

Goodnight 1651

Chapter 1651

1651 The treatment plan

“You are a trustworthy person.”

Compared to the first time they met, the current najilie had shed off the hostility of being The Enemy of the World. There was even a smile on his face that had not been seen for a long time. It had to be said that this was a qualitative leap.

Lin Hanxing smiled noncommittally.

On the other hand, Yuan Dabao, who was in his arms, reached out to stroke the Falcon’s fur from time to time.

“Let’s talk about the treatment plan.”

Lin Hanxing looked at sacred hands.

it’s very simple. I’ll break your two injured legs and put them back together to grow. Then, with my medicine, I guarantee that not only will you be able to stand up again within three months, but you can also run and jump however you want.

Sacred hands ‘tone was like he was joking, but najilie, who had been in contact with him for a long time, believed him without a doubt.

“When can we start?”

He asked impatiently.

“Anytime, but ...”

There was a rare hesitation on sacred hands ‘face, which also made najilie’s heart jump to his throat.

But what?

“I have to make it clear to you in advance.”

At this point, sacred hands paused for a moment before continuing.

first, I need a helper who can help you break your legs. Second, because I want to determine the location of the old injury, you can’t use any painkiller or painkiller. You have to endure it.

“Let him endure?”

A chill ran down Zhan Nanheng’s spine when he heard this. How painful was this?

“What else?”

Sacred hands rolled his eyes at Zhan Nanheng in a bad mood, as if he had just said some useless nonsense.

but this helper must be done in one go. I can't be soft-hearted, and of course, I have to control my strength. Anyway ... It's not easy to find.

What sacred hands was most worried about was still the problem of cooperation with him.

Any slight mistake would cause immeasurable consequences.

Who should he look for?

"I'll do it."

Lin Hanxing said faintly, and sacred hands' eyes lit up.

That's right.

Why didn't he think of that!

Wasn't the person in front of him the best candidate?

Sacred hands instantly snapped his fingers.

Zhan Nanheng wanted to say something but stopped.

"There's no one more suitable than me,"

As if sensing Zhan Nanheng's concerns, Lin Hanxing spoke in a deep voice. Furthermore, since she had accepted na jilie's sheep head, she had to do her best. After all ...

What she hated the most was to owe others.

"Inform old su that he's not coming."

It was easy to break a leg, but it was not easy to deal with the follow-up problems after the leg was broken. After all, it was not Lin Hanxing's decision to completely hide the news or not to hide it but to guard it strictly.

Soon, old su would arrive.

When he heard that he could deal with the problem of his grandson's leg today, he was excited.

He had been waiting for this day for far too long.

"We can't hide it."

In the inner room, old su finally spoke after thinking for a long time.

Lin Hanxing grunted in acknowledgment, but her eyes swept across the rows of bookshelves in the room. The last time she came, she had not carefully observed the room because she was in a hurry, but now she had the time to take a look.

Many of the books on the bookshelves were out of print ancient books.

The content included all kinds of military tactics, the business world, and so on. Some of the books were even worn out, which showed the love of the owner of the book.

"Then let's release the news,"

Lin Hanxing's voice was flat.

Since he couldn't hide it, he would let everyone know.

"You like to read?"

While the Holy hands was still preparing, Lin Hanxing and Na jilie chatted for a while.

"I'm free anyway."

Na jilie spoke calmly. The more critical the moment, the calmer he was.

"It's a good habit,"

Lin Hanxing smiled. He leaned against the bookcase and looked at najilie, who was lying opposite him.

...

"How's your understanding of the other states?"

"I know a little."

He had been cooped up in his residence for the past few years, so he was not completely ignorant of the outside world. At least, he was still aware of the major events that had happened around him.

Lin Hanxing didn't ask any further, but Zhan Nanheng, who was beside him, interrupted curiously.

"You also know about Xue LAN?"

"If you're talking about the first Prince's passing, and the first wangfei was forced to accept you back to Xuelan, then I do know."

Na jilie's answer made Zhan Nanheng's expression change subtly.

"What kind of person is the first Prince?"

Zhan Nanheng was rather curious about the Prince who had never met him but had started the story.

However, he did not expect that this time, najilie would frown.

His silence also made Lin Hanxing stop what he was doing and look in najilie's direction.

...

"It's hard to say,"

Najilie seemed to be trying hard to find a word to describe him, but he gave up in the end.

"Hard to say?"

This answer was out of Zhan Nanheng's expectations. He had just carelessly started the conversation and thought that the other party would praise the late first Prince for being kind and generous like the outside world. He didn't expect it to be these four words.

"I have complicated feelings about him."

Najilie could not describe what he was feeling, let alone describe it with words. After all, they had only met a few times, but ...

Sacred hands had walked in.

He gave Lin Hanxing a look, and the two of them stood in the corner and chatted for a while. All of this was not noticed by najilie, who was still entangled in the previous topic.

"I don't know if you've ever seen that kind of person ..."

Lin Hanxing quietly sat down beside najilie.

"What?"

it's that kind. Although they speak to you in a gentle tone, you just can't guess what they're thinking, plotting, or ...

Najilie was halfway through his sentence when he suddenly realized that the words he had just said seemed to be completely applicable to the woman in front of him.

Even Zhan Nanheng's expression became subtle.

She suspected that he was insinuating something.

"....."

Sacred hands appeared beside the two of them silently.

"I'm not talking about you."

Na jilie explained awkwardly.

"I know,"

Lin Hanxing smiled, but the smile did not reach his eyes. In the next second, when he regained his expressionless face, a sharp pain came from najilie's legs, causing him to scream uncontrollably.

"....."

"....."

"....."

Were they so fast and accurate?

So the chat just now was to divert her attention?

No one had clearly seen how she did it, and najilie's legs had already completed the entire process of being broken again. If it was not for the fact that his tall body was trembling violently on the bed due to the unbearable pain, they would have thought that everything that had just happened was just a beautiful illusion ...

"What are you still doing?"

Lin Hanxing stood up and looked at sacred hands, who was stunned.

“Bone reconnecting.”

“.....”

“.....”

“.....”

Perhaps the shock from the scene just now was too great, but when the other three heard her voice, they had the illusion that their illusionary limbs were in pain.

Yes, fix the bones, fix the bones.

Chapter 1652

1652 Use your brain before you mess with me

As soon as Lin Hanxing came out of the inner room, a waiter came up to him in a hurry.

The attendant whispered.

When Zhan Nanheng came out, he saw Lin Hanxing’s cold eyes and frosty face. Even the air around her seemed to have frozen with her, and a cold wind was blowing.

“What’s wrong?”

Zhan Nanheng asked, frowning.

Her childhood friend’s expression didn’t look right.

“Our Yuan Bao has been blocked by someone.”

Lin Hanxing said indifferently.

Just now, she was afraid that Yuan Bao would be frightened during the process of treating na ji lie’s leg, so she had asked him to wait outside for the time being. In addition, with the Falcon around, Lin Hanxing was not worried about Yuan Bao’s safety.

“What?”

Zhan Nanheng’s expression changed.

Not to mention Yuan Dabao, who was the Apple of the Lei family’s eye, even he doted on this little lamb. If anyone dared to touch him, he would be the first to rush up without waiting for his childhood friend and the rest to do so!

“Where are you?”

Lin Hanxing did not say anything. He threw the wet tissue used to wipe his hands into the trash can and lowered his eyes.

“Follow me.”

.....
Yuan Dabao was a little annoyed.

He was sitting on a thick tree branch with his legs dangling in the air. He rested his chin on his hands while you Yi stood beside him, his sharp eyes scanning the group of people standing under the tree.

“I’m so hungry.”

Yuan Bao pursed his lips in grievance, and his stomach began to rumble.

The Falcon flapped its wings as a response.

“I really want to eat red braised pork, braised pork with preserved vegetables, sweet and sour pork, stir-fried pork ...”

He was drooling as he spoke.

“Little brat, get down here!”

There was a clamor under the tree.

“I just don’t want to anger you to death, so so so so so so!”

It was his fault for hearing them talking bad about first aunt together. He was so shameless.

Shangguan Qinghe looked gloomily at Yuan Dabao on the tree. Yalas, who was beside him, was frowning as well. Just now, when they were discussing ‘important’ matters, this little thing had barged in.

