

Goodnight 1231

Chapter 1231

1231 A brand new Li family

“This is what you meant by never being able to recover?”

Liang yuran, who hadn't said a word, broke the silence, his deep eyes looking outside.

Hearing this, Yan beiming finally shifted his gaze away from Yuan Kang's face.

it's just a lotus flower. Is it really worth it for him to make such a big fuss? ”

Yan beiming had to admit that the sight of lotus ponds on both sides of the road was indeed beautiful, and the breeze carried the fragrance of ten thousand lotus flowers. But this Yuan fellow should not be so surprised, right?

“If you knew that this place was completely different half a month ago, you wouldn't have said that.”

Uncle hai said in a low voice.

Another scene?

Yan beixiao recalled what Yuan Kang had said and was slightly shocked. Could it be that it was not an exaggeration and that it was true?

One after another, the Mercedes Benz Maybach S600 continued to drive forward slowly.

They were getting closer to their destination.

However, the shock that the scenery brought to Yuan Kang was far from over.

Where was the desolate withered grass?

Where was the half-fallen door?

The carved door, which was sensed by the Bluetooth chip, automatically opened to both sides, and the beautiful scenery unfolded before everyone's eyes like a painting!

The pothole-filled road that even cars could not drive in had been repaired.

He brushed the grass and disappeared.

Many of the precious plants that Yuan Kang had only seen in the Encyclopedia had now become ordinary roadside plants that decorated the Li family's home.

The deeper they went.

His line of sight widened.

“F * ck, where did the water come from?”

The car window had already been completely rolled down, and the sound of running water could be heard.

It was actually a Lake?

The dense bamboo stood near the shore, and some of its leaves drifted along the water.

If one looked carefully, one could even see koi swimming in the clear water.

It was as beautiful as time being frozen.

A nine-turn bridge stood quietly on the surface of the lake.

Yuan Kang's impression of the Li family was still from half a month ago. He looked at the scene in front of him in shock.

Was this still the poor Li family?

"I really want someone to give me a slap and see if it's a dream!"

The next second.

With a "pa" sound, Yan beiming raised his arms and fulfilled his request!

this is the first time I've heard such an unreasonable request in my life. I'll satisfy you!

"....."

Liang yuran suddenly regretted not sitting with the sacred hand mute uncle and the others.

Originally, Yan beixiao could only be considered as an odd number of jokers, but after meeting Yuan Kang, the two of them had formed an alliance!

What an unfortunate family!

The car drove slowly for about ten minutes and finally arrived in front of the Li family's Villa.

Li binshou and the rest of the Li family were already waiting at the entrance when they received the news that Lin Hanxing was coming.

Even the two Tibetan Mastiffs were sitting upright with two big bowties tied around their necks.

His tongue was steaming.

Lin Hanxing's car was the first to stop.

The bodyguard got out of the car.

He went to the back door and opened it.

A gush of cold air gushed out of the car.

Then, the little sheep ball couldn't help but jump down.

Next was Thunder valiant.

At the back of the crowd, Shangguan Yilu wished she could rush forward and drag Lin Hanxing out of the car.

This morning.

She had come here with uncle Liang.

Lin Hanxing did not show up even after waiting for a long time.

On the other hand, the entire Li family was as happy as the new year.

Just half an hour before they arrived, there was a steady stream of clothes and jewelry being sent over.

Shangguan Yilu had been sitting in the hall with uncle Liang.

Seeing the batch of things being sent over by Lei Xiao's men, and the Li clan's people sending the things upstairs in high spirits, the crowd was stunned.

It was the room prepared for Lin xiaojiu!

For Shangguan Yilu, the feeling was both subtle and strange.

Her brother's fate was unknown, and she had to face the joy of others. Because she still needed Lin xiaojiu's help, she suppressed her temper, but she still felt very uncomfortable!

In the past.

They were all surrounded by others.

While Shangguan Yilu was thinking about this, Lin Hanxing had already gotten out of the car.

"Master!"

The Li family members were overjoyed, and even the two Tibetan Mastiffs couldn't hold back.

Lin Hanxing looked around.

This newly renovated style was indeed uncle Jin's.

She really liked it.

There were mountains, water, flowers, and trees.

Everything was filled with a fresh smell.

It was as if aunt Mian had never left this place.

Lin Hanxing's gaze finally fell on the big longan tree in the courtyard, and his long eyelashes fluttered.

Behind him.

The others got off the car one after another.

"Lin xiaojiu!"

Shangguan Yilu couldn't help but shout.

As soon as the words left her mouth, her voice seemed to be stuck in her throat, and she could not continue.

The reason was simple.

Because everyone was looking at her coldly, even the two Tibetan Mastiffs!

Shangguan Yilu was so frightened that she swallowed the rest of her words.

“Are your injuries better?”

Lin Hanxing ignored Shangguan Yilu, and his eyes fell on Li Yuanjun, who was standing next to Li Bingshou.

The scars from that day still remained on the young man’s face.

The swelling subsided.

Her entire person was unbelievably delicate and pretty.

“Sacred hands.”

Without waiting for the young man to reply, Lin Hanxing had already called out “holy hands.”

Sacred hands looked in her direction.

Li Yuanjun was stunned at first, and his body’s instinctive reaction was to resist. However, he remembered that this person was called by the master of the family, so he forced himself to relax.

“It’ll be fine after some rest.”

Soon, Holy Hands rolled his eyes and replied.

Please don’t give him this kind of trouble that isn’t challenging enough!

“Patriarch, come in first!”

Li Bingshou was dressed in an Indigo Tang suit, looking very respectful and polite.

The group of people slowly entered the villa.

The kitchen had already prepared herbal tea, waiting for them to drink it to cool off the heat as soon as they arrived.

The layout of the villa was still the same as before, but after Uncle Jin’s design, it was filled with an antique sense of preciousness that was not desolate.

The herbal tea was served one cup after another.

Shangguan Yilu hated the smell of the medicine, so she pushed it aside with a look of disgust.

In front of Yuan Bao was the plum sauce made by the Li family with soda water.

“Miss Lin, we ...”

Before Uncle Liang could finish his sentence, Lin Hanxing had already raised his hand to stop him.

the rooms upstairs have been allocated. Now, let the servants bring you up. We need to go out in 30 minutes. If you want to follow us, just get ready to go downstairs.

Lin Hanxing said indifferently.

Shangguan Yilu exploded when she heard that they had to go out.

“What? You’re not going to hurry up and save my brother? Where are you going?”

The three consecutive rising tones in the same sentence were extremely harsh to the ears. Yuan Kang even exaggeratedly picked his ears with his fingers. He was still thinking about staying here with them.

After all, even if he returned to the yuan family, those old guys wouldn’t give him any face.

“Uncle li, did I ask you to prepare this?”

Lin Hanxing continued to ignore Shangguan Yilu, but turned to look at li binshou.

Chapter 1232

1232 What did she say? go shopping?

Li binshou had thought that Lin Hanxing would take a few days to rest before bringing this up, but he did not expect it to be so soon!

He was stunned.

Then, she turned around and went upstairs. She quickly brought down all the things that she had prepared.

During this time, the others were led upstairs by the servants to rest.

The Thunder valiant beast didn’t move.

Yuan Kang and uncle hai naturally didn’t move either.

This time, Yuan Kang knew the proper etiquette and didn’t move forward.

It was obvious that the item that old man Li had brought down was related to the Li family.

Although the Li family looked shabby, Yuan Kang had not forgotten the box of gold, silver, and jewelry that had fallen on the table.

When he thought of the tragic state of the Li family’s bare four walls ...

Yuan Kang sighed in his heart.

Sometimes, a person’s belief was a terrifying thing!

Yuan Kang had finally learned something from the people of the Li family.

Back then, if they had just casually used a little of the box of treasures, their lives would not have been as hard as they were in the beginning. Furthermore, their clothes were still patched up, and they still had to work even when they were older ...

Lin Hanxing looked at the item in his hand quietly.

No one went to disturb her.

Even though Shangguan Yilu wanted to attract Lin Hanxing's attention again, he was stopped by uncle Liang.

"Ah Xiao,"

After Lin Hanxing finished reading, he passed the thing in his hand to Lei Xiao.

Then, he held the cup of herbal tea with ice cubes and leaned against the Rosewood Chair with his eyes closed. It was unknown if he was resting or deep in thought.

He gently shook the glass in his hand.

He allowed the ice blocks inside to collide and make a crisp sound.

