

Goodnight 1591

Chapter 1591

1591 Playing too low-end

Even after the second Prince was carried away, the crowd still had not recovered from their shock.

Although they had always known that this person was out of tune, there was probably not a single Prince in the entire royal family of country G's 13 states who had fainted because of a strange reason like 'excessive indulgence'!

Su bujian was not sure if she was angry, but she left with Zhan Nanheng after a few words.

The second Princess Consort's blood was boiling. When su bu had completely disappeared from her sight, she suddenly turned around and glared at Lin Hanxing.

That gaze was no different from eating his flesh and drinking his blood.

Although the second Princess Consort did not have any evidence, she was sure that it was Lin Hanxing!

On the other hand, Lin Hanxing calmly reached out and took a glass of champagne from the tray of the terrified attendant beside him.

With a faint smile, he raised his glass to the second Princess Consort.

It was a simple action, but it ignited the second Princess Consort's anger!

"Enough!"

Simbu senanda stood beside his sister and scolded her in a low voice.

Even if they knew that Lin Hanxing was the one behind this, they would only be seen as being unreasonable without any concrete evidence. At this point where a slight change could affect the whole situation, they must not panic!

"You better keep it!"

Simbu senanda warned the second Princess Consort.

He had a feeling that even though she seemed calm and collected now, that woman might be up to something big, just waiting for them to walk into her trap.

"Third brother!"

The second Princess Consort could not believe her ears.

"Do you want to embarrass farrick even more?"

Hearing that it would affect her son, the second Princess Consort managed to suppress her impulse. Even so, her pair of venomous eyes did not move away from Lin Hanxing.

Sinbu senanda didn't have the time to care about his sister's feelings, because he was thinking about something else.

Tin ore!

Who would have thought that the Li family had already taken control of the lifeline of the newly discovered tin mine in country G?

To be more precise, it was not the Li family who controlled the lifeline of the tin mine, but ...

She!

If the senanda family could get involved in the tin business ...

There was a scheming look in sinbu senanda's eyes as he looked in Lin Hanxing's direction.

When the second Princess Consort saw that not only was her third brother not going to speak up for her, but he was also looking at Lin Hanxing with such an eager gaze, she was so angry that she could not get over it!

But ...

On second thought, the second Princess Consort's ugly expression was slightly restrained. Thinking about what would happen later, she felt secretly happy.

She didn't believe that after such a scandal, Thunder valiant beast could still sit still!

As she thought about this, the second Princess Consort gave song Zhiyun a look without saying anything.

He didn't know that in the dark, the elder who was smiling like the Maitreya Buddha had also made the same hint.

After receiving the double message, song Zhiyun mustered his courage and walked towards Lin Hanxing. The hand holding the wine glass couldn't help but tremble.

Everyone stopped what they were doing when they saw this.

There's a good show?

"Bai Xi ..." He said.

"I'll do it."

Before Lin Hanxing could finish his sentence, Gong Chen had already grabbed the handle of song Chenxi's wheelchair. The men behind him naturally retreated to the back and stood still.

Lin Hanxing looked at Gong Chen deeply and did not say anything.

Song Zhiyun had already walked up to her.

"Miss Lin ..."

Song Zhiyun had just started speaking when he heard the sound of someone panting.

She turned her head and saw a little pink Pig in a white ballet skirt looking at her with round eyes.

"....."

Song Zhiyun actually forgot the lines he had prepared for a long time.

“Um ...”

little Hanxing, according to the pattern of the overbearing President falling in love with me in the novel, she should be trying to pour the wine on you!

Yan beiming acted like a master and pinched two fingers together.

“.....”

“If not, you hit her to make her feel better!”

“.....”

“Or she drugged you so that you’ll be in a bad state!”

“.....”

...

“Shut up!”

The expressionless Liang yuran couldn’t bear to listen any longer. He reached out and covered Yan beiming’s mouth, wishing he could feed him two tubes of enema so that his mouth would stop talking so much!

Song Zhiyun’s hand that was holding the wine trembled. He felt that the plan couldn’t be carried out.

Lin Hanxing’s lips curved into a playful smile.

The second Princess Consort’s methods were really beyond her expectations ...

Low-end.

She was afraid that the peaceful atmosphere in the royal family had made her lose her fighting power, and even the plan she came up with was so unpresentable? To think that she had so much hope in her heart before coming here. Who would have thought that she would be so disappointed?

If the second Princess Consort knew what Lin Hanxing was thinking, she would probably vomit blood in front of everyone!

“Do you remember what uncle Jin told you?”

Just as song Zhiyun’s mind was completely blank, a voice suddenly rang out in her ears. It was like a thunderclap, causing her eyes to widen.

Lin Hanxing’s smile did not change.

...

Yes!

How could Lin Hanxing not know that the first princess Consort had secretly helped him? Perhaps this was a trap set up by Lin Hanxing from the beginning to the end, waiting for her to take the bait!

Song Zhiyun, who understood this, took a step back reflexively!

She didn't expect Lin Hanxing to suddenly grab song Zhiyun's wrist in the next second and pull her back in front of her. His pair of majestic eyes met with hers at such a close distance.

"Did you remember it?"

The conversation between the two could only be heard by a few people who were very close to them. Others could only vaguely see the shape of their mouths.

"Remember ... Remember it well!"

Song Zhiyun's lips trembled. How could he not answer?

"Very good," he said.

The smile on Lin Hanxing's face disappeared with these two words, and his hand that was holding song Zhiyun's wrist tightened.

With a loud splash, the glass of wine splashed onto song Zhiyun's face in front of everyone. The speed and strength of the splash were so fast that the people who were watching the show couldn't react in time!

"Get lost!"

A bone-chilling voice suddenly rang in everyone's ears, and everyone who heard it felt their hearts tremble.

Perhaps Lin Hanxing's previous performance was too 'approachable', causing people to forget about the terrifying rumors about her. Seeing this situation, everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

This was the way!

She was indeed the terrifying woman in the legends!

The second Princess Consort broke another nail!

"What do you want to do now?"

Simbu senanda noticed his sister's unusual reaction, and his expression immediately turned ugly. He knew her well, and he was afraid that things would not end well today!

third brother, don't worry. After today, I'll definitely bring the senanda family back to its peak!

Return to the peak?

Hearing this, sinbu senanda's heart skipped a beat.

He had a deep understanding of his sister's intelligence. He would not even believe a punctuation mark when she made an overconfident promise, but ...

From the looks of it, it was too late to stop him now!

Just as he was thinking about this, a man dressed as a waiter approached Lin Hanxing with an anxious expression. He lowered his head and said something.

Lin Hanxing raised his eyebrows and left with the waiter.

Chapter 1592

1592 Who fell into whose trap

Seeing this, the second Princess Consort's tightly furrowed brows finally relaxed in satisfaction.

"It's done, just wait and see!"

However, sinbu senanda was not as optimistic as her.

She did not know if Lin Hanxing had given her too much of a shock, but there was a lingering haze in her heart tonight.

It seemed to be a sign of something.

"No matter what you want to do, I advise you to give up!"

Sinbu senanda tried his best to control his expression, lowered his voice, and spoke through gritted teeth.

"Third brother, why have you become so timid after you've secured your high position?"

The second Princess Consort obviously did not listen to his advice anymore.

"Don't worry, that Lin has schemed against me so many times. I'm just repaying her a little. Besides ... There are so many people here. She can't possibly kill me, can she?"

The second Princess Consort's words were full of pride.

"Don't worry,"

Patting her third brother's hand, the second Princess Consort picked up her wine glass and went to the side to make small talk.

Not only did sinbu senanda not feel relieved, but his eyelids also twitched a few times.

Hopefully, nothing major would happen ...

.....

The dark corner of the royal family.

The waiter who was leading the way had fallen to the ground unconscious.

Lin Hanxing looked down at the other party, the corners of his eyes and the tips of his brows were cold.

"Ninth young lady."

The smiling uncle Jin didn't seem to have any ruthlessness in his attack. The people standing beside him were all trusted aides that he had trained for Zhan Nanheng in a short period of time after he had been arranged to be by Zhan Nanheng's side.

Lin Hanxing looked at his watch.

