

Goodnight 1671

Chapter 1671

1671 An unexpected guest

The guest's identity was beyond everyone's expectations.

When the man took off his hat and walked to the crystal lamp, the face of the second Prince of Rou city was revealed.

Lin Hanxing's cold eyes met with EHESS'.

"A rare guest."

Lin Hanxing spoke first and gestured for the guests to serve tea.

"Miss Lin has caused us so much pain."

Iches sat down with a sneer. It had only been a few days, but his face was obviously Haggard.

The collapse of the senanda family had a far-reaching impact that was far beyond anyone's imagination. Because they were the major shareholders of a well-known local bank in snoworchid, the people were afraid that their failure to seize power would have an impact on the bank, so they set off a bank run, which was undoubtedly the most fatal blow to the bank.

Everyone was in a state of panic.

The crisis was only resolved when the royal family directly purchased the senanda family's shares in a powerful manner.

However, only people like them who knew the inside story knew a thing or two about the open and hidden struggles.

This was the last way for the senanda family to rise again.

"I warned you before, didn't I?"

Lin Hanxing picked up the teacup and took a sip. His words were neither salty nor light.

How did yeres answer him back then?

I have the entire senanda family behind me.

As the saying went, "when a backer falls, everyone runs away." If he didn't even understand this, then the defeat of the senanda family and the factions of the two second consorts was no longer so difficult to understand.

It seemed that yeres still wanted to say something, but he was suddenly pulled back by his attendant from behind and instantly regained his senses.

in terms of how well you've hidden yourself, there's indeed no one in this world who can compare to you, miss Lin. So, we admit defeat.

yes. yeres lowered his noble head first, but the unwillingness in his eyes was too obvious.

Lin Hanxing said as he sipped his tea to hide his sarcasm.

“Let’s skip the formalities and get straight to the point.”

She didn’t believe that yhars had come all the way here just to admit defeat. She didn’t have the patience to wait.

Yeres pursed his lips.

“We only have one request.”

He said.

“I will not protect the senanda family.”

Lin Hanxing spoke first without waiting for him to finish his sentence. His cold eyes swept across the opposite side, full of aggression.

“.....”

The words that were on the tip of his tongue were stuck in his mouth, and after a moment, he changed to another sentence.

“At least don’t hit me when I’m down.”

He sighed.

Lin Hanxing did not respond immediately.

“In my mother’s hands, there are all the records of the interactions between my aunt and that person from the long family in Beijing over the years. It’s enough to help you solve many problems.”

As a last resort, yhars revealed his trump card in advance.

This was the last thing they could use to negotiate, and it was also their last hope.

“Besides, it was my aunt who hurt Mr. Ray. Now that she’s dead, miss Lin can’t possibly use the entire senanda family to pay for her death ...”

“Why can’t I?”

Lin Hanxing raised her eyebrows and sneered.

She would never forget the sight of ah Xiao covered in blood. That was her Achilles ‘heel.

“Miss Lin!”

you ... ihuis stood up abruptly, his chest heaving up and down violently. He was obviously furious at Lin Hanxing’s impervious appearance.

Almost at the same time as he got up, a Zuo and a you, the two strong Tibetan Mastiffs, also got up. They bared their teeth to protect their master, and their fierce appearance made the followers who came with ihershzen tremble in fear.

"I agree,"

The Thunder valiant beast's deep voice came from the stairs.

Everyone's eyes were focused on him.

Lei Xiao, who was dressed in casual home clothes, could not hide his domineering aura. He raised his hand to comfort the Tibetan Mastiff, instantly making ah Zuo and ah you lie back on the floor.

"If you can confirm the authenticity of the transaction records in your hands, I can also guarantee that we won't hit you when you're down."

Lei Xiao came to Lin Hanxing's side and sat down.

Lin Hanxing did not say anything and pursed his lips slightly. On the other hand, Lei Xiao reached out and patted the back of her hand with a gentle look in his eyes.

Lin Hanxing seemed to have compromised and finally nodded.

The knife that had been hanging in his heart finally fell, but the whole process still made him break out in a cold sweat.

He had never seen an opponent more difficult to deal with than the couple in front of him.

...

He didn't want to meet her again in this life.

"I believe in you, Mr. Ley."

Lei Xiao's promise was worth a thousand gold, and it was also one of the reasons why the Lei Corporation was able to quickly occupy the International market in the first place. It was very comfortable to do business with the Lei Corporation, and whatever was promised would be fulfilled. However, if anyone dared to have any other thoughts about it, it would definitely not end well.

"Things."

Lei Jing looked at him expressionlessly, not even bothering to say any more polite words.

"....."

This couple was really ...

If they weren't family, they wouldn't enter the same house!

I'm not good enough, " yeres sighed. He was not even qualified to argue.

He resigned himself to his fate and pushed all the USB drives with neatly organized records in front of the other party. His eyes were filled with a compromise to his fate.

Yeres and his followers quickly left.

...

"Still not coming out?"

Lin Hanxing said without turning his head.

The group of people who had been eavesdropping from a distance away came out from the dark with a smile.

“Ninth young lady.”

Bai Xi, who was hiding behind Jiang Xibao, stood on tiptoe and showed his head with a fawning smile on his face.

“With this, won’t our chances of winning be even greater?”

This was naturally the focus of everyone’s attention.

Lin Hanxing did not say anything. The USB drive containing important information moved back and forth between her slender fingers, as if she was spinning a pen in a fancy way. It was dazzling and her heart moved up and down with her movements.

you can start packing your things. We’ll leave for Beijing after the abortion.

Mr. Deng from the Embassy had already contacted her on the phone. In order to ensure the safety of the remaining three bronze heads of the twelve zodiacs, the country had opened a special green channel and was only waiting for them to land safely.

At the mention of Gong Ming, the others thought of song Chenxi.

It was hard to hide the loneliness in his expression.

“If we leave, will the gong and song consorts try to cause trouble?”

Back then, Chenxi had spent a lot of effort to suppress those dark waves. Once the obituary of Chenxi and Gong Chen’s death was released after Gong Ming’s surgery, the world would probably change.

“With me here, who would dare?”

Lin Hanxing’s cold voice was thick with cruelty. She had already released the news at the first moment. If anyone still dared to attack the gong and song families during this time, then they could not blame her for being impolite.

She would play with them however they liked!

“Then, after Gong Ming’s surgery, if he finds out that his eyes were given to him by Chenxi ...”

Bai Xi hesitated.

That man was willing to give up his life to save Chen Xi. If he knew that she was no longer around, would he ...

“Don’t worry,”

Lin Hanxing looked away.

Gong Yun would live well, and she might even live harder than all of them.

This was also the reason why she decided to tell him the truth after the operation.

Because those eyes ...

Chapter 1672

1672 Waiting for the departure

On the day of the hymen operation, there was a rare sunny rain for Xue LAN.

“Rainbow.”

When the light of the operating room was turned off and Gong Ming was pushed out, Jiang Xibao said in surprise.

Lin Hanxing looked in the direction of her voice.

It was indeed a rainbow.

Lin Hanxing’s face was reflected in the clean floor-to-ceiling window, as well as the faint smile on her lips.

Chenxi ...

Gong Ming’s surgery was unbelievably smooth, and even his attending doctor thought it was a miracle.

Although song Chenxi’s assistant was in a much better mood than last time, her eyes still turned red from crying when she heard those words. No one knew better than her that it must be miss song’s blessing from heaven.

“When will he wake up?”

Lin Hanxing looked at the doctor and asked calmly.

Local anesthesia was usually used in a cornea transplantation. However, due to the special condition of the uterus, the anesthesia method was not the same as usual.

we can start normal communication in about half an hour.

After a short conversation, the doctor left.

Lin Hanxing’s phone started vibrating crazily.

That night, all of them would leave country G and fly to Beijing to start a new chapter.

She did not have much time left.

Lin Hanxing walked a little further away and picked up the phone. It was a call from elder Yan.

“Little girl.”

“Granduncle.”

Even though it wasn't the first time he had heard these words, elder Yan's heart still trembled, and even his tone softened.

"When do we land?"

"Tomorrow morning."

The private jet would land directly at Beijing International Airport.

"Your grandfather can't wait to see you."

