

Goodnight 1701

Chapter 1701

1701 Don't seek death

Shang Jun only felt a chill coming from the bottom of his feet, and instantly felt danger!

A sharp pain came from his leg in the next moment, and Shang Jun, whose throat was sealed, actually fainted from the extreme pain!

"It's useless!"

Sacred hands pouted.

Everything happened in an instant, so fast that no one had time to react. The breaking process was completed.

If it wasn't for the clear sound of bones breaking, it would have felt like a dream.

He was so fast, ruthless, and accurate that he didn't seem like a little girl at all!

He was truly a ruthless person!

Sacred hands quickly took over the work. Although he looked down on this group of merchants, the old man was reasonable after all. Moreover, Lin Hanxing's intention was obviously not to pursue the matter, so sacred hands did not make a fuss.

But ...

Shang Jun, who had fainted from the pain, felt as if he had been tortured to death. It was as if he had a nightmare, but when he tried his best to open his eyes, he realized that it was true hell when he woke up.

Lin Hanxing looked at Shang Jun's pale and sweaty face and knew that the sacred hand wanted to teach him a lesson. Otherwise, with his ability, he would not be unable to deal with this little pain.

After a while, Shang Jun's broken leg was finally reattached.

"I hope that Madam Shang will consider what I've just said."

Lin Hanxing said coldly, his eyes deep.

Shang Jun's mother was not stupid, Lin Hanxing almost said his name out loud, how could she not understand?

However, she didn't want to be used as a weapon.

Seeing through the other party's thoughts, Lin Hanxing's lips curled up slightly. He had no intention of exposing the other party and left the Shang family.

At the entrance.

"I'll get the driver to send you back to rest."

A cool breeze blew across Lin Hanxing's face. He was in a good mood as he looked at the beautiful spring scenery on Mount Jade Dragon.

Before she got into the car, the sacred hand handed her a small box.

"A meeting gift for your grandfather."

After saying this awkwardly, sacred hands got into the car, closed the door, and left.

Lin Hanxing opened it and took a look.

Wasn't it the wax-sealed pill that he had used on elder Shang to snatch back seven days from the King of Hell even when he was on the verge of death?

Lin Hanxing suddenly thought of something and took out his phone again.

Liang yuran's 'arrived' was clearly displayed on the screen.

"I'm giving you a chance ..."

Lin Hanxing's lips curved into a meaningful smile.

.....

At the same time, Lei Xiao was in the noblest and most mysterious place in the four-nine city.

Sitting opposite him was an elder with a white beard. A set of Chinese Chess was placed between the two of them, and they were playing to their heart's content.

If it wasn't for the lightning, the consequences would be unimaginable.

"This is what I should be doing."

Lei Xiao responded in a low voice. He had always been like this. No matter how many things he had done behind his back, he had never asked anyone to report about it. He was as low-profile as he could be.

"I didn't expect you to become my grandson-in-law."

"I'll bring Hanxing to see you next time."

hehe, that's great. I'd like to see what this Lin xiaojiu of the rumors is like!

The game continued.

A servant walked over and whispered something into the elder's ear.

"Your underlings are causing quite a ruckus."

The elder said with a smile, not showing any anger on his face.

"My people won't take the initiative to cause trouble,"

But he was never afraid of trouble.

alright, I'll help you deal with this. It's time to give the long family a good beating.

.....

In the police station.

"Does it hurt?"

Liang yuran half-squatted in front of Jiang Xibao and helped him treat the wound on his hand.

Jiang Xibao's wrists were full of scratches from long Xi 'er's long nails.

"It doesn't hurt at all ..."

Jiang Xibao said in a soft voice. At the same time, her stomach was growling.

...

"I'm just hungry again."

A burst of laughter could be heard from Yan beiming's side.

"Little Xi Bao, your 'again' word is really spiritual!"

Yan beiming, who was holding the little pig, was in a daze. He finally knew who Liang yuran had prepared the mountain of food in the back seat for. As he was thinking, Liang yuran shot a glance at him, and his subordinates came to carry the food.

It immediately attracted the attention of the other people in the police station.

"I'll eat."

He took a box of cake and handed it to her. Liang yuran's cold face was slightly raised. Jiang Xibao subconsciously reached out, but when his fingertips touched the calluses on Liang yuran's fingertips, he retracted his hand as if he was burned.

I didn't feel it, I didn't feel it, I didn't feel it ...

Jiang Xibao was like a little ostrich that wanted to bury its head in its stomach.

It was at this moment that the flustered long qingru rushed in. When she saw Jiang Xibao, she immediately identified her based on her clothes and appearance. It was the fat girl who followed Lin xiaojiu and injured Xi 'er!

"I dare you to touch her!"

...

Before long qingru could get close, Bai Xi had already fallen in front of her.

Her beautiful face was filled with anger.

"Get lost!"

Long Qingru had also brought a lot of people. Pu Wei Shi had not been sent home yet. There had been many reporters waiting near their villa, wanting to get first-hand information, but who would have thought that they would capture such a wonderful scene.

“Xi ‘er,”

Seeing her daughter sitting in the corner, Long Qingru’s tense nerves broke. She was so angry that she burst out like a volcano.

“I’m going to Sue you!”

Liang Yuran raised his head and his extremely cold and gloomy eyes fell on Long Qingru’s face, sending chills down the latter’s back. The people around Lin Xiaojiu and Lei Xiao were just like them!

Long Qingru only felt annoyed.

Especially when he thought of Lin Xiaojiu!

“Are you sure?”

Liang Yuran reached out and removed the cake crumbs on Jiang Xibao’s lips, which made Jiang Xibao shiver and blush again. He said coldly.

“Mom! It was her! She even threatened me! Sue them until they go bankrupt! Lock them all up!”

Long Xi ‘er regained her arrogance after her initial fear faded. With Long Qingru by her side, she was no longer the same. She was as arrogant as a little princess.

This gave the police officer in charge of this matter a headache.

From the time they received the report until now, they had investigated their backgrounds. Weren’t these two groups of people the two most discussed groups in the four nine city today?

On one hand, he hired someone to commit murder, and on the other hand, he trespassed on private property ...

What to do?

I’ll just do it slowly according to its nature!

Liang Yuran didn’t say anything. He was waiting for Lin Hanxing’s news.

At the same time, on Mount Jade Dragon.

Lin Hanxing was sitting opposite Elder Long and handed him a document.

Chapter 1702

1702 You won’t die if you don’t seek death 1.0

“Before I do this, I think I still need to ask for your opinion.”

Elder Long received it and read it in silence.

The surrounding air pressure was getting lower and lower. The service staff standing at the side did not even dare to breathe loudly. It had been a long time since he had seen elder long in such an angry state. It was as if it was the night before a storm, and it sent chills down one's spine.

"Is this all true?"

Elder Long's face was solemn.

Lin Hanxing smiled without saying anything, but the meaning behind it was self-evident.

"You bastard!"

Elder long slammed the documents in his hand onto the table, and even the teacup in front of him jumped.

"My men are currently in a confrontation with long Xi 'er at the police station. These are my trump cards for the negotiation. I'll leave the choice to you, Grandpa."

This bright and beautiful Apple had long rotted from its core.

There was a dead silence in the mansion.

"Do what you want to do."

.....

The two parties were still in a stalemate in the police station.

Long qingru's lawyer had already arrived. He was dressed like an elite and had an arrogant look on his face. As the most famous lawyer in the capital, he obviously didn't take this case seriously.

miss long, don't worry. I'll definitely seek justice for Miss Xi 'er!

The lawyer's tone was very arrogant, but in Yan beixiao's ears, it was as funny as it could get. Liang yuran did not even pay attention to him.

On the other hand, long Xi 'er was staring at Jiang Xibao.

She had not forgotten what this B * tch had done to her!

"Then, I'll leave it to you, lawyer Wang."

