

Goodnight 1141

Chapter 1141

1141 A face delivered to the door, it would be a waste not to hit it (1)

He was really too charming!

But ...

Following Lei Xiao's line of sight, when he saw Lin Hanxing in the dim light, he finally understood why the usually cold and aloof young master of the Lei family would suddenly reveal his extreme charm.

That was a throbbing that only those who had truly fallen in love could understand!

The world was big, but only where she was could she settle down and get rid of the coldness!

If the majority of the people were not optimistic about the relationship between the Lin family's little nine and the Lei family's young master, after seeing this scene, the majority of them had completely changed their attitudes.

The overflowing love in the corners of her eyes, eyebrows, nose, and mouth was impossible to describe, no matter how superb her acting skills were!

It really made people envious and jealous!

Lin Hanxing's face heated up under Lei Xiao's gaze.

As her long eyelashes trembled slightly, even the dim lights seemed to give her a soft Halo.

a sexy figure with a golden ratio. He must have six-pack abs!

Annatuer commented from a 'professional' perspective.

That lean and powerful waistline that formed an inverted triangle ...

Hanxing's future sexual happiness was obviously very guaranteed!

"Ahem, eight pieces."

Lin Hanxing was embarrassed and gave his husband a name.

"Wow!"

Annatuer looked at Lin Hanxing with a gaze that only women would understand, not knowing that their conversation had been clearly seen by Lei Xiao, who was good at lip reading.

The corners of his thin lips curved up again.

It was even more intoxicating than the last time!

Valette turned his head and looked at Lei Xiao.

In her memory, he was a decisive killer.

He was also ruthless.

It could even be called cruel.

Having known ray for so many years, he had never seen such a gentle attitude from his unfathomable friend.

Just based on this point, Valette would naturally not underestimate the woman who changed Lei Xiao!

The group walked towards Lin Hanxing.

As Lei kangnian and Valette were old acquaintances, he stood up to welcome them.

“Where are Yan beixun and Liang yuran?”

Taking advantage of the small talk, Lin Hanxing lowered his voice and asked Lei Xiao. At that time, they had left together.

The Thunder valiant beast lowered its head.

She reached out and tucked Lin Hanxing’s wind-blown hair behind his ear.

He smiled and said nothing.

When facing outsiders, his cold facial features softened a lot.

“Who do you want to scheme against this time?”

Lin Hanxing raised his eyebrows, but he knew that Lei Xiao was a taciturn person who would not talk about things he did not want to talk about, so no one could pry any useful information out of him.

“Hanxing,”

As they were talking, father Lei had already beckoned for the two of them to come over.

“Why don’t we take a picture together?”

Valette actually smiled and took the initiative to make this request, which surprised Lin Hanxing.

After all, this Saudi heavyweight rarely left any traces in the media. Taking the initiative to take a photo was already a great gift and face in the eyes of outsiders.

At this time, the media reporters who had recognized Walter’s identity swarmed toward him like crazy.

However, the security of Y. R. Was like an iron wall.

No one could break through it no matter what!

“Mr. Valette!”

“Mr. Valette, look over here!”

“I hope Mr. Valette can accept our program’s exclusive ...”

The voices rose one after another, but Valette didn't even look back. His bodyguards were standing in the corners, and each position was the best position. If there was a slight movement, they would be able to protect their employer at the fastest speed.

Lin Hanxing took a few quick glances and could tell that Valette's bodyguards were all armed with loaded guns.

He retracted his gaze.

Mr. Valette, it just so happens that we have promised this reporter friend that we would take a family photo. I wonder if you would mind? "

Lin Hanxing said indifferently. He did not show any signs of flattery because of the other party's identity.

Valette glanced at her.

Obviously, he felt that this little girl in front of him was interesting.

Lin Hanxing didn't try to avoid him and allowed him to size him up.

He was generous.

Valette laughed and expressed that he didn't mind.

When they saw Valette's smile, many people couldn't help but gasp in their hearts.

Only the heavens knew that Valette's background meant that he wasn't a friendly person. Being in the vortex of the Saudi royal family, his style of doing things was always iron-blooded.

But now, such a person was actually speaking with such a pleasant expression ...

This was enough to show how special the relationship between him and young master Lei was!

All the reporters who were separated in the media seats were looking forward to it, hoping that Lin Hanxing would call out his name. If they could take a photo of Mr. Valette, their status in the unit would be completely different!

This was a person that the global media rarely got to see in person!

"Reporter Zhou."

Just as the media workers were fantasizing and looking forward to it, they heard Lin Hanxing pick someone.

Reporter Zhou, who was called out, could not believe his ears!

She stood up in a daze.

His eyes widened.

Although Lei BA had previously agreed to take photos of him, reporter Zhou did not have any hopes ever since Valette appeared. After all, with Valette's status, regardless of experience or qualifications, such a good opportunity would never land on his head. Moreover ...

So many people were still eyeing them covetously!

However, Lin Hanxing had actually called out his name and given him the chance!

This was simply a great honor!

“Can I trouble you to take this picture?”

Lin Hanxing looked at reporter Zhou, who was still immersed in his joy, and continued to throw a pie at his head.

“Yes, yes! Of course you can!”

Ignoring the envious, jealous, or dissatisfied exclamations of his colleagues, reporter Zhou quickly agreed with his camera in his hand and looked at Lin Hanxing with gratitude.

“Mr. Valette, can I post this photo on my personal blog?”

Reporter Zhou asked in English.

However, he regretted it immediately after asking, for fear of causing trouble for Lin Hanxing.

“It’s my honor,”

Who would have thought that Valette would actually agree with a smile, causing everyone’s jaws to drop in shock.

Reporter Zhou was so excited that he was on the verge of tears.

When everyone arrived and got into position, the group photo was taken with professional standards!

Then, with a pious attitude, he added his personal and posted it on his WeChat moments and Weibo!

It instantly caused a chain reaction!

At the same time, Lin Hanxing’s Bluetooth headset, which had been hidden under his hair, began to move.

He turned his back slightly away from the crowd and picked up the phone.

However, when he heard the report from his subordinate on the other end of the phone, his eyes revealed a playful look.

In the dim lights.

Lin Hanxing’s expression was as sly as a little fox.

“If that’s the case, then let her in.”

After saying this, Lin Hanxing hung up the phone first and a thin smile appeared on his face.

“Han mingmei is here?”

On the other end, the Lei family and the few distinguished guests were seated again while Lei Xiao stood beside Lin Hanxing without moving.

His voice was extremely low.

Lin Hanxing's ears felt numb.

Lin Hanxing's eyes curved even more like crescent moons.

Chapter 1142

1142 A face delivered to the door, it would be a waste not to hit it (2)

When han mingmei arrived, there was a large group of people following behind her!

It was also because of her appearance that the Qi corporation's press conference fell into a strange silence for a short time.

Many of the guests had come from the launch of the new product of CQ group.

Previously, in order to leave, he had thought of all sorts of excuses. Now that he was caught red-handed, how could he not feel embarrassed?

At the same time, she was also complaining in her heart that han mingmei would not do anything.

He had brought so many people here, obviously to cause trouble!

Even a random person could see the disparity in strength. If this wasn't overestimating his own ability, what was it?

As they thought about it, the guests looked at the specifications that Lin Hanxing had set up for the Qi Corporation and thought of the group of young hunks that han mingmei had invited. In comparison ...

Even if no one else said anything, han mingmei had already become the joke of the car!

"Han mingmei, you ..."

At this moment, Qi Li's former assistant was standing next to han mingmei, and she was jealous of her enemy. Moreover, this assistant had been ordered by han mingmei to go to the Qi Corporation to mock and ridicule her.

Although Lin Hanxing didn't let the other party succeed, Qi Li was still completely hurt in the end.

Before Qi Li could finish her words, Lin Hanxing reached out and stopped her.

In Qi Li's heart, nothing was more important than Lin Hanxing's words. She immediately shut her mouth, but her eyes were still fixed on him!

Lin Hanxing raised his head and met han mingmei's eyes.

There seemed to be sparks crackling in the silent air.

Han mingmei's heart was burning with anger.

Snatching Thunder owl away, the injury on her shoulder that made her unable to pick up the recurve bow, the slap her father had given her in the afternoon, being 'invited' out of Yan family's old home, and tonight ...

How could all these things not involve little nine of the Lin family?

Han mingmei had never felt this much pain before.

"It's out of my expectations that you'll visit us in your busy schedule, President han."

Lin Hanxing said emotionlessly. Although he said that, the expression on his face clearly did not 'surprise' her!

"Hehe, I'm here to grow my eyes too, aren't I?"

After she said this, han mingmei's face revealed a fake smile.

At the same time, it affected the wound on her face.

When she saw so many international heavyweights coming to support Lin Hanxing, han mingmei's heart was filled with jealousy.

"What if I say you're not welcome?"

Lin Hanxing's long eyelashes fluttered, and a cold glint appeared.

"....."

"....."

"....."

The impolite words immediately made the situation awkward.

Perhaps no one would have expected Lin Hanxing to say something like that!

"I was just joking with you, President han."

Lin Hanxing said coldly. As for whether it was a real joke or a fake joke, the answer was up to the wise and the benevolent.

Just as they were talking.

All of a sudden, the sound of police sirens could be heard. The red and blue lights that intertwined caused the venue to be filled with a tense atmosphere.

It's here!

Han mingmei's brows twitched, and her heart was filled with ecstasy. Even her gaze was rather presumptuous!

Annatuer stood beside Lin Hanxing. When she saw han mingmei's ugly expression, she could not help but sneer in her heart.

He wanted to compare himself to Hanxing with this little ability to show his happiness and anger on his face ...

It was exactly like what Jennifer had said about overestimating her own ability!

The police officer got out of the car.

“Who called the police just now?”

A deep voice sounded, and his eyes were sharp.

“I called the police!”

Qi Li’s former assistant said, and as soon as she finished speaking, it caused a great uproar!

Han mingmei smiled at Lin Hanxing coldly.

There seemed to be a hint of provocation in it.

Qi Li clenched her fingers. She didn’t expect han mingmei to do this!

She was simply sticking a dog-skin plaster!

It was like a ghost that refused to leave!

the Qi Corporation stole important confidential documents from my company and ...

Qi Liyuan’s original assistant looked around with a smug expression, causing the guests from Jiangcheng’s wealthy families who had already left midway to look away guiltily.

the costumes at the Qi corporation’s press conference tonight were all copied from my company!

you’re talking nonsense!!!

Although Qi Li had a new understanding of han mingmei’s shamelessness, she never thought that she could be so shameless. Qi Li was so angry that she laughed!

“You’re the one who stole it ...”

Before Qi Li could finish her words, Lin Hanxing turned his head and glanced at her.

However, a glance was enough to make Qi Li’s rationality return.

“Could it be that President Qi is afraid?”

Qi Li, her former assistant, had been by her side for a long time, and she knew her temper well. She added fuel to the fire, hoping to make her lose her self-control even more.

There were media reporters here. Even if she had to make a fool of herself, it would be good.

Madam Lei had been paying attention to the situation over here. When she heard Lei Jue telling her that the assistant was the treacherous villain, she was instantly enraged.

But this time, she didn’t express it as directly as she did at the Lei family.

They were outside, and his every word and action represented the Lei family's face.

There can't be any mistakes!

Qi Li's former assistant had already planned to hide with the police when the other party was angry. If she was unlucky, Qi Li might even be accused of assaulting a police officer.

The expected rage did not come at all.

Although Qi Li was angry, she still controlled her temper!

Han mingmei's line of sight passed Lin Hanxing and looked at Lei Xiao.

There was no expression on his face.

