

Goodnight 1611

Chapter 1611

1611 Killing the chicken to scare the monkey

Soon, the ground was already densely packed with people, and they attacked the place where the incense was burning.

Although Bai Xi and Jiang Xibao's bodies were stiff, they still stood by Lin Hanxing's side and protected him, not moving a step.

"Lin ..."

Seeing that the pile of disgusting things was about to reach their feet, the scalp-numbing Daisy finally could not help but slam the table and stand up.

Almost at the same time, a cloud-shaking flute sound came from above.

As soon as Daisy raised her head, the fierce dark figure had already swooped down in front of her, scaring her so much that she took two steps back. If it were not for ihuis's quick reflexes, she would have fallen to the ground and become a joke!

"Men! Someone come quickly!"

Daisy put her hand on her chest to calm herself down, and her voice rose a few octaves.

"Beat this bastard to death!"

"I'll see who dares!"

Lin Hanxing said lazily and sneered, full of aura.

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Hanxing had already stretched out his arm. The Falcon that was originally swooping down obediently stood on it in the blink of an eye. It was an amazing sight.

If the Falcon was said to be a King in the sky, then when it stood on Lin Hanxing's arm, it was as obedient as it could be. The desire to tame it was ignited in yhars's eyes.

Lin Hanxing hooked his finger and played with the fish under its beak.

"Call out."

She was obviously in a good mood.

The next second, the sound of the flute rang out. It was shocking and sharp, as if it was going to pierce through one's eardrums.

"Good girl."

Lin Hanxing poured a glass of hard liquor for the Falcon as a reward for its obedience.

"It stopped."

Jiang Xibao's words attracted everyone's attention.

The leeches that had been gathering in their direction were now motionless, as if they had been hypnotized.

"Did you see that?"

Lin Hanxing's fingers played with the Falcon, but his eyes were on Najilie.

think about it. When you're asleep, this thing will silently crawl into your room, your bed, your ears, your mouth, and your nose ... Hehe ...

Was this woman a demon?

Najilie's already pale face turned even more ashen.

In fact, he wasn't the only one. Even the other people who were listening to him were starting to feel physically unwell.

The scene she described was so beautiful that not many people wanted to imagine it.

Na jilie reached out to pick up the teacup in front of him and took a sip.

"Oh, maybe even the tea you're drinking has it ..."

Lin Hanxing's voice had just fallen when he heard a "PU" sound. The tea that was already in Na jilie's mouth was forcefully spat out, scattering towards the perfect smile of the second Prince, hers ... Like a fairy scattering flowers.

It was exactly the same.

"....."

"....."

"....."

"I'm just joking."

Lin Hanxing smiled sincerely this time, even his eyes curved into crescents.

He had even forgotten the word 'reserve'.

"I'm done joking. Let's talk about serious matters."

Lin Hanxing rested her chin on one hand and glanced at the crowd that was still kneeling on the ground. No one knew what she was thinking with her clear black eyes, but no one dared to look her in the eye.

"What other tricks do you want to play?"

seeing that the leech was motionless, the feeling of vomiting that had surged to her throat finally subsided a lot, and her face finally looked better. at least, her words were firm, and there was no trace of fear in them.

"the show is almost over, how about we end it?"

lin hanxing looked at daisy and smiled.

even daisy, who was also a woman, was stunned by lin hanxing's smile.

as lin hanxing smiled, the leech, which had been frozen on the ground, moved again. it wriggled toward the group of people kneeling on the ground even more frantically than before.

the speed was so fast that no one was able to come back to their senses immediately!

"ah ..."

Screams rang out!

At first, the group of leeches wandered around the kneeling group of people like scattered sand, but soon the people in the higher positions saw the clues. Although these things seemed to be moving without any order, in fact ...

It was as if he was looking for something!

Realizing this, old su didn't need to look down, and his confidants around him began to enter the highest level of alert. Whoever wanted to escape would be kicked back to their original place immediately.

No matter how much the other side cried, Lin Hanxing just smiled and raised his hand to refill the tea for her beloved ah Luo.

Her innocent look divided the two sides of the courtyard into two worlds, one heaven and one hell. It made people shudder, but no one opened their mouths to break it.

Not even Daisy and EHESS could.

"Are you bored?"

Lin Hanxing did not even look at the others and met Lei Xiao's eyes.

"It'll be over soon."

As if to prove her words, the leech, which was still in a daze, suddenly moved at an extremely neat pace toward a certain spot in the crowd after a short moment of confusion!

"Help ... Help!"

It was still that familiar soft female voice.

At this moment, she seemed to have lost control and was screaming. Her delicate voice was trembling as she waved her hands and feet at the leeches that were climbing up her body.

...

However, the effect was obviously minimal!

The people around them ran away in fear, afraid that they would be affected. They could not react in time and could only watch as the layers of leeches wrapped around the woman, even her face.

Najilie, who was sitting in a wheelchair, looked at this scene with a dark expression.

The corners of his mouth were curled up coldly.

Suddenly, he felt a gaze on his face.

He turned around and met Lin Hanxing's gaze.

"Are you satisfied?"

Lin Hanxing smiled.

"I'm a cripple, is it that important to be satisfied?"

&Nbsp; najilie opened his mouth gloomily. Although he said that, his ashen face from being forced to open his business at the beginning had eased a lot.

Other than the conversation between the two, the entire courtyard was silent.

Yuan Kang was already lying on Yan Beichen's body like he was dead. Although Bai Xi and Jiang Xibao were still in good condition, their stomachs were still churning.

They just watched as the group of things drowned the woman.

In front of all the waiters.

No one doubted that in less than half a day, what happened to najilie today would be spread throughout the entire royal family. Everyone would know about it!

"To me, it's indeed not important at all."

Lin Hanxing said softly, not playing by the rules at all.

Such an answer caused najilie, whose expression had finally improved, to become gloomy again.

Daisy's flower-like face was as pale as snow. If it were not for her good self-control, she would have vomited on the spot. Her fingers were clenched so tightly that her knuckles turned white.

Lin Hanxing was warning her!

He was using this matter as a warning to her!

She was using the people she had sent as tools to slap her in the face!

At this moment, Daisy finally understood why her sister could not hold her composure every time she faced Lin Hanxing. Even she could not sit still anymore!

"I wonder if the second Princess Consort will like this gift for our first meeting?"

Chapter 1612

1612 I'll do the 15th thing you do

Lin Hanxing rested his chin on one hand and looked at the second consort, Daisy.

“She was sent by the second Princess Consort to take care of the first Prince ...”

He seemed to be smiling.

Listen, is this even human?

Diers sneered. If it were not for her manners, she would have rolled her eyes in public.

“I don’t understand what you’re saying!”

The two of them looked at each other, and the air seemed to be burning with the smell of gunpowder.

The woman who was surrounded by leeches was rolling on the ground, begging for mercy, but no one responded.

“Miss Lin, don’t you think your methods are too perverse?”

Yeres finally spoke.

Today, he had finally witnessed Lin Hanxing’s style of doing things. It was beyond what yhars had imagined.

No wonder the entire senanda family was no match for it.

“Even if she did something wrong, she shouldn’t have ...”

“Look, where did this Holy Father come from?”

Lin Hanxing squinted his cat-like eyes, and even the mole at the corner of his eye looked lazy.

these things were spat out from your brother’s mouth. If it was a few days later, his intestines would have been pierced through and he would have died from vomiting blood. Tsk ...

