

Goodnight 1571

Chapter 1571

1571 Return of the King

It was eight in the morning.

Vogue suddenly released a notice on its official website, Facebook, Twitter, and other platforms.

Almost at the same time, the top figures of the fashion circle, led by Annunciata, Jennifer, and Peter, began to share the news on a large scale. Then, several major global luxury brands fell, not to mention the international and domestic stars whose names could shock people's eyes.

It was as if everyone had already agreed to it, and there were only four simple words in the text.

[8:30, Return of the King]

At this moment, all the companies and individuals abandoned the competition between brands, circles, and resources. They almost shook the entire fashion and entertainment circles to set off the world!

Just when everyone thought that the trailer was exaggerated enough, a person opened the curtain to the academic community.

The physicist, Zhu chengdi, who had been under surveillance because of his public announcement of his return, suddenly reposted the news in Vogue on his only public platform.

Then, the laboratory members, led by Zhu chengdi, appeared one after another, shocking everyone. They even suspected that their accounts had been hacked!

D University's official website followed closely behind, not to mention the other industry leaders ...

Fashion and scientific research, two completely unrelated words, were now linked together because of this trailer, which could be said to have piqued people's curiosity and appetite.

To be able to shake the publicity of several big circles, who had such great charm and strength?

In order to get the answer, almost everyone began to look forward to 8: The arrival of 30 ...

.....

Lin Hanxing, who was about to become the center of the conversation, was not aware of it at all. He stood behind song Chenxi and carefully combed her long white hair.

The sunlight shone through the floor-to-ceiling window, coating the two of them with a Halo.

It was warm and gentle.

"It's done,"

Lin Hanxing's thin Fishbone braids were hidden in song Chenxi's long hair, adding some gentleness and beauty to her. Jiang Xibao could not bear to look away.

"It's really nice ..."

Song Chenxi's assistant, who had just finished packing the last item, smiled.

Song Chenxi raised her hand and touched the side of her hair.

Under the contrast of the Black Swan-like long dress, her white wrists and snow-white hair, every movement revealed a soul-stirring charm, but she herself was not aware of it.

Today's clothes, makeup, and accessories were all specially prepared by Lin Hanxing for Song Chenxi.

Each piece was a unique design from a luxury brand that had yet to be released on the market.

"Gong Yun, he ..."

Song Chenxi turned her head. The Black Pearl in her ear swayed with her movements.

"There's still time. Do you want to say goodbye to him?"

Song Chenxi was silent for a moment after Lin Hanxing finished.

Perhaps it was the effect of the conversation with Song Chenxi that day. Gong Ming's recovery had taken a big turn for the better recently. She could even have a short conversation with the doctor.

"Ninth young lady ..."

Bai Xi, who had just finished a call, walked in with something in his hand.

"It's from elder Yan."

Bai Xi handed the thick stack of documents to Lin Hanxing.

This was the list of all the people who had attended the event when the other second Princess Consort had arrived in China. Master Yan had carefully divided his subordinates into the Chinese and G countries. The information of all the people was attached at the back, covering all aspects.

"A pen."

Lin Hanxing's palm was facing up and Jiang Xibao handed the pen to her subconsciously.

Lin Hanxing's hand slid back and forth on the paper. Her eyes were different from the gentle ones when she faced Song Chenxi. At this time, she was as sharp as a sword, as if she was waiting to stab the enemy in the heart!

"This is ..."

Song Chenxi's assistant had obviously never seen such a situation before and spoke instinctively.

"Hanxing is using the process of elimination to determine the target."

Song Chenxi said gently.

The first group to be excluded were young people below the age of 32, followed by middle-aged and elderly people above the age of 56. The remaining people were divided into three groups by Lin Hanxing, with about five people in each group.

After so many years, even though the range had been narrowed down to 15 people, it was still quite difficult to accurately locate them.

After the initial elimination, Lin Hanxing stopped and glanced at the remaining 15 people on the list.

Half a minute later, her hand that was holding the pen moved again.

This time, the list of 15 people was finally cut down to two people.

"The more impossible it seems, the more likely it is."

As he said this, Lin Hanxing's lips curled up slowly. His smile made song Chenxi's assistant's heart skip a beat.

"Send these two to uncle Jin."

Lin Hanxing restrained his hostility and returned to his lazy appearance. He was so fast that song Chenxi's assistant almost thought that everything that had happened was just an illusion.

"I'll send you to Gong Ming's place and say goodbye to him."

.....

...

Outside the burn special care unit.

Just like the last time, Lin Hanxing waited at the door after sending song Chenxi to the ward.

She raised her wrist to look at her watch and was about to send a text message to the mute uncle when the door opened from the inside, revealing song Chenxi's face.

"Gong Yun is looking for you."

Lin Hanxing raised an eyebrow when he heard this.

Gong Ming was looking for her?

Lin Hanxing walked into the ward and immediately saw Gong Ming lying on the bed.

His condition was obviously much better than when she first saw him. His entire person had also shed his mania and uneasiness, and was much more peaceful.

"Someone asked me to pass this to you ..."

Every word and sentence was hoarse and unpleasant to hear.

Following Gong Ming's words, Lin Hanxing quickly saw an envelope on the bedside table.

...

"Who's 'someone'?"

Lin Hanxing did not touch that thing for the time being.

"I don't know."

Gong Yun laughed at himself. He was blind.

"The other party said that this is what you need ..."

It took a lot of effort to describe the other party's words. After she finished, Gong Ming panted and forced herself not to be seen by song Chenxi.

After a moment of silence, Lin Hanxing took the envelope.

The moment he opened it, a refreshing scent of mountain spring greeted him. It was a pleasant smell, but at the same time, it was unpredictable.

There was a piece of paper and a photo inside.

Xuanji's twelve zodiac chicken heads were in perejia state, while the dog heads were in dengheng state.

It was written on the paper.

As for the photo ...

The picture showed a man with a cigarette in his mouth. Even through the photo, one could clearly feel the strong city Air coming from him, and his turbid and calculative eyes were full of malice.

the background is Rou city ...

Song Chenxi recognized the person in the photo at a glance.

Lin Hanxing's eyes were cold. When song Chenxi said that the background of the photo was Rou city, she already knew who the person in the photo was.

This person was Qin SU's son, who had sold the jewelry box and was completely unaware that the Grim Reaper had already waved his sickle at the mother and son!

"It seems that I have to hurry ..."

No matter who gave her this thing, or what purpose they had, she could not wait any longer!

Lin Hanxing did not like the feeling of being led by the nose!

.....

8:30 pm sharp.

Under everyone's attention, Vogue unveiled its trailer on time.

Everyone impatiently opened it ...

Chapter 1572

1572 Be fearless, be yourself

The dark scene gradually began.

The graceful and slender woman was immersed in the special effect of the deep sea. The thick sea floor was painted with ink and wrapped around her like silk. Her body kept sinking tens of thousands of miles into the sea. Her hand that was stretched out was slender and helpless, as if it was swallowed by despair and sadness.

The audience in front of the screen couldn't help but feel sympathetic.

A pair of beautiful and cold eyes suddenly opened from the bottom of the sea!

He seemed to be scornful of the darkness that wrapped around him.

The woman, who was about to be swallowed by the deep sea, swam to the surface of the sea in a powerful manner. Her every move was so charming that people even forgot to breathe!

With a splash, the beauty went out to sea.

In an instant, his black hair turned white!

The sea breeze dispersed in the night.

Traces of it carried the determination to end the past!

The woman turned around. Half of her face was covered by a Black Veil. Her cold eyes and the mole at the corner of her eye gave a strong impact to the audience's hearts with a thump!

Her snow-white hands were slowly removing her veil, and her long eyelashes blinked as if in slow motion. In the next second, as the rhythm of Melania Martine's Mr. Pothead began playing, the camera cut to a close-up of her lips ...

A mocking smile seemed to bloom on one's heart, making one's heart beat faster!

Everyone couldn't help but recall the global advertisement from seven or eight years ago. The person who didn't show his face until the end of the advertisement was called X, and he broke the world record for the fastest sales of Louis since its establishment!

The Return of the King of Kongtong!

The same light and shadow, the same mole at the corner of the eye, and the throbbing feeling of the music. There was no one else worthy of these four words except X.

The dazzling diamond flowed between her fingers, like a woman who had transformed from a Black Swan lying in an Ocean of Diamonds. Her long white hair did not give people a strange feeling at all under the caress of her lazy fingers. It was extremely tempting.