Ever since his brother-in-law watched the live broadcast that day, those who knew the inside story quickly sent him all the news about Lin Hanxing. He locked himself in his room for two whole days and did not listen to anyone. When he came out, he had his old illness and was sent to the hospital.

Of course, master Yan would not tell Lin Hanxing about this.

"I'm afraid it's not just this."

Lin Hanxing said indifferently.

Would PU Weishi and long qingru let go of this opportunity so easily?

She did not believe it.

the long family is now divided into two factions. The faction led by long qingru hopes that you can do a DNA test after you land, because there have been too many ...

"Sure."

Before elder Yan could finish his sentence, Lin Hanxing unexpectedly agreed.

"A DNA test is what we should do. It's nothing."

Long qingru just wanted to fight for her last chance.

If she wanted to do so, she would let her do so.

It was no big deal.

to avoid any accidents, a third party will be in charge of this.

Elder Yan knew what PU Weishi and long qingru were planning. The DNA test this time was of great importance. Even if he was one hundred percent sure that this girl was a long, he still couldn't miss out on anything.

Ha. &Nbsp;

A third party.

Lin Hanxing's long eyelashes fluttered slightly, and the mockery in his eyes was hidden.

After a few short sentences, he hung up the phone.

Song Chenxi's assistant was still standing in the same spot, waiting for her.

“Gong Shuo has woken up.”

It was earlier than they had imagined.

“You and Bai Xi should go and eat something first.”

Lin Hanxing turned to look at Jiang Xibao and Bai Xi. Their luggage had all been transported to the airport, and they were waiting for her and ah Xiao to finish their work before they met up at the airport.

Jiang Xibao wanted to say that she was not hungry, but Bai Xi quickly pulled her away.

“You have something to say to me?”

Lin Hanxing looked at song Chenxi’s assistant.

...

The assistant reached out to her with a recording pen in his hand.

“This was sent to me this morning. Miss Lin, please listen.”

Lin Hanxing took it.

The moment she put on her headphones, she pressed the power button at the same time.

“I’m sorry, Hanxing.”

It was Chenxi’s voice that Lin Hanxing had not heard for a long time. Lin Hanxing’s heart trembled.

“When you hear this recording, I’m sure I’ll be gone.”

Lin Hanxing’s exquisite face was reflected in the clean floor-to-ceiling window. She closed her eyes and could not bear to cover them.

“In the first half of my simple and dry life, the only thing I regretted was the lack of a confidant. However, your appearance made up for all my regrets. Thank you for appearing at the darkest moment of my life and pulling me out of the abyss, even though this ending was not what you and I wanted.”

Song Chenxi’s voice was gentle and moving as she bid her friend farewell.

“I know you understand my decision to give up, and I also know that you understand my exhaustion. In this life, I’ve only been willful twice. Once was for him, but this time ... I can finally do it for myself.”

...

Lin Hanxing slowly opened his eyes, as if he could see the morning sun standing in front of him through the reflection of the floor-to-ceiling window.

“Hanxing, we ... It’s time to say goodbye.”

There was a brief silence in the earpiece.

It seemed that Chen Xi was also reluctant to say the word ‘goodbye’.

“Goodbye.”

The recording ended there.

“Chenxi, goodbye.”

She said.

.....

In the ward.

The room was quiet except for the sound of the operating instruments.

Gong Yun’s eyes were covered by a white sterile gauze. He had been awake for some time. His hands were clenched tightly by his sides, as if he was waiting for something.

The door opened.

“Chenxi, is it Chenxi?”

He asked.

“No.”

When Lin Hanxing’s cold voice rang out, Gong Ming once again felt the helplessness of falling from heaven to hell.

I’ll be officially leaving Xuelan tonight. I’ve already handed over the information about the gong Corporation to a professional. Once you’ve recovered your vision, that person will help you to gain a firm foothold in the gong Corporation.

“What do you mean by that? And him? Where’s gong Chen?”

A crazy thought ran through Gong Yun’s mind, causing his heart to start to ache.

“A few days ago, Chenxi and Gong Chen lost their lives in that incident.”

The moment Lin Hanxing’s voice rang out, the instrument connected to Gong Ming let out a crazy and ear-piercing warning sound.

“You’re lying to me, aren’t you?”

“The cornea you replaced belongs to Chenxi.”

Just as Gong Ming was on the verge of breaking down, Lin Hanxing’s simple sentence successfully stopped his madness. He did not dare to move and just stood there stiffly. People who looked at him only felt pity for him.

“You’re lying to me,”

Gong Yun’s voice was choked.

“I also hope that I’m lying to you,”

Lin Hanxing said.

More than anyone else.

I don't have time, so Gong Yun belongs to Gong Chen and Chenxi. I hope you can take over as soon as possible. In my opinion, you're the best candidate.

"Also, there's one more thing I need your help with ..."

Lin Hanxing's voice was cold.

After she left, song Zhiyun still stayed. With Gong Yun's ability, it would probably have a different effect.

Lin Hanxing wanted song Zhiyun to live through fear, anxiety, and torture for the rest of her life. Otherwise ...

How could she face Chenxi?

Chapter 1673

1673 A gift for my daughter-in-law

Thirty thousand feet in the air, the Galaxy was bright.

The cabin was brightly lit.

Lei Xiao was making the best use of his time to deal with the matters at hand, while Lin Hanxing was relying on him to video call mother Lei.

mom, I've already asked the company to send the new products of the season over.

It was obvious that Mama Lei had just put on a face mask. With no makeup on, she looked much younger than her actual age. Lin Hanxing also liked the carefree old lady the most. He was happy to pamper her unconditionally with the rest of the family.

Because of his status as a close friend of the group, Lin Hanxing was able to get the latest products of the season before anyone else every season.

It even included limited edition ones.

In other words, while others were still eagerly waiting for the new product to be sold, the new product had already been given to cold star for free.

God knows how many people were envious of her.

With such a daughter-in-law, why would she worry about not being at the forefront of fashion?

"My daughter-in-law loves me the most!"

Mother Lei cupped her face with both hands, her eyes sparkling. However, when she saw her son's side profile, which was focused on his work, her face turned into one of disgust.

A workaholic!

He was just like his father when he was young!

Bah!

“However, I’ve also prepared a gift for you!”

As though she suddenly recalled something, mother Lei changed the topic and spoke in a mysterious tone.

“What?”

Lin Hanxing was curious.

“You’ll know when you get off the plane tomorrow morning.”

Next to mother Lei, father Lei coughed deliberately, which made mother Lei shoot her man an annoyed look.

The Thunder valiant beast’s hands stopped moving.

If he didn’t hear it wrong, did that dry cough just now mean that he wanted to take credit?

“Half of this gift is from your dad’s private savings!”

As expected ...

Lin Hanxing tried his best not to laugh out loud. At the same time, he was curious about mother Lei’s gift. What could it be that could make father Lei lower his status and remind him?

After ending the video call, mother Lei, who was in Jiang city, rolled over to her husband.

“Do you think I should help ah Xiao make an appointment with a Beauty Doctor?”

Her daughter-in-law was so eye-catching. With her eldest son’s dull character, should he always maintain his masculine charm so that his daughter-in-law would not get tired of him?

“It’s all your fault, you taught ah Xiao to be so boring!”

The more Zhong Nanyin thought about it, the angrier he got. He stretched out his hand and kicked Lei kangnian’s calf.

“.....”

This woman, the older she gets, the more unreasonable she gets!

Sleep!

Lin Hanxing leaned on Lei Xiao’s shoulder and couldn’t help but laugh out loud, causing Lei Xiao’s hands to tremble as he signed the documents. He helplessly raised his head to look at his wife and simply leaned over to kiss her small, Jade-white ears.

“Can you guess what mom gave us?”

Lin Hanxing rested her chin on Lei Xiao’s shoulder, enjoying this moment of solitude.

Lei Xiao reached out and played with her small hand in his large palm, not saying a word.

“You changed your perfume today?”

The taste of white tea was cool and elegant.

Lin Hanxing snorted, the change of topic was too stiff.

“Does it smell good?”

Lei Xiao nodded, his cold face carrying a serious expression as if he was solving a question.

Lin Hanxing laughed.