In less than a minute, Zhan Nanheng arrived with his men.

the second Princess Consort actually wanted to help us design an affair scene. How confident is she in her intelligence? ”

Zhan Nanheng's handsome face was full of sarcasm, and his words didn't hide his contempt for the other party.

Behind him, there was a person in a cloak. His face was covered, so no one could tell if he was a man or a woman.

“Let's go,” he said.

Lin Hanxing didn't even look at the waiter on the ground and let uncle Jin and the others deal with him.

Under Zhan Nanheng's lead, they quickly arrived at the place where the second Prince had been sent to rest. At this time, the second Prince's confidant was anxiously waiting for them. When he saw Lin Hanxing's face, his eyes lit up.

“Miss Lin, you're here.”

The second Prince's confidant, who was originally extremely flustered about what was going to happen next, seemed to have taken a calming pill the moment he saw her. His hands stopped trembling and his heart stopped panicking.

“Are you scared?”

Lin Hanxing looked at the second Prince's trusted aide. He had been doing a good job since the start of the cooperation.

“I'm scared, I'm scared to death!”

The second Prince's confidant made a bitter face. Miss Lin's plan was about to succeed. He was afraid that the second Princess Consort's first fate would be him. But during this period of time, he also understood that as long as he did not play tricks with her and was honest, this master would definitely not treat anyone who followed her badly.

“I will ensure your safety.”

Lin Hanxing promised, then led his men inside.

“A!”

Even though they had already walked far away, the second Prince's confidant couldn't help but reply.

After being uneasy for so long, he had finally obtained this life-saving talisman!

How could he not be happy?

“This person is quick-witted.”

The deeper they went, the more certain Zhan Nanheng was.

To be able to send them away so thoroughly, as if there was no one else around, the other party must have spent a lot of effort.

“After today, you can keep him by your side.”

The second Prince had no lack of capable people by his side, but it was a pity that he was a hopeless case. It was no wonder that in the short period of time after Zhan Nanheng’s return, he had ordered people to poach all the people around him.

Zhan Nanheng nodded and pushed open the door.

“The effect of the drug will last for half an hour, enough time for us to move the person over.”

Lin Hanxing looked coldly at the second Prince, who was lying on the bed. Even his voice did not have any ripples.

At this moment, the second Princess Consort, who was outside, probably thought that she had already fallen into her trap. It was not difficult for Lin Hanxing to guess what kind of smug smile she had on her face at this moment. She was just waiting for the moment when the net was pulled in.

But ...

Who had fallen into whose trap?

Who became whose prey?

he’s already here. Are you sure you have the courage to make a move later? ”

Lin Hanxing’s words were directed at the person behind Zhan Nanheng, who was wearing a cloak and had his face covered.

“I’ve been waiting for this moment for decades!”

The voice came from under the cloak, trembling with forbearance. Anyone could hear the deep and bone-deep hatred hidden in these words!

“Not to mention anything else, even if you tell me to kill him right now, I will do it immediately!”

The second Princess Consort had been in the limelight for decades, and the senanda family had also followed her for decades. They had waited so long for this opportunity to take revenge, so how could they give it up?

Lin Hanxing smiled.

“Kill him? Wouldn’t that be letting the second Princess Consort off too easily?”

When dealing with an enemy, between a short moment of pain and a long period of torture, which was the most satisfying? was there a need to say?

"You're right!"

Holding back the tears that were about to flow out of her eyes, the almost twisted face under the cloak finally returned to its original calm.

...

However, his eyes were constantly locked on to the moving farick.

"Send him over,"

He would send farick to the room where the second Princess Consort was confident that she could plot against Lin Hanxing and Zhan Nanheng. She would let him have a taste of what it was like to go for wool and come home shorn.

Zhan Nanheng waved his hand, and someone acted silently.

The cloaked man also left.

"I haven't congratulated you on taking in the Hong gang and Hua Ji."

There was a smile on Zhan Nanheng's handsome features, and he didn't have the slightest bit of arrogance that he had to put on when facing outsiders. However, the words he said instantly made Lin Hanxing grit his teeth.

if we didn't know each other, you might have already been hospitalized.

It had been a long time since Zhan Nanheng had been so happy.

your small shoulders are carrying the entire Chinese society of country G. Fortunately, I managed to cozy up to you half a year earlier. Otherwise, I wouldn't even be able to drink a mouthful of meat soup now.

Zhan Nanheng patted Lin Hanxing's shoulder, looking like he was begging for mercy.

"Quickly shut up!"

At the mention of Hua Ji, she couldn't help but think of how old man mu had left everything else to him and ran off to Jiang city to have a good time! I'm so angry, but I have to keep smiling.

"I'm not going to play with you anymore. We should go."

The smile on Zhan Nanheng's face disappeared, and he returned to his cold and expressionless self.

Lin Hanxing looked at him and could not help but recall the first time they met in Jiang city.

"Don't look at me like that, I might really fall in love with you!"

Zhan Nanheng only dared to say this when Lei Xiao was not around.

If the Thunder valiant beast was here, he would not be able to see the sun the next day!

Zhan Nanheng's body trembled as he imagined the scene.

Zhan Nanheng, I'll send you to the top and get everything you want.

Lin Hanxing chuckled, but his eyes were serious.

"Then thanks, little childhood friend!"

Chapter 1593

1593 She screamed, it was retribution

Looking at Lin Hanxing and the others who pushed the door open and entered, song Zhiyun, who was standing on the side, shivered.

Just a moment ago, farick had been thrown onto the bed like a piece of trash. Even his clothes had been stripped clean.

But even so, he did not have any intention of waking up.

Lin Hanxing stood with his back to the bed, his white fingers casually fiddling with the roses in the vase. He turned a deaf ear to the movement behind him, but his eyes fell on song Zhiyun's face.

That face was so delicate and fair that there were no traces of her ruthlessly scratching it.

Realizing that he was being stared at by Lin Hanxing, song Zhiyun felt as if he had been struck by lightning. He was like a small animal in the forest that had been targeted by a fierce beast. He didn't dare to move, afraid that he would bring bad luck to himself.

At Lin Hanxing's feet, there were a few royal servants who were tied up.

His mouth was tightly gagged, and he could only make some 'mm mm Wu Wu' sounds, as if he wanted to attract the attention of the people outside.

These people could be considered the only available talents under the second Princess Consort.

"Shh."

Lin Hanxing stretched out his hand and smiled as he made a shushing gesture.

There was a dead silence.

Even Zhan Nanheng's men couldn't help but slow down and hold their breaths, not to mention the ones tied up on the ground. They were afraid of disturbing Lin Hanxing.

Lin Hanxing waved at song Zhiyun.

Even though his brain was screaming for him not to go over, song Zhiyun's legs seemed to have a consciousness of their own. They automatically walked towards Lin Hanxing and stopped only when they were an arm's length away from him.

"When the time is up, you can shout."

Lin Hanxing, who said this, reached out and pinched song Zhiyun's chin, forcing her to look up at him.

"Scream hard."

Song Zhiyun didn't dare to move. His long eyelashes trembled in fear, and his flower-like face was full of forbearance.

"What exactly do you want to do?"

She mustered up the courage to ask the question in her heart.

"Won't you know later?"

The smile on Lin Hanxing's face didn't waver, but it made song Zhiyun even more afraid for no reason. Thinking of the child in her stomach that she regarded as her life-saving talisman, she subconsciously reached out to cover her stomach.

Noticing song Zhiyun's action, Lin Han's eyes darkened.

Suddenly, he thought of something and his eyes narrowed dangerously.

Song Zhiyun was even more afraid. He changed his hand from covering to covering and slightly arched his body in a protective stance.

"Your children are children, but what about Chenxi's children?"

The little cutie who had yet to come to this world to take a look was pushed into the abyss by the person in front of him.

Song Zhiyun subconsciously retreated.

However, Lin Hanxing suddenly pinched her cheeks, and she pulled back the distance between them.

It hurt ...

"You should be glad that I never lay a hand on children."

This was Lin Hanxing's bottom line, but it had become the only life-saving talisman in song Zhiyun's hands.

"Ninth young lady ..."

Uncle Jin's voice came from nearby.

