0 5 minutes read

Evelyn didn't know she was photographed, she just took her handbag and left directly.

She arrived home by car.

Lucas was already home, and he just finished the meal.

After seeing Evelyn, he asked spontaneously, "How's the discussion about cooperation?"

She was stunned at first and then she said, "Not bad, Mr. Miller has intention to cooperate with us, but considering the company's processes, we are going to invite tenders with other companies, good news is that our odds of winning the bid are very high."

Lucas raised eyebrows slightly, without saying a single word.

After finding how he reacted to the words she just said, Evelyn went on speaking, "Um...although our odds are very high, it's necessary to prevent some unexpected accidents, so we must be cautious in case of framing up by others."

After hearing this, a glimmer of gladness flashed through Lucas's deep eyes.

He thought Evelyn was overconfident at first, but the truth was she wasn't, and he knew she was alert now.

"Good, take good care of these things."

Evelyn nodded her head.

At the moment she was going to walk out of the room, Lucas found that there was a look of fatigue on her face, so he stated a conversation out of concern, "Although things are urgent, you should also pay attention to rest, remember, don't be too tired."

After that, Lucas turned and went to the study.

She was stunned and stood still, gazing at his receding figure, it took her a few minutes to figure out that he was concerned about her.

Suddenly, she was so thrilled to figure out his intention that she couldn't help smiling sweetly.

It was a quiet night.

The next day Lucas and Evelyn got up together.

While they were having breakfast, Lucy came in under housekeeper Jones's leading.

Then she said, "Young master, young lady, Mrs. Hawk wanted to see both of you, she's in the main house."

After hearing that, Evelyn looked at Lucas subconsciously.

The latter frowned and asked, "What dose she want to tell us?"

Lucy insisted, "Young master, once you went to the main house, you will know."

Although Lucas was confused, he nodded and said, "Okay, tell her we will be there after breakfast."

Lucy nodded her head and then left the room.

Not for a while, Lucas and Evelyn finished breakfast, then they walked toward the main house directly.

As soon as they entered the living room, they found that there were not only Sophia but also Vivian, Devin and Yody.

The expressions of Yody and Devin were very serious, while Vivian had a gloating look and was looking at Evelyn with taunt in her eyes.

Seeing this, Evelyn and Lucas, both frowned slightly.

"Mom, may I ask if you have anything to tell us?" Evelyn said politely.

At the same time, she was trying to restrain her anxiety.

How could she have the nerve to ask about it? Sophia thought to herself, she felt sick just thought about it.

“How could you have the nerve to ask me? Shame on you!”

Sophia pointed at Evelyn, yelling loudly.

The sudden abuse bewildered Evelyn, made her angry.

Given Sophia was the elders, she tried her best to restrain the anger and asked, “May I ask if I did something wrong to make you angry? Why did you say those insulting words to me?”

Sophia found out that she still didn’t admit it, so she threw the photos put on the table toward her face directly with extreme anger.

“You have no idea about what you have done? How dare you ask me about it?”

Then she pointed to the photos scattered on the ground and shouted angrily, “I know you are cheeky, and what you have done before is shameless, Lucas once told me that you won’t do it again, but look at those photos, seriously? Cheating on Lucas? Disgrace our Hawk family.”

Evelyn looked at those photos, totally stunned.

The photos on the ground shows her entering Aaron’s room yesterday to pick up her handbag.

What’s worse was at that time, Aaron was wearing bathrobe, if Evelyn didn’t know the truth of these photos, she will thought exactly like Sophia, but the truth was she knew it.

Lucas saw those photos, frowned, asking Evelyn with confusion in his eyes by staring at hers.

Evelyn pressed her lips tightly, and she already figured everything out.

Obviously, someone deliberately framed her by taking such photos.

But she didn't respond to Lucas immediately, instead, she asked Sophia with her lips pressed, "Mom, where did you get those photos?"

As Sophia was about to answer, Vivian answered first, "It's none of your business, you'd better think about how to explain it, there has never been a shameless woman like you in our family, if other people knew about it, they would absolutely laugh at our family."

After she had said these words, her eyes were filled with contempt, then she went on speaking, "I remember saying this before, don't marry such an ignorant woman, as she doesn't behave politely, look at what just happened, what she did showed that she is unreliable, she used to cheat on Lucas secretly, but now, cheating on him in a flagrant way? Shame on you! And I couldn't figure out why would Sophia agree to your marriage!"

After hearing this, Sophia retorted, "Vivian, it's not my fault at all, it was our dad, who insisted in their marriage."

What Sophia had said reminded Vivian of something, then she looked at Yody carefully, who looked extremely serious at that time.

Then she said, "Dad, you should know what Nora really is before they got married, she is acting like a slut now and cheating on Lucas, and we can't have such a woman in our family, what if someone else knows about it? We must defend the reputation of our family and mine."

Sophia agreed with Vivian, so she repeated, "Dad, Vivian is right, we must defend the reputation, otherwise, all the people in Jingdu will laugh at our family, I mean, they'd better get divorced."

Hearing those words, Yody was unhappy and gloomy.

Evelyn looked at him nervously.

She said, "Grandpa, it's not what it looks like."

She was about to explain, but interrupted by Vivian.

"Enough! Nora, the evidence is certain now, don't try to explain it away, we are not fools."

Evelyn took a glimpse at Vivian with her cold eyes and ignored the words she said, then continue explaining, "Grandpa, believe it or not, it's not what you see, I was with that guy simply because we were talking about cooperation."

She told Yody what happened yesterday briefly.

The facial expression of Yody was no longer serious.

Seeing this, Vivian was nervous.

This was a good chance, she thought to herself, and she was determined to drive Evelyn out of the house today.

"Nonsense! Why did he wear bathrobe when you were talking about cooperation? It was obvious that you have slept with him already....."

Vivian wanted to continue slandering, but was interrupted by Lucas.

He said loudly, "Enough!"

He looked at Sophia and Vivian fiercely, who argued with great passion.

And then he said, "Can you just shut up?"

Sophia and Vivian were in a shock, but then they were annoyed.

"What do you mean, Lucas? Why do you have to protect Nora, the shameless woman?"

Vivian stood up and snapped.

Sophia repeated immediately, "I totally agree with Sophia, why do you have to protect her? Why are you so fascinated with her? Aren't you afraid of she will cheat on you again and again?"

Hearing this, Lucas looked stiff for a moment, but he soon recovered.

"I am not protecting her, I am just seeking truth from facts!"

He pressed his lips and looked at Sophia and Vivian coldly.

“Last night Nora went to entertain guests for the company’s sake, and she reported her whereabouts all the way. If you don’t believe it, I have a text message here as evidence.”

Finishing his speech, he took out his cell phone from his trousers pocket, turned out the text message that Evelyn sent him yesterday and put it on the table.

Seeing that the above information showed that the time was yesterday and the content was all about work, Yody looked gentle again.

Sophia and Vivian were also speechless for a while and could not find any refutation.

At this time, Devin questioned, “Even if they talk about the cooperation, they can go anywhere. Do they have to go to the hotel room?”

As he said this, Sophia, who originally had nothing to say, became energetic and questioned again.

“Indeed, if they really talk about the cooperation, there are so many cafes outside, why do they have to stay in the hotel room? I think it is that some people do shameless things under the pretext of talking about the cooperation!”

Evelyn laughed directly by their words.

