Lucas frowned and looked at the people in front of him in surprise.

“Why are you here?”

Nora was also surprised.

The main reason for her to return to China was to find someone, but she didn't expect to meet Lucas.

She was so nervous that became numb for a while, especially being stared at by the man.

But soon she calmed down. She raised her eyebrows and said, “why can't I come?”

When Lucas heard this arrogant tone and thought of what he had just heard, he found there was something wrong.

“What's the matter with you today?”

He asked in a deep voice.

Nora knew that her tone of voice must let herself be doubted by him, and she was going to make some explanation like Evelyn.

But before she had finished speaking, there was another voice of man behind her.

“Miss Davis, I just looked for you. I thought you had went back.”

Aaron came out of the crowd and went straight to Nora.

“Why did you change a suit?”

He looked at Nora in surprise.

Nora was shocked when she heard what he said.

Because this made her realize that Evelyn might be at the party.

She looked at Aaron and Lucas .

It happened to bump into Lucas' dark eyes which gave her a kind of bad feeling.

She tried to calm down and pretended to be calm enough. "Just now I accidentally soiled it, so I changed one."

Hearing that, Aaron did not think much. But Lucas looked at Nora strangely.

All the things were also seen by Evelyn , who was hiding in the dark.

She went nervous immediately.

She's afraid that Nora would be exposed .

After all, Nora 's pride was something she couldn't learn and didn't have.

And her gentle character was exactly what Nora didn't have.

It can be said that as long as someone had met them, they could be distinguished from their personalities.

In fact, Lucas did have some doubts.

He looked at Nora in front of him, and the strange sense of disobedience reappeared.

As just said, he got along with Evelyn day by day. How couldn't he not understand Evelyn 's character.

But there was a distinct difference between the character of this woman and what he knew.

When he thought about this, he couldn't help to look at Nora carefully.

The deep black eyes looked at Nora and made her uneasy for a while.

She knew the man's shrewdness and worried that he would tell out something. She pulled Aaron in spite of Lucas' bad face: "didn't you say you had something to do with me? Let's talk over there."

After said that her eyes fluttered toward Lucas. She dared not look at him: "Well, I have something else to do. You can do your own business."

After said that regardless of whether Lucas agreed or not, she took Aaron away and left.

At the same time, she also resented Evelyn at the same time.

The woman came to the party and didn't tell her. She was almost exposed!

Lucas looked at the two people who were far away, frowning, and the strange feeling in his heart came again.

Just when he thought but there was no answer, Envy came to him.

She glanced at the distant figure, pretending not to know, and asked, "what's the matter, Lucas? You don't look very well."

Lucas didn't want to mention what happened just now. He denied: "it's OK."

He said, and then looked at the direction of Nora's disappearance, and he began to deal with the colleagues who came to greet him.

As for Nora who left. Out of the sight of Lucas she stopped and breathed heavily.

"Miss Davis, you..."

Aaron wanted to ask what she had just said, but before he had finished speaking, Nora interrupted her.

"I'm not feeling well in the stomach. I have to go to the bathroom. If you have something to do please help yourself. "

She knew that this person knew Evelyn , so she made an excuse to separate from him.

Aaron looking at Nora 's back, he frowned slightly, and subconsciously wanted to stop her.

But in a few seconds, there were no Nora.

For a while, he thought that Nora tonight was a little weird.

Nora did not know that she had caused doubts between them.

After left Aaron she began to look for Evelyn at the party.

After she found most of the party, she finally found Evelyn in a humble corner.

However, she did not see Joseph beside Evelyn .

When thought that she almost broke the whole plan because of this woman that she went very angry.

“Evelyn , what did I say? Didn’t I let you tell me first before you do anything. Do you know that I almost exposed just now?”

She scolded Evelyn fiercely, her eyes glowing.

Evelyn was also a little annoyed when she heard the blame.

“Since you don’t want to be found, shouldn’t it be you who should hide? Don’t forget, you are coming back in secret this time. ”

Nora ‘s face was angry when she heard that.

“You mean I broke the plan?”

She gritted her teeth and questioned. There was full of the felling of warning.

Evelyn frowned and did not know how to respond.

Because she was afraid that the woman would make trouble regardless.

Because Nora’s character has always been coquettish and domineering.

Joseph also felt the anger between them and stepped out of the gloom.

“This young lady, although I don’t know what you are doing, I can still analyze from your words that you have reached a certain agreement between you. Only Evelyn can appear in front of people, and you have to hide from people. In this case, you have no reason to blame Evelyn, because you make the default first.”

When Nora heard a strange voice she was shocked and looks at the past subconsciously.

“It’s you!”

She immediately recognized Joseph and immediately thought of what he had just said. She was furious.

“Evelyn , do you forget what you promised? You should have let it out! ”

When Evelyn heard this a bad feeling came to her.

Because when she worked together before, she promised that the father and daughter would not let any person know about it, or it would be considered as breach of contract.

But it’s not her default at all, and she couldn’t afford it.

“Who told you I told others about it? Joseph found out that you and I are not the same person by himself.”

She forced herself to retort calmly.

Joseph also realized that there was something wrong. He went up and said, “it’s really what I found. It’s nothing to do with Evelyn. If you worry about me, you can rest assured that I will never harm Evelyn.”

When Nora heard this she stared at Joseph strangely.

Joseph didn’t care. Just let her stare.

After saw the situation Nora had understood. She snorted coldly, and warned: “I don’t care what your relationship is, but don’t break my business, and I have something to do so I have to stay here tonight. Go to the coffee shop outside and wait for me to finish, and then I’ll find you to change clothes.”

It’s not that she didn’t want Evelyn to leave, but that Lucas had met her. Evelyn must stay.

In particular, she just told a lie that she had to make him believe.

Evelyn Davis also knew the importance of this matter, so she had no rebuttal, and she nodded and agreed.

“Ok, I am going to the cafe waiting for you.”

After she said, she turned and left.

Joseph Kent looked at the back of her departure, then he looked at Nora Davis, licking his lips and following by Evelyn Davis to leave.

Seeing Evelyn Davis went farther and farther, Nora frowned with meaningful eyes, and there was a light flashed in her eyes. Then she turned and returned to the party.

She kept walking in the crowd, but she didn't find the person who had the appointment with her.

However, she didn't know that she was watched by Lucas Hawk who was not far away, and Lucas Hawk was more doubted.

He always felt that Nora Davis seemed not to be the same as before tonight.

He thought of this and he planned to confirm his thoughts again so he walked over to Nora Davis.

“Who are you looking for?”

Nora Davis heard the low voice, and she subconsciously stagnated for a moment, but she soon was normal and turned around with smile.

“Yeah, I am finding someone.”

After she said, she looked at Lucas Hawk with no fear: “Do you want to help me find him?”

Lucas Hawk frowned but he still nodded.

Nora Davis had expected this to happen, so she shrugged her shoulders and walked along with Lucas Hawk in the crowd.

At the same time, Evelyn Davis also went to the cafe outside the hotel.

“Sorry, you are implicated because of me.”

Evelyn Davis thought of that Nora Davis scolded to Joseph Kent at the party just now, so she apologized to him.

“No problem. although I don’t know what plans you have, I think you have your reasons.”

Joseph Kent knew that Evelyn Davis was unwilling to tell him the reason, so he didn’t ask more questions and he showed that he understood and comforted her.

It can be said that his understanding made Evelyn Davis very relieved.