As he spoke, Lin Hanxing pushed the transparent bottle on the table with his fair fingertips.

It made a crackling sound.

It was as if a piece of paper window called Brotherhood was about to be torn apart.

Najilie, who was sitting in the wheelchair, laughed. To be able to see the fake kind mother and son reveal such a defeated expression, it was worth it even if he had to die on the spot.

“There’s a Chinese saying that goes,” you do the first thing, and I do the tenth.” It means that I’ll do whatever you do, an eye for an eye, an eye for an eye. Since you’re the one who started it, don’t blame others for not showing mercy.”

Lin Hanxing’s voice was not loud, but it strangely spread to every corner of the courtyard.

Combined with the fact that the woman was completely covered by leeches, one could imagine the shock it brought.

The warning was simple and direct.

It was believed that after today, as long as they were on duty in this courtyard, no matter who they originally had their hearts set on, they would carefully consider their actions. After all ...

Money could be earned again, but he only had one life!

The Falcon was obviously in a good mood after drinking the hard liquor, and it glanced at everything in front of it with a mighty and disdainful look.

“Who gave her such guts!”

Old SU’s voice was as gloomy as it could get.

Lin Hanxing smiled without saying anything.

“I want to move out of here.”

Nagilie suppressed the taste of blood in his mouth and spoke coldly.

Anyone who had witnessed the scene just now would not be able to stay there any longer, not to mention that Lin Hanxing had described the scene so vividly.

“I’ll make the arrangements immediately.”

Old su was also worried that he would continue to stay here.

Upon hearing this, yhars still maintained his signature smile, but the cold glint that flashed in his eyes revealed his true emotions.

It was always like this.

No matter what he did, he could not please old su.

“Pick out these people as well.”

As Lin Hanxing spoke again, her white fingertips seemed to unintentionally point at the crowd a few times. Her speed was very fast, but it was clearly seen.

“You can continue to stay with the people I pointed out just now.”

Daisy’s heart skipped a beat.

It was exactly the same.

The ones left behind by Lin Hanxing were all the spies that the various forces had placed around na jilie over the years, including hers ... In just a short time, she had already counted them all?

“What about the rest?”

Na jilie laughed coldly.

“Haven’t you stopped drinking milk? Do you still need me to teach you this kind of thing?”

Lin Hanxing’s expression was indifferent, and his words were not polite at all.

“You ...”

Na jilie felt that he would be angered to death by this woman sooner or later. If it was not for the fact that his legs were not able to move, he would have gotten up and left without looking back.

Suddenly, najilie's expression changed.

He suddenly turned his head and vomited a large mouthful of black blood on the ground.

For a time, the strong smell of blood spread in the air.

...

This sudden change caught everyone off guard, causing many people to be dumbfounded.

However, Daisy laughed smugly in her heart.

This is more like it!

Looking at the time, it was almost time.

However, before the second consort could maintain her smugness for too long, Lin Hanxing and sacred hands, who were not far away, exchanged a glance. Their languidness was gone, and they returned to their usual expressionless faces.

"It's time, let's start."

Everyone heard Lin Hanxing say this coldly with their own ears.

It was as if all the reactions that had infuriated her earlier were just a figment of everyone's imagination, and this was Lin Hanxing's true state.

Just as everyone was still trying to figure out what he meant, sacred hands, who was not far away, walked over with his precious medical kit. He rubbed his hands and attacked najilie, who had just spat out blood.

"This is ..."

Old su subconsciously looked at Lin Hanxing.

...

"The first Prince's body still has the last of the poison. After discussing with me, the sacred hand and I decided to use the most conservative method."

Lin Hanxing picked up the teacup on the table again and answered calmly.

"....."

"....."

So, everything that happened before was just an act to deliberately anger him?

Hearing this, najilie clutched his chest and looked at Lin Hanxing, who had returned to his original cold state. His eyes were complicated.

"It seems that the effect is not bad."

The Thunder valiant beast's deep and cold voice resounded.

Old su laughed, and all his worries disappeared.

However, while some were happy and some were sad, the second consort's expression almost could not hold back.

That surnamed Lin had just arrived, and he had already destroyed all her years of hard work?

For a moment, the air seemed to have frozen into silence.

Lin Hanxing gently pushed the lid of the teacup, and the White steam covered her expression.

Sacred hands's side was very fast. After confirming that the blood that najilie spat out was the last mouthful of poison that had accumulated, sacred hands gestured to Lin Hanxing that it was a success.

All of this was happening right in front of the second consort, Daisy, and the second Prince, yeres. They did not even try to hide or conceal anything. This feeling made the two of them feel even more uncomfortable, because ...

The more one looked down on the enemy, the more magnanimous one would be.

Moreover, wasn't this another form of direct provocation?

Daisy's hands under the stone table slowly clenched.

Her nails dug deep into her palm.

"The day I arrived in Rou city, an old house in the city caught on fire."

Lin Hanxing placed the White porcelain teacup back on the table with a clatter, but he brought up something completely unrelated to the day. It made Daisy, who was caught off guard, shudder in fear.

Lin Hanxing looked at Daisy expressionlessly.

His eyes were cold.

"Has the second Princess Consort heard about this?"

"Rou city is so big, how can I hear everything?"

Daisy retorted almost at the same time.

an old friend I'm looking for, along with her son, was buried in the sea of fire.

"Oh, really? What a pity ..."

As they spoke, the air was filled with a strange atmosphere.

Chapter 1613

1613 A silent contest

"What's there to be sad about?"

Lin Hanxing's eyes seemed to be soaked in ice. They were calm but contained infinite coldness.

The smile on the second consort's face could hardly be maintained!

Was there anyone who spoke to her like that?

How could he answer this?

How to answer?

"I'll settle their scores one by one, but it's only a matter of time."

Lin Hanxing said indifferently. Every word he said was gentle, but when put together, it seemed bone-chilling and made people shiver.

"Miss Lin, you have a more unique personality than the rumors say."

I ... I ... Daisy squeezed out these words from between her teeth and responded reluctantly.

She regretted her actions of coming to Na Jilie's place today. It did not feel good to shoot herself in the foot.

Her head was hurting ...

"This is only our first meeting ..."

Lin Hanxing smiled nonchalantly, but the smile did not reach his eyes.

"There's still a long way to go,"

What a profound statement.

No matter how perfect her expression was, she had already reached her limit. The expression on Daisy's face completely collapsed. If it were not for the fact that Old Su was not sitting here, she would have turned her face.

"I've learned!"

Daisy got up. She could not stand it anymore and left.

On the other hand, Yuhars did not forget his manners and left the stage after nodding.

"She's more patient than her sister."

Lin Hanxing looked in the direction where Daisy had disappeared and said in a neutral tone.

"So you're using her patience as an experiment?"

Yuan Kang said in a bad mood.

After all, everything that had happened just now had a huge impact on him. Even now, the vulgarities in his heart were still spewing out like a bullet screen.

Lin Hanxing smiled but did not say anything.

Instead, he poured the medicine that he had prepared earlier into the teacup, mixed it with the water, stood up, took the teacup to the woman who had fainted from shock, and poured it down.

The leeches that had been wriggling wildly fell off in an instant and fell to the ground like rain. They twisted and exploded, and the mucus and blood mixed together, making a mess on the ground.

“Ugh ...”

Yuan Kang, who felt that he had just come back to life, once again held the table and retched.