Even if she was here, Lei Xiao did not even look at her. His cold attitude made her feel like a stranger, causing a chill to rise from her heart!

How could he do this!

She wished she could pull her heart out for him to see ...

How could he do this!

The more han mingmei thought about it, the more she hated Lin Hanxing.

Or rather ...

From the moment Lin Hanxing's arrow pierced through her shoulder, her heart had been twisted!

Looking at the situation, the police were in a difficult position.

This matter, in detail, should be considered a job related to economic investigation.

But ...

There were so many well-known and influential people at the scene.

If he didn't handle it well, he would ...

Just as he was thinking about this, the police received a call.

After listening for a short while, he looked at Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao with a strange expression.

As the police hung up the phone, Lin Hanxing gestured towards the stage and the music stopped. All the supermodels stood still on the stage.

Soon, someone handed the microphone to Lin Hanxing.

miss han mingmei, can you take responsibility for what you've done today? "

Lin Hanxing's cold voice spread to every corner of the room through the microphone.

Han mingmei's expression froze. She did not expect Lin Hanxing to face her directly!

Chapter 1143

1143 Who gave you such confidence?

She looked in her direction.

Lin Hanxing's lips curved into a lazy smile, and his eyes were cold.

Although he was still smiling, the pressure was so strong that it made it hard for people to breathe.

Han mingmei's heart skipped a beat.

But he still had to bite the bullet and answer her question.

He took the microphone from the waiter.

"Of course you can!"

Han mingmei hated the way Lin Hanxing looked at her. She was clearly the one who had the upper hand, but Lin Hanxing always looked like he had victory in his hands.

the CQ group will officially claim compensation from the Qi's group through legal Affairs tomorrow. The amount of compensation ...

Han mingmei glanced at Qi Li with disdain.

Wasn't she leaning against Lin xiaojiu?

She, han mingmei, wanted to see how that Lin guy would help her turn things around!

"At least 500 million!"

Han mingmei raised her hand, spread her slender fingers, and made a five.

Everyone was in an uproar.

Which of the guests with status in Jiang city didn't know the truth?

Back then, when the CQ team had poached the Qi corporation's core executives, they had almost forced them to go bankrupt. If it wasn't for Lin xiaojiu, the Qi Corporation would have been completely destroyed.

Who would have thought that the Lin family's orphan who had been missing for 18 years would suddenly have the ability to do whatever she wanted!

If han mingmei knew how to take advantage of the situation to make peace, it would be fine. After all, it was better to have one more friend than one more enemy in the business world. But looking at the situation in front of her, this girl from the Han family did not know what was advance and retreat!

Regardless of whether the Lei family or young master Lei would make a move, Lin xiaojiu alone ...

It was probably enough to make her suffer!

Qi Li subconsciously looked at Lin Hanxing.

Lin Hanxing stood at the intersection of light and shadow. There was no expression on his exquisite little face.

In the silence, only Han Mingmei's smile was the most smug.

No one noticed Lei Xiao glancing at his watch.

Suddenly, Lei Xiao leaned over and whispered something into Lin Hanxing's ear. Only the two of them could hear what he said.

However, it was obvious that Lin Hanxing's expression was subtle after he heard the story. He raised his head and looked at Lei Xiao for a moment.

No one knew what the two of them were planning.

However, when Mother Lei saw the look in Lei Xiao's eyes, she leisurely leaned back into her seat.

This Han Mingmei is really spoiled by that Han guy!

Mother Lei said indifferently.

Lei Jing and Lei Jue looked at each other with a profound look.

"There's no need to wait until tomorrow,"

Lin Hanxing said lazily, his expression returning to its usual calm state.

She raised her head and snapped her fingers, and someone brought a kraft paper bag to her. Lin Hanxing didn't even look at it and handed it to Qi Li with a blank expression.

Qi Li was stunned and instantly understood.

When he opened the file and saw the contents, although he was mentally prepared, he was still stunned.

He subconsciously looked at Lin Hanxing.

However, he saw that she was only fiddling with the diamond bracelet on her wrist as if she had done it unintentionally.

Qi Li made up her mind and took the microphone from the waiter.

Today, the Qi Corporation has officially made a report to the Jiangcheng Public Security Bureau and the Economic Investigation Department. We have entrusted Mr. Jin Owen to represent the Qi Corporation in pursuing the responsibility of the theft of the Qi Corporation's trade secrets and causing heavy losses to the account!

When Qi Li's voice spread through the microphone to every corner of the venue ...

Everyone was shocked!

Not to mention the content, just the name of Mr. Kim Orwenz was enough to shake people's hearts!

He was the head of the most famous lawyers in the world!

The King Owen Corporation provided legal services to many large international groups all year round, especially the Lei group's overseas branch and the X group. It was currently the chairman of the Global Executive Committee of the international law firm.

He was someone you wouldn't be able to hire no matter how much money you had.

Furthermore, Kim Orwenz never fought a battle he was not confident in. As long as he accepted a case, he would definitely win!

In addition, he had another identity.

He was the teacher of Lei Jue, one of the four young masters of the Lei family!

It could be said that it was no longer important who was hired by Han Mingmei to fight the lawsuit, because no one would risk their future to do something that was already strenuous and unrewarding from the beginning.

Han Mingmei was completely caught off guard by such a change!

She subconsciously turned her head to look at Lei Xiao!

Other than him, Han Mingmei could not imagine anyone else who had the ability to invite such a person!

At the same time, the Qi Corporation will compensate the DK organization for all the losses they've suffered. A conservative amount ...

Qi Li couldn't believe her eyes when she saw the series of numbers.

After counting a few times and confirming that there was no mistake, he spoke with a slightly trembling voice.

"One billion!"

What?

One billion?

Han Mingmei's eyes widened.

"Are you crazy?"

She was talking to Qi Li, but Han Mingmei's eyes were fixed on Lin Hanxing.

It was as if he wanted to pierce a hole through her face!

"Miss Han, you're wrong. You're the one who started the war, aren't you?"

Lin Hanxing sneered.

With just a look, the compensation agreement drafted by Kim Alvin was sent to Han Mingmei.

"Lei Xiao, you're going to let her bully me like this?"

Han Mingmei turned her head to look at Lei Xiao. Anyone who was not a fool would be able to see the fervent affection in her eyes.

did you help Lin xiaojiu and the others invite Kim orwenz? ”

Or perhaps the Lei family had helped her invite them?

“Are you really that heartless to me?”

Han mingmei could not help but walk towards Lei Xiao.

Thunder owl’s cold face didn’t change at all when he heard her words.

He was cold to begin with, and the intimidating aura he exuded was enough to make people feel his displeasure.

“I’ve given you a chance,”

The six simple words were deep and powerful.

It was like a cold whirlwind, causing everyone to feel fear.

“As long as I’m here, no one can hurt my wife!”

My wife ...

The words that han mingmei had been dreaming of finally came out of Lei Xiao’s mouth. However, he was representing someone else. He was helping another woman to demonstrate her power!

“I’m the one you should marry!”

Han mingmei did not care that there were other people present and shouted at Lei Xiao.

The blue veins on his neck were faintly moving.

It was enough to show how excited she was, and even the police officer beside her was shocked.

Qi Li hadn’t recovered from the shock brought by the document in her hand. Hearing han mingmei’s words, she couldn’t help but be angry. Was han mingmei crazy?

No matter how much he liked Thunder owl before, he couldn’t have done such a shameless thing.

Everyone looked at Lei Xiao, holding their breath as they waited for his answer.

After all, if one were to explain it in detail, the cause of the whole incident was indeed related to the Thunder valiant beast.

“Who gave you such confidence?”

Lei Xiao raised his head and looked directly at han mingmei, his voice incomparably cold.

Han mingmei’s face immediately turned pale!

At the same time, the sound of police sirens sounded from far away. Nearly ten police vehicles appeared in front of everyone!

Chapter 1144

1144 The arrival of the nightmare

When the car stopped, the car doors opened from the inside.

The police officer, who arrived early, took a closer look and couldn't help but gasp in his heart.

Wasn't the leader one of the higher-ups in the economic Investigation Department?

At this moment, Qi Li's former assistant no longer looked arrogant. She lowered her head and looked at her phone with cold sweat all over her face.

Ever since Lin xiaojiu started talking, his phone had lost signal.

Not to mention phone calls, even text messages, WeChat, and other communications were all cut off for no reason. At first, he thought that he was overthinking things, but when he saw the notification from the economic investigation, he suddenly had a bad feeling in his heart!

Han mingmei did not care at all.

His eyes were fixed on the Thunder valiant beast, as if he had suffered a huge blow!

No one noticed that Lin Hanxing seemed to have casually fiddled with the diamond bracelet on his wrist. Almost at the same time, the signal that had been cut off for a short time returned to normal.

Suddenly, han mingmei's quiet phone rang like it was taking her life.

Han mingmei did not take it.

But Qi Li's former assistant picked it up, and her face turned pale.

He couldn't tell if he was shocked or scared!

"You're han mingmei, right?"

The investigator walked toward han mingmei, his impartial face expressionless.

However, the experienced ones could clearly sense that they were not friendly.

Yan beiming and Liang yuran had unknowingly reappeared by Lei Xiao's side.

"Please come with us!"

The leader of the economic Investigation Department standing at the front spoke in a deep voice. As soon as he finished speaking, everyone was stunned by the sudden scene!

Although they already knew what was going on after the economic Investigation Department arrived, their initial plan was at most to bring the people around them to investigate. Who would have thought that they would touch han mingmei as soon as they came?

"My father is han boming. He knows your leader."

After a brief moment of shock, han mingmei lowered her voice and said to the other person. Unexpectedly, the person looked at her and sneered.

Han mingmei had never suffered such humiliation.

She immediately took out her phone to call han boming, but as soon as she took it out, she saw dozens of incoming calls on the screen, all of which were from the senior management of CQ.

His heart skipped a beat.

Her intuition told her that something had happened!

“President han ...”

Qi Liyuan’s assistant handed her the phone that was still connected, her face pale and her hands shaking.

Han mingmei glared at him and took it.

“I’m han mingmei, speak!”

As she said this, she seemed to have realized something, and her malicious eyes fell on Lin Hanxing’s face.

President han, the people from economic investigation took away our company’s accounts, other documents, and computers. They also took away the people from the Qi Corporation. We haven’t had time to do the accounts yet ...

Han mingmei could not hear what the person on the other end of the phone said.

His ears were buzzing, and even his forehead was covered in sweat!

“Lin xiaojiu!”

Han mingmei suddenly realized that Lin xiaojiu was pulling the carpet out of her!

She knew that she would definitely come to Y R to cause trouble after the guests were snatched away, but she had carefully calculated every step to make him fall into her trap. She had patiently countered her moves, but on the other hand, she had someone pull the carpet from under her feet!

He had directly attacked his headquarters in the CQ group!

Lin xiaojiu was such a vicious schemer!

On the surface, she was the one who founded the company, but no one would believe that she did not have her father han boming’s support behind the scenes. Over the years, apart from the normal business, the company had also done some other shady business!

If they really investigated the tent ...

The consequences would be unimaginable!

“You’re so cruel!”

Even though she had exquisite makeup on, it was not difficult to see how twisted han mingmei’s expression was.

If Lin Hanxing knew what han mingmei was thinking, he would have called her innocent.

He really wasn't the one who had sealed off the accounts of CQ group.

However, Lin Hanxing could not really get away with it. After all, the one who had really pulled the wool over han mingmei's eyes was Lei Xiao!

From the beginning to the end, Lin Hanxing was not prepared to defend himself.

With a look from the leader of the economic Investigation Department, Qi Li's original assistant was already under control.

His originally arrogant expression had been replaced by panic and helplessness. In an instant, he cried, making people frown.