Because she didn’t know how to explain it. It may not be understood by many people.

“Thank you.”

She was grateful with holding coffee.

Joseph Kent picked up the coffee and toasted to her: “But I am worried about the lady. I hope she will not cause trouble at the party.”

Evelyn Davis heard this and was a little shocked.

“I hope so.”

She also hoped that Nora Davis would not cause trouble, but she knew that according to Nora Davis’ character, it was impossible to want her to know her place.

In fact, what Evelyn Davis thought was right. It was not much time before she left, and Nora Davis had encountered problems.

Originally, she took Lucas Hawk to walk in crowd and she planned to find a chance to make him lost. Who knew that Envy Miller came over at this time and she accidentally twisted her ankle.

“Be careful.”

Lucas Hawk looked at the crumbling Envy Miller and he helped her subconsciously.

Envy Miller felt a powerful arm at her waist, and she flashed a shyness and smiled: “Thank you.”

Although she was grateful, she did not come out of Lucas Hawk’s arms.

Nora Davis stood with her hands crossing on her chest and watched.

She looked at Lucas Hawk, and looked at Envy Miller who was shy, and her eyes filled with coldness.

“Oh, I said enough. Don’t pretend to be weak.”

She suddenly came forward, and she pulled Envy Miller out of Lucas Hawk’s arms, and she pushed Envy Miller away.

Envy Miller was completely unprepared, and she was pulled by Nora Davis, and she staggered and stepped back. She was about to fall again. Fortunately, Lucas Hawk quickly stabilized her.

“Nora Davis, what are you doing?”

Lucas Hawk asked her with anger.

Envy Miller was also shocked by the sudden action of Nora Davis.

She looked at Nora Davis for a long time, and it took her a long time to react. She said: “Is Miss Davis dissatisfied with me?”

Nora Davis glanced at her and sneered: “Yes!”

She said, looking at Lucas Hawk.

“Do you want to ask why? You are my husband. How dare you hug another woman in front of me?”

Lucas Hawk did not expect that Nora Davis would say that. And his face fell.

“I just helped her.”

He explained coldly, but Nora Davis was still not letting that go.

“So you hold her in your arms, and didn’t want her to leave?”

She sneered, and her voice was loud, and everyone around them looked over.

Lucas Hawk saw it, and he kept silent.

Although Envy Miller was very surprised with Nora Davis’ attitude, she wanted to play peacemaker.

“Miss Davis, you really misunderstood. I just twisted my ankle and I couldn’t stand at that time, so I will stay in his arms for a long time.”

Nora Davis listened to her gentle and soft words but Nora Davis ignored her. She ridiculed: “You don’t pretend be weak and mushy in front of me. It doesn’t work for me. You know clearly by yourselves.”

After she said, people around them were gossiping.

“What is going on?”

“I didn’t understand it, but I just heard this woman say that she is the wife of Lucas Hawk, and Lucas Hawk did not deny it. This...”

“Yeah, I also heard. When did Lucas Hawk get married?”

“If he is really married, then now...”

Although they stopped their talking, many people still understood the meaning.

Lucas Hawk and Envy Miller stood in the middle of the crowd and they looked very embarrassed.

Lucas Hawk was much angrier.

However, Nora Davis was not afraid and she confronted him.

“Do you think I am wrong?”

Lucas Hawk looked at her attitude, and he was so mad.

“I will let someone send you back first.”

He looked at Nora Davis and then he looked at Envy Miller and said to Envy Miller.

Envy Miller glanced at Nora Davis and she did not refuse.

“Sorry to bother you.”

Lucas Hawk did not speak, and he let Cater Wood send Envy Miller back.

Nora Davis looked at Envy Miller who was sent away, and she was satisfactory.

Lucas Hawk saw her, and some thoughts appeared in his eyes, and he ignored her and turned away.

And Evelyn Davis who was in the coffee shop didn't know what happened at all.

She waited for two hours in the café until Nora Davis arrived.

They changed their clothes and prepared to leave.

Nora Davis suddenly thought of something, and she stopped and warned: “Evelyn Davis, I know that you are gentle and soft, but now you are me. Don't be a cowardice.”

Evelyn Davis heard this and she was puzzling.

Just as she wanted to ask, Nora Davis went away.

She had no choice but only suppress her doubts and said goodbye to Joseph Kent.

She took a taxi back to the beach villa, and she didn't expect that when she entered the door, she met Lucas Hawk who was just coming back.

“Lucas.”

She greeted her with a smile.

Lucas Hawk saw her, and he stopped and looked at her with anger.

The anger of his release made the smile on Evelyn Davis' face frozen.

“What happened?”

She asked with uneasy, but Lucas Hawk ignored her. After looking at her, he immediately took back his sight and walked past her.

Evelyn Davis looked at his back, and she was full of doubts.

What happened to him?

She didn't understand. Until the next day, she found the answer.

That Weibo pushed on the mobile phone was all news that 'her' hit Envy Miller in public last night.

Seeing the news,Evelyn was completely confused.Why did Nora beat Envy?

Was she crazy?

Thinking of this,Evelyn could not help remembering what had happened last night.

Now she understood why Lucas came back with such a gloomy face and didn't even want to see her.

Even she herself would be angry if she were Lucas.

She thought about it for a while and called John.

“Did you see the news on the Internet?What did Nora do last night?”

As soon as the phone was connected, she asked with dissatisfaction directly.

“Pay attention to your attitude, OK? Do you always talk to Dad like this?”

Evelyn didn't think that it was answered by Nora.

She first reprimanded Evelyn's tone of voice, then she turned the topic to last night's matter.

“I didn't do anything unusual. I just taught a woman who didn't know herself well that she shouldn't covet other women's husbands.”

When Evelyn heard this, she suddenly felt it troublesome.

How could she still be this calm since such things had been exposed to the media news.

“Have you thought about the consequences after you did this?”

She could not help complaining.

But Nora didn't listen to her at all, instead, she despised her for being timid.

“Consequence? What is the consequence? I was just maintaining the relation between me and my husband. Only you will be so useless and always be taken advantage of by others. For example, Amelia, Envy and so on. Why can't you just take out enough courage and show your charisma that can be in match with your identity? Don't forget that you are now playing the role of Lucas's wife!”

Listening to her heresy, Evelyn was speechless.

“It's not the same thing, is it? I...”

She wanted to explain, but Nora was a little fed up with it.

“You're really incurable. Forget it. I don't want to talk with you any more and I'm going to get on the plane. That's all. Bye”

She just hung up.

Evelyn lay on the bed and looked at the mobile phone. She just felt in great trouble and her head was buzzing.

Nora was gone easily, but left her a mess.

Envy was a famous editor in chief of fashion circle, but she was just a little famous designer.

How could she compare with Envy?

All of a sudden, she put herself in the quilt with depression. After a long time, she calmed down a little.

Now that things had happened, it was impossible for her to escape. She could only find a way to remedy it.

She thought of it, taking out her cell phone to see where things were going.

But it surprised her that on Weibo, her home page had been occupied by those who came to curse her and the amount of them kept increasing.

Seeing this, Evelyn was greatly worried.

In particular, she thought of the fact that there were millions of fans of Envy. If this matter could not be handled perfectly, she would be overwhelmed by them.

Thinking of this matter and Nora who had gone away quickly and left Evelyn many problems. She was so angry that she wanted to smash her cell phone.

But her reason calmed her down.

At present, it was the most important thing to find a solution to this problem.