Especially when they heard that he was someone Lin xiaojiu had brought along, it was even more impossible for them to ask him to leave.

However, this damned bird had ruined their plans.

As long as their men tried to get close to this little thing, this eagle-like bird would immediately open fire and force their men to retreat with its strength alone.

This led to the current situation.

“Get him down from the tree at all costs.”

The expression on ehuis’s face was hidden in the shadows, without the slightest trace of his usual smile.

After receiving the second Prince’s order, the attendants surrounding the stage did not hesitate and immediately took action.

Suddenly, you Gu soared into the sky.

The sharp cry resounded through the sky like a signal.

“I’ll see who dares to touch him.”

A cold female voice rang out, attracting everyone’s attention.

Compared to the huge crowd, Lin Hanxing and Zhan Nanheng’s combination seemed a little thin.

Lin xiaojiu, we meet again.

When Shangguan Qinghe saw her, he could still remember the losses he had suffered at the snow orchid auction. He was so angry that his teeth began to itch again. He wanted to shoot her on the spot the next second.

Lin Hanxing coldly glanced at Shangguan Qinghe.

“Only the two of you today?”

Shangguan Qinghe looked behind Lin Hanxing, his expression was a little mean, as if he was emboldened by his young age.

Lin Hanxing put his index finger to his lips and whistled handsomely.

The Falcon swooped down from the sky and finally landed on Lin Hanxing’s shoulder.

“.....”

He was a little handsome.

If Lin Hanxing was not his rival, Shangguan Qinghe would have snapped his fingers at her.

“First aunt!”

Yuan Bao, who was sitting on the tree branch, put his chubby little hands around his mouth and said in a baby voice.

“Come down.”

...

Lin Hanxing specially reminded her in a gentle voice, which surprised Shangguan Qinghe and Yalas, as if they did not expect her to have such a side.

Lin Hanxing walked down the tree and opened his arms to Yuan Bao.

Yuan Bao jumped down from the tree without a second word. There was not a single trace of fear on his fair and delicate little face as he landed steadily in Lin Hanxing’s arms.

“Hehe!”

Yuan Bao spread his arms and landed perfectly on the ground.

“The two of them are bad guys!”

Yuan Bao poked his head out of Lin Hanxing’s arms and pointed at Shangguan Qinghe and Yhess. Yhess narrowed his eyes and looked at Yuan Bao dangerously.

Just how much did he hear?

After Lin Hanxing carefully examined the yuan Bao and made sure that he was not hurt, she handed the yuan Bao to Zhan Nanheng.

“Cover your ears.”

Lin Hanxing's voice was soft, but it made Zhan Nanheng shiver subconsciously.

...

He quickly reached out and moved Yuan Bao's face towards his chest, while also grabbing his chubby little hands to cover his ears, not letting the Socialist flower suffer any wind and rain.

After all, from Zhan Nanheng's point of view, Lin Hanxing had a stomach full of anger ever since Yuan Kang left. Previously, he had only suppressed his anger because of na jilie's leg.

But now ...

This group of people was probably going to become her childhood friend's punching bag.

"Good boy, we won't listen."

Zhan Nanheng hugged Yuan Dabao even tighter, afraid that he would hear and see something that he shouldn't have received at his age.

Lin Hanxing's expression changed.

"Thank you for taking care of our child today."

Lin Hanxing's voice was calm, just like the expression on her face. As he spoke, he walked toward Shangguan Qinghe and yhess.

"That chubby little girl who can fight ten people isn't here. You can't really think ..."

Shangguan Qinghe sneered.

In the past, Lin xiaojiu was always protected by her subordinates, but now, she only had two people on her side. How dare she be so arrogant? Was it Liang jingru who gave her the courage?

Lin Hanxing did not answer, her slender fingers clenched so tightly that they made a cracking sound.

Before Shangguan Qinghe could finish his words, his expression suddenly became frightened.

What did he just see ...

The underlings who were hinted by yhars's eyes fell to the ground one by one beside Lin Hanxing like paper men. He could not even see her movements clearly, but based on Shangguan Qinghe's experience

...

If Lin Hanxing had not restrained his strength, the people on the ground would have lost their lives.

That was why she was usually unwilling to make a move ...

Was it because he was lazy?

By the time they realized this, the surrounding area was already filled with wails. Just like that, Lin Hanxing arrived in front of the two of them effortlessly, stepping through a storm of blood.

The Falcon soared above the group, seemingly looking for an opportunity.

Shangguan Qinghe, you don't really think that I'm where I am today all because of someone else, do you?"

Lin Hanxing's voice was full of sarcasm.

"Use your brain before you mess with me."

Lin Hanxing reached out and touched his temple, not hiding his disdain for him at all.

God, use your F * cking brain!

Shangguan Qinghe was so angry that he was about to explode. When they were in Xuelan, she had already suppressed him. Now that they were in Rou city, how could they meet again?

"Miss Lin, aren't you a little too confident?"

what's going on? " yeres's voice was low, and his face was gloomy.

Chapter 1653

1653 And based on what?

"I'm confident because I have the capital to back my confidence. What about you, second Prince?"

Lin Hanxing's face was hidden in the intersection of light and shadow, which gave people a strong sense of intimidation. What's more, there were people lying on the ground next to her, wailing and demonic sounds piercing their ears. It was impossible to ignore them even if they wanted to.

"And what right do you have?"

The muscles on yeres's cheeks were clearly clenched, as if he was enduring.

"I have the entire senanda family behind me."

He said.

Lin Hanxing laughed instantly. His eyes moved between Yalas and Shangguan Qinghe, which made Shangguan Qinghe's hair stand on end. To be honest, he was really a little scared of her.

"Then I'll wait and see."

.....

On the way back.

Yuan Bao was sound asleep in Lin Hanxing's arms.

Zhan Nanheng noticed her thoughtful expression.

"What's wrong?"

"Why do you think Shangguan Qinghe is here?"

Lin Hanxing asked indifferently.

Shangguan Qinghe's appearance was obviously a message.

"You mean the Shangguan family is going to interfere?"

Zhan Nanheng frowned. If the Shangguan family got involved, things would become even more difficult.

"I'm afraid the situation in Xuelan has changed."

Lin Hanxing gently stroked Yuan Bao's little wool roll, his calm voice containing infinite danger.

"What change?"

Zhan Nanheng's heart jumped.

Lin Hanxing shook his head and did not say anything.

Shangguan Qinghe's appearance and the state of EHESS made Lin Hanxing have a bold guess.

If it was true, the consequences would be unimaginable.

After a few seconds of silence, Lin Hanxing took out his phone and called Zuo Xiangdong, asking him to gather his men and wait for her.

"The senanda family will make a move?"

The moment Lin Hanxing hung up the phone, Zhan Nanheng spoke.

After following Lin Hanxing for a while, Zhan Nanheng had already matured from the National idol who only wanted to save his own life. He was also more and more able to keep up with his childhood friend's pace, and this ...

It was also what Snow orchid Sutan wanted to see the most.

"What do they want?"

"What are you panicking for?"

Lin Hanxing raised his head and met Zhan Nanheng's eyes. His cold gaze was like ice water that was poured over his head, causing Zhan Nanheng to regain his calm.

"Go to the Rou City branch of Huaji."

She said.

.....

Huaji Rou City branch, conference hall.

The deep-colored Chinese style decoration style made people hold their breath as soon as they stepped in.

Lin Hanxing sat in the main seat in the middle.

Zuo Xiangdong answered every question she asked, and no one else dared to interrupt.

Even the Prince of Xuelan, Zhan Nanheng, was the same.

"If I want you to bring most of the people back to Xuelan without alerting anyone, how long will it take?"

Lin Hanxing asked, holding a teacup.

The White mist shrouded most of her expression, making it impossible for people to understand her at all.

"You mean most of it?"

Zuo Xiangdong asked again cautiously.

apart from Xue LAN, all the forces of the Hua Ji and Hong gang in the other 12 states of country G.

Lin Hanxing took a sip and looked up at Zuo Xiangdong.

Zuo Xiangdong, who was sitting opposite her, was shocked by her words.

"At least a week."

