They arrived at the communications company soon.

After reporting his identity, Clyde Lowell was led upstairs by receptionist.

After a while, they arrived the office of the principal.

“Mr. Wang. Mr. Lowell and Miss Davis have arrived.”

The assistant respectfully reported.

Evelyn Davis and Clyde Lowell could not help looking at each other. They did not expect that the person in charge who refused to sign the contract was Mr. Wang, who was rejected last night. All of a sudden, they understood the reasons for the changes in these projects.

Evelyn Davis could not help frowning.

But without waiting for her to discuss with Clyde Lowell silently, Mr. Wang already stood up there and greeted them with a smile.

“Mr. Lowell, Miss Davis, welcome, what’s up ?”

He pretended not to know why they were coming and motioned them to sit down.

Evelyn Davis could only put down her thoughts and follow Clyde Lowell to sit opposite Mr. Wang.

“Mr. Wang, we’re here to ask about the cooperation we agreed yesterday. How can we suddenly stop it? What do you have for your company?” Clyde Lowell knew his mind but did not intend to go about it.

Mr. Wang heard that and only to pretend to clap his forehead.

“it turns out for this, so it’s easy to say.”

He looked unkindly at Evelyn Davis as he said, “Miss Davis, you are for this, too?”

Evelyn Davis answered,

“Yes, we had a deal yesterday that we signed the contract today, Why it changed temporarily?”

She pretended unknown to ask.

The smile on Mr. Wang’s face was deeper.

“ It’s nothing. It’s just that the price of your company is too high, it’s out of the budget, and I’d like to discuss it with you. “

Hearing this, Evelyn Davis and Clyde Lowell could not help but look at each other.

Just as Clyde Lowell was ready to say something, Mr. Wang said again.

“what’s more, we found something wrong in the sample of the contract you sent earlier, so it was changed temporarily.”

Clyde Lowell asked, “I see. I don’t know what makes your company feel wrong. We can fix it right now. “

He modestly looked at Mr. Wang, waiting for him to point it out.

Mr. Wang smiled and said, “There is no problem with Lowell Group but Miss Davis.”

Hearing that, Evelyn Davis was very unpleasant, but it was not time to break up with him, so both of them had to bear the unhappiness in their heart.

“Mr. Wang, I don’t know what’s wrong with our contract, If you say so, how about I modify it at my discretion? “

Evelyn Davis took a deep breath and looked at Mr. Wang in a light smile.

Hearing this, his eyes skimmed past a touch of calculation.

“Of course, I’d love to talk about this with Miss Davis, but you sit so far from me, come on, why don’t you sit my side and we talk about it together?”

He said and patted the sofa next to him.

His words made Clyde Lowell a little angry.

Just as he could not bear it and was going to leave, Evelyn Davis grabbed his wrist and shook her head silently to him.

She didn't think Mr. Wang dared to tamper with her in the office, and the three companies's combination was also the best solution for him, otherwise Mr. Wang would never have found a company that outpaced the two of them.

As a result, she concluded that Mr. Wang only dared to be brave in words.

As long as wait for the contract to be signed, it was not too late to "clean up" the old bastard.

Clyde Lowell also understood the idea of Evelyn Davis, "Mr. Wang, I'll be right there. Tell me about our contract. "

Evelyn Davis went over but not sat down on the sofa next to Mr. Wang, she sat down on the single sofa on his left hand.

Seeing that, there was twinkling of dissatisfaction in Wang's eyes, "this position is too far away, Miss Davis still remembers what happened last night and is on guard against me?"

Evelyn Davis smiled and said, "How come? I got cold last night and I am afraid of transmission to Mr. Wang."

She made excuses for perfunctory.

Even if Mr. Wang knew it, he could not refute it but could only secretly cursed Evelyn Davis in heart.

He pretended to take out the papers and talked to Evelyn Davis about the above problems.

In fact, they were all small problems and would not affect cooperation at all.

Looking at it, Evelyn Davis squinted her eyes without leaving a trace.

"it's not a big problem. I can make a change, Mr. Wang. Let me use your computer."

She began to reorganize the documents as she said.

After a while, the new document was ready and she handed it back to Mr. Wang.

“Mr. Wang, please have a look, is it okay?”

Mr. Wang saw the papers handed in front of him and the long, white fingers.

“Ok, I will have a look now.”

He stretched out his hand and touched her hand.

Evelyn Davis was disgusted and immediately withdrew her hand.

Mr. Wang did not care, just enjoyed the soft feeling he touched just now as well as checking the document.

“Ok, nothing wrong now.”

He looked at Evelyn Davis with twinkling light in his eyes, “but I still can’t sign this contract.”

Evelyn Davis asked, “Why?”

Mr. Wang did not seem to see the anger gathered in her eyes, and motioned Evelyn Davis close with his fingers.

Evelyn Davis looked at him and bent down slightly.

Just heard he said, “if Miss Davis is willing to wait for me at the hotel tonight, I would be very happy to sign this contract.”

After that, he tried to reach out and touch Evelyn Davis, only to anger her.

“Bastard!”

Evelyn Davis clapped his hand and kicked him on below body.

“ Ah.....”

For a moment, there was a bitter cry from Mr. Wang in the office.

Evelyn Davis just turned out, “Mr. Lowell, I can’t talk about this cooperation anymore.”

Clyde Lowell looked at her for a long time before he could buffer back from the picture just now.

“Oh, it’s ok.”

He responded dumbfound, Evelyn Davis also did not say much and intended to leave.

But the assistant rushed in.

“Stop this b!tch, I’m going to sue her for assaulting and hitting people! “

Mr. Wang’s voice rang from the back, at this time, he had climbed to his desk, the inside-line telephone had not been put back.

It was clear that he had called in.

“Sorry, Miss Davis, you can’t go now!”

The assistant was ordered to stop Evelyn Davis.

Clyde Lowell didn’t expect it to happen to this point.

He frowned and swept Mr. Wang and spoke to the assistant, “There’s nothing to do with this lady, let her go, I’ll stay.”

He knew that the cooperation had come to an end, and of course he did not complain about Evelyn Davis, and even apologized to her.

Had he not introduced the business, Nora Davis would not have been humiliated.

Evelyn also recognized that Clyde didn’t blame her in his words, so she was grateful.

At this time, Mr. Wang's angry voice sounded behind them.

"No one will leave. Bitch. How dare you beat me? I must call the police and put you into the jail!"

He was bending in front of his desk, and his face was ferocious.

"If I don't whack you, b!tch, I won't be Wang."

He was angrily scolded, also mentioned the cooperation of the three companies.

"Mr. Lowell, don't blame me for not respecting you. If you really want to promote this cooperation, don't interfere in this matter."

He tried to prevent Clyde from helping Evelyn by using cooperation to threaten him.

Clyde's face sank directly.

Evelyn didn't look much better.

She knew that if it could not be handled properly, even the cooperation of Lowell Group would be affected.

If so, it made her feel a little embarrassed.

After all, Clyde was kind to introduce the cooperation to her. Although it wasn't because of her, it happened to her, which made her feel that she was in debt.

And if it really got to the police station, it would be really troublesome.

Let alone the Hawk family, she was afraid there would be a lot of gossip in the company at that time.

When Clyde was about to say something, Evelyn spoke first.

"OK, since Mr. Wang said that the cooperation is invalid, I don't have scruples now. I'll settle the accounts with you!"

Mr. Wang didn't expect Evelyn to have the courage to settle accounts with himself, so he said contemptuously, "What do you got to settle accounts with me?"

Evelyn sneered, was he bullying her for she had no back-up?

Clyde also recognized it. He didn't know whether to laugh or scold Mr. Wang for being stupid.

"Mr. Wang, for the sake of cooperation in the past, I kindly remind you that this time, what you did was wrong. If you stop now, there's still room for things to change. If you have to turn it into a big scene, don't blame me for not reminding you."