She leaned forward slightly and kissed her husband’s Adam’s apple. She pretended not to feel the man who was holding her hand suddenly tremble and almost lost control.

The Thunder valiant beast took a deep breath and suppressed the restlessness of his body.

She suddenly reached out and pulled Lin Hanxing into her arms, dimming the lights in the cabin.

“I’m sleeping.”

By the time Lei Xiao’s private jet landed at the capital’s International Airport, it was already the next morning. However, a large number of media reporters who had received the news long ago had already surrounded the international airport.

As soon as Lin Hanxing released the news through a press conference, the topic of ‘national treasure returns home’ quickly became a hot search without any traces of marketing. It dominated the rankings for a few days with the initiative of netizens.

It was also the return of the twelve zodiac bronze heads, but this was much more imposing than when the long family had found the dog heads a few days ago.

In addition to the charm of the National treasure, there was also the charm of the money-printing machine couple. God knew that these few days were enough for the netizens to dig up the entire life of the two, especially the Weibo post when the two had just confirmed their relationship. It was so sweet.

In addition, Thunder owl’s clean self-restraint in his high position was beyond anyone’s imagination, which made people even more crazy.

Just last night, the words ‘money-printing couple’ had even surpassed ‘national treasure returns home’ in the hot search. If it wasn’t for the fans who felt that this wasn’t good and spontaneously reduced the popularity, it would have attracted a new round of fans.

Lin Hanxing and the rest had breakfast on the plane early.

Due to the special nature of this voyage, the tower on the ground had assisted in conveying instructions in advance.

After they got off the plane, they would go through the special passage directly to ensure that the National treasure could be delivered safely and efficiently at the first time without any accidents. The security at the airport was also adjusted to the highest level today. The passengers who were checking in received a text message informing them that they had to arrive at the airport three to four hours earlier to wait for the security check.

It was enough to show how much importance the higher-ups placed on today's matter.

Moreover, since this morning, elder Yan, elder Yue, and elder Zheng had already arrived at the airport in advance to wait. These three great Buddhas were enough to give the airport security a hard time, but they were not the only ones here today ...

For some reason, even the old man from the long family, who had been retired for a long time, was here.

This was the real problem!

Only the heavens knew that if anything were to happen to the old man today, everyone standing here today would be cut down from top to bottom!

The heavens must bless them!

In the VIP lounge.

Old man Zheng sat with his legs closed and his upper body straight. This was an old habit he had developed over the years, especially when he was facing the old man from the long family. He rarely acted like a young man, and he was nervous.

On the contrary, elder Yue's condition was much better.

But he was still shocked.

It was not because of elder Long's presence, but because of the half of the gold-encrusted Jade.

In the upper class of the capital, who didn't know what that half piece of gold and Jade represented? The long family's every move had always been observed by people with ulterior motives. Once the Lin girl revealed the item, the seemingly peaceful capital would probably be in an uproar.

And when the list of people attending today was reported, elder Yue sighed in his heart.

As expected.

As long as they were close to her, basically all of them were present today. It was not as simple as elder long, but they wanted to see the Lin girl in person!

Elder Yue subconsciously looked at elder Yan, the worry in his heart temporarily resting.

At this moment, someone knocked on the door of the lounge.

Soon, someone reported that long qingru and PU Weishi were waiting outside.

"Let them in,"

Elder long said.

No one had any objections to elder Long's words. PU Weishi and long qingru quickly pushed open the door and entered. Long qingru looked at elder long with worry.

"Dad ..."

Chapter 1674

1674 Each with their own ulterior motives

Long qingru hadn't slept for the whole night, so her eyes were dark. At this time, she looked no different from usual when she stood in front of elder long, but it was hard to tell that she was pitiful.

"Your body hasn't recovered yet, what if ..."

Elder long took a glance at her, and her voice stopped abruptly.

Long qingru didn't dare to say anything more. She subconsciously looked at Pu Wei.

"What are you going to do about Xi 'er's matter?"

Elder Long's voice was deep, but it made long qingru shiver.

As expected, the old man knew.

"Dad, Xi 'er is innocent. It's all her friend's fault ..."

Elder long closed her eyes and placed her hands on her walking stick. She did not utter a word.

Obviously, he was not satisfied with this answer.

birds of a feather flock together. Can you explain Xi 'er's actions by saying she's innocent? "

Master Yan said this in a very serious tone.

Elder Zheng and elder Yue looked at each other and continued to remain silent.

uncle, you've watched Xi 'er grow up. You should know what kind of person she is, right? "

Long qingru sounded aggrieved. At the mention of her daughter, her tears fell.

Master Yan's serious expression didn't relax at all.

It was because he knew that Xi 'er was not as innocent as long qingru had said.

Long qingru secretly hated him.

Lin xiaojiu had yet to return, and she and Xi 'er had already become unwelcomed existences. If she really entered the long family ...

Long qingru couldn't even imagine that scene.

At the mention of her daughter, long qingru's heart ached again. Things had happened one after another recently, and she couldn't even take care of herself when she wanted to help her daughter. She wondered how Xi 'er was doing in country G. Did she miss home?

He was in a terrible fix.

However, what Long Qingru didn't know was that her daughter, who was so lonely and helpless in a foreign country, was now sitting in the first-class cabin 30000 feet above the ground, drinking red wine and waiting for the plane to land.

He didn't let her come back?

She just had to come back!

Long Qingru wanted to say something, but she was interrupted by another knock on the door.

"Elder Long, the plane will land in five minutes,"

It was Elder Long's idea to inform them five minutes earlier.

As soon as the guard finished speaking, Elder Long stood up and walked towards the door. Elder Yan and the others quickly followed.

That girl had finally arrived.

Long Qingru was still half-squatting in the same position, looking at the empty door.

It was different now.

He was really different.

Was this the difference between real and fake?

The more Long Qingru thought about it, the more her eyes were shrouded in haze.

"What are you still doing? Follow them!"

Pu Wei's voice suddenly rang out.

.....

The large floor-to-ceiling windows in the airport were bright and clear, and the bright sunlight of the capital city shone through them on the clean floor.

The security level at the airport was particularly high today.

A large number of media reporters who had registered in advance were waiting in the special area, but they didn't dare to take photos recklessly with the equipment in their hands. The identity of the group of people not far away was too special and big-shot, so they didn't dare to act rashly.

The high-level personnel of the Cultural Relics Bureau, Museum, and other departments were all present, not to mention that there were many guards who wanted to make their presence known in front of Elder Long. Such a lineup was probably rare to see in the next hundred years.

Elder Long did not feel the clamor around her at all.

He just looked out of the window seriously.

The sunlight fell on this old man, as if it had coated him with a layer of Platinum. No one dared to go forward and disturb him. Even master Yan was silent, waiting for the moment the plane landed.

Everyone knew that they were not only waiting for the remaining three heads of the twelve zodiacs, but also for the owner of the half Jade inlaid with gold.

However, no one dared to point it out.

Long qingru and PU Weishi had also arrived. They also looked out the window, but they had different thoughts.

She wished that the plane would crash.

Unfortunately, things did not go as she wished. Lei Xiao's private jet was already in sight, like a huge rock being thrown into a calm lake, causing huge waves.

The couple came.

Everyone was on high alert, and even the passing of seconds seemed so long.

No one noticed that in the crowd, there were two people who had particularly subtle expressions.

They were the father and son of the Zhao family, who had been involved with Lin Hanxing because of the land in puhu in Jiang city. They had been promoted smoothly. Although father Zhao did not manage any important positions after coming to the capital, their ranks had risen by a large margin.

If it wasn't for the reappearance of his nightmare, he would still be immersed in the dream of being promoted and making a fortune.

Oh, this nightmare had a name ...

He was called Lin xiaojiu!

Only the heavens knew that even after their entire family moved to the capital, what happened in Jiang city that day was still a taboo in their family. It was simply too embarrassing, so embarrassing that they would rather choose to forget it.

But who would have thought that they would still meet each other when they were already in the capital?

And that sentence that day ...

Xuanji, Mr. Zhao, has said something wrong. I am Gao Zhi!

His words came true.

Who would've thought that a nameless girl from Jiang city would have so many layers of identities that had not been revealed?

But now ...

...

The president of X group?

It was like a joke.

Hiss ...

