six Blood Demons, looted two royal cities, and made the blood of many insects boil.

Because this story was too exciting, the three of them became the stars of the Cloud Sea Divine Tree.

Today, these five people all chose to transcend the tribulation at the Dark War Port, but the White Shell Royal City still sent people to fight.

However, the people who came this time were different. Among them, there were Han Fei's acquaintances. Shrimp Youwei, San Qi, and Xu Ye were among them.

For the outside world, although the people like Shrimp Youwei and San Qi were the top Heavenly Talents in the White Shell Royal City, they rarely left the White Shell Royal City. And the White Shell Royal City had a strict entry and exit system, so their real combat power was not known by outsiders.

Even if they had passed the trial on the island, Shrimp Youwei and the others were only ranked as Heavenly Talents, at the same level as Chong Liuliu and the others, not as famous as Zhang Xiaotian.

However, the Insect King and the others had a rough guess of their real strength. Therefore, they warned Chong Liuliu and the others to be careful in this tribulation battle.

In the field.

Chong Liuliu and Chong Xiaochong, with their horns against San Qi and the others, were scolding.

Chong Liuliu said, "That shrimp, did you board the island with me? Do you know that I once fought alongside Han Fei and crossed the sea of blood? I suggest you pass the tribulation obediently and don't start a war."

Chong Xiaochong said with a buzz, "That's right. Back then, we swept across all the Heavenly Talents in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City. If you hadn't run fast enough, you wouldn't have had a chance to appear here."

Shrimp Youwei smiled. "Well, it's our regret that we couldn't fight him back then. Now I'm here to challenge you."

Chong Liuliu said, "Ouch! You're quite arrogant, aren't you? We both have shells. But how can your horn compare to mine?"

Shrimp Youwei smiled. "Try it."

Enraged by Shrimp Youwei's arrogant attitude, Chong Liuliu was about to fight in front of the array, when Phoenix-Head Seven flapped his wings and said, "Idiot, that guy is definitely not weak. Let's see."

On the other side, a tree demon stood out. "Let me fight you first. We demon plants are full of vitality and can't die easily."

As soon as the Tree Demon appeared, a Dao Seeking great demon said casually, "You can go anywhere you want."

Xu Ye stepped forward, his eyes fierce. "You're just a tree demon. I'll kill you in three moves."

Hua!

There was an uproar.

On the Water-Wood World's side, countless onlookers had ugly expressions.

Someone shouted, "Shut up! Beimu is a peerless genius of our demon plant race. How can you kill him?"

Someone cursed, "What did the White Shell Royal City send this time?"

Chong Liuliu shouted coldly, "Believe it or not, I'll stab you to death with my horn!"

However, amidst the thousands of curses, Xu Ye licked the corner of his mouth. "My name is Xu Ye, ranked eighth on the Genius List of the White Shell Royal City. Do you want to fight or not? If you want to fight, just come... Do you dare to fight?"

"Hiss!"

Hearing Xu Ye's words, countless people gasped. The eighth on the Genius List of the White Shell Royal City? Is this b*stard so powerful?

In the Cloud Sea Divine Tree, the four major races were usually ranked in their respective races.

This Beimu had never been ranked tenth on the Genius List of the Water-Wood World. At most, he was ranked tenth in his race. In this case, didn't it mean that Xu Ye was much stronger?

Chong Liuliu couldn't help looking at Chong Xiaochong. "Is this person so strong? In the past, the people who came were all outside the top 100 of the Genius List of the White Shell Royal City, at most seventieth or eightieth. Why did the eighth place come this time?"

Beimu's face sank. "Don't panic. We can't flinch. I'll go fight him."

Bam! Bam!

Beimu extended his hands like branches reaching for water, and the waves immediately rolled. When he came out of the water again, two huge pillars that reached the sky swung horizontally like whips, like swimming dragons jumping out of the sea, and went straight at Xu Ye.

Not only that, a third hand extended from Beimu's chest, holding a spear that pierced through the void. The spear stabbed out and danced, producing hundreds of spear shadows.

Knowing that Xu Ye was the eighth most powerful powerhouse in the White Shell Royal City, Beimu naturally didn't dare to underestimate him. As soon as he came up, he used two ultimate moves and two locking techniques.

"Great!"

The creatures of the demon plant line shook their branches and applauded.

A member of the Insect Clan said, "This is the Tree Demon's Spirit Dividing Stab. Even if you use all your strength, you won't be able to block this blow."

A big bird cried, "Don't relax. Keep attacking and stab him to death."

Amidst the clamor, Xu Ye's lips curled. With a crackling sound, he suddenly whipped the air, and thousands of super long tentacles appeared.

Puff, puff, puff!

The void was torn and cracks filled the sky. The long whips curled up like a spiral, and in an instant, they cut Beimu's two vine columns into pieces.

As for Beimu's Soul Dividing Stab, it suddenly paused, and a hundred long tentacles appeared in the air and wrapped the attack from both sides.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Explosions were heard and tides were surging back.

Beimu suddenly felt a sense of crisis and hurriedly wanted to retreat. However, a large number of tentacles appeared under him, and a huge sea anemone appeared.

Xu Ye sneered. "Oh! I forgot to tell you... I'm also a demon plant."

Chi la!

Beimu's arms were instantly rolled up and cut into hundreds of pieces. He was about to be minced...

Shua!

A shadow flashed in the void.

"Who?"

Xu Ye didn't have any time to react. A Venerable from the White Shell Royal City shouted, and a peak-level great demon pounced over.

"Pfft!"

At that moment, silver light illuminated the world.

In an instant, the sea split, and a terrifying ravine appeared in the air.

The Venerable still wanted to attack when he heard a cute voice. "Someone is so spoilt and wayward. I can't do anything about it!"

Everyone heard it: Isn't this Messenger Jing's voice?

And in midair, the figure's scarlet fist mark, like a pillar of light soaring to the sky, struck the sky, spanning hundreds of kilometers. The peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouse who came to save Xu Ye was crushed by this punch, most of his body shattered, and he had already died.

Everyone focused their eyes and saw a black figure holding Xu Ye by the neck with one hand, holding him in the air like holding a dead fish, and arrogantly turning his head. "Damn the f*cking tribulation transcendence battle. If the White Shell Royal City uses this as an excuse to deplete our Water-Wood World's combat power, each person you kill, I'll kill a hundred."

The figure pointed at the sky and looked in the direction of the White Shell Royal City. "The White Armor Emperor, a dignified king, is so petty. Either fight or stop. Today, let me, Han Fei, tell you that in terms of Heavenly Talents, I, Han Fei, am superior to any of your Heavenly Talents in ten thousand years."

Xu Ye was horrified. Why is Han Fei here? With Han Fei's strength, there is no reason for him to attack at all! But before he could think further, his vision turned dark.

Han Fei exerted strength in his hand and gently squeezed. With a bang, Xu Ye exploded, his bone shattered, and he died.

Han Fei stepped forward.

"If you want to fight, I, Han Fei, will challenge all new and old Heavenly Talents on the Genius List of the White Shell Royal City alone. Do you dare?"

"If you don't dare, you'd better get the hell out of here when the Water-Wood World people are transcending tribulations in the future."

"You want to fight us with an entire city? We Water-Wood World have fought for 100,000 years. When have we ever been afraid? Fight."

At this moment, Han Fei stood proudly in the air, pointing at the sky, raising his head and cursing, extremely domineering.

Gulp!

Countless people swallowed in shock. They had forgotten who Xu Ye was.

Chong Liuliu took a sip. "Shoot..."

Chapter 1363: Summoned Again

Han Fei's powerful attack shocked the onlookers on both sides. Is this Han Fei?

These people had good reason to be shocked. How long had it been since Han Fei transcended the tribulation? It had only been three years. Besides, he was very elusive. The last time they heard of him was when Chong Liuliu and the others were bragging about the battle on the island.

However, most of the people who participated in that battle were peak-level law enforcers.

It was natural for Han Fei to fight so many enemies alone. After all, there was a gap in the realm.

But now, Han Fei easily killed a peak Dao Seeking powerhouse in the White Shell Royal City. How could they not be shocked?

More importantly, Han Fei seemed to have just entered the mid-level Dao Seeking realm.

"Hiss! What a terrifying growth rate."

"Gulp. It's only been three years and you've grown so much?"

"How domineering! However, isn't Han Fei overestimating himself? Who is he to challenge the king?"

Chong Liuliu shouted, "Han Fei, well done! If you hadn't attacked him, I would've killed that guy with my horn just now."

"How dare you!"

While the Water-Wood World was shocked, seven or eight Venerables from both sides appeared at the same time.

A Venerable from the White Shell Royal City snapped, "Very good, Water-Wood World. Han Fei, you're just an Explorer. How dare you change the rules that have been passed down for tens of thousands of years?"

These Venerables were all surprised. They didn't sense anyone approaching. Where did Han Fei come from?

Han Fei raised his head and chuckled. "The rules are dead, but people are alive. The Water-Wood World and the White Shell Royal City have been fighting for so long. What's the result? The main battlefield is in the Water-Wood World. If you really dare to come to fight, you would have come long ago and wouldn't have nagged for tens of thousands of years! This time, I'm gonna teach you a lesson."

Shrimp Youwei and San Qi were both shocked.

This time, because Zhang Xiaotian had already transcended the tribulation, he didn't come.

But how could they dare to provoke Han Fei? Although Xu Ye rose to the top because of the death of Qing Siling and the Fish Dragon King, if he didn't have the strength, how could he enter the top ten of the Genius List?

However, in Han Fei's hand, Xu Ye was crushed to death like a small fish. Although Shrimp Youwei and the others were confident with their strength, Han Fei's performance just now was too strong. It was impossible for them to win!

Someone shouted, "Ning Jing! Is the Water-Wood World ruled by a mere explorer now? Or do you really think you can start a full-scale war with our White Shell Royal City?"

Ning Jing chuckled. "Start a full-scale war? Do you dare?"

Han Fei curled his lips and pointed at the Half-Merman Venerable who spoke. "The one who spoke, please use your brain. Do you think the Blood Sea Divine Wood City is a decoration? A full-scale war? Try it! Besides, since the main battlefield is in the Water-Wood World, is the White Armor Emperor not afraid that his lair will be stolen?"

Although the White Shell Royal City was hidden, just like Queen Life didn't dare to step out of the Water-Wood World easily, the White Armor Emperor generally didn't dare to leave the White Shell Royal City.

Besides, Han Fei didn't believe that the three parties would fight to the death.

In that case, what was wrong with being a bit aggressive? This time, it seemed that the strong masters on the Genius List in the White Shell Royal City were all preparing to transcend the tribulation. If he didn't take action, Chong Liuliu and the others would definitely die.

Since he had already attacked, why not be more aggressive?

He couldn't explain this to others. When he met Queen Life again, she would naturally know.

Ning Jing chuckled. "Recently, there has been a lot of chaos in the White Shell Royal City. You'd better behave yourselves. Don't think you're invincible."

