

The Gorgeous Substitute Wife of Mr. President Chapter 121 - Tips

0 5 minutes read

For the next few days, everything went well.

Evelyn returned to work and Sophia was also preparing for the charity party.

The Hawk Group allocates more than one hundred million to do charity every year, so Sophia has also set up a charity foundation which belonging to the Hawk Group.

The foundation mainly provides assistance to the children with congenital disabilities.

After several days' arrangement, Sophia also drew up the invitation list and sent the invitations to those guests one by one.

The guest who has received the invitation will prepare their donations for this day. They will put all the donations together for public auction, and the final fund-raising will be used for the public welfare.

After Sophia had arranged all these things, she asked Lucy to send a stack of information to Evelyn.

“Mistress, Mrs. Hawk will hold a charity party after two days. This is the information of the party. Mrs. Hawk wants you to read all the party information and guest information.”

Lucy handed out the information to her.

Evelyn frowned, but she still took over the information.

Just as she wanted to ask what Sophia meant, Lucy had turned back and left.

Evelyn felt a little annoyed because of her defiant attitude.

But she didn't say anything when she thought she was Sophia's subordinate.

She looked down at the information and found that John was also on the invitation list. She could not help frowning.

To be honest, Sophia did not get along well with her family, and she looked down on her family. How could she invite John?

Is it because of her?

She shook her head when she thought of it.

She thought she didn't have such an honor.

So, what does Sophia going to do?

Just as she was wondering, her phone rang.

She scanned at it and found that it was John.

She blinked her eyes and finally answered it.

"What's up?" She asked.

John also did not intend to be perfunctory. He said straightly, "The Hawk family sent me an invitation to attend a charity party a few days later. You remember to be intimate with me that night."

Evelyn frowned, and John continue warning at her before she wanted to say something.

"Those people know that Nora and I have a good relationship. You'd better not expose, or you know the consequences."

"I see. I'll try my best to cooperate with you that day."

Evelyn made a promise, and she was even more disgusted with John's threat.

But she could not resist, because he knows her weakness.

John received her response, and changed the topic with satisfaction.

"By the way, what are you going to donate on the charity party?"

"I just got the news, I haven't prepared for it, but I will discuss with Lucas, I will not disgraced Nora."

Evelyn knew why he asked this question, he did not really care about her, but was afraid that her donation was not good enough and that she would disgrace Nora.

In fact, her consideration was right.

John was worried that she had never been to such a charity party and would not choose something good to donate, which in turn affected Nora's reputation.

After all, now she is acting as Nora.

"IF you want to discuss with Lucas, I will not help you, just remember, don't humiliate me, and expose yourself."

He was worried and emphasized it again, and then hung up the phone directly.

Evelyn looked at the phone and left it aside with a sneer, as if she had not listened to his words by heart.

At night, when Lucas came back, Lucy came from the main house and told them to go to the main house for dinner.

At the dinner table, Sophia talked about the charity party.

Evelyn, have you saw the information I given you this afternoon?"

She asked, originally with the purpose of finding fault with her, but she didn't expect that Evelyn spent the whole afternoon to remember all the information and the guest list.

Suddenly, Sophia 's face became black, but she soon hid her emotion.

"Since you've finished looking at it, are you ready to donate anything?"

She asked again, this seemingly caring look made Evelyn quite alert.

She didn't know what she's thinking about.

She frowned and said cautiously, "I'm going to take out the Bingxin that my father sent me before. What do you think of it?"

Bingxin is a set of jewelry that worth about three million dollars. It was Nora's dowry when she married with Lucas. Of course, there are many other valuable things. But those are more valuable. She is not real Nora. In order to avoid troubles in the future as well as Sophia 's criticism, she chose the middle price jewelry.

As she had expected, Sophia listened to her donation and couldn't say anything.

Although the jewelry she donates is not valuable, but Bingxin is still very famous. Although it is not a luxury, it has a unique design and many people like it.

Evelyn looked at her, and feel happy.

It's sure that the woman would not be so kind. She thought for a moment and turned to look at Lucas, who had been eating quietly beside her. She smiled and said, "Mom kept asking me, but she didn't care what you donate. What are you going to donate that day?"

As her changed the topic, Sophia turned to look at Lucas.

Facing the eyes of the two women, Lucas said, "Cater has prepared for it, it's Mr. Johann's last work."

As he finished speaking, Evelyn became a little surprise.

Everyone knows that Mr. Johann is a great scholar in modern literary field.

His painting is hard to find on the market. Some people even wanted to spend millions of dollars to collect his works.

Sophia was satisfied and nodded.

Then she talked to Lucas about the party.

"You should come back early that day to help your father with the guests..."

She talked to him a lot, and Lucas just listened to her quietly.

When she had finished, she saw Evelyn beside Lucas and said, "As for Nora, I won't let you do anything in case you to make some mistakes. You just have to be quiet and don't make fool."

“Mom!”

When Lucas heard it, he looked at her with disapproval.

Sophia knew that her son was dissatisfied with her because of what she had just said. She laughed and said, “Well, I’ll stop talking. Just have the meal.”

She soothed Lucas and then gave Evelyn a warning look from the direction that he could not see.

Evelyn shrugged her shoulders and didn’t care about it.

She was happy that Sophia did not let her do anything. ...

How time flies, and soon the day of the charity party was coming.

In the Shengyungong Hotel, the red carpet spread from the street all the way to the entrance of the hotel.

Many luxury cars were gathered around, well-dressed men and women came down from the car, they went arm in arm with each other, and gracefully entered the hotel.

As they moved around, the sound of camera flashes was ringing around them.

In the hotel, people gathered and talked while they were drinking with each other.

The Hawk family naturally entered as they were the hostess.

Sofia slowly stepped down the stairs hand in hand with Devin Hawk.

Vivian followed them.

Evelyn and Lucas, as younger generations, they were walking at the end of them.

However, with the appearance of the two people, the people downstairs couldn’t help but being attracted by them two.

Lucas still wore the same old black handmade suit.

But with his unique handsome looking, he is definitely the kind of that will never get people tired of looking at him, he is just like a pot of old wine, the more tastes, the more fragrant.

He looked down at the people downstairs, as if he is the king in ancient times, who was patrolling the territory, which made people feel pressure and fearful.

Besides him, Evelyn wore a lavender sloping shoulder half-sleeve dress, which showing her beautiful figure perfectly.

The wrinkled skirt waved like a blooming flower as she walked.

There was a delicate makeup on her face.

The silky long hair was behind her head, leaving only a little hair hanging over her face.

With a proper smile on her face, she walked downstairs with Lucas step by step by holding his arm.

One is hardness, one is softness, they matched each other so well, as if they were a union made by god, and they instantly surprised everyone.

Amelia stood in the corner of the meeting hall, staring at them two slowly walking down, the jealousy in her heart was rising steadily.

Especially the discussion around her, which made her hate Evelyn so bad.

“Isn't it said that Lucas doesn't get along well with his wife? Why didn't it look like that?”

” Maybe it is just gossip, but it is also possible that the relationship between them has been improved, after all, Miss Davis is not a common woman, she is pretty, Mr. Hawk is possible to fall in love with her.

“You are right, although it is said that Miss Davis has a bad temper, but she should be bad-tempered because of her perfect appearance.”

Amelia became angrier as she listening to their words, but in the next second, she suddenly converged her anger in her eyes.

She picked up a glass of wine from the bartender beside her and walked towards Lucas with a decent smile.

“Lucas.”