No one would doubt what kind of white-hair craze this advertisement would set off around the world!

The man's hand appeared out of thin air and lifted her small chin. His rough fingers gently slid across her lips. With every step he took, her originally light-colored lips turned bright red, like a delicate rose, blooming quietly.

—Does a new face come with a warranty

(Is a flawless face a guarantee of beauty?)

–Will a pretty face make it better

(Can this fake face make me happy?)

At the end of the commercial, accompanied by these two lines of lyrics, the woman in the image raised her eyebrows at the other party. She was wearing black high heels and stepped on the sea of diamonds with full aggression, closing the distance between the two.

Even if the man's face didn't enter the country, his tall, strong, and perfect figure could still make women infatuated.

The closer they got, the more attractive the aura between the two was.

However, the scene gradually turned to dust ...

[be fearless, be yourself!]

The man's deep and magnetic voice rang out, and it was as if a rose had exploded in her heart. The woman's heart was struck in an instant, and even her ashes were burned to nothing!

Before the screen turned black, the Lei corporation's appeared.

The crowd finally came back to their senses and realized that this was a global advertisement for a high-end makeup brand under the Lei group!

It's just an advertisement, is there a need to make such a big scene?

At this moment, everyone couldn't help but roar in their hearts. However, they couldn't help but look back again and again!

The domestic internet had also exploded!

Soy sauce mushroom: Lin xiaojiu! OMG!!!

Meat floss and snow shell: " do you still remember the perfume advertisement from the Lei group? " The one that sold out all over the world! My sisters! And look at this interview by Lei min, CEO Lei! The voice was exactly the same!

Hand-plucked marshmallow, [so, the husband and wife are working together to make money?] @Lei Corporation

[meat sauce is not ginger candy biscuits: buy, buy, buy!] I'll buy it, alright! I'm begging you to love single dogs, I'm going to the animal protection Association to Sue you for abusing small animals!

[meaty Mianmian: I'm already on the way to dye my white hair!]

[Honey Green plum grapefruit tea: upstairs +1]

Would you dare to answer if I called you, grandfather? Upstairs +10086

[who's Tutu is teacher Tony: I've already said it. The store is packed with people. The manager has already called me, who's on leave, to come back and work overtime!!] All of them wanted to come to the shop to dye their hair white! I've found the culprit!

I'm your mother V: My daughter-in-law! I'll personally sponsor 100 sets of 'star owl' series makeup! Don't miss it!

Mother Lei, who had more than ten million followers on Weibo, appeared out of nowhere. The moment she opened her mouth, she was so rich that it blinded people.

One had to know that 'star owl' was the Lei corporation's top cosmetics brand. It had already attracted a lot of attention before it was even on sale! A hundred sets would be worth at least a million!

[then I'm your dad V: I'll give you a set of out-of-print books signed by Lei Xiaosan!] I'm your mother V: My daughter-in-law! I'll personally sponsor 100 sets of 'star owl' series makeup! Don't miss it!

Lei Sheng, Matthew Lev: ? ? Additional Lei Xiaosi's private number!// [then I'm your dad V: I'll give you a set of out-of-print books signed by Lei Xiaosan!] I'm your mother V:

Lei Jue V: ??? A set of Lei Xiao 'er's personal schedule for the next six months is included!// Lei Sheng, Matthew Lev: ? ? Additional Lei Xiaosi's private number!// [then I'm your dad V: I'll give you a set of out-of-print books signed by Lei Xiaosan!] I'm your mother V ...

At that moment, Lei min, who was in country G's Li family, slowly pushed up his glasses and reached out to repost Lei Xiaosi's Weibo post.

[Lei Jing V: I'll give you a Jade grape from my private collection, as well as a picture of Lei Xiaosi in his childhood in a girl's outfit!]

A sure kill!

The netizens who were watching the whole process couldn't help but sigh. The Lei family was indeed different from those coquettish bitches outside!

.....

...

The noise outside did not affect the Burn Intensive Care Unit at Tongtong hospital at all.

"Gong Ming, I've hired a nurse for you."

Song Chenxi's words caused Gong Ming to subconsciously purse his lips, even though this action was causing him so much pain that he wished he was dead.

"You can take care of a good-for-nothing like me for the rest of my life?"

He laughed at himself.

"Even if I'm not here one day, I can still let you continue to live without worry."

Song Chenxi entrusted her assistant to deposit a sum of money into her account. Even if she was no longer around, her assistant would hire someone to take care of his clothing, food, accommodation, and transportation until the end.

Gong Yun didn't know how fragile her expression was at that moment.

"You won't be missing!"

With every word, Gong Yun's heart felt like it was bleeding.

"I don't have much time left."

...

From the moment she woke up, song Chenxi accepted this reality faster than anyone else. Now, all she wanted to do was to be herself again.

"Will you still come back?"

Gong Yun's trembling voice carried a weak desire.

"I don't know."

Song Chenxi really did not know if she would ever meet Gong Ming again.

I ... I beg you. Please, see me one last time.

Gong Yun stuttered these words as if she was afraid that song Chenxi would not agree, but also afraid that today would be the last.

"Alright, I promise you."

Chapter 1573

1573 We will meet sooner or later

When song Chenxi came out of the ward, she happened to see the assistant covering her mouth in disbelief.

"Miss song ..."

The assistant raised his head when he heard the commotion, but his tears fell faster than the sound.

"What's wrong?"

Song Chenxi spoke gently. Clearly, she had not understood what had happened.

The assistant was sobbing uncontrollably and could only pass her phone.

When miss song was discharged today, she was most worried that people outside would make a fuss about her white hair. She had been on tenterhooks for a few days, but all her worries had been resolved just now ...

Song Chenxi watched the video quietly.

"Be fearless and be myself ... Right?"

Was this what Hanxing wanted to say to her through this advertisement?

She smiled gently.

.....

The entrance of Tongtong hospital was surrounded by reporters.

They had long received news that song Chenxi would be discharged today.

Everyone craned their necks in anticipation, using beauty and white hair as gimmicks to snatch first-hand information.

“Do you think President Gong will come today?”

Bored from waiting, the people from several major TV stations gathered together to gossip. Compared to outsiders, they knew more about the love and hate history of the gong and song families.

“I don’t know if Gong Chen will come or not, but the gong Corporation has been crazily attacking the senanda family these days. It’s not a joke! Gong Chen’s attitude is very unyielding!”

Because his senior brother was running the financial news, he was the first to know a lot of inside information.

So, the song and Gong group, who used to be the right-hand men of the senanda family, were really going to break off their relationship with them?

As they were chatting, a group of people in black suits suddenly rushed out.

They surrounded the media personnel, who were supposed to cause chaos as soon as the target appeared.

It was like an iron wall, making people dumbfounded!

“What’s the situation?”

Everyone was at a loss. From morning till now, Lin Hanxing had only sent his men to block the entrance. As long as they didn’t barge in, he was still polite to the reporters. But now ...

However, the reporters soon had an answer to this question.

The tailored dark suit accentuated the man’s handsome and tall figure. Even though he was wearing sunglasses, the penetrating power of his sharp eyes could not be underestimated. The absolute control he had in his every move was daunting.

Wasn’t the person who had come Gong Chen?

Without even looking at these people, Gong Chen walked up the hospital stairs.

The sudden ringing of a mobile phone broke the dead silence.

Gong Chen glanced at the caller ID and picked up the phone.

“Gong Chen!”

On the other end of the phone, the second Princess Consort’s voice could be heard through gritted teeth.

Gong Chen's cold and hard face didn't change at all.

"What do you want?"

"Hand over song Zhiyun."

Gong Chen's voice made the reporters, who were initially surprised by his appearance, instantly excited. Listen, listen, they were all saying that President Gong, who was so in love with second song, couldn't have a sudden change in personality!

No one noticed the hatred in the sharp eyes hidden behind the sunglasses.

"Stop dreaming!"

Now that things had come to this, if she really handed song Zhiyun over, wouldn't she be slapping her own face?

"Then we have nothing to talk about!"

After saying that, Gong Chen hung up the phone with one hand, not even giving the other party time to react.

His gaze fell on the entrance of Tongxin hospital.

Lin Hanxing's subordinates were on high alert.

Once Gong Chen made any move, they would react immediately.

But Gong Chen didn't move.

He just stood there and waited quietly.

This disappointed the reporters who had been looking forward to a fierce battle.

Fortunately, this disappointment didn't last long, because soon there was movement at the door.