Buzz!

The void trembled, and clouds swirled and condensed. A big face of clouds and mist blocked half of the sky.

Ning Jing's face changed slightly. "Humph, come on, show me your real body."

That big face was none other than the only king of the White Shell Royal City, the White Armor Emperor.

The old turtle said, "It's just a projection of a king. It's not even a clone."

However, this was the first time Han Fei had seen such a technique with his own eyes. Wasn't this noise too f*cking loud? A face covering half of the sky?

The clouds loosened, and a voice said, "Very nice. Han Fei, are you challenging me?"

The voice was coming at Han Fei.

Queen Life didn't respond. She must be watching the show. For her, it was quite fun. Besides, in just three years, Han Fei had caused a lot of trouble, and his style was completely different from the Water-Wood World.

However, Han Fei's style of doing things was not bad.

Although it wasn't the real king gazing at him, the gaze was still rather intimidating.

However, Han Fei sneered with his head held high. "Oh, I didn't expect to call a king over! I'm just an Explorer. How can I challenge a king? Just wait. We'll meet in the future anyway."

"Hiss!"

Wushang Xue and the others walked out of the void. As soon as they came out, they heard Han Fei say "we" to the King. Immediately, they felt terrible, thinking, You've just come back, but you're already so arrogant?

Queen Life was sitting in the Heavenly Palace, watching this scene, and shook her head slightly. Han Fei dared to say these words because at this time, the White Shell Royal City really didn't have time.

The Wall of Death was damaged, the Venerables were injured, and the king was injured too.

Han Fei was involved in it and knew the truth, so he dared to shout at the king. However, the others didn't know it, so they would only think that Han Fei didn't know his limits.

However, Queen Life was also a little surprised. The situation of the White Shell Royal City wasn't too bad. This kind of influence would disappear in a few decades at most. How did you know that they wouldn't retaliate in decades?

Unless...

Queen Life narrowed her eyes slightly. Unless Han Fei had something to back him up? For example, did Teacher leave any means for him?

Han Fei didn't know what Queen Life was thinking, but he was already used to bluffing and bragging. He didn't know what he would have to face. At least, they didn't dare to attack him now.

Besides, Han Fei believed that the flames of war would be raging when he returned to the Yin-Yang World. There would be one big event after another. The Scattered Stars Island's battle was one thing, but entering the Heavenly Palace was another.

If he didn't dare to fight, how could he become a king?

Since everyone felt that he would become a king and he also felt that he would become a king, then why didn't he take himself as a king?

Anyway, he was going to cross the Infinite Ocean in the future!

As for whether this behavior would cause the two parties to fight ceaselessly and make Queen Life unhappy, Han Fei didn't consider it at all. Old Han had promised Queen Life to let him help her destroy the Royal City. Queen Life believed him, so she wouldn't restrict him.

In fact, Queen Life had no choice.

The White Shell Royal City was eyeing them covetously, so was the Blood Sea Divine Wood. Once Patriarch Blood Demon thought it through and cooperated with the White Shell Royal City, Water-Wood World would be in danger.

At this moment, she could only count on him. She even hoped that he could control the Yin-Yang World and grow quickly.

Looking at Han Fei's arrogant posture, the White Armor Emperor said leisurely, "Han Fei, you are the first Explorer to make me remember your name. You want to challenge me in the future? OK, I'll wait for you."

The clouds swayed, the big face disappeared, and a voice flowed into the sky. "The Water-Wood World has been wanting to change the current situation for a long time. Now your intention has been revealed by a junior. Fine, there hasn't been a war between the three parties for a long time. I'm waiting for another big war."

The strong masters from the White Shell Royal City snorted and shouted, "Let's go!"

This time, they just retreated because of Han Fei?

Han Fei was a little dumbfounded himself. Seriously? It's just a few people transcending a tribulation. Does it have to be so exaggerated?

"A war between the three parties? What's that?"

Han Fei looked at Ning Jing with a dazed expression, and Ning Jing glanced at him and said via voice transmission, "The three-party war is a war that happens once every thousand years. In order to prove their strength, the three parties will have a large-scale war from top to bottom. The White Shell Royal City just took advantage of what happened today to stop the war in advance and find an excuse to recuperate. After all, you know, the current state of the White Shell Royal City is indeed not good.

Han Fei's heart did a flip. "So, the king gave in to me?"

"Tsk!"

Ning Jing said disdainfully, "You? Of course, it's because of the queen."

Han Fei curled his lips. "He has flinched anyway."

Ning Jing: "..."

The old turtle reminded him, "Don't think of a king with such an attitude. Anyone who can become a king can't be weak. Most of the time, he's just observing the situation. This king dares to fight the battle of the three parties, which at least shows that he has the ability to restore the White Shell Royal City to its peak before the battle. He even found an excuse to recall the Venerables. Do you think he flinched?"

Han Fei's heart sank when he heard what the old turtle said. He couldn't help but look at Ning Jing. "Then when will the war between the three parties break out?"

Ning Jing said, "There is still a hundred years away, but we can't count it as a hundred years. This means that it may erupt at any time. However, you don't have to worry too much. It won't erupt for at least ten years. A mere ten years should only be enough for him to recover. Last time, he was injured by the queen... Huh! Right, why did you come back in advance?"

Jing Jing looked around and said casually, "Let's leave it at that for now. Don't worry about the White Shell Royal City. Han Fei, come with me. The queen wants to see you."

"Hum..."

Instantly, everyone looked at Han Fei. Is he summoned again?

Thinking of Han Fei's domineering behavior today, everyone thought to themselves, Could it be that Han Fei has already been accepted by the queen and is about to become a true King's Attendant?

For a moment, all kinds of envious, jealous, and resentful gazes were staring at him, giving Han Fei goosebumps all over his body.

Chapter 1364: Bai Suzhen's Master

This was the second time Han Fei had come to the Water-Wood Heavenly Palace.

On the way, Ning Jing said, "You're really something. I heard that you went to the White Shell Royal City, knocked down a tower, and released many Venerable-level demons... Five of them were protected by our Water-Wood World. Now, we have five more Venerables."

Han Fei smiled. "How do you know that?"

Ning Jing snorted. "I know a lot. I'm a Venerable anyway. How can you keep this from me?"

At this moment, Han Fei didn't really want to meet Queen Life. He didn't know how to address her after they met, and he was unwilling to call her My Queen.

Besides, Queen Life definitely wanted him to keep the Water Immortal here, but that was impossible.

Han Fei couldn't help but ask, "Why did the queen call me over?"

Ning Jing puffed out her cheeks. "How would I know? Han Fei, didn't you say you would make me a Man-Han full banquet? What is that? Is it delicious? What is Man-Han? And what is a full banquet? Is it more delicious than hot pot?"

Ning Jing kept babbling, and Han Fei echoed, "Oh! Just eight dishes."

Ning Jing was shocked. "Eight? So many?"

Han Fei thought to himself, There are a total of 108 of them. He couldn't help feeling a bit guilty. After all, Ning Jing had helped him a lot.

Han Fei couldn't help but say, "Fine, I'll add another one, nine in total. When I have time, I'll make it for you to eat."

Ning Jing's eyes lit up. "Make it now! Make it today, OK?"

Han Fei said, "No. I have to swallow a Strange Fire first and bring Little Gold and my other pets back."

Ning Jing said, "I'll get them back for you now."

Han Fei hurriedly stopped her. "No! I want to see how they are going with their trials!"

Ning Jing was about to say something, but she stopped, thinking, Forget it, let Han Fei check it by himself!

...

In the Water Wood Heavenly Palace, Venerable Bat stood at the entrance like a sculpture.

Seeing Ning Jing and Han Fei come, he just nodded slightly.

However, unlike last time, this time, the bat Venerable looked at Han Fei for a while longer, probably knowing something about Han Fei.

Shua!

Coming out of the teleportation array, Han Fei shivered and felt that the spiritual energy was much more intense. It was very refreshing.

On the same path as last time, flowers, plants, and spiritual fruits bloomed.

Ning Jing smiled slyly and stomped, and the space changed. Han Fei keenly noticed that Ning Jing was stretching the space.

Shua!

Han Fei stepped a thousand meters away, but when he raised his head, he found that the space had changed again. He could only step ten meters away, while Ning Jing appeared a thousand meters away.

Han Fei quietly took another step. Just as Ning Jing regained control of the distance, Han Fei suddenly disappeared. When he reappeared, he had already appeared beside Ning Jing.

Ning Jing was taken aback. "Huh? You cheated. This is not the Near at Hand Technique."

Han Fei curled his lips. "Indeed not. This is called... Star Teleportation Technique."

Ning Jing snorted, thinking, This kid has a lot of tricks up his sleeve. However, his reaction speed is not slow. Forget it, I won't make things difficult for him.

It was still the big tree, which must be a branch of the Cloud Sea God. Ning Jing said, "Go up!"

Han Fei was no longer reserved this time. He walked into the yard with the Near at Hand Technique.

Queen Life was spraying some green worms. She glanced at him inadvertently and said indifferently, "Are you going back?"

Han Fei nodded. "Yes. If I stay here, I'll seem lazy."

Queen Life raised her head. "When you go back this time, you'll have to become a Venerable anyway. It's not difficult to disassemble spiritual energy. However, will those people let you become a Venerable easily?"

Han Fei smiled and said, "It shouldn't be a problem for me to become a Half-Venerable. I can't stay here forever."

Queen Life nodded. "Let Bai Suzhen stay!"

Han Fei's expression didn't change. He had already had a hunch when Ning Jing called him up. However, this was not bad. Bai Suzhen was just a reincarnation body. It didn't matter if she stayed or not.

However, Han Fei mentioned, "Of course. It's not a good thing to return to the Yin-Yang World with me. Bai Suzhen will stay, but her father has become a Venerable anyway. Well..."

Queen Life couldn't help but roll her eyes at Han Fei. "Do you dare to use the person I gave you?"

Han Fei grinned. "Why not? I'm pure-hearted. Teacher must've told you that."

In a place that Han Fei couldn't see, Queen Life pinched her fingers and thought, You're pure-hearted? Do you think I'll believe you? Wang Han is pure-hearted, not you!

Queen Life said lightly, "Jing'er."

Shua!

Jing'er appeared quietly.

Queen Life said, "Go back to the Yin-Yang World with Han Fei. However, don't take action easily. Han Fei still has to walk his own path. You just... help him when necessary."

Hearing this, Jing'er was dumbfounded and immediately stuttered, "Huh... Ah? My queen... I... I'll go with him? Can I?"

Queen Life snorted. "Okay, that's it. You'll go with him. However, you're only allowed to help him three times."

Queen Life looked at Han Fei. "The King's Path is rarely paved with external help. I hope that you won't let Jing'er help you even once."

Han Fei's heart did a flip, and his expression became solemn. "Unless necessary, I won't let her take action."

Although Queen Life had said at the beginning that she wouldn't help Yin-Yang World, what level was Jing'er at? Although she was a little unworldly, she was among the tops in strength in the entire Water-Wood World. How was such a strong master any different from a king in the Yin-Yang World?

