

Goodbye My Alpha Chapter 341

, 2024

chapter341

Taya looked at him helplessly and said, "If my sister knew that you would treat me like this, she probably wouldn't have done what she did and given me her wolf."

These words seemed to have touched Amon, and his dark and deep eyes suddenly turned red with his wolf. Hair started to sprout on the backs of his hands, and his claws came out.

Taya had never seen him start to shift into his wolf, and at times she even forgot he was a wolf shifter.

He got up and left quickly. His footsteps were a little unsteady, and his back looked rigid, like he was struggling to control himself and keep himself from shifting.

However, Taya couldn't be bothered to care less about his struggle. She looked away and out of the window.

George said that she was recovering well, but she still needed a bit more time since she hadn't communed with her wolf yet and he wasn't sure what would happen to her body when and if she shifted.

She didn't want to stay any longer.

chapter341

But she was a dead person in Arcadia. Without any identifying information, how could she return home?

She frowned and thought about it. Perhaps she could use Rosalie's passport to secretly buy a ticket back home.

Rosalie did not have a death certificate, and her personal information was still kept in Aronland.

She looked similar to Rosalie, and now she was dressed like Rosalie. If she put on makeup like her, Taya should be able to get through customs.

If she couldn't make it, she might as well be locked up for identity theft. It was better than staying by Amon's side as a substitute.

However, Rosalie's passport was in Amon's room...

This seaside villa was bought for Rosalie by Amon. There were traces of their previous lives in it.

He put all of Rosalie's things in his room. If Taya wanted to get the passport, she had to find him.

Taya chose a day when Amon was not at home and sneaked into his room...

This was the first time that Taya had entered Amon's room.

chapter341

When she saw that it was filled with her sister's portraits, she was shocked.

She could imagine how crazy and how much Amon missed Rosalie after her death...

Unfortunately, her sister would never come back to life, and Amon could only rely on these portraits to survive.

Taya put away her thoughts and began to look for Rosalie's passport, but she couldn't find it no matter how hard she searched the room.

Just as she was feeling a little discouraged, Amon leaned against the door with a passport between his fingers.

"Are you looking for this?"

Taya, who was still looking down and searching the drawer, paused at the sound of his voice.

She looked up at the passport in Amon's hand, and her face paled.

Amon took the passport and walked up to her. He placed his hands on the table and looked down at her.

"Do you really want to go back?"

chapter341

Taya nodded without hesitation.

4/5

Amon stared at her for a long time. Then he suddenly agreed,

"You can go back, but promise me one thing."

"What's the condition?"

Amon took out a diamond ring box, opened it, and rushed it in front of her. "Mate me."

She looked at the diamond ring and then at him in disbelief.

However, Amon had no expression on his face as he said to her, "Mate me as Rosalie."

Taya understood that he was doing this for her sister, but he didn't have to mate her for her sister's sake.

Amon seemed to have noticed the doubt in her eyes, and he explained calmly, "I must ensure that your sister's spirit will always be by my side."

If he tied her up in the name of mating, no one would compete with him for her...

Taya raised her clear eyes and stared at Amon.

After a long time, she sighed softly and said, "Amon, I'm not Rosalie. How can I replace her and mate you?"

on's handsome face was full of indifference. "You can refuse, but don't even think about returning home..."

Taya was stunned. Amon tapped the jewelry box with the passport and said, "I'll wait for you for five minutes."

In other words, he would only give her one chance. If she did not agree, she could not go back in the future.

Taya felt as if there was a stone pressing down on her heart, making it difficult for her to breathe or make a decision.

Amon maintained his position of looking down as he observed the changes in her expression as if he was determined to win.

Five minutes later, Taya took a deep breath and nodded. "Okay, I promise you, but we can only get mated in name."

Amon snorted again. "What else do you think it is?"

He picked up the diamond ring, raised his chin, and motioned for her to reach out her hand.

chapter342

After putting on the ring, Amon put down her hand and looked at her with his deep and dark eyes. "Let's go to the Yardley elders tomorrow."

After saying that, he put away Rosalie's passport, turned around, and walked out.