Song Zhiyun felt his face relax, and the life-threatening sense of danger faded a lot. Taking advantage of this moment of peace, she opened her mouth and breathed quickly, like a fish that was about to die of thirst, struggling on the verge of death.

"Feed him."

As soon as he finished speaking, uncle Jin had already opened the second Prince's jaw and poured the medicinal liquid in.

With a gulp, farick swallowed it.

Soon, there was a strange movement in the room, which made people blush and their hearts beat faster.

Eric's expression was subtle, but when he saw the expressionless Lin Hanxing, he straightened his face and pretended not to hear anything. He was as serious as he could be.

"You two stay here, the rest of you leave."

Lin Hanxing reached out and pointed at song Zhiyun and the cloaked man behind Zhan Nanheng.

The others quickly left.

The three of them were the only ones left in the large room.

"Now, go up and leave as many traces as possible."

Lin Hanxing didn't even look at song Zhiyun, but song Zhiyun knew that he was talking to her. She took off her clothes without hesitation and acted according to what the first princess Consort had told her to do.

But ...

What did that person do?

Next ...

What would happen?

However, song Zhiyun's curiosity couldn't overcome the drug that was taking effect on farrick. As soon as he touched the drug, he was pulled over. Even the curtains were pulled down and spread open ...

The commotion inside was getting more and more intense.

However, the deathly silence outside was even more prominent.

"Here."

A sharp blade appeared in Lin Hanxing's hand, and he handed it to the cloaked man.

He trembled.

A pair of fair hands stretched out from the cloak. Her round nails were clean and clear, and it was obvious that she had taken good care of herself.

Su Shou took the sharp blade, and his cloak and hat fell.

The face of an older woman covered in tears was clearly presented in front of Lin Hanxing.

Her eyes were filled with hatred, but there was no sign of nervousness. In fact, there was a hint of anticipation.

"That medicine can not only make people fall in love, it can also help to coagulate blood. You just need to do what you want to do."

The rest of the matter would be settled by them.

After Lin Hanxing finished speaking, he walked past the older woman and headed towards the door that Zhan Nanheng and the others had left through.

...

"Thank you ..."

A trembling voice came from behind him ...

.....

Fresh air blew into his face.

It also blew away the frustration in Lin Hanxing's heart.

Uncle Jin walked out from the dark.

"The mute uncle will meet up with us on the day we leave the snow orchid."

Ever since the mute uncle left the Hong gang with Ong that day, he had not returned except for that text message.

"After so many years, he has finally gotten what he wanted."

Uncle Jin squinted his eyes and his smile was filled with emotion.

Zhan Nanheng stood beside them, his face devoid of the dignity of a Prince. As the two of them chatted, he kept looking at the closed door.

Even though he could not see anything.

"What's the hurry?"

Lin Hanxing said indifferently.

From here, one could clearly hear the noise of the banquet outside. It was only a short distance, but it was as if they lived in two different worlds.

"Let's wait. Soon, the second Princess Consort's retribution will come."

.....

At this time, the second wangfei was at the banquet, exchanging pleasantries with the noble ladies with ease. At the same time, she secretly paid attention to the various socialites present. She picked and picked, but she could not pick a single one that could really satisfy her.

Either their looks did not match, or their family background was too ordinary. In short ...

She was very dissatisfied with the second Princess Consort!

Today, she had invited all the rich ladies in Xuelan to the event. One of the reasons was to let everyone enjoy Lin Hanxing's scandal, and the other was to help farik choose a wife who could help him rise to power.

The second Princess Consort could not help but look in the direction that Lin Hanxing had left in ...

And she was not the only one who was doing this.

Simbu senanda held a glass of wine and kept an eye on the situation. His heart, which was filled with uneasiness due to the unknown situation, was still shrouded in haze.

Until ...

“Ah ...”

A shrill scream pierced the night sky and instantly lit up the second Princess Consort’s eyes.

It’s done?

Chapter 1594

1594 Bitter fruit

The second Princess Consort clenched her wine glass, unable to hide the joy in her eyes.

The shocked guests around them started to discuss, and the entire banquet became noisy and uneasy.

The second Princess Consort subconsciously took two steps forward, but her arm was pulled back by the nanny beside her.

He stopped.

“President Lei.”

The nanny whispered.

The second wangfei belatedly remembered her purpose, and almost delayed the important matter because she was too happy. She looked at the nanny approvingly, then changed into an anxious look and walked toward the Thunder valiant beast.

Simbu senanda felt as if his head was about to explode!

From the moment he screamed, his heart felt like it was struck by lightning.

Seeing that the second Princess Consort still wanted to provoke Lei Xiao, it was as if some confusion in his mind had been lifted. He finally understood what stupid things his sister was thinking about!

Or rather, he had already done something stupid!

The Thunder valiant beast must not be provoked!

Simbu senanda wanted to rush over to stop her, but before he could make his next move, the second Princess Consort had already walked up to Lei Xiao!

This idiot!

Was she trying to drag the entire family down with her?!

“Mr. Ley ...”

The second Princess Consort pretended to be worried, but she didn't know that at this time, she was exuding an aura of "causing trouble doesn't mind it" inside and outside. With that kind of pretentious posture, if it wasn't for the need of the plot, Lei Xiao really just wanted her to get lost.

"I think it's miss Lin's voice!"

Are you deaf?

How could that be a cold star?

Even though he thought so in his heart, Lei Jing's face was still as cold as usual.

"Do you want to go and take a look? What if something really happened to miss Lin ..."

The second Princess Consort deliberately spoke in a half-concealed manner, but her voice was not low. The people around her looked over and made various guesses in their hearts. When they looked over again, it was obvious that something was wrong.

"Lead the way,"

Lei Xiao's words were like gold, but his expression had already turned cold.

This was the effect that the second Princess Consort wanted!

After making sure that everyone was following behind her, the second Princess Consort did not even pause as she walked towards the place she had planned out. The pride and joy of her imminent success made the second Princess Consort's entire body swell up.

Naturally, she could not see Yan beiming and the others rolling their eyes behind her.

The guests looked at each other, and after giving each other a signal with their eyes, they also followed to watch the show.

the sound came from here. Look for it!

When they were about to reach the place, the second consort deliberately set up a maze and signaled the attendants to search around. She deliberately led Lei Xiao and the guests in circles until the low air pressure enveloped Lei Xiao at a speed visible to the naked eye. When the people around him did not even dare to breathe, uncontrollable screams rang in everyone's ears again.

A man's voice could be heard faintly.

"Over there ..."

The guests were whispering to each other.

"I seem to have heard ..."

Before someone could finish his sentence, he was elbowed by someone beside him. His eyes hinted at the Thunder valiant beast's direction, and the surroundings returned to a dead silence.

The second Princess Consort pretended to hesitate.

"Open the door."

When Lei Xiao's voice rang out again, Jiang Xibao walked out directly from behind. Her chubby, fair face was full of anger. Everyone watched as she lifted her foot and kicked the door with a loud bang.

After two creaks, the door that was as solid as a rock fell down weakly in front of everyone.

"....."

"....."

"....."

The girl looked so fair and clean, but why was she so bold?

The second Princess Consort was the first to recover from her shock. Her eyes indicated to the nanny to rush in first. The voice that she had planned to make did not sound in the next second.

"Don't you want to go in and take a look?"

lei xiao's deep voice rang in her ears, causing the second princess consort's heart to tremble.

however, before the second princess consort could react, she saw the wet nurse rush out, covered in blood. her hair was messy, and she looked like she was about to collapse. even her pupils began to dilate.

this scene completely frightened the guests who had come to watch the fun.

"two ... two ..."

the nanny seemed to be holding something in her hand. no one had noticed it at first, but with her trembling voice and movements, almost everyone saw what the blood in her hand was!

oh ...

some people started to retch on the spot.

"Two what two! Where was he? Where is he?"

The second Princess Consort thought that the wet nurse was calling her and subconsciously felt that the act seemed to be a little too much. But when she saw clearly that the wet nurse was holding a man's ..., Her heart was suddenly overjoyed!

Could it be ...

Did Lin Hanxing's intense resistance cripple Eric?

This was an unexpected surprise!