But now she really couldn't think of any good way for a while. At last, she could only put it aside temporarily and get up first.

After she washed, dressed and went downstairs, Lucas had already started having breakfast in the restaurant.

When Lucas heard the action of Evelyn going downstairs, he paused and returned to normal look again, as if he didn't find her.

Evelyn was aware that he was still angry about last night's incident. For a while, she was wronged and helpless, but anyway she had to solve this matter.

She bit her lips and walked to Lucas slowly with a little fear.

"Well, I just, I just had some wine last night and that's why I lost my temper."

She thought about many reasons, and felt that the excuse was more reasonable.

When Lucas heard her words, he finally stopped.

Instead of responding to Evelyn immediately, he glanced at her.

Then he picked up the mobile phone on the table and turned out the news of this morning and put it in front of her.

"You don't look drunk."

He looked at the photos in his mobile phone and showed it to Evelyn.

Evelyn pursed her lips and looked at the picture in his mobile phone.

It was the picture of Nora attacking Envy in a haughty manner last night, which suddenly made Evelyn speechless.

Before she could think of how to answer, Lucas continued to say, "And I've seen what you look like when you are drunk. Let alone walking, even when you speak, you can't say any word correctly. But last night, you were eloquent, and you looked very proud. Wasn't that what you look like when drunk?"

Although he was enquiring, it was extremely ironic in Evelyn's ears.

Now her face was pale, and she moved her lips but did not know what to say to Lucas.

She knew it might not be so easy to perfunctory.

But it also was impossible to be honest.

"I..."

She tried to explain again, but before she had finished speaking, Lucas interrupted her by waving his hand.

“Evelyn, you don’t have to try your best to explain it to me here. I’ve figured it out. This is what you are, right? It’s hard for you to hide for such a long time. And finally you can no longer hide now?”

“No!”

Evelyn retorted subconsciously, but when she looked at Lucas’s indifferent eyes, she couldn’t say anything at all.

“Sorry, I shouldn’t have done that last night.”

She took back what she had just wanted to say and turned it into an apology.

It seemed to be that except the apology, anything else she said would be inappropriate now.

When she thought of it, her eyes were filled with grievances.

Lucas also noticed it and his brow was tight and his eyes looked puzzled.

He didn’t understand what the woman was wronging.

Was it that she still thought she was right?

He thought of the woman’s arrogance last night and thought it was not impossible. After all, now she was acting in front of him.

For a while, his face suddenly became gloomy and he said in a deep voice, “If you really know it’s wrong, you should know that it’s not me that you need to apologize to, but Envy.”

He said with cold eyes looking at Evelyn.

“You know the reason why she was there last night. She was to help our company talk about the deal with Saint tecamen. How could you just hit her indiscriminately. Do you know how bad the influence of this incident?”

Evelyn wanted to say that she already knew.

But he didn’t give her a chance to say.

“Well, I’ll take care of it, but I hope you can recognize your mistakes. Never do such things again!”

When he finished speaking, he didn’t look at Evelyn, but stood up and left.

Looking at the back of his departure and recalling what he just said, Evelyn was completely sad and very aggrieved.

In fact, all of these were done by Nora, but she was finally asked to clean up the mess.

She sat in the dining room tearfully, and ate numbly.

In the end, she had no appetite, so she called the housekeeper to clean up and planned to go to the company.

But to her surprise, when she just walked to the door, she saw Sophia with several people came over.

“Mom, why are you here?”

She was a little surprised and asked with politeness.

However, when Sophia saw her, she didn’t respond. Instead, she raised her hand directly and slapped Evelyn’s face.

The sound “pa” was very clear.

Evelyn was stunned.

Before she could recover herself, Sophia pointed to her nose and scolded her: “Nora, look what you’ve done. Can you fight Envy? Can you put yourself in the right place!”

Evelyn shuddered when she heard this.

Knowing that Sophia had come about the night before, she did not dare to contradict her. “I’m going to apologize to Envy now.”

Sophia: “apologize? Does it work?”

Evelyn dropped her eyes and didn't know what to say.

When Sophia saw her again, she sneered, “ok, now Lucas has seen your true face, and you don't need to pretend to be such a cute one anymore. We can't keep you in our house. If you are sensible, you can leave by yourself now!”

“She was eyeing Evelyn coldly and leaving without giving her a chance to answer when her finished her words.

Evelyn's face turned black as she looked after her as she left.

It's impossible for her to leave voluntarily.

Apart from Lucas's attitude, even John would not agree.

But if she stayed and was disturbed by Nora, the future might be even more difficult.

And so it is.

Because of Sophia's warning, Evelyn did not go to Envy but put on some makeup, she covered up the wounds on her face and went to the company.

She just arrived company and discovered that all round many people looked at her and whispered her.

“It's her who dared to attack the first debutante. What was she thinking?”

“I think she's just jealous. Don't you know she knows the CEO? She must love the President secretly and can't see other women touch the President.”

“Well, if you say so, I think of something.”

‘what is it?

“It was about the former director Morgan who was expelled...do you think this is the calculation of this woman, after all, this woman loves the President, and director Morgan and President relationship is not general.”

“To hear you say that, I think it may be so.”

“My god, that’s cruel and scheming woman.”

For a moment everyone was looking at Evelyn with loathing and pointing at her back.

Evelyn, more or less, had heard some of the remarks, and she looked very ugly on her face.

She fought back her anger and returned to her office.

It took her a long time to calm down, looking at the silent office for a moment, she felt so helpless and had no idea how to deal with this matter.

It could be said that the ferment of things had exceeded her expectations.

And she was more worried about the impact on the company’s hard-won image.

Was actually afraid of, came what.

Bessy knocked in with a worried look on his face when Evelyn was worried.

“Sir, the general manager has sent you to the office.”

Evelyn lost her train of thought at this.

“I see”

She said and got up to go to the general manager’s office, but she found Bessy was standing in situ and did not leave.

“Anything else?”

She asked.

Bessy looked at her and did not hide the worry in the eyes, asked: “Miss Davis, did you really hit Envy?”

Evelyn stunned.

Bessy was still talking without waiting for her answer: “but I think Miss Davis will not do such a thing, there must be some misunderstanding.”

Evelyn looked into her trusting eyes and felt a sudden warmth in her heart.

She had been listening all morning to her slapping, but no one thought it wasn't her.

“Bessy, thank you.”

She did not know how to answer Bessy, she pulled the corners of the mouth to show her thanks.

Bessy was confused, but Evelyn did not intend to say more with her, she turned out of the office.

As she went out, the designers of the office area stopped working and looked at her.

Evelyn just glanced around and walked to the general manager's office.

“General manager”

She knocked on the door and stood respectfully in the middle of the office.

Freya stopped what she was doing and looked up at the woman in front of her.

To tell the truth, when she saw the news of the beating this morning, she didn't believe it.

After all, she remembered Evelyn as a gentle person who wouldn't hit anyone in public if she was in conflict.

But the evidence forced her to believe it.

“Director Davis, do you know why I called you here?”

She looked at Evelyn with cold eyes and asked seriously.

Evelyn nodded. “yes.”

Freya stared at Evelyn.

“Honestly, I don’t know what happened last night, but no matter what happened, you shouldn’t clash with Envy in public, which is not only bad for you, but also bad for the company’s reputation.”

“Do you realize how much this is going to affect the company? The President had already negotiated a deal, but it fell through.”

Evelyn’s face changed when she heard this, and she looked at Freya with astonishment.