??

I can't live like this!

He wanted to die.

Yuan Kang felt that he wouldn't be able to face all kinds of reptilian things for at least a month.

“Can't you be more promising?”

Yan beixiao cast a sidelong glance at Yuan Kang, his face full of disdain.

A man was afraid of bugs?

If word got out, they would really lose face as a Team.

The leeches were all cleaned up, but the woman who was sent by the second Princess Consort to 'take care' of na jilie was still unconscious. However, to Lin Hanxing, whether this person woke up or not did not affect the overall situation.

Throughout the entire process, najilie watched with a dark face.

“If you're soft-hearted, then let her stay.”

Lin Hanxing said these words to na jilie.

Although he already knew that her attitude towards him at the beginning was to force him to spit out the last mouthful of poisonous blood, najilie's eyes were filled with doubt. This was actually her true nature.

Old su didn't even need to look and someone had already started to clear the area.

Soon, the large courtyard was spotless. Not only were the people taken away, but even the pile of leech remains on the ground had been washed clean by the water. The whole place was filled with a refreshing smell.

“Now, we can talk about other things.”

Lin Hanxing sat back down at the stone table. With a gesture, the Falcon flew back into the air as if it was investigating something.

“Talk about what?”

There was still a strong taste of blood in najilie's mouth.

“Let's talk about your legs.”

Chapter 1614

1614 leg

The air seemed to have turned heavy in an instant.

At the mention of his legs, na jilie's expression became ugly and tense. This was his Achilles 'heel that could not be touched by anyone.

"You mean to say ..."

Old SU's heart skipped a beat, and his face turned pale.

Could it be that the condition of his grandson's leg had worsened?

Lin Hanxing did not say anything and turned to look at sacred hands.

The latter cleared her throat and spoke.

"Can I first ask how the first Prince's leg was injured?"

Ever since he came to Rou city, holy hands had placed all his focus on treating na ji lie's poison. Even though he noticed that there was something wrong with na ji lie's broken leg, he did not take the initiative to do anything because of his gloomy personality.

What kind of status did he have? why should he do high-level business?

Hmph!

Najilie did not speak. He slightly closed his eyes and half of his face was buried in the darkness of the light and shadow, looking obscure and unclear.

"It was an accident,"

Old su didn't continue the conversation and began to tell the story.

As the eldest Prince of Rou city's royal family, na jilie carried everyone's hope from birth. If not for that damned accident, his life would have been bright and beautiful.

It had originally been an ordinary charity auction, but because of the first princess and prince najilie's attendance, it had attracted a lot of attention. The media had swarmed in, following the first princess and the first Prince's car from the royal family all the way.

It was at this moment that the accident happened.

A media vehicle suddenly lost control and crashed into the car they were in.

Even though the people around them had tried their best to save the eldest Princess, the tragedy of the eldest Prince's leg being crippled and the eldest consort dying still happened.

The royal family was furious.

The media agency that got into the interview vehicle was also dealt with immediately.

But even so, he couldn't save anything.

"Are you sure it was just an accident?"

Lin Hanxing opened his mouth lazily and broke the peace that was put up on the surface. This also made Najilie's expression become even more twisted.

"What else?"

Na jilie laughed coldly.

"What right does a crippled Prince have to find the truth?"

During that period of time, the young Najilie had tasted the fickleness of human nature too early. Those who used to be respectful to him and who used to answer his call had all changed their attitudes after that day.

It was as if all the value of his life had come to an abrupt end.

Lin Hanxing smiled without saying anything.

Zhan Nanheng, who was standing not far away, felt the same shock in his heart.

Although they were in different positions, he and Na jilie had similar experiences.

"Um ... Although I'm embarrassed, there's something I'd like to say ..."

Holy hand raised his hand at the right time.

Before the others could react, a vulgarity that could not be any dirtier was spat out.

"....."

"....."

"....."

Can't you give each other some buffer time?

"Which doctor treated your wound? He should be dragged out and killed, alright! Just how much blind technology did they have to make it look like this? I've wanted to F  King curse for a long time!"

The sage hand had his own unique persistence and bottom line in the field of medicine. Fortunately, the other party was not standing in front of him at this time, otherwise, he would definitely be beaten up.

"Don't you dare say that!"

Najilie's emotions suddenly fluctuated violently, and his previous angry expression was swept away. If it was not for the fact that his legs could not move, he would have stood up and fought with sacred hands.

Her reaction obviously caught Lin Hanxing's attention.

His expression also became playful.

"Someone you know?"

Lin Hanxing looked at Na jilie and asked indifferently.

"Or is it someone very close to you?"

“Enough!”

The veins on najilie’s forehead popped out as he suddenly growled.

Chapter 1615

1615 Humans die for wealth, birds die for food

The answer was self-evident.

“Is there any misunderstanding?”

Everyone present was smart. Even though sacred hands ‘words were vulgar, the meaning between the lines was obvious. Even old SU’s expression did not look good, let alone najilie.

“I’m not blind, misunderstanding my ass!”

Hearing this, Holy hand rolled his eyes.

“I dare to use my dog head as a guarantee. If I had handled it properly back then, it would definitely not have resulted in today’s outcome! Unless you used quack doctors in the first place!”

Sacred hands ‘words clearly had a huge impact on najilie.

His thin lips trembled, and he couldn’t say a word for a long time.

His already pale face turned even more unsightly, and the joints of his big palms that clenched the wheelchair so tightly turned white.

The atmosphere was in a stalemate.

Suddenly, the Falcon in the sky swooped down like a bullet and attacked a dark spot not far from them. In the next second, screams of fear and pain sounded at the same time.

That person rolled out with his face covered in blood.

“Help, help!”

Despite the other party’s pleas for mercy, the Falcon continued to attack fiercely.

Lin Hanxing supported his chin with one hand, admiring the sight. His eyes were neither hot nor cold, like a thorny rose, but he had no intention of stopping the Falcon. He used the most direct way to warn the evildoers hiding in the dark.

She didn’t know how long she had been like this, but she let out a whistle.

The Falcon returned to the sky.

Leaving the half-dead man on the ground, he was dragged away after a while.

“He’s my uncle!”

Perhaps it was the smell of blood that stimulated najilie. He finally found his voice. His eyes, which had been gloomy all year round, were finally swept by the wind, showing restraint that was beyond ordinary people.

Lin Hanxing smiled.

So what?

Wasn't Lin youlin also her aunt?

Humans die for wealth, birds die for food. Whether it was true or not, whether it was a human or a ghost, it would be known sooner or later.

One-sided trust was meaningless to Lin Hanxing.

"Sacred hands, tell me the good news."

Lin Hanxing did not comment on najilie's words and avoided mentioning it for the time being. He motioned for sacred hands to continue.

Sacred hands cleared his throat.

"Do you still want to stand up?"

This question was too direct, causing old su bu and Na jilie to be stunned at the same time. Their minds were actually blank from ecstasy, and they did not know how to answer. The two of them stared at each other.

"You mean ... His legs ..."

Old su managed to squeeze out these words from his throat.

"But they said my legs are already ..."

"As long as I, holy hands, don't say anything, what they say is nothing!"

Sacred hands snorted and raised his chin. No matter how one looked at it, his actions seemed to be tsundere.

"Just tell me if you want to!"

It's so annoying to dawdle!

"I want to!"

This time, najilie answered without any hesitation.