The nanny's face was full of fear, and she could not even say anything. The second Princess Consort was anxious, pushed the nanny away, and rushed in by herself. She did not notice that Lei Xiao, who was standing in the same place, was slowly curling his thin lips into a mocking smile.

The room was filled with the strong smell of blood. Seeing that the second Princess Consort did not care about this at all and rushed into the room, the smile on her face froze when she saw the interior.

How did he ...

Not Lin Hanxing?

He looked at the woman who was kneeling by the bed and crying non-stop, even the makeup on her face was ruined, but ...

...

He did not look like Lin Hanxing at all!

And the man lying on the bed with blood flowing out of his body wasn't the Eric she had imagined. Instead, he was more like ... Her son?

Realizing this, the expression on the second Princess Consort's face, which she had not had time to restrain herself, became distorted. It was as if her rationality had been forcibly cut off by someone as she staggered and ran toward the bed curtain!

"F-farik ..."

Her voice was sharp, like a chicken that had its feathers plucked. Her high-pitched voice made the guests outside tremble.

"It's so lively."

A faint female voice came from behind everyone.

Everyone turned around.

The person at the center of the conversation was standing leisurely not far from them. Eric Zhan Nanheng and his men were on his left and right. At the same time, under his gaze, his men surrounded the outside. The murderous aura was so cold that it made people shudder.

"What's wrong? The banquet has been changed to here?"

Lin Hanxing said as he walked towards Lei Xiao. His eyes seemed to sweep across the wet nurse who was lying on the ground like a pile of mud, leaning against the door that had been kicked over ... And the things in her hands.

The man's large palm suddenly fell.

It blocked her line of sight.

"Dirty."

That kind of thing was dirty even for dogs.

Lin Hanxing's long eyelashes brushed across Lei Xiao's palm. If not for the inappropriate location, she would have laughed out loud.

"Lin Hanxing! Lin Hanxing!"

As they were talking, a piercing scream came from inside the room. People were shouting Lin Hanxing's name, and every word was filled with hatred. Everyone could feel that something was wrong!

Some of them even tried to leave, but before they could, Eric Zhan Nanheng's men were one step ahead and blocked them.

"Second Princess Consort, I'm here."

Lin Hanxing reached out to remove Lei Xiao's hand and responded to the people in the room with a cold smile.

Chapter 1595

1595 Taste it yourself

She took two steps forward, then stopped and turned around.

Everyone who was swept by Lin Hanxing's gaze took a step back, as if they were afraid that they would be on her blacklist.

"Since you're already here, why don't you come in and take a look?"

Lin Hanxing invited with a smile.

Perhaps she was too good at bewitching people, but someone actually stood up.

Anyway ...

Even if someone wanted to silence them, weren't there still Lei Xiao and Lin Hanxing in front of them?

The other guests looked at each other. For this kind of thing, as long as there was a leader, the people behind would not be able to stop. Even if they knew how dangerous it was, since they couldn't get out now, they might as well follow with the determination to be a ghost who knew what happened even if they died!

"No, no, you can't go in!"

The nanny seemed to wake up from a dream and hurriedly reached out to stop him.

However, before he could even get close to Lin Hanxing, he was already kicked to the ground by Lei Xiao's underlings.

She was in so much pain that she kept crying out in pain.

There was no sign of the treachery and deviousness he had shown when he was giving advice to the second Princess Consort.

Lin Hanxing did not even stop. He did not even bother to look at the wet nurse as he strode coldly into the storm of blood.

At this moment, the second Princess Consort was holding onto farik, who was bleeding profusely, and screaming at the top of her lungs. If looks could kill, Lin Hanxing would have been torn into pieces the moment he saw her!

Simbu senanda, who had followed the guests in, almost suffocated!

He rushed to the bed, not even caring if he bumped into someone. He looked down at everything in front of him, his mind blank.

Farick ... Was crippled?

How could a man who had been crippled sit firmly on the throne?

What about the senanda family?

What to do?

“Doctor! Doctor!”

The second Princess Consort could no longer care about her face. Seeing that her son was on the verge of death and was only breathing out but not breathing in, her tears burst out.

“Ah, it’s song Zhiyun!”

Someone shouted in a hurry, breaking the dead silence in the room.

It wasn’t until this moment that the other guests who had followed them in realized that the woman kneeling by the bed with disheveled clothes was song Zhiyun, who had been outside just a moment ago. His fragile appearance in the rain made people feel a chill in their hearts.

Did something happen to the second Prince when he was with her?

The second Prince ... When did he get together with song Zhiyun?

Back then, the incident of the song family’s twin daggers in danger had caused an uproar in the entire snow orchid. There was even a rumor that one was in critical condition, and the other’s whereabouts were unknown.

But in reality, song Chenxi’s life was in danger, and song Zhiyun’s whereabouts were unknown ...

Just a smoke bomb?

Was she trying to cover up the relationship between her and the second Prince?

The guests’ minds had already begun to wander. No matter what the truth was, they only had to think in the most reasonable direction!

Noticing the strange gazes from the people around him, Simbu senanda was the first to react. No matter why song Zhiyun had been with farick in such a disheveled state, from now on, he couldn’t allow any rumors that were unfavorable to farick to spread!

The second Princess Consort was also aware of this!

She turned her head stiffly and looked at song Zhiyun with an extremely gloomy expression. The latter felt as if he was being stared at by a venomous snake and was about to be torn apart.

“No... It wasn’t me ...”

Song Zhiyun, who felt danger, stuttered.

But it didn't dispel the suffocation at all.

However, xinbu senanda had already made up his mind to shut her up. Before song Zhiyun could finish speaking, two tight slaps landed on her face. The force was so strong that song Zhiyun's face was visibly red and swollen!

"Drag this B * tch away!"

The second Princess Consort gritted her teeth as she spoke. There was a bloody smell in her teeth.

Obviously, he wanted to kill song Zhiyun.

"No!"

Ignoring the pain, song Zhiyun knew that if she was dragged away, she would have no chance at all. She subconsciously covered her stomach with her hands, ignoring the screams of the people present.

I have the second Prince's child in my stomach!!!

One sentence, and the entire space was frozen.

Everyone couldn't help but look at her still flat stomach. The second Princess Consort and Simbu senanda were no exception. However, when Lin Hanxing heard this ...

His lips curled into a smile.

Su bu, who had received the news, came with the doctor.

The doctor couldn't care less about the strange atmosphere in the room and hurried to the bedside. When he saw the scene in front of him clearly, he gasped and broke out in a cold sweat ...

This wound was obviously caused by someone using a sharp blade to cut off that thing at the root!

How was he supposed to handle this?

...

"How's the situation?"

Su bu's voice was low and heavy.

Large beads of sweat rolled down from his forehead. At this time, the doctor could only tell the truth. It was already good enough that he could save his life, so he should not think about asking for more.

As soon as she finished speaking, the second Princess Consort could not take the blow and fell backward.

If it wasn't for Simbu senanda's support, the second Princess Consort would probably have collapsed.

Simbu senanda secretly pinched his sister.

"The child."

She reminded him softly.

Since it was a fact that farik had been crippled, the most important thing for them now was to minimize the damage. Otherwise, the entire senanda family would be buried with him!

“Then, can you help me take a look again and see if this woman is really pregnant?”

The second Princess Consort took a deep breath and grabbed the doctor’s arm with a burning gaze. She did not even care if the blood was smeared on the other party’s body. Her eyes were burning with hope, and the doctor subconsciously took two steps back in fear.

...

Crazy ... Is he crazy?

Song Zhiyun’s heart felt like it was struck by lightning. He looked nervously in Lin Hanxing’s direction, but the latter was bending over to help song Zhiyun, who was sitting in a wheelchair, smooth out the folds of her dress. Her relaxed and leisurely appearance was out of tune with the surrounding environment.

Was this her plan?

The so-called “do you want to be Mrs. Gong or the second Prince’s wife?” This was what he meant?

A crippled second Prince, so what if she became the second Prince’s wife?

Naturally, the doctor couldn’t sense song Zhiyun’s emotional fluctuations. He only did his job and came to song Zhiyun, placing his hand on her wrist.