"Ah Xiao, what are your thoughts after watching this?"

Suddenly, just when everyone thought that Lin Hanxing had fallen asleep, she spoke again.

"Ridiculous."

Lei Xiao's eagle-like eyes narrowed as he spat out these two words.

This made Yuan Kang even more curious about the contents of the things in their hands.

"Master, we were incompetent ..."

Li bingshou looked ashamed.

In fact, the thing that was handed to Lin Hanxing was none other than the list of land deeds that the Li family had in their hands over the years.

According to common sense, all the benefits of the Leaper of the land should belong to the Li family. However, ever since li Yanyu left, the Li family no longer had anyone who could control the land and quickly declined.

The tenants began to play tricks, crying and complaining that they had no money.

Even if there were people who were willing to pay the rent in the beginning, as time passed and the Li family fell into decline, they were no longer able to collect a sum of money!

Even the land had been occupied!

"I don't blame you."

Lin Hanxing did not blame them.

Based on the speed at which the Li family was falling, it was already not easy to maintain the villa in front of them.

On the other hand, being greedy, bullying the weak, and fearing the strong were the bad habits in human bones.

Without enough confidence, wanting to fight with a real ruffian was like hitting a stone with an egg.

That was why the ancients used the phrase ‘where there is life, there is hope’.

It was the stupidest thing to show off his power before he was sure that he could really take down the other party!

“Lin xiaojiu! Are you going to save my brother or not?”

Uncle Liang had pushed Shangguan Yilu down several times, and she finally exploded!

The usually pampered young lady had to rush to the Li family’s house this morning. She had wanted to ask the kitchen to make her breakfast, but she did not expect that everyone in the Li family was busy welcoming Lin xiaojiu. She waited until her stomach was rumbling with hunger, but no one came to answer her!

Uncle Liang sighed in his heart.

He could tell what Shangguan Yilu was thinking just by looking at her expression.

He was probably suppressing the fire in his heart because of the breakfast he had in the morning.

Actually, there was still a follow-up to what happened in the morning.

Later, the Li family took pity on her and finally someone went to make a Chinese breakfast. However, miss was used to a Western life. She didn’t even look good when she smelled the food, let alone eat it.

She immediately threw the bowls and plates.

Although the Li family’s people had unfriendly expressions on their faces, they were here to look for Lin xiaojiu. After cleaning up, they went back to their own tasks, leaving them completely out there. They didn’t even have a cup of water left.

“Save?”

This time, Lin Hanxing did not ignore Shangguan Yilu. Instead, he turned his head and looked at her with a cold gaze.

The ice in the glass cup in his hand was still colliding with the glass as before.

although I don’t know Shangguan shixiu’s real purpose for coming here, he could still be easily hidden with his identity. Do you think the water here is shallow enough for me to open up the situation as soon as I come? ”

Lin Hanxing’s voice was extremely cold.

Just like the cup of cold tea in her hand, it was so cold that her hands were frozen.

Shangguan Yilu was even angrier when she heard this.

He did not notice the deep look in uncle Liang’s eyes as he looked at Lin Hanxing.

“What if something happens to my brother?”

Upon hearing this, Lin Hanxing's eyes passed Shangguan Yilu and finally stopped on uncle Liang's face.

"He'll be fine."

Uncle Liang's heart skipped a beat when he met Lin Hanxing's eyes.

Could it be that she had discovered something?

No, it can't be this fast!

"Am I right, uncle Liang?"

Lin Hanxing placed the glass on the table with a clatter.

"....."

Uncle Liang remained silent, but the atmosphere suddenly became strange.

Even the most insensitive person could feel it.

Lei Xiao's eagle-like eyes fell on uncle Liang's face at the same time.

you ... You ... You're too much!!!

Shangguan Yilu stood up abruptly, her expression as if she wanted to eat Lin Hanxing alive.

"My brother got into trouble because of you. How can you just sit back and do nothing?"

Hearing the commotion downstairs, the crowd ran down from upstairs and looked at Shangguan Yilu with unfriendly expressions.

"You can eat whatever you want, but you can't say whatever you want! Our family's ninth young lady and Mister Lei's relationship is very good. What do you mean by this happened because of ninth young lady?"

Without waiting for the others to speak, Bai Xi was the first to raise a difficult question to Shangguan Yilu!

Did they really think that they were useless?

it's all because of her. Otherwise, my brother wouldn't have used a code that only Lin xiaojiu can understand!

Shangguan Yilu said arrogantly.

Obviously, they thought that Lin Hanxing had something to do with this!

"Shangguan Yilu, stop testing my patience!"

The originally expressionless face of the Thunder valiant beast turned even colder, and the invisible pressure made it hard for people to breathe.

"You ... You are all bullying me! When my brother comes back, I'll definitely make him teach you guys a lesson!"

“.....”

“.....”

Everyone who heard this put on a speechless expression.

Yan beiming and Yuan Kang both rolled their eyes at the same time.

She thought that this was a fight between children and their parents were called.

Just as she was thinking about this, the next second, Shangguan Yilu burst into tears!

Everyone was so shocked that they looked at each other!

This works?

miss Shangguan, you can continue crying if you want to. I have more important things to do now!

Lin Hanxing stood up as he spoke.

His expression was normal.

Nothing had changed because of Shangguan Yilu.

“Let’s go shopping.”

Shangguan Yilu’s crying stopped abruptly as soon as she finished speaking.

What did she say? go shopping?

Chapter 1233

1233 Don’t place the Fusang flower in your right ear

“You can’t go!”

Shangguan Yilu was about to step forward and grab Lin Hanxing, but she was stopped by uncle hai.

“Move!” He shouted.

Shangguan Yilu’s eyes widened.

“This is the Li family, not your Shangguan family!”

Uncle Hai’s entire body was exuding a cold aura, so she could not get close to Lin Hanxing.

This made the Li family, who didn’t have a good impression of the yuan family, look a little better.

“Miss Lin.”

Uncle hai turned to look at Lin Hanxing.

“Many people here know me. It’s not convenient for you to go anywhere. Yuan Kang can lead the way.”

It was obvious that uncle hai had understood her intentions.

“Leave it to me!”

Hearing this, Yuan Kang patted his chest.

Although he was only a distant relative of the yuan family, he was still a member of the yuan family after all. In the past, he had followed the rich Playboys on the streets and alleys. Which restaurant in Xue LAN had an undeserved reputation, which restaurant had the most authentic food, none of them could escape his eyes.

“Mute uncle, stay too.”

Although so many years had passed, it was hard to guarantee that they wouldn’t recognize each other if they met.

The purpose of that person’s return was still unclear, so it was best not to alert the enemy.

The mute uncle nodded in silence.

Lin xiaojiu, you’re not allowed to leave!!!

Accompanied by Shangguan Yilu’s shrieking, Lin Hanxing and the others left the house ...

“Where are we going first?”

In the spacious black Mercedes-Benz spant business car, Yuan Kang squinted his eyes in enjoyment.

As a member of the yuan family’s side branch, he had never enjoyed such treatment in the past.

It had to be said.

Lin xiaojiu really knew how to enjoy himself!

He would not treat himself badly anywhere!

Yuan Kang thought.

“First aunt, I’m hungry ...”

Yuan Bao tugged at the corner of Lin Hanxing’s shirt, his little face looking pink and tender!”

“Let’s find a quiet place to eat first.”

Lin Hanxing said lightly as he pinched Yuan Bao’s face.

Compared to the time when they came in a few separate cars, this time, the group of people sat together. They were obviously looking forward to the first meal of their trip to country G.

I’m telling you guys, if you’re treating a guest to a meal in country G, you won’t easily go to a big hotel!

Yuan Kang acted like an old lady, calm and composed.

“Special nightclubs and food stalls are our first choice!”

As he spoke, Yuan Kang snapped his fingers.

He told the driver the location in G language. Everyone could see that Yuan Kang was like a fish in the water at this time, compared to his slightly reserved manner in Jiang city. He looked more and more lively.

“Little Hanxing, you didn’t come out this time just to go shopping, right?”

Yan beixiao leaned back in his leather seat and raised his eyebrows at the expressionless Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao.

This couple was good at everything.

It was to do things in a unique style, as mysterious as possible.

Not to mention that she had been by Lei Xiao’s side for so many years and could not figure out his thoughts at times, even if little Hanxing told him what she was thinking, she might still have to take a few more turns to understand.

However, the two of them understood each other the most in the world.

Even if he didn’t speak, he could understand the other party’s intentions with just a look. It was really ... I’m so jealous!