She called him with a tone of love.

However, Lucas only nodded coldly and seem to ignore her.

Amelia was upset and bit her lower lip painfully, she glanced at Evelyn, who had gone far away, and talked to Lucas again: “Where is Nora going? Why not she staying with you? “

Lucas saw her keep asking endlessly, and said. “Where she is going has nothing to do with you. Is there anything else?”

The implication is, if she has nothing to say, she can go away.

How can Amelia not understand him? Her eyes were filled with grievances at that moment.

“Lucas, are you still angry with...”

She wanted to ask if Lucas was still angry with her for the things happened that day, but before she could ask, she was interrupted by Lucas.

No, actually she was ignored.

Lucas saw an acquaintance and he turned around and said hello to the man without looking at her.

Amelia bite her lower lip and looked at the back of him. He was talking happily with that man. Amelia’s eyes were full of unwillingness.

Why, why did it become like this?

She growled in her heart.

It was Nora's fault. If the woman hadn't ruined her plan, Lucas would not have known it.

Nora Davis, I will be irreconcilable with you!

Evelyn did not know that Amelia thought the reason why she was deserted by Lucas is due to her.

At this time, she was forced to follow John Davis, watching him boast with others about how good the relationship between him and her are, and she was full of disgust.

"Mr. Davis is now well-developed and has become a relative with Hawk family."

"Yes, there were many people who wanted their daughters marry the the Hawk family, and no one had expected that you will succeed."

"Yes, Miss Davis is so beautiful. No wonder Mr. Hawk will fall in love with her. You raised up a good daughter."

"Thanks, your daughter is also good, it's just because the fate has not arrived, she can also find a good husband in the future."

"Ha-ha, thank you."

A group of middle-aged old men were talking happily there, and Evelyn stood beside them, pretended to smile at them.

And she felt a little sad.

She knew that John loved Nora better, and today she totally understood that his love to Nora is endless.

She did not understand why he treat them so differently, since both of them were his daughters.

After thinking of it, she suddenly lost the mood to continue pretending.

It seemed that those people still have much topics to talk about, so she said. "Dad, I'm sorry, Lucas asks me to go, I'll leave right now."

“Go ahead, don’t keep Lucas waiting too long.”

John naturally knew that this was her excuse and he did not expose her.

After all, the result he wants has been achieved.

Evelyn saw the situation and turned around to leave.

As she turned to leave, the smile on her face disappeared and her eyes were full of tiredness.

She watched the people around her, she still kept her spirits up and did not let herself show any difference.

Anyway, she can’t do anything wrong tonight.

Otherwise, Sofia would never let her go easily.

She thought and went to Lucas.

Unexpectedly she saw Lucas was talking to Envy Miller.

They were talking something happily, and with smile on their face.

Especially Envy, she is so pretty and charming that made people can’t move their eyes on her.

She pursed her lips and something came to her mind. She stopped and did not disturb them.

On the contrary, Amelia was going to be insane.

Forget about that she didn’t win Nora.

Now she even can’t win the woman who appears suddenly.

The reason is simple. Envy’s family background is not poor.

With these thoughts in mind, Amelia drank the wine in her hand in a second.

It had been a long time past, and the opening ceremony was going to be start. Lucas said goodbye to Envy.

“Nora hasn’t come back yet. I’ll look for her.”

Envy knew that Lucas, as a member of Hawk family, he needed to give a speech on the opening ceremony, so she didn’t detain him.

Amelia also saw Lucas left.

Just as she was ready to went to Lucas again, she found Lucas heading straight to Evelyn who was standing in the corner.

“Bitch!”

Her eyes appeared jealousy.

Evelyn was surprised to see Lucas come to her.

“Why do you come here?”

She said to him and looked at Envy behind Lucas, she saw that Envy had already talk to someone else.

“The opening time is coming. Mom let us get ready for it.”

Of course, Lucas would not say that he was worried because he had not see her for a long time.

He answered obscurely, and she didn’t doubt his words.

“Let’s go then.”

She got up and walked to the indoor stage first.

“I’m so happy to see all of you come to our charity party. Now I declare the party begin!”

Sofia stood in front of the stage and said with a smile, “As the host, Lucas will take the lead in donating tonight.”

Lucas heard that, he came out and let Cater take the painting he had prepared.

“This is Mr. Johann ‘s masterpiece, I hope that some of you will cherish it.”

After he said that, Cater unfolded the painting.

A beautiful Chinese ink and wash painting appeared in front of those people, and it attracted many young and middle-aged people's attention.

"It's really Mr. Johann 's work. It's really a masterpiece."

"This painting, my husband has been looking for it for a long time, he wants it very much, I must get it tonight, anyway."

"Well, don't say that. I want this work too. It's all depend on our own ability."

Lucas's painting has brought up the atmosphere of bidding.

At the same time, the a.s.sessor had assessed the value of the painting.

"The total value of this painting is over eight million dollars."

Lucas nodded and motioned Cater to put the painting away. And he sit in the chair like a god.

And then the host read the name of the next donor.

The next donation was from Evelyn.

She handed the jewelry she was ready to donate to the staff, she looked around with a smile and said modestly, "Please have a look."

Everyone smiled and nodded to response her.

Only Amelia gave her a contemptuous glance.

She had already known what the b!tch was going to donate, how she could only donate such a cheap necklace. It was really unfitted with her ident!ty.

"Mrs. Hawk donates the Bingxin, which won the first price of the 11th newcomer of b&y Jewelry Company, its market price is 3 million."

The host announced and continue to read the next donor.

” Nora, I thought you would donate something good. I didn’t expect you to be so stingy. It’s a shame that you just give such a necklace that just worth two or three million.

Vivian suddenly leaned over and satirized Evelyn and said”” when others were focusing on the stage, “I’ve said that you don’t deserve our family, Grandpa still does not believe it, even Amelia is better than you.”

As she was speaking, it also turned to Amelia’s donation.

It’s an imperial jade earring. It’s worth twice as much as that of Evelyn, though it’s a small one.

” Amelia, isn’t that your favorite earrings? Why do you donate it?

Vivian was surprised when she saw the earrings.

“Although I like the earrings, but the color is too dark for me. They are just used to support Sophia.”

Amelia looked at Sophia with a flattering look.

Sophia naturally praised her.

” Amelia is so sensible.”

Amelia seemed to be embarrassed by her praise, her head bowed shyly.

But she looked at Evelyn with triumph where nobody could see her.

She seemed to say that she won the game.

However, Evelyn didn’t care about it at all.

She ignored Amelia and sat down with Lucas, listened quietly to the host announce the value of the donated items.

She didn’t expect to hear a surprise thing.

Her father John, that stingy man even donated a five million antique.

It's really rare.

Two hours later, the donation was over, Sophia came to the stage again to let everyone enjoy themselves.

After she finished speaking, people all moved to the banquet hall.

Evelyn was about to leave with Lucas and she was stopped by Sophia.

"Nora, you stay and follow them to sort out the donations. Later, there will be an auction. No one is looking at it. I will be worry about it. You have nothing to do with. So you just watch them here."

After she said that, she turned around and left regardless of Evelyn's wishes.

Evelyn couldn't refuse it but stay there.

She returned to sit on her position, playing with her phone while waiting for the staff to count the donations.

Don't know how long it took, just when she was bored, a staff member came to her.

"Madam, it's almost counted here. Would you like to check it?"

Evelyn, in order not to be found fault by Sophia, she checked them, and then saw nothing unusual, so she turned back to the banquet hall.