She threatened with cold voice, which made Mr. Wang hesitate.

But soon his hesitation disappeared when he saw Evelyn's cold face.

If this woman really had any powerful back-up, she would not come here to meet them.

For a woman like this, he had to teach her a good lesson and made her kneel in bed to beg for mercy.

"Thanks for Mr. Lowell's warning, but it's not only a violation of my personal safety, I have to deal with it strictly."

He had a dirty plan in his heart, but he didn't show it on his face, warning Clyde: "Or Mr. Lowell wants to rescue the beauty? Don't blame me for not reminding you that if you interfere, all cooperation between our two countries will be terminated in the future."

Clyde looked at the arrogance revled in his eyes, and his face was cold.

He glanced at Evelyn, who has already taken out her mobile phone to make a phone call, and his lips were slightly curved. "Mr. Wang over thinks. It's not my turn to rescue the beauty, I just hope Mr. Wang doesn't regret it later."

When Mr. Wang heard this, he felt uneasy for some reason and looked at Evelyn involuntarily.

He saw Evelyn holding her cell phone, but he didn't know who she was talking to.

Actually, the only person Evelyn could look for help was Lucas.

"I've got some trouble here. I may need you to deal with it. Can you come here?"

Hearing this, Lucas frowned subconsciously, but agreed.

"Where are you? I'll come right now."

Evelyn said the address and hung up.

She put away her mobile phone and raised her eyes. "Mr. Wang, since you are going to pursue the matter, I have arranged a person to deal with it. You can bring someone here, too. Then we can solve the matter at a time."

Mr. Wang was stunned by her cold and arrogant look, and immediately felt provoked.

Just as he was about to say some tough words, the internal telephone on the desk rang.

"Good afternoon, chairman," He said with a slightly flattering smile as he glanced at his notes.

They didn't know what the chairman said on the phone, and they only saw him look shocked: "Yes, I'll arrange it now and make sure that our VIP is satisfied."

With that, he hung up.

"Xiao Chen, watch this woman carefully. I'll deal with her after I come back."

After he finished, he looked at Clyde again and said, "Mr. Lowell, we have a VIP visiting our company temporarily. Please forgive me for not taking good care of you."

Clyde looked at his excited look, and the mockery in his eyes became more and more.

Although he didn't say who the VIP was clearly, he has already guessed who the person was.

“It doesn’t matter.”

Mr. Wang saw that he had no intention to leave and didn’t care about so much. He quickly tidied his image and went downstairs to meet the distinguished guest with the chairman.

When he left, Clyde and Evelyn looked at each other and they understood everything without saying anything.

Meanwhile, downstairs.

Lucas’ exclusive car slowly stopped at the door of the Tongxun company.

The chairman of the Tongxun company saw he come and greeted him personally.

“Mr. Hawk graces our company with your presence.”

The chairman was a very temperament middle-aged man. The glorious years left heavy traces on him, but his elegant appearance still existed.

He said polite words, and Lucas ignored him.

“Mr. Shen, you’re over-polite. I’m here for two things.”

Hearing this, Mr. Shen raised his eyebrows slightly and said with a smile, “Oh? What are the two things?”

“One of them is about the cooperation between our two companies. I heard that your company is not satisfied with the price we offered.”

Lucas said as he walked along, “Second, my wife seems to have offended someone in your company. I came by to see what’s going on.”

As he said this, Mr. Wang, who was not far away from the two, was shocked for some reason. He thought of Evelyn who was detained in his office.

However, at this time, Lucas mentioned his job title.

“By the way, my wife is still in the general manager’s office. Mr. Shen, let’s go to the general manager’s office directly.”

Suddenly, Mr. Wang’s face turned pale.

Naturally, Mr. Shen didn't know. He took Lucas to the general manager's office.

After a while, everyone arrived there.

Evelyn saw the handsome man walking in front of the crowd, and her heart throbbed.

"Lucas."

She stood up to greet Lucas, holding back the emotion in her heart.

Mr. Shen was a smart man. Hearing this and Lucas's previous explanation downstairs, he immediately said with a flattering smile, "It turns out that this is Mrs. Hawk. Mrs. Hawk is lucky."

He said flatteringly, without noticing Mr. Wang's face to turn pale behind him immediately. His eyes were full of panic.

"What's going on?"

Lucas didn't respond to Mr. Shen, but looked at Evelyn and asked.

When Evelyn heard the words, her eyes crossed him and fell on Mr. Wang, who looked scared.

"This man wanted to sexually harass me. I was scared and made a self-defense. He said that he would let the police arrest me and destroy the cooperation between our two companies."

When Lucas heard the first half of the sentence, his face turned gloomy.

The air around his whole body was cold.

Mr. Wang was so scared that he could hold on to the people around him to stand steadily.

"Mr. Hawk, this is a misunderstanding. I didn't know Miss Davis is your wife"

Mr. Shen was also nervous suddenly because of Evelyn Davis' words.

"You jerk. How dare you offend Mrs. Hawk?"

He slapped on the Mr. Wang's face, angrily proclaiming: "From now on, you will no longer be a member of our company. Immediately get out now!"

Mr. Wang didn't dare to retort, ran away with his face covered.

As soon as he left, Mr. Shen smirked and said, "Mr. Hawk, I don't know about this. Since Mrs. Hawk has been wronged by us, as compensation, and it is also my personal appreciation. For this cooperation, I will give you 50 percent. What do you think of it?"

Lucas Hawk didn't speak, looking at Evelyn Davis.

Seeing the situation, Mr. Shen also looked at Evelyn Davis.

Evelyn Davis was a little embarrassed because of their gazes.

"Okay."

Anyway, Mr. Wang had already got punished, and Mr. Shen cut down his profit. In fact, they got the benefits.

Of course, this was also the spiritual compensation she deserved.

Because of the plan of Evelyn Davis, they talked about the following cooperation very smoothly.

After a while, the contracts were signed.

Evelyn Davis said goodbye to Clyde Lowell and left with Lucas Hawk.

On the way back, Evelyn Davis looked at Lucas Hawk beside her who was working on the documents. She was a little embarrassed.

"Sorry, you're so busy, but I got you in trouble."

When Lucas Hawk heard these words, he stopped his movements.

He didn't seem to expect Evelyn Davis would say such words. He turned his head surprisedly. He saw Evelyn Davis' uneasy gazes and couldn't help laughing.

"Did you know? You haven't done anything wrong, and even made a great contribution."

Evelyn Davis knew what he was saying, but if it was such a great contribution, she would rather not.

Especially she troubled him to pick up the pieces for her.

Lucas Hawk looked at her silently, and he saw through her thoughts at a glance.

"You don't have to think much about it. You are right to do this. I am your husband. If I don't do anything for you at this time, I won't have qualification to be your husband."

After Evelyn Davis heard him say this, her heart trembled, as if something had collapsed, and a heat current burst in her heart making her whole body warm up. Her expression could not help but relax and became brighter.

Lucas Hawk noticed her changes especially the smile that couldn't be hidden on her face. He smiled happily too.

However, at this moment, Evelyn Davis' stomach was growling.

The sound of 'Guru' was very clear in the small car, making Evelyn Davis anxious and embarrassment. She was so shy that she wanted to dig a hole to bury herself.

"Haven't you eaten again?"

Compared to Evelyn Davis' embarrassment, Lucas Hawk was to be more serious.

Because he thought of Evelyn Davis' stomachache.

Lunch time had been past. Was this woman abusing herself like this when he wasn't with her?

Evelyn Davis also noticed his dissatisfaction, knowing that he was worried about her. She was moved but a little embarrassment, and said, "Yeah. I'll eat after I come back."