Long qingru's meaning was obvious. She wanted to deal with the matter as seriously as possible.

young lady, according to Article 245 and Article 275 of the criminal law, your behavior today is enough to be regarded as an illegal intrusion of a house and intentional damage to property. Not to mention that you have injured miss long. I hope you are aware of the serious consequences of your actions!

Lawyer Wang looked at Jiang Xibao arrogantly with an elite aura.

However, he almost laughed out of anger when he saw it.

He saw that the little fat girl was not listening to him at all. She had one hand on the table and was thinking about something. However, the man with a cold face and extraordinary aura standing beside her kept his eyes on his face.

His gaze was bone-piercingly cold.

“How do we settle the score for long Xi ‘er hiring someone to commit murder?”

After all, he had been in the field before. Like a rose with thorns, Bai Xi’s words exposed the lawyer’s avoidance of the important and the trivial.

what evidence do you have to prove that miss long hired someone to commit the crime? ”

The lawyer pushed up his glasses, determined to win.

Naturally, he had already made arrangements before he came. After all, long Xi ‘er had stirred up a lot of trouble over the years. He was already very familiar with dealing with it. One’s state of mind affected one’s attitude. From his expression, it was obvious that lawyer Wang did not take these people seriously.

“I have the surveillance video of you trespassing on private property.”

Upon hearing this, long Xi ‘er sneered. She did not believe that these things would not be able to kill her. This was the capital. She did not believe that Lin xiaojiu, who had just arrived, would have any tricks up his sleeve!

“In your opinion, how do you want to solve this matter?”

Yan beixiao caressed the little pig in his arms as he looked at the lawyer sarcastically, his tone filled with ridicule.

“Miss long, what do you think?”

Lawyer Wang turned to look at long Xi ‘er.

if you don’t want me to pursue this matter, fine. However, I want Lin xiaojiu to kneel in front of me and apologize!

Long Xi ‘er said viciously. She was so close to having a smug look on her face.

“You’re dreaming!”

Jiang Xibao, who was still in a daze because of Liang yuran, suddenly came to his senses when he heard the name ‘Lin xiaojiu’. He exerted force in his hand and with a crack, the corner of the table that she was holding was broken in her palm.

“.....”

“.....”

“.....”

Lawyer Wang and police officer: " they didn't have time to look at the surveillance footage. They finally know why the villa became like that!

Jiang Xibao was so angry that he threw the corner of the table in his hand in long Xi 'er's direction!

"A threat! Is this a threat?"

Lawyer Wang didn't forget to point at the room's surveillance camera and even asked the police officer to testify for him.

It was chaos.

Long qingru hugged long Xi 'er and gritted her teeth as she looked at the group of people opposite her. Today, one wave had yet to settle, and another wave had risen. She was about to have a headache, but she hoped that she could use this matter to hold Lin xiaoju back and resolve the matter with Wei Shi.

"Who said I had to kneel down and apologize?"

A cold female voice suddenly sounded in this chaotic environment. It was as if time had been paused. Everyone turned to look at the source of the voice. Jiang Xibao's face, which was originally full of anger, suddenly bloomed into a smile.

They saw Lin Hanxing walking into the police station with an elder who looked to be in his sixties. Many people were stunned when they saw the elder, especially lawyer Wang, whose expression changed immediately.

"Teacher cen, why are you here?"

Lawyer Wang went up to him with a bitter face. Even though he was one of the most famous lawyers in the capital, he still didn't dare to offend this Big Boss in front of him.

But why was he here?

The answer was, of course, someone had invited him.

And this person was Thunder valiant.

Lin Hanxing received Lei Xiao's call on the way, and it took some time to pick up the elder. However, because Liang yuran was here, she didn't think that Xi Bao would suffer any grievances.

The elder called teacher cen had a head full of white hair, but his eyes were full of energy.

His gaze fell on lawyer Wang, who was feeling nervous.

"T-teacher cen ..."

Lawyer Wang, who had been arrogant just a moment ago, smiled obsequiously. The man in front of him was a leading figure in the legal world in the capital. Even the fourth young master of the Lei family, Lei Jue, had once attended his class. It was easy to imagine the status of this elder in the country.

However, since his retirement, he had declined all the arrangements made by the higher-ups, and he rarely came out of his retirement unless it was for the school's anniversary or an international difficult case. He rarely asked about other things, but today ...

What was going on?

"Yes."

Hearing the other party call him teacher, elder cen's expression didn't change, but with one look, lawyer Wang felt even more pressured. This feeling was really like being suppressed by a higher level.

Lawyer Wang smiled and nodded.

The students who had attended this class were now all over the world. No matter what the reason for this elder's appearance was, psychologically speaking, lawyer Wang was already at a disadvantage.

"Elder cen?"

Long qingru was also caught off guard by his appearance. In the past, she had met him a few times when she attended important events. The reason for his appearance today made long qingru feel inexplicably uneasy.

"You were invited by father?"

Other than elder long, long qingru could not think of anyone else who could help Lin Hanxing to invite this Big Buddha. What worried her the most was that if it was just such a small matter, why would it be worth it to disturb elder cen?

Chapter 1703

1703 Courting Death 2.0

Elder cen looked at long qingru with a serious expression. His gaze went past her shoulder and landed on long Xi 'er's face. The latter obviously trembled under elder cen's gaze and tried her best to hide behind long qingru.

She always felt that the elder's eyes were like a clear mirror, reflecting one's heart with no hiding place.

Long Xi 'er was a little afraid.

"I was invited by my client."

Elder cen looked at long Xi 'er deeply and replied to long qingru. His attitude made her even more uncertain.

teacher, it's just a small case. You can just make a phone call. There's no need for you to come here personally.

Lawyer Wang's heart was in his mouth.

If his senior brothers and sisters knew that he dared to go against his teacher, he would probably be unable to survive in this circle.

“A small case?”

A cold voice interjected, once again attracting everyone’s attention.

At this time, Lin Hanxing was standing next to Jiang Xibao. Her straight posture was domineering and elegant. Ever since she appeared in the police station, the eyes of the people around her had not left her. She was wearing a light blue shirt and a gray women’s suit, looking clean and capable.

As he spoke, Lin Hanxing raised his hand and stroked Jiang Xibao’s head.

Long Xi ‘er gritted her teeth in hatred when she saw his calm and composed look.

“Who told you this is a small case?”

Lin Hanxing’s words were directed at lawyer Wang, but his thin smile made the other party feel an inexplicable pressure.

This was a feeling he had never experienced in his many years of working in the industry.

It seemed like ...

He felt a sense of crisis as if he had fallen into a trap!

“Bring the person in.”

Yan beixiao, who was holding the little pig in his arms, spoke leisurely into his Bluetooth headset. His words made everyone’s heart tremble. Who was coming?

Very soon, the answer was revealed.

It was a few young women who had appeared with their parents. They had different looks, but they were the same weak and pale. Their flickering eyes revealed an indescribable weakness and fragility.

“What are you trying to do?”

Long qingru frowned. She didn’t know what Lin Hanxing meant.

“Long Xi ‘er, do you still remember them?”

Lin Hanxing did not even look at long qingru. Instead, he looked at long Xi ‘er.

Long Xi ‘er subconsciously looked at those people. She did not speak, but the meaning revealed in her eyes and expression was quite obvious ...

She didn’t know them!

However, long Xi ‘er’s reaction made the girls react. Their eyes were filled with intense hatred, as if they wanted to eat her up. Lawyer Wang, on the other hand, stared at one of them as if he had thought of something. His scalp suddenly tightened.

He remembered who these people were!

“Who are they?”

Long Xi 'er's tone was impatient.

“Ha!”

The girl standing at the front immediately burst into tears. The old wounds on her wrist were so many that they had healed, and it made one's heart feel uncomfortable.

“Long Xi 'er, you may not remember us, but we remember you!”