In fact, if all of them were to move out, it would not even take a day. However, there was a condition that they did not alarm others. They could only gather in batches at an inconspicuous time, which was the most troublesome process.

"That's too long. I'll give you four days."

Lin Hanxing's voice carried unquestionable power. Zuo Xiangdong did some mental calculations and nodded with difficulty.

...

"Did something happen?"

Why would he need to mobilize the forces of the other twelve states?

"Prevention is better than cure."

The five simple words doubled the pressure on Zuo Xiangdong.

This was almost mobilizing all the forces within the Chinese sphere of influence in country G. What exactly did they need to prevent?

But Zuo Xiangdong did not ask.

Lin Hanxing never did things without a reason. Besides, she was able to gain the trust of the big bosses such as elder mu and Yuan shaojing at such a young age, which proved her ability.

"What happens after we arrive?"

When Zuo Xiangdong spoke again, he had regained his calm.

"Tell them to stand by and wait for my notice."

The air was filled with the smell of an impending storm.

...

Lin Hanxing placed the teacup back on the table.

Now, she could only hope that her judgment was wrong ...

.....

In the evening, the group returned to the green sea Villa.

The gloominess from Yuan Kang's departure had yet to dissipate, and the atmosphere was a little more depressing than before.

Without explaining much, Lin Hanxing went upstairs.

Just as she finished her bath, there was a knock on the door.

The moment he opened the door, Song Chenxi's face appeared.

"A chat?"

A gentle smile appeared on Song Chenxi's pale face.

"They sent you here?"

Lin Hanxing glanced at the few faces that flashed past in the corner and did not know whether to laugh or cry.

"They're afraid that you're still angry."

Song Chenxi did not deny it.

Lin Hanxing stepped aside and called Song Chenxi in. The two of them sat on the sofa in front of the floor-to-ceiling window and let the Golden setting sun shine on each other, as if they were automatically coated with a layer of soft light.

"Have you thought about what you're going to do after everything is over?"

Song Chenxi faced the floor-to-ceiling window and leaned her slender body weight on the sofa. She did not mention the topic of Yuan Kang. She just looked at the beautiful sunset and said gently.

"I don't know,"

Lin Hanxing blinked.

In her dictionary, the word 'over' did not seem to exist.

"How about you?"

Lin Hanxing asked Song Chenxi.

"I want to have a good sleep."

Song Chenxi started laughing after she finished speaking.

“Do you think I’m useless?”

Lin Hanxing smiled as well and shook his head.

She knew the pain in her heart.

“There’s something that I hope you can help me with.”

Song Chenxi and Lin Hanxing looked at each other. Her snow-white hair set off the warmth in her Amber-like eyes.

“Go ahead,”

Song Chenxi passed her the things that she had prepared.

It was a letter of authorization that had been signed.

“After I leave, give my eyes to Gong Yun.”

When she said this, song Chenxi’s voice could not be calmer. It was as if she was simply discussing the weather with her.

Lin Hanxing glanced at it but did not take it.

I’ve asked the doctor. The cause of her blindness is a damaged cornea. As long as there is a new cornea replacement, she will be able to regain her vision soon.

Lin Hanxing still did not take it.

“Chenxi ...”

I, song Chenxi, have lived to this day. I have no family, no lover, but fortunately, I still have you as a friend.

Song Chenxi turned her head slightly. Her long, snow-white hair flowed down with her movements.

“I only believe in you.”

As song Chenxi smiled, Lin Hanxing’s hand finally moved and he took it.

Seeing her take it, song Chenxi snuggled back into the sofa and looked at the sunset outside the floor-to-ceiling window.

“Unfortunately, it’s already dusk.”

Lin Hanxing seemed to want to say something, but the short beeping of his phone interrupted him. Lin Hanxing glanced at the phone screen, and the air froze.

Song Chenxi noticed the change in Lin Hanxing’s expression.

“What’s wrong?”

Something happened to elder Yan.

Chapter 1654

1654 Under the undercurrent

Today, master Yan's original plan was to attend an important event, but before he left, his car broke down, so he had to change to another car. It just so happened that this car had a problem.

If it wasn't for the mute uncle's vigilance, the consequences would have been unimaginable.

Lin Hanxing immediately made the call.

The mute uncle picked up very quickly.

"Pass the phone to master Yan."

Soon, master Yan's deep voice came from the other end of the phone, like a pan Bell.

"Little girl, I'm fine."

At this time, master Yan, who was completely shrouded in low air pressure, was sitting at the side. His years of habit made him not as flustered as others imagined when he encountered things. His face, which was full of wrinkles, was full of seriousness.

"No, you have something to do."

Lin Hanxing said coldly.

There was a brief silence on the other end of the phone.

"You mean to say ..."

"Cancel all External Affairs and go to the hospital."

Master Yan's sharp and deep eyes fell on the car that was seriously damaged and had white smoke coming out of its engine.

"You want me to lower my head to those demons and monsters?"

Even though Lin Hanxing had warned elder Yan before and even sent the mute uncle to his side, elder Yan did not believe that anyone would dare to do anything to him until today.

"I'm not dead yet!"

Elder Yan sneered.

All these years, the long family had only raised long qingru, who was worse than a pig or a dog!

"Granduncle."

All of elder Yan's anger was extinguished by the words 'Lin Hanxing', and his heart almost melted.

"You only need to be patient for a week. After a week, I will bring the remaining three to the capital."

"The remaining three?"

"The PU clan has intervened."

Lin Hanxing had no intention of hiding it from elder Yan.

"What are you going to do?"

I still need your help with what I want to do, so please take care of your body.

There was a brief silence between the two of them.

"I know."

Elder Yan sighed deeply and threw his stubbornness to the back of his mind.

"I'll do as you say."

He hung up the phone.

Lin Hanxing, who was in the green sea Villa, played with his phone and did not speak for a while.

"Hanxing,"

Song Chenxi tilted her head and looked at her worriedly.

"The heavens are about to change."

Lin Hanxing smiled and said.

.....

At night, Yun Bai appeared silently.

"It's done?"

Lin Hanxing asked calmly as he looked at Yun Bai, who took the glass of water from Bai Xi and drank it all in one gulp.

Yun Bai swallowed the water in his mouth with great effort, and his hand was already giving her a thumbs up.

"You're right."

Not only did the other party raise the price, but they even called three times during this period. Their faces were pale with anxiety, but they refused to let go.

Lin Hanxing was not surprised at all.

"Did you take the things?"

"I've asked someone to follow them. The things should be at the airport now."

Lin Hanxing did not say anything. He seemed to be calculating something in his heart.

"What's your plan?"

Yun Bai leaned over and asked curiously, "did she really ask someone to take the thing away?"

“What kind of plan do you think I have?”

Lin Hanxing asked instead of answering.

“How would I know what you’re planning? I’m not ray!”

...

In this world, probably only ray could understand what she was thinking with just one look.

“Then don’t ask.”

reveal a little. I’m dying of curiosity.

Yun Bai asked.

“You’re just in time. I have something for you.”

It saved her the trouble of contacting him again.

“What?”

Yun Bai said seriously.

Lin Hanxing said in a low voice, and Yun Bai’s expression became more and more serious as he listened.

“Are you sure?”

Lin Hanxing did not say anything. He just smiled.

...

“I’ll go back immediately to make preparations.”

Yun Bai didn’t hesitate. He nodded and turned to leave.

“Yunbai,”

When he was about to reach the door, Lin Hanxing’s voice came from behind.

Yun Bai turned around.

you can pay attention to the news for the next two days.

.....

It was already midnight when Lei Xiao returned.

The first thing he did after he got into bed was to pull Lin Hanxing into his arms, and Lin Hanxing naturally leaned closer to him.

In fact, she had woken up the moment Thunder valiant beast returned.

“I’ve already prepared it.”

His thin lips fell on her hair and touched it gently. It was a tenderness that only belonged to the two of them.

“Yes.”

Lin Hanxing buried her face in Lei Xiao’s chest and sniffed the fresh wooden scent on his body that had just taken a bath.

“I’ll leave the doll to Lei Xiaosi.”

Her voice was slightly hoarse. After a busy day, she could only truly relax in the Thunder valiant beast’s arms.

Lin Hanxing was too tired.

Lei Xiao understood her.

