Lucas Hawk smiled when he heard Ji Yi sighed.

“Nobody can predict his future.”

Ji Yi heard that, she smiled with weak light in her eyes and said, “yes you are right, the world is unpredictable, you never know what’s going to happen next.”

As she spoke, she turned to look at quiet Evelyn Davis and said, “well, now that Mrs. Davis is back, I’d better to go and I will think about what you said just now.”

After that, she got up and intended to leave.

Lucas Hawk didn’t retain her and said, “ok then, we just wait for your good news.”

Ji Yi nodded and turned away.

After she left, Evelyn Davis just returned to her seat and heard Lucas Hawk took the initiative to mention their previous conversation.

“A few days ago, I got the news that Ji Yi plans to come back and develop, so I want to get her here, do you have any opinions?”

Evelyn Davis stunned and watched that he was clearly seeking her advice, feeling very warm in her heart.

Obviously this showed that he cared very much about her thoughts.

“I agree and I think her participation is very beneficial to the development of our company, you know there are many companies are vying to want her.”

She talked about her thoughts with smiles.

Lucas Hawk looked at her quietly for seconds and didn’t see the reluctance on her face, then he smiled and said, “that’s good that you don’t mind.”

Evelyn Davis heard that and couldn't help laughing.

"Of course I don't mind because it's good for company."

Lucas Hawk nodded and showed that he thought more.

They did not hurry to back after eating.

Evelyn Davis was too full so she planned to go for a walk.

And Lucas Hawk didn't want to go back so quickly because of the things happened during the day.

They walked along the road by holding hands, just like the old couple who had been married for many years, which made Evelyn Davis' heart beat fast.

Her heart beat again for him when looking at his tall back.

"What are you looking at?"

Lucas Hawk found her sight and turned slightly, asking her.

Evelyn Davis quickly retracted her sight and lowered her head to hide her affection.

"Hmm, nothing."

She answered nervously.

Lucas Hawk raised eyebrow and looking at her with sinister smile.

"Oh really?"

Evelyn Davis knew that he didn't believe it but she didn't know how to cover up, just looking around and seeing a lot of clothing stores out of the new style, so she proposed, "let's go to buy some new clothes."

Then she took Lucas Hawk and walked to the shopping mall.

Of course, Lucas Hawk saw her evasiveness and he just laughed without more questions to accompany her into the clothing store.

Probably beauty and shopping is a woman's nature, Evelyn Davis entered a brand store and left the embarrassment just behind her in a while.

At that time, Lucas Hawk changed his thoughts a little.

He looked at Evelyn Davis and couldn't help guessing that she had just proposed to go shopping was not to escape but could not hold back.

According to the information, Evelyn Davis used to like shopping very much.

Until now, he had been back for almost three months but never seen her go shopping, obviously she couldn't help it anymore.

Evelyn Davis didn't know the thoughts in his heart.

She had already planned for herself at this moment, which was to buy the clothes that she could wear when changed seasons, but her eyes swept into inside and could not move when she passed a men's clothing store.

"Let's go to have a look."

She took Lucas Hawk and walked in.

Especially when she saw the nice clothes on the cupboard, she couldn't help but get it on Lucas Hawk, "this one looks good."

She took another casual sweater and gestured in front of Lucas Hawk.

The clerk saw that they were dressed very delicately and guessed that they were rich, then quickly went forward to serve.

"Mrs. You really have a good taste and this is the main item of our store next season, maybe you can let Mr. to have a try."

Evelyn Davis looked at Lucas Hawk subconsciously and there was obvious intention in her eyes.

Lucas Hawk raised his eyebrows and was surprised.

Apparently she didn't know that his clothes had always been tailored from abroad.

But in fact, Evelyn Davis really didn't know it, she wanted to pick up a few sets for his natural figure when she saw these nice clothes.

However, she saw Lucas Hawk had not responded for a while, then she calmed down and the expectation of her eyes gradually dissipated.

"Oh...I am sorry."

When she was about to hand the clothes to the clerk, Lucas Hawk interrupted her words and took the clothes from her hand.

"wait for me, let me have a try."

Then he turned and walked to the locker room.

Evelyn Davis looked at his back for a while, the smile that had disappeared rose again on her face and was more splendid than before.

She came to the waiting area and waited for him to change clothes.

The door of the locker room was pushed away after a while, on heard the sound of inhalation in the whole store.

"Wow, so handsome."

"It's just a real version of the overbearing president, how can there be such a handsome man?"

"Oh my goodness, I am going to faint."

The discussion among the surrounding clerk was constantly ringing.

Evelyn Davis knew that they were not malicious, just simply appreciate Lucas Hawk, so she didn't feel sad but proud.

Because the man they praised was her husband.

She thought about it like this and looked at Lucas Hawk with tender eyes.

He changed the style of the unchanging suit before, put on a casual shirt and casual pants.

The original cold face has also changed softer and his strong aura had also been restrained. Looked less sharp but more lazy.

Evelyn Davis looked at him and unknowingly fell into the fascination.

This was the first time she saw Lucas Hawk put on other dress, it could be said that it was completely different styles.

Lucas Hawk felt very warm and satisfied inside when he noticed that there was only his figure in her eyes.

“Look good ?”

He walked in front of Evelyn Davis and whispered.

“Yes.”

She answered him quickly without thinking just like being tempted.

Then the smile on his face spread again, he looked up and said to clerk, “Pack up the clothes we picked just now.”

The clerk snorted and answered quickly,

“Yes, sir!”

Then he came up with the clerk.

Evelyn Davis looked at Lucas Hawk and asked, “Don’t you feel you buy too much?”

She picked a lot of clothes just now.

If bought them all and plus the clothes at home, it would take a long time to wear them.

Lucas Hawk looked at the hesitation in her eyes and raised his eyebrow slightly.

The previous suspicion struck again.

After all, the information showed that Nora Davis enjoyed shopping so much and even hollowed out the store.

But the woman in front of him was worried if bought too much.

Lucas Hawk raised his eyes and said, “ although there are clothes at home, those are not picked by you, I want to wear what you picked for me.”

When hearing the ambiguous words, Evelyn found her heartbeat missed a beat.

She stared at Lucas in surprise, and then the white cheeks slowly became scarlet.

“well, I haven’t intended to buy it for you? I’m just looking around!”

She was vexed and ashamed of turning to counter, and this kind of expression that she wanted to cover up all made Lucas cannot help but smile.

Soon, the clothes were packed. Before leaving with Lucas, Evelyn let sales clerks send those clothes to the home.

Not knowing if it was because of the flirtation of Lucas, she deliberately walked faster than him.

However, it didn’t take a long time that she was attracted by the clothes in a women’s clothing store.

That was an advanced brand, whose clothing inside had several styles, but all were what Evelyn likes.

But when she saw the price, she didn’t dare to buy it.

After some careful selection, she took two suits which were suitable for business attire and prepared to walk to the counter.

Seeing her actions, Lucas felt confused and stopped her.

“Are these all you want?”

If he's right, obviously she wanted a lot on her mind.

"Er... Two is enough."

She replied slowly.

However, just as she finished, he pulled her back to the clothing area.

"This one, this one, and this one, all small size. Let her have a try."

He pointed to the style that she had just looked through and spoke to the clerk.

Immediately, the clerk began to find those for them.

Looking at her movement, Evelyn frowned: "I do not need so many clothes, and I can't wear all at all, what's more, there are a lot at home."