But before she could ask, she heard Freya said: “because of the seriousness of this matter, the senior management decided to withdraw your position as director after discussion and temporarily replaced by Jiyi. Otherwise, it may seriously affect the sales of other designers’ works due to your factors. Do you have any objection?”

Evelyn swallowed back what she wanted to say and shook her head. “no problem.”

She knew this was the only way to save the company.

Freya saw this, and nodded with satisfaction.

“Well, I don’t have anything else to say. I hope this will teach you to stop acting so impetuously in the future. Now you can go.”

She waved Evelyn away.

Evelyn nodded and turned away.

When she went out of the general manager’s office, she could not help sighing deeply.

It was fair to say that Nora’s return had reversed the situation she had managed to open.

Just as she was about to pack up and move out of the office, a harsh voice rang in her ear.

“Well, this is our new agency director, well, well, now you’re replaced by others.”

Chloe saw Evelyn came and sneered at Evelyn.

Evelyn gave her a cold look and ignored her into the office.

Chloe saw this and showed her scorn on her face.

“who do you think you are, you’re not our director now.”

When lunch came, she reported the good news to Amelia.

“Amelia, I’ m telling you that Nora trapped herself.”

She informed Amelia of the company’s execution of Evelyn.

Amelia listened with relief, but more unconvinced.

She clenched her teeth and grabbed the phone, said angrily: “This is who she is, but whatever I said before, Lucas just doesn’t believe me!”

Because the news that she hit Envy Miller had aroused extensive attention, it could be said that this day was gloomy for Evelyn Davis.

First, she was demoted and next her designs were suspension of sales.

In the company, colleagues didn’t have a kind word for her, either.

But these were not the root made her uncomfortable. What made her sad was that she had not had any messages about Lucas Hawk since he left in the morning.

Just as she was frustrated, WeChat suddenly rang.

“Evelyn, are you okay?”

She saw the message that Joseph Kent sent to her.

Just as she was preparing to reply, Joseph Kent sent a second message.

“Don’t be sad. I know that it’s not you who hit Envy Miller, so you don’t need to care about what other people said.”

Evelyn Davis looked at his comforting words, feeling warm.

“Well, I know.”

She responded with smile. After a while, Joseph Kent sent messages again.

“Do you want to go out tonight? Amanda Murphy has been complaining to me all the time. She can’t find you and she said that you abandoned her.”

Evelyn Davis looked at his jokes, knowing that he was deliberately making her happy, so she was moved and agreed.

Anyway, she thought that Lucas Hawk would not be happy to see her after she got off work.

After Evelyn Davis got off work that night, she simply made-up and ignored the gossip around her and took a taxi.

She and Joseph Kent met at a Chinese restaurant in the city.

When she arrived, Joseph Kent and Amanda Murphy were already sitting in the private room.

“Sorry, the traffic jam. I am late.”

She put down her handbag and apologized to them.

Joseph Kent laughed.

“Evelyn, you are more and more polite. Do you still need to be so polite with us?”

Joseph Kent said. After that, Amanda Murphy also echoed.

“Yes, it’s hard to contact you and ask you out. But you begin to alienate us. I am so angry now.”

She said angrily, waiting for Evelyn Davis to comfort her.

This was also the mode of her getting along with Evelyn Davis.

Sure enough, she showed that she was sulking, and then Evelyn Davis comforted her immediately.

“Good Amanda, pretty Amanda. Don’t be angry, I am wrong.”

Amanda Murphy snorted, and she settled old scores with Evelyn Davis.

“I am not only angry at you for alienating me, but I’m also angry at you for disappearing. Where are you recently? I can’t get through to your cell phone, leaving me alone in Jing Du.”

Listening to her questions, Evelyn Davis felt her head was splitting. She didn’t know how to answer.

She could only ask Joseph Kent for help.

Joseph Kent looked at her movements and smiled. He said: “Amanda, don’t force Evelyn. I told you before. Evelyn Davis’ mother is still in hospital. You should know the hospital clearly. The signal in hospital is not good, and she has to go to work, as well as take care of her mother. How can she have time to come out to play.”

Amanda Murph felt it was reasonable.

“Well, you are really busy. I will forgive you.”

Evelyn Davis looked at Joseph Kent with grateful expression, and they talked and laughed while dining.

During the meal, Amanda Murphy thought of the morning news and asked: “Hey, Evelyn, did you read this morning’s Weibo headlines? The person is like you.”

Because Evelyn Davis had told her that she designed at home, Amanda Murphy did not think about the person was Evelyn Davis, and she just said in a gossipy way.

Evelyn Davis heard and stopped eating.

Even Joseph Kent looked at Evelyn.

It seemed that he silently asked her how to explain.

Evelyn Davis saw the inquiry in his eyes and she lowered her eyes and thought.

It was impossible not to tell Amanda Murphy this matter all the time, but to be honest, she couldn't guarantee that Amanda Murphy could keep the secret.

It was not that she didn't believe in Amanda Murphy, but the more people knew that, the more dangerous would be.

Now that she was in a dilemma, so she couldn't make her mother in danger too.

"Amanda, actually, that person is me. Didn't I say that I designed it at home? Actually, there are still some things I have not told you."

She said, and then paused for a while. She rearranged her words, and intended to tell a white lie.

"I was actually a designer at ZARY. Last night, I followed the company's colleagues to join the party. However, I was drunk and made a rude thing."

Amanda Murphy heard and she was stunned.

"So the person in the news is you?"

Evelyn Davis nodded: "It's me."

What Evelyn Davis admitted made she couldn't help but widen her eyes, but the followed by her worries.

"Do you deal with it now? The news reported that you have hit Envy Miller. What is going on?"

She asked several questions and made Evelyn Davis not know how to answer.

"Amanda, this is a misunderstanding. You know that the news on the Internet is all rumored. In fact, things are not so serious. I was there at the time."

Joseph Kent helped Evelyn Davis explain and helped her patch up the lie.

Amanda Murphy heard that Joseph Kent was there too, so she didn't think too much.

However, she still felt angry for her good friends.

“These reporters just know to say some nonsense. If I can, I would curse that they will have a car accident when they go out.”

Evelyn Davis listened to Amanda Murphy. She was moved and looked at Joseph Kent gratefully.

Joseph Kent noticed her sight, and he returned her a smile, and then he immediately changed another topic.

They ate and drank, and because of the rare gathering, they drank a lot of wine.

Especially Evelyn Davis, she was already some drunk when they finished the meal, and she was staggering and fluttering. Joseph Kent was worried about her.

“Evelyn, I will drive you back home later.”

Evelyn Davis refused although she also had that intention before.

“No, I can go back by myself.”

Because she thought of the conflicts between her and Lucas Hawk this morning. If Joseph Kent sent her back home, it would really be impossible to explain the misunderstanding.

Joseph Kent was worried about her, and he wanted to say something more. Seeing his worries, Evelyn pulled over Amanda Murphy and said: “If you are worried about me, Amanda can also send me back home.”

Amanda Murphy was also a little drunk at this time. But when she was pulled by Evelyn Davis, she subconsciously nodded: “Well, I can also send Evelyn back home.”

Joseph Kent knew that Evelyn Davis was deliberate, so he couldn't say anything. He could only take a taxi for them and watched them leave.

Although Evelyn Davis was somewhat drunk, she had not lost her mind.

She couldn't let Amanda send her back home, otherwise her previous lie would be exposed.

