0 5 minutes read

The next day, Evelyn prepared fully arriving at the company.

She entered the office and then called Bessy.

“Bessy, help me find this cleaner.”

She said, giving Bessy the photos she had seized last night.

Bessy looked at them. Although she was confused, she didn't ask more questions. She took the photos and went out.

After she left, Evelyn began to prepare the materials.

She planned to meet the person later and confront her directly.

However, she waited for a long time, Bessy came back alone.

“Where is she?”

She asked, looking at Bessy.

“The cleaning department told me that the cleaner resigned two days ago, saying that her daughter-in-law was going to have a baby and she went back to take care of her daughter-in-law and grandchild.”

Bessy replied truthfully.

Evelyn's heart sank suddenly after listening to this.

Obviously, the cleaner felt guilty and escaped.

“Go to the personnel department immediately and find me the address and contact number of this cleaner.”

She coldly ordered. Bessy saw her face was awful and did not dare to be careless, so she immediately went to check it.

Later, Evelyn got the information, but the phone couldn't get through.

However, at last she had to go to the cleaner's house in person.

This was a very old house.

Evelyn and Bessy carefully walked to the door of the room where the information was written.

"Miss Davis, this is it."

Bessy looked at Evelyn and said.

Evelyn nodded and knocked at the door.

"Knock knock"

She knocked on the door for a long time, no one came to open it.

She stared at the closed door, frowning.

"Miss Davis, will they move away?"

Bessy doubted and guessed.

Evelyn thought it was possible. Just as they were about to come back in the afternoon, an old woman came up the corridor and stared at them strangely.

"Are you looking for Zhang Qi and her family?"

Evelyn looked at the old woman, pointed to the closed door and asked, "Auntie, do you know this family?"

"We've known each other for more than ten years. It's lucky for the old couple. Their son has made a lot of money in business outside. He let the old couple quit the house and go to enjoy their life with him."

Evelyn and Bessy heard the words and stared at each other in daze.

"Auntie, do you mean they moved away?"

"Yes, they moved out two days ago."

The old woman nodded and immediately looked at Evelyn's expensive clothes, wondering: "Well? Girl, are you looking for them? "

“Yes, auntie, do you know where their new house is?”

The old woman shook her head.

“I don’t know. They moved in a hurry and didn’t say goodbye to our old neighbors.”

Evelyn listened to her, and her eyes were filled with disappointment.

After thanking the old woman, she took Bessy back to the company.

“Miss Davis, is there no way to check this now?”

During the busy morning, she still knew what Evelyn was doing. At this time, she saw that the only clue was lost, and couldn’t help worrying.

Evelyn took a look at her, and her thoughts were also in disorder.

“I don’t know. Go ahead and deal with your business. I’ll call you if something comes up.”

She sent Bessy away, thought about it in the office, and got up to find Dale.

Anyway, the murderer was found out. She should give Dale an explain.

It was just that there was obviously a person behind the murderer.

Otherwise, in just a few days, how could an old woman who has lived in Jingdu for more than ten years suddenly move?

Evelyn was thinking about this, and going to Dale’s office.

When Dale saw her, she ignored her. She just glanced at her and kept doing her own work.

Evelyn didn’t mind and took a deep breath and said, “The murderer has been found. It’s this cleaner.”

She put the information she found on Dale’s desk and also told her her guess.

“I doubt there is someone behind the scenes.”

Dale listened to her and looked at the information on the desk.

After a few breaths, she scornfully threw the information at Evelyn's feet.

"Nora, I need results, not a person who disappeared. What do you mean?"

She finished and looked at Evelyn with sarcasm.

"Are you shirking your responsibility? After she left, you tell me she did it? Framing is not like this. "

Evelyn looked at the information was thrown at her feet and glanced at the sarcasm on her face. She was very angry.

But she didn't want to argue the truth with her. She simply said, "OK, I'll bring her to you. Is that okay?"

Susie shrugged her shoulders without expressing her ideas.

Evelyn pressed her lips and picked up the information on the ground and left.

When she got back to the office, she couldn't help looking at the information on the desk. This matter was really tricky.

She shouldn't have said that just now. The cleaner has moved away, how can she find her back?

Just thinking about it, her cell phone rang.

She glanced at it and saw that it was John who was calling. She picked it up impatiently.

"I said, I can't help in the birthday banquet. You can wait for the notice from Hawk family."

After a short talk that day, John was not at ease to give the banquet to Sofia. He contacted her several times for taking back the banquet arranging right.

Who knew John didn't come for this at all this time.

"I heard that something happened to you again in the company?"

He ignored Evelyn's impatience in her tone and asked in a cold voice.

Evelyn was a little surprised, but she honestly told him the whole thing.

John snorted and said in a cold voice, "I've helped you find the cleaner."

Evelyn was totally shocked.

"How did you find her?"

John said in a deep voice: "I have said that I always pay attention to Nora's things, especially this company, and her shares. I don't want Nora's things to be messed up by you. And I can't bear when Nora comes back, she can get nothing."

When Evelyn heard this, her little happy mood suddenly subsided and became bitter.

She even thought the man would help her because he found his conscience.

He was just afraid that she would destroy Nora's things.

People really can't flatter themselves.

She was mocking in her heart, and her face was cold.

"Well, then you should keep an close eye on everything. Don't wrong me for nothing in the future."

She responded sarcastically.

John was very uncomfortable on hearing this. He was trying to scold her. Before he could say something, Evelyn already had no patience to continue to talk to him.

"Since you have caught the woman, send her to me this afternoon!"

Then, no matter if John disagreed with her or not, she hung up directly.

John looked at the hung up mobile phone, his face could not help looking angry.

This damn girl has become increasingly grumpy since she entered Hawk family.

She can even show her attitude to him from time to time!

It seemed that he had to find a chance to teach her a good lesson!

Evelyn didn't know that her attitude annoyed John and he wanted to teach her a lesson.

When she learned that he had caught the cleaner for her, the big stone hanging in her heart finally fell.

She pressed the inside line and let Bessy in.

"Miss Davis, are you looking for me?"

Evelyn nodded her head and said in a deep voice, "Please inform them. At two o'clock in the afternoon, everyone from the design department will gather in the conference room, including Dale, and tell them that I will expose the murderer at the scene."

Hearing this, Bessy raised a smile on her face.

"Miss Davis, have you found the cleaner?"

She couldn't help asking with curiosity.

Evelyn just nodded, and did not say much, then she sent her out.

By two o'clock in the afternoon, everyone in the design department went to the conference room.

They entered the room, but did not see Evelyn's arrival. Everyone could not help but talk about it.

"Why hasn't the director come? Didn't she mean to expose the murderer? "

"Is she playing with us?"

"Who knows?"

“Well, I heard that the company had lost one manuscript before. This time, it happened again. I always felt that something was wrong with the company.”

Chloe and Helen listened to the comments of all the people, and then looked at the scornful look on Dale, and scolded impatiently.

“All right, shut up.”

No one wanted to be ashamed in front of outsiders, though they didn't like each other in the company.

No one knew more clearly about the Manuscript theft case than they did.

Dale looked at her coldly, and ignored it completely. She stared at the door.

She wanted to see how Evelyn would act for her later.

Yes, she didn't believe Evelyn found the cleaner from the beginning.

Just in the expectation of all people, Evelyn came late with Bessy.

Dale saw her and could not help scoffing at her.

“Miss Davis is such a big shot. You asked us to see the murderer, but you are late.”

Evelyn ignored her strange words and said coldly to the door of the conference room, “Bring her in.”

As she spoke, two strong bodyguards came in with the cleaner.