Lin Hanxing pushed song Chenxi, who was in a wheelchair, out from the revolving door. Their figures were indistinct, but Gong Chen took off his sunglasses in an instant, revealing a pair of deep eyes that were filled with deep emotions.

Many past events surfaced in Gong Chen's mind one by one. The muscles in his entire body tensed up like hard stones. For a moment, he didn't know whether he was more nervous or more expectant.

Lin Hanxing stopped in front of the revolving door.

"If you don't want to see him, we'll leave from the back door."

...

She hadn't told Chenxi about Gong Chen's recovery of memory.

"It's fine."

Song Chenxi, who was sitting in a wheelchair, had a beautiful face. Her refined face was as calm as a Lake without any waves. She was like a person who had walked out of an ink painting, giving people a beautiful feeling after being tempered by life and death.

"We will meet sooner or later."

In today's fast-paced high-tech era, it was impossible to say that they would never see each other again, not to mention ...

Song Chenxi's gaze fell on the tall figure standing outside the rotating door.

To her, it was all in the past ...

"Let's go," he said.

Lin Hanxing paused and continued to push the wheelchair forward.

Gong Chen's appearance was within her expectations. As long as Chen Xi said that she did not want to see him, Lin Hanxing would have a way to deal with it at any time. All the choices were in Chen Xi's hands.

The revolving door operated quietly.

The moment song Chenxi's face appeared in front of the crowd, the reporters were in an uproar.

Red face and white hair.

It was just like the rumors!

But ...

The reporters thought that they would see song Chenxi in a state of awkwardness because of her. Who would have thought that she would be so open and unrestrained? even in front of the camera, her eyes did not waver.

He was confident and determined.

Even the reporters were shocked by song Chenxi's state of mind and did not know what to say for a moment.

He had no choice but to point the camera at song Chenxi and Gong Chen.

Gong Chen's heart ached the moment he saw her!

These days, when he thought about what he had done to Chenxi over the years, his disgust for himself and song Zhiyun became more and more uncontrollable. He attacked the senanda family like crazy and forced the second Princess Consort to hand over song Zhiyun. However, in the dead of the night, Gong Chen would still be tormented by pain and suffering ...

His greedy eyes fell on song Chenxi!

It was as if he wanted to imprint her appearance deeply in his heart!

His feet unconsciously moved in song Chenxi's direction. When he came back to his senses, Gong Chen was already standing in front of song Chenxi.

The reporters were suddenly in high spirits.

The assistant wanted to rush over but Lin Hanxing stopped him.

Song Chenxi looked up.

He looked at Gong Chen, who was standing against the light.

In an instant, the love and hate that had been dormant in her heart seemed to have really Gone with the Wind.

"You don't look very well."

She smiled.

Gong Chen's tears fell instantly.

The tears flowed down his determined and cold face, leaving the reporters dumbfounded.

When had they ever seen Gong Chen like this?

They were even more dumbfounded by song Chenxi's attitude toward Gong Chen.

No matter how the news was blocked after the incident, the reporters still more or less knew about the kidnapping of the song family's twin daggers. Gong Chen's choice of song Zhiyun put song Chenxi in danger and even caused her hair to turn white overnight after she was sent to the hospital.

Chapter 1574

1574 I've gotten used to it all these years

They originally thought that they would be able to film song Chenxi's hysterical scene when she saw Gong Chen again, but who would've thought that song Chenxi would be so relieved, while Gong Chen was in so much pain that he cried!

Gong Chen, who hadn't slept for nearly 48 hours, collapsed in an instant.

His tall figure slowly half-squatted in front of song Chenxi's wheelchair, burying his cold features between her knees. All his love was released without reservation at this moment, causing the eyes of the people around them to turn red unconsciously.

"Chenxi, it's me,"

Gong Chen mumbled in a low voice that only the two of them could hear.

"I know,"

From the moment she met his eyes, she knew that Gong Chen's memory had returned.

Xuanji, Gong Chen, if you forget me one day, what should I do?

Yingluo, wait for me.

I'll come back to you in the morning.

But ...

It was too late.

It was too late for both her and them.

Song Chenxi placed her hand on Gong Chen's head. A gentle wind blew on her cheeks, and her snow-white hair spread out in the air. She was so beautiful that it made people feel regretful.

Gong Chen's tears wet her black dress.

"Let's go back to Song Garden, alright?"

Gong Chen raised his head. His deep outline was immersed in the light and shadow. His sharp eyes were fixed on her, and every line of his body was tensed up, waiting for her answer.

Song Chenxi smiled gently, then shook her head.

Although he had already guessed the answer, Gong Chen's expression still showed a moment of painful struggle.

"Chenxi ..."

Every word was filled with heart-shaking emotions.

"Gong Chen, send me to li garden."

Before he could finish, song Chenxi interrupted him.

This was not the place to chat.

The assistant wanted to say something but was stopped by Bai Xi's eyes.

There were some things that he should just let them finish ...

In the car.

The soundproof panel fell, separating the interior of the business car into two worlds.

Gong Chen stared at song Chenxi greedily. He had thousands of words to say, but they turned into the deepest silence. Even reaching out to touch her had become the craziest hope.

"I thought you would hate me so much that you wouldn't want to see me."

He was smart, but he used the worst sentence as an opening.

Song Chenxi's reply to Gong Chen was a calm and indifferent look.

"You know, I don't have much time left."

It was a simple sentence, but it was like a sharp dagger that ruthlessly stabbed into Gong Chen's internal organs, leaving him in a state of devastation.

"So I don't want to waste time on meaningless small talk."

Song Chenxi's long eyelashes fluttered as she went straight to the point.

"First, after I pass away, song group will not be handed over to song Zhiyun. I will coordinate with my lawyer in the near future to set up a charity fund and deal with the aftermath. Second, I hope that the cooperation between the song and Gong consortiums won't be affected by our personal issues. Third, Gong Chen, find some time and let's settle the divorce procedures."

"I will not agree to the last condition."

The muscles in Gong Chen's body tensed up like stones. He grabbed song Chenxi's arm suddenly, but he regretted it the moment he touched her slender arm.

"Chenxi, let's not get a divorce, okay?"

He was almost begging.

This was Gong Chen's only request.

Song Chenxi didn't say anything. She only tried to pull her arm out of his palm. She slid her arm along with the burnt skin across Gong Chen's rough palm, causing Gong Chen's muscles to tremble without warning.

I'll send you to li garden. I'll do anything you want to do. I won't let song Zhiyun off. We ...

We can't just end like this!

[we shouldn't have ended like this!]

It was a dull pain as if he was being dismembered. Along with his skin, flesh, tendons, and bones, Gong Chen was torn apart piece by piece.

The pain that he had caused Chenxi to suffer was now devouring him with interest.

He was suffering the consequences of his own actions!

He had reaped his own fruits!

Marriage was the only way to keep him and Chenxi together. He would never let go.

"Alright," he said.

Just when Gong Chen thought song Chenxi would be angry, he heard her calm reply. It was as if she didn't want to dwell on this issue, but it also seemed like she was letting go.

"After I leave, our marriage will naturally be dissolved."

To song Chenxi, it was only a matter of time.

Blood was drawn with a single slash.

Gong Chen was in so much pain that he even forgot how to breathe for a moment.

“Chenxi, do you have to say such cruel words?”

After an unknown amount of time, Gong Chen finally found his voice, even though it was so hoarse that he felt it was unfamiliar.

Song Chenxi turned her head slightly, as if she was puzzled.

“I’m sorry. I’ve gotten used to it over the years. I’ll be more tactful next time.”

Gong Chen smiled bitterly.

After all these years, she was used to it ...

...

How was he going to make it up to her for all these years that he had been stuck between them?

Knock, knock, knock ...

A rhythmic knocking sound came from outside the soundproof block.

“Mr. Gong, we’ve arrived at the Li family.”

The chauffeur’s voice was heard.

He had tried his best to slow down the car, but even so, they still reached the end of the road according to the original kilometer.

There was no response.

Gong Chen looked at song Chenxi with pain in his eyes.

“Let go.”

Song Chenxi spoke lightly. Her tone was as calm as if she was discussing the weather today, as if she could not see his struggle.

Gong Chen’s big palms, which he didn’t dare to clench tightly, slowly released their strength, but the muscles in his whole body were tense.

Seeing him like this, song Chenxi sighed.

“We’ll meet again at the Royal banquet.”

The man was stunned and let go with a bitter smile.