Satisfied with Queen Life's arrangements, Han Fei immediately stomped, and the shadow of mountains and rivers appeared. Bai Suzhen looked around blankly.

When she saw Queen Life for the first time, she was stunned. A king couldn't be looked at! Han Fei could see her because Queen Life let him.

Queen Life nodded slightly. Only then did Bai Suzhen take a deep breath and come back to her senses.

"A strong master?"

Bai Suzhen certainly knew Han Fei. With her intelligence, she had a rough idea of what was going on. However, she didn't know the person in front of her. She only felt that this woman was very strong.

Queen Life said, "Let Zhang Yao and her mother come out together!"

With a thought from Han Fei, Zhang Yao and the snake demon appeared.

The snake demon's body trembled. She couldn't see Queen Life clearly at all.

Zhang Yao immediately knelt down and said in a loud voice, "The sinner Zhang Yao, kneel to my queen. I didn't expect to see you again one day."

Jing'er said in surprise, "Huh! Is this the guy of the human race who disappeared?"

Zhang Yao turned his head and quickly said, "Messenger Jing."

Seeing her husband like this, the snake demon was shocked. Was she looking at a king?

Immediately, the snake demon also prostrated.

Only Bai Suzhen frowned slightly. Her actions made Jing'er unhappy.

Jing'er shouted, "Why don't you bow to the queen?"

Bai Suzhen gritted her teeth. She didn't want to kneel. While she struggled, Queen Life waved her hand and said, "Do you remember that you once discussed with someone about demonic plants on Jade Pen Peak?"

Bai Suzhen was shocked. "Are you... the one in the grass hut?"

Jing'er was stunned and looked at Han Fei as if asking him what was going on.

Han Fei shrugged. I don't know! I was too busy to care about what happened in the Sea Quelling Painting.

Queen Life chuckled. "We're fated. Your talent is not weak. Are you willing to take me as your master?"

Zhang Yao suddenly raised his head. "Well... Suzhen, hurry up... The queen is a real king. Her strength is unmeasurable."

Bai Suzhen glanced at Han Fei. Seeing Han Fei smiling, she nodded slightly. "Teacher."

Han Fei really didn't care about this.

The reincarnation body wasn't the true body, so he couldn't be considered the Water Immortal.

When Bai Suzhen returned to the Water Immortal in the future, Queen Life would have to call her Teacher. However, it didn't matter. After all, Bai Suzhen and the Water Immortal weren't the same person.

Queen Life said indifferently, "Very good. Since Zhang Yao has become a Venerable, you can go back to the human race and establish a separate unit. The green snake is an ordinary sea demon and shall belong to the human race. No one shall doubt it..."

"Thank you, my queen."

Zhang Yao looked at Han Fei. "And thank you, Brother Han."

Zhang Yao wasn't stupid. How could a person who could stand face to face with Queen Life so casually be a normal person?

Han Fei's lips curled. "It's just an opportunity. Senior, don't mind it."

He didn't think Queen Life had anything to say to him anymore. He still owed her a lot!

He probably wouldn't be able to pay it back even if he used up all his belongings. Therefore, he'd better run away quickly!

Han Fei: "Uh! Well, Jing'er! Are you hungry?"

Stunned, Jing'er nodded quickly. "Yes, yes. I'm hungry. I'm hungry."

Queen Life slightly raised her head and rolled her eyes at them. "Okay, you two can go now! Jing'er, take Han Fei to the Fiery Sea to get a wisp of Flame Essence. Then go about your business!"

"Yes, my queen."

Han Fei grinned. "Okay, I'm leaving!"

Zhang Yao's heart did a flip. What kind of identity does Han Fei have? In front of the queen, even Messenger Jing is very respectful. Why is Han Fei so casual? And the queen isn't angry at him at all?

However, this had nothing to do with him. Bai Suzhen was taken as a disciple by Queen Life. Perhaps she could become a king in the future.

Outside the Water-Wood World.

Jing'er: "Han Fei, shall we go to dinner first?"

Han Fei thought for a moment. Anyway, there was still half a year away. Besides, he hadn't eaten delicious food for a long time. Last time when he transcended the tribulation, the Demon Purification Pot was emptied, even including seasonings.

Han Fei immediately said, "Jing'er, do you still have the seasonings I gave you before?"

Jing'er swallowed. "Yes! There are several Sun-Moon Shells of them."

Han Fei's lips cramped, but then he said, "Let's go and eat..."

"Let's go."

Chapter 1365: Kindle the Sun on the Fire Tree

In the courtyard of Wushang Xue, only three people were invited: Ning Jing, Wushang Xue, and Yi Yuchen.

Wushang Xue was quite troubled by Ning Jing's innocent and gluttonous personality.

However, when she thought of the delicacies that Han Fei made, she decided to join them.

Ning Jing sat in front of the grill, looked at the nine kinds of seafood on the grill, and said aggrievedly, "Han Fei, are the Manchu-Han banquet you mentioned just the nine kinds of seafood I'm roasting?"

Han Fei grinned. "Yours is only one dish."

Han Fei extended his hand, and a long iron plate appeared in front of him. As Han Fei wiped it with his finger and knocked on the iron plate, the purple crayfish, the White-Scaled Sea Snake, the Half-Finger Silver Fish, and the Silver Shark...

Han Fei took out nine items, but this time, unlike before, they were mostly small creatures and not high-leveled. There was only a Fire Element Flood Dragon no more than 5 meters long.

Ning Jing couldn't help being surprised. "Why are their levels so low?"

Yi Yuchen: "I like to eat fried squid."

Wushang Xue glanced at Yi Yuchen, who shrugged slightly and thought to himself, Venerables also like to eat it!

Han Fei took out seven or eight bowls and plates in one breath, saying, "Thank you for your help when I was transcending the tribulation. I haven't cooked the best delicacies for you before. Please allow me to bring you some new dishes today."

Ning Jing was stunned. Hotpot and barbecue are not the best delicacies?

Han Fei, on the other hand, stirred the oil in the pot, sprinkled peppers and garlic whose fragrance wafted in the air, and set the pot on fire. After a few rounds, the fragrance of food wafted throughout the entire courtyard.

This scene stunned everyone, including Wushang Xue. How could these palm-sized crayfish emit such an overwhelming fragrance?

In the other pot, green and white peppers were stirred and shaped as a Tai Chi Diagram. A fish head was spinning over them, spiritual fire bloomed like a flower, and the fish was shining, looking gorgeous.

Ning Jing: "What dish is this?"

Han Fei said with a smile, "Double pepper braised fish head. You can also call it... fish head with chopped peppers."

Yi Yuchen couldn't help but shake his finger and point to the other side. "What about here? Can these White Shrimps swimming in the wine jar be considered a dish?"

Han Fei smiled. "This is my ultimate cooking skill, Drunken Little White Shrimp."

Han Fei was holding fancy food in his hand.

Although Ning Jing and the others were all Venerables, they couldn't help but sigh. In terms of cooking skills, Han Fei was definitely a king.

Han Fei introduced the dishes one by one.

“The nine dishes this time can be called a full meal. The braised coiling dragon used the White-Scaled Sea Snakes. It coiled in the dish, emitting overwhelming killing intent. Coupled with the red sauce, it’s unbelievably delicious...”

“Spiced crayfish, also known as the Small and Spicy. You won’t forget it once you taste it.”

“Drunken Little White Shrimp, the most precious treasure of the dishes today. Use the vinegar essence and wrap it with spiritual energy for 49 days to remove the shrimps’ astringency.”

“Fish head with chopped peppers. The dishes are bright red, flavorful, and tender. Fat but not greasy. It tastes soft and fresh.”

“Fresh Silver Fish Soup can cleanse the palate and remove the grease, fresh and delicious. Drinking it feels like having half of an undersea forest in your mouth.”

“Yellow fish hot pot... Sour soup and steamed fish wings... Shrimp hot pot... Barbecues...”

Han Fei talked so happily that the other three were dumbfounded.

In the Heavenly Palace, the corner of Queen Life’s mouth twitched, and she sighed that she still needed to maintain the manner of a king. Otherwise, she would definitely slap Han Fei to death.

The nine dishes were presented one by one.

The food was shining with oil, and the steam, accompanied by fragrance, rushed into everyone’s noses, making them drool.

Han Fei smiled proudly. “Please have a try.”

“Wow!”

Ning Jing had already pounced up, picked up a spoonful of the silver fish soup, and stuffed it into her mouth. Her eyes were glowing! When she swallowed the fish head, a cry of surprise came from her throat.

Yi Yuchen was quite tempted. Was it really so delicious? But it did make him drool.

He immediately peeled a small spiced crayfish and stuffed it into his mouth. He immediately perked up. This made him vaguely have the illusion that his strength had increased.

Only Wushang Xue behaved herself with poise. She picked up a piece of steamed wing with sour soup and swallowed it, and her eyelids twitched.

Wushang Xue looked calm, but in fact, she had pinched her thigh several times with her fingers and warned herself not to be gluttonous.

As for Han Fei, he liked to cook, but not necessarily like to eat.

After all, the chefs liked to see others eating happily, but he liked making a pot of hot pot and a jar of wine and bragging with Le Renkuang and the others for two hours.

On this side, Ning Jing, Wushang Xue, and Yi Yuchen had just tasted the dishes when they saw that all the dishes on the table had disappeared.

Ning Jing wanted to pick up more meat, but the meat was gone.

At the next moment, Queen Life said leisurely, "You should attend to your proper duties. If you want to enjoy the food, wait for the battle to end. Ning Jing, quickly take Han Fei to get the Flame Essence and let Qianshu take the Leafless Leaf's place. Let Han Fei leave quickly."

Ning Jing pouted. I've only had three bites! I haven't tried them one by one. Why are they gone?

Wushang Xue let out a long sigh of relief. Fortunately, the queen came in time. Otherwise, she might not have been able to stop herself from eating too much today.

Yi Yuchen felt that it was a pity. The taste was indeed extraordinary. However, thinking that a big war was coming, he put on a straight face and began to think about how to cultivate.

Only Han Fei didn't panic at all and gave Ning Jing a reassuring look.

Ning Jing understood.

If she ate these dishes without the queen present, the queen would definitely be unhappy. And when she went to the Yin-Yang World, there would definitely be delicious food everywhere.

With this in mind, Ning Jing hurriedly said, "Yes, my queen, then I'll take Han Fei away quickly."

Yi Yuchen knew that it was time for Han Fei to leave, so he cupped his hands. "I hope we can meet again someday."

Han Fei thought to himself, You may not be able to beat me now.

But on the surface, Han Fei said, "Yes, when the time comes, I'll fight you for three thousand rounds."

Yi Yuchen was speechless. Three thousand? Shut up.

Wushang Xue looked at Han Fei and said seriously, "Humans are scarce in the first place. Since you said that the Yin-Yang World is in danger, don't delay. After you return, please protect the human race."