When the cleaner saw all the people in the meeting room, she was very panic and her face was blank.

She wanted to run, but the two bodyguards behind her watched her closely, so that she had no chance at all.

Seeing the cleaner, Dale couldn't help raising her eyebrows.

“Oh, you've got her back. What do you want to tell me? It's her who let my manuscript out?”

She sneered at Evelyn.

Evelyn glanced at her and said in a cold voice, "It is her or not. We'll know after we question her."

After that, she asked the cleaner, "Tell me, how did you use my computer to send out the design drawings?"

When the cleaner heard this, she was flustered.

She didn't dare to look at Evelyn, pretending to be angry: "Director Davis, I don't know what you are talking about. It's illegal to kidnap me like this. I'm going to the public security bureau to sue you!"

Evelyn saw she was bluffing and chuckled, "Well, then we can go together. Just in time, I also want to sue you for deliberately disclosing company secrets. I think you should know the charges of commercial espionage."

The cleaner didn't expect that Evelyn would respond to her like this. Her whole person was stunned in situ.

Evelyn then continued, "Auntie, I will not embarrass you. As long as you admit that you did this, I can let you off."

The cleaner came back to herself, and she was in a panic, but she still refused to admit it.

"I said that I didn't do it at all. Why do you want me to admit it? Then, what evidence do you have to prove that I did it? You don't have evidence. You can't frame me!"

Dale listened to her words and looked at Evelyn in gloated. She said coolly, "Yes, I also want to know what evidence Director Davis has that can prove she did it."

Evelyn glanced at her lightly, then looked at the cleaner and slowly raised the corner of her mouth.

"How do you know I have no evidence?"

When cleaner heard this, her hands were even shaking.

"What evidence do you have?"

She forced herself to question Evelyn.

Evelyn chuckled: “Well, the evidence is naturally the money that was transferred to your son’s account with no reason. How can you explain that a man who idles around all day suddenly becomes a rich man one day?”

When she said that, she paused for a moment and looked at the cleaner with fierce eyes.

“Also, I have investigated your work experience. You have been working in Hawk Group for nearly ten years, and you just transferred here from the head office. For you, it is impossible to quit this job, but before this incident, you quit. So, what’s your explanation?”

This cleaner was completely flustered. She shivered all over, and dared not look at Evelyn.

Evelyn saw the situation, and knew that her mindset collapsed. As long as she forcibly asked her again, she can get what she wanted to know.

“Tell me, who ordered you to do this? As long as you say it, I can forgive what you did.”

She said that, pretending to pause, and threatening again: “Or do you want the police to intervene in this? If so, I will call the police now.”

When the cleaner heard this, she was in a panic at once.

“If I say that, you will really forgive me?”

She clenched her teeth and looked at Evelyn. She didn’t believe it and confirmed it again.

“Sure!”

Evelyn nodded her head with promising: “Everybody here can testify for you.”

Seeing this, the cleaner pressed her lips and hesitated to look at a corner of the conference room.

Evelyn followed her sight, only to find that this direction was exactly where Dale was. She cannot help but raise her eyebrows.

And Dale also found their eyes. She was stunned and then she responded. She can't help but angry.

"What do you mean? Are you saying I directed you?"

She pointed at then cleaner and angrily scolded her, which scared her to shake her head.

"I... I don't mean that. "

Evelyn looked at her, and then at the angry Dale. Immediately, her eyes fell on the assistant who had an unnatural look behind her.

"Who she said should be your assistant."

She seemed to figure out something and reminded her.

Dale was stunned, and was even more furious when she responded.

"Nonsense, how could Ai li do such a thing!"

When Ai li heard her words, she also hastily denied determinately.

"Miss Bush is right. How can I do such a thing that harm others and myself? Director Davis, if you have to say it's me, please show me the evidence, or you are slandering me!"

Evelyn glanced at them and asked the cleaner, "What evidence do you have to prove it's her?"

The cleaner thought about it and nodded: "Yes, when she came to me that day, we were standing outside the cleaning tool room. Although that place is not an important place, there is still a mobile monitoring. If you check it, you may see a moment's picture."

When Evelyn heard this, she immediately gave Bessy a sign.

"Bessy, you go to the monitoring room and ask them to find out the video."

Bessy took the order and left.

As she left, Ai Li's face grew frightened.

Evelyn saw her look, and knew something.

Dale saw it, too. Her face was very bad.

After a while, Bessy came back.

"Miss Davis, I get the video."

Evelyn nodded and asked her to play it.

Bessy nodded, she took the video to connect to the computer, and soon there was a picture on the projector in the meeting room.

What the cleaner said was true. Outside the cleaning tool room, there were pictures of the two people together.

"Miss Bush, anything else you want to say?"

Evelyn asked in a cold voice, glancing at Ai Li behind Dale: "It's not a big deal, but it has a big influence. Now, how are you going to deal with it?"

Dale was questioned by her. And her face was very dark. She felt that she was being embarrassed.

She never thought it was planned and done by her own people!

"How to deal with it is my business. Director Davis doesn't need to bother. I will give the company an account of this."

With that, she glanced fiercely at Ai Li behind her.

Ai Li shivered with fear because of her.

"Miss Bush..."

She opened her mouth to say something, but before she could say anything, she was stopped by Dale: "Go back with me!"

Then, she took the lead out of the office.

Ai Li saw this and could only keep up with her dejectedly.

Evelyn looked at their back. Although she was uncomfortable with that, she didn't say anything.

She clapped her hands and dismissed the crowd.

As soon as Dale returned to the office with a sullen face, she slapped Ai Li , who was right behind her.

“Why did you do that?”

She asked angrily, and Ai Li covered her face with dismay and grievances.

“I want to help you teach that woman, she always sets herself against you!”

When Dale heard this, she was furious.

She pointed to Ai Li and snapped, “Teach her for me? When did I ask you to intervene in my affairs? Today, I've lost all my face because of you. Get out of here and get as far as you can! “

Ai Li's eyes widened and stared at her.

“Miss Bush, are you going to fire me?”

Dale sneered, “Should I keep you to make more troubles for me?”

Ai Li immediately panicked and pleaded for forgiveness.

“Miss Bush, I was wrong. I won't dare to do that again. Please don't fire me.”

Dale glanced at her and pressed the inside line to call the security guard to take her away.

...

At the same time, Bessy also got the news and immediately ran to report to Evelyn.

“Miss Davis, the assistant who framed you was fired by Miss Bush.”

Evelyn heard the words and was stunned for a moment, but she didn't care too much.

After all, this was their internal contradiction.

She looked at Bessy, who was gloating beside her, and said with a smile: "Bessy, if you spend your gossip time on designing draft, I think you can make great progress. In the future, you should less inquire these gossip, and be focus on your study."

Bessy listened to her sincere persuasion, and her smile froze for a moment, but she soon resumed to nod.

"Miss Davis, I see. Then excuse me."

Evelyn nodded and continued to work, but did not see the sarcasm on Bessy's mouth appearing when she turned around.

That night, a high-end Chinese restaurant in the center of the city, Bessy carefully followed the waiter to a box.

She pushed the door in and saw a young elegant woman sitting in the box.

"Miss Morgan, I've revealed the design drawing as you asked, and framed Dale's assistant."

Yes, it was Amelia who Bessy came to see in such a mysterious way.

Amelia looked at her with admiration in her eyes.

"Good. You did a good job this time."

She said, taking out a card from the handbag beside her: "This is 200000 dollars, a reward for you."

When Bessy saw the card, she could not hide her excitement in her eyes.

Amelia saw her look, and sneer flashed through the bottom of her eyes. Immediately, she curved her red lips and tempted: "As long as you can do your best in the future, there are many places need you, and the benefits you get will not be just this."

