

Chapter 361 Transformed into a Fish Again

He heard the bubbling sound of water, and his body seemed to be moistened by seawater. His nose, his mouth and his stomach were cool and comfortable. Han Fei woke up from oblivion and struggled to open his eyes.

Immediately, Han Fei trembled.

He couldn't be more familiar with what he saw. From his weird perspective, everything seemed to have been enlarged.

He raised his head and saw the looming seaweed, as well as the round barnacles that were floating above him like gigantic millstones.

He looked down, only to find himself in a warped ocean. Every stone, every lone plant, and every fish that swam by seemed to have been twisted. They were extremely hideous.

"Have I come to the Soul Ocean again?"

Then, Han Fei felt that it was not right. Behind him, there were a dozen fish that were identical to himself.

They were a fish whose name Han Fei couldn't tell. The probing ability of the Demon Purification Pot seemed to be nullified. Since it was not his first time, Han Fei quickly turned aside, hoping to catch a general view of the fish behind him.

But as he turned aside, the fish behind him did exactly the same thing. He managed to see that they were red fish with long tails and fins. When waved, their tails were soft and enjoyable, like a curtain that blocked the wind in summer.

When a black fish came close, Han Fei swam subconsciously and took a turn. The fish behind him all followed him.

"This is not the Soul Ocean?"

Han Fei was immediately stunned. During the moment just now, he sensed that the black fish was trying to prey on him hostilely.

"An Anti-Heaven Blade?"

Han Fei was greatly shocked when he saw the whole body of the black fish.

The Anti-Heaven Blade turned back and charged at Han Fei and the tiny fish that he led again. "You're coming again?"

Han Fei immediately sped up, leaving an elegant trail of red shadows behind him in the water. But one of the fish behind him was slower and was bitten by the Anti-Heaven Blade.

In Han Fei's eyes, the huge Anti-Heaven Blade was like a behemoth. It tore the red fish's tail off more than easily.

A fish without a tail was dead for sure. In the next second, it was bitten by the Anti-Heaven Blade again and devoured quickly.

“Shoot...”

Han Fei subconsciously swallowed. But he had no drool at all. He drank a mouthful of seawater, which then flowed out of his gills.

He was dumbfounded. “If this is not the Soul Ocean, where am I?”

He should’ve been attached to Little Black or Little White if he were in the Soul Ocean. If he were really attached to Little Black, he could’ve killed anything that came to him, and a minor Anti-Heaven Blade would not be a big deal at all.

But now, Han Fei opened his mouth. He sensed teeth, but what could he possibly eat?

By comparing himself with the Anti-Heaven Blade, Han Fei regretfully found that he couldn’t be more than half a meter long. He was approximately Little Black’s size, but he was far less capable than Little Black.

“Little Black, Little White.”

“No? Damn it. Forge the Universe...”

To his disappointment, Han Fei found that he could not feel anything. He could not even separate his mind from his body.

“How on earth did I turn into this useless thing? Am I going to wait to be eaten by other fish?”

Han Fei felt terrible. In the last second, he only felt fatigued, but after he closed his eyes and opened them again, he had turned into a fish. To whom should he complain about that?

At this point, Han Fei saw another few Anti-Heaven Blades far away. He was lost for words. Considering how tiny he was, he could be gobbled by them easily.

“Chiliu...”

Those Anti-Heaven Blades seemed stunned. Why were the insignificant fish that they could catch easily most of the time suddenly want to race them?

But Han Fei’s move seemed to have triggered the competitiveness of the Anti-Heaven Blades, which sprinted at him.

So, a bunch of tiny fish were swimming crazily ahead, and the Anti-Heaven Blades were chasing them crazily from behind.

The Anti-Heaven Blades almost shattered the shoal many times, but thankfully, Han Fei got away as the boss, or his shoal would've been exterminated.

But even so, Han Fei had lost two followers.

Han Fei looked around. He only had a dozen followers in the first place, and their number was plummeting.

When an Anti-Heaven Blade came close, Han Fei even saw that the edge of the fish almost cut himself into two parts. So, he tried his best to dodge it.

The moment he hurled himself out, Han Fei found that his tail left a red silky trail in the water, and when he passed by the Anti-Heaven Blade, he had the strong urge to bite the Anti-Heaven Blade.

"No, I have to do something."

Han Fei knew that the bigger fish would usually attack the middle part of a shoal of smaller fish, because the fish were densest and most vulnerable at the middle. But if all his lackeys were eaten up, he would probably be eaten too even though he was the leader.

There was no telling whether it was because Han Fei was thinking like a fish, or he was under influence, but he burst into fury when he lost another lackey.

Seeing that an Anti-Heaven Blade was charging at him, Han Fei quickly took a turn and bit the Anti-Heaven Blade.

After the bite, a huge mouthful of flesh was ripped off. The moment Han Fei counterattacked, he sensed that the lackeys behind him went on a rampage and bit the Anti-Heaven Blade too.

Han Fei was shocked. "Shoot. Are my teeth so sharp? It's more than easy for me to tear off a piece of meat."

Han Fei realized that every fish had their features. Although he was small, he seemed to have sharp teeth and quick reaction time.

Immediately, Han Fei grew excited and spewed out a bubble. "Brothers, let's attack!"

The tiny fish surrounded the Anti-Heaven Blade crazily and bit the fish to pieces in only two seconds.

The stink of blood provoked the Anti-Heaven Blades behind them. In the chaos, Han Fei dodged and bit everything he met.

After a minute, Han Fei only had nine lackeys left, but the four Anti-Heaven Blades had been taken down, with nothing but the bones left.

Han Fei hurried to flee with his lackeys, knowing that the stink of blood would attract more fish, and that he would be killed if he stayed here any longer.

But when Han Fei began to swim away quickly, he found that his teeth were itchy, and he felt like biting something.

Not just the teeth, Han Fei even felt that his swimming speed was twice as high as earlier.

“Huh? I can improve myself by eating other fish?”

Han Fei immediately grew excited. That was similar to the Soul Ocean. Earlier, he had eaten a lot of things in the Soul Ocean as Little Black, and his capabilities had skyrocketed.

At this point, he realized that he was in need of tremendous food in order to grow and avoid being hunted although he was not in the Soul Ocean.

He didn't really understand why he turned into a fish, but he speculated that it must have something to do with the red haze.

Something had always been greatly wrong with Yang Ruoyun. Han Fei sensed that she had a great secret.

It was also why he teamed up with Yang Ruoyun when he saw her in the Seaborne Prairie. Great secrets were always enticing.

At this moment, he felt that the great secret was right before his eyes.

Also, he wondered if other people had turned into fish too.

He didn't know if his guess was correct, but since Yang Ruoyun mentioned that half of the explorers returned alive, it meant that he was definitely not doomed in his current status.

Since he was not doomed, he must live on and find a way to go back.

Chapter 362 Don't Eat the Fruit

Eating was the eternal truth in this world. To eat with the mouth was to eat; to inhale spiritual energy with the body was to eat; to swallow spiritual fruit and energy was also to eat.

At the moment, Han Fei seemed to have understood the true meaning of the fish world, which was just one word: eat! With this precise cognition, Han Fei's purpose became clear.

If you want to go out on your own, you must first survive. If you wanted to survive, you couldn't hide away. Only by constantly strengthening yourself could you survive in this fish world.

Han Fei took the nine little brothers and quickly swam away from the bottom of the sea. At this moment, he had no spiritual perception ability and was unable to detect the creatures hidden on the seabed. The upper middle of the sea was the liveliest place in the sea, where hundreds of kinds of fish lived and preyed.

“Brothers, go!”

Although Han Fei didn't know what kind of fish he was, this fish seemed to be strong in speed, bite force, and hunting ability.

After evading a small group of Spiked-Armor Fish and being chased around by a Treasure Hunting Fish, he finally found a bunch of Crescent-Moon Fish. There were a lot of them and Han Fei was just about to rush up when arc-like knives swooshed at him one after another, causing him to turn tail and run immediately.

Han Fei almost cried. He only had nine little brothers that obviously were no match for the other party.

Yes, the feeling of fish eating fish was like people eating braised pork. As long as it was a large piece of meat, it felt wonderful. Han Fei and his eight little brothers, like a group of bandits, chased and ate the Pearl Fish for a long time until they encountered another group of fish of the same species coming to prey on them.

Han Fei was dumbfounded. Can I eat fish of the same species? He had just frantically swallowed dozens of Pearl Fish and his size had grown several times larger. No matter in terms of speed, strength, or bite force, he felt many times stronger.

Now, here came a group of fish of the same species. Although the size of the leading fish was a little smaller than his, when Han Fei saw its eyes, it was scared.

Yes, while Han Fei was looking at that fish, the fish was also looking at him. There was no doubt that the other party was absolutely the same as him, possessed by a human.

Certainly, they shouldn't practice cannibalism, but at this moment, Han Fei had a desire to eat that fish, which was an impulse from his heart.

The other person's thoughts were probably the same as his own.

But the problem was that Han Fei only had 8 little brothers left, but the other party had as many as 17! Although the fish on the opposite side was a bit smaller, there were more of them!

Han Fei wanted to suppress his desire to eat the fish, but when he went to turn around, there was a desire in his mind that made him stay put.

The desire told him, you can win. The fish on the opposite side is small. You can win.

Perhaps being seized by the desire, Han Fei and the other party rushed towards each other at the same time. And the little brothers behind them also started to fight. There were dozens of red lines in the sea, quickly twisting and biting. For a moment, red shadows were everywhere in the waters. Han Fei didn't underestimate his combat power. It was perfectly justified for big fish to eat small fish.

The other party didn't seem to expect that the fish school led by Han Fei was so powerful. With just a few rounds, his little brothers were reduced by half, while only two died on Han Fei's side.

The other party was scared and wanted to escape. But Han Fei didn't let him escape, chasing him closely and biting at him.

Crack...

When Han Fei bit on the opponent's tail, the scales of victory had already tilted towards him. If the fish had no tail, how could he swim?

In the panicked struggle of the other party, Han Fei bit him through in a couple of bites. However, different from eating fish before, when Han Fei killed the opponent, a mysterious kind of energy was absorbed from the opponent's body into his own body. Suddenly, Han Fei felt that he was 50% stronger.

When Han Fei turned around, he found that the little brothers on both sides had stopped biting. The opponent's little brother had 4 left and his side still had 5 left. At that moment, the nine fishes all followed behind Han Fei.

When Han Fei saw this scene, he suddenly took a tumble. Could it be that all the people around the Big Red Trunk have become fish? Then, they were thrown into this sea area, fighting each other? And they could grow by plundering the power of other fish?

If so, he still had dozens of opponents!

But these were not critical. The key question was, how did all the people turn into fish? And they also led a group of little brothers. Were they just to escort them?

If so, then this was actually a game... A game for the purpose of fighting? But what was the actual purpose of the game?

In this world, nothing happened without reason. At the end of the game, only the strongest would survive, who would only become stronger after the fight! If you didn't want to die, you had to fight. At this time, Han Fei could slightly understand why people died in the middle of the Sea Grassland, where the Big Red Trunk was located... In fact, the place where people really died was not there, but in the fishing ground where he was now.

With this question, Han Fei didn't dare to stay for a moment longer as he took his newly-acquired little brothers to continue looking for fish.

Han Fei didn't know how long it had been because fish didn't have the concept of time. He only knew that he had eaten a lot of fish, and his body was almost dark red now.

During this period, he met other human-fish three times, which he all killed. And the number of his little brothers had grown to the current 18.

Of course, after several rounds of battle, his first batch of little brothers had long since died. The subsequent batches of little brothers, without sufficient fighting experience, were not strong. Now, the most powerful one only had half his speed and strength. Just when Han Fei was about to continue searching for fish, there was a smell in the sea that almost made him crazy. It was not a bloody smell, but a special smell that was even more attractive than spiritual energy.

Immediately, Han Fei gave up looking for fish but went after the attractive smell. "Things aren't quite right..."

Han Fei shook his head from time to time and found that the stronger he became, the more blurred his consciousness was. At this moment, being stimulated by this smell, he almost lost his mind completely. "No, I can't eat anymore. There must be a problem with the fish."

Han Fei turned sideways and looked at his group of little brothers behind him that were almost all red-eyed, showing their teeth and biting at the seawater. Their gaze was locked on him.

At that moment, Han Fei was horrified. Are these guys going to eat me? With this in mind, Han Fei shuddered. Now all this school of fish could see was food. And he couldn't control them anymore.

Swish!

Han Fei twisted his body in an instant and turned around as fast as he could. His little brothers behind wanted to follow him, but Han Fei was too fast. He went around in a circle and bit directly at his little brothers. When Han Fei killed a little brother, the others went crazy, all biting at him.

"I'm your fucking boss. Behave yourselves."

However, no fish listened to him. Each one showed their teeth, fierce and hostile.

"Shit... Are you sure you want to fight me? Are you faster than me? Are you bigger than me? Do you have sharper teeth than me?"

The waters were soon covered with fine pieces of fish, and Han Fei had already killed 13 of his little brothers.

At this time, Han Fei was about to lose control of himself, feeling that he was going to lose his mind. When he looked out, he saw the blue and crystal ocean world had turned into a bright red one.

"No, I can't lose my mind. I can't, no..."

Suddenly, Han Fei's body twitched abruptly and he showed his teeth, rushed forward, and bit the remaining little brothers crazily. In a short while, all 18 little brothers were killed by Han Fei.

And his body was already red-purple and part of it was dark purple. Han Fei lost his mind in the end.

In fact, Han Fei was not the only fish having this experience. In places that Han Fei could not see, there were dozens of fish like him and two of them were even bigger than him.

At this moment, the little red fishes that had scattered around all gathered up towards one spot.

Coincidentally, Han Fei encountered a fish about his size, with five or six little brothers behind him.

The two sides were still far away, but they immediately rushed towards each other as soon as they saw each other.

Han Fei felt like he was in a dream. In his dream, he was eating hot pot, one mouthful after another.

After eating a lobster, he got a Bull Conch. After finishing the Bull Conch, he began to eat a Plate Ray.

Beside him, Le Renkuang exclaimed, "Feifei! When did you become such a glutton? For the first time, I lost to you in eating."

Han Fei pulled aside Le Renkuang. "Get out of the way. I'm hungry. I'm so hungry."

Zhang Xuanyu sat opposite Han Fei. "Feifei! Do you want to become fat again? Then Xia Xiaochan won't give you any chance when seeing you."

Han Fei scoffed. "Who cares? I'm hungry, so I have to eat."

Luo Xiaobai said lightly, "Don't eat so much."

"It's OK. Relax."

Han Fei continued to devour the food and soon the Plate Ray was finished by him. Then he threw a big crab into the hot pot. As if feeling something was missing, Han Fei looked around. "Hey! Where's my garlic? Where's my pepper? Where did you take my seasonings?"

When Han Fei was looking for the seasoning, suddenly a dagger was stabbed in his stomach and a big cut was made.

Han Fei looked up. It was Xia Xiaochan. She grinned at Han Fei but he immediately found that something was wrong. "F*ck... Xia Xiaochan, are you crazy again?" However, Xia Xiaochan did not move but only stared at Han Fei.

Then Han Fei felt that he was dazzled. Xia Xiaochan in front of her suddenly turned into a big red fish.

Han Fei shivered and suddenly woke up. What was he doing? He remembered he was leading a group of fish and eating fish... But there was a big red fish in front of him that was about the same size as him and full of bite marks on its body.

As for him, Han Fei felt that his stomach hurt and it seemed that his intestines were about to fall out.

"Oh..."

Han Fei suddenly accelerated, bumping his head against the big fish, knocking it out. Then, he turned into a red shadow, biting through the fish's belly.

"That's not right. I can't eat anymore. I can't..."

Han Fei suppressed the urge to swallow and spit out the large pieces of fish in his mouth with difficulty, trying to stop his body from swimming

He struggled hard for a long time before he could bear the urge to continue swallowing. Although when other fish passed by, he had an impulse to rush up and tear them apart, his reason told him over and over again that he could not eat, he could not eat... After a long time, Han Fei swam to an eerie stretch of water in a muddle-headed manner, where it was dark all around and there seemed to be a burning fireball in the distance.

For some reason, Han Fei couldn't control himself as he swam towards the fireball.

After seeing the fireball clearly, Han Fei was suddenly invigorated. "The Big Red Trunk?"

This Big Red Trunk was no more than ten meters tall, which was many times smaller than the one he saw before. However, he was sure that this was just the one he saw before. It was covered with red fruits.

And around the Big Red Trunk, there were dozens of fishes like him. At this moment, they were all staring at the fruits.

Among them, a few fishes emitted red light and a burst of energy surrounded them.

Han Fei saw a fish swim forward and ate a piece of fruit, and then red light appeared on its body.

That was a kind of power that made fish obsessed, more so than spiritual energy. Spiritual energy could only be used in cultivation, but this fruit simply occupied Han Fei's whole mind.