So, he just opened his arms and held her in his arms, his big palms gently rubbing her back.

“Go to sleep.”

Lei Xiao raised his arm slightly and dimmed the light in the room.

A pair of eagle-like sharp eyes, in the dim light, gently took in all the fatigue in Lin Hanxing’s eyes. He had only come to Rou city for a short period of time, and his wife had lost all the meat that she had worked so hard to raise.

“Good dream.”

Beijing, special hospital.

Midnight.

Long qingru and PU Weishi hurried out of the elevator, followed by a large group of people.

Before he could get close to the ward, he was stopped by someone.

“What do you mean?”

Long qingru glared at the person who stopped her.

“No one is allowed to visit without orders.”

These were security guards who had been sent from elsewhere. Their expressions were serious and there was no room for negotiation.

“The person lying inside is my uncle!”

It was the first time long qingru had been treated like this. She couldn’t believe it and even her voice was trembling.

The Guard’s expression did not change.

"No visiting without orders."

"You ..."

Before long qingru could do anything, PU Weishi reached out and stopped her.

"There's no need to say anymore."

Pu Wei's face that exuded the charm of a mature man slowly curved into a smile, as if he was not angry at the other's insistence.

"I'll ask someone to put the fruits and flowers outside. This won't break the rules, right?"

PU Weishi was extremely polite to the guard.

The latter made a gesture of "go ahead," which was considered a compromise.

The two sides seemed to have settled their differences in peace, but when Pu Wei Shi turned to leave, his expression became cold.

It wasn't until they got out of the elevator and reached the underground parking lot that Pu Wei let go of long qingru's hand.

"Something's not right."

"What's wrong?"

Now, long qingru's heart would beat wildly with the slightest movement.

PU Weishi did not speak.

Her phone rang at that moment.

He picked up the phone with one hand. Not long after he listened, the haze in Pu Wei's eyes dissipated.

"I'll pick him up personally."

PU Weishi hung up the phone.

"The dog's head will arrive early tomorrow."

Even though he had spent more than he had expected, for PU Weishi, money was not a problem, and anything that could be solved with money was even less of a problem.

"So fast?"

This was the first good news in a few days, and long qingru's face brightened.

"There's nothing I can't do if I want to do it."

As he spoke, Pu Wei turned his head to look at the electric ladder. The red numbers on it were still jumping.

He sneered.

Chapter 1655

1655 Who is better?

The next morning.

The sun had just risen. Lin Hanxing stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window in black silk pajamas, bathed in the morning light.

A firm embrace suddenly appeared behind her and pulled her into his arms.

Lin Hanxing naturally leaned over.

“Looking at the time, the dog’s head should be landing in the capital.”

She said.

“Yes.”

Thunder owl rested his chin on the top of her head.

“The game has begun.”

.....

Beijing, International Airport.

The special passage had already been applied for and reported in advance. When long qingru’s group appeared in Pu Wei, it really caused people to look at them for a long time. Their posture made people mistakenly think that some important international figure was about to appear.

The waiting time was especially long.

In the private lounge, long qingru was a little uneasy.

“Is there really no movement from Lin xiaojiu’s side?”

This was the sixth time she had asked this question in ten minutes.

“Who do you think is the one raising the price with me?”

PU Weishi’s voice was low, a flash of viciousness in his eyes.

I think you’ve been scared out of your wits by a mere Lin xiaojiu.

PU Weishi sneered.

Long qingru shuddered and didn’t say anything.

PU Weishi’s subordinate quickly walked in and bent down to whisper into PU Weishi’s ear.

“We’re here.”

He said.

PU Weishi's mature face had a determined smile. He got up, and long qingru hurriedly followed him out of the resting room.

In order to be faster, PU Weishi didn't even hesitate to book a private plane.

The group crossed the covered bridge.

After the dog's head had arrived, PU Weishi naturally had other plans, but he still had to think about how to use the pressure of public opinion to gain some benefits for himself.

Thinking like this, Pu Wei was filled with confidence.

Soon, a special anti-oxidation box with a dog's head appeared in front of everyone. PU Weishi took the lead to walk towards it, but long qingru's heart was still heavy as if there was a stone on it.

It was as if something was going to happen in the next second.

"President PU."

The person in charge of the negotiations in Rou city was filled with joy.

"Has it been confirmed?"

As he asked this, Pu Wei's gaze did not leave the chest.

"The experts have confirmed it. There's no problem."

PU Weishi's thin lips smiled.

Lin xiaojiu was nothing more than this.

While the conversation was going on, a clamor came from nearby. Pu Wei couldn't help but frown, but before he could speak, the source of the clamor came straight for them.

Not long after, the media appeared with live broadcast equipment.

This was clearly not something that PU Weishi and the others had noticed, and even PU Weishi's smile gradually disappeared.

Fortunately, the bodyguards around him reacted in time and blocked a large number of media outside.

"Mr. Pu ..."

Because of this unexpected situation, long qingru subconsciously took a step back, the uneasiness in her heart expanding.

"Mr. Pu, may I ask when you started preparing?"

The reporters asked one after another as if to grab first-hand information. However, Pu Wei could recognize each word when they were separated, but when put together, it was really confusing.

Why did the reporters appear?

Start preparing for what?

The various questions caused Pu Wei to choose to be silent.

Just as the situation was in a strange stalemate, there was a commotion behind the large group of reporters. A group of security guards appeared in the public's field of vision.

Pu Weishi had clearly seen these people last night.

Elder Yan appeared in front of everyone without warning.

His appearance immediately caused the situation to change, and Pu Wei Shi narrowed his eyes.

...

As expected.

He had already noticed that something was wrong last night.

However, what was he planning to do at this time?

Or ...

Was it related to Lin xiaojiu?

"Elder Yan?"

After a short silence, a large number of media reporters exclaimed. It should be known that such an important figure, except for important international events, would never have such a close opportunity to interact with each other in private.

Moreover, they had just received news yesterday that the car that elder Yan was in had an accident and he had been sent to the special li hospital that very night. However ...

Now, it seemed that he was safe?

"Everyone, please calm down."

As soon as elder Yan opened his mouth, the imposing aura that he exuded from the war era immediately intimidated everyone. The originally noisy environment also became silent, as if someone had pressed the pause button.

...

"Qingru, come here."

Elder Yan turned his eyes to long qingru, ignoring her subconsciously cowering.

Being stared at by so many eyes, long qingru had no choice but to walk to elder Yan's side, not forgetting to force a smile on her face.

"Uncle ..."

"Today, qingru will announce an important matter on behalf of the long family."

Elder Yan didn't look at long qingru, but his powerful voice was irrefutable. Long qingru, who was in the center of the storm, was confused. What ... What did he announce on behalf of the long family?

However, time didn't allow long qingru to pause. The media's cameras were all focused on long qingru's face after elder Yan finished speaking. At this time, all the expressions and subtle changes on her face could be captured without any mistakes.

"Uncle?"

Long qingru maintained a stiff smile, as if she couldn't hold it any longer.

Standing to the side, Pu Wei's eyes were fixed on elder Yan.

"Didn't you say last night that you'd use the long family's name to unconditionally hand over the 12 Chinese zodiac dog heads you bought from overseas to the country?"

Elder Yan's expression was dignified, and no one dared to doubt the truth behind every word he said.

Long qingru's head exploded with a boom.

It was as if the group of reporters had exploded at the same time.

She didn't even dare to look in her husband's direction.

The thing that he was most worried about had happened.

now, dog head is back. Qingru, do as you wish and officially announce it to the public. I believe that Wei Shi will support your decision unconditionally!

Support ... My ass!

Even though PU Weishi still had a smile on his face, his heart was covered in a haze.

Lin xiaojiu.

So, the smooth journey in country G was in preparation for this attack?

She had calculated well!

Donate it in the long family's name?

The one who had spent a large amount of money to buy it was him, the Pu Wei, but the long family had just casually taken all the credit? Moreover, he knew the old man better than anyone else. If he said it was free, it would be free. He would not allow any possibility of private manipulation.

However, he couldn't say any of these things.

Even though he knew that this was a loss in silence, he could only swallow it down in order to maintain his relationship with the long family. At the same time, he had to maintain a smile.

He spent money, but he made wedding clothes for others.

