

Chapter 341 Another Unexpected Encounter

Han Fei discovered Little White's new ability. Different from the monstrous octopus, Little White could ignore the irritating energy, and it did not mutate or change at all.

Little White finished the Angry Spirit Fruit very quickly. Han Fei observed them for a while and found spiritual energy circulating in them.

However, they did not make a breakthrough, and their level was still 26.

But the good thing was that the negative influences of the Angry Spirit Fruit were not reflected in Little White. As for Little Black, since it was bad-tempered in the first place, Han Fei definitely did not spot any difference.

"Bo... Bo... Bo...".

A moment later, Little White began to spurt spiritual energy at Han Fei, and Han Fei absorbed 8,000 more points of spiritual energy very soon, the same amount that a regular spiritual fruit could provide.

Han Fei pet Little White, feeling lucky that he had a good fish who was very helpful in critical moments.

However, Han Fei felt bad that Little Black and Little White weren't growing as fast as the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp and Little Gold, both of which were already above level 30.

Han Fei sensed that both of them were still essentially kids and had no new skills. Little Black was only more aggressive and had tougher tusks, and Little White still stayed by his side all the time.

Han Fei couldn't help but wonder how to enter the Soul Ocean. Was it an accident that he entered the Soul Ocean, or had he triggered certain conditions he wasn't aware of?

Of course, he didn't have answers to those questions, so he stopped thinking about it. But he didn't leave in a rush either. He simply established a Spirit Gathering Array and cultivated in the middle of the array.

300,000 points of spiritual energy was not enough in the dangerous Seaborne Prairie. He had to garner more spiritual energy.

After only a moment of cultivation, Walkingsticks, Red Spirit Spiders, Black Moon Sickle Fish, big earthworms, and all kinds of crabs were already swarming him. Yes, Han Fei had restored to the old trick. Cultivation was only a disguise, and he was going to slaughter the sea creatures to absorb their spiritual energy. When the first Walkingstick extended its limbs to him, Han Fei gritted his teeth and did not move, but when a Black Moon Sickle Fish attacked him, Han Fei took action. After a torrent of blades, the Black Moon Sickle Fish was stabbed through before it realized what was going on.

But to Han Fei's surprise, the moment he activated the Million Knife Art, all the creatures escaped in herds. He had intended to go on a killing spree, but he caught nothing but a few Walkingsticks and some inferior fish and crabs. Plus the Black Moon Sickle Fish that Little Black bit, he absorbed no more than 20,000 points of spiritual energy in total.

“Damn it. Aren’t the creatures in the level-three fishery too smart? They’re already running?”

Han Fei was rather helpless. Seeing that his plan didn’t work out, he could only leave a Spirit Explosion Array on the spot.

“Little White, can you feel any place with abundant spiritual energy?”.

Han Fei simply ignored the Big Red Trunk. Even if he found the Big Red Trunk at this point, he wouldn’t have the spiritual energy or the time to refine it.

Little White looked around. It wavered between left and right. Then, it changed its mind and hesitated between up and ahead. In the end, it could only look at Han Fei pitifully. Han Fei didn’t know what to say. He remembered that spiritual energy was everywhere in the jungle, and that there must be tremendous spiritual fruits and treasures here, except that he had to search for them. “Forget it. Let’s press forward.”

Since nobody was chasing him anymore, Han Fei didn’t rush as hastily as before or leave Spirit Explosion Arrays on his path.

Passing the purple bamboo wood, Han Fei found himself in a world of seaweed and algae.

Han Fei saw many bizarre-shaped sea urchins nibbling the seaweed. Since Han Fei wasn’t close, those sea urchins did not attack him.

The sea algae, on the other hand, were much more annoying. They floated towards Han Fei in clusters and would surround him and release paralyzing toxins if he was slow.

But of course, Han Fei didn’t give them any chance. In fact, it was a chance for him to absorb the plants’ spiritual energy. But for some reason, the speed of his absorption was much lower than when he absorbed the fish and crabs. Han Fei gave up after a few attempts. This seaweed only covered about two hundred square kilometers. During his exploration, Han Fei was engaged in a few minor battles where he couldn’t be hurt at all.

Han Fei talked to Little White now and then, hoping that Little White could find a spiritual fruit, only to be disappointed every time.

One hour passed.

Suddenly, Little White moved and swam to a direction for several hundred meters, before it stopped in hesitation.

Han Fei’s eyes glittered. He knew that something was out there since Little White moved on its own, and that Little White must’ve stopped because it might be dangerous.

But Han Fei didn’t mind. There were too many dangerous creatures in the ocean, such as the monstrous octopus, which would’ve taken Han Fei tremendous time and spiritual energy if he wanted to kill it.

However, not all the sea creatures were like the octopus. Many fish in the ocean were full of treasures.

A moment later, Han Fei swam there in excitement, but when a ripple spread out to him quickly, he was slightly surprised that someone was there.

An intense battle must be going on up ahead to have caused the ripples.

Han Fei immediately entered his half stealth state and drew nearer the scene.

A moment later, Han Fei saw that three people were fighting and that they were all wounded.

What surprised Han Fei was not the battle of three fishers, but that he recognized one of them.

“Yang Ruoyun?” At this point, Yang Ruoyun had two wounds on her body. Her mouth, her nose, and one of her hands were bleeding.

The other two were actually twins. Both of them were hunters, and Han Fei could see that they made an excellent team. They seemed to have practised a two-person battle technique and had overpowered Yang Ruoyun. Who’s there? Get out!

When Han Fei was about to enjoy the drama, he heard two voices in his head, not from Yang Ruoyun but from the other two fighters.

I knew that the Mist Stealth Grass was absolutely useless. I’d been discovered before I even approached them...

Han Fei revealed himself, and he heard Yang Ruoyun’s voice in his head.

It’s you?

Han Fei replied casually, What a coincidence! How many times have we met by chance?

Han Fei was thinking whether or not it was a trap, but then he realized that it was unlikely to be one, because Yang Ruoyun couldn’t have known where he was after he left the dragon boat, and he wouldn’t have come to the Seaborne Prairie had it not been for the hunting of the Sun Family.

Struggling to resist, Yang Ruoyun said, Han Fei, don’t you always want to explore treasure troves? Help me kill them, and I’ll take you to a place that nobody has ever visited.

As if they figured out that Yang Ruoyun was talking to Han Fei, the twins couldn’t help but speak telepathically too, Brother, this woman has treasures with her. Let’s kill her and split them evenly.

Han Fei sneered and replied to them, Do you think I’m an idiot? Wouldn’t you kill me too after you kill this woman?

The two brothers said, Rest assured. We can tell that you are an intermediate Dangling Fisher, brother, and you must be extraordinary to explore the Seaborne Prairie on your own. We won’t give you a hard time.

Yang Ruoyun shouted anxiously, “Don’t listen to them! They won’t spare you if I die!” Han Fei looked at them and scratched his head. “Actually, I was just passing by. Why don’t you each give me two spiritual fruits? I’ll leave immediately if you do.”

In the meantime, Han Fei whispered to Yang Ruoyun, “I can save you, but for what? Don’t fool me with the treasure trove. Let’s talk about something more tangible. I’ll help you if you give me five spiritual fruits.”

Yang Ruoyun gritted her teeth and replied, "Han Fei, that's robbery."

Han Fei did not reply to Yang Ruoyun. He took out two daggers and spoke to all of them, "I'm here in the Seaborne Prairie for treasures. I'll go if you give me your spiritual fruits, but if you don't, hehe... I'll help this woman."

With an awful expression, the two brothers talked to each other, and one of them threw two spiritual fruits to Han Fei.

"We only have two spiritual fruits. Brother, we hope that you can find your treasures soon."

Han Fei picked up the two spiritual fruits, only to shout angrily, "Do you think I'm kidding? Only two? You think I'm a beggar?"

He raised his daggers and pointed at the two brothers. "Give me another two, or I will kill you."

Chapter 342 Bad Boy

Han Fei's sudden change of attitude disrupted the twins' attack. Both of them looked awful. Why had this guy burst into fury when he was smiling a moment ago?

Yang Ruoyun was uneasy but more or less relieved. It seemed that she had hope now. She wasn't sure about Han Fei's personality, except that he was a greedy person. After all, she had never seen anyone else who would hire pirates as their subordinates.

The twins said telepathically, Boy, you think that spiritual fruits are just out there for you to pick? How can we have so many spiritual fruits?

Han Fei said, You must be lying. When I was on the dragon boat, I could buy dozens of them easily. Why don't you have any? The twins almost vomited blood. That's the dragon boat! Hundreds of thousands of people live on a dragon boat! Of course you can buy spiritual fruits from them. But who would carry spiritual fruits with them?

Han Fei realized that it did make sense. He only found three spiritual fruits from the Sea Swallowing Seashells of the guys from the Sun Family. It seemed that they were indeed rare.

However, Han Fei shook his head and said, Give me spiritual springs if you don't have spiritual fruits. Each of you will give me a spiritual spring worth a 100,000 points, or I will attack you.

The twins were of a mind to skin Han Fei. Why did this guy come here at such a critical moment? They could not let go of Yang Ruoyun, but if she had a helper, it would be hard to tell the consequences.

So, one of the twins said aloud, "We don't have a lot of spiritual energy either, but we can give you a low-quality spiritual weapon." Han Fei was uninterested and thought to himself, A low-quality spiritual weapon? Why the hell would I want a low-quality spiritual weapon? Is that even usable?

But Han Fei smiled and said, "Give me the spiritual springs, and I'll go and leave you to your battle."

The twins looked at each other and threw a spiritual spring at him.

Han Fei enveloped the spiritual spring with water, and the twins were both surprised, knowing that it was a spirit gatherer's skill.

Han Fei peeped at the spiritual spring and sniffed. It only contained slightly more than 40,000 points of spiritual energy, not nearly enough for what he needed.