“If ninth young lady says we’re going shopping, then we’re going shopping!”

Bai Xi, who was like a little chili, opened his mouth and choked on it. It was still the same as before.

Yuan Kang burst out laughing.

Seeing Yan beiming being defeated, his heart was filled with joy.

“Childish.”

Sacred hands crossed his arms and snorted.

The group of them soon arrived at their destination.

It was a fishing village in the southern state.

The fishing village was next to the Xuelan River, and the sea was just below the river. The locals of country G would always drive there during their rest days to buy and eat seafood.

Sitting in the seafood restaurant by the river, the scenery would be beautiful if it was evening.

“It’s a pity that we came too early,”

Yuan Kang felt that it was a pity, but he thought about it. Lin xiaojiu would definitely stay for at least half a year. He would have a chance sooner or later.

“Old habit, boss!”

Yuan Kang shouted at the boss.

When she turned around, she saw Lin Hanxing standing in front of a large cluster of red Fusang trees in full bloom. Lei Xiao was standing beside her and said something that made her smile.

"If you like it, pick one and wear it."

The boss looked at the handsome man and beautiful woman and couldn't help but smile.

It was a Hokkien with a heavy accent.

The boss said as he looked at Lei Xiao, then pointed at his right ear.

After that, she turned around and went to tidy up the seafood.

"Ninth young lady, what do you mean by that?"

Jiang Xibao mimicked the boss and pointed at his right ear. He was a little confused.

Fusang. She's the national flower of country G.

Lin Hanxing said indifferently.

"The flower language is a fresh love or subtle beauty."

A bright red Fusang flower was pinned on her white finger, and she put it in the black hair by her right ear.

Flowers and beauties.

They had always been the most compatible.

Jiang Xibao could not help but be stunned.

It's said that the local girls of country G will put the Japanese in their ears. The left side means 'I want to have a lover', and the right side means 'I already have a lover'.

That was why the boss pointed at his right ear after he glanced at Lei Xiao.

"Is it good?"

Lin Hanxing looked at Lei Xiao and smiled.

The breeze blew, and even her black hair was slightly raised.

"It's nice."

His cold star had always been the most beautiful star in the sky.

"The seafood is here. Do the two over there want to spend some time together?"

Yan beixiao shouted at the top of his lungs.

Along with his voice, large plates of seafood were sent over, and the people who saw it were surprised.

Although this group of young masters didn't get to eat anything in the past, everything was still fresh when they first arrived in country G. It was inevitable that they would feel a little more relaxed.

What the future would be like, that was something to think about after eating!

Just as Lin Hanxing turned around, Lei Xiao's large palm had already reached out from behind and held her small hand.

"It's time to eat,"

.....

This was the first meal they had since they arrived in country G, and everyone had a good meal.

Lin Hanxing, on the other hand, only had plain noodles in front of him.

There was no toasting and only a few pieces of green vegetables. It was particularly eye-catching among the remains of the seafood on the table.

Lin Hanxing passed a stack of papers to Yuan Kang.

Yuan Kang was stunned.

Obviously, he recognized that it was the one that old man Li had given to Lin Hanxing when they were at the Li family.

At that time, in order to avoid suspicion, he didn't move forward.

Now, she was actually showing him this thing?

Yuan Kang took it in a daze. He lowered his head to take a look and took a deep breath.

Seeing him like this, Yan beixiao, who was sitting closest to him, leaned over to take a look.

"F * ck, only one?"

Yan beixiao cried out.

The others did not know what was going on, only Lei Xiao poured a cup of warm water for Lin Hanxing.

Out of the 43 land deeds controlled by the Li family, only one family was left to pay the rent?

What the f * ck was this!

"Yuan Kang,"

Lin Hanxing took a sip of warm water, his long eyelashes slightly closed, hiding all his emotions.

"Go arrange the route. I want to go through all these shops before evening. The last one ..." He said.

Lin Hanxing's hand fell on one of the names.

"It's this!"

Chapter 1234

1234 Each of them was overflowing with wealth

The place Lin Hanxing pointed to was the only shop that was still paying rent.

PU Ji herbal tea!

Lin Hanxing did not say anything after that. He continued to drink his water calmly.

“You want to touch them?”

Yuan Kang skimmed through it, and his expression suddenly became subtle.

The original head of the Li clan ...

What a wonderful person!

Yuan Kang couldn't help sighing after looking at the name list in his hand and the map in his mind.

As a local Chinese who had grown up on this land, no one knew the mysteries of this land better than him.

“Boss, do you have a map?”

Soon, the boss handed them a map of the tourists.

“Just you wait!”

Yuan Kang couldn't wait to start drawing on the map. Other than Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao, the rest of the people craned their necks to look at Yuan Kang drawing on the map.

Soon, the prototype was formed.

“Look again now!”

He pushed the marked 43rd spot in front of everyone.

they're all from the East to the West, separated by this Street!

Suddenly, Liang yuran spoke in a deep voice, and his hand drew a line in the air.

“The Western part is under the Hong gang's jurisdiction. As for the eastern part ...”

Yuan Kang suddenly drew a big circle on the map!

“It's already been seized by the second Princess Consort's maiden family!”

The Hong gang and the second Princess Consort's maiden family?

Although these people didn't come to country G previously, just hearing these two names, one could tell that they had a big background!

Yuan Kang rubbed his hands excitedly.

If the Li family still controlled the real power of these territories, whether it was the Hong gang or the second Princess Consort's maiden family, it would be no different from taking drastic measures!

The previous patriarch of the Li family was really far-sighted!

But unfortunately ...

“I'm afraid it won't be easy to move!”

Yuan Kang added after hesitating for a while.

“It’s especially hard to move!”

Yuan Kang seemed to feel that his tone was not good enough, so he added another sentence. In the ears of others, the difficulty could be heard!

A click.

Lin Hanxing placed the cup on the table.

“So what?”

The river Wind blew, lifting her long hair like a waterfall. Even the red Fusang flower moved.

It was a casual sentence.

It was as if all the dangers in front of him were just the occasional River Wind.

“Ha.”

Lin Hanxing turned his head to look at the river and suddenly sneered.

What about the Hong gang?

So what if it was the second Princess Consort’s family?

Didn’t she come here to teach them a lesson?

Everyone’s eyes were on Lin Hanxing.

“Let’s go!”

.....

The sun was setting.

“This is the forty-second shop, the hundred herbs shop.”

This was the largest Chinese medicine shop in Xuelan province.

Where there were Chinese people, there would definitely be Chinese medicine.

Although Western medicine was effective quickly, it could only treat the symptoms and not the root of the problem.

Each had its own advantages and disadvantages.

However, for Chinese people of a certain age, they still had a deep feeling for Chinese medicine.

As long as the Chinese existed, the Chinese medicine would not die out.

“What a coincidence, this forty-third shop’s PU Ji herbal tea is just across the street!”

For the entire afternoon, they drove along the route that Yuan Kang had set and stopped at their destination. Lin Hanxing would observe for about two to three minutes each time, then call for a car to move on to the next target.

Just like this.

After walking and stopping for a while, he finally went to all the places marked on the map in the afternoon.

To others, it was just a cursory glance.

However, it was hard to say what it meant to Lin Hanxing.

But ...

No matter which title deed the shop was, they were all rich.

Even like this, he still didn't pay the rent ...

"Everyone is tired. Let's go to that herbal tea shop to rest."

After another two to three minutes, Lin Hanxing retracted his gaze from the entrance of the hundred herbs shop and said indifferently, "

He could finally get out of the car!

Everyone couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief.

No matter how luxurious the car was, sitting in it for an entire afternoon would still make one's back ache!

The group of people entered the herbal tea shop.

The strange thing was that, compared to the bustling business across the street, this century-old shop, which had been in existence since they went to Southeast Asia, was deserted. Besides them, there were only a few people in it.

country G's alcohol tax is very high. They usually don't drink when they eat.

Yuan Kang explained.

Seeing that so many people had suddenly come to this table, the boss, who had been dozing off, came over with the menu.

"Xi Bao."

Lin Hanxing suddenly called out Xi Bao's name.

Jiang Xibao, who was enviously looking at the menu, suddenly raised his head and exclaimed.

Then, Lin Hanxing casually mentioned a few medicinal herbs.

"Do you remember it?"

Jiang Xibao repeated. He did not expect her to really remember it.

“Go to the opposite side and buy it.”

“Hey, miss ...”

