

The Gorgeous Substitute Wife of Mr. President Chapter 301 - Tips

0 5 minutes read

Lucas knew that since Mrs.Morgan had given up saving Amelia by asking him for help,she would surely try other ways.

But he didn't want Amelia to come out so easily.

This woman had challenged his patience again and again.He must let her draw the lesson.

At the same time,in Hawk Family.

Evelyn,who was drawing,received an unexpected call.

"Miss Davis,are you free now?Can you come out?"

It was Bessy whose voice came from the phone.

Evelyn frowned,but still agreed.

Twenty minutes later,they two met in a coffee shop not far from the company.

"What do you want to say to me?"

When Evelyn was seated,she asked directly.

Bessy didn't look at her,but stirred the coffee and said,"I'm fired."

Evelyn raised her eyebrows and said nothing.After all,this was inevitable.

She did not speak,waiting for Bessy to continue.

She did not believe that the reason why Bessy asked her to come here was only to tell her this.

Yes,she was right.

When Bessy saw that Evelyn was speechless,she began to talk again.

“You know what?Although the President let me pay off this time,regardless of my mistakes,he expelled me from the city forever...”

She said,her eyes could not help but became empty,”At first,I really intended to study hard with you,but they all look down on me,saying that I would never have a bright future if I still followed you.I wanted to come out,and finally the young lady came to me.She promised me that as long as I did she said,she would not only help give me money,but also let me go abroad to study.You never understand how temptingthese things are for a poor man.”

“No,you are wrong.I can understand all that you said.”

Evelyn looked at Bessy with clear and cold eyes.

“Being poor is not an excuse for your mistakes.The poor also have the backbone and pride.Being poor for a while does not mean that you are poor all your life.It depends on everyone’s own point of view.I hope you can learn a lesson from this event and work hard in the future.”

Hearing the words,Bessy tightly clasped the edge of the cup.

Evelyn suddenly felt that there was nothing to say.After all,it was a personal choice.

“I have something to do.I have to leave now.Take care of yourself.”

She said,settling the coffee money and leaving.

Bessy looked at Evelyn’s back,then she covered her face and cried.

.....

At the same time,in Morgan group.

Amelia’s mother could’t get out her daughter under the coordination of many parties.She had to contact her husband.

“Since such a serious thing has happened,why don’t you tell me earlier?”

Amelia’s father had gone to other places for investigation because of his official business.When he received the call,he could not help frowning with dissatisfaction.

“I’m worried that it will affect you. Please think about how to make our daughter come out.”

Mrs. Morgan was in a hurry to respond.

After a moment’s meditation, Mr. Morgan said, “I’ll send someone to the police station and let them go in my name.”

Hearing the words, Mrs. Morgan knew that this was the only way now.

When he hung up, Mr. Morgan immediately called his men to make arrangements.

However, he had never thought that as soon as he had just arranged it, Lucas got the news immediately.

Lucas knew that it was very easy to release Amelia with her father’s social identity.

It just went against his original intention.

He looked at the table, his dark eyes filled with cold.

“Cater, ask someone to stop people on the other side of Morgan’s family and tell them that their position will be replaced if they are engaging in malpractices for personal gain.”

Cater nodded and went to do it.

They stopped Mr. Morgan’s men as soon as they arrived at the police station.

“Who are you?”

Mr. Morgan’s subordinates watched Cater’s men carefully and spoke sternly.

Cater’s face remained unchanged, conveying the tasks assigned above.

“Don’t worry, sir, we have no malice, but our boss asked us to tell two people a sentence. If you two are coming to help Morgan family take Amelia away, our boss will report to Morgan family for their bullying people with power.”

When the subordinates heard this, their faces changed greatly. They were unkindly staring at the people in front of them.

However, those people didn't care. After conveying the words of Lucas, they immediately turned around and left.

The subordinates looked at their back and the police station in front of them and hesitated for a moment.

Finally, the man in charge called Amelia's father.

"Have you picked Amelia up?"

When Mr. Morgan received the phone call, he thought it was done successfully.

"I'm sorry, sir. We haven't picked her up yet."