“I don’t understand why it’s shameless to stay with Mr. Miller alone in a room. I have said before that I knew Mr. Miller and the company wanted to cooperate with them. So I went to entertain him. He’s also a designer. We talked about not only the cooperation, but also the designs, which involved the confidentiality. How could I choose a coffee bar? If Mom has to say that we have a secret relationship, I can call him here to confront you face to face. At that time, once the cooperation between the two companies was damaged, you can not blame me.”

Sophia was silent and angry.

“You have a smart mouth!”

In the end, she only choked these five words, and looked very grim.

Yody looked angry and generally and patiently shouted, “Okay, this is the end of the matter!”

Sophia and Vivian were not reconciled and wanted to say something more.

But before they could speak, they were interrupted and scolded by Yody.

“I don’t care where you get these pictures this time, but next time you’d better make the thing clear at first.”

As he said, his majestic vision fell on Sophia.

“Especially you, as an elder, have troubled Nora for many times which has been well-known outside. No one will be a mother-in-law like you. I don’t think it’s Nora who is really disgraced but it is you. You can not be peaceful for one day. Do you want to lose Hawk family’s face?”

When Sophia heard the rebuke, her face turned green and white.

She was so angry that she was even more breathless.

Because the person who blamed her was Yody, she could only suffer from it and dared not say anything to refute.

Yody knew her unwillingness, but he couldn’t blame her too much because she was his daughter-in-law.

He looked around at Evelyn and Lucas, who were still standing in the living room with good manners, and murmured, “Okay, you go back and pay attention to your behaviors in the future.”

Evelyn knew this was a warning to her, so she pouted her lips and nodded, “I know, Grandpa. I will pay attention to my behavior in the future, it will not happen again.”

Yody nodded and waved them back.

Evelyn looked at Lucas and waited for him to bow before she left.

After they left, Evelyn couldn't help breathing a sigh of relieve.

Lucas heard that and stopped.

Evelyn noticed it ant then she looked at him in perplexity.

“What’s wrong?”

“You don’t have to take what my mother said just now seriously.”

Evelyn felt uncomfortable when discovering that he made the explanation for Sophia, but she was not very angry.

Because she knew clearly in her heart that the reason why Sophia scolded her so terribly was just because of the lesson from the past.

At that time, Nora had done that kind of thing.

“I’m all right. By the way, there will be a dinner party at RC tonight. I need to attend then. Would you like to go with me?”

She changed the topic and asked, and then Lucas frowned.

“It might be inconvenient tonight. I need to visit the neighboring city in the afternoon. Maybe I can not be back in time.”

Evelyn was somewhat disappointed, but she soon concealed it.

“Well, I’ll go by myself, and you’ll be safe when you’re out.”

Lucas discovered the loss that flashed through her eyes. Watching her ordering himself with a forceful smile, he wanted to say something but he just said nothing at last. He just nodded to show that he knew.

...

That night, Evelyn dressed up at home and let the housekeeper prepare the car and left for the hotel.

When she arrived at the party, she found that there had been many chargers of clothing companies, editors of famous fashion magazines, and well-known designers at home.

Of course, such a grand occasion could not be in lack of the media reporters.

Evelyn looked around roughly and found Aaron in the most crowded place. She immediately understood what happened.

Apart from RC, a newly developed brand company, Aaron himself was very famous in the fashion circle, even he could be called the “great master”.

If she didn't get acquainted with him in foreign forums by mistake, she was afraid that she didn't even have the qualification to talk to him now.

Originally, he intentionally invited her to RC, but before she could respond, John came to her.

Thinking about this, she took a glass of drink, and decided to sit down in a corner and wait to greet him until there were fewer people.

But she didn't expect that she was so unlucky that she met Austin.

It was comprehensive that the Wilson Group also covered a lot of industries, of course, including clothing company.

It was also normal for Austin to occur in such a occasion.

It's just not about caring for long-term feelings.

Compared with Evelyn's impatience, Austin was full of the joy and surprise when he saw her.

Because tonight's focus was on negotiation and cooperation, Evelyn did not choose a long skirt dress, but a small neutral suit of type A which made her looked graceful but sexy with the exquisite makeup and looked very outstanding.

“Nora, I don't expect to see you here. Did you also come for the cooperation with RC?”

Evelyn looked at the man in front of her, raised the corners of her lips and said perfunctorily, “It seems that all of us are here for this cooperation.”

It seemed that Austin didn't understand her words. He laughed and said, “Indeed, I'm talking nonsense.”

He said and invited, “Nora, we haven’t had a talk for a long time. Why don’t we go and sit there?”

Evelyn looked at the place he was referring to. It was a remote corner with few people.

She didn’t want to go in case that there would be more gossip. She shook her head and said, “No, I still have something to do...”

As she spoke, her face changed slightly and she looked the place not far away.

And she saw that in her diagonal opposite apparently was Joseph.

A well-handcrafted suit, with his tall and handsome appearance, made him conspicuous in the crowd.

Especially his gentle temperament, let her remember a word, “Elegant gentleman”!

Evelyn was stunning. But she was shocked and panic inside.

At this point, she wasn’t ready to meet Joseph. If he recognized her, she would be doomed.

She thought of this and turned around to avoid Joseph, but Austin stopped her.

“Nora, where are you going?”

Austin frowned and asked.

Evelyn paused, looked at him, then glanced at the man not far from her. She pressed her lips and said. “It’s not your business.”

When she finished her words, she throwed Austin’s hand away and walked away.

There was some kind of sadness in Austin's eyes. But quickly, he comforted himself.

He thought Evelyn was afraid to talk to him because of the crowd.

The more he thought, the more he felt he was right. Then he followed Evelyn and kept shouting. "Nora, wait for me!"

It was so loud that many people threw their sights upon them.

Joseph also looked at that direction subconsciously. It was just a careless look, but he seemed to see a blurry figure. He became anxious suddenly.

Regardless of the people beside him, he walked forward and tiptoed to look around. But that figure disappeared in the blink of an eye.

"Why Mr. Kent is so anxious? Do you see your lover?"

A friend beside him saw his anxious look and teased him.

Joseph collected himself.

"Mr. Lee is joking on me. I just saw it wrong."

He tried to cover up his true feeling.

Maybe he did wrong, after all, if it was Evelyn, she couldn't hide herself from him.

When he thought of this, he became worried.

Since the last reunion, he could not contact Evelyn, he didn't know if she was here tonight.

In face, he didn't want to come to this party. But he heard that this party was about designers, so he wanted to see if he could meet her here.

After all, Evelyn was also a designer, she would never let such a good chance go.

And Evelyn, who escaped, came to a corner and made sure she couldn't be found. Finally, she could be relieved.

She leaned against the wall, panting.

She thought that she couldn't stay any more. She could hide from him for a while, but not the whole night.

If she stayed here and many people came to her, Joseph would see her, too. Then it would be complicated.

When she was thinking, Austin came after her.

"Nora, why you ran so fast? Something happened?"

Evelyn looked at him annoyingly with phone in her hand.

"Mr. Wilson, can you stop following me?"

Austin seemed to be hurt by her words.

"Nora, do you hate me?"

Evelyn looked at him, she wanted to say yes, but seeing his eyes with pain, she couldn't just speak it out.

She knew, this man treated her as Nora Davis, but she was the one who played Nora's role.

In fairness, she couldn't judge him or decide what she could say to him.

"No."

She pressed her lips and answered him in a low voice.

As soon as Austin heard this, Austin's eyes were suddenly filled with light.

Evelyn knew he must mistake her words, so she hurriedly said again.

"Do not get me wrong, I just treat you as a friend. And to be honest, I really do not like your following all the time. Even if we are good friends, I still think we should leave some space for each other."

