

GOF 2025

Chapter 2025 Endless Corridor

One day later.

The Vast Ocean Navigator was restored.

Han Fei certainly wouldn't stay here. Luo Xiaobai was no longer interested in this place after obtaining the highest-level Seven-leaf Cloud Dream Fruit.

Han Fei even searched with the Vast Ocean Navigator, only to find that there was only one Seven-leaf Cloud Dream Fruit, which was the one Luo Xiaobai swallowed.

After discovering that the Seven-leaf Cloud Dream Fruit was so rare, Han Fei found a branch that pierced through the void nearby without even using the Vast Ocean Navigator.

It seemed that the initial design of the Monarch Palace had already thought of ways to enter and leave the various dangerous places.

Han Fei entered the void with Luo Xiaobai and the others, and he also gave Le Renkuang and the others a jade slip of his full-strength strike each.

If he gave too much of this thing, it would consume his soul and essence blood. As for the resources consumed, he didn't care. However, if his soul power was consumed too much, it would be bad for his cultivation. So even Sea Establishers wouldn't easily give others such jade slips.

The four of them stepped into the void. As soon as they stepped in, the entire dark void trembled, and a void storm rose, trying to sweep the four of them in.

Han Fei was shocked. "It's the power of the Sea Establishment Realm."

How could Han Fei dare to be negligent? He used All Great Daos in One Sword to cut open a void storm and then used the Draw Technique to extract a large void crack to stabilize the way out. Then, he pushed Luo Xiaobai and the other two out.

In the end, Luo Xiaobai said, "Your guess is right. You won't encounter us for the time being. Don't care about the Bronze Tree..."

Before Luo Xiaobai finished speaking, the two parties had been completely separated.

When Han Fei appeared again, he found himself in a white cloud. In this cloud, there was a white jade stone road, only three or five meters wide and endless.

Beside the entrance of the path, a puppet was standing

It was a puppet because its skin had dried up, but its flesh and blood were not rotten. Its eyes were still pale and dull. Even so, this puppet still looked like an iron tower-like burly man.

Clatter –

Clatter –

Han Fei couldn't help looking at the road. He could vaguely hear the sound of waves rolling on the other side of the road.

At this moment, the puppet man said in a stiff voice, "The trial-taker's strength exceeds the scope of ordinary trials. In order to avoid affecting the normal trial, you will directly enter the ultimate trial."

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei was lost for words. The ultimate trial? I don't even need to find the way before I was dragged over for the final test?

Han Fei couldn't help but ask, "If I pass the ultimate trial, can I control this Monarch Palace?"

However, the puppet fell silent as if he didn't hear Han Fei at all.

This made Han Fei suspicious, wondering if the puppet had its own consciousness.

Han Fei asked again, "You have to tell me what this road is, right? Where does it lead to?"

The puppet still didn't speak. Han Fei tentatively asked a few more questions, and the puppet still remained silent. It didn't even bother to blink its gray eyes.

Han Fei knew nothing about this so-called ultimate trial.

Han Fei couldn't help but take out the Vast Ocean Navigator. "Find another exit here."

Who knew if the appearance of this puppet was good or bad? Who knew if this path led to the ultimate trial or not? Whether he walked it or not, he had to see if there was another way out first.

However, the Vast Ocean Navigator didn't spin at all.

Han Fei asked, "Where is the ultimate trial?"

Ka ka ka ~

The Vast Ocean Navigator pointed at the path.

Han Fei's eyelids twitched slightly, and he asked again, "What's my purpose for this trip?"

The Vast Ocean Navigator trembled slightly and still pointed at the path.

Although the three times of the Vast Ocean Navigator had been used up today, Han Fei was relaxed. He just needed to wait another day. Since he had reached the so-called ultimate trial, he was not in a hurry.

Han Fei sighed slightly, only a little regretful. It didn't matter if he missed the Bronze Tree or not. Luo Xiaobai's explanation was right. However, he didn't replenish his resources, which was what troubled Han Fei the most. He had missed so many kings' Origins Seas and lost a lot of resources for nothing. Otherwise, he might have been able to make up for his losses.

Now, even though his strength was at its peak, his resources were still not enough. He hoped that he wouldn't need to consume too many resources in the final trial.

The next day.