It was said that this kind of person, who was scared out of her wits at the slightest sign of trouble, was Qi Li's original assistant. Fortunately, Qi Li had suffered a loss before and kicked such a person out of the group, otherwise, there would be endless trouble!

But ...

This time, not only was she able to turn her love rival into a friend through this crisis, but she had also vented her anger. The others didn't know if they should lament that this silly sister-like Qi Li was too lucky.

"I won't admit defeat! Lin xiaojiu, do you believe that I'll be out soon? When that time comes, I will definitely not let you off!"

Han mingmei's eyes were red with anger.

She didn't understand why she had lost so badly when she had the right time, place, people, and herself. Why did Lin xiaojiu always have the upper hand?

Why?

Why was this happening?

han mingmei, I believe the law will give us a reasonable outcome, but there's something I still need to make clear to you.

Lin Hanxing's eyes were cold as he glanced at the face that seemed to be extremely unwilling.

the words I said in the office of the CQ team weren't because I looked down on you or because I was arrogant.

Yingluo, you're not qualified to be my opponent.

The moment Lin Hanxing finished speaking, han mingmei remembered what Lin Hanxing had said.

there's a problem with the documents he took from the Qi family.

Lin Hanxing raised his hand and pointed at Qi Liyuan's assistant behind han mingmei. The moment he said this, not only was han mingmei stunned, but everyone else who knew about the dispute between the two companies also changed their expressions.

“What did you just say?”

Han mingmei suddenly turned back to look at Qi Li’s original assistant. She subconsciously thought that he had colluded with Lin xiaojiu to set a trap for her, but on the other hand, she felt that it was star emissary Lin Han’s plan to drive a wedge between them.

Right now, han mingmei was already on edge, and any slight movement could make her collapse hysterically!

“I’ve already asked Qi Li to replace the data and code inside. Even if there’s only a slight deviation, it’s just a pile of waste paper in your hands! In addition ...”

Lin Hanxing paused for a moment, but everyone’s attention was on her.

Lei min expressionlessly handed her the things he had prepared.

Since he had decided to make a move, he had to make sure nothing went wrong.

almost at the same time, Qi Li asked me to apply for the copyright for all the clothes at today’s new product launch. This information is enough to prove that the production of the clothes under the Qi’s group was carried out in accordance with the normal procedures.

as for those from the CQ group ...

Lin Hanxing sneered.

“They’re just some plagiarized trash!”

Chapter 1145

1145 Second young master he, reaping the fruits of his own labor (1)

The Han family.

Zhong Xueqing had just walked out of the kitchen with a bowl of red bean glutinous rice porridge.

“President han, bad news!”

Han boming’s subordinates ran in from outside in a panic.

He was sweating profusely and looked nervous.

“Why are you so flustered?”

Han boming shouted angrily, and his eyes were fierce as the wound on his cheek touched.

“Miss mingmei, she ...”

Hearing that it was his daughter, han boming suddenly stood up.

“Speak! What happened to Ming Mei?”

The bloodthirsty aura of someone who had been in the pugilistic world surged at this moment, and even his eyes were stormy.

“Miss Ming Mei has been taken away by the economic Investigation Department! “All the accounts of the dk organization have been sealed. Even the people we poached from the Qi Corporation have all ... All been taken away!”

Han boming’s trusted aide who spoke naturally knew what this meant. If the economic investigation side joined forces to check the accounts ...

“Yan beiming and Liang yuran brought them over!”

The other party added.

Yingluo, you will regret this.

Zhenzhen, han boming, you’re on your own.

It was the Thunder valiant beast!

Han boming sat back on the sofa with a thud, and Lei kangnian’s warning appeared in his mind!

He must have known long ago!

That was why he warned her on account of their past friendship!

Han boming took out his phone in a panic and called his ‘old friends’.

However, none of the people who used to call each other ‘brothers’ picked up the phone. Some of them even hung up after two rings!

Bean-sized cold sweat rolled down his forehead.

In the end, someone finally answered the call.

Without waiting for han boming to speak, the other party said directly.

“Old han, it’s not that I don’t want to help you, but I’m really powerless!”

Han boming was silent for a while.

“You better tell me your bottom line.”

This time, it was the other side who quieted down.

“The best result is that Ming Mei will be sentenced to a few years in prison, the worst result ... Even you will be implicated!”

After that, the other party hung up the phone.

“The Lei family! Lin xiaojiu!”

Han boming clenched his phone tightly and roared with red eyes. Zhong Xueqing’s hand trembled in fear ...

There was a clang.

The bowl of red bean glutinous rice porridge fell to the floor ...

In the Presidential Suite of the hotel.

Yuan shaojing was sitting on the sofa with his eyes closed as he listened to uncle Hai's report on the series of events that happened at Y R.

Yuan shaojing didn't have any reaction, but Yuan Kang was stunned.

The trip to country G had already made him admire Lin Hanxing enough, but it was only now that Yuan Kang realized that he had underestimated that woman's ability to turn clouds and rain with a single hand!

Jennifer, anathul, Valette, and even Kim orwenz ...

Which one of them wasn't one of the top figures in the world?

They were all friends with Lin xiaojiu!

"The news of tonight's incident has spread throughout Jiang city."

Uncle hai said the last sentence.

After a long time, Yuan shaojing opened his eyes. His head of white hair didn't seem to reduce the sharpness in his eyes.

"She's about to reel in the net."

Y·R?

The Qi corporation's new product launch came to a successful end. At the same time, the Super-scale guest lineup became a legend in Jiang city that no one could break.

After the press conference, Lin Hanxing arranged for all the distinguished guests to rest in the villa area.

Those who were in a hurry to leave that night had also made proper arrangements.

In the lounge, the mute uncle and Bai Xi were waiting quietly.

Lin Hanxing pushed the door open and entered.

"Ninth young lady."

Bai Xi got up and handed her the information he had prepared.

Zhan Nanheng has already made arrangements for uncle Jin? "

Lin Hanxing flipped through the documents in his hand and turned to ask the mute uncle.

The mute uncle nodded.

Lin Hanxing did not say anything else. The dragon and phoenix rings on his hands that symbolized the Li family and the yuan family flashed coldly under the crystal Light, sending shivers down the spines of those who saw it.

Lin Hanxing quickly read through the document and leaned back on the sofa.

“Very good,” he said.

Lin Hanxing looked at Bai Xi, his eyes full of praise.

what happened to my sister was done by Luo Wenbo and second young master he. Although Luo Wenbo is dead, second young master he is still alive. How can I not think more about it? ”

Bai Xi sneered.

Lin Hanxing did not say anything. He took out his phone and dialed Lin Jiaojiao’s number.

He put it on speaker and threw it on the table.

Very quickly, the call was picked up.

“It’s strange for you to call me.”

Lin Jiaojiao’s voice sounded gloomy over the phone.

“Is there a fax machine beside you? I have some information that I want to show you.”

Lin Hanxing said lightly. He did not waste any time and went straight to the point.

A moment later, Lin Jiaojiao gave him her transmission number.

Lin Hanxing gave Bai Xi a look, and the latter had already sent the information over to Lin Jiaojiao.

After an unknown period of time, Lin Jiaojiao’s breathing on the other end of the phone became more and more rapid. Then, the sound of violent smashing could be heard clearly by everyone in the lounge.

“No, this can’t be true! You’re lying to me!”

Lin Jiaojiao seemed to have gone crazy.

He could not believe his eyes.

Everyone in Xuanji River City knew that second young master he was-Casanova and played with women as frequently as he changed his clothes. However, as far as I know, one of second young master he’s female companions some time ago seemed to be in poor health ...

Lin Jiaojiao’s face was as pale as a sheet when she thought about what Lin Hanxing had said to her when they accidentally met at the hospital. Large beads of sweat rolled down her face.

Aids!

He zhehan’s test result was positive!

He actually contracted aids!

Lin Hanxing sneered and hung up before Lin Jiaojiao could scream again.

He conveniently blacklisted Lin Jiaojiao's number.

"How long have he Chengyu and the others been gone?"

Lin Hanxing turned to look at Bai Xi.

He Chengyu left in Lu bingde's car.

"Around 15 minutes."

Bai Xi looked at his watch and answered.

"Call Lu bingde."

As soon as Lin Hanxing finished speaking, Bai Xi had already dialed his phone.

The call was picked up quickly.

"Lu bingde, is young master he still with you?"

Lin Hanxing said indifferently, the coldness in his voice obvious.

"Yes,"

On the other end of the phone, Lu bingde first glanced at he Chengyu, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, before answering.

"Don't go back yet."

Lu bingde couldn't help but raise his brows in surprise when he heard these simple words.

Does 'don't go back yet' mean that she shouldn't send he Chengcheng back to the he family yet?

"I'll bring him back to my house first?"

Although he didn't know what Lin xiaojiu's intentions were, Lu bingde's intuition told him to obey.

"Okay, wait for my call."

Lin Hanxing wanted to hang up the phone, but after a moment of hesitation, he spoke again.

"Tell he Chengyu that there's no construction without destruction."

When he heard Lu bingde's words, he Chengyu's features, which were immersed in the light and shadow, suddenly became sinister.

In this world, there was no such thing as a free lunch. If you want something, you have to pay a certain price.

He Chengyu knew.

This meant that the ninth miss was going to make a move on he zhehan!

After Lin Hanxing gave a few simple instructions, he told the mute uncle and Bai Xi to take a rest.

As soon as she returned to Y. R. 'S Villa, she saw Lei Xiao sitting on the sofa reading some documents while waiting for her return.

"Mom and dad are asleep?"

Lin Hanxing walked over and sat down next to Lei Xiao, burying her face in his neck. After smelling the familiar scent of mature wood, she could not help but relax and let out a long sigh of relief.

"Yes."

Lei Xiao closed the document in his hand and adjusted his position to make her more comfortable.

"I'll help you take a bath?"

Lin Hanxing shook his head. He estimated that he would have to go out again in less than half an hour or an hour.

"I'm tired,"

She wrapped her arms around his neck and groaned.

It was soft and harmless.

Lei Xiao didn't say anything, his hand gently stroking her back.

It was intermittent.

When Lin Hanxing opened his eyes, he could see Lei Xiao's Adam's apple, so he went up to kiss it.

"Don't mess around,"

Lei Xiao hugged her even tighter, and the self-control he was so proud of in the past crumbled in front of her.

Lin Hanxing chuckled.

She liked the way this man indulged her and was helpless.

"Ah Xiao ..."

Lin Hanxing stuck to him affectionately. The feminine side of her that she had never shown to anyone else was completely exposed in front of this man. Her long eyelashes blinked slightly, and even the mole at the corner of her eye was shining with an indescribable light.

"I'll give you the best."

After saying that, he closed his eyes again.

Lei Xiao reached out and pulled her onto his lap, then bent down to kiss her on the forehead.

"Take a nap. I'll wake you up later."

Even though Lin Hanxing did not say anything, Lei Xiao could still sense from her words that she was going out tonight.

Lin Hanxing grunted.

In his arms, she quickly fell asleep ...

.....

An hour later, Lin Hanxing's phone, which he had casually placed on the coffee table, started vibrating crazily.

Lei Xiao looked at the caller ID and woke her up.

The moment Lei Xiao's hand touched Lin Hanxing, she woke up. Although there was still a brief moment of sleepiness in her eyes, she quickly regained her usual coldness and picked up the phone.

"I'm Lin Hanxing."

The voice on the other end of the phone was obviously very anxious, even Lei Xiao could feel it.

okay, I know. I'll be there right away.

Lin Hanxing hung up the phone.