Austin's face froze again when hearing her words.

Especially, when she said they were just good friends, his heart was like gripped by someone, he was suffering.

But he just show it on his face.

Because he did not forget Evelyn's warning, she said, if he did something out of line, they could be friends any more.

"I... I know, I will not follow you anymore."

He said but couldn't hide his sense of loss.

Evelyn was pleased with his attitude and nodded. "That's best. I have something to speak to Mr. Miller, I have to go."

She said and walked to Aaron.

Anyway, she should tell Aaron before she left.

But she just made a step, Austin followed her.

Evelyn looked at him with confusion.

Austin hurried to say. "Well...I have something to speak to Mr. Miller, too."

He knew Evelyn hated his following. So he just used the same excuse.

Evelyn listened to him, even knew it was just an excuse, but could not stop him. She just went to Aaron with him following her.

Aaron was pleased to see Evelyn and joked on her. "I thought you won't come today, I did not see you for a long time. "

Evelyn smiled.

"I have been here for a while. I was about to come to you, but see you are busy, so I just sit for a while."

She responded briefly, then changed her topic and asked. "How about tonight? Find some company you like?"

Aaron heard her words and said. "I did find some company I like. "

Evelyn saw the obvious smile on his face. In fact, she was kind of anxious inside, but she still smile and said. "I know, there are some really good companies."

Aaron listened to her and looked at her with smile.

"You are so honest, are not you afraid I chose others?"

Evelyn did know what he was thinking, smiled. "I didn't finish my words. Just listen to my following words. "

She said with full of confidence in her eyes.

"There are a few good ones, but our company can do better. It will be your loss if you don't choose us!"

Aaron was amused by the way she praised herself.

Austin saw they were so happy, he was kind of displeased. He interrupted them. "Mr. Miller. Hello. I am from the Wilson Group, my name is Austin Wilson."

Aaron just noticed the man next to Evelyn, then looked at Evelyn with confusion.

"You know each other?"

He said and shook Austin's hand back as a response.

Before Evelyn could say a word, Austin nodded and said. "Yes, we know each other."

Evelyn heard what he said, frowning slightly. Then she refuted his words. "We are not too familiar."

Aaron glanced at them in surprise, then winked at Evelyn.

Evelyn looked at this, rolling her eyes in silence.

She didn't want to explain, or he might misunderstand her meaning more. She just looked at other direction, but she accidently saw Joseph was walking towards them.

She felt that she was going to explode that moment. She was so anxious that she even wanted to run away.

But right now, she couldn't just run away, she needed to make sure that Aaron would cooperate with them.

As she struggled to stay here or make excuses to leave, Aaron opened his mouth.

"By the way, Nora, I do not have a date tonight, can we dance together later?"

She frowned when hearing this.

But she could not refuse him. She just bit the bullet and said yes.

At the same time, Joseph found her in the distance.

Joseph was shocked for a while, when he was sure, there was surprise in his eyes.

"Evelyn!"

He shouted with joy, and he ran in her direction eagerly.

Evelyn had been paying attention to him for a long time, when she heard that he called her name, suddenly, she felt everything went bad.

Looking his figure drew nearer and nearer, she felt anxious unceasingly, just then, the dance started, she took Aaron's hand without hesitation.

"You want to dance with me, right? Let's start now."

After she said, she grabbed him and turned away, ignored whether he agreed or not.

Unfortunately, maybe she really had a bad day today.

When she took Aaron to the dance floor, a figure stood in their way.

“Aaron, I haven’t seen you for years.I can’t imagine meeting you here”

The man obviously knew Aaron well.

He disengaged himself from her grip,and he offered to shake hands with the man, and it was clear from his behavior that they were on good terms.

“Miss Davis, I’m sorry, but I have to put off the dance.”

When they finished talking, Aaron did not ignore her and said to her.

Looking Joseph was getting closer and closer to her, and she gave Aaron a helpless look ,which looked really bad,even her face went pale.

What a mess! He was already opposite her.

She looked at Joseph with panic in her eyes.

If Joseph called her name, everything would be over.

In fact, Joseph did plan to call her name at this time.

Evelyn looked at his thin lips, it seemed that he was ready to pronounce the word.She was intranquil , it seemed that her heart was jumped out from her throat. Just when she felt helpless, Austin appeared from somewhere.

“Nora, since Mr. Miller is not free, how about dance with me?”

After he said, looking at her hopefully.

Listening his words, Joseph couldn’t help but stop.

Nora?

He looked at Evelyn with astonishment, his eyes were full of incomprehension.

Evelyn noticed his reaction naturally. At the same time, she felt relaxed. She glanced at Austin ,who was standing beside her and there was an idea occurred to her.

“Mr. Wilson, I told you for many times, please don’t pester me, I am a woman who has husband, please respect yourself!”

She pretended to be proud, spurned him with false pride, and shook off his hand.

Austin was so sad, his eyes were full of sorrow.

He knew it was her refusal. And it was only for him.

However, Joseph, the man who had been observed them, felt puzzled.

Although the woman in front of him looked the same as Evelyn, but their demeanor and temperament were very different, she was another woman, not the lively and interesting Evelyn he knew.

When he thought this, he smiled and shook his head in despair.

Maybe he was too eager to meet Evelyn, she must not be Evelyn, someone who had just called her name "Nora".

Evelyn, Nora, They are two different names and, of course, two different people.

He shook his head and about to leave, but he was stopped by one of Evelyn's actions, and became suspicious.

When she thought he was leaving, she was clearly relaxed.

Joseph couldn't understand why she became relaxed.

In particular, he had a flash in his mind of what he had seen when he came.

It seemed that the woman was very nervous when he came close to her.

Evelyn didn't know that Joseph's suspicions were aroused again by one of her mistakes.

Her body tightened up again when she saw Joseph's top walking.

When she became nervous again, Aaron ended up talking with friend finally.

"Wow, you are still here. Are you waiting to dance with me?"

He found that Evelyn still stood there, came over and chatted to her humorously.

Evelyn looked at him as if she saw the savior.

“Of course I’m waiting Mr. Miller, What a well-known man. It’s my pleasure to be asked to dance. How dare I leave?”

She answered his question, pretending to be relaxed. At the same time she glanced at Joseph, who was still watching her.

“Let’s go dancing.”

She pursed her lips, and pulled Aaron, using his body to block the view of Joseph. And they stepped in the dancing floor.

At first she thought she could reassure him in this way, but her behaviour only heightened his suspicions.

Because of her posturing, Joseph felt like it was a deliberate act.

She avoided him deliberately, and pretended to not know him deliberately.

Even so, Joseph was also a little uncertain that the woman in front of him was Evelyn or Nora.

In a word, both her expression and her temperament were very different from Evelyn. The woman was very different from his memory of Evelyn.

Finally, he was unable to understand what was going on, he stepped aside to observe her secretly.

On the dance floor, Evelyn saw Joseph leave, mistakenly thinking that she succeeded in deceiving him, which made her relieved completely.

But she was particularly worried because there was still some time before the party was over. Maybe something bad will happen.

She looked at Aaron, who was in front of her. She made up her mind, after dancing, she would look for an opportunity to leave.

Also because of the idea, Evelyn calmed down slowly, and a decent smile came over her face again.

She danced on the dance floor with Aaron, who was a gentleman. So far, he had not behaved excessively towards her. He was very well-behaved.

When the dance was finished, the audience burst into applause.

Many people left the dance floor, others stayed on, and of course there were new entrants.

Aaron looked at Evelyn courteously, inquired her, "Miss Davis, what will you do next?"