Lucas slightly had a glimpse of her, and said:

"It doesn't matter. You can dress in the future. I find here are several suits which fit you perfectly."

As he said, he took a few more sample dresses and asked the clerk for her suitable size.

She looked at him choosing clothes for her, a burst of joy and sweetness filled her heart suddenly.

After shopping, their hands were full of shopping bags, Evelyn proposed to go back.

Lucas didn't refuse, so they came back home.

But on the way home, he received a call from Ji Yi who wanted to visit the company tomorrow.

"it's fine. See you tomorrow in company."

...

On the next day, because Ji Yi would visit the company, Lucas and Evelyn went to the b.ranch together.

But they still split at the intersection.

When Evelyn entered the company on foot, she saw Lucas and Ji Yi go out from the elevator.

Today Ji Yi still dressed in the professional outfit that looked capable and experienced, nevertheless the makeup looking on the face was finer than yesterday, making the whole person was attracting, although she stood beside Lucas.

It didn't know what they were talking about. But they were smiling.

Especially Lucas, who usually had a cold face at this time was soft a lot, leaving all employees surprised.

"Oh my God, unexpectedly, I could see President smile to a woman. Dose she was the girlfriend of President?"

"I think so. Although president brought a beauty to company, it is the first time that President had been so gentle to a woman."

"If she is really the CEO's girlfriend, it feels like a lot of women in the company are going to break up."

Someone cannot help but sigh, meanwhile someone else felt they were very matched.

Evelyn stood behind the crowd and listened to their discussion, feeling very uncomfortable.

She lifted her eyes to look them who were closer and closer to her. Well, it had to say that they are suitable when they stood together.

As she thought, Lucas took Ji Yi to go to the design department. "Senior, this is the design department, and this is the acting director of the design department, director Evelyn Davis." He talked very formulaic, when he saw Evelyn.

After speaking, he turned to Evelyn and introduced again: “She is Ji Yi, famously international stylist, later two of you can go to work together and study mutually.”

Evelyn nodded: “No problem, boss.”

Words falling, she looked to Ji Yi, saying: “Hello Miss Ji, I am looking forward to working with you together.”

Ji Yi listened to her words, with her eyesight wept the two people secretly. And then she smiled meaningfully.

To tell the truth, she had no idea that the two would pretend to be strangers in the company.

She looked at Evelyn with eyes flashing, and had a dispute in her heart.

“It is such a kind offer that if I refuse again, it will seem like melodramatic. So, Lucas, I will do what you said.”

Lucas was glad and surprised, saying: “Welcome to your coming. Looking forward to the arrival of you.”

Then they visited other parts of the company before returning to the office for a long visit.

Lunch time, Lucas invited Ji Yi to have a meal, and he also took Evelyn together.

The three of them went to a Chinese restaurant and ordered a good meal. And then, they had a small talk.

“Lucas, I never thought that you and miss Evelyn can hide quite deeply in the company. If I did not know your relation when seeing you two get along in the morning, I do not believe you are husband and wife.”

Hearing this, Evelyn didn’t know why there was a strange feeling.

She awkwardly rubbed her nose and said with a smile: “This is also for the convenience of working.”

Lucas did not refute, Ji Yi looked at them and nodded.

Three people said a few words again, Ji Yi suddenly decided: "Lucas, I want to go to work as soon as possible"

Of course, Lucas didn't refuse at all.

So three people were satisfied for this meal.

After finishing the meal, Lucas let Evelyn went back to the company, while he sent Ji Yi home. and then he came back to the head office.

While he just entered the office, he found Envy Miller sitting on the sofa.

"Envy, What are you doing here?"

He asked, somewhat unexpectedly.

Envy looked at him, picking eyebrow and smiling: "I have something want to talk with you. Don't you welcome me?"

Lucas smiled and sat on the office chair.

"Why, what do you want to talk to me about?"

Hearing that, she got up and went to the desk to explain the purpose.

"We are recently preparing to develop an electronic chip, whose code-name is SMT1. Well, if it is successful, it will make all industries semi-intelligent... "

She talked freely about Miller family's new project, it had to say that the content inside caught Lucas's interest.

Though he hadn't been back for long, he had been able to pick up some trends in China in recent months.

From the situation, he can analyze that in the next few years domestic development will gradually focus on the research and development of science and technology.

Moreover, few people had seen this profitable cake so far. If they seized the opportunity, they can not only make a lot of money, but also fix the leading position of the industry before they react.

"Do you have a specific proposal?"

Thinking of this, he raised his eyebrows to Envy.

“I knew you’d be interested in it, so I prepare it in advance.”

She said and took out a document from her handbag.

“This is the plan I made. Look at it first. How do you think it? If you have no problem, let’s go on to talk others.”

Lucas looked at the document she handed to him, frowning and joking: “it seems that you have made full preparations.”

And then he also took over the document to check up.

Lucas Hawk looked at the business plan in detail and found it was good.

But.....

“the business plan is good but so much investment in the early stage, don’t you worry about the next money fault? Also, I saw your materials, all of which are rare materials. The domestic price is very high and we are still in research and development stage. These combined costs have been turned over several times. Is it too high?”

He said his opinion and looked at Envy Miller.

Envy Miller seemed to expect that he would say so, she said slowly with a smile, “I know that the cost is a bit high, but you don’t need to worry about this.”

She said and deliberately paused, looking at Lucas Hawk, “Our Miller Group has sent people to contact foreign manufacturers after determining the plan, they are just our old customers and those materials are not as expensive as ours, so the actual cost can save a lot.”

Lucas Hawk couldn’t help but praised her after listening.

“Envy, good job, In just a few days, you have already thoroughly understood this aspect of business and considered it so comprehensive.”

Envy Miller heard his appreciation and the smile on her face became more and more brilliant.

However, she was not proud but modestly said, “Thank you. But this is a normal process and that’s what you taught me!”

Lucas Hawk laughed and said a few words about the manufacturers, Envy Miller seemed to think of something, then said,

“Lucas, I don’t think there is any big problem with the manufacturer. But now I think the trouble is that once the project is implemented, we would invest a lot of technical developers in the early stage who is involved in confidentiality. We need to pay attention to the situation and invest a lot of time.”

Lucas Hawk contemplated but also understood the meaning of Envy Miller.

“Time is not the problem, of course we must do the best.”

He looked at Envy Miller with a calm eye.

Envy Miller rejoiced, “So.....this project is set?”

Lucas Hawk nodded, “Well, after I mentioned at the meeting to convince the various directors that they had been determined, we implement it as soon as possible.”

Envy Miller passed a touch of calculation but didn’t show it and was still smiling.

“That’s the case, then I would appreciate your guidance.”

She put her hand in front of Lucas Hawk mischievously and Lucas raised his eyebrows,

“What’s wrong? Uncle Miller asked you to take charge of this project?”

Envy Miller said, “Not only I am in charge, but in order to take charge of this project in peace, I also intend to work here from today, you only need to arrange a seat for me.”

Lucas Hawk had a moment of surprise.

“What’s wrong? Do you have an opinion?”

Envy Miller saw him looking at herself and asked him.

Lucas Hawk laughed, “How come? Wait a moment, I am going to ask Cater Wood to arrange the office for you.”

Then he was about to press the inside line to call Cater Wood but was stopped by Envy Miller.

“It doesn’t have to be so troublesome. I think your office is quite spacious to add a seat, please just get a table for me here for we can discuss conveniently in the future.”

She made an excuse to discuss work, which made Lucas Hawk not aware of the difference but felt very convenient.