The kind that he would never forget!

Long Xi 'er could not remember the person who had spoken. She looked at her impatiently. If they were not in the police station, she would have lost her temper.

it's okay if miss long doesn't remember. We can help you remember.

Yan beixiao still looked like he was enjoying the show, but even so, the first time he saw the information, he was angry for once. At this moment, his tone was sinister and hard to distinguish.

With a snap of his fingers, someone naturally brought the items up.

It was a pink laptop.

Long Xi 'er's eyes widened when she saw it.' Isn't this my computer?

How did it end up in their hands?

“I don't know if you'll be able to recall it after you're done reading it.”

Lin Hanxing said coldly.

Liang yuran turned on the computer in silence and quickly found the main folder. He randomly opened one and the video began to play.

First, there were insults and slaps. Even the violently shaking scene couldn't hide the cruelty behind it.

Long Xi 'er's expression changed immediately. She wanted to rush out from behind long qingru to snatch the computer back. Naturally, someone was faster than her to block her.

“Don't look! This is stealing!”

No one paid any attention to her, because everyone was attracted by the girl's screams in the video.

Cold sweat rolled down lawyer Wang's forehead, especially when he realized that his teacher was looking at him.

As elder Long's granddaughter and the princess of the PU clan group, long Xi 'er was an out-and-out problem-girl in high school. At that time, she would use her own methods to solve anyone she did not like.

School violence was one of them.

Many of these people were dealt with by lawyer Wang.

At that time, lawyer Wang had just started working and still had a conscience. However, as time went by, he was swallowed by the temptation of befriending the rich and powerful, and gradually deviated from his original intention as a lawyer.

Lawyer Wang had seen these videos before. Long Xi 'er was the one who had played the biggest game. She had even asked someone to carry out a few of the games. After that, Madame long had left all of them to him to deal with. Naturally, he knew what kind of impact these videos would bring to the world!

Elder cen's expression was serious.

As a lawyer, he knew the seriousness of the matter better than anyone else. These videos spanned across three to five years, which meant that the violence had been going on all along. His student obviously knew about this, and not only did he know, but he was also involved.

There was no bottom line if one's mind was not right!

"Do you remember who they are now?"

Lin Hanxing's voice sounded indifferent. He looked at long Xi 'er, who had an ugly expression on her face. What kind of filth and unbearable things were hidden under such a bright and beautiful appearance?

Long Xi 'er's chest heaved up and down violently due to her emotional outburst.

The faces of those people overlapped with the ones in the video. Finally, long Xi 'er's memories, which had been buried in dust or never taken to heart, were pulled back. Her face turned pale instantly and she did not even notice when the police station had quieted down.

Compared to the previous cases of hiring people to commit murder and trespassing private property, the nature of this incident was indeed more abominable and outrageous.

"Mom, what should we do ..."

Long Xi 'er was not a fool. She knew what it meant to release such a video under such circumstances. Her lawyer had once told her to delete all these videos, but she had kept them until now because she thought it was fun.

He would also look at it from time to time.

However, she also knew that this matter could not be exposed.

With tears in her eyes, long Xi 'er looked at her mother helplessly. She hoped that her mother would come up with a solution soon.

What could long qingru do?

The man in front of her was a big Shot in the legal world. Since Lin Hanxing was able to invite him and so many people, it was definitely not something that had been brewing for a day or two. Perhaps she had been waiting for such an opportunity, but they just had to stupidly bump into it!

Realizing this, long qingru suddenly raised her head and looked at Lin Hanxing!

Chapter 1704

1704 You won't die unless you seek death 3.0

She wanted to force Xi 'er to her death!

Lin Hanxing smiled back, but there was an indescribable coldness in his smile.

The video was like a drop of water in a pot of boiling oil. It completely ignited the fear in the girls who had been unable to continue living a normal life for many years. They did not even care that they were still in the police station as they rushed to long Xi 'er and started tearing her apart.

One could only imagine the power once the hatred that had been buried for so many years was released.

Although the police officers had responded as quickly as possible, long Xi 'er and long qingru, who were protecting her, were already in a sorry state.

"Ah ..."

Long qingru was about to turn her head to look at her daughter, but she screamed in horror.

Long Xi 'er followed her mother's gaze and subconsciously covered her face. Fresh blood gushed out from the gaps between her fingers.

From the beginning to the end, Lin Hanxing had only been a cold bystander.

"Long Xi 'er, I'm afraid you'll never forget us again in this lifetime!"

Her pale and weak face was occupied by madness. No one noticed when the girl's fingernails had been cut into sharp triangles, and the gaps between her fingers had been stuffed with flesh and blood. Her voice was very soft, but the smile on her face was very presumptuous, but it did not make people feel the slightest sense of madness.

The police officers quickly got her under control.

"My face! My face!!!"

Through the reflection of the service desk in the police station, long Xi 'er could clearly see the five finger-shaped wounds on the side of her face. Her flesh was exposed, and blood was flowing out. Her tears and blood were mixed together. However, compared to the perpetrator, long Xi' er was clearly the victim, but no one sympathized with her.

Upon seeing the wound, everyone knew that the lady who had committed the crime was determined to fight to the death. She did not leave any room for her and long Xi 'er. Even if long Xi' er's face was fully healed, it was inevitable that there would be a scar.

The police officer hurriedly called 120 for emergency. The reporters who had been waiting at the door for a long time heard the news and rushed in during the chaos. They took the equipment in their hands and started taking pictures.

He focused on long Xi 'er's face, which was too horrible to look at.

"Stop taking pictures! I told you to stop!"

Long qingru quickly took off her coat and covered her daughter's face. Her red eyes looked through the crowd and fixed on Lin Hanxing's face.

She must have planned this!

Otherwise, how could everything be so coincidental?

First, Wei Shi had been taken away from the PU clan by the confidential unit, and then Xi 'er had gotten into trouble. Lin xiaojiu had planned this step by step!

Lin xiaojiu, why aren't you coming at me!?

Long qingru shouted at Lin Hanxing, the veins on her forehead and neck were clearly visible. She had killed people at such a young age without seeing any blood. How could she be so vicious that it was terrifying?

"If you do something wrong, you have to pay the corresponding price."

Lin Hanxing's eyes were like a clear mirror, clearly reflecting the boiling darkness in long qingru's heart, but unfortunately ...

Long qingru had probably forgotten how to fight after so many years of living in luxury in the capital.

"No matter who it is."

No rush, since my game has started, no one in the game can escape.

The emergency personnel arrived very quickly.

At the same time, all major media platforms had received news of the photos and Short Video taken by their own informants. In order to grab the headlines, all major media platforms quickly seized the opportunity with the most sensational headlines.

'Long Xi' er disfigured" long Xi 'er campus violence" long Xi' er's blood splattered at the police station" and other sensational headlines came one after another. Within a short period of time, everyone in the capital city and even the entire Hua country knew about it.

The speed was so fast that it left one speechless.

If there was a scandal, the PU clan, which would have immediately used the media intervention mechanism, was now without a leader and had no time to take care of it because PU Weishi had been taken away by a confidential unit. More people who had been 'taken care' of by long Xi 'er during her school days bravely spoke up. Together with the topic, they pushed long Xi' er to the forefront of the news.

All the changes seemed to have happened in an instant.

The situation was obviously beyond the scope of ordinary police officers. They hurriedly applied to report it to the higher-ups. No one would have thought that what they thought was just an ordinary case of trespassing private property would eventually turn out like this.

It even alarmed the big shots in the field of law!

At this moment, lawyer Wang, who was standing beside long qingru and her daughter, had a deathly pale face. All his thoughts were exposed in front of elder cen, and he even stood rooted to the ground, not daring to move. He knew very well that with elder cen's status, if he were to make a move, he would make a big move.

He could no longer hide the things that long Xi 'er had done for so many years. He could no longer hide the fact that he had been helping the evildoer for so many years!