Gong Chen knew in his heart that Chenxi was right. They would meet again at the Royal banquet not long later. However, when he faced this woman who talked and laughed to him without any emotion, the heartache he felt was like the sky had fallen and the earth had shattered ...

He was constantly tearing himself apart!

alright, I'll see you at the Royal banquet.

Gong Chen said. He forced a faint smile on his tough face so that she could see his change.

Song Chenxi pushed the door open and got out of the car without hesitation. Lin Hanxing and the others were waiting for her not far away.

Gong Chen saw it clearly. The smile on Chenxi's face when she saw those people was even more beautiful than the dew-covered roses that bloomed in the garden in the morning.

It was a completely different state from when he was facing himself.

The current Chenxi would not quarrel, provoke, threaten, or cry when facing him. She was devastated but peaceful and strong, but these ...

None of these were what he wanted.

When she left, she didn't even turn back to look at him!

"Chenxi ..."

Song Chenxi heard Gong Chen's deep voice from behind her. Before she could turn around, a thunderous force had already pulled her into an embrace from behind, as if it was trying to put her back into his body.

Her thin body couldn't help but stagger forward a few times.

"I still owe you an apology."

The newly grown stubble on Gong Chen's chin turned green. The wind and clouds floating in the Li family seemed to pause because of this sad sentence.

He had so many things he wanted to tell Chenxi. Even if he couldn't say them, he was reluctant to part with her.

"No, it's a lot of words!"

Chapter 1575

1575 We're both unqualified to be parents

Gong Chen's voice was close to her ears.

Song Chenxi's long eyelashes trembled slightly. Her gaze gradually spread out, but in her mind, scenes of what had happened over the years appeared.

Most of them felt more pain than happiness, and more bitterness than smiles.

Year after year, day after day.

Now, song Chenxi finally received Gong Chen's apology, but it was no longer that important to her.

There was only one thing ...

"I gave that child a name ..." He said.

Song Chenxi said gently, but Gong Chen was instantly frozen.

The child who had been deprived of everything by his wrong choice before he was born was a thorn in their hearts that could never be healed.

Forever!

"I'm called little feather."

Song Chenxi didn't seem to feel the stiffness of Gong Chen's muscles and the heavy and painful breathing behind her ears. Her eyes were gentle and full of guilt and motherly love, drowning the man.

She pushed Gong Chen's arm away, turned around slowly, and looked up to meet his eyes.

"Gong Chen, we're not qualified to be parents."

And so, they were all punished.

Without exception.

Gong Chen's large palm pressed down on his heart. The sudden and violent impact made his large palm convulse, and even his breath reeked of blood.

From her pupils, Gong Chen could clearly see that he was in a sorry state.

"So, there's something about your apology that I'll never be able to receive ..."

He fled in panic.

These were the only words that could describe the state chugong Chen was in when he left.

Song Chenxi stood in the same place and looked at his back. All the expressions on her delicate porcelain-white face slowly disappeared. Only her eyes revealed an indescribable clarity.

Then, a pair of hands landed on her shoulders.

He turned around and met Lin Hanxing's eyes.

"Welcome home."

.....

The royal family.

The attendant was holding his breath and tidying up the room that had been swept by the 'storm'. He was very careful, afraid that there would be another storm.

The nanny looked at the second Princess Consort worriedly.

The latter's eyes were bloodshot, making people shiver from the bottom of their hearts.

"Ever since that Lin xiaojiu came, nothing has gone smoothly for me!"

The second Princess Consort's tone was sinister, and the nanny and the second Prince's confidant did not dare to say anything. Recently, whenever Lin Hanxing's matter was involved, she would easily lose her mind and become irritable.

"What has farrick been up to recently?"

His eyes swept over to the second Prince's confidant, and the latter's heart trembled. He did not dare to delay and quickly spoke.

"The second Prince hasn't been out recently."

The words were half-covered, but he wasn't lying.

Eric has been in the limelight recently!

With a bang, he slapped the armrest of the sofa with one hand.

While the senanda family was in big trouble, Amelia was trying her best to help him build up momentum, as if she wanted to create an image of the first Prince who was friendly to the people!

"Big sister's plan is really good!"

She narrowed her eyes and sneered. At this moment, the second wangfei was like a beautiful snake, dangerous no matter how you looked at her.

"Nanny, I really can't accept this!"

Her slender fingers were clenched tightly, and her long nails dug into her palms. The pain made her more awake.

The nanny sighed in her heart and complained about the person who had nothing to lose in the capital.

If it wasn't for her, the senanda family wouldn't have to face such a powerful figure, and they wouldn't be in such a dilemma. Even their base camp was almost destroyed!

All the bad things were done by the second Princess Consort, but that person could still be as pure as ice and as clean as Jade. On what basis?

The enemy had already infiltrated their side and they were still unaware of it. On what basis did they still want to fight with the Li family?

The second Prince's confidant narrowed his eyes and cursed in his heart.

"Aren't we still holding onto song Zhiyun?"

The nanny comforted the second Princess Consort.

"Yes, a banquet!"

Upon hearing this, the second wangfei's eyes lit up again.

"Didn't Eric want to gain power? Then I'll just kill two birds with one stone!"

...

The confident second wangfei's expression relaxed, but she did not notice that the second Prince's confidant was secretly rolling his eyes.

At this point, the second Princess Consort was still thinking of killing two birds with one stone!

She was afraid that before she could shoot him, the other party would play a set of thirty-six tricks on her!

Who would win ...

He'd better find a way out first and wait!

.....

Night fell.

The carved iron gate of li garden slowly opened.

A black business car equipped with the highest level of bulletproof coefficient drove in.

Soon, Eric, Zhan Nanheng, and uncle Jin arrived at the Li family villa.

Everyone was gathered together.

...

"Are you sure the source is reliable?"

Zhan Nanheng flipped through the paper and the photo, questioning them instinctively.

"There's a part missing from the surveillance."

As Lin Hanxing had already guessed it, he was not disappointed when he found out about the result. The person who gave her the letter had obviously arranged everything.

"In that case, the snake head is in Xuelan, the sheep head is in Rou city, the chicken head is in Thunderbolt armor, and the dog head is in dengheng?"

Yuan Kang raised his eyebrows.

The confirmation of the specific area would save them a lot of trouble.

"The most important problem is that we can't confirm the authenticity of the news!"

This time, Yan beiming, who was holding the pink little pig in his arms, was more cautious.

"Can I take a look?"

Song Chenxi, who was sitting in a wheelchair, suddenly spoke and extended her hand in Eric's direction.

The latter was stunned for a moment before handing the item over to her.

Song Chenxi first pinched the paper and then sniffed the ink. Her expression was extremely serious.

Everyone's eyes were focused on her face.

"I know where this thing came from."

By the time she put down her hand, Song Chenxi already had an answer in her heart.

"Really? Do you have a dog's nose?"

Yuan Kang was the first to exclaim.

They had looked at the note and the photo several times just now, but they couldn't find anything. How could she get the answer just by pinching and smelling it?

Wasn't this a little too godly?

"Where did you get it?"

Bai Xi was impatient and asked curiously.

"Hua Ji."

Song Chenxi said slowly. Everyone at the table did not know what to say when they heard her answer.

According to the Senanda family's request, only Hua Ji provides different paper and ink in the entire snow orchid. This kind of paper is commonly known in the industry as orchid farm paper, and this kind of ink is called snow ink.

Uncle Hai's expression suddenly changed, and even Li Binshou came to a realization.

This was not a secret for people of their age. At that time, the second Princess Consort and the Senanda family behind her had used all means possible to suppress the Chinese. Because too much time had passed, and his sense of smell was no longer as sensitive, he had missed the most important part.

"But Hua Ji is so big, finding this person is like looking for a needle in a haystack, right?"

Song Chenxi chuckled and shook her head after Bai Xi finished speaking.

"Actually, the answer is already obvious."

She looked at Lin Hanxing, and as their eyes met, they could see the answer in each other's eyes.

"Ah?"

Could Bai Xi say that she didn't understand at all?

Didn't he only think of this step at Hua Ji?

Why was the answer so obvious?

1576 Be wary of the people around you

Hua Ji's headquarters.

Lin Hanxing's sudden visit at night did not alarm many people.

She first went to greet elder mu.

It was the same backyard, the same stone table, the same white peacock, and the same elder.

It was just like the first time they met.

Lin Hanxing sat down opposite elder mu.