When Bessy heard that there will be more benefits, she was attracted.

“Don’t worry, Miss Morgan. I will finish my job perfectly.”

Amelia raised her lips meaningfully: “Well, take it and leave, don’t let other people see it.”

Bessy nodded, she took the bank card and turned to leave.

As she left, Amelia’s face was full of clear pride.

“Well, Nora, sooner or later I will make you lose everything.”

Did not know what she was thinking. As she said, she began to laugh in a low voice in the box.

“Have another good day. Tomorrow, all you have will be mine!”

Evelyn didn’t know that the plot was drawing closer to her.

After work, she cleaned up and went back to Hawk family.

On this day, Lucas also came back early.

They had dinner together. Evelyn talked about the incident of company during the dinner.

“The leak of the design drawing has been figured out. It was made by Dale’s assistant, who has been fired today.”

She said with a pity look: “What is this kind of person thinking. Always do something to harm others and not to benefit themselves.”

When Lucas heard the words, he chuckled without expressing his ideas.

“There are always people who will do something impulsive because of jealousy and unwillingness. It’s just human nature.”

Evelyn felt that this was the case.

The assistant set her up because she didn’t like her.

She pouted her mouth and was about to continue her meal as Lucas’s praise rang out beside her ears.

“You did a good job this time. Resolute and effective. You’re like a real Director now.”

Evelyn frowned and looked at him in a tangled way.

“Are you praising me or belittling me? Didn’t I look like a Director before? “

Lucas did not respond to her dissatisfied questions.

But the smile on his face betrayed his mind.

Evelyn grinded her teeth and stared at him in dissatisfaction.

She was like a rabbit trying to bite people, which made Lucas feel she was inexplicably cute.

He could not help teasing: “Well? I am telling you the truth. If you’re not satisfied, I won’t say that in the future. “

Evelyn was discouraged. She looked at him bitterly and said, “Was I really that bad before?”

Lucas didn’t expect that a joke made her change her face instantly.

In fact, in conscience, she was already very good.

He thought of it, could not help coughing, soothing her: “Don’t overthink, I’m just kidding.”

Evelyn looked at him strangely, with surprise in her eyes.

Could this man be joking?

Lucas seemed to see through the meaning in her eyes, and his look was somewhat unnatural.

“Eat quickly and rest early. Tomorrow is your birthday, you will be busy for the whole day.”

The next day, Xuri Hotel, guests gathered.

Evelyn was in a slim silver fishtail dress, accompanied by Lucas, greeted the guests at the door.

One black and one silver, just like lovers' clothes.

Coupled with the excellent appearance and temperament of the two people, it is hard for the guests to moved their eyes.

“Mr. Hawk and Mrs. Hawk is perfect match.”

“Yes, Mrs. Hawk, happy birthday. I wish you and Mr. Hawk be of one heart and enjoy a harmonious love.”

“And may you have a lovely baby.”

“Yes, yes...”

Evelyn took Lucas's arm graciously accepting the guests' wishes.

“Thank you.”

She said thanks with a smile, and Lucas rarely softened the expression on his face and nodded to the guests who came to congratulate him.

Just as they were greeting the guests, Sofia and the Hawks arrived.

When she listened to the praise for Evelyn, her face was obviously a little unhappy, but she restrained her mood because of the old man's presence.

Compared with their dissatisfaction, Grandpa Hawk was happy to hear such praises.

They walked towards them, and Evelyn saw them at the same time. She greeted them politely.

“Grandpa, mom and dad.”

Sofia and Devin nodded coldly to response.

It was Grandpa Hawk who congratulated Evelyn: “Nora, happy birthday.”

Evelyn heard this and thought that the old man was the second one who was good to her. She can't help smiling sincerely.

"Thank you Grandpa."

Just as they were talking, there were guests outside. They were Amelia and her family.

Amelia saw handsome Lucas in the crowd at a glance, and her eyes were full of obsession.

"Lucas."

She called him softy. Lucas glanced at her coldly and ignored her. Instead, he looked at Evelyn tenderly.

Amelia saw this, and she didn't show her upset mood and came to Evelyn.

"Happy birthday, Nora."

She gave her hypocritical congratulations.

Evelyn was polite out of courtesy. She said thank you with a light look, and then she ignored her and went on greeting other guests.

Father Morgan and Mother Morgan saw this. They glanced at Evelyn without any trace. There was contempt in the bottom of their eyes.

Instead of greeting Evelyn, they ignored her and talked to Lucas.

"Lucas, I haven't seen you for a long time. How about we go there to have a little chat?"

Father Morgan wanted to take Lucas away. Naturally, Amelia also understood her father's meaning and echoed closely.

"Dad and Lucas haven't been together for a long time. Today you can take this opportunity to have a good talk."

She said, glancing at Evelyn quietly.

Although Evelyn was greeting other guests, she also paid attention there and then she could not help but sneer.

Amelia was really thinking of parting her and Lucas all the time.

She looked at Lucas to see what he would choose next.

Lucas seemed to notice her eyes and came to Evelyn's side. He apologized, "I'm sorry, Mr. Morgan. I need to help my wife greet guests here."

As he finished, Amelia could hardly conceal her inner jealousy.

Father Morgan showed his mood directly.

But Lucas didn't care at all. He took Evelyn and said goodbye to them. Then he took her to greet other guests.

Evelyn felt his powerful arm on her waist, and her heart was throbbing.

At this time, even she herself didn't know how gentle her eyes looking at Lucas.

The two greeted the guests. Not long after, Austin also came.

He looked at Evelyn who was smiling beside Lucas, and his heart ached and he was disappointed.

But he endured his pain and stepped forward to congratulate her.

"Happy birthday, Nora."

When he came to Evelyn, he could not hide the adoration in his eyes and said, "You are so beautiful today."

Evelyn naturally noticed that, her scalp was numb immediately.

Only because she felt the cold air was keeping running out of the man beside.

Lucas didn't expect that someone would dare to boldly covet his wife in front of him.

"Sure, Mr. Wilson, my wife is beautiful every day!"

He emphasized “my” seriously and silently warned Austin.

Austin could not hear the warning in his words, though he was truly afraid of the powerful man in front of him.

But thinking of Nora, he forced himself to look into Lucas’s eyes.

“I thought you didn’t know that.”

The eyes of the two men competed silently in the air, sparking everywhere.

Especially when Austin said the last sentence, Lucas’s face suddenly sank.

Evelyn saw the situation was not right. She was upset that Austin didn’t know how to draw the line. At the same time, she took the initiative to hold Lucas’s hand and said with a smile: “Thanks for Mr. Wilson’s concern, but it’s the business between our husband and wife.”

It had to say that her words were just right.

In particular, her initiative and her statement made Lucas’s original angry heart suddenly calm down.

He looked at Austin with pride, and his lips could not help rising.

Compared with his good mood, Austin was upset.

But Evelyn didn’t care about him. She took Lucas to greet other guests.

After a while, John came. He called Evelyn to the corner and told her what to do later.

At the end of the conversation, he couldn’t help warning again: “Be careful and don’t disgrace me.”

Evelyn sneered, but she said nothing more.

Soon the banquet officially began, and Evelyn went up the stage to deliver a speech.

“Thank you so much for coming to my birthday party. I hope you can have a good time and enjoy yourself today.”

She said a few words and stepped off the stage.

Who knew, just as she went down, Nora's former friend found over.

"Nora, look at you. Now you are liking a fish in water in Hawk family. I heard that this birthday party is held for you by Mr. Hawk?"

"Oh, you're ill informed. We've known that for a long time."