“Well, I asked Cater Wood to move a table for you here.”

Envy Miller heard this and released the internal call, retreating to the side.

Lucas Hawk did not find any change in her expression. After telling Cater Wood, he thought of something and said, “Oh right, since you have to work here and I will arrange a secretary for you to be your assistant.”

Envy Miller did not refuse and followed his idea.

.....

Amelia Morgan also received news when Envy Miller entered the Hawk Group.

“This slut must be close to Lucas in the name of work.”

She sat on the bed and gnashed her teeth, but soon she calmed down.

“Oh, does she really think that she has a chance to get close to Lucas? Really crazy.”

She sneered and ridiculed and her eyes full of disdain for Envy Miller.

Even so, she couldn't help but panic.

Because she had been imprisoned at home since her pregnancy was exposed.

And she wanted to contact Hawk family but always was excused by Sophia with various excuses.

Of course she knew that Sophia was still annoyed with her.

But this couldn't blame her, obviously she didn't get things done so she had to go slant.

The more she thought about it, the less she was reconciled. At this time, the phone rang again and it was a strange number.

"Who's that?"

She said angrily but as the voice in the phone sounded, she was all stiff.

"In half an hour and I need to see you at the Li Jing hotel."

Then the phone hung up.

Amelia's face was white, her phone was shaking in her hand and her body was trembling.

After a while, she calmed down and looked at the phone.

She thought of the man who had just spoken and finally she decided to see him.

At the Li Jing hotel, looking at the open presidential suite door, Amelia Morgan took a deep breath and went in with the bag.

As she entered, the man in the room who was lazy on the sofa raised his eyes.

The man had a gloomy face and his clothes were half-open, revealing a tight and se.xy c.hest muscles. The who person exuded the evil spirits.

“Come here!”

His eyes narrowed and waved at Amelia Morgan.

Looking at the dangerous atmosphere around him, Amelia Morgan was extremely afraid.

But she had no choice at all, she could only walk to him carefully.

Who knows that she had just approached him a little and her wrist had more strength, which made her fall to the sofa.

Just as she panicked, her neck suddenly tightened and a big hand held her tightly.

“Ouch..... what are you doing?”

Amelia Morgan horribly looked at the man in front of her.

“What the fvck, Amelia Morgan, does anyone say that you are courageous? you dare to marry other men with my children, hum?”

Every time he said a word and he got close to her, his face was full of anger and danger.

And his hand holding Amelia Morgan was constantly tightening.

Amelia Morgan wanted to resist but the feeling of suffocation made her powerless.

Seeing that she was going to be breathless and fainting, the man finally let go of her.

“Uh.....” ( Cough...)

Amelia Morgan regained her freedom and instinctively breathed but coughed.

Looking at the man in front of her, she wanted to anger but dare not, “Are you looking for me to settle with me?”

The man stood up straight and looked at her condescendingly.

“that is a thing but there is another thing that I have to tell you clearly.”

He turned and walked to the sofa sitting down again, "Since now that you are already my woman and pregnant with my children, don't want to marry anyone else, I can't care about what happened before, but you'd better follow me tamely, otherwise....."

Although the man had not finished speaking, Amelia Morgan heard the danger from it.

Especially she was almost suffocated by him before.

She thought of this and couldn't help but shudder.

If she was with such a madman, could she still live a good life ?

She couldn't help but squat in her heart.

At this moment, a face that made her want to ruin flashed through her mind, and she immediately had an idea.

She forced herself not to be afraid and to look at the man.

Telling the truth, following this man, there was nothing wrong with it apart from his sloppy character.

In particular, his identity was not worse than Lucas and more importantly, he likes her.

It's easy to deal with Nora Davis by being with him, who had always ruined her good things.

Thinking this way, she had a care in her heart.

"I can be with you but I have the conditions, I want you to help me destroy a person."

She said in a haze with full of viciousness and hatred in her eyes.

The man looked at her and said, "Help you? It depends on your performance. If you obey me, I will help you."

Amelia Morgan gritted her teeth but still stood up from the ground and walked toward the man step by step.

.....

The next two days were peaceful.

Ji Yi entered the company that day, for the attention of the table, Evelyn Davis accompanied her to the Human Resources Department and arranged the office and assistant for her.

"This is Xiao Wang, if you have any questions or dissatisfaction, you can find her or tell me."

As she spoke, Bessy Roy hurried over.

"Teacher Nora, designer Dale has been waiting for you at the office."

Evelyn Davis said she knew.

"Sorry, predecessor Ji, I have to leave for dealing with something."

Ji Yi nodded and did not say anything but watching her leave.

Evelyn Davis returned to the office, Dale Bush immediately explained her intentions.

"The physical store has been completely renovated. The first batch of ready-to-wear has also been shipped and I have already started to clean up. So when do you want to start it?"

Evelyn Davis guessed the intention of her coming over on the way and she nodded, " I just thought about it but still need to talk about it with company, I will inform you after it is conformed."

Dale Bush did not say anything.

Then they talked about something about work.

After she left, Evelyn Davis went to the General Manager's Office.

What she said is the opening of the physical store.

“General Manager, I just watched the calendar, next Wednesday is a good day.”

Freya Lee thought for a moment and agreed.

“Since you said that next Wednesday is a good day, then it will be fixed on Wednesday and prepared in advance, this is the first physical store of our new brand.”

Evelyn Davis nodded.

Then it was a few days later and it was the day of opening.

Because it was the first physical store of the new brand, the whole company attaches great importance to it.

Even Aaron Miller was specially rushed back from abroad because of this.

In the morning, flowers and carpets outside the store were already on the street.

There were still many reporters around to take interviews.

As the opening time approached, the fashion bloggers and editorial models who had previously banqueted were also present.

Evelyn Davis had already been in the store.

At this point she and her staff responded to each of the arriving guests.

“Congratulations, I wish you a big sale.”

“Thank you!”

“Congratulations.”

The store was full of compliments.

As time goes by, the opening ceremony was going to begin.

The hosted ceremonies walked over and informed Evelyn Davis to prepare.

After a while, everyone gathered in the store to cut.

“Thanks for coming to this opening ceremony, now I announce that the store is officially opened.”

Under the announcement of the host, Freya Lee and others untied the ribbon tied to the door.

At the same time, everyone went to the store and there were many reporters.

As the main design of the clothing, Evelyn Davis and Dale Bush had to stay there to explain.

Coupled with the previous publicity, it could be said that this opening ceremony was very successful.

Evelyn Davis and others were even too busy to eat.

But despite being so busy, the results were gratifying.

Their orders were very impressive on that day and they even got a lot of cooperation.

“Well, all of you can go back home, thanks for everyone.”

After sending away the last guest, Freya Lee gathered everyone to sum up and announce.

Everyone was relieved, they were exhausted and planned to leave.

Aaron Miller looked at Evelyn Davis and smiled, “Nora, it’s so late and I can send you back.”

As he said this, Dale Bush, who had not gone far, was frozen.

She subconsciously turned her head and saw two figures not far away.

Evelyn Davis did not find her and refused him subconsciously.

“No, thank you, I am going to take a taxi.”

Her phone rang as she said and she looked at the number of Lucas Hawk, which made her face softened.

“What happened?”

She gave Aaron Miller an apologetic look and went to pick up the phone

“are you done?”

It was the words that Lucas Hawk cared about on the phone.

“Yes, just finished and ready to go back.”

Evelyn Davis did not conceal and truthfully informed.