His face hurt!

He touched it ...

It was really swollen!

At this time, the Zhao father and son wished they could hide themselves in the sea of people so that no one could see them. However, when they thought about the origin of Lin xiaojiu's gold embedded Jade that they had recently heard about, they had no choice but to step forward.

For Guan Yun's fortune, what was face?

Lin Hanxing and the others finally got off the plane when the plane stopped in its designated seat.

The shuttle bus had been waiting for a long time.

They would be sent to a special passage, and the three heads of the twelve zodiacs would be escorted by professional escorts to ensure that there would be no problems such as oxidation and corrosion. They would then be publicly displayed in front of the world.

The shuttle bus quickly stopped at the entrance of the special passage.

Along the way, no one in the car said a word. Bai Xi and Jiang Xibao were obviously nervous, but the moment the car stopped, their nervous expressions were replaced by a fake aura.

After all, he had been by miss Jiu's side for so long, and he couldn't lose face even if he lost!

The car door was opened from the outside.

Upstairs, in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, there were many people standing.

Other than the empty space near elder long, the rest of the place was packed to the brim just so that they could film the figures of the money-printing machine couple as they got out of the car.

Elder long stood there quietly as he watched the couple alighting from the car hand in hand.

Lin Hanxing seemed to have sensed something. He suddenly raised his head and looked in elder Long's direction with precision.

There was actually a long distance between the two of them.

But they both felt that the other had seen each other.

There was a very subtle feeling flowing between the two of them, and this feeling was not something that others could sense.

Lei Xiao followed Lin Hanxing's gaze.

He could also feel the old man's eyes, and naturally knew that the old man's eyes fell on him after he saw Han Xing.

Chapter 1675

1675 The first direct confrontation

His cold eyes were scrutinizing and probing.

Lei Jing's eyes were as dark as ink, and her cold aura did not change at all. This couple's aura was so strong that the professional receptionist did not dare to look at them directly.

It must be known that the reception staff at this kind of occasion were all professionally trained. Even in the face of other countries, they could maintain a 100% calm expression and heart rate, but they just had to suffer a setback here with this couple.

"Let's go," he said.

Lin Hanxing looked away and said coldly.

The receptionist quickly led the way.

The group officially entered the airport. The specially opened passage was quiet and long, and the sound of heels stepping on the floor was powerful and melodious.

No one spoke.

It was like a silent war.

Soon, they arrived at the end of the special passage. The staff guarding the door opened the door from the inside immediately. The noise instantly came like a violent wave. The media reporters aimed their equipment at the door, where they could not see anyone, and waited for the money printing machine couple to appear.

But he didn't dare to go too far.

After all, elder long was nearby.

Long qingru and PU Weishi were standing on either side of elder long, but long qingru's expression was clearly bad. She knew better than anyone else what Lin xiaojiu was going to the capital for!

She could only watch helplessly as she approached her step by step from afar.

The trembling of waiting for judgment made long qingru go crazy.

"They're here."

A sharp-eyed person in the crowd shouted.

In the next second, Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao's figures were reflected in everyone's eyes.

The originally noisy commotion suddenly stopped.

The world fell silent.

Only the cold clatter of Lin Hanxing's high heels against the floor and Lei Xiao's cold and proud face were left.

Long qingru clenched her fists.

Finally!

No one spoke.

Time seemed to have been frozen.

Even the Zhao father and son, who were hidden in the crowd, had to admit that Lin xiaojiu was still the same Lin xiaojiu they knew from Jiang city, even though they were in the capital, which was filled with noble people.

Her aura was so strong that no other socialite could compare!

Lin Hanxing held Lei Xiao's arm and, under the guidance of the ground staff, they quickly arrived at the designated interview table.

The security guards quickly got into position to maintain order at the scene to prevent any problems from arising.

To everyone's surprise, a group of researchers who were escorted to the airport by the Emperor car appeared in a hurry before the event even started. Soon, someone in the crowd recognized the person in the lead. Wasn't that Zhu chengdi, who had been in the limelight recently?

Due to Zhu chengdi's laboratory's recent series of cutting-edge problems in the domestic field, he had made an unprecedented major breakthrough in some aspects of the military industry. He was also promoted at the youngest age and enjoyed GWY's special allowance.

"Ninth young lady."

Zhu chengdi still had his messy hair and was unkempt, but the moment he saw Lin Hanxing, he smiled innocently.

In order to solve a difficult problem, Zhu chengdi had not slept for a few days and nights. However, when he heard that Lin Hanxing was coming to Beijing, he immediately decided to bring some people over. For this, the higher-ups even specially approved a batch of cars and people, just to ensure the safety of these researchers.

They were the 'light of China'!

The reporters were in an uproar.

Even though he had heard of Lin xiaojiu's unbelievable stories, but when Zhu chengdi really appeared, the shock he received was simply indescribable.

Wasn't her circle of friends a little too wide?

When she saw Zhu chengdi, Lin Hanxing first looked around to make sure that there were no exaggerated dragon and lion dance teams. Then, she heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. After all, with Zhu chengdi's straight-forward thinking, she would have to thank him even if he did not make it big.

"I wanted to make it livelier, but they didn't allow it ..."

Zhu chengdi sounded aggrieved.

"....."

Lin Hanxing could not help but thank 'them' in his heart.

The leader, who was wearing a special uniform and had escorted Zhu chengdi all the way to the airport, wanted to say something. However, he felt a sharp gaze from the corner and subconsciously turned his head. With a Swoosh, the leader saluted the other party in panic.

He was so scared that his back was covered in cold sweat.

"Why is elder long here?"

Elder long furrowed her brows. The people beside her quickly motioned for the other party not to make a mountain out of a molehill.

Of course, the media shouldn't have recorded this scene. When they saw the leader walking towards Lin Hanxing, they all cleverly stopped their cameras. However, the Zhao father and son in the crowd were shocked, especially when they saw the symbol of identity on the leader's shoulder.

Not to mention the Zhao father and son, even the media workers and long qingru were shocked.

Especially long qingru and Pu Wei!

If Lin xiaojiu had such a relationship ...

"Miss Lin."

The man quickly came to Lin Hanxing and expressed his purpose in a low voice.

...

It turned out that the lab representative that Zhu chengdi had identified was Lin Hanxing, and all the authorization documents had to be signed by her. However, Lin Hanxing had been in country G previously, and the documents contained confidential content, so they had to go through it on a special basis and wait for her to return to sign.

The two of them decided on the time after a brief exchange.

However, all of this had a different meaning in the eyes of others.

When no one was paying attention, long qingru stared at Lin Hanxing, who was not far away, as if she wanted to see through her.

Lin Hanxing suddenly looked over without warning.

The two of them looked at each other.

There seemed to be soundless fireworks colliding in the air.

After a short silence, long qingru's expression was flustered for a moment, as if she wanted to avoid it, but the next second, she was defeated by Lin Hanxing's sneer, so much so that long qingru couldn't even manage her expression.

Long qingru clearly realized one thing ...

This was their first direct confrontation!

However, he was obviously at a disadvantage!

...

This kind of feeling was really too annoying!

At this moment, no one noticed that in a corner, a figure who had just collected his luggage was walking towards them valiantly. His steps were like he was walking on the runway.

The voice was too directional, and soon, someone noticed it.

The woman was wearing sunglasses, her hair was wrapped in a fashionable headscarf, and her high heels were ten centimeters high. She walked straight towards Lin Hanxing. The security guards who wanted to stop her stopped in their tracks when they saw her face.

Jiang Xibao and Bai Xi also wanted to make a move at the same time, but they were stopped by Lin Hanxing's eyes, which seemed to be smiling yet not smiling.

Did ninth miss mean that they were not allowed to move?

"Lin xiaojiu!"

That's how it's called right?

Didn't those people all call her that?

Everyone turned around and watched as the man dragged his suitcase towards Lin Hanxing in an aggressive manner. It was obvious that he was here to cause trouble.

Sure enough, under everyone's watchful eyes, the woman raised her hand as if she was going to slap Lin Hanxing on the spot!

Chapter 1676

1676 Asking to be humiliated

Lin Hanxing did not even have any intention of dodging. He just looked at the woman coldly as she raised her hand and approached him.

There was a crisp slap.