With a playful smile on his face, he raised his head and looked at Lei Xiao.

in the middle of the night, Lin Jiaojiao took second young master he's AIDS test report and barged into the he family. However, for some reason, she angered first young master he's wife, Yuan Xiaolei. Now, Lin Jiaojiao, mother he, and second young master he are being held hostage by Yuan Xiaolei in the villa.

It was the police who had called her.

Yuan Xiaolei's emotions were out of control, and she demanded to talk to her. Otherwise, she would set fire to these people and perish together.

No one knew when she had prepared the gasoline.

If she really lit the fire ...

The consequences would be unimaginable.

Lin Hanxing originally thought that Lin Jiaojiao was the one who did something rash, but she underestimated Yuan Xiaolei's hatred towards the entire he family. She just didn't know that Yuan Xiaolei was used to ordering the he family's mother and son around ...

How much torment would he have to endure!

"I'll go with you,"

Because of Lin Jiaojiao, the Lin family would probably be present. If the situation were to get out of hand ...

When the two of them left the house, the car was already waiting outside.

“Mr. Ley.”

Bai Xi, who was driving, didn't seem to expect Lei Xiao to come out with them and said respectfully.

She felt a sense of dread towards Thunder valiant beast that came from the bottom of her heart.

Thunder owl didn't say anything, but nodded in acknowledgment.

The mute uncle sat in the front passenger seat silently.

“Miss Jiu, I've already called Lu bingde and asked him to bring young master he back.”

Bai Xi and Lin Hanxing looked at each other through the rearview mirror.

“I'm sure the reporters have already received the tip-off and have surrounded the place.”

Lin Hanxing turned his head to look out of the car window at the shadows that kept moving backwards. There was a cold smile on his lips, and even the diamond earrings he wore reflected a cold light in the dark.

This show can't be without the reporters from Jiang city!

Time passed, and soon, the he family's Villa, which had been cordoned off outside, was in sight.

Even though it was late at night, the red and blue lights of the police still illuminated the entire night sky. The reporters who had heard the news had blocked all the roads. As for the others, they were residents who had been evacuated from the surrounding villas.

The police stopped the car.

The window of the back seat rolled down slowly, revealing Lin Hanxing's face.

Oh, it's Lin xiaojiu ...

Lin xiaojiu ...

The reporters suddenly burst into exclamations. The sensational press conference held at Y. R. In the first half of the night had yet to fade away, and now it had appeared at the he family's house. This had to attract the attention of these people!

“I'm Lin Hanxing.”

As if he didn't hear the reporters, Lin Hanxing spoke to the police officer who stopped the car.

Upon hearing this name, the other party clearly knew her identity. He moved aside to let the car in.

After parking the car, he got off.

Lin Hanxing saw his aunt, Lin youlin, almost immediately. Beside her were Lin yanshu and Luo Wensu.

Lin qianlin's face turned pale the moment she saw Lin Hanxing.

His eyes were filled with unwillingness and hatred!

“It's you, isn't it!”

It was a sentence that sounded extremely ambiguous to outsiders, but it caused the Lin family's faces to change.

"Will you only be satisfied when our family is destroyed?"

Lin qianlin's rationality had long since disappeared, and she screamed in Lin Hanxing's direction.

Lin youlin had already read through all the information about Lin Hanxing's identity that had been exposed on the internet. She could not understand why she had to be so concerned about this and that back then. Why didn't she just ask those people to kill her?

"Yup! I will only be satisfied when you all get your retribution!"

Lin Hanxing said jokingly, but his eyes were cold.

It seemed to be a joke, but it also seemed to be the truth. It was half true and half false, and it was hard to figure it out.

"Miss Lin."

He Chengyu walked over from afar, Lu bingde standing beside him.

The person-in-charge from the police side also quickly came over, his expression clearly not optimistic.

the other party requests that miss Lin, young master he, and the reporters go in together. Otherwise, they refuse to negotiate!

the hostage has been held hostage for nearly 20 minutes. The residents of the surrounding villas have already been informed to retreat. However, there is quite a lot of gasoline in the villa. According to our investigation, Yuan Xiaolei bought a gasoline reserve in her house half a month ago.

It was only because they bought it in batches and only found people to buy a little each time that it didn't attract everyone's attention.

Lin Hanxing listened quietly.

This Yuan Xiaolei must have harbored a grudge ever since mother he forced her to have an abortion. However, she had hidden it too deeply and was just short of exploding at a critical moment. Today, Lin Jiaojiao's visit and the ruckus she caused had become the trigger.

She was serious.

She was so serious that she wanted to kill mother he and second young master he!

"Pick a few from the reporters at the entrance."

Lin Hanxing glanced at he Chengyu. His eyes were bone-chilling cold, as if he had been waiting for this moment for a long time.

Just as she was thinking about this, she heard a loud thump. Lin yanshu knelt down in front of Lin Hanxing in front of everyone, tears streaming down his face.

little 9th, I'm begging you to save her. Save Jiaojiao!

He only had one daughter!

There was only this one!

it's all our mistress's fault. Please spare her, I beg you!

At that moment, Lin yanshu's beard was unkempt as he knelt on the ground and looked up at Lin Hanxing!

Under the moonlight, the pleading look in his eyes was obvious!

This scene obviously shocked many police officers, and they all looked at Lin Hanxing.

"Little uncle,"

Under the bright moonlight, Lin Hanxing suddenly stretched out his hand and gently placed it on Lin yanshu's shoulder. The next second, Lin yanshu's face twisted in pain, and his eyes were filled with fear.

"If you have the time to come and beg me, why don't you give little Auntie a call?"

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin yanshu, who had been kneeling on the ground without a care for his image, stood up again with his knees off the ground.

If he wanted to take a step back to advance and put pressure on her in front of so many people, he had to see if she was willing or not!

Almost at the same time, the police came over with a few reporters.

"Wait for me outside."

Lin Hanxing turned around to look at Lei Xiao, and as expected, he saw his brows furrowed deeply.

"With you around, I'm always distracted."

She chuckled, the dimples on her cheeks were deep and shallow, mixed with a little girl's coquettishness.

"I promise I'll be out soon."

Lin Hanxing extended his hand to Lei Xiao as if he was swearing an oath.

"You've got me."

Thunder valiant beast sighed and made a compromise helplessly.

The police's preparation work was also completed. After putting on special monitoring headphones for them, Lin Hanxing, young master he, and the reporters walked up the steps of the villa.

Lei Xiao kept looking at Lin Hanxing's back.

As if he had sensed something, Lin Hanxing's movements paused slightly before he stepped onto the last step. He turned his head to look in Lei Xiao's direction.

His eyes were as dark as ink.

Lin Hanxing's heart softened.

It was only then that Lin Hanxing finally understood that once a person had something holding them back, they would lose the courage to put everything on the line.

It seemed that after the matter in Jiang city was over, she would have to plan her future life. Since she didn't have to worry about food and clothing, then she shouldn't do those dangerous things if she could.

As soon as they entered the villa, Lin Hanxing smelled gasoline.

It was so thick that it couldn't be dissolved.

The soles of her high heels stepped on the floor, and there was also the dangerous sound of water splashing.

The reporters who were selected could not hide their excitement, but when they stepped on what seemed to be traces of gasoline, their expressions suddenly became subtle, and their eyes even showed signs of retreat.

After passing through the entrance, he quickly saw Yuan Xiaolei.

However, the smell of blood became even stronger. The police in charge of the negotiation looked extremely serious. It was obvious that the negotiation had reached a deadlock.

The smell of blood mixed with the smell of gasoline was so pungent that one could barely open their eyes.

"Yuan Xiaolei,"

Lin Hanxing said coldly. The closer he got, the more he could feel her tense nerves burning. Moreover, Yuan Xiaolei was still holding a lighter in her hand.

Suddenly, young master he frowned and his tall figure blocked Lin Hanxing's view.

Almost at the same time, the reporters exclaimed.

"You're here."

Yuan Xiaolei said in a low voice. From her voice, one couldn't tell if she was happy or angry.

Her hair was in a mess, and there was a handprint on her face. It was as if she had just finished a fight between women.

Lin Jiaojiao and mother he's hands were tied behind their backs, and their mouths were covered. They were making muffled sounds, and their eyes were filled with tears of fear. The gasoline had drenched their bodies and chilled their hearts.

"Have the reporters arrived?"

A few reporters greeted Yuan Xiaolei, their expressions clearly uncomfortable.

"Let's all take a good look at second young master he's face and see how shameless he is! I hope you'll never forget that face of his."

As he spoke, he sneered.

Although he knew he Chengyu meant well, Lin Hanxing still went around to the other side, and his vision instantly widened.

The second young master of the he family, he zhehan, was lying on Yuan Xiaolei's legs with bloody holes all over his body. Her hand was caressing his face, but he didn't struggle at all, perhaps because of the blood loss.

Yuan Xiaolei and Lin Hanxing looked at each other.

The corners of her mouth curled up into a deep and shallow smile, which made people tremble with fear.

Lin Hanxing could see the madness and release in his eyes.

I called the reporters here today to expose what happened three years ago ...

Yuan Xiaolei shifted her gaze to young master he's face. It was only now that she finally understood what it meant to feel regret after falling into hell.

in order to monopolize the he Corporation, mother he and second young master he caused a car accident that made he Chengyu lie in bed for three years. Before the car accident, second young master he and I had an improper relationship!

As soon as Yuan Xiaolei said that, the reporters who followed young master he couldn't help but look at him in shock.

Although there were many rumors about the car accident that happened to him three years ago, wasn't it too tragic to be betrayed by his wife and his stepmother's son, and even occupy the company for so many years?

There was a loud struggle from mother he.

"Shut up!"

Yuan Xiaolei gloomily looked at mother he. The killing intent in her eyes was definitely not a joke.

this is evidence that I was forced to have an abortion by mother he. This is evidence that second young master and mother he used extreme means to take away he Chengcheng's shares. And this ...

Yuan Xiaolei curled her lips and sneered.

this is the report from second young master he's fiancée, Lin Hanxing's cousin, Lin Jiaojiao. Second young master he has played with so many women and finally got his shoes wet!

plop! Yuan Xiaolei threw the documents that Lin Jiaojiao had brought at the reporter's feet.

It seemed to be stained with blood.

The reporter's eyes were filled with suspicion. One of the bolder reporters even bent down and pinched it. When he took it and looked at it, he was so scared that he quickly threw it away, as if he was afraid of getting unlucky.

“Aids!”

As soon as the reporter opened his mouth, the others quickly avoided the pool of blood that was flowing down second young master he’s body. Some even covered their noses, afraid that breathing would infect them.

“All these years, I’ve been ordered around by them like a slave. Now that they’re tired of it and don’t like me anymore, they want to kick me away? It might even infect me with an illness like this ...”

Yuan Xiaolei sneered at Lin Jiaojiao as she spoke.

Wasn’t she arrogant just now?

Wasn’t he going to strip her clean and throw her outside to find someone to humiliate her?

When I was showing off in the he family, Lin Jiaojiao probably didn’t even have her hair up!

“I know you hate her. Don’t worry, I’ll help you.”

Yuan Xiaolei said slowly. Lin Hanxing frowned. These words were obviously meant for her.

Chapter 1146

1146 Second young master he, reaping the fruits of his own labor (2)

However, in the ears of others, it sounded more like Yuan Xiaolei was mumbling to herself.

The reporter’s focus was still on second young master he’s illness. When he was caught off guard, a mournful muffled sound suddenly rang in his ear, followed by a violent struggle, which really shocked him.

However, an empty needle appeared in Yuan Xiaolei’s hand and she pulled the needle from second young master he’s vein. Before anyone could react, the needle had already been ruthlessly inserted into Lin Jiaojiao’s body!