Taya raised her hand and looked at her ring finger, feeling indescribably awkward.

She had a feeling that she would be tied to Amon for the rest of her life.

Taya didn't know what Amon had done, but he had managed to change all of her information to Rosalie's. Even down to facial recognition.

From today onwards, she was no longer Taya, but Rosalie.

A month later, Taya boarded an international flight to Arcadia.

She sat in a window seat in the first-class cabin and looked out at the sky in a daze.

Just as the cabin door was about to close, a tall figure walked in.

When Taya saw him, her eyes widened slightly. "Didn't you tell

chapter342

me to go back by myself?"

Amon sat down next to her, crossed his legs, and said casually, "Do you believe what I said?"

Taya was speechless.

Since she met Amon, it was easier for her to feel speechless.

She simply ignored him, turned her head and continued to look out the window.

Amon also ignored her. He picked up the financial newspaper and read it.

After Taya fell asleep a few times, the plane finally arrived in Arcadia.

She moved her stiff arms and legs, got up, and got off the plane.

Amon followed behind her, and the two of them walked out of the airport at a proper distance.

Their bags were checked. Amon went to pick up the luggage and told her to wait.

She took out her phone and continued to dial the numbers of Silas and Harper.

chapter342

As usual, the phones were off. Then she sent them text messages.

4/4

Just as she was typing, there was a commotion behind her.

She looked back...

A group of professional bodyguards in black suits and ties surrounded a man and walked over.

The man wore a white shirt, a black su, and a priceless watch. He exuded power from head to toe.

His chiseled face was as cold as snow, and his eyes were as indifferent as ever.

With a snarl, he quickly walked out of the airport with the bodyguards...

When Taya saw him, she froze. Just as she was about to turn around to avoid him, he cast his icy gaze at her.

Griffon suddenly stopped in his tracks and stared blankly at Taya, who was wearing a red dress and had shoulder-length short hair...

chapter343

The moment Griffon saw Taya, his eyes widened.

There was a hint of joy on his handsome face, and his body filled with longing.

The world seemed to quieten down all a sudden. The people around her seemed to disappear and he saw only her.

He just stood there and stared at her.

She... Didn't she die?

She... Was she still alive?

He forced his shocked body to move and walked toward Taya.

When Taya saw him walking over, she wanted to turn around to avoid him. However, she saw that he suddenly stopped after taking a few steps.

He put away the warmth in his eyes, and his expression gradually turned cold and distant again.

Seeing that he was looking at her as if she was a stranger, she gradually stopped being nervous and calmed down.

chapter343

Sure enough, he didn't care whether she was dead or alive.

Even if he saw her come back to life, he was only shocked for a moment and then didn't react at all.

The corners of her mouth curled up slightly. Without hesitation, she turned around and walked in the direction of the baggage carousel.

When the figure disappeared into the crowd, Griffon slowly came to his senses and looked at the .dicine in his hand.

1

As expected, he couldn't take Ambien anymore. The side effects made his symptoms so serious that he had hallucinations in broad daylight. The doctor hadn't thought the side effects would be as serious for him as for humans, thanks to his wolf's metabolism, but that didn't appear to be the case now.

It was just that this time, Taya showed up in his hallucination with a different appearance, which was different from other times...

Her waist-length curly hair was cut into short hair, and her light-colored clothes were also changed into bright red clothes...

When Griffon couldn't tell reality from illusion, Andre, who had recovered from his shock, said to him, "Alpha, I would swear I

chapter343

saw Ms. Palmer just now..."

When Griffon heard this, his heart skipped a beat.

**

As soon as Amon took off the luggage from the baggage carousel, he saw Taya walking over.

He frowned slightly. "Didn't I tell you trait there?"

His tone was very unhappy as if he was scolding her for being disobedient.

Taya rolled her eyes at him. "I'm afraid you'll take the wrong luggage."

After putting the phone into her small bag, she took the suitcase from him, pushed it, and walked away.

Amon lifted his long leg and kicked another large suitcase in front of her. "I'll leave this to you."

Taya was speechless.

She glared at Amon's back, pushed the two large suitcases, and followed him out.

