0 5 minutes read

Lucas looked at Evelyn standing helplessly in the crowd, his heart ached inexplicably.

“Get off!”

He ordered them without thinking, they immediately followed him out of the car.

He strode towards Evelyn, Cater led the bodyguards to clear a path in front of him.

“Step aside, step aside.”

Because they forced into the crowd, everyone was stunned and stopped.

“Who is this man?”

“He looks familiar, but I can’t remember who he is for a moment.”

Compared with the doubts of the reporters, Evelyn was very shocked.

“Lucas.”

Ji Yi thought Lucas was here for this incident.

When she was going to report to him, Lucas ignored her and went straight to Evelyn.

When Evelyn saw the cold and elegant man approaching her, she was totally stunned, an unspeakable nervousness spread in her heart.

It had grievance, guilt and ease.

“Come with me!”

Lucas looked at the embarrassed Evelyn, did not mind the smell from her body, taking her to turn and leave.

As he left, the crowd regained their minds.

The reporters wanted to interview him, but they were stopped by Cater and the bodyguards.

As for those fans who made trouble, after seeing this scene, they looked at each other and then took their “weapons” to leave quietly.

Ji Yi stared at Evelyn jealously through the crowd.

It wasn't that Evelyn couldn't feel it, it was just that she didn't care about anything else at this moment.

After she was taken to the car by Lucas, she was very depressed.

After Lucas sat down, he looked at her bowed head, suddenly he was not used to her like this.

He looked at the dirt on Evelyn's head and tried to clean it up for her, but Evelyn avoided him.

“It is dirty.”

Evelyn said softly with pressing her lips, in a depressed voice.

Lucas just paused and still reached out to help her clean it up.

Evelyn froze, then a clean handkerchief appeared before her eyes.

“Wipe it.”

Evelyn looked at the clean handkerchief and her eyes filled with tears involuntarily.

She held the handkerchief tightly and looked up at Lucas suddenly.

“I didn't plagiarize, do you believe me?”

Lucas looked at her tear-filled eyes, his eyes were full of love, “Of course I do.”

After all, Evelyn had been busy with the latest design at home these days, and even the rest time had been delayed a lot. How could he not believe her?

Now the result had been stolen, he was very angry and looked very bad.

Evelyn didn't notice Lucas's mood change.

Now she got Lucas's trust, her disappointed eyes brightened a little.

"You are the first to believe me."

She looked at Lucas gratefully, with indescribable complexity in her eyes.

Lucas looked at her and said comfortingly, "Don't think so much. After returning, take a good bath, take a rest, and leave the rest to me."

Evelyn was moved by his words.

Later, they arrived at the Hawk house and Evelyn went upstairs to wash.

After Lucas watched her figure disappear on the stairs, he turned around and called Li.

"What's the matter today?"

Li had long since known that Lucas might ask her, she looked down and said, "I'm sorry, sir. I don't know about it."

Lucas frown tightly after hearing that.

"You don't know? Don't you follow the madame every day? Didn't you find anything?"

He asked in a bad tone, which made Li feel very uncomfortable.

"The madame is in the room every day. She doesn't let me follow her when she goes out. Even if I want to follow her, I can not do it."

"Besides, I don't know anything about design, I don't even know the rules about it."

When Lucas heard what she said, his face looked very bad.

Li also noticed it, biting her lip and standing aside with being silent.

Anyway, if the sir wanted to punish her, she would accept it.

Lucas didn't know what she was thinking.

After he found that he could not get the useful information from Li, he thought with frowning.

Now the most important thing was to find out how the manuscript was lost.

He waved Li to leave and immediately walked to the room.

Looking at the back of his departure, Li was relieved. She was angry and gloating at what happened to Evelyn.

She could know that it was a plot against Evelyn.

Of course, Evelyn also guessed that.

She had been thinking about it since she came out of the bath.

Before, she had suspected that Amelia did it, but she had no substantial evidence to prove it.

“What are you thinking?”

Just as she was making blind and disorderly conjectures, Lucas came in.

Evelyn responded after seeing him, “I am thinking about what happened just now, and I was very confused. The manuscript I just handed in yesterday was published by someone immediately, is this too coincidental?”

When Lucas heard that, his look became bad instantly.

After hearing Evelyn's words, his first reaction was that the company had a mole.

“Who has read your manuscript?”

After hearing that, Evelyn understood what he meant.

“Not many people have read my manuscript. After I finished designing it, I took it directly to the company and handed it to Ji Yi. She is the first to get it, the rest should be the general manager's men, because the manuscript still needs to be reviewed by them.”

She calmly analyzed, “In this way, at least three people have read the manuscript.”

Lucas was listening to her with looking down, then he seemed to have an idea and looked at Evelyn.

“I see, you take a good rest at home. I go to the company to ask.”

With that, he turned and left.

Looking at the back of his departure, Evelyn wanted to follow him to the company. But when she thought about the situation outside, she was afraid that she would only make trouble for Lucas if she did it.

At last she said nothing and watched Lucas leave.

Lucas took Cater to the company immediately after he went out.

He asked Cater to call Ji Yi to the company to help.

Ji Yi was very happy when she knew that Lucas came to the office.

“Lucas, are you looking for me?”

After she entered the office, she looked at Lucas tenderly.

But Lucas did not notice it, he asked in a cold voice, “I'd like to know who else has read Evelyn's work after it was designed, besides you reviewers?”

When Ji Yi heard this, the smile on her face froze.

“Lucas, do you suspect that someone in our company steals the design?”

She asked him in surprise, Lucas did not retort.

“Whether I suspect that or not, we will know when the thing is clear.”

After Ji Yi heard that, she strongly disagreed with his words.

“Lucas, I don’t agree with you. Not to mention that Kimi publishes the work before us, Kimi is an old senior in the circle. Her character is obvious to all, she can’t do plagiarism at all. Then I know the relationship between you and Miss Davis, if you want to protect her, you also need to depend on the actual situation. Because of this, the company has been affected in many aspects. Not to mention that the works of all designers are unsalable, the two projects that have been negotiated successfully were also likely to end in failure.”

Lucas Hawk turned pale when he heard that.

“I know it, and I’ll deal with it. Now I want to know if there are any inessential people in your review!”

Ji Yi was nervous as she watching his cold face, but soon she calmed down.

“No, I took all the manuscripts to the general manager’s office in person after I receive them. There was no one on the way.”

She responded calmly, but Lucas Hawk looked very upset.

Because there’s no clue that he can do anything.

He looked down, and then he was thinking.

It was a long time before he waved her away.

She wanted to say something, but Lucas Hawk wouldn’t give her a chance. He pressed the inside line on the table and told Carter Wood what to do next.

Now he must personally deal with the contract of the two companies.

After giving all his orders, he didn’t seem to see Ji Yi, who hadn’t left, then he went straight away.

Both companies were surprised when they saw Lucas Hawk.

Lucas Hawk was a quick temper, calming both companies within half an hour.

“This is a setup. I will investigate the matter as soon as possible and it will not affect your company.”

Both companies were still unhappy about this, but they were willing to give time for Lucas Hawk’s sake.

Lucas Hawk was pleased.

After chatting with the two companies, he left on the pretext of handling matters.

He returned to the car with Carter Wood, frowning wearily.

