Chapter 421

Is there such a show of love?

What did the shop assistant want to say? In the end, he had to stifle it.

"I'll go to the bathroom first. You wait for me."

When Su Xiaowan came out, she watched the shop assistants standing beside Feng Yan. Now she's really attracting bees and butterflies in front of her.

She went over and coughed.

The shop assistants looked at Su Xiaowan and immediately walked away.

They have seen too many people in this field. Generally, as long as they besiege their husbands, they will buy them if they can't keep their face.

But the man... Didn't move. He didn't even look them in the eye.

And now, as soon as she comes out, the man's eyes are eager to hang on her.

It's really... Showing love all the time.

Su Xiaowan looks at the shop assistants one by one and looks at her as if they have a grudge.

Thought, is not to buy a wedding dress?

Does this attitude become a little fast?

Just now I was flattering. Now I'm trying to eat her up. This is a big psychological gap.

She went over to hold Feng Yan and muttered, "people nowadays are too snobbish, don't you think so?"

"Well, it is."

The clerks almost vomited blood and died.

After su Xiaowan and them left, there were several men in the shop who were well-dressed. "You guys, you can pack up and leave."

what?

"It's an order from the top."

"Why?"

"Your service attitude is too bad."

Several shop assistants looked at each other. When did they give poor service?

Is it the one just now?

But they can't afford a wedding dress. How can they become rich people who can control their life and death?

When Su Xiaowan and Feng Yan came out, Feng Yan's forehead was covered with cold sweat.

"What's the matter with you? Not feeling well?" Su Xiaowan immediately noticed that something was wrong with Feng Yan, and she reached out and explored his forehead.

It's not hot.

"Isn't that medicine bad?"

"Nothing."

"It's all right, you look so bad!" Su Xiaowan looked at Feng Yan, "I'll take you to the hospital. I said, you can't take that medicine. Now it's OK. There's something wrong with it."

Su Xiaowan chattered all the way, because they were not familiar with the situation here, so they had to take a taxi.

While taking a taxi, the driver looked at the two people in the back seat.

The man is really ugly, the woman is beautiful, the skin is very white.

"Your boyfriend?"

"He's my husband!"

"Your husband must have burned Gao Xiang in his last life and married your wife who looks like flowers and jade!"

Su Xiaowan looked at Feng Yan's face and suddenly became black. She pressed his hand. "It's not easy to drive you to the hospital. Don't be willful."

Just now, because the drivers looked at the letter like they were going to die, no one wanted to drive him.

Su Xiaowan, with a shy old face, talked about the driver.

"When he looks at you, I'll dig out his eyes!"

It wasn't loud or small, but the driver at that end must have heard it.

Su Xiaowan's face showed an embarrassed smile, "that, he's confused, talking nonsense!"

The driver was a young man, and he was not afraid of him. After all, they ran a taxi, and they didn't take a few bosses. "Does your husband have a tendency to domestic violence? Do you need me to take you to the public security bureau? "

It's a threat.

It seems that this woman was eaten to death.

I don't know that such an ugly man has a wife and is so bad to his wife.

If he had a wife, he would have held it in his hand.

Feng Yan's anger is even greater.

Su Xiaowan pressed Feng Yan's hand and said, "be good. You can't be so sick. No wonder people say you are fierce!"

"Stop!"

Su Xiaowan, "... Master, you don't have to worry about him, just go to the hospital."

"Good."

Su Xiaowan really coaxed Feng Yan to come to the hospital, coaxed him to finish the examination, but not gastrointestinal problems, but allergies.

Perfume allergy.

She looked at the diagnosis and couldn't laugh or cry.

It was probably at the wedding shop just now that the cheap perfume on the shop assistants was allergic to the perfume made by Yan Yan.

"It seems that I really don't have to worry in the future. No woman can enter you."

They are allergic to perfume.

Feng Yan's face was smelly. Su Xiaowan leaned over and pinched him fearlessly. "Still angry? Why are you so mean

"It's stingy. You're mine. No one else is allowed to see it."

She snorted at him. "It's so cute. You're like the little wolf dog they call you now."

Just then the phone rang.

"It's mom. I'll take a call."

Su Xiaowan went out to answer the phone and sealed Yan Ning's eyebrow.

What little wolf dog?

He took out his cell phone and searched it.

—They are brilliant, dissolute, overbearing, evil, cool, and ambitious,

It's called little wolf dog.

Well, it's a word that can be heard.

.....

Su Xiaowan stood in the corridor, and the voice of old lady Feng came from that end, warm and warm.

Obviously, people who have no blood relationship treat her selflessly, but people who have blood relationship treat her as an enemy.

People's heart is really elusive.

"I heard you went on a tour with a Yan?"

I know that.

"Well."

Su Xiaowan doesn't hide it either. She likes the people who seal her family from the bottom of her heart.

People are not cold, there is no temperature.

She can feel what's good for her.

"It's good to travel and have fun outside. He's been working all these years. If you hadn't been with her, I think he would have worked with her for the rest of his life!" Old lady Feng laughed and felt relieved. "I heard Yu Xin say that you went to the competition? And won the first prize? "

"I..."

In a family like Feng Yan, for the sake of her career, Mrs. Feng always goes back to teach her husband and children. It's estimated that she doesn't like women's work in public!

That's why I called?

Just wanted to explain, the old lady Feng said.

"Why don't you tell us such a terrible thing? Is ah Yan telling you to keep it from us? "

"No... No."

"Don't worry, our family is not an open-minded person. You should have something you like and do it boldly. If you are tired, you can go home and let a Yanyang. He earns so much money, which is painful to you... What do you think?"

"I... I want to play."

"Did you tell ah Yan?"

"... not yet."

"You dare to tell him that if he doesn't agree, he will be separated from him! Come and live with me. Anyway, the old house is so big that it's more than enough to support you. "

"Mom means, let me threaten him?"

"They are as like as two peas, and you believe me, when they are not able to tell them well, they are directly cold and cold, and he is stuck to himself for a few days."

Chapter 422

Old lady Feng is a master of royal family.

Feng Laozi was firmly controlled by her, almost without a word of complaint, still enjoying it.

But I've never seen a mother pit a child like this.

Feng Yan was born to her.

But Su Xiaowan said cleverly, "I know, mom."

"It's getting late. You and a Yan have a rest early. I'll hang up first!"

"Good night, mom!"

Su Xiaowan hung up the phone. Within a second, the phone rang again. It was Cheng Weiwei's.

"Young granny, why haven't you and the young master come back so late? Is something wrong? "

"Feng Yan is allergic. We are in the hospital."

"What? Allergy? Is the young master serious? Which hospital are you in? "

Su Xiaowan was confused by Cheng Weiwei, and joked, "Weiwei, you care more about her than my wife. I don't know. I think you have any wrong idea about Feng Yan?"

Cheng Weiwei suddenly worried, "young grandmother, my heart to you is heaven can learn, absolute loyalty."

"Do you like me?"

"Young granny, don't tease me. I like men --!"

"Well, don't worry. There's nothing wrong with Feng Yan. I'll hang up the water with him and stay all night. I'm not professional, but you know his temper. I'll take care of him."

"All right." Cheng Weiwei wanted to hang up, but she thought, "by the way, little grandma, there's something I want to tell you."

"You said

"The young master seems to be investigating Su Qiqi's affairs. I overheard Feng Yi say that Su Qiqi had been there the day before your mother jumped off the building."

She had never been told that.

However, Su Qiqi was only the same age as her. What did she do there?

"I see."

Su Xiaowan takes the mobile phone and walks into the ward. Feng Yan leans there. His handsome three-dimensional outline is looming under the light, which makes him even more attractive.

He closed his eyes.

It's like falling asleep.

His eyelashes are really long, much longer than hers.

Su Xiaowan went over and wanted to pull the quilt for him, but as soon as he walked in, he caught him by the wrist. "You called for more than an hour, but left your husband here alone?"

"Aren't you asleep?"

What to throw?

"Can I hold your hand when I'm asleep?"

"Maybe you're daydreaming!" Su Xiaowan wants to give him a quilt, but this man is very resistant.

"Dirty --!"

Su Xiaowan just doesn't care about him. It's a senior ward. Although it's smaller, it's still very clean. "It's all sterilized by high temperature. I've given you all the money in my salary to live in the senior ward! You are also choosy. "

"Where's the card I gave you?"

"The card is at home. I only have my salary card when I go out."

"... then I'll ask Fengyi to make some money on your card."

"If you don't get paid, I won't work there. Give me some money!"

"I'll pay my wife and divide the time?"

"... well, don't play too much. I'll be under pressure."

In a few minutes, Su Xiaowan looked at the reminder on her mobile phone. She looked at the 0 behind. There were a total of 1 billion?

Not to mention that Feng Yan is a upstart, no one believes him.