After leaving the airport, Taya returned the suitcase to him.

chapter343

"I'm going to find my friend. Let's part ways here."

4/5

Amon tilted his head slightly and looked down at her as if he was looking at a fool. "Why do you think I followed you back?"

Taya was speechless. She looked up at him and said, "I know, but I'm in a hurry to find my friend. You can't follow me, can you?"

Amon ignored her, looked away, and saw a commercial vehicle speeding toward the airport.

After the car stopped in front of them, Amon raised his chin.

"Get in the car."

Taya was stunned. When did Amon call a car? He even booked a luxury commercial car. It was a little extravagant.

After getting out of the car, the driver bowed respectfully to Amon and said, "Sir, there was a traffic jam on the way. Sorry to keep you waiting."

Amon waved his hand indifferently and then gave the driver a look.

The driver immediately took the luggage from Taya and said, "Ms. Carmine, leave the luggage to me. Please get in the car with Mr. Yardley first."

chapter344

Seeing the driver's respectful attitude toward Amon, Taya was a little confused...

After getting into the car in a daze, she couldn't help but turn to look at Amon, who was sitting next to her.

"What do you do?"

She had been living in Aronland with Amon for a while, but she had never seen Amon go to work. How did he become a big shot as soon as he returned?

Amon raised an eyebrow at her. "Architectural designer."

The driver in the front row turned around and added, "Mr.

Yardley is a world-famous architectural designer. He is ranked second."

Taya asked, "Who ranks first?"

The driver suddenly fell silent, while Amon turned his head to look out of the window.

As if she had brought up a sensitive topic, the temperature in the car dropped sharply.

chapter344

She lowered her head and thought for a moment. Could it be that her sister, Rosalie, ranked first?

The car soon stopped in front of a villa. After the driver parked the car in the garage, he moved the luggage down.

As he pushed the luggage, he said to them, "Mr. Yardley, Ms. Carmine, please come with me."

Amon didn't seem to be very familiar with the villa. The driver led the way in front, and he followed sually behind.

Taya walked into the villa and looked around. The layout of the home was similar to the villa in Aronland.

However, she couldn't be bothered to care less about the layout and style. She only wanted to do one thing now, and that was to find Harper and Silas.

After picking a secondary bedroom on the second floor, she couldn't wait to ask him, "Can I leave now?"

He crossed his arms in front of his chest and leaned lazily against the doorframe. "Do you know how to drive?"

Taya gritted her teeth. "Yes!"

Goodbye, My Alpha.

chapter345

Amon turned around and went to the study. He casually took a car key and threw it into Taya's hand. "You must come back at 10 o'clock in the evening, or I'll arrest you myself."

Taya glanced at the car key and then looked at him. "Does my sister have a driver's license here?"

Amon couldn't be bothered to answer her stupid question, so he turned around and went straight back to his room.

When Taya was at a loss with the car key in her hand, the driver came in and handed her a folder.

Taya opened it and saw that it contained all the relevant information about Rosalie, whether at home or abroad.

Rosalie often went back and forth between home and abroad, so she had a driver's license in the US. Taya didn't know how Amon replaced the ID photo on the license.

She heaved a sigh of relief, took the license and car keys, and hurried to the garage.

When she saw that the headlights of the Mercedes were turned on, she was stunned.

chapter345

Could it be that Amon had prepared it for her in advance?

Taya didn't have time to think about it. She opened the car door, got in, and went straight to Harper's apartment.

She went to look for Harper first because the Sterling pack had left a psychological shadow in her heart. She did not dare to look for Silas like before.

She drove to the apartment in a hurry, only to find that the lock had been changed, and even the door had been changed.

Standing outside the door, Taya was stunned for a moment and didn't know what to do. "Could she be at Damian's pack house here?" she wondered.

She vaguely felt that Harper would not be in the house Damian had gotten for them after their mating ceremony, but she still drove towards the pack neighborhood where Damian and Harper's home was located.

She parked the car at the gate of the community, registered with the pack guard, and hurried to their home.

When she stood at the door, she was still a little nervous.