So she first sent Amanda Murphy back home and then she went back to the beach villa alone.

When she got to the villa and entered the room, she found that Lucas Hawk did not come back.

She was somewhat lost, but she did not think much. She went to the bathroom to take a shower.

She was planning to wait for Lucas Hawk to come back. However, until midnight, Lucas didn't return.

She subconsciously picked up her mobile phone and wanted to contact Lucas Hawk, but she was afraid that he was angry with her.

In the end, she could only ask the butler about Lucas Hawk's itinerary.

"The young master is on a business trip these few days so he could not be back."

Evelyn was stunned when she heard this.

Lucas was on a business trip?

But he had not told her.

She thought of this and laughed at herself.

The only reason why he didn't tell her was that he didn't want to do it.

She waved the butler away, turned and stood at the door. she was looking at the empty room and felt disappointed and miserable.

Because of this, she lay in bed and couldn't sleep.

All her hard work at Lucas, she thought it all had turned negative.

But she didn't not know, everything was her imagination.

Lucas did leave because of an emergency.

.....

The next day, after a sleepless night, Evelyn got up early to wash her face and then went down to breakfast.

During the breakfast, she took out her phone and looked at the news online, only to find that the reports had been suppressed and replaced with other popular headlines.

She knew that Lucas had probably told someone to do it, so she took a look at it and put down her phone, but she was a bit tasteless.

She reluctantly finished her meal and returned to her room, she was remembering Aaron who had accompanied her that day.

She hadn't given him an account of what had happened, so she picked up her cell phone and called him.

After all, Aaron took her to a party that night to help her.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Miller, but I seem to have screwed up your kindness that night."

She didn't do it, but she still felt guilty.

"It's all right, and I'm sure you're not the kind of person to hit people. There must be a reason for all this."

On the phone, all Aaron said just made Evelyn feel moved.

It was the second person besides Joseph to believe her.

And they were just normal friends.

For a moment she was so confused that she did not know what to say.

"Mrs. Davis, are you still there?"

He asked, he didn't know why Evelyn's been quiet for so long,

"I am."

She took a deep breath and said, “thank you, Aaron.”

At this moment, she really treated Aaron as a friend instead of a predecessor on the career.

Aaron also aware of her attitude had changed, so he comforted her and then hang off the phone.

Evelyn’s heavy heart eased when the phone went off.

She braced herself for work.

Because she had been reduced to no longer the management of the company, so she did not need to go to the company, she only needed to draw design drawings at home.

Not long after she settled down to work, the phone next to her rang again.

She scanned it and answered the phone.

Listening to the cold sound of Ji Yi inside the call.

“Mrs. Davis, please come to the company immediately.”

Evelyn frowned and asked, “what’s the matter?”

Ji Yi didn’t say much, just told Evelyn to come to the company immediately and hung up the phone.

Evelyn frowned as she looked at the phone that had been hung up, but she packed up and headed for the office.

When she arrived at the company and entered the design department, she found that everyone in the design department looked serious.

Even when she appeared, everyone looked at her with a look that made them want to eat her.

Evelyn had guessed something was wrong.

But before she could guess what was the matter, Chloe’s sharp voice rang up.

“Nora Davis, how dare you come to the company? You really screwed us up.”

Along with these words, some people who dared not to say whispered with others.

“That’s true, because of her, our performance will be affected again this month.”

“Really, I think this woman is like a jinx. Anything that happens to her, even if it doesn’t end well, will end badly.”

“what you say is absolutely right when I hear you say that.”

“Ah, I also do not know how the company is going to deal with her this time, whether still cover up as before.”

“Who knows? Someone help her?”

Evelyn listened to these remarks with a black face, but she did not argue with them.

As for Chloe, she even did not look at her, she went straight to the director’s office.

“Director Ji.”

She knocked at the door to enter and greeted politely.

Ji Yi heard the voice and raised his head from his document with a serious face: “I think Mrs. Davis should know why I call you to come here.”

Evelyn was watching his face and thinking of what she had heard outside, she made a rough guess.

“I have guessed some, but not sure.”

She replied, and Ji Yi looked at her calmly.

“Because of Mrs. Davis’s wayward act, even the company has made the first response, the sales of the company is still affected by your personal reasons, including the brand we cooperated with RC, which is now under attack. If this continues, the company will have to fire you to appease the public anger this time.”

Evelyn was stunned when she heard this.

She had no idea that things had come to this.

But she never expected, Nora's random act had unexpectedly brought her so much trouble.

She looked at Ji Yi in a daze, she did not know how to react.

"How? What do you want to say?"

Ji Yi looked at her eyes, asked her coldly.

Evelyn shook her head. "no, I'll take any punishment for this."

After all, she now played the role of Nora and took the responsibility of Nora, anyway it was not the first time.

But the only thing that worried her is what will happen to her in the future if she lost her identity as a designer?

Ji Yi did not know what was passing in her mind, and a faint light came over his eyes when she answered.

"Listen to your words, you are also the sensible woman, I also just give you some message beforehand, the company's specific conclusion has not come down, so you stay at home these two days and wait for the company to make a decision, then make arrangements."

He announced, softening his tone.

Evelyn agreed.

"That's all right. I'm going."

Ji Yi nodded and watched her leave.

As the figure of Evelyn completely disappeared in the office, Ji Yi raised the corners of his mouth sarcastically.

"Nora looked at also not good."

As she spoke, her eyes sparkled with calculation.

And none of this Evelyn knew.

After leaving the office, she took a taxi back to her seaside villa without stopping at the company.

However, she met Sophia when she just arrived home.

And she was followed by a lot of people.

There are Laura who gloated at her, Envy who looked bad and a noble lady that she did not know.

However, it was not difficult to guess her identity from her face which was similar with Envy, it should be Envy's mother.

Evelyn's heart stopped when she saw this woman looking at her with anger.

Was this a battle to get even with her?

The Gorgeous Substitute Wife of Mr. President Chapter 237 - Tips

Thinking of this, Evelyn felt a twingle in her heart.

And in fact, it really was.

Envy had been a dearly beloved daughter ever since she was a baby, and she had not been beaten by anyone else. But yesterday she was just slapped in public, which had been known to all. How could her family members sit by idly and remain indifferent?

“Is this your daughter-in-law?”

Envy's mother came to Evelyn with Sophia. Before Sophia said something, she took the lead in launching an attack.

“I don't want to have such a daughter-in-law if I can.”

Sophia looked coldly at Evelyn and said with detestation.

Listening to their words, Evelyn opened her mouth to try to say something, but before she spoke, she was interrupted by Mrs. Miller.

“Miss Davis should have known my identity and the purpose of my coming today.”

She said, looking up and down at Evelyn, and said coldly, “You are very arrogant though you are still young. But who gave you the right to slap my daughter?”

Evelyn had already known that Mrs. Miller came here to get even with her, and this incident was due to her own disrespect, so she accepted all her reprimands, and at the same time put on a gesture of admitting her mistakes.

“I’m sorry. I had too much to drink that night, so I offended Miss Miller. I hope you could give me a opportunity to apologize and forgive me.”

She apologized in a low voice, but as soon as the words fell, the voice of Vivian’s sarcasm sounded.

“Well, everyone knows that you can hold your liquor. Drunk? Such a ridiculous excuse!”

When Evelyn heard that, she knew it was bad.

As expected, she saw the anger on Mrs. Miller’s face was even worse.

Of course, Mrs. Miller had never thought it could be over after Evelyn apologized.