The boss seemed to have heard that she wanted someone to buy medicine from the opposite side and hurriedly spoke, but his expression still looked a little hesitant.

He hesitated whether he should ask or not.

“Please speak.”

Lin Hanxing raised his head and looked at him with a smile.

Since she had told him the name of the Chinese medicine, Lin Hanxing had noticed that the boss’s expression seemed a little off. Finally, when she asked Xi Bao to buy it, he spoke.

“I’m being meddlesome,”

The boss sighed, then looked around and said in a low voice.

“If you really want to get medicine, why don’t you go a hundred meters East? there’s a Xue’s shop. The medicine there ...”

The boss’s eyes were complicated.

“It’s genuine!”

The boss’s words were really meaningful.

“We heard that the hundred herbs shop is the most famous, so we came here.”

Lin Hanxing blinked and replied softly.

“I ... Sigh, forget it. Just pretend I didn’t say anything.”

The boss smiled bitterly, as if he thought that Lin Hanxing and the others were treating him as a medicine prop, and did not say anything more.

“Ninth young lady, should I still go?”

Jiang Xibao was a little confused when he was interrupted by the boss.

“Go.”

A simple word expressed his attitude.

“Then I want to drink sugar cane juice!”

After saying this, Jiang Xibao left.

Lin Hanxing looked at her back and couldn’t help but smile and shake his head.

“What are you doing?”

Bai Xi looked at Holy hand curiously and saw that he was drawing something on the table with his hand.

"Most of the people we went this afternoon had this symbol!"

Sacred hands thought for a moment. Not all of them, but most of them had such a symbol.

"The Chamber of Commerce."

Suddenly, Thunder valiant said two words in a deep voice.

"There's still such a thing as a Chamber of Commerce?"

Bai Xi was dumbfounded. She thought that this was a phrase that would only be heard in TV shows.

"PU CI Chamber of Commerce!"

Yuan Kang lowered his voice and said.

"PU CI Chamber of Commerce, a subsidiary of the Hong gang."

Jiang Xibao had already returned with the medicine.

Seeing that she was walking towards the herbal tea shop, someone seemed to be poking his head out from the hundred herbs shop.

"Ninth young lady, I've bought the medicine."

Jiang Xibao sat down as he spoke, not noticing that Liang yuran had taken the medicine bag for her.

have you guys heard? the yuan family has chosen a new heir ...

Not far away, the two of them were having a heated conversation.

Chapter 1235

1235 There's a problem with this medicine?

"Do you even need to hear about this? It's all over the streets!"

Jiang Xibao, who had taken a big gulp of lime and sugar cane juice, heard the two people not far away talking about the yuan family. She subconsciously wanted to turn around, but her head was suddenly grabbed by a big palm, which interrupted her action of turning back.

Jiang Xibao turned his head to take a look.

Coincidentally, his eyes met Liang yuran's unperturbed black eyes.

"Ha,"

Liang yuran said coldly.

Oh, " Jiang Xibao replied. He was interrupted and forgot what he wanted to do just now.

"Yuan laosan's wishful thinking has failed!"

Lin Hanxing opened the medicine bag expressionlessly and casually picked up some to put into his mouth as he heard the laughter from the other side.

However, before he could deliver it, his wrist was grabbed.

With a tremble, all the medicine fell to the ground.

Lin Hanxing raised her head and saw Lei Xiao's sharp eyes staring at her with a serious face.

"You're not allowed to eat it!"

These three words came out of Lei Jing's mouth in an overbearing manner.

"What kind of family do you think the Lin family of Jiang city is? Won't You Be crazy with joy if you get all the glory of the yuan family?"

The sound of chatting could be heard again.

"I'm just trying the medicine, I'll spit it out on the spot."

Lin Hanxing explained patiently.

Only then did the Thunder valiant beast let go of her wrist, but his eyes were still fixed on her.

"Where? Who else is there in the Lin family!"

From the tone of his voice, it was obvious that this person knew some inside information. Even the owner of the herbal tea shop came over curiously.

"Those who died died! He's crazy!"

His tone was like a storyteller, causing the people around to be stunned.

On this side.

Lin Hanxing reached out and put the medicine in his mouth, chewing it with his teeth.

"Spit it out."

Just as he was about to vomit, Thunder Valiant's voice rang in his ears.

The Butler.

Just as these three words appeared in her mind, Lin Hanxing had already obediently spat the medicinal dregs to the side.

"What do you mean? Why did they all die or go crazy?"

Lin Hanxing pushed the medicine packet in front of sacred hands and looked at him calmly.

Sacred hands was stunned.

Then, he followed Lin Hanxing's example and put the medicinal herbs into his mouth to chew.

"What's the deal with this?"

Although Yan beiming did not understand, he followed suit and stuffed the food into his mouth. Bai Xi and Yuan Kang also reached out their hands at the same time.

“It’s all because of this Lin xiaojiu!”

The man on the other side was full of energy, telling him what his relatives in Jiang city had told him. Although he added some details, it was still close to the truth!

“Bah!”

Sacred hands spat out the medicine, and his face darkened.

“I’ve tasted it.”

Lin Hanxing said these four words indifferently. He picked up the herbal tea in front of him and took a sip to dilute the taste of the medicine in his mouth.

“Is there a problem with this medicine?”

Yan beiming was a little shocked and quickly spat out the medicine in his mouth.

“This medicine is simply an old medicine.”

It was nice to say that it was Chen Yao.

“Are they fake?”

Bai Xi hesitated and pointed at the bag.

“It’s not fake,”

“However, I’d be thanking the heavens if even half of the Medicine’s effects remained!”

Sacred hands ‘tone was obviously not good.

Lin Hanxing sipped on his herbal tea and did not say anything, but the voices from the table not far away came again.

“The Lin family was destroyed, and the he family didn’t escape either, not to mention the Fang family and so on ...”

In any case, those who opposed her did not have a good ending!

Oh my God! Did Lin xiaojiu design all of this? ”

When the others heard this, their faces were filled with shock. It was unknown if they were shocked because the other party was a woman or because she was young!

Or perhaps they were shocked by her methods!

I’ve only heard of Lin xiaojiu’s looks ...

As he spoke, the man gave him a thumbs up, but then he seemed to feel that it was not enough, so he suddenly raised it up again.

“The most well-known thing about her is the mole at the corner of her right eye ...”

“Boss, bill please.”

Lin Hanxing's cold voice pulled the boss back to reality.

"Hey, I'm here."

The owner stood up in a hurry. He just wanted to pay the bill quickly and go back to listen to the next part.

He quickly took the bill and calculated the result in his heart. He wiped off the change and reported a number. However, when his gaze swept over the Chinese medicine packets in the hundred herbs shop, his eyes became a little more complicated.

The next second.

There was a dull thud.

The Chinese medicine packet flew in an arc in the air and fell into the trash can.

"This ..."

The boss raised his head abruptly. He first subconsciously looked at the hundred herbs shop across the street, then turned his head to look at the person who had thrown the medicine away.

It didn't matter if he didn't look up, but when he did, he suddenly took a deep breath.

From the boss's direction, he could see the small mole at the corner of her right eye!

The group stood up.

He walked outside.

"That ..."

The boss shouted out these two words.

Lin Hanxing heard him and stopped in his tracks. He turned around and looked at him.

All of a sudden.

The boss shivered.

The two people who had been chatting about the yuan family also noticed the subtle change here, stopped talking and turned their heads.

When he saw the woman standing in the middle, he held his breath.

She didn't know which family she was from.

He's really good looking!

The boss mumbled for a long time, but he still couldn't come up with an explanation.

Seeing Yuan Kang and the others "impatience, he suddenly heard a faint laugh.

"Boss."

Lin Hanxing said softly as he turned the Dragon-Phoenix ring on his finger.

"If someone comes to ask, just tell them the truth."

.....

"Hundred herbs? Bah! You're really tarnishing our ancestor's reputation!"

Bai Xi couldn't help but ask as soon as he got into the car.

it's an old medicine, and its efficacy has been reduced by half. If you want to recover, you have to get more medicine from them. This little scheme is as loud as it can be!

"Something doesn't seem right."

Jiang Xibao tilted his head and squeezed out a sentence after a long time.

"What's wrong?"

Yan Beichen's interest was piqued, and his hand was about to land on Jiang Xibao's shoulder.

"There aren't many guests inside."

That was why he felt that something was wrong.

The car had not driven for long when the sound insulation board was knocked.

"Mr. Ley, someone is following us."