The man said in a deep voice what had happened just now. He heard, which made Mr. Morgan in great anger.

"Lucas, Lucas Hawk. Good, very good!"

He was gnashing his teeth and drinking angrily, but he didn't dare to do anything.

At present, although he was in a high position, it also made him feel like walking a tightrope and couldn't make any mistakes.

For a while, he hated greatly Lucas and his family.

He took a deep breath and said, "Since Amelia can't be released now, you should tell the people in police station. Don't let anyone bully her."

Subordinates answered, hang up and went to do it immediately.

And Evelyn did not know all these things.

After she left Bessy, she didn't immediately went back, but went to the company.

Although the matter had been settled, she was not sure how to arrange it in the future.

When she arrived at the company, she found that the atmosphere was extremely good.

Everyone looked exultant, and even the people who had used to treat her badly smiled at her.

Evelyn only felt thrilled.

She quickly went to the general manager's office to ask what had happened.

Freya was very happy to see her coming.

"When did you come here?"

She greeted Evelyn and let her sit.

"Just arrived."

Evelyn responded with a smile and immediately talked about what she saw outside.

"What's wrong with them? It's like they win the lottery."

Freya couldn't help laughing.

"That's a good description. Now the whole company is winning a big lottery."

When Evelyn heard the words, she was even more puzzled.

Freya saw this and explained, "It's still up to you. This time, although it was a big fight, we got a happy ending. Morgan Group has made an announcement of apology. Your reputation has been restored as well, and your popularity is higher than before."

Evelyn was surprised to hear this.

She hadn't expected that Morgan group would apologize.

Before waiting for her to think more, Freya continued to say in a happy tone, "Besides, Netizens feel that they have wronged you and bought your works spontaneously to make amends for you. Of course, many of them really like your works. Anyway, your works are sold out now, and the works of other designers of the company are also in hot demand."

Hearing this, Evelyn couldn't help being able neither to cry nor to laugh because she had never thought things would go like this.

However, when she knew the follow-up of the event, Ji Yi was greatly angry.

She didn't understand where she was wrong, which made Evelyn careful calculation become a stepping stone for Nora!

Evelyn didn't know that Ji Yi had already hated her so much.

She came out of the general manager's office and she was very relaxed.

The anxiety that had cramped in her heart had been eliminated at this time.

She was moved by the thought of Lucas who was busy with the matter for her.

Under impulse, she didn't know when she took out her cell phone and dialed the number.

It wasn't until Lucas's gentle voice was sounded on the phone that she reacted.

"What happened?"

Evelyn heard that his voice mellow sound like a cello, and her spirit was refreshed.

"No, nothing."

She annoyed to cover up her emotions, and felt that what she said was wrong, and rescued: "Hmmm, not very fine, I ...

"Yep?"

Lucas chuckled and asked with a nasal sound.

Evelyn took a deep breath, forced herself to suppress the throbbing in her heart, and bit her lip, "Are you free at night? I want to invite you to dinner."

Lucas picked his eyebrows up, but still agreed.

“Yes, I will pick you up after work.”

Evelyn nodded and immediately hung up.

She returned to the Hawk family by taxi, and somehow thought of going out to dinner with Lucas at night, and she started to choose clothes.

Mo Li just happened to pass by, looking at Evelyn, who was constantly choosing her clothes, and her eyes were full of jealousy and anger.

She was really restless, after that event was just settled down, she couldn't wait to go out.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but mourn the busyness of Mr. Hawk these past few days, and stood at the door with a bad reminder: "Miss Davis, I want to remind you that the matter just finished, you'd better stay at home, don't make any trouble for Mr. Hawk any more."

When Evelyn heard these words suddenly, the smile on her face froze instantly, and the turbulent heart calmed down, even a little flustered.

She looked at the mirror, the one's face was still with the some joy. Suddenly, her eyes were full of dangers.

Just because she found out that she didn't know when, she had sank deeper and leave behind the thoughts of running away.

She even started dressing herself early for a meal and wanted to show the most beautiful one in front of Lucas.

Suddenly, her heart was shivering.

But it was all well covered up by her.