"Ninth young lady ..."

Jiang Xibao tugged at the corner of Lin Hanxing's clothes. His eyes were filled with pity.

"They're too pitiful."

Even after such a long time, the image of the perpetrator was still lingering in their minds. They were frightened, unable to sleep or eat in peace, and unable to live a normal life. However, the perpetrator not only continued his studies well, but had even forgotten the people he had hurt. They could not even recognize her when she stood in front of them.

And this was also an important reason for the uproar on the internet.

Lin Hanxing reached out and stroked Jiang Xibao's head.

This matter was far more serious than anything else. This was also the reason why she had asked her grandfather's opinion before she made her move. It was because she knew better than anyone else how great the impact would be when this matter was exposed and how wide it would spread.

Elder long and the long family, who had always been in seclusion, would definitely be pushed to the forefront and stand at the heart of the storm!

The emergency care personnel were treating long Xi 'er's wounds, but long qingru could already imagine the result from their eyes. Long qingru, who had spent the whole day in shock and running around, finally couldn't hold on anymore.

The sound of a string breaking rang out in his mind.

Long qingru fainted in front of everyone ...

.....

It was Twilight.

Long qingru slowly opened her eyes, and the smell of disinfectant rushed into her breath.

...

Almost as soon as she opened her eyes, she saw Lin Hanxing standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling window with his arms crossed in front of his chest. Perhaps he had heard the movement, Lin Hanxing turned to the side, his cold eyes were icy.

“You’re awake?”

The sound of high heels clacking against the floor was like a death knell. Lin Hanxing quickly walked to the bed and looked down at long qingru.

Long qingru was filled with hatred.

“Where’s Xi ‘er?”

Long qingru’s voice was extremely hoarse.

“Don’t worry, her face won’t recover.”

Lin Hanxing had just contacted the doctor. Just as they had expected, the wound on long Xi ‘er’s face was too deep. Even if it was repaired, it was impossible to not leave any scars.

Lin Hanxing shared the ‘good news’ with long qingru as soon as she woke up.

Long qingru, who had just woken up, almost fainted again.

The monitoring device connected to her was beeping in response to her emotional outburst.

Chapter 1705

1705 A conversation

Lin Hanxing glanced at the surveillance equipment and smiled. In the dark Ward, the mole at the corner of her eye was still frosty, making her look even colder in long qingru’s eyes.

Long qingru burst into tears.

“We’ve only just arrived and you already can’t take it?”

Lin Hanxing reached out and grabbed a chair next to her and sat down directly by her bed. Looking at long qingru’s tears, there was no emotion in his eyes.

“You’re crazy!”

Long qingru said through gritted teeth. There were only the two of them now, and she did not hide anything when she spoke. If looks could kill, Lin Hanxing would have been cut into a thousand pieces by long qingru.

“Thank you for your praise.”

Lin Hanxing leaned his body weight against his back. His eyes were cold and intimidating, but the words he spoke were soft and gentle.

Long qingru felt as if a huge rock had hit her heart and she was about to die of anger.

In the past, when she fought with the people in the capital, the other party always had to consider the face of the other party's family, so it was inevitable that they would be restrained in doing things. As time went by, it was inevitable that they would have an idea of each other's bottom line and rules.

However, Lin Hanxing was an out-and-out lunatic!

In her eyes, face was not even a fart. It was not just her own face, but also the long family. If she had her eyes on someone, she would not rest until one of them was dead.

"I'm the one you hate. If you have anything to say, come at me!"

Long qingru's words made Lin Hanxing's lips break into a brilliant and sarcastic smile, making his porcelain white face look even more attractive.

"Then this game isn't fun."

She said.

Lin Hanxing's expression was contemplative. He casually turned the ring on his finger that symbolized his status, as if he was silently mocking her for how childish and ridiculous the words she had just said were.

"This matter concerns the long family. Even if I'm willing to mess around with you, do you think the higher-ups will allow you to continue to do as you please?"

Long qingru sneered.

"Wake up!"

I'm afraid that the internet surveillance Department has already sealed off the news!

Unfortunately, Lin Hanxing didn't let long qingru be proud for long, and her eyes turned to pity.

"Why don't you take a look at your phone?"

Lin Hanxing said.

If long Qing really picked up the phone, her calm expression was broken the moment she opened the page.

"How is that possible?"

Not only were the news about long Xi 'er and the incident at the police station not blocked, but it was also becoming more and more intense on the internet. However, all the digging only went to the PU Shi group. Anything that involved the long family was dealt with by 404.

In particular, in order to attract people's attention, the media platforms even posted pictures of long Xi 'er being attacked and covered in blood today. Although they had blurred it out, the thin mosaic could be seen clearly without glasses.

"Do you still not understand?"

Lin Hanxing looked at long qingru's face that was getting paler and paler and reminded her.

Long qingru raised her head stiffly.

“Long Xi ‘er is already an abandoned pawn.”

She said with a smile.

Long qingru’s grip on the phone tightened, as if she was going to crush the thing in her hand. Her nose was moving back and forth because of her heavy breathing, and her back was wet with cold sweat.

Lin Hanxing smiled and blinked.

Although he didn’t know how ah Xiao did it, it was indeed the case from the message he sent.

“Impossible!”

How did her Xi ‘er become an abandoned child?

How could he be abandoned?

Lin Hanxing, who was spinning the ring on his finger, appreciated the change in long qingru’s expression. PU Weishi would never have thought that after he finished a series of procedures, the sky outside would have changed.

“I heard that your body was severely depleted after you gave birth to long Xi ‘er. You can’t give birth to another one even if you want to. It’s a pity ...”

Lin Hanxing seemed to be smiling, but his voice was like an invisible knife stabbing into long qingru’s heart. Long qingru was still in shock that her daughter had been abandoned. When she heard Lin Hanxing’s words, the corners of her mouth trembled and she pursed her lips tightly.

She didn’t want Lin Hanxing to see her weakness.

Lin Hanxing had achieved his desired effect and naturally, he was not prepared to continue fighting. He stood up elegantly and the sun outside the floor-to-ceiling window behind him had gradually set into the clouds. The sky had truly darkened.

“Have a good rest.”

Because very soon, the storm would come again ...

.....

There was no one in the corridor.

Only the cold sound of Lin Hanxing’s high heels clicking on the ground as he walked towards the elevator could be heard.

She took out her phone and dialed a number.

The call was picked up quickly.

“I saw the news.”

Fu ya’s voice on the other end of the phone could not hide her excitement.

...

“Yes.”

The elevator door opened slowly and Lin Hanxing walked in. The smooth walls of the elevator reflected the sneer on her face.

The elevator went down.

“I was right to believe you.”

Fu ya’s heart was beating very fast. Now that long Xi ‘er had become an abandoned pawn, she might even be imprisoned in the future. Wasn’t the good opportunity that she had been waiting for so many years finally here?

At the thought of this, Fu ya, who was sitting in the car on the other end of the phone, was so excited that she could not control her expression.

“Where’s the thing I asked you to do?”

When the elevator opened again, they arrived at the parking lot on the basement first floor.

Lin Hanxing quickly found his car.

“Don’t worry, it’s all done.”

They had a mutually beneficial relationship. Since Lin Hanxing had allowed her to foresee success, she would naturally not neglect him.

...

After a few simple words, the two hung up the phone.

Lin Hanxing sat in the car and did not move for a long time.

Her eyes were reflected in the rearview mirror. They were cold and emotionless, and even the air in the car seemed to have frozen.

“Ha ...”

.....

When Lin Hanxing drove back to Jade Dragon Mountain, there was a familiar car parked in the courtyard.

When they entered the bungalow, they saw Lei Xiao and elder long sitting face to face with a serious expression. The table beside them was filled with gifts, which were obviously brought by Lei Xiao.