Elder mu held a small handful of Peacock food in his hand. The White Peacock moved closer to him as he threw a little. The harmonious relationship between animals and humans was particularly moving in the night with the fragrance of tea.

"I can't control the Hong gang's internal affairs."

The Hong gang was finished!

Lin Hanxing was the first to break the silence.

The Hong gang's decline was a fact that was set in stone, and it was only a matter of time before the balance was broken.

Yuan shaojing would never have thought that the Hong gang would be destroyed by their own people instead of Lin Hanxing. He didn't know if this was the Hong gang's fortune or misfortune.

Elder MU's movements paused.

He thought of something and sighed in the end.

There were fewer and fewer old people who had taken root in their suffering to defend their culture and rights in order to make a living. Even the spirit that had been passed down in the past was almost gone.

Lin Hanxing had finished the necessary preventive measures, so he raised his hand to refill elder MU's Cup of Da Hong Pao and turned to leave to complete the most important purpose of his visit ...

.....

Uncle firewood, who was packing his things, suddenly heard a knock on the door.

"Who is it?"

Even though he was in Hua Ji, uncle firewood still remained vigilant.

"Lin Hanxing,"

The moment these three words rang out, Shangguan shixiu, who had been sitting in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, seemed to light up instantly. His large palm clenched the grass Dragonfly tightly, and even his body was tense.

Uncle firewood naturally didn't dare to delay and hurriedly opened the door.

The fragrance of the flowers in the courtyard spread into the room. Uncle firewood's expression froze when he saw the thing in Lin Hanxing's hand. On the other hand, Shangguan shixiu's expression was calm.

“You’re not going to talk to me?”

Lin Hanxing raised an eyebrow and waved the photo at Shangguan shixiu.

“Where do you want to talk?”

Shangguan shixiu coughed twice and got up. His white shirt made his figure look even thinner.

“I’ll be waiting for you in the courtyard.”

After saying this, Lin Hanxing’s figure disappeared.

When Shangguan shixiu came out, he saw her sitting on the wicker chair, and there were large clusters of light purple hydranthus in full bloom next to her. For a moment, he subconsciously held his breath.

Uncle firewood left after serving the tea.

Shangguan shixiu, I suddenly realized that your purpose in coming to country G isn’t that simple.

Lin Hanxing fiddled with the flower in boredom, but his eyes were cold.

On the way here, she had re-examined all of Shangguan shixiu’s movements after he came to country G. Suddenly, she realized something that she had never noticed before, and that was ...

His real purpose in coming to country G was probably not as simple as it seemed!

Moreover, this purpose had also been successfully concealed from Shangguan Yilu, Shangguan Qinghe, and other members of the Shangguan family. If Lin Hanxing interpreted it from his point of view, it might be directly related to Shangguan shixiu’s adoptive father!

“I do have another mission.”

This time, Shangguan shixiu readily admitted.

He leaned his upper body on the wicker chair and completely relaxed.

“I’m afraid that Shangguan Qinghe’s plan will fail.”

The child was still young and did not feel that he had been played in the palm of others!

As the wind blew, the petals of the embroidered ball fell to the ground, creating a beautiful scene.

“Hanxing, the information I’m giving you is definitely true,”

Shangguan shixiu said seriously.

No matter what his true purpose in coming to country G was, he would never stand on the opposite side of Lin Hanxing. If he had to sacrifice himself to protect her, Shangguan shixiu would do it without hesitation.

“You really know country G like the back of your hand.”

Lin Hanxing’s voice was cold, and it was hard to tell if he was talking too much or mocking too much.

believe me. You’ve only uncovered the tip of the iceberg regarding country G.

Shangguan shixiu laughed.

"In Xue LAN and Rou city, you can easily obtain the Snake and Sheep heads, but when it comes to the chicken and dog heads of Lei Jia and Deng Heng, it really won't be that easy. These two places are the most important bases of the senanda family."

"There's nothing I can't get if I want it."

Lin Hanxing laughed as well, his eyes filled with determination.

...

"I believe you,"

Shangguan shixiu believed in Lin Hanxing's methods and abilities, so the heads of the chicken and dog would be in her pocket sooner or later.

However, Shangguan shixiu's smile quickly disappeared.

He seemed to have thought of something.

"In addition, I have a piece of advice."

"What?"

there's a ferocious beast lying dormant beside you, waiting for the right time to bite you.

"Be wary of the people around you."

Shangguan shixiu looked at Lin Hanxing as he said this, word for word. His expression was serious and serious, which was enough to prove that he was not joking with her.

"You're asking me to suspect the people around me?"

Lin Hanxing's tone was cold.

...

Which one of her friends wasn't a life-and-death friendship?

"No, trust your intuition. It's better to be safe than sorry."

Shangguan shixiu put the newly woven grass Dragonfly on the wooden table between the two rattan chairs. It looked as if it was about to spread its wings and fly in the next second. It was so lifelike.

Tonight, Shangguan shixiu was like a prophet. When Lin Hanxing collected all four songs and returned to Xuelan, he thought back to the conversation between the two of them, and suddenly understood ...

Some people's fate was already decided from the beginning!

"You have to be careful at the second Princess Consort's banquet. The resentment she has accumulated over the past few days will definitely erupt one day."

Seeing Lin Hanxing get up, Shangguan shixiu did not forget to remind him.

In his current state, it was not suitable for him to show his face in public, but he believed that with Thunder valiant beast around, he would definitely protect her.

“Even if the second Princess Consort doesn’t come to find trouble with me, I’ll still go find her!”

She had not settled the score with ah Xiao and Chenxi yet!

He gave her a taste of her medicine.

She also wanted to let the second Princess Consort have a taste of the pain that was worse than death!

.....

Mount Yulong, capital city.

Elder Yan listened to the Guard’s report with his eyes closed, blue veins popping on his forehead.

“Self-check!”

The two powerful words were squeezed out of his teeth.

Elder Yan had never thought that such a thing would happen under his eyes back then!

If not for Lin Hanxing, he would have been kept in the dark for the rest of his life!

don’t alert anyone else, especially long qingru. Find out who might have been involved in this!

The security guard, Xiao Zhang, paused for a moment, then handed another list to master Yan.

“This is from someone close to miss Lin.”

The entire list was shortlisted, leaving only two people, one from country G and one from China.

“I want to know the truth in the shortest time possible!”

Elder Yan looked at the list, full of righteousness.

“If, and I’m saying if, there’s really a problem ...”

How should they deal with a matter that could cause a conflict between two countries?

if you find any problems, hand him over to the Lin girl!!

Chapter 1577

1577 Breaking through

After leaving Hua Ji’s headquarters, Lin Hanxing, who had a lot on his mind, bought supper and went to the Lei group’s branch in country G.

The towering tempered building was located in the most prosperous area of the center of Xuelan city. It was expensive to build. Although it was already late at night, the entire building still showed a cold and tough attitude.

The lights were bright.

Lin Hanxing took the supper and used the access card to the top floor.

In the president's office.

Lei Xiao was still in the meeting. After the assistant served him tea, he went out to continue his work.

Lin Hanxing stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window and looked down at the night view of the snow orchid. The mirror reflected her serious expression as if she was thinking about something.

He was wary of the people around him.

When Shangguan shixiu's warning came back to his mind, Lin Hanxing's hand, which was casually placed on the leather seat, rapped rhythmically.

That was her habitual action.

Thump.

The door to the president's office was pushed open from the outside.

Lei Xiao, who had just finished a global video conference, loosened his collar as he walked in. When he saw Lin Hanxing, the coldness on his cold and pressing handsome face disappeared and he walked towards her.

Lei Xiao hugged her from behind, his manly scent enveloping Lin Hanxing.

The atmosphere was quiet and beautiful.

"I brought you some supper."

Lin Hanxing leaned into the man's arms and saw his expression clearly through the reflection of the French window.

"Yes."

Lei Xiao's voice was hoarse from exhaustion. He closed his eyes and rested his chin on the top of her head, hugging Lin Hanxing even tighter.

The internal telephone rang.

The moment the call connected, the assistant reminded him that there was another high-level meeting in fifteen minutes.

15 minutes was just enough for supper.

Very quickly, the reheated supper was sent in by the assistant. While Lei Xiao was eating, Lin Hanxing told him about what happened today.

"Shangguan shixiu has his own sources of information. We can trust him."

Lei Xiao's words confirmed Shangguan shixiu's opinion.

"So, you also think that I should pay attention to the warning he gave me when he told me to be wary of the people around me?"