Lin xiaojiu, Oh Lin xiaojiu, you really can't take any losses!

He was too ruthless.

Chapter 1656

1656 Ruthless enough

Rou city, royal family.

Lin Hanxing could see everything that was happening in Jiang city through the television in the eldest Prince's residence.

"I thought you've changed."

The sacred hands who had helped the first Prince change his medicine casually teased.

Lin Hanxing sneered as he looked at long qingru, who was pale and sweating due to panic. She could clearly see the haze in PU Weishi's eyes.

"Remember that devilish smile of hers."

Sacred hands secretly complained to the first Prince. Not everyone was 'lucky' to see this.

Na jilie, whose legs had been broken and reattached, glanced at it and suddenly shivered as if he was experiencing the same thing. He had seen the same smile with his own eyes on the day Lin Hanxing had broken his legs.

Lin Hanxing did not care about what they were saying. He just took a sip of his tea.

"I've given him what he wants. Isn't that enough?"

Listen, is this even human?

Sacred hands almost rolled his eyes in public.

Are you calling that for others?

After spending several times the price and going through so much trouble to buy it back, perhaps he didn't even touch it once, and just like that, it became someone else's possession. Who wouldn't be angered to death if this happened to them?

However, he didn't dare to say this in front of her.

"I, on behalf of the long family, will donate the dog's head to ... To the country."

When long qingru's trembling voice came from the TV, Lin Hanxing's mysterious smile gradually spread, and his hand, which was helping the eldest Prince change his medicine, trembled.

Don't ever think of having an affair in this life.

Sacred hands could not help but sigh in his heart.

On the other end of the TV, master Yan had regained control of the conversation after getting long qingru's confirmation.

"This is just the beginning."

Elder Yan faced the camera and spoke in a dignified manner.

The surrounding media reporters couldn't help but hold their breaths. What did he mean by 'just the beginning'?

"In addition, the snake, sheep, and chicken heads will choose a day to return to the capital,"

With a loud boom, it was like a sudden clap of thunder, and the explosion caught everyone off guard.

The other poems that had been missing for so long had already been found?

The announcement of this news immediately overshadowed the news of the dog's head being brought back today, attracting the reporters "repeated questioning. Long qingru and PU Weishi, who were originally the main characters, were squeezed to the edge.

He couldn't even touch the camera.

Lin Hanxing, who was far away in Rou city, took in the entire scene, and his expression did not change.

"Your opponent is too pitiful."

The first Prince's face was still pale, but his voice was full of energy.

Just think about it, something that had been bought at a high price had become someone else's without even touching it. Even so, at least it would be good to take the opportunity to earn some reputation. However, once the follow-up news was announced, everyone would only pay attention to those who had not returned. Why would they care about what was already in their hands?

This wasn't just breaking his teeth and swallowing his blood, he had to digest it in his stomach!

Lin Hanxing sneered.

"Did I beg them to come and provoke me?"

His words were concise and comprehensive.

The first Prince sat in his wheelchair and came to her side.

"The Shangguan family is here."

As he tidied up his clothes, the first Prince lightly said this, the natural air of nobility of a royal child exuding from his every movement.

If she hadn't seen the cold and gloomy him in the past, she might not have believed that this was the same person.

"So, there's movement on the second Princess Consort's side?"

Lin Hanxing asked.

this is the strangest thing. There's no movement? "

Based on najilie's understanding of the second wangfei, it was against common sense for her to be quiet even though she had such strong support from the Shangguan family.

He was worried that she was brewing a bigger scheme.

“You’re scared?”

“What do I have to be afraid of? I’m just afraid that they will harm you.”

She was in the limelight.

Xiang Zhuang’s sword dance was aimed at peigong. I’m not their first target.

Lin Hanxing’s hand that was holding the teacup looked even more delicate against the ru-kiln white porcelain, but his voice was cold and clear, which made people feel an indescribable sense of oppression.

“Then who do they want to deal with?”

Na jilie was a little confused.

Lin Hanxing smiled but did not say anything. From the moment she noticed that something was wrong, she and ah Xiao had been making double preparations.

...

His phone rang.

Lin Hanxing picked it up and heard Yun Bai’s voice from the other end.

“You’re really ruthless.”

Although he said this, Yun Bai’s voice still carried an undisguisable gloating tone.

“You called just to say this?”

“Of course not.”

On the other end of the phone, Yun Bai quickly became serious.

“I’ve done what you and ah Xiao asked me to do.”

This was the main point.

“Don’t alert anyone.”

Lin Hanxing hung up the phone right after he finished his sentence.

...

“You didn’t bring anyone with you these few days?”

The previous question had been suddenly interrupted by Yun Bai’s call, and he had missed the best time to ask for an answer. Najilie simply changed the topic to a slightly more relaxed one.

These few days, he really didn’t find any other people around Lin Hanxing. For example, the chubby little girl who could eat a lot, or the girl called Bai Xi who was both an A and a B * tch.

If she was alone, she would at most bring Zhan Nanheng along.

Lin Hanxing pushed the snacks on the table in na jilie's direction and smiled.

"Eat something to shut your mouth when you ask questions,"

The disdain was apparent in his words.

Didn't old su come at this time?

However, compared to his usual relaxed state, his expression today was serious, as if he was thinking about something.

"Lin girl, I want to talk to you in private."

Old SU's expression relaxed when he did not see Lin Hanxing.

"Sure."

The two of them went to the study.

"Have you seen the people from the Shangguan family?"

Old su didn't get straight to the point and didn't say a word of nonsense.

"I want you to go back to Xuelan as soon as possible. I'm afraid that something might happen to the royal family or the first princess Consort."

He had such a worry since he saw the Shangguan family and yhuis together two days ago. The unusual silence of the second Princess Consort made old su even more uncertain of his judgment.

Lin Hanxing stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window and smiled without saying anything.

Old su did not take in her reaction. He was about to say something when his heart suddenly thumped.

She knew.

Perhaps he had known about it earlier than he had imagined.

"The senanda family was forced into such a state by me before I left. If they don't take a gamble, how could they bear to decline? To destroy a hundred-year-old family?"

The sunlight covered her entire body, as if plating Lin Hanxing with a strong soft light effect.

His voice was cold and emotionless.

"So you're waiting?"

Old su asked tentatively.

To be honest, even old su, who had been fighting with others for his entire life, sometimes didn't know what this girl was thinking. She was always able to arrange everything properly before anyone could react.

"I'm indeed waiting."

If he wanted to attack Cao Gong, he had to use fire. Everything was ready, only the east wind was lacking.

Chapter 1657

1657 The arrival of the east wind

The east wind that Lin Hanxing was talking about arrived in the early morning three days later.

In the middle of the night, someone hurriedly knocked on her and Lei Xiao's door, the sound was so loud that it seemed to be able to wake up the entire villa.

In fact, it did wake everyone up.

Lei min opened the door expressionlessly. He frowned when he saw the flustered Zhan Nanheng.

"Something has happened."

Zhan Nanheng's voice changed with the hoarseness, which was enough to show the urgency of the matter.

"What's wrong?"

Yan beixiao walked out with drowsy eyes and a big yawn. The others were about the same. It was only when Lin Hanxing, who had put on a jacket over his pajamas, appeared that there was a short moment of silence.

just now, I received news from Xue LAN. The royal family ... Is changing.

His words were like thunder in the afternoon, waking up the rest of the people who were still sleepy.

Positive change?

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao looked at each other and saw the deep meaning in each other's eyes.

"Go back and pack up. We'll gather downstairs in half an hour."

After saying this, Lin Hanxing turned around and went back to his bedroom.

Half an hour later, everyone had packed up and gathered downstairs. When Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao came downstairs in the same couple's Black suit, everyone's heart seemed to be singing a war song.

Lin Hanxing rolled up his shirt sleeves to his elbows with a cold face, revealing his snow-white arms. His long black and slightly curly hair was tied up behind his head. He looked valiant and capable, and there was a kind of power that overflowed from his bones.

"Ah Jue, ah Zhen, you guys stay at home with the baby and Yuan Bao. Wait for us to come back."

Said Thunder valiant beast.

Lei Jue wanted to say something but was stopped by Lei min.

"Big brother, you and sister-in-law should come back early."