“Well, then can you please wait for me in the street, I will pick you up.”

Evelyn Davis keep smiling with his words.

“Okay, I am waiting for you, please drive carefully.”

Lucas Hawk responded and hang up.

She thought that Lucas Hawk would arrive in a short while, she quickly packed up and said goodbye to everyone.

In less than half an hour, Lucas Hawk received Evelyn Davis.

Evelyn Davis did not eat dinner because they were too busy, Lucas Hawk knew that and took her to eat the nightingale before returning home.

After they back home, Evelyn Davis was completely out of energy and fell asleep after washed.

Lucas Hawk washed and looked at Evelyn, who was sleeping, he went to bed and h.ugged her to sleep.

.....

The following day, the entire Jing Du fashion magazine newspaper was complimenting yesterday’s opening ceremony.

Especially the clothing style of the brand that Evelyn Davis and Dale Bush cooperated with was greatly appreciated by many biggie.

John Davis saw this news during his meal and he suddenly found that this daughter, who had always been regarded as a useless, seemed to be of some use.

Just as he thought about how to make the best use of her, the phone beside him rang.

He glanced at the notes and the blunt face immediately became loving.

“Nora, why do you contact me so early today ?”

Then a very sweet voice came from the phone,“ Dad, I want to go back to China recently.”

The Gorgeous Substitute Wife of Mr. President Chapter 225 - Tips

Evelyn Davis didn't know that Nora called again.

When she got up in the morning, she went straight to the office.

Yesterday the store opened, placing a lot of orders, which need her to arrange a little work in a few days.

After her busy morning, when she's finally ready to have lunch and have a good rest, she received a call from John Davis.

“I am in the coffee shop opposite your company, I need you come over now.”

Regardless of whether she was free or not, he directly hung up the phone after speaking out the words.

Evelyn stared at the phone in silent.

Yes, she had not intended to date with him, after all, every time he called her out, she would suffer a lot.

But the reality gave her no choice.

Eventually she walked out of the office and into the opposite cafe.

“Well, what happened?”

She just sat down without ordering coffee and asked straight away.

John Davis didn't pay more attention to. He seemed to be careless and said: “Nora will come back two days later.”

Just those words made her shocked, with heart sinking.

“Why does she come back so quickly?”

She subconsciously asked. But immediately she found that she seemed to be impolite, asking anxiously too much.

“Well... What I mean is one year. This is less than a year, so you want to break the contract, and do not intend to give my mother's medical bills?”

She tried to calm herself, but the hand on her lap trembled uncontrollably.

Although she covered up very well, John noticed it through her panic.

But he thought she was afraid that her mother could not get treatment, so she would lose her composure.

“Don't hurry. Nora just come back to visit. And she will leave after having a rest.”

His words made her breathe a sigh of relief unconsciously.

Nora just wanted to come back for playing for two days, not letting her go.

Thinking of this, another thing appeared in her mind, so she frowned.

“In that case, remember to tell Nora Davis when she come back, please be careful and don't meet the Hawks!”

John Davis didn't like her attitude, impatient said: “would you really think this kind of thing also need you to remind. Nora is more sensible than you.

When he spoke of Nora, he was like a perfect father. Although Evelyn already knew that, she still had some uncomfortable in her heart.

“If there’s nothing else, I’ll go back and work in the afternoon.”

She stood up with a cold face, while John did not block, simply leaving directly.

Evelyn went back in the office, and the thoughts and feelings was still in the message of Nora’s coming back.

Especially the conversation just happened now, which made her thought that Nora was going to come back and she need to leave and give her place.

And that moment, what her head had was Lucas. She didn’t want to leave him and she loathed to leave him as well.

So... did she fall?

Why is that?

She had clearly been very good to protect herself!

She could not imagine what she would do if she leaves in the future.

For a time, she confused.

Especially thinking of her leaving sooner or later, and she would leave from Lucas, her heart was like pinched tightly by an invisible hand tightly, making her hard to breathe due to the hurt.

Even this moment, she almost hoped that she would be Nora Davis.

But the thought passed away as soon as she thought it, and she became more sober.

She wouldn’t have been Nora Davis forever.

Thinking of this, she felt the heart more uncomfortable, making her agitated.

But even so, the life must go on.

...

Two days later, it was in the international airport.

It was in honored guest exit that a delicate and charming girl who was wearing the sunglasses that covered half face came out.

The small face like the palm was covered more than the half, but it also can not cover her beautiful face.

Quite warped nose, the fiery flame red lip, and the loose horsetail, made the whole person look matchless wonderful.

Especially the short sleeve knickers that she worn on the body, showed her pretty figure. She was more than sex and the color in her clothes also very bright-coloured and bold.

She looked disdainfully around at the excuses, and then saw something. The red lips twitched and trotted past.

She came to a black car and opened the door to get on.

“Dad, I miss you so much!”

She got on the bus and immediately gave him a big hug.

Yes, Nora Davis came back now.

She carefully observed John Davis up and down and said: “Dad, you are not on time to eat, I feel you are slimmer than before a lot!”

Looking at her pretending to come out of the voice, John Davis’s face was full of love and gratified.

“How could it be? Dad I has been listening to you and eating well.”

Nora Davis knitted the wrinkled nose, saying: “It is best, or you will know how I tidy up you.”

Seeing that, John only turn to change the topic.

“By the way, I have already had the villa on the Xiangshan packed. Since it is a secret trip, you will stay there for two days.”

Nora also understood the importance without retort.

“I see.”

seeing her have no dissatisfaction, he then continued to explain: “and another thing you need to pay more attention is that since you come back, try not to meet the people before, especially the Hawks over there.

Listening to his words, immediately Nora became impatient.

“Dad, stop talking. I would think I’m a shady person if you are going on like this. It’s not nice to go home and hide. I hate it.”

John looked at her face of dissatisfaction, immediately he compromised: “well, it has to do, now the situation is special... Good, ok, I don’t say, anyway Evelyn Davis can deal with. It’s her problems.”

Hearing that, Nora thought of their plan, and then she couldn’t help laughing.

“Yes, it’s none of my business, so dad please stop talking about me.”

She said, as if thinking of something, slowly raised the corner of her lips.

“Yes, I should be lucky to have such a good sister, otherwise I can’t do what I want to do, dad, I want to make an appointment to let me eat with my good sister.

With words falling, the cold in her fundus was not as good as she said.

John also knew that she did not want to invite Evelyn to eat so simply as she said. It’s afraid that she just wanted to take the opportunity to warn Evelyn.

Although he knew that, he wouldn’t try to stop it.

After all, this time, Evelyn’s attitude to him was indeed educated a lesson.

“Yeah, I know. I’ll ask her out sometime.”

Nora was glad, keeping saying by holding his arm.

“I know daddy loves me the most.”

John patted the back of her hand, and his face was full of pleasure.

“If I don’t love you, who else will? You’d better not make things worse. Don’t forget that now we need to rely on her to help.”

Though Nora was not happy, she reluctantly agreed to it for the situation.

“I know. I’ll take care.”

On the same day, after John got Nora settled, he found an opportunity to call Evelyn.

“Nora is back. Be alert in Hawk family. Don’t let others find the problem. If there is any emergency, be smart.”

When Evelyn heard Nora come back, she was stunned and panicky.

she didn’t pay any attention to what John said later. She didn’t respond until John hung up.

This man called her, not only to tell her that Nora was back, but also to remind her to clean up the mess for Nora at any time.