After all, Yuan Xiaolei had taken care of first young master he for some time. Almost as soon as she made her move, she pushed second young master he’s blood into Lin Jiaojiao’s blood vessels. It was a shocking sight and they only thought that she had gone crazy!

Lin Jiaojiao couldn’t take the blow. Her eyes rolled back and she fainted!

It was silent, and no one dared to speak.

He was afraid that she would do something even crazier, and he was even more afraid that she would come for him.

This was the first time a Negotiation Expert had encountered such a situation in his many years of work. He only felt that it was tricky!

Unexpectedly, Yuan Xiaolei once again drew blood from second young master he’s body. She was still humming a passionate song and injected the tube into the back of mother he’s hand!

“How did you become like this?”

He Chengyu finally said his first words since he came in.

However, that simple sentence was like a bombshell, causing the crazed Yuan Xiaolei to completely collapse.

She also wanted to ask herself why she had become the bad woman she had vowed not to become in the past. If she didn't have any other thoughts in the past and lived honestly with he Chengyu, would everything be different now?

Hearing this, Lin Hanxing looked at he Chengyu with a subtle expression.

This sentence sounded simple, but in fact, it contained infinite killing intent.

Playing the emotional card at this time was completely pushing the already sensitive and fragile Yuan Xiaolei to a dead end. In the next second, as if Lin Hanxing's thoughts were confirmed, Yuan Xiaolei's eyes revealed a deep sense of despair.

they forced me ... They forced me!!!

Yuan Xiaolei's tears started to fall. Perhaps she was too emotional, she even knocked over the fruit plate beside her, causing the fruit and knife to fall to the ground.

The moment they saw the knife, the policemen's temples started to throb.

They could only hope that the other party did not have the intention to use any weapons. Even they themselves knew that when the prisoner was agitated, there was a 90% chance that an accident would happen!

"Can you forgive me? Cheng Yu, forgive me, please! Let's start over again!"

Yuan Xiaolei was willing to use everything she had to exchange for a chance to start over with this man. Thinking back to the past, they also had a period of deep love!

"Don't kill anymore."

He chengchen looked away from her, but the coldness in his eyes was hard to describe.

Yuan Xiaolei was stunned.

Lin Hanxing looked at Yuan Xiaolei, who was laughing madly and had gone crazy. He knew that the reporters had already captured these images and recorded them.

"Alright, I'll listen to you and not kill anyone!"

After she finished speaking, Yuan Xiaolei grabbed the fruit knife from the ground and slashed at second young master he's crotch, who no longer had the strength to struggle. It was as if she had a blood feud with him!

In an instant, blood splattered everywhere!

If Yuan Xiaolei's appearance when she injected the AIDS blood into Lin Jiaojiao and mother he was already extremely crazy, then now, everyone felt that she had really gone crazy!

She had directly crippled second young master he!

Second young master he groaned and was woken up by the pain. When he realized that his lower body was empty, his face was full of despair.

“Now, take them all away.”

Yuan Xiaolei was talking to the police.

The police were stunned for a moment, but they quickly arranged for people to come in. Yuan Xiaolei, on the other hand, stood up and sat on the sofa filled with gasoline. Even her eyes seemed to have dried up, without any fluctuations or waves.

Logically speaking, after the hostage was rescued, they could arrange for the arrest.

However, today’s situation was too special. The ground was full of gasoline, and if they were not careful, everyone would die Here. No one dared to take such a risk to make a move.

Yuan Xiaolei’s tears seemed to have dried up a long time ago. She just stared at he Chengyu blankly.

The reporters seemed to have felt something and ran out of the villa like rabbits, as if there were wolves chasing them. Such actions made the people outside nervous.

Thunder valiant beast furrowed his brows and stared at the door.

If it wasn’t for the mute uncle by his side, he might really have rushed in just like that.

Soon, the police brought Lin Jiaojiao and Mrs. He out, while the seriously injured second young master he was carried out on a stretcher. As soon as he came out, the reporters took their tools and started taking photos in his direction.

all of you, get out. I have something to say to Lin xiaojiu.

Yuan Xiaolei fiddled with the lighter as the gasoline dripped down the leather sofa and onto the floor. However, she didn’t seem to care and only shifted her gaze to Lin Hanxing’s face.

“Original ...”

Before he Chengyu could finish, Lin Hanxing had already reached out to block him.

“Alright, I also want to hear what you have to say to me.”

Lin Hanxing’s attitude was very firm because she was sure that Yuan Xiaolei didn’t stay because she wanted to take her life, but because she really had something to say to her.

Seeing her like this, he Chengyu frowned but eventually left.

The moment he left the villa, he was stopped by Lei Xiao.

“Where is she?”

It went without saying who she was referring to.

“Yuan Xiaolei has something to say to ninth young lady ...”

As soon as he finished speaking, Lei Xiao had already walked into the villa with a cold expression on his face, and no one could stop him from doing so.

“What do you want to tell me?”

Lin Hanxing stepped on a mixture of blood and gasoline under his shoes, and looked at her expressionlessly.

“Aren’t you afraid that I’ll burn us to death?”

Yuan Xiaolei’s lips slightly curved up as she used her hand to fiddle with her messy hair, revealing her beautiful but withered face that gave off a feeling of dusk.

She could not help but recall the first time she met Lin Hanxing.

Lin xiaojiu got out of the White Maserati Ghibli, and her dazzling beauty made her, as a woman, jealous. She could still remember the faint fragrance of the car.

At that time, how could he have imagined that he would become like this one day?

“You won’t,”

Lin Hanxing said coldly.

“Oh?”

Yuan Xiaolei fiddled with the lighter in her hand, neither sad nor happy.

Just as the two of them were talking, heavy footsteps suddenly came from the entrance. Before Lin Hanxing could turn around, a strong force had already come from her shoulder, like an iron clamp imprisoning her.

The Thunder valiant beast had come in a hurry, and even the hair that was combed back from his forehead was a mess.

Lin xiaojiu, I really envy you.

Chapter 1147

1147 But who forced me to be a bad person?

Lei Xiao ignored Yuan Xiaolei’s words. He held his breath and checked Lin Hanxing from head to toe. After finally confirming that there were no problems, he heaved a sigh of relief. However, his tensed expression was still unsightly.

Yuan Xiaolei had seen Lei Xiao before.

She had never thought that such a cold man would one day be so nervous because of love.

“I’m fine. Why did you come in?”

The he family was now an explosive warehouse, and any carelessness would lead to a major accident.

This was also one of the reasons why the police didn’t kill Yuan Xiaolei to rescue the hostages.

Lin Hanxing had just finished his question when he met Lei Xiao's eyes. He suddenly regretted it.

Why did he come in ...

Didn't she know better than anyone else?

Using the fastest speed to calm herself down, even if Lin Hanxing could be sure that Yuan Xiaolei didn't want him to die with her by leaving 99% behind, with Lei Xiao here, she definitely couldn't take the risk of that 1%!

"What do you have to be envious of me for?"

When Lin Hanxing turned around to face Yuan Xiaolei, he had already regained his cold and indifferent attitude.

"Once upon a time, you could have gotten all of these at your fingertips."

Her words caused Yuan Xiaolei's expression to instantly twist.

Lei Xiao's eagle-like eyes swept across the surroundings.

Even though he was in a hurry when he came in, he had already calculated the timing. If Yuan Xiaolei really did light the fire, he only needed to place his back close to the source of the fire and protect Han Xing as fast as he could. It was possible to ensure her safety.

Lin xiaojiu, you're the most intelligent and terrifying person I've ever met.

Yuan Xiaolei laughed miserably.

"However, a person's intelligence can not be compared to power!"

Yuan Xiaolei's words had a deeper meaning to them.

"What do you mean?"

Lin Hanxing knew that at this point, Yuan Xiaolei's every word wouldn't be without reason.

"Do you think that the people who want your parents dead are just Lin youlin and her gang?"

Yuan Xiaolei's hand was still fiddling with the lighter as she spoke in a soft voice.

"They're just puppets!"

Yuan Xiaolei glanced at Lin Hanxing as she spoke.

However, with just a glance, she couldn't help but admire this woman from the bottom of her heart!

Even at a time like this, Lin Hanxing was still able to maintain his rationality and self-control.

Compared to a woman like this ...

Yuan Xiaolei wanted to look up to the sky and sigh. How could she compare to him?

"What do you know?"

Aunt Mian's years of careful teaching had made Lin Hanxing develop a habit of being calm. But even so, after hearing Yuan Xiaolei's words, Lin Hanxing's body subconsciously tensed up.

"I only know that the other party is from the capital."

Yuan Xiaolei overheard this from mother he's mouth. However, mother he obviously didn't know the other party's identity. Perhaps, even Lin youlin and her husband didn't know. But, all of this ...

It was just Yuan Xiaolei's guess.

The capital!

Lin Hanxing's eyes narrowed dangerously.

It was indeed a place where the rich and powerful were everywhere!

So, the real enemy she was looking for was there?

"Alright, you guys can leave."

After Yuan Xiaolei finished speaking, she seemed to be tired as she leaned back on the sofa. Her legs that were stained with blood and gasoline were placed on the sofa, as if she was a drunken concubine. Her long eyelashes slightly closed her eyes.

"Half a minute,"

Then, he added lightly.

Lin Hanxing knew that this was the time Yuan Xiaolei had set aside for the two of them to leave.

In just half a minute, the journey from here to the gate was as tense as it could get.

"Let's go!"

Even if she wanted to know more inside information, she would not joke around with Lei Xiao's life. Holding his fingers tightly, Lin Hanxing quickly walked out of the door. They were both counting the time in their hearts.

Ten seconds ...

Twenty seconds ...

25 seconds ...

When there were only five seconds left, Lei Xiao suddenly picked Lin Hanxing up by his waist and rushed towards the door that could be seen!

With a flying kick, the sturdy door was kicked open!

The force was so great that it left a deep dent in the place where he kicked!

Almost at the same time, a roaring tongue of fire swept over from behind at the speed of light, and a scorching heat wave surged!

It was accompanied by a faint explosion!

Everyone screamed and looked for a shield to cover themselves, afraid that they would be engulfed by the fire Dragon.

At the same time as the explosion, Lei Xiao pressed Lin Hanxing under his body, using his body to protect her from any harm.

He wrapped his iron-like arms around her shoulders.

He stopped Lin Hanxing from struggling.

“Ah Xiao!”

Lin Hanxing was pressed down by him, and the red flames that accompanied the explosion lit up her eyes.

“Don’t be afraid.”

Lei Xiao hugged Lin Hanxing even tighter and kissed her hair.

“I’m here,”

Lin Hanxing couldn’t move, all he could do was hold his arm tightly, turn to look at him, and kiss him back.

After a long time.

After he was sure that he could stand up, Lei Xiao carried Lin Hanxing.

Fortunately, the police had contacted the natural gas pipeline in this area to cut it off. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

The villa, which had been doused in gasoline, was burning at a speed that ordinary people could not imagine.

It seemed to light up the entire night sky of Jiang city!

Lei Xiao held Lin Hanxing in his arms and carefully examined her whole body, just like when he entered the family villa. His eagle-like eyes did not intend to miss any small part!

“Are you alright?”

Lin Hanxing did not care about herself, she just reached out and touched Lei Xiao’s body to check.

“Stop touching.”

After confirming that Lin Hanxing was unscathed, Lei Xiao’s tone became much more relaxed.

“It’s all touched hard by you.”

Hearing this, Lin Hanxing was first stunned, his long eyelashes fluttered, and it took a while for him to react to what Lei Xiao meant by hard!

“You ...”

Lin Hanxing wanted to say something, but when he saw the back of his hand, his body froze.

On the back of the Thunder valiant beast's hand, there was a burning red spot.