“From the pulse ... It does look like she’s pregnant, but we still need to do further tests to confirm it!”

Although the doctor was very confident in his medical skills, but ...

It was always better to be cautious.

The second Princess Consort’s gaze fell back on song Zhiyun’s face. On the other hand, Xin bu senanda secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

It was still alright.

No matter how the two of them ended up together, at least farrick still had a bloodline left. This could be considered a blessing in the midst of misfortune!

The guests watched this dramatic scene as if they were watching a TV drama. They didn’t even have time to care about their own comfort. They only wanted to know what would happen in the next second.

“Who can tell me what happened here?”

Su bu’s words broke the silence!

Chapter 1596

1596 An old matter

However, it pulled the atmosphere of the entire room into the somber atmosphere of the Golden Iron Horse.

No one responded to him.

To everyone's surprise, the second Princess Consort, who had thought that she would lose control in the next second, gritted her teeth and did not say a word, even though her face looked as distorted as it could be.

Now that things had come to this, if there was still anyone who could not see that the whole incident was a trap set up against Lin Hanxing, then this group of so-called big bosses in the business world of Xue LAN seemed to be a little too stupid!

However, it was one thing to understand it, but it was another thing to say it out loud. Not to mention, the second Princess Consort obviously had no choice but to swallow her pride. This was a fatal blow to her, who had been domineering in Xuelan all year round!

"Why don't you first ask who did it?"

Lin Hanxing's face was calm, as if he did not know that he was the one who was initially set up.

However, it was also because of this that the second Princess Consort hated him even more!

Su bu's face was gloomy.

Wherever his gaze reached, no one remained silent and no one did not retreat.

"It's me."

A female voice rang out from a dark corner.

Before the voice rang out, no one noticed that there was another person there.

He focused his eyes.

It was no wonder.

When everyone's eyes were on the bloody farick, who would have thought that there was someone silently watching everything from a dark corner?

The woman was still holding the blood-stained blade in her hand. Her dark cloak was invisible, and her eyes were calm, beautiful, and peaceful.

She raised her hand.

There were still drops of blood flowing between her fingers.

The servants who had been surrounding su bu saw this and quickly protected him, staring at him.

With a clang, the sharp blade fell to the ground with blood.

"Bitch! I'm going to kill you!"

Seeing blood, the second Princess Consort was like a bull that had seen red. She rushed madly at the woman. However, just as she got close, she saw the older woman's eyes suddenly burst out with even more crazed hatred than the second Princess Consort's. Like two sharp swords, she stabbed at the other party! Just when everyone thought that she was going to suffer at the hands of the second Princess Consort, she suddenly raised her foot and kicked the second Princess Consort in the abdomen!

He immediately kicked her to the ground!

That strength didn't seem to be from a woman.

Just as the Royal servants were about to rush forward to protect the second Princess Consort, Lin Hanxing's men were one step faster and blocked their way. They were expressionless and steady as a mountain, not moving a single step away.

"Do you still remember me, shamaga? Do you still remember?"

The older woman's hands, which were still stained with blood, grabbed the second Princess Consort's noble hair bun. The pain that she had suppressed all these years was released in an instant. She did not even care how crazy she was now. She just ruthlessly, ruthlessly, vented her anger!

"Argh! It's her!"

All of a sudden, a cry of surprise came from the crowd of guests, as if they had recognized the other party.

"Who is it?"

The young socialites from the wealthy families were obviously very curious. After the first person's exclamation, more and more people recognized the older woman. After all ...

That incident back then had been too Grand.

The doctor Who had been standing next to song Zhiyun ran back to Su bu's side because of the intense battle. On the other hand, Xin bu senanda naturally wouldn't let his sister suffer in front of so many people. Just as he was about to step forward to help, he recognized the other person the moment he raised his head.

He took a deep breath and took a few steps back unnaturally.

His actions were so exaggerated that even the people around him looked at him with suspicion.

"How did you harm my daughter back then? Do you still remember?"

The older woman said coldly. Every word she said was filled with blood and tears. Everyone who heard this question avoided her gaze guiltily, as if this was the only way to forget the past.

It was impossible for anyone of a certain age to not recognize this older woman.

Originally, there were two candidates for the second Princess Consort of the royal family. One was shamaga of the senanda family, and the other was mina, the only daughter of the Harlan family, who was the most favored.

Originally, no one was optimistic about shamaga. After all, compared to the generous, confident and loved mina, the arrogant and domineering shamaga was indeed not a good choice! There were even people who said that as long as they were not blind, they would not give up mina and choose shamaga.

However, some people were also worried that she would use some special means to achieve her goals. The Harlan family also had the same worry and had been on guard.

However, in the end, an 'unexpected' accident still happened. No one would have thought that she would only get infected with a minor illness that was not a big problem in the eyes of the people now after attending an event in China. Mina actually passed away not long after she returned to the country.

This news shocked the entire snow orchid!

Although some people had linked Mina's death to the second Princess Consort, the day of the official announcement of the candidate list could not be any closer. In fact, everyone was very clear that as long as mina was still alive ...

The position of second Princess Consort must have been replaced by someone else!

However, everything came to an abrupt end on that day.

The candidate for the second Princess Consort had also fallen into the hands of shamaga without any suspense.

The people of the Harlan family naturally demanded a thorough investigation of this incident. The chief of the Harlan family even knelt in front of the royal family for three days and three nights without eating or drinking just to get a basic explanation for his beloved junior ...

In the end ...

The guests of the prestigious families of Xue LAN who recalled the events of the past had subtle expressions on their faces. In fact, if Mina's mother had not reappeared today, very few people would still remember the words 'Harlan family'.

This was because ...

Not long after she married into the royal family, the senanda family began to madly suppress the entire industrial chain of the Harlan family in country G. Then, they forced the Harlan family to sell their assets to the senanda family at an extremely low price.

...

The unsightly manner of eating and the greed in people's hearts were simply unheard of in a hundred years.

The reason why the senanda family was able to develop to its current level was mostly because of the Harlan family!

Who would have thought that in such a short period of time, a hundred-year-old family would completely disappear, even laying the foreshadowing for the turmoil in the yuan family back then?

"You didn't expect this, did you? Will we ever meet again?"

The older woman sneered and spat at the battered second wangfei's face. She did not have the slightest fear of the royal family's authority, but it made people feel extremely satisfied!

"You killed my daughter and I destroyed your son. What a fair deal! Don't you think so, shamaga?"

Chapter 1597-karma

It's a fart!

What was mi na? What was the Harlan family? How could they be compared to him?

Were they worthy?

The second wangfei did not hide her thoughts and it was all on her face. Not to mention the older woman, even the guests who were watching were a little angry. That attitude of "you lowly commoners are not worthy of being mentioned in the same breath as me" was really disgusting.

"Do you have any evidence?"

The second Princess Consort did not forget to sneer as she said this.

It had been decades since the incident. Let alone evidence, even Mina's body had probably turned into white bones. So what if she told the truth? She could still refuse to admit it and punish her for disrespecting the royal family!

She would never let go of the humiliation she had suffered today until she was skinned alive and had her tendons ripped out!

"Men! Someone come!"

The second wangfei shouted madly, but no one moved because su bu had not given any orders.

In everyone's eyes, she looked more like a lunatic than a sorry state.

"Who said there's no evidence?"

When the cold voice rang in everyone's ears, it made them feel as if they were in a different world. Everyone's eyes also turned to the source of the voice ...

Lin Hanxing had indeed left a backup plan!

Seeing that it was her, that 'coming, coming' feeling finally settled.

That's right, with Lin Hanxing's vengeful personality, how could he allow others to scheme against him and not pay them back double? She was afraid that she had come prepared from the very beginning. The second Princess Consort thought that she had set a trap for her, but in reality, she did not know who was waiting behind the scenes!

The second Princess Consort was stunned at first, then her eyes, which looked like they were going to eat someone, stared at Lin Hanxing's face.

On the other hand, the latter could still smile calmly even in the face of such an ugly face.

Thunder valiant swept his gaze across the area, and his men quickly disappeared.

When he returned, he was carrying a Haggard but still clean man.