When she thought about it, she felt like her heart was blocked with cotton.

Evelyn, stop it. Haven’t you seen the ruthlessness of this man?

She shook her head, shook off the sadness in her heart and returned to work.

As she was busy, she gradually forgot about the unhappiness that John brought to her. She was delighted for the company’s good performance.

Because of the success of the first brick-and-mortar store, the company has opened several brick-and-mortar stores in a row these two days, and the sales were not bad.

Generally speaking, their new brand establishment was very successful.

Seeing such achievements, the whole design department was excited.

“Director Davis, on such a good day, why don’t you apply to the general manager for a public fund to celebrate, so that everyone can have a celebrate party.”

Dale looked at the happy crowd and suggested to Evelyn.

Evelyn did not refuse when she saw the happy eyes of the crowd.

After all, this success was worth celebrating.

“Okay, I’ll go.”

She said and went to Freya’s office.

When Freya learned her intention, she didn’t contradict her but praised her for being thoughtful.

“It should be celebrated. Well, you can advance a fee directly from the finance department, and book a hall in Shenggong Hotel. Then invite everyone in the company.”

“Yes.”

Evelyn accepted the order and went out. Before she could take two more steps, Freya stopped her.

“By the way, Director Davis, ask the president if he wants to attend.”

Evelyn was stunned. Subconsciously, she wanted to say why don’t you ask him yourself. As a result, she saw Freya’s teasing eyes, which immediately embarrassed her.

She almost forgot that the general manager was the one who knew her identity.

“I see.”

She bowed out and went back to the design department.

After she informed everyone about the dinner party, she returned to the office to contact Lucas.

“What’s wrong?”

Soon, Lucas's cold voice was heard on the phone.

Although his voice was not gentle, it relieved Evelyn's uneasiness on the bottom of her heart.

"You know we have a successful cooperation with RC. The general manager is going to have a celebration party. Would you like to come?"

She replied in a low voice, but she did not find the person reflected on the glass was happy.

"Yeah, I know. I'd love to."

...

That night, in Shenggong hotel.

"Wow, sure enough it is a five-star hotel, look at this decoration, this price, if not because of the company, I am afraid that I would never get a chance to be here."

"Sure. We will work hard in the future. There must be a lot of rewards like this."

Many employees walked behind and talked quietly.

Evelyn smiled, immediately found the waiter and told him the name of their reserved box.

Everyone followed the waiter to the box.

Shortly after she sat down, Lucas came.

"Lucas, come here."

Ji Yi waved to Lucas. When Lucas subconsciously looked at Evelyn, he saw that there were people on both sides of Evelyn.

However, everyone knew that Ji Yi was familiar with their president, so after Ji Yi greeted Lucas, someone gave up his position for him.

In the end, Lucas could only sit next to Ji Yi.

“Sister Ji.”

He politely greeted, but did not know whether Ji Yi was intentional or unintentional. She pretended to hold the wine glass expertly and joked with him: “As the biggest protagonist of tonight, should you punish yourself for being late?”

Lucas didn’t realize something was wrong. He took the glass with a smile.

“You are right, I’ll drink up for being late.”

Then he drank up the wine and poured three more.

“You are really a good drinker. It seems that we have a lot to drink tonight.”

Dale coquettishly held up her glass and clinked glass with Lucas in the air.

However, Lucas didn’t seem to see her. He put down his glass and announced to the crowd, “It’s been a hard time for you all. The company has such a good performance because you work hard for it. Tonight, you don’t have to be restrained, have fun and enjoy yourself. The company will pay for it.”

“Thank you, president!”

Everyone happily responded.

Then they began to eat and drink.

Lucas also sat down again, and subconsciously looked at Evelyn.

However, before he could see her, he was dragged by Ji Yi to talk about work.

Didn’t know what they said, but they both laughed. Lucas’s face was even softer and he looked at Ji Yi helplessly.

In the eyes of outsiders, it was like a boyfriend who tolerated his girlfriend for making trouble out of nothing.

Many people misunderstood for a while, and even those who spoke to Ji Yi were all respectful at once.

“Tut Tut, it seems that Designer Ji must be the girlfriend of our president.”

“Yes, I heard that our president is not close to women. I’ve been in the company for so long. Except for the former Miss Morgan, I only saw this Miss Ji made president look soft.”

“Really? I think maybe Designer Ji can be our boss cewek.”

As they talked more and more fervidly, Evelyn felt it was funny and shook her head helplessly.

She did not participate in these discussions, but had a quiet meal.

She was a little tired during the banquet, so she planned to wash her face in the bathroom.

Who knows, when she just opened the door, she ran into a face exactly like hers.

She was stunned, and the other party was obviously shocked. She stood still and looked at Evelyn in a daze.

Evelyn came back to herself at this time.

And she has already guessed about the woman in front of her.

This woman was probably Nora who just came back.

When she thought about it, she couldn’t help but look at Nora up and down.

She saw her face wear a delicate makeup, and the whole person seemed to be uninhibited and vigorous. Her straight back showed she was born with pride.

However, she seemed to look at people with contempt, which was very consistent with the purported arrogance and domineering manner.

While Evelyn was looking at Nora, Nora was also looking at her.

Similarly, Nora guessed that the woman in front of her was Evelyn.

She frowned slightly, looked at Evelyn up and down fastidiously, her eyes were full of undisguised dislike.

When Evelyn saw this, her eyebrows were slightly wrinkled. She was trying to say something, and she glanced at the person behind her.

She saw John appeared in the corridor at some time with a women's bag in his hand. She didn't need to guess that it was Nora's.

Evelyn felt it was ironic. He treated his other daughter like an amiable father.

Before she could hello, John also found her presence and was shocked.

"What are you doing here?"

Looking at the father and daughter in front of her, Evelyn pressed her lips, "The company is celebrating here."

Finishing that, something popped into her mind. She glanced at the box behind and continued, "Lucas is also inside."

Hearing this, John and Nora frowned tightly.

Not waiting for John to speak, Nora took the lead and said: "In this case, you come to our box first."

She finished, indicating John to leave.

Watching them leaving, Evelyn looked back at the box where Lucas was, and finally lowered her eyes and followed them behind.

Along the way, Nora was very arrogant, talking and laughing with John.

"Dad, I feel that Jingdu has changed a lot."

"When you come back later, Dad will accompany you hanging around."

"Okay, I will buy lots of new stuffs. Those before has already been dirty."

“Well, buy what you want to buy!”

John spoiled her without a bottom line.

When he responded to Nora, he also glanced back to Evelyn, and his eyes flickered with disdain.

Comparing to their intimacy, Evelyn was much more silent.

However, precisely John and Nora disliked this silent and gentle temper.

After a while, the three entered the box.

Nora sat down naturally and ordered while John sat down beside her and prepared tableware for her.

Evelyn sat across from the two without mood, and ignored John’s considerate service.

After finishing the order, Nora moved her eyes to Evelyn.

“I thought to appoint with you tomorrow. But since we meet here, that’s it.”

She leaned back on the chair with her arms being folded together, saying proudly.

Evelyn frowned, when she was about to ask them what did they want to do, she saw Nora looking her up and down.

“We haven’t seen each other for a long time.”

Nora seemed to be recalling something.

Evelyn couldn’t help but stunned after hearing this.

She looked at Nora and her thoughts seemed to go far.

Yeah, they hadn’t seen each other for a long time.

When they were separated, they were only five or six years old.

And Nora seemed to have never changed, still egotistical and unruly.