When she returned to the banquet hall, she wanted to find Lucas, but she looked around the meeting hall, she didn't find him, so she gave up.

She stood at the entrance of the venue and looked at the meet hall. She didn't like such a scene. She simply found a quiet place and sit in there.

Amelia watched her sitting alone in the corner, her eyes flashing with an evil light.

She glanced at Vivian around her and her nodded slightly. Then Vivian left the meeting hall.

Shortly after she left, staff members who had previously donated lightly rushed in.

She went up to Sophia in a hurry and said something. Sophia suddenly turned gloomy.

“What is missing?”

She asked coldly and deliberately.

The staff member was frightened by her and trembled. “The Beauty Tear, which was donated by Miss Miller, it disappeared. We searched the whole room but found nothing. We suspected it might have been stolen.”

After she said that, the people who had been disturbed by Sophia began to discuss.

“Somebody stole the donations? these are used to save lives, how could there be such a bad person!”

” Will it be someone of us?”

“Don’t talk with no evidence. What’s the identity of the people here and do they care about those things?”

“You are right, it may also be the staff they did it by their own, this kind of thing was also happened before. By the way, Miss Miller ‘s Beauty Tear are a rare top-grade pearl in recent years. The market value is seven million. Whether it is in the black market or in the pharmaceutical market, it is a very popular thing.”

The public’s comments became louder and louder, and the staff member was anxious to hear them and explain it in a hurry.

“Mrs. Hawk, we have been working together for so long. You should know our rules. It’s a big taboo for us to take customer’s donations.”

Sophia looked at her calmly and did not respond for the first time. She seemed to be thinking about something.

Evelyn stood behind the crowd and listened to the situation. When she had known that the donation had been stolen, a sudden frighten arose in her heart.

Before she checked herself, someone came up to her.

“Mistress, Mrs. Hawk let you come over and have a talk.”

Evelyn looked at the staff, and then looked at Sophia, she felt more and more uneasy in inside.

However, in the public’s eyes, she has no reason to refuse, but can only take a deep breath and walk to her.

“Mom, are you looking for me?”

When Sophia saw her, she frowned and said, “You should have heard that the donation was stolen. Now all of them said they didn’t take it. I remember you were there at that time. So, to make it fair, you should also let them search on you.”

When Evelyn heard this, her face suddenly turned black.

She thought Sophia asked her to come to ask her about the situation, but she didn’t expect to let her be examined.

Undoubtedly, this is to let her lose face, but in front of so many people, she couldn’t refute.

“I see. I’ll cooperate.”

She promised and turn around and hand out her small handbag for examination.

Anyway, she didn’t steal, and she was not afraid of checking.

However, the idea had not been sustained for a few seconds, and it was broken by reality.

“Mrs. Hawk, I found the Beauty Tear, it’s in the Mistress’s wallet!”

The searcher took out the Beauty Tear found in Evelyn’s wallet with joy.

With her movements, the people all changed their expression.

Evelyn was even more confused.

She never thought that the stolen thing would be in her bag.

It's clear that she never left her handbag alone.

"Nora, what's going on?"

Before she could respond, Sophia sharply questioned her.

"My God, I didn't realize that Mrs. Hawk had taken the Beauty Tear."

"It's so strange, Mrs. Hawk does not lack of these things, how can she do it?"

"Who knows? Some people have special hobbies, they like to steal."

"Do you know that? I heard that Mrs. Hawk is famous for her capriciousness. She always takes everything she likes."

Evelyn listened to these comments and her face turned gloomy.

And Sophia was still looking at her. She knew that the situation is serious. If she can't handle it properly, she's afraid that she will have a hard day in the future.

After thinking about it, she stopped all the discussion around.

"Ladies and gentlemen, please pay attention to your words. I have no idea why this pearl is here with me."

Just as she said that, a sarcastic voice aroused.

"Ha, you don't know why it is in your bag? Or do you want to say that someone deliberately frame you?"

Vivian stood beside Sophia and looked at her with contempt.

Indeed, the first time when they found the pearl, she has suspected that someone had deliberately framed her.

After all, she has experienced the same thing several times.

But now if she says that again, no one will believe her.

Do not mention Evelyn's previous life style, she was already blocked by Vivian's words just now.

Suddenly, Evelyn's face became black.

See the situation, Vivian eyes flashed with pride.

Amelia was also happy to look at her out of the crowd.

The bitch often shows off in front of her. She'll see how she can deal with it this time.

"Why don't you say something, Nora? Shouldn't you give us an explanation? Now you've disgraced our family!"

Evelyn looked at her, then looked around at the people who pointed at her, said: "I said, I did not steal it."

Vivian sneered: "Then you did not steal it, why it is in your bag?"

Evelyn was silent.

Sophia was angry when she saw the situation.

"Shame on you! I regret that Lucas married such a bastard!"

She gnashed her teeth in anger and cursed.

Although her voice is not very loud, people close to her can still hear it.

John stood beside them, his face was also turned black with anger.

His eyes glared angrily at Evelyn, and if he could, he was going to slap her.

However, the present situation does not allow him to do so at all.

Even he had to go forward and defend her.

For the fact that Evelyn was acting as Nora, he could not let her destroy Nora's reputation.

"Mrs. Hawk, there must be some misunderstanding. How could our Nora steal something?"

He went up and wanted to cover it.

"We'll investigate it later. The party is still most important now. Don't let such a little thing affect everyone's mood."

Vivian sneered: "It is said that Mr. Davis pamper my nephew-in-law very much. Now I have seen that Mr. Davis pamper her so much, with no bottom line. Nora has done such a thing. You don't give us an explanation but want to cover it for her. Are there no rules in Mr. Davis's eyes?"

John was suddenly beat by her words and he turned to be gloomy.

"Seriously?"

Vivian squinted: "The market price of the Beauty Tear is more than five million, it is enough to constitute a crime of theft, maybe she will get into prison of more than ten years. But it seems that Mr. Davis has not taken it seriously, or that Mr. Davis has handled this kind of thing skillfully."

When she finished, she looked sarcastically at Evelyn, which meant that Evelyn was a habitual criminal of theft.

John was choked by her words for a moment and his eyes were red with anger.

While Sophia noticed the time was almost right, she came out, leading the topic: "Mr. Davis, although Vivian's words is a little harsh, but what she said is true. Although this kind of thieving is not a big mistake, but it must not be tolerated, and our family can't accept such a daughter-in-law."

"Mrs. Hawk, what do you mean?"

When John heard this, he felt bad subconsciously and asked.

Evelyn's face also changed.

Obviously, she heard the implication of Sophia's words.

She meant to drive her out of the family.

In public.

For a moment she was in a panic.

And Sophia over there was ready to say what she intends to do.

At the moment, Lucas came back from the outside and found something wrong with the venue and came over.

“What happened?”

Mrs. Hawk saw him with a frown.

Before she could respond, Vivian had told him the whole thing.

“Lucas, it’s very nice of you to come back. Nora has stolen the Beauty Tear of Envy. Sister-in-law is dealing with it.”

When Lucas heard this, he looked down at Evelyn.

Evelyn saw the situation, she subconsciously wanted to explain.

But John took the lead before her.

“Lucas, Nora can’t do such a thing. You can explain to your mother, she wants Nora get out of your home.”

Lucas glanced at him and then looked at his mother.

Sophia also did not hide away from his sight and looked straight at him.

“Lucas, I know you have a good relationship with Nora, but it is no longer suitable for her to stay in our family. We can’t afford to lose face like that...”