When he saw Lin Hanxing enter, Lei Xiao’s originally cold eyes instantly brightened up like a spring breeze. Even the people around him could feel the joy that came from the bottom of his heart. Elder long, who noticed this, snorted coldly.

“This girl is going to stay here tonight.”

Elder long watched as Lin Hanxing placed his hand in Lei Xiao's. Although he had heard some old fellows talking about the president of the Lei Corporation all these years, it was one thing to admire him, but it was another to be his grandson-in-law.

"I'll be wherever Hanxing is."

Lei Xiao held Lin Hanxing's hand tightly. Who would have thought that his words would attract a cold snort from elder long?

"You're so glib."

The service staff standing in the dark tried to hold back his laughter. Only God knew that young master Lei had already been here for an hour. From the beginning to the end, the two of them had been sitting face to face and staring at each other. They didn't know how tired they were.

If they had not seen it with their own eyes, who would have thought that the legendary young master Lei, who was all-powerful in the business world, would actually be like this in private ...

Looks like he's easy to bully?

Chapter 1706

1706 Grandson-in-law

"Please don't bully him."

Naturally, Lin Hanxing would be the first to object to anyone who wanted to bully Lei Xiao.

"I'm bullying ..."

Elder long was exasperated. He was bullying him? The two of them did not say more than two words from the beginning to the end of the hour. He said 'sit', and Lei Xiao replied with 'okay'. Then, they began to see who was more boring.

"Did I bully you?"

Elder long glared at Lei Xiao angrily. Don't think that he doesn't know the tricks of men, he's just pretending to be a big-tailed Wolf here!

Today, Lei Xiao was dressed in a formal three-piece suit. The open suit jacket revealed a white shirt and a black vest, matched with a tie of the same color. His cold and strong aura was deliberately weakened by him. When he heard elder Long's question, he raised his head and looked at him, but did not speak.

"....."

Elder Long's eyes widened.'What does silence mean?

In the words of young people like them, wasn't this just ... Scheming something?

This damn scheming Boy!

How could Lin Hanxing not see the open and secret struggle between the two? he turned his head and hid his face behind Lei Xiao's back, his shoulders shrugging as he tried to hold in his laughter.

However, a slight movement suddenly came from the large pile of gifts, which instantly raised the vigilance of the Secret Service staff.

A palm-sized cute Pekingese climbed out of the pile of gifts. It looked like it had just had a good sleep and was walking around in a daze. In the end, it laid on elder Long's feet and refused to leave.

"....."

What the hell is this?

Elder long looked at Lei Xiao in disbelief.

"Pekingese."

Understanding elder Long's gaze, Lei min responded expressionlessly. As if he had sensed something, the little Pekingese also called out in a childish voice.

"....."

How could I not know that it was a Pekingese?

Elder long felt that she was on the verge of going berserk the entire night.

"A gift."

"It's very cute."

Seeing his expression, Lei Xiao added another sentence, but it almost made elder long snap the string in front of him.

What the hell is very cute?

"What is it called?"

It was Lin Hanxing's first time seeing a palm-sized Pekingese puppy. He bent over and reached out to tease it, but the little Pekingese was still like a lazy salted fish. It lay on elder Long's feet, unmoved, and could not be chased away.

"Hello," he said.

Said Lei Xiao.

"What?"

Lin Hanxing looked at him in surprise and did not react.

"It's called hey."

"....."

"....."

"....."

This time, even the Secret Service personnel standing in the dark was speechless. Young master Lei, can you be so simple and clear?

“Don’t tell me that when you went to the Pet Shop and shouted” hey,”it was the only one who went with you?”

Lin Hanxing’s words had just fallen when he received a look of approval from his husband.

The Secret Service staff sighed in his heart. Perhaps only his wife, miss Lin, could understand this logical relationship. The way he named himself ... Was a little too straight?

In the future, if they had a child, according to young master Lei’s naming habit, wouldn’t he just be called baby Lei?

“You don’t have any momentum at all!”

Elder long snorted coldly. It was apparent that she was very dissatisfied with this name.

“Then what do you want to change?”

Thunder valiant asked for advice ‘humbly’.

“Wolf Fang!”

This name was both domineering and pleasant to the ears. Elder long snorted coldly and looked at Lei Xiao, only to see an expression of sudden realization on Lei Xiao’s grave and stern face in the next second, as he nodded in agreement.

“Good name!”

“You have good eyes, kid!”

“.....”

“.....”

“.....”

The onlookers were silent and teary-eyed, feeling that elder long had been tricked. They seemed to have some evidence.

...

In addition ...

Was it really okay for a small Pekingese to be named after a big wolfdog?

The key person in the discussion ... Pet ... Was yawning as he hugged elder Long’s home Slippers. He was about to fall asleep.

Yes, I’m so sleepy.

Soon, the service staff walked over and bent over to elder Long’s side to announce that the meal was ready.

As Lin Hanxing and his wife were going to stay the night, elder long, who disliked wasting food, specially ordered the kitchen to prepare a table full of dishes just to understand her granddaughter's preferences.

At the dining hall.

It was really a table full of dishes.

However, three people ...

He barely managed to add a little puppy, but there were at least 18 dishes and a soup on the wooden table in front of him. There were also two desserts in the kitchen, a total of 21 dishes. How could he possibly finish them all?

"Have a taste of the turbot."

...

"Try this kun meat too."

"And this ..."

Elder long did not take a single bite, but she was eager for Lin Hanxing to eat first.

"Grandpa, I'm a vegetarian."

After Lin Hanxing finished speaking, elder Long's hand froze for a moment. Perhaps it was because he thought of what she had experienced in the past few years in the information, and his expression was hard to hide. The public chopsticks hung in the air.

"I'll eat it."

Lei Xiao naturally picked up the kun meat from old master Long's chopsticks.

"Hmph, you're lucky."

Forcefully suppressing the sadness in her heart, elder long still refused to admit it, and only picked up another piece into Lei Xiao's bowl.

Awooo ...

The puppy, who was originally lying under the table, couldn't help but anxiously pull at the table legs.

"No rules,"

Elder long snorted coldly. Just as the odd-job personnel was about to step forward and take the puppy away, elder long bent down and carried the puppy from the ground to another empty chair. She even picked up a large piece of butter meat for him.

"....."

"....."

Capital double standards!

It was at this time that elder Yan arrived.

After passing his coat to the service staff, elder Yan washed his hands and placed a new set of cutlery on the table. His serious expression only relaxed a little when he saw Lin Hanxing and Lei Xiao.

“Xi ‘er’s matter ...”

Elder Yan had just started speaking when he was interrupted by elder long.

“Let’s eat,”

The dignified voice suddenly turned tough and deep. It was obvious that he did not want to talk about this matter. The matter had caused such a huge commotion, so how could elder long not know about it? He didn’t want to mention it because he didn’t want to.

The originally relaxed atmosphere turned silent.

After the meal, elder long went out for a walk as usual. Before he left, he did not forget to bring his granddaughter, the Thunder valiant owl, and ‘lang ya’ with him.

“The higher-ups have already issued an order to thoroughly investigate Xi ‘er’s matter.”

The incident continued to ferment on the media platforms, and the social impact it had caused was too bad. It was necessary to give the public an explanation in order to appease the public’s anger. This also meant that no one could protect long Xi ‘er.

“It’s time to give the victim some justice.”

Due to long Xi ‘er’s identity, these matters had been suppressed for so many years. The people on this line would probably not be able to live comfortably during this period of time. When the case was handed over to the prosecution and the dust settled, there would probably be a major reshuffling.

“The commotion you caused is really not small.”

Which of the recent news in the capital had nothing to do with her? Such an obvious action would probably attract suspicion.

“I’m afraid that there won’t be enough noise.”

Lin Hanxing replied indifferently, but her expression showed that she was not joking.