Evelyn knew what he meant and shook her head with a smile.

"No more dancing, or my husband will be jealous."

She refused politely, Aaron did not insist, and he led her out the dance floor

When she came out, Evelyn saw Austin's sad and resentful eyes.

Pretending not to see it, she looked around, but couldn't find Joseph. She was relieved again.

"Mr. Miller, why don't we talk about cooperation now?"

She wanted to see if she could make it at this time.

Aaron did not refuse, smiled and nodded, went to the rest area with her.

On the way to the rest area, Evelyn had a sudden urge to go to the toilet, she told Aaron to wait her outside first, and she turned back to the toilet.

Also at the same time, she found Austin was following behind them in the distance, her face turned black suddenly.

But she ignored it and headed for the toilet.

A few minutes later, she came out again and plan to go back to find Aaron, unexpectedly, she saw Joseph coming in the corridor.

Suddenly, her whole body became tense up and her lips trembled, hands were clenched up unconsciously.

She forced herself to compose herself as the man approached.

“Don’t be afraid, you are Nora now, even if he recognized you , as long as you do not admit it, he can do nothing.”She said to herself.

Thinking like this , Evelyn calmed down slowly.

She looked at the man closer and closer, she gently lowered her long eyelashes and relaxed herself quietly, pretending not to recognize Joseph.

But even if she acted naturally , Joseph found something was wrong.

He stopped, turned round suddenly, asked in a deep voice , “You are Evelyn, am I right?”

Evelyn heard that, feeling nervous.

“Sorry, sir, you have mistaken me for somebody else.”

She pretended to be calm to answer with smiling in face.

Joseph frowned, looking at Evelyn with solemn eyes.

“Impossible.”

A strange feeling came over her when Evelyn heard what he said.

Evelyn looked at Joseph with mixed emotions, Joseph started to talk again while she wanted to deny.

“Evelyn, I knew you want to repudiate again, but I would recognize you no matter what you changed.”

Evelyn saw this, pressing her lips tightly together, she didn’t know what to say.

However, Joseph didn’t offer her a chance to talk, continued to say “Evelyn, I knew maybe you have your own difficulties, but you needn’t worry, I wouldn’t tell anyone, but I’m asking you not to avoid me anymore. “

After speaking, he took a step closer to Evelyn.

Evelyn was back subconsciously, looking at him with annoyance additionally.

Under this situation, whatever she said was wrong.

“I have to go, please help yourself. “

She dodged the matter without answering and took a distant farewell.

She didn't give Joseph chance to speak, turned to leave.

Joseph looked at the leaving figure, frowned and had many doubts.

He wondered what she was doing, why she not only had to conceal her identity, but also pretend not to know him.

Evelyn didn't know that Joseph was curious about everything about her.

The sound of conversation in the ear made her stop the feet while she was back to banquet hall and prepared to say goodbye to Aaron.

“Oh, isn't that Lucas Hawk of Hawk Group, why is he here? “

“It is true ,why would he appear here ? ”

“What? You didn't know. Recently Lucas Hawk established a Clothing Company, it was under hot discussion on the Internet. Now he should intend to cooperate with RC. After all, that kind of scandal is not good for the establishment of a new company. “

Hearing this, many people asked what happened.

Evelyn was not interested in what they were talking about.

She was glad to see Lucas coming in from the door.

Although he still wore that black suit, with his perfect handsome appearance and unattainable aura, he still stood out in this fashion banquet which can not be ignored.

She did not walk over until the people around Lucas gradually dispersed.

“Why are you here? Didn’t you say you couldn’t get back?”

Lucas Hawk looked at the eyes of the beautiful woman and her joy in her eyes, he was greatly pleased.

But he would not tell Evelyn the truth, he came back for her.

“It is the company’s business, and I should have come to see the person in charge.”

He said casually, but let Evelyn feel lost.

She thought the man had come back because of her invitation.

Lucas Hawk did not miss the flash of loss in her eyes, but he said nothing more.

He looked around, found Evelyn’s cheeks slowly stained with crimson, frowned to ask “Have you been drinking?”

Evelyn froze, slowly nodded: “A little.”

Lucas Hawk frowned, but didn’t say anything.

Evelyn changed the subject “I’ll take you to see Mr. Miller”.

Lucas did not refuse, motioned to her to lead the way.

Evelyn took Lucas in Aaron’s direction.

Meanwhile, Joseph came out from the corridor.

He subconsciously looking for the figure of Evelyn, seeing Evelyn walk with a handsome man together, he suddenly frowned.

And this side, Evelyn had come to Aaron with Lucas

“Mr. Miller, this is the President of our company, Lucas Hawk .”

She said and went on “President, this is Aaron Miller, chief designer of RC, who is also in charge of this project.”

After she finished, the two men greeted each other.

“Hawk president , I’ve heard so much about you, nice to meet you.”

“Mr. Miller, nice to meet you, too.”

Soon the two talked about cooperation.

Evelyn listened on the side, not for a moment, she was a little dizzy, it seemed to be wine strength to come up.

Originally she also wanted to endure, didn’t expect to be discovered by Lucas.

“Are you dizzy?”

He inquired carefully,at the same time Aaron looked over.

Evelyn could only nod: “Just a little.”

Lucas heard that , and put forward to leaving.

He held Evelyn to go out, but unexpectedly he saw Joseph. He stopped and his face sank.

Evelyn saw he suddenly stopped, questioningly followed his eyes.

“what’s the matter? “

Lucas deeply looked at her.

“Nothing.”

After that, he held Evelyn to leave.

Evelyn looked at his cold profile, and her intuition told her there was something going on.

Especially on the way back, she could clearly feel the low pressure around the man.

” Lucas, what are you angry about?”

She could guess Lucas was angry, but had no idea why he was angry.

Lucas glanced at her but ignored her.

Evelyn pouted her mouth, didn't plan to ask again, turned to look outside.

Lucas looked at her action, the deep feeling in the eyes could not help but increase.

Then two people drove all the way back Hawk House without talking.

At this time Evelyn's wine strength began to come up, she staggered off, dazed.

"Are you all right?"

Lucas subconsciously held her, frowned to ask.

Evelyn shook off his hand, probably was uncomfortable with his indifference just in the car, said with anger: "Aren't you angry? Leave me alone."

Finished these words, she stumbled into the new house, intending to go upstairs to wash and rest.

Lucas looked at her leaving figure, there was a gleam in his eyes, he said nothing and followed up.

Evelyn knew he was behind and ignored him.

She held the armrest upstairs and maybe it was because she was walking too fast. She didn't notice one of them and was tripped over by the stairs. The whole person fell backwards.

"Ah -"

She screamed unconsciously, feeling that she was doomed.

If she fell, her head would be hurt badly.

As she closed her eyes in anticipation of the pain, a strong arm wrapped around her waist.

"Why should you try to be brave when you can't walk alone?"

Lucas held her, frowning at her who was in his arms.

Evelyn was stunned for a long time before responding.

“Thank you.”

Although she was displeased with the tone of his voice, she thanked him awkwardly.

After that, she wanted to struggle to leave, however Lucas did not let her go.

“Let me go.”

After Evelyn struggled in vain, she frowned at the man beside.

Lucas picked up his eyebrows: “Are you sure?”

Evelyn stunned, she seemed not to understand why he asked, but still nodded.

“Sure.”

She said that, Lucas let her go.

Evelyn wasn't prepared, to be exact, she forgot her own situation.

The earth's gravitational pull made her shake again, almost instinctively she fell back to Lucas's arms again.