He wanted to stand up again even in his dreams!

Old SU's body trembled uncontrollably from the excessive surprise. He never thought that his method of looking for a chance of survival when he first went to the snow orchid would bring him so many unexpected surprises.

If najilie could really get better ...

"But, why should I believe you?"

Perhaps it was because of the encounter in the first half of his life, but after the initial surprise, na jilie regained his calm and looked at Lin Hanxing coldly.

Lin Hanxing didn't react, but Bai Xi laughed.

Na jilie's cold eyes swept across Bai Xi.

"It is exactly the same as the reaction that ninth young lady said."

As he spoke, Bai Xi took out a file and placed it in the middle of the stone table.

"Let's see."

Bai Xi snorted.

Najilie stretched out his hand after a long while and opened the file. He carefully looked at the contents.

"This is ..."

Old su didn't stick his head out, but let out a puzzled voice.

...

"This is my main purpose for coming to Rou city."

Lin Hanxing was direct and did not try to hide anything.

The more people who could help, the better.

"First, it's for the location of the twelve zodiac sheep heads, and second, it's to find this person,"

In Lin Hanxing's original plan, he did not expect to receive news of Qin su so soon. After her whereabouts were confirmed, another problem was placed in front of Lin Hanxing. It was the whereabouts of Yuan Bao's mother, baby Yun.

"Twelve zodiac sheep heads?"

Najilie's expression changed slightly.

"What, you know?"

Lin Hanxing raised his eyebrows. Na jilie's expression had caught her interest.

"Can your people really cure my leg?"

Na jilie did not answer and asked instead.

...

"If I say it's possible, then it's possible!"

Hearing this, Holy hand snorted coldly. As long as najilie listened to him obediently, he could guarantee it.

"How long?"

Najilie and sacred hands looked at each other.

"It depends on the condition of your leg. Within three months."

Three months?

Old su was about to lose control of his expression. He had thought that it would take three to five years or even longer, but the other party was telling him that it would only take less than three months?

What kind of treasure boy was this?

“Are you telling the truth?”

Najilie’s hands gripped the handles of the wheelchair tightly. It was as if lava was spewing out of his heart.

“Really, really, really!”

This is so annoying!

He already said it was true!

Sacred hands rolled his eyes in annoyance.

“I have the sheep’s head,”

Na jilie took a deep breath and said, but it made the eyes of the people on Lin Hanxing’s side light up.

This was really a case of wearing out iron shoes in a long search, but finding it without any effort at all!

The goat head was actually with najilie?

This was beyond Lin Hanxing’s expectations, or rather ... She never thought that she would be able to find another one so easily!

“Are you ... Willing to cooperate with me?”

Although he was happy, Lin Hanxing’s expression remained calm, and no one could see what he was really thinking.

After all, with her ability, once she had a target, even if na jilie was not willing, Lin Hanxing could still get what she wanted. It was just a matter of time.

However, Lin Hanxing would be even happier if the other party cooperated.

After all, it would save him a lot of trouble.

“You can understand it that way.”

That sheep head, na jilie had only brought it back for fun. If he had not seen the information that Lin Hanxing had given him today, he would have long forgotten about it. After all ...

In his opinion, that thing was not worth much.

“So, let’s have a pleasant cooperation?”

Lin Hanxing’s lips curled up and he stretched out his hand in na jilie’s direction.

Her slender, Jade-like fingers were completely exposed in najilie's field of vision, as if she was not the one who had stirred up the storm in front of the second consort, Daisy.

Na jilie pursed his lips.

While hesitating, he still reached out his hand.

However, before he could get close, he was slapped away by a powerful palm.

Lei Xiao's eyes were cold, and when he saw the gaze, he snorted.

"I can give you the thing first, but I have a condition ..."

Najilie was silent for a moment, but he still spoke.

"Go ahead,"

"I want to know if uncle was involved in this!"

Chapter 1616

1616 Complicated human nature

Green sea Villa.

No one spoke in the hall of the villa, but the sound of reading materials could be heard from time to time.

On the first page of the information, there was a clear line of words ...

[dapano, the director of Rou city's Tongshan hospital, uncle najilie.]

"From the information, the first Prince's uncle seems to be a good person."

Bai Xi, who had changed into comfortable home clothes, was sitting cross-legged on the sofa against Jiang Xibao. Her long hair was tied with a hairband, and her bare face was full of uncertainty and doubt.

after the death of the first princess Consort and the incident with najilie's leg, it was convenient for the outside world to prepare a non-profit fund organization named after najilie to help the disabled children from poor families. This also allowed najilie to receive a lot of support even though he rarely went out in the past few years.

Yuan Kang added.

"Ever since the incident, na jilie and uncle have been keeping close contact. This person can be said to be one of the few people who can control na jilie's unpredictable temperament."

no wonder najilie's reaction was so big. If it were me, I would not be willing to accept it either.

Looking at the list of contributions made by najilie's Charity Foundation, Yan beiming began to waver for the first time. After all, it was rare to see people who could sincerely contribute money to charity these days.

"This hospital director even paid for the surgery out of his own pocket!"

Bai Xi clicked his tongue and sighed.

“Sacred hands, are you sure there’s something wrong with that wound?”

Zhan Nanheng looked at sacred hands, who was playing with the little pig, and asked.

The sacred hands almost exploded at the same time.

as long as it’s a problem in the medical field, every word I say is a nail in the coffin. I don’t care if he’s my uncle or my grandfather. A piece of trash in the field of wound treatment is trash. There’s nothing to say!

“Calm down.”

Jiang Xibao, who was the closest to sacred hands, was shocked. He pushed the winter melon tea in his direction weakly.

Holy hand snorted and grabbed it, pouring it into his mouth.

Liang yuran’s cold gaze swept across his face. The pressure was so strong that the shouting Saint hand suddenly shivered.

Lei min pushed up his glasses and turned to look at his elder brother and sister-in-law who had not spoken a word since just now.

“What do you think, eldest brother and eldest sister-in-law?”

As soon as Lei min’s voice fell, everyone’s eyes turned to the two of them.

let’s first check the public welfare expenses of this charity fund organization over the years ...

Lin Hanxing threw the basic information in his hand onto the table with a loud bang.

although this charity fund is named after nagilie, the actual person controlling it has always been dabono.

Thunder owl’s deep voice was cold, but it revealed his usual dignity.

brother, sister-in-law, are you suspecting that there’s something wrong with this charity fund? ”

Lei Yu’s eyes darkened.

In fact, there were indeed many private parts of foreign funds that could be operated.

I’m not sure yet. Let’s wait until it’s confirmed.

Lin Hanxing said indifferently.

She had never been afraid of digging into the complexity of human nature and had always hoped that her deep thoughts were overthinking and wrong. No one knew that Lin Hanxing hoped more than anyone else that the Dano bang in the information would not let down na jilie’s trust.

Because she had experienced the pain of the abyss, she hoped that there would be more light in the world.

with such a huge amount of data, it's not a small task to check each one.

Zhan Nanheng was still reading the information in his hands.

After Lei Xiao and Lin Hanxing spoke, he threw away his emotional thoughts and started to think again. This was also the most important reason why he had left Xue LAN with Lin Hanxing. It was to make full preparations for becoming the Crown Prince.

"But it's not an Impossible Project!"

Lin Hanxing and Zhan Nanheng looked at each other. In that pair of clear eyes, there was insight into everything.