Lin Hanxing's question caused Lei Xiao's hand to stop.

Then, he put down his chopsticks.

He raised his hand and placed it on top of her head. His palm was gentle and strong.

believe what you want to believe, love what you want to love, and leave the rest to me.

The Thunder valiant beast was as direct as ever.

The perfect outline was filled with killing intent and tenderness.

Lin Hanxing looked at Lei Xiao's face, and in the next second, he threw himself into his arms like a child.

the company will have the sales figures at midnight today. Are you interested? "

Lei Xiao held his wife in his arms, obviously not planning to let her go back to li garden alone.

"I'll stay if you beg me."

She raised her chin slightly and made a pose.

"Please, I beg you."

Thunder owl laughed.

"Then I'll reluctantly stay to accompany you!"

Lin Hanxing's eyes were like stars. Although he said it reluctantly, his bright expression revealed another meaning.

"Oh right, this is for you."

Lei Xiao passed the folder that Yun Bai had just sent over to Lin Hanxing.

"The mute uncle will want it."

Lin Hanxing's hand twitched when he heard this. His gaze was no longer the same as before.

She quickly opened the file.

yunbai said that the other party's anti-reconnaissance ability is extremely strong. It took a few brothers to finally determine the other party's location.

No wonder even Shangguan shixiu had suffered a loss at the hands of that person.

Lin Hanxing read them one by one, but his heart sank.

With her sharp instincts, she felt a strong sense of being shrouded in a conspiracy!

"I feel like something's not quite right."

Lin Hanxing said after a moment of silence.

Ever since he had committed that bloody crime against the mute uncle's family, this person had disappeared from the face of the earth. Now, not only had he appeared, but he had also been hiding in the Hong gang's territory for so long. What was his purpose?

...

The internal phone rang again.

This was to remind Thunder valiant about the time of the meeting.

"If you're tired, go to the lounge first. I'll be back later."

Lin Hanxing, who was immersed in his thoughts, obviously did not hear it. Lei Xiao shook his head, took the things on the table out and told his assistant not to disturb her.

The president's office returned to silence.

Half an hour ...

One hour ...

Lin Hanxing sat in the same place without moving until his phone suddenly rang.

It was an unknown number.

A shy voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Miss Lin ..."

...

The voice was familiar. Lin Hanxing was stunned for a moment before he remembered who the person was.

Old Chai's silly fan.

"What's the matter?"

Lin Hanxing was a little surprised by the sudden call.

"I'm taking the liberty to call you ... At this time ..."

Lin Hanxing could feel the nervousness in the fanboy's voice on the other end of the phone. Lin Hanxing waited patiently for the other party to finish his stuttering before the main topic came.

can I trouble miss Lin to help me visit grandfather? "

"You mean old Chai?"

A thought seemed to have flashed through her mind, but it was too fast for her to catch it.

yes, I can't contact Grandpa, and I can't even contact the people around him. I'm afraid that something might have happened, so ...

"Are you saying that you can't contact old Chai and his trusted aides?"

Lin Hanxing frowned.

"How long has it been?"

"It's been a few days,"

Lin Hanxing didn't hear what the fanboy said after that because in a split second, she finally realized what she had missed out!

Old Chai!

Ever since she met him at the bar Street, she had not heard from him.

She had originally wanted him to come to li garden the next day, but he didn't appear!

Lin Hanxing originally thought that elder Chai didn't want to face the Hong gang's corruption and decided to continue to be blind. In addition to the things on hand, she had one thing after another to do, so she had forgotten about elder Chai.

But now it seemed ...

Things might not be as simple as he thought!

Something must have happened to old Chai!

"Listen up, go to Zhu chengdi and ask for a leave of absence. Take the latest flight back to Xuelan, and I'll send someone to pick you up at the airport! Did you hear me?"

Lin Hanxing didn't have time to explain and immediately gave the order.

"I, I heard it clearly."

Without waiting for the other party to ask any more questions, Lin Hanxing hung up the phone and stood up.

She had to go to the Hong gang now!

His hand was already faster than his brain as he dialed elder MU's private number and walked out of the president's office.

"Little girl?"

Elder mu was still awake.

"Elder mu, this is an urgent matter and I don't have time to explain it to you. I need the other three Hall Masters to barge into the Hong gang's territory and surround the Hong gang's headquarters. Can you promise me that?"

She walked towards the International Conference hall in a hurry.

Her high heels clicked on the cold floor.

On the other end of the phone, elder mu was silent for a moment.

"Go do it!"

He did not even ask for the reason and gave Lin Hanxing the greatest trust.

Whoosh ...

Before the assistant could react, Lin Hanxing had already pushed the door of the International Conference hall open from the outside. In an instant, a cold air came from the inside.

All the executives looked at the door in surprise.

Lei Xiao put down the documents in his hand. When his eyes met Lin Hanxing's, his heart sank.

Something must have happened!

Chapter 1578

1578 No one can sleep tonight

Hong gang.

The people who lived nearby had been living in fear for the past two days.

Although they lived near the Hong gang, they had been staying away from each other all these years and had a harmonious neighborhood relationship.

However, a few days ago, things seemed to be a little off.

First, the Hong gang's doors were tightly shut, only people were allowed to enter.

From time to time, there would be tragic movements coming from inside, which made people's scalps numb ...

Therefore, for the past two days, when night fell, the residents nearby didn't even think about going home. They didn't dare to stay outside for a moment. The feeling of a storm brewing was really suffocating!

half an hour ago, I had people guard the back door.

Yun Bai's handsome face was hidden in the dark as he spoke to Lin Hanxing, who was standing beside him.

those who were sent out these two days are all buried in the back mountain. I've sent people to check on them, and they are all old Chai's trusted aides.

Upon hearing this, everyone's expression became serious.

"Then wouldn't old Chai be ..."

Before he finished, Yuan Kang thought for a moment and swallowed back the inauspicious part of his sentence.

Lin Hanxing looked at the Hong gang's door quietly, his thoughts unknown.

The qiangu Hong gang was finished.

These were the words she had said to elder mu earlier tonight.

His words came true.

“I want to go in.”

After a long while, Lin Hanxing finally spoke.

“Little Star, are you crazy?”

Yan Beichen was the first to jump out and disagree. They were still not clear about the situation in the Hong gang, and she wanted to go in?

Ah Xiao, can you come out and control little Xingxing!

“Ninth young lady ...”

Bai Xi and Jiang Xibao frowned. They obviously didn’t agree.

Yun Bai opened his mouth, but when he saw Lei Xiao’s expression, he didn’t say anything. On the other hand, Liang yuran, who had been silent the entire time, took out his laptop. The moment the screen lit up, his fingers began to type on the keyboard.

Very quickly, the Hong gang’s internal surveillance system was hacked.

The screen in Liang yuran’s hand was divided into 15 small screens, each from a different angle, even in the basement.

Just like that, the Hong gang’s interior was fully captured by everyone.

“Fuck!”

Hua Ji couldn’t help but exclaim.

“I saw old Chai!”

He pointed at one of the tofu blocks. It was indeed old Chai.

It seemed ...

He was on the verge of death, only exhaling but not inhaling.

The hearts of the people who saw it suddenly sank.

Old Chai’s condition wasn’t very good, and it was unknown if he could survive the night!

Lin Hanxing’s sharp eyes swept over every piece of tofu until the 13th piece. Her eyes stopped and she raised her hand to tap on the laptop screen.

“I want to go in.”

This was the second time she had brought up this topic.

“Also, me.”

A hoarse and unfamiliar voice rang out in the space. Other than Lei Xiao and Yan beiming, who already knew the secret in Jiang city, everyone else was shocked by the mute uncle’s sudden voice.

For a moment, no one spoke.

The mute uncle's eyes landed on the picture of the 13th piece of tofu. His eyes were filled with hatred that others could not understand.

Perhaps his will was too strong, the person monitoring the other end looked up as if he had sensed something.

It was as if they were looking at each other across space.

It gave people a strong sense of intimidation!

Even through the camera, they could feel the strong bloody smell from the other party!

"Then I want to go too! I'm strong, I can protect ninth young lady!"

Jiang Xibao was the first to recover from the shock. He did not hesitate to speak.

Liang yuran's hands paused, and he looked up at her expressionlessly. However, the former's attention was only on Lin Hanxing, so he didn't see his cold eyes at all.

"You guys stay here, the three of us will go in."

Lei Xiao pulled out his tie and unbuttoned the first two buttons of his collar, his eyes malicious.