Her card seems to be useless again

"Happy"

Su Xiaowan's eyes were straight when he looked at Qian, "Feng Yan, you let me see the potential of a upstart. To be honest, with so much money, I dare not go shopping alone for fear of being robbed."

"I'll hire you some more bodyguards."

"... then I'm really a nouveau riche." I can't imagine that picture.

"Isn't it good to be a nouveau riche?"

Su Xiaowan took a cup, poured a little water for him, and then handed it to him, holding his lips to open his mouth. "Of course, it's not good. When I'm a nouveau riche, I'll become a salted fish. I don't want to do anything in the future. I just want to lie at home."

"That's not good?"

"How can it be good?" Although Su Xiaowan is young, she has a lot of ideas. "I always think that the reason why people exist is to create social value. If they can't create social value, they have to eat and die. Although people like me may not be very powerful, I also want to use my own hands to create the life I want, so I don't want to be a salted fish, I don't want to depend on you to support me

"What's more, when you work outside and I'm idle at home and don't get in touch with people, my mind will fall behind and take it for granted. I think you should do everything. I don't understand you and even become unreasonable. When I can't keep up with your ideas, you won't tell me what you think, so I can't give you advice, Then you will become a dispensable person, and you will become someone else's

"Feng Yan, you said that husband and wife are a community, and I think so, but I think that when I am sad, you can give me a shoulder, but when you are sad, my shoulder can also be relied on by you, we can face the storm together, instead of relying on your protection, I will be carefree in my life..."

"Do you want me to be like this?"

For a long time, Feng Yan didn't speak.

"You don't think I'm right?"

"No

"Then why don't you talk?"

"I probably know why I like you more and more."

Su Xiaowan, "don't you know why you like me before?"

"Well."

Su Xiaowan gave him a white look. What do you mean you don't like? Why do you like yourself? Don't you have any light on yourself? For example, good shape, good looks, and talent

But he looked down at his shriveled chest.

She thought about it.

It's like she didn't really think about it.

Su Xiaowan thought about her illness. Fortunately, she came out today with two bags of Chinese medicine, or she would have been waiting to cry.

She took out Chinese medicine from her pocket and was just about to drink it.

Just look at the man and look at him.

"You're not going to drink, are you?" Su Xiaowan swallowed saliva, deeply afraid that he did not believe, "I just asked the doctor, drink this thing will affect male function, you can't drink."

"Good --!"

Su Xiaowan continued to say something with her eyebrows fixed. She didn't think that Feng Yan would be convinced by her, but after he said a good thing, she felt fluffy.

Why are you so obedient now?

bar.

Shen Kan sat on the throne, his handsome face was hidden in the dim light, and his white shirt buttons were loose, showing a lazy appearance.

Yan Yi looks at Shen Kan and looks at the man beside him. "I'm going to answer the phone."

"Yan ye, at will."

Yan got up and walked out the door.

"Have you inquired? He's been on drugs lately? "

Chapter 423

"I look at him. He's very energetic!"

Yan Yi looks at his subordinates. The man who has taken drugs is not like this.

"Yan ye, no matter what, let's test him today. If we come to your site, even if he quit, you can let him get infected again."

Yan frowned, "do you think Shen Zhen is a fool? Can we do that? "

"Shen can't, but someone can..." the man gathered in Yan Yi's ear and said something.

On hearing this, the corners of his mouth were smiling.

"You are very capable, boy! Go and call people --! "

"Yes."

When Yan Yi went in, Shen Kan had a cigarette in his mouth. His slender fingers took the cigarette away, and smoke came out of his thin lips.

All in one.

Then he threw out a pile of money and gave it to the woman standing at the end, "go and get me a bottle of wine."

The woman's eyes were straight when she looked at the money. She was just about to take it. In this place, people had to pay for it, but now there were only Shen Zhen people in the box.

As soon as she was ready to reach out, she listened to Yan Yi's voice.

"The sincere master is generous, but when you come to my place, how can you make your own money! Today, it's up to me to play with women and drink wine! "

Shen Kan looked at Yan Yi coldly and said with a smile, "then I'm not polite."

The next second, a woman pushes in from the door.

The woman was wearing a long white dress, long shawl hair, and a pitiful face. At first glance, Shen Kan thought it was Shen Xiaobei, but after a closer look, she found that it was not.

Shen Xiaobei is much more beautiful than her.

"What are you doing now? Please wait on us now

The girl was only in her twenties. When she was called, she was still at a loss. She looked at him and accompanied him with a smile.

Yan Yi is a wise man. Last time he drugged Shen Kan, he lost money. His wife broke the army again. In a twinkling of an eye, Shen Kan came to deal with him.

So, this time, he's seeking the sum.

"I've picked a clean one for you, Mr. Chen. Look at it. It's all first-class"

Shen Kan looks at the woman carelessly. It seems that Yan Yi knows Shen Xiaobei and has done a lot of research. Otherwise, how can he even know Shen Xiaobei's appearance.

Push to her this woman, full is Shen Xiaobei's appearance, too similar.

"Please enjoy it. Let's go first."

When the box was closed, the girl took a look at Shen Zhen. Shen Zhen was very handsome. Just now Yan Yi's men also told her that Shen Zhen was a great man on the road.

As long as she charmed him, they would give her a sum of money to redeem her.

I don't use it in such a place to drink with others.

She just stepped forward, but she watched Shen Ken stand up, "sorry, I have a fiancée."

That vision is very indifferent, no temperature, let that girl's scalp a little numb, the back of his hand.

Just then, a string of rings rings and Shen Ken takes out the phone.

I took a look at the phone call.

It's Ye Xing.

"Sorry, I'll go first."

The woman standing at that end naturally saw two words on the screen, which was a woman's name. She watched Shen Jin stride away.

Fall to the ground.

Chen ER was waiting at the door when Shen Ken came out.

"How are you, young master"

"It's OK. Did you find what you were looking for? "

"I've taken pictures of Yanyi selling drugs in a bar."

"Woman in the box, go in!"

"Me?"

"Why don't you sleep like a woman?"

"....."

Chen Er has been following Shen Kan for so many years. He has done everything by himself, but sleeping with women for him is really a mess.

But there's no way.

Shen Kan drives Chen er's car back. Ye Xing waits at the door of the villa and watches the car drive into it.

"Shen Ken, I've been in debt for the last time. Why can't you forgive me? You'd rather go out and look for a woman than sleep with me. Are you keeping your guard for her

Ye Xinghuo is big.

Someone took a picture of her just now. Shen is in the bar.

Since Shen Zhen left her outside last time, he hasn't seen him and has been looking for an opportunity, but Shen Zhen hasn't seen himself.

A man in his twenties is supposed to have a physical desire, but Shen Kan seems to be confused with many women on the surface, but he always keeps a distance from himself.

She didn't know what was wrong with her. Why didn't Shen Ken even touch her?

"As I said, I hate women who are self righteous."

"You hate me? Why are you engaged to me? Shen Ken, are you really saying that to your father, but just using me? "

"If you think so, I have nothing to say." Shen Ken ignored him and walked directly into it. Ye Xing wanted to chase him, but he was stopped by the people at the door.

"Mr. Ye is in a bad mood these days. You'd better not go in and upset him."

To provoke him?

It was her who provoked him.

In half a month, they will be engaged. Now, she can't even see her fiance.

"Is that woman still in there?"

"Miss ye, that woman is our miss. Naturally she wants to live here!"

Ye Xing raises Mou, looking at the position of the second floor, is that Shen Xiaobei's bedroom.

The window is closed.

I don't know if people are here.

However, the maid in the villa did not know when she became a man. Even now, the door was tightly closed.

The two of them, single men and few women, made her uneasy.

Shen Xiaobei is doing his homework in his room. He can't do the problem at all. Now the door is noisy. You don't need to know what fiancee is coming.

She reports here almost every day these days.

But it's clear that Shen is not here. It's just to make her have a headache.

She lost her pen and stood up. As soon as she was ready to rush out of the door, the door suddenly opened, and Shen Xiaobei ran straight into the man's arms.

A man with a tobacco smell doesn't smell good.

Almost without thinking, Shen Xiaobei pushed him away.

"No food? Ready to be immortal? "

Shen Xiaobei took a look at Shen Kan and said, "dogs can't spit out ivory."

Shen Kan didn't get angry, so he went straight in.

"This is my room!"

"This is my home!"

"....."

Shen Xiaobei shriveled his mouth and knew that he couldn't quarrel with him. Shen Zhen was the king of the debate. She didn't even have enough shoes for him.

"But you're interrupting my homework!"

Shen Kan saw the exercise book on the desk. The exercise book was spread out. It was smeared, altered and rewritten. He just looked at it.

Shen Xiaobei closed the exercise book.

"What are you looking at, and you don't understand --!"

Chapter 424

Shen Jin never studied. Everyone knows that.