It was deathly silent, and everyone was dumbfounded.

What had just happened ...

They had never seen such a well-coordinated movement before. The moment the woman got close, Lei Xiao and Lin Hanxing attacked at the same time. Lei Qian grabbed the wrist of the person who was approaching her, and Lin Hanxing slapped him in a flash.

Their cooperation was flawless.

“You ...”

Long Xi ‘er’s turban fell. She covered the side of her face that had been slapped and could not believe it.

He had been beaten up!

He had actually been beaten up?

And he was beaten up in front of so many people!

He was asking to be humiliated.

At this moment, these four words lingered in everyone’s mind.

“Ah Xiao, let go.”

Lin Hanxing’s light words reached everyone’s ears, but they saw Lei Xiao really let go and pushed back, causing the other party to take a few steps back and fall to the ground. On the other hand, Lin Hanxing, who was beside Bai Xi, took the wet tissue and carefully wiped her husband’s palm.

“Xi ‘er!”

Long qingru cried out in surprise. It was only then that she saw clearly that it was her daughter who had been beaten.

When did Xi ‘er return?

She could not care less about the strange looks from the others. She hurriedly ran over and pulled long Xi ‘er into her arms. She warned the reporters around her with her eyes not to take photos randomly. Perhaps it was because she was angry.

But of course ...

Out of fear of the other party’s identity, they would not bid for it.

But ...

The scene just now was really wonderful!

“You imposter, you dare to hit me?”

Long Xi ‘er could only feel her ears buzzing from the slap. She had never been treated this way as a member of the long family since she was young. However, ever since she met this Lin fellow, she could no longer gain any advantage!

With the new and old grudges added together, long Xi ‘er was furious!

“A fake?”

Lin Hanxing's hand paused, and he smiled faintly.

When he glanced over, he also looked at long qingru.

"Right! You're a fake! All these years, how many women like you have come to our long family and taken the same thing? You're only after the long family ... Wuu ..."

Before long Xi 'er could finish her words, long qingru's face changed immediately and she covered her mouth.

He was afraid that she would continue to anger the old master.

One must know that although the matter of the half gold embedded with Jade was not a secret in the upper circles, no one would bring it up in the open, not to mention that the old man was here today.

Lei Xiao's rough and large palm clenched tightly, his cold and stern features were already filled with displeasure. Even the surrounding temperature suddenly dropped to freezing point. Compared to the anger of the others, Lin Hanxing, who was the person in question, chuckled.

"Hehe ..."

Lin Hanxing's faint smile was like a heavy blow to her heart.

Everyone was stunned.

Not far away, elder Yan's expression was already very unsightly.

On the other hand, elder Long's expression was unreadable.

Long Xi 'er took advantage of long qingru's dazed state and pulled her hand off.

"Just admit it, what's the difference between you and those B * tches who want to take advantage of the situation?"

Seeing the smile on Lin Hanxing's face, long Xi 'er was even angrier. Some time ago, she did not even dare to go home and had to stay cooped up in country G. She had to endure the bombardment of information from the nouveau riches in the capital every day. She had become a joke!

This was all her fault!

"I think you're mistaken."

Lin Hanxing didn't even look at elder Yan, his voice was so cold that it pierced into the bones.

"I landed in the capital today because of the three heads of the 12 Chinese zodiac. As for the imposter and the long family, what does that have to do with me?"

The moment she finished speaking, the crowd heard more than one gasp.

These words ...

But it was too exciting!

Not to mention long Xi 'er and long qingru, even the others were shocked when they heard this. Did this person know about the origin of the half piece of gold inlaid Jade in her hand or not?

Could it be that Lin Hanxing did not have any private contact with the long family?

Was she not going to acknowledge the long family?

But even old master long was here!

...

What was going on?

They had all thought that they would be able to see their flesh and blood reuniting today.

Long Xi 'er was rendered speechless by Lin Hanxing's words. She did not know how to refute him!

She wasn't ...

Was she looking for her family with that piece of gold and Jade?

"Since the National treasure has returned to our homeland, my mission has been completed. There's no need to leave if there's no need to."

Lin Hanxing's voice was crisp and clear, with a sonorous tone that did not allow anyone to refute.

As soon as she said this, Bai Xi, Yuan Kang, and the others behind her seemed to have received some kind of order. They automatically made all the preparations, waiting for her order.

"Let's go," he said.

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao had already left the media interview area. Lei Xiao's bodyguards, who had been waiting at the side, came forward and blocked the distance between them and the media. Bai Xi and the rest followed closely behind, not stopping at all.

No one had expected this to happen!

The reporters, who thought that there would be a war of words, did not even react in time. They just watched Lin Hanxing and his team walk past them without any signs of stopping.

I'm not putting on a show!

It was clear that he really didn't care about the long family.

Lin Hanxing suddenly stopped in his tracks as he sighed in his heart.

Eh, did he change his mind?

"Since you're here, let's have dinner together."

Lin Hanxing turned to look at Zhu chengdi with a faint but sincere smile.

Zhu chengdi nodded like a chicken.

His entire face was filled with the smile of a fan.

“Lin girl, wait for me and old Yue.”

Elder Zheng, who was dressed in a washed white Chinese tunic suit, suddenly spoke. They had not seen each other for a long time. When it was time to freeloader, this old man would definitely not be soft-spoken, but the main reason he spoke was ...

He still didn't want to stay and face the long family's mess.

After elder Zheng finished speaking, elder Yue had already nodded to elder Yan and elder long, and followed.

He actually ...

They really left.

Lin Hanxing's departure made long Xi 'er, who was still sitting on the ground, look like a joke. Not to mention the slap that humiliated her just now, her actions after that were simply ...

It would hurt his reputation.

But these words, smart people naturally wouldn't say it out loud.

And such a good event came to an end in such a way.

It was really a pity.

The Zhao father and son looked at each other in the crowd. Lin xiaojie did not even give face to elder long. He was really lawless!

Elder Long's eyes were fixed on Lin Hanxing's back.

But he didn't say anything.

“Brother-in-law ...”

Elder Yan wanted to say something but was stopped by elder long with a gesture.

“Let's go back to Mount Jade Dragon,”

Just this one sentence.

He did not even look at long Xi 'er who was lying on the ground.

Realizing this, Pu Wei's heart skipped a beat.

In the end, the old man was still angry.

Chapter 1677-generous gift

When the Lei family's car finally came to a stop, everyone in the car was shocked by the scene outside.

Lei Xiao got off the car first.

His well-built figure stood by the door against the light and reached out to Lin Hanxing, who was in the car.

"A gift."

He said.

Lin Hanxing placed his hand on Lei Xiao's palm. The moment he stepped out of the car, the scene in front of him suddenly became clear.

She finally understood why even father Lei had to lower himself to remind her about this gift.

Just because ...

It was really too expensive!

How could a well-renovated courtyard house in the best area not be expensive?

Bai Xi and the others had already gotten out of the car behind them. As for everyone's luggage, it had already been transported back from the airport and sent in directly.

"Dad's private money ..."

Mother Lei had probably emptied father Lei's little gold vault.

Lin Hanxing imagined the tall and majestic father Lei squatting in front of the empty vault with a dazed expression. She really couldn't bear to see him like this!

"Waa ..."

Bai Xi and the others who followed Lei Xiao and Lin Hanxing into the courtyard house exclaimed in surprise. The interior decoration perfectly blended the traditional culture and modern style, and every stroke was carefully decorated.

"Bajie, run!"

Yan beixiao bent down and placed his little pig on the ground. It would be a waste not to run around in such a big yard!

"Tsk, old Yue, what's that saying again?"

Elder Zheng put his hands behind his back and couldn't take his eyes off the carvings on the pillars. As the former dean of the Natural History Department, he knew better than anyone else how carefully each of the decorations in the courtyard was put in, especially the unique classical charm at the joint of the corridor pillars. It was simply ...

"We can't imagine the happiness of the rich!"

Sour.

It was so sour.

Acidic sourness

Elder Zheng couldn't help but think about the actual feasibility of this place.

"Everyone's rooms have been arranged. You can take a rest first."

The Butler smiled and appeared silently.

As soon as he finished speaking, he turned his head and looked in the direction of Lei Cong and Lin Hanxing.