Hearing this, the few people who were talking quieted down and looked at Lin Hanxing.

At this moment, Lin Hanxing was playing a rope-flipping game with Yuan Bao. Even when he heard Lei Xiao's subordinate's words, he still did not respond.

"Don't go back to the Li family for the time being. Let them follow."

Lei Xiao looked at Lin Hanxing and said coldly.

The soundproof panel closed again.

Night fell.

The lights were just lit.

Lin Hanxing's phone suddenly beeped with a timer.

As soon as she picked it up, Zhan Nanheng's face popped out.

"Hi, my childhood friend!"

"....."

Lin Hanxing hung up without a word.

In the next second, the countdown for FaceTime sounded again.

“Speak properly.”

The moment he picked up, Lin Hanxing said coldly to Zhan Nanheng.

“Nee-nee-nee-nee-nee-nee ...”

Yuan Bao, who was standing beside Lin Hanxing, made a few faces at Zhan Nanheng.

Zhan Nanheng’s adorable doll-like face perfectly interpreted what it meant to be ‘the baby is aggrieved, but the baby won’t say’!

I’ve sent you the location. I’ll treat you to a meal!

Chapter 1236

1236 How is it just a simple medicine shop?

Zhan Nanheng invited them to a meal at the most high-end hotel in Xuelan city.

Whether the food was good or not was another matter.

But it was extremely safe.

Lin Hanxing walked in expressionlessly. When he saw uncle Jin, who was smiling like Maitreya, his brows relaxed.

“Uncle Jin, you’ve worked hard.”

Ever since he had sent uncle Jin to country G, he had already helped Zhan Nanheng block several schemes in the open and in secret.

“Hello, pretty boy uncle!”

Yuan Bao raised his little devil horns obediently.

“.....”

Zhan Nanheng took a deep breath and decided to kill the impulse to strangle this little thing in the cradle!

He was still a child!

What else could he do?

Of course it was ...

Forgive him!

“There are a few flies downstairs that followed us. Tell your people not to do anything.”

She still had use for it.

Hearing this, Zhan Nanheng’s eyes narrowed.

This action made his well-known handsome face in country G even more charming.

Lin xiaojiu, you've just arrived, and you're already causing trouble? "

Zhan Nanheng said, smiling.

"Where are you from? Do you need my help?"

Zhan Nanheng said as he straightened his back and looked at Lei Xiao.

Yingluo, I have six pack abs!

My uncle has eight pieces!

Yingluo, I'm one of Malaysia's top 1 celebrities!

Hehehe, my uncle is the president of TOP1!

Yingluo, I'm rich!

He he he! Ha! Da?

The past was unbearable. Seeing Lei Xiao, Zhan Nanheng subconsciously wanted to show off his manliness.

"I'm not Gay."

Lei Xiao's voice was so cold that it could freeze ice.

The crowd was silent for two seconds, then burst into laughter.

"....."

Zhan Nanheng's face was livid.

He wasn't either!

This Lei fellow was indeed too annoying!

"It's the people from the hundred herbs shop."

Lin Hanxing reached out to cover the wine glass in front of Lei Xiao and poured him a glass of warm water.

When Zhan Nanheng heard the words 'hundred herbs shop', his expression froze.

"Did you say the hundred herbs shop?"

Under Lin Hanxing's instruction, Yuan Kang briefly explained what had happened in the afternoon.

"You're saying that the hundred herbs shop is on the Li family's land, and you're not paying?"

It was Zhan Nanheng's first time hearing about these old things.

Lin Hanxing glanced at him but did not say anything.

"Do you know who the current owner of the hundred herbs medicine Hall is?"

Seeing that Lin Hanxing was ignoring him, Zhan Nanheng coughed and said mysteriously.

“Who is it?”

Yuan Kang asked out of curiosity.

“He’s the brother-in-law of the second Princess Consort,”

This time, Zhan Nanheng didn’t keep them in suspense and told everyone the answer directly.

“You know that the medicine there is wrong?”

Lin Hanxing said leisurely, his eyes sweeping over Zhan Nanheng’s adorable baby face.

“The medicine there is divided into different grades.”

As soon as he said this, everyone’s eyes fell on Zhan Nanheng. The fish head soup in the middle of the table was steaming, and the candlelight flickered under the specially-made plates.

alright, send them to the royal family. Leave the inferior ones for high prices.

“Then, I’ll use this money to hit second Prince farrick!”

Lin Hanxing listened and played with the teacup in his hand without saying a word.

“But I heard that the owner of the hundred herbs medicine Hall used to be surnamed Xue. The medicine Hall was taken away by the second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law after some tricks.”

Unfortunately, who could win against the royal family?

Even if he suffered a loss, he would swallow it with blood!

“It’s not a simple medicine shop ...”

As they were talking, someone knocked on the door.

After uncle Jin got up and opened the door, there was a wave of whispers before the door was closed from the outside.

“Is it still because of that matter?”

However, Zhan Nanheng raised his head and looked at uncle Jin.

“What’s the matter?”

Lin Hanxing looked at uncle Jin and said indifferently.

“A strange thing.”

Zhan Nanheng seemed to have thought of something and smiled.

“Tell us about it.”

Yan beixiao interrupted, and even Bai Xi and Jiang Xibao looked at him curiously.

two days ago, elder su from the Rou City state's royal family didn't bring his granddaughter here. He said he was here to see a doctor. The royal family has been busy with this for the past two days.

Zhan Nanheng raised his chin slightly as he spoke.

"See a doctor?"

Yuan Kang was surprised. This could be considered a secret of the royal family.

"Yes, to see a doctor! Oh right, five minutes ago, they left for the hundred herbs shop, saying that they wanted to find a Chinese medicine doctor to treat them, but for some reason ..."

Lin Hanxing had stopped fiddling with the teacup.

"A person doesn't do things for no reason."

When she spoke, everyone's chopsticks stopped moving.

A few pairs of eyes fell on Lin Hanxing.

Did she have an idea when she said that?

"Bring those people up."

Just as everyone was holding their breath and speculating, Lin Hanxing's voice rang out again, and he suddenly laughed.

And this smile made everyone stunned.

At the same time, a chill ran down his back.

In the past, they rarely saw Lin Hanxing smile like this. However, every time she smiled like this, it meant that someone was about to get into big trouble! And this time ...

Who would be the unlucky one?

Oh my God, little Hanxing, stop laughing. My legs are getting cold from your laughter!

Yan Beichen could not help but speak up.

He placed a hand on his eyelids, wanting to cry but no tears came out. He was so scared that his legs were trembling.

With a "pa" sound, Lei Xiao smacked the back of Yan beiming's head.

"It should be!"

Bai Xi added.

While they were talking, the few people in charge of following them from the hundred herbs shop downstairs had been forcibly brought up.

"Do I need to leave?"

Zhan Nanheng raised an eyebrow.

“No need,”

Lin Hanxing said coldly.

anyway, there are already many people who wanted you dead but were killed instead. What’s the big deal if there are a few more today?

Lin Hanxing poured himself a cup of tea as he spoke.

He slowly drank it.

This meant ...

After this period of tempering, Zhan Nanheng was no longer the same as before.

Hearing Lin Hanxing’s words, his long and narrow eyes narrowed.

He didn’t make a sound.

He was brought up very quickly.

He was still struggling with all his might until he was pushed into the room by the subordinates sent by the eldest consort to secretly protect Zhan Nanheng. He couldn’t stop cursing.

“It’s too noisy,”

Lin Hanxing said as he fiddled with the knife and fork on the table.

Upon hearing this, uncle Jin, who was smiling like a Maitreya Buddha, suddenly stood up and walked to one of them.

The next second, he grabbed the man’s collar and brought him to Lin Hanxing’s side.

There was a thump.

She lifted the man’s large hand and placed it on the table.

“Do you know who is behind our hundred herbs shop? You dare to be so arrogant! Believe it or not, I’ll dismember you into a thousand pieces with a phone call!” The man shouted out of fear, but as soon as he finished speaking, he chuckled.

He laughed again!

Yan beiming and the rest felt their hair stand on end.

“What did you just say? I didn’t hear you clearly. Can you say it again?”

Lin Hanxing said casually.

Please don’t open your mouth ...

This thought appeared in everyone’s mind for no reason.

However, that person was obviously slow-witted, and he actually opened his mouth and repeated it without missing a word or panting!

“Ah ...”

Screams rang out!

Chapter 1237

1237 Do you know who he is?

The fear of an impending storm gradually filled the air!