Shen Xiaobei was also told by others that he had been on the road since he was a teenager, and he was licking blood on the tip of his tongue every day. I don't know how much blood he had on his hands.

So Shen can't understand her homework at all.

He is a big old man who can only dance with a knife and a gun.

"None of your questions are right!"

The man's lips opened, but that sentence was enough to make Shen Xiaobei's eyes focus on him.

what?

None of them are right?

She knew that her first question was wrong, but she couldn't find a way to solve it. Even after reading the answer, she couldn't start. As a result, he even said that what he wrote was all wrong.

She's been working hard all afternoon.

I didn't even eat. I've been counting.

"Why do you say I've done something wrong, and you can't understand..." Shen Xiaobei is a person who is jealous of evil. After all, Shen Zhen helped her, so she's always grateful to him.

She thought that Shen Kan must be very concerned about his lack of education. Just now, she seemed to say a little too much, "well, I mean..."

"The answer to the first question is $y = 2x + 1$..."

Shen Xiaobei's words just stuck in his throat. What he said was right, because he read the answer just now, it was what he said.

But because I couldn't write it, I wrote such an answer.

What's more, the teacher said that these advanced questions are very difficult, and few of them can be done.

"What are you looking at me for?"

"Shen Ken, have you seen my answer secretly?"

Shen Kan, "... I'm not bored here."

"Then how can you do high mathematics?"

"I'm smarter than you."

"... then show me."

Shen Xiaobei took out a piece of paper and put it on the table.

As a result, he has worked out all of them in a few seconds. Shen Xiaobei looks at the answer and looks shocked.

"Shen Jin, who are you

Shen Kan frowned, "do you want to know how to do it?"

Shen Xiaobei nodded. Although she didn't study this major, it took her such a long time to solve these problems. If she did half of them and didn't do them, it would be too bad.

"Shen Jin, are you going to teach me?"

"Want to learn?"

"Yes."

She bit her lip. It was the first time Shen Kan saw her so good.

If he had known that it was easy to fool her, he should have bought more books for her.

.....

Su Xiaowan sleeps until midnight, and suddenly wakes up. She just watched a little bit, but how can she watch? She climbed to the bed?

It's Feng Yan, lying in the sofa at that end.

Although this is still a high-end ward, there is only one bed.

And Feng Yan gave his quilt to himself, and he lay there.

Su Xiaowan lifted the quilt and got out of bed.

Because she got up in the middle of the night, her hair was a bit messy, the zipper of her thick coat was pulled up to her neck, and her face was even more white and shining under the light. Her normally bright apricot eyes were covered by the drooping eyelids, and she looked very depressed. She took the quilt and covered him.

He leaned over and gave him a kiss on the face.

Ward is not dark, anyway squatting there, is very clear to see the face of Feng Yan.

Looking at his face, Su Xiaowan couldn't sleep again. She sat on the ground, cold ground, which made her feel very real.

Her head rested on him and she had a lot to say in her heart.

But I dare not make a sound.

I just sat there all night.

Until the next day, Feng Yan woke up and looked at the woman beside her. Her head was on her wrist, and she was sitting on the ground.

He got out of bed immediately and picked her up.

Because of the warm embrace, Su Xiaowan suddenly woke up and looked into his dark eyes.

"How did you wake up?"

"I don't wake up. Are you going to sit on the floor all the time?"

"... Er, I used to cover you with quilts, but I forgot all of a sudden." Su Xiaowan seemed angry when he saw him. "I'm fascinated by you all of a sudden, so I don't want to go to bed."

"Never again."

"I see." Su Xiaowan vomited his tongue at him, "now I really know why they like little wolf dog!"

"....."

"Feng Yan, you look good when you are angry."

"... less flattery."

Su Xiaowan was hugged to bed by Feng Yan, and was pressed on the bed by him, a little nervous.

"What are you doing?"

"Don't you like little wolf dogs?"

So the lip was blocked, Su Xiaowan's words were swallowed by him.

After all, Feng Yan just kisses her and sleeps with her.

Until Cheng Weiwei came, they were still tired of bed.

Cheng Weiwei stands at the door and knocks. Su Xiaowan wakes up. She lies on Feng Yan's body. As soon as she opens her eyes, she sees Feng Yan's face.

Because of the knock at the door, Su Xiaowan immediately jumped out of bed.

"What are you panicking about?"

Seeing Su Xiaowan's guilty posture, Feng Yan opened his mouth.

Su Xiaowan hears that she is right. What's wrong with her? She's Feng Yan's wife, not an extramarital affair.

"I'll open the door!"

Results ran to open the door, but found that it was Cheng Weiwei, "Weiwei, how did you find it?"

"Young granny, you forgot. You asked me to bring you medicine."

Su Xiaowan patted afraid head, "I almost forgot."

Taking the medicine from Cheng Weiwei's hand and looking at her with breakfast, "it's still thoughtful of you."

"The young master asked me to buy it for you because he was afraid you were hungry."

"I'll give him an ace later! I'll wash my face first Su Xiaowan takes the daily necessities bought by Wei Wei and rushes into the bathroom.

When I washed my face, I remembered that when Feng Yan was kissing her just now, she didn't brush her teeth.

All of a sudden, his face was embarrassed.

Cheng Weiwei sees Su Xiaowan run into the bathroom and walk to Feng Yan.

"Have you checked the composition of the medicine?"

"Checked, is not the treatment of gynecological medicine, specific also wait for the experimental results out."

"Well."

As soon as she finished, the figure at the other end of the story came out. Su Xiaowan was holding a bag of medicine and was ready to eat. She took the small cage bag and was ready to give it to Feng Yan and herself.

"So you want to have a baby for me?"

"... what?"

Su Xiaowan's face was a little red when he asked. It was an outsider here. Although Cheng Weiwei was not an outsider, the secret between the boudoirs was nothing. They said it was strange to speak in front of others.

The next second, the medicine in Su Xiaowan's hand fell into Feng Yan's hand, "don't drink it in the future. This matter can't come quickly. I'll let people take care of your body slowly."

Su Xiaowan saw the bag of medicine. He didn't know what happened to Feng Yan, but he was still shy. "I spent your money to buy it. It's a bit wasteful not to eat it."

"It's a drug that has three poisons."

Chapter 425

Then, the medicine was thrown into the dustbin by Cheng Weiwei, Su Xiaowan's face suddenly wrinkled shriveled.

In fact, Feng Yan wanted to know that Cheng Weiwei had changed the medicine.

But Feng Yan did not know how much she had drunk, and even less did she know whether she would taste it.

Before Su Xiaowan ran over, he listened to Cheng Weiwei.

"Little grandma, the day before your mother committed suicide, Su Qiqi did pass by, and I have restored the destroyed video surveillance. Do you want to see it?"

Su Xiaowan's thoughts were taken away by this sentence.

The words at that end made Su Xiaowan's heart tighten.

Her mother had mental problems and fell downstairs.

That's what the police said.

At that time, she was also present, but there were not many pictures. She didn't remember many of them, and even wanted to recall them, but there was no way to verify them.

Every time I think about it, I have a bad headache.

In fact, a lot of things were reported on the Internet. Su Xiaowan also read the newspaper later.

But now, she doesn't know anything about it.

"According to master Chen, your mother's mood was very unstable that day. Before you came, you were smashing things all the time."

"After that, he heard something at the door and ran out. When he came back, he looked at you and fainted. After that, he was also knocked unconscious..."

Some things, Cheng Weiwei or avoid.

After all, Su Chenchen didn't want Su Xiaowan to know what he was doing in prison. Even he couldn't figure out how he could... When he woke up, he almost beat the woman.

Cheng Weiwei finished, Su Xiaowan's face became ugly.

Grandma told her before, want to let her live well, even if he was robbed of everything, also told her, when the injustice, as long as alive, good.

So, she hated her mother.

However, when she heard such words, she always felt that there was a secret she didn't know to hide, but she didn't know what she would encounter if she opened the secret.

"Young master, do you want to continue to check?"

Although Su Qiqi has appeared, it doesn't mean that people's emotional instability will have something to do with her. In addition, time has passed for a long time, and the medical staff in the mental hospital have been changed for a long time.

It takes time to find it.

Feng Yan's eyes looked at her, "what do you think?"

"Feng Yan... I want to see grandma."

"Good."

However, before going, Feng Yan insisted that she have a physical examination.

Standing at the door of the examination room, Su Xiaowan hesitated and felt guilty. She looked at Feng Yan and said, "Feng Yan, I won't find out what serious illness I have. I'd better not check it."

"Be obedient

"But I'm afraid!"

"I'll go in with you."

There's no way. Feng Yan grabs her hand, and Su Xiaowan has no way to escape.

"Ma'am, you are too nervous. Your blood pressure is rising --!"