The twins looked at Han Fei warily, and Han Fei turned to Yang Ruoyun and said, "What about you? Give me five spiritual fruits, and I'll help you kill them."

The twins: "???"

Yang Ruoyun's face was dark, knowing that this was really a wicked man.

The twins shouted angrily, "Brother, what's the meaning of this?" Han Fei glanced at them and said, "Why are you panicked? I'll leave after I get more spiritual fruits."

Then, Han Fei spoke to Yang Ruoyun telepathically, Give them to me! If you give them to me, I'll be justified to help you kill them!

Yang Ruoyun rolled her eyes and thought to herself, Who are you fooling? You're talking about justification in the level-three fishery?

But Yang Ruoyun didn't say anything and simply threw three spiritual fruits to Han Fei. "I only have three. Han Fei, stop messing around. I really know of a treasure trove."

Hum...

The twins were immediately vigilant. What's going on? Do those two know each other?

Han Fei grinned and looked at them. "Give me your Sea Swallowing Seashells, and I won't help her."

Hiu...

Han Fei was responded by a saber, which was so fast that it reached Han Fei in the blink of an eye.

However, Han Fei grabbed the Water Dividing Seal and blew the saber away. "Why do you have to resolve a problem with violence instead of money? Can't we settle it peacefully? Can you ever fix a problem by fighting?" "Not good, let's retreat..."

Han Fei smiled casually. "Retreat?"

Nine chains appeared, and Han Fei grasped a long bow.

Swish, Swish...

The fourth move of the War Soul Art was activated twice towards those two.

Shooting two arrows, Han Fei immediately took back the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Bow and said telepathically, What a huge loss! Fighting is really costly, isn't it?

Yang Ruoyun was lost for words. How much spiritual fruit did you extort just now? You took five spiritual fruits and a spiritual spring of 40,000 points of spiritual energy, and you're crying for losses?

The twins couldn't be more alarmed. They might be fast, but they were not as fast as the ferocious arrows!

The fourth move of the War Soul Art failed to hurt the peak-level Dangling Fishers, but since the twins were only intermediate Dangling Fishers, the arrows crumbled half of their spiritual energy and almost killed them.

“Soul Stab.”

“Shadow Kill.”

Seeing that they had nowhere to run, the twins took reaction at the same time by filling themselves and their daggers with spiritual energy. In the meantime, Han Fei saw two purely dark squids emerging from them and extending their tentacles to the arrows that he shot.

Bam! Bam!

The twins were blown away like disconnected kites. Tremendous amounts of seaweed was shattered when they crashed.

Yang Ruoyun took the chance to approach one of them. Her contractual spiritual beast extended the scorpion tail and impaled one of them.

The other man roared in the water, as if he couldn't bear his brother's death. Seeing that Han Fei was drawing near with his seal, and looking at Yang Ruoyun who was about to kill him, he suddenly grabbed two daggers and concentrated all his spiritual energy.

In that moment, Han Fei retreated quickly and pulled Yang Ruoyun back with his fishing pole.

Boom...

The man detonated himself. The chaotic currents flung Han Fei and Yang Ruoyun away.

Han Fei rose from the seaweed and patted off the dust on his clothes. “That was quite a ruthless man. He almost got me.”

Then, Han Fei tilted his head and looked at Yang Ruoyun. “Why are you here?” At the same time, Yang Ruoyun turned around and looked at Han Fei too. “Why are you here?”

Now that they asked the same question, Han Fei wasn't sure what was going on. “You tell me first.”

Yang Ruoyun stared at Han Fei and said, “This whole thing is all because of you.”

“Because of me?”

Yang Ruoyun nodded. “Before you escaped from the dragon boat that day, I was going to talk to you, when I saw that strangers searched your room and asked other people about you. I followed them and found that they investigated your guide. So, I knew that you must have pissed off someone important.”

Han Fei gazed at Yang Ruoyun and asked, “But why did you end up in the Seaborne Prairie?”

Yang Ruoyun replied straightforwardly, “I left after I knew that something happened to you! But I was never far away from the dragon boat, until I saw you jump from the boat and escape with the guide...”

Then, Yang Ruoyun looked at Han Fei thoughtfully. “Where's the guide?”

Han Fei snorted and said, "Dead."

Yang Ruoyun shrugged. "Everybody has their own fate. It was preordained that she met you. But I didn't expect you to survive the hunting of four peak-level Dangling Fishers." Han Fei smiled casually. "Everybody has their own fate. I survived because of luck."

Yang Ruoyun clearly didn't buy it. Nobody could've survived four peak-level Dangling Fishers with sheer luck.

Han Fei didn't explain more. He simply asked, "After that, I swam all the way here. What about you?"

Yang Ruoyun said, "My target in the level-three fishery has always been the Seaborne Prairie, so I came here. As for those two, I made them my enemy on my way, and we fought all the way here."

Han Fei didn't ask much further. As Old Bai said before, there were too many fortuitous incidents in this world, and everybody must've been through some. It was pointless to dig into the details.

Han Fei couldn't help but ask, "Isn't the treasure trove you mentioned outside of the Seaborne Prairie?"

Yang Ruoyun nodded and said, "It is. However, I never had a chance to go there because of those twins. Since we're already here, let's explore the Seaborne Prairie first. If we can make it out alive, I'll take you there."

Han Fei was surprised. "Judging from your tone, you're not certain that you can make it out alive?"

Yang Ruoyun looked around and said, "Nobody dare say that they can certainly return from the Seaborne Prairie alive."

Giving no comment, Han Fei simply swallowed a spiritual fruit, nurtured by the abundant spiritual energy his body conditions were better.

Yang Ruoyun said in surprise, "The spiritual energy in the fruit will disperse if you eat it this way."

Han Fei pretended that he didn't care. "I'm only having the fruit for fun. The dispersion of spiritual energy is not my concern..."

Yang Ruoyun: "..."

Suddenly, Han Fei asked, "Why do the people here have few spiritual fruits when they're so cheap on the dragon boat?" Yang Ruoyun eyed Han Fei as if he were an idiot. "Those on the dragon boat are different from those in the ocean. Except for special ones, most spiritual fruits only contain spiritual energy and can help with training. The spiritual energy inside a spiritual fruit can be cultivated by a regular Dangling Fisher within a month."

Han Fei was lost for words. "One spiritual fruit for a month? Is that good enough?"

Chapter 343 SpongeBob?

Han Fei felt that they were idiots. If one fruit equaled a month of cultivation in the Blue Sea Town, he would've exchanged The Fish Dragons' business for spiritual fruit.

Yang Ruoyun said angrily, "Can you absorb all the spiritual energy inside the spiritual fruit? Your utilization rate will be remarkable if you can absorb half of it."

Han Fei realized that she was right. He had never considered the problem because not a drop of spiritual energy that entered his mouth ever leaked out. He had preserved all of it.

Yang Ruoyun thought for a moment and said, "Nobody in the ocean replenishes themselves with spiritual fruit because it would be too extravagant to refill their spiritual energy with them. Instead of buying spiritual fruit, they prefer to buy Spirit Refilling Pills, which are more effective and cheaper. So, few people carry a spiritual fruit with them on their trips to the ocean. They would only have it if they found any spiritual fruit during the trip."

Enlightened, Han Fei asked again, "Why are spiritual fruits so cheap on the dragon boat if they're so rare?"

Yang Ruoyun shook her head. "Cheap? A common spiritual fruit costs between 800 to 1,000 mid-quality pearls, and the finest Spirit Refilling Pill only costs several dozen. Most people won't buy spiritual fruits unless they're making a breakthrough. Spiritual fruits are not as cheap as you think..."

Han Fei thought to himself, What a bunch of idiots. But he didn't ask further. Five spiritual fruits and 40,000 points of spiritual energy equaled more than 400,000 points of spiritual energy. Plus the 300,000 he had stored earlier, he had 700,000 in total.

If it were before, he couldn't have imagined that he could acquire such an amount in a few hours. If he had so much spiritual energy when he got started, he would've grown much stronger.

Seeing that he had sufficient spiritual energy for now, Han Fei was not in a rush anymore. He asked Yang Ruoyun, "You said that you came to the level-three fishery for the Seaborne Prairie? Do you want to team up with me?"

Yang Ruoyun hesitated. Though Han Fei saved her, he was as much a danger as the Seaborne Prairie itself. Should she go with him when so many experts were hunting him?

However, when she looked at the depths of the deep, dark jungle, she couldn't help but sigh.

"Okay! However, the place I'm going to is more dangerous than rewarding. You may be good, but too many experts have died in the depths of the Seaborne Prairie, including the peak-level Dangling Fishers." Han Fei asked casually, "Then why are you going there when you're just an intermediate Dangling Fisher?"

Yang Ruoyun said solemnly, "I have my reasons."

Han Fei was surprised. "It's more important than your own life?"

Yang Ruoyun nodded. "Yes, more important than my life."

Han Fei somehow admired the woman. He came here because he was confident, but she was here with nothing but her determination!

Judging from the battle between Yang Ruoyun and the twins, she might be stronger than regular intermediate Dangling Fishers, but she couldn't be stronger than a high-level Dangling Fisher. She must have an important reason to travel on the Seaborne Prairie on her own.

In Han Fei's opinion, what motivated her even at the risk of her life could only be treasure, which he had to fight for. Unlike Xia Xiaochan and his other teammates who were talented, Han Fei knew that he had to fight for as many treasures to build himself up as possible.

Han Fei smiled casually, "Then let's go! However, try not to be killed. I'm still hoping to explore the treasure trove you mentioned!"

Yang Ruoyun rolled her eyes. She really wondered why Han Fei was so interested in treasure troves... Well fine, treasure troves were indeed attractive.

Now that they were a team, Han Fei cast the Divine Healing Technique on Yang Ruoyun, and they didn't move until half an hour later when Yang Ruoyun was mostly recovered.

Yang Ruoyun asked, "Which way did you come from?"

Han Fei said, "The purple bamboo wood! It's a beautiful place, except it has too many pests."

