It had been a thousand years since the ominous was sealed.

Now, it was called a new era, also known as the Origin Era, because there was no ominous in this world anymore, but the vast Sea of Stars had been destroyed in the end. Everything seemed to have returned to the beginning, when the world was first created and the myriad races hadn't risen.

The Chaotic Star Sea welcomed a long-lost peace. The population of the myriad races also entered an era of outbreak. Most of the strong masters above the Monarch level in the Chaotic Star Sea went to the Primordial Star Sea.

It couldn't be helped. It would take a long time for the endless creatures and opportunities in the vast Chaotic Star Sea to completely revive. And the war in the Primordial Star Sea was still ongoing. That was where the strong masters continued to grow.

In the Primordial Star Sea, wars were happening one after another, leaving behind many touching stories.

As for the Chaotic Star Sea, it was full of vitality. There were too many people who were too tired. Just like Senior Sister Shen Le, they needed to rest, relax, and enjoy this rare peace.

The curse of the dragon race had been removed and had returned to the Sea Realm. These guys began to eat meat every day until Han Fei personally stopped them. Otherwise, another mass extinction would have occurred.

The lineage of strange beasts had also recovered. It wasn't until now that Han Fei knew that the Emperor Sparrow grew so fast because this guy had swallowed the dragon body of the ancient divine dragon, an existence that could fight the ominous in the Chaotic Era.

Little Black and Little White were still swallowin star rivers, but their swallowing speed was getting faster and faster. Even so, it would take them about 8,000 years to become Sea Quelling Gods.

However, Han Fei was not in a hurry. They could just take time swallowing.

On this day.

In the Sea Realm, under the mysterious World Tree in the West Wilderness.

Han Fei, Xia Xiaochan, Ximen Linglan, Zhang Xuanyu, Yi Xiyan, Le Renkuang, Lin Zhi (Le Renkuang's wife), Luo Xiaobai, Han Chanyi, Zhang Panpan, the Hexagon Starfish... A large group of people were drinking around a big table.

Le Renkuang said, "I've summoned everyone today to congratulate Xiaobai for surpassing us, becoming a Sea Quelling God from a Great Monarch in one go. Come on, let's raise our glasses..."

"Congratulations, Xiaobai."

"Congratulations, Auntie Xiaobai."

"Sizzle~ Ah~"

Luo Xiaobai seemed to have a rare smile on her face. She couldn't make it to the ultimate battle against the ominous, but it wasn't a pity. If Han Fei didn't return, she would have to participate in the battle anyway, because the last of the seven Divine Realms, the World Tree, was in her hands.

She knew what everyone meant. Everyone felt that her feelings were fading, so they specially gathered at this moment to let her feel this friendship and warmth.

"Thank you!"

Zhang Xuanyu said, "Xiaobai! It's not that I want to criticize you, but you can actually try accepting a man, OK? Give yourself a wild romance."

Le Renkuang said, "I think so. Xiaobai, tell me what your standards are."

Luo Xiaobai glanced at the two of them casually and said reproachfully, "Get lost."

Xia Xiaochan also said, "I think they're right! Unfortunately, Xiaobai, you improved too fast and suddenly became a Sea Quelling God. Even if men are interested in you, I'm afraid not many people dare to pursue you. Xiaobai, why don't you go to the mortal world to gain experience?"

Luo Xiaobai glanced at Xia Xiaochan helplessly. "Why are you getting involved?"

Han Fei was thinking about what cultivation technique suitable for Luo Xiaobai. Before he said anything, Han Chanyi said, "How can others be worthy of Auntie Xiaobai? Only my father is worthy of her. Auntie Xiaobai, let's be a family! My father is very good at coaxing people. He will definitely make you happy every day."

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

Han Fei, Zhang Xuanyu, and Le Renkuang spewed out three mouthfuls of saliva in a row. Han Fei was embarrassed. "Hey, you darn girl, stop talking nonsense."

Han Chanyi said, "I'm not talking nonsense! You're so close and all of you already have a family. Do you want Aunt Xiaobai to die alone? Second Mother, don't you think so?"

Ximen Linglan was dumbfounded. Would the three of them be xenophobic?

However, she still said, "This kind of thing is consensual. When you have someone you like, you'll understand. However, being alone is really lonely."

Xia Xiaochan shrugged. "I don't mind anyway."

Luo Xiaobai looked at Han Fei calmly and then at Han Chanyi. "I'm going to the Primordial Star Sea in a few years. Yiyi, come with me then!"

"Huh? Why?"

Luo Xiaobai chuckled. "I heard that you haven't been in the mood to cultivate in the past thousand years. All day long, you take the Hexagon Starfish around to travel and play, claiming that you're gaining experiences in the mortal world. I think it's time for you to get down to cultivation."

Hearing this, the Hexagon Starfish, who was lying in the corner and enjoying the delicious roasted shrimp, rolled his six big eyes. "We aren't slacking off. Yiyi and I are really training in the mortal world. We're so miserable that sometimes we can't even eat our fill."

Han Chanyi nodded. "Yes!"

Han Fei said leisurely, "Yes! It's time to get down to cultivation. If I've guessed right, there is a peerless treasure comparable to the Demon Purification Pot hidden in the Primordial Star Sea, called the World Divine Mirror. If I can get this thing, tsk, tsk..."

In the past thousand years, Han Fei had gone to find the World Divine Mirror. Unfortunately, when he went to that opening in the Sea of Stars, he found that the barrier had disappeared. The World Divine Mirror didn't even leave any fragments and disappeared without a trace.