"Eat it. You will become stronger or the strongest if you eat it."

Han Fei's eyes were a little missing and puzzled. He tried to eat the fruit several times but stopped.

Some other fish swallowed the fruit without hesitation and then he seemed to become extremely powerful.

But there were some fish that didn't move, some were as hesitant as Han Fei, some were struggling intensely, and some were simply shutting their mouths.

In the confusion, some words suddenly popped into Han Fei's mind, "Don't eat the fruit..."

With this in mind, Han Fei immediately backed away. It's horrible. This fruit is so horrible. He was almost lost in the temptation.

After Han Fei withdrew dozens of meters away, he counted it carefully. There were 26 fishes present and 14 of them were glowing red.

"No, now it's 15 and another fish just swallowed the fruit."

"Don't eat the fish!"

Some words appeared in Han Fei's mind again. He twisted his neck. This fruit must not be eaten, but he had almost eaten it just now!

The remaining 11 fish did not eat the fruit. Two of them, like Han Fei, moved back several meters, and the remaining ones were struggling.

But at this time, an unexpected scene happened: those fruits broke away from the branches of the Big Red Trunk and were put to the mouths of the fish that hadn't eaten it by the red leaves.

"F*ck... How I want to eat it! I'm so hungry... F*ck... I can't eat it."

Han Fei pursed his mouth. Although his fish body was trying to open the mouth, he suppressed the urge forcibly. "F*ck off!"

Han Fei suddenly turned around, slapping the fruit away with his tail. But for the other fishes that were struggling, two of them couldn't resist the temptation and eventually swallowed the fruit into their stomachs.

After the two fish swallowed the fruit, the attractiveness of the red fruit suddenly diminished. Han Fei felt that the pressure on his body was much less.

The remaining 8 fishes backed quickly, seeming to finally get rid of the damn fruit. However, as soon as the nine of them backed away, they found the fish on the opposite side suddenly all looked at them. "Damn."

Shit! I resisted the temptation of the fruit but these guys on the opposite side did not.

The 9 fishes looked at each other almost simultaneously and gathered together in an instant. After all, there were 17 fish on the other side and they seemed to have already lost their minds.

But the 9 fishes were still sober and certainly wouldn't fight them to the death.

Two fishes beside him suddenly attacked one fish among them and threw it over with their tails.

The group of red-eyed fish that had eaten the red fruit all rushed up. Almost in the blink of an eye, that fish only had a puddle of blood left.

Han Fei was speechless. These people were too ruthless. They just treated others like they were disposable.

Han Fei and the other 7 fish fled quickly. Afraid of being tricked by the other fish, Han Fei swam away from them deliberately. He didn't want to get close to either side.

Some other fish seemed to have the same idea as Han Fei, so the 8 fish quickly dispersed.

When the bloody mist cleared over, there were only 14 of the 17 fishes left. Just in such a short while, they actually ate 3 more fish. Han Fei didn't know if there was a fish chasing after him. He just ran as fast as he could. This fruit must not be eaten for sure. Not only the red fruit, but fish also couldn't be eaten. In that secret realm, the phantom seemed to tell him not to eat the fruit and mentioned fish. Although it didn't say it clearly, he felt that it was warning him not to eat fish either.

Han Fei was helpless. But I had no choice. If I didn't eat the fish, I would soon be eaten by them. But once I ate a fish, I became addicted and couldn't stop.

Han Fei felt that he was being manipulated by the Big Red Trunk. This tree was so bad, turning people into fish, and no one knew if these people could change back into humans again...

Just when Han Fei was pondering, he suddenly blacked out. When he woke up again, he felt as if he just had a dream.

He opened his eyes and saw red light all over the sky. At this moment, he was lying on the ground, his body was still a bit numb and stiff, but he could barely move.

Han Fei sat up with difficulty and looked around, only to see that the Sun Mu and the other two had just woken up. At this moment, they were covering their chests with their hands, looking panicked.

In other places, dozens of people awakened from a frozen state, falling to the ground or clutching their heads.

Chapter 363 Cut Down the Tree Together

Others seemed to be wondering too, was this a dream or a real test of life and death?

However, the red light all over the sky had not dissipated yet. In front of his eyes, there was actually a red fruit floating.

Only then did Han Fei see clearly what this fruit was.

<Name> Red Ball

<Introduction> The spiritual fruit that grows on a demonic tree can transform humans into demons. Because the spiritual fruit is too low-leveled, the affected humans will lose their consciousness after being transformed into demons and can only develop their wisdom after long years of cultivation.

<Level> Spiritual-level

<Quality> High-Quality

<Contained Spiritual Energy> 66,968 points

Han Fei was immediately stunned. Humans transformed into demons, and humans become fish? Are you f*cking kidding me?

Han Fei felt someone was looking at him. Turning his head to look, he saw Sun Mu and the others looking at him.

Han Fei just wanted to cry. I was just chased by fish and now being hunted down by humans? Life is so hard!

However, before Sun Mu and the others took any action, all their subordinates suddenly knelt or lay on the ground.

Those lying on the ground were already dead, while the people who were kneeling on the ground were all glowing red and seemed to be in great pain.

Not only Sun Mu and his companions, but other cultivators also fell to the ground.

Yang Deyu's face changed drastically and he scolded, "Get the f*ck up. What's going on here?"

Mo Feiyan frowned. "They are already dead. So this is not a dream but a trial?"

Sun Mu's face turned pale. "No, it's not just a trial. There are also problems with the fruit. The fruit is not a chance."

As Sun Mu spoke, the body of his subordinate named Sun Qi glowed redder and redder, then his flesh and blood began to melt, his hair began to burn, and his legs disappeared...

“Run!”

But Mo Feiyan's three men were all kneeling on the ground.

Just when everyone was staring at Sun Qi, they heard a beautiful song from his body.

All the people who were still standing, including Han Fei, trembled. They seemed to have discovered a great secret.

“Shit... Will Sun Qi really change into a fish?”

Han Fei swallowed. In his eyes, Sun Qi's body was rapidly changing. His back bulged high, his feet turned into fish tails, his head and body were fused together, and his arms became fish fins...

“Gosh!”

Han Fei looked around, only to find that not only Sun Qi, but a dozen people around him were also transforming and there was a singing sound in their bodies.

Han Fei swallowed nervously.

Suddenly.

Han Fei certainly wouldn't stop them. As soon as Little White came out, he gulped the Red Ball that was hanging in the water.

Han Fei was speechless. Little White may also be a sea demon! To be precise, all marine creatures should be sea demons.

“Are you having a breakthrough?”

Han Fei's eyes widened suddenly. This Red Ball worked so well on Little White and Little Black?

Han Fei remembered what the seaweed monster in the seaweed city wall wanted him to bring to it was a Red Ball.

Then he saw Little White and Little Black were chasing Red Balls. But for some reason, after they ate a Red Ball, they could no longer catch up with the second one.

Han Fei didn't have the slightest interest in this damn fruit but his baby girl needed it!

Han Fei immediately started chasing the fruit in the red light. Maybe because Han Fei was not a demon, he just grabbed casually and easily got a Red Ball in his hand.

Feeling that the Red Ball in his hand was struggling violently, Han Fei grinned. "Can't they eat a second fruit? This fruit is a bit interesting. Unfortunately, my baby girl wants to eat you. Sorry."

Han Fei opened his palm and Little White sucked the Red Ball into its mouth. At this moment, Little White and Little Black's bodies became shinier and shinier, and Han Fei actually felt that these two little guys had signs of breaking through again.

Seeing this scene, Han Fei thought, Since Little White and Little Black could eat the fruit, how about Nine Tails and Little Gold?

He immediately released Nine Tails but the shrimp gave no reaction to the Red Balls at all and had no intention to get one.

Han Fei told him to get one, but Nine Tails didn't move.

On the other side, looking at Han Fei's behavior, Sun Mu and Mo Feiyan thought, Can spiritual beasts eat the fruit?

Yang Deyu immediately released his spiritual beast that was a scorpion with a shiny shell. Yang Deyu grabbed a Red Ball in front of him and was about to stuff it into the scorpion's mouth, but Mo Feiyan stopped him.

Mo Feiyan scolded, "Are you an idiot? Let your men try it first."

Yang Deyu paused and then coldly looked at his only remaining subordinate, saying, "This fruit is not hiding from us. Come on, feed one to your spiritual beast."

Yang Deyu's subordinate turned pale. In his heart, he wished he could kill the damn woman Mo Feiyan. Did he survive just to be their guinea pig?

Sun Mu shouted, "Isn't there another person? Let that person try first."

What Sun Mu was talking about was an outsider who had survived besides them and Han Fei. That man was retreating quietly at this moment. He was not stupid. It was not easy for him to survive and he was no match for none of them, so he must run away as quickly as possible.

Seeing Yang Deyu's subordinate chasing that man, Han Fei transmitted his voice to him, Come here. I can work with you.

At the same time, he transmitted a message to Sun Mu and the others, Stop it. Do you think that the matter here is over? Don't forget this place is still sealed and our memories have not disappeared yet.

Sun Mu shouted at him, "I'd like to kill you first."

Han Fei was speechless. "Go to hell! I know how to go out without losing memory. Let's fight after getting out of this damn place,

OK?"

Mo Feiyan immediately raised her hand to stop him. "Stop... Han Fei, do you really know?"

Han Fei smiled. "I'm different from you. I'm only an intermediate Dangling Fisher. You are all peak-level Dangling Fishers. Since I dare to come, I can get out."

The outsider, seeing Yang Deyu retreat, immediately swam to Han Fei. As Han Fei said, he was too weak alone. In front of a group of peak-level Dangling Fishers, he was only a vulnerable advanced Dangling Fisher.

Sun Mu and the others did not take an advanced Dangling Fisher seriously, so they didn't stop him.

Han Fei took a look at them and got a sudden idea. Then he said, "Cut down the tree. This Big Red Trunk is the source of all problems. As long as you cut it down, all problems will be solved."

"Bullshit!"

Mo Feiyan asked, "If the tree can be cut down, why is it still here? The people who came before us would have already cut it down!"

Yang Deyu scolded, "Are you stupid? How can you cut down such a thick tree? Hit it with your head?!"

Han Fei scoffed. "You people, including those who died, know that there is a chance here. Who will really cut the tree down? Which one of you even thought about it? The idea had just come to Han Fei just now. After all, seeing such a huge tree, people would only be in awe and fear of it.

Most importantly, those who had gone out from here and lost their memories had almost all got a chance.

But now, Han Fei didn't think he had gotten any special chances. The Red Ball was not a chance at all. When ordinary people ate it, they would become fish immediately, although it was a chance for spiritual beasts indeed!

This didn't make any sense.

Therefore, Han Fei guessed that something must happen soon. Unfortunately, he didn't want the so-called 'chance' at all now. Who wanted to lose his memory for nothing? It would be better to find a way to cut down this tree directly, which would be a real chance.

Sun Mu suddenly said, "I have a question. Where is the eighth person among us?"

Yang Deyu looked around. "The eighth person?"

Sun Mu glanced around. "I remember 8 fishes survived. However, there are only 7 people standing here. Where is the other?"

Hearing what Sun Mu said, Han Fei was also taken aback.

However, Han Fei had a hunch that it must be Yang Ruoyun. He looked around. Sure enough, the woman had disappeared.

Then Yang Deyu said coldly, "The woman who rang the bell just now is gone."

Sun Mu looked at Han Fei. "That woman came with you, right?" Han Fei shrugged. "Don't ask me, I don't know her well. If I were in a group with her, I would have killed you long ago, right?"

Rustle...

While everyone was wondering, dozens of red leaves fell down from the Big Red Trunk and floated to those who had swallowed the Red Balls.

At this moment, these people had almost completely become fish, or to be exact, become Millennium Snappers!

Han Fei, Sun Mu and the others were a bit scared. People had become fish. This was a change of species! How horrible was this!

Then they all looked at the Big Red Trunk, on which dense clusters of Millennium Snappers were singing. This scene made their hair stand on end.

"Were these fish actually all humans?"

Mo Feiyan looked at her former subordinates not far away. At this moment, they were flapping their tails and making a singing sound. Mo Feiyan couldn't help but take a step back.

Han Fei said via voice transmission, Master Hexagon, is there any other way to get out?

Han Fei was scared. This was different from the Fish Avatar Technique. With the Fish Avatar Technique, a human took an active attempt to become a fish and its ultimate goal was to allow humans to freely switch between human form and fish form.

But the Red Ball transformed humans into fish forcibly and irreversibly, or to be exact, transformed humans into Millennium Snappers. So every single Millennium Snapper here was actually a human life!

"Carried out by the fish?"

Hexagon Starfish drilled out of the ground and hung on Han Fei's calf. This is not difficult. This kind of fruit is abundant here, but the fish don't let me take it. After eating one, I'm not allowed to take a second one. But, if you really want to take some, you can go to the school of fish to pick it. You can ask your little black fish to steal it...

Han Fei's face changed slightly. These Millennium Snappers are not weak and can control spiritual plants. What if Little Black is discovered?

Hexagon Starfish said leisurely, Fish are stupid. They just guard the fruit, but once the fruit is picked, they won't chase you. And your little black fish is not afraid of mental attacks. What are you worried about?

Huh? How do you know Little Black is not afraid of mental attacks?

Han Fei was stunned. I didn't even know that. How do you know it?

Hexagon Starfish replied, Your spiritual beasts are a bit strange. They seem to share everything as if they are one. If you don't release the little white fish, the little black fish will come back to life even if he dies... Very strange spiritual beasts.

Han Fei was shocked. What the starfish said was true. If either Little Black or Little White was alive, the other wouldn't die. But Han Fei didn't know that Little Black was not afraid of mental attacks. This was not shown in the data.

Hexagon Starfish, this mysterious starfish, actually knew the secret between Little Black and Little White. Was it because mysterious creatures had telepathy with each other?

Han Fei immediately asked Little Black to swim up to pick the fruit. This Red Ball did no good to humans, but it seemed to be able to enhance the strength of spiritual beasts.

Yang Deyu's subordinate remained silent at this moment for fear that his master would notice him and then order him to feed his spiritual beast the fruit. After seeing the horrible scene of humans turning into fish, he didn't want to take the risk at all.

Han Fei asked, "Hey, are you going to cut down the tree or not? Say something..."

Sun Mu took a deep look at Han Fei. "We can cut down the tree even without you. Why should we spare your life?" Han Fei sneered. "Now, most of your subordinates have died. Let's not talk about whether you guys can kill me or not... Even if you can, I can guarantee that most of you won't be able to survive."

With that, more than forty spiritual weapons swooshed out of Han Fei's body. These were all the spiritual weapons he had and also one of his trump cards. Han Fei sneered. "See my spiritual weapons? Even if I blow them up, there won't be any problem for me to kill one or two of you!"

Yang Deyu rubbed his head grumpily. "F*ck, I knew the guy who could snatch the Sea Token would not be easy to deal with. This guy is tough!"

Mo Feiyan exclaimed, "I like him more and more!"

Mo Feiyan immediately turned purple in anger and hacked at Yang Deyu with the long sword in her hand that was entangled with frost. "Say that again!"

Yang Deyu pointed at Han Fei with his ax. "Are you looking for death?"

Han Fei grinned. "I advise you to think about it quickly. Kill me or cut down the tree? Don't waste time... Something may happen again in a moment. What if you guys become fish?"

Sun Mu said lightly, "Why don't you try it first? The trunk of this tree is thick, nearly 50 meters. Are you going to cut it with the knife in your hand? Don't forget that this is the Big Red Trunk that has existed for tens of thousands of years is even harder than spiritual weapons. How many inches can you cut through?"

Han Fei had early considered this problem. "Hey, you... Your family has chased me down three times, so I guess you must know me a little bit. Although I'm not talented, I've acquired some refining techniques. It is not difficult for me to make a spiritual weapon that can chop down the tree. As long as each of you gives me a spiritual fruit, I can make a good tool to cut down the tree in thirty minutes or so."

Yang Deyu immediately cursed, "Brat, do you think we're fools? You're going to die and you're still trying to swindle spiritual fruits from our hands? Are you out of your mind?"

Mo Feiyan did not speak but looked at Sun Mu.

Sun Mu frowned slightly, and then, to everyone's surprise, he threw a spiritual fruit to Han Fei.

Yang Deyu was shocked. "Are you crazy?"

Sun Mu looked at Han Fei deadpan. "I'll have a lot more time to kill you besides today."

Sun Mu made this choice with a reason. Not just because they were trapped in the seal of the Big Red Trunk, more importantly, Yang Deyu and Mo Feiyan were here. Even if he killed Han Fei, it was doubtful whether he could get the Sea Token or not.

Mo Feiyan smiled and glanced at Sun Mu deeply. Many people of the Sun Family died this time! However, Sun Mu chose to cooperate with Han Fei without a blink. This was interesting!