"Ma'am, your eyesight is not very good, either!"

"Ma'am, make your hands into fists, or I won't bleed!"

"....."

Su Xiaowan wanted to say it many times, but he couldn't find the chance.

However, the results of the examination, let her Leng.

There is nothing wrong with her.

Last time, the miracle doctor said that she had only a few months to live, but it didn't make sense

The more Su Xiaowan thinks about it, the more wrong it is.

"Feng Yan, isn't the result of the examination right? I also checked that my palace was cold before."

"Madam, the instruments here are imported from abroad. They are the most high-end precision instruments and can't go wrong." The woman went out with her head down.

Because the man's eyes have been on her for many times.

How dare she stay here.

Feng Yan's eyes stare at her, "what do you want to check out?"

"Bah, bah, bah, how can you curse me! Do you think that after I die, you are marrying a second wife... "

Feng Yan didn't like to hear dead words. He grabbed her by the shoulder and pressed it against the window.

After going through the discharge procedures, Cheng Weiwei knocks on the door to come in, and looks at them

"Go on, young master. I don't see anything."

Then he ran away in fright.

Su Xiaowan's face turned red and he lost a man. He told him that someone would see him here, but he

"You sleep on the floor tonight!"

It's quite far from Fengzhen. Cheng Weiwei drove them there for two hours.

"Do you have any impression here?"

Feng Yan looked at the road outside, "it seems a little bit."

"You sent me here before. We were going to see grandma together, but you have something to do." Su Xiaowan looked outside. After four years, he said that what had changed had not changed.

Deep imprint is engraved in the heart.

"But it's not too late, is it?"

Feng Yan holds her, after them, there will be countless spring and autumn, even if the front lost a few, but not too late.

Su Xiaowan leaned on him, probably because he was too warm, so she wanted to tell him a lot.

"Feng Yan, do you believe that everyone has a magnetic field?"

Magnetic field?

Feng Yan studied science, of course he did.

Just, I don't know if what I think in my heart is the same as what she thinks.

"I have read a book before, saying that everyone has a magnetic field, what kind of people will attract what kind of people to come near. People with the same magnetic field have endless topics to talk about every day, and they will tell each other their most true and sincere ideas together. This is probably a bit like birds of a feather flock together, I think, We should be people who attract each other by magnetic field, so we can meet each other in the vast crowd at a glance. You still think I'm good, and I'm really lucky... "

"It's my luck!"

"Did you sleep on the floor tonight, so you try to curry favor with me now?" Su Xiaowan approaches, but Feng Yan pinches her face.

"Why are you pinching my face again?"

"I sleep on the floor today, I want to sleep with you!"

"You want to be beautiful!"

Cheng Weiwei just wants to plug in a headset, my God!

This topic is killing a single dog. How did this letter come from!

In the town, Su Xiaowan went to buy some daily necessities, flowers, plus nutrition, stuffed to Feng Yan.

"You'll give it to grandma later and say you bought it."

"... I bought it?"

"When you came to see my grandmother for the first time, she didn't take anything. She must have a bad impression on you! What's more, this is your money. I just ran a leg for you. You will remember not to be so cold later. What did she ask you? You should have a better attitude. Do you hear me? "

"I saw her last time. She likes me very much."

"A woman's heart is like a needle. She used to like you, but now she looks at you and doesn't like you any more."

"....."

"So you have to please her later. She's my grandmother!"

"Good."

After driving towards the village for half an hour, I finally came to a vineyard.

This piece of land was bought by my grandfather when he was there.

Now, the grapes haven't grown yet, but they look lush and beautiful.

Grandma and grandfather are more affectionate than Jin Jian. After his death, he didn't leave here.

But Su Xiaowan also has a kind of love for this piece of land.

"Let's go and see my grandfather first! My grandfather hasn't seen you yet

"But don't worry. My grandfather certainly likes what I like. He loves me so much!"

Feng Yan just laughs.

The sun fell on Su Xiaowan's face, with her brilliant beauty, and he wanted to guard this scene all the time.

a lifetime.

Cheng Weiwei looks at them holding things, and thinks it's not suitable to come and go by themselves, so she stays in the car and waits for them.

Su Xiaowan brings Feng Yan to the cemetery.

But looking at the dazzling red on the tombstone.

Someone spilled red paint on the tombstone, the original clean tombstone, at this moment, but has no memory of the appearance.

Su Xiaowan couldn't even see the name on his grandfather's tombstone.

She held Feng Yan's hand tightly. She never thought that she would see such a scene when she came back.

"My grandfather is a good man. Although I have no impression, my grandmother says that he is always kind to others. How can anyone..."

Su Xiaowan sucked her nose, and the tears in her eyes came out. She knelt down and wiped the paint with her clothes.

But how can not wipe off, this paint is not a day or two time pour on, Feng Yan looked at her distressed, holding her hand.

"Your hand is hurt --!"

Su Xiaowan's clothes were all torn. These are all stone tablets. They are not smooth.

Her hands were all cut.

But Su Xiaowan turned a deaf ear, even if she was a person afraid of pain, but at this time, she was not afraid at all.

She raised her eyes and looked at Feng Yan with tears in her eyes. "Feng Yan, my grandfather loves me, but I can't protect him."

Su Xiaowan's hand touched the tombstone. When she was a child, she met with grievances. She did not dare to cry in front of her grandmother. She came here.

Feng Yan didn't know where he took the rag.

Wipe it with her.

He knew that even if it was wiped clean, it had already disturbed the old people in Jiuquan.

Feng Yan has never met Su Xiaowan's grandfather, but he has met her grandmother, who is a gentle old man. Before, the Su family was also a famous family.

In contrast, my grandfather would not be a man of enmity.

He will find out about it.

"I'm sorry, grandfather. It's Xiaowan. I'm sorry..."

"Your grandfather knows that it has nothing to do with you. He won't blame you!"

"Feng Yan!"

Su Xiaowan lies in Feng Yan's arms, crying.

Maybe tears really can't resist, come one after another.

The mobile phone in Feng Yan's pocket rings. It's Cheng Weiwei's.

"Young master, I just found out that my grandmother is in hospital. It's said that someone came to the house to make trouble. The old lady was angry and lived in the hospital."

Su Xiaowan got close, so naturally he heard it.

Grandma is in hospital!

"Feng Yan, let's go to the hospital!"

Chapter 426

Su Xiaowan rushed to the hospital, only to know that grandma has been ill for three days, these three days, but for the neighbors to continue the money, grandma would have been driven out of the hospital.

She pushed the door in and grandma was awake. She was much thinner than when she saw her last time.

"Wan Wan, why are you here?"

"Grandma -" Su Xiaowan had just cried, her eyes were red.

She ran over and lay down in grandma's arms.

If she didn't come, what would be the next news?

She dare not think.

"Silly child, why are you crying? Grandma is not good!"

"Why don't you tell me the first time when something so big happened? Instead, you hide here to see a doctor secretly. If I didn't go back, I would..."

"Silly child, you are so busy outside. Grandma is out of danger. In a few days, she will be discharged from hospital. What else can I trouble you for?"

"What trouble is not trouble, you are my grandmother, I have the responsibility to take care of you."

Su Xiaowan was brought up by her grandmother. For her, those Su family members are not relatives at all, only her grandmother.

She's only grandma.

"I know you are a good child, but grandma can take care of herself. You see, I'm not so good now..."

"You said that." Su Xiaowan looked at her and stroked her face. "I've lost a lot of weight these days. I gave you a taxi a while ago. Are you useless? Save it secretly? "

Su Xiaowan also want to say what, the nurse came in ward round, "the old lady's mental condition is not very good now, or don't be too tired, let her rest early."

"Grandma, take a rest first. I'll buy you some porridge."

Su Xiaowan went out and ran into Aunt Chen, a neighbor with a wallet.

The neighbor knew Su Xiaowan, thinking that the doctor and nurse didn't embarrass themselves just now. Now seeing people, he finally understood, "Xiaowan, it's good that you're here, otherwise my money won't last long."

In the early years, the neighbor was favored by her grandfather. In addition, Su Xiaowan sent her grandmother back last time and gave her some money.

"Aunt Chen, who has been to my house?"

Aunt Chen recalled that she lived close to Su Xiaowan's grandmother. "A few days ago, before the light came on, some gangsters came knocking on the door, knocking on the window, saying what to pay back... They also splashed red paint on your grandfather's tombstone. If the people in the village hadn't driven them away, your grandmother would have been angry with them, and your grandmother would have been upset by them, it's not... I've been in hospital for several days. I just woke up from my dangerous period yesterday. "

Little punk?

"My grandmother is alone on weekdays. Besides, how can she provoke little gangsters?"

Su Xiaowan always feels that things are not so simple. Her grandmother is her spiritual pillar, and on her grandmother's tombstone, it's like this again.