She looked up at Mo Li, who was hostile to her at the door, and smiled, "Miss Mo, you can rest assured. I'm going out with your sir. I think that he won't let me do anything."

Although she personally needed to stay away from Lucas, her identity at this time did not allow anyone to provoke casually.

Mo Li was so speechless because of her remarks and she could only leave with an unhappy face.

When she waited for her to leave, Evelyn smiled bitterly and landed her eyesight on the bed.

She saw that the bed was full of clothes that she took out to try.

She resisted the strangeness in her heart, put these clothes back in the closet, and kept telling herself that the reason she treated him to have dinner together was to thank Lucas for helping her these days.

When Lucas returned from work that night, Evelyn had dressed herself.

Although she did not deliberately dress herself, her gentle temperament was extremely well and made people feel comfortable.

Lucas saw her sitting in the living room, as if waiting for himself, his heart seemed to be filled with cotton, soft and warm.

And he didn't find it himself, the expression on his face became extremely tender.

"I'm back, we'll go out after I take the shower."

He said gently, and went downstairs after Evelyn nodded.

After a while, she saw him change into a suit and walked down.

"Let's go."

He reached out to Evelyn and seemed to intend to lead her away.

Looking at the hand, Evelyn stunned, but she still stretched out her hand.

Lucas held the softness in his hand, and the expression on his face became tender.

They didn't know how exciting this scene was for Mo Li.

She watched Mr. Hawk take Evelyn that bitch out of the door and couldn't help but chase them up.

Who knew, she was left behind by Hawk before she spoke.

"Mo Li, stay home, don't follow us."

When the words were off, Lucas took Evelyn into the car.

Watching them leave by car, her face twisted into disfiguration.

However, they couldn't see this.

After leaving the Hawk family, they went to a distinctive Chinese restaurant in the urban area.

The decoration of this Chinese restaurant had broken the decoration of traditional Chinese restaurants.

It had three floors, but it's vacant, with an auspicious tree planted in the middle, and each floor was an open-air balcony, and it's also decorated with a lot of rainbow lights. It's a good place of dating.

Lucas saw the decoration of this restaurant, and the people who ate around were all couples, he looked at Evelyn in amazement.

Evelyn noticed his eyes, feeling embarrassed.

"I heard a friend say that there is a special restaurant opened here, so I plan to take you here to try something new. If you are not used to it, we can change one."

Lucas heard the words, looked at the strangeness on her face, and frowned involuntarily.

"Who said that I'm not used to it?"

He said, motioned to the waiter to take them to the seat.

Evelyn looked at the back of him, and quickly followed.

The two sat opposite each other and ordered soon.

Regarding Evelyn's purpose for her hospitality, she took up the wine glass aside and thanked him, "This time, thank you for help."

Lucas looked at her, naturally knowing what she was talking about, and frowned again.

"First of all, I'm not helping you, and secondly, do we need to be so clear?"

He looked at Evelyn with dissatisfaction.

Evelyn stunned, she subconsciously wanted to answer "yes".

Fortunately, in the end she reacted and took it back.

Otherwise, she was afraid this good dinner might be ruined by her.

At this moment she couldn't tell the true feeling in her heart, she was sad with joy, but she didn't want to think about it for the time being, she just wanted to finish the meal with Lucas.

This was thanks to him as Evelyn, even if he didn't know.

"You're right, we shouldn't be so welcome."

She said, giving Lucas wine intimately.

Then the two chatted and did not mention the matter. The atmosphere was very harmonious.

Lucas didn't know if it was because of Evelyn's rare tenderness that he drank a lot of wine this evening, and he was faint drunk when he left.

Fortunately, Evelyn didn't drink much wine and drove them back.

She sternly helped Lucas to return to their house, put him on the sofa breathlessly, and then she could rest finally.

"Butler, let someone get some hangover soup."

She paused for a while and ordered the housekeeper who was waiting aside.

The housekeeper nodded and immediately went to the kitchen.

When he appeared again, he was holding a porcelain bowl in his hand.

“Mrs, the soup is ready.”

Evelyn nodded and took it over, intending to feed Lucas herself.

She first tried the temperature with her lips, which made the red and tender lips even more glamorous which made people want to torture them.