Han Fei slauted. "Sure."

Han Fei thought to himself, I may not be strong enough to protect the human race, but I can try to reorganize the Yin-Yang World and fight the Ten Thousand Demon Valley.

Han Fei's so-called banquet was only a show of cooking skills before he was driven away.

Little did he know that in the Heavenly Palace, on a long tree sculpture table, the nine dishes were placed. Queen Life was holding a pair of chopsticks and eating unhurriedly.

She murmured, "I don't believe in you, Han Fei, your father, Han Guanshu, or the so-called sect friendship. I believe in the Ninth Yin-Yang. Yin-Yang, Glazed Glass, Golden Crow, Dragon-Subduing... the Water-Wood World's power has been exhausted. It depends on whether your Yin-Yang World can rise again..."

The Fiery Sea.

Han Fei sat cross-legged on the top of the fiery branch that was eight hundred kilometers high. There was a patch of black around him, which was almost invisible to the naked eye.

Pure Yang Flame Essence was extremely domineering.

When Han Fei and Little Black went to the top of the fiery tree together, they felt that the Scorching Sun Fire Essence was also gathering on the top of the tree.

Han Fei's heart did a flip. He had forgotten that although Little White swallowed the Blue Sea Ice Sand, it was a spiritual treasure of the heavens and earth. The Scorching Sun Flame Essence was also the power of pure yang, right? If he practiced Void Fishing during the day and triggered the descent of pure yang flames, would it also be as powerful as a Strange Fire?

With this in mind, Han Fei immediately sat cross-legged and activated Void Fishing.

In an instant, the sun between the heavens and earth converged, and then a pillar of fire essence appeared.

With this, the weather changed.

The Venerables on the Cloud Sea Divine Tree all looked in this direction in surprise. What's going on? Is there something wrong with the fire tree?

Then they saw that Han Fei was sitting in the middle of the fire origin, and a dark shadow in front of him was swallowing the Pure Yang Fire Essence.

The old turtle couldn't help but ask, "Boy, why haven't you used this technique before? What kind of technique is this?"

Han Fei said, "I have! I just haven't used it during the day."

The old turtle was puzzled. "That's not right! Although cultivating in the daytime will cause the Flame Essence to invade your body, this one is too domineering. With this technique, why do you bother to find Pure Yang Fire Essence? Just swallow it!"

Han Fei asked in surprise, "Is this useful to Little Black?"

The old turtle immediately said, "Of course! The Blue Sea Ice Sand is powerful, but a qualitative change can cause a qualitative change. Although this fire essence is not as pure as the Blue Sea Ice Sand, its advantage is its inexhaustible supply! Besides, ordinary people will be burnt to death in three seconds in this situation. With such a powerful scorching sun essence, at your speed, the accumulated fire essence will be enough for this little black fish to eat in only a month."

At this moment, Queen Life came to the fire tree in one stride and thought to herself, It's such a simple matter to obtain the Flame Essence. Why did it cause such a big uproar?

When she came, she saw that the fiery tree beside Han Fei had a few sprouts.

"Huh? Can the Fire Tree still revive?"

The voice of Queen Life echoed in Han Fei's ears, "How much longer can this technique last?"

Han Fei's heart did a flip. "More than a month at most."

Queen Life's eyes lit up. "Alright, then do it as long as you can. There's a strange spirit in this tree. If you can wake it up, except for those your father owes me... what you owe me will be written off."

Han Fei's heart stirred. What Old Han owed was to help Queen Life get rid of the royal cities. It certainly couldn't be written off. However, he also owed a lot to Queen Life. In total, according to Queen Life's algorithm, he owed a hundred Dao Seeking realm sea demons and a bunch of Venerables.

Han Fei thought for a moment. "What if it hasn't been awakened?"

Queen Life: "Halfly offset."

"Okay! It's a deal."

Han Fei was not only doing this to repay his debt. He was going to swallow Pure Sun Fire Element to balance the power between Little Black and Little White. If doing this could offset some of the debt he owed, why not?

It was not easy to repay the debt to a king.

Although he had robbed many people, those he robbed were all his enemies. He wouldn't owe the people on his side anything.

The noises in the Fiery Sea naturally spread to the two royal cities. Queen Life didn't keep it a secret. From the outside, it seemed that Han Fei was just cultivating.

The only thing that the two kings feared was Han Fei, not the Fire Tree.

After all, the fire tree had existed for tens of thousands of years and had never moved.

As for Han Fei, he only appeared for three years but caused such a big uproar. He must be killed.

Chapter 1366: Fire Tree Bloomed

When others were worried about Han Fei, Queen Life wasn't worried at all.

After all, Han Fei would not appear for a long time in a few months. Even if the other two kings wanted to kill Han Fei, they couldn't!

Since she controlled the Water-Wood World, he had given birth to countless Life Spring Water. There was only one thing she was helpless about, which was the fire tree. No matter how much water she poured on it, she couldn't wake it up.

But now, Han Fei could make the Fire Tree sprout again by activating a technique? This was simply a miracle. Originally, Queen Life didn't even plan to appear. However, the Fire Tree moved, so she came too.

As for the Flame Essence? It didn't matter. If she had known that Han Fei had such an ability, she would have taken him back after the battle on the island.

Under the fire tree, thirty thousand kilometers inside and outside were guarded by twelve insect queens.

Someone spread the news that Han Fei was going to be the human king. While Han Fei was sitting on the top of the Fire Tree, the entire Water-Wood World had known this news.

Therefore, at this moment, even the Water-Wood World's own people were secretly discussing. Han Fei had probably inherited the Human King's legacy.

Without saying a word, Queen Life turned everyone's attention to Han Fei.

Therefore...

In the White Shell Royal City, the White Armor Emperor ordered, "In the future, no matter who in the Water-Wood World becomes a Venerable, you must inform me. Human King... Humph, if he can't even become a Venerable, how can he become a king?"

In the Blood Sea Divine Wood City, a young man in red was lying on a branch and cracked a cold smile. "You want to have two kings? Mu Wuhua, you are digging your own grave!"

...

Half a month passed.

Han Fei was cultivating, and the new leaves around him grew one after another.

Within a hundred kilometers, the new leaves had almost replaced the old leaves on the fire tree.

Even Han Fei felt that something was wrong. This tree was recovering?

The old turtle said, "Oh! I feel the breath of a special creature."

Han Fei wondered, "What special creatures?"

The old turtle paused and said, "A spiritual seed. It seems to be a special spiritual seed bred by nature."

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. "Can a person jump out of this tree?"

The old turtle said, "I'm not sure."

While Han Fei and the old turtle were discussing, Han Fei suddenly discovered that most of the Pure Yang Fire Origin he triggered had been attracted into the tree.

Little Black also said, "Dad! Someone is snatching energy."

Han Fei frowned. "Don't panic. Just keep swallowing the energy. Let's see how it goes in half a month."

Little Black's energy was inexplicably snatched away, which made it quite upset.

Originally, although there was energy overflowing in the first half month, most of it was swallowed by him. He would be full in ten days or so. But as it turned out, someone suddenly appeared to snatch energy?

Han Fei didn't stop cultivating. While cultivating, he probed every corner of the fiery tree with his soul again and again.

However, he didn't find anything like the spiritual seed that the old turtle mentioned.

Seven days later, because most of the Sun Essence that Han Fei gathered had been swallowed by the Fire Tree, the leaves on the whole Fire Tree were almost replaced.

Today, when the last old leaf withered, Han Fei suddenly felt as if he were in a sea of fire.

In the sea of fire, the four sides seemed to be void and also like a seal. This place was like the legendary Eight Diagrams Alchemy Furnace.

In this place, a flame seed was floating.

The seed trembled slightly and emitted a childish voice. "Thank you."

Han Fei was stunned. "Are you... talking to me? Wait, are you a seed?"

The seed hummed and said, "Of course it's me. The Flame Essence has been reborn, and I've inherited the wisdom of the former Holy Spirit. You can call me... Golden Crow."

Han Fei: "..."

At that moment, Han Fei was dumbfounded as if he had been struck in the brain by lightning. This seed called itself the Golden Crow?

It was the Golden Crow!

If he guessed right, he saw a second mythical creature.

One was the azure dragon, and the other was the Golden Crow.

Although one was a dragon soul and the other was a seed, they were still mythical creatures!

And it seemed that he had also seen a Kylin and a mermaid before. He felt that the world was getting more and more malicious towards him.

Before, Han Fei didn't think so, but now even the f*cking Golden Crow had shown up.

The seed said, "Fortunately, you woke me up with a huge amount of fire origin energy. If it weren't for this fire origin energy suddenly descending, I'm afraid that after tens of thousands of years, my seed would disappear and I would be destroyed forever."

"Uh..."

At this moment, Han Fei suddenly had an epiphany. In the myths of his previous life, the sun was a three-legged golden crow! At this moment, what he gathered over was the spiritual energy of the sun. After several months, the three-legged golden crow was resurrected?

Thinking about that, Han Fei immediately said, "Haha, it's nothing! But... Are you really the Golden Crow? Do you have three feet?"

The Golden Crow was surprised. "Two! Isn't it strange to have three feet? Besides, I'm a seed now. I can also grow into a human form."

"Huff!"

Han Fei was immediately relieved. Damn it! It seemed that he was mistaken. He had thought he met the three-legged golden crow.

He had thought that the fiery tree was inhabited by a phoenix, but he didn't see a phoenix but the Golden Crow. Wasn't it a surprise?

The Golden Crow said, "Please help me for another nine days. In nine days, the fire tree will bloom and I will be reborn."

Han Fei thought to himself, Is this the guy that Queen Life is talking about? At this moment, he felt that he suffered a loss. I seem to have awakened an extraordinary existence.

In the next few days.

Han Fei and the Golden Crow began to chit-chat. One attracted the fire, and the other devoured the fire. The two cooperated well, leaving Little Black full of aggrievement, feeling that his dad seemed to have forgotten him.

At this moment.

In this strange space.

Han Fei asked, "Why are you trapped in this fire tree?"

The Golden Crow said, "My ancestor must have perished in the middle of a battle and accidentally fell here. Therefore, it took root and sprouted here."

Han Fei asked, "Hey... are you a tree or a bird?"

The Golden Crow: "How do you know I'm a bird? I'm clearly a seed now."

Han Fei curled his lips. "But you're called the Golden Crow."

The Golden Crow asked, "What kind of logic is that? I should be a man left outside by the Golden Crow Sky."

Han Fei felt his scalp tingle. "Wait a moment, what sky?"

The Golden Crow: "The Golden Crow Sky!"

Han Fei asked, "Are you talking about the Thirty-Six Mystic Worlds?"

The Golden Crow: "It seems to be the case in my inherited memories! Which sky are you from?"

Han Fei thought to himself, Even a seed has such a powerful background. I can't be dwarfed!

Han Fei immediately said, "I'm Han Fei, the master of the Yin-Yang World. Since you're from the Golden Crow World, you owe me a big favor."

