Chapter 2019 Almost Sucked Dry

At this time, Han Fei hadn't fused his twin bodies yet, because the golden arm was still on his white-mist body.

Although the golden arm was completely under his control at this moment, he didn't know if the terrifying power had any side effects, so Han Fei didn't immediately fuse his twin bodies.

And his state wouldn't affect the return of the sixth vine.

The return of this vine seemed to be louder than before. The moment the two intertwined, the entire starry sky had already trembled, and a massive amount of resources gathered over.

Han Fei thought that if they were fused in his Origin Sea, a lot of resources would probably be swallowed.

The Demon Purification Pot was spinning, and the five vines on it were swaying and even growing. After about a hundred seconds, the sixth vine finally returned.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The moment the vines returned, the vines stabbed at Han Fei's black-mist body and white-mist body at the same time and then appeared in Han Fei's Origin Sea.

As soon as the Demon Purification Pot entered the Origin Sea, the entire Origin Sea boiled, and a tremendous amount of energy soared to the sky and poured into the vine.

Although Han Fei's heart ached a little, the rise of the Demon Purification Pot was equivalent to his rise. He certainly wouldn't stop him from swallowing resources. If the resources were used up, he would find more resources after he left the Monarch Palace.

The Demon Purification Pot seemed to know where Han Fei's main resources were, so it quickly came to the batch of resources Han Fei reserved for it.

That batch of resources, to put it bluntly, amounted to nearly three billion ultra-quality spiritual stones in total. After Han Fei robbed the Supreme Clearness World, a lot more were added.

Han Fei had thought that it would take a long time for the Demon Purification Pot to consume the resources.

However, what shocked Han Fei was that on average, nearly a thousand ultra-quality spiritual stones shattered every second. This speed was equivalent to nearly billions of points of spiritual energy being swallowed by it every second.

In this way, in a day, the Demon Purification Pot could probably eat 15 million ultra-quality spiritual stones. These resources would be exhausted in about half a year.

Han Fei couldn't have felt worse. Half a year? He had planned to let the Demon Purification Pot swallow these resources in decades. Why would it only be half a year?

Besides, considering the time acceleration in the Origin Sea, half a year here was less than seven days in the outside world.

So, his massive resources could only last seven days? Are you kidding me?

After only swallowing for less than 50 seconds, the new vine stretched out with a swish and looted the million Mystic Yellow Stones he got from the jewelry skeleton.

Han Fei: "???!"

Han Fei said, "Hey, don't overeat. Let's eat slowly. Remember to leave some for me."

This time, Han Fei was really anxious. Unlike ultra-quality spiritual stones, he had many sources of ultra-quality spiritual stones. Even if he used resources to exchange for them, he could exchange for a lot of them. But he had only obtained more than a million Mystic Yellow Stones from the underground palace. If they were all swallowed by the Demon Purification Pot, wouldn't he get nothing?

About 300 seconds later, the golden arm disappeared, and Han Fei's white-mist body's strength fell. Only then did Han Fei perform the Twin Fusion.

But at this moment, Han Fei could only wait.

In the Origin Sea.

The Demon Purification Pot was swallowing the Mystic Yellow Stones, and Han Fei was playing with the jade slip, ready to scan it with his perception.

This jade slip appeared with the little vine. There was no telling if there was any important information or cultivation technique recorded in it.

When Han Fei scanned it with his perception, he frowned. As he looked down, his expression became more and more solemn.

After a while, Han Fei's face was livid and his expression was extremely complicated. When he looked at the Demon Purification Pot again, he heaved a long sigh.

This jade slip was not a divine technique or anything like that that Han Fei thought. As he guessed, it was an important record, which was related to the Demon Purification Pot.

The contents of the jade slip were witnessed by this Monarch, Chu Hao.

After reading the jade slip, Han Fei learned that Chu Hao had been a Monarch for at least 2 million years. This was because it was written in the jade slip that 1.28 million years after he became a Monarch, the gods wandered in the Chaos Sea and found an ancient vine born in the Eye of Chaos. The gods worked together to pull out the ancient vine, and the Demon Purification Pot was thus born.

However, as the Demon Purification Pot appeared, the Eyes of Chaos collapsed, as if the world had collapsed and all Daos had shattered, an ominous power overflowed from the Eyes of Chaos and the darkness spread.

The gods didn't take it seriously. But after learning the power of the Demon Purification Pot, the civil war began. The war of the gods only lasted for 100,000 years, and people were plunged into misery and suffering. In the end, the Demon Purification Pot was divided by nine gods and each got a vine.