Lucas looked at the woman in his arm, who was still afraid. He was upset and restless before and now he became relaxed.

“You came into my arms in your own initiative, right?”

His lips got closer to Evelyn's ear with a smile and whispered.

Evelyn could feel his moist breath, her whole body became tense up.

Blushing cheeks were hot, which looked like a ripe apple emitting attractive sweetness, made him cannot help but want to have a bite.

She was so shy.

Lucas looked at her, and his Adam's apple rolled.

His eyes grew serious and he picked her up directly.

Evelyn was scared, clinging to his neck and shoulders instinctively.

“What are you doing?”

“Carry you to our room, of course. I'm afraid you'll fall again, or we can't sleep tonight then we'll go directly to the hospital.”

Lucas said humorously.

Evelyn was ashamed and angry, but could not refute him.

At this time she was so dizzy that it was possible that she would fall down if she walked by herself.

Since he's a free labor, why not let him hold her? Considering that, she was in his arms snugly. She took for granted all he did for her.

Lucas was aware of her changes naturally, a smile came over his face and his eyes softened.

Evelyn did not find the change in his eyes, she leaned on the chest of Lucas quietly, listening to his strong heartbeat, her thoughts grew dim slowly.

In particular, when she looked up she saw his handsome profile, it felt like that the seed of love had sprouted in her heart.

When she was in a trance, they had reached the room.

However, Lucas did not put her on the bed, but directly into the bathroom.

It wasn't until she was put down that she realized something was wrong.

“What are you doing?”

She sat in the bathtub, watching Lucas warily.

“You are being proactive, I'm cooperating with you.”

Lucas stared at her with glamour, and after finishing this, he opened the shower.

•

In a moment they were all wet, before Evelyn reacted it, her clothes were taken off by Lucas. And he went into the bathroom insensibly.

“Lucas Hawk!”

She cried out in anger and shame, she put her hand on her chest, trying to block her chest, but she did not know that it was in vain.

Lucas looked at her fair skin, not knowing whether it was because he was angry or ashamed, his face turned crimson, and in his eyes, there were something dark, which looked like ink.

“You’re drunk. I’ll bathe you.”

He said hoarsely.

“Who needs your help? Get out!”

Evelyn understood the lust in his eyes, her heart beat fast, but she knew that she should had a reserved manner. She choked.

However, he was immune from any influence.

He did not care about Evelyn’s refusal, still began to help her bath gently, his slender fingers touched her skin.

At the beginning, Evelyn resisted him, escaped, but with his touch, Evelyn fell into the tide of love gradually.

She bit her lip and moaned, the expression in her eyes were blurred. Her performance prompted him to stop stroking her, and he washed her quickly.

Less than three minutes, he finished bathing, holding her return to the room.

He had sex with her several times because she aroused his desire, until she felt tired, he just let her go reluctantly. She almost fainted from fatigue.

He looked at the sleepy girl in his arms, smiling slightly, and then did a simple cleaning for her, and then he went out of the room to the study.

Although he came back in the evening, he still had a lot of work to do.

While he was doing his work, he remembered the man he had seen at the party suddenly. His eyes sank and he called Cater.

“I need you to investigate a man.”

With that, he briefly described Joseph he saw tonight .

“I see.”

Cater accepted the order, hung up the phone and began to investigate the man.

Lucas looked at the phone which was hung up, his face looked serious.

He was very curious, what kind of man was worth hiding. She hid him from him.

And he also wanted to know, for the party tonight, Is there any other purpose for her coming to the party tonight.

Such as...meet the man.

...

The next day, Lucas went to the company early .

Cater saw him, then reported to him the thing he ordered last night.

“President, the information you requested has been found.”

Lucas frowned and asked,“who is he?”

“He is the son of the boss of Kent Group.”

Cater answered truthfully and Lucas raised his eyebrows.

“What’s the relationship between he and Nora?”

“Um...President, the information we’ve been able to gather said they don’t have much contact, and it seems to be the first time they met together.”

Lucas heard this, looked at Cater with cold eyes.

“The first time?”

He was lost in thought, all the things in his mind was about the scene he had seen on the street that night.

Judging from the way they got along, they couldn’t have met for the first time.

Thinking this, he told Cater to investigate him again.

Cater was puzzled, but he didn’t ask too much when he saw his dignified look. He nodded and left.

Besides, Evelyn did not know Lucas was in the investigation of Joseph.

Tired for whole night, she slept until she woke up naturally.

Because of her weak legs, she almost came into contact with the earth when she got up.

“As*shole.”

She gnashed her teeth and cursed Lucas. She was aggrieved.

When they were having se.x, he was pushing and she was just lying down. Why was she so tired while he was so energetic enough to go to work.

Just as she was complaining, the telephone rang.

She glanced at the note displayed above and immediately calmed down and pick up the phone.

“Mr. Miller.”

Yes, this was Aaron on the phone.

“Are you free now?I want to visit your company and sign the contract.”

Evelyn heard this, naturally expressed that she was free now.

When they agreed on a place to meet, after they hung up the phone, she began to dress up.

Half an hour later, they met at the agreed place.

Evelyn went to the company with Aaron.

In the company, Freya had received the message, she asked the employees to go over the company in advance.

When they arrived, the employees greeted them at the door to show their respect.

“Mr Miller, this is our general manager, Miss Lee.”

Evelyn introduced Freya to Aaron.

Aaron held out her hand tenderly, after they greeted for a while, and they went into the elevator.

Firstly, they went to the design department.

“Please leave your work behind. Let me introduce Mr.Miller to you. This is Aaron Miller, the chief designer of RC brand. In the future, we will cooperate with each other.”

Freya clapped her hands and told everyone in the design department to stop their job.

Everybody looked at Aaron curiously, their eyes were full of surprise.

They knew that the company planned to cooperate with RC recently, but they didn't expect they made it so soon.

When they were ready to come forward to greet with Aaron, he said politely , “Miss Lee, it is too trouble.Since we are going to cooperate for a long time, it is not convenient for too many people to participate. I think Miss Davis should be responsible for the contract. After all, she is responsible for negotiating the contract. I believe you are a wise woman and you will understand this truth.”

People in the design department were astonished by Aaron's words.

They never thought that the cooperation between the two companies was facilitated by Evelyn.

Suddenly, many people looked at Evelyn with jealousy.

Chloe was also among them, and she even felt more frustrated.

Why didn't she think of helping the company? Now this woman had made the cooperation. She was afraid that the company will let her make up for her mistakes.

When she thought of this, she was not reconciled. Thus she walked forward and said, "This is not okay, even if designer Davis has talent in design, but she did not accept the traditional teaching, and this is related to the future of the two companies, I think we should choose a designer who is as experienced as Mr. Miller to be responsible for the design."

After finished her words, she looked around at her colleagues provocatively.

"Designer Field is right. We should be careful on this."

"Yes, General Manager, the company can't afford any shortcomings at the moment."

Several people who were friends of Chloe echoed and said.

Freya also has some wavering thoughts. She looked at Evelyn doubtfully, and was trying to say something, but Aaron interrupted her.

"General Manager, frankly speaking, the reason why the two companies can cooperate this time is completely for the sake of Miss. Davis' face. If your company finally changes a person to be responsible for the thing, I'm afraid that cooperation needs to be reconsidered."

When he finished, he glanced at the few people who had just spoken.

People who reached at his position had seen all conspiracies and tricks.

So as soon as Chloe opened her mouth, he knew what the woman was thinking.

And what he said just now almost denied all her thoughts.