If he wanted long qingru to take the risk, he had to force her into a desperate situation!

Chapter 1707

1707 Wolf fangs, bite him

Just as Lin Hanxing and elder Yan were chatting in the house, elder long and Lei Xiao were also in a confrontation outside.

“From now on, let her accompany me on Mount Jade Dragon every Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday.”

“Hehe.”

At this moment, Lei Xiao was not as easy to talk to as he was when Lin Hanxing was around, especially when he heard elder Long's 'unreasonable' request. His eyes turned cold as he rubbed the calluses on his fingers. His two simple words made the old man in front of him choke with anger.

Take a look! Take a look!

He knew that this stinky brat only knew how to pretend to be honest in front of that girl. It was only because that girl was soft-hearted and easily deceived that he was so angry!

"Wolf Fang, bite him!"

Elder long used the tip of his foot to kick the little Pekingese's butt. The little Pekingese, which could be blown away by a strong wind, was carrying a heavy responsibility that did not belong to its age. It trembled as it took two steps toward the Thunder valiant beast and howled in a baby voice.

Aowu~

But it didn't have any intimidating power!

"....."

"....."

Alright, alright.

In any case, he had done his best.

This scene made the service staff standing in the dark burst into laughter.

Lei Xiao took the dog leash. Seeing this, elder long snorted in annoyance and the two of them continued to walk forward. It was dinner time, and there were a few retired leaders taking a walk in the heavily-guarded Mount Jade Dragon. They were all people who could only be seen on the 7 p.m. News in the past.

When they saw elder long, the old leaders came forward to greet her.

The Thunder valiant beast tried to Dodge.

Although he was an old leader who had retired, his connections were still there. When long qingru had first brought PU Weishi back, PU Weishi had wanted to take the opportunity to take a walk with elder long to get to know these old leaders, but elder long had never given him the chance.

Realizing that he was trying to avoid it, elder long frowned and glared at Lei Xiao.

This little brat still wants to run?

"What are you hiding for? call for help."

"....."

Who was the one who wanted to let the dog bite?

Lei Xiao stood beside elder long and called out to them one by one. Although it was not obvious on his face, he had the illusion of following his parents and calling them uncle and aunty in his heart.

As expected, history always had a beautiful cycle.

Everyone had heard of the Lei group's young master Lei. Everyone in Jade Dragon Mountain knew about the recent happenings of the long family. For elder long to be so generous in introducing Lei Xiao to everyone, the meaning behind this matter could not be more obvious.

The senior leaders also had an idea in their hearts.

After they finished reminiscing, Lei Xiao and elder long continued to walk forward. The little Pekingese followed behind them, swaying its butt. It stuck out its tongue and chuckled. When it could no longer walk, it simply sat on the ground.

The old man and the young man also sat down in the pavilion to rest.

"You have a backbone."

Elder long tilted his head and looked at Lei Xiao. One could judge a person by his heart. This grandson-in-law of his was truly filled with righteousness. Even though he thought so in his heart, he did not show the slightest bit of admiration on his face.

"Do you know how much effort the Pu Wei spent on me in order to make friends with these people?"

Lei Xiao was sitting upright beside elder long, his entire body filled with pride and unyielding spirit. When he heard elder Long's words, he glanced at him and was sprayed with a cold snort.

"Just because I gave it to you?"

After a moment of hesitation, Thunder valiant beast pointed at the little Pekingese.

"....."

It was rare for elder long to be rendered speechless.

On the other hand, the corners of Lei Xiao's lips curled up into a thin smile, melting his cold face.

"I'm just joking."

"....."

It was not funny.

"Hanxing has just returned to the capital. I can understand your concerns ..."

Lei Xiao's gaze fell on the lake in the distance. His deep voice brought with it an inexplicable feeling of comfort. It was different from the majesty and domineering aura he had when he was in the corporation. It was more peaceful, causing elder long to become silent.

"But you should trust her more."

She was more powerful than they had seen. Even without these shortcuts, she could still open up a new world in the four-nine city in her own way. It was just a matter of time.

"You're teaching me a lesson now!"

Elder long snorted coldly, but she was no longer as impatient as she was before.

He really wanted to make it up to her.

“Let’s go back,”

Elder long stood up, took the dog leash from lang ya, and walked back.

On the way back, Lei Xiao and elder long did not say a word, but when the Western-style building appeared, their eyes turned soft at the same time. Their steps became faster, and they were eager to return.

Especially elder long.

In the past, in the eyes of the group of old men, elder long had always given off a serious and unapproachable feeling due to his personal experience. However, everyone could clearly feel that there was something different about him today. They could even see a smile on his face when he greeted others.

This was truly rare!

This was especially true when the news about long Xi ‘er was still spreading like wildfire outside!

“Little girl, I’m back.”

Elder long pushed the door open and entered.

Lin Hanxing, who had just finished a conversation with elder Yan, was sitting on the sofa thinking about something. However, when elder long saw the green bangle on her wrist, she was instantly unhappy.

“It’s a thank you gift from elder Shang.”

Lin Hanxing raised his head and saw elder Long’s eyes. He explained helplessly.

“Take it off, take it off.”

How could his granddaughter wear a gift from another old man?

Elder long gestured with his eyes, and the service staff immediately went upstairs to bring down the things that elder long had already prepared.

...

“Old Shang’s things aren’t good, wear mine!”

“.....”

“.....”

“.....”

Elder Yan looked at his brother-in-law with a complicated expression. He looked like he wanted to take out all the things that were passed down in the family.

“Then I won’t wear anyone’s, okay?”

“Not good.”

Elder long was stubborn.

At the same time, in the hospital, long qingru had just hung up the phone, her face twisted.

Tonight, the news of elder long bringing Lei Xiao around Jade Dragon Mountain had already spread throughout the capital. When she thought of how the Pu Wei sect had wanted to use elder long to enter the circle of old cadres, she deeply felt what favoritism was.

Long qingru gritted her teeth in hatred.

She had long forgotten how elder long had accompanied her back then. She had also forgotten how elder long had given her birthday gifts every year and how they had been filled with blessings. At this moment, long qingru’s mind was filled with extreme thoughts.

He also hated Lin Hanxing to the core!

She shouldn’t have been soft-hearted in the first place. She should have cut the weeds and eliminated the roots!

Otherwise, how could he have fallen into such an embarrassing situation today?

Lin xiaojiu, all the glory you have now is given to you by father!

In the quiet Ward, long qingru’s eyes were bloodshot.

What if this Halo was completely gone?

A cold and gloomy laugh suddenly came out. Long qingru seemed to have thought of something, and her expression turned ferocious.

Lin Hanxing sneezed without any warning.

The Pekingese, who had sneaked up to her feet, was shocked. It looked at Lin Hanxing with its black eyes pitifully.

Lin Hanxing bent over and stroked its head.

“Continue sleeping.”

The corners of his mouth slowly curled up into a meaningful smile ...

Chapter 1708

1708 Deep fear

PU Weishi and Li Lin were only released the next morning.

The two of them had not slept the entire night and were full of wolves.

“Listen to your brother’s advice, or just forget it.”

Li Lin patted PU Weishi's shoulder, as if he had been scared out of his wits by what had happened yesterday.

In fact, what caused Li Lin's attitude to change 180 degrees was what the interrogator had said last night. He said that what happened yesterday was just a warning and that the real big move was yet to come.

Li Lin's hair stood on end when he heard this.

PU Weishi's eyes were dark.

Li Lin's wife drove to pick them up. As soon as they got in the car, Pu Wei immediately felt that something was wrong. Li Lin's wife kept peeking at him through the rearview mirror, thinking that she had done it very secretly.

Soon, even Li Lin noticed the problem.

"What do you do when you're always watching over Wei?"

"Something happened to Xi 'er. You guys should read the news."

Li Lin's wife said with a smile. She didn't want to be the one to break the ice, but since she had already said it, there was nothing to hide.