The Golden Crow replied, "Of course. But shouldn't Heavenly Masters kings? You don't seem to be one yet."

Han Fei sneered. "I'm still better than what you are now! You're only a seed now."

The Golden Crow was a little stunned. "That's true. However, where are we now?"

"In the Water-Wood World."

"Where is the Water-Wood World?"

Han Fei was speechless. "Wait... You said you were from the Golden Crow Sky, but you don't know the Water-Wood World? Do you know the Yin-Yang World?"

The Golden Crow: "In my inherited memory, I only know the Thirty-Six Mystic Worlds. I haven't received so much information."

Han Fei rolled his eyes. Troublesome! I thought he was an awesome guy. It seems that he is also a noob.

The Golden Crow said, "When I'm born, I'll be able to remember everything after absorbing the essence of the sun for three years."

Han Fei rolled his eyes. "Are you Nezha? Absorbing the essence of the scorching sun for three years? Your bark will be burnt off!"

The Golden Crow was puzzled. "Who is Nezha? Which sky is he from?"

Han Fei rolled his eyes. "No sky..."

Han Fei had been acquainted with the Golden Crow after chatting with him for several days.

Finally, on the ninth day, flames rose to the sky under Han Fei, and a six-leaf petal bloomed under his butt. This petal was not big and could only wrap a person.

Because the petal was too small and looked like a leaf, it didn't attract anyone's attention. And those who should had noticed it long ago.

Little Black should be 80% full by now. At this moment, Han Fei took him back. After all, he could gather the essence of the sun anywhere.

When the petal bloomed, Queen Life appeared and stood beside Han Fei.

In the petal, a four or five-year-old cute little golden bird was looking at Han Fei and Queen Life innocently with its head held high.

Information popped up in Han Fei's eyes.

< Name > Golden Crow

< Introduction > This is a mutated animal of the primeval age that has the bloodline of a divine beast. The specifics are unknown. It's born with the ability to control fire and can control Strange Fires in the world. It bathes in fire and absorbs the essence of the sun. Every realm it passes, it undergoes nirvana once. But once it becomes a king, it can obtain a nine-death body.

Upon seeing this information, Han Fei's lips twitched. Primordial Fierce Beast, bloodline of a divine beast? Is his identity so f*cking awesome? He's just a little bird.

Queen Life: "You've finally awakened."

The cute little bird said cutely, "I remember your breath. You come to see me often."

Queen Life was slightly relieved. "At least you have a conscience. I used Life Spring Water to keep you from dying for tens of thousands of years. If you don't recognize me, you have no conscience."

Han Fei looked at Queen Life in surprise. Really?

Queen Life looked at Han Fei. "Alright, you don't owe me anymore. Don't you want to return to the Yin-Yang World? Go!"

The cute little bird asked, "Han Fei, are you leaving already?"

Han Fei thought to himself, Queen Life spent so much to keep you alive for tens of thousands of years. Even if I want, it's impossible for me to snatch you from her. Forget it.

Han Fei shrugged. "Yes, I have to return to my Yin-Yang World and fight."

The cute little bird flapped its wings. "When I become a human, I'll go help you."

Han Fei said with disdain, "Help me? Heh, forget it. I can do it myself... F*ck..."

Fire Element gathered on the little bird and he leveled up.

Han Fei was dumbfounded. F*ck, he is levelling up too fast, isn't he!

Han Fei laughed.. "Okay, then I'll wait for the day you become a king."

Chapter 1367: The Big Brother, Nine Tails

The appearance of the Golden Crow only made Han Fei feel the mystery of this world.

Perhaps there were still many things he didn't know. Perhaps his knowledge was as shallow as the old turtle said. Or maybe, even he didn't know if the Golden Crow had three feet...

Unexpectedly, the Golden Crow came out in the form of a seed. It bloomed from the tree and grew out? This method of birth was simply unheard of!

The Water Immortal also became a seed. Why did all these creatures become seeds in the end?

Han Fei didn't know much about it. He asked the old turtle, who said that he had never been in contact with a creature like the Golden Crow. Although an emperor knew a lot of things, there were limits.

Han Fei felt that the old turtle must have tricked him in some way. For example, the old turtle's strength was actually not at the level of an emperor at all, but he just kept bragging in front of him.

On the Cave Sea.

Ning Jing claimed that Little Gold and Nine Tails were both here.

Han Fei thought to himself, Why did Little Gold hang out with bugs?

When he reached the Cave Sea, Han Fei realized that it was a pity that he didn't explore it.

In this area, on the south side of the Cloud Sea Divine Tree, three thousand kilometers above the water, all the way to the bottom of the water, and another thirty thousand kilometers outside, were all areas where insects lived.

In this 30,000 kilometer area, there were dozens of earth mounds and caves.

Going deeper into the cave, he didn't know how many twists and turns he had gone through. Along the way, there were all kinds of pupas. When Han Fei first came here, he perceived thousands of insects crawling out of the eggs.

These insects that were more than half a meter long, after they broke out of their eggs, would quickly swim to the larger area beyond the thirty thousand kilometer area. They were newborns with different strengths. From the newly awakened to Sea Spirits, their levels were different.

In order to facilitate control, the insects were usually classified by type and realm.

In every species, high-level bugs as commanders would organize newborn bugs.

These insects might be stupid, including Heavenly Talents like Chong Liuliu, but as far as he knew, they had very good discipline and clear targets. They knew what they wanted and what life and death were...

Seeing that Han Fei was shocked, Ning Jing couldn't help but say, "The insect race is a very strong race. Without the insect race guarding it, Water-Wood World wouldn't have been able to hold on long ago."

Han Fei nodded in a daze. "I can see it. They are too fertile, even more fertile than sea demons. If it weren't for the fact that the area where the Insect Clan lives is relatively narrow, I'm afraid even the Sea Clan wouldn't be a match for them."

Ning Jing said noncommittally, "It's precisely because the insect race's reproduction ability is too strong that it's very difficult for the insect queens to become kings. Therefore, the Insect King was born and is regarded by the entire insect race as the most likely to become a king. But up to now, the Insect King is still stuck at the level of the Half-King, unable to comprehend the final Dao and become a king.”

Han Fei couldn't help but ask, “Is the last step to becoming a king something to comprehend?”

Ning Jing said, “Do you think it's so simple to become a king? Every race and every king is the role model of a race, bearing the prosperity and decline of a race and obtaining the faith of the people of their respective race. No one can become a king easily! Be it good or bad, becoming a king is always special.”

Han Fei was suspicious. “Didn't you just say that every king is the role model of a race... If a king is bad, is his entire race bad?”

Ning Jing rolled her eyes at Han Fei. “There might be an evil king, who can become a king by sacrificing the lives of his people. I saw this on an ancient site... Ah! Anyway, it's very difficult... To become a king, you'll have to make a big noise.”

Han Fei thought to himself, I knew I had to make a big noise! Just transcending the tribulation has already made such a big noise. How can I not possibly make a big noise if I want to become a king?

On the edge of the Cloud Sea Divine Tree, more than 10,000 kilometers away, Han Fei was the first to feel Little Gold's breath.

Little Gold was moving towards him at a great speed, so fast that Han Fei exclaimed: this guy should have grown a lot.

Han Fei thought to himself, Little Fatty is not weak. Under my supervision, it had reached level 55 since the battle on that island.

Although he died once after the battle on the island, he should have absorbed some dragon essence power after his resurrection. So he leveled up by three levels in a row, and even the color of his skin became redder. After nearly two years of tempering, his strength was stabilized at level 58. Although he hadn't become a law enforcer yet, this growth speed was already very fast.

After all, the more potential he had, the harder it would be for him to grow.

Han Fei's rapid growth was based on the fact that he had risked his life countless times to gain experiences and opportunities.

Little Fatty had been taken by Han Fei all the time. It was a small chance, but it was also very dangerous.

In the Sea Demon Realm, it was easy for one to quickly grow by seven or eight levels. However, the higher one went, the more difficult he went further, and it had only been three years now!

Han Fei murmured, “I should thank God if Little Gold and the others can grow by five levels on average.”

After all, not only did he leave them millions of catties of Spirit Awakening Fluid, but they also had a lot of reserve themselves. If they didn't even reach level 55... Heh, he would definitely beat them one by one.

Swish! Swish! Swish...

A golden-red light streaked across the sky, leaving a long white mark.

“Master!”

Little Gold shouted from afar.

When he came close, Han Fei looked at this guy. Wow, he had become so big. His wingspan could reach 30 meters. And he must have shrunk his body. Otherwise, he should have been bigger!

However, when he landed, Little Gold’s body shrank quickly. In the end, it became only three meters long and rubbed against him.

Han Fei glanced at him, and information appeared in his eyes.

< Name > Feather God Ray

< Introduction > Ancient exotic species, a flying fish, with two wings and two feet. Its wings are as sharp as blades and can break gold and crack stones. Feather God Ray can fly into the sky or dive into the sea. Its speed is extremely fast. Its head is as firm as a mountain, and it is good at hitting things with its head. < Remarks > Current status: growth period

Good lord, he had reached level-57 and had one more combat skill, Thunder Domain. It must be a thunder technique.

Han Fei couldn’t help but look at Ning Jing in surprise. “He has grown so fast?”

Ning Jing said, “Your contractual spiritual beasts accumulated enough in the early stages. Because they accumulated for a long time in the early stages, which suppressed their growth, after they were completely free, their growth rate was extremely fast. In addition, you left a large amount of Spirit Awakening Fluid, so it’s normal for them to break through two small realms. It’s not fast.”

Han Fei thought to himself, Not fast? I’ve been with them for so long, but I haven’t seen them grow so fast.

Han Fei couldn’t help patting Little Gold’s head. “Not bad, not bad. Let’s go home.”

Recalling Little Gold, Han Fei couldn’t help but ask, “Where is Nine Tails? Where is he?”

Ning Jing asked, “Can’t you perceive him?”

Han Fei said, “I’m trying to perceive him, but he is not not moving at all.”

Han Fei thought to himself, Nine Tails is not quite reliable. I should check it out.

The Cave Sea Area was called the “Cave Sea” because there were caves everywhere. It was the best place for the insects to inhabit.

Although the White Shell Royal City troops had retreated, the daily battles on the front line battlefield would not stop, especially in the Cave Sea area. If the battles stopped here, God knew how many new insect soldiers would pop up.

Nine Tails, a Mantis Shrimp, had been regarded as an anomaly since he blended into the army of the insect race.

Although Nine Tails was still not quite capable of speech, its intelligence was high, much higher than ordinary insects. At this moment, Nine Tails led 3,000 insect soldiers to fight on a battlefield.

On the battlefield, some Sea Clan residents, Sickle Hermit Crabs, were charging. As their name suggested, Sickle Crabs were hermit crabs with shells, which were good at group battles with the sickles sticking out of their shells as their means of attack. They could even form sickle tornadoes that could easily kill ordinary sea demons.