However, darkness spread. In the darkness, creatures crossed the darkness and descended into the Sea Realm. An ominous war thus broke out.

In the ominous land, strong masters were everywhere. Some gods were defeated and died in the Sea Realm.

From then on, the ominous war officially began. The war lasted for more than 600,000 years, and the gods built the Eternal Thunder Prison to suppress the ominous. However, the ominous accumulated for a long time and became stronger and stronger. The gods agreed to cooperate and combined the Demon Purification Pot to resist the ominous power. After the war lasted for 60,000 years, there were traitors, and the war of the gods erupted.

In the war of the gods, the gods fought in the darkness. After fighting for more than three months, many gods died and never came out of the darkness again. Only the Demon Purification Pot was thrown out of the darkness. I happened to obtain this treasure. However, in a hurry, I was ambushed by the other Monarchs, the Demon Purification Pot was damaged, and I was about to die. I could only escape with the broken Demon Purification Pot and use the name of the Void Temple to seal it in this place. Then I built the Monarch Palace and sealed the Demon Purification Pot in it.

I hoped that future generations could recombine the parts of the Demon Purification Pot. Remember, although the darkness is there, the Monarchs' intentions are unpredictable, and if the gods don't come out, the ominous will eventually come...

When Han Fei finished reading the record, he couldn't have felt worse. It turned out that the Demon Purification Pot was a treasure that the gods found in the depths of the Sea of Chaos. It was because of it that the so-called ominous came. It was because of it that the Twilight of the Gods erupted. Even after the gods died, the Monarchs fought each other because of it...

However, Han Fei didn't know where the Sea of Chaos was, but it was very dangerous. The Demon Purification Pot had a total of nine small vines, and now he only got six of them, which meant that at least three more vines were wandering in the so-called Sea Realm.

Therefore, holding the Demon Purification Pot was basically equivalent to causing trouble for himself. As long as others discovered it, there would probably be countless Monarchs who wanted to kill him and snatch the Demon Purification Pot.

According to Chu Hao's jade slip, the Void Temple preaching here was just a cover. It could even be said that Chu Hao deliberately built this place as the inheritance ground of the Void Temple to protect this place, or... to protect the Demon Purification Pot from being discovered.

However, what Han Fei didn't know was, did the Void Temple know of the existence of the Demon Purification Pot?

It was hard to say. After all, the Raging Sea was also the place of inheritance of the Void Temple. There was a way to become a disciple of the Void Temple here. How could they not pay attention to the Monarch Palace here?

Besides, the Monarch Palace had existed here for tens of thousands of years. If a powerhouse of the same level knew this place, wouldn't he want to take a look at it?

Han Fei was horrified. He wondered if there was an invisible hand behind it.

Of course, Han Fei was more willing to believe that Chu Hao had arranged everything. Since he dared to use the Void Temple to protect this place, if the Void Temple knew the existence of the Demon Purification Pot, they should have succeeded obtaining it long ago. How could the Demon Purification Pot have fallen into his hands?

In short, no matter what, the Demon Purification Pot was his now, so he couldn't let others know its existence. Once it was leaked, even if only one Monarch knew, he would be in danger.

Besides, he had to be careful when facing a Monarch. However, the Demon Purification Pot's problem was the darkness, the ominous place, and the place where the gods died.

Han Fei couldn't help taking a deep breath. He felt as if there was a sky on his shoulder, and the pressure was so great that he almost suffocated.

In his Origin Sea.

The Demon Purification Pot seemed to have an extremely high demand for resources.

On the 132nd day, the million Black Yellow Stones were all swallowed by the Demon Purification Pot.

After swallowing the Mystic Yellow Stones, it didn't stop. In another 182 days, the 3 billion ultra-quality spiritual stones that Han Fei specially prepared for the Demon Purification Pot were all swallowed.

Even so, the Demon Purification Pot didn't stop. In another 200 days, the resources Han Fei earned in the Monarch Palace were almost exhausted.

Han Fei was about to cry. If this went on, he would have to empty his reserve. His Origin Sea was piled up with massive resources. The spiritual spring river that was surging like a real river had already dried up by half.

On the 680th day, more than 21 days had passed in the outside world. The spiritual spring river in Han Fei's Origin Sea had completely dried up, and Little Black and Little White had no place to swim now.

More than 10,000 wisps of Chaotic Qi in Han Fei's Origin Sea had been swallowed. The mines, ground veins, and spiritual springs buried underground were almost drained, and the Origin Sea was already full of mist.

This was clearly weakening Han Fei.

It could be said that if the Demon Purification Pot didn't stop, Han Fei's Origin Sea would be sucked dry. If his Origin Sea had 100 portions before, there was less than a quarter left.