After Lucas Hawk heard, he guessed that it should be the contract that delayed her meal time.

"Take care of yourself, or the hospital will soon become your home."

After he said, he ignored Evelyn Davis surprised expression and instructed the driver to go to the nearest Chinese restaurant.

Evelyn Davis looked at him for a long time before she knew what he just said.

She did not expect Lucas Hawk who had always been like a serious gentleman would make such a joke.

But the concern in his tone warmed her heart again. She felt sweet as if her heart was stuffed with marshmallows.

After a while, they arrived at a Chinese restaurant. Lucas Hawk accompanied Evelyn Davos for a meal.

Mo Li stood not far from them and watched them jealously.

She watched the noble gentleman take the initiative to take care of that lowly woman!

Nora Davis, how was she worth it!

She clenched her fists. She was extremely jealous.

Even though she was so angry, she was not qualified to say anything.

Evelyn Davis soon was full under Lucas Hawk's care.

"I am so full."

Evelyn Davis lazily leaned on the back of the chair and sighed.

Lucas Hawk saw her, and his eyes were covered with pampering he hadn't even found.

“Drink a cup of tea. It will digest in a while.”

He said, and he handed a tea cup to Evelyn Davis, and then asked, “Where are you going in the afternoon?”

“Well, go back to the company. The contract is signed and it’s time to report to the general manager.”

Evelyn Davis sipped the tea and responded.

“Then I’ll drive you over.”

Lucas Hawk nodded. He stood up and left with Evelyn Davis.

Then he sent Evelyn Davis to a crossing, and watched Evelyn Davis enter the company before taking back his sight.

Mo Li watched Evelyn Davis leave, and then came over from behind.

“Mr.....”

Before she wanted to continue, she was frightened by Lucas Hawk’s cold eyes.

“Mo Li, if you don’t want to protect Mrs. Hawk, then you can go back to Mo Zhui. I will let Mo Zhui send someone else to protect her.”

Lucas Hawk calmly said, but his voice was a little angry.

After that, he didn’t care what Mo Li was thinking about. He directly instructed the driver to drive away.

Mo Li stood still, watching the car go further and further, and finally disappeared into sight. She was extremely gloomy.

Mr. Hawk even expelled her for such a woman!

Why?

She was the person who accompanied Mr. Hawk for the longest time.

Why couldn’t Mr. Hawk notice her?

She hated Evelyn Davis!

Evelyn Davis didn't know that Mo Li hated her and wanted her to die at this moment.

She returned to the company and handed the signed contract to Freya Lee.

“Good, although there are twists and turns in the middle, but you got the contract, you make amends for your fault by yourself.”

Freya Lee glanced over the contract and looked at Evelyn Davis with appreciation: “Go to work.”

Evelyn Davis nodded, turned and left the office.

It was not long after Evelyn Davis left. Ji Yi also got the news.

When she knew that Evelyn Davis had won the cooperation of the communication company, and the contract had been signed, she was so angry that she broke her pen.

It was just because she just took office here, but Evelyn Davis steal her thunder which made her seem useless.

As a result, she was gloomy all day, making the entire staff of the design department cautious.

Chloe Field knew Ji Yi was angry. She thought of how many times Ji Yi had conflicts with Evelyn Davis, and soon she guessed Ji Yi's mind.

She seemed to have thought of a brilliant idea, and her eyes were full of schemes.

Later she knocked at Ji Yi's office.

“What's up?”

Ji Yi saw Chloe Field come in and asked with angry.

Chloe Field came to Ji Yi and laughed: “Director Ji, I know that you are very dissatisfied with Nora Davis making a great contribution to the company. Actually, it is not only you, I also do not like that she always takes all the credits alone.”

Ji Yi heard the words, and looked at the bright woman in front of her, squinting, "What do you want to say?"

Chloe Field saw Ji Yi quickly grasp her meanings. She immediately said her intentions: "The enemy of the enemy is a friend. If you believe in me, you can go out with me for a drink at night, then I can help you to deal with Nora Davis."

When Ji Yi heard this, her eyes flashed with a trace of astonishment, but that was quickly hidden by her.

"How can you help me?"

She looked at Chloe in doubt with a slight disdain in her tone.

After all, if this woman can deal with Nora, she wouldn't come to find her.

Chloe also heard her contempt to herself in her tone, and her eyes flashed with anger.

But she still tried to bear it, when she thought of their intentions.

"You know when you go there, and I promise not to let you down."

She dropped the sentence and turned away.

Ji Yi looked at the back of her departure, her eyes drooping slightly, as if thinking about something.

When she got off work at night, she called Chloe into the office.

"Give me the address."

When Chloe heard this, she knew she had agreed with her proposal and laughed, "Don't have to be complicated so much. I'll take you there in a moment."

Twenty minutes later, the two came to a bar named Zunhuang, and led by the waiter, then they entered a box.

They saw a beautiful woman sitting in the box.

Ji Yi just glanced at her and recognized the woman in front of her—Amelia, the woman who had been staying in the Hawk family before.

She looked at Amelia, her eyes flickered.

“This is you said the one who can help me with?”

She looked at Chloe questioningly.

Chloe did not speak, and looked towards Amelia.

Amelia sat on the sofa, she was playing with the wine glass in her hand, and laughed: “Yes, I can help you, and I know that Nora has won a big order here, but you, as the executive director has no achievements, I’m afraid that the senior management will be upset with you. “

Ji Yi’s expression changed.

When Amelia saw the change of her expression, there was a flash of light in her eyes, and she smiled, “Director Ji, you don’t have to worry. As long as you and I cooperate, I will definitely help you to secure the position of the company, but ...”

“But what?”

Ji Yi asked subconsciously.

Amelia said, “I need your help to help me get Nora out of the company.”

Ji Yi heard this and did not immediately respond.

She frowned, as if thinking.

In fact, she had heard many rumors about this woman and Nora.

To be honest, she did look down on the woman who was defeated by Nora.

However, this woman was the daughter of the Morgan family, she had power and she could have a try to have a cooperation with her.

After all, she was lack of the help in this regard.

Thinking of this, she had an idea in her heart.

“Since we are cooperating, you don’t talk about your plan. It doesn’t seem to be sincere.”

She raised her eyes and looked at Amelia with a smile, which meant that she had agreed with her proposal.

Amelia heard the words, and the smile on the corner of her mouth grew deeper.

“It seems that Director Ji agreed to cooperate with me, then I will talk about my arrangement.”

She said and made a pause, and looked at Ji Yi before continuing: “I can introduce the business to you and let you stay in the position of director of the company.”

Ji Yi flashed satisfaction in her eyes.

She didn’t interrupt Amelia’s words, waiting for her to continue.

“As for Nora, it depends on the sincerity of you. After all, what I need to do is to make you have a steady position in the company. Of course, if you need help, I am willing to offer my support.”

Uh ...

At the same time, the Davis family.

Luxury villas can be seen that everywhere was carefully decorated by the owner. However, even if this villa was so beautiful, there was always a loneliness inside.

However, John did not feel this way.

At this moment he was sitting next to the large wine cabinet, smiling and tasting with a glass of brown liquid alcohol in the corner of his mouth.

From his soft look, we can see that he was in a good mood at the moment.

Of course, this is also because he just ended the call with Nora.

At that moment, his assistant came over.

“Mr. Davis, Evelyn got a business which worth tens of millions for the Hawk family today.”

John heard the words, the tasting action stopped, his eyes were full of surprise.

“Oh, I didn’t expect that my stupid daughter really had some abilities.”

He said, thinking of what happened before Nora came back, he couldn’t help but sigh.

“We did let the Hawk family take advantages. If something didn’t happen when Nora’s back, she should be able to create a lot of benefits for us, and now these benefits are given to the Hawk family.”