"Ninth young lady, if there's really something wrong with this non-profit organization, what's the worst possible outcome?"

Jiang Xibao didn't have so many thoughts in his mind, so he asked directly.

Looking at Jiang Xibao's cute expression, Lin Hanxing's expression clearly relaxed. He reached out and touched her small nose with a smile.

"The worst possibility ..."

Lin Hanxing blinked, his long eyelashes fluttering like butterfly wings.

"Someone's preparing to play a big game of chess."

.....

Three days later.

Yun Bai's underlings and the Huaji Hong gang had jointly investigated the information regarding the NA ji lie charity fund and sent it to Lin Hanxing and the others. The content covered all aspects of the organization in detail.

Lin Hanxing spent the entire morning looking through all the information in front of him in detail. He did not even eat lunch. After two in the afternoon, she finally went downstairs.

"Liang yuran, do me a favor."

Lin Hanxing walked up to Liang yuran and handed him the filtered information in his hand.

I want you to hack into dapano's computer and pull out the original accounts from his computer in the order I gave you. It would be better if you have detailed information about the person in charge.

...

Her words were simple and concise, but it was enough to make others feel that the situation was unusual.

"Half an hour,"

Liang yuran coldly scanned through the information and gave a specific time limit.

Lin Hanxing nodded and sat down on the sofa opposite Liang yuran, waiting patiently. There was no expression on his delicate face, but it was this kind of expressionless face that made it even more difficult to predict.

No one spoke. Only the sound of Liang yuran's fingers quickly tapping on the keyboard could be heard.

Half an hour later.

"It's done,"

With the sound of the wireless printer operating, Liang yuran's task was completed.

After all, for an expert hacker like him, hacking into an ordinary person's computer was the least advanced thing to do. Half an hour was enough.

Before Lin Hanxing could get up, Yuan Kang had already stood up.

He was dying of curiosity.

...

What exactly did Lin Hanxing find out from hiding upstairs the entire morning that made her expression so serious?

Before he handed the printed information to Lin Hanxing, Yuan Kang had already read through it in general. He wouldn't have known if he hadn't read it, but his heart skipped a beat when he read it.

After all, he had read the information from three days ago. The actual data ...

Lin Hanxing took the printed information from Yuan Kang's hand and flipped through it indifferently without any expression on his face. In fact, she already knew what was going on in her heart. She told Liang yuran to hack into the other party's computer just to confirm it again.

The mute uncle walked closer in silence, followed by Zuo Xiangdong who had just arrived.

miss Lin, I've followed your instructions and paid a visit to every household regarding the matter you asked me to investigate.

His left and right eyebrows were tightly furrowed, and his expression was serious. It was obvious that he was holding back his anger.

Before Zuo Xiangdong could finish his sentence, Lin Hanxing raised his hand to stop him from continuing and continued to read the remaining content on the last two pages.

Lin Hanxing quickly finished reading the last two pages.

"Mute uncle, call them all down."

After the mute uncle left, Lin Hanxing turned his gaze back to Zuo Xiangdong's face.

"Later, you will come with us to see na jilie."

Chapter 1617

1617 A big game of chess

The royal family of Rou city.

When Lin Hanxing arrived, najilie, who was sitting in a wheelchair, was trying to feed the freshly cut meat to the Eagle that she had left behind to keep her company. When he saw Lin Hanxing, his hands suddenly stopped, and his expression was awkward.

“Have you investigated clearly?”

He saw najilie clear his throat and find a way out.

Lin Hanxing did not answer immediately. Instead, it was the Falcon that had been arrogant for the past three days that immediately flew to her shoulder and stood there. Yuan Kang, who had experienced its power last time, immediately retreated as if he had seen a ghost.

“F * ck, it’s a spirit!”

Yuan Kang couldn’t help but complain when he saw the Falcon rubbing itself against Lin Hanxing’s hair like a child throwing a tantrum.

Hearing this, the Falcon let out a low and angry cry in Yuan Kang’s direction.

“Good girl.”

Lin Hanxing reached out to calm the Falcon down.

“Let’s go eat.”

Lin Hanxing looked at na jilie. As soon as she finished speaking, the roe deer on her shoulder flew to the handle of the wheelchair and started to eat the dried meat in na jilie’s hands unwillingly.

“You heartless little thing ...”

Na jilie whispered.

“I told old su not to call your uncle,”

The next second, Lin Hanxing’s voice entered najilie’s ears.

Najilie’s body suddenly stopped and he looked up at her.

“What do you mean?”

Na jilie’s voice was hoarse, and his expression was hard to understand.

“You don’t need to know what I mean. Just don’t argue with me later on.”

Lin Hanxing was too lazy to explain too much. After throwing this sentence, he directly sat opposite na jilie.

Soon, old su would arrive.

The shy little princess of Rou city was beside him. Her little face was like a glutinous rice ball, white and soft, and her big black eyes were like grapes. The last time the two of them met was at the royal family of Xuelan.

"Dapano will be here soon."

Old su didn't bring the little princess to her seat, and the waiter followed with plates of exquisite desserts.

"Is there a problem or not? you better give me an answer first."

For the past three days, old su had been thinking about this problem. Now that she had finally arrived, he immediately wanted to ask for peace of mind.

Na jilie was also looking at Lin Hanxing.

Lin Hanxing, on the other hand, pushed the dessert in front of the little princess and smiled.

"What's the hurry?"

As they were talking, the person at the center of the conversation finally appeared.

The gentle and elegant dapano, who was wearing rimless gold-rimmed glasses, rushed over with the help of a waiter. When he saw najilie in the wheelchair, he seemed to have calmed down and heaved a sigh of relief.

"I thought you vomited blood again."

Dapano, who was dressed in a suit, walked toward najilie with a smile on his face.

When he got closer, he stopped in his tracks as if he had just noticed Lin Hanxing, his eyes filled with doubt.

"This is ..."

"This is miss Lin, Lin Hanxing, who has rushed over from Xuelan."

Old su did not reply, but he instantly squinted his eyes and secretly observed Lin Hanxing.

Lin Hanxing did not say anything, he just reached out and poured himself a cup of tea.

In the sound of the tea, debonno, who did not get an answer, was a little embarrassed.

"Nice to meet you ..."

Lin Hanxing ...

He had naturally heard of this name before.

Or rather, during this period of time, this name must have spread throughout the entire country G, and it had reached the point where everyone knew about it.

The woman who could stir up the entire storm of Xue LAN with her own power was now sitting in front of him.

“Uncle, please sit.”

Just as dapano was still immersed in his own thoughts, najilie’s words jolted him back to his senses. He sat down with a smile on his face, as usual.

“Sacred hands.”

Just as dapano sat down, Lin Hanxing’s voice rang out, causing him, who had just regained his composure, to freeze slightly. However, it disappeared in a flash, and very quickly, everything became calm again.

Sacred hands walked over, not forgetting to snort coldly as he passed by debonno.

It was this B * stard who made others doubt his professional standards ...

It’s really something that aunt can tolerate, but uncle can’t!

“Share your diagnosis with everyone.”

...

Lin Hanxing glanced at the arrogant sacred hands. His clear voice sounded gentle, but there was an indescribable chill.

I have no objections. As long as he is willing to listen to me, I promise that I will be able to make him stand up within three months.

Sacred hands’ nostrils were raised as he snorted coldly twice.

“What did you just say?”