Lei min looked at Lei Xiao and Lin Hanxing, his voice was filled with deep emotions that only the Lei family could understand.

The group of them walked out of the villa.

They got on the bus in batches.

More than a dozen black Mercedes Maybach S600s slowly drove away from the green sea Villa. It was like a beautiful scenery, but at this time, no one was in the mood to look out the window.

No one knew what would be waiting for them in Xuelan ...

.....

Xue LAN.

Everyone felt that something was wrong.

Since the morning, all kinds of communication facilities, network equipment, and television program signals had been cut off. Everyone was informed that they were not allowed to leave the residential area, and even tourists were not allowed to leave the hotel.

The streets that used to be lively were now lifeless and heavily guarded. Everything seemed to indicate that a storm was about to come.

In front of the floor-to-ceiling windows of the houses along the street, every house was filled with people looking out.

Everyone's faces were filled with unease and anxiety.

At this time, the royal family was in a bloody mess. Shar 'Lisu did not sit in the main seat, but watched her confidant being dragged away by the senanda family.

A trail of blood.

"No, this seat should be given to someone more capable."

The new master of the senanda family, Simbu senanda, had a smug smile on his face. The haggard second Princess, shamaga, was looking at the man in front of her with a gloomy expression.

"You're the one who forced me to do this!"

Shamaga and su did not look at each other, their eyes full of resentment.

Farik had been crippled, and she had watched as the first princess Consort, with Lin xiaojie's help, slowly returned to her peak. She and the senanda family had been forced into a corner. If they did not fight back, who would give them a way out?

They had forced her!

They joined forces with the Shangguan family and used this extreme method to push the senanda family back to the road of glory.

They had forced her!

“Shamaga, there’s no need to find excuses for your ambition.”

The first princess Consort, Amiya, sneered. Her confidants surrounded su bu and her, not giving the second Princess Consort’s men any chance to get close, as if they were waiting for a chance to fight for their lives.

“Ha.”

There was a hint of sarcasm in shamaga’s laughter, and she looked at the first princess Consort as if she was looking at an ant.

The thing she regretted the most was that she had not killed this woman at the first opportunity during the last battle for the Crown Prince. If it had not been for this, how could she have made so many mistakes and ended up like this?

“Why do you have to be so stubborn for this man? Isn’t it because of this man that we’re where we are today?”

Today, the makeup on her face was particularly detailed. Her fiery red lips curled up, and she opened her hands as if she had already won.

“His heart has already died with that woman.”

Just what part of Eric’s mother was worthy of him being unable to forget her for so many years?

Which part of her couldn’t be compared to her?

“He doesn’t care if the first Prince is dead or if my farik is broken. He only cares about Zhan Nanheng! You think I don’t know that you’ve been secretly paving the way for him all these years?”

...

She could only blame herself for being soft-hearted and thinking that Zhan Nanheng would not be able to make it!

But who would have thought that the first Prince’s death would bring about a butterfly effect that would change the fate of all of them? coupled with Lin xiaojiu’s sudden appearance, she had been defeated all the way to this day.

“Now, you should pay the price for your choice.”

Second consort shamaga sneered.

The entire Xuelan Kingdom had been sealed off under the Shangguan family’s joint control. She was now waiting for Zhan Nanheng to appear. The senanda family had already sent the news to Zhan Nanheng in advance. As long as he appeared, he would be able to reach the royal family without any obstacles ...

At that time, he would die with his father!

The eldest wangfei protected su bu behind her. Her tense face was filled with gloom and her fingers were trembling.

At the same time.

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao's convoy was already approaching Xue LAN.

On the way, Zhan Nanheng switched to the car that the couple was in. Lin Hanxing had already explained the pros and cons of the situation to Zhan Nanheng in the fastest and simplest way possible.

It was obvious that the second Princess Consort was waiting for him.

...

Once the situation got out of hand, Zhan Nanheng would be the first to face the most danger.

"Are you sure?"

Lin Hanxing's voice was steady. Even though the situation had already reached this point, her expression was still calm and unruffled. However, Zhan Nanheng still calmed down under her gaze.

"I've already said that I won't hide anymore."

A smile bloomed on Zhan Nanheng's baby face, as if the last burden in his heart had been put down.

"Do you believe in ah Xiao and me?"

Lin Hanxing smiled as they looked at each other.

"My trust in you is at the level where I can put my life in your hands."

Zhan Nanheng leaned his body against the genuine leather seat behind him in a relaxed manner. His hands were under his head, and the corners of his mouth curled into a deadly seductive smile, as if what was waiting for him in front of him was not a fatal danger.

As they were talking, a sudden braking sound was heard. If it wasn't for the safe distance between each car, an accident would have happened.

Lin Hanxing frowned and looked ahead.

"Mr. Lei, miss Lin, someone is blocking the car."

Chapter 1658

1658 When you see me, my life is over

Lin Hanxing rolled down the car window slowly.

A black luxury car was parked in front of them. The closed window rolled down as Lin Hanxing rolled it down, gradually revealing the face of the man in the back seat.

It was Gong Chen!

Xue Lan's entire territory is locked down. We're just waiting for Eric to walk right into our trap.

Gong Chen seemed to have specially tidied himself up today. His black suit accentuated his noble and cold aura. His hair was all combed back, revealing his cold and stern face. At this moment, he was looking at Lin Hanxing across the air.

"So?"

"I'll go with you."

Gong Chen's sharp and deep eyes looked over Lin Hanxing's shoulder and behind her, as if he was looking for something.

"You clearly know that this is a life and death match, yet you still want to join us?"

Lin Hanxing naturally knew what he was looking for.

She even knew that Gong Chen would appear at the green sea Villa on time every night.

"Where is Chenxi?"

Seeing that song Chenxi wasn't in the car, Gong Chen's expression became cold again.

Lin Hanxing didn't say anything. Whether she was willing to see Gong Chen or not, the decision was in Chen Xi's hands, not her.

The two sides were silent and in a stalemate.

Soon, there was movement from one of the cars behind.

Bai Xi got out of the car and got into another one. The door on the side where she got out of the car was open.

"You can go back first."

Gong Chen said to the driver in a hoarse voice, but his eyes never left the car. He pushed the door open and got out of the car without hesitation, then strode toward the car with his long legs.

The convoy continued to move in the direction of Xue LAN.

In the car.

Gong Chen looked deeply at song Chenxi without blinking. He seemed to want to say something but was too nervous to open his mouth. On the other hand, song Chenxi smiled at him calmly and peacefully.

"You shouldn't have come."

Gong Chen finally found his voice, even though it was extremely hoarse.

"You shouldn't have come."

As the president of the Gong's group, he should not put himself in any danger.

"But you're here."

He knew that she would definitely appear, so he had waited here.

"So what?"

Song Chenxi's words were said casually, but it caused a storm to brew in Gong Chen's heart. He could not suppress his grief.

"Knowing that you're here, how can I just stand by and do nothing?"

If one were to listen carefully, one could hear the trembling in his voice. However, when his eyes met song Chenxi's, Gong Chen forced a smile on his thin lips, as if he was trying to please her.

"Chenxi, after today's matter is over, let's leave Xuelan together, okay?"

As Gong Chen spoke, he took out two plane tickets to Europe in a week's time.

"I can leave the gong family to Gong Yun!"

"Let's start over."

These six simple words were soaked with the heaviest blood and tears.

Song Chenxi's gaze fell on the two plane tickets. Gong Chen's strong and forceful hands were clenched tightly, as if he was going to leave traces behind. He waited nervously.

She reached out and took one of them.

Ecstasy flashed through Gong Chen's eyes.

However, in the next second, there was a tearing sound in her ear, and all her emotions were instantly condensed in her deep eyes.

"You're not worthy."

The light was reflected into song Chenxi's glass-like pupils. She looked at Gong Chen indifferently, her voice cold and cruel.

She placed the torn plane ticket back into his hands.

"Are you satisfied now?"

Against her head of white hair, song Chenxi's eyes were even colder.

"So now, get out of the car."

She said.

As soon as song Chenxi finished speaking, Gong Chen pulled her into his arms. He held her so tightly that it felt like he was going to penetrate her body.

"Why was I so blind in the past that I couldn't see through your lies?"