She also wanted to convict Evelyn, but before she finished speaking, she was interrupted by Lucas in a cold voice.

“Who said she stole it? She just thought the Beauty Tear was beautiful. I said I would buy it if she likes. I went out just now and had changed 50 million cheque and added them to the charity fund in order to take away what she wants!”

He hugged Evelyn and said to Sophia.

Evelyn leaned in his arms, the whole person was stunned and looked up at the man in front of her.

As for the others, they were shocked by Lucas's behavior.

"That is Mr. Hawk, in order to make his wife happy, he spend so many money on her."

"That's it."

They flattered at the same time.

Sophia and Vivian did not think that it would eventually turn to be like this. They trembled with anger, but they could not refute him. Otherwise, they will make Lucas lose face.

John was even more relieved.

At least he don't need to worry about the woman being expelled from the Hawk family and ruining all his arrangements.

The Gorgeous Substitute Wife of Mr. President Chapter 125 - Tips

Because of Lucas's partiality, this farce ended without a clue.

Even though Sophia, Vivian and Amelia was not reconciled, they could only watch Evelyn leave with Lucas.

Evelyn and Lucas did not leave the party, but they sat down in a corner.

"Come on, what was going on?"

Lucas asked her reasons after he just sat down.

Evelyn didn't hide it. She talked the cause and effect to him.

"I really didn't take the pearl, but I don't know why it came into my bag. It's clear that I never left my bag, but it's still in my wallet.”

Lucas frowned when he heard the words.

In fact, he had a guess in his mind.

After all, it happened so strangely.

But he was still unwilling to believe, thus he planned to do a further investigation.

“I'll investigated it fully. You'd better be with me in the meantime.”

Seeing light flashed in his eyes, Evelyn felt a moment of loss in her heart.

She knew that Lucas should have guessed the truth as she did.

However, he did not believe it, or he was unwilling to believe it.

Yeah, she had guessed that it might be a trap which was set up for her by Vivian from the beginning.

As for what they want to do, they just want to take this opportunity to drive her out of the family.

After all, the meaning of the Sophia was obvious.

if Lucas did not show up, his mother would have driven her out without mercy.

She was a little tired when she thought of this.

Lucas didn't know what she was thinking. Seeing her tired look, he suddenly felt distressed.

“Be assured, I will find out the truth, and will not let you take the stigma.”

Evelyn looked at Lucas and pressed her lips, it seemed that he was perfunctory.

She did not think that Lucas would really give her justice after he had made a clear investigation.

Because people involved in this were his relatives.

Lucas also knew that she had some doubts. He mistakenly believed that she did not believe him, thus he called Cater came to here.

“Mr. Hawk.”

Cater called respectfully.

“You go through all the hotel surveillance to see what happened just now.”

“Yes!”

Cater took orders and then turned around.

“Are you satisfied?”

After Cater left, Lucas raised his eyebrows and looked at Evelyn.

Although Evelyn did not say anything, but the smile on her face was real.

Anyway, it's better to be able to investigate clearly, thus this will not be taken out by some people to preach in the future.

Meanwhile, Vivian and Sophia burst into anger after the public left.

But Sophia had to entertain guests, so she went to entertain guests after she said some bad words of Evelyn with Vivian.

After Sophia left, Vivian went to look for Amelia.

“It's disgusting. I thought I could ruin Nora's reputation and drive her out of the family in this way, but Lucas defended her like this.”

Hearing this, Amelia's face was very gloomy.

She also never thought that Lucas would be so tolerate to Nora in such a bottomless way.

“It's all right. Even if she can escape in this way, we still have another way to deal with her.”

She don't believe that Lucas can help her once, but also help her for the second time."

She said with resentment in her eyes.

.....

Evelyn did not know that the plot was still going on. She sat in the corner with Lucas. But after a while, and there were many people came to greet her.

"Lucas, Don't you want to greet the guests."

Evelyn said after they sent away another person.

The thing happened just now made her tired, she did not want to stay with strangers.

"I will be worried if you stay alone."

Lucas frowned in response, which let Evelyn feel stunned, and her heart also unconsciously throbbed.

"There's nothing to worry about. Go ahead, you can't always let the guests come, and I want to have a rest in the lounge too. I'm tired."

After she finished, she hammered her waist in a tired way.

Lucas looked at her for a long time, and then nodded.

"Okay, you go, remember to contact me if anything comes up."

He murmured, Evelyn waved her hand and then left.

As she left, Lucas also went to the party.

Envy saw he walked alone, then she walked toward him with glass in hand.

"Where is Nora? "

"She was tired and went to the guest room to have a rest."

Lucas responded faintly.

Hearing this, Envy pressed her lips and smiled, "To tell the truth, I very rarely see you stand out like this for a person, she... Is she special to you?

Hearing this, Lucas looked at her.

But he did not answer her words, he just took a sip and murmured, "She's not that kind of person."

Seeing that Lucas did not answer her words, Envy stopped that topic and said, "I believe this. After all, Nora lived in a wealthy family, she had seen all kinds of expensive things. Even if she likes it any more, she will not take it."

Lucas nodded his head as if he agreed with her. But his sight did not fall on Envy, but fell on the direction where Evelyn was left. He looked unpredictable and no one knew what he was thinking.

Envy also perceived his absence of mind and she looked at the same direction as he did with a glimmer in her eyes.

As for Evelyn who had left just now.

Just as she was ready to have a rest, the door was knocked.

Before she asked who it was, there was a conversation outside the door.

"Mr. Davis, do you come here to see Miss Davis?"

"Yeah? I was afraid that she will be sad for the things happened just now, so I come here to have a look."

"Well, I won't bother you then."

When heard this dialogue, Evelyn had known who is outside the door.

Just as she was going to ignore it, John Davis knocked outside the door.

“Nora, I’m Dad. I know you’re there. Would you open the door for Dad?”

Despite the gentleness of his words, Evelyn could still hear the warning inside.

She had no solution, thus she had to open the door for him.

“Are there anything...”

She was interrupted by John Davis before she had finished speaking.

“Aren’t you ashamed? Haven’t you ever seen anything expensive? Can you take anything casually here?”

If there was no trace for beating, he would like to slap her.

“What do you mean? Are you suspicious of me?”

Hearing this words, Evelyn turned cold. “I said I didn’t steal anything, don’t you believe me?”

John Davis sneered: “You will know the truth. I warn you that if you dare to do such things again and ruin Nora’s reputation, don’t blame me for giving you hard time!”

After he finished, he left directly regardless of the bad look of Evelyn.

Seeing his leaving back, Evelyn was very furious with her body trembling and her hand shaking.

Endless resentment spread from the bottom of her heart, which filled with desolation.

Evelyn was angry in the lounge for a long time before she could suppress her anger.

She sat in her chair and raised the corners of her mouth in self-deprecation.

She had been so comfortable lately that she had forgotten the man's cruelty.

How could he care whether she stole something or not? He only cared about his plans and his other daughter.

Thinking of it, Evelyn forced herself not to care about such things.

After all, no one cared about her. She had to take care of herself, so that she could take care of her mother in the future.

.....

Meanwhile, on the spot at the party

Vivian and Amelia saw John come out of the lounge. They looked at each other and smiled.

Soon they were walking toward Austin with their glasses in their hands.

"Guys, do you mind if we take Austin away?"

Vivian stepped forward to join the conversation of the rich gentlemen.

Vivian's identity has been recognized by the rich gentlemen. Naturally they agreed.