Other than himself, he could not trust anyone else.

...

The moment Thunder valiant beast spoke, it was a sure thing, and no one dared to question him.

"I can use the new technology to analyze this person and see if I can use big data to lock onto information."

Liang yuran said as he glanced at the face that Lin Hanxing had pointed at.

Then, he handed three invisible Bluetooth earphones to the three of them.

In case of an emergency.

"Yunbai, you have to make sure that you get old Chai's grandson as soon as possible."

These were the last words Lin Hanxing said before he left the darkness ...

.....

At the entrance of the Hong gang.

Lin Hanxing, who was standing in the middle of the three, knocked on the carved door.

Very quickly, two people walked out.

...

The person obviously knew her.

“Miss Lin?”

His voice was cautious and scrutinizing, and his eyes were alert.

“Go in and report, say ...”

Lin Hanxing paused and changed the topic.

“Kun Peng is here.”

.....

The carved door opened quickly, but the two sides of the road were filled with Hong gang members. They just looked at the three of them, their hands behind their waists, obviously threatening them.

To be able to send out such a large force to watch over the three of them ...

The other party was quite interesting.

“The Hong gang is hiding in every corner of the room with loaded guns.”

Liang yuran’s cold voice came from the headphones hidden under his hair.

Outside, the Hong gang members were being monitored from all angles.

Lin Hanxing did not respond and continued to walk forward, her high heels making a cold sound as they stepped on the floor.

This was her first time in the Hong gang.

He didn’t feel happy.

Very quickly, she saw the person in the photo.

It was this person that the mute uncle had been searching for for decades until today!

“Kunpeng, long time no see.”

The man sitting in the middle smiled the moment he saw the mute uncle. His sinister eyes had a light of interest. A long scar ran across his entire face, giving him a strong sense of disgust.

He didn’t even look at Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao, only focusing on the mute uncle.

The emotions in the mute uncle’s eyes seemed to please him.

“He’s a mute!”

The person who spoke was the young Hall master’s father, who had his son taken away by Lin Hanxing.

Sensing Lin Hanxing’s gaze, he glared back at him with a fierce look.

“Mute? Do you know who he is?”

Bason was in a good mood. His inverted triangular eyes were dark and vicious.

“He’s the kun Peng who shook Thailand decades ago! Everyone knew about this! The last dawn of the gray area! Hahahahahahahahahahaha ...”

The young clan master’s father was truly shocked.

He did not expect that the old man beside Lin Hanxing, who did not seem to attract much attention, would have such a complicated background ...

Crouching tigers and hidden dragons!

“Kunpeng, do you know what your son said when he died?”

Bason grinned as if he felt that the excitement was not enough. He revealed his teeth as he chewed on a betel nut.

“Uncle, don’t kill me, don’t kill me! Hahahahahahahahahahahahaha ...”

The veins on the mute uncle’s forehead popped out, as if he was going to pounce on him in the next second, but he was held down by Lei Xiao, not letting the mute uncle do anything extreme.

The mute uncle’s eyes were bloodshot as he stared at Ong.

This was an enemy that he would never forget!

Chapter 1579

1579 I’ll give you a chance

“I’ve found some information.”

Just as the situation was getting more and more tense, Liang yuran’s voice came from the invisible Bluetooth headset. It was like a bucket of cold water that was poured on his head.

It helped him regain his rationality.

Lin Hanxing’s expression didn’t change, and he didn’t give Liang yuran any response. He only looked at Ong’s face.

He sized her up without saying anything.

according to the records, in the past twenty years, this person had frequently entered T, M, L, and G countries with four different identities. Coincidentally, every time this person entered the country, there would be a huge commotion in the underground markets of the four countries.

On the other end of the headphones, Liang yuran’s hands were moving quickly on the keyboard.

He locked his eyes on the screen and filtered through the useful information.

“Little Star, ah Xiao.”

Yan beiming’s voice was heard.

“It’s kunkang! He’s from kunkang!”

Kun Kang, the mute uncle’s younger brother.

He was also the one who stabbed the mute uncle five times and threw him into the river after the murder case!

every time a blood incident happened, it was more like kunkang was eliminating his enemies. And every time a blood incident ended, he was able to expand his territory in the shortest time possible. That's why kunkang became more and more arrogant in the short span of a few years!

Yan beiming had the most direct contact with kunkang.

"Hehe."

Suddenly, Lin Hanxing laughed.

It instantly attracted everyone's attention.

"Hong gang, when did you start working with kunkang?"

A simple sentence caused the nerves of the Father of the young Hall Master, who held an important position in the Hong gang, to jump uncontrollably. In the eyes of others, it was as if his expression had twitched unconsciously.

"Although old Chai is not good at judging people and is stupid, there is a rule that I admire, and that is to not touch poison."

Not only old Chai, but all the Chinese districts under the jurisdiction of Huaji Hong gang were not allowed to touch this bottom line!

Those who disobey will bring disaster to their descendants!

This was the most severe punishment!

"So, this is the reason you betrayed him?"

Lin Hanxing's tone was sarcastic and his eyes were full of disdain.

"Shut up!"

The embarrassment that turned into anger after his veil was torn made the young clan leader's father walk a few steps towards Lin Hanxing with his spear in hand. The moment he raised his hand and touched her forehead, he was kicked to the ground by Lei Xiao's long leg.

There was a loud thump, and it was frightening.

The sound of a machine loading on its gun was heard one after another, all of which were directed at the three of them.

"You're overestimating yourself."

Lin Hanxing laughed coldly, but her gaze fell on Ong. No one could tell who she was referring to.

Ong's malicious eyes met Lin Hanxing's.

"Mr. Ley, I don't want to be your enemy, but your woman is very annoying."

Bason said.

However, Lei Xiao didn't even look at him. He walked straight to the young Hall master's father, who was still groaning in pain. As the screams rang out again, the heel of his thick leather shoe had already landed on the other party's wrist, crushing it ruthlessly.

Even the sound of bones breaking could be heard.

A pair of cold eyes looked around, but no one dared to move.

"If you have an opinion, endure it!"

Thunder valiant beast finally shifted his gaze back to Bason's face. Even though he was used to a life of bloodshed, he still felt a chill in his heart when he was stared at by Thunder valiant beast.

The silent mute uncle moved a carved wooden chair over from the side with great tacit understanding. It was unknown if he did it on purpose, but his seat just happened to be directly opposite Bason.

Lin Hanxing sat down leisurely.

"How could someone as conceited as you be willing to follow kunkang's orders for so many years?"

His right leg lazily crossed over his left leg. These words were not only directed at the person opposite him, but also to Liang yuran and the others on the other side of the headphones.

Conceit was the greatest characteristic of the person in front of him.

From the moment they entered the room, this man had been using these two words to the extreme.

It was also because of this arrogance ...

Lin Hanxing believed that among the four identities, one of them must be true information about him!

"Unless he has something on you?"

Ong's eyes were malicious.

He just looked at Lin Hanxing.

Even though Kunpeng was in dire straits now, how could someone who could make him follow him willingly be ordinary?

Lin Hanxing allowed him to size him up.

...

He was stalling for time.

Liang yuran's voice came from the other end of the earpiece again.

"I've confirmed it. Bassoon, formerly known as Bacha, is a man from Thailand. He's the mastermind behind the 'eighth Princess' case that caused a sensation in country t back then!"

The case of the eighth Princess!

Hearing these words, Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao looked at each other and immediately understood.

“Am I right?”

Lin Hanxing’s long, dark eyelashes concealed all the emotions in his eyes. He silently took the initiative and reversed the situation.

“Bason ... Or should I call you, Bacca?”

The eighth Princess case.

It was the most sensational murder case in country t decades ago.

The king’s most beloved and youngest eighth Princess was kidnapped on her way to school. After nine days of fighting with the bandits, the princess was killed in the end.

After the mourning period, the Thai royal family ordered that they would track down the whereabouts of the murderer at all costs. They had the intention of cutting him into pieces. However, decades had passed, and the main culprit of that year had disappeared like a stone in the sea.

Some people said that the main culprit who had received the huge ransom must have left Thailand a long time ago, but they had forgotten that the most dangerous place was the safest place. Not only did the person not leave Thailand, but he had been traveling around the four countries to stir up trouble over the years.

Bason narrowed his eyes.

The veins on his neck were clearly visible, as if he had suddenly revealed his emotions. Lin Hanxing could see them clearly.

“Shut up!”