"Hey, don't interrupt. Nora, do we have any activities in the evening?"

Those people talked one by one, and they were very enthusiastic about Evelyn.

But they were strangers to Evelyn. She even didn't know some of them.

She faked her smile to deal with these friends belonging to Nora.

But she did not find that Lucas saw her every move in the distance.

Lucas was confused about Evelyn's attitude towards her former friends. However, his expression at this time seemed to be a deep gaze in others' eyes.

Especially in Amelia's eyes, her heart was full of envy.

She thought Lucas was only devoted to Nora that b!tch!

Father Morgan and Mother Morgan looked at their daughter's bad look, their faces were not much better.

Father Morgan gave Mother Morgan a hint, and Mother Morgan went to Sofia with a calm face.

Although they came to the banquet, they actually came to retrieve the stage for Amelia.

Mother Morgan went to Sofia and pointed to Lucas and said in a deep voice, "Mrs. Hawk, I think it's better to take advantage of everyone's Presence tonight to announce the pregnancy of Amelia. Otherwise, I'm afraid there will be some changes."

When Sophia heard her words, she also looked at Lucas.

Lucas looked at Evelyn tenderly. Her face became a little gloomy and then she nodded to Mother Morgan.

But Evelyn did not know these.

Although she was not familiar with Nora's friends at all.

But in the next conversation, she couldn't help being happy.

Because this was the first time that so many people celebrated her birthday and she received so many gifts.

She couldn't help looking at Lucas and looking forward to his gift.

She didn't know what kind of gift he prepared for her.

Just as she lost in her mind, her body was touched by someone.

"Nora, what are you thinking?"

Evelyn came back to herself and hid her thought, saying: "I'm fine. What did you say just now?"

"We said where to have fun in the evening. By the way, you seldom come out to play recently. I heard that you went to work in Hawk company?"

Several little sisters talked about the recent changes and looked at Evelyn in surprise.

Evelyn felt guilty under their gaze, so she had to find excuses to cover up.

Later, in case she will expose herself, she left the banquet with an excuse.

She came to the balcony of the banquet hall, leaning against the railings, tasting the wine, blowing the cold wind, and looking at the banquet hall in a daze.

So Nora's birthday was celebrated like this.

She sighed in her heart, but did not envy.

After all, everyone's pursuit was different.

Maybe Nora liked this, but she wanted to have her mother with her on her birthday.

When she thought of this, she couldn't help but think of her mother in the hospital. Her heart was sad.

She hoped today's party will be more peaceful, so that she can make a request to see her mother in front of John.

Just as she was thinking, she saw a long figure coming towards her from the corner of the eye.

The man's face had unusual tenderness, and a pair of dark eyes tightly staring at her, as if his world was her.

Evelyn looked at him and her heart couldn't help beating faster.

Especially in the moonlight, there was a sense of obscurity hard to explain.

"Why are you here?"

She endured her heart throb, nervously looking at the handsome man in front of her.

Lucas glanced at her tense body, and naturally saw her tension.

Somehow, knowing that her tension was because of him, he was moved.

"How can I give you a present if I'm not here?"

He said, took out a brocade box from his pocket and handed it to her.

Evelyn stared at the gift box in his hand and looked at Lucas bewilderedly.

"Well? You're not taking it? "

Lucas saw that she didn't take it over. He said with picking up his eyebrow. At the same time, he also made a gesture to pretend to take it back.

"Why not?"

Evelyn came back to herself. She won't allow him to take it back. She grabbed it and opened the box directly.

On the White Velvet bottom lay a pale blue crystal necklace of Aries, surrounded by many small powder diamonds, shining with dazzling light under the moonlight, luxury and elegant, which made people love it at a glance.

"I don't know what to send. I asked my friends and ordered it. I heard that the constellation on it will bring you good luck. Do you like it?"

Lucas did not miss the astonishment in her eyes and asked softly.

Evelyn looked at him with a brilliant smile and nodded her head.

"I love it very much, thank you!"

Lucas saw this, gently raised his lips, picked up the necklace in the brocade box, and walked behind Evelyn.

"I'll help you to put it on."

Evelyn watched the man approach, feeling his hands cross through her neck.

She felt the coldness on her neck and couldn't help looking down. The peaceful heart lake was rippling again and again.

"OK."

Just as Evelyn was stupefied, Lucas's deep voice came behind her.

She couldn't help but look up at the side of the glass, seeing the light blue crystal necklace hanging in her neck, but her vision was across the necklace to look at the man behind. There was a moment of unreality.

Lucas didn't find the emotion in her eyes. He just enjoyed looking at the person in the glass and felt she was pleasing.

However, just at the atmosphere was good, the inappropriate voice rose.

“Lucas, Nora, come to the lounge with me. I have something to tell you.”

Sophia looked at the two people who looked at each other lovingly, frowning and breaking the silence with her cold voice.

Evelyn saw the situation and subconsciously looked to Lucas.

Lucas frowned, but said nothing. He took Evelyn to the lounge.

As they arrived, they found that there were already many people sitting in the lounge.

Grandpa Hawk, Devin, Mr. Morgan and Mrs. Morgan and Amelia.

Grandpa Hawk found that Sophia took Evelyn here. He couldn't help frowning.

“Eldest daughter-in-law, what are you going to say? You called everyone in, and just left the guests outside?”

Sophia saw this and looked at Morgan family for a while, then said in a deep voice, “I have no choice but call you in at this time to see how to deal with it.”

She said, dropping a big bomb.

“Amelia is pregnant. It's Lucas's child!”

With this, everyone was shocked.

Evelyn looked at Amelia incredibly.

Compared with her stupefied look, Grandpa Hawk and Lucas's look were not very good.

Especially Lucas, his face was very gloomy.

Looking at the silence of the room, Mother Morgan couldn't help but stand up and put forward their demands.

“Grandpa Hawk, I know it's not appropriate to mention this today, but at present we have no choice. I hope you can make a decision for us and let Lucas take the responsibility. Anyway, this is Hawk family's first grandson.”

Grandpa Hawk looked at Lucas with a straight face.

“Lucas, what do you say?”

Lucas’s face was cold like the frost.

“Oh, that’s funny. I didn’t touch her that day. Could she have child alone?”

When he finished, he scoffed at Amelia, and his eyes were full of mockery.

Amelia saw the disdain in his eyes, and her face suddenly became bad.

But she didn’t forget her plan. She retained her tears bitterly.

“Lucas, how can you doubt me?”

When Father Morgan heard his daughter’s choking voice, he was furious.

“What, does Mr. Hawk think we are cheating you?”

When he finished, he didn’t give Lucas a chance to refute. He took out the pregnancy test report from Mother Morgan.

“If you don’t believe us, the hospital’s report will not deceive you!”

Then he handed the list to Lucas.

Lucas frowned and hesitated to take over.

He saw it say pregnancy confirmed, and it has been more than three weeks...

Evelyn looked at the time and made a calculation. It was exactly that night.

For a time, she was thunderstruck, and her ears were buzzing and her head was blank.

Something really happened to Lucas and Amelia that night?

Evelyn looked at Lucas in silence.

Lucas didn't notice her look, but his grandfather saw it, which made him showed a deep stare.

Obviously, Amelia and her parents' coming tonight was well prepared. The other obvious thing was that the day they picked was Nora's birthday. Almost everyone could realize their intention.

They didn't hope that Nora could have a good birthday.

Thinking of this, he became very displeased with Amelia and her parents.

In particular, he also knew that the Amelia's parents had been always longing for Hawk Family. They hoped that Amelia could marry Lucas and be a member of Hawk so that their power could gradually penetrate Hawk Family.