PU Weishi's heart skipped a beat.

"Don't talk nonsense."

Although Li Lin said this, he was not confident. He quickly took out his phone to read the news, but when he clicked on it, his heart turned cold.

The news was overwhelming.

He didn't even dare to turn around to look at his old friend's face, but the initial superficial disdain he had for Lin xiaojiu had turned into fear and deep dread. Combined with what had happened yesterday, she had definitely planned this!

I've asked an acquaintance at the Procuratorate ... There's no need to find anyone. The higher-ups have given orders to severely punish him.

Li Lin's wife shut her mouth after she said that.

The car was dead silent.

The PU family's old estate arrived in this silence. PU Weishi's expression was ugly as he got out of the carriage, not saying anything.

"Qingru and Wei Shi only have one child, Xi 'er. What will they do in the future?"

Li Lin's wife said as she restarted the car.

"Don't worry, let's go home."

Li Lin, however, knew about the relationship between PU Weishi and Fu ya. He was so upset that he just wanted to go home and take a hot bath to get rid of all the bad luck.

However, before the car could go far, it suddenly braked.

Li Lin, who didn't have time to put on his seat belt, almost hit the front windshield. He immediately spewed out a string of vulgarities, but when he saw the scene in front of him, his voice stopped abruptly as if his throat was being choked.

A black business car stopped in front of their car, and the bodyguards in black quickly came to the car.

Thump thump.

He knocked on the car window.

Li Lin rolled down half of the car window, his expression cautious.

"Mr. Li, let's have a chat."

The bodyguard in black gestured to the cafe next door and stopped talking.

Li Lin took a deep breath, appeased his wife, and got out of the car. He walked toward the coffee shop that the black-shirted bodyguard had pointed to.

He pushed the door open and entered.

There was no one in the cafe.

Under the staff's guidance, Li Lin soon saw the person who had 'invited' him into the cubicle.

Just the back view was enough to make his scalp go numb.

"Sit."

Lin Hanxing's sitting posture was elegant, and his one word already showed his extraordinary aura.

When Li Lin came back to his senses, he realized that he had already sat down!

"A cup of black coffee."

Li Lin tried to hide his uneasiness by ordering.

The staff quickly served the coffee.

Lin Hanxing didn't say anything, but his eyes fell on Li Lin's face indifferently. This was the first time Li Lin had direct contact with the rumored person. He had just left the secret unit, so he was highly focused, and his face was slightly pale as cold sweat dripped down.

He took a big gulp of black coffee to suppress his pounding heart.

"It's good that Mr. Li values Brotherhood, but you may not be so lucky next time."

Lin Hanxing's words were light and casual, but in Li Lin's ears, it was no different from a blow to the head.

“Are you threatening me?”

Li Lin gritted his teeth. Wasn't this woman in front of him too arrogant?

His words just now were a clear warning!

Lin Hanxing smiled without saying anything.

Li Lin had seen all kinds of people in his life, but he was definitely the only one who was as strange as the person in front of him. He took another big gulp of black coffee to calm his mind before speaking again.

...

“Miss Lin, there's no need to be so ruthless.”

Li Lin really didn't understand what kind of grudge she had against Long Qingru and Pu Weishi that made her stare at them so intensely. From the looks of it, she was clearly trying to kill them.

“Always leave a way out, in the future ...”

“To persuade others to be magnanimous, you must be struck by lightning.”

The coffee in front of Lin Hanxing was shrouded in white mist, and the heat made the expression on her face hazy. However, the surrounding space could not be faked. Li Lin only felt that the aura of the person in front of him had suddenly become cold and fierce, completely different from before.

A deeper fear emerged in Li Lin's heart.

I heard that Mr. Li and Mrs. Li have sponsored many schools and children in the mountain area in the past 20 years. I admire this very much, so I would like to give you a piece of sincere advice, Mr. Li ...

Lin Hanxing said lazily, one hand on the edge of the sofa.

She would always give those who were kind a chance.

I will do my best to help the Shang family in this land contest against the Pu family. It's hard to say who will win and who will be affected ...

As he said this, Lin Hanxing's eyes were fixed on Li Lin's face, and a chill rose from the bottom of his feet.

...

“Mr. Li, you can go back and think about it.”

At this moment, he couldn't even tell if the other party was giving him a warning or a warning. However, the word 'danger' was like a huge rock that pressed down on Li Lin's heart.

He didn't know how he got back to the car.

It was not until his wife gave him a hard slap on the shoulder that Li Lin came back to his senses.

“Old Li, what's wrong with you? Who was it that was looking for you?”

Li Lin's wife parked the car by the side of the road and looked at him worriedly. Why did he look like he had lost his soul after he came back?

“I want to rest for a while.”

“Didn’t you say that you wanted to help Wei Shi with the land fight with the Shang family?”

Li Lin’s wife was surprised.

Li Lin was about to speak, but the image of Lin Hanxing’s frosty eyes in the coffee shop appeared in his mind.

He had an intuition.

Things couldn’t be that simple!

Li Lin’s strong sense of danger made him finally decide to announce that he was sick for a while, refuse all visitors, and put down all the work at hand, but ...

He did not understand why Lin xiaojiu had only warned him.

At this moment, in the PU family’s old residence.

“Xi ‘er is already like this now. Isn’t it time to bring little Taotao back?”

The old lady was only thinking about her grandson. She grabbed her son’s hand and tears were about to fall. Pu Wei Shi had returned, and Xi ‘er had met with such an accident. Little Tao Tao was already the biggest worry in her heart.

“Brother, let me invest some money too ...”

The younger sister, PU Xiang ‘er, smiled and came over.

Chapter 1709

1709 Small calculations

PU Weishi’s eyes were dark as he smoked and didn’t say anything. He glanced at his sister.

He was thinking about little Taotao.

Back then, in order to show his attitude to elder long, he had deliberately given Xi ‘er’s surname to the long family. Long qingru’s health was severely lacking, and she couldn’t give birth except for Xi’ er. The old lady had made a fuss in front of him a few times because of this, but she hadn’t made it public because of the long family.

However, things were different now.

The real bloodline of the long family had returned, and the treatment of the fake long qingru was getting worse day by day. Why not take this opportunity to recognize little Taotao?

“Brother, say something!”

Afraid that he wouldn’t agree, PU Xiang ‘er began to use her unique skill to start her performance again.

“Do me a favor.”

PU Weishi finally spoke.

“Go ahead,”

“Help me get all of your sister-in-law’s family members to join this project.”

PU Xiang ‘er rolled her eyes. She naturally understood that the ‘ sister-in-law’s family ‘her brother was referring to was long qingru’s biological parents. She also understood that he wanted to use this to tie everyone’s interests together and pave the way for little Taotao’s acknowledgment.

“Leave it to me!”

.....

When Lin Hanxing returned to the courtyard house, the news from the PU family’s old residence had just arrived.

She handed the shaoyao she bought on the way to Bai Xi, and when she found out that ah Xiao was in the study, she immediately twisted her leg and walked over.

The study room was filled with sunlight.

The moment Lin Hanxing pushed the door open and entered, he saw Lei Xiao sitting on the single sofa with his eyes closed.

The hardback hardcover book that he was halfway through was pressed against his abdomen.

As soon as she got close, Lei Xiao’s strong arm reached out as fast as lightning and pulled her onto his body. His eyes were still closed, casting a shadow on his cold face.

The corners of his lips curled up slightly.

Naturally, Lin Hanxing leaned her head against Lei Xiao’s neck. It was rare for the two of them to be alone.

The two of them were wearing a camel-colored sweater and home pants. Lin Hanxing sat on his side, her thin legs hanging in the air, swaying with her movements.

The sunlight was warm.

Lin Hanxing yawned. She had woken up early and was about to fall asleep after smelling the familiar man’s fragrance.