Yang Ruoyun looked at Han Fei in surprise. "You came here from the purple bamboo wood?"

Han Fei was puzzled. "You didn't?"

Yang Ruoyun's lips cramped. "Of course not. The purple bamboo wood is extremely wide, and well-known for Walkingsticks and Red Spirit Spiders in there. Nobody except armorists would enter the Seaborne Prairie from there."

Han Fei shrugged. "I'm not an armorist; I'm a spirit gatherer."

Yang Ruoyun rolled her eyes. I'll be damned if I believe this wicked man! She might've been tricked if she hadn't known Han Fei earlier.

Yang Ruoyun pointed ahead and said, "The first thousand kilometers into the Seaborne Prairie is more dangerous than the middle part, but it has ensured the peace in the depths of the Seaborne Prairie. The next five hundred kilometers after that will be safer, with mostly seaweed and algae. It's also the place suitable for common fish in the Seaborne Prairie."

Han Fei asked in surprise, "You were here before?"

Yang Ruoyun shook her head. "No, but I've studied this place for a long time."

As they swam further, Yang Ruoyun continued introducing the Seaborne Prairie to Han Fei.

After the communication, Han Fei learned that, while this place was named after the reeds on the surface of the ocean, the reeds were much less dangerous than under the water.

According to Yang Ruoyun, with enough spiritual energy, one could fly across the reeds in the sky, so anyone or anything special had long been discovered and taken care of.

While it was less dangerous on the surface of the ocean, most people wouldn't explore the reeds on foot because of the Green Arrow Venomous Frogs.

Of course, for the people who were interested in poison, the place was interesting and full of collections. But those people weren't common, not because they hated poison, but because they might accidentally get them killed by poison. Few Dangling Fishers had poison-related arts.

Things were different in the water. According to Yang Ruoyun, she had been ambushed three times in the Seaborne Prairie. But since she had been fighting with the twins, and other people kept a distance from them, she managed to come in.

It was said that there would be more ambushes at the fifteen hundred kilometer mark, which was the second barrier of the Seaborne Prairie. Those ambushers would be even stronger.

Like she said, Han Fei did not run into any unusual beasts on his way.

After two hundred kilometers, Han Fei found that the view around him was changing. The seaweed and algae were reducing, replaced by stones, or rather, weird objects in various colors that looked like stones.

They were quite creepy. Some were pillars with holes in the center, some were lines like coral, and some were fat and wriggling... "Sponges?"

Yang Ruoyun nodded. "It seems that we aren't so lucky. We're in the sponge section. Hundreds of kinds of sponges live here. They may seem dead, but there are special sponges in this place..."

Han Fei was rendered speechless. "They're sponges however special they are. Can they jump and hit me?"

Yang Ruoyun turned around and looked at Han Fei. "They're even more horrible. Rumor has it that someone in the level-three fishery ran into special sponges that could suck any living creature and transform them into stones."

Han Fei was dumbfounded. Were they still sponges? Was he bad at biology, or was it a miracle of life? Sponges, as living creatures, had no head, tail, torso, limbs, or nerves. They were mostly made of calcium carbonate, silicon carbonate, and various gels... He knew that very well, and now, someone told him that certain sponges could petrify people? Were they Medusa?

Suddenly, Han Fei paused and said, "Wait a moment."

Yang Ruoyun: "???"

Han Fei took out his fishing pole and cast the hook. The hook disappeared the moment it was cast out, turning to a water current.

Yang Ruoyun was slightly surprised at the strange fishing skill. She looked at where Han Fei was aiming and exclaimed, "Yellow Blood Sea Cucumber."

Han Fei said, "That's good and rare stuff. It's more expensive than a spiritual fruit. I bought one on the dragon boat, but I've always regretted it. I should've bought more."

Yang Ruoyun frowned. "The Yellow Blood Sea Cucumber contains a lot of nutrients but not much spiritual energy. It's mainly for body-building. You do that too?"

Han Fei didn't reply. He would've been killed a long time ago had it not been for his tough body...

He activated Thousand Twining and Flash Hook at the same time, tying up the Yellow Blood Sea Cucumber before it realized what was going on.

But when Han Fei retreated the hook, a spherical yellow sponge came close in contact with the hook.

Han Fei: "???"

Chapter 344 Wall of Seaweed

Han Fei had thought that Yang Ruoyun was talking nonsense. Petrifying sponges? It didn't make any sense! Han Fei knew that sponges were used as tablecloths and bath balls in the Mediterranean area. How could those things kill people?

But Han Fei's face had changed at this point. This was a new species that was as swift as a fish...

In his eyes, data popped up.

<Name> Star Chasing Sponge

<Introduction> This is a mutated sponge that has a brain thanks to the nurturing of spiritual energy. It will chase prey alongside the unusual water currents and will detonate itself when it runs into an enemy.

<Level>33

<Quality> Rare

<Spiritual Energy> 1,096 Points

<Effect> Inedible

<Collectible> None

<Unabsorbable>

Han Fei shook the fishing pole quickly and got out of the attack range of the Star Chasing Sponge, before he shouted to Yang Ruoyun, "Run!"

Yang Ruoyun didn't know what was happening, but seeing that Han Fei was fleeing in panic, she started running too.

As it turned out, when they were only a hundred meters away, an ear-splitting explosion burst out behind them and blew them away.

Before they could swim aside, one Star Chasing Sponge came to them after another, as if they were attracted by the explosion.

Han Fei felt that his blood was freezing. What did I do? Nothing more than fishing for a Yellow Blood Sea Cucumber! Why should I deserve this? Yang Ruoyun's face changed. "Not good. Why are the sponges following us?"

Han Fei said helplessly, "They can sense the flow of water. I'm afraid that they'll keep following us until we stop swimming."

To be honest, Han Fei had never met such a shameless creature that was like a haunting ghost, except that ghosts wouldn't explode, but those sponges detonated themselves like torpedoes without being attacked whatsoever.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

A moment later...

Han Fei rushed out of the area of sponges. They couldn't have looked more miserable.

Yang Ruoyun was bleeding all over her body, her hair unkempt. Her face, her skin, and her clothes were covered by the disgusting yellowish fluids.

Han Fei wasn't any better... However, since his body was sturdier, he wasn't really hurt even though his clothes were ragged.

Of course, Han Fei was drenched with yellowish fluids too. It was sticky and couldn't be washed off by seawater. He tried three times before he finally shook the fluids off from him with spiritual energy.

Yang Ruoyun's eyes were burning with fury, and Han Fei smiled in embarrassment and cast the Divine Healing Technique on her.

Han Fei said, "Don't blame me! I'm here for treasures! Who could've known that the sponges could be so disgusting?" Yang Ruoyun scolded, "Can you not take risks for petty returns? It's just a Yellow Blood Sea Cucumber. Next time you're on a dragon boat, you can buy whatever you want in the market, and you can eat the Yellow Blood Sea Cucumber every day."

Han Fei raised his head and looked at the sky? Next time he was on a dragon boat? He was probably wanted on all the dragon boats in the level-three fishery. If his guess was correct, there might be someone from the Sun Family on every dragon boat too.

Han Fei said, "This is all meant to increase our experience. Now that we've met those wretched sponges, they can do nothing to us next time. This minor setback has improved our odds of survival in the ocean..."

"Just keep telling yourself that!"

Passing the area of sponges, they came to a place full of seaweed.

A lot of sea urchins in different shapes and colors were here. Occasionally, eels would be crawling out of the seaweeds, but they returned to the seaweed upon seeing Han Fei and Yang Ruoyun.

Han Fei even saw a green squid that was pretending to be a piece of seaweed.

But Han Fei didn't take action this time. He would've picked a regular squid even if he wanted to eat one. This one looked suspicious and might be poisonous.

Half an hour later, they came to the 1,500 kilometer border. Han Fei was completely shocked.

Blocking Han Fei's way was a curtain of seaweed. It was as though a wall of seaweed had been established before his eyes. It stretched out infinitely on both sides.

He looked up, only to see that the seaweed seemed to have covered the whole area between the surface and the bottom of the ocean. It was most splendid.

On the seaweed, Han Fei saw tremendous amounts of barnacles and sea sunflowers. Well, they weren't the only creatures. There were also green spiders and long worms wriggling on the seaweed, as well as colorful sea urchins.

On a closer look, one would discover a lot of amazing creatures, and at distance, the wall looked like a green curtain dotted with colorful stars.

Han Fei looked at it in awe. "How are we going to get past this?"

Yang Ruoyun was as shocked as Han Fei was. At this point, she was also gazing at the undersea wonder with curiosity.

Yang Ruoyun said, "I thought that the wall of seaweed was just a rumor and that there should be a passage. I didn't know that it would be a dead end."

Han Fei almost vomited blood. "So you didn't really know what's out there?"

Yang Ruoyun shook her head. "The books I read said that the wall of seaweed in the Seaborne Prairie could resist fish tides and give birth to all creatures, that it was as high as the sky and as thick as the shell of divine turtles... I always thought that it was an exaggeration."

Han Fei swallowed. "That's really a neat description..."

Yang Ruoyun: "..."

The two of them stared at the wall for a while, not knowing what to do. Eventually, Han Fei proposed, "Why don't we swim up?"

Yang Ruoyun nodded.

They swam straightly to the surface of the ocean for almost a thousand meters. When the plants on the surface of the ocean were almost dangling on their faces, Han Fei finally admitted that the gap was really flawless.

They returned to the bottom of the ocean. Looking at the wall, Han Fei said casually, "If this wall is as high and sturdy as it is described, there is no way that we can break through it by force..."

Yang Ruoyun agreed with him. "Of course we can't. We need to circumvent it from below."

Han Fei knew that it was necessary to go from below too. Though it was ungraceful to dig tunnels, it was still better than crawling through the seaweed.

Otherwise, if certain strange poisonous trees popped up among the seaweed, it might not be possible for him to cut through them.