She was afraid of scaring Harper. After taking a few deep

chapter345

breaths, she plucked up her courage and knocked on the door.

Soon, a woman's voice came from inside. "Who is it?"

This voice wasn't from Harper. Rather, it sounded more like...

chapter346

Just as Taya was thinking about who it was, the door was pushed open from the inside.

Michelle appeared in front of her with a child in her arms.

Taya glanced at Michelle and then at the child in Michelle's arms. The child was staring at her with big eyes.

Taya was stunned for a moment and thought that Michelle was living in Harper and Damian's house temporarily, so she didn't ask any more questions. She just asked, "I'm Harper's friend. Is she at home?"

At first, Michelle couldn't tell who the glamorous woman in front of her was. It wasn't until Taya spoke that Michelle remembered who she was.

"You, you, you..."

Michelle was so scared that her face turned pale. She held the child in her arms and stepped back repeatedly. "Ghost!!!"

Taya was stunned for a moment. She took a step forward and was about to tell Michelle that she was a human, not a ghost.

chapter346

Michelle was frightened by Taya's actions. She turned around and ran away. "That b*tch's friend turned into a ghost and came looking for us!!!"

Hearing this, Taya suddenly stopped in her tracks. Who was she calling hubby?

Who was that b*tch referring to?

While she was frowning and thinking, Damian came out of the kitchen. When he saw Taya standing at the door in red, he was so scared that his whole body went limp.

"You..."

He seemed to be guilty of something and was even more scared than Michelle. He couldn't even say a word.

Taya didn't have time to waste on him. She walked straight up to him and asked coldly, "Where is Harper?"

When his wolf scented Taya, he was sure that the person in front of him was a human and not a ghost...

But... Taya was dead...

How could she appear here alive?

Damian couldn't believe it. His eyes widened as he stared

chapter346

blankly at Taya. He didn't even hear her question.

"Where's Harper?" Taya asked impatiently.

Only then did Damian come back to his senses, but he still felt a lingering fear in his heart. "She should be... in the nightclub..."

Harper usually worked at the nightclub at night and seldom in during the day. Why was she there at this time?

She hurried out and quickly drove to the nightclub...

The place where Harper worked was called Heaven and Earth, which was a high-end entertainment place in Arcadia.

She left car with the parking attendant and went straight in to look for Harper. When she found that it had been renovated, she was stunned.

The decoration inside was as elegant as that of Nightshade.

was more high-end than it used to be.

She only looked around for a moment and then looked away. She walked to the front desk and said, "Hello, can I trouble you to ask Harper to come out?"

The receptionist stood up with a standard smile and asked,

"May I ask who you are?"

A

Taya said that she was Harper's friend. Hearing that, the receptionist smiled apologetically and said, "I'm sorry, Miss, our boss is not here for the time being."

Boss?

"Is Harper the boss here?" she thought.

Taya was confused. She remembered that she had asked Silas to take good care of Harper when she was alive. Could it be that Silas had helped Harper take over the nightclub?

There were too many questions in her mind, and she couldn't help but ask anxiously, "Do you know when she'll be back?"

The receptionist smiled and shook her head. "I'm not sure."

Taya had no choice but to ask the receptionist for Harper's contact information, but the receptionist refused to tell her.

She didn't want to make things difficult, but she wouldn't give up. She asked the receptionist to call Harper.

The receptionist kindly dialed Harper's number, but Harper

chapter346

didn't answer.

Taya sighed and chose a place to sit down, intending to wait for Harper here.

chapter347

At about nine o'clock in the evening, the receptionist told her that Harper probably would not come to the nightclub tonight. The receptionist asked her to leave and come back tomorrow.

Taya had no choice but to suppress her anxiety, get up, and walk out of the nightclub...

As soon as she walked to the parking lot and was about to pick up the car, a tall and straight figure suddenly enveloped her...

She raised her head and met a pair of red wolf eyes. Her heart skipped a beat, and she subconsciously turned around to leave.

However, her hand was grabbed by the man. Without any hesitation, he pulled her into his arms and tightened his grip on her waist.