The words were off, and he was unwilling and drank the wine in his hand: “I really despised the woman and didn’t know if she would become a stumbling block for Nora in the future.”

It can’t blame him for being so worried, the better Evelyn’s performance would be, the more he would worry that she would be out of control.

Assistant probably guessed what he thought, complimented: “After all, she has your gene in her body. It is inevitable, but she can’t be better than Nora.”

John heard that and he felt quite comfortable.

“It’s true, how could a wild girl be better than the swan I raised carefully, but now that she has replaced Nora now, then make good use of her only value.”

After he finished speaking, he put his hand on the table, his eyes full of calculations.

Assistant saw this, then he respectfully asked.

“Do you have any ideas?”

John gave him a cold glance, and said coldly: “Recently, the relatives of Davis family have been noisy, especially the youngest one, and his action is more frequent.”

Assistant nodded, although he did not understand what John said, he still reported along the topic.

“That’s right, we got the news here. Sanye’s side seems to be interested in buying stocks with individual shareholders. We have to be careful in advance and not let them succeed, otherwise your position will be threatened.”

When John heard this, he frowned deeply.

“This old man is really good at calculating.”

He cursed fiercely, his eyes full of anger.

“And Lucas, that cunning man, he doesn’t respect his father-in-law, me, at all!”

Originally, as long as he had a stable cooperation with the Hawk family, how could this position be changed? But something happened before, and the damn man started not to accept any explain, and he had no way now.

After hearing the words, Assistant complimented and said, “It’s still the one who is not doing well. If Nora is here, Lucas must be held by Nora in minutes.”

When John heard this, he narrowed his eyes and stared at assistant’s eyes.

Seeing this, the assistant knew that he said it wrong, shut his mouth and stood aside with a smile.

John looked at him, hummed slightly, and began to think about the layout behind.

Now he had no way to take any advantages from Lucas, and he had no bargaining chips to negotiate with him.

He thought of this, there was a calculation in his eyes.

He seemed to have to deal with this matter from Evelyn’s side.

Alas, this matter must be considered in the long run.

Because he called this slut a few times before, she always found some excuses to refuse and even threatened him.

When he thought about it, another anger was rising in his heart.

He had to find a way to let Evelyn become more obedient.

John thought about it, but got nothing.

His assistant was standing beside him, looking at his fidgety face full of trouble and couldn't help guessing his mind.

Soon, according to the conversation just now, he roughly guessed what John was worried about.

"Mr. Davis, do you want that lady to help you?"

John gave him a cold look and said in a deep voice, "What's your idea?"

When the assistant heard that, he knew that he had guessed it, so he told John his opinions.

"Since the tough way doesn't work, let's try some soft way. You can pretend to be nice to her. It's easy for a woman to be soft-hearted. What's more, you are her father. It is impossible that she will ignore you."

When John heard that he needed to please Evelyn, he immediately became gloomy.

"Are you asking me to please her?"

He looked at the assistant discontentedly.

Assistant shivered.

"Mr. Davis, I don't mean that."

He nervously licked dry corners of his lips and explained, "Now Nora is not here, and our situation is very passive. We can only rely on Evelyn. If we stabilize her and help her boost the cooperation between you and Hawk Family, the third master's crisis will be solved."

Although John agreed with his idea in his heart, he always felt uncomfortable.

"After all, I still have to please her."

The assistant had no choice but to persuade again, "It's not to please. It's just that the father cares about his daughter."

John didn't speak, but he thought about it seriously.

Although he cared about his reputation, he paid more attention to interests.

And just now the assistant had said that it was not flattering, but a father's concern for his daughter.

"Then just do as you said. Go and prepare for it."

...

The next day. In Hawk Family

Evelyn got up early and Lucas was still sleeping beside her.

His charming face was so delicate in the sun that even Evelyn couldn't help being envious.

She couldn't help but look at him, replaying what had happened yesterday in her mind, as if there was something to break the ground and sprout, which made her tremble.

The distance between them was getting shorter and shorter as Evelyn got closer.

And Evelyn's eyes were full of deep love.

She was about to kiss Lucas, who was sleeping, opened his eyes suddenly.

The clear eyes seemed not belong to a person who was sleeping just now.

Evelyn had no premonition and her face ran into his dark eyes.

She was scared and subconsciously backed up. But her action was so heavy that she was about to fall down from the bed.

Fortunately, Lucas put his hands around her waist and legs, and then they turned around, lying on the bed in the position that Lucas lay prone on Evelyn.

“Were you peeping at me?”

Lucas’s eyes seemed to be so deep. He looked at Evelyn in a quiet way.

She blushed in a flash. There was nothing more embarrassing than being caught peeping.

Of course, she would not admit it.

“No, I’m just helping you with your face. You had eye droppings in your eyes at that time.”

She insisted on telling lies with her face unchanged.

Looking at her face and listening to her funny lies, Lucas began to laugh in a low voice.

Evelyn was a little confused by his laughter.

She looked at Lucas incomprehensibly, and found that he came closer to her.

“Do you women like duplicity?”

He said, rubbing Evelyn’s lips. The soft touch made him want to nibble her lips.

Evelyn was stunned.

It was not until the stabbing pain came from the lip that she was relieved.

But she didn’t have much strength to resist.

After a while,the temperature of the room kept rising,and there were ambiguous sounds.

After some time,the sound finally stopped.

Evelyn was carried by Lucas in his arms to the bathroom for washing.

They hadn't come out until nearly 30 minnutes later.

They went downstairs and found that the housekeeper was busy getting in and out,carrying something,and there were many things in the living room that looked like gift boxes.

“Steward,what are these?”

Lucas could not help but frown and ask.

“Young master,these are the tonics that the Mr.Davis sent to young madam.It's said that they could help her mend her body.”

The housekeeper replied truthfully,which made Lucas look at Evelyn with his eyebrows raised.

Evelyn saw that and there were surprises and accidents in her eyes.

How could the old fox be so kind?

She lowered her eyes,and there was a flash of mockery in them.

What was the purpose of him?

After all,the man had always tried all his means in order to achieve his goal.

She thought,and the surprise in her heart also slowly faded up.She finally became no longer interested.

“Oh,in that case,take them to the warehouse.”

She said and walked to the dining room.

The steward was stunned and looked at Lucas subconsciously.

After Lucas nodded,he waved to let servants take these things away from the living room.

After they left,Lucas came downstairs and focused on Evelyn.

It could be said that he was very surprised by Evelyn's indifferent attitude just now.

Didn't people all say that the relationship between this father and daughter was very good?

But what had happened was different from what people had said.

Especially when he thought of the conversation he had heard before.

Nora called her father with his full name.And there was no admiration or respect in her tone,but some displeasure.

Of course,it might be due to the reason that they were quarreling.

Considering in this way,he thought that there was no problem with the strange feeling just now.

Because of the quarrel,Nora didn't like what her father sent.

And John took the initiative to send things,which showed a father's love for his daughter and his recognition of defeat.

He shielded his mind and followed Evelyn to sit down in the dining room.

"Are you going to the company today?"

Lucas looked at Evelyn and asked.

Evelyn shook her head in response,and Lucas nodded.

After a chat,Lucas went to the company after eating.

After he left,Evelyn also planned to go back to her room to take the tool and go to create in the garden.

It was just that when she was going upstairs,she thought of the tonics that John had sent.She was a little uneasy.

She went back to the room and couldn't help calling John.

"What do you want to do this time?"

John was not surprised at all when he received the call from Evelyn.

"Nothing."

Evelyn sneered, "How can you be so kind to send me these things for no reason?"

She didn't believe that this man would be so good at all. He was that kind of mercenary person who wouldn't do one thing if he couldn't benefit from that. He must be thinking about how to calculate her.

Listening to her sarcastic words, his face flashed with anger.

This girl was really bad. She was even suspicious when he treated her nicely.