At the very beginning, Devin thought that after Lucas married Nora, Amelia and her parents would give up their thoughts.

To his surprise, Amelia did such shameless things, and even got pregnant!

Anyway, it was a matter that was referred to and would influence two families' reputations, he had to come up with a good idea to deal with it, which also need to be good enough to satisfy Nora.

Devin really couldn't think of any good way in such a short time.

He glanced at Lucas who now was showing his cold face and simply left the matter to him.

"It's not easy for an old man like me to decide this matter. Lucas, you are the party concerned. You should deal with it."

After Devin finished speaking, as if he really didn't care, he leaned on the sofa and started to relax.

Amelia's father couldn't help frowning because he didn't expect that Lucas's grandfather would really wash his hands of this matter.

He gave Amelia a look.

Amelia nodded, which meant that she knew what her father wanted her to do, and then said with grievance, "Grandfather, do you really no longer care about me? My child is the first great-grandson of Hawk family!"

She stressed the last sentence, which made Lucas hiss coldly.

“It’s not certain whether it’s a great-grandson!”

Amelia looked at him in amazement, and her eyes were instantly covered with tears.

“Brother Lucas...”

Lucas was not moved at all. He continued to say in a cold voice, “Even if you are pregnant, it’s not certain whether this child is mine or not, let alone that I didn’t touch you that night.”

Hearing such desperate and humiliating words, Amelia’s face turned white and her eyes flashed some trepidation instantly.

“Lucas, why don’t you believe me?”

After she said, she couldn’t help crying, “Why are you so cruel to me?”

Lucas sneered, “Why? Don’t you know? You already know that I have a wife but still did such shameless things to me. What attitude to you do you think is suitable? I am really curious about that is there anything you can not do in this world!”

After listening to these words, Amelia’s face had become extremely embarrassed, and she was at heart not willing to accept it.

Why did Lucas say that?

When Amelia’s parents heard this humiliation, they were even more angry.

“Lucas, how can you say such words to Amelia? She grew up with you and you must clearly know what her thoughts are to you!”

Amelia’s mom tried to touch Lucas by his relation with Amelia.

But Lucas wasn’t moved at all. He even ridiculed it.

“Aunt, your thoughts really shocked me. Let alone that I’m married, why do I have to give her the chance when I know her affection to me? Why should I even tolerate your using unscrupulous divisive tactics?”

Hearing this, Amelia’s mom choked heavily and could not say anything to retort.

Seeing this, Amelia got more and more nervous.

She swept everyone’s eyes quickly, which wasn’t noticed by anyone, and the light of plot flashed in her eyes.

“Brother Lucas, don’t say anything. I know. In this case, I’ll have an abortion. From now on, I won’t pester you anymore.”

She said with tears falling down from her face. How pitiful she looked.

Evelyn looked at her coldly and even wanted to applaud this woman.

It was Sophia who got worried.

She hurriedly went to Amelia’s side and comforted her, “Honey, what are you saying? Even Lucas doesn’t believe you, I believe you.”

After comforting Amelia, Sophia scold her son with dissatisfaction.

“Lucas, what’s the matter with you? Do you forget how I have taught you since you were a child? If you do something wrong, you should be responsible. Even if Amelia doesn’t do it right, it is your first child.”

But Lucas didn’t show any respect at all. He said in a deep voice, “Only my wife’s babies are my babies.”

When Sophia heard the words, she looked at Evelyn with contempt and said to her son, “I don’t want to criticize Nora, but how long has it been since she came back? You still haven’t had any babies, while Amelia got pregnant after she slept with you once. It is greatly obvious that Nora is infertile.”

Evelyn was even going to be angry and laugh after hearing her words.

She didn’t know why Sophia dare to say such shameless words in public.

Wasn’t it Sophia who made Evelyn unable to be pregnant?

She talked in her heart, and at the same time she understood one thing.

All of this had been planned by them already!

And the reason why they did this was that they couldn't expel Nora from Hawk Family, so they wanted to pretend to get pregnant.

This was really a good idea with Sophia and Amelia's collusion.

Evelyn thought of this and calmed down completely.

She knew how important a child was to Hawk family.

Even Lucas's grandfather who preferred Nora would be shaken.

In fact, as she thought, the old man became hesitant.

He took a look at Evelyn and Lucas, and then lowered his eyes and said, "This is a sudden thing. I don't think this discussion will have a good result. In this way, let Amelia go back to have a rest. After the banquet tonight, we can continue to discuss and make a decision."

Hearing this, except Lucas and Evelyn, the rest people were unwilling.

Amelia's mother, in particular, couldn't help contradicting, "After today, what if you don't admit it?"

Sophia also followed.

"Yes, Dad, Lucas didn't like Amelia. If..."

Before she finished speaking, she was interrupted by the old man's stare.

"Have you ever thought that tonight is Nora's birthday?"

Sophia choked, while Elder Mr. Hawk ignored her and looked at Amelia.

"Do you have any problem with my arrangement?"

When she heard the words, she could only say that she had no opinions, even if she did have opinions in her heart.

Seeing that Amelia still knew how to behave in a delicate situation, Elder Mr. Hawk nodded with satisfaction.

Just when he wanted to say something, Lucas looked around and sneered.

“Grandpa, I have a much easier method.”

As his words fell, the crowd looked at him incomprehensibly.

“Lucas, what do you want to say?”

Devin frowned and asked.

Lucas said contemptuously, “Isn’t it said that it has been three weeks since Amelia got pregnant? Then let’s wait another three weeks. At that time, we can take Amelia to take venous blood firm and the result will show whether the child is mine.”

He said that with his eyes staring ruthlessly at Amelia, “I will personally stay with Amelia and wait for the verification at that time!”

Amelia was frightened by the chill in his eyes, and at the same time, her heart was also confused.

She looked at Sophia at a loss, but she did not notice.

At this time, Sophia was looking at Lucas in amazement. How could he say such a thing?

She frowned and wanted to retort, but Lucas didn’t give her the chance.

“Let’s go!”

He pulled Evelyn’s hand and left without any hesitation.

Evelyn was pulled without any preparation, and she stumbled for several steps before slowing down.

She looked at the tall figure in front of her and couldn't help but turn her head back.

Then she by chance saw Amelia's glare at her.

She raised her eyebrows slightly, hooked up the corner of the mouth with disdain, and left with Lucas.

Of course Amelia saw the provocative smile and got angry beyond all control.

But because Elder Mr. Hawk was here, she could only hold back.

But she swore in her heart that she would torment Nora and make her life a living hell!

On the other hand, Evelyn didn't know that because of her provocation, Amelia was completely annoyed.

After she left the lounge with Lucas, she found that Lucas's face was gloomy all the way, which was very frightening.

"Just don't be angry."

She couldn't help comforting the man in front of her.

Then Lucas looked at Evelyn's calm face and frowned slightly.

"Don't you get angry when something like this happens?"

Evelyn, aware of his dissatisfaction in tone, was stunned, and chuckled, "Who told you that I am not angry?"

Then she changed her tone and said in a helpless way, "However, this isn't a simple thing that can be solved by anger. Compared with driving ourselves mad and angry, it is better for us to be calm."

Lucas listened to her misinterpretation and couldn't help sneering, "How kind you are."

Evelyn shrugged his shoulders, "Anyway, you said that after wait three weeks, everything will be self-evident, and I also believe you."

When she was saying the last sentence, she stared at Lucas's eyes.

Lucas looked at her serious eyes and was touched somehow.

This silly woman...

He couldn't help but hook up the corner of his mouth, looked at the woman in front of his eyes, and suddenly felt a little upset after he glanced at the banquet not far away.