Mo Feiyan also casually threw a spiritual fruit to Han Fei and said, "I am more and more curious about you. Seriously, if you come to our Mo Family, you can keep the Sea Token and I will block Sun Mu for you."

Han Fei grunted. "You are beautiful." Mo Feiyan giggled. "Thank you for the compliment." "But why are you so silly?"

Mo Feiyan: "..."

When Yang Deyu saw that Sun Mu and Mo Feiyan had both given a spiritual fruit to Han Fei, he reluctantly threw one to him and threatened, "If you don't keep your word, one more person will hunt you down after today."

Han Fei grabbed the three spiritual fruits and grinned. "Wait for me for thirty minutes."

With that, Han Fei flashed into the leaves of the Big Red Trunk and disappeared.

In the outside world.

Yang Deyu said, "Sun Mu, this time, your family has suffered a heavy loss! But I don't think you can get that guy!" Sun Mu coldly snorted. "Why, the Yang Family wants to intervene?"

Yang Deyu looked rough, but in fact, he was not stupid. He shot back, "Didn't I already intervene? The Sea Token doesn't belong to anyone. I think I also have a chance to get it."

Mo Feiyan interjected, "Don't forget me. We have an equal chance to get the token."

Sun Mu remained expressionless and said lightly, "If he was so easy to catch, the Sun Family wouldn't have lost so many people. You can have a try. Also, don't forget that woman. We still don't know yet where she is. That is a hidden danger."

Yang Deyu said disdainfully, "The woman is very weak, incomparable to Han Fei."

Sun Mu snorted. "Idiot, people who can come here can't be simple. Don't forget that the woman is only an intermediate Dangling Fisher. Isn't it strange?"

Half an hour later.

Rustle...

A figure jumped out of the leaves. It was Han Fei.

Han Fei waved his hand casually and several circles were tossed out. Yang Deyu and Sun Mu's men immediately shielded them behind and caught the circles.

It was a soft saw that was nearly 100 meters long with small barbed blades. No one doubted this thing could easily cut off a spiritual weapon.

Han Fei pulled the ring on the other end of the soft saw and said, "This Big Red Trunk can't be cut with knives and swords but a saw is different. Now let's have a try?"

Han Fei was instigating them to cut down the tree. This Big Red Trunk was home to those Millennium Snappers. He himself didn't know what would happen if they cut down the tree.

But Han Fei had to do this. Otherwise, he would be in danger.

Sawing the tree might trigger a riot from the Millennium Snappers or other unexpected consequences, but no matter what, his first priority was to get rid of the five people on the opposite side.

If they were just five ordinary peak-level Dangling Fishers, he might have a try to see if he could kill them.

But Sun Mu and the other two were not ordinary Dangling Fishers. Although he hadn't fought them yet, he could be sure that with his current strength, he could only deal with one of the three at most. If the three of them ganged up on him, he would definitely lose.

Although Han Fei was confident with his own strength, it depended on who he faced. These people were from the most powerful families of the Thousand Star City. He wasn't sure how strong they were. He still remembered last time, he was almost slaughtered by Sun Ye who used secret methods to improve his strength to the extreme.

Han Fei looked at Sun Mu and the others. "Are you going to do it? If you are, do it quickly." Yang Deyu pouted his lips at his subordinate, signaling him to go over. "You, go with him..."

As he said this, he looked at Sun Mu. "Hey, ask your underling to do it with them."

Sun Mu nodded. Regarding this point, he and Yang Deyu had the same thought. They were not so stupid as really to go to saw the tree. Now if there was a crisis, they would have a chance to react.

Han Fei seemed to have expected this result and looked at the man next to him. "Brother, what is your name?"

This man was already in his early twenties and was not used to being called "Brother" by Han Fei. But he knew well about what kind of situation he was in. Since he had chosen to cooperate with Han Fei, he had to show his sincerity.

"Chen Zhe, a soul warrior."

Han Fei nodded. "OK, let's saw the tree on this side."

Sun Mu and Yang Deyu's men took the other side and the four of them started to pull the soft saw.

Chug, Chug, Chug... The soft saw was pulled back and forth. Since they used spiritual energy, the efficiency was quite high.

Soon, the soft saw had already gone deep into the Big Red Trunk.

Han Fei was speechless. Why don't you give me some reaction, you damn tree?! Do you have to wait until I cut you down?

After sawing for some time more, the singing sound came from the top of the tree.

Han Fei knew something was going to happen!

He quickly took Little Black back.

The others couldn't see what happened on this side and Little Black spat out the fruits to Little White. Only then did Han Fei find that Little Black stole 8 Red Balls in one go.

Han Fei immediately said to Little White through voice transmission, Leave two.

Suddenly, Yang Deyu waved his giant ax. "Han Fei, what is your spiritual beast doing?"

Little White slowly swam out from behind the tree and Han Fei smiled. "What can a Spirit Swallowing Fish do? It was just circling around the Big Red Trunk to see if the tree reacted..."

Yang Deyu shouted, "Put away your spiritual beasts. Don't try to play any tricks. Otherwise, I can chop you to death first and then cut the tree."

Han Fei sneered. "You can have a try. Believe it or not, if you dare to touch me, I will climb up the tree and send the Millennium Snappers down! Let me see how you guys can cut the tree."

The two stared at each other. In the end, Yang Deyu snorted and said nothing.

However, Yang Deyu secretly transmitted his voice to Mo Feiyan and Sun Mu. I have a feeling that this guy is delaying time... Besides, they have cut the tree for so long. Why doesn't the tree have any reaction?

Sun Mu responded, It's a bit strange. Let's wait and see.

Just after Han Fei sawed the tree for about ten minutes, a very loud sound suddenly burst out from the height, and immediately afterward, the Big Red Trunk began to shake.

The tree was shaking itself as if it had come alive. Just in a moment, red leaves were falling all over the sky and their flames covered dozens of miles in a radius, shrouding everyone.

Han Fei and the other three were the first to be affected. They were close to the trunk and had nowhere to run.

Han Fei shouted, "Hey, do you guys still want to sit by and watch? If you have any trump cards, quickly use them to protect us. At least we have to delay for an hour before we have the chance to cut down this giant tree."

Sun Mu and the other two were hesitating. An hour? What kind of trump card could resist this endless flame for an hour?

But Han Fei kept shouting, "Now, we're on the same boat. This tree doesn't care whether you're from the powerful families of the Thousand Star City or not... Even if you hide away, you can't escape the flying red leaves. Why don't you hide under the tree? As long as we hold on through this period of time, we will win."

By Han Fei's side, Chen Zhe said in fright, "I can't hold on for that long. I will be killed."

Han Fei sneered. "Now no one can run away."

After that, Han Fei shouted to everyone, "Come on, use all your spiritual energy. This is only a tree."

While trying to persuade them, Han Fei kept pulling the soft saw. This time, he did his best. Surrounded with spiritual energy, he quickly pulled the soft saw, which forced the other two on the opposite side to speed up too.

However, soon a large number of sword-shaped red leaves flew at them and all they could hear was the singing sounds.

Han Fei shouted, "Come on, join us!"

When Han Fei was refining this saw, only 4 rings were set on each side, so one from the other party must come to his side.

He had thought it would be one of their underlings. Then he would not have to worry about being attacked.

However, a sword swept away the red leaves and Mo Feiyan appeared beside him.

Mo Feiyan took a look at Han Fei coldly. "I know you wouldn't be so kind. You should have guessed this result long ago..."

Han Fei smiled. "Didn't you guess the result too? But you didn't stop me. This means that you are confident to survive these red leaves... Or to be exact, you are confident to block the attack of those Millennium Snappers."

Mo Feiyan pulled up a ring and then responded, "Yes, we are only worried about the danger behind. Since you said you could cut down the tree, why not let you have a try? Maybe you can solve the mystery of this Big Red Trunk, right?"

Han Fei smiled. "However, to cut down the tree, I need a lot of spiritual energy. If I run out of spiritual energy, you've gotta help me. I just need a few spiritual fruits."

Mo Feiyan snorted. "Why should I help you? It's you who proposed to cut the tree. It's your business if you can't hold on."

Han Fei just asked, "Do you want the Sea Token?"

Mo Feiyan paused. "Will you give it to me?"

"As long as I keep the token, I'll have to face your endless chase every day. I am here looking for opportunities, not for death. Instead of this, I might as well throw the token away and let you guys fight head over heels for it. Wouldn't that be great?"

"Giggle... Do you think I believe you?"

Han Fei shrugged. "Whether you believe me or not, you'll only lose a few spiritual fruits. I want to give the token to you because you are the only girl among the three. I really don't like the other two bastards... But I'll have to give you the token in the sight of the two of them. Otherwise, if you deny it, I'll still be hunted down by them."

While pulling the soft saw, Mo Feiyan was thinking suspiciously, Would Han Fei really give up on the Sea Token? Mo Feiyan couldn't help but ask, "Do you know what the Sea Token stands for?"

Han Fei sneered. "No matter how great a chance it holds, it is not as important as my life. As long as I'm alive, I'll get chances sooner or later, but if I die, what's the use of chances? However, I want to make it clear that just because I give the token to you does not mean that I will not take it back. After I become stronger, I'll try my best to take it back."

Mo Feiyan tilted her head and looked deeply at Han Fei. However, his face was blocked by the burning red leaves.

Mo Feiyan chuckled and said, "Okay, just a few spiritual fruits. I can afford it. But remember the Mo Family is no worse than the Sun Family. If you dare to lie to me, you will never ever be able to appear in the level-three fishery again..."

"I don't have to lie to you. If you still dare to stay in the level-three fishery after getting the token, I can assure you that I will definitely come to you again..."

Han Fei smiled. The strong couldn't be idiots.

In the face of these people, conspiracies were meaningless. He'd better just tell her clearly, which would work better.

After a short while, Chen Zhe, who was not far away, said in voice transmission, Do you have any spiritual fruit? Give me one. I can't stand it anymore.

Chapter 364 Sea Demon

Not everyone could stand the burning of the leaves. Even Han Fei who had practiced the Indestructible Body Art could not resist this endless flame for long. Less than ten minutes later, his skin began to crack.

Even Mo Feiyan and the others who were already peak-leveled Dangling Fishers could hardly hold on even with the protection of their magic weapons.

Chen Zhe managed to hold on until now and had a very strong desire for survival. Without enough spiritual energy to resist the burning, he had started to cry for help...

On Han Fei's side, the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers had cut a hole in the flames. Han Fei pointed and a column of spiritual energy entered into Chen Zhe's body.

Han Fei encouraged, "Hold on for a while..."

As he said this, he looked at Mo Feiyan. "Hey, can you help? If he dies, our speed will be slower than the other side."

Mo Feiyan asked, "Are you still a spirit gatherer? Interesting. I can help but why should I help him? You haven't used all your strength yet. Do you think I don't know this?"

However, Chen Zhe's face changed drastically. "If you don't help me, I will lure the Millennium Snappers down. Let's die together!"

However, just when Chen Zhe made a threat, a dark vine crawled on his back at some unknown time.

Mo Feiyan's red lips moved slightly, and in an instant, a hundred black vines instantly entangled Chen Zhe. Chen Zhe looked horrified and his skin turned black inch by inch.

Han Fei was shocked. "Are you crazy? What are you doing?"

Chen Zhe couldn't understand until his death why this woman killed him at this time. He was still useful! As an advanced Dangling Fisher, he could sustain for at least dozens of minutes longer... Why did she kill him now?

“Help me.”

Chen Zhe wanted to catch Han Fei. He was tightly entangled by the black vines and his eyes were full of horror.

Han Fei was not a bloodthirsty person, nor a saint, but this person was on his side anyway and he should do something.

So he asked Little White to spit out a piece of Red Ball.

Han Fei put the Red Ball to Chen Zhe’s mouth. “I don’t know what it will be like when you become a fish and if you’ll still be you or not, but I can’t save you now. It’s up to you.”

Needless to say, a dying person’s desire for survival was very strong. Chen Zhe exhausted his last bit of strength, took the Red Ball, and swallowed it.

“Huh? Do you still have this fruit? However, it’s better to let him die than let him become a fish, isn’t it?”

Han Fei snorted coldly. “I don’t want to talk to you now and don’t try to poison me with your poisonous vines. I don’t mind fighting you. Then let’s see if your magic weapons can block my full blow!”

Mo Feiyan didn’t expect Han Fei’s attitude to change so quickly... Just for a passerby? Mo Feiyan couldn’t help shaking her head. “I don’t have to fight you. However, you are not cruel enough to make big things happen.” “Humph...”

At this moment, Yang Deyu asked with a voice transmission, Mo Feiyan, what’s the matter over there? Why has the power of your side become weaker?

Mo Feiyan responded, The advanced Dangling Fisher is dead. Now there are only two of us.

Sun Mu shouted, “You, go over there.”

The next moment, in the burning flame, a cloud of spiritual energy blasted out. When the man arrived leisurely, Han Fei recognized that it was the underling of Yang Deyu.

At this moment, the person’s body was all red and his skin was already cracking.

However, after coming to this side, he pulled up a ring and started to pull it without saying anything

Han Fei was quite surprised. These people were so f*cking strong! Since the red leaves began to fall, it had been ten minutes. His skin had already begun to crack but one of the opponent’s subordinates resisted the flame better than him...

At this moment, the soft saw had gone into the trunk nearly 3 meters deep. Unfortunately, the time was too short. With the combined efforts of all the people, the saw only went 3 meters into the tree. It was nowhere near the tree’s 50 meter thickness...

Han Fei stomped heavily, and a spirit gathering formation appeared. He secretly initiated the 108 Spirit-Absorbing War Bodies and a small amount of spiritual energy entered into his body, but it was obviously not enough.

But Han Fei could not show his inexhaustible spiritual energy in front of these people. So, he transmitted his voice, I can still hold on for about twenty minutes and then you must give me some spirit fruits...

“Huh?”

Yang Deyu’s underling looked at Han Fei in shock. “Can you still hold on for twenty minutes?”

This person was shocked. He felt a lot of pain to persist in this environment. However, Han Fei casually said that he could still insist on twenty minutes. That really shocked him!

Han Fei said back, “Now we have to try our best. Can’t you hold on for so long?”

This person was speechless. I am a peak-leveled Dangling Fisher, but why can you hold on for the same period of time as me although you are two levels lower than me... That’s unacceptable!

Mo Feiyan didn’t speak but her eyes narrowed slightly. In terms of strength alone, Han Fei had no difference from ordinary peak-leveled Dangling Fishers. He was really a monster!

After twenty minutes, Han Fei’s body was cracked like a broken porcelain doll. Yang Deyu’s underling beside him stuffed a spiritual fruit into his mouth. In a moment, the spiritual energy on his body surface increased greatly and his cracked skin quickly recovered.

Han Fei looked at Mo Feiyan. “Spiritual fruit.”

Mo Feiyan flicked her fingers and a spiritual fruit flew towards Han Fei. Han Fei swallowed it after confirming that there was no problem with it.

The spiritual energy on Han Fei’s skin also greatly increased. And he cast a Divine Healing Technique on himself and his cracked skin was also quickly recovering.

But he wasn’t happy at all. When Mo Feiyan gave him the spirit fruit just now, he saw that Mo Feiyan was unscathed and her skin was still smooth and tender.

Han Fei was really jealous... This is the fu*king gap! The physical gap.

The people from powerful families were different indeed. Regardless of the way they behaved, their strength was not bad. Fortunately, Han Fei didn’t start a fight with them. Otherwise, he would certainly lose.

When the soft saw went into the Big Red Trunk for 10 meters, all of a sudden, everyone paused and looked up.

The singing sounds increased and got closer and closer.

Mo Feiyan narrowed her eyes. “Not good, the Millennium Snappers have come down.” Han Fei frowned. “Don’t be bewitched by their songs.” Yang Deyu glared at him. “You’re telling me! Listen, even if you are bewitched, don’t stop pulling the saw. Cut down this damn tree.”

Han Fei didn’t want to talk to this idiot who was all words and no deeds.

The Millennium Snappers had no offensive power, but their songs could bewitch people and they could also control spiritual plants...

At this moment, all the Millennium Snappers seem to have come down the tree. Han Fei could even hear the leaves rustle when they were swimming down.

“La... La...”

The hundreds of thousands of Millennium Snappers seemed to be singing at the same time and those burning red leaves were tumbling and floating with the sound waves as if the sound waves set off undulating ripples in the water.

Listening to the fish singing, the picture in front of Han Fei suddenly changed: he was being chased by the people of the Sun Family and the black-robed man on the dragon boat and Lin Miaomiao in his arms was shot to death with an arrow.

Han Fei’s eye immediately filled with murderous desire and turned red, and he subconsciously wanted to hold the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers.

But the next moment, his hand seemed to be pulled by someone, which made him shiver and return from the illusion.

It turned out that Sun Mu and Yang Deyu, who were opposite, were pulling the ring.

But the singing did not stop.