Gong Chen's big palm was tightly clasped behind song Chenxi's head. The muscles in his body were as tense as stones.

The convoy had officially entered the territory of Xuelan.

The checkpoint, which was usually unimpeded, was now heavily guarded. When they saw the vehicles approaching, they immediately stopped them.

...

it's an emergency. No going forward.

Since the morning, Xue LAN had entered a state of complete closure, and all vehicles were only allowed to leave and not enter.

The window on Zhan Nanheng's side rolled down, revealing a face that was well-known throughout country G. Almost at the same time, the stern-looking inspector's expression changed drastically.

It was as if he was facing a great enemy.

"Can we enter the country now?"

Eric Zhan Nanheng asked in a low voice.

There was almost no obstruction, and the people in front raised the pole to let them pass.

At the same time, he used the communication device in his hand to inform the higher-ups.

Zhan Nanheng turned a blind eye to all of this, as if he had been prepared for this. He rolled up the car window again and hid his face behind the dark window.

They continued forward.

There was no car on the road.

...

The originally lively streets were deathly silent. All kinds of shops were closed, and not a single person could be seen. However, it was clearly still as prosperous as when they left, and the strong contrast brought a strong visual impact.

This place was a manifestation of the influence of the change.

"Ha."

Looking at the street View, Zhan Nanheng suddenly laughed coldly.

Lin Hanxing looked at him.

"Today, either I die or she dies."

The reflection of Zhan Nanheng's eyes in the car window had long since faded away the uneasiness and apprehension he had when he first entered the royal family. Perhaps it was because he had been by his childhood friend's side these days, but even though he knew how dangerous the road ahead was, he felt calmer.

The car continued to move forward.

40 minutes later, the Royal Gate appeared in his field of vision.

The higher-ups who had received the news long ago had already opened the door, just so that Zhan Nanheng's car could pass through without any obstructions.

The moment the car drove in, the door was slammed shut from the back.

It was as if an invisible beast was devouring them.

The second Princess Consort had gone crazy.

Or rather, the senanda family had gone crazy.

Lin Hanxing's gaze swept out of the car window. This was the first feeling that entered her heart. But it made sense. Since she dared to take this step, she must have the determination to win.

The car slowly came to a stop.

All the men of the senanda family were standing at the gate with loaded guns. They were staring at the car as if they were waiting for something.

Danger filled the air.

Lin Hanxing was the first to open the door.

It was like a signal, and all the cars that stopped behind opened their doors at the same time.

When Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao appeared in their line of sight, all of the senanda family's men raised their weapons and aimed at them.

All the members of the senanda family were on high alert against this woman.

The leader of the group walked towards Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao.

They wanted to search the man for any hidden weapons, but before he could get close, the two men's fierce gazes had already successfully stopped him from walking toward them.

Anyone who had suffered at Lin Hanxing's hands would never forget the lethality she had brought. Moreover, the painful lesson from before was still vivid in their minds, so no one dared to take the risk.

"Ninth young lady."

Bai Xi and the others had already quickly arrived behind Lin Hanxing.

The moment they got out of the car, they could feel the severity of the situation, but even so, none of them were afraid. This was the confidence that Lin Hanxing gave them.

"Let's go," he said.

Lin Hanxing glanced at the Royal Gate and sneered.

Chapter 1659

1659 The eye of the storm

As soon as Lin Hanxing's name was mentioned, everyone walked towards the place where su bu and the eldest Princess Consort were trapped.

Lin Hanxing's high heels stomped on the ground with a cold rhythm.

The members of the senanda family subconsciously stepped back to the sides and made way for the group.

Everything was carried out in an orderly manner in silence.

As they walked through the long corridor, their field of vision instantly widened, and many pairs of eyes, either probing or sizing them up, fell on them at the same time. They were all men from the Senanda family and the Shangguan family, who were armed with loaded guns.

"Everyone's finally here."

The second Princess Consort, who had dressed up specially for today, turned around when she heard the sound of footsteps. The moment she saw Lin Hanxing, she smiled proudly like a flower. The long dress with gold inlaid threads was worn on her body as if it was a blessing for the victory that was coming soon.

Lin Xiaojiu, you didn't expect this, did you? "

The second consort opened her arms and looked at Lin Hanxing with eyes full of hatred.

Lin Hanxing turned a blind eye to this.

Her beautiful eyes swept across everyone's faces from left to right.

"Shangguan Qinghe,"

Perhaps no one had expected that Lin Hanxing's first words would be directed at Shangguan Qinghe, who was sitting by the side and watching everything leisurely. Even Shangguan Qinghe subconsciously stopped what he was doing and looked at her.

"You shouldn't have let the Shangguan family get involved in this."

The moment he saw Shangguan Qinghe, Lin Hanxing had a vague idea in his mind.

However, she quickly caught it.

"You'd better worry about yourself first,"

Shangguan Qinghe laughed, and there was a gloating smile.

"Don't even think of leaving this place alive today."

He raised his finger and drew a circle around Lin Hanxing, his lips curved into a devilish smile.

"It's too early for you to say that."

Lei Xiao's words were accompanied by a sharp and deep gaze, which swept across the other party, causing Shangguan Qinghe's smile to instantly freeze on his lips.

Damn it, how could he forget about Lei Xiao!

Sinbu Senanda looked on with interest. To be honest, even though he should hate Lin Xiaojiu on the family level, he actually admired her.

To be able to play with everyone at such a young age was already a superpower.

After all, to be able to do this, one's control of the overall situation and human nature could be said to have reached a peak.

He admired her.

However, this did not stop him from wanting to bury her here today.

Simbu senanda snapped his fingers, and a large group of armed men suddenly appeared on the originally empty space on the first, second, and third floors. As he moved, the muzzles of their guns were pointed in the direction of Lin Hanxing and the others.

Almost at the same time, Bai Xi, Jiang Xibao, and the others had already stood in front of Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao.

She raised her head and looked upstairs vigilantly.

“Su No.”

Simbu senanda said as he looked in the direction of Xue LAN and su bu with a sinister smile. He took a gun from his subordinate and handed it to su bu.

Su bu looked at him coldly.

now, you are faced with two choices.

one, kill Eric with your own hands and I'll release all of you.

the other option is to pass su bu's position to farick and then commit suicide. I can spare everyone.

Simbu senanda smiled and threw the so-called initiative into su bu's hands.

However, he couldn't be bothered to cover up his wild ambitions.

“Do you think I'll believe you?”

Su didn't raise his eyes and met Simbu senanda's gaze.

“Believe it or not, do you have any other choice?”

“This is also your intention, isn't it?”

Su bu's line of sight went over Simbu senanda's shoulder and looked at the second consort, shamaga. However, there was no fear of his life being threatened on his face.

“You forced me to do this.”

Shamaga sneered.

Was there any point in saying all this now?

“Shameless!”

Jiang Xibao suddenly blurted out these three words in a muffled voice, and Bai Xi immediately burst out laughing.

He stood upright.

Wasn't he just shameless!

The second consort turned her head and glared at Jiang Xibao. She suppressed her anger. After all, the most important thing now was to make su refuse to give in and pass the position to farick.

“Do you really think I’ll believe you?”

...

Su bu, who was sitting at the head of the table, had a dignified expression.

They wouldn’t be able to escape even if they killed Eric. They wouldn’t let a single person from the senanda family off today.

Similarly, it would be the same if he committed suicide.

“Do you have any other choice?”

Since they had already shed all pretense of cordiality, she didn’t bother to play along. She smiled gently and laughed at him for overestimating his ability. After all ... The senanda family had the initiative now.

First wangfei, Amiya, held su Buhu tightly, her eyes fixed on shamaga.

“So what if Lin xiaojiu is here?”

This was a dead end.

No one could break it.

“I won’t let you off.”

First consort Amiya’s knuckles were turning white.

...

Shangguan Qinghe was sitting next to them and eating tea leisurely. His eyes inadvertently glanced at Lin Hanxing, but his hands suddenly stopped and his brows furrowed.

There seemed to be something wrong.

Her expression ...

Wasn’t it a little too calm?

There was no panic, helplessness, or fear. Instead, it gave him a feeling of ...

It felt like he was waiting for something.