Han Fei immediately summoned the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp.

Kicking the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp in the butt, Han Fei declared, "Start digging. Your master needs to get past this."

Then, Han Fei looked at Yang Ruoyun and said, "There's no way up here, so we have to go underground. In that case, are the ambushes you mentioned underground too?"

Yang Ruoyun nodded. "If my intelligence is correct, that must be the case."

The Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp dug the tunnel diligently, complaining that its master summoned it for digging and fighting every time. Why was it never summoned because there was a girlfriend for it?

Following the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp, Han Fei and Yang Ruoyun saw that it dug the soil with its nine tails and pushed the mud away with its limbs.

Yang Ruoyun exclaimed in shock, "Is this contractual spiritual beast of yours really an exotic creature?" Han Fei nodded. "It's not like I can get a legendary one, can I?"

Yang Ruoyun was amazed. "It's really good! I don't know anything that can dig so fast..." Han Fei said in amusement, "You're joking... Crabs are great diggers too. If you catch an exotic crab, it can also dig a tunnel quickly. So can a lobster, for that matter."

Yang Ruoyun was uninterested in that, but she felt lucky that she cooperated with Han Fei. The trip so far had been safe and sound except for the random explosions in the area of sponges...

There was no telling how far the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp had dug, but a lot of roots emerged in the tunnel and tried to tie up the intruders...

Han Fei and Yang Ruoyun were immediately occupied. Both of them cut the roots nonstop with daggers in both hands.

Han Fei had been perceiving the environment. When he found that the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp was slower and slower, he kicked its butt and said, "Dig down."

Yang Ruoyun was lost for words. Is that how you treat your contractual spiritual beast? I feel sorry for this creature that has met such a master...

A moment later, Han Fei grew excited. He had detected several hollow spots nearby. Someone was indeed lurking under the soil...

Chapter 345 A Great Graveyard

The tunnel was dim and misty. Barely anything could be seen. Everything had to be perceived through other senses.

However, the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp had made a lot of noises during the digging, so Han Fei and Yang Ruoyun must've been exposed.

Han Fei said, "What do we do if anyone ambushes us in this place?"

Yang Ruoyun replied quickly, "We kill them! Whoever sets up an ambush here can't be weak. We cannot show mercy on them."

She stopped and asked, "Have we been ambushed?"

Han Fei nodded, "Yes, but only by two people."

Yang Ruoyun's face slightly changed in the target. "Let's change our way."

Han Fei asked, "Why?"

Yang Ruoyun quickly explained, "If it were you, would you dare to set up an ambush with only one person here in the Seaborne Prairie?"

Han Fei said, "I think I would!"

Yang Ruoyun: "...

Han Fei suddenly said, "Wait, don't be stupid! If the ambushers are as good as me, they must have a lot of good stuff."

Yang Ruoyun paused and asked, "What are you getting at?"

She had a bad feeling. Han Fei was very strong, and not entirely decent though he was not a villain. At this point, the man must be planning to rob the other people...

As he expected, Han Fei said in the next moment, "You keep walking." Yang Ruoyun asked, "What about you?" Han Fei said, "Don't worry. I'll catch up with you later."

Han Fei dug a tunnel downwards with a ring of Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers like a drill and disappeared from Yang Ruoyun's senses in the blink of an eye.

"What a jerk. He's using me as bait."

Yang Ruoyun gnashed her teeth. How did I run into such a jerk? Wasn't he here for treasure hunting? Why is he suddenly interested in robbery?

Han Fei didn't know what Yang Ruoyun was thinking, but his senses covered everything within three hundred meters. He entered the tunnel that the ambushers had dug and was several hundred meters away from them.

"Hu..."

Han Fei drew a Stealth Array with his spiritual energy quickly.

At this point, Han Fei wished that he were a hunter, in which case he would be able to approach the ambushers without a sound.

Han Fei raised the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Bow and gathered 1,600 points of spiritual energy into an arrow.

Not far away, two peak-level Dangling Fishers were listening attentively.

Suddenly, one of them said, "Huh, do you feel that the spiritual energy here is intensifying?"

The other frowned and replied, "Seems so. Is the spirit gatherer in the team up above gathering spiritual energy?"

“Hiu!”

Their faces both changed drastically in the middle of their discussion. They turned around at the same time, initiating the spiritual energy protective cover and fusing with their spiritual beasts.

Boom...

Up above, Yang Ruoyun’s face changed. She gnashed her teeth and disappeared, “What a jerk.”

Down below, Han Fei’s attack succeeded. The two peak-level Dangling Fishers didn’t realize it until their life was under threat. At this point, one of them had been blown away, and the other had lost one of his daggers. His hand was shivering too.

Strength was what mattered most in a head-on clash. The tunnel was not very wide, and Han Fei had blocked it with the Water Dividing Seal, which defended himself while he launched the attack.

“Electric Soul Attack...”

“Ultimate Shadow Stab...”

But to their surprise, Han Fei resisted the attack without being defeated.

BAM!

They were blown away again. The weight of the Water Dividing Seal, plus Han Fei’s enormous force, had crushed them even though they were peak-level Dangling Fishers.

At this point, the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers were launched, and Yang Ruoyun pressed her daggers at them too.

However, the peak-level Dangling Fishers wouldn’t be taken down so easily even though they had been heavily wounded. After a dozen attacks and counterattacks, Yang Ruoyun had to retreat when she was cut three times.

Han Fei spoke to her telepathically, Why are you here? Those two are mine. Don’t steal them.

Yang Ruoyun was infuriated as she was here to help, not to steal. That man was truly ungrateful.

She was quite shocked too, as Han Fei seemed to be horrifyingly strong! Two peak-level Dangling Fishers had been heavily wounded by him the moment they engaged? How strong must he be?

Actually, Han Fei felt no pressure at all. The Million Knife Art under the control of the Saber Manipulation Art was the best of the saber arts for Dangling Fishers.

Those two hunters had been cut dozens of times without being able to put up any resistance.

Han Fei secretly chuckled. This might’ve been tricky for him if he hadn’t made the breakthrough...

But right now, he was essentially one step away from a peak-level Dangling Fisher, and he was much stronger than them in terms of comprehensive abilities. If he couldn't defeat them, he would feel sorry for his divine-level arts and techniques as well as his Indestructible Body.

"Bro, let's talk nicely! Don't kill us!"

The Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp charged in and tied them up with its chains, waving its limbs threateningly, ready to crumble their heads if they intended to run.

Seeing that the Mantis Shrimp's hammer-like limbs had almost reached their face, both of them looked horrified.

With a dagger in each hand, Han Fei stood before them and said, "When you ambush other people, be ready to be ambushed. Submit your Sea Swallowing Seashells."

Those two had no choices except to submit them, or he could've taken the Sea Swallowing Shells all the same after killing them.

Immediately, two Sea Swallowing Seashells floated in the water.

Han Fei picked them up and frowned, as there was nothing but one spiritual fruit inside the two Sea Swallowing Seashells. Those two were really poor! Apart from the spiritual fruit, there were a few spiritual weapons, magic weapons, and some materials and mid-quality pearls.

"What a pauper."

Everyone: "..."

Han Fei squinted and said, "I can spare you, but I have my terms."

"Just tell us! As long as you spare us, we're willing to do anything for you..." Han Fei's lips curled. "You will lead the vanguard as we explore the depths of the Seaborne Prairie."

Yang Ruoyun looked at Han Fei, surprised that Han Fei was not going to kill the two ambushers.

Then, she immediately realized that nobody served as scouts better than two peak-level Dangling Fishers in the rest of the journey which would be even more dangerous. Those two were immediately chilled after seeing that. One of them said, "Bro, you really shouldn't press on any further..."

Han Fei turned cold. "Why not?"

One of them said in fright, "We had four teammates at the beginning. One died at the edge, and one died in the deeper parts where terrible gigantic worms live."

"Gigantic worms?"

Han Fei looked at Yang Ruoyun, and she shook her head. "I've never read or heard that before."

Han Fei sneered at them and said, "This is not a discussion. You will go whether you want to or not. If you do, you still have a chance to live; if you don't, I'll kill you here and now."

Those two paused a moment and accepted the demand. Like Han Fei said, they might live if they went with him, but they would be dead for sure if they refused to.

If they passed the nests of worms, it was possible that they could get rid of Han Fei...

They secretly communicated with each other and decided to take the risk.

In the meantime, Han Fei received Yang Ruoyun's secret message. Don't believe them, and kill them instantly if they do anything unusual, or there may be great problems.

Han Fei grinned and said, "Rest assured. I know what I'm doing."

A moment later, led by those two people, Han Fei and Yang Ruoyun pressed on in a tunnel that had been dug earlier.

About half an hour later, the two people up ahead suddenly turned around and said, "It's a dead end here. We sealed the tunnel after we fled back."

Han Fei asked, "Why didn't you go around it?" One of them smiled bitterly, "How could we? Worm nests are everywhere. The only opening is up in the water. But if we go there, the seaweeds that are much denser than reeds would tie us up in no time."

Han Fei speculated that those gigantic worms might be creatures similar to the enormous sandworms. If those two had escaped, there was no reason why he couldn't.

"Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp, dig into the worm nests."

Seeing that, Yang Ruoyun pulled Han Fei and asked, "Have you lost your mind? You're still digging?"

Han Fei shook her hand off and said solemnly, "If all the paths in front of you are dangerous, you will have to choose the least dangerous one of them. Since those two escaped, it means that the worm nests are not really perilous. Maybe, that's the only way out here."

Yang Ruoyun was briefly stunned, feeling that he had a point. But she wondered why Han Fei was risking so much to explore the Seaborne Prairie. Was it really for treasure hunting?

Yang Ruoyun said, "With your capabilities, you could've explored countless other treasure troves in the level-three fishery. Why the Seaborne Prairie?"

Han Fei grinned and, remembering the guys from the Sun Family, remarked, "Because this place makes a great graveyard."