The fork that was fiddling with Lin Hanxing’s hands was now stuck straight into the table beside the man’s large palm!

He was so close to bleeding on the spot!

The heart-wrenching cry made one of his subordinates at the door break in.

However, when he saw this scene ...

He couldn’t help but be stunned on the spot, not daring to move even half a step!

Zhan Nanheng continued to pick up the food in front of him with his chopsticks and put a piece of meat bone tea into his mouth without a change in expression.

The others were the same.

“Get out.”

Lin Hanxing looked up, his deep eyes fell on his men.

Originally, these people were only supposed to listen to Zhan Nanheng’s orders. However, by the time they reacted, he was already standing outside the private room. He had even closed the door for them from the outside.

Upon realizing this, the subordinate sent by the great consort to protect Zhan Nanheng broke out in a cold sweat.

They were actually intimidated by a little girl?

“It’s too noisy,”

Lin Hanxing said indifferently. This was the second time she had said these words.

“Yes, ninth young lady.”

Uncle Jin was still smiling like a Maitreya Buddha.

However, in the next second, the smile on uncle Jin’s face suddenly disappeared. His five fingers curled and clenched tightly on the other party’s throat. The scream that was about to break through the roof was completely drowned out in an instant!

With a click, there was no more sound.

From the beginning to the end, Lin Hanxing had a cold expression on his face. He did not even frown.

The other people who had been clamoring with this man felt as if a pair of invisible hands had clasped their throats. Their necks were stiff, and the blue veins on their necks were clearly visible because of fear.

Not to mention the large beads of sweat on his forehead!

Now, these people finally understood one thing.

The first 'too noisy' was a warning.

Unfortunately, none of them understood what he meant!

Until the second sentence ...

Lin Hanxing did not care about what these people were thinking. He expressionlessly pulled out the fork that had been inserted into the back of the man's hand, placed it in the cup in front of him, and stirred it.

"Uncle Jin,"

Lin Hanxing picked up the teacup and handed it to uncle Jin without even looking at it.

"He'll do."

Lin Hanxing pointed at a random person.

The Maitreya-like smile appeared on uncle Jin's face again. However, in the eyes of those people, it was more shocking than an evil ghost. They ... They didn't want to die!

However, after what had just happened, no one dared to make a loud noise even though they were afraid!

They were afraid!

He was afraid that the third sentence would kill him by saying 'too noisy'!

He was shaking like a sieve!

Uncle Jin came to the person Lin Han was pointing at, his large palm gripping the person's jaw tightly. With a click, water was forced into the person's mouth.

Everything was happening in silence!

"Eldest uncle, eldest uncle ..."

Yuan Bao, whose eyes were covered by the Thunder valiant beast, had no idea what was going on outside.

It was just that it was so noisy just now.

Why was there no movement?

"I don't believe you."

After the man finished his drink, Lin Hanxing said coldly to the few frightened waiters.

What?

What do you not believe?

The group of hundred herbs shop's workers did not react for a long time.

The few people who knew Lin Hanxing's style of doing things looked at each other and laughed.

Yingluo, do you know who is behind our hundred herbs shop? You dare to be so arrogant! Believe it or not, I'll tear you into pieces with one phone call!

She really didn't believe it!

"Call your men in to clean up."

Lin Hanxing's long eyelashes fluttered slightly. These words were clearly directed at Zhan Nanheng.

He tapped his finger on the table.

Zhan Nanheng smiled and made a hand gesture.

I'm afraid I'll scare that little thing!

Soon, everything was cleaned up, and even the tableware on the table was changed.

It was carried out quietly.

By the time Lei min released his hand from Yuan Bao's eyes, there was no longer any trace of the terrifying smell in the room.

Other than the few people still kneeling on the ground.

"Wait, help me identify who told you to follow me."

Lin Hanxing asked for an extra bowl of sweet pear and placed it in front of Yuan Bao.

His voice was cold and calm.

One couldn't hear any substantial emotions from it.

However, for some reason, none of the people kneeling on the ground dared to be as arrogant as they were when they first came in.

Lin Hanxing held the newly changed spring tea in front of him, letting the White mist rise.

"....."

Hearing that, the group of people sucked in a cold breath.

This was really terrible!

She still wanted to confront him face to face?

"Little girl, I see that you're still young. Why don't you listen to my advice and don't provoke our boss!"

The one who knelt at the back finally spoke.

“Hundred herbs and the royal family are related ...”

However, before the man could finish speaking, he saw Lin Hanxing reach out and point in Zhan Nanheng’s direction.

“Do you know who he is?”

There was a rare hint of ridicule in the cold voice. The man watched as the Rakshasa-like woman pointed at the man who was eating meat bone tea not far from her.

The other party finally raised his head to look at him.

“You ... You are ...”

Ever since he entered, all his attention had been placed on the little girl, so he naturally had no time to pay attention to others.

But now ...

Wasn’t he the one who had been brought back to the royal family after the first Prince’s death ...

Eric, Zhan Nanheng?

Who in country G would not recognize this iconic baby face?

Could this be ...

Could this be another game between the first and second wangfei?

And they, the little shrimps who didn’t know anything, had become cannon fodder?

“Good! I admit it!”

.....

At the same time, in the hundred herbs shop.

At this time, the door of the shop was closed, and no one dared to approach the door of this shop on the lively Street, because anyone could see the men who were standing in the dark like bodyguards.

It was obvious that he had something on his waist.

However, they seemed to be hiding in the dark in order not to attract attention.

“The restaurant is closed.”

The owner of PU Ji herbal tea said to his assistant uneasily.

“Good ... Eh? Closing the shop?”

The waiter was the one who stayed in the hotel. He subconsciously looked up at the clock hanging on the wall. This ...

This was truly the red Rain of the world.

Why are you closing so early today?

“Boss ...”

“What are you waiting for? close the shop if I tell you to!”

The boss roared, and the waiter quickly did as he said.

She didn’t know what was wrong with the boss today. When he came in the evening, he had been feeling uneasy. Now, he even wanted to close the shop early. He was the only one here at night, but the boss went up to the second floor. It seemed like he wasn’t going to leave?

Who was he waiting for?

“Boss, tonight you ...”

“Sit down and have a drink with me.”

The boss had opened the window on the second floor near the hundred herbs shop. Why did he have a feeling that something was going to happen across the street tonight?

Chapter 1238

1238 Let’s start from here

If someone asks, just tell them the truth.

This cold sentence kept appearing in the boss’s mind, and his hand accidentally fell on the medicine bag he had picked up from the trash can.

It was just as she said.

After they left, the people from the hundred herbs shop really came over to ask.

And he also told her the truth.

The boss’s gaze fell outside the window, but his expression did not soften at all.

The mole on her right eye ...

A mole ...

The waiter quickly returned with the wine. He had just sat down when he heard an unusually muffled sound outside the window.

“They’re here!”

The boss sighed, feeling a sense of relief.

It’s finally here!

.....

In the hundred herbs shop.

At this moment, the second Princess Consort's brother-in-law was standing in front of an elder in a respectful and even flattering manner. All the Chinese medicine doctors in the shop were called over and surrounded the little girl.

He was obviously stumped by something.

Apart from her dark blue face and thin body, the little girl didn't seem to have any serious illness.

According to elder su, he had already been to the hospital, but there were no results at all. That was why he came here to see them, to see if Chinese medicine could work.

But ...

No matter which four of them were good, this little girl had no problem.

He was just a normal person!

But these words ...

No one present dared to be the first to speak, so they could only pretend to be busy and continue to ask themselves to stop.

The second Princess Consort's brother-in-law laughed.

Ever since he entered the room, the elder did not even open his eyes to look at him. Even when he spoke, he only responded with a few words.

As the second Princess Consort's brother-in-law was thinking about this, a loud bang suddenly came from the door.

F * ck, I thought they were powerful. They're as weak as noobs.

Yan beixiao spun the gun in his hand as he spoke. It was obvious that he had removed the gun from someone's body.

Other than Bai Xi, who stayed in the car to take care of Yuan Bao, the group of people swaggered in. The couple in the middle gave off an inexplicable sense of fear.

"Who let you in? Who are you people?"

The second Princess Consort's brother-in-law quickly took two steps forward and immediately shouted angrily.

However, when his eyes fell on Lin Hanxing, there was a hint of surprise and greed!

"Which one?"

Lin Hanxing said coldly, and the three unclear words stunned everyone.

The old man's bodyguards pointed their guns at him.