However, thinking of his purpose, he was still holding back his dissatisfaction and said in a deep voice, "Why do you say so? You are my daughter, and now you are still playing the role of Nora. I do it because I really care about your body. It's so usual, or others will think that our good relationship is just a rumor."

When Evelyn heard this, she couldn't help but sneer coldly.

She had long since known that John must not be so kind-hearted, it turned out that he was afraid of his plots being discovered by others.

"I see."

With that, she wanted to hang up.

John also noticed it in her tone, and his eyes were full of gloom.

"Evelyn, do you want to see your mother?"

His words immediately stopped Evelyn hanging up.

“Will you allow me to see her?”

She asked in surprise, the strange feelings that she had just calmed came again.

As we all know, in the past, when she wanted to see her mother, she must threatened him or promised him all kinds of excessive demands, but this time he took the initiative to talk about it.

Her intuition told her that John must had a bigger plot this time so that he needed to please herself.

As for what John had just said to her, she felt that it was just an excuse for him to placate her temporarily.

“Just say, what on earth your purpose is, or what do you want me to do for the Davis family?”

When John heard her words again, his face clouded.

He didn't expect that if he was a little nicer to her, he would be regarded as self-seeking by her.

Even if it was true, he was unwilling to admit it.

“If you think I did it is for geting something from you, you can choose not to go.”

He said in a cold voice and was ready to hang up, which made Evelyn's heart give a lurch.

“Hold on!”

She stopped John who was about to hang up and said with gnashing her teeth, “I want to see my mother.”

Whether John did it with good intention or hypocrisy, she wanted to see her mother.

It had been a long time since she last saw her mother, she didn't know how her mother was or how her recovering was.

She needed to take a look and see for herself whether her mother had been taken good care of by him, that would reassure her.

“Trouble!”

John had long since expected that she would agree, snorted softly and added, “You drive to the hospital yourself, and I will let the hospital know.”

When Evelyn heard that, she was subconsciously about to agree, but she suddenly thought of Li, whom Lucas had sent to follow her. Then her eyes became deep.

“I can’t drive, you have to send someone to pick me up.”

She said, and told John about Li.

After hearing that, although John disliked that she was eventful, he agreed.

Soon, they made a deal on where to meet before Evelyn hung up.

She put away her cell phone and began to dress herself up.

In less than twenty minutes, she got dressed and walked out of the room and went downstairs.

No surprise, she saw Li sitting in the living room.

She ignored her and walked towards the gate.

When Li saw that, she frowned slightly and followed up.

When Evelyn saw Li following her, she told calmly the driver to go to the mall.

She and John had already made an appointment to meet in the mall, so that they could have a chance to get rid of Li.

Shortly after she got on the car, she received a message from John that he had arranged the plans in the mall.

With a quick glance, Evelyn deleted the message and leaned back in her chair with closing her eyes to take a rest.

But Li who followed behind her was full of anger.

The woman had told Lucas that she would stay at home, but she left the house as soon as Lucas left.

And these thoughts, Evelyn did not know. After she had slept a little, they arrived at the mall.

She strolled in the mall as planned, and Li followed her at a proper distance.

Evelyn noticed her, but she didn't say anything.

She immediately went into several brand stores and bought a lot of things in them. She couldn't carry the bags, so she called Li over.

"You take these down and put them in the car."

She told her in a cold voice, in fact, she did it was for getting rid of her.

But Li looked very surprised and angry.

"Are you ordering me?"

Evelyn naturally noticed her dissatisfaction to her and also understood why she was dissatisfied.

If she didn't need to get rid of her, she didn't even have the desire to talk to her.

"Is there anyone else besides you and me here? And Miss Mo, Lucas sent you to protect me. In other words, you are also my subordinate. Am I not even qualified to order you? If so, I'll let Lucas change another one when I get back."

She answered her coldly, blocking all Li's dissatisfaction in her throat and making her unable to vent any amount of anger.

It could be said that Evelyn's words caught her lifeblood.

She didn't want to leave Lucas and didn't want to upset Lucas.

"You're very good!"

She stared at Evelyn with gnashing her teeth, snatched the bags from Evelyn's hand, turned and strode away.

Looking at her angry back, Evelyn suddenly felt that although she was annoying, she had a very innocent temperament.

She was clear about the likes and dislikes, and she never played tricks.

At least she was different from Amelia.

She thought, turning and walking towards the place that she had agreed with John.

After a while, she arrived at the hospital.

Because John had let the hospital know, her way to the ward was unobstructed.

When she got to the door of the ward, she couldn't wait to push the door in.

Just seeing her mother lying on the bed with rosy face, as if she was just asleep.

"Mom, I'm here to see you."

She resisted the loss in her heart, walked to the bed with a smile, stretched out her hands to tidy up her mother's hairs around the temples.

From her mother's healthy complexion, she could see that her mother was being treated well, then she was completely relieved, but she soon became worried again.

Not only did John send her supplements this time, but he took the initiative to let her see her mother, she couldn't believe that man didn't want anything.

The seriousness flashed in her eyes when she thought of it.

Just because she thought John must be planning some big plots.

It seemed that she should be careful in the future, so that she didn't get into the traps of the old fox.

Just as she was thinking about the future, Li also found her gone.

At first, Li thought she was arrested by those people, so she went to watch the surveillance video, but she found nothing unusual.

Because Evelyn went to the underground garage by herself.

When she saw this, she took out her cell phone, called Evelyn and wanted to ask where she was now.

But Evelyn didn't answer her call at all.

She stared at the unanswered call phone, her eyes filled with anger.

If she didn't regain her mind before, now she had guessed that Evelyn just asked her to take something to leave in order to get rid of her!

Instantly, she felt very angry.

The first reason why she felt very angry was that she was fooled by Evelyn, the second reason was that she felt that Evelyn got rid of her painstakingly was for going to do something shameful.

She called Lucas without thinking.

"I'm sorry, sir. I'm in breach of duty. The madame got rid of me and I didn't know where she went. I called her, but she didn't answer the call."

As she retold her dereliction of duty, she spoke ill of Evelyn calmly.

After Lucas hearing that, he frowned tightly.

"I see."

He answered in a deep voice and called Evelyn immediately.

Evelyn was not surprised to see the phone call from Lucas.

Because she didn't answer Mo Li's phone, that woman would definitely contact Lucas immediately.

“Lucas.” She answered the phone and said with a smile.

“Where are you now?”

Lucas asked with slightly frowning.

“I’m at home. My father sent someone to pick me up just now.”

Evelyn was telling a kind lie, but she was looking at her mother with complicated eyes.

When Lucas heard this, he thought it was weird.

“Mo Li contacted you, why didn’t you answer her phone?”

He asked again in a deep voice.

Evelyn was not surprised either. She lowered her eyes and said with a smile, “I was talking to my father just now. When I was just about to call her back, you called me.”

When Lucas heard this, though he thought it was a bit coincidental, it was reasonable, so he gave up and said, “Then I’ll let her go to protect you.”

It was impossible for Evelyn to let Mo Li come over, so she politely refused, “No, I’m fine with my dad. If you tell Mo Li to come over to protect me, I’m afraid that he will be worried. Don’t worry. I’ll go back soon.”

Lucas thought that Evelyn didn’t want John to worry, and that John has always loved his daughter deeply. He knew that John would take care of her properly, so he didn’t insist on it.

“Okay, come back early. Be careful on the way.”

He told Evelyn this and then hung up.

As he hung up, Evelyn let out a light breath, feeling very bad.

On the one hand, she lied to Lucas, on the other hand, she was tired of such days.

How she wish time could pass quickly so that she didn’t have to suffer so much.

Evelyn didn't spend much time in the hospital and left.

When she came back to the Hawk family and went into new house, she saw Mo Li standing in the living room with a strange look.