Since the puppet man dragged Han Fei here, he hadn't said anything except to tell him why he was here.

At this moment, Han Fei was already standing at the entrance of the narrow cloud path. When he was about to step on it, the puppet suddenly said, "Endless Corridor, once you step on it, there is no turning back!"

"Heh~"

Han Fei smiled faintly, shook his head, and stepped into the path. Han Fei thought to himself, Is it useful for you to tell me this now? Do I have any other way to go? Since there was no other way to go, what was the use of saying this to him?

Only by being here could one know how terrifying the so-called final trial was. As soon as Han Fei stepped in, he found that the road in front of him was gone. Half a foot in front of him was mist, his perception was blocked, and it was pitch-dark. His eyes were meaningless here.

Han Fei looked back. The road was gone, and he seemed to be standing alone in a mist.

When Han Fei turned around, his pupils were constricted. The mist around him turned into a strange illusion. This was the Blue Sea Town, and he was on the road to the original Thug Academy.

In front of him, Luo Xiaobai and the other three were walking side by side. Xia Xiaochan looked back at Han Fei and said, "Come on, keep up. We're almost home."

Han Fei's lips twitched. "Isn't this ridiculous? Such a clumsy illusion."

However, when Han Fei took a step forward, he felt that his feet were on the ground. This feeling frightened Han Fei. What if he really followed them back to the Thug Academy?

Han Fei certainly wouldn't test it blindly.

Therefore, fortunately, Han Fei waited an extra day for the Vast Ocean Navigator to restore before he came in.

Han Fei took out the Vast Ocean Navigator. "Where is the road?"

However, the Vast Ocean Navigator spun randomly a few times, and in the end, the needle pointed at Han Fei. "Huh?"

The road is on me?

Han Fei knew that the Vast Ocean Navigator couldn't point the way, or it would directly lead him away from here. But since the Vast Ocean Navigator pointed at him, it might mean that he had to rely on himself to walk past this road.

While Han Fei was stunned, his surroundings changed again. This time, he appeared in the seaweed wall of the level-three fishery. He could even feel the algae touching him. It felt extremely real.

In front of him, illusions kept appearing, but the original path was gone.

Han Fei simply closed his eyes, closed his vision, and even his sense of touch.

But even so, Han Fei still heard tide.

Fortunately, Han Fei directly sealed his five senses. He sneered. They just tried to disturb him with these.

Han Fei stepped forward without sensing, hearing, or seeing anything... This made Han Fei feel like a wandering soul floating in the void.

But after only a hundred steps, Han Fei felt that something was staring at him and even wanted to fight him.

This feeling was very strong, forcing Han Fei to open his eyes.

The moment Han Fei opened his eyes, he saw a golden arm attacking him.

“F*ck...”

The killing intent, the suppressing pressure, and the power to mobilize Qi and blood were extremely real.

Just as Han Fei was about to fight back, he suddenly thought of something. That’s not right! Why is this golden arm here? And isn’t it the five tombs here?

“Fake?”

Han Fei’s surprise turned into confidence. He sneered. “It’s just an arm. With my bloodline, spiritual heritage, and talent, how can I be afraid of you? Even if I stand still, what can you do to me?”

Han Fei grinned and opened his arms, not afraid at all.

Bang!

Han Fei was 100% sure that this thing was fake. Even if it was real, did he learn the Purity Mystic Body and the Void Fire Training Technique for nothing?

Han Fei sneered. “I thought there was something new. What’s fake is fake.”

Bang!

However, at the moment when the golden arm hit Han Fei, Han Fei felt that his soul shook, and his body was full of blood and cracks. The power of the blow almost shattered Han Fei, and his sealed senses quickly returned.

“Huh? It’s real?”

Han Fei refused to believe it, but it was an undeniable fact that he was almost killed.

“No, it’s fake.”

Although he felt the danger of death, Han Fei knew that everything was fake. He knew it the moment the picture of the five tombs appeared.

However, the illusion here could turn into a real attack?

Buzz!

The Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique was activated, and Han Fei punched back the golden arm. Although his blood was sucked a bit by the arm, Han Fei remembered what the puppet said in his heart. "Endless Corridor, once you step on it, there is no turning back!"