"Vivian, Amelia, what did you want with me?"

Austin followed them to the corner. He frowned and asked them.

Vivian and Amelia looked at each other, and Vivian was the first to speak to him.

"It looks like you didn't know what happened, Austin."

When Austin heard this, he looked at them in bewilderment.

He didn't arrive at the charity gala on time. He was held up on his way by some private matter.

"What is it?"

“There was a theft just now. Nora was wronged and some people said she stole something. Well, she was proved to be innocent in the end, but...”

Vivian said with a deliberate pause. She looked at Austin with a puzzled expression.

Austin didn't find out. He saw her stop talking, and he hurried to ask, “But what? Does Nora feel wronged?”

Amelia found him so anxious, and her eyes were full of more intrigue.

“It's natural for her to feel wronged. After all, at first, everyone thought Nora stole it and many insulting words were said to her. Nora now goes to the break room. We...Because of what had just happened, we could not go over to comfort her, for fear of making her sadder. We know that you are her good friend, so we would like you to come and see her for us. If Nora is upset, please help us comfort her.”

She pretended to be worried, when said these words. Austin was upset at her words.

“I'll go and see her.”

He finished speaking, and without waiting for Vivian and Amelia to say anything more, he turned and headed for the lounge.

They both looked after him as he left, their faces full of malice.

“Nora, this time I must keep you from turning things around!”

Amelia gritted her teeth and said.

Vivian also sneered beside Amelia.

“Come on, let's rest for a while. We'll go and see them later.”

She said, entering the meeting place with a glass of wine.

Austin didn't know that Amelia and Vivian were telling him on purpose. They tried to frame him.

After asking the waiter, he went straight to the lounge where Evelyn was.

In the lounge, Evelyn, who had been closing her eyes, heard the door open. She opened her eyes and suddenly saw Austin's worried look.

Before she could react, she saw Austin squatting in front of her. He looked distressed and said, "Nora, you blame me for not coming sooner and making you feel wronged."

When he had finished speaking, he tried to reach out for Evelyn's hand.

Evelyn instinctively avoided his hand.

"What are you doing here?"

She frowned and asked him. At the same time she got up and stepped back from him.

Austin's eyes flashed with hurt as he saw her retreat, but thinking that he had come to comfort her, he got up, fighting back his pain in his mind.

"Nora, I heard what happened just now, and I believe you are not that kind of person. If you are sad, you can say to me. If you feel sad, I will stay with you. I don't want to see you hide and grieve alone. I would feel sorry for that."

When Evelyn heard this, she had a rough idea of what he had come for.

He had heard what had happened and thought she was upset.

Although she was very sad indeed, she did not need his comfort.

As she thought of this, she looked at the affectionate man in front of her and felt troubled and mixed in her mind. She also felt a little jealous.

She was jealous of Nora. Nora was not a good person obviously, but there were so many people who really loved Nora.

She could not understand why their fates were so different even they were twins.

As her thoughts drifted away, Austin saw her fall silent and he mistakenly thought he was making her feel bad.

He tried to touch Evelyn's cheek, but he woke her up.

Evelyn looked at his hand as it stopped. She frowned, and she said, backing up again, "thank you for your concern, but I don't feel sad. I'm just tired, so I'm here to have a rest."

Austin listened and retracted his hand with a bitter smile.

When he wanted to say something else, Evelyn thought it was inappropriate for the two of them to be alone in the lounge.

Especially since the two of them have been rumored to have had affairs, if they are seen alone by other people, there was no telling what other people would say about them.

She thought of this, and in order to avoid unnecessary trouble, she said coldly, "I've got a lot of guests to look after. Austin, make yourself at home."

When she had finished speaking, she turned and walked towards the door of the lounge.

She was going to open the door and leave. But no matter how hard she tried, she could not open the door in front of her, as if it was locked from the outside.

"What's the matter?"

Austin sensed that something was wrong and came over.

"The door is locked."

Evelyn said with a frown. A vague uneasiness crept into her mind.

On the other side, Vivian, who was joking with others in the meeting, her phone suddenly vibrated. She suddenly asked to leave with the person beside her.

She walked over to Lucas with her glass in her hand.

"Lucas, why are you still here? Nora is not well. Why don't you go and see her?"

She pretended to be surprised, when she looked at Lucas.

Lucas heard the words, and he frowned at her.

His dark eyes made her heart beat with fear, but she tried not to panic, and she said calmly, "Why are you looking at me? You think I lied to you? I don't care if you believe me or not."

When she finished speaking, she took the glass and left.

Lucas looked at her back as she left. He frowned, and the woman's stubborn face flashed into his mind.

He was still worried about her, so he made his way to the lounge.

Vivian, who had been away, looked in the direction he was leaving and the corners of her mouth were raised maliciously.

Evelyn didn't know Lucas was on his way.

The moment she found the door locked, she knew that someone had done it on purpose.

As for why that person did this, she was afraid that that person was trying to frame her for having an affair with Austin.

She couldn't settle down when she thought about it.

"Is there anyone? Open the door."

She knocked on the door, but there was no response outside.

It was Austin who was upset by her behavior. He thought Evelyn just didn't want to be with him.

"Nora, you..."

And just as he was trying to get Evelyn to stop, he saw Evelyn give up knocking. She came to the window, and she seemed to be going to jump out of the window.

"Nora, what are you doing?"

He panicked and came forward. He grabbed Evelyn and pulled her into his arms.

At that moment, however, the door of the lounge was pushed open from outside. Lucas appeared at the door.

It can be said that when Lucas Hawk saw the scene in the lounge, the temperature around him dropped to the extreme.

“What are you doing?”

His eyes were like a sharp sword and directed at Evelyn Davis. The chill of the eyes was so cold that Evelyn could not help but shudder.

“I.....”

She panicked and wanted to stand up and explain, but she didn't know how to explain.

Austin behind her noticed she was going, and subconsciously grabbed her.

Therefore, Evelyn did not get rid of his hands, and it was still a posture of embracing.

Lucas looked at them, his face was so gloomy.

“Austin, let me go!”

Evelyn naturally saw his face as well and struggled again and again.

However, she did not wait for her to come out from the arm of Austin, and there was a noisy footstep outside the door.

“Lucas, why are you standing here? Nora, what are you doing!”

When Sofia just came over, she saw her son standing at the door. She was asking what was going on, and the corner of her eyes glanced into the lounge, and her face turned black.

“Oh my god, Nora, you...you...”

Vivian pretended that she was also surprised, pointing at Evelyn for a long time and could not speak.

If someone looked at her carefully, the joy in her eyes will be able to be seen .

She did not expect that Austin would be so useful.

Originally, she wanted to make an excuse that Nora's uncomfortable and let everyone come over and saw that Nora was dating with the other man. At that time, she would provoke, and accused Nora had cheated on Lucas.

Then, it would to be absolutely impossible, if she wanted to stay in the Hawk family.

And Lucas can never help this woman who was so notorious in her private life.

It can be described as kill two birds with one stone.

Evelyn did not know that all of this was designed by her.

At this time, she saw everyone at the door, especially the gloomy Sofia, and she was panic.

Austin did not expect that there would be so many people, and subconsciously released Evelyn.

At the same time, he also noticed that it was wrong, he wanted to explain.

"Mrs. Hawk, it is not what you are thinking..."

However, before he finished speaking, he was interrupted by Sofia.

"Not what I am thinking, then what is it ?"