The moment Han Fei had just returned to his senses, the scene before him changed again. It changed to the scene of the black-robed man shooting arrows at him. Facing the siege of the four people, Han Fei felt angry, powerless and guilty, and various emotions lingered in his mind.

At this moment, the Hexagon Starfish who hadn’t spoken for a long time suddenly said, “The man next to him is crazy.”

“Attach.”

In this critical situation, he had Nine Tails attach to him instantly.

By his side, Yang Deyu’s underling had summoned his armor box that was wide open and a large number of swords, armor, and shields flew out.

Right next to him, Han Fei was the first one affected. Fortunately, the nine-star chains danced wildly, blocking his attack. If the opponent was conscious, the battle would definitely not be that simple. But now, he seemed to have lost his mind, so his attacking method looked not powerful enough.

Hiu! Hiu! Hiu!

Han Fei initiated the Saber Manipulation Art and Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers shot out like wandering dragons and penetrated Yang Deyu’s subordinate in an instant.

Han Fei said, "OK, I have slaughtered him."

It was not difficult to kill a peak-leveled Dangling Fisher who lost his mind and made random attacks.

However, at this moment, he blew himself up.

Boom...

Han Fei and Mo Feiyan were sent flying. The latter was okay, while Han Fei was drenched in blood and half of his body was almost blown apart.

"Puff... Puff... Puff..."

"F*ck... Cough, Cough..."

Han Fei did not expect that a person who was already stabbed by him would detonate himself! Sh*t!

Han Fei knew exactly how terrifying a peak-leveled Dangling Fisher's self-destruction was. At such a close distance, if it weren't for his Indestructible Body, he would have been killed!

He cast a Divine Healing Technique on himself, only to hear Yang Deyu shout, "Hey! Han Fei, don't pretend to be dead. Get up and do your job."

Han Fei yelled back, "F*ck you! Did you make your underling do this?"

That being said, he still returned to his position.

Mo Feiyan asked, "You're not injured at all?!"

Han Fei couldn't believe what she said. "You call this 'not injured at all'? Can't you see I'm vomiting blood?"

Mo Feiyan narrowed her eyes. "But you are still fine. Although your breath is a bit disordered and your internal organs are a bit traumatized, you actually resisted a peak-leveled Dangling Fisher's self-destruction with the strength of an intermediate Dangling Fisher! Your physique is unreasonably strong."

Han Fei shrugged. "So what. That's from my painstaking cultivation."

Mo Feiyan chuckled. "I guess you must have gotten some special chances, right? Just now, fortunately, you were in front of me. Otherwise, even I would have been injured."

Han Fei didn't bother to talk to Mo Feiyan. He hadn't gained anything from her family.

Han Fei pulled the saw hard and shouted to the other side, "Don't send another here to blow himself up. You know what, it can't kill me."

As he said this, Han Fei released Little Black and Little White and said to Little Black, "Go to the other side and bite the weakest one. Remember, don't bite the guy holding a big ax or the cold-faced one."

Han Fei sneered. Okay! Laugh at me? Losing two people won't affect the overall situation. Anyway, so many people have died today!

Han Fei was sure that if it weren't for Sun Mu, Yang Deyu, Mo Feiyan and their underlings, at least more than half of the people would have survived today.

Because of them, those who should have survived all died. In the end, they themselves were also going to die here.

However, this was not bad! The fewer people, the more beneficial it was for him.

The Millennium Snappers were very close to them but did not rush up to attack them because they didn't have sharp teeth. Although they could manipulate spiritual plants, they could only control the red leaves to attack them.

But the leaves could only burn. As long as they could resist the flames, the leaves would only consume spiritual energy.

After a moment.

Han Fei scolded, "Who the hell is speaking? Are you crazy? Since when can Millennium Snappers bite?"

The person on the opposite was angry. "Han Fei, shut up! There is indeed something in the red leaves."

Sun Mu instructed, "When it bites you again, catch it."

"La... La..."

As the Millennium Snappers were singing continuously, the man seemed to be bitten again. There was a scream and then suddenly no sound was heard. Immediately afterward, Yang Deyu yelled, "Sun Mu, your subordinate is already crazy. He is chopping at me with a knife."

"Buzz..!"

Han Fei saw a cold flash of light and immediately afterward, there was a "bang" It seemed that the guy on the opposite had also detonated himself.

While praising Little Black, he mocked, "Phew! Someone also blew himself up on your side? Great, now only the four of us are left. Think about it, how many people have you killed?"

Sun Mu said coldly, "Shut up."

Han Fei chuckled. "Okay, I'll shut up. Gee... You've gotta be quick! Otherwise, another one of you will go crazy soon. Then we'll have to die here together."

With the spiritual fruit Mo Feiyan gave him, Han Fei pretended to hold on for twenty-five minutes more. At this moment, his skin had cracked all over again but the saw was only 20 meters or so into the trunk. Han Fei yelled, "Hey! Give me another spiritual fruit." Mo Feiyan asked suspiciously, "Did you consume the last one so quickly?"

Han Fei said, "Do you think I'm you? I'm only an intermediate Dangling Fisher. A lot of spiritual energy in the fruit has escaped and I have just been hit hard!" Mo Feiyan didn't doubt him anymore. Now everyone was trying their best to cut down the tree... So, spiritual fruits were like Spirit Refilling Pills now. However, unlike pills, spiritual fruits could provide continuous spiritual energy. The spiritual energy in the pill couldn't last so long. At this time, Hexagon Starfish on his shoulder said again, "There are more and more fish? It seems as though a big fish is here." Han Fei's face changed slightly. A big fish? Just when the saw went to the middle of the trunk of the tree, suddenly those leaves no longer fell and the burning red leaves no longer attached to Han Fei and the others. Finally, Han Fei vaguely saw Sun Mu and Yang Deyu on the opposite side. Yang Deyu was looking around. "What's the matter? Is this tree scared, or is it too badly damaged?" Han Fei glanced to the side. As a cloud of soil rose, a white body flashed past. When Mo Feiyan appeared again, she had already changed her clothes.

Mo Feiyan said helplessly, "Can you guys put on your clothes?"

Han Fei looked down. Huh? His clothes had long been burned...

Han Fei immediately took out a set of clothes and quickly put it on, so did Sun Mu and Yang Deyu.

However, as soon as Han Fei said so, tens of thousands of Millennium Snappers had surrounded this place in all directions. Everywhere they looked, they could only see fish heads. People with Trypophobia might probably be scared to death if they saw this scene.

Everyone stopped sawing. Obviously something big was about to happen. The Mo Feiyan trio immediately gathered together and Yang Deyu even glanced at Han Fei. "Han Fei, get your f*cking ass over here."

Han Fei frowned, glanced at the school of fish, and finally chose to go over. He never thought that one day he would fight side by side with the enemy.

Among the densely packed Millennium Snappers, there was a giant Millennium Snapper that was ten times the size of other Millennium Snappers. The big fish didn't seem to sing but just swam forward a bit.

Yang Deyu said in a low voice, "F*ck, it's all over now. Han Fei is to blame! He insisted on sawing the tree! Now the queen Millennium Snapper has come out." Han Fei's face was black. "Shut up, if we don't saw the tree down, will this big guy not come out and kill us? Now, at least she came out to meet us..."

Han Fei was quarreling with Yang Deyu but his eyes were full of shock. The data in his eyes showed:

<Name> Yang Ruoyun (Sea Demon) <Introduction> A mutated Millennium Snapper. This demon upgraded across the five realms of Enlightenment, Breaking Away from Mortal Shell, Spirit Guarding, Awakening, and Demon Transforming within one day. It's peerlessly talented and invincible.

<Level> 40

<Concomitant Spirit>Unknown

<Unabsorbable>

“Gulp...”

Han Fei swallowed. He was dumbfounded when he saw the name. And when he finished reading the introduction, there was a great stir in his heart. “F*ck, is this... Yang Ruoyun?”

Han Fei was a little skeptical. He spent a lot of time with Yang Ruoyun! Since he first came to the level-three fishery, he met this woman frequently.

And now, he was suddenly told that Yang Ruoyun had become a fish... Oh no, a sea demon?

And the point was that he saw the realms of Enlightenment, Breaking Away from Mortal Shell, Spirit Guarding, Awakening, and Demon Transforming that he had never heard of before.

He felt that he had seen a shocking secret. Mo Feiyan looked at him and her eyes were unfathomable. “Keep your mind sober. This demonic fish is not simple.” Sun Mu frowned. “We underestimated this place.”

Han Fei saw that Sun Mu was holding a dark green jade pendant in his hand. Although he didn’t know what it was, it must be something that Sun Mu thought could use to save his life.

Han Fei looked solemn too. He had never been kind to Yang Ruoyun. Would she take revenge on him?

The point was if she could still recognize him. For a while, Han Fei didn’t know whether he hoped Yang Ruoyun would recognize him or not...

If she could recognize him, what if she took revenge on him?

If she couldn’t, would she directly kill him?

The giant Millennium Snapper in front was gradually glowing red. Surrounded by countless Millennium Snappers, the red light became brighter. With every flicker of the red light, the countless Millennium Snappers would sing the “Lala” song. However, this time, their songs were not bewitching at all. As the red light grew brighter, Yang Ruoyun was completely enveloped by the red light, and Han Fei and the others did not dare to move. There was nowhere to run, so they could only wait patiently to see what would happen next. But the next moment, something unexpected happened.

From the red light, a slender hand stretched out, followed by an arm in red yarn. Then, a slender, beautiful leg walked out of the red light.

“Gulp!”

Not only Han Fei, but Mo Feiyan and the other two also swallowed. They had never seen such a scene.

A person seemed to be walking out of the red light... Oh no, she had already walked out. When Yang Ruoyun’s face appeared from the red light, everyone was stunned. Yang Deyu couldn’t help but take a step back. Before, he almost strangled Yang Ruoyun, and now he was afraid that Yang Ruoyun would take revenge on him. Sun Mu's face was ghastly pale and he sent a message to Han Fei via voice transmission, Who is this woman? She came with you. Don't tell me you don't know! Yang Deyu and Mo Feiyan immediately looked at Han Fei and even subconsciously stepped away from him. Han Fei was dumbfounded. "Why the f*ck did me ask me? I don't know this woman well! I just happened to meet her." Yang Deyu yelled back, "Liar! The level-three fishery is huge. How could you happen to run into her?"

Han Fei glared at him. "Nonsense. Didn't you happen to meet her too?" The moment Yang Ruoyun walked out of the red light, the red light had gradually faded. Han Fei was the most shocked among all. The others didn't read the Fish Avatar Technique, but he did. So far, except for one person who had successfully turned into an Iron-Headed Fish, everyone else had died in the process of transforming into a fish.

The ultimate goal of the Fish Avatar Technique was to make people become fish and people at any time. But he hadn't successfully deduced the technique and didn't dare to practice it. However, right in front of his eyes, Yang Ruoyun had accomplished the ultimate goal of the Fish Avatar Technique and could switch between fish and person form at will. This simply subverted Han Fei's perception. Mo Feiyan said coldly, "It's a sea demon. No, this is not an ordinary sea demon but from a noble race among the sea demons. Use all your means when it attacks us later. Otherwise, we'll die here." Han Fei asked in surprise, "What kind of a sea demon is it?"

Mo Feiyan glanced at Han Fei deeply. "I don't know, it is said that there will only be sea demons in the unknown place. We also learned some knowledge about sea demons from ancient books."

"The unknown place?" Han Fei wondered, Is the unknown place full of these kinds of demons?

That's not right! Didn't Old Bai say that Fish Avatar Technique is a taboo technique? Bullshit! If it's a taboo, then why could Yang Ruoyun transform into a fish?

The four of them were extremely nervous. At this time, no one cared about the Sea Token! That was not important now. Nothing was more important than their lives. Yang Ruoyun was completely different from before. At this moment, she was wearing a sexy red gauze dress, through which her body could be vaguely seen through. Han Fei found that her hair had turned red and became so long that it hung down to her calf. At this moment, her hair was moving with the waves.

Han Fei couldn't help asking, "Hey! Are you... A human or a fish?"

Yang Ruoyun turned her head slightly and a faint smile appeared on her delicate face. "I, am a demon now!"

Han Fei felt a chill down his spine. Yang Ruoyun actually responded to him, indicating that she still had memories. In addition, he was surprised to find that Yang Ruoyun was speaking with her mouth instead of voice transmission.

Yang Deyu was a little dazed, asking the other three, "What, what's this? Has the seal outside been removed?" Sun Mu frowned. "Obviously not."

Yang Deyu patted his head. "F*ck, Mo Feiyan, why did you ask me to come to the Sea Grassland? Now how can we deal with this demon?!"

Mo Feiyan didn't speak. What's the use of talking about this sh*t now? Before coming here, they both thought exploring the Sea Grassland would bring them great chances. Who would have expected that this place was so dangerous?

Yang Ruoyun tilted her head slightly and looked at Han Fei. "I think I should thank you. If it weren't for you, I might not have been able to come here. Then I'm afraid I wouldn't have been able to find my parents in my life."

The other three all looked at Han Fei.

Han Fei: "???"

These two Millennium Snappers seemed to be very intimate to Yang Ruoyun, making "Lala" sounds from time to time and swimming around Yang Ruoyun. Yang Ruoyun stretched out her hand and stroked the two Millennium Snappers. Then she raised her eyes and said, "I hate this place, and I also hate fisheries. The strong wielded their power to enclose sea areas as fisheries and made humans kill each other in them. They just treated us as their pets!" Suddenly, her eyes turned cold. "If this is the case, I will rebel. If people don't treat me fairly, I will become a demon."

Sun Mu said solemnly, "You can do whatever you want, but why do you give us a hard time?"

Yang Ruoyun smiled and suddenly pointed her finger, and the countless Millennium Snappers screamed at the same time. Their voices were like invisible energy, gathering at Yang Ruoyun's fingertips.

Rip... The seawater was divided and a red light shot at Yang Deyu. Yang Deyu's face changed drastically. Then his face suddenly turned black and a huge black scorpion fused into his body. Immediately afterward, bright spiritual energy appeared on his two giant axes. "Two-in-One! Wave Slashing Axe!"

Han Fei was surprised. Yang Deyu was quite strong. The power of this blow was even stronger than the fifth arrow of his War Soul Art, almost comparable to the sixth arrow! Crack! Crack! Crack!

However, the dark light flying out of the giant axes shattered at a speed visible to the naked eye. The red light fell on the black crystal double axes before he lasted for a minute.

Crack!

Then a jade ring Yang Deyu was wearing shattered suddenly and a blue barrier appeared in front of him. The atmosphere was tense.

Han Fei watched this scene in shock. After one minute or so, he gaped. "Blocked?"

Crack!

Crack... Crack... Crack...

Boom...

After less than five minutes, the blue barrier shattered, and Yang Deyu was sent flying and slammed heavily on the Big Red Trunk, causing the tree to shake. "Puff..."

Han Fei's eyelids jumped as he watched Yang Deyu keep vomiting blood. Was Yang Deyu too weak? Of course not. Han Fei was sure that ordinary peak-leveled Dangling Fishers wouldn't be able to resist the blow that this guy just made. However, his blow was easily blocked by Yang Ruoyun who just flicked her finger. Yang Ruoyun didn't attack again but looked at them. "Today, I won't kill you. However, I want your memories." Hearing this, Han Fei was shocked. Can a demon be so powerful? She can even take people's memories?! The problem was that I still had a plan! Would my plan be ruined?

At that moment, Han Fei quickly backed away. He didn't want to lose his memory, so he would hide in Forge the Universe first. But before Han Fei jumped into the leaves, he saw a bulk of red leaves rushing towards him. The moment they touched him, they exploded suddenly. Han Fei was furious. "Damn it, Yang Ruoyun, you still owe me a favor."

Yang Ruoyun smiled. "I have paid you back by not killing you." Han Fei was helpless. I'll never ever believe women again, especially strange women! Yang Ruoyun, you ungrateful woman! Han Fei secretly said, Master Hexagon, come on, help me. Let me hide in one of your doors. However, Han Fei glanced over his shoulder. Where the hell was that starfish? This guy had run away early. "Damn you, Hexagon... You're such a coward..." Han Fei muttered. However, Hexagon Starfish's voice suddenly sounded in his mind, This demon is too fierce. I can't beat her. I've gotta go. Han Fei scolded, No, open the door for me. If you dare to leave, I will pinch you to death.

Master Hexagon sighed. Human, you can't be so unreasonable! Although she is a young demon, she is still a demon! I'll be killed if I dare open the door in front of her.

You have to find a way to save me. Otherwise, I will be dead. If I die, you will die too.

Then Han Fei's eyes suddenly turned cold. He glanced at the Sun Mu trio and then at Yang Ruoyun, hesitating. Shall I have a try?

Chapter 365 Make A Deal Again

At this time, there was a burst of red light from under the Big Red Trunk and red threads suddenly burst forth from the ground and entangled Sun Mu and the others.

Of course, Han Fei was also entangled, but he had a lot of daggers that were spinning wildly around him at this moment.