Chapter 2026 Bronze Door Appeared

After being punched by the golden arm, Han Fei was horrified. Why couldn't illusions kill people?

Swish~

Han Fei waved his hand and threw out the Ultimate Blade to stop the golden arm. As a low-quality godly weapon, the Ultimate Blade was naturally extremely powerful. Han Fei didn't think many people in the Sea Establishment realm could resist it.

Even in the face of the golden arm, Han Fei didn't think the Ultimate Blade couldn't stop it.

Clank, Clank, Clank ~

Sure enough, in an instant, the golden arm was attacked by the Ultimate Blade thousands of times.

Han Fei quickly picked up his fishing pole, broke through time, and fished six times in a row from the void before he caught a golden arm.

"Twin Divine Technique."

Han Fei activated the Great Dao and the Twin Divine Technique and fused his white-mist body with the golden arm.

At that moment, Han Fei felt invincible.

However, when Han Fei felt that he could fight the golden arm and wouldn't be defeated at all, with a bang, the golden arm that was being attacked by the Ultimate Blade shattered and disappeared like a bubble.

"Huh?"

Han Fei frowned. Seriously? The illusion of the golden arm disappeared as soon as I was ready. Han Fei seriously suspected that someone was deliberately controlling everything behind the mist.

Han Fei couldn't help but break into a cold sweat. If someone was watching him, wouldn't he have exposed all his trump cards?

Han Fei said, "Old Yuan, what do you think of this mist? The Vast Ocean Navigator is useless now. Do you have any thoughts?"

At this moment, the old turtle said leisurely, "Do you still dare to listen to my thoughts?"

Han Fei said impatiently, "I don't blame you for what happened to the Bronze Tree. I was too greedy. I thought the probability of success was very high, but I accidentally messed it up."

At this time, he still had to listen to the old senior's opinion. Although the old turtle was only in the Sky Opening realm and might have slept for a million years, he should be more knowledgeable than him.

Hearing Han Fei's explanation, the old turtle said, "In fact, I don't know what you are fighting. From my independent vision, you were just fighting the mist, but you were seriously injured by something in the mist."

"Are you saying that I'm fighting the mist?"

The old turtle said, "At least from my perspective, that's the case. But I can't see through the mist, so I can only provide a guess."

Han Fei asked, "What guess?"

The old turtle said, "This road has disappeared since you stepped on it. How can you be sure that the road you saw outside exists?"

Han Fei asked, "What do you mean?"

The old turtle said, "I don't think what you see with your eyes is necessarily true. The road you saw outside might not be true, and the mist you saw here might not be true! This requires you to comprehend it yourself. I can't explain it to you."

Han Fei asked, "Old Yuan, do you actually know what this is?"

The old turtle was silent. "You have to comprehend it. If you comprehend it, you can break this level in the blink of an eye."

Han Fei couldn't help but think about what the old turtle meant. What he saw might not be true. Then, if the road he saw outside was fake, and the mist he saw here was fake, where was he?

Since it was all fake, why did he have to make a path for himself?

"Wait! Is this road the one I understand?"

"Road? A yellow mud road is a road, and the Great Dao is also a road. What kind of road is this? What do you want me to comprehend?"

"If all this is fake, then the so-called road doesn't exist. Why can't I see through what the old turtle can see at a glance?"

Han Fei couldn't help but think that the Vast Ocean Navigator was pointing at him, which meant that this path was in his hands. Just as the old turtle said, he had to walk out himself.

Wait, why do I have to walk out? Since this road doesn't exist, why should I take it?

"The path is the Dao. If I comprehend it, I pass it. Does the path refer to the Great Dao?"

Han Fei stood in the mist alone and pondered for a long time.

Suddenly, he raised his head. "Dao heart?"

Han Fei was suddenly enlightened. Since he became a king, he had been telling Xia Xiaochan and the others about Dao heart. Although they didn't understand it, he explained it over and over again.

Why did he forget about it?

A smile gradually appeared on Han Fei's face. As for Dao comprehending, in the end, all that was left was Dao heart. If his Dao heart was firm, he was fearless.

Han Fei's temperament suddenly changed from being confused to being calm and composed

No wonder the old turtle didn't panic at all. He only gave him a vague explanation.

Indeed, if the old turtle said it directly, it was not enough. And only by comprehending it himself could he be at ease and fearless.