She still remembered that when they were young, Nora always liked to grab her things. Every time she failed to fight with Nora, she could only cry.

Then Dad came out and would blame her useless every time, but Nora would be praised.

Because of this, mother had to turn to comfort her.

Thinking of her mother, she finally had a soft look on her face, and looked up at Nora.

“Yes.”

Nora looked at her and pouted. “But you still haven’t changed at all, wearing a good man’s mask.”

Evelyn frowned. She was not happy with her contempt in Nora’s words.

Not knowing if Nora was deliberate or didn’t see it, after she finished, she looked at Evelyn with a look of charity.

“Because of me, you become a rich mistress in a big family. How do you feel? Is it very enjoyable?”

Hearing this, Evelyn kept still, while there was anger assembling in her eyes.

Not waiting for her rebuttal, Nora continued: “So it is. After all, there is only one chance for you for a lifetime. Take advantage of the opportunity, my good sister, when I come back, you have no chance.”

After listening to her sarcasm, Evelyn was too furious that she trembled all over.

If it was not her reason to calm her, she really wanted to stand up and left immediately.

But she knew she couldn’t.

Because her mother still needed their money for treatment.

Her forbearance made Nora look her down.

She looked at Evelyn sarcastically and grinned. "It seems that after so many years, the woman is really useless that she cultivated such a coward daughter."

Evelyn could endure the humiliation to herself, but at this time she heard Nora humiliated her mother, she was annoyed.

"Are you too much to say this? She is also your mother."

Nora didn't expect Evelyn to retort. There was shock flashed in her eyes, then she hid it deeply and chuckled, "Oh, come on, I don't have such a mother."

She sneered while speaking, "Moreover, does she deserve to be my mother? I am the Miss of Davis Family, but you are not. So don't flater me here. We are now having a deal with each other. What you have is given by me."

Evelyn was so annoyed but she could not refute.

Yes, Nora was the Miss of Davis family that her father admitted, as for her and her mother, they had already been kicked out a decade ago.

She clenched her fists hard with her nails stuck into the flesh. The heartbroken pain spread all over and finally it kept the monstrous fury in her heart.

She took a deep breath and tried to calmly look at Nora.

"Are you finished?"

Nora raised her eyebrows: "No, but what do you want to say? I can be your listener now."

Looking at the arrogant woman, Evelyn chuckled, "Nora, don't you think that what you said is contradictory? You told me that we are trading, now you say you give it to me. Hum, I'm really curious that what's your purpose to make me pretend to be you?"

Nora didn't expect Evelyn to have the courage to fight back, and her brows were slightly frowned.

"It doesn't matter to you for whatever purpose."

After she finished, she seemed to think of something and then looked at Evelyn with a faint gaze.

“It seems that father’s words are true, you indeed change a little.”

Hearing this, Evelyn looked to John with confusion flashing in her eyes.

Before she spoke, Nora changed her position and said with pride: “This meeting is mainly to tell you that never wish what not belong to you. Evelyn, you’s better keep awake, what you have now is all mine and I will take them back soon. So remember it, be obeident and it’s good for both of us.”

As her words fell, Evelyn couldn’t help it anymore.

Since they began the deal, these words were always told by them.

“May be I will let you disappoint. I have never thought about what you said. If this is your purpose today, then end up this.”

When she finished, she turned around and walked toward the door.

Nora looked at the back of her departure and did not stop her. There was gloom in the bottom of her eyes. She said coldly. “They are really disappointing. I thought that for so many years, they should have got a lot of progress.”

John sneered: “Can that useless woman cultivate a good child?”

Nora felt it right after listening to it. She pouted and said nothing more.

Evelyn Davis did not know that after she left, the two men slandered her mother and her.

She stood in the corridor for a long time before she could calm herself down with a pale face.

At this time, her mind was full of what Nora Davis had just said, which had been echoing in her ear.

That was all Nora gave her... and they would be taken back soon.

She didn't come back specifically to warn her, did she?

Evelyn Davis thought of this and couldn't help but laugh at herself.

She thought about it carefully. Actually, Nora Davis was right. All this didn't belong to her, but she was still expecting something.

Just as she shook her head to calm her emotions, Lucas suddenly appeared in the corridor.

It turned out that after seeing Evelyn Davis hadn't gone back this long time, he decided to come to find her.

As a result, he saw Evelyn Davis standing in the corridor with a long face.

He frowned a little and approached.

"What happened? You look so bad? "

Evelyn Davis heard his voice, and her whole body shivered.

"I'm OK, just a little uncomfortable. I want to go back earlier."

She didn't dare to look at Lucas, and said it with her eyes down.

Lucas didn't pay attention, but believed her words and nodded: "In this case, you go downstairs and wait for me later, and I will take you back."

Evelyn Davis was stunned and wanted to refuse.

But looking at the concern on the man's face, she didn't say anything, and nodded.

"Well."

Then they went into the box and pretended to not know each other and went back to their seats.

Other people did not pay attention to them, except Ji Yi.

Evelyn Davis didn't notice her stare. After sitting down, she was caught by other colleagues.

After a while, she said goodbye to them under the pretext of discomfort.

"Everyone have fun. I'm not feeling well. I'll go back first."

Although they were dissatisfied, they did not insist on.

Soon Evelyn Davis got off the table and left the box.

As she left, the atmosphere in the box did not change.

Although Ji Yi was also surprised that Evelyn Davis left so early, she could find that Lucas didn't mean to leave. She gradually stopped caring about it and continued to talk with him.

But she shouldn't relax early, the reason Lucas didn't leave all for wanted to stagger the time.

So he sat for a while, looked at the time, and when the time was right, he stopped Ji Yi's topic and stood up.

"Everybody, there's something else in the company. Everyone has a good time. Tonight's bills will be charged to me."

As his words fell, everyone said good-bye.

"Goodbye, president."

"Be careful on the way, president."

Compared with their compliments, Ji Yi's face was a lot stiffer.

She wanted to say something, but Lucas didn't give her a chance at all. After saying goodbye to those people, he left the box directly.

When Lucas left the box, Ji Yi came back to herself and hurriedly said goodbye to everyone and chased him on the way out.

However, she still acted late. There was no Lucas in the corridor.

Just as she was about to leave, she saw a familiar figure passed, which seemed to be Nora Davis.

She walked there with doubts, but there was no one there.

Maybe she made a mistake.... She remembered that what Nora Davis wore today was not those clothes.

She shook her head and turned away.

As she left, Nora Davis came out from the corner.

She looked at Ji Yi with deep thought.

Was she seen just now?

.....

At the same time, Evelyn Davis waited for more than ten minutes in the parking lot and finally Lucas arrived.

“Sorry to keep you waiting.”

Lucas approached and looked at her face, which was still pale. He apologized, “get in the car, I’ll take you back first.”

Evelyn Davis didn’t say anything, nodded and followed the car.

Just before they left, Ji Yi came after them.

She saw only a vague shadow of the car, and couldn’t help stamping her foot, be late again!

On the way back, they were both silent.

Looking at the woman who closed her eyes and took a nap beside him, Lucas felt a little uneasy.

He could feel that Evelyn Davis was a little cold tonight, which he had never seen before. It seemed weird.

He could not help but frowned.

He wanted to say something, but he didn't know how to say it.

He took his sight back. Maybe he was wrong.

She was just tired.

After all, she was busy these days.

He comforted himself but didn't know it was not an illusion.

Evelyn Davis had only been thinking about one thing since she met Nora Davis.