He pulled the bow tie and looked down at Evelyn. His eyes were full of emotions that Evelyn could not see through.

She was stunned and then heard his cool voice.

"It's a rare birthday, but something so unpleasant happened. Let's go. I'll take you outside."

Evelyn returned to his mind, thinking of what had happened just now. She really had no mood to stay any longer.

But she looked at the lively banquet ahead and said with worry, "Won't your mother get dissatisfied with our leaving like this?"

Lucas did not answer her but took her out directly.

Seeing this, Evelyn understood his meaning and immediately forgot the uneasiness in her heart.

She quietly followed Lucas out of the hotel.

Originally, she had thought that the man would take her to the nearby shopping mall at most. To her surprise, Lucas drove farther and farther away. She looked at the dark road outside and couldn't help being curious.

"Where are we going?"

Lucas glanced at her and said mysteriously, "When we arrive, you will know."

As if he thought of something, he added, "If you are tired, you can sleep on your back for a while."

Hearing this saw this,Evelyn leaned back and closed her eyes for a while because she was really a little tired.

Lucas looked at her sleeping face,gradually stabilized the speed of the car and at the same time increased the temperature in the car.

Evelyn did not notice these.

She just wanted to have a rest for a little while.Maybe it was because Lucas was by her side that made her feel at ease,she fell asleep.

After a long time,Lucas drove to the top of the mountain in the suburb,and then he stopped to look at the person beside him.

He saw that Evelyn was sleeping on the back of his chair unprepared.Her white and red cheeks were as delicate as jelly,which gave off a sweet smell and made people want to have a taste of it.

Lucas was fascinated by it,and Evelyn always felt that she was stared at by somebody when she was sleeping.

All of a sudden,she opened her eyes and was shocked by seeing a magnified face that was so close to her.

“Wooh!Don’t scare me,ok?”When she saw who was in front of her,she pretended to be angry and blamed.

Lucas’s face was uneasy for a moment,but he soon restrained.

“I haven’t expected that you would get up so quickly.”

He said in a cold voice,but there was obviously a smile in his tone.

It seemed that Evelyn was panicked,which made him feel better.

Of course,Evelyn found out the change on his face.

She pushed Lucas aside and wanted to get off the car with a little anger,but when she saw the open grass in front of her eyes,she felt surprised.

“Why do you come to the mountain?”

Looking at the surprise in her eyes, Lucas raised his eyebrow and said, "Isn't it said that you women all like to see stars?"

He said, looking up at the top of his head, and saw many stars hanging on the night sky in the night, which was pretty.

Evelyn was naturally amazed by the scene.

At this time, the original feeling of melancholy also faded a lot.

The only problem was that she was wearing only one dress at this time, and there were vents around her. After a while, she shivered with cold.

At this time, a coat with a little heat left was draped over her.

Evelyn turned to look at Lucas and found that he was wearing a white shirt and standing beside her with his hands in his pockets.

Seeing this, Evelyn couldn't help laughing.

"What are you laughing at?"

Lucas heard her laughter and looked puzzled.

Evelyn blinked and said with a smile, "Emmm... I didn't laugh, and I just thought it was a little weird."

Lucas raised up his eyebrows and there seemed to be more puzzle in it.

Evelyn answered with a smile, "You drove me here in order to show me the stars, right? I just don't think it's like what you would do."

Lucas heard the words and chuckled.

"Well. Sometimes when I need to think quietly, I will come here."

Not knowing why, Evelyn was a little pleased in her heart when she heard this.

Did she pry into Lucas's secret base?

When she was making blind and disorderly conjectures, the time was also running by.

After a while, in the dead of night, Evelyn's birthday passed.

She was blown by the cold wind and sneezed.

"Caught a cold?"

Lucas looked at her worriedly.

"Well...I don't think so."

Evelyn said hesitantly.

Lucas pursed his lips and decided to go back.

And Evelyn didn't refuse. After all, it was not too early.

When they returned to the city, Evelyn was a little hungry.

"Er...I'm a little hungry. Why don't we have something to eat?"

"What would you like to eat?" Lucas didn't refuse and asked.

Hearing this, Evelyn couldn't help thinking.

At this time, it was highly possible that many of the restaurant were closed.

"Well, there's no shop open at all. Let's go back and cook for ourselves."

She gave up the idea, but Lucas didn't drive back. He took out his cell phone to make a phone call.

As he hung up, he drove Evelyn to a fancy western restaurant.

It could be seen that the restaurant was decorated with exquisite elegance and luxury.

The key was that there were only two of them in the whole shop, and the decoration looked as if the waiters had cleaned and arranged this restaurant carefully. They also lit many candles and scattered roses.

Lucas led Evelyn step by step to the center of the restaurant and sat down. The waiter who had been waiting for them also started serving dishes.

Along with the dishes together, they also came with real violinists playing beautiful light music.

Evelyn stared at everything in front of her. She deeply was shocked by the dreamlike atmosphere and environment.

Especially when she saw the beautiful man sitting opposite to her, her originally calm heart began to move.

If she could, she hoped she would never wake up from this dream.

Lucas looked at Evelyn who was staring at him. He couldn't help but scrape the tip of her nose.

"Aren't you hungry? Are you full by looking at me?"

Evelyn came back to herself and blinked at the man who teased her in front of her, stopping her from imagining wildly.

"Lucas, why didn't I know that you are so narcissistic before?"

She pretended to be joking and then lowered her head to eat to cover up the feelings in her eyes.

Lucas raised his eyebrows and suddenly found that the woman was becoming more and more casual in front of him.

After all, she didn't talk to him like that before.

He thought so, and there was inexplicable joy in his heart.

"Some people should be narcissistic."

He shook his glass and flirted with Evelyn in a casual way.

Evelyn was amused by his shameless words and she started joking with him.

It can be said that after a meal, the two enjoyed themselves very much, and Evelyn drank a lot of wine. On the way back, she was dizzy.

Lucas looked at Evelyn, who was shaking to get out of the car, frowned slightly, and stepped forward to help her gently. "Can you walk?"

Evelyn looked at him vaguely, smiled and nodded, "Don't worry, I can walk. I've learned how to walk for more than 20 years."

She said, breaking away from Lucas, and walking with unsteady steps toward the room.

Lucas followed her, looking at her shaking figure and her mindless words. His eyes were full of doting smile.

However, he didn't find out that. He followed Evelyn into the room.

Didn't know if it was because Evelyn was too happy or she was drunk. She went to the bedside, turned her back to Lucas, and began to change clothes directly.

The gorgeous dress was taken off, revealing her flawless beautiful back, and the perfect slim waist and buttocks made Lucas's throat tighter.

He stared at Evelyn as if he were a hunter.

However, Evelyn didn't even notice. After she took off her dress, she went to the bathroom in a daze.

But she just took a step, then she was tripped by the dress under her foot. And her whole person tilted forward.

Seeing she was going to have a close contact with the earth, a pair of arms appeared in time to save her.

"Thank you..."

The intoxicated Evelyn subconsciously raised her lips to thank him, but she didn't know how intriguing she was at this time.

Hazy eyes and peach-like crimson cheeks made people can't help but want to bite.

Especially the sweet red lips with a little alcohol. Even Lucas who was not drunk couldn't help being attracted.

He only felt that some beast in his body was awakened, and he just wanted to eat the tempting goblin in his arms.

Of course, he did the same.

He suddenly picked up Evelyn and went into the bathroom. After a simple cleaning, he couldn't wait to lift her out and put her on the bed. Then he pressed down.

The drunk Evelyn just felt it was so hot as if she was on fire.