When he heard this, dapano stood up in shock, even the teacup on the table was lifted up, and water flowed all over the table. He was obviously shocked by these words, and even his eyes, hidden under the frameless gold-rimmed glasses, were wide open.

“I’m not like some quack doctors ...”

Sacred hands mumbled coldly, but before he could finish, Lin Hanxing’s calm gaze swept over him, successfully cutting him off from speaking further. At the same time, sacred hands, who was seen as arrogant in the eyes of others, shrank his neck.

“Uncle, there’s hope for my leg.”

Najilie looked at debonno with a heavy and complicated gaze.

“Good! Good!”

Subconsciously, dapano wanted to reach out to him, but he stopped in mid-air, trembling slightly.

...

“It’s good that we’re saved! It’s good that she’s saved! When will the re-examination begin? Do you need any help?”

He seemed to have just recovered from the shock. His whole face seemed to have been ignited by his true feelings. He was so excited that even his pupils were shaking. This state made Yuan Kang and the others wonder again. Was dagano really related to the whole thing?

“There’s one thing that I really need your help with.”

Lin Hanxing said indifferently and instantly caught debonno’s attention.

Debonno met Lin Hanxing’s eyes.

His clear and cold eyes seemed to be able to see through the deepest secrets in a person’s heart. With just one look, the smile on debonno’s face froze.

“Miss, miss Lin, please speak.”

in a few days, I heard that the charity fund named after the first Prince, na jilie, will be holding an event. I hope that na jilie will participate.

This request came too suddenly. Not to mention debonno himself, even old su bu and najilie subconsciously looked at Lin Hanxing in shock!

Ever since the incident with the first princess and nagilie, he had never left the royal family’s territory and never appeared in the public eye again. This was also one of the main reasons why the support rate of the second Prince, IHEs, was far higher than that of nagilie.

“Is this also your intention?”

Debonno turned to look at his nephew and asked with difficulty.

The shock he had received today was too much, one after another, causing his brain to buzz and he couldn’t react for a long time.

Na jilie pursed his lips and did not speak.

He didn’t know about this at all, and he wouldn’t go out!

Did he have to let others see him as a joke?

On the other hand, old su was excited when he heard Lin Hanxing’s suggestion. He had always hoped that his grandson could let go of the gloominess in his heart and go out more, but he had never succeeded.

Yingluo, you don’t have to know what I mean. Just don’t refute what I do later.

Lin Hanxing’s words rang in najilie’s ears.

“Uncle ...”

After an unknown amount of time, najilie finally found his voice.

“Aren’t you happy for me that I’ve recovered?”

Chapter 1618

1618 You actually dare

Najilie and dapano looked at each other, and there seemed to be an undercurrent in the air.

“Why would you ask that? I’m happier than anyone else that your leg can recover!”

Debonno said affectionately, his slightly trembling hand holding his nephew, his red eyes showing his excitement.

This scene could be said to be earth-shattering in the eyes of others.

On the other hand, Lin Hanxing only pushed the dessert in front of the little princess who had been secretly looking at him with a cold expression. When he saw the little princess’s timid face, he smiled faintly.

I’ll go back and prepare now. We’ll contact each other on the phone again.

If one did not look carefully, one would not be able to see the panic at his feet.

He left very quickly.

He didn’t look back.

Naturally, he did not know that Lin Hanxing’s eyes had been on him.

His gaze was as deep and cold as the sea, making one unable to fathom it.

No one spoke.

“I won’t go,”

Na jilie’s voice broke the silence. The veins on the back of his hands that were holding the armrest of his wheelchair were bulging. It was obvious that he was very unhappy with Lin Hanxing’s decision. He did not have any intention of hiding his emotions.

“You must go.”

Lin Hanxing said coldly, his meaning clear as day ...

Na jilie did not have any room for negotiation.

bang! najilie violently smashed the snacks in front of him to the ground. The sound of the plate shattering was heard. It sounded like a warning and a warning. His expression was ferocious as he moved.

The little princess was so frightened that she immediately burrowed into old SU’s arms.

Lin Hanxing did not say anything and looked at na jilie.

His eyes were as dark as ink.

It was as if there was a whirlwind blowing from the ground, enveloping the two of them.

“Mute uncle,”

As soon as he said those words, the silent uncle had already arrived beside na jilie. With two cracking sounds, the joints on both of na jilie's arms had been dislocated, and he could not move.

"You actually dare ..."

"There's nothing I don't dare to do."

Before na jilie could finish, Lin Hanxing had already spoken impatiently.

If there wasn't a need to communicate, she would have even asked the mute uncle to remove na jilie's jaw as well, so that the man in front of her wouldn't nag endlessly and it would be annoying.

I'm talking to you nicely now. Don't waste my patience, or else ...

Lin Hanxing's voice sounded dangerous.

His aura was overbearing.

Najilie's face was ashen. He pursed his lips and did not speak, but his eyes looked like he wanted to eat her up.

On the other hand, the little princess, who had been silent all this while, looked at Lin Hanxing with bright eyes.

"First, there's something wrong with your uncle."

second, there's a problem with the charity fund he named after you.

"Third, you're in big trouble."

Lin Hanxing stated calmly, but with every sentence, old SU's expression became more serious. Even na jilie had a rare moment of silence. He looked at Lin Hanxing and did not speak.

"I'm a cripple, what bigger trouble can I have to face?"

Na jilie laughed coldly. He had finally found his voice.

"You don't believe me?"

Lin Hanxing glanced at na jilie indifferently, as if he was looking at an unreasonable child.

"Hehe."

Na jilie laughed coldly.

"How can you be so ungrateful?"

Bai Xi couldn't help but mock.

As long as it was said by miss Jiu, it must be true. However, someone just had to be at a disadvantage because he didn't believe it.

I know that debonno is one of the few people you can trust. It'll be difficult for you to believe me. How about we make a bet? "

Lin Hanxing was good at manipulating people's hearts, so he naturally knew what kind of effect his words would have.

"What bet?"

Look, the fish had indeed taken the bait.

"If you attend the event, you'll know what kind of trouble you're in."

Lin Hanxing's lips slowly curved into a thin smile.

According to the information she received, this event should be held in two days. Since Na Jilie was not going to give up until the end of his life, she might as well be the villain and ruthlessly tear apart all the singing and dancing in front of her.

...

"What if nothing happens when the time comes?"

Na Jilie said with a dark voice.

Lin Hanxing laughed.

"As you wish,"

.....

"What?"

After hearing the report, second consort Daisy accidentally broke her favorite vase and turned to look at her confidant.

"There's hope for Na Jilie's leg?"

He had been disabled for more than ten years, and now he was saying that he could be saved?

Daisy subconsciously looked at her son. The man, who always had a warm smile on his face, was expressionless at the moment. He looked coldly at the confidant who had come to report.

"Impossible!"

...

The second Princess Consort still did not believe him.

"Continue,"

Yeres motioned for his confidant to continue reporting.

After the confidant finished speaking in fear, there was a snap, and the pen in Yeres' hand was broken.

For the past ten years, Na Jilie did not go out at all. He only stayed in his courtyard. That woman stirred up a storm the moment she came. She's simply ...

Daisy's face was as dark as water, and she gritted her teeth.

“Ha.”

Yeres suddenly laughed.

The confidant was so frightened that his body trembled.

“This is a good opportunity!”

The second Princess Consort was stunned by what Ihuis said, as if she could not keep up with her son’s brain circuit.