This matter, at first sight, is aimed at them.

"I'm also wondering. Your grandmother's house was turned upside down by them. Yesterday, she told me that the money you gave him was taken away by those little gangsters."

what?

"Did you call the police?"

"Yes, but the police are still investigating and collecting evidence. I don't know when I can find out the reason. I've been taking care of your grandmother these days, and I haven't heard anything else."

Looking at the fatigue on Aunt Chen's face, Su Xiaowan took out a sum of money from her pocket, "Aunt Chen, thank you for my grandmother's business. Take the money --!"

"This..."

"Aunt Chen, you are not well off either. It's good that you are here this time, otherwise my grandmother will..."

"If not, you gave me money when you came back last time, and I took your money to see your grandmother. I really don't need it!" "Yes, you have a granddaughter studying outside!" Then she put the money into Aunt Chen's pocket directly. She went downstairs to inquire about it just now. It's more than 1000 a day these three days.

There are more than 1000 hospitalizations in big cities, which may be affordable by normal families. But in this place, everyone relies on their own labor. Recently, all the crops in the field have been sold. It is estimated that there are only so many on hand, and no one has to live.

"Grandma doesn't have to worry about it. I'll just come and take care of her now. You go back to work first!"

"Well, I'll go back first. If you need help, please tell me."

Su Xiaowan stands there. Feng Yan goes downstairs to buy something. He looks at his neighbor and winks at Cheng Weiwei.

Cheng Weiwei pulled the aunt, "aunt, I'll take you back!"

"You are"

"I'm Shao... Xiaowan's friend."

"Well, please!"

Feng Yan came over with something, "how's grandma?"

"I'm resting."

"Eat something first."

"You just went to buy these?"

"And your grandmother's." Feng Yan pointed to the congee in his hand.

It's not convenient to buy things in this place. It's a long way to go. That's why he's delayed until now.

"Feng Yan, that's very kind of you!"

"I'll take care of it, so you don't have to worry."

Many things happened to them when they came here today. Some of them were unprepared. She was really hungry.

He took what Feng Yan bought and ate a few mouthfuls, but his brow didn't stretch. "Feng Yan, in fact, I always feel that this thing is aimed at me."

"Grandma is very nice. How can she provoke that little gangster? She is the kindest and kind to her neighbors."

"I want to go to the police station later."

"Eat first, and I'll take you there after eating!"

"Well."

.....

Su Qiqi's child is in labor. Shen Yin takes care of her in the hospital for a week.

This week, Su Qiqi's face has become haggard. Like giving birth to a baby, she has to have a baby. Shen Yin is afraid that she will fall ill and treats her with delicious food.

"Qiqi, your father doesn't know about your pregnancy. It's better to have more than one thing. Don't mention it in front of him. Mom must be for your own good. You're still young, and you'll know that there are many better men than him. Besides, Su Xiaowan has a relationship with Feng's family, and more people come to our family to propose marriage. Why do you suffer for a man who doesn't live at home?"

"I see."

These days, she has already wanted to open, for a man to make such, really is not worth it.

What's more, she has an idea in her mind these days.

Only let oneself become stronger, can let those men regret, she Su seven seven seven can't do the woman who clings to the man.

"Mom won't let you suffer in vain these days. You are mostly because of Su Xiaowan. Mom has already let you out!"

"Mom, are you crazy? She is surrounded by Feng Yan."

"Of course I dare not touch her, but there is a man, but her life."

Chapter 427

"You said it was su Xiaowan's grandmother!" Su Qiqi looks at her mother. Su Zheng got up to Nan Yin in those years, mostly because of the other party's money. In fact, what she always liked was herself. Fortunately, she didn't let go, so she became Mrs. su.

Shen Yin is a smart person. At least, she hugged Su Zheng's thigh with her own strength.

I kicked that woman out.

"I didn't expect that the old woman had more than 500000 yuan in her hand. This smelly girl gave all her money to the old woman. Fortunately, I let people search their house."

Shen Yin took out a card from his pocket. "There are only a few of her passwords. I tried and I guessed them right."

"Does dad know about this?"

"He's so timid. You know, I won't agree with him if I want to do this. But last time you were wronged, he also hated it in his heart. However, because of the great power of Fengjia, he swallowed this tone."

"But now, he can't get any good from her daughter. Most of the time, he will turn to you. After all, he is your only daughter."

Su Xiaowan now wants to break away from them. Even when Su Zheng wants to see her again and asks her for help, he can't find her at all.

After all, Su Xiaowan's back is close to Feng Yan. A little hair on such a big tree is enough for them to spend.

"You'll take good care of yourself now. When your uncle comes back a few days later, let him introduce some directors for you. Let's change our stage name. No one knows who you are. What do you think?"

Shen Yin also thought about it for a long time. After all, she only has such a daughter. She must think about it for her daughter's sake. Shen Yin also has a younger brother, who has set up an entertainment company abroad. This year, she plans to return home for development.

When he followed Su Zheng, he fell out with his family, because they were all poor at that time. Shen Yin was afraid that they would pester him all the time, so he broke up with them.

Where to expect, his brother has been abroad for several years, and he has really made a name for himself.

However, her younger brother has come to this day, thanks to her every time she gives them money to go back, so she told her younger brother about Su Qiqi that day.

The other side said they were willing to help.

"Really?"

"What's Ma cheating you to do? You've been keeping good care of yourself these days. Don't worry about things at home."

"Mom, did I break your heart that day..."

"Mom understands you. At the beginning, I was the same as you. However, I had more foresight than you. At least, your father didn't let me kill the child. Later, you have to have a long snack. This time, it will be a lesson. When you get well, you will have a hymen repair operation, and no one will know."

At the beginning, she is also like this, deceives Su Zheng to turn round, however, obviously now men are much more shrewd.

When Shen Yin comes home, Su Zheng is sitting in the living room.

During this period of time, the company's profits are not very good, so he comes back early every day, but with a sad face, Shen Yin hands her things to the maid, and then comes to him.

"Did you go shopping again?"

Shen Yin hasn't sat down yet. He listens to him. Su Zheng was very nice to her before, but now she's cold to her. However, that's not important.

At this age, naturally, there is no energy to die for love. Now, there is no Yingyan around him. Her position is very stable, which is enough.

"Are you worried about the company again?" Shen Yin leaned over and put his arm around him. "I just went to my mother's side and borrowed more than 500000 yuan. You should take it first for emergency!"

"... where did she get the money?"

"Didn't I tell you everything? My brother opened an entertainment company and signed several artists. Recently, he is very popular and has high efficiency. Naturally, the old lady is not poor in money. She knows you are in trouble recently, so she takes it out to help you. Although the money may not be enough, it will be enough for you for a while! "

Sue is looking at the card, "it's not that smelly girl doesn't answer the phone, she can't find it, otherwise, it won't come to this point."

Shen Yin looked at him and suddenly said, "ah Zheng, when I was playing cards with some rich ladies a few days ago, I heard that the old woman had a land lease in her hand."

Su Zheng looks at Shen Yin, "who told you?"

"Boss Yu's wife, boss Yu was the old lady's student before. I heard that she bought a piece of land and wanted to make a dowry for her daughter. But I remember that when they married their daughter, they didn't give you any title deed at all."

"Now this land deed is worth more than you sold the company." Shen Yin is fanning the flames.

"No wonder I didn't have much money when I took over the company. It turns out that the old lady still has some money in her hand." Sue's eyes lit up when she heard the money.

"You said that the old woman was hospitalized at the beginning, but we spent all the money. Now there is a land lease hidden here. I don't know who to give it to!"

Su is a person with the highest interests. At least, Shen Yin has lived with him for so long that he can see through it at a glance.

Because I'm used to living in poverty, I want to be a man.

But Su Zheng's ability is obviously not as good as pure green, and the company's efficiency is not particularly good.

At this moment, Su Zheng listened to Shen Yin say, "this old woman's land lease should have been given to me. She still wants to give it to someone else. Otherwise, she will have to depend on someone else to support her old age and die."

"Ah Zheng, I think you'd better go to Fengzhen. Anyway, the old woman is there. She'll give it to you if you cry. After all, she's just your son-in-law. Although you divorced Nan Yin, no matter what, she's childless. You'll have to work for her in the future."

Su Zheng thinks Shen Yin's words are quite reasonable, but he doesn't say anything at the moment.

"I'll take a shower first."

Shen Yin looks at Su Zheng. He calls someone to make such a fuss for the old lady. Now if Su is passing by, the old lady can't bear to eat

Maybe I'll die, that's good!

Shen Yin doesn't like the old woman. She was born in a rich family before. Nanyin is the daughter of a rich family. She can't compare with anything.

Had she not been pestering Su Zheng in bed, she would have been kicked away by Su Zheng.

.....