She was greedy for the coolness of Lucas, and unconsciously followed his actions, which made Lucas who was lost in lust crazy even more.

All night long, he made love with Evelyn crazily until the sky turned white, and then he fell asleep holding the tired Evelyn.

They hugged each other and sleep. Evelyn, like a satiated cat, shrank in his arms and slept sweetly.

...

The next day, Evelyn sensed hazily that the person beside her was moving. She opened her eyes difficultly, and before her consciousness was collected, a gentle voice rose in her ear.

"I'll go to the company. You can rest at home today."

Evelyn responded a little slow and did not refuse, lying in bed nodding, with a touch of coyness on her face.

Although she was drunk last night, she still vaguely remembered some pictures.

Lucas naturally saw such a gorgeous color on her face. He faced her with heavy eyes and a depressing low voice: "I'm leaving, don't forget to eat."

Then he turned and left.

Evelyn looked at the back of his departure, her heart seemed to be filled with cotton, sweet.

But it just didn't last long.

Just as she went downstairs to eat, the housekeeper came over.

"Young lady, madam is here."

He said, looking at Evelyn and hesitantly trying to say something.

Evelyn wondered, "What's the matter?"

As she was asking, she saw Sofia coming in with Amelia behind the housekeeper, and there were servants with luggage beside them.

She looked at them and picked up her eyebrows. She has already guessed why the housekeeper was being hesitant.

"Go ahead and get busy."

She let the housekeeper leave, then she got up and walked out of the dining room to say hello.

"Mom, what's the matter for coming over so early?"

She said, as if she just find Amelia. Then she said indifferently: "Miss Morgan."

Amelia ignored her and looked sideways at Sofia.

Sofia perceived her vision, smiled lovingly. When she looked at Evelyn, her eyes were full of disgust.

"I came here today to tell you that from today on Amelia will live here."

Evelyn has already guessed, but when she heard Sofia said this, she could not help but darken her face.

"Mom, I don't think it's a good idea."

Sofia snorted and retorted, "Why? Now Amelia is pregnant with Lucas's child, so she naturally needs to live here. "

She said, regardless of Evelyn's dark face, and ordered Lucy, "Clean up a guest room and move Amelia's luggage in."

"Yes."

Lucy took the order and waved to take the maid upstairs.

Evelyn looked at their movements, her face was too dark to be darker.

"Stop!"

She stepped forward to block the way of Lucy and others, and looked forcefully at Sofia.

"Mom, I don't mind if you want Miss Morgan to live in Hawk family, but this is my place with Lucas. I won't allow other people to live in."

Sofia saw this, and immediately became angry.

Just as she was going to use child to refute again, Evelyn seemed to have seen through her thoughts and said: "What's more, about the child, nobody knows whether the child is Lucas's or not. Even if it is, now, I'm Lucas's legal wife, and nobody can violate my identity!"

She said, looking sharply at Amelia. And her eyes were full of contempt.

Amelia saw it, naturally, and was furious.

The woman dared to look at her like this. She would teach her good lessons later.

She gnashed her teeth and thought, but she didn't show her thoughts. She even pretended to be pitiful and said to Sofia. "Aunt, I said Miss Davis wouldn't agree. Never mind. I'd better live home, so I won't be looked down upon here."

Sofia heard her words, and then looked at Evelyn's scorn, which has not yet been put away. She immediately scolded.

"Nora, what's that look in your eyes? I tell you, today you have to agree. You can't be pregnant, and you have the face to blame others? I warn you, if you dare to do anything to Amelia and hurt the child, I'll let you live in the hell!"

Evelyn was annoyed to hear that she was mentioning she could not be pregnant again.

“Since mom insists on it, I can’t stop you. It’s not me who will lose face then!”

With that she turned back to the room.

Amelia’s eyes were filled with pride when she looked at Evelyn, who left with anger.

Nora, couldn’t you stand that? You had a lot to suffer later!

She thought bitterly, but she talked to Sofia with a worried face.

“Aunt, is it improper to live in like this? What if Lucas gets angry?”

Sofia looked at the worry on her face and comforted, “It’s OK. If he dares to be mean to you, aunt will help you settle with him.”

Amelia heard the words, and her face was full of joy. She could not help being coquettish with Sofia.

“Aunt, you’re so nice to me.”

In the room, Evelyn didn’t hear the conversation, but she was still in a bad mood.

Especially when she heard the movement outside the room, she didn’t want to stay at home for a moment.

With this thought, she also acted.

She didn’t even have lunch and went straight to the company.

She didn’t expect to meet Lucas who just finished the meeting.

“Why are you here?”

He looked at Evelyn and frowned.

Evelyn looked at the curious eyes around, and she thought of what has happened in their family. Then she said with pressing her lips, "Go to the office."

Lucas said nothing and followed her.

People were very curious about the relationship between the two. Some bold guys even went forward to ask Freya.

"General manager. What is the relationship between Director Davis and president? Why do I feel they are familiar with each other?"

As she said this, many people around her pricked up their ears.

Freya glanced at them. How could she not know their thoughts? She said coldly: "Don't you know that Director Davis was hired by president himself? And you have time to gossip here. Have you finished your work today? "

Everyone was surprised at this.

They didn't know that Director Davis was hired by president himself. They stared at each other face to face. When they saw that the general manager's face was not good, they immediately turned to scatter and went back to work.

At the same time, in president's office, Evelyn said what happened at home.

"I can't stop it. Now Amelia has moved into the new house. What are you going to do?"

She asked in a deep voice, and her eyes fixed on Lucas.

Lucas's face was gloomy.

It can be said that he never thought that his mother would do such a shameful thing.

"I see. I'll take care of it."

His face was taut and expressionless, which made people unable to see what was in his mind.

Evelyn couldn't tell what she felt in her heart. She was a little sad and heartbroken.

Lucas, of course, was aware of her emotional changes and guessed that his mother has been there in the morning. Maybe she has said a lot of absurd words.

"I know you are wronged."

He looked at Evelyn with heartache.

When Evelyn heard this, she was originally a little upset, but she felt a lot better.

Later, the two didn't talk about their family matters, but talked about the company. Cater came to remind Lucas that the meeting in head office was about to begin.

As Lucas left, Evelyn went back to the director's office. She thought of the incident in the morning and thought that she should tell John about it.

Just as she took out her cell phone, John called.

"What's going on? Why did Amelia live in you and Lucas's yard?"

As soon as the phone was connected, he asked several questions.

Evelyn raised her eyebrows, and she was a little surprised that the man already knew it.

But when she thought about it, she didn't think it was surprising. After all, it was all about Nora's future. How could he not pay attention to it?

In this way, she simply said that Amelia was pregnant.

"As you see, because Nora can't be pregnant, now somebody take advantage of it and has Lucas's baby."

When John heard this, his face was dark.

"Can't Amelia really have Lucas's baby?"

Evelyn shrugged. "I don't know."

She said, as if thinking of something, and continued: "If you want to know, why don't you check it."

John snorted: "I'll check. Before that, you'd better stabilize Lucas for me."

Evelyn pressed her lips, and before she could respond, John hung up.

She looked at the cell phone that hung up, frowning. A burst of fidgety rose in her heart.

Especially when she thought of living under the same roof with Amelia after work, she felt disgusted as if she ate durian.

Near the end of the day, she did not come up with how to avoid Amelia at night, so that she would not walk around in front of her.

Just thinking about it, the cell phone beside her rang again.

She glanced. Lucas called. She picked it up directly.

"What's wrong?"

She asked softly, and soon Lucas's cold voice came.

"Is the work finished?"

"Yes."

Evelyn responded, and as soon as she was ready to ask him what he was up to, he continued, "Come downstairs, I'll wait for you at the intersection."