It should have been left behind by the tongue of fire the moment he stepped out of the door.

"It's just a small injury!"

The Thunder valiant beast followed her gaze and did not take the wound to heart. He did not feel it just now, but now he felt the stinging pain of a burn.

Lin Hanxing's body glistened.

He was caught off guard.

The Thunder valiant beast was startled.

In his eyes, this wound was really just a small injury, but he didn't think that Han Xing would care so much.

He knew that she did not like to cry.

He had known Hanxing for so long, and the number of times he had known her could be counted with one's fingers.

"Don't cry,"

Ignoring the police reporters and other miscellaneous people beside him, Lei Xiao held her in his arms, his eyes mixed with some helplessness, and he didn't even know where to put his hands!

"What if there's a scar?"

Lin Hanxing felt terrible, even his voice was choked with sobs.

Lei Xiao rested his chin on the top of her head and sighed.

He only wanted to protect her, so how could he think about whether it would leave a scar?

Moreover ...

Compared to the small matter of whether it would leave a scar, Lei Xiao was more concerned about whether the scar would remain on her body.

His cold star.

That was the most important thing!

"If it really leaves a scar, then don't you abandon me!"

Thunder valiant beast said half-jokingly.

"Mr. Ray, miss Lin."

The head of the police came over. Although he didn't want to interrupt the two of them at this time, he needed to confirm with the two people who left the villa last whether the criminal was still inside.

At the same time, the fire department that had been waiting outside entered the building, and water splashed down from the sky.

It was like rain.

After a simple confirmation, the police looked at the back of Lei Xiao's hand.

Everyone outside had seen how he had rushed out with Lin Hanxing in his arms. The expression on his face during the crisis and his subconscious action of protecting Lin Hanxing with his body could not be faked.

If anyone were to say that they were together for this and that, the police officers here today would be the first to be unhappy!

"Do we need to send a car to the hospital?"

The head of the police asked before he left. After all, such a big incident had happened, and the entire Jiang city had to do a good job of coordination.

Lei Xiao did not mind, but Lin Hanxing was determined to go to the hospital.

However, they didn't bother the police. After asking second young master he which hospital they were sent to, they decided to deal with it themselves.

After the police officer left, Lin Hanxing raised his head from Lei Xiao's embrace.

He looked at the huge tongue of fire that was still strong even after being washed by the powerful water gun. It was so red that it seemed to light up the entire night sky.

I only know that the other party is from the capital.

Lin Hanxing's mind was still filled with Yuan Xiaolei's words.

A dying man's words were also kind. She didn't think she was lying, not to mention ...

She had long realized that the matter of her parents' death back then was definitely not as simple as it seemed on the surface.

Beijing.

What a great Beijing!

At the Affiliated Hospital of Jiangcheng Medical University.

The hospital, which was supposed to be quiet in the quiet night, was alarmed by the urgent sirens. This time, in addition to causing damage to he zhehan, his mother, and Lin Jiaojiao, several other people were also injured to varying degrees.

When the hospital's leaders received the call in the middle of the night, they called the directors of the Burn and Plastic Surgery departments one by one and called everyone in the departments back.

The entire hospital was brightly lit.

Before they arrived at the hospital, Lin Hanxing asked Lu Bingde to bring Chengyu to the Lu family's house. Then, he asked the mute uncle to go back to Y R to prepare the people and information he needed tomorrow. After everything was arranged, the two of them entered the hospital.

"Hanxing,"

Lei Xiao looked at Lin Hanxing, who was standing at the side and nervously watching him treat his wound, and he did not know whether to laugh or cry.

Lei Xiao's helpless expression made the nurse's heart thump. The heat of today's news had yet to die down, so how could she not recognize the two people in front of her? one was the Lei family's young master, and the other was the Lin family's little ninth who had stirred up the storm in Jiang city today?

"Don't say anything!"

At that moment, Lin Hanxing took off his dirty coat and threw it aside, watching the nurse carefully.

"A-alright."

After a long time, the nurse said regretfully.

To be able to observe the two influential figures of Jiang city at such a close distance, the nurse was already treating the wound very slowly.

"I'll have to trouble you."

Lin Hanxing said to the nurse with a faint smile. The smile dazzled the nurse's eyes.

"If ... If there's anything, call me."

After saying this, the other party held the position of the thumping heart and hurriedly walked outside.

His face was flushed red.

"Come here."

Lei Xiao's sleeves were rolled up to reveal his muscular arms. Other than the small burn mark on the back of his hand, there were no other wounds. However, just that small wound alone was enough to make Lin Hanxing's heart ache.

Lin Hanxing had just sat down beside him when Lei Xiao reached out and pulled him into his arms.

no matter who they are, I have the ability to protect you.

Lei Xiao said in a deep voice.

"I know,"

Lin Hanxing rested his head on his neck and looked into the distance.

Although she was mentally prepared for what Yuan Xiaolei said tonight, the heavy fog still made Lin Hanxing feel mentally exhausted. It had been many years since she last felt this way.

"You're by my side."

Lin Hanxing's voice was very soft, but it carried an indescribable weight in Lei Xiao's ears.

"Yes, I'll be by your side."

His thin lips curved into an arc, and Lei Xiao softened his body to let her lean on him more comfortably.

"What should I do if mom and dad ask me about it tomorrow?"

Suddenly, Lin Hanxing spoke up. She could not help but feel a headache when she thought of this.

"Compared to getting married behind their backs, which one is more serious?"

Thunder owl laughed as he reached out his hand to cover her head, rubbing it back and forth. Even his eyes became gentle.

Hearing this, Lin Hanxing looked up with a bitter face.

The accusation in his eyes was obvious.

As they were talking, there was a sudden noise from the corridor outside. It was quite loud.

"Get lost!"

"My son! Where's Zhe Han?"

Accompanied by a scream, it was obvious that no one could stop her.

Lin Hanxing knew who it was the moment he heard the voice.

Mother he woke up.

At this moment, mother he was shouting madly outside the door.

Second young master he, he zhehan, was Mother he's only son. Anyone would go crazy if they saw something happen to him in front of them.

"The enmity between the he family and the Lin family has been formed."

Lei Xiao said in a deep voice.

There was no emotion in his voice.

The origin of this tragedy was actually the mother and son of the he family. Now that Yuan Xiaolei had passed away, mother he would definitely blame the entire incident on Lin Jiaojiao. After all, it was her sudden visit in the middle of the night that made things worse.

No matter what Hanxing had done before, the relationship between Lin youlin and mother he was as solid as an iron wall. But after tonight, this Alliance would fall apart bit by bit until it disappeared completely!

Lin Hanxing looked at the closed door of the ward and a cold look flashed across his eyes.

when the Fang, Lin, and he families had problems with the loans for the Jiangcheng sea-bridge project, they signed an investment agreement with X group. The agreement stipulated that 'there must be no problems that harm the cooperative interests in the Jiangcheng sea-bridge project cooperation project.

Otherwise, X group will not only withdraw its capital but also demand the three groups to buy back the initial investment of X group at a higher price than the market price as compensation.'

Lin Hanxing said calmly, as if he was discussing the weather.

"If we really calculate the compensation amount ..."

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao looked at each other.

not only will they not be able to get back the money they invested in the early stage, but without the solid financial support of X group, not only will they have to give up the Jiangcheng cross-sea bridge project, but all three groups will be on the verge of bankruptcy!

This was a plan that she had been planning for a long time. She had buried it deep in her heart, just for this day.

Touching the Lin family was her hatred.

It was he Chengyu's mother's kindness to touch the he family.

As for Zhong Xueqing, it was for mother Lei.

"It's a pity that I didn't expect that a large part of Zhong Xueqing's investment in the Jiangcheng Bay Bridge project would come from han boming. If we count it this way ..."

Lin Hanxing's cold voice continued to ring in his ears as he heard mother he's crazy and noisy voice.

"Even if the news is released tomorrow, it won't be able to shake Zhong Xueqing's roots."

In contrast, han boming would eventually be trapped.

In the end, Zhong Xueqing had only invested a small amount of money, and her losses were the smallest among all the people who had entered the game.

han boming can't stay out of it when the CQ group is being closed down. In addition, the Jiangcheng sea bridge project has been affected. I'm afraid that han boming will be desperate and try to take the Lei group's shares!

"Ah Xiao, Han boming is the second largest shareholder of the Lei group after all. You should start preparing."

Lin Hanxing never made an account that he was not confident in.

Since she had already calculated everything, she had already thought of all the possibilities.

"I know,"

Lei Xiao was already prepared when he made his move on the CQ group.

Now, he actually hoped that han boming would really use the Lei group's shares. As long as he dared to make a move, he would take it all.

It was time to retract the power his father had given to his confidants.

"I'll think of a way to deal with Zhong Xueqing's matter. As for mom, I'll let her know,"

Lin Hanxing had a premonition that Zhong Xueqing would not sit still and wait for her death. She might even set her sights on mother Lei and cause a storm at father Lei's birthday banquet.

If that was the case, Lin Hanxing would be more at ease.

This was because the only thing that Zhong Xueqing could scheme for was the one that was related to ah Xiao. If she really did not know the severity of the matter, then Lin Hanxing definitely had a way to make Zhong Xueqing taste what it meant to suffer a double loss!

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao were silent for a moment.

The two of them seemed to be mentally preparing for what was going to happen next.

At the same time, a sudden scream from outside caused the situation to change again.

The nurse who had previously treated Lei Xiao's hand wound rushed into the ward and locked the door from the inside with a bang. The White nurse uniform on her body was already covered in blood.

At this moment, the nurse was so scared that she was trembling all over and could not get up for a long time.

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao looked at each other, then they stood up and walked towards each other. Just as they placed their hands on the nurse's shoulder, the young lady screamed in shock and tears fell down.

"What's wrong?"

The little girl looked like she had just started working, her face was pale and her lips were trembling.

"That woman is crazy ..."

After a long time, he finally said this.

When Lin Hanxing heard that, he knew that mother he had probably gone to look for Lin Jiaojiao.

"Mom ... Mom ..."

A shrill scream came from the corridor, and even an empty ear could hear Lin Jiaojiao's voice.

Lin Hanxing's eyebrows twitched. Zhong Wan 'er is here?

Lei Xiao had already walked over from a distance. The moment Lin Hanxing raised her head, their eyes met.

"Let's go out and take a look."

From the sound of it, it was obvious that the police had Mrs. He under control. It was precisely because of this that Lin Jiaojiao's voice sounded even more helpless and panicked.

The two of them left the room, and as soon as they stepped out, they smelled a strong smell of blood. At the end of the corridor, near the emergency room, the ground was red, and the doctor in a white coat was kneeling on the ground, performing emergency treatment.

The Lin family stood on one side with pale faces, and mother he, who was held by the police, was on the other side.

Lin Jiaojiao was the only one who knelt not far away, crying.

When Lin Hanxing and the others came closer, they saw the doctor looking up and shaking his head at the police. It was obvious that there was no hope.

Zhong Wan 'er fell to the ground, her eyes wide open. Her clothes were in a mess, and she looked like she had rushed to the hospital after receiving a call.

His clothes were already soaked in large patches of blood.

It was impossible to see where he was injured.

Zhong Wan 'er saw Lin Hanxing.

He waved at her with great effort.

There was a pleading look in his eyes.

Seeing this, Lin Hanxing sighed and walked towards Zhong Wan 'er.

The cold sound of high heels against the floor cast a shadow over everyone's heart.

Not far away, Lin yanshu was still sitting on the ground, his face still filled with fear.

At that moment, mother he suddenly rushed in to take Lin Jiaojiao's life. He subconsciously retreated to the corner, but Zhong Wan 'er, who had just arrived after receiving the call, rushed over and dragged mother he out of the ward ...