But now there was a better reason for her to give vent to her pent-up feelings on some extraneous pretext.

“Oh, Miss Davis is so cultured, which really widened my vision. Even though you don’t care about your bad reputation in public and dare to contradict defiantly the elders, please stop incriminating Envy. Remember what I say now. If you don’t give us a satisfactory answer and see justice done for my daughter, our families’ friendship will be over today!”

Hearing this, Evelyn eyes showed shock in a sudden.

She didn’t expect it to rise to a relationship between the two families.

She looked at Mrs. Miller in dismay.

And Mrs. Miller had wanted to settle with Evelyn for a long time, but there had been no chance before. So it was impossible for her to stick up for Evelyn at present.

She glanced at Evelyn with cold eyes and said with a smile, "Mrs. Miller, this is due to the fact that us Hawk family didn't teach her well. So no matter how you want to deal with her, we have no objection."

This meant that Evelyn now was at Envy and her mother's disposal.

Mrs. Miller also understood what what she said meant, then she looked at Evelyn and said in a cold voice, "Miss Davis, I don't want to embarrass you. As long as you kneel down and apologize to us, this matter can be settled."

Evelyn heard the words and looked at Sophia in disbelief. Then she immediately looked at Envy behind Sophia.

Envy also looked at her.

Evelyn took back her sight difficultly. When she didn't know what to do, she heard the voice of Mrs. Miller again.

"Miss Davis, I hope you won't think we are bullying you on the strength of our powerful connections or position. You should know that Envy has always been regarded as treasure in my family. It's just a few days since she came to your family. It's even more shocking to the old man of our family. He's very angry. He thinks that you're a junior, and it is unnecessary for him to come, or it will be our old man who is standing in front of you now. Of course, the result won't be as easy as letting you kneel and apologize!"

After Evelyn heard these words, she knew that she maybe really had to kneel today.

If she didn't, she was to break the relationship between the two families. She didn't dare to be the offender.

For a time, she was filled with countless humiliations and grievances.

But no one could understand.

“I see.”

She responded with a pale face.

When Sophia and Mrs. Miller saw this, they waited for her to kneel.

However, at this time, the voice of Lucas came behind the crowd.

“What are you doing?”

Lucas was standing at the door with his coat and suitcase in his hands.

When they saw him, they were all surprised.

“Lucas, when did you come back?”

Sophia was the first one to return to her mind and asked.

Envy's eyes twinkled and she smiled to greet him.

Only Mrs. Miller and Evelyn didn't speak, with different looks.

Lucas looked at the faces of all the people and asked again, “Mom, what are you going to do by calling so many people come here?”

Seeing this, Sophia had to say their intention again, and didn't hide the fact that the Mrs. Miller asked Evelyn to kneel down and apologize.

After listening, Lucas glanced at Evelyn and said in a deep voice, “Mrs. Miller, I am sorry that Nora beat Envy. It's really her fault, so she really should apologize.”

When Mrs. Miller heard this, her nerve was relieved.

Meanwhile, Sophia and Vivian were relieved as well.

They had been worried that Lucas would protect Evelyn again.

Contrary to their relaxation, Evelyn's heart became depressed slightly.

It seemed that even Lucas didn't want to protect her this time.

“You are more sensible.”Mrs.Miller said to Lucas with implication when she saw Evelyn still didn’t kneel down.

To their surprise,hardly had Mrs.Miller finished speaking when Lucas suddenly changed his attitude and said rigorously,”In this case,I will kneel with her.After all,we are a couple.Since she has made a mistake,as her husband,I should also make amends together.”

When he said so,everyone was dumbfounded.

Evelyn was also stunned.

This scene was pretty similar to what had happened last time.

At that time,Sophia asked her to go to the ancestral hall and punished her to kneel.And he also said similar words.

Evelyn didn’t know how to describe her mood at this time.

Such a proud and honorable person,for this matter and for her,just was willing to kneel down and apologize.

She could hardly believe that such a scene happened in reality.

The one who shared the same mood with Evelyn was Sophia.

She calmed down and got frightened and angry by seeing this.

“Lucas,are you crazy?This is none of your business,OK?It was Nora’s fault!”

“Are you confused?Or are you fascinated by this tease?”

Listening to the two people’s reprimand,Mrs.Miller also regained consciousness,her eyes full of disbelief.

“Lucas,why are you even willing to kneel down with her?Is she worth your doing so?”

Facing their questions,Lucas just glanced at Evelyn and said in a cold voice,”she is now one of our family members!”

What he said was that the whole Hawk Family had to take responsibility for what she had done wrong.

As soon as the words came out, everyone was silent and their faces became very gloomy.

The atmosphere even froze for a moment.

Seeing this, Evelyn was deeply moved by Lucas's protection, but she didn't want him to lose his dignity for this.

"Lucas, you don't need to kneel. I'll kneel alone. This is my fault. I have to pay the price!"

After saying so, Evelyn turned her head to Envy and looked at her.

"Miss Miller, I apologize for my offence that day. I am really sorry."

Then she appeared to kneel down...

Just as Evelyn was about to kneel down, Envy glanced at her and her eyes flashed, and suddenly stepped forward and stopped her.

Evelyn looked up surprisedly.

She saw Envy curved lips and said: "Forget it, Miss Davis, you don't have to worry about it. Just forget it."

No one thought that Envy would have this move, and everyone was stunned.

Mrs. Miller first reacted what happened, and looked at her daughter inexplicably: "Envy, you..."

Before she finished speaking, Envy already understood the meaning of her mother and explained: "Mom, Lucas has already said this. If I don't regress, then I will be excessive."

When the words fell, she paused and looked at Lucas. She said: "This time, because of you, I can let her go."

Mrs. Miller heard this and she was not willing.

“Envy, you don’t have to...”

She wanted to say something, but she had not finished talking, she was interrupted by Envy.

“Mom, if you really let Nora kneel down, I will be embarrassed to see Lucas in the future. Anyway, she is the wife of Lucas.”

After she finished, she looked deeply at her mother.

Mrs. Miller read the meaning of her eyes, and finally she did not say anything.

And her clever and sensible appearance also made Mrs. Hawk very satisfies, but also relieved.

She was really worried that if Envy insisted, and even herself and Lucas also needed to apologize because of the bltch.

If so, they would be disgrace.

She thought of this and couldn’t help but praise: “Mrs. Miller, you still have a good teaching, if everyone is as good as Envy, how good it is.”

She said, looking at Evelyn, her eyes were chilly.

Mrs. Miller can’t be denied: “Person still need to pay attention to the personality, our Envy is born with a good temper.”

“Yes, she is the most well-behaved girl I have ever seen.”

Sophia agreed.

Vivian listened to the conversation of the two, and can’t help but roll her eyes, and kept staring at Evelyn.

She had thought that she could see a good show, but she did not expect it to end.

She thought and looked at Evelyn with disdain.

She thought she had any superb means, but now it seemed that she’s no different.

Envy seemed to have noticed the eyes of Vivian, and her eyes passed a glimmer of light, pretending that she did not see her sight, then she looked at Lucas.

Lucas saw her and cast a grateful look to her.

“This time, you helped me, and I will be personally apologize to you in the next day.”

He said in a deep voice, but he did not know this was what Envy wanted.

“Okay, then I will wait for you.”

There were some smiles in the eyes of Envy.

In this way, a farce, because the return of Lucas ended early.