Under normal circumstances, the insects on the battlefield would either charge or hide in the caves to ambush them. But when Nine Tails came, the situation changed.

Swish! Swish! Swish...

Nine Tails emerged from an insect cave, its nine tails rising to the sky like a spiral, extending out of the void, destroying the enemy’s camp from inside, and even drilled a big hole in the ground.

Nine Tails shouted, “Kill!”

Countless geysers gushed out, and the 3,000 insect army charged out of the mud with their sting-like horns.

Puff, puff, puff!

Ka ka ka!

Shattered shells littered the ground. Nine Tails won the first battle and its nine tails danced wildly. He commanded, “Spiral Spiked Armor Array, activate.”

Three thousand insect soldiers floated in the water, forming a large arc shield, and aimed their horns at the enemy’s camp.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

All the insects began to revolve. Han Fei suddenly thought of a word: Three Thousand Lightning Poisonous Dragon Drill.

Nine Tails was quite talented in commanding!

They easily won this battle, and only less than one-tenth of the insect army died.

A bug respectfully said to Nine Tails, “Big Brother, are we going to the battlefield over there?”

A bug buzzed, "Big Brother, the big fat dragons are here again."

Nine Tails ordered, "It's just big fat dragons. Let's go, brothers. Take them down..."

The corner of Han Fei's mouth twitched. What the hell is this?

Han Fei couldn't help asking, "Who is the big fat dragon?"

Ning Jing said, "Oh! A soft worm called the Rolling Sting Meat Dragon. It's hard to beat because its body is full of stings. The insect race likes to call it the Big Fat Dragon."

Han Fei was not going to watch the show. He coughed and released his breath.

Nine Tails was charging at the forefront with the three-thousand army, when he suddenly froze.

As soon as Nine Tails stopped, all the insects behind him stopped.

A bug asked, "Big Brother, what's wrong?"

"Big Brother, do you feel something is wrong?"

"Big Brother, are you hungry?"

But Nine Tails shook them aside with his butt. "Brothers, I'm leaving. My master is here... Master, I miss you so much!"

Nine Tails swooshed out of the water, and the army of insects followed him.

"Big Brother, don't go!"

"Big Brother, your master is my master. We're on the same side."

Pa!

Nine Tails whipped the insect away with his chain. "Are you qualified? Get off..."

Nine Tails rushed to Han Fei's feet and rubbed his shiny armor against Han Fei's leg. "Master, you're finally back."

At this moment, Nine Tails didn't look like a big brother at all and looked very obsequious.

Han Fei clicked his tongue. "That's a good title! You're already a big brother?"

Chapter 1368: The Licking Dog's Daily Life

Nine Tails's growth did give Han Fei a shock. It had reached level 59 with a swish! Even a rocket couldn't be so fast!

Information popped up in his eyes.

< Name > Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp

< Introduction > A mutant Mantis Shrimp, with fast speed and strong attacking power, good at hiding itself and attacking prey. Its nine tails can turn into nine divine chains and it has extremely strong combat power.

< Level > 59

< Quality > Legend

< Contained Spiritual Energy > 29,998 Points

< Food > Omnivorous, prefers shrimp

< Battle Technique > Void Chains, Nine-Tailed Soul Stabbing

< Remarks > Current status: growth period

Seeing that Han Fei was shocked, Ning Jing said, "This Mantis Shrimp is very talented in combat. He has fought almost all the wild battlefields in the entire Cave Sea Area. He has fought more than once against those whose strength exceeds his. He once charged at the Sea Spirit Army alone. That scene is similar to when you fought a hundred alone."

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. Looking at Nine Tails, he thought to himself, Is this guy really so strong? I thought he only knew how to dig holes.

But even so, Han Fei still felt that it was too fast to leap three levels at once.

However, Ning Jing said casually, "The Insect King taught him for a few days."

Han Fei raised his eyebrows. "Got it."

Now he owed the Insect King two favors, Han Fei couldn't help but say, "I don't seem to know the Insect King very well."

Ning Jing said, "The Insect King is a Half-King!"

Han Fei wondered, "What do you mean?"

Ning Jing said, "In the eyes of some people, you are a quasi king. He just tries to be friendly with you. Don't take it seriously."

Han Fei nodded slightly and then kicked Nine Tails. "It's enough here. It's time to return to our own world."

With a thought from Han Fei, Nine Tails disappeared into his body.

Han Fei looked at Ning Jing, not paying attention to the surprised insects, asking Ning Jing where the Licking Dog was.

Ning Jing said, "He's in the Dark War Port. You went straight to see the queen when you came back, so we walked directly through the void. That dog... well, he's right there."

Han Fei thought to himself, Not bad! The Dark War Port has always been the fiercest one of the four battlefields in the Water-Wood World. Since the Licking Dog has been there for so long, he should be no weaker than Nine Tails.

Without any delay, he took the teleportation array. Han Fei's current speed was not slow at all. Even Ning Jing didn't consider him an ordinary explorer but a Venerable, and Han Fei could keep up.

Dark War Port, Dark Water.

This was a pitch-black water area under the Seaborne Prairie. This place had suffered a great disaster, resulting in jagged rocks and various rock caves.

Later, probably because of the Cloud Sea Divine Tree, it was covered by lush spiritual plants here.

However, the water here was deep, and there were very few coral reefs. Most of them were deep water ravines. There were huge algae growing from the bottom of the sea to the surface, and most of them were aquatic plants floating in the middle waters.

Under a slippery reef full of ordinary sea snails, a transparent algae quietly moved.

The Dark Water was the tacitly acknowledged universal battlefield of the Water-Wood World and the White Shell Royal City, so the creatures here didn't mind being attacked by creatures at the Explorer level at all.

In fact, here, only people of the same realm could find their peers. Even if a law enforcer encountered a sea demon, he wouldn't take action.

Of course, if a sea demon ambushed a law enforcer, the latter would definitely fight back.

All the creatures here knew that this was more of a trial.

If a sea demon cultivated to the peak of Sea Spirit here, they would also retreat from the Fearless Barrier, and the Fearless Tree wouldn't make things difficult for them. This was because this was the arena of both parties, which was the tacit rule.

At this moment.

The transparent algae eel's target was a bird, although the algae eel didn't know why a bird would appear at the bottom of the sea.

"Meow..."

Yes, when Han Fei heard this cry, he knew that it was undoubtedly the Licking Dog. However, he didn't know when this guy could become a bird.

The transparent algae eel moved extremely slowly, conceited that it was already a peak-level sea demon. The big bird looked much weaker than him.

Buzz!

In an instant, the transparent algae eel attacked. However, its pounce missed.

When it turned its head, it saw a monster behind it, staring at it with widened eyes. Where was the bird?

The transparent algae eel realized something and immediately tried to run.

However, two wings sealed the way, and dog paws pressed down, directly crushing the transparent algae.

Then, he disappeared with a swish and reappeared. The Licking Dog was carrying a sea urchin, a starfish, and a roll of seaweed.

Han Fei was confused. What was this guy doing?

What happened next stunned Han Fei. This guy extended his claws, tore off the fish skin of the transparent algae eel, took out the roe of the sea urchin, peeled the starfish, and rolled up the seaweed. Then he lay on the ground like a dead dog and began to eat casually.

Ning Jing immediately said, "He must have learned this from you. It's said that the beasts are the best at imitating."

Han Fei thought to himself, I have never made food for the Licking Dog! How can he copy me? He taught himself!

He treated the transparent algae eel as a snack. Before he finished eating, a shrimp soldier swam over, whose strength was only at the level of a sea demon.

When it was still far away, the Licking Dog pricked his ears and stood up with a swish.

Han Fei thought to himself, He's quite vigilant. 3,000 meters away, this should be far beyond his perception range. Not bad.

Ning Jing sneered. "Keep watching!"

The Licking Dog stuck out his tongue and wagged his tail, before he disappeared.

Han Fei perceived again, and he was already standing in front of the shrimp soldier.

"So fast. Is this the f*cking Sky Escape Technique?"

Han Fei was speechless. Why did you use your special secret technique to hunt ordinary low-level shrimp soldiers?

At the next moment, the Licking Dog slapped the shrimp soldier's face.

The shrimp soldier was stunned. It had never seen such a creature! And he seemed to be much bigger than it.

The shrimp soldier hurriedly shouted, "Don't forget the rules. This is the Dark Water Domain. If the level gap is too large, you're not allowed to attack me..."

Pa!

The Licking Dog slapped the shrimp soldier to the ground.

The shrimp soldier said angrily, "Do you want to break the rules?"

Pa!

"This is not for the purpose of training. This is a competition. We have to be fair."

Pa!

The Licking Dog slapped the shrimp soldier a dozen times before suddenly saying, "Take off your shell, and I'll let you go."

The shrimp soldier: "???"

The shrimp soldier said, "You're bullying me. Removing my shell is equivalent to taking half of my life. Are you doing this on purpose so that I can be killed by other creatures? A powerhouse is coming from behind me. If you want to fight, fight a powerhouse of the same strength."

Han Fei also said, "Did this damn dog break the rules?"

Ning Jing said, "Yes, but it's not a big problem. I've acquiesced. And this dog is very careful."

There was indeed someone behind the shrimp soldier. An octopus, a Sea Spirit, was swimming over wrapped in a mass of algae.

The Licking Dog waved his paw and knocked the shrimp soldier's head off, grabbing its tentacle.

Then this silly dog bit the shrimp soldier in his mouth and began to spin extremely fast. All of sudden, he loosened his bite and threw the shrimp soldier away.

Han Fei was confused. "What's he doing here?"

Ning Jing: "Playing!"

"Play?"

Sure enough, at the next moment, the Licking Dog jumped back to his nest, lay on the ground, and turned into a fish.

Wait, why did the licking dog become a fish? What kind of ability was this?

But why did he keep his dog head when he became a fish? With a dog head, he had a fish body, which looked disgusting.

Lying on his back, the Licking Dog was sucking the "food" he had just made.

After a while, the Licking Dog seemed to realize that an enemy was coming, so it immediately turned its dog head into a fish head, lay on the ground, and whipped the seabed with his tail.

He looked like a dry fish at this moment.

But the danger didn't go away. The shrimp soldier did bring an octopus of the Sea Spirit level with it. When the octopus found the licking dog, it was a little surprised to see the latter's belly flip. It thought to itself, Who killed him? Or was he pretending to be dead?

Just as the octopus was afraid that it was a trap and was about to slap him with a swish, the licking dog disappeared again.

Han Fei spread out his perception and found that this guy had quickly run to another nest more than 30 kilometers away and was lying there again.

Han Fei asked again, "What is he doing?"

Ning Jing said, "That's his nest too. There are many of them here. He's a coward who only dares to bully the weak and fears the strong. He left when he found that the octopus was a Sea Spirit."

Han Fei was lost for words. "That's it?"

Ning Jing: "Yes! It's over!"

Han Fei glanced at the octopus that had just entered the Sea Spirit Realm and thought to himself, You're a f*cking ancient exotic species! Why are you afraid of it?