“Mother, we’ve been preparing for so long, haven’t we been waiting for this day?”

Ihuis threw the broken pen into the trash can and returned to his usual calm.

what we need to do now is to find someone to spread the news that big brother is going to attend an event. Let everyone in Rou city know. When that day comes ... It will be a Grand occasion.

“What do you mean?”

In a split second, Daisy seemed to understand her son’s intentions, and her eyes also lit up.

Yeres smiled.

The answer was obvious.

“There’s an old Chinese saying, ‘water can carry a boat, but it can also capsize a boat’. Since my brother wants to open a gap here, I’ll help him.”

So, miss Lin, do you want to kick me out of this position like you did at Xuelan and help my crippled brother take over?

Yingluo, as long as I’m happy, nothing is impossible.

The conversation he had with Lin Hanxing the first time he met him replayed clearly in his mind. The smile on his lips remained unchanged, but his eyes clearly became colder.

That’s right, nothing is impossible.

But ...

I don’t believe that my years of preparation can’t compare to you, who just arrived!

Yeres laughed and looked out the window ...

.....

Green sea Villa.

The large hall of the villa was filled with people.

The leaders of the Huaji Hong gang and other branches were gathered together, waiting for Lin Hanxing’s orders. The LCD screen hanging on the wall was also connected to Yun Bai.

“There’s something I hope you can help me deal with in two days.”

Time was of the essence, so Lin Hanxing didn't spend too much time on small talk.

Before she contacted Yun Bai, she had already sent the information over by email.

I know that the time is short, but this is a matter of great importance. I hope that everyone can move.

Chapter 1619

1619 A long-lost outing

Two days later.

Na jilie sat in front of the floor-to-ceiling window. The clear sunlight shone on him, but it still could not dispel the haze.

Today was the day he had agreed to meet Lin Hanxing.

Her uncle had called her early in the morning to confirm the schedule and time of the event.

However, the more it was like this, the more najilie wanted to retreat.

The veins on his tightly clenched hands on the wheelchair's armrests were clearly visible. He was silent for an unknown period of time. Then, najilie reached out and slowly pulled up his trousers ...

His legs, which had not tried to walk for nearly 20 years, were showing signs of atrophying, and the ugly scars were cold and spread across his calves and knees, cruelly reminding him of what had happened in the past!

There was a sudden noise at the door.

Na jilie hurriedly put down his pants and turned his wheelchair fiercely, looking at the person who came in.

"The first Prince hasn't forgotten what day it is today, right?"

Yuan kangyuan walked over with a smile. Beside him was his mute uncle, who was expressionlessly holding a high-quality custom-made suit in his hand.

"Get out!"

"That won't do! If I really go out, that Lin guy will kill me!"

Yuan Kang raised his eyebrows.

He had been ordered to 'take care' of na jilie with the mute uncle. He was afraid that he would suddenly go back on his word and retreat, ruining their plan that had been set up for two days.

At first, he thought it was funny, but when he came in, he felt that Lin Hanxing's worry was not impossible.

He dared to use his head to swear that na jilie definitely did not want to go!

If he had come any later, he might have run away!

you have two choices now. One is to change your clothes and we'll wait here. The other is for mute uncle to help you change. You can choose!

Yuan Kang crossed his arms in front of his chest, as if he did not notice na jilie's ashen face and his murderous eyes.

"Get lost!"

Hearing na jilie's response, Yuan Kang raised his hand and picked his ears.

"Mute uncle, I'll leave it to you."

Then, he handed the scene over to his own backup.

After all, Lin Hanxing had prepared all kinds of countermeasures in advance. Perfect!

As he watched the mute uncle, who had removed the joints in his arms with a cold face that day, walk towards him expressionlessly, najilie's nerves started to jump.

"I'll change myself!"

He immediately changed his words.

Almost at the same time, the mute uncle stopped in his tracks.

"You said it, change it yourself!"

Yuan Kang handed the clothes to na jilie. His eyes were filled with regret that he could not see a good show.

After all ...

He was stripping the Prince's clothes!

Hehehehehehe ...

15 minutes later.

Na jilie, who had changed his clothes, came out from the inner room.

Yuan Kang immediately whistled to show his approval.

From top to bottom, from the tie to the cufflinks, they were all personally selected by the second young master of the Lei family, Lei min. It was just a change of clothes, but the depression in najilie's bones had instantly transformed into another kind of eye-catching dejected style.

"Call the stylist in."

Yuan Kang snapped his fingers, and the stylist Lin Hanxing had arranged for him immediately walked in.

Najilie instantly frowned.

"Don't touch ..."

“Eh? Why don’t you tell her yourself?”

Yuan Kang pretended to take out his phone and was about to call Lin Hanxing, but he immediately told na jilie to shut up.

He looked at Yuan Kang with a gloomy face.

“Lackey!”

Having heard it clearly, Yuan Kang picked up an Apple from the table and took a bite of it, then sat down on the sofa with his legs crossed.

This big brother still suffered less losses!

Back when he was in the hands of that demoness Lin xiaojie ...

Yuan Kang subconsciously shivered.

Unbearable to look back on, unbearable to look back on!

The stylist was busy with his work, so old su did not go to the door.

...

His expression seemed to be a little ugly, but because na jilie was still here, he held back. However, his serious expression still easily revealed old SU’s worry.

“If it’s because of the media, I advise you to relax.”

Yuan Kang’s mouth was full, and his voice was so low that only the two of them could hear him.

“As for the Lin girl ...”

“What doesn’t she know!”

F * ck! Yuan Kang spat. The mute uncle who was ‘supervising’ in front of him turned around and looked at him expressionlessly. Yuan Kang’s face immediately changed into a smile.

“You mean to say ...”

“Heaven’s secrets must not be revealed ...”

After he finished speaking, he took another big bite of the Apple, not feeling guilty at all for revealing the plot in advance.

Hearing this, old su was greatly relieved.

For the past two days, he had been constantly paying attention to the movements outside. Especially after he learned through internal channels that the participating media on the day of the event had all received the news that najilie was going to attend, his entire nerves were tense.

...

Ever since the incident, nagilie had spent more than ten years in the royal family. This meant that there was a huge gap between his communication with people and the second Prince, IHEs, who had high support from the people.

What if something happened at the event ...

Another live broadcast program!

Old su calmed his mind and returned his gaze to najilie, who was being toyed with by the stylist unwillingly.

The more she looked, the more her eyes felt sore.

It had been so many years since he had seen his grandson in such high spirits.

Old su had thought about it more than once. If na jilie could grow up safely until now ...

Time passed by.

The stylist quickly finished the finishing touches.

It had to be said that clothes make the man, even Yuan Kang had to admit that after cleaning up, he had almost forgotten the image of the Prince who was so sick that he was almost dead when they first met.

Um ...

He could also forget about the image of him vomiting blood.

Um ...

He could even forget how Lin xiaojiu had angered him to the point where his face had turned green.

Um ...

Forget it, I'll forget about it!

"Let's go, the car is already waiting outside."

.....

At the event venue.

The scheduled time of the event had not arrived yet, but the scene was already swarmed by countless reporters from the media and television stations. All of them had the most professional equipment in their hands, and all of them were waiting for the target to appear.

Only the heavens knew that they had not seen the first Prince in person for almost twenty years.