Chloe also realized the other meaning in his words.

If they want the cooperation, Nora must participate in it. Suddenly the jealousy in her heart rose quickly.

Nora is just an inform and unknown designer. Why should she does better than her who had studied in the famous university?

The more she thought about it, the more reluctant she was. After other people all left, she left the crowd to contact Amelia.

After listening to her words, Amelia gnashed her teeth.

She and Nora all had made mistakes, but she was fired by Lucas, and that b!tch, who had made such a big basket, not only was not punished, but also not reused by Lucas! Why?

She was so angry that she threw away her cell phone. What's more, she smashed everything she saw into a mess.

The servant dared not come near when they heard the noise. Thus they turned to inform Amelia's mother.

Soon Amelia's mother appeared in the corridor.

She frowned when she heard the noise coming from Amelia's room.

"What's up?"

She asked when she entered the room and saw the debris on the ground.

Hearing her mother's voice, Amelia calm down slightly, but she was still unreconciled.

“Mom, it is Lucas. Nora and I all have made mistakes, but Lucas just fired me. And he did not punished that b!tch, besides, he even reused that b!tch.”

After she finished this, the rage that she had managed to suppress rose again.

Finally her face was twisted.

Seeing this state, her mother frowned again with dissatisfaction flashed in her eyes.

In her opinion, the Hawk family and Lucas were really ungrateful wretches.

Now, with the promotion of grandpa Morgan, the Morgan family had become a high-ranking family and there were many people who want to have relations with their family.

And Amelia was their only daughter. There were many handsome and rich boys want to marry her.

“All right, it’s just a man. There are so many excellent man besides Lucas in the world. And as for your ident!ty now, there are so many boys waiting for you to choose. Why should you spend all you time on him? “

Amelia understood her mother’s words well, but she only wanted Lucas.

“Mom, in my eyes, no one can deserve Lucas!”

She said firmly. Hearing this, her mother still wanted to persuade her, but she was interrupted by Amelia before she could say something.

“Mom, if I can’t marry Lucas in my life, I won’t marry anybody!”

Hearing this, her mother took back what she was going to say.

Seeing that Amelia was not joking, she can just sighed and said,“Oh, you are really stubborn.”

Amelia pressed her !!ps with resolution.

Seeing this, her mother caressed the broken hair on her temples with distress and said. “All right, I won’t say that again. Since you are so determined to marry Lucas, I will spare no effort to help you in the future.”

Hearing this, Amelia's eyes flashed with joy.

"Mom, are you really going to help me?"

Her mother nodded.

Amelia was very happy when she heard of this. But when she thought of the present situation, she was frustrated and said, "But now I am driven out by Lucas. Even if you are going to help me, it's not so easy for me to enter the Hawk family."

Seeing her daughter's sad face, she narrowed her eyes and said, "Don't be discouraged, it's just difficult, but not impossible."

Amelia looked at her mother expectantly when she heard of this.

"Mom, what's your idea?"

Her mother sneered: "The reason why Nora can stay in the Hawk family is that the Davis Family was behind her." What will happen if the Davis family disappeared."

Hearing this, Amelia's eyes lit up.

"Mother, you are going to..."

Amelia did not utter a whole sentence, but her mother understood what she said and nodded.

"Recently, I heard that the Davis Family was competing for the right to develop a piece of land in the western suburbs. The land was speculated at a high price. The laymen only thought it was a good and valuable land, but in fact it was a mass graveyard at the beginning."

Amelia's mother was going to play a big game when she said.

"If this piece of land is taken by the Davis Family, it will lose a lot!"

Amelia suddenly understood her mother's words and she could not hide joy in her eyes.

"At that time, the Davis Family will surely find Nora to solve the problem, and there will certainly be a dispute between them."

Her mother nodded and Amelia laughed with bad intentions.

.....

At this time, Nora had no idea of their plans. After signing the contract with Aaron, she discussed the details of their cooperation with Aaron for the next two days.

As for John, she also “eliminate all difficulties” to won the right to develop the land, and he even held a high-profile press conference.

“Mr. Davis, I wonder what you are going to do with this land?”

Seeing at the reporters under the stage, John laughed like Maitreya.

“To be honest, when I first saw this land, I was actually aiming at its surrounding environment.”

The land was surrounded by mountains and trees. The air was fresh than the city, and there is even a natural hot spring, which is a holy place for hot spring vacation tourism.”

“So Mr. Davis intends to develop this land into a tourist attraction?”

Reporters asked quickly.

John nodded without any thinking and said that it would be the best holiday place in Jingdu.

But on the second day after he finished his press conference, he was disgraced by the reporters.

#Amazing news! The place where the Davis Company intended to developed into a tourist attraction was a mass graveyard!#

#Who dare to go a tourist attraction built on the mass graveyard. #

#Whether it's a haunted place or a tourist attraction, the Davis Company will experience h.uge

losses. #

#The Davis Company was disgraced, and the words they said has become an empty shell.#

With the emergence of these news, there had been the heated discussions on the Internet.

Of course, they were all bad comments.

After all, the place of mass graves could be developed into something. But he developed it into a resort, even a spa resort, wasn't that harmful to people?

"The Davis family is so black-hearted and earns even this kind of money."

"Profiteer! Sure enough, he makes the best use of everything. And he's not afraid of ghosts in the underground coming to him?"

"He has nothing to fear. Don't forget that money talks."

"Sure, but even if he isn't afraid, sooner or later he will get the retribution elsewhere."

"But I want to see him get the retribution now. Is anyone coming with me to the Davis Group to block them?"

"Yes, yes. I've long got mad at these rich people."

With the intentional incitement, public opinion had made the matter more and more serious.

Then, not only did some people go to the Davis Group to make trouble, but also the stock prices of the Davis Group were falling.

Evelyn also read the news online.

She looked at the angry reprimands of netizens and couldn't tell what feeling was in her heart.

There was satisfaction in the complicated feeling.

After a few glances, she put her cell phone aside and stopped paying attention.

After all, she couldn't help in this matter.

Meanwhile, John had been deeply troubled by the intentional incitement on the Internet and was furious.

"Why did this happen? Who disseminated the news on the Internet? What about the Public Relations Department? Why haven't they refuted rumors so far?!"

He repeatedly questioned, the assistant was trembled with fear by his bellow.

"The Public Relations Department is already preparing the documents and we haven't found out who disseminated the news on the Internet yet."

John was very angry when he heard that.

"It's been so long, they haven't prepared the documents yet, am I supporting the trash? And you haven't found out? Now you go to find out who plotted against us in secret!"

Sure, after such an incident, he did not believe the news on the Internet at first, but felt that someone was plotting against him.

The assistant heard what he said and remained motionless for a long time.

"Chairman, nobody plotted against us about this matter. I've asked someone to check, that land is really a place of mass graves."

After John heard this, he got froze. Immediately, when he responded, he felt dizzy and his eyes dimmed. His feet became unsteady slightly.

"Chairman, are you ok?"

The assistant instantly came forward to help him.

But John fell into his office chair blankly, his face looked pale.

"It's over!"

He murmured.

At first,when this land was put up for auction, it was favored by many people. Someone even boasted that it was a sure bet.

At that time, many large companies had already been interested in the land. He used half of his wealth to get the land.

Now he had got the land, but before he was happy, the news like that came out.

The land would be in his hands all the time, even if he wanted to get rid of it, no one would want it!

When he thought of that, he was angry and unwilling.

“You go to check it again, is that land really a place of mass graves?!”

After witnessing what happened, the assistant could only take the order to check again.