With that, Lucas just hung up.

Evelyn was confused, but she packed up and left the company.

She found Lucas on the street and got in the car.

When she's seated, Lucas started the car and left.

Later, Evelyn found that it was not the way back to home. She wondered, "Where are we going?"

“You will know when we arrive.”

Lucas glanced at her and responded in a deep voice.

When Evelyn saw he was mysterious, she didn't ask any more questions. She leaned back in her chair and kept her eyes closed.

she didn't know how long it took, she was woken up by Lucas.

“Why did we come to the seaside?”

She looked at the blue water outside the window and asked in surprise.

“I have a villa here. We will stay here during this period.”

Lucas replied, unbelted and getting out of the car.

Evelyn was stunned and understood what he meant.

Sofia wanted Amelia to live in and took this opportunity to develop their relationship.

Maybe she never expected Lucas would move out directly.

The corner of her mouth couldn't help rising when she thought about it.

...

At the same time, Hawk family's new house.

Since Amelia settled down here, she has acted as the hostess, commanding the servants to make a table of dishes.

She planned to wait for Lucas to come back and show her gentle and ladylike side in front of him.

But when she arranged everything and it was dark, Lucas didn't come back, so did Evelyn.

She sat in the living room with a gloomy face and couldn't help contacting Lucas.

However, the phone rang, but no one answered. Several times, she guessed that Lucas was deliberately hiding from her.

She thought of this, and she was so angry that she could not help smashing her cell phone. But she saw the servants around her. For fear they would tell Lucas, she pressed down her anger and finally called Sofia.

“Aunt, Lucas hasn’t come back yet. Maybe he doesn’t want to see me. I shall go back.”

Once again, she did the same thing again, and let Sofia stand out for her.

“Amelia, don’t cry. Be careful with the child. As for Lucas, I’ll talk to him. I promise he will come back at night.”

With Sofia’s assurance, Amelia turned tears into smile and said, “Thank you, aunt, but please don’t be mean to Lucas.”

Sofia was very satisfied to hear that she didn’t forget to help Lucas at this time.

“Don’t worry, I won’t embarrass you.”

She consoled, then added a few words and hung up to call Lucas.

“What’s up?”

Soon, the phone was connected and Lucas’s cold voice came.

“What’s up? You tell me? “

When Sofia heard this, she immediately scolded him angrily: “I don’t care where you are now. Come back immediately. Amelia has been waiting for you at home for half a day.”

Lucas’s eyes were cold when he heard this.

“I didn’t tell her to wait.”

Sofia was angry, but when she thought of her promise to Amelia, she bear the anger and said: "OK, even if you didn't tell her to wait, now you should have got off work. Should you come back and have dinner with the family?"

How could Lucas not know the intention of her words and he refused without thinking about it.

"Mom, I know what you're up to, but I won't agree. Since you like to invite others to live in that house, I give it to you. I'll live outside with Nora in the future."

With that, he hung up without waiting for Sofia to reply.

Sofia looked at the hung up phone and was furious.

She wanted to call again, but Lucas has turned off his phone.

In the end, Sofia can only tell Amelia the truth.

"Aunt, are you saying Lucas took Nora out to live?"

Amelia couldn't have imagined that she had planned so long, and it turned out to be such a result.

She thought after she live in Hawk family she could get along with Lucas day and night and cultivate feelings and make Lucas change his ideas about her.

Even though she was so calculating, she didn't expect Lucas to take Nora that b!tch out to live!

For a time, raging anger and unwillingness set off in her heart.

But in the face of Sofia, she didn't show it. Instead, she forced herself to smile and said: "Aunt, I'm ok. I can wait for Lucas to accept me."

Sofia had no idea what she was thinking.

When she saw Amelia was so sensible, she immediately felt guilty and promised that she would let Lucas come back to accompany her.

Amelia didn't take her pledge to heart and hung up after a few perfunctory remarks.

As she hung up, it was hard to hide her anger.

Especially when she saw a table of rich dishes, she felt dazzlingly hurt.

“Ah -“

“Clatter”

She screamed hysterically, accompanied by the sound of broken porcelain.

The originally neat dining room became a mess.

And Evelyn didn't know that.

She stood in the living room and watched Lucas come back from the garden with a gloomy face holding his cell phone. “Did mom call?” she worried

Lucas didn't speak, but the answer was clear.

Evelyn saw this, and she didn't need to guess that they must have had an awful conversation.

She thought for a moment and asked, “Is it not good for us to move out like this?”

Lucas looked up at her, raised his eyebrows and said, “Do you want me to go back?”

Evelyn froze, shaking her head subconsciously.

“Of course not.”

Lucas snorted, “Since not, don't ask me these useless questions. We will live here in the future.”

Evelyn curled up her lips, but said nothing.

She began to look around. After all, she would live here for a while.

“Eh, there are still ingredients in the refrigerator?”

When she saw the refrigerator full of fresh fruits, vegetables and meat, she couldn't help but be surprised.

"Although I seldom come here, I'll regularly ask servants to clean and buy things."

Lucas heard her and came over.

Evelyn knew that and couldn't help laughing. "I see. That's what dinner is all about."

She said, and began to turn over the ingredients in the refrigerator.

"Only two of us are here, I'll make three dishes and one soup. What do you think?"

She seemed to ask casually, but Lucas felt warm.

"Up to you, I won't be picky."

He said softly. The tenderness could not be hid in his eyes.

Evelyn naturally found the changes in his eyes. She had a momentary stupor and a fast beating heart.

She uneasily turned her eyes away and coughed softly: "Wait for me outside. The smoke will be heavy here."

Lucas looked at her embarrassed cheek and realized that she was driving him away.

"OK, I'll go out first. Be careful and don't hurt yourself."

He chuckled and turned away.

Evelyn's eyes were full of emotion as she watched him leave.

She forced herself to calm down before making their dinner.

Three dishes and one soup, not much, but they took her a lot of time.

But the results were generally satisfactory to her.

She put the three dishes on the table and asked Lucas to come over for dinner.

“Dinner’s ready, we can have it.”

Lucas heard the voice. When he saw three dishes full of color, fragrance and delicacy, a faint light passed under his eyes

“Pretty good.”

He sat down, tasted, and praised.

Evelyn couldn’t help smiling when she heard him praise her.

She proudly raised her eyebrows: “Sure, you should know who did these.”

Then she sat opposite Lucas and began to eat.

Lucas watched her take the seat, and his dark eyes became more heavy.

He thought of the information from previous investigations.

Nora in the information was a lady who didn’t do housework. But in front of him, this one was the opposite. He couldn’t help being curious and asking.

“I didn’t know that my wife would cook and make it so delicious. You surprised me.”

When Evelyn heard this, the original movement of eating meal froze instantly, and her heart was even more flustered.

“Um... It’s normal that you didn’t know. Even my dad didn’t know I could cook.”

She forced herself to bear the tension in her heart, raised her eyes and looked at Lucas with a smile: “Besides, when I was outside, others saw me on the other side. In private, they didn’t know what I was like, and then I was taken care of by others. These things couldn’t be done by me, and gradually I didn’t like to do them.”

She racked her brains to be perfunctory. The excuse was not bad.

So Lucas didn’t think much about it, and reassured himself.

Then they finished eating and had nothing to do, so they decided to take a walk outside.

It had to say that the night in this seaside villa has a different flavor.

The sound of crisp waves accompanied by a breeze, blowing on them. Although it took a little taste of sea, they can not help but relax.

Evelyn looked at the boundless sea and the starry night above her head, and she couldn't help breathing out a mouthful of turbidity.