Subconsciously, he thought that these men and women were trying to do bad things to old su.

Almost at the same time, the people behind Lin Hanxing also pulled out their guns.

The atmosphere instantly became tense.

“Eh?”

Sacred hands’ eyes fell on the old man’s face, and he seemed to be a little confused.

He walked up to Lin Hanxing and whispered something in his ear. Lin Hanxing looked up at him.

“This is a personal grudge, it has nothing to do with you.”

After a while, Lin Hanxing looked at the old man with an expressionless face.

The old man looked at her.

He seemed to have thought of something and raised his hand to make a gesture.

The bodyguard slowly lowered the gun in his hand.

There was no doubt.

When Lin Hanxing saw this, he also lowered the gun in his hand.

“That ... That ... That’s it!”

All of a sudden, the sound of teeth chattering could be heard.

He focused his eyes.

There was actually someone hiding behind?

Everyone’s eyes followed the direction the man was pointing at. The destination was the man next to the second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law, who used to be the most arrogant person in the past.

“Ah Xiao,”

Lin Hanxing’s voice suddenly sounded.

“Mr. Ley?”

The old man raised his eyebrows. He was not too sure at first, but the moment he heard the two words ‘ah Xiao’, he immediately connected it with the young man who controlled most of the independent sea routes in the overseas area in his mind.

Lei Xiao did not even look at his opponent, he just placed the gun in Lin Hanxing’s hand.

“Please, cover the child’s eyes and ears!”

Lin Hanxing said to the old man.

He understood tacitly.

A cracking sound was heard.

The gun was loaded.

Just as everyone was caught off guard, Lin Hanxing expressionlessly raised the gun in his hand and aimed it at the manager of the hundred herbs shop. With a bang ...

Everything had happened too quickly!

When the smell of blood filled the air, the other party didn't even blink!

Just like that!

He was at a loss!

With a dazed expression, they watched all of their faces fall backward!

He was dead!

"You ..."

The second Princess Consort's brother-in-law's legs went soft and he sat on the ground. The Chinese medicine doctors who were originally in the hundred herbs shop squatted down in fear, as if they could not believe that someone would commit murder in the hundred herbs shop!

"Boss, the hundred herbs shop across the street ..."

On the second floor of PU Ji herbal tea shop, the waiter's hands were trembling, and even his eyes were filled with panic.

Gunshots!

That was a gunshot?

The boss looked across the street, and his hands couldn't help but tremble with excitement. Thinking of his old friend who had his shop taken away and squeezed out, he couldn't be more excited.

It was that little girl ...

"The police, the police are here ..."

The waiter couldn't help but shout again.

"Seal it! Seal the door! Don't let them get away!"

They actually dared to be so unscrupulous, they must have eaten a bear's heart and a leopard's gall!

Lin Hanxing's response was an undisguised sneer.

On that delicate and fine porcelain face, the cold ridicule filled the corners of her eyes and eyebrows, making her already vivid face even more vivid, as if she was a noble who walked out of a painting at a steady pace.

"Don't worry, we won't leave."

As he spoke, Lin Hanxing looked around the interior of the hundred herbs medicine Hall until his eyes fell on the large medicine cabinet behind everyone. Then, he leisurely retracted his gaze.

"Let's start from here!"

The first thing he had to do when he landed in country G ...

Let's start from here!

.....

The police quickly sealed off the hundred herbs shop from the inside out, but the curiosity of the people outside could not be stopped!

I heard that someone died in this hundred herbs shop!

And it was done by a delicate little girl!

One spread to ten, ten to a hundred.

Not long after, everyone knew!

The people from the nearby police stations were all gathered here and surrounded the place.

Everyone desperately stuck their heads in, hoping to see what the rumored delicate little girl looked like!

"Old PU, what happened?"

The owner of Xue's medicine Hall walked over and saw a familiar face as soon as he got close.

"Old Xue, you have to believe me ..."

The owner of PU's herbal tea suddenly grabbed the other's hand. His excited expression shocked everyone.

this time, the heavens are really going to change!!

At this time, the woman who everyone outside wanted to see was sitting on an exquisitely carved mahogany chair and slowly drinking hot tea. If it were not for the cold body lying on the ground, no one would believe it ...

She was the one who had easily taken his life just now!

Chapter 1239

1239 I'm not afraid of making a big scene, I'm only afraid that it's not big enough

He didn't run away after taking someone's life, but he could still make tea and drink tea with a calm expression ...

Whose little girl was this?

"Ninth young lady, you came out in a hurry. The tea is not good."

Jiang Xibao said.

From the first time Jiang Xibao met Lin Hanxing, he knew that Lin Hanxing liked to drink tea, so every time he went out with her, he would always bring a small bag with him. Unfortunately, he was in a hurry this time.

When the onlookers outside heard this, they couldn't help but gasp.

Now that someone had died, they still had the time to care if the tea was good or not?

Even the police officers from country G couldn't help but look up at the woman sitting leisurely in the middle of the group.

It was her.

He had taken a person's life without a change in expression!

Oh, wrong.

At least she didn't forget to remind the others to cover the little girl's eyes and ears before killing her.

He was really calm and ...

How cold!

"Move! Get out of my way!"

The director of the Xuelan province police, who had received the call, rushed over, sweating profusely.

Seeing so many people blocking the door, she couldn't help but speak in exasperation!

Someone actually dared to cause trouble in the hundred herbs shop, he must be tired of living!

Not to mention that the hundred herbs shop was backed by the second Princess Consort, what's more, old su bu and the little princess of Rou city had also come to the hundred herbs shop today. He had repeatedly warned them that something would happen, but it still cost him his life!

"It's you?"

After a simple and rough examination, the director suddenly turned his head and roared at Yan beiming!

"....."

"....."

No one responded, but the director's subordinates quickly came to him and reminded him in a low voice.

"The one drinking tea ... The one drinking tea ..."

What?

The one who drinks tea?

The police chief wanted to take a deep breath and roar at the murderer, but when he saw the other party's face clearly ...

He choked on the words he was about to say and started coughing uncontrollably!

You're not joking?

Her?

Kill?

Not the men behind her, but this woman whose wrist was only as thick as his ankle?

The director's eyes communicated with his subordinates.

But the result was the same!

director Lemach, it's her! She killed people in my shop!

The second Princess Consort's brother-in-law shouted angrily when he thought of how he had just walked past the gates of hell!

It was like a thunderclap!

Fortunately, old su and the little princess of Rou city weren't escorted back to the royal family for a temporary rest. Otherwise, he would really be finished!

"It's you?"

The director finally spoke again, but his voice still sounded strange.

"It's me."

Lin Hanxing replied coldly, not avoiding the question at all.

It was just two simple words, but it caused waves to rise in the surroundings!

She didn't deny it?

That's right, with so many eyes watching, there's no room for argument.

"You guys aren't locals?"

The director squinted his eyes and asked again.

"No."

Lin Hanxing's reply was still the same, without any change in tone.

However, after hearing her answer, the director heaved a long sigh of relief.

They were just a group of foreigners without any background, so don't blame him for being impolite!

"Men, bring these people back!"

As he thought about this, the police chief's confidence seemed to come back.

The urgency to solve this problem as soon as possible could be heard in his voice!

"Although you're not a local, aren't you curious why I chose this place?"

"Why?"

One of the G country police officers asked curiously.

The director glared at him fiercely, then coughed drily and turned his eyes to Lin Hanxing.

“Why?”

He asked again in a rough voice.

“I’m here to collect rent!”

Lin Hanxing held a cup of tea in a lazy posture, but her words instantly stirred up the surrounding people!

What?

Collecting rent?

What rent?

The hundred herbs shop’s rent?

It was the biggest joke in the world!

“What a joke! What right do you have to come to our territory to collect rent?”

The second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law was immediately enraged!

“Because I’m from the Li family!”

Lin Hanxing glanced at the second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law, and he felt as if he had been struck by lightning!

The Li ... Li family?

Outside the door, the owner of PU Ji herbal tea was still holding his old friend’s hand tightly, extremely excited.

Wanwan had only heard of Lin xiaojiu’s looks ...

The most well-known thing about her was the mole under her right eye ...

“Xi Bao.”

After Lin Hanxing’s words, Jiang Xibao took out the accounts of the hundred herbs shop’s rent that he had prepared and began to read it out loud. The Li family recorded every single detail clearly.

This scene was beyond everyone’s expectations!