Although the official website of the royal family would have close-up photos of the royal family members every year, there was always a difference between the photos and the actual person. Not to mention ...

Now that the support for the second Prince, ihess, was rising steadily, the first Prince suddenly appeared in the public eye again. It was hard not to make people think of him.

But no matter what the real purpose was, as long as they could get first-hand information today and bring the headquarters into play as soon as possible, they would definitely not have to worry about the ratings and sales!

The people were far too curious about the first Prince, who had disappeared from the public eye for far too long.

This ...

At this time, the scene was already surrounded by people who supported the first Prince nagilie from all over the place, and they were in a confrontation with people who supported the second Prince, IHEs.

They hadn't arrived yet, but the atmosphere had already heated up.

It was really ...

It made the media excited!

It felt like a prelude to something big!

Chapter 1620

1620 Big trouble (1)

Dapano looked at his watch from time to time, but his wife did not care about his nervousness.

"Look at you, you're so scared ..."

Sally pursed her lips and admired the big diamond ring she had just bought on her finger.

Under the sun, the diamond ring reflected a dazzling light.

"How many times have I told you! Don't wear these things in public! Pick! Immediately take it off!"

When he saw the diamond ring, dapano was about to break out in a cold sweat. He had repeatedly reminded them to keep a low profile in public just to avoid unnecessary trouble.

Sally unwillingly removed the ring from her finger, carefully wrapped it up, and put it in her bag.

He didn't dare to spend the money he had and didn't dare to wear the jewelry and watches he had. This life was really boring!

"Why aren't they here yet?"

Dapano looked at his watch again, not noticing that his wife was rolling her eyes behind his back.

Ever since he returned from the royal family yesterday, he had been restless, as if there was a nail under his butt. He was so noisy that she couldn't sleep well.

She did not understand. He was just a crippled Prince who was destined to be crippled. So what if he had the support of that troublesome Lin xiaojiu? Could it be that she could help najilie build up his reputation in a short period of time?

Was she that awesome?

“They’re here!”

Just as Sally was thinking about this, she heard debonno’s exclamation. She looked over and screamed out of reflex, giving debonno a shock.

“What are you doing?”

Dapano retorted unhappily.

“That car!”

Sally’s eyes were fixed on the stairs, burning with desire.

“The world’s limited to six Koenigsegg One! There isn’t a single one in the entire country g!”

This was a sports car that many people couldn’t buy even if they had the money. The price of the bicycle was already over 100 million Yuan, and now, someone was actually driving this car here?

Sally was clearly not the only one who had the same doubts.

The media downstairs was already in an uproar as they all turned their attention to the luxurious supercar.

Soon, the silver-gray supercar drifted and stopped arrogantly in front of the media area of the event venue. It was a deliberate warning!

A man got out of the driver’s seat very quickly.

The sunglasses on Yuan Kang’s nose perfectly covered the excitement in his eyes. When Lin Hanxing threw the car keys to him in the morning, he was so excited that he felt like he was about to take off. Otherwise, he would not have gone to the royal family to accept Gillie.

After taking two steps forward, Yuan Kang suddenly stopped.

He finally remembered what he had forgotten.

He embarrassed himself with great acting skills, turned around, went to the other side of the car, opened the door, and looked at najilie, who was in the front passenger seat.

The other party’s expression was unsightly. It was obvious that he had already seen the scene that he had just forgotten.

“Please don’t mind it! Do you want me to carry you out?”

driving into his favorite sports car, even if na jilie gave him a hard time, yuan kang was still as easy to talk to as he could. he was just short of serving him to his heart’s content and picking him up from the front passenger seat like a princess.

“i! ! wheel! chair!”

na jilie gritted his teeth as he spoke. every word and sentence was filled with the taste of being swallowed alive.

“oh, oh, oh, oh, oh ...”

yuan kang only reacted after some time.

Fortunately, the mute uncle's car quickly caught up with him. His wheelchair was pushed over silently, resolving the awkwardness.

Yuan Kang really bent down to carry him ...

"Get lost!"

Na jilie's eyes were red from anger.

"Tsk, treating my good intentions like a donkey's liver and lungs!"

Yuan Kang grinned and supported himself with one hand on the roof of the car, his eyes full of 'watching a good show'.

Until the mute uncle glanced at him coldly.

Instantly, Yuan Kang became as obedient as a quail.

Fortunately, until najilie sat back in the wheelchair, the scene here could not be seen by the media due to the angle. Otherwise, it would be another mess of nonsense.

"It's the first Prince!"

When Yuan Kang pushed na jilie out from the back of the car, the media reporters, who had been silent for a short while, pointed their cameras at na jilie like crazy and began to demonstrate what was crazy.

The first Prince!

The first Prince was alive and well!

All the photos in the media's hands were from more than a decade ago when he was still alive. As his first and possibly last appearance in more than a decade, they had to make good use of this opportunity!

But ...

No one had expected the first Prince's temperament to be so mesmerizing!

It was completely different from the dejected state in their minds, and he was not inferior to the second Prince, Yalas. The female reporters present could not take their eyes off him.

...

"Don't be nervous,"

Yuan Kang lowered his voice and said.

Ever since he got out of the car, he could clearly feel that na jilie's body was unusually tense, like a rock. Thinking of his experience, Yuan Kang could understand.

"What about the woman?"

She had tricked him into coming, but she was not prepared to come?

“Heaven’s secrets can not be revealed.”

Yuan Kang replied mysteriously. Would he tell na jilie that the couple had gone to the international airport early in the morning to wait for the private jet to land and pick them up?

Hehe, definitely not!

The bodyguards assigned by Lei Xiao had already guarded the road as soon as the two of them got out of the car. Not even a fly could fly in, let alone a person.

The bodyguards were all well-trained and were not inferior to those sent by the royal family. However, one could still see some differences. This difference made people even more curious about the origin and identity of these people.

“You’re here.”

Dapano rushed down the stairs, but before he could get close, he was stopped by the bodyguards.

“Why are you stopping me?”

Dapano frowned, his expression unhappy.

The bodyguard in black did not even look at him, treating him like air.

“Uncle,”

Na jilie said in a low voice.

“These are all Mr. Ley’s men.”

No wonder he was so arrogant!

Although dapano thought this in his heart, he did not show it on his face. He was a wily old fox.

“Didn’t I arrange a VIP passage for you? And what’s with the car?”

Dapano’s gaze fell on the Koenigsegg One. The streamlined sports car body looked even more luxurious and Noble under the sunlight, making it hard for people to look away.

Of course, it was not only dapano who felt this way. Many car-loving reporters could not bear to look away.

“Miss Lin borrowed it.”

No one knew if it was intentional or not, but najilie avoided the first question.

As they were talking, the first Prince’s supporters began to shout out slogans in a frenzy after seeing the person in question. The second Prince’s supporters, not to be outdone, also began to shout, and the scene was in chaos.

The mute uncle’s gaze swept over and he frowned.

Even Yuan Kang could tell that something was wrong with this scene, let alone him.

Logically speaking, the first Prince had been in seclusion for so long. Even if there were people who had a good impression of him because of his charitable activities over the years, such a crazy way of doing things still gave people a strong sense of disharmony.

It was as if he wanted to push najilie to the forefront of the storm.

“The event is about to begin, let’s go in first.”

When he noticed the gazes of the few people, dapano urged them guiltily.

Najilie, who was sitting in a wheelchair, looked at him deeply.

“Alright,” he said.