"The reporters outside ..."

How they wanted to deal with it would depend on the two of them.

"I've been following you all the way. It's been hard on me."

Naturally, Lin Hanxing knew that after they left the airport, the reporters had been following them. After all, their task had been disrupted by long Xi'er's sudden interruption. It was reasonable for them to look for other bits and pieces of information.

"Send them some food and drinks. If they want to shoot, then let them."

They knew what to do and what not to do.

After receiving Lin Hanxing's instructions, the Butler immediately smiled and went to make the arrangements.

Very quickly, the reporters waiting outside received their drinks.

"What on earth is this all about?"

As they ate the fragrant dishes and looked at the courtyard house in front of them, the reporters who were following them were all confused.

Elder long had already arrived at the airport at that time. All of them thought that a family reunion was about to take place. Even if they could not film it, it would be good to let them have a look!

One had to know that this was the long family!

Under the emperor's feet, who wouldn't want to have a bit of a relationship with the long family?

this Lin xiaojiu sure is interesting. Is he playing hard to get? "

Back then, he had left without any hesitation.

"Did you do your homework before coming?"

The other reporters raised their eyebrows.

take a look at Lin xiaojiu's information. From Jiang city to country G to the capital city, she's been using all sorts of disguises. What do you mean by playing hard to get? I think she really doesn't care about her status as a member of the long family.

She was the Queen herself, why would she need your help to add a crown?

"Is there really someone who doesn't care about the long family's status?"

He didn't believe it.

That was the long family!

"You don't believe me? just you wait!"

After eating a mouthful of rice, the other reporters sneered.

Looking at the situation, the capital was going to be lively soon.

...

"Little Lin, are you really not angry at all?"

Elder Zheng walked to Lin Hanxing's side with a smile. His face was full of curiosity. They all saw what happened at the airport just now. She didn't get angry when the situation turned out like this. Her temper was much better than when she was in Jiang city!

"I'm not the one who got beaten up, why should I be angry?"

Lin Hanxing asked.

Elder Zheng was left speechless.

He recalled the slap that Lin Hanxing had given long Xi 'er at the airport. It was crisp, loud, and comfortable!

"Can I ... Can I walk around?"

Zhu chengdi raised his hand weakly. This was his first time entering a siheyuan and he was very curious.

"Go on."

Looking at Zhu chengdi, who was like a child, Lin Hanxing felt as if he had raised another son.

After Zhu chengdi left, Bai Xi and the rest went back to their rooms to rest. Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao then sat in the courtyard with elder Zheng and elder Yue.

...

The Butler quietly served tea and pastries, and then quietly left.

"Who would've thought that a little girl like you would be involved with the long family?"

Elder Yue sighed.

The long family's deep waters ... Even if they wanted to help her, there was a limit to what they could do.

Lin Hanxing smiled and did not say anything, but he pushed the dessert dotted with osmanthus flowers in front of the two elders.

"It's just a small matter."

Lin Hanxing had her own way of doing things. The big things in the eyes of others were nothing to her. The wind blew without a trace, and the night was silent.

"You're not big, but you have a big tone! Ah Xiao, you should just spoil this girl!"

Elder Zheng stuffed a piece of pastry into his mouth as he spoke, and his eyes instantly narrowed.

Oh, it was delicious.

He wanted to steal this girl's chef away.

Lei Xiao pursed his thin lips and forcefully suppressed the smile at the corner of his mouth. The reason why he wanted to stand at a high position was so that she could continue to be lawless without any worries for the rest of her life. He was happy to pamper her, no one could control her!

In contrast to the happy scene on this side, the entire Mount Jade Dragon was as silent as cicadas in winter.

Everyone knew that elder long was angry.

And it was not an Ordinary Level.

Elder long was sitting in the middle of the main hall. Her sharp gaze swept over long Xi 'er.

Long Xi 'er was kneeling there.

If long Xi 'er was still able to show off her might at the airport, she was now as obedient as a quail. She did not dare to say a word in front of her grandfather.

Long Xi 'er had been most afraid of her grandfather and granduncles since she was young.

He was equally strict with her, and he was equally strict with her daily routine, making it hard for her to breathe. However, her mother had said that if she wanted to enjoy the benefits of being part of the long family, she had to learn to endure all this and try her best to please her grandfather.

"Xi 'er, go and apologize to your grandfather!"

Under PU Weishi's signal, long qingru finally broke the silence and pushed her daughter's shoulder.

"I'm not wrong!"

He did not expect long Xi 'er to be so insistent this time.

She hated Lin xiaojiu to the core.

The matter of getting a slot at Jennifer studio and embarrassing her with all these new and old grudges, and she still wanted her to apologize?

In his dreams.

"Grandpa, are you going to bully your own family for a fake? We're family, Lin xiaojiu isn't!"

Didn't grandfather know how many imposters had brought Jin Xiangyu to the long family to look for relatives?

Wasn't it enough to be disappointed again and again?

Chapter 1678

1678 Then let's do a test

Tears streamed down long Xi 'er's face. The young lady could not control her temper and became more and more agitated as she spoke. She did not notice that the atmosphere in the main hall was getting colder.

The next second, a teacup beside her exploded with a loud bang.

Long Xi 'er was so frightened that she covered her ears and screamed out loud.

Elder Long's hand was still in the same position as before, but his righteous face was now shrouded in a dark cloud. No one in the main hall dared to even breathe loudly. After all, this was an elder who was known as the "undercover agent of the mountains and mountains" in this special era. His dignified aura would probably have frightened the enemies out of their wits.

"Is this how qingru and Wei Shi taught you?"

Elder Long's brows immediately furrowed as he spoke in a low and serious tone.

These words were so serious that long qingru and PU Weishi's backs broke out in cold sweat.

"Dad ..."

Ignoring her daughter, long qingru hurriedly said, "

"Then let's do the appraisal!"

However, before long qingru could finish her sentence, elder Long's next sentence made her heart jump.

Although this was in line with his own thoughts, the key problem was that although many people had come to his door with fake tokens over the years, the old man had never been so emotional as this time.

This was definitely not a good sign for long qingru!

whether it's a fake or family, we'll naturally have the answer when the results of the appraisal are out!

Elder Yan's voice was equally dignified.

The farce at the airport today had probably spread throughout the entire capital by now.

If long Xi 'er had cared about the long family's face, she would not have caused such a ruckus.

Long Xi 'er did not expect that her words would cause such a chain reaction. When she thought of Lin xiaojiu's arrogance, she gritted her teeth so hard that they almost broke. An imposter would always be an imposter. As long as they identified her, they would naturally understand.

"Grandpa, granduncle, you said it!"

Long Xi 'er shouted as she straightened her neck.

Elder long took a deep look at her, stood up, and went upstairs. She did not say another word.

Long qingru and her family came out of the villa.

“I think Grandpa is old and muddled! By a fake ...”

Before long Xi ‘er could finish her sentence, long qingru’s slap had already landed on her cheek. Long Xi’er was caught off guard and stood rooted to the ground.

“Don’t let me hear those three words from your mouth again!”

The word “imposter” was like a constant reminder of her identity!

Long qingru’s heart was in her throat, and her composure and elegance finally fell apart the moment Lin Hanxing set foot in the capital.

From being unknown to Jiangcheng, from Jiangcheng to country G, and now to the capital, Lin Hanxing’s every step was to take her life in long qingru’s eyes!

“Mom ...”

Long Xi ‘er looked at long qingru in disbelief.

What’s wrong with her?

In the past, she had been even worse than him when she faced those imposters. Why was it different this time?

As she looked at long qingru and Pu Wei with a serious expression, a terrifying thought gradually formed in her mind. Could it be ...

This time, it’s real?

.....

Night fell.

The courtyard house located in the Second Ring Road, which had just welcomed its new owner, was very lively. The kitchen had arranged a large table of dishes, just short of a Manchu Han Imperial Feast. Especially the plate of roast duck at the side. The meat and skin were separated, and the crispy roast duck skin was cut into pieces with sharp knife skills. A small plate of white sugar was prepared at the side. He picked up a piece of the greasy roast duck skin, stuck it with the soft white sugar, and stuffed it into his mouth ...

The taste of it immediately made little Xi Bao’s tears fall.