The sudden sense of crisis made Shangguan Qinghe put down the tea in his hand in an instant, and his expression became serious. He seemed to be thinking about how to organize his words to tell the second Princess Consort and the others about this matter.

Perhaps he sensed Shangguan Qinghe’s gaze, Lin Hanxing accurately caught it the moment he turned his head.

The two of them looked at each other.

Shangguan Qinghe's mind seemed to be on alert, and he felt a chill down his back.

Lin Hanxing gave him a silent smile.

Almost in the next second, a bullet was shot from above. With a whoosh, it broke all the temporary peace under the dark waves. It was also like a big stone was thrown into the calm pool, laying the foreshadowing for the eye of the storm that was about to rise.

Lin Hanxing's smile froze.

Zhan Nanheng, who had been standing at his original spot, suddenly let out a muffled groan.

Everyone looked at him.

"Zhan Nanheng!"

Bai Xi cried out in fear.

Zhan Nanheng followed her gaze and looked at his chest. Blood was spreading out on his shirt, and the pain made him pant heavily. He covered the injured area with his hand and his strong body fell down.

"Eric!"

Su bu suddenly stood up and rushed two steps in his direction. He staggered and almost fell, but he was caught by the first wangfei!

This change was out of everyone's expectations. Lei Xiao rushed over immediately, half-kneeling on the ground to help Zhan Nanheng up. Yan beixiao took off his coat and pressed it on the wound on his chest to stop the bleeding. Everyone's faces were filled with panic.

Zhan Nanheng's body trembled violently from the pain. His bloodied hand gripped Lin Hanxing tightly, and his eyes widened, as if he was unwilling to give up.

"Who fired the gun!"

Simbu senanda suddenly raised his head and roared upstairs!

1660 One after another

Obviously, this was not within his plan.

However, just as sinbu senanda finished his sentence, a second bullet appeared out of nowhere and shot through his cheek. It disappeared into the darkness, leaving only the sound of the shell falling to the ground.

Sinbu senanda's face immediately started to bleed.

"Ah ..."

The second Princess Consort's beautiful eyes were filled with panic, and she subconsciously wanted to find a place to hide. The other subordinates with loaded guns looked around in a panic. Everyone was looking for the source of the killing intent, but they found nothing.

Zhan Nanheng's bloodied hand trembled as he reached out to Lin Hanxing. Lin Hanxing held it without any hesitation.

Blood stained their fingers.

"I ..."

As soon as he started speaking, blood gushed out of Zhan Nanheng's mouth, soaking his entire mouth and chin.

"Eric....."

Xue LAN su bu tried her best to prop herself up, but to no avail. The eldest wangfei's eyes were also filled with tears as she supported the trembling su bu and walked towards Zhan Nanheng with great difficulty.

"Don't say anything."

Lin Hanxing held Zhan Nanheng's hand tightly and subconsciously looked at Lei Xiao. The latter shook his head at her without a trace.

"Who is it?"

Lin Hanxing's gloomy eyes swept across the stairs.

It made people take a step back in fear.

In fact, the men of the senanda family had indeed done so.

No one spoke.

Even Simbu senanda and the second Princess Consort, who had been arrogant just now, were now silent as cicadas in winter, as if they were evaluating the danger.

"I ... I'm not willing to accept this."

Zhan Nanheng's baby face was full of pain and agony, as if something had torn him in half. Even the bystanders could feel it, let alone Bai Xi and the others who were in close contact with him.

"Zhan Nanheng."

Bai Xi and Jiang Xibao both shed tears.

"I can't accept this."

Blood flowed with every word. Zhan Nanheng's eyes widened in confusion as he looked at the ceiling. He didn't seem to understand why he could only come this far. He had so many plans, but ...

He could only walk this far!

Zhan Nanheng smiled.

His eyes darkened bit by bit in front of everyone.

Even the hand that was holding Lin Hanxing's gradually lost its strength. The moment the two hands were about to separate, Lin Hanxing grabbed it tightly again.

It was hard.

He was dead.

Zhan Nanheng had already stopped breathing.

Xue Lansu staggered to Zhan Nanheng's side, who had already closed his eyes. In an instant, it was as if she had aged ten years. Even her eyes had become cloudy, as if she could not believe it. She bent her body and looked over.

Su bu reached out with a trembling hand and touched Zhan Nanheng's cheek, which was still warm.

"Who is it?"

Su buyin narrowed his eyes and glanced at every face of the senanda family. In fact, even the senanda family was confused about the sudden situation. Who had fired the gun?

"How could this be ..."

The second consort, shamaga, turned to look at her third brother in a daze. They had never expected that someone would shoot Zhan Nanheng to death. But even if they said this, no one would believe them, right?

Shangguan Qinghe pushed away the bodyguard who had protected him when the gunshot was fired. His mind kept recalling everything that had happened in an instant. If he had suspected that it was Lin Hanxing's self-directed act at the beginning, then this idea had been completely shaken now. Was there someone who wanted to be the Oriole?

As he thought of this, he couldn't help but look upstairs.

Every shadow seemed to be hiding something dangerous, making people shiver.

"He wants me to pass the position to farrick? is he worthy?"

Su bu sneered. The true emotions that he had been hiding for many years were completely released at this moment. They were so real that he did not hide them at all. The disdain in his eyes was clearly visible.

"Don't you know what kind of dog you've raised?"

Su bu shook off the first wangfei's hand that was trying to support him. Because Zhan Nanheng had been shot, his breathing began to become irregular. As he took deep breaths, he looked at shamaka with a sinister look.

"If he was just a little smarter, you wouldn't have lost so badly in the battle for the Crown Prince!"

Su bu's words instantly shocked shamaca and Simbu senanda.

As expected, he was not completely ignorant!

that fool, he gave out his own weakness and blamed others for not showing him any mercy. Only a slut like you can teach such a stupid thing!

That was su bu's honest evaluation of farrick.

What a stupid thing.

He couldn't be compared to his Eric at all.

"You ..."

...

Shamaga's eyes widened in disbelief. It was impossible for her to not have any feelings for su. Otherwise, she would not have felt such a strong impact on her heart at this moment.

"Even if I die, I won't pass the position to farrick!"

Su bu gritted his teeth as he said this. The others could even hear the sound of something being crushed between his teeth.

"Then you can just die."

Shangguan Qinghe sneered and followed su bu's words.

When the Furious shamaga heard Shangguan Qinghe's words, she immediately reacted. She grabbed the weapon of her subordinate beside her and aimed it in su bu's direction. Her fingers were trembling.

"Su bu!"

The eldest wangfei rushed in front of su bu almost at the same time, spreading her arms to shield him behind her.

"Shamaga, don't mess around!"

The first wangfei's eyes were fixed on the out-of-control shamaga, and she tried to lower her voice.

"Get lost!"

...

Shamaga shot Amiya in the arm, and the latter instantly fell into su bu's arms, the smell of blood filling the air.

"Shamaga!"

Su bu roared gloomily.

"You call me by my name now? You're too cruel. I've wasted my entire life on you. In the end, if I wasn't forced to do so today, would you have even looked me in the eye?"

Shamaga sneered, obviously provoked by su bu's previous words.

"Have you ever looked me in the eye?"

Shamaga roared again, as if she was determined to get an answer.

Su bu's response was even more direct.

After a cold laugh, he said coldly, "

"I feel disgusted just by looking at you."

As su bu's voice fell, the world seemed to have quieted down. The expression on the second Princess Consort's face froze, and she just looked at su bu in a daze. Although she had long prepared herself mentally, the impact of hearing it personally was ...

It still made her cry in an instant.

"I'll give you one last chance. Give the throne to farick, or else ... I'll kill you!"

"Hehe, in your dreams."

Even if he had to die, su bu would never give Xue Lan's future to an idiot!

"Then you can go to hell!"

Shamaga's eyes were bloodshot as she pointed her gun at su bu.

With a bang, the sound of a bullet breaking through the air rang out again, directly piercing through su bu's chest. After the muffled sound, fresh blood splattered all over first wangfei Amiya's face. It was hot and boiling.

As if in slow motion, Amelia's eyes slowly widened.

At the same time, the second consort, shamaga, also looked at the gun in her hand in disbelief.

She, she didn't shoot!