On the other side, the licking dog had already caught a sea urchin. He turned over, treating the sea urchin as a ball, and kicked the ball between his four paws.

Han Fei's face immediately turned black. I told you to cultivate harder, but you just fool around here every day! How capable were you when you bullied the shrimp soldier just now? Why didn't you dare to attack when you met that octopus?

Shua!

Han Fei jumped out and was about to kick out when he froze in midair.

"F*ck, am I hallucinating?"

Han Fei saw a weird piece of information.

< Name > Heavenly Dog

< Introduction > Ancient exotic species that likes to inhabit turbid waters and dark mountains. They look like white dogs and have black heads. Their sounds are varied and often reduce their sense of threat by pretending to be cats. Heavenly Dogs have wings and blue feathers like sharp blades. They can twist the void and escape extremely fast. They are good at stealth and like to bully the weak. Heavenly dogs have the ability to devour the sky and the sun, but the ability needs to be activated passively.

The Licking Dog was startled and fled the moment Han Fei appeared. Han Fei rubbed his eyes and shouted, "Come back."

"Master? Master, you're back, Master?"

"Master, I miss you so much."

"Master, do you have any food?"

"Master..."

Han Fei ignored the Licking Dog and looked at Ning Jing.

Ning Jing curled her lips and said, "That's exactly what happened. He just eats and eats every day. Except for eating, he still eats, but for some reason, his strength is progressing very fast. The queen said that maybe this is his Great Dao. He can become stronger even while lying down."

Han Fei: "..."

"Crunch!"

The licking dog stood up and stuck out his tongue, about to lie on Han Fei.

Han Fei issued an order in his heart and immediately took this guy in.

Han Fei asked, "Can he grow stronger while sleeping?"

Ning Jing said, "You know, it can be invisible and sleeps almost half a day every day."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei couldn't help but clutch his head. "Forget it. I don't have time to study this now.. I have to go back now."

Chapter 1369: Liberate the Leafless Tree

Han Fei had been in the Water-Wood World for almost three years.

Except for the few days before he came, Han Fei stayed here to transcend the tribulation. After that, Han Fei didn't spend much time in the Cloud Sea Divine Tree.

To be honest, Han Fei was still not familiar with the Cloud Sea Divine Tree. He was still amazed by what he saw.

In the area below the Cloud Sea Divine Tree.

The old treeman named Qianshu was still in class, but the students had probably changed.

As soon as the class started, they were already chattering nonstop.

A bug kept buzzing. "Grandpa Tree, I heard that Uncle Han Fei challenged a king in front of the Dark War Port a while ago. Is this true?"

A little treeman was also curious. "Grandpa Tree, I heard that Beimu, the Heavenly Talent of the demon plant family, was defeated by the sea demons?"

Three Golden Feather Sparrows hopped and chirped, "I heard that Han Fei is from the Sky Clan."

A human child immediately refuted. "Nonsense, he's clearly a human."

One of the Golden Feather Sparrows said, "Then why? I heard that he is not good-looking? He must be from our Sky Clan."

A human girl snorted. "That's impossible. He's just not that good-looking. A few ugly people had already come to our Star Fire Division three years ago."

"Ah-choo ~"

In the human race's settlement, the Star Fire Division.

On a leaf of the Cloud Sea Divine Tree, a boy sneezed hard. The boy frowned. "Did I sneeze?"

Next to him, a valiant-looking girl asked, "Xing Yue, what's wrong?"

Xing Yue shook her head slightly. "Nothing. I just sneezed."

Among the few people sitting on the Cloud Sea Divine Leaf, a beautiful girl suddenly opened her eyes. "Qi Qi, I just heard about Senior Brother Han Fei in the Grand Void Illusionary Realm."

The youth who woke up later said, "Our strength is too weak, but Senior Brother can already kill a great demon at the peak of the Dao Seeking realm with one punch. His strength is obvious. The top priority now is that we can't hold Senior Brother back."

"Hmph!"

On the leaves, a petite, silent but adorable girl snorted. "Su Sanqian, go to the Cave Sea."

Su Sanqian curled his lips. "Su Daiji, I'm your brother."

Su Daiji said, "All the more reason to go. When I become a Venerable, I'll beat the hell out of all of the Senior Brother's enemies."

If Han Fei were here, he would be surprised. The five of Su Daiji, who had been taken away by Diwu Weiguang, were actually living on the Cloud Sea Divine Tree.

If he stayed in the Cloud Sea Divine Tree for a longer time, he would probably meet them. Although there were too many humans, his junior brothers and sisters were too famous!

As long as Han Fei came to this clan, he would definitely meet them.

There was no telling whether it was intentional or purely coincidental, but since Han Fei didn't meet them, no one had mentioned this to him.

However, Su Daiji and the others knew very clearly that Han Fei had already reached the level of challenging a king in the Water-Wood World.

Han Fei, on the other hand, was grim.

This was the second time he had come to the Demon Forest Channel in three years, but once again, he heard someone commenting on him.

This time, the teleportation array lit up, and everyone's eyes were immediately attracted. They thought to themselves, Who will disturb us during class?

But immediately, everybody exclaimed in shock, "Han Fei! He is Han Fei!"

For these children, Han Fei seemed too special. Therefore, they could recognize him at a glance.

Han Fei frowned, and many people covered their mouths.

The insects hooked their mouths with their claws, the treemen blocked their faces with their branches, and the sky clan covered their entire bodies with their wings. Only the human youths were dumbfounded.

There was also a young man who bowed in shock. "Greetings, Messenger Jing."

It was not until this moment that everybody finally came back to themselves and said, "Greetings, Messenger Jing."

Seeing that Jing'er and Han Fei had arrived at the same time, the old treeman seemed to have foreseen something and said slowly, "Kids, today's class is dismissed in advance. You have one day off."

On a normal day, when it came to holidays, everyone was overjoyed. But these few days, they wanted to stay longer.

However, they were all sensible children. Seeing Han Fei come, they already knew what Han Fei wanted to do.

This was the passage between the two worlds. The old treeman had mentioned the Water-Wood World and the Yin-Yang World more than once. Although the old treeman knew very little about the Yin-Yang World, he knew some ancient chronicles.

Besides, last time Han Fei came here, he said that the human race of the Yin-Yang World was at war. Therefore, in the following classes, the old treeman also mentioned a lot.

A human youth immediately reacted. "I hope that Lord Han Fei can defeat the sea demons and revive our human race."

A girl's eyes glittered. "I hope that Master Han Fei can become a king soon. Hope you can sweep the sea demons and end the war."

"Master Han Fei..."

For a moment, the human youths were chattering. Although they were still immature, their expressions were quite serious.

In the Water-Wood World, the human race was declining. The four races lived in the Cloud Sea Divine Tree. Although the atmosphere was harmonious, they were ultimately grass without roots. In order to survive, the humans here gave up many things that humans should have had. They didn't even know what land was.

Although this price brought them the advantage of being handsome and beautiful, it made them evolve into another human race...

Fortunately, it hadn't been long, so the characteristics of the human race were still greatly preserved.

Han Fei nodded slightly. "Okay! When I return to the Yin-Yang World, I'll flatten the sea demons. When the human race rises again, I will come back."

The students left one after another, and Old Man Qianshu sighed slowly. "Messenger Jing. I'll release Leafless now."

Jing'er nodded slightly. "Qianshu, Leafless has been there for more than ten thousand years, right?"

Qianshu said leisurely, "It's been more than 12,000 years. He should have received enough punishment."

Han Fei clicked his tongue. This was a demonic plant. It could easily live for more than 10,000 years.

However, hearing that Leafless was being punished, Han Fei couldn't help being curious. "Was Senior Leafless ordered to guard the demonic plant channel as a punishment?"

Jing'er said, "Back then, the demon plant line was declining, and Leafless cultivated an evil technique to steal the power of the Cloud Sea Divine Tree. The queen sent him to guard the Demonic Plant Channel as a punishment, and he wouldn't be spared until the Demonic Plant Channel was used."

Han Fei raised his eyebrows. This punishment was quite harsh. More than ten thousand years! Three times the lifespan of an explorer.

Qianshu said, "I was also involved in what happened back then. From now on, it should be me guarding there."

Qianshu said indifferently as if he had been preparing for this for a long time. Thinking of the fact that Qianshu, as a peak-level Explorer, or even a Half-Venerable, was only teaching here, Han Fei seemed to understand a little.

However, this was none of his business.

Queen Life might not take it seriously, so Han Fei didn't ask further.

Jing'er said, "It's been such a long time and the punishment on Leafless is enough. Then let him out! It depends on you whether or not this Demonic Plant Channel can be opened."

Han Fei thought to himself, When I don't have the power to resist a king, I won't open this demon forest channel! Unless you guys help me.

Han Fei said, "That's easy. I'll open this road when I preside over the Yin-Yang World."

Han Fei didn't give a clear answer. When Han Fei could preside over the Yin-Yang World, he might have become a Half King or even a King.

In Qianshu's view, he might have to guard the channel for thousands of years. Therefore, he had long been prepared to sleep in the demon forest channel for a long time.

The roots of Qianshu left hundreds of spots in the air. The strange patterns combined and lit up the ancient teleportation array not far away.

Buzz!

With a dazzling strange light, the teleportation array opened, and a dry branch slowly extended out.

Qianshu: "Leafless, it's been more than ten thousand years. You can come out now."

The old voice of the Leafless Tree echoed, "Thank you, my queen. I know I'm sinful. Now that I'm out, shall I teach here like Qianshu?"

Queen Life's voice sounded softly, "Okay!"

After hearing Queen Life's words, Han Fei saw that after the dry branch extended out, the surrounding spiritual energy gathered frantically. Then, the dead vine expanded and grew a large branch. The green leaves covered the place at a visible speed.

After a while, the Leafless Tree appeared.

However, the Leafless Tree looked completely different from the one he saw in the demonic forest channel.

If the Leafless Tree in the demon forest channel was a fallow tree that was about to die, the one in front of him seemed to be a young tree with lush leaves.

A tremendous amount of spiritual energy was gathering, and Queen Life's voice echoed, "Perception is forbidden here."

Han Fei felt that the Leafless Tree's aura began to soar crazily. It went from the Demonization Realm to the Sea Demon Realm in an instant, then to the Sea Spirit, and then to the Explorer. He didn't even need to transcend the tribulation.

His strength was still soaring.

Queen Life bestowed an Immeasurable Fruit and injected some spiritual spring into it. Then she continued, "Stay at the Half-Venerable realm. Don't make a breakthrough. Suppress your strength so that you can make a breakthrough in combat."

The Leafless Tree shook. "Yes, my queen."

After that, Leafless looked at Han Fei. "The Yin-Yang World is in danger. Go back early."

Han Fei's face suddenly changed. "In danger? The Demon Forest Channel and the Yin-Yang World have never been connected. How did you know that... something happened in the Yin-Yang World?"