Looking carefully in his rearview mirror, Carter Wood asked, “President, where are we going?”

Lucas Hawk did not immediately respond, but he asked, “what do you think of this?”

Carter Wood knew he was asking about plagiarism, and said what he thought after a while.

“I don’t believe the young lady copied others work. The biggest possibility is that someone is targeting her. I just don’t know who it’s going to be.”

Lucas Hawk frowned as he listened.

“You go to the branch office and get all the surveillance footage of the top brass. Be discreet.”

As if thinking of something, he added, “and check all the staff’s internal work mailboxes to see if we can find the source of the outflow of the design.”

Carter Wood nodded.

“I see.”

Lucas Hawk told him to go back to headquarters after hearing his words.

And while he was secretly investigating, Ji Yi guessed from his attitude that he would save Evelyn Davis.

This was the opposite of her purpose.

Ji Yi would never allow Nora Davis to stay at the company again!

Then she stopped turning the pen, picked up her phone and dialed a few numbers.

That night, a fancy club,

She was led into the box by the waiter.

By this time, three elite men in suits were waiting in the box.

If Evelyn Davis had been there, she would have recognized them as senior executives.

“Guys, inviting you over is a thing I have to do.”

Ji Yi went in and told them what she wanted them to do.

“I hope you will join me in persuading the President to fire Nora Davis, who is the scourge.”

As she spoke, she denigrated Evelyn Davis and obscured her relationship with Lucas Hawk, which led the three executives to believe that Evelyn Davis got into the company by relationship.

“Of course, I’m sorry to the President, but I’m doing it for the sake of our company and for the sake of everyone. Would you like to help?”

Then she took three cards out of her bag and pushed the table toward them.

“These are my gifts. One million per card. I hope you can take it.”

When they heard it, their eyes were greedy.

They looked at each other, then they looked at her as if they had decision.

“Director Ji is right. Such a scourge cannot stay in our company.”

“Yes, the company has lost hundreds of millions of dollars in such a short time because of her.”

“Director Ji can rest assured that we will support you.”

Ji Yi smiled at their assurances.

...

The next day, the company held an emergency meeting.

Lucas Hawk was saying the way to handle this.

“I’ve calmed down both companies, and now I need you to find out what happened.”

When Ji Yi heard this, she immediately raised her hand and expressed a different opinion.

“President, I don’t see any reason to investigate. First of all, others published before us, the time is far beyond us. Secondly, the designer is the veteran designer in the circle, which is far more famous than Nora Davis. Personally, I don’t want to believe it, but the fact is that our designer Nora Davis copied other’s work.”

Lucas Hawk’s face darkened as she spoke.

Although Ji Yi was frightened, she insisted on saying what she wanted.

“President, I wish to announce the termination employment with Nora Davis in the name of the company. Not just to save the company’s name, but to make it accountable to others.”

Lucas Hawk’s face became inky as she spoke.

He was silent, which made Ji Yi a little angry.

Protecting Nora Davis?

She clenched her fists and glanced at the higher authority she had met the night before.

The men received the signal and expressed their views.

“President, I think chief Ji is right. Since designer Davis came to the company, nothing has gone well with her, and the company has lost a lot of money and reputation.”

“I agree. Although the company’s losses were eventually recovered, they still matter a lot. If the client talks to us about these things in the future, we will have less leverage in the negotiation.”

Lucas Hawk watched them quietly, but the chill gathered in his eyes.

“I know what you mean, but this has nothing to do with designer Davis. And Davis is the designer I invited into the company, she is also my most valued designer, I know better than anyone whether she copied or not!”

He didn’t give them a chance to rebut and simply called Carter Wood.

“Now you are announcing, under the name of Hawk company, that the design is the work of our ZAYR designer’s. We will pursue all accusations and thieves to the end!”

”Yes.”

Carter Wood wrote as soon as he got the job.

Ji Yi’s face darkened as she watched him.

The release was soon sent out on behalf of the Hawk company.

As the press release went out, the Internet was exploded.

Kimi’s fans, who had kept eye on the thing’s development, saw the announcement from Hawk’s and were burst out.

One by one, they flocked to Hawk’s website to defend their favorite designer.

“Isn’t the Hawk company ashamed? You obviously copy others, but you say that others slander you.”

“Who do you think you are!”

“What do you mean? Davis wouldn’t copy!”

“I don’t believe that Davis would copy, and I’ve been buying clothes from her since her debut,” she said, “this is Davis’ style, both in terms of design elements and in terms of style.”

“I agree with you. I just went to see Kimi’s style of painting. The design she published this time is totally different from her previous style of painting.”

Apparently the dissenters were Nora Davis’ fans.

They really liked the work of Evelyn Davis and had been paying attention to her since her debut.

They thought it was impossible for such a talented designer to do such a thing.

Kimi’s fans, however, were outraged.

Because it seemed that these fans of Evelyn Davis were saying Kimi copied Nora Davis.

“Those who believe Kimi copied it are really funny. Does he need to covet a new designer’s work?”

“Yes. Don’t these fans know who they are?”

As they squabbled online, Morgan company hit back.

“As far as the company knows, the designer involved in the plagiarism incident has problems with her style. Although we do not know why Hawk company always defend such a person, our company will continue to investigate the plagiarism. And Our company will strictly follow the legal procedures and hope Hawk company to hand over the copycat as soon as possible.”

With the Morgan group speaking out, Kimi’s fans were even arrogant.

Some of them pushed to call attention to the Morgan group’s statements to investigate Evelyn Davis.

It wasn't long before Evelyn Davis' scandal appeared online.

She disrespected to her predecessors and was arrogant, and there were also incomplete things that Amelia set her up.

In short, they were doing their best to discredit her.

The moment Evelyn Davis was discredited to perfection.

Evelyn Davis had been watching this at home, anxious but didn't know what to do.

She was sure that she had not plagiarized, but others had published before her.

Who leaked her work?

She was speculating, picking out all the possible candidates, but she was a little confused. She didn't even choose a target in the end.

When Lucas Hawk came back, he saw her heavy face and knew she cared about the Internet. "don't worry about the Internet," he said. "it's all keyboard players who don't understand."

Evelyn Davis, who had been worried, laughed.

"You know the keyboard player?"

To her, Lucas Hawk was a Childe.

"Why don't I know? Hawk company also has a number of media companies."

Lucas Hawk ignored the jeer in her voice and turned the conversation around when he saw that her face was not as serious as before.

"I've had people look into the company's monitoring and found nothing unusual.

Can you recollect any person or accident in your journey to see Ji Yi?"

Evelyn Davis thought hard as he got to the point.

Lucas Hawk reminded her of something.

“I remember when I was on my way to meet her, I bumped into Chloe Field and the draft fell down... I’m not sure if she saw the design.”

She looked hesitantly at Lucas Hawk.

Lucas Hawk mused.

After a while, he took out his cell phone and called Carter Wood to investigate.

Carter Wood hung up the phone and immediately investigated, and within ten minutes he had news immediately.

“President, as the young lady said, she bumped into Chloe Field and dropped the design, but we had a professional look at it and found out that Chloe Field deliberately bumped into young lady”

Lucas Hawk’s face sank as he heard this.

“So she leaked the draft?”

He asked coldly, but Carter Wood hesitated.