Lin Hanxing squatted down in front of Zhong Wan 'er.

"Spare ... Her ... Please ..."

Zhong Wan 'er's hands trembled. Because she had snatched it from mother he, her fingers were covered in wounds and blood.

Lin Hanxing did not say anything.

"Please ..."

Large streams of tears flowed out from her eyes. It was obvious that she was making a final struggle.

"I know."

Lin Hanxing said calmly. If Lin Jiaojiao had not planned to scheme against her from the beginning, she would not have involved her in the scheme ...

Hearing this, Zhong Wan 'er showed a faint smile.

He reached out to Lin Hanxing, as if he wanted to hold her hand.

Lin Hanxing hesitated for a moment before he finally reached out.

In front of everyone, Zhong Wan 'er used all her strength to write something in Lin Hanxing's palm.

Very quickly.

It was also very short.

Due to the angle, no one could see it clearly except for Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao.

This also caused everyone in the Lin family to be on tenterhooks.

After she finished writing, Zhong Wan 'er's throat made a gurgling sound, and her hand hung down.

Lin Hanxing clenched his fists and backed away.

He saw Lin Jiaojiao pounce on Zhong Wan 'er and cry.

He seemed to be in disbelief.

Lin yanshu, who was still sitting on the ground, looked at everything in front of him in a daze. He stuck his hands in his hair and buried his face deep in his knees like an ostrich, ignoring everything that was happening in the outside world.

Lin Hanxing walked back to Lei Xiao's side.

Lin qianlin's eyes were fixed on her, filled with deep fear.

Almost at the same time, the lights in the emergency operating room went out and he zhehan was pushed out.

The doctor inside obviously didn't know what was happening outside. When he came out and saw the person lying on the ground, he was so scared that he stopped and didn't know what to do.

"Let's go,"

The strong smell of blood made Lin Hanxing feel nauseated.

She said to Lei Xiao in a low voice.

The two of them walked out of the hospital.

The sky was already starting to brighten.

As soon as they stepped out of the door, the fresh air in front of them was already much more comfortable.

Lin Hanxing stood at the door, his gaze falling on the horizon in the distance, which was still dark.

His gaze was distant.

She was tired.

All these years, Lin Hanxing had been carrying the hatred on her back. Up until now, she could no longer remember whether her enemies looked at her with more hatred or more fear.

She was only 26 years old.

“Ah Xiao, in those people’s hearts, I’m an evil person.”

The evildoers that they feared and hated.

Lin Hanxing raised his head and looked at Lei Xiao, a light flickering in his eyes.

“But who was it that forced me to become an evil person?”

She sneered and slowly opened her palm ...

Chapter 1148

1148 Blood letters in the palm

On the White palm, the blood characters formed by Zhong Wan ‘er’s blood were exposed to the morning light.

It was an L!

Lin Hanxing looked at the words in his palm coldly.

The signal Zhong Wan ‘er had left with great effort at the last moment of her life must be very important. But what did this L mean? could it be related to the mastermind behind the scenes in the capital ...

It was really hard to grasp.

Moreover, Lin Hanxing believed that this was a trap set by Zhong Wan ‘er for the Lin family before she died.

In that kind of situation at that time, except for ah Xiao and Zhong Wan ‘er herself, no one would know what the content in her palm was.

To the Lin family, who already harbored evil intentions, this was no different from a fatal blow.

The unknown was the most terrifying!

Not to mention, his opponent was Lin xiaojiu!

This was Zhong Wan ‘er’s ultimate revenge on the entire Lin family!

She wanted them to remember, to let them live in fear every day, to let them always have a nail in their heart!

It couldn’t be pulled out.

He also had to see blood at all times!

“Let’s go home,”

Lei Xiao stretched out his hand and covered Lin Hanxing’s palm, covering the blood word.

Their fingers were interlocked.

It was as if nothing had happened tonight ...

.....

The next day, Jiang city's media was completely ignited.

Countless reports about what happened to the he family in the second half of the night were displayed in front of the people of Jiang city.

At the same time, the government department received an anonymous tip-off about the he, Lin, and Fang groups using abnormal means to compete in the Jiangcheng sea-bridge project bidding.

The news of the Qi corporation's new product launch at Y. R. Last night had not died down, but han mingmei had been arrested, the accounts of the company had been temporarily sealed, and what had happened in the second half of the night ...

It made the hearts of those who were observant tremble.

All of a sudden, the wind blowing and grass moving from all directions cast a shadow over the rich land of Jiang city that could not be removed.

It was nine in the morning.

The legal department of X group, which was based in Paris, France, the capital of romance, sent out a compensation agreement to the Lin, he, and Fang families in Jiangcheng at the same time. The amount was an astronomical figure in the eyes of anyone!

At the same time as the compensation agreement was issued, X group announced its decision to withdraw its funds.

The news spread back to Jiang city and caused an uproar.

The Jiangcheng sea bridge project was led by the Jiangcheng government. The Lin family's successive mishaps had already caused the higher-ups to be very dissatisfied, but because they knew that the X group was an important foreign aid, they had temporarily held back. But who would have thought that in such a short time, the he family would cause such an incredible thing!

Not to mention the X group, even any other company would not be able to work with a group that could have problems at any time.

Now, the word 'overwrought' was not enough to describe the predicament that the three groups were facing.

He was trapped inside and outside!

At this time, han boming, who had been busy all night trying to make connections for his daughter, had just returned home.

His expression was as ugly as it could be.

Even though he had already made preparations, a night of futile effort still caused him to suppress the anger in his heart. Even when he saw Zhong Xueqing sitting on the sofa, his expression did not ease at all.

Not to mention that Fang Mengran was sitting beside her.

“Boming, something has happened!”

At this time, Zhong Xueqing was shaking like a sieve. Her eyes were still in a trance, as if she didn’t know what to do. Fang Mengran didn’t say anything. Looking at han boming’s face, she knew that this was definitely not the best time to talk.

However, no matter how much she tried to persuade her just now, she was not as sensible as your mother.

Fang Mengran was also a little annoyed.

Last night, she had been paying attention to the press conference between the Qi Corporation and CQ.

Although she already knew that han mingmei’s team, Team D, had no chance of winning against Lin Hanxing, Fang Mengran did not expect han mingmei to lose so badly that she even lost her own life!

At the same time, Fang Mengran felt a sense of fear for her repeated provocations against Lin Hanxing.

She had only realized this later on.

You might think that Lin Hanxing was full of schemes and schemes, as if no one could take advantage of her, but no one would think carefully about the circumstances under which she would make her move.

If you didn’t provoke Lin xiaojiu, Lin xiaojiu would definitely not deal with you.

Up until now, the Lin family and the he family seemed to be at the end of their lives. If it wasn’t for the fact that most of the funds were paid by the Han family, the Fang family would probably have fallen this time. However, the Han family this time ...

Fang Mengran sighed in her heart.

She didn’t understand why her mother had to go against them.

Isn’t it good to live well?

All these days, all those who had clashed with Lin xiaojiu had all been cleaned up by her, not to mention those who had lost their lives! It wasn’t like they didn’t have money. In Fang Mengran’s opinion, they shouldn’t have returned to Jiang city to get involved in this mess after her father passed away.

However, it was too late to say anything now.

Zhong Xueqing’s voice trembled as she informed han boming of the lawyer’s letter and announcement from the X group. At this time, han boming was smoking one cigarette after another, and the white smoke was rising, making it impossible to tell what he was thinking.

“You know, most of my liquid assets are on this!”

After a long time, han boming turned his head and looked at Zhong Xueqing.

Now that Ming Mei was still inside, she was his biological daughter. Naturally, he had to think of a way to get her out first.

However, even after mobilizing everyone's connections, there was nothing they could do. When they returned home, they were already filled with anger. Zhong Xueqing's news was no different from adding fuel to the fire.

"You're the one who told me that it's foolproof!"

Han boming stared at Zhong Xueqing, his chest heaving up and down violently under his shirt.

Zhong Xueqing laughed bitterly.

They had calculated together how much revenue the Jiangcheng sea bridge project would generate in the future. It would be enough for them to live comfortably in their next lives, let alone in this life.

It was also because of this that Zhong Xueqing had set her eyes on this project first after returning from abroad!

He would even get it at all costs!

However, who would have thought that such a thing would happen after they had finally secured the project and all the initial preparations and investments were in place? Furthermore, there were people who had nothing better to do than to send an anonymous letter of complaint to the city government ...

This ...

This was simply forcing them to their deaths!

boming, don't be anxious. I know that mingmei's matter is enough to make you anxious, but ...

At this moment, Zhong Xueqing's heart was in a mess. All the liquid funds in her hands were in another project. It was impossible for her to come up with the compensation for the breach of contract for X group.

Over the years, the Zhong family's Foundation had almost fallen, and the only person she could count on was han boming!

He still had the Lei corporation's shares in his hands ...

Han boming looked as if he was possessed, his eyes staring straight at Zhong Xueqing. His heart, which had been on tenterhooks for han mingmei the entire night, was now boiling, and even his head was buzzing.

He stood up abruptly, not even feeling the burn from the cigarette in his hand.

"You said that it's foolproof!"

As soon as he finished speaking, han boming fainted backward with a bang!

Chapter 1149

1149 The tree wants peace, but the wind won't stop

The changes in the outside world did not affect the Lei family in Y R at all.

"The he family was burned down just like that."

Yan beiming could not help but feel emotional as he watched the news.

It was too late last night, so he and Liang yuran simply stayed in. He didn't expect that when he opened his eyes in the morning, he would know that something had happened in the second half of the night.

"Eldest brother and sister-in-law just came back this morning."

Lei Jue pushed up his frameless glasses and spoke in a deep voice.

At this time, the two people in the conversation were still lying in bed.

When they returned in the morning, Lin Hanxing had a hard time falling asleep after taking a bath. Lei Xiao could only hold her in his arms and coax her patiently. When she finally fell asleep, Lei Xiao leaned against the bed to rest.

Just as she was feeling a little sleepy, she noticed that the person beside her had woken up again.

She held his injured hand and brought it to her lips to kiss it.

Lei Xiao sighed and opened his eyes to see Lin Hanxing frowning with a heavy heart.

"I can't sleep."

Seeing that he was awake, Lin Hanxing looked up and said pitifully, "

As soon as she finished her sentence, the world turned upside down, and Thunder owl was already holding her by her sides with both hands, his whole body shrouded in shadow.

"If you can't sleep, we'll do something else."

Lei Xiao's voice was deep and hoarse, and it even carried a hint of coaxing.

Lin Hanxing blinked, and before he could say anything, the phone on the bed vibrated.

He reached out and took the phone. It was the mute uncle.

She knew that he was reminding her to go out.

She hung up the phone to let the mute uncle know that she had gotten it. Lei Xiao had already rolled over and fell to the side at the same time she took the phone. His back was facing Lin Hanxing, and he looked like he had been wronged.

"Don't be angry!"

Lin Hanxing laughed and leaned over to lie on his shoulder. He could not afford to offend a man who had already had his fill.

Thunder owl glanced at the shadow under her eyes.

"I promise I'll finish this as quickly as possible and have a good sleep when I come back!"

Lin Hanxing stretched out his hand and made a vow.

Only then did Thunder owl's expression turn slightly better.

When the two of them went downstairs, Bai Xi was already waiting for them.

Bai Xi didn't put on any makeup today, and her face was bare, but it didn't hide her beauty.

The moment she saw Lin Hanxing, her eyes flashed with excitement, but she quickly returned to her usual calm.

"My daughter-in-law!"

When she heard the noise, she knew that the two of them were awake. She quickly walked out of the kitchen.