At the same time, Lucas who had already arrived at the company also heard about this matter.

“It is estimated that the Davis Group will suffer disaster, this situation is clearly plotted by others.”

Cater couldn't help sighing after finishing the report,“I heard that when the land was sold, someone deliberately concealed this news.”

Lucas didn't say anything, he recalled what they had just said with squinting and said in a low voice,“Can you still find this person now?”

Cater was stunned,after he reacted from what Lucas asked, he shook his head and said,“It's estimated that I can't find it now. It's been so many days. And that person did it intentionally,I think that person has cleaned the clues he left.”

Lucas frowned and listened, the strangeness was shining in his eyes.

“Even if the other party did it intentionally, but there are a lot of people in this kind of bidding. And as you said just now, several big companies also went to bid, the Davis Group couldn't be a match for them. But at the end of the competition, the Davis Group actually got the land, there must be something strange in it.”

Cater was stunned to hear that.

It seemed that something was really wrong.

But he thought better of it, the Davis Group was also the big company. With such a laborious plot, if a part of it was not done well, it was easy to shoot themselves in the foot.

He also expressed the idea, “Mr. Hawk, could it be that we think too much? In case the Davis Group was unlucky enough so that got the land.....”

Lucas interrupted him with a wave of his hand before he had finished speaking.

“It’s impossible for them to be so unlucky, there is no such thing as coincidence. It was debunked after the press conference, it’s obvious that someone plotted against them deliberately. As for why.....you’ll check it.”

“Now the Davis Group has invested a lot of money in this land, it is a good time to strike it down. You find out who did that to him in the meantime, by the way, find out the resentment between them.”

Cater took the order and left.

Over the next two days, because someone controlled that matter in secret. Even if John let the Public Relations Department deal with the matter overnight, it didn’t get well handled, but it was getting worse and worse.

Even the news that the company was short of money leaked out, the stock prices were in turmoil again and again.

Everyone thought that the Davis Group had been in financial crisis and would go bankrupt soon. It was useless for John to try to clarify it.

“Damn it! Don’t let me know who plotted against me in secret, or I will kill him!”

Two days’ time was enough for John to find out something.

Now he had known it was his own way to fall into the machination of others.

Just when he was very angry, the assistant rushed into the room from the door.

“Chairman, the bank suspended our loans.”

When John heard that, his face looked serious.

“What’s the matter?”

“It’s estimated that the bank has listened to the rumors outside and thinks we can’t afford the loans, so withholds our application.”

The assistant shrank his shoulders and answered carefully.

Suddenly John’s face looked bad.

When the assistant saw that, he wanted to turn around and walk away so that not to be implicated.

But he still had office business to report, he couldn’t go and finally could only brace himself and continue saying, “Chairman, we got a lot of money from other projects before. Now those projects need money to run. If there is no money, they will soon be chaotic.”

In the end, he dared not look at John’s face.

At this time, John’s face looked bad in the extreme.

Infinite anger burned in his heart, but he needed to calm down.

If he wasn’t calm, the whole group would be in turmoil.

He forced himself to calm down and immediately looked aside at the assistant waiting for his reply, he said with a wave of his hand, “You go out first. I’ll deal with this matter.”

When the assistant saw that he didn’t lose his temper, he sighed with relief and left immediately.

As he left, John looked down and meditated for a moment, then picked up his cell phone on the table and dialed a number.

Soon, the telephone was connected, Evelyn's cold voice came from the cell phone.

"What's the matter?"

John didn't beat around the bush, he said directly, "I think you've heard about the recent situation of the Davis Group. The bank refused our loans. I want you to ask him to go the bank and do me a favor, or ask him to allocate a sum of money to the Davis Group directly."

Evelyn listened to John's self-confident words and laughed directly.

It is ridiculous.

"John, this is Davis Family's business. Why do you think Lucas will help you?"

She asked in a cold voice, and John answered, "Just because I am his father-in-law."

Evelyn was stunned, and then responded him with sarcasm.

"You're so ashamed to say that, who would like to keep asking favor from his son-in-law."

John was a little embarrassed.

He was embarrassed and said, "Evelyn, you'd better understand that I'm not discuss with you, I'm commanding you!"

Evelyn shivered with anger.

"I may disappoint you. I can't do it, I won't do it!"

She directly refused.

John seemed to have expected that she would refuse him. He sneered and said, "You have to do it. Don't forget that your mother is still with me!"

Evelyn saw that he threatened her by using her mother again, she was totally got anger.

“John, you are...”

Before she finished her words, John hung up the phone.

“Bastard!”

Evelyn stared at the phone, and was furious.

She could not imagine what Lucas would think of her if she told him about it.

Maybe in his eyes, she and her family have become greedy vampires, constantly get profit from him!

Evelyn thought of it and resisted it totally.

Especially when she thought that Lucas may hate her because of her father. She felt so painful.

If she didn't talk to Lucas, her mother will be in danger again.

Since these days fighting with her father, she had known that the man would not stop until reaching his goal.

Suddenly, Evelyn was in a dilemma.

...

At the same time, in Hawk Group.

Cater had found the person who manipulated the Davis Family, and his eyes were full of doubts and reported it to Lucas in the Mr. Hawk's office.

“Mr. Hawk, I've found it. Davis family was really framed by others this time.”

When Lucas heard this, he stopped his work and looked up at him.

“Who is the man behind it?”

Cater said respectfully, “It's Morgan family, Miss Morgan's father.”

Lucas frowned, he was full of puzzlement.

“When did Davis Family offend Morgan Family?”

Cater shook his head: “I investigated, there is no contact between the two families.”

When he said this, he seemed to think of something and said, “Uh... If there is contact, there will only be the resentment between Miss Davis and Miss Morgan. Is this Mr. Morgan who revenges Miss Davis for his daughter by destroying her family?”

Lucas frowned and thought it was impossible.

Despite the identity of Mr. Morgan, if they really want to revenge, that should be him to be revenged.

After all, he fired Amelia.

He thought of this, and then thought about the resentment between Amelia and Evelyn, and felt that it was not impossible.

Just as he was going to watch how the things went, Cater whispered beside him.

“How can I not see that Mr. Hawk has the ability to attract women, and Miss Davis is so unlucky.”

Lucas heard it faintly, and his face turned black. “What are you talking about?”

Cater was shocked by his voice and quickly stopped and said, “Uh... I didn’t say anything, so, Mr. Hawk, what are we going to do next? Do you want to help the Davis Family?”

Lucas glanced at him coldly, “Continue watch it and see what Morgan Family wants to do.”

Cater nodded, and was afraid that Lucas would scold him for what he had just said. After asking if there was anything else, he offered to leave.

How did Lucas not know what he was thinking, but he was too lazy to scold him and let him go.

As he left, he immediately told people to keep watching the Morgan Family.

Morgan Family, they did not know he had noticed them yet.

Amelia saw the Davis family begin to fall apart, and some of her evil spirits turned better.

But that's not enough!

She's going to make Nora lose everything!

And she also knew that this time it could cause serious damage to the Davis family, in which her father helped a lot.

"Go and make me a pot of early spring tea."

She was in a good mood and asked the servant to prepare Mr. Morgan's favorite tea. Then she took the tea to the study.

"Dad."

She knocked at the door, put the cup on the table, and looked at Mr. Morgan with a smile.

Mr. Morgan saw the situation and said directly, "OK, what do you want me to do?"

Amelia saw her father had known what she was thinking, and she straightly said. "I want to know if Dad have further plan to help me deal with the Davis family."