She accused, and her eyes which full of anger were staring at Evelyn: "Rivers and mountains are easy to change, but nature is hard to change. Nora, no matter how unchaste you are before, I don't care, now you still didn't repent, did the shameful thing, I am afraid that I can't accommodate a woman like you who are so easy!"

When Evelyn heard this, she realized that the situation was too serious, and she was anxious to explain it.

“Mom, this is not ...”

“Do you still want to argue with me?”

How could Sofia give her a chance to justify herself, and suddenly she interrupted her.

“Mr. Davis, since she did this, I don’t think it is necessary to maintain our relations. What a shame!”

She looked at John Davis, who was equally angry, and said: “Lucas, you are going to prepare for divorce. I will never allow this woman to ruin the reputation of our family and your future. As for your grandfather. I will explain it to him personally.”

John had a gloomy face. And when he heard this, he was anxious.

“Mrs. Hawk, there must be some misunderstandings here, and she is not the kind of easy girl!”

He didn’t want to lose the long-term backing of the Hawk family. He could only endure the anger in his heart and help Evelyn to explain.

“Haha, Nora is your daughter. You naturally have to help her, but they were caught here. Do you think we are blind or we are idiots?”

“There is no room for refutation. They must divorce!”

It is naturally impossible for Sofia to let go of such a good opportunity.

John was flustered and looked at Lucas, who hadn’t talked for a long time, and planned to start with him.

“Lucas, you have to believe in Nora, she won’t cheat on you.”

When Sofia saw that he wanted to persuade her son, her anger became rage.

“It’s totally nonsense, Lucas, you...”

She wanted her son to leave it alone, but unfortunately, she had not finished talking, and she was intercepted by Lucas.

“Mom, this is my private matter, just let me handle it.”

When he finished, he didn't care about how bad his mother's face was, he calmly walked over and grabbed her who was uneasy.

Everyone looked at the back of their departure and their expressions were different.

Sofia and Vivian were even more angry.

Although Lucas was upset to the extreme when he left, but he did not follow their meaning to sever the relationship with Nora, which in their view was to protect her and let their plan be wasted!

But it's not the truth.

Lucas did not want to cover Evelyn.

It's just that he didn't want to follow Sofia's thought and divorce Evelyn.

Because he only thought that the woman would leave him and she might immediately turn to another man's arms and he wanted to kill that man.

He tightened his face, and the coldness of his body was like the cold winter.

Evelyn sat in the car and looked at his cold face, and she was afraid extremely.

“Lucas, I...”

She subconsciously wanted to explain, but just said a few words, the car suddenly went out like lightning, so that she could not finish what she was saying, and even her body could not be stable.

When she finally managed to stabilize, the car had stopped at the gate of the Hawk family.

She didn't react to what happened, Lucas got off the car from the front, and went to her side to open the door, pulling her out, the action was smooth, and he did not give Evelyn the opportunity to resist.

Then the two returned to the room, and Lucas wasn't gentle at all, he directly throw Evelyn to the bed.

Evelyn fell on the bed, although she was not injured, but the inertial collision let her have a dizzy moment.

Not waiting for her to ease, Lucas sneered.

"Nora, you really don't know how to repent, do you want to seduce every single man?"

When Evelyn heard these words, the face turned pale and wronged.

"No, I don't!"

"No? What did you do with Austin in the lounge? How did I warn you at the beginning?"

As soon as Lucas thought of the picture of the two were staying alone, the anger in the chest could not stop.

His eyes were red and he walked to her, directly pressed her, tore the dress of Evelyn.

Just listening to the sound of tearing the cloth, the dress of Evelyn was torn, like a rag was thrown to the ground.

The cold air hit the white skin, and Evelyn reacted from the shock.

"Lucas, listen to me!"

She was panic , she pushed him and wanted to calm him down.

And her resistance directly made Lucas misunderstand.

"Oh, let go of you? Let you find another man? Perish the thought!"

After he said this, he directly suppressed on her body, entered her by force without any foreplay.

"Oh,It hurts... get out, just get out!"

Evelyn felt hurt and she struggled constantly.

And in her crying voice, he also calmed down from rage, and his action became softer subconsciously.

Lucas Hawk looked at Evelyn, who had tears overflowing, and he could not deny that he was softhearted.

But this did not mean that he wasn't angry.

Especially the tightness below made him felt uncontrolled.

He resisted the urge in his heart and bowed his head to catch her lips.

Their lips were entangled with each other.

The sweet breath instantly poured into the breath of Lucas, so that his nerves suddenly tightened then was broken, he instantly lost his calmness, like a hungry wolf was preying, constantly bit and kissed with the meaning of punishment.

"It hurts... no, no."

Evelyn was bitten and her tears kept running down.

The salty tears drip down the cheeks on the lips of the two people, the salty taste, and Evelyn's action made Lucas regained his desire.

He gasped and slightly loosened Evelyn.

He only see the redness of her lips, and this made him want to ravage her again.

Lucas moved again and re-buried his head.

This time his movements were soft, and Evelyn was original long-resisting gradually became unable to resist. She could only rely on his arms to snuggle, and her eyes were confusing and let he did whatever he wanted.

She didn't know how long it had been, and the moon outside the window was hanging high. This fight was over under the man's low roaring.

Lucas got up from Evelyn's body and went straight to the bathroom.

Not long after, there was a sound of water inside.

Evelyn was lying on the bed, staring at the ceiling and no one knew what was she thinking.

After a while, the sound of the bathroom stopped, and Lucas walked out with the bath towel.

He looked at the woman who was motionless on the bed, and he frowned.

Just as he wanted to say something, but he saw the woman on the bed, took the pajamas directly from the side and wore them on her body, she was ignoring him and entering the bathroom directly.

He looked at the bathroom door that was closed again, and his brow was wrinkled deeply.

Of course he also knew that this woman was angry.

After all, the things just happened were not so pleasant from the beginning.

But he didn't feel that there was anything wrong about it, he even thought that he was right.

She was disobedient, and fooled around with different men outside.

He was thinking about it in his heart, and he also planned to wait for her to come out and talk about it and ask about what happened tonight.

It's just that he had a good plan, and Evelyn didn't cooperate with her.

She washed, then just like she didn't see others was in the house, found a set of clothes to wear tomorrow, and took the clothes out of the room.

Lucas looked at the back of her departure, feeling the anger that calmed down uneasily was with a tendency to burst again.

He took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down.

Obviously, if he talked with her right now and they would have no good result.

He thought about it and picked up the phone on the side and called Cater Wood directly.

“Where are you now?”

“Boss, is there anything? I am still in the hotel.” Cater responded.

“You have to look up what happened tonight, how Austin Wilson would be with Nora.”

“Yes.”

Cater replied and then hung up the phone.

Lucas looked at the hanging phone and did not immediately put it down, but looked thoughtfully at the window.

It didn't take long for the phone to ring again.

Cater had already figured it out and called him back.

“Boss, maybe we have misunderstood her.”

On the phone, Cater told him the results of the investigation.

“She was resting in the lounge. Mr. Davis went to find her later, after Mr. Davis left, Austin Wilson came over, and then, I found a waiter secretly locked the door of the lounge from the outside, so looked like they were trysting.”

When Lucas heard this, his face sank.

“What happened?”

Cater went on to explain.

“When you came over, the waiter opened the door in advance, it's less than five minutes, and soon after you arrived, Mrs. Hawk and Miss Hawk also arrived, and you knew what happened later. Although it seems an coincidence, but there is abnormal sense everywhere.”