Bason threw something to the ground and it made an ear-piercing sound.

Lin Hanxing’s eyes darkened when he saw that he had lost his composure.

His body movements became lazier.

do you think you’ll be able to leave country G alive if I spread this news? ”

Lin Hanxing sneered.

His eyes were filled with a domineering aura and courage that did not lose to a man.

“Then I’ll kill you first!”

Ong sneered as well. When he raised his hand again, he was holding a gun and aiming it at Lin Hanxing’s forehead.

Following his movements, everyone in the Hong gang pointed their guns at Lin Hanxing and the other two. The situation took a turn for the worse, and even the person on the other end of the earpiece felt his heart tighten.

“You want to kill me?”

Lin Hanxing stood up slowly as if he had heard a funny joke and walked towards Bason.

The muzzle of the gun moved with her.

Everything was like a scene from a gangster movie from the last century.

The high heels stepped on the deformed wrist of the young Hall master’s father, and he let out another deafening shrill scream.

She quickly arrived in front of Ong. With the crisp sound of her high heels, her eyebrows automatically pressed against the muzzle of the gun.

“Come on!”

There was no fear in Lin Hanxing’s eyes.

As she spoke, she raised her slender fingers, took out the invisible headphones from her ears, and shook them in front of Ong’s eyes.

Ong’s pupils clearly contracted, and his facial muscles twitched.

“As long as something happens to me, I promise that Xue LAN will be a nightless night tonight!”

She put her headphones back on.

“So ...”

Lin Hanxing’s eyes were frosty. He suddenly raised his hand and grabbed the handle.

“I’ll give you a chance. Shoot!”

He looked at Bason at close range.

He was fierce, but she was fiercer than him.

He was ruthless, but she was even more ruthless.

It was really ...

He didn’t want his life!

1580 Help me, play it

Although they had long heard of Lin Hanxing’s style of doing things, seeing for themselves was better than hearing a hundred times. Today, the Hong gang finally understood what kind of trouble they had caused!

“You think I don’t dare to?”

Bason’s expression was ferocious and his veins were popping.

“Indeed, you don’t dare to.”

Lin Hanxing’s expression was cold as he looked straight into the other’s eyes. His voice did not hide the suppression he felt towards the other.

Bason’s eyes turned red.

In Lin Hanxing’s eyes, it was just a last-ditch struggle to maintain his face.

“Good! Very good!”

Bason sneered and aimed the gun at the ceiling. There were a few loud bangs but his eyes never left Lin Hanxing’s face. He was trying to find a trace of fear from her!

No!

There was nothing!

Lin Hanxing did not even blink!

“Now, it’s my turn to negotiate the conditions!”

As he spoke, Lin Hanxing’s cold gaze swept across the room, sweeping across every face in front of him. Wherever his gaze passed, everyone involuntarily took a step back, creating a spectacle.

“Hand over old Chai.”

“No! You can’t give it to her!”

The young clan master’s father roared in anger, his voice filled with fear and unwillingness.

He had planned for so long, waited for so long, and was just one step away from success. Who would have thought that he would fail at the last step because of a woman?

“It’s too noisy,”

Lin Hanxing did not even bother to turn around. He heard a click behind him and the mute uncle had skillfully made the other party shut his mouth. Other than the sound of Wu Wu Wu, nothing else could be heard.

Bason’s expression was dark as he looked at the people around him.

The latter quickly left, and when he returned, he was dragging the dying old Chai.

Lin Hanxing’s heart sank.

Old Chai’s condition was even worse than what he had seen in the surveillance footage.

Even his face started to turn ashen.

Even an ordinary person without medical knowledge could tell that he didn’t have long to live.

Lei Xiao walked over and did a simple check. When he raised his head again, he shook his head at Lin Hanxing.

Perhaps sensing something, elder Chai slowly opened his eyes. His turbid eyes lit up the moment he saw Lin Hanxing. His withered hand grabbed her wrist with all his might and held her tightly!

It was as if he had caught his last hope!

"I've already told him to come back."

As soon as Lin Hanxing finished speaking, tears started to flow from old Chai's eyes.

As if he knew he couldn't hold on for much longer, the old man's eyes were filled with frustration and regret.

If he had made a different choice back then ...

It was too late!

But now, it was too late!

I'll give you an injection. It'll be enough for you to last until your grandson comes back and you two can meet.

Perhaps Lin Hanxing had already expected this to happen, so he had brought along the medicine developed by the sacred hands before he came to the Hong gang. After using it, it could give the patient the effect of a momentary recovery, but the recovery time would be longer.

Old Chai nodded his head with difficulty.

Lin Hanxing deftly took the syringe from Lei Xiao's hands, drew out the fluorescent blue medicine, and quickly injected it into old Chai's artery. Throughout the whole process, she was expressionless, not even blinking.

Perhaps it was the effect of the medicine, but elder Chai's body began to convulse violently. However, very quickly, after exhaling a mouthful of foul air, his originally deathly pale face gradually turned rosy.

"I knew that you would definitely come!"

This was the first sentence that old Chai said after he found his voice.

He had sat in that position for decades, walked through bloody storms, enjoyed wealth and fame, but in the end, he was still born empty-handed, crossing the river of helplessness empty-handed.

"I'll have to trouble Mr. Ray to help me retrieve something ..."

Elder Chai took in a deep breath as though he was trying to calm the pressure on his internal organs.

Lei Xiao got up.

Soon, he returned with an old rosewood box.

Old Chai's eyes were filled with memories as he looked at the box.

But he didn't take it.

"I thought I would never need to use it in my life ..."

Old Chai sighed, but the image of those loyal confidants who had been eliminated by this group of people in order to protect him appeared in his mind, and his eyes turned red.

“Help me, ring it.”

The night sky was filled with twinkling stars.

...

When a signal flare broke through the night sky, a dangerous airflow began to surge in the quiet air.

In Hua Ji’s headquarters.

Elder mu, who had fallen asleep, suddenly opened his eyes.

His eyes were sharp and painful.

The signal flare ...

It was left behind by the old guys when they came to country G to make a living. They promised each other that no matter what kind of opposition the brothers went into in the future, no matter what kind of ending they ended up in, as long as they were alive, whoever rang the bell, they would come to see each other for the last time, even if they were separated by mountains of knives and seas of fire.

One last time!

At the same time, Shangguan shixiu also raised his head to look at the sky.

“Young master ...”

Uncle Liang looked at him worriedly and put his coat on Shangguan shixiu.

But he saw a faint smile slowly appear on Shangguan shixiu’s handsome and pale face.

...

His pupils were as black as ink.

The royal family.

Su bu, who was wearing a thin coat, stood on the balcony, but the people beside her didn’t even dare to breathe.

His hands were tightly gripping the balcony’s carved handrails, and his brows were tightly furrowed.

First wangfei Amya and second wangfei shamaka also woke up. They stood at the same position on the balcony and looked at the position where the signal flare was fired. Each of them had their own thoughts and plans.

The shops on the streets near the Hong gang began to close their doors and refuse to receive any customers. In a short period of time, the bustling Commercial Street was like a Dead City. The tourists stood on the street and looked at each other, feeling baffled.

But soon, the movements that came from all directions were unforgettable.

A dark mass of people came out from every corner, their expressions solemn and painful, quiet and orderly. Everything seemed like a movie, and people subconsciously retreated.

Everyone was heading in the same direction!

Hong gang's headquarters!

Lin Hanxing and the others, who were in the Hong gang's headquarters, had no idea about all these changes.

"Lin girl, you might not know this, but at the beginning, the Hong gang and Hua Ji were one. I just didn't want to be under old man mu ..."

Recalling the past, old Chai smiled bitterly.

People had to pay for their own stupidity, no matter when the punishment came.

"All these years, I've been causing trouble for Hua Ji, just to prove that I'm better than him. It's a joke that I only understand now that I'm not as good as him. I've lost from the beginning."

Old Chai looked at the mess in the Hong gang's headquarters and smiled bitterly.

A lifetime's worth of hard work couldn't even withstand the villain's overnight subversion. He had lost completely and was convinced!

The remaining members of the Hong gang started to panic. They didn't expect that they would be turned around one day. They were about to face the unknown, and their faces were full of fear.

"What other wishes do you have?"

Lin Hanxing's voice was calm and cold, without any fluctuations. Even Ong felt an indescribable sense of oppression when he heard it, as if there was an unmoving hostility in the air ...

"I want them all to be buried with my subordinates!"

As you wish.