It was so delicious.

“I’m done for. I really want to move in.”

Elder Zheng ate one piece after another and couldn’t stop eating. He even pulled down his face to snatch the meat from the little Xi Bao, making the little Xi Bao eat two more bowls of rice.

After eating and drinking their fill, everyone sat in the courtyard and basked in the moonlight.

“This old man is stuffed to death ...”

Elder Zheng rubbed his stomach. It had been a long time since he had eaten to his heart's content. Elder Yue, on the other hand, looked at his good friend in disdain and moved a few steps to the side, refusing to associate himself with the glutton.

Yuan Kang laid on the stone table and continued to stuff grapes into his mouth.

Although he was still adapting to the cold air in the capital after landing as a citizen of G country, his love for food had clearly made him forget himself. Even when Yan beiming put the little pig on him, he was still very calm.

Only Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao were dressed in formal attire, sitting in their original positions as if they were waiting for something.

Lin Hanxing sipped her tea slowly, occasionally conversing with Lei Xiao in a low voice. No one could tell what she was thinking from her relaxed appearance.

by the way, girl, according to our usual practice, there should be a public donation ceremony in a few days.

Elder Zheng said that the people in charge of the cultural and tourism departments, as well as the cultural relics Bureau Museum, would all be present.

Therefore, even if the interview at the airport was accidentally ruined, it was not important.

The Butler's appearance interrupted the conversation.

"Miss Lin, you have a guest."

...

His attitude was neither humble nor arrogant, but his expression and words clearly revealed that the guest was not an ordinary person.

He did not know where his parents had found this Butler.

He really knew his limits.

"Let them in,"

As Lin Hanxing's voice fell, the door was opened. However, the moment everyone saw the guest, their originally crooked bodies immediately straightened.

It was elder Yan.

Elder Yan had just rushed over from Jade Dragon Mountain. When he saw that Lin Hanxing was not affected by the incident at the airport, his expression became slightly better.

"Little girl, ah Xiao, come out with me."

Elder Yan's voice was low and solemn.

The engine of the car waiting outside had not been turned off, but the reporter in charge of following Lei Xiao and Lin Hanxing did not dare to act rashly.

There were some people that they could not afford to offend since they were born.

...

No one spoke.

Now, they finally knew who Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao were waiting for!

.....

The scenery outside the car window kept on going backwards. There were neon lights and the lively city atmosphere was strong.

“Don’t be nervous when you see your grandfather later. Brother-in-law is just ...”

Elder Yan seemed to be worried that Lin Hanxing would be nervous. He was about to continue, but when he met Lin Hanxing’s smiling eyes, he smiled as well.

He had forgotten that this girl had come all the way here through a bloody storm, so how could she really be nervous?

Moreover ...

Elder Yan sighed in his heart.

To be honest, based on his understanding of this girl, she didn’t care about the long family’s unattainable power in the eyes of others. Even if the test results were out, there was probably no one in this world who could force her to return to the long family if she wasn’t willing.

She had the ability to do so.

“It seems that my worries were unnecessary.”

Elder Yan’s gaze turned to Lei Xiao. Thinking of his brother-in-law’s personality, he was afraid that he would have to interrogate ah Xiao a few more times.

The car slowly drove into the range of Jade Dragon Mountain.

At the same time, long qingru’s mobile phone rang ...

Chapter 1679

1679 Meeting again

She picked up the phone, and after a few seconds, her expression changed.

“Let’s go back to Mount Jade Dragon,”

Long qingru ordered the driver without thinking. She sounded nervous, as if she was afraid that she would lose her position if she was one second late. However, when she thought about how she would have to face Lin Hanxing, she felt even more terrified.

However, Wei Shi had just left after receiving a call, and his daughter had run away. Now, he did not even have anyone to discuss this with.

The driver turned the car around in silence.

On the other side, Lei Xiao and Lin Hanxing had just gotten off the car.

The moment their feet touched the ground, the two of them felt the difference between this place and the other places.

As the recuperation living area with the highest security in the entire capital, the serious and vigilant atmosphere did not reduce even at night. Even without turning his head, Lin Hanxing could already estimate the number of guards in the dark based on the sound of the wind and footsteps.

It was indeed the center of gravity.

The courtyard was very large, and the flower beds around it were full of seasonal green plants. With the rockery that led into the running water, the whole courtyard was like a painting, making people feel relaxed and happy. It was obvious that it had been specially cleaned for the people living here.

The Western-style building stood in front of such a scenery.

The staff on duty at the door stood straight and didn't change because of the appearance of master Yan or the guests. They didn't look sideways and guarded their posts.

"Let's go," he said.

As if he was afraid that the two of them wouldn't be used to it, elder Yan tried his best to make his tone less serious.

However, elder Yan soon realized that he had been overthinking.

The atmosphere on Mount Jade Dragon did not seem to have any effect on the couple. After all ...

They were people who even treated the G country royal family as their own backyard!

After entering the door and walking through the front door, a spacious living room appeared in front of them. The simple decoration style was no different from that of an ordinary family. Even the furniture was quite old.

There was no one in the living room.

Lei Xiao suddenly stopped, and even Lin Hanxing could feel his body tense up.

Someone was observing him with a sharp and dangerous gaze.

Lei Xiao had received such a gaze once when he landed at the international airport today, so he was not unfamiliar with it.

Lin Hanxing also felt it. She raised her head expressionlessly and looked somewhere.

He didn't know what kind of impact this angle had on the elder upstairs.

Especially that mole!

Their gazes met in mid-air silently. Lin Hanxing frowned slightly, as if sensing her impatience. The elder upstairs finally gave in and walked down.

This was their first time meeting each other in the truest sense.

Elder Long's steps were very steady. His eyes were filled with dignity, like a warning before a Tiger devoured a person. If it was anyone else standing here, they would be so afraid that their legs would be spinning.

"Sit."

Elder long said coldly.

In the ears of others, it was as stiff as one could get, but the people around elder long knew very well that this was elder Long's gentlest attitude.

The moment Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao took their seats, someone came out of the kitchen with tea.

Lin Hanxing knew that the tea was of the highest quality when he smelled it.

No one spoke.

"Ha,"

Seeing that she did not move, elder long finally spoke for the second time. It was still a command.

It was so stiff that it couldn't be any stiffer.

If it wasn't for the inappropriate occasion, master Yan really wanted to cover his face. Why didn't he realize that his brother-in-law was so bad at communicating? this girl had a tough temper. What if there was a misunderstanding ...

Elder Yan thought to himself, but he saw Lin Hanxing really pick up the teacup and take a good look.

"Golden melon tribute tea."

Elder Long's expression softened when Lin Hanxing said those words.

He knew that this girl liked tea.

Elder long was about to speak again, but the guard appeared in the next second. He leaned over and said something that made elder Long's expression turn serious.

"You bastard!"

He cursed in anger. It was a bitter winter.

Then, he remembered that Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao were still here, and his cold expression softened.

Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao acted as if they did not hear anything. Their expressions were cold and calm, and they clearly did not have any intention of asking.

"Pay attention to it at all times."

Elder long said to the guards, but it was obvious that her mood was affected.

Elder Yan frowned. What happened?

The living room once again fell into silence. However, elder Long's absent-mindedness was too obvious. Her brows were furrowed like a fallen axe.

The guards reappeared.

But this time, his footsteps were much more hurried than before.

...

"Elder long, someone's here."

Lin Hanxing's hand stopped and he exchanged a look with Lei Xiao.

"Call someone in."

Soon, someone followed the security guard in. His face was pale and anxious, and his clothes were in a mess, but his face was clearly a regular customer that often appeared in the seven O'clock news at night. It was enough to show his special identity.

"Elder long,"

As soon as she said that, her eyes turned red.

"My father would like to meet you."

Perhaps he did not expect Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao to be in the living room, so the other party did not say the word "last."

Elder Long's hand that was resting on the armrest of the sofa suddenly tightened.

Even master Yan's expression turned serious.

The number of old buddies who had conquered the country with them was getting smaller and smaller. Those who could live on Mount Jade Dragon were all those who had gone through life and death with them. If any one of them was missing, it would be a pain that burned deep into their bones.

...

Elder long stood up with a solemn expression.