“I’m not sure. I’ve had people watch Chloe Field’s behavior over the last few days and they haven’t found anything unusual.”

Lucas Hawk squinted.

“You keep looking, and you send someone to keep an eye on her.”

And then Carter Wood hung up.

When he hung up, Evelyn Davis couldn’t resist asking, “how was it? Is it her?”

Lucas Hawk shook his head, “They are not sure it is her, but I’ve got people watching her.”

Evelyn Davis was stunned after heard that.

It wasn’t Chloe Field. Who else would frame her like this?

She bit her lower lip and thought.

Lucas Hawk watched, feeling sorry for her.

“Don’t think about it. I’ll take care of it, and you just stay at home.”

Evelyn Davis was reluctant, but she couldn’t help it after listening his words.

She could only hope Lucas Hawk found out soon.

And in fact, this thing was going to be quite unexpected.

By the next day, the web was full of resistance to Evelyn Davis, and the company’s affiliates and Hawk’s company were under attack.

The Morgan company also saw an opportunity to force ZARY to give up Evelyn Davis.

The company was also at loggerheads in the face of external pressures.

Everyone agreed that the best thing to do was to get Evelyn Davis out of the company and save the company.

But no one dared mention it to Lucas Hawk.

They didn’t say it, but Lucas Hawk knew.

He sat in his office with a face as cold as ink. In front of him was Carter Wood, who dared not breathe.

For a moment, the whole office was so silent that a pin could be heard dropping to the ground.

After some time, the Lucas Hawk’s expression finally changed.

“Carter Wood, you investigate Morgan group and find out who has been in contact with their people in the last two days.”

Carter Wood was puzzled when he heard that, but he went to investigate immediately.

As he left, Lucas Hawk narrowed his eyes.

If he had been confused yesterday, he would have guessed in his mind that this might be the main purpose of the people behind the design, after hearing the complaints of the company today and their strong demand to persuade Evelyn Davis to quit.

Lucas Hawk's eyes were cold when he thought of this, especially when he thought of the pressing Morgan Group, which made his aura was even colder.

He had already guessed who was behind it by those things. After all, the one who wanted to kick Evelyn Davis out of the company could be Amelia Morgan.

But Amelia Morgan was the daughter of Morgan family and she had absolute executive power over the Morgan Group.

At this moment, almost everything became transparent but also made Lucas Hawk even more angry. He did not expect that Amelia Morgan still wouldn't let it go after she left, it seemed necessary to warn Morgan family. After making decision, Cater Wood also found some useful clues, As soon as he got the accurate information, he immediately reported to Lucas Hawk.

"Mr. Hawk, I found an important clue."

Lucas Hawk glanced at him, "what?"

Cater Wood truthfully reported, "On the evening of the 6th, the assistant of Mrs. Hawk contacted an employee of the Morgan Group."

Lucas Hawk asked, "What was their relationship?"

Cater Wood responded, "According to the survey, they are classmate and we also checked the video from the coffee shop. In the video, we did not find any difference between them, just like an ordinary meeting."

But Lucas Hawk did not think so, How could it be so coincidental.

"Check the bank account of this assistant, as well as her family."

He seemed to think of something and commanded again.

Cater Wood was ordered to do it immediately. After a while, the results came out.

“Mr. Hawk, the assistant’s mother’s bank account suddenly increased by half a million yesterday.”

Hearing this, Lucas immediately became severe.

“Who is the sender?”

Cater Wood said, “Sorry, I didn’t find it because the sender is a foreign account and I couldn’t find out for a while.”

Lucas Hawk could not help laughing.

Cater Wood looked at Lucas Hawk with a puzzled look, “Mr. Hawk, you guessed it?”

“Yes, I did, there is something you need to do.”

Lucas Hawk looked at him with cold lights in his eyes.

Now that they had dug a trap for them, if they didn’t fall in it, they would have someone’s spirit dampened.

In the afternoon of the same day, a notice was issued from the Hawk Group Corporation.

The news said that the company had already investigated the plagiarism and the specific situation would be announced in a news release two days later. In view of the seriousness of the situation, the company would deal strictly with the law, bring the revealer to the court, and recover various losses caused by the leakers!

When the news came out, everyone was shocked and they all discussed who was behind it.

“It’s clear? Is it not Nora Davis but someone else?”

Many people found it incredible.

“Who knows? Maybe it’s the scapegoat that the company found. Don’t forget that our president is protecting that Sly woman.”

“You are right, I think so, after all, she can still leave here after so many things happened, she must have used unscrupulous means.”

Just when everyone thought the news was Lucas Hawk’s cover for Evelyn Davis, there was someone calmly saw the difference.

“I don’t think so.”

Helen Miller held a glass of water and stood lazily at the door of the tea room, “Designer Davis was invited to be here by our president and it is impossible to do harm to himself. Besides, the workplace is just like this, all you think designer Davis is constantly making troubles, but why not think someone is jealous of her and constantly find fault?”

They were stunned by her words.

Seeing this, Helen Miller looked around and continued, “I think, it’s same this time, there must be someone jealous of designer Davis. I would like to remind you once again that designer Davis entered company by her own talents. I think whether it is the cooperation between RC or Lowell Group, you can see it. But I sympathize with the perpetrator. Why not be obedient and focus on his own work? It’s really miserable to provoke someone he shouldn’t offend.”

Then she laughed and left the pantry.

But the others talked about it again.

“Why did designer Miller explained for Nora Davis. Isn’t she indifferent to her?”

“Maybe things are exactly as she said.”

“I think so, although designer Davis causes trouble every time, the profits brought to the company afterwards cannot be underestimated, it seems that there must be something secret in it.

“So, I’m really curious about the person who framed designer Davis.”

“I’m also curious but more angry, and it will happen tomorrow to see who is making troubles, hurting us so much.”

“This is true, our design sales have been suspended again because of that person. I have to give him a lesson tomorrow.”

They talked about it and did not notice that Bessy Roy stood there, who was anxious when she saw the company’s announcement.

She wasn’t sure if the president found her, but she felt scared when she heard how they were going to deal with the perpetrator.

No, she couldn’t sit still.

Then she left the office in panic with phone.

.....

Lucas Hawk told what reported by Cater Wood to Evelyn Davis when he got home.

“You mean Bessy betrayed me?”

Hearing it, Evelyn Davis was surprised and even unbelievable.

“You don’t believe it?” Lucas Hawk looked at her.

Evelyn Davis pursed her lips.

She did not believe that Bessy Roy would frame her, but she trust Lucas Hawk in heart. After all, he wasn’t the kind of person to hide the truth, so he must have found something.

“If you don’t believe, we can wait for the news.”

Seeing her keep silent, Lucas Hawk misunderstood.

Evelyn Davis took a deep breath and shook her head, “I am not distrusting you, just thinking why Bessy did this?”

Lucas Hawk chuckled.

“No need to think about it, it must be for money, otherwise how does the money in her mother’s account come?”

Evelyn Davis heard this and was completely silent.

Lucas Hawk patted her shoulder, "Don't have to think so much."

Evelyn Davis sighed.

None of these Bessy Roy knew.

She left alone after everyone left, watching the surroundings very carefully, Seeing that no one was familiar, she took a taxi to a hidden cafe.

But she didn't know that no matter how carefully she acted, her every move was monitored by Cater Wood.