Obviously the woman was still angry about what happened before.

And she didn't want to provoke her, she was going to pretend not to see her and go upstairs.

Mo Li watched Evelyn passed by in front of her, as if she didn't see her, and the anger in her stomach could no longer be pressed.

“Nora ! ”

She yelled at Evelyn angrily to stop her, and she stared at her with eyes glowing with anger.

When Evelyn heard this, she knew that if she didn't give her an explanation, the woman would not give up.

“I didn't mean to do it in the morning. It's just so coincidental. I think Lucas should have explained it to you.”

She smiled and explained, blocked Mo Li's words that she was going to say in her throat.

Because these were indeed what Lucas told her.

For a while, she bit her teeth with anger, and her clenched fist joints were white with strength.

“You are right, Mr. Hawk did tell me.”

Because she had no reason to vent, she could only bear the anger in her heart. But she was not willing to let the matter go easily!

Evelyn also noticed, her eyebrows slightly raised, waiting for her next action.

Mo Li didn't fail to live up to Evelyn's waiting, and said gloomily, “I hope next time, before young lady go somewhere, you'd better inform me. It's nothing for me to be blamed by Mr. Hawk. But it will be young lady's fault, if you make Mr. Hawk be worried about you!”

“Well, thanks for your advice,” Evelyn heard this and raised her mouth corner. She finished and turned into the room.

Her leisure appearance made Mo Li get more angry and feel despised again. She stared at Evelyn as if she wanted to make a hole on her body with her eyes.

Evelyn naturally felt the cannibal eyes behind her, but she didn't care.

She went back to the room and after a wash, she went into the creation.

She worked for a whole afternoon until Lucas called in the evening.

“You don't have to wait for me in the evening. There's a party I need to join and I will come back late.”

Lucas's soft voice came to her on the phone.

Evelyn answered 'Um' softly, feeling a little disappointed, but she still told him, “Then drink less wine and be careful when you come back.”

Lucas nodded his head and immediately hung up.

Evelyn looked at the phone and thought of that Lucas would let her know every time when he had a dinner party or wouldn't come back. The disappointment in her heart gradually faded away.

Although he couldn't come back, he did what many men couldn't do.

When she thought about this, there was a warmth in her heart.

She didn't even care about Mo Li's terrible face when she went out .

Compared to her good mood, Mo Li felt terrible.

But she couldn't vent. She could only stare at Evelyn with dark eyes.

Evelyn didn't care, either. She continued to work after she finished dinner.

At about ten o'clock in the evening, Lucas just came back from the dinner party.

But he was brought back by Cater.

She saw the abnormal blush on his face and he lean his whole body on Cater.

Of course, even so, his dignified temperament could not be hid, on the contrary, there was a bit of different charm, which made people obsessed.

“Young lady, the president accidentally drank too much.”

When Cater saw Evelyn, he reported embarrassedly and felt guilty for not taking good care of the president.

But before Evelyn could respond, Mo Li on the other side could not help scolding him.

“How did you do your job? Don't you know how to stop wine for Mr. Hawk when he takes you with him?”

As she said, she went to Lucas and said, “Give him to me, and I'll help him up to rest.”

Cat looked at her and was stunned. Then he turned to look at Evelyn and asked silently.

Evelyn was also stunned. Her eyes flashed cold, but her face didn't show it.

“Cater, give Lucas to me. I'll take him to the bathroom to wash.”

She finished, and before cater could let Lucas go, she went to Lucas.

“Miss Mo, it's late. Even if you are a subordinate of Lucas, you have after work time. Take a rest earlier.”

She silently reminded Mo Li with words, and let Mo Li's hand hanging on both sides clench tightly.

How could this woman use her identity to show off in front of her?

Damn it, but she couldn't refute it. She could only watch her holding her Mr. Hawk upstairs.

Evelyn ignored the cannibal eyes behind her and helped Lucas back to the room.

She put Lucas on the bed, took off his shoes and socks, and brought warm water to wipe his cheeks and limbs.

With her gentle care, Lucas also woke up a little bit from the slight drunkenness.

He half narrowed his eyes, looked at her busy figure under the light. The slender waist, and the smooth touch, coupled with the stimulation of alcohol, made his sleeping beast in his body gradually wake up.

When Evelyn finished these and bent down to help him take off his clothes, her waist suddenly was clasped, and then she was taken into a warm embrace.

Under the tip of her nose, there was the male hormones she was familiar with, which mixed with faint alcohol smell.

Before Evelyn could respond. She felt she is spinning around and her lips were covered heavily.

She had no time to think, then she was brought into the deep kiss.

Her sweet smell stimulated Lucas to ask for more and more, and his hands were restless to ignite the erotic fire all over her body.

After a while, the temperature of the whole room was rising, and the groan that made people blush with shame came out of it .

After a passionate night, Evelyn fell asleep slowly until dawn.

When she woke up again, the sun has already hung up high. Naturally, Lucas was not around.

She winced in pain and sat up from the bed, feeling as if she was ran over by a truck.

Usually, she had had enough difficulty to deal with him. Who knows he would be so insatiable after he got drunk . He tossed her desperately as if he wanted her life.

She should have let Mo Li take care of him last night, so she didn't have to be tortured like this by him!

She thought angrily in her heart, and carefully supported the wall to get out of bed.

She stood on the ground, and she felt that her legs were shaking.

It took her a long time to get used to it and then went to wash and changed clothes.

In ten minutes, she went out dressed and ordered the housekeeper to prepare food while going downstairs.

Mo Li sat in the living room and looked at Evelyn, who had just got up. Her face looked terrible.

Especially when she saw the uncovered marks on Evelyn's neck, she wished she could eat Evelyn up.

It was not hard to imagine what a passionate night they spent last night.

For a moment, her heart was filled with jealousy!

Of course, Evelyn also noticed the hostile look, but she just glanced at it, pretended not to see it, and entered the dining room.

Her indifference made Mo Li bit her teeth with anger. However, she had no choice but to bear her a grudge and plan to get back hard in the future.

Of course, Evelyn didn't know the dark thoughts in her mind.

She was still very tired after eating. She thought that nothing needed to be handled, so she went back to the room to sleep again.

She slept until the afternoon. She didn't wake up until her cell phone rang at the head of the bed.

"Hello?"

Ji Yi was very dissatisfied with her muddled voice.

"Nora, the company relaxes the freedom of designers, not let you sleep when you are working."

She scolded her coldly, which made Evelyn woke up a lot.

Evelyn knew that Ji Yi has always been aiming at her. As long as she found a problem, she would not hesitate to scold her, so Evelyn rarely refuted and listened to her in silence.

Ji Yi said a lot but she did not get a response. So she had a kind of agrievance, as if she performed a one-man show.

"Nora, you'd better keep me from catching you being lazy again, or don't blame me for deducting your wage!"

Evelyn was very helpless, but she still answered: "Yes, I know, so what do you want to say by calling me?"

When Ji Yi heard her mention of the business, she thought of her intention to make the phone call. Her eyes narrowed slightly and she said in a deep voice, "Come to the company now."

She hung up directly and didn't give Evelyn the chance to ask more questions.

Evelyn listened to her bad tone, and could not guess what happened to the company or whether she said this with the dissatisfaction just now.

However, she didn't delay either. She got up quickly and cleaned herself up.

After a while, she tidied herself up and headed for the company.

When she arrived at the company, she didn't immediately go to Ji Yi, but called Bessy to inquire about the situation.

"What happened to the company today?"

Bessy was stunned and replied, "Nothing happened. Why do you ask this?"

Evelyn was relieved to hear that.

She thought there was something wrong with the project she was responsible for.

Of course she wouldn't tell Bessy this.

"Never mind, just a catch-up. You go to work. I'll go to the director's office."