Although Sophia was dissatisfied with the fact that this matter picked up and gently put it down, the Miller family had given their attitude, she was only afraid of made Lucas dissatisfied if she kept stirring the bigger influence.

In the end, she was not willing to leave with Vivian.

As they left, Envy and her mother also left.

Waiting to let away everyone, Evelyn stood beside Lucas and said: “Sorry, I caused the trouble for you.”

When Lucas heard this, he glanced at her and immediately nodded. Then he said nothing and went straight upstairs.

There was still some fatigue between his eyebrows, and there was no meaning to say a word with Evelyn.

Evelyn looked at the back of his departure, her eyes full of complexity and uncomfortable. Should he be disappointed with herself?

She thought so and could not help but laugh at herself.

It seemed that she was really true that everything she had done in the past was now in vain.

Lucas didn't know the thoughts of Evelyn. After he took the shower, he lay down on the bed and rested.

He had been running around for two days, and he had not had a good rest. When he came back and experienced such a thing, he was exhausted.

So he slept very deeply.

When he woke up again, it was already three o'clock in the afternoon.

He remembered something, and quickly got up and changed clothes, he was going to go out.

He didn't expect that when he went to the corridor, he seemed to hear the quarrel from the studying room.

He was a little surprised.

Because this voice was the voice of Evelyn.

In fact, it was true that Evelyn was arguing with John.

"What is your attitude? I tell you, you have to do this!"

John yelled on the phone.

It turned out that Davis family recently prepared to mark a piece of land in the eastern suburbs, and planned to build a science and technology park. If this was completed, the future development will be very great, but now they were in short supply of funds and needed a lot of money.

John thought of Lucas at this time, and sent people to negotiate with him, but he failed.

He called Evelyn here for the sake of this matter.

Evelyn listened to his commanding tone, and could not help but scream: "John Davis, why are you so confident? Why do you believe that after your good daughter has caused such a big disaster, Hawk family can still invest in you willingly. Are you still daydreaming?"

She said, and thought of that matter that happened in the morning, the heart also raised a resentment.

“Nora is free, but does she know that I was almost killed because of her!”

She accused Nora and that made John angry.

“Do you think that is Nora’s fault? Because you are not too useful, otherwise no one dares to infringe Lucas, you should know that their infringement of Lucas is an infringement of the rights that belong to Nora.”

Evelyn bit her lips and listened to his nonsense. She felt that she really respected this father and daughter’s shamelessness.

John saw her silence and snorted: “What Nora did this time is to solve the trouble for you, you should thank her!”

When Evelyn heard his words, she directly laughed.

“Yes, I should thank her, because of her, I have suffered so much in the Hawk family, and I was forced to kneel down to apologize, I really should thank her!”

John heard her resentful words, he frowned.

“Did you forget that this is our original transaction!”

He said, coldly reminded Evelyn: “Don’t forget, I will give you money, treat your mother, these are all you should do, you have to do a lot in the future!”

After listening to his cheeky words, Evelyn was so angry that she couldn’t refute him.

Because this was the fact.

From the beginning of her promise to John’s transaction, everything can’t be chosen by her.

She clenched her fists, and the pain that came from her nails into the flesh made her not violent and made something regretful.

Otherwise she really wanted to say no.

But she can’t.

John seemed to have noticed her compromise. He said coldly: "I just told you about it, remember to do it for me. I am waiting for your good news."

He said, and remembered the things that he had been tricked by her a few times before. He once again warned: "I don't want to hear anything that can't be done, don't forget your mother!"

Evelyn was furious when he threatened her with her mother again.

"John Davis, don't go too far!"

She gritted her teeth and roared, but John ignored her and hung up.

When Lucas came to the door, he was secretly surprised to hear the angry words.

After all, it was said that John doted on his daughter. He was considerate to her and protected her well. But Nora even called his full name.

And her tone was very angry. Why?

For a while, he had a lot of doubts in his mind and he had noticed these abnormalities before. At the time, they overlapped, making he frown.

Especially when he thought of Evelyn's abnormality these two days, he felt that he could not understand this woman completely for the first time.

He thought of this and looked at the room in front of him with complicated eyes.

In the room, Evelyn didn't know Lucas was outside.

She was holding the phone, and her chest was fluctuating. She was really angry.

She could not ignore John's warning, but it was unrealistic for her to bring up this condition to Lucas.

In a moment, she was anxious to the extreme. She leaned against the back of the chair and didn't know what to do.

After waiting for a long time, Lucas saw that there was no movement in the room, and he left with doubts.

Anyway, he had something to deal with.

He drove to the company, Cater saw him and immediately reported.

"President, Mr. Collins is waiting for you in the office."

Lucas nodded and strode into the office.

In the office, Jacob was sitting on the sofa casually and reading magazines.

"Here you are."

When Jacob saw him, he put down his magazine and said, "Do you want to check now or a moment later?"

Because he would go abroad in a few days and would not come back in a short time, he planned to check Lucas before leaving.

"Now."

Lucas took off his coat and sat opposite Jacob.

Jacob nodded, took out the instrument from the medical box beside him and began to check.

Less than an hour later, the results of the examination came out, and Jacob looked a little surprised.

Lucas saw it and asked, "What's wrong?"

Jacob heard him and passed him the data.

"Read it yourself."

Lucas took over with doubts and saw that the data above was better than before.

“I begin to heal slowly?”

He looked at Jacob in amazement.

Jacob frowned: “From the data, you do. Did you sicken recently?”

Lucas shook his head: “Except for the day when I came back home, it never appeared again.”

After listening to him, Jacob nodded thoughtfully and asked two more questions.

“Do you take any medicine everyday? How is your mood?”

Lucas didn't hide it, and answered truthfully: “I only take some sedative drugs in daily life, and my mood is calm. Anyway, the symptoms of anxiety have reduced a lot recently.”

As he said it, Jacob was surprised.

He has always been the attending doctor of Lucas and knew his situation very well.

If he was afraid of the dark, he has a way to solve it. As for the symptoms of anxiety, no matter what he did, he couldn't let Lucas get remission, even drugs.

But just now he said he was in remission.

“My God, these things you said never appeared in these years.”

He couldn't help exclaiming and asked, “Have you ever thought about what made you change?”

When Lucas heard this, Evelyn's smile came into his mind spontaneously.

“I think it has something with Nora.”

He said with dark eyes.

“I seem to have heard that more than once,” Jacob picked up his eyebrow.

He thought of asking Lucas about his illness when he returned home, and he said the same thing.

Lucas didn't deny it. He looked up at him and said in a cold voice, "I'm just telling you the truth. You always know my situation. It hasn't changed since then, and the only exception is her."

Jacob nodded, thinking of Evelyn he saw, rubbing his chin with interest.

"Lucas, your wife is very interesting."

He said, as if thinking of something funny, he chuckled: "Last time I saw her, she is obviously lovable and clever, but the external rumors are that she is a terrible woman. And this time, I feel she is like another person."

Lucas frowned at his words.

Originally, he had doubts in his mind. At this time, someone finally felt the same as he did, which made him want to analyze with him.

"You've also seen it this time. I was surprised. What would make a person's character change so much. But Nora's lovable and clever look is not fake."

He weighed his words and said what he felt.

When Jacob heard this, his eyes were full of amazement.

"Have you ever sounded her out? How can you be sure she's not faking it? And what's her posture when she hit people this time?"