Leafless said leisurely, "Have you forgotten who sent you out back then? Although I can't investigate much, something might have been dug out at the Demon Forest Channel, which is where you went out before. The noise was too loud, so I went out to take a look."

Han Fei asked eagerly, "Do you know what happened?"

The Leafless Tree's branches trembled. "I don't know. However, since the sound can reach the Demon Forest Channel, it must be very loud."

Han Fei said solemnly, "There's no time to lose. I'm going back."

Qianshu: "Please follow me."

Chapter 1370: Return

Demonic Forest Channel.

As soon as Ning Jing entered this place, her nerves tightened. "What a powerful seal."

Han Fei glanced at Ning Jing. Her aura had quickly dropped from the Venerable realm to the Demonization realm. It was no wonder she looked tense. If someone attacked her at this time, the consequences were unpredictable.

However, Ning Jing was only slightly surprised before she breathed a sigh of relief. "It's not a complete suppression. My realm is suppressed, and some of my physique power can't be used. However, my characteristics as a Venerable are still there. I can still revive with blood, and my physique isn't weak to the Demonization realm."

Han Fei also felt that the power of his physique, except for its own specific hardness, had all disappeared.

However, Han Fei didn't panic at all.

If he guessed right, his current physique should be stronger than Jing'er's.

For those who didn't walk the path of body refinement, after entering this place, not only had their realm plummeted, but even their physique had dropped by two levels.

The difference between body refining and non-body refining was manifested here.

Entering this place, Han Fei was about to ask how to get out, when he saw that the Leafless Tree with only two branches was still here.

Qianshu explained, "Leafless has been here for too long. He was so bored that his remnant body gave birth to a new body, leaving his remnant body behind."

With that said, Qianshu waved her vine-like hand casually, and the two branches snapped. Qianshu handed one of the branches to Han Fei and said, "With this branch, you can open a path to the demon forest in the nearby areas."

Han Fei said, "Senior Qianshu, you have to be careful guarding this place. The sea demons also have a way to enter this place! Although they're only in the Demonization Realm, they once broke several branches of Senior Leafless in a row."

Qianshu said unhurriedly, "No worries. Leafless's branches were broken because he used most of his power to give birth to a new body. I won't give birth to a new body within a thousand years, so if the sea demons dare to invade, I won't let them get away."

Han Fei was relieved to hear that.

However, he thought for a moment and said, "In fact, it doesn't matter even if you let them go to the Water-Wood World! The Cloud Sea Divine Tree has so many strong masters. They can easily squeeze them to death!"

Qianshu: "The sea demons can never taint the Cloud Sea Divine Tree."

Ning Jing said, "It's just a few sea demons. There's no need to trap-kill them. Besides, this is your business, not our Water-Wood World's."

Han Fei shrugged and said, "Senior Qianshu, please send us out."

Qianshu couldn't help looking at Ning Jing. "Messenger Jing, you too..."

Ning Jing said, "This was arranged by the queen. There's no need to say anything."

"Yes, Messenger Jing."

Qianshu must know the Leafless Tree very well, so he picked up a branch, and green light bloomed in his hand. The small branch broke through the air as if hitting through the sky, and a gap appeared.

Seeing this method, Han Fei's heart did a flip. Although Qianshu looked very gentle and had taught for so many years, in terms of technique, he was more direct and violent than the Leafless Tree. Of course, it was not hard to imagine that the Leafless Tree had been here for too long and lost some of its vigor.

Han Fei didn't take it seriously. He exchanged a glance with Ning Jing, and the two of them disappeared into the passage with a swish.

The moment he went to sea, Han Fei scanned the area with his perception. Because the range was not large, nothing special happened. This place was close to the Ten Thousand Demon Valley, about a hundred thousand kilometers away. It was not rare to see ordinary sea demons hunting treasures.

Even Ning Jing couldn't extend her perception to the Ten Thousand Demon Valley at once.

However, Ning Jing frowned slightly and looked in the direction of the Ten Thousand Demon Valley. "There's the remnant aura of a sea demon Venerable. In that direction, there's a strong demonic Qi. It should be the place where sea demons gather. Are you going to destroy it?"

The corner of Han Fei's mouth twitched. "No rush! I just came back and don't know what's going on. If that place is still the one I know, it won't be difficult to destroy it. So, no rush."

Ning Jing: "Okay! Now, where are we going?"

Han Fei turned his head and said, "Let's go in that direction. It's a beautiful sea area called the Pearl Divers' Port. The coral reefs extend for a hundred thousand kilometers, and pearl divers come to search for treasures every day. Let's take you there."

Ning Jing's eyes lit up. "Pearl divers? What's so special about pearls?"

Han Fei's lips curled. "When the number of any creature reaches a certain amount, it will be different. Just take a look."

...

In fact, he was just passing by. He would take Ning Jing around and inspect around by the way.

The two crossed the void.

With Han Fei and Jing'er's speed, even if they walked slowly, it would only take them several hours to walk three or four hundred thousand kilometers. If they walked fast, it wouldn't even take them an hour.

Buzz!

Several hours passed.

When Han Fei saw the Sea of Pearls, he couldn't help but sigh. I'm finally back.

Sure enough, east or west, home was the best.

However, Han Fei scanned around with his perception and found that something was wrong. There were very few pearl divers today, but there were many guards around. There were as many as ten law enforcers.

Seeing that many coral reefs had signs of damage, Han Fei thought to himself, Not good, did something happen to the Sea of Pearls?

Ning Jing said in surprise, "Ah! This place is very peaceful. However, there are strange buildings emerging from the sea in that direction. What is that?"

Han Fei's heart did a flip. Is Jing'er's perception range so big? From her current position, she should be more than 50,000 kilometers away from the Pearl Divers' Port.

Han Fei said, "That's one of the human settlements. Let's go and take a look."

A moment later.

As soon as Han Fei landed, he found that there were not many people at the Pearl Divers' Port.

As the main source of revenue for the Scattered Stars Island, the Pearl Divers' Port had so few pearl divers, but so many guards.

At this moment, Han Fei detected two Explorers guarding the Pearl Divers' Port.

Before, Han Fei wasn't strong enough, so he didn't know how many explorers there were on the Scattered Stars Island.

At this moment, Han Fei's real strength had reached the level of a Half-Venerable, and the strength of his soul had even exceeded that of a so-called peak-level Explorer. Therefore, with just a slight perception, he found that something was wrong.

Ning Jing said, "Well... I think something might have indeed happened here. In the east of me, blood Qi is soaring. A great battle must have broken out."

Han Fei's heart sank. Jing'er was pointing at the Scattered Stars Island.

Chi la!

Having no time to care about the Pearl Divers' Port or enjoy the scenery, Han Fei tore the void and stepped in.

...

Scattered Stars Island.

A storm was brewing.

At this moment, there were more than 50 battlefields of various sizes all over the island. This was a full-scale attack on the island, which seemed to have been going on for several days.

The battle on the coast of the Scattered Stars Island was fierce.

In the offshore area, countless fishing boats floated in the air, with explorers guarding the high sky and law enforcers directing the battle below. These people's fishing boats floated in the air and they used fishing techniques to kill the enemy. It was obvious that they were from the Fisher Union.

In the sea a little further away, countless hunters of the Pioneer Group hid in all directions and attacked at any time, hoping to kill them with one blow.

On the shore, almost all the guardians of the Scattered Stars Island had been deployed. Some were fighting, some were resting, and some were fighting in cycles.

The Trans-Island Inspectors were swamped. Above the Scattered Stars Island, they had no time to slow down but ran at full speed.

In the sky, the fishing boat flew past, and a captain roared, "Come on, come on, help the Inferno Beach. It's full of scorpions there."

Someone in midair stopped them and shouted at the team, "No matter which squad you are from, leave half of you to me. The Path of Giants needs reinforcements."

The captain roared, "Nobody is available. Our squad has been borrowed with two batches of people. You can go to the Command Center to apply for reinforcements."

The man shouted, "Nobody available?"

Seeing this, the captain immediately took a breath. "Old Wu, you know the Path of Giants best. You have fought there for more than three years. Remember not to die."

In the team, a middle-aged soul warrior took a deep breath. "Okay, I'll go. Come on, reinforce them."

On the Scattered Stars Island, the five Command Centers had already exploded.

This was because there were too many people seeking reinforcements.

Therefore, all the Command Centers in the central city of the Scattered Stars Island, including the central city, had been divided into many teams.

For this reason, Xue Shenqi specifically emphasized that any major decision made by the Command Centers must be confirmed by their superiors before it could be carried out. Once there was an issue that was difficult to resolve, no matter how urgent it was, they must report it to the Command Center.

Of course, this was just the situation on the Scattered Stars Island.

On the coastline, a large number of spare soldiers were rushing to the east and being transferred away one wave after another. This showed that the Scattered Stars Island was not the most difficult one. After all, there were still spare forces that could continue to fight.

However, on the west side of the Scattered Stars Island, in the outer sea area, the battle situation was much more complicated.

Here, only on the human side, there were more than 2,000 Hidden Fishers, more than a hundred Law Enforcers, and more than ten Explorers. They were fighting frantically.

There were more than twice as many sea demons as humans.

The battle was so fierce that the blood was rolling, the tides were surging, and the sea was almost dyed red.

“Puff ~”

Someone was fighting two alone and was pierced by a harpoon. Seeing that he had no chance of survival, the long sword in his hand flew out and he leaned forward. “Explode!”

Song Yi was the captain of a five-person team. As a manipulator, there were only her and a spirit gatherer left in the team.

The other three, armorist, soul warrior, and hunter, had all died.

Not far away, at least three squads were fighting hard, raising tides in an attempt to rescue the two of them. However, dozens of Half-Mermen surrounded the two of them but didn't kill them, so as to lure more humans over.

Boom!

A giant water man came out of the water and attacked, causing the spirit gatherer in a team to have his internal organs shattered and die.

In such an intense battlefield, after the spirit gatherer died, the time for other people to fight became limited. However, there were so many sea demons that rushed forward one after another...

Having no choice, a team could only rush over frantically.

Song Yi shouted angrily, “Don't come over! Don't come over, all of you!”

But as soon as she said this, a harpoon swept out and a big whale attacked. The Sea God Strike swept across, and the team was instantly killed.

Next to Song Yi, the spirit gatherer shouted, "Song Yi, blow ourselves up. Otherwise, we will become their bait to lure and kill our companions."

All of a sudden, a Half-Merman broke through the water, holding double spears. Because he was too fast, he penetrated the two of them in an instant.

The other Half-Mermen around were all shocked to see him. This Half-Merman had an extraordinary background and was said to be a Heavenly Talent from the Royal City. His strength was indeed not to be underestimated.

The Half-Merman smiled. "Humph, you want to blow yourselves up in front of me? Listen to the howls of human beings. Human beings will die out sooner or later. The Sea Clan is the master forever of this vast sea area..."

While the Half-Merman was holding the two of them and exclaiming proudly, a voice suddenly sounded.

"Master forever? Go to the Netherworld!"

"Who?"