Sun Mu and Mo Feiyan used some secret method at the same time. The strength of the two had risen sharply, and in Han Fei's eyes, the two had broken through the realm of Dangling Fisher.

Han Fei cursed, "Damn, I knew these guys still had trump cards."

On the other side, Yang Ruoyun said with disdain, "If it were elsewhere, this type of secret method may be useful. But here, I have endless power. What can you do?"

Han Fei tried to rush into the leaves again, but Yang Ruoyun seemed to have expected Han Fei's actions. She just smiled. "Don't waste your effort. I won't kill you." Han Fei frowned. "Then let me go!"

Yang Ruoyun ignored Han Fei and suddenly opened her mouth to the Sun Mu trio.

"La, la..."

The moment Yang Ruoyun opened her mouth, the sound wave gathered up countless leaves that shot at them like surging waves.

All the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers guarding Han Fei were blown away by the sound wave.

Sun Mu and the other two were bleeding from their noses and mouths and then were bound up by the red threads emerging from the ground.

Sun Mu's eyes were bloodshot. "If you kill us, you'll have to die too."

Suddenly.

Hexagon Starfish was terrified. Han Fei, help me!

Han Fei was dumbfounded. I'm still waiting for you to save me! How come you got caught in the blink of an eye?

The six tentacles of Hexagon Starfish danced randomly and he shouted to Yang Ruoyun, "Human, I carried you to this place! You owe me too."

Yang Ruoyun smiled. "Yes."

Then Han Fei saw the Sun Mu trio suddenly tremble and seem to lose their consciousness. Even their protective jade didn't work any longer.

Han Fei was also entangled by the red threads, but he was still conscious and quickly recalled the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers. Fortunately, he had learned the Saber Manipulation Art, so he was very good at controlling the knives now. The dozens of daggers began to spin in the sea, like dozens of rotating flying knives and quickly cutting the red threads on Han Fei's body.

Han Fei was just about to rush into the leaves when Yang Ruoyun said lightly, "If you go in, this starfish will die."

Master Hexagon hurriedly called for help. "Han Fei, help!"

Han Fei froze and thought, Master Hexagon, I'm so disappointed in you!

He said, "Then don't let those red threads entangle me again."

To Han Fei's surprise, Yang Ruoyun nodded slightly and the red threads went underground and disappeared.

"Huh? Is this woman really going to let me off?"

Han Fei looked at the Sun Mu trio and thought to himself, These three are really dumbstruck. They have so many trump cards but these trump cards are all useless in this damn place. Now they've become fish on the cutting board.

Han Fei suddenly asked, "Did you kill them?"

Yang Ruoyun shook her head. "No, I don't have to kill them. I just deprived them of today's memory."

"Gosh..."

Han Fei's eyes flickered. "You can't deprive me of my memory. Otherwise, no matter how you threaten me, I'll find a way to escape."

Yang Ruoyun looked at Han Fei indifferently. "How about we make our last deal?"

"Deal?"

Han Fei felt a headache. Every time I make a deal with this woman I end up getting ripped off! Here it comes again...

Han Fei asked, "You are already a winner. What else do you want?"

"Help me do three things and I'll return this starfish to you, won't take your memory, and even give you something special." Han Fei's eyelids twitched. "Can I ask why you always want to make trades with me? I am only an intermediate Dangling Fisher! You can cooperate with a peak-levelled Dangling Fisher, can't you?"

Yang Ruoyun looked at Han Fei earnestly. "You have the smell of demons, or to be exact, you have something demonic on you. No matter what, you have something to do with demons."

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei was speechless. "Are you kidding me? This is the first time I've learned of the existence of sea demons. How can I have anything to do with demons?"

Yang Ruoyun didn't answer him but asked, "It's up to you whether you make a deal with me or not. I'll only give you three minutes to consider. Just as you said, I can trade with them too."

At this time, Han Fei had no choice, so he nodded and said, "OK, which three things?"

Yang Ruoyun pointed to the Big Red Trunk. "Aren't you going to cut down the tree? Keep sawing!"

"Huh?"

Han Fei was stunned. Why?

Yang Ruoyun said that she hated this place. Did she come here to destroy this place? No! Yang Ruoyun was weak before, and it was obvious that she had gotten her chance here.

Han Fei rolled his eyes.

He said, "Can you give me a hand? I can't saw down the tree alone."

Yang Ruoyun didn't move but calmly said, "Use your Mantis Shrimp."

Han Fei squinted. What does she mean? She doesn't trust me? And why does she want to cut down the tree? Could it be that this tree not only traps us, but also traps her?

But Han Fei didn't say anything as he summoned Nine Tails and asked him to cut down the tree with him.

It would take some time to saw the rest of the way through the tree. So while sawing the tree, Han Fei asked tentatively, "Hey! How are you going to deal with the three of them?"

Yang Ruoyun said bluntly, "After the tree is cut down, the seal will be automatically lifted. Then, I won't do anything to them."

Han Fei asked, "How about handing the three of them to me?"

Han Fei smiled. "Can't I?"

Yang Ruoyun shook her head slightly. "They not only have protective jade, but also life monuments. Once they die, their family will know. Do you still want to kill them now?"

Han Fei's smile disappeared. This was exactly the case after he killed Sun Ye. The middle-aged man from the Thousand Star City appeared in the level-two fishery as soon as Sun Ye was killed. If it weren't for Teacher Xiao Zhan and Old Bai, he would have been killed at that time.

"F*ck, so these three people can't be killed?"

Yang Ruoyun said indifferently, "If you want to kill them, then kill, but you'll have to bear the consequences yourself."

Han Fei sneered secretly. I don't want to bear any consequences! The level-three fishery is so far away from the Blue Sea Town. If the ancestors of these three guys come to kill me, God knows who will come to rescue me? It will be too late when Old Bai shows up...

Han Fei rolled his eyes. "Fine, I won't kill them. I'll just cripple them!"

Yang Ruoyun shrugged. "It has nothing to do with me. It's up to you."

Han Fei lowered his head and focused on sawing the tree. After a while, he asked, "Are the two Millennium Snappers around you your parents?" Yang Ruoyun answered, "Yes."

"Can you tell me your story? Why do you hate this place? Why do you hate fisheries?"

Yang Ruoyun's eyes turned cold. "Don't you hate it? Here, life is worthless. In this place, there are countless people like the twin brothers who hunted me down before. And those dragon boats send people to explore dangerous places every day, which alone causes so many people to lose their lives!"

Han Fei shrugged. "I'm here for the first time. I don't know much about it."

Yang Ruoyun scoffed. "Humph, it's not that you don't understand it, but that you enjoy it. You have a lot of trump cards, so you don't care. Haven't you ever thought why the ordinary fishery, level-one fishery, level-two fishery, level-three fishery... Why do these damn fisheries exist?"

Han Fei grunted. "Why? Nature is magic and can even create mountains and seas. The billions of creatures in the ocean and countless dangerous places and secret realms are all natural phenomena."

However, Yang Ruoyun scolded, "Nonsense! I never thought you'd be so stupid. This fishery pattern is obviously arranged by the powerful behind the scene. The purpose is to select the best talents. All beings are nothing but pawns and our lives are at their hands."

Han Fei smiled faintly. "So, you want to jump out of the chess game? Do you think you can do that when you become a sea demon? If all living beings are pawns, why are sea demons the exception? Since you can become a demon here, how do you know it isn't another way for the so-called powerful to control you?"

Chapter 366 Share the Booty

Under the Big Red Trunk.

Han Fei and Nine Tails were sawing the tree back and forth. Nine Tails didn't know what he was doing but he felt that he was awesome and could do anything.

Han Fei was thinking quickly while pulling the soft saw in his hand. If he really sawed down the Big Red Trunk, what would happen? If the seal disappeared, Yang Ruoyun would lead the countless Millennium Snappers and would be able to sweep the whole level-three fishery.

Regardless of whether the Millennium Snappers had combat power, as exotic creatures, they had the ability to overturn the level-three fishery.

Of course, this was none of his business. The question was that if he helped her, could he really get any benefit?

Han Fei couldn't help asking, "You said to do three things for you. What are the other two?"

Yang Ruoyun glanced at Han Fei lightly. "Do you know why people who come here will lose the memory of this place?"

Han Fei thought for a while and replied, "To keep the secret from the outside world that this Big Red Trunk can turn people into fish?"

Yang Ruoyun nodded. "Yes, but can you understand that memory is a kind of power of time. It really exists, just like spiritual power, but it's more mysterious than the latter."

W

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. "Memory is a kind of power?" "I don't know much about it. However, there is a magical thing bred in this Big Red Trunk, which is formed with this power. I want that thing."

Han Fei's eyes flashed. So that was Yang Ruoyun's purpose? Great, at least her ultimate goal was not to become a fish.

Han Fei asked, "Where is that 'thing'?"

Yang Ruoyun thought for a moment and said, "It should be under the roots..."

Han Fei smiled. "So, I'll have to dig out the roots of the tree and then cut them open?"

Yang Ruoyun nodded.

Han Fei secretly smiled in his heart. Then he threw away the soft saw in his hand. "Do you know how deep the roots of such a big tree are? You may not believe it, they could be at least hundreds of meters deep."

Yang Ruoyun nodded again and then pointed to Nine Tails. "He can dig holes."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei was a bit discouraged and picked up the soft saw again. "But even if Nine Tails can make holes, wouldn't the seal outside be automatically removed?"

Yang Ruoyun smiled faintly. "I sealed the tree with an ancient secret method, so if I don't cancel it, even if the Big Red Trunk is cut down, the seal outside will not disappear."

Han Fei remembered that when he and Yang Ruoyun had just come here, Yang Ruoyun had thrown out a scroll full of runes. But could she really seal such a big tree? Han Fei doubted it.

But no matter what, Han Fei was a bit scared. This woman was really calculative. She had planned everything before coming here.

Han Fei continued to saw the tree, asking, "What about the third thing?"

Yang Ruoyun pointed to the Big Red Trunk. "I want a section of the tree core. Take it out and give it to me."

Han Fei was surprised. "So easy?"

Yang Ruoyun nodded. "Yes. After you do the three things for me, we are even. Though the next time I see you, I won't go easy on you."

Half an hour later, when the soft saw came out from the other side of the tree, Han Fei sighed in relief. "Done."

"La, la..."

Suddenly, the Millennium Snappers around them began to sing again, seeming to cheer. Then, Han Fei saw a large number of Millennium Snappers swimming upward. After a while, this huge Big Red Trunk began to shake.

Standing under the tree, Han Fei watched blankly while this huge tree slowly leaned to one side and then crashed down, making an earth-shattering bang and setting off billowing waves, the red leaves were drifting all over.

However, Han Fei froze in his spot. What attracted his eyes was not the tree but its core. To his surprise, that tree core was actually inlaid with countless spiritual stones.

"Wow... F*ck... I'm rich!" Not only Han Fei, but Yang Ruoyun was also stunned. She knew that there was a treasure hidden in this tree, but she didn't know that there were so many spiritual stones hidden in it.

No, to be precise, Yang Ruoyun did not know about the spiritual stones. However, the huge amount of spiritual energy contained in these stones really shocked her.

Yang Ruoyun looked at Han Fei. "Do you know what these stones are?"

Han Fei swallowed and tried to calm down. Instead of answering her, he asked, "When will these three guys wake up?"

Yang Ruoyun frowned slightly. "In about two hours."

Han Fei quickly said, "Can you make them faint for a day or throw them out?"

Yang Ruoyun nodded. Yes, she couldn't let the three of them see the tree core.

As Yang Ruoyun gave a singing command, a group of Millennium Snappers was about to step forward.

"Wait a moment."

Yang Ruoyun: "???"

Han Fei hurriedly ran to the three people. "You have become a sea demon. Are human things still useful to you?"

Yang Ruoyun asked, "You want their Sea Swallowing Seashells?"

Yang Ruoyun felt that she knew Han Fei too well. This guy would even skin a flea for its hide. Otherwise, he would not have taken such a big risk to come here.

Yang Ruoyun did not stop him but just nodded. "You can take what you want. Most of your things are useless to me."

As soon as Han Fei heard this, he beamed with a smile and immediately searched them.

Soon, three Sea Swallowing Seashells were collected by Han Fei. Besides the shells themselves, he found Yang Deyu's dark crystal axes, Sun Mu's sword, Mo Feiyan's long sword, a necklace, earrings, bracelets, a ring and a jade pendant...

"Haha! I got it!"

Han Fei smiled. He certainly wanted their Sea Swallowing Seashells, but what he wanted most was the Spirit Forbidden Net.

Staying with Yang Ruoyun, the Spirit Forbidden Cord couldn't give Han Fei a sense of security. But the Spirit Forbidden Net could make him feel much safer.

If Yang Ruoyun refused him to search the three people just now, he would immediately give up the deal with her and hide in Forge the Universe.

Han Fei continued to rummage and took almost everything from the three.

Although Yang Ruoyun had become a sea demon and had few human feelings left, she was still stunned. How can this bastard be so shameless? He almost stripped these people naked!

Han Fei took a look at the Sea Swallowing Seashells. Wow, there was a lot of good stuff in them. There were no less than 20 spiritual fruits in total, nearly 2 square meters of spiritual spring energy, and countless pills and flash stones, etc.

“Haha, you guys wanna catch me? If it were in the level-two fishery, I would have killed the three of you!”

Han Fei was very satisfied and glanced at Yang Ruoyun. “Now you can throw them out.”

Then a group of Millennium Snappers controlled the red leaves to wrap the three people and they swam outward.

Yang Ruoyun frowned. “Now can you tell me what these are?”

Han Fei smiled. “How do we divide these things?”

“Answer my question first.”

Han Fei said, “This is called a spiritual stone, which can be regarded as the crystallization of spiritual energy. Let me see... Let me take a look... See these small and broken stones? They are low-quality spiritual stones. The spiritual energy contained in a low-quality spiritual stone is usually less than 10,000 points... These that are darker in color and more shiny are mid-quality spiritual stones, which contain a little more spiritual energy. As for the high-quality spiritual stone, they contain nearly ten times more spiritual energy than low-quality spiritual stones... And this is the most precious extra-quality spirit stone. I have never seen it before, so I don’t know much about it...”

Of course, Han Fei couldn’t tell Yang Ruoyun the true information of the spirit stone. The low-quality spiritual stone here had more than 10,000 points of spiritual energy, and the amount of spiritual energy contained in the mid-quality spiritual stone was not just a little bit higher than that of a low-quality one, but 10 times higher.

But Han Fei told half the truth because Yang Ruoyun was a little far away from him and seemed to have been wary of him.

Yang Ruoyun’s eyes widened. Are there such things in the world? She had never heard of it before.

More importantly, just in what she saw, there was 1 extra-quality spiritual stone, 3 high-quality stones, 10 mid-quality stones, and 32 low-quality stones.

Yang Ruoyun took a breath and said immediately, “The extra-quality and high-quality spiritual stones are mine, so are the mid-quality ones.”

Han Fei was taken back and his face immediately turned black. “Hey, hey, that’s too much! They are all yours? Then what about me?”

Yang Ruoyun glanced at Han Fei. “It’s not up to you.”

Han Fei smiled coldly. “Oh, really? Fine. Without me, can you cut this tree down? We can split them half and half, but you can’t take them all.”

Yang Ruoyun glanced at Han Fei coldly. “Do you think you can survive my attack?”

Han Fei sneered and pointed to the tree. "Look, this tree is more than a kilometer high. I just sawed a cut randomly and there are so many spiritual stones. If you want, you can take them all, or even take away the entire tree!"

Yang Ruoyun was silent for a while. She was very strong now and could use the power of the Millennium Snappers. However, her destructive power was limited. No matter how strong she was, it was impossible for her to crack such a thick trunk at will.

Yang Ruoyun thought for a while. "I'll take 70%, you 30%."

Han Fei scoffed. "No way! Fifty-fifty. I'm the one who will dig up these spiritual stones. I deserve half of them!"

Yang Ruoyun pondered for a while and finally nodded. "Okay, let's take them fifty-fifty. But you'll have to dig out the things in the tree for me first."

Chapter 367 The Taste of a Counterattack

Five hours later, Nine Tails was exhausted. The roots of the tree were too big, but he finally loosened the soil 100 meters under the tree.

As ordered by Yang Ruoyun, the Millennium Snappers controlled the spiritual plants to pull apart the endless roots underground and then pull them up.

Yang Ruoyun looked at Han Fei. "Keep sawing." Han Fei secretly transmitted his voice to Nine Tails, Nine Tails, strike. Stop sawing. Roll on the ground...

Nine Tails was stunned, but rolling on the ground sounded quite interesting, so he immediately did it.

Han Fei shrugged. "Hey, don't abuse my spiritual beast. How about letting my Mantis Shrimp take a rest?"

Yang Ruoyun threw the Hexagon Starfish that she held in her hand to him. "Let this starfish do it."