The Gorgeous Substitute Wife of Mr. President Chapter 295 - Tips

Bessy walked into the cafe and got to the predetermined position under the guidance of the waiter.

There was already a woman in uniform sitting there, who was a classmate previously investigated by Cater.

"Bessy, why are you so anxious to ask me out?"

After Bessy took a seat, she took a sip of water and calmly said, "Our company has found the leaker of confidential information."

This classmate frowned.

"So, do you suspect that you have been checked out?"

Bessy nodded, then she shook her head.

"I'm not sure if the person the company found was me, but if it is, my life is over, can you let the people above you check it for me?"

The classmate lowered her eyes, "I will try my best."

In fact, she had her own plan.

After all, if Bessy was found out, she would also be implicated.

In a word, she asked Bessy to wait in her position, and she went away to contact the person above.

After Amelia heard the words of Bessy's classmate, her eyes were cold and uneasy.

"Just delay her first, we can't get involved in this matter."

If it's really as what the assistant said, the Hawk group found the real leaker, if she helped Bessy, she would be implicated definitely.

The classmate also thought of this, and she nodded and hang up.

When she returned to her seat, Bessy looked at her nervously.

"How about it? Would anyone above you be willing to help me?"

The classmate looked at her, and her eyes flashed imperceptible impatience.

"Bessy, don't panic first, now they are not sure yet. If we help you, it would look like that we are telling the Hawk Group in disguise that you betrayed them, so wait quietly. You, we will certainly help you, after all, if you are arrested, we will also be involved too. "

She was very patient and comforting her.

Bessy stunned.

Before she reacted, the classmate glanced at the time on her wrist, and smiled, "Bessy, it's late, I have asked my boyfriend to have dinner together, bye."

Bessy looked at the back of her departure, her face suddenly became gloomy.

In fact, they just did not want to care her at all.

She thought of this, and her hand on her lap clenched tightly.

It seemed that she couldn't count on her classmate here, she could only rely on herself.

She must not wait until the company announced tomorrow.

So now she had only one way-leave here.

She thought so, then quickly left the cafe with her bag.

She quickly returned to the rental house and took out her suitcase to start packing.

An hour later, she left the rental house with her suitcase.

When she was planning to take a taxi to leave, Cater instructed the driver to drive over.

Bessy saw the black car suddenly stopped in front of her, and her heart trembled.

Especially when she saw the window fell and Cater's face was revealed, she was panicked.

"Mr. Wood ..."

She stepped back and wanted to turn around and run, but she didn't know when she had already been surrounded by bodyguards.

"Bessy, you can't run away."

Cater watched her movement, said coldly, and then gave orders to the bodyguard outside.

"Take her into the car."

Seeing this, Bessy struggled.

"What do you want to do? Let me go, otherwise I will sue you for kidnapping illegally."

Cater looked at Bessy who was struggling, his eyes narrowed and said: "Before you sue us, should we count your disclosure of the company confidential?" Bessy was a little bit nervous when she heard this.

"What are you talking about? I don't understand."

She didn't look at him, and was already determined to refuse to admit it.

Cater also knew her thoughts, so he sneered.

"Bring her back."

When Bessy heard this, she trembled, but couldn't resist, and was forced to follow the bodyguard to get in the car.

Cater saw that she was quiet, so he took out his mobile phone and called Lucas to report the situation.

"President, we've caught her, and before she was caught, she already wanted to run."

In the studying room, Lucas, who handled the work, was not surprised, and said quietly, "Interrogate her. Be sure to get the name of the master behind the scenes."

Cater bowed his head: "Copy that."

When the words were off, he was about to hang up, but was stopped by Lucas.

"Don't hang up."

Cater was surprised, but still did what he said.

Lucas put down his cell phone and walked out of the studying room. He returned to the room directly.

Evelyn was still designing in the room at this time. She heard the sound of the door opening and looked sideways.

"Have you finished your matters so early today?"

She greeted with a smile, Lucas shook his head.

"No, but I think there is something you should participate."

Evelyn heard the words and was puzzled.

"What's that?"

Lucas did not conceal, and simply explained that matter about that Bessy was trying to run away but was caught.

“Cater has taken her to interrogate, I think you have to listen to the process, after all, she’s some kind of your student, I do not want to cause any misunderstanding.”

Evelyn heard this and couldn’t help raising an eyebrow.

She didn’t even know this man would be so narrow-minded.

She was just hesitating while in the restaurant, this guy had to let her listen.

But it’s okay. She also wondered why would Bessy do this.

In this way, she followed Lucas to the studying room.

Lucas pressed the hands-free button while the phone was still connected.

At the same time, Cater had also taken Bessy to Lucas’s another villa.

He let the bodyguard to bring her in, and began the interrogation.

“Bessy, tell me why do you sell company secrets, who is the big boss behind this, and what plans do they have?”

Bessy was caught by them, and her heart was tense to death.

She was getting tense when she heard these problems.

Obviously the company had taken control of all her actions.

She can’t admit that, otherwise, she’s really finished.

“Mr. Wood, what are you talking about? How can I betray our company.”

She insisted and she pretended not to know anything.

Cater stared at her, and that made her nervous.

Just then, Cater sneered again and asked, “Are you pretending to be stupid? If the secrets weren’t sold, where did the more than half a million from your mother's bank card come from? As far as I know, your family members are ordinary workers, and no one buys lottery tickets. “

Bessy heard the words, her face was pale.

She didn't expect that the company would find her mother.

Just when she was making excuses, Cater once again forced her to answer the questions honestly: “According to the Commercial Law of Country X, Article 342, illegally sell other people's commercial achievements and sentence them to 5 years to life for their value. I believe that you don't need I to remind you, you should also be aware that Nora's work can bring millions or even millions of profits to the company. How many years do you think you will be sentenced? Of course ... if you cooperate with our investigation, the company can handle it at its discretion. “

Bessy didn't want to go to jail. After thinking about it in her heart, she gritted her teeth and looked at Cater.

“Will you let me go as long as I tell you.”

She tried to talk to negotiate with Cater, which caused Cater to laugh slightly.

“I said only to deal with it as appropriate, of course, if you do not want to say, we still have a way to find out.”

Bessy knew that her plans had been seen through, her face became rigid, and she finally confessed.

“It was the Morgan Group who asked me to do this. As for the big boss behind this matter, I don't know. I have always been contacted by my classmate.”

Cater heard what she said was almost the same as what he investigated, and knew that she was not lying.

After asking some details, he waved his hand to the bodyguard and let them take her away, then picked up his mobile phone.

“President, what should I do next?”

Lucas heard the words, glanced at Evelyn, and silently asked her what she thought.

Evelyn felt a little complicated at this time.

Although she knew that Bessy had betrayed herself, when she heard it in person, she was still upset.

“You handle it.”

When she finished, she leaned on the sofa aside and stared at the ceiling above her head, her eyes full of speechlessness.

When she heard Bessy admit that it was the Morgan Group’s instructions, she was immediately thinking of Amelia.

The woman’s grievances against her were so deep, she never wanted to let go of her.

Suddenly, while she was thinking wildly, Lucas was thinking about the next action.

Although they knew from the mouth of Bessy that the big boss was the Morgan Group, they did not have exact evidence on their hands and could not stand up in one fell swoop.