He stroked her back with his other hand, pressed the back of her head, and pressed her into his chest.

After using all his strength to hug the woman in his arms tightly, he put his strong chiseled chin on her shoulder...

chapter347

Feeling her warmth and smelling her familiar scent, Griffon was sure that it wasn't an illusion. This was reality...

His heart, which had been empty and painful for three years, also felt peaceful for a moment when he held her in his arms...

The person he had missed for so long was still alive and wasn't dead. Griffon was regaining what he had lost was...

He hugged her tightly and didn't say anything. Perhaps he couldn't say a word. He just wanted to hold her as close as he could, and his wolf practically ran around in circles with excitement.

Taya was surprised. Griffon was so strange. They saw each other at the airport, and he treated her coldly. What did he mean by suddenly hugging her?

Moreover, he had never hugged her like this in public. It made her feel that after this time she had been gone, there was something wrong with his brain.

She frowned and struggled to push him away, but he grabbed her wrist with one hand, turned around, and pressed her against the car door.

“You-”

Before she could finish her scolding, he bent down and kissed

chapter347

her.

The moment he touched her, he kissed her passionately as if he had gone mad and let loose his wild wolf on her.

Such a passionate and crazy kiss was something that had never happened before. He seemed to have poured all his longing into this kiss.

He kissed her desperately.

Taya’s petite body was pressed against the car door. She could not move at all.

She was almost suffocated by his kiss...

She could only bite him, but he only paused for a moment and still did not let go of her...

Taya was trembling with anger. What does he take me for? A toy that he can throw away at will? I am a human being. How could he treat me like this? How could he act as if nothing had happened after hurting me?

The more Taya thought about it, the angrier she became. She tried her best to break free from his grip, pushed him away, and raised her hand to slap him hard!

Bang!

apter347

sound echoed throughout the underground garage.

When the echo reached Griffon's ears, the confusion in his eyes dissipated.

He raised his wolf eyes to look at Taya. Just as he was about to call out her name, she picked up her phone and called the police.

He raised his hand to hold her hand, lowered his head, and said, "I'm sorry, I..."

"Sir, I don't accept apologies. I'm going to sue you for harassment!" she interrupted him with a stern face.

Sir?

He stopped and asked her in disbelief, "Taya, what... what did you call me?"

"Taya? My surname is Carmine, and I am not Taya! Don't try to get away with a stupid excuse of mistaken identity for a crime you've committed!"

After pushing his hand away, Taya took a step back, clenched her phone, crossed her arms over her chest, and raised her chin to look at him.

Her expression was arrogant, and her tone was domineering. She was completely different from the gentle and obedient Taya of the past.

But her familiar face was exactly the same as Taya's, just with different, more mature makeup.

There was a look of disbelief on Griffon's handsome face. This was clearly his Taya.

He raised his hand and wanted to touch her face.

However, she tilted her head back to avoid his touch.

"Sir, if you mess around again, I'll call for help!"

Griffon lowered his head slightly and looked at her with narrowed eyes.

Taya's eyelashes fluttered slightly, but her expression was calm. When she looked at him, there was no emotion in her eyes.

"I don't know what you're talking about."

She raised her hand to wipe her swollen red lips and glared at him in disgust.

"Forget it, I'll take it as being bitten by a mad dog."

After that, she quickly turned around and walked to her car.

As soon as she opened the door, she saw a large hand slamming the door shut.

Without giving her any chance to resist, he carried her tightly in his arms.

"You're crazy. Let go of me. Help!"

Taya was trembling with anger and struggling desperately,

Taya clenched her fists and looked at the man who walked towards the driver's seat. When she saw him open the door and come in, she wanted to take the opportunity to escape.

However, he reacted faster than her. He quickly sat down and locked the door again. The narrow space was suddenly sealed.

Taya forced herself to calm down and looked at the man who was starting the car. "Sir, what are you going to do?"

After turning on the air conditioner, he leaned over and approached her, placing his fingertips on the car window behind her.

He lowered his eyes and looked at the petite woman in front of him. There was an unprecedented attachment in his eyes.

"Taya..."

He called out her name, and it seemed to use almost all his strength in his life.