The sudden smell of blood made the man want to retch. He subconsciously looked in Lin Hanxing's direction. This was the second time since that night that he had seen this little girl with such a powerful aura.

Xuanji has been peaceful for decades, but it doesn't mean that we can live in peace for the rest of our lives. In a few days, there's a matter from the past that still needs your clarification ...

The man's lips trembled as he recounted how he had colluded with Xuelan and caused min, the candidate for the second Princess Consort, to be infected with the virus. However, he didn't mention the name long qingru at all, perhaps because of elder Yan's intention.

From the beginning to the end, Lin Hanxing just casually fiddled with her nails. Her long, curly hair, which was as black as ink, covered half of the mole at the corner of her eye, giving off an indescribable sense of mystery.

It was as if the series of events in front of her had nothing to do with her.

However, everyone present knew very well ...

This was impossible!

If the commotion that the Lin family's little ninth had caused when she first landed on the snow orchid was enough to alert people, then the magnificent feat of her stirring up the entire snow orchid pool by herself seemed to have determined the complete fall out with the second Princess Consort today!

When the man finished speaking, the whole place fell into dead silence.

Lin Hanxing finally raised his head and looked at the second Princess Consort, who was still standing strong despite her ashen face.

We Chinese believe in karma. Whatever you've done, you'll get what you deserve. If the second Princess Consort was kind, the second Prince wouldn't have to suffer today. Unfortunately ...

Although he said it was a pity, no one could hear the meaning behind it.

Who could not hear Lin Hanxing's unspoken words?

If you, second wangfei, didn't try to scheme against others, how could you have been played at their own game and ended up in this state? At the end of the day, he was the one who sought his own death, and he could not blame others.

Although the older woman had known all these years that the inside story of her daughter's death was not that simple, when she heard the whole process with her own ears, it was another matter!

The Harlan family's glory no longer existed. If he only relied on his own strength, when would he be able to find out the whole thing? When would he be able to kill his enemy and avenge his daughter? And when would he be able to give an explanation to the entire family?

Without her ...

The older woman looked in Lin Hanxing's direction, tears streaming down her face.

She had once said that death was too easy, and that the pain would fade with time. The most important thing was to let these people taste the pain of living and dying at all times.

And now, she had done it.

Because of the medicine injected into Farick's body, he wouldn't die even if he lost so much blood. But what would happen after he woke up?

The older woman's lips slowly curved into a cruel smile.

Simbu senanda subconsciously looked at Su Bu's direction, and almost in the next second, his heart skipped a beat.

He knew too well what Su Busi's eyes meant!

He really wanted to exterminate the Senanda family!

After all, it had been decades. The truth of Mina's death might not be that important. What was important was what the Senanda family had done, and whether Su did not feel that his dignity and authority as a man had been challenged.

This was the most terrifying part!

Farick had been crippled, and the truth had been revealed. All the support of the Senanda family had disappeared tonight, and even the second Princess Consort would lose her position after tonight.

Zhan Nanheng was about to rise!

When he realized the ultimate goal of the whole chain of schemes, Xin Bu Senanda finally understood why he had been suffering and feeling uneasy tonight. It turned out that even if he refused to admit it, he had long regarded Lin Hanxing as an extremely dangerous and untouchable opponent.

The current Sinbu Senanda could not be more regretful. If he had been able to stop his sister decisively at that time, things would not have been so ugly now!

"Lin Hanxing! Lin Hanxing!"

The second Princess Consort naturally understood what Simbu senanda had said. At this time, she was like a crazy female beast. Her appearance reminded people of her mother's crazy appearance after Mina's death decades ago.

...

Ten years East, ten years West.

No one knew what time would bring in the next second.

"I'm here, second Princess Consort."

Lin Hanxing's voice was filled with sarcasm when he said the last three words.

Everyone knew that after tonight's banquet, the name "second Princess Consort" would no longer cause as much trouble as it did in the past. It was not just her, but also the Senanda family behind her.

don't worry. As long as you're alive, I'll always be here.

My ah Xiao can't be hurt just because anyone wants to!

So, second Princess Consort, I'll definitely wait until the day you're betrayed and abandoned by your loved ones. I'll see you in so much pain that you'll wish you were dead.

My reverse scale, my ah Xiao, not just anyone can touch it!

Chapter 1598

1598 The game ends

Lin Hanxing's last sentence was as gentle as he could be.

However, everyone understood the cruelty behind it.

After saying that, Lin Hanxing looked in Song Zhiyun's direction. The latter trembled like a sieve the moment their eyes met.

"Congratulations, you've gotten your wish."

From today onwards, as the last hope of the second Princess Consort's faction, everything you do will be closely monitored by them. In order to ensure the safety of this child, I'm afraid even the amount of food you eat will be strictly controlled. How can they let her use that ointment again? In the days to come, Song Zhiyun would have to endure the physical pain of pregnancy as well as the mental pain of her face rotting. She would have to endure this kind of highly tense life for at least ten months!

According to the second Princess Consort's suspicious personality, she would probably have to wait until Song Zhiyun's fetus was stable before she would do another amniocentesis to make sure that the DNA match was made ...

She did what she said and let Song Zhiyun enjoy the process of becoming the second Prince's wife.

However, would she have the Fortune to last until the end ...

When Song Zhiyun saw the smile on Lin Hanxing's face, it was as if a bucket of cold water had been poured on his head in the middle of winter. His bones were frozen and he felt like he was better off dead.

Lin Hanxing's last sentence had too much meaning!

There were thousands of explanations in the hearts of thousands of people, but the second Princess Consort would probably think a lot.

Why did the second Prince suddenly faint?

How did Lin Hanxing, who was supposed to be with Zhan Nanheng, have his guard up?

How did Lin Hanxing find the witness in advance and insert him in without a sound?

All the signs pointed to ...

There was a traitor by their side!

the rest is your Xue Lan's internal affairs. I can't get involved. Please do as you please.

After saying this, Lin Hanxing really waved his hand, turned around, held Lei Xiao's arm, and left. He didn't even bother to look at what happened after that. Only uncle Jin, who had been standing beside Zhan Nanheng, received the message.

The game ended.

The group left the royal family.

As soon as she walked out of the door, she bumped into Yun Bai, who had a serious expression.

T something happened in Thailand T "

Yun Bai didn't beat around the bush. When he first received the news, he realized the seriousness of the problem. He couldn't get in touch with the phone, so he drove directly to the road outside the royal family.

"Kunkang is dead."

This was the news that had just arrived half an hour ago. At this time, the entire Thailand had fallen into chaos. All forces were quietly watching the changes, waiting for the opportunity to divide up everything under kunkang.

When he heard these words, Lei Xiao subconsciously looked at Lin Hanxing.

The mute uncle had disappeared after leaving with Ong that day. Could this have anything to do with kunkang's death?

No one spoke.

Lin Hanxing's phone rang at that moment.

She glanced at the caller ID and picked up the phone.

"Ninth young lady."

It was the mute uncle.

"Yes, I'm here."

Lin Hanxing raised his head and looked at the boundless night sky. Tonight, they were not the only ones who had gained something. The mute uncle had gained something too.

"I've brought you a gift,"

"Alright," he said.

Ever since aunt Mian passed away, the mute uncle and uncle Jin had been by her side like fathers. No matter what happened, the protective Lin Hanxing would only care about his family.

After a few simple words, he hung up the phone.

Lin Hanxing's eyes never left his phone.

"My people will ensure that the mute uncle leaves country T safely."

Thinking that Lin Hanxing was worried about the mute uncle's safety, Lei Xiao promised in a deep voice.

His power in country T over the years was enough to make such a promise.

Lin Hanxing chuckled and shook his head.

I believe in the mute uncle's ability, so I'm not worried about this. It's just that ... If you have the intention, now is the best time.

Lei Xiao and Lin Hanxing looked at each other.

To talk to smart people, one only needed one thing.

Because of kun Kang's death, country T was in chaos. Ah Xiao had been planning for so long and was waiting for a good opportunity. Now that it had come by chance, he naturally had to seize it!

They looked at each other and smiled.

"Lin Hanxing!"

Before sinbu senanda could get close, he was blocked by someone.

Lin Hanxing turned around and glanced at him impatiently. He was a little disgusted with this kind of insensible person.