He thought, and an idea in his mind was gradually formed.

“Stay there with Bessy. I’ll come over and arrange what you should do later.”

When Evelyn heard these words, she reacted.

“You want to go there.”

Lucas nodded: “Some things are not clear on the phone. It’s better to go there in person.”

Evelyn nodded thoughtfully, and then said, “Let me go with you.”

Although it seems that she had not too much feeling in Bessy’s betrayal, there was always a knot in her heart, which made her difficult to let go.

Lucas also knew this, so he did not stop her.

Then the two arrived at the villa and Cater came out to greet them.

“President, Lady.”

Lucas and Evelyn nodded.

“Where’s she?”

Lucas asked.

“Shut up in the room, are you going to see her now?”

Lucas nodded: “Yes, deal with it early, they can be caught unprepared tomorrow morning.”

Cater understood, he let the bodyguards to bring Bessy down again.

Bessy was escorted down, and she was still puzzled, but when she saw Lucas and Evelyn standing in the living room, she was panic.

She was particularly guilty to Evelyn.

She said nothing, waiting for them to speak.

Lucas just glanced at her and took Evelyn sit on the sofa.

“Bessy, if we give you a chance to redeem yourself, would you accept it?”

After having a seat, Lucas looked at Bessy indifferently, and his eyes were full of calculations.

Bessy heard this and raised her head suddenly.

“If I do it, then you will not send me to jail.”

Lucas smiled.

“Do you think you have the capital to talk to us now?”

Bessy froze, her face was complicated, but she still compromised.

“What do you want me to do?”

Lucas didn't waste the time, and said frankly, “I want you to contact the Morgan Group again. It is best to see who directed you.”

Bessy figured it out in her heart and found that it was not difficult.

“I can promise you”

She paused for a moment and agreed.

Lucas raised his eyebrows because she answered so quickly.

The flash of cold light in his eyes: “Since you promised, it's better not to trick me, think about your family.”

When Bessy heard the threat, she shivered and her thin lips clenched.

“You can rest assured, I know what to do.”

When Lucas saw this, he gestured to Cater: “Take her down and prepare it.”

Cater nodded and left with Bessy.

Evelyn looked at the back of their departure, her face became cold, and chased out.

“Wait!”

She chased Cater and stopped him.

“Lady, is there anything else?”

Cater saw Evelyn and wondered.

Evelyn gave him a glance, and finally her eyes fell on Bessy.

“I want to talk with her for a second.”

Cater heard the words and understood instantly, and he nodded, then retreated aside.

As they left, the garden fell silent, and neither of them spoke.

This depressed silence finally made Bessy unbearable and took the lead in breaking the silence.

“Nora, what do you want to say?”

She licked her dry red lips and asked.

Evelyn stared at her, asked questions that had been circling in her heart.

“I’m confused, why do you want to do this? I think I treat you well ... why do you betray me?”

Bessy was not surprised when she heard this, it seemed to be her expectation.

She chuckled and raised her eyes and looked at Evelyn with complex eyes.

“Why? You really don’t know?”

Evelyn heard the words and suddenly didn’t know how to answer.

Seeing this, Bessy continued, “Evelyn, do you know? Sometimes, I really envy you that you not be forced by life.”

She said, taking a deep breath: “Also, not everyone is like you. We don’t have a good background.”

Evelyn heard the words, smiled, and her eyes were all indifferent.

“Ok, I know.”

After she said it, she left without looking back.

Bessy looked at the back of her departure, and was very uncomfortable in her heart, but it was just uncomfortable.

Because she knew that if it happened again, her choice would not change.

After all, people are selfish.

After an hour, Bessy arrived at her classmate's home under Cater's protection.

She looked at the documents in her hand, took a deep breath, and went into the elevator.

"Bessy, why are you here?"

Her classmate opened the door and saw Bessy outside the door, she was very surprised.

"It's like this, I just had Evelyn's new design here, so I guess I was not suspected by the company."

Her classmate nodded, waiting for her next words.

Bessy also continued: "I came to you just to make a profit again."

When the classmate heard this, her eyes flickered and she invited her into the room to talk.

"How are you going to make money?"

She poured a glass of water for Bessy and asked.

Bessy looked at the water glass in front of her and laughed, "Can you let me meet you boss?"

Her classmate hesitated when she heard this.

She thought that it was Bessy who wanted to leave her alone and earn the money alone.

When Bessy saw this, she knew what she was thinking, and continued to persuade her, "You can rest assured that I am not leaving you alone, but this time the design is perfect. As long as it is launched, it will definitely be famous, I just want to earn more benefits for us. "

After Bessy Roy's classmate heard that, she was quite moved and wondering.

After all, everyone loved money.

She thought about it, and responded, "I'll ask my boss first."

Bessy Roy nodded, and then watched her walk to the balcony to call.

Amelia Morgan received a call from the classmate, and she was impatient.

"What happened again?"

The classmate also heard her voice and succinctly explained the situation here.

"Would you like to see her?"

Amelia Morgan frowned: "She was investigated by her company, wasn't she? Why can she get the design again?"

The classmate had already guessed that she would doubt, and explained, "It was not certain yet. It was my classmate who was timid and frightened herself."

Amelia Morgan listened to her and always felt that there was something wrong.

When she was about to refuse, Kimi who was with her found something and asked, "Is there something happened in Hawk Group?"

Amelia Morgan nodded and explained to Kimi.

"I think there is conspiracy in it."

She said her concerns, but Kimi didn't agree with her.

"Caution is good, but I think there should be no problem in it. If they really doubt the assistant, they have arrested her already. They wouldn't give her the important design."

Kimi said with calculations in her eyes: "Now, people on the Internet is saying that my design is different from the previous style. If I can launch some works at this time, maybe I can prove myself. Then if Hawk Group wants to protect Nora Davis, it will also cause public outrage. At that time, the reputation of Nora Davis is ruined, and she will not be able to rebuild her career in the future.”

Listening to Kimi’s analysis, Amelia kept silent to calculate.

She had to say that Kimi was right.

From what she knew of Lucas Hawk, he would never be mercy towards the betrayer. However, the assistant could get the design again which meant Lucas Hawk should catch the wrong person.

Thinking of this, she smiled viciously.

Kimi’s idea would make another trouble to Hawk Group.

In a short time, she had a scheme in her heart. She said to her mobile phone, “You tell the assistant. Take the design draft to Bihu Wan tomorrow.”

After that, she hung up the phone.

The classmate looked at mobile phone which had already hung up. She felt joyful in her heart.

“The boss agreed to meet you, and tomorrow you will bring the design draft to Bihu Wan.”

She went back to the living room and told the news to Bessy Roy.

Bessy Roy heard the words. She could not help but feel relieved.

“Ok. Then I will go back first, and come to you tomorrow.”

Hearing this, the classmate knew that Bessy Roy hadn’t set aside her. The classmate smiled more happily, and personally sent Bessy Roy to the door.

After Bessy Roy came downstairs, she did not immediately take a taxi to leave.

She went to the intersection and saw a black car driving over.

As she approached, the window lowered and Cater Wood showed up.

“Mr. Wood, I had already done the job that boss ordered. They will be at Bihu Wan Cafe tomorrow afternoon.”

She reported softly. Cater Wood nodded.