Therefore, Han Fei simply ignored the mist.

He strode forward calmly and no longer sealed his five senses, letting the mist illusions around him evolve. However, none of them could touch Han Fei and disappear with every step Han Fei took.

After only thirty steps, Han Fei suddenly saw a new world.

Clatter –

Clatter ~

At this moment, Han Fei heard the sound of waves. It turned out that a sea appeared in Han Fei's vision.

The sea breeze blew at his cheeks, and Han Fei could even see some common low-level shells on the beach.

Of course, Han Fei's attention was not here, but on a mirage on the sea. Han Fei was sure that he didn't see it wrong, but the mirage might be a bit ridiculous. Which mirage was a huge bronze door standing in the distant sky and shading half of the sky? What else could it be if not the bronze door of the Void Temple?

"Oh! The ultimate trial? Is this the ultimate trial?"

Han Fei couldn't help but wonder if Chu Hao was once a member of the Void Temple. The more Han Fei thought about it, the more likely it was. Otherwise, why would there be an entry trial of the Void Temple in the Raging Sea? Or why would the bronze door of the Void Temple become the ultimate test of the Monarch Palace?

The bronze door was as usual. Although it was in the sky, Han Fei could still see cloud steps descending from the bronze door to the blue sea.

Han Fei's eyes lit up. He thought to himself, It's indeed quite difficult to comprehend the Dao heart. And the steps are probably not easy to climb. But no matter what, I've finally seen the last trial of the Void Temple.

If Han Fei guessed right, there shouldn't be any other trials in the Void Temple in the Raging Sea.

Han Fei didn't consider why the Void Temple appeared on the distant sea. Anyway, it was just a short distance. He could cross it with a golden light leap.

Therefore, Han Fei jumped over without hesitation.

However, when a golden light flashed, Han Fei appeared in midair above the sea, and his face suddenly changed. This was because he actually couldn't jump over such a short distance. This didn't make sense.

Besides, when Han Fei looked back, it was already an ocean and the road he came from has disappeared.

"Son of a b * tch! I was careless. I should have known it wasn't that simple."

At this moment, Han Fei was vigilant. In the sea, a sharp claw rushed at him, and a huge shadow seemed to be at the bottom of the sea. It was tens of thousands of meters long and seemed slow but was actually fast.

Han Fei's instinctive reaction was to fight.

However, when the huge claw was almost in front of him, Han Fei narrowed his eyes and activated his Great Dao. Activating the invincible will, he didn't move at all and let the claw slash down.

Boom...

Unfortunately, Han Fei guessed wrong. Almost in an instant, his body was cut in half. This time, he didn't use the Twin Divine Technique, so he was really cut in half.

However, with a flash of blue light in the void, Han Fei's broken body walked out of time.

Han Fei looked solemn.

"A casual blow has the power of the Sky Opening realm?"

Because Han Fei didn't learn anything from the Demon Purification Pot, he dared to take the blow head-on. Since the Endless Corridor ahead tested his Dao heart, why wasn't it the same here?

What if the Monarch's prank was to make people think that the trial in this sea didn't test one's Dao heart?

However, Han Fei just accidentally lost the bet. But even if he lost, he could still reverse time, so he didn't panic.

"The Demon Purification Pot can't read it? That's impossible! Unless this thing is fake."

With this in mind, Han Fei shouted in a low voice, "Fuse!"

As he fused with Little Black and Little White, the Yin-Yang Divine Eyes appeared. After Han Fei landed on the surface of the sea, he flashed and appeared at the bottom of the sea. No matter how big this huge beast was, could it be bigger than the members of the giant beast race? They were all at least hundreds of kilometers long.

When Han Fei appeared at the bottom of the sea, he saw a huge, indescribable strange creature, which looked like a huge sunflower, facing him with its huge sunflower face.

Under the big “sunflower” face was a huge vine covered by demonic plants such as algae and sea anemones. Around the “sunflower”, five huge eyes grew, each of which was dozens of kilometers long.

On the sunflower’s face were dense melon seeds and a black hole in the center.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The fruits that looked like sunflower seeds were actually the claw that attacked him just? now.

Now, more than a dozen of them appeared at? once.

“F*ck...”