A smile appeared at the corner of Han Fei's mouth. Yang Ruoyun didn't know him any more than he knew her. If he were Yang Ruoyun, he would definitely not have given Master Hexagon to him.

Hexagon Starfish was almost asleep. Since Han Fei and Yang Ruoyun reached an agreement, he had stopped worrying. When he saw that the tree core was full of spiritual stones, his six big eyes rolled quickly. However, he didn't think he had the ability to snatch the spiritual stones from these two, so he just kept quiet.

Hexagon Starfish said telepathically, I am a starfish! I can't cut the tree...

Yang Ruoyun replied, "You are full of spiritual energy and you can control it with spiritual energy." Being stared at by Yang Ruoyun, Hexagon Starfish immediately shut up and began to saw the wood with Han Fei.

Three hours later.

Han Fei's hands were sore with fatigue. This damn tree was too hard. It took him three hours to saw it down with the spiritual-level soft saw.

Of course, the harvest was very gratifying. The core of the tree was inlaid with hundreds of spiritual stones from top to bottom.

Han Fei felt that his heart was pounding hard as he thought, Wow, I'm rich! I have become rich now! He found no less than 8 extra-quality spiritual stones, 10 high-grade ones, nearly 100 mid-quality ones, and a few hundred low-quality ones. The root of the tree alone contained no less than 25 million points of spiritual energy.

"Gulp!"

Han Fei was about to go forward to dig out the spiritual stone when Yang Ruoyun suddenly shouted, "Don't move."

Han Fei's eyes turned cold. "Why, do you want to back out?"

Yang Ruoyun sneered. "Do you think I am you? Although I am a demon now, I'll keep my word."

Han Fei snorted secretly. Keep your word? You're such a good actress...

Yang Ruoyun stepped on the waves and landed on the tree roots in three or two steps, staring at the corner of the tree roots.

Han Fei's eyes narrowed slightly. Closer, get closer!

Han Fei followed Yang Ruoyun's gaze and found that at the bottom of the tree core, there was a scarlet book wrapped in spiritual stones.

"A book?"

In the blink of an eye, six purple lights suddenly appeared and the six gate formation was activated instantly to seal Yang Ruoyun inside.

Above the big formation, the Spirit Forbidden Net fell from the sky.

Yang Ruoyun's face changed drastically. She didn't expect Han Fei to even dare attack her. Her reaction was very quick and she immediately crushed a flash stone, but to her shock, she bumped into the edge of the six-door formation and could not get out.

"Attach."

The nine-star chain immediately darted out, locking Yang Ruoyun's hands, feet, neck and waist.

Han Fei put a Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Dagger to Yang Ruoyun's neck through the Spirit Forbidden Net. "Hey, let these Millennium Snappers behave themselves. Otherwise, I don't mind killing you."

Han Fei was just threatening her. If Yang Ruoyun hadn't become a sea demon and couldn't control these Millennium Snappers, he might dare to do so.

However, the Millennium Snappers around had rioted and began to sing again, seeming ready to attack him.

Han Fei suddenly pressed the tip of the dagger into Yang Ruoyun's neck and blood flowed out.

Han Fei grinned. "Surprised? If you don't make them stop, I will kill you now. Maybe I will be in serious trouble, but you will definitely die."

Yang Ruoyun glared at Han Fei, but in the end, she still sang a command.

Immediately, the Millennium Snappers that had surrounded them stopped, which Han Fei was relieved to see. He was afraid that this woman would go crazy and die with him.

Otherwise, facing so many Millennium Snappers, he really didn't know if he could survive.

Yang Ruoyun's eyes were cold. "You have been luring me into this trap, right? If you didn't have this Spirit Forbidden Net, what would you have done?"

Han Fei smiled. "Based on what I know about you, you will definitely give me the belongings of Sun Mu and the other two because you won't let them influence your plan. So I had no worries about getting the Spirit Forbidden Net. Even if I couldn't get the net, I still have Spirit Forbidden Cord!"

Yang Ruoyun scoffed. "Shouldn't your attention be put on the three of them? Why me?"

Han Fei sneered. "In my opinion, you are much more dangerous than them. If it weren't for the follow-up development that exceeded my expectations and some changes, you would have been the first one I wanted to catch."

Han Fei glanced at the book in the tree and said, "Seriously, the fact that you have become a sea demon really shocked me. I once doubted whether becoming a fish was your ultimate goal. Well! It turns out that there is a book hidden in this tree."

Yang Ruoyun seems to have some ability to resist the Spirit Forbidden Net, so she could still speak at this moment. She looked at Han Fei angrily. "I never deceived you, and I planned to let you go. Why did you do this to me?"

Han Fei laughed. "You've never deceived me? You gave me a false map and said that it was a secret realm. Did you forget that?"

Seeing Yang Ruoyun was about to speak, Han Fei immediately interrupted, "Cut the crap. I know that map is false. I knew it at the time. Even if it is true, it is definitely a garbage secret realm."

Han Fei sneered. If that secret realm were true, why wasn't it marked on Old Bai's map? It must either be because the secret realm was too rubbish or the map was false.

Especially the person who gave him the fish-skin map was Yang Ruoyun, so when he got the map, he was already sure it was false.

Yang Ruoyun said, "You dare not kill me."

Han Fei tilted his head. "Oh? Why?"

Yang Ruoyun seemed to have recovered her calm state. At this moment, she looked at Han Fei with a relaxed face. "Because once I die, these Millennium Snappers will go crazy. I am their queen."

Han Fei sneered, "Guess if I can escape from them or not!"

Yang Ruoyun raised three fingers calmly. "Firstly, the seal of the Big Red Trunk; secondly, the price you'll have to pay for my death; thirdly, guess if you can kill me or not. Here, my vitality is not what you can imagine. You don't know anything about this place, which is why I'm confident."

Han Fei looked at Yang Ruoyun quietly and it took a long while before he grinned. "Haha! Look at how nervous you are. I'm just making a joke with you... Give me a reason to let you go."

Yang Ruoyun glanced back at the book embedded in the tree. "Give me the book and I will go."

Han Fei smirked. "Where will you go? What if you return?"

"Lala!"

Yang Ruoyun shouted at the Millennium Snappers that actually circled up and then began to sing.

Yang Ruoyun said to Han Fei, "I was well prepared before I came. Once I leave here, you don't have to worry that I will come back."

Yang Ruoyun took a deep look at the Hexagon Starfish. She lost because of this damn starfish! His six-door formation was very powerful and disrupted all her plans.

Han Fei pondered. He didn't know much about this woman and couldn't predict the consequences of killing her. This time, he dared not take the bet.

"It should be so! In my memory, this formation is only one-way." Han Fei said angrily, "What do you mean by 'it should be'? Are you sure or not?"

Hexagon Starfish's big eyes kept rolling. "As far as I know, she can't come back."

Han Fei was relieved to hear that and bound up Yang Ruoyun with the Spirit Forbidden Cord too. Although it might not be able to trap her, he just needed to control her for a while.

Yang Ruoyun suddenly said, "Give me the book and the tree core."

Yang Ruoyun urged him, "It's useless to you. It belongs to sea demons."

Hexagon Starfish's big eyes rolled and he pondered for a while. "That seems to be a divine weapon!"

"Wow!"

Han Fei was stunned. Is that book a divine weapon? Why isn't its data showing? But Han Fei was overjoyed. "Master Hexagon, good job! I like an ally like you and I will find you a girlfriend."

Hexagon Starfish: "..."

Han Fei stared at Yang Ruoyun and didn't back down. "Hey! I'm not going to give you the book or the tree core. You can get out of here. If you want to grab these things from me, just try it. Let's see who will hold on longer!"

Yang Ruoyun's eyes were unfathomable. "Fine, send me into the teleportation formation."

Yang Ruoyun shot back, "Keep 500 of them and then throw me in."

"100, my bottom line." Yang Ruoyun thought for a moment. "How do I know you won't kill me?" Han Fei shrugged. "I can kill you now if you want." Yang Ruoyun scoffed. "OK, keep 100."

Chapter 368 Who On Earth Cheated Who?

In fact, he was communicating with the Hexagon Starfish at the same time.

Han Fei asked secretly, Master Hexagon, can this woman be killed? What will happen to the seal if she is killed?

Hexagon Starfish replied, I don't know! The seal of this forest is very strange. Its eye seems to be this big tree. It's supposed to disappear since its eye has been destroyed...

Han Fei was impatient. So, can I kill her or not?

The starfish said with hesitation, Well, maybe not...

Han Fei asked impatiently again, What does that mean? Yes or no? Just give me a definite answer!

To be honest, Han Fei thought Yang Ruoyun was very dangerous. Although he knew that he might never meet her again after this, what if he did? This woman had become a sea demon that seemed very powerful. God knew if anything unexpected would happen because of her in the future!

Hexagon Starfish said in voice transmission, I feel that her life seems to be related to the bad fishes outside. She may be seriously injured, but you may really not be able to kill her.

OK, got it.

Han Fei couldn't help sighing secretly. This was really Yang Ruoyun's territory. Although she had been caught by the Spirit Forbidden Net, he might still not be able to kill her.

If he couldn't kill her, he would be in serious trouble.

It was not that he was afraid of these Millennium Snappers, but that he needed enough time to digest this Big Red Trunk. Forge the Universe was too small to contain such a big tree currently.

Yang Ruoyun would keep 100 Millennium Snappers to escort her, and when there were about 1,000 Millennium Snappers left, he would have to remove the Spirit Forbidden Net but he could keep the Spirit Forbidden Cord.

Han Fei cared about these details very much. The slightest careless action would cause him to lose the whole game.

Han Fei was confident that as long as the Spirit Forbidden Cord could hold Yang Ruoyun for half a minute, he could still take down Yang Ruoyun.

About half an hour later.

Thousands of Millennium Snappers swam into the one-way teleportation formation. When there were only a thousand Millennium Snappers left, Han Fei took Yang Ruoyun and swam close to the teleportation formation.

At this time, Han Fei withdrew the Spirit Forbidden Net but the Spirit Forbidden Cord still bound her. Besides, a Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Dagger was put against her neck.

At the moment when Han Fei threw Yang Ruoyun away, the remaining hundred Millennium Snappers rushed to catch up.

Han Fei secretly heaved a sigh of relief. No change occurred. It was a good result. When the last Millennium Snapper disappeared, the vortex had gradually disappeared and the place was about to return to peace.

Just when Han Fei was about to return, a voice suddenly came out from the teleportation formation. "Han Fei, one last word of warning, you'd better leave as soon as possible. The seal will last for at most six hours. Once the Big Red Trunk is dead, tens of thousands of lives will devour this place."

At the moment when these words rang, Han Fei turned back and the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Bow appeared in his hand. In an instant, he drew the bow to its full extent, the cracks on Han Fei's arm appeared again and blood gushed out.

Ira

This was the sixth arrow of the War Soul Art, a violent blow containing 6,400 points of spiritual energy. Two arrow shadows shot into the teleportation formation that was about to close. "Six hours is enough for me!"

Han Fei rushed down quickly to the roots of the Big Red Trunk. With a big wave of his hand, the spiritual stones trembled and were taken into Forge the Universe.

"Expand, expand, expand..."

With Forge the Universe not expanding fast, six hours seemed to be barely enough.

As Forge the Universe was expanding, Han Fei reached out to grab the red book inlaid in the trunk.

However, as soon as Han Fei picked up the book, there was a sudden burst of dazzling red light, shining like an aurora.

One ferocious face after another drifted past his eyes, screaming, crying, and fighting... Countless phantoms gathered in the air and a surge of evil Qi rose from the seabed. Han Fei hurriedly threw this thing into Forge the Universe as well, but he was still contaminated by the evil Qi and couldn't help but feel murderous intentions.

"Puff!"

Han Fei spread his hands, only to find that his hands were already dripping with blood as if they had been burned by flames.

"F*ck... What the hell was that?"

Han Fei was sweating all over. At that moment, he felt like he was going crazy and couldn't help but want to kill.

Han Fei looked around, looking for Hexagon Starfish. But he found that this guy had drifted a hundred meters away and his six big eyes were staring at him.

Han Fei sighed. "Master Hexagon, you're too much! Do you want to abandon me? You know what, I'm going to crush your essence blood!"

Hexagon Starfish: "..."

I was afraid you would slap me to death. You looked scary just now.

Han Fei sneered. "We are allies. How can I slap you?"

That sea monster is also your friend...

Han Fei scoffed. "Okay, tell me what kind of divine weapon the book is."

Hexagon Starfish thought for a moment. I don't know! It feels very powerful but you can't control it.

Han Fei snorted and thought to himself, Hmmm, I'll be able to control it sooner or later.

Han Fei remembered the Mirror of Icy Salt in Forge the Universe. It was also a divine weapon. Although it was only a low-quality divine weapon, it almost possessed an invincible power and could be said to be one of his trump cards.

And this book seemed to be a complete divine weapon. He hadn't had a chance to open it before he was almost bewitched by it. If he guessed right, it was way more powerful than the Mirror of Icy Salt!

Han Fei's pupils constricted. This book seemed more dangerous than he thought. Just holding it hurt him. It seemed that it might not be easy for him to use it.

"Haha, I tried so hard to saw down the tree and dig out the spiritual stones. How can I just let you take them away so easily?"

Suddenly, Han Fei stopped laughing and asked Nine Tails to terminate its attachment.

Two hours later, the Big Red Trunk was sawn down by another 500 meters or so by Han Fei and he collected nearly 30 spiritual stones from it. Among them, there were 3 high-quality spiritual stones, 6 mid-quality stones, and 19 low-quality stones with only 1.7 million points of spiritual energy.

Han Fei was taken back. "F*ck, the higher up we look, the fewer spiritual stones there are?"

Han Fei looked at this section of the trunk, then looked at Forge the Universe, and found that the space had only a 150 meter radius, and he was a little anxious.

Han Fei panicked. The expansion of Forge the Universe took time. Different from a Sea Swallowing Seashell, the area of a Sea Swallowing Seashell was counted by volume, while Forge the Universe was by its radius.

For example, a radius of 150 meters was the area within a radius of 150 meters with a certain point as the center.

In terms of volume, Forge the Universe was much bigger than a Sea Swallowing Seashell. But it was far from enough for containing this Big Red Trunk. Even though he could control the spatial layout of Forge the Universe at will, it was still not enough.

Hexagon Starfish didn't saw the tree as fast as Nine Tails, so he had already been kicked aside by Han Fei.

Han Fei snorted. "No, thanks."

Hexagon Starfish's big eyes kept rolling and he ran out in a hurry. After a while, he came back and said meaningfully, The tree is nearly 1,500 meters high. Even my doors can't contain it, not to mention your Sea Swallowing Seashells. Are you sure you don't need my help?

"OK!"

Han Fei breathed a sigh of relief. He was afraid that this Big Red Trunk was several thousand meters high or something. Then Forge the Universe really couldn't contain it and six hours would definitely not be enough.

However, if it was only 1500 meters high, it wouldn't be a problem.

"Huh?"

Suddenly, Han Fei felt a slight tremor on the ground.

Han Fei's face changed slightly. "Master Hexagon, go outside and set up a sealing formation, yes, the one you set up in the land of starfish. No matter what, help me hold on for two more hours."

Han Fei shouted angrily, "That's why... I need you to help me!"

With that, Han Fei threw out a high-quality spiritual stone and said, "If you hold it out, I will give you another high-quality spiritual stone. If you fail, I will crush your essence blood right in front of your eyes!"

Why did Yang Ruoyun tell him that there were only six hours left? She must know that he would take away the tree, so she told him that.

But in fact, this woman was not trustworthy at all. She said six hours, but was that true?

Han Fei estimated that he still needed at least two hours to stuff the Big Red Trunk into Forge the Universe, so he asked Master Hexagon to set up a sealing formation.

No!

Hexagon Starfish absolutely didn't believe that they were stuffed into Sea Swallowing Seashells. It was a space even larger than the space inside his doors but how could Han Fei have such a large space?

At this moment, Han Fei looked solemn. He had heard the cracking sound of the seal outside several times, which might break soon. He wondered if the sealing formation of Master Hexagon could block the creatures outside for some time.

Han Fei overestimated the arithmetic ability of Master Hexagon. The last piece of the damn tree was nearly 700 meters long. In other words, this Big Red Trunk was nearly 1,700 meters high, which was not 1,500 meters as said by Master Hexagon.

"Damn it, I must find a math teacher for Master Hexagon in the future."

The expansion speed of Forge the Universe was not satisfactory. So far, it had only expanded by a radius of fewer than 250 meters. Considering the luxuriant branches and leaves of the Big Red Trunk, it could still contain a piece of trunk 500 meters long at most.

Han Fei looked at the remaining section of the trunk, which was nearly 700 meters long, and said nervously, "Master Hexagon, can your sealing formation hold out?"

Han Fei glared at Hexagon Starfish. I've given you so much spiritual energy! You greedy starfish!

