Chapter 3679 The End of the War of the Era (1)

Buzz!

The void was trembling and collapsing, and the entire star river was like a collapsing house, producing cracking sounds.

Bang!

The two sides collided, entangled, and fought fiercely. The Divine Chains of Order, the light of laws, and the power of the Great Dao collided. The world was opening and closing, and the universe was collapsing...

Han Fei felt that the terrifying divine might that emerged from the broken arm was stronger than he had expected. In terms of strength, Hongjun's ominous body was even stronger than his.

He laughed out loud. "Han Fei, you have no idea what kind of power you are facing. Retreat now. I'll keep my word and won't touch your Chaotic Star Sea."

However, Han Fei sneered. "You're just borrowing strength, but I'm using my own strength. At the end of the path of invincibility, I'm least afraid of fighting. I can keep fighting until the end of time and the Sea of Stars collapses. Can you? How long can you be so strong?"

Hongjun roared, "Not only am I strong, but I can also kill you."

However, after only three hours of fierce fighting, Han Fei discovered that something was wrong. Hongjun's ominous body seemed to have gone a little crazy. The unknown arm was flashing with black light, and the originally dry and skinny arm gradually became full, while Hongjun's ominous body gradually became incorporeal.

Not only Han Fei, but even the Hongjun Ominous Body had discovered this.

Therefore, Hongjun's ominous body roared repeatedly and even tried to cut off his arm, but no matter what, he couldn't do it.

Instead, the ominous matter controlled by Hongjun's ominous body was all spraying out. His body inexplicably became broken, and his power seemed to be sucked by that arm.

"Ominous, you set me up..."

Hongjun's ominous body was roaring.

Han Fei was a little surprised and horrified.

He seemed to have guessed that there was definitely something wrong with this arm.

On the Path of No Return, the real ominous gave this arm to Hongjun's ominous body. Was he really not afraid that Hongjun would burn the bridge after crossing it and harm him?

Obviously, they were all old monsters who had lived for billions of years. Who didn't have a thousand thoughts? Hongjun's ominous body was too complacent, thinking that everything was in his plan and others would die on the path he set for them.

However, sometimes, not fighting was also a kind of fighting.

The more complacent, confident, and arrogant he was, the more he would end up as the saddest clown.

Why didn't the ominous use the power of this arm after being trapped in the Sea of Stars for many eras? Why did Hongjun's ominous body dare to use this power?

Hongjun's ominous body couldn't be a fool. He knew that there was something wrong with the arm, but he still used it. Obviously, the ominous had deceived him in some aspects. For example, driving this arm required a large amount of ominous matter, or for some other reason that he didn't know. But there must be a reason that made Hongjun's ominous body think that he could drive this arm.

Anyway, Hongjun's ominous body had been tricked. At this moment, he used this arm at the price of sacrificing himself.

However, whether there was anything wrong with Hongjun's ominous body or not, Han Fei had to take action now. He couldn't just watch the power of the arm continue to grow.

Just a severed arm was qualified to contend with an Immortal Level cultivator. How strong would the owner of this arm be?

Han Fei opened his palm, and five beams of divine light flew out, trying to imprison the void and seal the arm. The latter punched dozens of times in a row in the blink of an eye, breaking Han Fei's imprisonment.

Then, Han Fei discovered that his power to annihilate the Great Dao was ineffective against Hongjun's ominous body. Or rather, it was ineffective against that arm.

At this moment, Hongjun's ominous body seemed to be lost and he no longer spoke. What really attacked Han Fei had become that arm.

"Could it be the arm of a Daoless realm cultivator?"

Han Fei made a bold guess. To be able to annihilate the power of the Immortal and suppress him in strength, he had to be at least in the same realm as him.

But one arm was comparable to an Immortal. If his complete body was still there, would he still be an Immortal?

Unfortunately, Hongjun's ominous body had already fallen silent and seemed to have become the puppet of that arm.

"Who are you?"

Han Fei asked warily, wondering if the hand could respond.

Unfortunately, the hand extended five fingers and controlled Hongjun's ominous body to attack him, forcibly suppressing the Heavenly Dao here.

However, how could Han Fei let him have his way? He snorted coldly. "It doesn't matter if you don't tell me. Your strength is also limited. If you were strong enough to shake an Immortal, the Chaotic Star Sea and the Primordial Star Sea would have long become yours. Why would you wait until now? Let me see what you are."

Han Fei's body emitted infinite light, and he immediately clenched his fist and punched out. The sky collapsed and the earth collapsed. He wanted to fight this hand in close combat. Only in close combat could he dominate.

Boom, Boom, Boom ~

Knock, knock, knock!

This battle lasted for three days and destroyed more than 300 Star Rivers.

In the end, the arm couldn't hold on anymore. As Han Fei said, he could remain invincible. In terms of realm, he was stronger than Hongjun's ominous body. In terms of strength, he might be a little lacking in the early stages, but the more he fought, the braver he became.

Countless Origin Great Daos had been used by Han Fei and he took the chance to familiarize himself with them one by one. And this arm gradually seemed to become a sparring partner.