“Okay, you go back to have a good rest in the evening. Don’t screw it up tomorrow.”

After saying, he asked the driver to leave.

Bessy Roy watched his leaving back. She bit her lower lip. After a long time, she turned away.

Cater Wood who had left contacted Lucas Hawk in the car.

“Boss, things are done. The place where they met was at Bihu Wan Cafe.”

“Well,” Lucas Hawk said coldly, “You ask someone to prepare in advance to ensure nothing is wrong.” After Cater Wood got the command, he hung up.

Lucas Hawk returned to the room with the phone hung up.

He found that Evelyn Davis who should have been slept woke up.

“Did I wake you up?”

He didn’t notice that his expression was full with tenderness and pampering.

Evelyn Davis shook her head: “No, I am dozing. In fact, I am thinking about something. How is it going? Is it done? Did Morgan Group walk into our trap?”

She asked with concerned.

Lucas Hawk nodded: “It’s done. Take a good rest and keep your vigorous. Let’s wait and see tomorrow.”

Evelyn Davis looked at the sneer on his face, knowing that this time Morgan Group would definitely be in trouble, so she would sleep at ease.

...

The next day, Bessy Roy came to Bihu Wan Cafe according to the agreed time.

She looked at the front door, tightened the documents in her hands, and took a deep breath to walk in.

After she said the number of the private room, the waiter took her into the private room.

There was not only her classmate in the private room, but also two people she knew.

One was her former director Amelia Morgan, and the other was the main person involved in the incident, Kimi.

Bessy Roy was surprised when she saw Amelia Morgan.

Because she was bribed by Amelia Morgan once before. Now that Amelia Morgan was the big boss behind the scenes, why didn't Amelia Morgan find her directly?

But although she was puzzled, she didn't ask something.

"Miss Morgan, Kimi."

She greeted them politely.

Amelia Morgan and Kimi only nodded indifferently which was their responses.

Finally, her classmate greeted her to sit down. They began to talk about business.

"You said you have a brilliant design in your hand. Show it to me."

Kimi asked for the design draft. Bessy Roy did not hesitate to take out the design and hand it over.

All of a sudden, everyone was attracted by the design.

In order to let them walk into the trap, Lucas Hawk cost him all fortune. The design would be the best-seller that his company intend to banging the market.

Even Kimi who had been immersed in fashion circle for more than a decade was amazed by these designs.

“Amelia, these works are absolutely top-quality. We can definitely bring huge profits to the company!”

And her flat career could welcome a new life!

She didn't say the following sentence, but Amelia Morgan could still see her ambition through her eyes.

“Ok, we want these design drafts.”

She said, looking toward Bessy Roy. She had a bank card in her hand.

“Sure enough, you never disappointed me. Here are two million. Next time, if there is such a good design, you can give it directly to me, understand?”

Bessy Roy listened to her words, and her heart trembled.

“I understand.”

She forced herself to calm down, loosened her bag which was grabbed tightly by her, and accepted the bank card.

Amelia Morgan didn't find anything unusual on her face.

After Kimi saw the transaction was successful, she couldn't wait to go back and launch these new works.

Amelia Morgan did not stop her.

After all, she would use these designs to press Hawk Group.

However, they didn't know Cater Wood took someone into the private room after they left.

When Bessy Roy saw Cater Wood, she took out the recording pen that was put in the bag. Cater Wood sent his guards to go to the private room to take the monitor.

Yes, since Amelia Morgan and Kimi entered the private room, they had been monitored.

The next day, Hawk Group.

The press conference attracted much attention was held in Hawk Group under the auspices of Lucas Hawk.

There were only a few invited media reporters at the venue.

“With regard to the incident of plagiarism, our company has great evidence. Next, we will sue Morgan Group for illegally acquiring our company’s secrets.”

Cater Wood who got the command of Lucas Hawk announced several key points of the conference.

“The lawyer’s letter will be delivered to Morgan Group on time in one hour. The matter will be announced on the entire network!”

At the same time that Cater Wood announced these things, the official website of Hawk Group also updated the news.

All of a sudden, the Internet became lively again.

“OMG, are these two companies competing?”

“I don’t care how they compete. I wonder what the compelling evidence is.”

“Yes, I am also curious. If Hawk Group wants to accuse, anyway, it should give the evidence first.”

“I don’t think they dare to give the evidence because they don’t have evidence at all. It plays the trick of a thief yelling to catch the thief. Kimi can’t plagiarize others!”

“Yes! How could Kimi plagiarize? Hawk Group, take out the evidence.”

But the staff of Hawk Group was depressed.

Wasn’t it a time to expose someone who sold company secrets? How did it evolve into an accusation against Morgan Group?

They could not get any satisfaction after they were curious for a day, making them want to know who the person was behind all this.

Unfortunately, Hawk Group did nothing after issuing this news announcement.

At the same time, Amelia Morgan also heard the news and sneered.

She didn't believe that Lucas Hawk could get any reasonable evidence. Otherwise it would not be the stalemate situation now.

At the same time, she hated and was more jealous.

Because Lucas Hawk made such a big event for he just didn't want Nora Davis to have a bad reputation.

Since he wanted to protect Nora Davis, then she would make Nora Davis get extreme notoriety and not work in this circle.

She picked up her cell phone and called her assistant.

"Contact a few bloggers who has a large number of fans. Let them guide public opinion, and thoroughly make the situation more confused. Nora Davis, I want her to be a piece of sh!t who everyone scolds!"

She gnashed her teeth in anger. She hung up the phone and called Kimi.

"Didn't you say that you intend to launch those works yesterday? You can launch those works now. I will let the company cooperate with you."

Kimi was so happy after she heard it.

"Okay, I'll sort them out first."

It could be said that within two hours, Morgan Group responded to Hawk Group's announcement.

"Facts speak louder than words. No matter how strong the storm is, our company will not step back, and it is the responsibility of each company to protect the interests of its employees!"

Along with these sentences, there was also a share below which were the latest design drafts issued by Kimi on Kimi's official website.

Because the draft was published, Kimi said nothing.

After all, sometimes silence was better than speech.

In fact, it was right.

The netizens who had fought like cat and dog on the Internet became more fiercer after Morgan Group's counterattack.

Of course, the people who counterattack very fiercely were fans who supported Kimi.

"Oh, it was a real slap in the face. Come on, those people who said that Kimi couldn't draw these designs? What is this?"

"Yes, where are those who made goals that they want to eat the keyboard and eat sh!t? Come on. I am still waiting to see you perform."

"Idiots. That's why you have been fooled by a plagiarizing guy." Fans who originally supported Evelyn Davis saw these words and became silent.

Of course, there was still someone who certainly didn't want to believe.

However, Kimi had already taken out her works. In contrast, from the beginning until now, it was Hawk Group responded, and Nora Davis didn't explain at all which made them shake.

At this moment, the bloggers who were bribed by Amelia Morgan also ran out to make objective evaluations.

"After watching for two days, I finally understand. To be honest, it's Hawk Group's fault this time. If you want to take a place in the fashion industry, you should understand the rules instead of using your power to press others. Kimi is the senior in the fashion industry. She has the ability and reputation, so why will she copy a designer who had skeletons in the closet? "

"I agree with Yang Bian. Hawk group is too anxious for success and has lost his poise."