Mr. Morgan saw her begging for it, and his eyes twinkled. "Just wait, when the Davis family is in a mess, the Hawk family will naturally no longer look up on them. This is your chance to enter the family."

"So, the next step for Dad is to talk about my marriage to them?"

Amelia was delighted and asked, Mr. Morgan nodded.

"Well, it's not urgent at the moment."

He said, "Even if we want to talk about it, we have to wait for Nora to ask Lucas for help. Then you go and talk to Mrs. Hawk. At that time, everyone in the Hawk family will resent Nora. If you do a good job, they will surely let you enter their family."

After listening to Mr. Morgan's words, Amelia's eyes were full of longing, and with satisfied joy on her face.

It seems that she has seen Nora expelled from the Hawk family, and she succeeded in replacing Nora as the young hostess of the Hawk family.

But she didn't know. Evelyn didn't even mention it.

That night, Evelyn was working on her desktop drawing because she could not sleep for the bad mood.

And she drew it all the night, Lucas later came back.

"You haven't go to bed?"

He looked at Evelyn and asked.

Evelyn heard the words, and the expression on her face paused. She said lightly, "I can't sleep, and I have some inspiration, so I just worked for a while."

Lucas frowned and looked at her affectionately, but he didn't believe her.

On the contrary, he mistakenly believed that Evelyn had not slept in order to wait for him to come back and talk about the matter of the Davis family.

She did talk to him such things before.

"Really?"

He retorted, and Evelyn was stunned.

She looked at him doubtfully, did not understand what he meant.

However, she did not see anything on Lucas's face. When she thought of he coming back so late, she unconsciously asked, "Well, have you had the dinner? Shall I go and get you some food?"

Lucas heard this, he squinted his eyes slightly, and he could not understand the woman.

She waited for him intentionally for almost the whole night, but she did not mention him a word. Instead, she asked him if he has had the dinner.

Did she intend not to say that, or did she think that if something happened to her family, he would certainly help her, so she was fearless?

Lucas thought the latter reason was more possible.

If it weren't for this reason, how could the woman keep calm now, she would have asked him for help when he came back just now.

When he thought of it, he suddenly felt vexed.

Evelyn didn't know what he was thinking about, seeing his face suddenly turned serious, and he was frown, she felt puzzled.

Why he becomes unhappy again?

She carefully thought about the words she said to him just now, she did not find any problem, so she felt that the man was always in an uncertain mood.

She curled her lip and ignored him and turned to clean up the drawings on the table.

However, her ignoring made Lucas feel even more depressed.

So, they spent the whole night like that peacefully.

For the next two days, although Evelyn did not ask Lucas for help, she was also worried about her mother.

Because her mother was still being threatened by John.

However, two days passed, John didn't come to urge her, she was relieved.

If things are as serious as John said, he would have called to urge her every day.

But now he hasn't been looking for her for two days, and it may be not that serious.

When she thought about it, she didn't care much about it.

But she didn't know that John has been waiting for her news.

He thought that Evelyn would soon put things into effect because of her mother.

Just as before.

But he did not know that this time he waited so long time but did not hear the good news, but the company's situation became more and more awful.

"Chairman, the project department came to report just now, because the funds we prepared have not been settled now, the cooperation of several projects we negotiated before has been transferred to other companies."

The assistant came in with a gloomy face to report to John and dared not look at John after he finished speaking.

John looked at him with an angry expression.

"What's the matter? Don't you tell them that if they wait a few days, the fund will be ready soon?"

The assistant was scolded by him innocently.

He thought of another news he hadn't tell him, "I said to them, but they didn't want to wait, not only for the unsigned projects, but for the project we are running. They also deliberately defaulted and handed over the projects to others so as not to be ruined by us."

John was trembling with anger after hearing this.

If things continue going on like that, the company will go bankrupt sooner or later.

He forced himself to calm down, and took a deep breath, looked at the assistant in front of him, and said, "You send some people to placate the partners as much as possible, and tell them that the project will never be ruined by us. As for the rumors of the Davis, it will be explained in these days, tell them not to believe what is said outside."

The assistant took his orders and left immediately.

As he left, John began to busy with his business.

He took the car keys on the table and went downstairs to ask Evelyn for the things he had entrusted.

Evelyn didn't plan to meet him at all.

John had guessed that she would not come, so he said it toughly and gave Evelyn no choice but to meet him.

"How is the matter going these days?"

John can't wait to ask Evelyn about it.

Evelyn looked at his anxious look, her eyes were filled with impatience.

"I haven't told him yet."

She said straightly, John glared at her and got angry.

"Didn't you talk it with him? Why? Do you know how dangerous the company is now?"

Evelyn listened to him and said. "I don't know, I don't want to know, either. I won't do it. Because of your endless requirement, now the family members are particularly disgusted with me. If you still want Nora to live a good life in their family in the future, you'd better not force me."

John was furious by her words.

"Ah, are you threatening me?"

He looked at Evelyn with a sneer and with chill in his eyes.

“Don’t threaten me with Nora. You should know that Nora is much better than you. I believe she can handle the relationship with Hawk family well.”

Evelyn snorted when she heard this.

Just as she was ready to satirize him, what John said next made her get angry.

“This time, no matter what excuse you have, you have to do it unless you don’t want your mother to live!”

“John Davis!”

Evelyn stared at him angrily.

John didn’t care at all. He said in a cold voice, “You should know that you are never have the right to negotiate with me. As long as I give an order to not save your mother, it is impossible for you to see her anymore!”

Evelyn was shivering because of his words, and her fist was clenched tightly.

“Do you fvcking still have humanity?”

She sharply questioned him, and John laughed with sarcasm.

Evelyn was very angry: “John, you are so despicable, to make use of such a weak and sick woman, she is your ex-wife anyway!”

“Just ex-wife.”

John said scornfully.

The scornful look made Evelyn stunned, and the cold feeling spread all over her body.

Only now did she really know how ungrateful the man was.

In other words, he had made clear her mother and her status from the beginning, they were just a chess piece in his hand.

Since she agreed to the deal, she had no resistance at all.

Because her weakness was hold by the man.

Therefore, she had to compromise again.

She returned home with a gloomy face and thought of John's account. She was in a bad mood that she couldn't eat any food. She locked herself in her room and thought about how to speak to Lucas.

However, no matter what she thought, she knew that as long as the words were spoken out, they would surely annoy Lucas.

She must say it to him. suddenly, she was in a dilemma and was so worried.

She didn't know if it's because of her emotional fluctuation, or because she haven't eaten anything, she had a stomachache suddenly.

And the housekeeper came to inform that Lucas was back.

"I see."

She frowned slightly and tried to go out of the room and went into the living room.

As Lucas entered the room, she greeted him: "You are back."

Lucas took a look at her, nodded silently, and then he wanted to go upstairs.

Evelyn saw the situation, she hurried to approach to him, and said, " Lucas, can you wait a minute, I need to talk to you."

Lucas heard her words, and he stopped.

He turned around and squinted on her, his eyes was flashing.

"Go to the study."

After said that, he took the lead in going to the study.

Evelyn looked at him and hurried to catch up with him.

Along the way, she was very worried, but she did not know that Lucas had already guessed what she wanted to say.

Although she did not say that day, he knew that she would find him sooner or later.

After all, he was the only one who can help Davis Company now.

Soon, they arrived at the study.

Lucas sat down at his desk and asked, "So, what's the matter?"

Evelyn saw the situation, made up her mind. She said directly, "Can you mobilize some funds and lend it to Davis company?"