The two of them fell asleep together.

When Lin Hanxing woke up again, she had already returned to her bedroom. Lei Xiao was in a video conference with the group’s top management. When he heard the commotion on her side, he looked towards Lin Hanxing’s direction and said a few words before ending the conversation.

Lei Xiao got up and went to the bedside.

elder long said yesterday that he would like you to accompany him on Jade Dragon Mountain on Tuesday and Thursday.

Lei min lied without a change in his expression. He reached out and gently smoothed Lin Hanxing's messy hair, not feeling the slightest bit of guilt.

'1356 days' and so on, let elder long dream on. '

Lin Hanxing grunted and his loose sweater fell on his shoulders. He raised his hand to rub his eyes, only to find that the lightning that landed on his face was dark and deep, like ink.

"What ... Oh ..."

Before she could finish her words, Lei Xiao's large palm had already pinched her chin, and he leaned over to kiss her naturally.

It was deep and lingering.

The two of them continued kissing and rolled back onto the bed.

When everything was settled, Lin Hanxing felt like she had no energy left in her toes. They had missed lunch and dinner, and now she was famished.

Lei Xiao stood up and walked out of the room.

When she returned, she was holding a plate of food that the kitchen had specially left for them.

Lei min's eyes were still red.

Chapter 1710

1710 His old face heated up

She walked around the clothes that were scattered on the ground. When the man's eyes swept over her, Lin Hanxing felt her face heat up.

It was too absurd.

Lei Xiao bent his knee on the bed and stretched out his hand to pick Lin Hanxing up. Lin Hanxing's body weight, which had just reached 90 pounds, was like a feather in his arms to Lei Xiao. Even so, Lin Hanxing was much heavier than when they first met.

"Let's eat,"

Lei Xiao rested his chin on her neck, his face tilted to the side, his nose rubbing against her skin.

Lin Hanxing quickly blocked it with his hands. If this situation continued, he would not be able to leave the bed tonight.

Halfway through the meal, Fu ya's call came in.

Lin Hanxing immediately turned on the loudspeaker.

"It's exactly as you expected!"

Fu ya's voice was filled with excitement. She had been waiting for this day for so long. Even her hand holding the phone was shaking. After hanging up the call with PU Xiang 'er, she immediately contacted Lin Hanxing.

"It's too early for you to be happy."

Lin Hanxing's cold voice was like a bucket of cold water poured on her head, which made Fuya sober up.

Yes, before the matter was confirmed to be done, nothing could be done.

"Do you need me to do anything else? Just say it."

Lin Hanxing used his chopsticks to press down on Lei Xiao's hand, who was secretly picking food and thought that he did not see it. His eyes were warning her husband, but the short silence made Fu ya hold her breath, mistakenly thinking that Lin Hanxing had other problems.

go to long qingru's place. You should know what to say and what to do.

Lin Hanxing's voice was cold, and the way he looked at Lei Xiao was threatening. The mighty and overbearing young master Lei expressionlessly stuffed the lettuce that he had pushed aside earlier back into his mouth and started to chew unwillingly.

The call ended.

"Yuan Bao is learning from you, that's why he's picky with his food!"

After listening to Lin Hanxing's words, Lei Xiao did not say anything, but his eyes clearly revealed a meaning.

[ I didn't. You're talking nonsense. ]

He had an innocent expression.

"....."

Lin Hanxing was immediately amused by her man, her long hair fell down as she lowered her head, even the loose sweater that belonged to Lei Xiao that she had casually worn on her body also fell down, half of her round snow shoulder and exquisite collarbones were exposed.

The Thunder valiant beast's eyes darkened.

After eating, Lin Hanxing returned to the single sofa with Lei Xiao and casually flipped through the hardcover original text book that Lei Xiao had read before. It was rare for him to be entranced by it.

Lei Xiao was flipping through the company documents.

The two of them didn't delay each other, but they didn't separate from each other like conjoined twins.

Lin Hanxing finished reading the entire novel in one breath. When he looked at the title again, he realized that it was the latest version of Lei Xiaosan's "enchanted mind" series, which was not on the market yet.

Looking at the special signature of Matthew Lei on the title page, Lin Hanxing seemed to have thought of something. He reached out to grab Lei Xiao's phone, unlocked it, and took a picture of the yet to be released book, "enchanted mind."

[ Lei Xiao V: very good. ]

The attached picture was the photo that Lin Hanxing had just taken.

It instantly caused a sensation.

Setting Lei Xiao as the wife fans who were particularly close to him, they immediately opened their accounts. At first, everyone was still discussing the deep Brotherhood of the Lei family, but as they watched, some people realized that something was wrong.

Strawberry, watermelon, and cranberry: Can you guess what I found?

The rabbit paper girl: "don't ask. I'll suffocate her!"

Lu Niuniu: "don't ask. I'll suffocate her.+1!"

[ iron pot stewed you and me: F * ck, I think I noticed it too. ]

It was as if they were playing a game of finding fault with everyone. Everyone began to look at the photo seriously, and more and more people discovered the problem. It was like a stone that caused a thousand ripples.

What was supposed to be a peaceful night was completely stirred up by such a small interlude.

"God seeking sleep: ah ah ah ah!" This world is really unfriendly to single dogs. Why do I have to be fed dog food at night?

Lei family's official fan club: Someone was abusing animals here!

Very quickly, a netizen posted a screenshot of the enlarged photo.

In the glass reflection in the background, a man and a woman's figures were blurry, but it could be seen that the two were sitting together. The man held a document with one hand and the woman's waist with the other when she was taking photos.

This is terrible!

These two people were actually so sweet in private!

So ... So F * cking envious!

Lin Hanxing was not the least bit aware of the commotion she had caused on the internet. After she used Lei Xiao's account to post that Weibo post, she used her husband's account to play games. After all, it was an account with a full set of runes and a full set of heroes and skins, so it would be a waste not to use it.

On such a quiet and beautiful night, it was most suitable for the two of them to not do anything and just stay together quietly.

However, some people were not so lucky.

At this time, long qingru was stopped by her own family. If it were not for her best friend Fuya, she would have been angered to death by these people.

Xi 'er's future was uncertain, but these people kept pestering her about the project she had invested money in when she was in the city guards. They didn't mention Xi' er at all, and only talked about money. Even a person like long qingru was filled with hatred.

If elder long hadn't adopted her as a branch family, she would have been sold out by her original family sooner or later!

"Back then, we told you to risk your life and give birth to another son, but you didn't listen ..."

that's right, that's right. If we had a son back then, we wouldn't be like this.

Long qingru, who had just come out of the hospital, had blue veins bulging on her forehead. She seemed to be really angry, and her face was extremely ugly. If Fuya hadn't been holding her, she would have fallen down in the next second.

if they want to vote, let them vote. Let's send them away first.

Fu ya lowered her voice and said to long qingru.

After finally chasing her away, long qingru seemed to collapse and fell on the sofa. Two lines of tears flowed out in front of Fuya, looking very pitiful.

Seeing her like this, it would be a lie if Fuya, as her best friend for many years, didn't feel anything. But as soon as she thought of little Taotao, Fuya became ruthless again.

"Xi 'er is already like this now, you have to make plans for yourself, right? Then isn't Lin xiaojiu relying on blood relations?"

Fu ya seduced long qingru step by step.

Based on her many years of understanding of her best friend, she knew that Qing ru was already tempted. As long as she seduced her a little more, she would be able to release the demon in her heart. She would also be able to pave the way for Lin xiaojiu's future preparations.

Thinking of this, Fu ya spoke again.

"For your own sake, you're willing to take a risk. Are you afraid?"

Long qingru turned her head and looked at her best friend.

What she said, wasn't it what he was thinking today?

"You will help me, right?"

Long qingru asked.

This time, the appraisal would be carried out by the country. If they wanted to play tricks, they must be determined to win!