Chapter 346 Dry Leaf Worms

Han Fei was exploring the Seaborne Prairie not just for the treasures. After all, the trip was somewhat risky even for him.

Treasure hunting was only one of his goals.

He wondered if he would be chased again if he were to leave the Seaborne Prairie in a hurry.

It would remain to be seen if he could survive five peak-level Dangling Fishers in another place. In the previous two battles, he had been heavily wounded. They were really challenging enemies for him.

But the Seaborne Prairie was different in that it was full of unknown dangers, which were protections in disguise for Han Fei.

If the Sun Family sent more hunters, this complicated environment would be in his favor.

Actually, Han Fei's instincts were quite reliable, but he was too ignorant to know what the big families were capable of yet.

At this moment, a dozen people were following a young man in the place where Han Fei fought the monstrous octopus.

"Young Master Mu, the traces are all gone from here. I'm afraid... They've all died."

With his eyes closed and his hands on his back, the young man slowly raised his arm, and a green snake leaped out of his sleeve and scoured the place.

The young man said casually, "All of them have perished here. Their flesh has been consumed by the ocean, their bones buried in the mud... Han Fei has already escaped."

"Huh?"

Everybody behind the young man was shocked. All five peak-level Dangling Fishers were dead?

Someone dug where the green snake stopped and soon found broken bones. He yelled, "Sun Qi, did you run into any exotic creatures? These bones are broken and incomplete, as if they were bitten by something."

Sun Qi was the person who escaped earlier. He shook his head in confusion, "No! We didn't run into anything, at least not until I left."

"Useless."

But the young man waved his hands and said, "There's no need to argue."

The green snake squeezed into the soil and pulled out an enormous skull of a snake. Everybody held their breath, as the skull was intimidating and its fangs were still shining!

The young man smiled casually, "It's an exotic creature. This must be one of its heads... Interesting. I've long been told of the wall of seaweed in the Seaborne Prairie. It would be a shame if I don't pay a visit to it now that I'm here..."

Boom...

The tunnel was broken through, and Han Fei felt that his blood was freezing when he saw the long worm pit.

After a quick glance, he saw a big fat worm, thirty meters long and almost five meters thick, wriggling inside the pit with a yellow trace behind it.

In his eyes, data popped up.

<Name> Dry Leaf Worm

<Introduction> This gigantic creature is made of countless Dry Leaf Bugs. It will dismember in a battle into a storm of insects that can absorb the life vitality of creatures. Because the individual insects are too weak, this is not considered an exotic creature.

Han Fei was about to jump and run, but he managed to hold himself back.

“Huh! It’s the Dry Leaf Worm.”

Yang Ruoyun asked in surprise, “Do you know it?”

Han Fei nodded. Of course he knew it. Actually, the Dry Leaf Worm was not famous for themselves, but for the Dry Leaf Worm Leaf, which was a spiritual plant that grew in their nests.

According to the Encyclopedia of Spiritual Plants, the Dry Leaf Worm Leaf looked like a worm and had the color of dry leaves. It was so lethal that it could kill anyone who touched it within ten seconds.

Han Fei grew vigilant. Although he hadn’t seen a Dry Leaf Worm Leaf yet, he didn’t think he would be immune to it as a mere Dangling Fisher.

Of course, while the Dry Leaf Worm Leaf was lethal, it had its own usage. According to the Encyclopedia of Spiritual Plants, this spiritual plant would turn into a treasure after absorbing enough vitality.

Han Fei was rather tempted. It was the most poisonous and precious spiritual plant that he had ever known.

However, the Dry Leaf Worms were too disgusting. The big fat worm made of countless smaller insects made Han Fei’s blood cold.

Yang Ruoyun asked, “W-What do we do?”

The two guys up front intended to retreat, but the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp stuck and stopped them.

Han Fei said, “Don’t intent to flee, or I’ll simply kill you.”

One of them said, “Bro, there’s no dealing with those worms. We will meet more nests whichever direction we go!”

Han Fei asked in surprise, “There are a lot of such nests?”

“Yes. So it’s impossible to press deeper from underground.”

Han Fei sneered in disdain, “What if we dig downwards? Are there more worm nests down below?”

Those two guys shook their heads quickly. “Don’t do that. There are big gathered worms up here, but if you dig deeper, you will find countless individual insects, which will be even trickier and dangerous...”

Han Fei: “...”

Han Fei was rather lost for words, as it was not easy to deal with the worms. Things would be easier if they were sandworms, which did not absorb vitality or consist of smaller individual bugs...

“Not good. The worms are creepy here.”

Her face changing greatly, Yang Ruoyun pulled Han Fei back.

Yang Ruoyun said, “Let’s go up and get out of here.” Han Fei frowned and asked, “It’s just clusters of seaweed up there. You dare to go into them?”

Yang Ruoyun replied, “We have to try.”

Han Fei narrowed his eyes and nodded, “Okay, let’s go up.”

The two hunters were reluctant at first, but Han Fei simply stabbed them and said, “Don’t think of running anymore, or I’ll kill you immediately.”

The Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp was digging quickly, followed by the two hunters, and Yang Ruoyun and Han Fei were at the end.

Because Han Fei’s arrival had caused a huge ruckus, too many Dry Leaf Worms the size of arms were wriggling towards them. Han Fei shouted, “Hurry up! Dig faster!”

The tunnel was only a hundred meters from the ground, and it only took a minute before the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp reached it. Then, Han Fei immediately recalled the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp.

The two hunters had cursed Han Fei countless times in their heart.

The moment they left the soil, they looked at the seaweed and whispered to each other, “Let’s run separately, or we will be killed by him sooner or later.” Yang Ruoyun hurried to say, “They’re running.”

Han Fei replied unhurriedly, “I know. How can they scout for us if they don’t run? Let’s just follow one of them...”

After Han Fei and Yang Ruoyun were out, they found two holes among the seaweed. Han Fei picked one of them randomly and minced the seaweed crazily with the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers, trying to expand the hole. “Puchi...”

When Han Fei only moved a hundred meters, something appeared among the seaweed. It was part of a green vine, which came at him like an agile snake.

Han Fei had seen it coming and was not anxious. He simply cut the vine apart.

From the tunnel behind him, many Dry Leaf Worms flooded out.

To Han Fei’s surprise, those worms were tied up by the seaweeds the moment they were out.

At first, the seaweeds withered and turned into pieces, but after a moment of stalemate, the Dry Leaf Worms were invaded and dismembered by the seaweed.

“Huh...”

Han Fei was greatly refreshed. “I know how to deal with the worms now.”

While Han Fei was still excited, he found that Yang Ruoyun was cutting the vines and the seaweeds crazily.

She shouted, "There are more and more vines and seaweed! We can't go very far."

Han Fei looked at the water which had almost been dyed green, and his Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers were slower and slower.

At this point, Han Fei felt that his back was cold, and something seemed to be coming from above his head.

"Water-Stirring Seal Technique."

As the enormous seal was summoned, a weird vine that looked like a long serpent smashed the Water Dividing Seal.

BAM!

Han Fei looked back, only to see that Yang Ruoyun had been whipped to the ground and almost been covered by the seaweed.

Han Fei did not return immediately. Just now, it was Yang Ruoyun who proposed to dig a tunnel out when there was another option, which was to retreat.

Yang Ruoyun chose to take risks instead of retreating, which was unusual. Was this woman reckless? Or did she know something that she never spoke out? Was that why she wanted to dig out?

WO

Pretending that he was busy dealing with the weird vine, Han Fei ignored Yang Ruoyun. Three seconds later...

"Han Fei, do you want to go to your treasure trove or not? Come help me!"

Actually, Yang Ruoyun's status was under his perception. Having been bound by dozens of bundles of seaweed, she could barely move and had to ask for Han Fei's help.

"Damn it..."

Seeing that she didn't betray herself, Han Fei returned and launched a torrent of Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers at the seaweed.

Pu... Pu... Pu...

The seaweeds and the vines were cut apart. Han Fei landed before Yang Ruoyun and raised his head at the hundreds of green vines that were surging at them.

Han Fei said with an awful expression, "There's a huge tree up above. Those vines are just its branches. We have to go back..."

Chapter 347 Worm Eats Grass, Grass Eats Worm

Han Fei didn't feel very good. These little vines were cut too easily. This made no sense! Were the vines in the seagrass wall so weak? Would he become a decoration? Could it be to trap him?

Han Fei summoned Nine Tails and kicked him. "Dig through the bottom."

Han Fei turned to look at Yang Ruoyun. "You're not so weak, are you? I think the vines are just a piece of cake for you, right?"

Yang Ruoyun said angrily, "A piece of cake? Can't you see how many spiritual weapons you have and how many I have? Why don't you try not using those spiritual weapons..."

Han Fei smiled. "Forget it. Let's continue to go down in the ground. I feel a bit strange. Those two guys should have made some noise when they ran away... But there was no sound at all. Did they really run away?"

In fact, things like seaweed could never be cut out. In the seagrass city-like wall, there were more than hundreds of millions of seagrasses! This couldn't be dealt with by manpower at all.

Nine Tails dug hard, and in a short time, three or five holes were drilled down.

Han Fei instructed, "Continue to dig."

Yang Ruoyun asked, "Aren't we going down?"

Han Fei smiled disdainfully and said, "Those worms are afraid of grass. I'd like to see whether the worms or seaweed are stronger."

While Han Fei was cutting down the vines and waiting for Nine Tails to dig deeper holes, a figure suddenly appeared 100 meters away, which was one of the two who ran out just now.

However, before he spoke, he broke into a cold sweat. That bastard now only had the upper half of his body left. As for the lower half of the body, it had long since disappeared, replaced by a body made up of vines.

Han Fei muttered, "F*ck..."

Yang Ruoyun was terrified. "Run!"

"Human, your strength has been recognized by me, and I will not give you a hard time."

"Oh, who is speaking?" Han Fei was horrified, he pulled Yang Ruoyun up and fled into the hole.