The Li family had been in decline for too many years. Apart from a few people who still remembered it, how would the young people know the glory that the Li family had once enjoyed under Li Yanyu’s leadership?

If only she could have stayed until now ...

The owner of the PU's herbal tea shop felt his eyes heat up.

If she had stayed until now, the position of the richest Chinese man in country G might have been taken by someone else!

"The total is ..."

At the end of the reading, Jiang Xibao reported the number.

As soon as he finished speaking, it was as if a drop of water had been thrown into a hot pot of oil, and everyone started to boil!

Oh my God!

This was an astronomical figure!

you're talking nonsense!

It was only at this moment that the second Princess Consort's brother-in-law suddenly remembered that such a thing seemed to have happened!

However, the Li family had been in ruins for many years. Which fool would still be willing to fork out real gold and silver to pay the rental fee?

Not to mention how the later generations had resold it.

Why did they have to pick their family first?

And he even started a fight the moment he arrived?

Was this money?

This was clearly a threat!

the title deed is here, and so is the proof. Why would I lie about something that can be easily found out?

As he spoke, Lin Hanxing's lips slowly curved into a mocking smile.

"The Li family ..."

Of course, the director of the police force had his own merits to be able to sit in his current position.

He began to notice that something was not quite right.

Not to mention the fact that this little girl didn't seem to be afraid at all after killing someone, she just had to bring up the matter of collecting rent at this time. Other people would want to hide their bad deeds, but she seemed to be ...

The director's gaze fell on Lin Hanxing.

It seemed that he was not afraid of making a big deal out of it, but afraid that it was not big enough!

This feeling was too terrifying.

When did such an extraordinary figure come to the Li family that had fallen to the point where no one remembered it?

“Director! Don’t waste your breath on them! Bring them back to the police station! Bring them back to the police station!”

The second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law came back to his senses from the huge amount of money, and his eyes were filled with ruthlessness. Since it involved money, these people could not be allowed to stay!

They had to die!

He had to die!

When the police Director heard this, he broke out in a cold sweat.

Why did he have such an ominous feeling?

Especially when he met the woman’s beautiful eyes that seemed to be smiling yet not smiling, the feeling became even stronger!

“It’s a pity that they can’t take me away, or rather ...”

Chapter 1240-shifting the disaster to the East

“You’re not qualified to take me away!”

Buzzzzzz!

Wasn’t this tone a little too big?

Not qualified?

Who was not qualified?

The police?

She had killed someone, but the G country police had no right to take her away?

What kind of twisted logic was this?

“Savage! He’s too Savage!”

The second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law narrowed his eyes and looked at Lin Hanxing gloomily. Because he had the second Princess Consort’s back, no one in the entire snowlan province would dare to disrespect him like this!

A nobody wanted to get a share of the loot from him!

He was a member of the second Princess Consort’s faction!

Lin Hanxing looked at him with a half-smile, as if he was responding with his eyes.

Savage, what can you do to me even if I’m Savage?

“Who’s arrogant?”

While the situation in the shop was tense, a laughing voice suddenly sounded from behind the crowd.

It should be time for him to go on stage!

Upon hearing these four people, everyone subconsciously turned around.

Everyone was stunned by what they saw!

The person who stood behind them and spoke was no stranger. Wasn’t he the one who had just been acknowledged by the royal family and had experienced a legendary process of replacing the first Prince’s position ...

The National treasure idol celebrity that everyone in country G knew about!

Eric Zhan Nanheng!

No one would have thought that he would appear here!

It was simply ...

It was too unbelievable!

The younger girls had already started screaming at the face that was so close to them.

This was the living Eric!

But before they could get close, they were blocked by a man who was smiling like Maitreya Buddha in the blink of an eye!

He had truly stopped all of them by himself.

“Why is it so lively?”

The Zhan Nanheng of today was no longer an actor in the eyes of the royal family, but a real Prince who was known to be wandering among the common people.

His identity was self-evident!

But ...

It’s broken!

After seeing Zhan Nanheng, the police Director broke out in a cold sweat.

He subconsciously looked at the woman who was still sitting there lazily.

He had diverted the disaster to the East!

After these four words involuntarily appeared in his heart, he suddenly shivered.

That strong sense of foreboding the moment he saw Zhan Nanheng ...

The dust settled!

It had become a fact!

“Even the director is here?”

Zhan Nanheng pretended to be surprised. He looked around and finally fixed his eyes on the body on the ground.

“So it was this person who wanted to assassinate me?”

BOOM!

Like a sudden clap of thunder on a dry day, the people who had been excited by Zhan Nanheng’s appearance just now felt cold all over and couldn’t say a word for a long time. They only felt that there was something wrong with their ears!

No one dared to speak!

The pain of the first Prince’s passing had not yet faded, and the suspicions that had arisen from the first Prince’s death had not yet faded away. But now, the word “assassination” had been so grandly placed on the table!

It was too terrifying!

“.....”

Furthermore, who here didn’t know who was the one supporting the hundred herbs shop!

The second Princess Consort!

After all the talking and beating around the bush ...

Who would have thought that a simple murder case could lead to such a complicated network of connections?

And the source of all this ...

Everyone couldn’t help but look at the woman who still had the same expression.

She was still drinking her tea unhurriedly.

“You can’t just say that!”

The second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law broke out in a cold sweat from the shock. He suddenly raised his tone and looked straight at Zhan Nanheng.

“You, you guys are in cahoots!”

“This is a set-up! This is a trap!”

Dong!

Before anyone could react, Lin Hanxing slammed the teacup in his hand onto the table.

Everyone was shocked!

“Frame?”

“Framed?”

She slowly got up, her beautiful eyes dyed with ruthlessness.

That laziness disappeared in an instant. Even the men present would be afraid of this appearance, let alone the second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law who was used to bullying people.

“You ... You ...”

“This person was sent out from the hundred herbs shop. In the past, these people were also your shop’s workers. Whether you want to frame or frame them, they will always be related to you!”

Lin Hanxing said coldly.

Every word was like a blade!

It was so painful that they couldn’t breathe!

“You’re talking nonsense! I only told him to send people ...”

The second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law suddenly stopped!

He looked at Lin Hanxing in shock, as if he suddenly understood something.

After a while.

Then, he turned his gaze to the corpse!

He finally understood!

The Chief Police Officer slowly closed his eyes. Obviously, he understood the moment the second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law said those words!

This woman, from the moment she entered the room to kill ...

He had been waiting here!

Only living people could speak.

Only a living person would explain.

A living person ...

Only then can you quibble!

However, when a person died, there was nothing left. If black could be said to be white, white could naturally be said to be black!

So what if the second Princess Consort’s brother-in-law said that these people were only sent to follow this group of suspicious men and women? who could prove that they were not sent for other purposes?

Who can prove it!

The police Director looked at Lin Hanxing.

She was beautiful.

That beauty was unforgettable.

However, when it came to killing without spilling blood, no one present could compare to him!

"I have already asked the first wangfei about this matter. Isn't su already aware of it?"

Zhan Nanheng's eyes fell on the second Princess Consort's brother-in-law. His cold lips curled into a smile, looking decent and Noble.

"Director,"

As he spoke, Zhan Nanheng's gaze had already fallen on the police chief.

su doesn't want to get involved in this matter personally, so I'll have to trouble you to make a trip there as a witness!

At that moment, the director's heart was beating like a drum.

A seemingly simple murder case had changed its tone in this tit-for-tat confrontation. It concerned the royal family, who could take it lightly? Moreover ...

A Prince had just died!

How could this be!

How could this be?

How did things turn out like this?

No one knew the answer, because everyone was still in a state of confusion.

Shouldn't they be taking the murderer away?

How did he ...

All of them?

How did su get involved again?

He even had to personally ask?

They could not understand!

The original owner of the hundred herbs shop, old Xue, who had his master and the shop forcefully snatched away by the second Princess Consort's brother-in-law, was a hundred times more excited than anyone else!

good and evil will always be rewarded. The heavenly Dao has a good reincarnation!!!

His sonorous and powerful voice attracted Lin Hanxing's attention.

Her line of sight crossed the crowd and met the other person's.

At the same time, he saw the excitement in the other party's eyes.

"Good! Good!"

Old Xue's tears flowed freely as if he had gone crazy!

Lin Hanxing's long eyelashes fluttered as he tried to hide the emotions in his eyes.

Good and evil will always be rewarded, and the heavenly Dao is good for reincarnation.

There was actually another sentence after that.

If you don't believe me, look up ...

Who would the heavens spare!