Then she went straight to Ji Yi's office.

At the moment, she was still a little uneasy.

Although she knew that there was nothing wrong with her project, she couldn't help worrying. Did Ji Yi find out her fault again?

Just as she was thinking, she arrived at the office.

She knocked on the door and went in.

"Director Ji, I'm here."

She went in and stood in the middle of the office looking at Ji Yi decently.

"Have a seat!"

Ji Yi saw her, and her mood was calmer than when she was on the phone just now.

After she asked Evelyn to sit down, she took the initiative to talk about the intention of calling her to come without waiting for Evelyn to ask.

"I asked you to come here because the company will hold a press conference in two days. At that time, as one of the outstanding designers of the company, you are required to attend the conference and show a new work."

Evelyn has been listening to her worriedly. After Ji Yi finished, she knew it was not because of her fault, so she was relieved and pondered over the press conference.

“Besides me, who else will attend the conference? What is the concept of the new works? Does the company have any requirements?”

She asked several questions in a row, and Ji Yi explained them to her in detail without any impatience.

At the end of the conversation, Ji Yi also reminded: “At that time, there will be many media reporters at the conference, you must be well prepared, and you’d better behave yourself these two days. In case you will cause some trouble and affect the company’s conference.”

Evelyn was very uncomfortable to hear her last words, but she didn’t want to reason with her.

“I see. I will prepare well these two days.”

When Ji Yi saw that there was nothing to explain, she waved to hint her to leave.

Evelyn got up and left. Ji Yi looked at her back and her beautiful face became unpredictable.

Especially the calculated light at the bottom of her eyes made people shiver all over though not cold.

She took back her sight, picked up her mobile phone on the desk and dialed a number.

“I have arranged for Nora to attend the conference.”

“Great!”

Then the gloomy voice of Amelia was heard on the phone.

“What you promised me, when will you make it?”

Ji Yi lowered her eyes and asked in a cold voice.

Amelia chuckled, “When you get rid of Nora, my promise will come true.”

“Remember,” she said harshly, as if emphasizing, “I want Nora to lose all her standing and reputation...”

The dissatisfaction flashed in Ji Yi's eyes, but she made a promise.

"Don't worry, Miss Morgan will never be disappointed."

She said, and her face got even colder.

"This time, Nora has to be kicked out of the company anyway!"

Listening to her guarantee, Amelia murmured: "It would be best. I'm waiting for the good news from Director Ji!"

With that, she hung up directly.

Ji Yi held the cell phone that has been hung up. Her face was frosty.

Hum, I will allow you to be proud at present. When Nora is got rid of, the next one is you.

Amelia didn't know what Ji Yi thought. She hung up the phone and sat on the balcony in a rare good mood.

She tasted the wine leisurely, and her eyes were cold.

As long as Nora lost all her standing and reputation, she didn't believe that Lucas would protect that b!tch despite the opinions of the whole Hawk family.

When that b!tch was abandoned by Lucas, she would catch her and let her enjoy a life that was worse than death!

She thought, and her eyes were full of rage. Then she drank up the wine in the glass.

Evelyn didn't know that the conspiracy was approaching her step by step.

Because of the press conference, she spent the next two days at home working on the design.

Finally, she finished the design draft required by the company the day before the conference.

She looked at her new work with satisfaction. After checking it again and again, she began to pack up and prepare to go to the company to hand it in.

An hour later, she arrived at the company.

She checked it as she went to the director's office, making sure there wasn't a single mistake that Ji Yi would find fault with her.

Who knows she was so focused that she accidentally bumped into someone.

And the design manuscript in her hand fell to the ground because of the clash.

"Sorry, sorry."

She apologized and squatted down to check. She didn't find that the person she bumped into was Chloe.

Chloe looked at the design on the ground with fixed eyes, and there was a strange light in the bottom of her eyes.

"Nora, don't you have eyes for your way? If you don't come to the company, everyone will be in peace. Once you come, we will be cursed when we see you!"

After seeing the design, Chloe took back her eyes and began to mock Evelyn.

When Evelyn heard this, her movement of picking up the things froze and she couldn't help but complain what a rotten luck in her heart.

She didn't expect that the person she hit was Chloe. Then she might make it a big scene.

Of course, she was not afraid of trouble.

"It's my fault to bump into you. I've apologized. If you feel that you need to compensate for your injury, you can go to the hospital for examination. If there are any problems, as long as it's caused by me, I'm willing to be responsible."

Evelyn dropped the sentence and turned into the director's office.

Chloe looked at Evelyn's proud back, and bit her teeth with anger.

Wait and see, b!tch. Soon you would be a disowned dog that everyone hated!

She thought it viciucely in her heart and turned away with a snort.

And what she showed surprised Evelyn, who has been watching out for her.

Originally, with what she has just said, she expected that Chloe would not let the matter go easily, and would definitely argue with her, but to her surprise, Chloe left without saying anything.

She frowned subconsciously. She thought maybe something was wrong, but she couldn't think of anything. She had to hold it back for a while, stop thinking about it and knock at the door.

After all, there was still a big battle in it.

Knowing that Ji Yi didn't like her, Evelyn was worried about she would be dissatisfied with her work, and then picked up on her.

Just when she had these complex thoughts, Ji Yi's cool voice sounded in the office.

"Come in."

Evelyn pushed the door and went in.

"Director, I'm here to hand in the manuscript."

Evelyn said, putting her design manuscript on Ji Yi's desk.

"Please have a look and see if there are any problems?"

Ji Yi heard the words and glanced at Evelyn, then casually picked up the design manuscript on the table.

But in this moment, there was a flash of amazement and jealousy in her eyes.

As shown in the drawing, the bright color and beautiful accessories made the whole design catch people's eyes instantly, and even made people want to have a set of such clothes.

And she saw Evelyn's potential in this set of clothes.

As long as she gave her time to accumulate experience, within five years, no, three years, Evelyn's achievements would surely be higher than hers.

How could such a recognition keep her from jealousy.

She looked at the draft with an expressionless face, and Evelyn didn't know what she was thinking. Seeing that she was silent, Evelyn couldn't help but frown.

"Director, what do you think the design draft?"

She asked on her own initiative.

Ji Yi came back to herself and a dark light flashed through her eyes.

"There's no problem with the design draft. Go out and get back to work."

She finished and put it aside.

However, what she said directly shocked Evelyn and made Evelyn look at her in surprise.

No problem?

It was not like what Ji Yi would do.

After all, no matter what she did before, this person would always be fault-finding. This time, she was so kind-hearted and let her pass easily. Evelyn felt insecure.

However, counter measure for measure. Since Ji Yi said that there was no problem, she didn't have to ask for trouble.

"Then I'll go back to work."

She finished and turned away from the office.

...

Next day, Kaili hotel.

Because the company attached great importance to the press conference, Evelyn got dressed and waited in the conference hall early.

And like her, there were all the designers in the company.

The whole venue was arranged in a grand way. The red carpet just extended to the street, and the invited guests were also very dignified.

Of course, such a grand press conference can not be short of media.

Less than 10 o'clock, the venue was already full of guests who came to attend the conference.

Evelyn followed the designers behind the scenes to prepare for the work.

"Miss Davis, there are many big shots outside!"

Bessy ran over from the side, and the excitement on her face was unable to be hidden.

"Sooner or later, you will be one of them, don't have to envy."

Evelyn looked at her fleshy little face and couldn't help but reach out and pinch it.

"Well, I'll try to be like them."

Bessy didn't care about the action of Evelyn, and nodded with high morale.

Evelyn saw it and couldn't help laughing. She only thought that Bessy was very innocent and unaffected.

They joked and laughed, which was seen by Chloe not far away.

Have a good laugh then, and I'll see how can you laugh later.