Yang Ruoyun stopped him. "Wait, someone is speaking."

Han Fei said impatiently, "Are you stupid? Didn't you hear it called you 'human' just now? There is an alien creature in this seaweed wall."

Han Fei's heart was pounding. That thing made people into ornaments, which it even showed to him. He couldn't be a kind demon.

Han Fei had Nine Tails attach to him directly, he hit the ground with the nine-star chain, and at the same time, threw five or six masses of spiritual energy into those holes.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

Spiritual energy exploded and dust was flying

It became muddy all around.

Feeling the countless vines rushing up behind him, Han Fei sighed.

Boom...

The giant worm was furious, turned its head up to Han Fei, and roared. As soon as it opened its mouth, swarms of small Dry Leaf Worms spewed forth like waves.

Han Fei's face was black. The nine-star chain kept stabbing into the worm nest, and he hurriedly moved away.

However, large patches of seaweed and vines also penetrated through the hole, covering a small half of the worm nest in almost a moment.

Han Fei's eyes almost popped out. Damn, why are these seaweeds so fierce?

"Human, I won't hurt you. I just want to have a chat with you."

"Chat my ass! If you really want to chat, get rid of this Dry Leaf Worm to show your sincerity."

"Well, this is not too difficult."

Han Fei was ready to dig a hole to escape. However, at this time, a large number of vines and seaweeds gathered up, rushing directly to the giant Dry Leaf Worm and sweeping it away.

Han Fei felt his blood freeze. What kind of demon is this? Did it really get rid of the worm?

Almost in the blink of an eye, all the seaweed and vines that came in from the outside withered. But the next moment, endless seaweeds and vines were still pouring in.

Han Fei said to Yang Ruoyin through a voice transmission, This thing is by no means good in nature. Tell me how we can escape! Come on...

Yang Ruoyun hesitated. I really don't know.

Han Fei sneered. Liar! If you really don't know, how do you dare to run into the depths of the Seagrassland? When you saw this monster, you didn't say a word. Did you really not know of its existence? You know what, if this Dry Leaf Worm can't resist this monster, I'll run by myself. I can still find other dangerous places. But you won't be able to get my help again... With that, Han Fei let go of Yang Ruoyun and joined Nine Tails to dig holes.

After a while, a large number of Dry Leaf Worms burst with excessive life energy and turned into sticky liquid. Within half an hour, the huge Dry Leaf Worm had shrunk by nearly half its size.

The weird voice still echoed in Han Fei's ear, "Human, I have no intention of hurting you."

"Then go away and don't get in the way." "Human, I need something. Can you find it for me?"

Han Fei responded, "Just tell me what it is! If I can, I will find it for you. But if I can't, don't bother me..."

Then, the sound suddenly disappeared. However, there were quite a few vines and seaweeds pouring towards Han Fei and Yang Ruoyun respectively.

Han Fei shouted angrily via voice transmission, Yang Ruoyun!

Yang Ruoyun glanced at Han Fei lightly, stretched out her hand, and two Flash Stones flew towards Han Fei.

As he expected, this woman was already ready. One Flash Stone could take a person dozens of miles away. This woman gave him two so easily. There must be more in her.

Han Fei said, "It's not enough. Give me a few more!"

Yang Ruoyun took a deep look at Han Fei. "Sorry, I only have a limited number of Flash Stones. Thank you for helping me get here. It has exceeded my own expectations... Good luck..."

"Hum..."

Then Yang Ruoyun suddenly disappeared from his eyes.

"F*ck you, Yang Ruoyun. Next time I see you, I'll kill you."

Han Fei was speechless. He knew Yang Ruoyun was not trustworthy but he thought everything was under his control. Yang Ruoyun borrowed his strength and he borrowed Yang Ruoyun's knowledge of this place. They were actually mutually benefited.

However, in the end, it was he who was fooled. Han Fei wondered if his head was hit by an Iron-headed Fish. However, this time it was just a coincidence and he asked to follow her. He got himself into this trouble!

"Huh! Where is that girl?"

Han Fei said with a dark face "You... Hey, what should I call you? Did the Dry Leaf Worms offend you? Why do you have to kill them all?"

Han Fei's eyelids twitched when he saw that only one-third of the Dry Leaf Worms were left.

"Oh! I occasionally need to release life energy. These worms are strong and can just satisfy me."

The corner of Han Fei's mouth twitched. "No... So, are you seaweed? Or vines?"

"I, am me. I don't have a name. I can feel a familiar breath in you, so I ask you for help."

Then Han Fei saw two vines sticking out, on which two people hung, who were those two cannon fodder hunters. At this moment, they were both dead and a lot of seaweed grew out of their bodies.

This scene made Han Fei's hair stand on end. "What do you mean?"

"They are not dead."

Han Fei's eyes widened. Half their bodies are gone and you tell me they are not dead?

However, the next moment, Han Fei saw the two men open their eyes at the same time. Two strong life energies radiated from the bodies of these two people.

“Help... Help me...” “Kill... Me, kill me...”

Han Fei swallowed. They didn’t speak clearly because they also had seaweed in their mouths. However, Han Fei could feel that they were supported by powerful life energy, but it was better to die than to live like this.

Swish... Swish...

Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers shot through the skulls of the two people and Han Fei helped them get free. Even if they were disposable to him, they didn’t deserve to be tortured like this.

Han Fei gritted his teeth. “What the hell do you want? If you want to ask for help, stand upright in front of me.”

While talking, Han Fei held the Flash Stones in his hand. If anything happened, he was going to escape with the help of the stones first, and then hide in Forge the Universe. Then no matter how powerful this monster was, it wouldn’t be able to find him...

At this moment.

The Dry Leaf Worm had basically been wiped out. A worm nest had turned countless seaweeds and vines into ashes, but it was still not enough.

Han Fei overestimated the Dry Leaf Worm and underestimated the monster in the seaweed wall. At this moment, just below the place where the worms originally converged, a finger-long worm was floating. Han Fei was slightly surprised... Dry Leaf Worm Leaf?

A string of data appeared in his eyes.

<Name> Dry Leaf Worm Leaf

<Introduction> Grows in the nest of Dry Leaf Worms. It is extremely poisonous in the first nine years. Any Dangling Fisher who touches it will die in five minutes and Hanging Fishers in three years. Nine years later, it turns from poison into medicine and absorbs vitality from the outside world. After another nine years, it ripens into a spiritual fruit that contains a lot of energy.

Chapter 348 Foxy Seaweed Monster

Han Fei felt the scene at this moment was very weird.

This seaweed monster really didn't care about vitality. A large amount of seaweed and vines directly enveloped the Dry Leaf Worm Grass. Thousands of vines turned from green to yellow, and a large area of seaweed withered instantly.

That voice rang again casually, "This thing is interesting. It's so small but can absorb a huge amount of vitality. However, it's a pity that it's full after only absorbing for a short while..."

Han Fei: "..."

In Han Fei's eyes, the Dry Leaf Worm Grass was maturing rapidly. In just a moment, it became a super tonic. "Gulp!"

Han Fei asked carefully, "Well... Is your vitality endless?"

Han Fei didn't panic anymore. He couldn't figure it out at all. What did this thing mean? Why did it harm itself in front of him? Is it trying to impress me through self-harm? If this was the case, then this seaweed monster had succeeded. Han Fei was indeed shocked.

A vine wrapped the Dry Leaf Worm Grass and sent it to Han Fei. "This thing is of no use to me, but to humans, it seems to be an extremely rare treasure."

This was certainly a super tonic! Although it didn't contain much spiritual energy, it contained a lot of pure energy and a lot of vitality. If practicing the Indestructible Body Art with it, he would yield twice the results with half the effort.

"Do you need it?"

Han Fei suddenly came back to his senses, suppressing his desire to take it.

Han Fei nodded. "OK, just tell me what you want. Don't talk nonsense that you smell a familiar breath on me! I won't believe it! Just tell me your purpose..."

However, the figure said very seriously. "No, I do smell a familiar breath on you. A few years ago, a creature ran past here and I failed to stop it... Yes, you seem to have the same smell."

"Huh?"

Han Fei was puzzled. "A few years ago? At that time, let alone the level-three fishery, I was still in the ordinary fishery!"

The voice seemed a little confused. "I don't know. However, I can be sure that you have the same smell."

"Whatever... You can't attack me. If you dare to do it, I will smash the Flash Stones and run away. Now tell me what you want me to do for you. I will think about it."

Han Fei pondered, This monster is so strong that it doesn't have to cheat me. What's the point for it to kill me since it is so powerful and intelligent?

"Help me grab a fruit."

"Huh?"

Han Fei was stunned and blurted out, "You are so powerful. It is not a problem for you to grab a piece of fruit..."

The voice said, "I can't leave this seagrass water area, and the fruit is thousands of miles away."

Was this guy talking about the center of the Sea Grassland?

Han Fei shivered. "I haven't reached the central area yet and I've already met a strong master like you! In the central area, will there be other powerful creatures? If so, how can I resist them?"

"No, you are very special. Just like the creature I saw last time, although you can't beat me, I seem unable to kill you... You should be able to avoid my pursuit, right?"

Han Fei was silent for a while. Who is this bastard talking about? Who do I know in the level-three fishery?

Is it Ren Tianfei? No, Ren Tianfei is an old monster who lived hundreds of years ago. He certainly wouldn't bother to come to the level-three fishery. This seaweed monster should not be able to stop him!

But if it's not Ren Tianfei, who is it? My dad? Could it be Old Jiang? Sister Qin?

Damn, is it Tang Ge?

Immediately, Han Fei shook his head. It can't be Tang Ge. Years ago? No matter how fast Tang Ge's strength grew, he couldn't have become a Dangling Fisher a few years ago.

Forget it. Han Fei did not continue to guess. As the seaweed monster said, he wasn't quite afraid of it. Especially now he also had Flash Stones...