After Lucas finished listening, his eyes were dark.

At this time, he needn't to listen more, he already knew that they may had misunderstood Nora.

The woman may really just had a rest, but she can't expect that others would frame her.

Thinking of this, his eyes flashed sharp lights.

"Find the waiter, I want to know who let her do this!"

"Yes!"

Cater nodded, and immediately hung up the phone and began to search her.

.....

At the same time, Evelyn did not know that Lucas had investigated the whole matter.

She was lying on the big bed in the room, but she couldn't sleep, and she was in a bad mood.

She forced herself not to think about what happened just now, she wanted not to care, but her heart was like being pricked by a needle, and she was so uncomfortable that she seemed to be suffocated.

She knew it clearly in her heart that she was trapped again this time, and she was still completely trapped.

.....

She can't imagine how sharply situation would wait for her tomorrow.

She was afraid that Sofia would definitely make use of the matter to elaborate her own ideas, and take this opportunity to drive her out of the house.

She thought of this, and she was annoyed.

Because she can't be driven out of the Hawk family, or John would definitely punish her, and at that time, her mother would be involved in as well, she could not be able to imagine the consequences.

Just when she was worried, the phone at the bedside rang.

She looked at the name of John on it, and after some entanglement, she finally picked it up.

“Evelyn!”

As soon as the phone was connected, John screamed.

Evelyn kept a long distance with the phone, and the red lips were compressed: “What’s wrong?”

” Look at the good things you’ve done!”

John did not expect Evelyn could dare to ask this, he questioned her angrily.

Evelyn naturally understood what he was referring to tonight, and squeezed the phone hard. Then she said: “I am also a victim of this incident. Whether you believe it or not, I was framed.”

John did not believe her words at all.

“Oh, frame, who will frame you in such a bad way.”

He sneered at Evelyn.

Evelyn gritted her teeth: “Don’t tell me that you don’t know how many people that Nora had offended before, they are all waiting to see that I am drove out of the Hawk family!”

John heard that , and there was a moment of speechlessness, but he did not intend to admit it.

“Evelyn, don’t make excuses for yourself, do you think that I don’t know your thought?”

Evelyn was also laughing because of his attitude.

“As you said, what are my thought!”

“Thought? The thought is that you are not obeying me that i arranged you to be Nora’s substitute. And you want to take advantage of the opportunity to s.educe more than one man, you not only want to ruin the future of Nora, but also want to make the best plan for your future!”

After John finished, he directly threatened her: “Evelyn, I tell you, if you dare to ruin my plan and let Nora be driven out of the Hawk family, I will never let you get away with it.”

As soon as he thought that the results of his hard work and plan were ruined by this monk, he wanted to k!!! her.

Evelyn could not suppress her anger after hearing John’s words.

Not to mention that she was a victim of these things, even if she was involved, she was forced!

“You won’t leave me alone? John, you’re playing favorites, aren’t you? You think I’m willing to mess with this sh!t? Did you forget that these people liked Nora? Is that what you’re doing to me? As soon as she left, you left me to clean up all the mess. Why don’t you blame your dear daughter, Nora? She is very easy to s.educe, and she hangs around men like a b.utterfly!”

“Evelyn ! ”

When John heard her bad-mouthing Nora, he was already angry, and he was furious after hearing her words. He yelled at her.

“Don’t yell at me. I can hear you!”

Evelyn wrote herself off as hopeless and acted recklessly, and Evelyn no longer spoke cautiously in front of John. She sneered, “It was this guy named Austin who was chasing me around, because he wanted to be with Nora. How dare you blame me? When we agreed on the treaty, you didn’t say that I needed to clean up Nora’s mess.”

John was so angry that he couldn't speak for a long time after she scolded him. Only the grinding of teeth was heard on the phone.

"Evelyn, is that the way you talk to me? Don't forget who you are, or don't you want your mother?"

He was so angry that he threatened her with Katherine.

When Evelyn heard this, as she was already furious, her anger boiled over.

"John, how dare you hurt my mother? If my mother suffers any harm, I will take you and Nora to die together!"

When she had finished speaking, she hung up the phone suddenly. She sat on the bed panting angrily.

It showed how angry she was.

Of course, John was even angrier.

He didn't think Evelyn would ignore his threats, and she threatened him back. His face was grim and threatening.

"This bltch, does she really think that marrying into the Hawk family will empower her? How dare she resist!"

He gritted his teeth and growled. At the same time, he was planning to teach Evelyn a lesson to make her realize the cruel reality.

Evelyn didn't know what he was up to.

She struggled to calm her anger, and with it came a deep sense of powerlessness and sadness.

Finally, she could not help feeling sad in her mind, she held the quilt and wailed.

Tears poured from her eyes. Her tears soaked the sheet and it was instantly wet.

Evelyn, however, was unaware of this, holding herself in her arms and crying uncontrollably.

When Lucas showed up in the room, he saw her crying like this, and he just froze.

He looked at the trembling body on the bed, and there was a depressive sound of crying in his ear. For a moment he felt very uncomfortable.

He pretended to cough.

He coughed softly, and the sound of his cough startled Evelyn, who was still in her thoughts.

She looked up and saw Lucas at the door.

“What are you doing here?”

She bit her lip and questioned him, and her face looked unnatural.

She quickly wiped the tears from her face, but she had been crying so hard that she could not help but whimper.

Lucas looked at her red, and swollen eyes and her cold face. He felt his heart ache inexplicably.

Just as he was about to say something, Evelyn saw that he was silent. She was impatient and she wanted to drive him away.

“Lucas, you punished me. Now I’m tired, and if you have nothing else to say to me, please leave. I need a rest!”

What she said directly stopped Lucas from saying what he wanted to say.

He looked at Evelyn’s distant and indifferent face. His thin lips compressed.

He had hurt her, so she didn’t want to hear his apology.

He planned to wait until the woman was no longer angry, and then he explained to her. Thus, he just held out a glass of milk to her.

“You drink the milk. It will help you sleep.”

When Evelyn heard this, she looked at the milk in his hand. Her eyes were full of doubt.

She compressed her lips and did not take the milk.

Lucas also saw that she was angry, and he said, "if you don't drink the milk, I'll be standing there all the time."

When Evelyn heard his unreasonable words, she wanted to throw the pillow to him from her hand.

But she dared not, for she had not forgotten what had happened.

And she had no strength to quarrel with him.

So, in the end, she gave in. She compressed her lips and took the milk. She didn't look at Lucas, and she lifted her head and drank the milk.

"You may leave now, may you?"

She handed Lucas the empty cup back. After Lucas held the glass, she stopped looking at him. She turned back to the bed immediately and lay down with her back to him.

"Please close the door for me when you go out, thank you!"

When she finished speaking, she seemed to be asleep and lay quietly in bed.

Lucas was standing in the doorway, looking at her on the bed for a long time before he turned and left the room.

As the door closed, she, which had been lying quietly on the bed, shuddered.

He's really gone...

She bit her lower lip, and the tears in her eyes that she had so hard to stop flowed again.

Her heart felt the pain of tearing.

"You looked fine just now. Why are you crying again?"

Just as Evelyn was about to burst into tears, suddenly she heard Lucas's low voice, which froze her.

Before she could ask Lucas why he wasn't gone, she felt the soft bed sinking down a little, and then she felt a warm and familiar body. He hugged her from behind.

"Stop crying, or you'll get puffy eyes tomorrow."

He leaned his chin on Evelyn's neck, and he whispered.