Su Xiaowan and Feng Yan couldn't go back, so they found a hotel there and went to the police station. As a result, the police said that the gangsters had been released.

Fortunately, Wei Wei asked people to find those little gangsters.

However, according to them, they were told to do so.

"I only remember that it was a woman who contacted us on the Internet. I really don't remember the rest."

Chapter 428

At the same time.

Su Zheng found out that Su Xiaowan's grandmother came to the hospital and went in with fruit. The old lady was alone.

The old lady thought it was su Xiaowan who came back, but she saw that the man who came in was Su Zheng.

"What are you doing here?"

"Mom, I heard you're in hospital. Come and see you!"

"I'm not your mother."

Although the old lady is in trouble now, she was born in a big family, and her temperament remains unchanged.

In fact, Su Zheng is very afraid of Nan Yin's parents. At least, he is a small family, and he has a girl like Nan Yin.

I don't know how much I've suffered.

Fortunately, Nanyin was naive, he cheated a few words, and was biased.

It's true that Nanyin's parents are both powerful people. For so many years now, Su Zheng is still afraid to see the old lady.

"If you have something to say, if you have nothing to do, go out. I'm going to have a rest!"

"Mom, I heard that you have a piece of land in your hand, and now you don't have much income. I'll give you money, and you give me the title deed, OK?"

land title?

It turned out to be for this.

The old lady had a white face and coughed.

Su Zheng's idea is smart. At that time, the old man bought a piece of land for investment. At that time, he spent a super low price. He originally wanted to give it to Nan Yin.

Can South Yin hurt their heart, finally this betrothal gift, also didn't give out.

Originally, the old lady wanted to leave it to Su Xiaowan. Unexpectedly, Su Zheng didn't know where to find out that she had such a piece of land in her hand.

At that time, the price of that piece of land had already been doubled. I don't know how many times.

He also wants to eat his fast food.

"Mom, have a cup of tea!"

Su Zheng politely opened his mouth. As soon as Shen Yin said that day, he asked someone to check. The old lady did have a land lease and a commercial house.

She thought that the old woman had nothing left, but she left her hand.

"Su Zheng, I gave Xiaowan a dowry. You and Nanyin have divorced. Now, no matter how much income you earn, it's none of your business. You don't have to think about it."

"Mom, this can't be said like that. Xiaowan doesn't need this deed now, right? Look..."

"She is my granddaughter. Naturally, I will give her the best one. When she and a Yan hold a wedding, I will transfer the title deed to her. But you, more than ten years, still haven't changed at all. At the beginning, we didn't want anything and left the company to you. Now, are you ready to pluck hair from us? Su Zheng, you are very good at calculating

"If Yinyin is still alive, maybe I can give you this land lease because of her face."

"But now that Yinyin has been gone for so many years, there is probably nothing to talk about between you and me. I'm going to have a rest. You can go out."

"Mom, it was at the beginning. It can't be confused. I didn't come here today to tell you what happened in those years. It's true that I lost Yin Yin. But mom, have you ever thought that this company is Dad's hard work. Do you have the heart to let his hard work go to waste?"

"People are dead. What do you care about the money for?"

Su Zheng saw that she couldn't persuade the woman. She looked at the old woman with a gloomy face. He couldn't stand the old woman's high posture.

Now it's all like this, and I look at her with the appearance of giving to myself.

"Mom, if the price doesn't suit you, we can talk about it again. I came here specially today. You see, I came here specially. You can't..."

"Su Zheng, since this thing is in my hands, you don't want to rob it! That's Wan Wan. Even if Wan Wan doesn't want it, I will donate it when I die. I won't give you an outsider. "

"You..." Su Zheng was so angry that he knew that the old woman was not a good person to deal with.

"Mom, did you forget that your daughter was killed by Su Xiaowan? When Nan Yin died that year, only Su Xiaowan was present. If I didn't press down the news media, do you think she would be able to withdraw completely, or do you want me to take things out and let Su Xiaowan go to jail? "

Su Zheng naturally did not dare to do so, but now, she can only say that the old woman did not give him face at all. She thought she had no chips in her hand.

The old lady had a bad heart disease. She used to be healthy, but since that little gangster came to the house, he broke the window and kicked the door, causing her a heart disease.

Their family has a history of heart disease. Her mother died of heart disease at that time, but in recent years, her physical examination has been very healthy, but who knows those people will be so noisy.

The old lady was too old to stand up to the trouble.

Su Zheng said so, the old lady began to cough, hand cover chest, "Su Zheng, tiger poison still don't know son! Xiao Wan is your daughter

"Is it my daughter! In those days, Nanyin was not chased. When she was with me, she was not a virgin for a long time

"Su Zheng! Get out of here

The old lady was so angry that she almost fell off the bed.

When Su Zheng saw this, he walked away. He couldn't explain it to her this time. He could only wait for the next chance. He would never be so stupid as to make people angry.

After all, I'm so angry that I'll find out about myself soon according to the means of those who sealed the house.

.....

Su Xiaowan received the call and her mobile phone fell out of her hand.

There was still someone talking on the other end of the phone, but she couldn't hear anything at the moment.

She looked at Feng Yan, "something happened to grandma!"

Feng Yan took a look at Cheng Weiwei, "here, you can go back after you finish processing. I'll take her to the hospital first."

"Yes."

When they arrived at the hospital, the doctors had just finished the rescue operation, and grandma was tired. Although she was awake, she was even worse than before.

"How are you, grandma?"

"I'm ok."

Feng Yan looked at the doctor and walked out with him.

"Young master, there's nothing wrong with the old lady's health. It's just that there's a genetic history of heart disease. In addition, she's been making trouble these days, and she's already exhausted..."

"Treatment."

"Our suggestion is to change the heart valve, but the complexity of the operation, the medical facilities here are not good at all, we have to transfer to a big hospital immediately, and the operation risk rate is very high, if we are not careful, we may lose people."

The doctor just got off the plane and flew here after receiving a call from Cheng Weiwei.

Fengzhen such a small hospital, of course, no high-end equipment, doctors are some old men, Feng Yan is not at ease, so invited Lingnan from abroad.

Chapter 429

Lingnan is an expert in this field.

After putting the old lady to sleep, Su Xiaowan ran out and asked the doctor, "doctor, how's my grandmother?"

Ling Nan took a look at Feng Yan. He naturally heard that Feng Yan had married a wife when he was abroad. It is probably for the sake of the women around him that people like him appear in such a small place.

"Your grandmother has a history of heart disease, and now she's very sick"

Lingnan said a lot of things, but they all involved professional terms. Su Xiaowan didn't understand. She didn't know how Grandma had a genetic history of heart disease

Lingnan looked at Su Xiaowan, "if you transfer to another hospital immediately and accept the operation, it's not that there is no possibility of cure. It's just that the probability of success rate of the operation will be relatively small. In addition, the patient's old age and physical condition may not be able to bear it, so you have to think about it carefully. Besides, I told your grandmother about it before, but she didn't want to accept the operation..."

Su Xiaowan felt that her body was a little heavy and her voice was stuck in her throat.

She was afraid.

Afraid that they care about people, one by one to leave.

Probably too care about, so reluctant, also afraid that only 50% of the probability, will take grandma away.

Feng Yan walked over, and all her strength was on him. Feeling the warmth, she raised her eyes, "Feng Yan, what should I do? I don't want grandma to have anything

She has only one family left.

"Let's transfer!"

.....

But Feng Yan and Su Xiaowan go in, but the old lady refuses to transfer to another hospital or operate.

"Grandma still wants to see you marry Feng Yan and your child born. She won't die so easily. The doctor's words are all deceitful. You silly girl, you really believe it!" When the old man spoke, he looked at Su Xiaowan's red eyes.

"Shall we have an operation? When Feng Yan and I are born, you can take her with you. " Su Xiaowan coaxed her. All the time, grandma listened to her very much, but this time, the old lady avoided the topic of surgery easily.

"How is your grandfather's tomb?"

Su Xiaowan said, "Feng Yan has been wiped clean, but..."

"Yesterday I dreamed about the old man! When he said he would wait for me to die, he walked in front of me. "

The old lady looked out of the window. At that time, the years were quiet.

In fact, she always knew that there was a genetic history in her family. Her mother died of heart disease. Everything came from fate.

She did.

Now Su Xiaowan is surrounded by people who love her. Even if she closes her eyes, she is also pleased.

Su Xiaowan looks at Feng Yan, but listens to Feng Yan and says, "go get some water for grandma."

Su Xiaowan wiped her tears, looked at Grandma's dry mouth, and did not know when the cup had been empty, "well."

After su Xiaowan left.

There were only two of them left in the ward.

"Feng Yan, do you remember the promise you gave me last time?"

"Well."