Han Fei held his head high and said, "Okay, I'll try to pick it for you. However, just one Dry Leaf Worm Grass is not enough!"

"10 pieces."

"Wow..."

Han Fei swallowed. This seaweed monster is really awesome! Ten pieces of Dry Leaf Worm Grass? Gosh!

Although Han Fei had not taken this Dry Leaf Worm Grass, he knew the energy contained in it couldn't be underestimated. Just think about the huge amount of life energy the seaweed monster had!

However, Han Fei did not immediately agree. The greater the temptation, the greater the price he might have to pay.

Han Fei asked, "What does the fruit you're looking for look like? Do you know what it is called?"

The seagrass monster said leisurely, "I don't know but that kind of fruit is as red as blood, occasionally turning into a red fish..."

"Poof..."

Han Fei was dumbfounded. Is it a fruit demon? Turning into a fish? Are you kidding me?

The seaweed monster said lightly, "You can have a try. It's okay. Whether you can get it or not, this grass is yours." With that, the vine put down the worm grass. Han Fei reached out and took it. Of course, he wanted it.

Then, a cunning gleam flickered through Han Fei's eyes. "Hey! Promise me two more conditions."

"Yes?"

Han Fei said, "I need a spiritual spring. The more, the better. Since you are so strong, you must have noticed that I can absorb a lot of spiritual energy."

The seaweed monster thought for a while and said, "I have a lot of spiritual energy, but I won't give it to you. After you get the spiritual fruit, I can give you a million points of spiritual energy." Han Fei said, "But I need the spiritual spring to fight now. You see, I wasted tens of thousands of points just to avoid you just now..."

However, the seaweed monster said leisurely, "The spiritual energy you just consumed does not exceed 10,000 points in total."

Han Fei: "..."

The seaweed monster continued, "I can give you 100,000 points of spiritual energy. Sometimes, it's not a good thing to have too much spiritual energy. Bring me the fruit, and you'll get even more than you want."

Han Fei's eyes almost narrowed into a line. This bastard is really cunning! It is afraid that if I'm given too much spiritual energy, I'll run away... But 100,000 points of spiritual energy is too little! Only the amount of spiritual energy in a single spiritual fruit! It might not even be enough for me to run away if I need to...

Seeing that he could not talk the spiritual energy out of the seaweed monster, Han Fei said, "If I've guessed right, in the next few days, there may be many peak-level Dangling Fishers passing by the seaweed wall. Can you help me kill them?"

"I can help you block them, but whether I can kill them depends on their strength."

Han Fei frowned. This seaweed monster's answer is ambiguous and it literally promises me nothing... I can't manage it!

However, Han Fei made no further requests. He grabbed the Dry Leaf Worm Grass and stuffed it directly into Forge the Universe. He would just leave this damn place first... What this seaweed monster wanted so badly couldn't be a common thing! Maybe, when he got the fruit, he could just keep it.

Han Fei nodded. "Okay! I agree to help you find the fruit. Let me go now."

The seaweed monster said, "You can come up. I won't stop you."

Han Fei pondered. If he went out, he could still escape if the monster attacked him. After all, he had Flash Stones in his hand. Besides, he could still enter Forge the Universe.

When the seaweed receded, Han Fei got out of the cave.

After coming out, the seaweed did make way for him and no longer stopped him. Those vines also disappeared. Han Fei looked around. "Hey! Who are you? What do you look like? Why don't you come out?"

"We will meet one day."

"Humph!"

Han Fei remained vigilant and walked unhurriedly. He did not dare to use combat skills to speed up, in case this seaweed monster played any tricks on him.

About two hours later, when Han Fei was about to walk out of this seagrass forest, his face lightened up. I'm finally getting out of here!

However, when Han Fei was walking carefully, he suddenly felt pain in his feet.

Han Fei suddenly used combat skills to break through the last seaweed blockade. Looking down, he found a circle of green seaweed on his ankle.

"Damn..."

Han Fei was angry. I was so fucking careful, but who would have expected that I was tricked at the last moment.

Han Fei was furious. "Asshole, what did you do to me?"

The seaweed monster still said leisurely, "This is my soul lock, which represents the contract between you and me. Get me the spirit fruit and I will remove it."

Han Fei was furious! I was f*cking tricked again... Ahh, how I want to have Nine Tails kill it!

"Spiritual energy, give it to me."

Han Fei gnashed his teeth.

When a mass of spirit spring flew towards Han Fei, he took it and left without looking back.

And the seaweed monster's leisure voice rang again, "Don't try to erase this soul lock. Otherwise, it will self-destruct."

Han Fei narrowed his eyes and said without turning his head, "Remember to kill those peak-level Dangling Fishers for me."

Chapter 349 Color Crystal Mussel and Lotus Fish

Han Fei didn't look back, because he was afraid that he would go crazy, rush in, and hack that monster to death...

From the beginning to the end, he didn't even see the shadow of that bastard but had to take all its demands, which made him feel really unsettled!

Passing through the seaweed city wall, there were many types of common seaweed for hundreds of kilometers. Han Fei saw that he was far away from the seaweed city wall, so he sat on the ground and checked his feet.

<Name> Soul Lock

<Introduction> A special talent of very few creatures. Such creatures compress and refine a large amount of vitality, spiritual power, and spiritual energy to make a soul lock. Once a soul lock forms, it is telepathic to its maker. It is often used to control other creatures and explode when necessary. <Level> Advanced

<Contained Spiritual Energy> 188,862 points

<Absorbable>

When he saw this data, Han Fei's face immediately turned green. He certainly couldn't let this damn thing blow up! More than 180,000 points of spiritual energy! Even a spiritual weapon could be turned to dust...

However, when Han Fei saw the word "Absorbable", he grinned. That's great! His dear Demon Purification Pot was always so awesome!

Undoubtedly, Han Fei would certainly not cooperate with the grass he hadn't even seen at the risk of his own life...

"Hehe, angry? Wanna kill? That's exactly what I want..."

"Absorb it."

The spiritual energy in the soul lock was gradually decreasing. After absorbing less than 1,000 points, Han Fei suddenly saw the soul lock glow slightly. Han Fei was startled! That monster was telepathic to this soul lock. He forgot about that...

"Swish..."

"Huh?"

In the seaweed city wall, a huge ball of seaweed suddenly shook. Where is my soul lock? It had just noticed something unusual, but in a blink of an eye, it lost contact with the lock.

Han Fei didn't know what the reaction of that "grass" was at this moment, but it must have been mad!

But he didn't care. As long as he entered Forge the Universe, nobody could sense it!

"Absorb."

After a while Han Fei looked at the soul lock, exhausted of spiritual energy, and chuckled. "Humph! Do you think you can trick me? When I get a chance, I'll definitely make you pay a price!"

The soul lock without spiritual energy was easily torn off by Han Fei. Then, he cut it into seventeen or eighteen segments.

Coming out of Forge the Universe, Han Fei was all smiles. His reserve of spiritual energy had almost reached a million points again. To be precise, it was a bit more than 980,000 points, but it could round up to one million!

As for the 10 pieces of worm grass that the grass monster mentioned, Han Fei didn't care about it. He couldn't imagine who would be so stupid as to spend such a huge amount of vitality to ripen 10 poisonous fruits of this level..

"Hahaha..."

Han Fei couldn't help laughing, only to spit out a string of bubbles.

After getting rid of the strange grass, Han Fei was relieved. However, he snorted again, Yang Ruoyun, this nasty woman! She tricked him over and over again!

Now that he had come out and their destination was the same, they would meet sooner or later as long as she didn't die. Then no matter what she said, he wouldn't believe her.

After a while, Han Fei saw many undulating flake creatures in the distance. Han Fei couldn't see clearly because they were far away.

This time, Han Fei was more cautious and didn't rashly rush over, but he activated his spiritual perception in advance and walked over step by step.

Safety mattered more than speed.

After a while, Han Fei discovered that three or two round-shaped sea mussels appeared before his eyes. Noticing his presence, these sea mussels closed their mouths quickly and then hid in the mud.

"Huh! Sea mussels?"

In Han Fei's view, a sea mussel had always been the lowest level creature. Whether in the ordinary fishery or in the level-one or level-two fishery, the seabed was almost covered with sea mussels and sea mussel shells.

Han Fei also saw a lot of sea mussels in the level-three fishery, but he didn't pay much attention to these sea mussels. But Han Fei suddenly remembered that since he entered the Sea Grassland, it seemed that there were not many sea mussels found on the seabed... Was there any difference in these sea mussels he just found?

A string of data appeared in his eyes.

<Name> Color Crystal Mussel

<Introduction> A mutated species of sea mussel, containing Color Crystal Pearls that contain all kinds of colors and match the colors of all things.

<Level> 27

<Quality> Rare <Contained Spiritual Energy> 856 points

<Edible Effect> Long-term consumption can enhance the body's blood and Qi.

<Collectable> Color Crystal Pearl

<Absorbable>

Han Fei was surprised. Huh? Color Crystal Pearl, what is it?

Without hesitation, Han Fei picked up a knife and chopped it on the shell of a Color Crystal Mussel with a clang.

With a “crack”, the Color Crystal Mussel was split in half.

After all, it was only a level-27 creature, which was quite vulnerable to Han Fei.

However, before Han Fei dug out the mussel meat, he saw many bright lotus flowers floating over!

Yes, Han Fei saw a group of three-colored lotus flowers floating towards him. With a cautious attitude, Han Fei immediately backed away.

After retreating for several meters, Han Fei saw flower-like little fish floating on the three-colored lotus flower.

Another string of data appeared in his eyes.

<Name> Lotus Fish

<Introduction> Mild and peaceful in nature, dislike fighting and killing. When it’s going to die, it will close its petals and sink to the bottom of the sea. The Lotus Fish likes to eat Color Crystal Pearls, which can keep its body shiny forever. Because of its inherent purity, it can get rid of filth.