She felt that besides being a good wife, she also needed to stay away from Lucas.

She now.... it's undeniable that she already fell in love with his man.

However, they had no possibility after all.

Before she fell in love him deeply, she should get away as soon as possible...

She thought and fell asleep finally.

Not knowing how long it took, they arrived the villa.

"Wake up, we arrived home."

Lucas gently pushed Evelyn Davis while calling her.

He tried calling her twice, without getting her response, he was going to bend down to carry her in, but Evelyn Davis woke up because of his action.

She subconsciously retreated and widened the distance between them.

Lucas looked at her movements, his face darkened and his eyes narrowed slightly.

Evelyn Davis also realized his weird expression, and knew that her action just now was easy to be misunderstood.

"Well, I was in a daze just now. I didn't mean anything else."

She said that while she took the initiative to climb up on Lucas' arms.

Lucas glanced at the flattering smile on her face, but the bottom of his heart knew something was wrong.

"Get off the car."

He said, stepping back, while letting Evelyn Davis get off.

Evelyn Davis looked at his relaxed face and breathed a sigh of relief.

"Do you want to go to the study room and clear up some stuff?"

She tried asking a question.

"Well, there are still some things to deal with. If you are not comfortable, take a rest first."

Evelyn Davis nodded: "I know, then don't be too busy and forget the time."

She smiled and cared. Lucas nodded in signal.

Then they entered the new room. Evelyn Davis watched Lucas go to his study, then turned around and walked towards the room.

The smile on her face also completely faded and became indifferent when she turned around.

She kept telling herself in her heart that it was all acting and she should stop the feeling in time.

...

The next day, Lucas got up, but he felt something was missing.

Evelyn Davis, who was supposed to be by his side, was no longer in the room.

He got up and washed with a slight frown, thinking that Evelyn Davis just got up earlier than him.

However, when he went downstairs, there was still no Evelyn Davis.

“Where is the young lady?” he asked the housekeeper.

The housekeeper replied: “The lady said that the company has something to deal with, so she went to the company very early.”

When Lucas heard of this, he felt something wrong, but he couldn't figure out what was wrong, finally he gave up thinking and went to the company.

In the next two days, due to the successful launch of the new brand, Dale Bush's work here was also reaching the end.

She planned to go back to China and began to hand over her work to Evelyn Davis.

There were a lot of trivial matters. Although there were many disputes between the two, the result was still perfect.

This day, on the day when she left, Evelyn Davis took her to the airport.

“Thank you for your care during this period. Although there have been many conflicts between us, your work attitude was still good. My impression to you have changed.”

Dale Bush held the suitcase while looking at Evelyn Davis beside her and said goodbye.

Evelyn Davis raised her eyebrows.

Just as she wanted to say something, Dale Bush continued her words: “Of course, but I don't want to cooperate with you again, you are bored.”

Evelyn Davis was speechless. The woman, even though she was going to leave in just a short time, she still insulted her.

“So you are.”

She couldn't help but fight back and they both laughed after it.

After Evelyn Davis sent Dale Bush away, she went back to the car alone. She seemed to think of something and took out her mobile phone and dialed a number.

“Mr. Miller, I’ve got Dale Bush on the plane.”

“I’m sorry to trouble you, but Dale Bush has given you a lot of trouble in this period,” said the gentleman

Evelyn Davis chuckled: “It isn’t as serious as you said, it’s all only girl’s problem.”

Aaron Miller still thanked her. Evelyn Davis didn’t want to talk more about this topic.

“By the way, Dale Bush was already back, Mr Miller would also go back soon, right?”

Aaron Miller didn’t hide it. He smiled and said, “Well, I’ll go back in a few days.”

“Then you should remember to inform me. I didn’t invite you to have a good meal since you have come here twice. No matter what, we should have a meal together this time.”

Evelyn Davis invited him.

Aaron Miller raised his eyebrows and said with a smile, “Why another day? This evening would be the perfect time.”

Evelyn Davis was surprised when she heard of it.

“Mr. Miller is free tonight?”

“Not really, but there’s a party. You come with me in the evening. There’s a business to introduce to you. I wonder if you are interested in it?”

Evelyn Davis didn’t expect Aaron Miller to invite her to be her partner, but she agreed.

That night, Evelyn Davis dressed up and arrived at the party hotel to join Aaron Miller.

She saw Aaron Miller standing at the door of the hotel in a light blue suit, with a handsome face and his warm aura, the whole person was like a noble childe coming out of a fairy tale.

“Mr. Miller.”

Evelyn Davis’ voice broke the tranquility and shifted Aaron Miller’s gaze towards her. There was a trace of amazement in his eyes.

“Miss Davis is going to be the focus tonight.”

He joked, while looking at Evelyn Davis, who was wearing a purple off shoulder dress, and the high waisted bundle showing her figure perfectly.

In particular, purple itself represented mystery and nobility. At this time, plus Evelyn Davis’ delicate makeup, she looked royal.

“Don’t tease me.”

Evelyn Davis was embarrassed by his compliments, and stared at him awkwardly and said, “By the way, what’s the theme of the party tonight?”

Hearing this, Aaron Miller stopped teasing her, and replied, “It’s a conference in the industry.”

He said that he took Evelyn Davis to the party, and explained as he walked.

“Tonight, there are many well-known leaders of clothing companies in China, including many fabric designers and designers at home and abroad...”

After talking, the two also entered the venue, and saw that there were a lot of guests gathered in the venue, many of them gathered in twos and threes.

It can be said that the party was quite grand.

Evelyn Davis looked around, smiled at Aaron Miller and asked, “what’s your business?”

Hearing this, Aaron Miller pointed to a well dressed middle-aged woman not far away from Evelyn Davis and said, “That’s Ms. Su Fei, who is in charge of the western restaurant of the international catering brand, Sheng Di Ka Men.”

Evelyn Davis raised her eyebrows, and her eyes were puzzled.

“So?”

“I heard that their company is going to change the clothes of the waiters in all the branches in Asia region this time.”

He said, looking at Evelyn Davis, and then continued, “don’t look down on this Asian region. It’s definitely a big number. I’m sure that it’s more than a million sets. If this order can be got, at least there are tens of millions. Isn’t it a big hit?”

Evelyn Davis was surprised: “How could it be that much?”

Aaron Miller said with a smile: “The Sheng Di Ka Men restaurant has always been famous for its romantic, high-end service. It’s a famous brand of western restaurant. If you can get your hands on it, it will be a good thing for your company.”

Evelyn Davis nodded at the thought.

“But there’s a lot of competitions here tonight.”

Aaron Miller continued.

Evelyn Davis returned to her stance and said, “It’s normal for everyone who is in favor to want it, but I have to thank you for providing me with the opportunity to compete.”

Aaron Miller chuckled and shook his head. “You don’t have to thank me. They has high standar, so it depends on your ability.”

Evelyn Davis also thought it was reasonable, then nodded: “Okay.”

As she said this, she tasted the wine and looked at Su Fei’s direction, intending to watch the situation.

At this time, there were two figures at the entrance of the banquet hall again, which made the party scene boil.

Envy Miller entered in white evening dress with her hands held Lucas Hawk’s arm.

They wore black and white, like lovers' clothes.

Especially that Lucas didn't refuse the intimacy of Envy Miller.

Not knowing what Envy Miller had said, but Lucas Hawk, who had no expression on his face, suddenly raised his lips.

The intimate act of the two was seen by many people. They all greeted each other with a smile.