The six big eyes of Hexagon Starfish rolled and his tentacles were twitching. How he wanted to slap Han Fei to death! He thought to himself, Do you remember how much spiritual energy I gave to you when I first met you? And now you only gave me so little spiritual energy and still demanded me to set up a sealing formation!

Hexagon Starfish simply said, It takes spiritual energy to set up a sealing formation. You know that! I've already spent 200,000 points of the spiritual energy of my own on the formation.

Han Fei was so angry that he almost laughed. Are you f*cking kidding me? You shameless starfish! Do you think I'm stupid?

Han Fei vaguely remembered that when he blackmailed this starfish at that time, he only took 50,000 points, or at most 100,000 points.

But now when this starfish blackmailed him, this damn fish threatened to strike if he didn't give him an extra-quality spiritual stone!

However, Han Fei had no choice now. He had no one else to turn to for help! He reluctantly threw an extra-quality spiritual stone to the starfish. "Hold out... Remember to leave a way for us to escape in case we're surrounded by the creatures rushing in."

Han Fei grunted. "Don't play tricks on me. If so, I will crush your essence blood, and then I can still escape with flash stones."

Hexagon Starfish was growing tired of the threats... Human, when can you return my essence blood to me?

Han Fei hummed. "When I leave the level-three fishery, I will return your essence blood to you. Therefore, our time working together will be quite a while still! At least one year perhaps."

Hexagon Starfish took the extra-quality spiritual stone. Keep your promise. Han Fei nodded. "I mean what I say! Hurry up."

If it were Yang Ruoyun, how could he solve her with an extra-quality spiritual stone?! She would even pack him up and take away...

One hour later.

Hexagon Starfish bumped Han Fei's shoulder and urged, Have you finished yet? Hurry up! They're coming

BAM!

BAM!

Hexagon Starfish said quickly, If we don't leave now, we won't be able to leave!

After a while, with a loud bang, Han Fei lay on the trunk. Five minutes later, the tree trunk was finally stuffed into Forge the Universe.

Now Han Fei finally took away the entire Big Red Trunk

Come on! There is only the last layer!

But when Han Fei and Hexagon Starfish ran halfway through, the seal broke apart.

Han Fei saw giant snakes tens of meters in length, huge crabs tens of meters long, and big fishes with fangs and barbs all over their bodies, as well as piles of Mess Swallowing Worms, Marching Sea Leeches, Dead Leaf Starfish, Butterfly Star Worms, Green Red Snakes, and Anti-Heaven Blades. All of which were densely-packed and completely beyond numbers.

Han Fei swallowed. God only knows where these creatures came from!

Along the way, the ordinary Big Red Trunks that Han Fei saw had already been eaten bald by these creatures. Pieces of Big Red Trunks were cut down and no red leaf could be seen on the ground.

OK...

Han Fei felt the Hexagon Starfish under his hips spin quickly and his speed suddenly soared. "Hey, hey... Don't throw me off!" Hexagon Starfish pleaded, Throw some spiritual energy out! Otherwise, they will soon catch up with us.

W me

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Almost every 100 meters, Han Fei would throw a piece out. While throwing the stones away, Han Fei asked, "Why did these creatures suddenly appear here? Is it because the Big Red Trunk is gone?"

Hexagon Starfish answered, I don't know! But that place is special. Even if the big tree is gone, there seem to be other unknown secrets. You didn't go to the top... Han Fei was surprised, "What's on the top?"

Since the top didn't lead to the sea surface, what was there?

After thinking about it for a long while, Han Fei felt that it was a waste of time. Now he was too weak to ascertain these things, so why bother?

Suddenly, Han Fei laughed.

Yang Ruoyun would never have thought that he could take away such a big tree. After all, he was only an intermediate Dangling Fisher.

After a moment.

Han Fei looked back, only to see that the Big Red Trunk forest had been flooded with endless creatures. If he was strong enough to stay there and let those creatures kill each other, he would get a huge amount of spiritual energy.

But he couldn't. If he dared to stay there for more than five minutes, he would have been overwhelmed by the endless creatures until no bones were left.

The starfishes here were all gone. Han Fei thought they probably also ran to the Big Red Trunk forest. It seemed that there were still secrets there but they had nothing to do with him now.

Han Fei jumped off the back of Hexagon Starfish. "I'm going to stay alone for cultivation. How about you?"

Hexagon Starfish's big eyes looked at Han Fei. Well, I feel I've consumed a lot of spiritual energy. Can you...

Han Fei stared at him. "No way. Don't even think about it. I can set up a spirit gathering formation for you and you can suck up spiritual energy yourself."

Hexagon Starfish was speechless and thought to himself, Who is the stingiest? It is said that I, Hexagon Starfish, am greedy for treasures, but this b*stard is even greedier than me! He has just got such a huge Big Red Trunk and countless spiritual stones. Why can't he spare some for me? I helped him a lot just now, didn't I?!

In fact, Han Fei didn't care whether Hexagon Starfish would run or not. Anyway, he now had countless spiritual stones and there were too many things for him to do.

Those things that he wanted to do but couldn't, due to his lack of spiritual stones, could all be done now.

His spiritual heritage was damaged but he didn't have enough spiritual energy to repair it, but now he had enough spiritual energy.

The fourth layer of True Spirit Fishing Art that had not been deduced so far could be deduced now.

Chapter 369 A Shocking Secret about the Fish Avatar Technique

In Forge the Universe.

At this moment, Han Fei was repairing his damaged spiritual heritage. So far, 2 million points of spiritual energy had been consumed, but he only felt that half of his spiritual heritage was repaired.

Han Fei was startled. It seems that he should protect his spiritual heritage well. Otherwise, once his spiritual heritage was damaged, he would have to spend a lot of spiritual energy to repair it.

Half a day later, Han Fei opened his eyes and a series of data showed.

<Owner> Han Fei

<Spiritual Beast> Twin Yin-Yang Spirit Swallowing Fish (Level 29)

<Weapon> Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers

<Main Art> Water Vein Technique, Volume Three of Void Fishing (Spirit-Level, Divine-Quality)

“Haha, I’m finally back to my peak!”

“Huh? Little Black and Little White are both Level 29?”

Han Fei was not surprised by the increase in his upper limit of spiritual energy. After several high-intensity battles, he certainly would level up!

However, Little Black and Little White reached level 29, which shocked him. He knew how difficult it was for these two little guys to upgrade! If it hadn’t been for the luck that he had been to the Soul Ocean once, the two little guys might not have reached level 25 at the moment.

Han Fei summoned them.

“Huh? What happened?”

“Little Black? Little White?”

He immediately came out of Forge the Universe and tried to summon them again, but it still didn’t work. Little Black and Little White seemed to have disappeared.

Is it because of those Red Balls?

Han Fei frowned. This was definitely not a good thing. People became fish after eating it. Then what would happen if fish ate it?

Hexagon Starfish was lying in the middle of the spirit gathering formation, absorbing spiritual energy, and was surrounded with enriched spiritual energy. There was a circle of dazzling gems placed around him.

Han Fei recognized at a glance that there were gold, purple gold, diamonds, lapis lazuli, blue corundum... And some other unnamed stones. The quality of these gems looked so extraordinary that they could even be used to make a spiritual weapon.

Seeing Han Fei coming, Hexagon Starfish quickly put away all the dazzling stones around him and looked at Han Fei vigilantly with his six big eyes. Human, aren't you cultivating?

Han Fei didn't have the time to talk with him about his treasures now, and he quickly asked, "Tell me what the exact effect of the Red Balls are? I mean those things that can make people turn into fish. You've eaten one too, right?"

Hexagon Starfish's eyes stopped rolling and he said with some doubt, Nothing special! It seems to have made me grow faster.

Han Fei's eyes narrowed. "Is that all? Are there any side effects?"

Han Fei asked anxiously, "Yes is yes and no is no. What do you mean by 'seems not'? You've eaten it haven't you?"

Hexagon Starfish's eyes rolled. It seems that there is a little bit of side effect. The last time I ate it, I slept for several days. However, when I woke up, I felt very comfortable and my mind became clearer. Han Fei was relieved to hear that. So that explains it! It's OK if Little Black and Little White sleep for a few days.

Now Han Fei had the mood to make a joke on the starfish. "When did you starfish get a brain?"

Hexagon Starfish was very unhappy to hear his words. Ordinary starfish may not have a brain, but I do. I not only have a brain, but also have bones.

Han Fei scoffed. "Then where is your brain?"

Hexagon Starfish's six big eyes kept rolling. In my eyes.

Han Fei was speechless. No wonder this guy liked to roll his big eyes so much. It turned out that every time he rolled his eyes, he was thinking!

Han Fei almost burst into laughter. This guy is still stupid. Now I know your brain is in your eyes. Then next time you roll your eyes, I'll know you are thinking... Han Fei waved his hand. "Go ahead and do your thing. I'm going to cultivate." After entering Forge the Universe again, Han Fei was much more relaxed. He guessed that Little Black and Little White must have eaten too many Red Balls and needed to sleep for a few days.

Han Fei, who had no burden, was so relaxed that he couldn't help laughing.

He really wanted to see Yang Ruoyun's expression when she found out what happened with the Big Red Trunk... You may not be able to take away the Big Red Trunk but I can!

Three days later.

So far, Forge the Universe had expanded to a radius of nearly 1,000 meters after consuming nearly 15 million points of spiritual energy. However, Han Fei didn't care. This space was enough to contain the complete Big Red Trunk! He wouldn't have to worry about a lack of space for a long time to come.

Sure enough, as he expected, most spiritual stones were concentrated in the lower part of the trunk, especially the roots.

After cutting the tree open, he had found 62 extra-quality spiritual stones, 192 high-quality stones, 1,026 mid-quality stones and 4,102 low-quality stones.

When Han Fei sorted out all the spiritual stones, he looked at the four piles of spiritual stones for a long time and could not speak for a long time.

Yang Ruoyun would vomit blood in regret if she knew that he had obtained so many spiritual stones.

It was more than 270 million points of spiritual energy! Even though he had expanded Forge the Universe to a radius of 1,000 meters, he still had 250 million points of spiritual energy left.

Han Fei didn't even bother to calculate the fraction. Anyway, he knew that for a long time to come, he wouldn't have to worry about a lack of spiritual energy.

After doing this, the first thing he did was not deduce the True Spirit Fishing Art, nor build a ship, but he made knives. Since the last time his long knife shattered, he couldn't use the Drawing

The Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers could be used in the Million Knife Art. With the Saber Manipulation Art, he could easily take the upper hand in the face of group attacks or when he was outnumbered.

However, when facing a small number of enemies, the effect of the Million Knife Art decreased greatly. After all, manipulating so many daggers to attack simultaneously would be much less powerful.

At this moment, the two dark crystal axes were placed in front of him, which were Yang Deyu's spiritual weapons.

Therefore, this pair of axes was actually a rare pair of high-quality spiritual weapons. At least, Han Fei had no weapon more powerful than this pair of axes except for the Water Dividing Seal and the Mirror of Icy Salt.

Han Fei remembered that Yang Deyu's spiritual beast seemed to also be a scorpion. That guy was not a good person, so Han Fei didn't feel guilty at all for using his spiritual weapons.

The pair of axes were thrown in by him, followed by a large piece of Big Red Trunk core. Han Fei pondered for a while to make the perfect combination. Weapons were valued for their quality, not their number, so he gritted his teeth and threw in the swords of Mo Feiyan and Sun Mu.

Three high-quality spiritual weapons plus the core of the Big Red Trunk, and Han Fei even wanted to throw the two stones in Forge the Universe in.

If he refined a divine weapon that he couldn't touch, it would be over! The materials would all be wasted.

"Refine."

But the knife that Han Fei conceived this time was not a long knife.

The Drawing needed something to nourish the knife, either with spiritual energy or with his essence and blood. But now that he had no shortage of spiritual energy, he could always use the Drawing.

This kind of combat technique with great lethality could catch his enemy off guard and kill them.

A long knife was powerful but was too long and easy to break. Moreover, a sudden change of weapon during a battle was very easy to notice.

So this time, what Han Fei conceived was a kitchen knife.

In fact, Han Fei had already had this idea early on. Compared with a long knife, a kitchen knife is short and very easy to use, and its instantaneous explosive power was more than several times that of a long knife.

Of course, the shortcoming of a kitchen knife was also obvious... It was too short.

He once heard someone say that, "The shorter, the more dangerous; the longer, the stronger," to which Han Fei disagreed. For cultivators, if the opponent suddenly pulled out a kitchen knife in a fight, most cultivators would be caught off guard.

Of course, Han Fei would refine more than one knife. The kitchen knife would be his last resort. Besides that, he would also make a long knife.

After nearly half an hour, a kitchen knife floated in the air. With the length of one foot and three inches, it was pitch black and had a barbed shiny blade.

A string of data appeared in his eyes.

<Name> None <Introduction> It is made from Demonic Dark Crystal, Silvery Gold, Taibai Leech Iron, Core of Aeon Big Red Trunk, Bark of Aeon Big Red Trunk, and Shining Pattern Shell... It can cut all the hardest things in the world. Once a demonic spirit is sealed in it, it can become a divine weapon.

<Quality> Extra-quality Spiritual Weapon

<Recastable>

<Unrefined>

Note: It is made by smelting and recasting multiple high-grade spiritual weapons and a spirit shall be sealed in it to present its perfect form.

"Haha!"

Han Fei laughed stupidly, reached out his hand to take the knife, and looked at it up and down. The handle seemed to be smelted with a lot of things and the blade was mainly made of dark crystals. There was no variegated color throughout the body and it looked simply perfect.

“Oh, so you like drinking blood? OK, then I will call you Blood Drinking.”

It was a pity that this knife hadn't had a spirit sealed in it and had no spirituality yet.

Otherwise, he would definitely mock Han Fei. What kind of lame name did you give to me? There are so many knives called Blood Drinking in this world! What a rustic name!

“Haha, great!”

Han Fei smirked while playing with the kitchen knife and suddenly remembered Xia Xiaochan. He couldn't help but imagine what if Xia Xiaochan held this kitchen knife and stabbed him. Then he would surely be stabbed through easily!

“Alas, I've gotta find the treasure left by Ren Tianfei as quickly as possible. Otherwise, when can I succeed in practicing the Indestructible Body Art?”

With this in mind, Han Fei thought that he should deduce the True Spirit Fishing Technique now.

Only by deducing the True Spirit Fishing Technique could lightning be attracted; only with lightning could his body be tempered well; only when his body was tempered could he break through the present barrier in practicing his Indestructible Body!

Of course, Han Fei was still at the bottom of the sea, so he wouldn't deduct it now. How was it possible for lightning to strike through kilometers of sea and reach the seabed? Besides, as Yang Ruoyun said, in the space inside the seaweed city wall, the seabed and the sea surface were actually not connected to each other...

“Forget it. I'll deduce it later.”

Now that the knife was made, Han Fei was not in a hurry to deduce the True Spirit Fishing Technique nor build a ship. Although, in Forge the Universe, the Big Red Trunk occupied most of the space.

Han Fei turned his eyes to the Fish Avatar Technique. Yang Ruoyun's success in transforming into a fish really shocked him.

Han Fei never believed that in the towns under the Thousand Star City, there might be a person who really could turn a fish. Even Old Bai was terrified when he heard of the Fish Avatar Technique, let alone Yang Ruoyun, who was only a few years older than

Seeing that the deduction would cost 1 million points of spiritual energy, Han Fei did not even blink.

“Deduce.”

<Existing Combat Skill> Fish Avatar Technique (Mystic-Level Extra-Quality)

<Introduction> A semi-finished avatar-type combat skill, combined with thousands of years of previous research experience, only for reference.

<Deduction Result> Unknown

<Note> The direction of the deduction is unknown, so is the result of the deduction. Please be cautious.

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. As he expected, even if he consumed one million points of spiritual energy to deduce it, it would only be upgraded from mystic level, mid-quality to mystic-level, extra-quality. And even the content of the information had only changed a few words.

Unlike other combat techniques, the Fish Avatar Technique was a very profound subject with a lot of examples for reference. Even if he kept deducing it all the way down, he didn't know what he would get in the end.

His expression was a little weird. There were as many as 9 successful examples in the book. In one of the most successful cases, the person actually began to practice the Fish Avatar Technique when he was still in his mother's womb.

In the end, the mother died but the fetus was successfully born as a fish. This was the only human being born as a rare creature that Han Fei had seen so far. But Han Fei was not sure whether this child was still a human being. If he was a human being, then why was he born as a fish? But if he was a fish, the book said that the kid eventually became a very intelligent fish, able to read human language and receive any instructions from humans.

But in the end, the child died in an adventure in the sea. Since then, there has never been a second child like this.

Other experiments were largely identical but with minor differences. All the sacrifices just made up for the shortcomings of this technique.

On the third day, Han Fei deduced the book again.

This time, Han Fei was overjoyed, and his predecessors seemed to have worked out a way.