"What good would it do you to destroy the senanda family? Do you think that you Chinese can use this opportunity to step on us? You're underestimating us!"

...

Lin Hanxing raised an eyebrow when he heard the ridiculous words.

"This is the last time I'll answer your question ..." He said.

She walked towards sinbu senanda. Perhaps she was in a good mood, but she was willing to put up with him one last time.

"First, the biggest benefit of destroying the senanda family is ... I'm in a good mood now. Secondly, it's not that I'm underestimating you, but from the beginning, you didn't take my warning to heart! So now that things have come to this, you shouldn't blame me, you should blame yourself!"

After saying that, Lin Hanxing turned around and walked back to Lei Xiao's side.

It would be better to go home earlier than to talk to this group of trash.

"Lin Hanxing, you'll die a horrible death sooner or later!"

Simbu senanda felt his blood boil and blurted out the sentence.

No one expected that in the next second, he would be kicked away in a parabola. The kick was so seamless that even Lin Hanxing could not react in time. He only felt a gust of wind blow past his cheek!

Just like how Lin Hanxing's reverse scale was Lei Xiao's, Lei Xiao's reverse scale was also her. Not killing Simbu senanda on the spot was probably because he had used 100% restraint.

Lin Hanxing laughed mockingly.

...

"If you have the ability, then come and kill me personally!"

.....

The mute uncle returned to the Li family the next evening.

Not to mention kun Kang's men, even Lei Xiao's men couldn't find any trace of the mute uncle in Thailand. If he didn't take the initiative to contact Lei Xiao's men, he would have already landed on the snow orchid. With his ability to conceal himself, it was no wonder that Lin Hanxing said he wasn't worried.

Along with the mute uncle, there was also a huge box.

This was also an important reason why he took the initiative to contact Thunder Valiant's men when he was in Thailand. If they had not used other means to get this thing back, the mute uncle might not have been able to return for a while.

In the Li family's Villa.

A group of people surrounded the huge box that had not been opened.

"This is the gift that the mute uncle was talking about?"

Yan beiming shook his head as he walked around the box with the pig in his arms. He even tried to smell it through the cracks. Unfortunately, he did not feel anything. Yuan Kang laughed at his scratching of his head.

Yuan Kang, who had finished sneering, also mimicked Yan beiming's actions and started circling around.

These two idiots!

The other people couldn't help but think the same thing at the same time.

"This size ... Did the mute uncle take all of kunkang's money?"

Lei Xiao had already told him about kun Kang when he came back last night. This morning, Liang yuran had taken a private flight to country T to deal with the related matters. When he returned, he would probably have to see him in Rou city.

"Hey, you don't say, it's really possible!"

Bai Xi clapped his hands, his eyes bright.

On the contrary, song Chenxi, who was sitting in a wheelchair, touched the wood outside with her hand and had a thoughtful expression.

Chapter 1599

1599 gifts

“Mute uncle, don’t keep us in suspense. Tell us quickly!”

The light in Bai Xi’s eyes seemed to be able to light up the room.

The mute uncle shook his head.

As they were talking, Lei min, who had received a call, walked in with Lei min and Lin Hanxing.

“Mute uncle,”

Lin Hanxing walked towards the mute uncle and hugged the man who was like a father to her. All these years, they had been searching for this person. The mute uncle had always hated him. From today onwards ...

They could all disappear.

The mute uncle raised his hand stiffly and patted Lin Hanxing’s back.

“Tsk, it’s so touching.”

Yan beiming picked up the little pig trotter that he had just washed and wiped it on his face.

so, can we start opening the present now?!

Before anyone could react, the speaker suddenly stopped and went straight to the gift.

The others immediately burst out laughing.

The atmosphere in the room also became much more relaxed.

“A gift.”

The mute uncle looked at Lin Hanxing and said each word seriously. His eyes were filled with the love and care of an elder for a junior.

“I’m not a child anymore.”

Even though he said that, Lin Hanxing still opened the huge wooden box with the help of the others. No one expected that there would be another layer of packaging inside.

“It can’t be a Russian box set, right?”

Yan beiming could not help but ridicule.

Lin Hanxing rolled his eyes at him, but Lei Qian seemed to have sensed something and his expression changed.

“Wait! Everyone, wait!”

The usually good-natured Lei min's voice now sounded very urgent, scaring Yuan Kang and the others who were about to continue opening the treasure chests. They stood motionless on the spot, waiting for his orders.

big brother, help me pass my toolbox over.

Lei min first looked at the mute uncle in confusion, then spoke with a slightly excited voice.

Hearing this, Bai Xi's eyes brightened even more. Before Lei Xiao could do anything, he had already run over to help Lei Xiao with his toolbox, thinking only of antiques ...

A valuable antique!

Lei Jing held her breath and opened the sealed box as per her habit. Everyone's eyes widened at the same time, looking forward to peeking inside, wishing they could immediately see the box of golden ingots.

Ka-da ...

The lid was completely removed, and the thing inside was revealed.

When they saw what was inside the box, everyone's expression froze, as if they couldn't believe their eyes. Even Bai Xi's mouth slowly opened wide.

Lin Hanxing's original relaxed posture was completely broken. She was also the fastest to react among all of them. She turned her head and looked at the mute uncle, her eyes flashing with surprise.

"I've opened kunkang's private storage, this thing is inside."

The mute uncle didn't speak for a long time, and his tone sounded a little strange to the ears.

However, no one had the time to care about anything else. Everyone's eyes were fixed on the things in the box.

That was ...

The bronze head of the twelve zodiacs, the chicken head!

One of the four heads that they had been searching for!

The thing that they thought they could only bring back from perejia state had actually appeared in front of them in such a way?

I heard that they were just plundered from Thunderbolt armor. It hasn't even been a week since they were stored in my private storage.

The mute uncle said.

Song Chenxi, who was sitting in a wheelchair, had a faint smile.

As expected.

"Mother of God!"

Bai Xi rubbed her eyes. If it wasn't for the circumstances, she really wanted to reach out and try this thing. Why ... Did her eyes feel a little hot?

At this moment, Lei min was in a super serious state of work.

"It's true,"

It was to the point that he could bet all the glory of his life!

Everyone's nervousness was now gone. An inexplicable sense of joy washed over everyone's nerves. It was a feeling that they couldn't describe in words.

Who would have thought?

Who would've thought that the mute uncle would get such a pleasant surprise when he went to country T?

"My hair is standing on end!"

Jiang Xibao said in a soft voice. He was so happy that his scalp was numb.

...

Lin Hanxing didn't know what to say for a moment. Including the snake head in Xue LAN SU's private warehouse, they had already collected two of the four heads. They only had the sheep head in Rou city and the dog head in Deng Heng ...

"I'll temporarily store it in my private vault in the basement."

When he finally found his voice, Lin Hanxing could feel his vocal cords trembling.

"Why do I feel like a pie is falling from the sky? Whoever slapped me, call me ..."

Pa ...

Yan beixiao stretched out his hand and looked innocently at Yuan Kang, who was covering his face.

"If I don't satisfy you with such a fresh and refined reason, I'd be an idiot!"

He even found the perfect excuse for himself!

"Yan beiming, I'll F * ck your uncle!"

Yuan Kang was so angry that he almost executed Yan Beichen on the spot. He laughed so hard that Bai Xi and Jiang Xibao could not close their mouths. The entire atmosphere in li garden was harmonious and joyous.

"In a few days, we will be going to Rou city."

...

That villa was a private property that su bu had bought for Eric, Zhan Nanheng, in advance. Over the past few days, he had already contacted people to tidy up the villa. He was just waiting for Xue Lan's matters to be settled before moving in.

Hearing Lin Hanxing's words, everyone else stopped what they were doing.

"When we reach Rou city, there are four important things we need to do."

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Lin Hanxing decided to make things clear.

"First, the royal family of Rou city."

"The second thing is about Qin su."

the third thing is about Yuan Bao's mother.

"The fourth matter is the sheep head."

Yan beiming forced his little pig to raise his little pig trotter, and even made a cute expression.

"The audience on the left raises their hands as I do, the audience on the right raises their hands as well ..."