How many resources had Han Fei gained in the Raging Sea? Today, nearly 80% of them were gone, and his heart was almost numb.

But on this day.

The Demon Purification Pot finally stopped spinning. But then, six small vines rooted Han Fei's Origin Sea at the same time, and the small vines grew more and more, finally forming a vine area.

Where the Demon Purification Pot was, the ground veins transformed.

Han Fei felt that the land in the Origin Sea had become unusually fertile and natural. And a sky appeared in the Origin Sea, which made Han Fei overjoyed. Although he didn't know what the appearance of the sky meant, wasn't it that only Sky Openers could have a sky in their Origin Seas?

When Han Fei scanned around with his perception, he was disappointed. It turned out that it was just the shaping of the environment, not the real sky. The Origin Sea still had boundaries.

"Pfft!"

While Han Fei was disappointed, he found that countless cracks appeared on ground veins of the Origin Sea. Then, two small vines pierced into his body.

Immediately, spiritual energy began to circulate in Han Fei's body in two completely different ways.

At that moment, Han Fei seemed to realize something. His mysterious spiritual heritage might be unveiled.

Chapter 2020 First Appearance of Dual Spiritual Heritages

Han Fei waited for almost a year and a half before the Demon Purification Pot was full.

Fortunately, he had so many resources for the Demon Purification Pot to absorb. If it were an ordinary King, how could he save so many resources in a few years? In addition to feeling that his true spiritual heritage was about to be revealed, Han Fei also saw the third fruit on the fifth vine maturing at this moment.

However, Han Fei didn't have the time to be overjoyed, because in his body, there were two kinds of spiritual heritage circulating. From Han Fei's inner vision, these two parts of the spiritual heritage seemed to co-exist, one visible, one invisible.

One of the two spiritual heritages was green jade, and some parts of it looked as pure as glass. This spiritual heritage looked quite normal.

However, only about one-tenth of this spiritual heritage was as pure as glass. Most of it was like translucent green jade with a trace of white inside.

As for the other kind, the spiritual heritage was black all over, and some parts were blood red, and the blood red parts were relatively few, only about one-tenth.

At present, in these two spiritual heritages, there was a power surging left and right, and infinite spiritual energy was constantly scouring every part of them. Feeling this power, Han Fei subconsciously activated the Void Fishing Technique, trying to absorb spiritual energy and other powers to scour his spiritual heritages together.

It felt as if his nose was blocked, and he kept breathing, trying to unblock his nose with the air pressure. More importantly, the two spiritual heritages were in the same situation.

Han Fei didn't even need to look at his information to know that there must be something wrong with his two spiritual heritages. In the past, although he couldn't see them, he didn't feel them so clogged.

Now he could see them, but he found that they were clogged everywhere. Only one-tenth of them was unblocked, and 90% of the rest was clogged.

Han Fei was speechless. He didn't find this problem when he was cultivating before. Why were there so many problems with his body now?

Although the spiritual energy could still circulate, Han Fei felt that in such a situation, it might take two hours to complete a spiritual energy circulation, but he could complete a spiritual energy circulation in one second before.

Only then did Han Fei understand that he had always thought that the efficiency of his cultivation technique was very high. With the cultivation technique, the Heavenly Fire would burn his body during his cultivation.

But in fact, he had been cultivating at an extremely slow speed.

Understanding this, Han Fei couldn't help but smile bitterly. It seemed that he would have one more thing to do in the future, which was to dredge his two spiritual heritages.

His two spiritual heritages hadn't been unblocked but they were already heavenly spiritual heritages. Han Fei couldn't imagine what they would be like if they were dredged

This situation lasted for three days. With the Demon Purification Pot's efforts and Han Fei's own efforts, he had barely dredged 10% of each of the two spiritual heritages, and about 20% in total. It was still far away from completely dredging them.

At this moment, the Demon Purification Pot had already retracted its vines and returned to its normal form.

Han Fei finally regained his freedom.

Looking at the misty Origin Sea, Han Fei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. How long would it take for him to snatch enough resources to repair it?

However, Han Fei's exclamation only appeared for a short time, because Han Fei had already looked at his personal information.

Second Spiritual Heritage: Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage First spiritual beast: Twin Yin-Yang Spirit Swallowing Fish (level 89)

Han Fei didn't pay attention to the data immediately, because the Origin Sea was a mess now. It was already good enough that his strength didn't decrease. However, the two spiritual heritages finally revealed their real names.

"Origin Spiritual Heritage?"

"Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage?"

Han Fei was immersed in checking the specific information of the two.

However, what he saw immediately made Han Fei's face change.