Evelyn was tense and nervous. Her eyes looked even more complicated.

She did not understand what the man meant.

Did he bully her first and then comfort her gently?

When she thought of it, she rejected him, but she found that she yearned for his tenderness.

She even felt warm in his arms.

No, how could she think that!

"Let me go!

She struggled with anger and shame.

But Lucas didn't let go of her, and instead he was sexually aroused by her body twisting.

"Are you trying to seduce me?"

He gasped, and he said in Evelyn's ear. Evelyn became quiet for a moment.

"I didn't!

She gritted her teeth and retorted.

Lucas knew she wasn't. He was just trying to distract her.

"Never mind."

He chuckled and said, which made Evelyn even angrier.

“Lucas, what exactly do you want to do?”

She could not get away from him. She could only gritted her teeth and questioned him.

“I’m going to hold you and rest. Can’t you see?”

Lucas ignored the anger in her voice, and he said calmly.

It was his words that stunned Evelyn.

And for a moment, she almost asked if he was not angry with her?

Fortunately, she stopped in time.

“Go to your room if you want to rest!”

She compressed her lips and refused, as Lucas expected.

“Don’t forget that we’re husband and wife, and we’re not supposed to sleep apart.”

He smiled and said, as if he would stay with Evelyn wherever she goes.

The next day, Evelyn woke up naturally.

She looked out of the window, which in the bright sunshine, she originally thought Lucas had gone to the company at this time.

Unexpectedly, just as she was about to get up, she saw him come out of the changing room dressed neatly.

When Lucas saw her, he paused. “Since you are awake, go wash first. After breakfast, mom asked us to come over.”

Evelyn compressed her lips, she ignored his words and went straight into the bathroom after getting out of bed.

Although she had no choice but to be pulled back by him last night, her resentment in her heart did not disappear.

She brushed her teeth and didn't know why she thought of what that guy had just said when she came in.

Sophia asked them to come over.....

She guessed that Sophia was going to deal with last night.

Her heart felt the sense of falling suddenly at the thought.

She didn't know what that woman would do to her.

She followed Lucas to have breakfast anxiously, then they walked towards the main house together.

As they approached nearer and nearer the main house, she became more and more nervous.

Even she hadn't noticed that her face turned very pale herself.

Lucas frowned tightly after seeing that.

It didn't know what he thought of, only to see him walking forward and holding Evelyn's hand hanging around her leg, then he said with the deep voice and calm mood. "Don't worry, I am here, I will protect you whatever happens."

She originally still immersed in her own thoughts, she did a double-take after she heard this suddenly.

It was not until the hot touch reached her hand that she could regain her mind.

She compressed her lips, she looked at the man beside her with complicated eyes.

Because of his words just now, the uneasiness that troubled her along the way disappeared strangely, she even felt at ease inexplicably.

Why was that?

Wasn't he angry?

Just as she was making blind and disorderly conjectures, they arrived at the main house.

When they entered the door, they saw many people sitting in the living room.

Almost everyone who should have been there had arrived.

Sophia, Vivian and John.

"Everyone is here, we'll have a conversation about last night."

Sophia glanced at them who came in hand in hand, she stared at the hands they held together. She gritted her teeth and said, "Lucas, come here!"

Now she must not give that bltch the chance to confuse his son.

Lucas frown, compressed his lips and said, "Mom, if you have anything to say, we're all listening."

What he meant was that he didn't go over.

Sophia was very angry, but she couldn't do anything to her son, she could only vent her anger to Evelyn.

She glanced at Evelyn grimly, then she turned her head to John and told the point.

"Today I ask Mr. Davis to come here, I think Mr. Davis also knows very well. I also do not want to offend you, Nora of your family fooled about with others, she is incorrigible. It's no longer appropriate for them to be together. Our Hawk family can't stand the humiliation either, Mr. Davis should understand that."

Naturally, John could understand what she meant.

But he couldn't be willing to lose Hawk family, the big backer, so he argued, "Sophia, I understand what you mean, but I'm afraid you can't decide on this matter."

He glanced at Sophia's darkened face, he continued saying, "This marriage was originally decided by the old man of the Hawk family. If you want to break the promise of marriage, it should be the old man to tell me."

"Do you think that you mentioned the old man, can Evelyn stay? Your daughter has been ambiguous with other men over and over again, do you think the old man can still like her after he knows it?"

Sophia knew what his thoughts and debunked his ideas directly.

When John heard this, he had nothing to say and did not know how to retort.

It was sure that if the old man knew it, he must not make Evelyn stay here.

Thinking of this, he could not help staring at Evelyn angrily, which was a silent threat making her solve this.

Evelyn understood what he meant, she began to hesitate and to think the countermeasures to deal with.

"Mom, you have said several times that I am ambiguous with others. I'm so confused, what on earth have I done to make you feel so?"

She was anxious to think, it seemed that she had had an idea in her heart.

She looked at Sophia with deepened eyes and said, "Last time, my sister-in-law took me to the clubhouse box. There were more than a dozen people in the box at that time, I don't know how it became that I fool about with others in the end."

When she finished, she looked at Vivian in an unintelligible way, which only made Vivian feel guilty.

Evelyn didn't care and continued saying, "And this time, I was just resting in the lounge, Austin thought I was wronged and came to me just to comfort me. As a result, he was locked in the lounge just a few minutes after he came in. At that time, I realized that something was wrong, I wanted to jump out of the window to leave, Austin was afraid that I would hurt, he wanted to hold me back. As a result, you break in at that moment."

Although she did not make the meaning so obvious, but the people sitting there could understand what she meant.

It was that some people framed her by design.

There was a moment of discomfort on the face of Vivian and Sophia.

Because they knew these things in their hearts, they were also blocked for a moment by the word and could not think of a word to retort.

Lucas didn't look better.

He glanced at the crowd, walked forward and said, "Okay, this is the end of the matter, no one should mention it again, just like nothing happened!"

When Sophia and Vivian heard this, they raised their heads suddenly.

"Lucas, are you crazy? Do you believe the one-sided statement? Aren't you afraid that this woman will hide something from you?"

Vivian asked unwillingly, Sophia echoed her on the side of her.

"Yeah, this matter can't be handled like this. Otherwise, how will the people outside think our Hawk family? think you?!"

She didn't want to miss such a good opportunity.

Nora didn't deserve her son at all!

And the Morgan family was still waiting for her good news.

Evelyn watched them try to persuade him, their eyes were full of irony, they even looked at John with a sneer.

This man always thought that she was on a roll in the Hawk family, he had many demands on her, he should have seen her situation clearly this time.

In fact, John had seen it clearly, but he was more worried about himself and Nora.

He didn't realize that nobody in the Hawk family would accept Nora except for the old man of the Hawk family and Lucas. How could Nora possibly stand it after she came back?

Just as his thoughts flew away, Lucas's severe reproach made him back to reality.

“That’s enough. Nora is my wife. If I don’t believe her, who do I believe? Just as nothing happened! Let’s get outta here! “

When he finished, he turned around and pulled Evelyn who was stunned away.

Evelyn was unprepared, she was pulled by him and staggered several steps before she could keep her body to follow him.

She looked at the upright figure in front of her, her eyes were full of complexity, she couldn’t tell how she felt at the moment either.

She did not expect this man was very fierce to her in private, but he protected her all the time when they were outside.

Even the misunderstanding last night, she did not explain to him, he still upheld her.

Suddenly, her heart was sore and swollen, it also seemed to be stuffed with a lot of marshmallow, sweet and warm.