"You said that you would love her, take care of her and never leave her. Even if she did something wrong, you would stand by her side and protect her... I also believe that I didn't miss her. At the beginning, Su Zheng and Yin Yin, in fact, I and the old man are very sorry. If we broke them earlier, maybe there would be no future." She struggled to get up from the hospital bed, Feng Yan saw, helped her.

"Grandma, she's very worried about you. If you're just worried about the success rate of the operation, you don't have to worry about it at all. I..."

"Do I look like someone who is afraid of death?" The old lady interrupted him with a tick on her lips.

The old lady has nothing to fear.

"You are like her!"

Temper and disposition.

It's all the same, especially the stubborn temper.

"Some people used to say that, but Xiaowan was more stubborn than me. The child was smart since childhood. I was afraid that she would be bullied and didn't say a word. As a result, she bullied others..." recalling the past, the old lady's face was filled with joy.

Feng Yan stood there, looking at her. She took out an envelope bag from one of the drawers and handed it to him. "You can help her keep this. It's the land that the old man bought in his early years. It should have gone up a lot in recent years. I know you have a big family and a big career. It's not so bad for the dowry, but I also want my granddaughter to marry you, It's not to be looked down upon. "

Last time I went to Jiangcheng, the old lady thought about it all the time.

Naturally, she knew how several people in the Su family sent Su Xiaowan out. She was worried about her, but she didn't think about it. It was also Yingying yangcuo.

However, she has always been afraid of Su Xiaowan being wronged.

Su's family can't give him anything, but it's a big family. I don't know if his parents are the same as him.

Will you look down on her.

In the early years, the Su family was also a famous family. Although they were not close to the Feng family, they could match each other, but

Therefore, she was afraid that Su Xiaowan would be bullied.

After all, she grew up in front of her, and the old lady was most worried about her.

"I never underestimated her."

"I know that. I believe you." The old lady looked at him, and those on Feng Yan's face could not hide from her.

There are many struggles among the rich and powerful families. The water is deep and she has never heard of them.

But Feng Yan is a worthy person, she did not ask other, only believe in fate, Feng Yan is a good man, even if the rich family is deep, but as long as he protects, she believes that Xiaowan will be happy.

.....

Su is in the hotel. She calls Shen Yin.

"The old woman refused to give it to me. I have to stay here for a few days."

Shen Yin in that head a pair of concern posture, is worried that he does not wear warm, eat well.

Speaking of the end, Shen Yin reminds, "I don't think what you said to the old woman is right. It's better to rob it hard."

"No way."

"Why not? That bastard was not your seed at the beginning. You raised a son for her daughter for such a long time. There was no hard work, but there was also hard work. If it came to light, how many people would scold her icy daughter for cheating out of marriage --!"

"What are you talking about? Chen Chen is my son."

"Ah Zheng, I went to that silly boy's school a few days ago to collect things. There was a paternity test in it. That silly boy is not your son at all --!"

what!

Is Su Chenchen not his own son?

Su Zheng is such a son. Although he is a fool, he still has a baby. At the beginning, Nan Yin didn't know that he had a woman outside, but after she got married, she had been flying all over the country except the time when she was drunk.

If not unwilling to be lonely, how can Su Zheng keep in touch with Shen Yin all the time? If he is an adult man, he can't help it. Naturally, he can't escape from Shen Yin's gentle hometown.

"You don't believe I photographed it for you, or the teacher before that gave it to me!"

Su Xiaowan is not his child. He knows that, but unexpectedly, his own son is not.

Having no time to think about who did the test report, or how such a coincidence happened, Su Zheng felt that his heart was extremely irritable.

At the beginning, Su Xiaowan was brought up by her mother from outside. In order to stabilize Nan Yin's mood of abortion, she lied to her that it was her child.

At the beginning, Nan Yin had been pregnant for more than eight months, but she was still running outside, and her baby had been lost.

Nan Yin's parents have been urging them to divorce. His mother gives him an idea. The child binds Nan Yin. When a woman has a child, she naturally wants to settle down.

Therefore, there is the existence of Su Xiaowan.

But it seems that Nan Yin didn't like the child, so he sent the girl to the old woman

"Zheng, are you listening? Do you think Nanyin was crazy because she knew that her son was not your seed? " Nanyin is crazy because she is stimulated.

Nanyin is a miss. Naturally, she doesn't understand men's needs at all in bed, but he is not the same. She even has men's weakness, which makes Su Zheng inseparable from her.

At that time, Su was on a business trip abroad. She went to her home with a big stomach. Nanyin was crazy because she couldn't bear the blow. Of course, she didn't get any better.

The child was born prematurely. Unfortunately, she was born a daughter. At that time, Su Zheng didn't think much of her.

Nan Yin has a mental illness. She has been busy with her work before, so she has been suffering from chronic fatigue. In addition, she has no children, so she has depression.

But it's not crazy.

At that time, Su was on a business trip. When she came back, Nan Yin became so crazy.

Naturally, he could not allow his wife to be a psychopath, so he divorced and sent her to a mental illness.

Shen Yin happily holds the DNA and doesn't know who is helping them. She is shopping with Mrs. Fu, but she doesn't like shopping very much. If it wasn't for this period of time, Su Zheng had a project to approve, she would not please them!

"I heard that your stepdaughter has ascended to Fengjia?"

Shen Yin's expression suddenly froze, but in the eyes of outsiders, still try to maintain the image of his loving mother.

"Well, although it's a big business, this rich family is as deep as the sea. My husband and I didn't agree with her to go in before."

"I've heard for a long time that I didn't even get a place?" One of the rich ladies couldn't stand Shen Yin's hypocritical face and couldn't help sarcasm.

"This skinny camel is bigger than a horse. Although Xiaowan in our family has no reputation, old lady Feng likes her. She's smart. She coaxes the young master Feng round and round."

"Since your stepdaughter is so interested, why don't you let her blow the pillow? This letter is so powerful and small. Why don't you ask us for help?"

"Sister Li, as you said, Xiaowan of our family has gone on a tour with master Feng. The two of them are so tired of each other that I can't always let ah Zheng bother her. This batch of projects was originally agreed, but brother Li didn't approve them all the time, so it's delayed until now..."

The wife was even more angry when she heard that, "you are not up to the standard in your own project, and you still want to openly bribe my husband. My husband has been living a clean life, and it is not easy to climb to the present position. You still want him to connect with you, and your abacus is too good."

In this circle, in fact, many people don't like Shen Yin. At the beginning, it was so popular that everyone knew how the girl was sent in.

But this Shen Yin is still there.

They look at it and get angry.

"I'm a little tired. I'll go first. I'll cook for my husband later. Unlike some people, there are maids at home."

Shen Yin looks at them one by one. When she bought things for them at the beginning, she kept on buying expensive ones. Now if she wants them to do a little help, she'll try to stop them.

She was about to leave with her bag. Suddenly, a man with no eyes came up.

"You're blind!"

"It's the voice, it's her --!" When the little gangster was brought by Cheng Weiwei, he was still in a daze, but looking at the woman at that end, he listened to the voice again.

"That's what she told us to do!"

"I don't know you at all, what are you telling me?"

"Madam, you can't be so ruthless. When I sent you the card, you said that no one would know about it. Because you were beaten like this, I sent us away without knowing you?"

Shen Yin suddenly understood who they were. These little gangsters were all found by Shen Yin on the Internet. He didn't know who they were and didn't meet each other.

But she did.

But I didn't think about it.

Fortunately, she made all those calls from the phone booth.

You just have to die.

"Don't talk nonsense. I don't know you at all. If you keep pestering me like this, I'll call the security guard!"

Cheng Weiwei blocks Shen Yin's way. Shen Yin looks at the tall woman, "what do you want to do! I don't know you at all... Help

"Lock people in!"

"Yes."

"What are you going to do?" Shen Yin was directly carried away.

.....

Sue hung up and went to the hospital.

He's full of anger, so there's no natural emotion at all.

At this time, a man will be angry.

What's more, he even helped others raise their son.

Nan Yin was not a virgin when she married him. He was very concerned about this. However, Nan Yin was born well and looked good, so these things have become unimportant.

But when he is in such a position, such a thing is undoubtedly a slap in the face.

He rushed to the old woman's ward, only the old woman alone.

"I told you clearly, Su Zheng, what are you doing here?"

"I ask you, who is the man Nanyin is out there --!"

man

Su Zheng was so angry that he wanted to burn down the house in this place.

The old lady didn't know what Su Zheng was doing. She didn't like Su Zheng. In the past, the old man always said that the man's face was too philistine. He exposed all the things he wanted to his face.

Can South Yin but like him, also don't know is by him under what Gu.

"If she had a man outside, I would not fall into your trap like this."

"Su Chenchen is not my son, so I have nothing to hide for him. I tell you, your grandson committed a crime when he was 18 years old and was in prison!"

Chapter 430

"My advice is to ask for the consent of the patient. There are too many conflicts in her heart, and the probability of successful operation is not high!"