<Existing Combat Skill> Fish Avatar Technique (Spiritual-Level Mid-Quality)

<Introduction> A semi-finished avatar-type combat skill, successfully transforming people into fish, with a survival rate of up to 50%, which is a major advance in the history of avatar development.

<Deduction Result> Unknown

<Note> The direction of the deduction is unknown, so is the result of the deduction. Please be cautious.

He finally finished reading the book. This time, the conception of the Fish Avatar Technique was too wild.

Someone proposed now that fish also possessed meridians, flesh and blood, bones, and internal organs, to transform a human being into a fish, one just needed to mutate his meridians, flesh and blood, bones, and viscera.

Because of this conjecture, the focus of the Fish Avatar Technique had become the mutation of human beings. The point was that this idea succeeded. There was a time in history when many people took the initiative to conduct experiments.

Of course, this conjecture still had big flaws. That was, there were tens of thousands of kinds of creatures in the ocean, not only fish, but also crabs, starfish, conch, lobster, octopus, squid... And so on, but humans could only become fish.

Besides, the fish that humans turned into was not exactly like fish, but a bit like monsters that were half-human and half-fish. Therefore, some people call these human beings demons, sea demons.

Later, due to the ban on the research of the Fish Avatar Technique by the floating islands, the development of the technique plummeted. At the same time, the major cities ordered the slaughter of all the demons, causing the sea demons to be almost extinct.

“Wow!”

Han Fei vaguely felt that he had discovered some shocking secret. Yang Ruoyun became a sea demon! But she could not only become a fish, but also could change back into a human? Did it mean that this Fish Avatar Technique had actually been further developed?

Han Fei was shocked. So, the first sea demon was actually a human? Therefore, in theory, the so-called demon was actually a human being. The only difference was that under the conditions of the time, those sea demons had no ability to transform back into human beings.

All right.

After Han Fei saw that the next deduction would cost 10 million points of spiritual energy, he gritted his teeth. He has already gotten this far... How could he give up?

Immediately, he chose to continue the deduction. It seemed that there was a shocking secret hidden in the book.

“Deduce.”

<Existing Combat Skill> Fish Avatar Technique (Demonic-level Low-Quality)

<Introduction> A semi-finished avatar-type combat skill, successfully transforming people into fish, with a survival rate of up to 80%. Some humans have transformed into demons.

<Deduction Result> Unknown

<Notes > The current deduction limit of the Demon Purification Pot has been reached. Deduction again will involve the ultimate myth of the world and damage the Demon Purification Pot.

“Gosh...”

When Han Fei read the part about some humans having success in transforming into demons, he knew that something terrifying must have happened.

And when he saw the notes, he was stunned.

“Deduction limit? Any further deduction will involve the ultimate myth of the world? Damn, isn’t the Demon Purification Pot omnipotent? How can it be damaged? It’s been deduced to this point, but you tell me that I can’t continue to deduce it?”

Chapter 370 Wind God Boat, Yin-Yang Wheel

Han Fei was speechless. I have spent nearly 20 million points of spiritual energy and am ready to complete the Fish Avatar Technique so as to switch between the form of a fish and a human at any time...

But you f*cking tell me that I can’t deduce it any further?! Then didn’t I spend the nearly 20 million points of spiritual energy in vain?

Han Fei’s face was all dark, but he began to calm down and study the newly deduced Fish Avatar Technique.

Two days later.

Han Fei felt that this technique was still not perfect because it still couldn’t turn people into a certain kind of fish, but rather into a brand new species.

It was totally incomparable with the seventy-two metamorphoses of Monkey King, let alone turning people into creatures such as a crab or octopus. Besides, once a human was transformed into a fish, the result was irreversible, which meant that he would become a fish forever.

Han Fei certainly would not practice such a technique. From the very beginning, he just wanted to make it easier for him to hunt for treasures and explore the sea! However, the initial investment had completely exceeded his expectations.

In addition to the practicing method, the book also told him that there was a peerless genius who instigated countless people to practice the "Fish Avatar Technique" and even founded a sect called "Deism".

Many ordinary fishers and fishing masters were greatly encouraged by the religion, thinking that humans were the real masters of the ocean and calling on everyone to return to the ocean, which was their homeland.

After that, the Fish Avatar Technique caused great turbulence. It was said that countless strong masters began to make moves to punish the sea demons. But among the sea demons, a small number of strong people absconded.

Since then, all the cities had issued an order that anyone mentioning the Fish Avatar Technique should be killed and if anyone dared to practice the Fish Avatar Technique, their whole family would be killed. Over time, this story seemed to be forgotten and no one mentioned it again.

Learning such an astonishing secret from the fragments of a mortal-level Fish Avatar Technique, Han Fei could only keep it in his heart. Only now did he know why Old Bai warned him that the Fish Avatar Technique was taboo.

But Han Fei's heart was unsettled. There must be follow-up development, but he only roughly learned what happened at the early stage! Was it teasing him?!

However, he had no choice but to throw the book aside.

Han Fei was not in a hurry to go out. Although he couldn't learn the long-awaited Fish Avatar Technique, he could refine the fishing boat.

Originally, Han Fei thought that he would just go to the Sea Grassland to dig up an ordinary Big Red Trunk as the old man on the dragon boat taught him. And then, he would go get some auxiliary objects such as Fish Crystals.

But now, he had got this Big Red Trunk that was comparable to a spiritual weapon. What else did he need to find? Besides, he had collected a lot of Sea Swallowing Seashells, in which there were all kinds of weapons. Even the worst ones were high-quality magic weapons. There were also dozens of low-quality spiritual weapons and a pile of various minerals.

Although these things couldn't be the main components of the fishing boat, they were more than enough to serve as surface decorations, such as windbreaks, lower decks, hanging stone buckle covers, and some color matching, convex streamlines of the hull, and power unloading devices.

Han Fei licked his lips and said to the small calabash in his hand, "Although I have much spiritual energy now, there is still a long way to go. Eat less! A boat won't need much spiritual energy, right?"

SU

Han Fei was overjoyed. He was afraid that something as big as a fishing boat could not be refined in the pot and had to be carved by hand... But the Demon Purification Pot gave him a surprise. It seemed that as long as there was enough spiritual energy, it could refine anything.

Then, Han Fei threw a large number of weapons, stones, and four Floating Stones into the pot.

In his mind, Han Fei simulated a cool small yacht. Unlike normal yachts, however, the fishing boat refined by Han Fei was made for speed, so it adopted a streamlined design. The ship presented a smooth curve and even the sun deck on the front side was removed. There was only a fish hold behind the cabin and the cover of the fish hold was designed as the aft deck.

The whole fishing boat was shaped like an awl. Its appearance resembles a supercar. Because Han Fei also added the unloading streamline in the bow part, it resembled two car headlights.

“Yes.”

Following Han Fei’s thoughts, a large amount of spiritual energy swarmed from the pile of spiritual stones and poured into the Demon Purification Pot. “Hey, hey! Absorb less spiritual energy, less! Please!”

Han Fei felt his heart was aching when he saw that the demon refining pot started to absorb spiritual energy from the pile of spiritual stones, so he immediately moved all the extra-quality, high-quality, and mid-quality spiritual stones hundreds of meters away, leaving only the low-quality ones.

However, there was not much spiritual energy in the low-quality spiritual stones! Each one only contained no more than 10,000 points of spiritual energy. Crack... Crack... Crack...

Han Fei’s eyes widened. Almost every minute, five or six low-quality spiritual stones crumbled into powder.

Every time the cracking sound was heard, Han Fei’s eyelids trembled. This rhythm lasted for a full hour before the crumbling speed of the low-quality spiritual stones slowed down. Even so, two or three pieces would crumble every minute.

However, the low-quality spiritual stones were still shattering. The refining didn’t stop until the 1,086th piece was broken and Han Fei’s heart almost bled.

“Gosh...”

<Name> None

<Introduction>It is made of Aeon Big Red Trunk, Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Bone, Floating Stone, Red Blood Silver, and Silver Stone... It is extremely fast and can travel 60,000 miles a day. The hull can hold the damage of mid-quality spiritual weapons. Due to limited materials, its speed can be increased after sealing a spirit into it.

<Quality> Mid-Quality Spiritual Weapon

<Recastable>

<Unrefined>

Han Fei was a bit disappointed. "What? A spiritual weapon-level fishing boat that cost me more than 10 million points of spiritual energy could only travel 60,000 miles a day?"

Smack!

Han Fei patted on the fishing boat and drew a long face. Is it because the design method is wrong? Even Ghost Speed Divine Boats can travel 50,000 miles a day! But my fishing ship is made of extra-quality materials!

The more Han Fei thought about it, the angrier he got. He immediately refined a small carving knife and was about to draw formations on the boat.

According to the records in the "Spirit Gathering Scripture", the speed formations were divided into as many as 12 kinds such as the Water Travel Formation, Wind Travel Formation, Wind Chasing Formation, and Tidal Formation. Their purpose was to use the power of nature to increase the speed of something and they were not difficult to set up.

But even if they were not difficult to draw, it was still very troublesome to interlock different formations and cover the entire hull.

If he was about to draw a spirit gathering formation, he didn't even need to think about it. However, speed formations were different. One formation might cause changes in wind speed and airflow, so when the two formations were superimposed, the airflow might change. Once it changed, it might have the opposite effect and reduce the speed of the ship itself.

"Well, be it so! I'll draw some speed formations on it later."

Han Fei patted the fishing boat hard. "Wind God Boat, I will definitely make you a real Wind God Boat. By then, you will be the fastest fishing boat in the level-three fishery."

Giving up carving formations on the boat, Han Fei jumped out of Forge the Universe with a swish.

When he came to Hexagon Starfish again, Hexagon Starfish was covered with thousands of starfish. Among them, there were even a few exotic starfish.

Han Fei sighed. "Master Hexagon, why do you think I would want this junk?"

Hexagon Starfish was surprised. Have you finished cultivating? Han Fei nodded. "Yes... Okay, don't absorb spiritual energy anymore. The spiritual energy in your body is almost overflowing! Let's go. It's time to leave."

The level-three fishery was too big! He had spent two months in the Sea Grassland alone!

At this moment, Han Fei's strength had returned to its peak and he urgently needed to find an uninhabited sea to deduce the True Spirit Fishing Technique.

However, Hexagon Starfish's eyes rolled. Can you wait for me for a few days? Han Fei asked, "How come? You haven't absorbed enough spiritual energy yet? Leave some for other starfish. Besides, the news that the Big Red Trunk is gone will be spread sooner or later. There will be many people here soon. If you stay here for two more days, I bet you will be caught and become someone's contractual spiritual beast!"

Hexagon Starfish's eyes rolled. I'm going to make a breakthrough, just a few days away.

Han Fei was shocked. "You are going to have a breakthrough again? You only reached level 40 in more than 300 years, but how many times have you had a breakthrough in the past two years?"

That's not the same. The spiritual energy in the village is too little and I also ate the red fruit. Unfortunately, I can only eat one. Unlike your spiritual beasts, they can eat several.

"Shoot..."

During this period of time, he concentrated on studying the Fish Avatar Technique and forgot about summoning Little Black and Little White.

"Huh?"

Unlike before, this time, Little Black and Little White drew two black and white rays in the water and made a half arc in the water before they landed beside Han Fei.

“Huh?”

Han Fei gave a cry of surprise. He found that Little Black and Little White had changed.

First of all, the two little guys were now more crystal clear, and there were two more barbels growing near their mouths, which were as long as their bodies.

In addition to the barbels, Little White’s body was exuding a faint halo of holiness all the time as if being covered with a light milky white brilliance. It looked breathtakingly beautiful.

Different from Little White, Little Black looked even fiercer, especially his eyes. Before, Little Black was black, but the whites of his eyes were still white and his eyeballs were round.

But now the whites of Little Black’s eyes turned blood red and his eyeballs became slivered like cat’s eyes... No, to be precise, they looked like wolf eyes. Although Han Fei was his master, he was scared when he saw Little Black’s eyes.

Spiritual Beast

<Name> Twin Yin-Yang Spirit Swallowing Fish

<Introduction> They’re the descendants of the mysterious primitive Yin-Yang Sky-Swallowing Fish. The black and white fish accompany each other. The white fish is docile, whereas the black one is cruel. They are symbiotic. As long as one lives, the other won’t die.

<Level> 30

<Quality> Mysterious

<Stored Spiritual Energy> 100,000 points <Food> Omnivorous. They can swallow everything

<Combat Skills> Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel (5,000 points of spiritual energy is consumed every second)

<Note> The black fish is invisible. Except for the owner, only people with born Yin-Yang Divine Eyes can see it. When the two fish are combined, their combat power soars and is comparable to that of a divine weapon.

Gulp...

Han Fei swallowed.

“Comparable to a divine weapon?” These words stunned Han Fei and he gaped. “Wow... Now they’ve got a combined combat skill?”

Since Master Hexagon said he wanted to stay for a few days, they would just stay here for a few days! He needed to study carefully the changes of Little Black and Little White.

However, Han Fei immediately looked at Hexagon Starfish and said, "Master Hexagon, may I ask you a question? Did you have any changes in your abilities after breaking through level 30?"

Hexagon Starfish said, rolling his eyes. No, nothing has changed! "Think it over."

Hexagon Starfish pondered for a moment. It seems that before level 30, my spiritual consciousness was not high. I was still young at that time.

Han Fei asked with a dark face, "And?"

Hexagon Starfish's eyes rolled again. Oh! I seemed to have got a kind of inheritance from nowhere, and after that, I learned to set up formations.

"Wow..."

Han Fei was shocked. "Didn't you learn setting up formations from a certain formation book you got from a treasure hunt?"

Hexagon Starfish mumbled. Of course not! Who would look for that kind of thing? Books aren't shiny. The knowledge about formations just popped up in my head out of the blue!

Han Fei was surprised. A strange inheritance?

When Hexagon Starfish reached level 30, he got a strange inheritance. And at the moment, Little Black and Little White seemed to have encountered the same situation who seemed to have inherited some kind of inheritance too.

With that, Han Fei said to Hexagon Starfish, "Master Hexagon, You can stay here to make a breakthrough, but be quick. Don't delay too much! There are still a lot of treasures waiting for us to dig up."

Hundreds of miles away.

Han Fei stroked Little Black's head. "Little Black! Have you gotten any new abilities? Show them to me." Little Black looked at Han Fei blankly and suddenly opened his mouth.

"F*ck..."

He saw that the teeth in Little Black's mouth became exceptionally sharp like a row of steel teeth. Besides, in his mouth, there seemed to be a small rotating black hole.

Han Fei swallowed. "Open your mouth again..."

This time, when Little Black opened his mouth Han Fei was still a bit horrified. The teeth were sharp and there was a faint red light on the teeth as if bloodstains were flowing between the teeth. Han Fei hurriedly said, "Close it. Close it... Can you get bigger?"

Little Black's body began to grow gradually and didn't stop until his body became 8 meters long.

Han Fei secretly breathed a sigh of relief. Only 8 meters. That's acceptable. If he suddenly became a hundred meters long, he would be quite the big monster...

Han Fei turned to look at Little White. "Girl, do you have any new abilities?"

"F*ck, it's almost as fast as a small spirit gathering formation I set up!" "No, it's faster than a small spirit gathering formation, and it's actually as fast as the superimposition of three small spirit gathering formations."

At this time, Han Fei suddenly realized that Little Black and Little White were Spirit Swallowing Fish! Wasn't spirit swallowing the most fundamental ability of Spirit Swallowing Fish?

Okay! Now that this ability was finally fully manifested, they were just like a mobile spiritual energy pool! Just imagine, when he ran out of spiritual energy in combat, Little Black and Little White would be able to supply him with endless spiritual energy!

Of course, the spiritual energy they supplied might not be able to make up for his consumption, but he saw hope, a hope that was entirely possible.

Han Fei grinned. Sure enough, Little Black and Little White were the best. After all, neither Nine Tails nor Little Gold had demonstrated such outstanding abilities as Little Black and Little White yet.

Of course, Nine Tails and Little Gold were not bad. Nine Tails was an all-rounded creature, able to attack, defend, and dig holes. As for Little Gold, when he grew to full form, he could condense the power of heavenly thunder. Unfortunately, he could not do it yet.

Han Fei took out a section of the Big Red Trunk that was tens of meters away from Forge the Universe and said, "Little Black, Little White, use Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel to attack this tree."

With a thought from Han Fei, Little Black and Little White suddenly turned into two rays of lights one black and one white. When the two rays of lights met, a rotating Tai Chi Yin-Yang diagram appeared. Perhaps because the rotating speed was too fast, Han Fei could only see the black and white light flashing alternately. In the next moment, the Tai Chi Yin-Yang Wheel fell on the Big Red Trunk.

"Huh?"

Han Fei was dazed by the scene.

Although 5,000 points of spiritual energy was consumed every second, the speed was almost a hundred times faster than the soft saw. "Stop! Stop... Okay, alright..."