Evelyn Davis looked at the two people surrounded by the crowd and was stunned.

She didn't know that Lucas Hawk would come here.

When she was busy thinking, she saw that Envy Miller and Lucas Hawk left the crowd to visit Su Fei, the head of Sheng Di Ka Men.

The three chatted, as if they knew each other.

While they were chatting, there were a lot of comments about them.

"Mr. Hawk and Miss Miller looked good together. Their family background are quite similar. I'm afraid that marriage will happen sooner or later."

"Yeah They are talented and beautiful together. I'm afraid there would never be a pair like this anymore in the future."

"I don't know how grand the wedding will be in the future."

Evelyn Davis listened to these words, couldn't help but be stunned.

She looked at Lucas Hawk and their positions in a dazed way. It seemed that no matter who was standing with him, other people would think that they were right

And nobody knew her existence and nobody knew that the man had been married.

No, not everyone didn't know that.

Some people knew, but they preferred to pretend not to know, and even wanted to destroy.

For example, Amelia Morgan, for example, Sophia

Evelyn Davis thought of these, and suddenly she felt uncomfortable.

Evelyn Davis fell into her own mood and cannot extricate herself. It was Aaron Miller beside her who found her strange.

“What’s wrong? Why is your face like that, are you feeling uncomfortable?”

Evelyn Davis was back to her senses.

She glanced at Su Fei and suggested, “it’s OK. Let’s go and say hello.”

Then, she continued to walk there.

Aaron Miller looked at her back, frowned slightly, but didn’t say anything while following her.

But after just 2 steps, they were soon blocked by familiar people.

“I haven’t seen you for a long time, Mr. Miller. If I hadn’t seen you here today, I wouldn’t know you were back.”

Aaron Miller looked at the person in front of him, restlessness could be seen on his eyes.

He first politely responded to his partner, then apologized to Evelyn Davis: “Miss Davis, you go first, I’ll come find you later.”

Evelyn Davis looked at them and nodded, then walked to Su Fei.

At this time, Envy Miller had finished speaking and greeting other people

Evelyn tried to ignore them and put her intention to Su Fei.

“Hello, Miss Su. I’m Nora Davis, executive director of ZARY brand clothing.”

She came forward respectfully and politely, and took the initiative to talk about her identity.

“Hello, Miss Davis.”

In response with Evelyn Davis' greeting, a spark lighted up in Su Fei's eyes, and she nodded in response.

After the two people chatting for a while, Evelyn Davis caught the right time and finally explained her purpose.

“I heard that your company wants to update a batch of clothes recently. What's Miss Su's requirement?”

Su Fei saw her talk about business and didn't hide their demands.

After all, she's here for some business.

After some discussions, Evelyn Davis offered a discount, but Su Fei didn't give an immediate response.

“Your terms are good, but we need to think about it.”

Evelyn Davis nodded: “Of course. I hope to receive a good news from Miss Su.”

As soon as she finished speaking, someone else came to search for Su Fei, Evelyn Davis had to leave sensibly.

Just as she turned around, she suddenly saw a familiar figure in the corner of her eyes, which made her whole body froze and her blood to flow back.

Her face turned white.

At the top left of her eyesight, Nora Davis was wearing a silver shoulder dress while settling in the crowd.

And not far away from her is Lucas Hawk.

They were only a few meters away. If Lucas Hawk glanced sideways, he could definitely see Nora Davis, and even her.

Because her place was right at the angle between them three.

All of a sudden, Evelyn Davis was nervous.

She wanted to take out her mobile phone to let John Davis send Nora Davis away, but she was now so nervous that she was shaking all the time.

When she finally took out her mobile phone, Lucas Hawk was ready to leave.

She looked at Lucas Hawk's movements, while her pupils were constricted and her heartbeat fastened.

Just at this critical moment, her arm tightened, and she was pulled out from the crowd.

Lucas Hawk saw the familiar figure passing by and frowned slightly.

He thought it was Evelyn Davis, but after seeing it again, there was nobody there, they were all unfamiliar businessmen.

Maybe it was due to him being confused.

He questioned in his heart, but didn't give it any more thoughts.

Because he felt that if Evelyn Davis attended the party, she would find him.

But in fact, Evelyn Davis wanted to hide from him.

Evelyn Davis, who was pulled away, was relieved to know that Lucas Hawk failed to locate her.

She couldn't help but look at the person who helped her just now. She was surprised to find that he was Joseph Kent.

The just relaxed heart of hers once more beat harder after seeing him.

"Joseph, why are you here?"

Joseph Kent looked at the tension and precaution in her eyes, complex emotions flashed in his eyes.

"I just met someone who looked exactly the same as you."

Evelyn Davis was petrified when she heard of it.

She lowered her eyes, did not immediately respond, and waited for Joseph Kent's next words.

Seeing Joseph Kent's condition, she can't even read whether he found out about her intentions. He continued, "I thought that person was you, so I greeted her."

He said, pausing again to look at Evelyn Davis.

Evelyn Davis tried to perceive the meaning behind his eye sights, her eyelashes quivered, and she still didn't speak.

Joseph Kent still continued his words, "I said hello to her, but she doesn't seem to know me. Her tone was intolerant, and her personality was very arrogant. This is definitely not the same with the Evelyn Davis that I know."

Evelyn Davis listened to his words, and her red lips had become a straight line.

She did not know how to respond. She simply concealed: "There are many strange things in this world. We just look alike, there's nothing surprising about it, so Joseph please don't you think further about it. Um... Thank you for what happened just now. I have something else to do, I need to go first."

Words had been spitted out, she wanted to leave, but before even walking two steps, Joseph Kent grasped her wrist and stopped her.

"There is no such thing as unrelated people having the almost same faces, and in addition of that, they both coincidentally existed in one place."

He stared at Evelyn Davis' back, while spitting out his words.

Evelyn Davis was frozen because of what he said.

"Evelyn, I don't know what happened to you, but I hope I can help you."

Joseph Kent came to Evelyn Davis and uttered the words with real feelings.

Evelyn Davis looked up at him with eyes full of emotions that he couldn't decipher.

She didn't know how to explain it to Joseph Kent. She moved her lips and said in a deep voice, "Joseph, it's very complicated. I don't know how to explain it to you. If you really want to help me, please help me hide this secret."

Seeing that she really didn't want to say a thing about it, Joseph Kent became serious: "Naturally, I can help you keep secrets, but have you thought of what you should do if you were again placed in that kind of situation? I can feel that you were afraid of the woman's appearance. What is her relationship with you? "

Evelyn Davis pursed her lips and said with difficulty, "Joseph, this matter is really not suitable for you to step in. If you really want to know, I will explain it to you when the time is right, but now I really can't say anything."

Joseph saw this and knew that no matter how she asked, she would not tell him the truth.

"Well, I won't force you, but I hope the first person you think of is me if you need to."

Evelyn Davis heard the words and was moved.

"Thank you Joseph."

...

At the same time, at the party.

Nora Davis didn't know that a secret was almost slipped out just now. She walked through the crowd with her skirt, as if looking for someone.

Just when she looked around, she didn't want to bump into someone.

"Don't you have eyes? Apologize to me! "

She didn't think it was her fault. She scolded the person who ran into her.

Lucas Hawk stumbled down, and as soon as he got to his feet, he heard the sound and frowned.

He subconsciously turned around and saw Nora Davis' beautiful and delicate face.

In the same way, Nora Davis also recognized Lucas Hawk.