With the speech of these bloggers, the fans who supported Morgan Group and Kimi were even more fierce.

They rushed into the official website of the Hawk Group one by one, and said that the Hawk Group was bullying others.

Even the netizens who originally supported Hawk Group and Evelyn Davis changed their sides in this matter.

Even the operations of Hawk Group had been affected.

Evelyn Davis saw all this at home. She was anxious.

She called Lucas Hawk immediately, but Lucas Hawk asked her not to worry.

“Don’t worry, these are all expected.”

Lucas Hawk soothed Evelyn Davis, but he was angry.

The reason why he did not beat Morgan Group once was that he wanted to make more movement and let Morgan Group learn a lesson.

Let Morgan Group know that they didn’t dare to offend the families in Hawk Family again!

Evelyn Davis knew that Lucas Hawk had other plans. She was relieved of her worries.

“Okay, then I don’t care, and concentrate on creation.”

She sighed and laughed.

After all, she caused so many troubles to Lucas Hawk. What she could only do and compensate was creation.

“Ok.” Lucas Hawk said. He immediately hung up the phone and asked Cater Wood to come in.

“Go to step two.”

He knocked on the table and said in a deep voice.

Cater Wood nodded and left to do it.

In a short time, the noisy network was quiet for a while with the latest news from Hawk Group.

There was a recording on the official website of Hawk Group, which was a recording of Amelia Morgan purchase of the design drafts last night.

“OMG. I can’t believe this surprising ending! It’s comparable to O. Henry ending.”

“Hey, this is not a drama, but it is more exciting than a drama.”

“Haha. It cheers me greatly. Kimi, come out. I want to see what else you want to say!”

“Yes, come out. You still insist that Kimi developed a new style. It was a real slap in your face, was it hurt?”

“This is not true. This must a trap that Hawk Group wants to frame Kimi up!”

“Sure, they just want to escape this responsibility!”

Once again, fans from both sides scolded.

At the same time, Amelia Morgan also received the news from the assistant, and was so angry that she almost threw the phone out.

“Bessy Roy!”

She gnashed her teeth. She understood everything now.

It was not a good design draft! It was a trap from the beginning, forcing her to reveal herself!

She thought, and could not help but sneer.

It was really the man she fell in love with. His scheme put her to shame!

She took a hard breath and forced herself to calm down.

Now it was not the time that she could be in a panic. Otherwise, the loss of Morgan Group would be great once the news was real!

After Amelia calmed down, she was about to call the assistant in. But at this time, Kimi hurried in from outside.

“Amelia, what should we do? The Hawk Group has the recording about we went out to negotiate last night.”

Amelia looked at her with an angry expression and scolded: “Why are you so anxious? It’s just a recording, what can it represent!”

Kimi froze and couldn’t help but be afraid.

“But ...”

Before she finished speaking, she was interrupted sharply by Amelia: “No but, but I will deal with this matter, just stay here quietly!”

Kimi looked at her, and finally nodded and left the office.

Amelia looked at her back as she left, and called her assistant in coldly.

In the afternoon, a checklist posted on the official website of the Morgan Group.

The general consciousness above was that the recordings released by the Hawk Group were composed of audio.

And with this picture sent out, there was also a lawyer’s letter, which was an indictment against the Hawk Group.

Netizens looked at this reversal message and exploded again.

Especially the Kimi fans who were suppressed, they became more fierce than before.

“Did you see that? Synthesizing, they really can do everything to evade responsibility, all means have been used!”

“These people are right, this Hawk group can do everything for the benefit.”

“From now on, I will resist everything of the Hawk Group! Is anyone with me?”

“Yes.”

“Count me in.”

...

In a second, the Hawk Group, which had recovered a little bit of its reputation, fell again, and even the stocks moved.

Lucas sat in the office and listened to Cater’s report, his eyes gathered cold.

“Take the third step, remember to file a case with the Public Security Bureau.”

He sneered and commanded, the coldness overwhelmed all over the body.

Although Cater had already used to it, he still can’t help shaking.

President’s plan was too cruel.

Although it would not let the Morgan Group break through their fortunes, it would hurt their foundations, and they would not dare to provoke them for now.

He lamented in his heart but his action did not stop, then he executed the last step plan very neatly.

It took less than half an hour, and the video they took last night was sent online.

The fans became quiet immediately who were still very arrogant before.

“Haha, look at the situation. Will the Morgan Group say that it’s synthesized too, right?”

“I major in editing video, I can tell everyone in charge that this video, including the previous recording, is not a synthesis!”

“Look, Kimi fans, aren’t you very arrogant just now? You are afraid to say anything now, are you?”

“Of course, they are. The latest news is that some people from the public security organs have gone to the Morgan Group, and some people are going to be miserable.”

And it was true.

Amelia saw the police officer being taken to the office by an assistant, her face twisted to the extreme.

“Miss Morgan, the Chief of the Hawk Group has charged you with illegally collecting trade secrets. Please follow me.”

No matter what her face was, the police showed the police officer’s card directly and took them away.

Also who with her was Kimi.

As the two walked out of the office building, they were immediately surrounded by reporters coming downstairs.

“Miss Morgan, what do you think of this business match?”

“Miss Morgan, I heard that you worked at the Hawk Group before. This commercial war was declared because you hate the Hawk Group’s dismissal from you?”

“Kimi, as a senior designer, why do you copy a new designer’s draft? Is it because you have already done all the drawing work for more than 20 years and the imaginative power in designing has declined, so can’t you make a better work, is it right?”

“Kimi, your fans would like to know, did you volunteer or were you forced by your boss?”

They surrounded the crowd and threw sharp questions one by one with the microphone.

With their inquiries, Amelia and Kimi became embarrassed.

Fortunately, the police force gave them strength. When they didn’t know how to respond, they came to isolate the reporters and took Amelia and Kimi to the police station.

With their departure, the Morgan group became chaotic.

First, Kimi's fans started to make a noise.

They felt deceived by Kimi and the Morgan Group, and asked for explanation from the Morgan Group.

However, because Amelia was taken away, Amelia's mother hurried over to hold an emergency meeting, she missed the first time to appease them, and that resulted in the following half a day, the entire group's business was affected by angry fans.

The brand counter of the shopping mall was smashed, and a sign was protested downstairs from the company.

It's because of these farce that the stocks of the Morgan Group also became turbulent.

Cater learned the news and immediately reported it to Lucas.

When Lucas heard the words, his face remained unchanged, or in other words, these were all his expectations.

"Watch the police station. If the Morgan family wants to protect someone, you should greet the people above, tell them that this incident has a great impact on the Hawk Group, and I hope to deal with it according to law."

When Cater heard the words, he immediately understood the meaning of his president.

This was intended to let the Morgan Group to suffer losses!

However, when he thought about what the Morgan Group had done, he can't sympathize with them, and wanted to give them a sentence, that was they deserved.

Lucas didn't know the activities of his subordinates. After telling him to finish these things, he got up and left the company.

He didn't know why, when it was over, he wanted to tell Evelyn the result.

Because of this idea, he drove back without thinking.

Evelyn was surprised to see Lucas who was back before the time of off work.

“Why are you back?”

Lucas walked to her, and glanced at the drawing board in front of her, and found that there were already three design drawings on it, and he knew that she had been working all the time, not paying attention to the changes on the Internet.