Hearing this, Lucas nodded calmly: "I've sounded her out many times before, and her lovable and clever appearance is real. But she beat people this time, she was like changing into another person. The arrogance that came out of her bones was also true, she was just like two different persons."

After listening, Jacob couldn't help but raise his eyebrows, and his eyes were full of surprise.

"As you put it, your wife sounds like having dissociative identity disorder."

Lucas didn't respond for a while.

"It's multiple personalities," Jacob said again.

When Lucas heard this, he couldn't help but froze.

"Multiple personalities?"

He frowned and pressed his lips, murmured. "At first, I thought it was possible, but according to my knowledge, there is no such situation in multiple personalities, and whether it is the information I have investigated or the rumors of the outside world, neither of them match the symptoms of multiple personalities."

After hearing what he said, Jacob suddenly felt a little unbelievable.

"Neither of them, it's strange."

He became interested, frowned and began to think, "When did you find this problem?"

Hearing this, Lucas began to recall: "It should be after I returned to China. After all, my previous understanding of her only came from the rumors and family members, but when I returned to China, I found that she is different from the rumored Nora."

He said this, pausing: "Of course I thought she was pretending, but it's impossible for a person to pretend and act for such a long time. She didn't give herself away so far. I feel it's very strange, and I can't figure it out."

After listening, Jacob nodded in agreement.

It was true that no matter how skillful a person was in pretending, his true nature cannot be changed.

He thought about it and had an idea in mind.

"Well, before I go abroad, you ask her out to have dinner with me again. Then I'll find an opportunity and test her again."

When Lucas heard this, he agreed without thinking. After all, Jacob's was capable.

The two made an appointment for dinner. Jacob left first because of something.

Lucas looked at his leaving back with an unpredictable look.

He could only hope that they could find out something in tomorrow's dinner.

He thought in silence, bowed his head and began to work.

When he got off work at night, he went back to the seaside villa.

Evelyn was drawing a design draft in the room. Seeing he coming in with expressionless face, she couldn't help but feel nervous. She didn't know if he was still angry at this time.

"You are back."

She thought about it, and raised a smile to greet him.

Lucas looked at the corner of her mouth, which was lifted by her reluctantly. His eyes flashed and he nodded and 'Uh' softly.

As soon as he finished speaking, he took off his coat and went to the dressing room.

Evelyn looked at his back and bit her lower lip. Obviously, the man was still angry and didn't want to talk to her.

She turned around, stared at the drawing board and could not put her pen to the paper for a long time.

She didn't know how long it took. Lucas came out with a suit of leisure wear.

He looked at Evelyn's back on the windowsill and frowned. "By the way, Jacob will leave in a few days. We will have a farewell dinner with him tomorrow."

Evelyn was stunned and looked back.

She saw that Lucas does not look at her, but tidying himself, as if he has just said something casually.

But even so, she couldn't help but be surprised. After all, after something like that happened, he even wanted to take her to have dinner with his friend.

In a moment, her grievance was comforted a lot.

"I see."

She responded with a faint smile.

Seeing she was unhappy just now, and had a good mood at the moment, he was a little surprised, but he didn't say anything.

...

At noon the next day, she dressed up specially because she was going with Lucas to have dinner with his friend.

A lavender corset dress made her look very petite and lovely.

The elegant and delicate makeup made her look very energetic.

Her dark and bright black hair was half tied behind her head. Only a few wisps of hair hanged on both sides of her cheek.

Lucas still worn the same black handmade suit. When they stood together, they looked inexplicably harmonious.

"Come on."

Evelyn approached Lucas and said.

Lucas hid the astonishment in his eyes and nodded to get in the car.

After that, they came to the appointed restaurant. Jacob was already waiting in the box.

"Lucas, Mrs Hawk, we met again."

He smiled and greeted, his expression was as kind as ever.

Evelyn replied with a smile, "Mr. Collins."

When the three were seated, Lucas and Jacob started talking about business.

Evelyn listened in silence and looked after Lucas from time to time.

As they said, Jacob looked at Evelyn and said with a smile, "Mrs Hawk, I heard that you worked in Lucas's company before. Were you the financial director? I remember you majored in economics."

When Evelyn heard this, she was stunned, and then reacted.

"Yes, I majored in economics, but I was not finance director. I was in design department."

Evelyn's simple answer surprised Jacob.

"Design Department? Did Mrs Hawk learn design? "

Evelyn, looking at his surprise look, didn't think much about it. She repeated what she explained to Lucas again.

After listening, Jacob seemed to believe her, and naturally asked about Evelyn's daily life and work.

Evelyn didn't find out his questions were from elementary to profound. She answered all kinds of questions naturally and even thought that Lucas's friend was a good man and worthy of making friends with.

"Excuse me, I'll go to the bathroom."

During the dinner, Evelyn got up and left because of the nature's call.

As she left, Jacob lifted the glass beside his hand and took a sip.

"Well? Any discoveries?"

Lucas couldn't help asking.

Jacob looked at him, put down his glass, and said seriously, "Judging from the conversation with professional medical theory just now, your wife is normal in all aspects."

Lucas frowned, "So what do you mean?"

Jacob nodded: "She doesn't have multiple personalities, at least in the conversation just now, there are not any signs or appearances."

Speaking of this, he seemed to think of something else, and he slightly frowned.

"But there seems to be a place in her heart that no one else can touch, which makes her..."

It seemed that he could not find words to describe it, so he paused for two seconds before continuing: "Anxious, yes, it should be anxiety and fear."

After hearing what he said, Lucas was shocked and frowned tightly.

As far as he knew, Nora was afraid of nothing. Before he returned to China, she had no respect for anyone.

Of course, this knowledge was completely subverted after he returned to China. All the rumors about her disappeared.

"Are you sure she has panic in her heart?"

Anyway, Lucas didn't believe this conclusion.

Jacob knew it, and said, "Sure. Don't you believe me?"

If he didn't believe Jacob, there would be no doctor in the world that he can believe.

"Do you know what her fear is?"

Jacob shook his head and frowned, "I can't find it out for a while."

He said, looking at Lucas's handsome side face. Brightness flashed through his eyes, as if he had an idea.

“Although I can’t find it out, you can observe her more on ordinary days, and then tell me often more about her. Maybe I can make a further observation.”

As soon as he finished, Evelyn came back. Lucas could only swallow the words he just wanted to say and silently nodded to Jacob.

Later, they shifted the topic and talked about the current economy.

It didn’t take long for the three to finish their meal. Jacob left first because he had something else to do.

After saying goodbye to Jacob, Lucas asked Evelyn, “Where are you going?”

Evelyn glanced at the crowded road and didn’t know how to answer.

It seemed that she had no place to go except the villa.

Just as she was going to say she wants to go back, Lucas’s voice was heard again, “Do you want to go to the head office?”

When Evelyn heard this, she looked at Lucas in surprise and her eyes were puzzled.

Lucas knew her doubts, he narrowed his eyes and said, “Anyway, you can’t go to AZRY now. You have nothing to do after you go home. You can work there with me for a while. Of course, if you don’t want to, it’s OK.”

Evelyn pressed her lips and didn’t know how to answer.

Lucas didn’t know the tangle in her heart. Seeing she was silent for a long time, he raised his eyebrows.

“Well, you give up because of one setback?”

Evelyn knew that he was talking about she beat someone before.

“I love designing. I won’t give up.”

She looked firmly at Lucas.

Lucas was stunned by her firm look. After a long time, he came back to himself and said, “Great, then come with me.”