Had it already come to this?

He staggered two steps towards the door, but suddenly stopped and looked at Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao, who were still sitting at the same place.

"You two, come with me."

These words were directed at Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao.

The person wanted to say something but stopped, but in the end, he didn't say anything.

It didn't seem appropriate.

Lin Hanxing furrowed his brows slightly. It was obvious that it was not appropriate for him to be present because he had no status.

Just as she was about to refuse, master Yan, who had seen through her thoughts, hinted with his eyes, Even though he did not know what was going on, Lin Hanxing still stood up and walked towards elder long with Lei Xiao. They then headed towards The Garden House at the side.

However, as soon as they stepped out of the door, the guards who had been hiding in the dark all appeared in the light. In the slightly cold weather, the whole environment was solemn and solemn, as if it was a silent ceremony.

The people on this side were walking forward when the car lights suddenly turned bright. Long qingru, who had left and returned, got out of the car without waiting for the car to stop. She looked anxious and anxious.

“Dad, where are you going?”

Elder long didn't have time to think about her. They walked past long qingru without stopping to answer her.

Seeing this, long qingru gritted her teeth and followed.

Was he going to the old Shang family next door?

Long qingru was shocked.

The Shang family and the long family had a long history. Back then, the old master of the Shang family followed him everywhere, and as a result, he fell ill. As he grew older, his health deteriorated. So ... The old master of the Shang family couldn't hold on anymore?

Realizing this, long qingru rejoiced in her heart.

One had to know that Shang clan was competing with Wei Shi for the same project. If something happened to Shang clan at this time, it would definitely affect ...

Chapter 1680

1680 A well-calculated plan

This was definitely an opportunity for Wei Shi!

Perhaps long qingru's emotional fluctuations were too obvious, Lin Hanxing raised his head and glanced at her coldly. As if he had sensed something, long qingru immediately lowered her head. When she raised her head again, she had returned to normal and only sobbed.

His entire expression change was as smooth as flowing water.

Soon, the group entered the neighboring courtyard.

In contrast to the long family's silence, Shang clan was currently shrouded in endless grief. Because Shang Ling was already advanced in age and his illness had been too dangerous, the medical team's experts had brought their medical equipment to the clinic.

The junior who was not as composed immediately cried out when he saw elder long.

“Elder long, please come upstairs.”

On the other hand, Shang yanyong, who had gone to invite elder long first, quickly calmed down. He raised his palm and bowed respectfully to elder long.

When he entered the room just now, the familiar Medical Group experts had already subtly shook their heads at him.

Shang clan can not collapse!

Lin Hanxing glanced at the faces of the Shang family members as fast as he could. He had a general idea of what was going on, and he even remembered the flash of joy in long qingru’s eyes.

She suddenly stopped.

Lei Xiao was stuffing something into her hands.

Lin Hanxing quickly exchanged glances with her husband. With a wave of her hand, she covered the item in her palm.

The two of them had a tacit understanding.

As for the Thunder valiant beast’s silent warning, she had also kept it in mind.

Elder long took two steps up the stairs. As if she had thought of something, she turned around and waved behind her.

Long qingru walked up without saying anything.

“You, follow me.”

Elder long frowned, and a murderous aura rose, which instantly made long qingru stop in embarrassment. She stood there at a loss, her cheeks burning.

On the contrary, Lin Hanxing, who had been chosen, became the focus of the crowd.

This exquisite Beauty’s face had been appearing frequently on various video websites recently. It was such a big commotion that even they, who lived in the capital, had heard about it. Moreover, she had multiple identities at such a young age and was now related to the long family ...

Who could underestimate him?

Who dared to underestimate him?

Lin Hanxing walked past long qingru with a cold face and came to elder Long’s side. The two of them went upstairs.

Long qingru, who was standing downstairs, stared at Lin Hanxing’s back. She clenched her fists so tightly that her knuckles turned white, but she did not say a word.

This time, even her uncle did not go upstairs.

What right did Lin xiaojiu have to stay by her father’s side?

With the attitude of a long family member?

He was supposed to be the one standing there!

It was not that Lin Hanxing did not feel the piercing gazes from behind her, but she was already used to it. Those who hated her, feared her, and resented her only dared to do these little things behind her back.

She wasn't afraid in the past, not now, and not in the future!

Shang clan.

As soon as she went upstairs, a strong medicinal smell hit her face, and it also brought an unspeakable depression.

Lin Hanxing stood beside elder long and looked down at the haggard-looking elder lying on the bed. Even though he was lying there, he still had an indescribable Majesty, enough to make people imagine how he would look when he woke up.

The medical team's expert made way for elder long after greeting her.

Elder Shang had been hanging on to his last breath all this while, waiting for elder long to appear. He was afraid that it would be time for elder Shang to leave after he finished speaking.

The Shang clan junior was extremely sad, he was sobbing.

The expressionless Lin Hanxing stood there like a weirdo. Shang yanyong was very unhappy when he noticed this. Even though humans had different joys and sorrows, this was the first time he had seen a junior like her who didn't even bother to pretend.

As if he had sensed something, the dying old man Shang opened his eyes.

The moment he saw elder long, the old man who had never given in his entire life finally shed tears. Elder Long's entire body trembled. The loneliness in her eyes could not be concealed. Perhaps, only after this tear did elder long truly realize that another old friend of hers was about to leave.

"Except ... Yan Yong, all of you ... Get ... Out ..."

Elder Shang took a lot of effort to say this.

The younger generation of the Shang family and the medical team left, leaving only elder long, Shang Yan Yong, and Lin Hanxing in the room.

"Listen to me, the PU family ... Is not ... A good thing!"

Elder Shang had to repeat his sentence several times before he could finish. He was panting with difficulty, but he gritted his teeth and persevered.

Lin Hanxing raised an eyebrow when he heard this.

Shang Yan Yong, on the other hand, was shocked. He subconsciously looked in elder Long's direction, especially when he saw the unknown expression on his face. He held his breath.

He had his own concerns.

What the old man didn't know was that the Shang family and the PU family were currently competing for a piece of land. Right now, it was in full swing, but if the old man passed away, he definitely wouldn't have the heart to continue fighting with him.

Not only would they not, but they would also have to keep their edge down for a period of time. This was the survival rule in the government office.

"Guard, guard against him!"

Old Wei shakily extended his hand towards elder long. When his gaze inadvertently swept past Lin Hanxing, his expression suddenly changed.

...

"She ..."

In a daze, it was as if his old friend's wife was standing right in front of him.

"You found it?"

You, found it?

The rest of his words were interrupted by a violent coughing fit. His mouth was filled with the metallic taste of blood, and the rest of his words were stuck in his throat. However, his eyes were as wide as a bull's and were fixed on Lin Hanxing.

People of his generation did not have much knowledge about DNA testing, but his face could not lie, especially the mole under his eyes. It was like a reverse plate of the past.

Lin Hanxing stood there quietly, not saying a word. Her glass-like eyes were cold, and no one knew what she was thinking.

"Yes, I've found it,"

Shang yanyong's heart trembled at elder Long's admission.

No one understood the meaning behind elder Long's words better than he did. As long as elder long acknowledged it, the DNA test was nothing. Moreover, there had been at least a few hundred people who had brought fake goods to the long family over the years. None of them had the same attitude as elder long.

"That's good ..."

...

Elder Shang laughed, the wrinkles on his face almost loosening.

Noticing this, Shang Yan Yong's eyes immediately shook like an earthquake. This meant ...

Lin Hanxing, who had been expressionless the whole time, suddenly pulled out an acupuncture needle from his ring at lightning speed. No one noticed what she did, but the needle was already on elder Shang's body.

The elder, who seemed to be on the verge of reaching Nirvana, had his breath sealed and was forced to stop there.

The heart rate and other indicators on the device were as normal as could be.

However, everyone knew that this was impossible!

Elder long and Shang yanyong turned to look at Lin Hanxing, only to see her smile for the first time since she entered the room. It was a mysterious smile.

What he showed her today was what the divine hand had taught her when he gave her the needle. No matter what kind of serious illness it was, it could ensure that her breathing and heartbeat were normal for another ten minutes.

As for the ten minutes after ...

"A condition?"

Lin Hanxing said with a smile.