Su Xiaowan and Feng Yan are in the clinic in Lingnan. Because the old lady is not willing to transfer to another hospital, she even keeps shouting to be discharged. They have no choice but to think about whether they can have any plan to solve the problem.

After all, Lingnan is an expert in this field. If it comes to machinery and equipment, Fengyan can let people move things.

As a result, no matter what was discussed, someone came to the other end and said, "1207 patients have arrhythmias, have been in shock, and are now being rescued --!"

1207 ?

That's not grandma's ward.

Su Xiaowan runs to the rescue room quickly. Lingnan takes a look at Feng Yan and follows up quickly.

Things happened so fast these days that Su Xiaowan's mind was in a mess.

She just had breakfast with her grandmother in the morning. In the morning, her grandmother was still smiling in front of her. The nurse said that the situation had improved.

But now

The nurse opened the door, took the notice of critical illness, and said about the patient's condition inside, "at present, the patient is being rescued, but we can't rule out the possibility of not being rescued."

Su Xiaowan's tears suddenly broke down. She was holding the list handed over. Her hand was shaking all the time, as if she had been pressed to death in her throat, sour and painful.

"Miss, if you don't sign it, it's too late --!"

Su Xiaowan's hand can't write down her name. She's scared to death.

Feng Yan's hand is holding her cold hand. He looks at Feng Yan's words enlarged on the paper. The nurse takes the list and walks into it again.

Maybe they have seen too many cases of birth, aging, illness and death, but no one will feel like Su Xiaowan.

The lights in the emergency room are on all the time.

Su Xiaowan and Feng Yan are sitting in the corridor. She doesn't have much emotion. Her tears are whirling, and she can't see the figure in her eyes.

She was not prepared for that.

Because it all came so fast.

Feng Yan's hand holding her tightly seems to give her enough support.

"Don't cry. Grandma will come out and look at your tears later. It's time to worry!"

"Well, I won't cry. Grandma will be OK." Su Xiaowan wiped her tears, her eyes fixed on the closed door.

My eyes are a little wandering.

Her hands broke out in a cold sweat, and Feng Yan held her in his arms. Maybe only such a hug can give her instant peace of mind. "Don't worry, Lingnan is an expert in this field."

"Well, I know, grandma hasn't seen our baby born yet. She'll be fine!"

She tried to persuade herself, but there was always a feeling that something was passing.

"I'll show you something!"

Feng Yan sees that she is not in a high mood and talks to her.

Su Xiaowan looks at the things handed over by Feng Yan and takes them out to see what the title deed is.

"Grandma gave it to you?"

"Your dowry!"

dowry?

Su Xiaowan's nose is sour. Her grandmother has been worried that she will be bullied. If she marries Fengjia, she will be looked down upon by Fengjia people. That's why she gives it to Fengyan!

Look at the date on the lease. It's been a long time.

She always has a feeling that grandma seems to leave her right away... It seems that she is giving her last words, and they will never see her again soon.

She forced her face to smile, but she didn't cry because she was afraid that the tears would fall down and her grandmother would be taken away. "When grandma comes out, I'll ask him why he is so eccentric and gives you this land lease instead of me!"

She held the valuable title deed and said, "Fengyan, am I a little rich woman now?"

Voice did not fall, just listen to the end of the doctor opened the door, and then came out from inside a few nurses, they look dignified.

Su Xiaowan lost her things and rushed over.

"How's my grandmother?"

"Young granny, we tried our best. I'm sorry!"

She had a feeling that her head was heavy and her feet were light. The next moment, she fell down.

"Little grandma --!"

Feng Yan hugs Su Xiaowan and sends him to the emergency room.

Emergency room.

Feng Yan is stopped outside. Cheng Weiwei stands beside him and sees his tired look. It's almost midnight now.

But back and forth in the corridor, there are quite a lot of people.

The young master did not close his eyes for a rest.

This matter, to be unprepared.

Lingnan stood there, looking at Feng Yan.

"Young master, the old lady's death is a bit strange. In the morning, I checked her physical condition, so it's impossible to have a sudden heart attack..."

He said so, Feng Yan immediately understood, "to check the monitoring."

Cheng Weiwei nodded.

Ling Nan looked at him, "but I just speculated that after all, she died of heart disease. However, this heart disease has a genetic history, but the young grandmother does not. However, your child is likely to have a genetic heart disease. My suggestion is..."

Before Lingnan's voice fell, he heard Cheng Weiwei run over, "young master, the surveillance video has been transferred out. As soon as Su Zheng left, the old lady was critically ill."

"The old lady was discovered when the nurse went in to change the dressing!"

Su Zheng!

"Young master, you said that this matter was aimed at the young granny? Or for the old lady? "

Feng Yan frowned tightly.

He is a smart man. At least, at this time, he can see through it at a glance. Su Zheng's company today is an empty shell, in urgent need of capital turnover.

I don't know where I heard that the old lady has money. I want to get some money from the old lady for turnover.

However, this video can only prove that he came to the ward, but it can't prove that he did harm to people.

After all, the old lady seems to have a heart attack.

The door suddenly opened, and Su Xiaowan was pushed out. "Sir, this young lady fainted because she was too emotional. After a short rest, she will wake up!"

Feng Yan looks at Su Xiaowan lying down and closes his eyes.

It looks very fragile. Follow her cart, just ready to go.

Cheng Weiwei called him.

"The old lady's funeral..."

Feng Yan turned back and said, "wait until she wakes up. You go to deal with the later things first."

Feng Yan lip flap moved, "to inform Su Chenchen."

"Yes."

.....

When Su Xiaowan woke up, it was an hour later. He didn't know how long he had slept. He only knew that when he woke up, Feng Yan's face was heavy.

And the dark days outside.

For a moment, because of the light in the room, she was a little distracted. Looking at the appearance of the man, Su Xiaowan spoke for a long time.

"Grandma, she..."

Su Xiaowan's lips trembled. She thought of something. She stumbled down from the bed and ran to the ward where grandma lived. The door was open. At the moment, the nurse was covering grandma with white sheets.

She still did not respond to the reality that Grandma had left. Even if she saw this scene, which she had seen in TV series many times, she still didn't believe it at this time.

Maybe she wanted to paralyze her nerves, and always hinted that it was not true.

She ran over, kneeling beside the bed, trembling to uncover the white cloth on Grandma's face, but was stopped by the nurse, "don't let the old man go uneasy."

Su Xiaowan was trembling, looking at the man lying there covered with white cloth, "I want to see my grandmother --!"

Her tone with the attitude of asking for help, to see the several nurses can not help but refuse.

"There are rules in Fengzhen. If you close the white cloth, don't pull it apart. Otherwise, the old man will not be at ease..."

Su Xiaowan's hand held, she saw the hand under the white cloth, the hand did not cover, so she held it tightly.

Grandma's hands are still hot, just like when she was a child, very hot.

She always said that grandma's hands are the warmest in the world, because they are always warm.

If she has a stomachache, grandma's hand will cover her stomach.

The fever, grandma's hand will be on her forehead.

Uncomfortable, grandma's hand, will be patting the back of her hand.

Grandma's craftsmanship has been very good. When she grasped her hand, she knew that she had a lot of cocoons.

It's rough, but it can't stop the heat of the palm.

Because her hands are too cold.

She cried and cried in a hoarse voice.

"Are you mistaken? My grandmother's hands are still hot, her hands are still hot..."

"Little girl, life, old age, death, I'm sorry --" Those nurses looked at her, the one who lost his family was not so hard to accept, but the reality... The old man really left.

I didn't come back. I died on the operating table.

The death notice was handed to Su Xiaowan's hand. Su Xiaowan looked at the name on it and suddenly felt weak. He didn't know if someone had left next door and cried loudly.

But here she is, cold and quiet.

There are only a few.

She felt her grandmother's sorrow. When she died, she left without a son or daughter.

She asked more than once, is grandma resentful?

She said, no complaints.

She lay on her grandmother's body and cried for a long time. She felt that all her strength was suddenly pulled away. When her mother died, she didn't have much impression.

When her grandfather died, she was still a child. She didn't know about the birth, aging, illness and death.

But she did see her grandmother leave with her own eyes. She was fine yesterday. She was fine yesterday

The nurse took a look at the girl sitting on the ground, and finally helped her up. Maybe they were used to watching life, old age, illness and death, so they didn't feel Su Xiaowan's weakness.

Su Xiaowan watched helplessly as her grandmother was covered with white cloth and pushed out.

She chased her out until the door of the morgue closed tightly. Only then did Su Xiaowan realize that Grandma had really left

She has no grandmother.

No one will make her porridge, tell her jokes and accompany her any more.

She lay down in Feng Yan's arms and cried to death.

"Feng Yan, I don't have a grandmother. I don't have a grandmother."