She was even holding a bowl of vegetable porridge in her hand.

you, Bai Xi, and the mute uncle should eat something first before going out. Otherwise, you won't be able to eat for the whole day if you get busy!

Mother Lei could not help but nag at Lin Hanxing.

However, it didn't make people feel repulsed by her nagging at all. They only felt that she was a cute little old lady.

Lin Hanxing knew that if he didn't eat it, mother Lei wouldn't let it go so easily. He gave a look to Bai Xi and the mute uncle, and the two of them quickly followed her to the dining room and sat down.

Lei Xiao, who had been completely ignored by mother Lei from the beginning to the end, sat beside Lin Hanxing silently.

"Rotten skin golden silk roll and spring bamboo shoot."

The few side dishes were all appetizing. It was obvious that mother Lei had specially prepared them for Lin Hanxing, who had just returned home this morning and was about to leave again.

mother Lei, you're too biased!

Yan beixiao was lying at the door and wailing. They had been eating ordinary food in the morning.

He also wanted to eat the mixed vegetables that were specially prepared by mother Lei. It was a delicacy that could not be eaten even if one had the money!

There was only one secret recipe!

"What are you shouting for! Bring your wife! I'll cook for you every meal!"

Mother Lei placed her hands on her hips and roared.

Yan beixiao took the opportunity to shamelessly rub himself against Yuan Bao, imitating Yuan Bao's whining. Finally, he managed to get an extra bowl of porridge to drink!

He sat down beside Lei Xiao, satisfied.

"Look at how skinny you two are, why don't you learn from others and love treasures!"

Mama Lei said as she pinched Bai Xi's little arm. After some thought, she turned around and went back to the kitchen to get her a meat bun. She placed it in front of Bai Xi, as if she wouldn't let Bai Xi leave until she finished it.

Bai Xi immediately looked at Lin Hanxing with a bitter face, looking pitiful.

"Look at how scared you are, mother Lei. Your face says 'I can't do it'!"

As Yan beixiao spoke, he mimicked her actions to perfection. He took the meat bun and bit off half of it!

"Eat, eat, eat, you only know how to eat! Everyone knows how to take Xi Bao home, but what about you?"

Lin Hanxing stopped eating his porridge.

Xi Bao and ... Liang yuran?

Yan beiming was so scared that he trembled. The meat bun was stuck in his chest, and it took him a lot of effort to get it down!

What do you mean kidnapped home? mother Lei, you said that Liang yuran was like a human trafficker. Xi Bao just didn't like Liang yuran's pigsty, so he went to help clean it up!

Yan beiming was well aware of Lin Hanxing's protective nature. If she misunderstood what Liang yuran had done to Xi Bao, then she would be throwing away her own life!

"I swear to the lamp!"

Yan beixiao stuck out three of his middle fingers and swore to the crystal chandelier above him with a serious expression.

"It's true!"

She nodded her head like a chicken pecking at rice to convince Lin Hanxing.

However, Lin Hanxing only picked up some spring bamboo shoots with his chopsticks expressionlessly. The slightly bitter taste was refreshing and appetizing.

Clearly, mother Lei had put in a lot of effort.

mom, it's windy outside today. You and dad shouldn't go back yet!

Lin Hanxing raised his head and said indifferently.

Strong wind?

The weather is so good today, where's the wind?

Yan Beichen did not react in time and stretched his neck to look out of the large French window in the dining room.

After a long time ...

His expression became really subtle.

“My daughter-in-law, you mean ...”

Mama Lei hesitated.

there’s a path up the mountain behind us. There’s a lot of wild animals on the mountain. If you like them, I’ll send someone to show you around.

Lin Hanxing finished the last sip and said with a smile before mother Lei could finish.

These words were said in a roundabout way, but everyone understood.

After the meal.

Lei Xiao still had to go to the Lei clan today, so he left with Lin Hanxing.

“Ah Xiao, the tree wants to be quiet, but the wind won’t stop.”

Before he got into the car, Lin Hanxing told him this ...

As soon as the car drove out of Y. R. ‘S Gate, Lin Hanxing’s car was suddenly stopped by a red Ferrari. If Bai Xi hadn’t stepped on the brakes in time, the consequences would have been unimaginable.

Lin Hanxing’s face was cold as he picked up the documents that had been thrown on the ground.

The window on the opposite side rolled down.

Lin xiaojiu, I know you’re in there. Can I talk to you? ”

Fang Mengran’s voice was pleading.

Lin Hanxing, who was in the car, took out his phone and sent a WeChat message to Lei Xiao. The two of them had left the car one after the other. If he saw that he was blocked by people, he did not know how he would anger him.

However, Lin Hanxing was glad.

The thing that ah Xiao couldn’t touch the most was to be maliciously attacked. Young master Liang’s lesson was still in front of him. Fortunately, Fang Mengran stopped him today, otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

After sending the message, Lin Hanxing pushed the car door open.

But that was all.

Seeing this, Fang Mengran knew that Lin Hanxing had agreed, and she heaved a sigh of relief.

It had to be said that from the moment she decided to stop the car, her heart was in her throat and she was as scared as she could be.

Fang Mengran got off the car.

Just as he was about to enter Lin Hanxing’s car, his body suddenly froze on the spot as if he had been struck by lightning.

1150 Fang Mengran's request for peace

Looking at the source of danger, Fang Mengran quickly met the eyes of the two eagles.

Her hand was frozen on top of Lin Hanxing's car.

Just when Fang Mengran thought Lei Xiao would do something, the car window rolled up slowly, covering his cold face. He stepped on the accelerator and his black Bugatti sped away.

As if she had come back to life, Fang Mengran gasped for breath.

She lowered her head and looked into the car. When she met Lin Hanxing's cold and beautiful eyes, the hair on her back stood up again.

Originally, Fang Mengran was still suspicious as to why Lei Xiao would leave so quickly after seeing that she had blocked Lin Hanxing. Now, it seemed that Lin Hanxing must have talked to him long ago. Otherwise, how could she still be standing here alive?

He sat in the car.

"Miss Lin, I apologize to you on behalf of my mother."

Fang Mengran put her hands together and looked at Lin Hanxing with her beautiful face full of sincerity.

Lin Hanxing turned to look at her.

She didn't know when it started, but this Fang Mengran had finally learned to tuck her tail between her legs.

"Is this Zhong Xueqing's idea?"

Lin Hanxing asked coldly, but it was impossible to tell what she was thinking from her voice.

Although it was only for a moment, the embarrassment on Fang Mengran's face could not be concealed.

"It seems like this is miss Fang's own idea."

After that, Lin Hanxing did not look at her anymore and leaned back in the leather seat.

The corners of his mouth curled up into a cold smile.

Seeing that smile, Fang Mengran's scalp went numb.

Ever since she had returned to Jiang city, she had only crossed swords with Lin xiaojiu a few times. Every time she revealed that smile, it meant that at least one of them was going to suffer!

"If that's the case, what's the point of apologizing?"

Lin Hanxing understood Zhong Xueqing. She would rather die than bow her 'noble' head to him and mother Lei, let alone apologize. If she were to find out that her daughter had done such a thing behind her back ...

Fang Mengran wouldn't have a good time when she returned home!

“I ...”

Fang Mengran still wanted to say something, but Lin Hanxing interrupted her.

“Since it wasn’t the other party’s original intention, it’s just a waste of breath to say more.”

“Miss Lin, I beg you to let go of Madam Fang!”

Fang Mengran said anxiously, afraid that Lin Hanxing would chase her out of the car.

Lin Hanxing’s gaze finally returned to her face.

However, the look in his eyes was very subtle.

It was so subtle that it made people feel uneasy.

Xuxu had ... Let her off ...

I’m begging you ...

Lin Hanxing’s eyes lost focus for a few seconds. She thought of Zhong Wan ‘er.

This was already the second person who had begged him for help in a day.

“Other than the Lin family, I have given all of you a chance.”

Lin Hanxing said indifferently.

This was something she would never have said in the past.

Today, she had said it.

Ever since she returned to Jiang city, Lin Hanxing had always held onto her bottom line. Other than the Lin family, she had given a chance to anyone who had provoked her, but unfortunately ...

The people in this world never knew what it meant to quit while you were ahead!

They thought that just because they held wealth or power in their hands, they could crush other people’s bodies and self-esteem under their feet. Then, they would throw them away like garbage, with arrogant or tyrannical faces.

Why?

Hearing this, Fang Mengran’s pupils suddenly contracted.

Before she came, she was prepared to be humiliated by Lin Hanxing. She had even thought of kneeling down. However, she did not expect that Lin Hanxing would be so cold and indifferent that he did not embarrass her at all.

All the preparations she had made in her heart before were in vain.

“I can’t just watch my father’s life’s work be ruined by my mother’s hands!”

Fang Mengran felt lucky. She had thought that the matter was not so serious, but after hearing her mother and Han Boming talk about it today, she suddenly realized that the matter had reached an urgent point.

The family was already in such a state. If they wanted to repay the compensation to X group, they would have to go bankrupt.

In comparison, although the Lin family was better off, their family business was also destroyed.

As for the Fang family ...

Although it wasn't very kind of her to think this way, when she first found out that Han Boming had paid for most of their family's investment in the Jiangcheng sea bridge project, Fang Mengran was indeed relieved.

Because even if something went wrong with the project, the money in her mother's hands was enough to deal with it. But Fang Mengran never thought that her mother, who was usually self-assured of her intelligence, would actually put all her eggs in one basket this time!

All the liquid funds that could be used were now invested into another project!

"It's too late,"

The moment these three simple words came out of Lin Hanxing's mouth, Fang Mengran's entire body turned cold.

"What do you mean? Do you know something? Or are you ..."

Lin Hanxing's next words were all cut off by his cold gaze.

Even Bai Xi, after hearing Fang Mengran's three questions, looked at her unhappily through the rearview mirror.

Fang Mengruo realized that she had overstepped her boundaries!

"Bai Xi,"

As soon as he finished speaking, Bai Xi, who was sitting in front, handed him a document.

Lin Hanxing did not take it.

He looked at Fang Mengran.

Fang Mengran came to a realization and reached out to take the document.

After hesitating for a moment, he opened it again.

He had only read a few lines when all the energy in his body seemed to have been sucked out in an instant. His blood and Qi surged up, and his head buzzed!

He quickly flipped through the contents!

It even brought with it gusts of cold wind that blew against his face!

“This can’t be real! Miss Lin, you must have a way, right?”

Fang Mengran’s hands were shaking.

Lin Hanxing looked emotionlessly at Fang Mengran’s final struggle.

In fact, when she later found out that han boming had funded the Jiangcheng Bay Bridge for Zhong Xueqing, Lin Hanxing had already investigated Zhong Xueqing’s financial situation at the fastest speed. At that time, she had already invested most of her liquid funds into a Fund project called ‘Vientiane’.

And this fund was suspected of setting up fake projects from the very beginning, and even violated the rules.

However, because the Foundation’s headquarters claimed to be involved with a large family in Hong Kong, the public invested a lot of money.

since half a month ago, most of the buyers of this Foundation couldn’t take out their principal and interest. At the same time, this project has been closely monitored by the investigation Agency for a long time because it involved fraud and a bad ending.

Because of this, even if Zhong Xueqing didn’t treat han boming sincerely in the beginning, now, she had to hold on to this only life-saving straw, otherwise ...

Not to mention her capital, she didn’t even get back the money she spent to protect herself!

But perhaps, Zhong Xueqing had never expected that the Jiangcheng sea bridge project, which she had originally thought would be successful, would end up in such a terrible defeat!

Fang Mengran was shivering.

If the document in her hands was real, then it meant that the Fang family’s money ...

They had all been trapped!