"What's our purpose?"

"Finish the battle quickly!"

Yan beixiao was making things difficult for piglet while he was a guest audience.

"....."

"....."

"....."

"....."

"Shut up!"

After a long period of silence, everyone finally opened their mouths in unison.

Weng.

Yan beixiao shrunk his neck and hugged his little piggy tightly.

Blue and skinny, he wanted to cry.

He was being bullied.

I'm really the most unfortunate person in the world ...

Uh, why did this line sound more and more familiar?

Yan beiming fell into deep thought, even forgetting his pain.

Why can't I remember it?

"Ah!"

Yan beiming's eyes suddenly lit up.

Wasn't this the original work of their classmate Yuan Dabao?

Oh, I miss our chubby and fair student Yuan Dabao.

Lin Hanxing looked at the scene in front of him and the corner of his mouth slowly curved into a faint smile. Then, he felt a familiar wooden fragrance coming from beside him. Lei Xiao's strong and powerful palm was already coming towards him.

Their fingers were interlocked.

"Eh? What about the rest of the items in the private warehouse?"

Bai Xi seemed to have thought of something and looked in the direction of the mute uncle like a little money-grubber.

The latter quickly revealed a mysterious smile.

Chapter 1600

1600 There are no eternal enemies

The royal family of Rou city.

The confidant reported in fear, occasionally peeking at his wangfei's expression from the corner of his eye.

The atmosphere was suffocating.

No one would have thought that the once glorious senanda family backed by the two princesses would withdraw from the stage of history in such a disgraceful way. Was Lin xiaojiu really that powerful?

A loud bang pulled his confidant back to reality.

He was so frightened that his entire body trembled and he hurriedly lowered his head.

The shattered pieces of the porcelain cup on the ground made it impossible to tell that it had once been expensive.

The beautiful face of the second consort of Rou city, Daisy, was twisted.

"Mother,"

When the second Prince Johor walked in from outside, he saw this scene. He sighed, and a steady smile hung on his gentle and elegant face. His eyes indicated for his confidant to leave.

The confidant heaved a sigh of relief and quickly left.

"Mother, there's no need to be angry."

The second Prince of Johor, yeres, consoled him. At least on the surface, he didn't seem to be affected.

Daisy took a deep breath and returned to her calm state in her son's eyes.

"Your aunt, she ..."

“Mother, this is Yimu’s own stupidity. You can’t blame others.”

Yeres smiled elegantly. His every move was like a Prince’s, which was pleasing to the eye, but the words he said made people shudder.

“What should we do now?”

The second consort of Rou city, Daisy, suppressed her frustration and discussed with her son.

Yeres laughed.

“Mother, when it comes to benefits, there are no eternal enemies.”

His aunt and uncles had lost because they wanted to fight too much for who was better.

Why?

but if Lin xiaojiu didn’t have the Thunder valiant beast backing her ...

Yeres gave his mother a sidelong glance and smiled.

“Relying on men is also one of the means of women, just like you.”

Daisy was choked by her son’s words.

so, the process is not important. What matters is the result.

Yeres was still smiling, and he, who was known as the ‘smiling Prince’ by the outside world, had an impeccable smile, which was the biggest label on him.

besides, after reading all this, do you still think she’s completely relying on the Thunder valiant beast? ”

He handed the information in his hand to Daisy.

It recorded everything Lin xiaojiu had done since she landed on the snow orchid.

The more she looked, the more shocked she became.

“In addition to Yuan shaojing’s yuan family, she actually took the entire tin mine and the Huaji Hong gang in such a short time?”

Had she gone crazy, or had the world gone crazy?

No wonder his sister and his family had lost.

“But what if she’s not willing to form an alliance with us?”

Daisy took a deep breath and instantly understood her son’s meaning.

Yeres smiled and didn’t speak.

The atmosphere in the room gradually became tense.

There were only two kinds of people in this world in the eyes of IHEs.

It was useful.

It was useless.

Keep the useful people by your side and make the best use of them ...

It's useless ...

Yeres continued to smile.

"Also ..."

He seemed to have thought of something, and the smile on his face disappeared for the first time tonight.

"That Auntie Qin ..."

After hiding for so many years, why not continue to hide?

This kind of hidden danger that could explode at any moment, Yimu was able to let her survive until now. No wonder she lost so badly.

Yeres sneered in his heart.

"Found it, do it."

...

.....

In the study of the Li family at night.

Lei Xiao had just finished his bath and did not see his wife in the bedroom, so he came to the study to look for her.

Lin Hanxing was having a video call with Rou city's old su.

Seeing him enter, Lin Hanxing paused and looked up with a smile.

"You've caused quite a ruckus this time."

On the other end of the screen, old SU's words had a hidden meaning.

"When have I not caused a big ruckus?"

Lin Hanxing retorted. He reached out to hold Lei Xiao's large palm and pinched his rough fingers.

"We will leave for Rou city in three days at the latest."

She looked at Mr. Su on the other end of the screen and didn't say a word. Her attitude didn't change because of the other party's status. No matter who she was talking to, Lin Hanxing seemed to be the same.

...

Except for the Thunder valiant beast.

“Are you ready?”

Lin Hanxing’s question obviously had a hidden meaning.

If she were to make a move, it would definitely cause a huge commotion. If something unexpected happened ...

This was really hard to say.

Old su smiled innocently, and the two of them stopped talking.

The video call ended.

Lei Xiao’s hand slipped through her hair and landed on her small earlobe, rubbing it back and forth.

Lin Hanxing was about to get up and test out his husband’s boyfriend power when the computer screen that was synchronized with his phone lit up again and there was a notification sound.

With a Mua, she first kissed her husband’s thin lips to calm her anger. Then, she raised her eyebrows when she saw the notification that it was a sacred hand.

If it wasn’t for something important, he obviously wouldn’t have contacted her at this time.

Lin Hanxing picked up immediately.

“Is Ley here? I’ve discovered something.”

When sacred hands’ face appeared in front of him, it was rare to see that there was no banter on his face, but a little seriousness.

“What?”

The Thunder valiant beast entered the area in the next second.

“The water in Rou city is a little deep.”

Sacred hands’ silver-gray hair covered his eyes.

Lin Hanxing was not too surprised.

“Is there a problem with the first Prince’s crippled leg?”

As soon as she finished speaking, sacred hands raised his hand and gave her a thumbs up.

The word ‘awesome’ was the only word missing from his face.

not only is there a problem with his broken legs, but there’s also a problem with his brain. He also has a strange temper ...

Sacred hands seemed to want to say something else, but he gave up after thinking about it.

“You’ll know when you see him when you come. “Also, pay attention to the second Prince, yeres. He’s known as the ‘smiling Prince’ to the public. Every time I see him smile at me, my scalp goes numb ...”

“Before we go, don’t confront him directly.”

Seeing that Sacred Hands was getting more and more talkative, Lei Xiao opened his mouth in a deep voice.

Don't worry, with my brother around, even if I'm a wild horse out of control, he can pull me back on the right path!

When it came to big matters, Dr. Zhong was always more composed than Sacred Hands, but in terms of martial skills, Sacred Hands was more reliable than Dr. Zhong. So as long as the two brothers were together, Lin Hanxing was not worried at all.

After all, one had a brain, while the other could fight ...

It was perfect!

The video call ended.

Lin Hanxing heaved a sigh of relief and turned to look at her husband.

Their gazes met in the air.

In the next second, Lin Hanxing opened his arms towards him. The latter bent down in sync and allowed her to jump on him. He held Lei Xiao's neck firmly and used both his hands and feet to lock him in place.

"Back to the bedroom!"

Lin Hanxing looked down at Lei Xiao from above, her long black hair spread out at her collar. Perhaps it was because she was in a good mood, but her whole face was immersed in light and shadow, smiling, but also with a hint of mischief.

Just like that, when the two of them went out, they accidentally met Jiang Xibao who wanted to go downstairs for supper. Little Xibao was so scared that he quickly covered his eyes with his hands and turned to run back to the bedroom. Then, he heard a thud ...

His head even hit the door frame.

Tsk ...

From the sound of it, it should be quite painful.

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao looked at each other, and they could not help but laugh.