She thought viciously in her heart, and then she no longer paid attention to Evelyn and started to arrange her work.

At ten o'clock, the conference officially began.

Ji Yi, as the person in charge of this press conference, surely be on the stage to preside over it.

“First of all, thank you for taking the time out of your busy schedule to participate in the our company’s” Autumn Charm Series ” theme release conference. Next, I will show you the design works launched this time.”

With that, light music began to play all around.

On the big screen behind her, the design manuscripts were slowly appeared on by one.

“This is the work designed by our company’s main designer Mu. Autumn Night. The black silk is taken as the background color on which a layer of light yellow tulle is laid, just like autumn in the night...”

The speed and pitch of her voice was vary to introduce the design drafts on the screen, and the designers explained the concepts on stage at the same time.

“..... In the end, I’d like to introduce the work designed by our Designer Davis, Midautumn. “

With the introduction of Ji Yi, the work on the screen has also been changed into Evelyn’s draft.

Evelyn listened to her announcement and pressed the excitement in her heart and went to the stage.

Just as she was about to introduce her design concept, there was a sudden noise around the original silence.

“Eh, isn’t this the design drawing released by Kimi of Morgan Group yesterday? Why today Zary says it is the design drawing of their company?”

“Design Same?”

“How could it be? I’ve only heard of Dress Same, never heard of any Design Same.”

“Yes, these two designs are exactly the same. It is possible that one of them is copied.”

“I think so, but she’s too bold. They published it the day before and she plagiarized it the day after.”

“In order to be famous, they could do anything!”

“Seriously, I think we’re going to see some fun!”

Ji Yi listened to the discussion under the stage, and the corner of her mouth raised without any trace.

She sneered, looking at Evelyn.

And Evelyn was totally stunned.

Evelyn looked stiffly at the people around her, and she didn’t know what they were talking about completely.

“Excuse me, what did you mean that this design is similar as someone else’s?”

She resisted the uneasiness in her heart and asked.

“Don’t you know that the Morgan Group also held a press conference yesterday and your design was published earlier in the press conference?”

Evelyn stunned, subconsciously refuted.

“Impossible, I designed it myself.”

Who knew that when she said so, many reporters disgusted.

“You designed it? So you mean that Kimi is copying you?”

“Well, Designer Davis, you really dare to say that, Kimi is a veteran designer of the Morgan Group, and has been famous for several years. Any one of his works is an explosion. Does he need to copy you?”

“Wait, are you Nora Davis?”

The reporters were against Evelyn one after another, and many people around her also expressed dissatisfaction with her.

And at this moment, someone recognized Evelyn's identity.

“You are the designer who hit others last time!”

It was not in doubt but the affirmation, and immediately made the people below clamor.

“No wonder, you can do such a thing, of course, you will do plagiarism.”

“I remember that this company's accident has happened more than once or twice. There was another time when the customer had skin allergies with low-quality fabrics. It seems that this woman was looking for that kind of cloth. At that time, she lied to the company with the manufacturer in order to get kickbacks.”

“Oh my God, such an evil man, why is this company still keeping her?”

“I don't think it is a good company which has such an employee. It's really a black spot in their career, so we don't have to attend this conference.”

All those who can come to the press conference which were invited by the company were someone have a certain status in the fashion industry or editor-in-chief.

Originally, these people couldn't get used to plagiarism. It can be said that plagiarism was a taboo that cannot be violated. And now, Evelyn not only did it now, and even had different kinds of convictions, which instantly reduced their impression on ZARY to the extreme.

Ji Yi looked at it, and was so happy.

Because all this was going according to her thoughts.

But she didn't show it her face, and made an anxious look to comfort everyone.

"Everyone, please wait, there must be some misunderstanding ..."

However, her explanation seemed particularly pale at this time.

The editor-in-chiefs who left, left one by one, there're only a group of journalists who wanted to dig news.

"Designer Davis, what is it that made you brave enough to copy the work of the older generation and describe that you design this work yourself as one day later?"

"Designer Davis, I'm curious, what keeps you in ZARY when you are with dark histories?"

All of a sudden, all the reporters flocked to the stage and interviewed Evelyn for various photos.

Evelyn was completely stunned.

She didn't expect that a press conference would become like this, her face turned pale.

Others were so angry too.

But they can't let it go right now, they must deal with it as soon as possible.

Otherwise, if they let Evelyn continue to struggle with these reporters, they can all know what the headlines will be tomorrow.

"Director Ji, we must get Nora away."

Helen walked quickly to Ji Yi and said her opinion.

Ji Yi glanced at her and glanced at Evelyn, who was surrounded by reporters.

"Well, take her back to the backstage immediately, Chloe, you have to drive the reporters away."

She ordered in a deep voice, and the two executed without any hesitation.

“Sorry, this matter has not been investigated and we will not accept any interviews.”

Chloe took someone to stop the reporters and gave Helen a chance to take Evelyn away.

When she saw that Evelyn had returned to the back of the stage, she looked at several reporters in the crowd calmly.

These people got the signal and scolded and put away the tools and turned away.

And Evelyn was escorted by Helen and stepped down, then Ji Yi came here angrily.

“Nora Davis, see what you did!”

If not because of Lucas, she would like to teach this b!tch a lesson at this moment.

But in order not to cause Lucas’s disgust, she put away this thought.

“As long as you participate the events, there is never one that can be done. You are the bullsh!t of our company! It was a little bit of trouble before, but now you even copied the seniors’ work. You want to make all of us fired! “

She reprimanded sternly, and the other designers around them were shouting with dissatisfaction.

“Director, you can’t let her stay this time!”

“Yes, you can’t keep her anymore, the press conferences was ruined because of her! That’s all our hard work for a few days!”

Ji Yi looked at the designers around her who were scolding Evelyn, and Evelyn’s face turned pale and Ji Yi was satisfied.

Evelyn didn’t notice that, because she was really panicked at this time.

“That work was designed by myself.”

She could not help but justify herself, and immediately thought of the Morgan Group, she flashed Amelia in her head, and there was a bold guess in her heart.

“Director Ji, I didn’t copy, because the Morgan Group stole my design draft ...”

When Ji Yi heard this, it seemed that she could not bear her any more.

“Enough, they have released works now, why do you say they stole your design draft?”

Evelyn’s heart trembled.

Before she calmed down, Ji Yi looked at her fiercely: “This time the company will suffer losses because of you! You have messed up a good press conference, and you will be sued!”

Evelyn’s brain was blank because of her anger, and the whole person was stunned.

Uh ...

At the same time, Lucas also got news.

“President, something happened at the press conference.”

Cater looked anxious and went into the office to report.

After listening to his report, Lucas’s expression sank and said coldly, “Prepare the car and go to the Kaili Hotel immediately!”

The press conference was over when they arrived at the conference site.

Ji Yi handled the internal affairs of the venue, and she was about to take everyone away.

But nobody knew that the hotel had been surrounded by a group of reporters and some unknown people.

“Came out, they came out!”

Someone called out, and everyone looked in the direction where Ji Yi was.

“This person in charge, how do you deal with the plagiarism of the designers of your company this time?”

“According to the investigation, this designer suspected plagiarism and she had a rap sheet a mile long. Why would your company still use her boldly?”

Ji Yi had no way because she was blocked by them, and could only stop to explain.

“You guys, we haven’t investigated this time ...”

Before she finished speaking, she was interrupted by a noise.

“Plagiarizing, you don’t deserve to be a designer at all!”

“Get out of the design circle and you are a bullsh!t!”

“Plagiarizing, you dare to copy Kimi’s works, you are really rubbish!”

Their words accompanied by a lot of fishy leaves and eggs.

Everyone saw these things, and immediately pushed Evelyn out.

In one second, Evelyn was hit by these things, and she was so embarrassed that she even smelled of foul smell.