She opened her mouth and wanted to refute him, but he grabbed the back of her head with one hand.

ear, "I..."

He missed her for what felt like forever. He missed her crazily.

He couldn't fall asleep. He was in a trance. And he even hallucinated because of taking too much medicine...

Finally, he knew that she was still alive. And finally, he found her. How could he let her go so easily?

A trace of disbelief appeared on Taya's calm face, and then she sneered in her heart.

Would he miss me? What a joke! He dic all. How could he miss me? Could it be that after I died, he couldn't find another contract mistress, so he missed me?

Taya didn't believe him at all. She struggled to push him away and looked at him coldly.

"I'm not Taya. My name is Rosalie, and I'm from Aronland. If you don't believe me, you can check."

Her eyes were cold and calm as if he was just a fool who had mistaken her for someone else.

When he saw the look in her eyes, his heart ached, and intense pain spread throughout his body.

chapter349

In the past, the way she looked at him was not very affectionate, but it was definitely not as calm as it was now.

This kind of calmness made him panic.

He couldn't help holding her face and lowering his proud head to her. "Taya, you can blame me or hate me, but..."

He paused for a moment. When he spoke again, his voice almost trembled, but he managed to tap into his proud Alpha strength and keep it even.

“Please, don’t pretend that you don’t know me.”

chapter350

In the past, Griffon had always been domineering and had never spoken to her in such a pleading tone.

Taya raised her eyes and sized him up...

He had lost a bit of weight, and there were dark circles under his eyes. It seemed that he hadn’t slept well, that he wasn’t keeping himself in good enough shape for his wolf to stay strong and vital.

However, what did this have to do with her?

Now, she no longer had any hope for him. She just wanted to push him away and stay away from him...

She looked away and said calmly, “Sir, my ID is in my car. I can show it to you.”

Her indifferent, calm, and confident look made him feel uneasy. “Taya...”

Taya interrupted him coldly, “You’ve really mistaken me for someone else.”

He shook his head gently and said firmly, “I’d never forget you.”

Taya took a deep breath. Knowing that he had always been stubborn, she stopped arguing with him.

She picked up her phone and looked at the time. It was almost ten o’clock. If she didn’t go back now, Amon would definitely make trouble for her.

She frowned and said to him, “Whatever you think, but I have to go back now. My mate is waiting for me.”

Mate?

He was stunned as if he couldn't believe that she would say “mate“.

Taya didn't explain further. She patted the lock and motioned for him to open the door. “I'll forget what happened just now. Please open the door and let me go.”

He didn't seem to hear her. He stared at her with his red eyes and asked, “You... Do you have a mate?”

She nodded without hesitation and raised her right hand for him to see.

The moment he saw the glittering diamond ring on her ring finger, his heart skipped a beat.

“You...”

“I'm mated.”

Taya's simple words hit him like a semi truck.

He took a deep breath to relieve some of the dull pain, then raised his hand and grabbed her right hand...

He wrapped her small hand in his big palm and covered the dazzling diamond ring. Then, he looked down at her.

“In the past, in order to push me away, you lied to me several times. This time, I will never believe y again.”

Taya's eyelashes trembled slightly as if she had recalled the past when she had lied to him. She quickly suppressed her reaction.

“I don't care if you don't believe me. I can easily prove who I am if you'd let me get my ID.”

His glowing eyes were still full of disbelief. "Taya, don't lie to me anymore..."

He couldn't stand it. He was afraid of being lied to, afraid of losing control of his emotions, afraid of missing her, and even more afraid that she was telling the truth.

chapter350

4/4

Taya was getting impatient, so she looked at him even colder. "Are you crazy? I told you I'm not her!"

She pushed him away and got up to open the door, but he wrapped his arms around her waist and held her tightly in his arms again.

Taya was so angry that she raised her hand and gave him another slap. He didn't dodge. Instead, he took it head-on.

Then he lowered his head to kiss her.

This time, he kissed her very eagerly as if he wanted to make sure that she was lying to him.

But...

A horn sounded on the opposite side, and then the light of the headlights shone on their faces.