The Origin Spiritual Heritage is the start of chaos and the beginning of life. It's one of the most mysterious spiritual heritages in history, ranked 800th among all spiritual heritages. The owner of this spiritual heritage has great power that is rare in the world and the speed of cultivation that could be ranked at the top of the sea.

The Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage is the beginning of the void and the end of death. It's one of the most mysterious spiritual heritages in history, ranked 3,000th among all spiritual heritages. The owner of this spiritual heritage has great power that is rare in the world and the speed of cultivation that could be ranked at the top of the sea.

Han Fei's expression was strange. Did he see it right? Why were these two spiritual heritages so terrifying? In the entire Infinite Ocean, one was ranked 3,000, and the other was ranked 800. Didn't this mean that from the moment he was born, he was destined to stand at the peak of the Raging Sea?

Unfortunately, he had always thought that his fast cultivation speed was the result of his hard work. When he cultivated the Indestructible Body, although his meridians hurt, they didn't explode, which he felt was because his physique was strong enough.

It turned out that it was all because his spiritual heritage was too high-level. Therefore, even if it was only less than one-tenth dredged in the past, he could cultivate to his current realm in such a short time.

Han Fei was speechless. Her spiritual heritage was so good that he didn't know what to say.

Han Fei could only tell himself that his dual spiritual heritages hadn't been dredged yet, so his ranking was definitely not as high as his Great Dao. When he cleared his spiritual heritage in the future, hehe... at least it wouldn't be difficult for him to reach the longevity realm!

Han Fei comforted himself and looked at the third divine pill that appeared on the Demon Purification Pot.

This pill was called the Technique of Infinite Transformations. It comprehended the Heavenly Dao and could transform into anything in the world. To put it bluntly, this was even stronger than the 72 Transformations.

He used to think that it was so difficult to transform into a fish. In fact, generation after generation, countless people had devoted themselves to this research and finally figured out this Dao.

As for this technique, it was very powerful. He could change into any creature that he saw. This seemed to only play a supporting role, but with the Twin Divine Technique, his escaping ability would reach a terrifying level. Even Han Fei couldn't think of a way to break it. Unless his enemy had a magical Pupil Spell that was countless times stronger than the Fiery Golden Eyes, he might not be able to discover him.

Besides, he could disguise himself as others without anyone knowing. Therefore, he must learn this technique first. If he had learned this technique before, how could those low-level bugs find him if he turned into a random bug in the insect tide forest?

Comprehending the Technique of Infinite Transformations should be similar to gaining the Dharma Idol. If he ate this divine pill, he should be able to master it quickly.

About 20 days passed in the outside world.

Buzz!

On the top of the bronze tree, the blue ball of light shattered with a bang.

When Han Fei appeared and scanned around with his perception, he saw that four of the blue light balls around him were missing. Furthermore, Han Fei keenly discovered that two of the blue light balls had changed positions.

Although Han Fei didn't know if the disappearing light ball represented the death of a person, the light ball that changed its position meant that two people chose to continue exploring after obtaining a certain treasure.

One of them was Bai Yue, and the other was Huang Jie.

But no one had come out yet.

Looking at the bronze tree from the bottom, Han Fei's heart did a flip. He didn't know if this bronze tree was at the same place with the previous five tombs.

Han Fei couldn't help but take out the Vast Ocean Navigator and use the Twin Divine Technique at the same time. As Han Fei issued an order in his heart, the Vast Ocean Navigator began to spin.

However, to Han Fei's surprise, the Vast Ocean Navigator was pointing at the trees, which meant that some of the kings who participated in the treasure hunt had died, besides the kings who died in the five tombs.

Han Fei couldn't help frowning slightly. Forget it. He was seriously short of resources now. He was not interested in this tree full of treasures. Anyway, there was still a long time before the Monarch Palace opened. He had plenty of time to continue to snatch treasures.

However, before that, he needed to get as many resources as possible.

Han Fei pointed his finger and broke through the void, his black-mist body drilled in, and he came directly to a sea area. There was no land here, but the bottom of the sea was full of beaches, coral reefs, and holes full of algae. There were all kinds of crab shells left here. In addition to these, there was a large amount of deep sea.

Obviously, this was the Origin Sea of the squid lady of the giant beast race. From the looks of it, she must have died.

The Origin Sea of the squid lady was actually not small. It spanned more than 7,000 kilometers, and the mist was relatively light in color. There were abundant resources in her Origin Sea, which showed that she was not weak. Although she had been hiding her strength, she died on this bronze tree before she could show her real strength.

Before Han Fei shouted, the Demon Purification Pot had already come out to work.