“Things are resolved, so I come back and tell you.”

When Evelyn heard this, she stunned for a moment, and then came to understand what he said.

He saw her with a smile on her face and asked, “Resolved? How? The Morgan group admitted it?”

Lucas looked at the smile on her face and suddenly knew why he wanted to come back and tell her about it.

He didn't think deeply about why he wanted to see Evelyn's smile, just told the details which made Evelyn feel surprised.

In particular, Lucas also filed a case and sent Amelia to the police station, which was really beyond her expectation.

“We made Amelia in police station, wouldn't the Morgan family let it go at that?”

Although she was relieved, she couldn't help worrying about the Morgan family.

Lucas naturally knew what she was worried about, he sneered: “Even if they want to give up, I won't agree with them. You don't need to worry about these things.”

When Evelyn heard this, she nodded to show that she understood.

Then she found something unusual that she should have noticed earlier.

If Lucas came back here just to tell her about it, he could have called to tell her. There was no need for him to come back in person.

However, when Evelyn thought of this, Lucas also found his own difference.

He didn't know why he had made such a decision. He coughed uneasily.

"It's almost done. I'll arrange the follow-up."

When he finished, he didn't give Evelyn the chance to talk, and turned away.

Evelyn looked at the pace of his departure, and she still found a trace of difference. The smile on the corner of her lips couldn't help rising.

In Hawk's group.

Amelia's mother, Mrs. Morgan managed to appease the board of directors and came out of the meeting room. Then she received a summons from the court.

"Mrs. Morgan, Hawk group has taken legal action against our company. I asked our legal counsel about this lawsuit. The winning rate is not high. If we have a lawsuit against Hawk group, it will be not good for our company. The lawyer suggested to settle with Hawk group!"

Secretary said the information she collected here, which made Mrs. Morgan's face was gloomy.

"What a Hawk group! What a Lucas!"

She was gnashing her teeth, but she had to admit that Hawk family were better at calculation and took them into the trap step by step!

"How are our stores? How about the company's stock?"

She forced herself to be calm and asked about the situation.

"The shareholders have been appeased for the time being, but there is a big loss in the store."

When Amelia's mother heard this, she looked cold, "Count the loss, then call the police, and let those perpetrators pay for it!"

Secretary nodded and immediately asked about the lawsuit.

“Mrs.Morgan,are we going to fight this lawsuit?”

Mrs.Morgan looked at the summons in her hand,and her anger was rising gradually,but she still resisted it.

“Contact Lucas Hawk.I want to see him.”

At the same time,Lucas,who was having dinner,received Cater’s call and put down the tableware with a chuckle.

“Tell them I’m not available tonight.I’ll deal with it tomorrow.”

Evelyn watched him smile like an old fox,and her heart trembled slightly.

What a dangerous handsome man!

She could not help but scold in her heart,but her heart was still beating fast.

Even though she had lived with Lucas for such a long time,there was no aesthetic fatigue in this man.

Every time she looked at him,it made her feel different.

After learning that she was rejected,Amelia’s mother on the other side was so angry that she smashed a vase worth tens of millions of dollars,but she was helpless.

“Then wait for tomorrow.We will go to his house and his company to wait and block him!”

She was gnashing her teeth in the office,and the secretary trembled and nodded.

However,they had never thought that many things could happen in one night.

...

The next day,as soon as Mrs.Morgan arrived at the company,the secretary rushed to report.

“Mrs.Morgan,Huayi,Chenyang and many other companies rescinded the contract with us.Just last night,someone from the Hawk group contacted the person in charge of these companies.Now they have signed a cooperation agreement with the Hawk group.”

When Mrs.Morgan heard these reports,she almost broke her silver teeth.

“Where is Lucas now?”

She took a deep breath and forced herself to question in a cool voice.

“The people following him say that he has entered the company.”

Hearing this,Mrs.Morgan lowered her eyes and said,”Drive to Hawk group.”

Within half an hour,she arrived at Hawk Group.

Cater stepped out of the elevator just as Mrs.Morgan planned to report her identity.

“Mrs.Morgan,our president has expected that you will come today and send me to meet you.”

Cater greeted them with courtesy.

Listening to his words,Mrs.Morgan’s face became gloomy and she felt cheated for some reason.

But at this time she could not leave.

Her daughter was still locked up.The company’s stock stopped rising or even would fall at any time.She could not let her bad temperature screw up her things.

In this way,she followed Cater upstairs and pondered the conditions that might be proposed by Lucas.

However,even though she had prepared,she was still frightened by Lucas’s excessive demands.

“Lucas Hawk,you’re really a vulture!”

She couldn’t help patting the table and yelling.

Actually it was inevitable that Mrs. Morgan would be so angry.

Lucas not only asked for the spiritual reputation loss of 50 million for Evelyn, but also two profitable projects of Morgan group.

Lucas smiled coldly in the face of angry Mrs. Morgan.

“Mrs. Morgan, you are so humorous. If I want to rob you, I won’t let you come up and talk to me.”

He said so and did not give her the opportunity to refute. Then he threw a document in front of her, and continued to say, “I do not think Mrs. Morgan has learned how much damage your company has caused to our group. You can take a look at the document, and if you are not satisfied with my proposal, we can take legal proceedings.”

Looking at his triumphant expression, Mrs. Morgan picked up the document tightly and looked at it. Her face suddenly became extremely gloomy.

“OK, I can promise to give you the projects, but have a requirement that you let my daughter go!”

She quickly changed her attitude and agreed to the terms of Lucas, only because if she went according to the legal procedures, she’s afraid that Morgan Group would pay more than half of their money!

Listening to her condition, Lucas’s bright eyes were dim, and he said in a deep voice, “Mrs. Morgan, what we are talking about today is the compensation of two families.”

It meant that he didn’t care about Amelia’s thing.

It was also because of this attitude that the Amelia’s mother went mad.

“Lucas, you are a beast! Amelia now is living poorly because of you!”

She pointed to Lucas and shouted.

Lucas’s face cooled immediately.

“Mrs. Morgan should pay attention to the proper way of speaking. I never let Amelia do anything. All she has done is pestering me and wife all the time!”

He also lost the patience to negotiate with the Mrs.Morgan and called Cater.

“If Mrs.Morgan thinks that the conditions I give are unacceptable,then we can talk about this in court!”

Cater,looking at the angry president,went to Mrs.Morgan and said with a smile,”Mrs.Morgam,this way,please.”

Mrs.Morgan looked at him,and then at Lucas,who had begun to deal with the business.She was furious but had to leave.

After a while,Cater came back.

:Mr.Hawk,do we really need to fight a lawsuit with Morgan’s group?Should I ask a lawyer to draft a copy?”

He frowned and asked.Although he was outside just now,he heard something vaguely.

Lucas looked at him and said with a sneer,”This lawsuit won’t happen.”

In fact,it was exactly as Lucas had said.

Although Mrs.Morgan left angrily,she had to compromise the conditions of Lucas when she calmed down.

Within an hour,two transfer contracts and a check of 50 million yuan were sent to Lucas.

Lucas looked at these things and his eyes flashed light,then he gave orders to Cater.

“Let people keep a close eye on the police station.Don’t let people let Amelia out.”