Han Fei blinked, watching the three-colored lotus flowers spread out vertically and horizontally. These fishes were about the same size as Little White but more colorful. Although they were not as beautiful as Little White in body shape, they were chubby and adorable.

On the heads of these Lotus Fish, there were small flowers of different colors. When they swarmed up, the scene was gorgeous.

Han Fei had seen two kinds of plant fish. The first was the Wooden Fish, which was not aesthetically pleasing. The second species was this Lotus Fish. Its body and fins seemed to be made of lotus leaves and it was a non-aggressive fish.

At this moment, a group of chubby and adorable Lotus Fish were surrounding the Color Crystal Mussel that was hacked to death by Han Fei, forming a small circle, which looked quite amazing.

After a few purple pearls floated out of the mussel flesh, the Color Crystal Mussel began to sink slowly, gradually sinking into the sand.

Han Fei couldn't help but curiously look closely at it. As a result, a group of Lotus Fish pouted their mouths and kept gently tapping Han Fei's head, cheeks, and chest...

It seemed that these little Lotus Fishes seemed to be angry that Han Fei hacked the Color Crystal Mussel to death.

Han Fei was speechless. I just killed a Color Crystal Mussel. Why are you guys angry? Don't many fishes like to eat sea mussels? How come these Lotus Fish are so friendly to sea mussels?

However, those Lotus Fish were soon mollified. They seemed very happy to see Han Fei. Five or six Lotus Fish began to revolve around Han Fei.

As they revolved, Han Fei discovered that there were colorful bits of stardust flying out of their bodies and sprinkled on him, which made him a bit uncomfortable.

Han Fei touched the heads of these little fishes, and after teasing them for a while, he found how these Lotus Fishes took food. It turned out that they didn't eat meat at all but the Color Crystal Pearls in these Colorful Crystal Mussels. No wonder they all looked pretty.

Han Fei only stayed for half an hour before he was about to move on.

But when Han Fei was about to move forward, he saw that thousands of Lotus Fishes had stopped in front of him, stopping him from leaving!

Han Fei smiled. "Let me go, little fishes. I have something to tend to! I will play with you later..."

"Huh?"

Han Fei suddenly turned around and found that a big Lotus Fish had bit his clothes and dragged him back.

Han Fei couldn't help but frown. "Why do you stop me from going forward? is there something ahead?"

Chapter 350 Across A Sea of Worms

Traversing through the Sea Grassland, Han Fei only felt tired. Why did he come across so many strange creatures along the way?

Now he finally encountered a group of adorable and harmless Lotus Fish, but they seemed to be trapped here by something.

Han Fei stroked the large Lotus Fish. Regardless of whether the other party could understand him or not, he said, "Let me go. I'm here to hunt for treasure and I can't stay here. Otherwise, I'm afraid I'll bring you disaster."

Perhaps this Lotus Fish understood Han Fei's meaning. When he swam forward again, although there were still some Lotus Fish in front of him, they no longer stopped him...

Instead.

Under the leadership of the big Lotus Fish, thousands of Lotus Fish swarmed around Han Fei and swam forward.

Han Fei smiled. "Why are you here too? To bid my farewell? Thank you! But you don't have to be so polite."

Seeing that the Lotus Fishes still surrounded him, he didn't say anymore. Perhaps these Lotus Fish were innocent and hospitable by nature.

He still had a long way to swim. Han Fei was not in a hurry anyway, so he swam forward while playing with the Lotus Fish.

For some reason, Han Fei felt very peaceful in his heart along the way. In the shower of colorful dust, his spiritual power seemed to be increasing, and his spiritual perception range had obviously increased by several meters.

Han Fei couldn't help but look at the Lotus Fish again, who looked so cute as if unaware of what happened.

"Huh! That's weird. Why has my spiritual power suddenly increased?"

Han Fei couldn't help but be a little surprised. Could it be possible that the colorful dust sprinkled by these Lotus Fish could increase spiritual power?

Suddenly, Han Fei sat cross-legged and small pieces of the "God scaring Painting" appeared in his mind.

But different from the past, the effect of meditating on the "God scaring Painting" this time was dozens of times more than before. All kinds of complicated lines, graphics, and text seemed to be easier to remember.

After half a day, when a piece of the "God scaring Painting" was completely memorized by Han Fei, Han Fei was surprised to find that his spiritual perception range increased by 50 meters, and now it was 350 in total...

He opened his eyes and those Lotus Fish surrounded him, scattering a piece of glittering colored stardust from time to time.

"What a bunch of little cuties, haha..."

Han Fei looked at the colorful stardust on his body and couldn't help closing his eyes again. What is chance? This is a so-called chance. Does any Dangling Fisher dare to say that he can increase his perception range by 50 meters in half a day?

Wenren Yu once said that a great fishing master can only try to learn spiritual perception. Only after you become a Dangling Fisher would you gradually understand and acquire the ability of spiritual perception...

But in fact, among the people Han Fei had encountered so far, even advanced Dangling Fishers only had a spiritual perception range less than 100 meters.

Han Fei also wondered under what circumstances could this so-called spiritual perception be improved on a large scale? But probably not before he became a peak-level Dangling Fisher...

After another half-day, when Han Fei's perception range reached 400 meters, he seemed to hit a bottleneck. Although he could still improve, the speed was much slower than before.

"Um, interesting. If I have enough time to stay here for a full month to forcefully meditate on the "God Scaring Painting", my perception range would increase by more than a hundred meters more even if the speed has slowed down..."

However, Han Fei did not plan to spend this time. It was impossible for him to waste a month of time in the Sea Grassland! The level-three fishery was so big and there were too many places he hadn't been to...

Han Fei opened his eyes and then suddenly stood up.

Clatter...

To his surprise, he was covered by the stardust which consisted of thousands of colors...

At the moment he got up, the small stardust particles, like fine quicksand, fell from his body. And the Lotus Fish around Han Fei wagged their tails from time to time and turned the lotus, causing the stardust to start flying...

Gradually, this area of surrounding water seemed to have changed into a colorful fairyland.

Han Fei touched the heads of the Lotus Fish that had come closer and smiled. "This time, I really have to leave. I will come again when I have a chance."

Every time Han Fei took a step, stardust slipped off his body, making him look like a celestial being

But the more Han Fei got closer to the periphery of the waters, the more he could feel the tension of the Lotus Fish behind him.

Gradually, there were only a few hundred Lotus Fishes still following Han Fei. And their number was still decreasing.

Han Fei knew that the danger was coming.

Especially, when there was only the biggest Lotus Fish left, he held his breath! He saw the silent sea ahead.

Like black and a white, where he was now was a prosperous and gorgeous sea of Lotus Fish, while a hundred meters in front of him was an icy, deserted wasteland with dull colors.

Han Fei shouted, "Go back!"

But the big Lotus Fish refused to leave and Han Fei could only let it. He activated his spiritual perception and walked forward step by step.

After swimming about 500 meters, the big Lotus Fish also stopped and looked at Han Fei reluctantly behind.

At this moment, Han Fei was standing in the front, watching the scene in front of him and swallowing saliva.

In front of his eyes, there was a huge abyss, with no end in sight.

However, in this seemingly barren taboo place, there were still lives. In the gully, there were dense schools of Worm Fish, which were palm-sized and resembled rotting worms, with a hole in their heads. Half of their bodies were exposed outside their holes.

When Han Fei saw the information in his eyes, he felt a creepy sensation all over. <Name> Worm Fish

<Introduction> The combination of worm and fish, a parasitic fish species. Saprophagous, love to kill each other, ferocious and cruel, the filth of fish. Its worm can act as a parasite outside its body and penetrate into the marrow.

“F*ck... What the hell is this damn place? How many unknown creatures are there in this damn sea?”

Although this Worm Fish was only at level-9, it made sense. Marching Sea Leeches were also low-leveled and contained little spiritual energy, but if they targeted you, you would be in serious trouble!

The same went for the Worm Fish. They seemed to be low-leveled, but they had incredible numbers. As far as Han Fei could see, all he saw was a dense spread of Worm Fishes.

“F*ck...” Han Fei looked up at the sky where there were also scattered Worm Fish swimming in the dark.

Han Fei thought maybe he could swim past from a height, but as soon as he went to try, he felt something was pulling him behind.

Han Fei looked back and found that it was that big Lotus Fish.

Han Fei assured the fish, “Well! It’s okay. If anything happens, I’ll be back.”

Then he swiftly swam to the top of this abyss. On his back, two wings appeared and he drew a dazzling arc in the sea.

However, at the moment when Han Fei swam away, the abyss seemed to be in chaos. Countless Worm Fish, like the storm of the doomsday, swept up.

Little Gold's speed was fast enough. However, no matter how fast he was, he couldn't resist the densely packed Worm Fish in this sea area.

ame

Han Fei's face was all dark. He waved and a water ball enveloped him, and at the same time, he activated a spiritual energy protective cover. In the school of the Worm Fishes, he twisted and turned to avoid being caught. In the quiet and dark waters, his figure was dazzling.

That scene was chaotic. But only after a while, Han Fei had already lost his direction. Because all he could perceive were Worm Fish and there was no gap in any direction. Han Fei frowned, thinking about rushing out a way first and then choosing a direction.

But when Han Fei was murderously brandishing the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers, the Worm Fish around him suddenly gave way. And behind them, a Lotus Fish was swimming over slowly.

"Huh?"

The Lotus Fish's lotus seat was spinning under it and a mass of colored light mist was scattered. The Worm Fish immediately escaped when they saw it.

When the Lotus Fish swam in front of Han Fei, the lotus seat under it suddenly spun off automatically and fell at Han Fei's feet.

Han Fei was surprised. He knew that the Lotus Fish could repel filth, but he didn't know it could be so magical.

The Lotus Fish was opening a way with the lotus seat. Wherever it went, all fishes retreated. This scene was simply shocking.

Han Fei almost couldn't believe it. Is there really such a good fish in the world? It has really helped me a lot! But I haven't helped them much except by playing with them for a short while!