Lucas suddenly became thirsty when he saw such a beauty scene.

He pulled Evelyn violently, and in her exclaim, he hugged her waist, held her tightly in his arms, and at the same time, he caught her lips which disturbed his mind.

The hangover soup in Evelyn’s hands spilled, but she could not break the restraint of the man in front of her, and she could only let him draw.

The two kissed each other on the sofa, while Mo Li looked at them not far away, with jealousy under her eyes.

She clenched her fist tightly and clasped her nails into the flesh to keep her calmness.

These two who were kissing knew nothing about it.

They didn’t know how long it spent, Lucas seemed not satisfied with the sweetness on her lips. He let go of Evelyn with a low breath, and before Evelyn reacted, he got up from the sofa and hugged her up.

The night’s still very long.

Uh ...

The next day, when Evelyn woke up again, the sun was already hanging in the sky.

And Lucas was not on her side.

She got up, feeling that her whole bones had been dismantled and reorganized. She was a little bit angry.

If she knew early, she wouldn't allow Lucas drink last night.

While washing, she complained in her heart.

After half an hour, she went downstairs and planned to eat.

Looking at Evelyn who was up late, and whose face that had been obviously moistened, Mo Li was so jealous.

"Sure enough, it's so happy to be a rich lady that someone can get up so late. It's really hard for our sir. He's tired during the day and have to be entangled at night."

She was angry, she was sitting on the sofa, saying these in a weird tone.

Evelyn heard the words and paused, but didn't care about her and turned into the restaurant.

Mo Li watched her leave and gritted her teeth.

She's such a shameless b!tch!

She scolded in her heart, but Evelyn didn't know that.

After having breakfast, she received a call from John, her eyes flashed impatience, but she still picked it up.

"What's wrong?"

She asked indifferently.

She heard John's somber voice on the phone: "Evelyn, I want you to immediately stop Lucas from suppressing the Morgan family!"

Evelyn heard this, she frowned and her face became unhappy.

"What do you mean?"

"I want you to stop him, you don't have to ask so much?"

John grunted coldly, and impatiently spoke.

Evelyn was almost ridiculed by his words.

“Sorry, I can’t do it, I’m not a saint!”

She refused coldly, and felt that why should she be bullied, why she should let Amelia free?

And when she was bullied, he, her father, did not speak up to protect her, but now he was talking like an unconcerned person.

John listened to her rejection, and was angry, feeling that the woman was becoming increasingly disobedient.

“Evelyn, you have to do it, it’s not up to you!”

He dropped the harsh words and hung up the phone directly.

Evelyn looked at the phone, and was furious.

She snorted, not intending to care about this, and turned back to the room.

When she returned to the room, she was still a bit tired, and went back to bed for a while, looking the news on her mobile phone.

Just then, a financial news shocked her to sit up.

She saw in the news that the Davis group’s stock had been falling since yesterday, and today it’s almost over the safety line.

Then Evelyn understood that no wonder that John would ask her so arrogantly, he was fearing that it was impossible for the Morgan family to fight against Lucas, and he could not deal with her, so they gave vent to their anger via John.

When she saw this, she didn’t care about it.

After rest, she resumed and went to work.

In the afternoon, she looked at a few draft designs and planned to go to the company to get some fabrics back to proof.

But she didn't expect that when she wanted to take a taxi at the street, she suddenly was stopped by a van which was in front of her.

The door was opened, and two bodyguards in black came down from the inside.

"Who are you?"

Evelyn clearly noticed that they were coming for her, and her face changed slightly.

"Miss Davis, our lady wants to ask you for a cup of tea, please come with us!"

The head of the man stared coldly at her.

But how it's possible for Evelyn to follow them, this's obviously not a good people.

At the same time, Mo Li, who was behind Evelyn, also found this.

But she didn't step forward immediately, and stood still and watched.

She did not mean that she wanted to go against Lucas's orders, but that she wanted Evelyn to suffer.

Evelyn didn't know her thoughts. Seeing that she hadn't moved for a long time, she knew that the woman didn't intend to care about it.

She was annoyed but forced herself to calm down.

She began to think of a way to save herself, and found that she was not very far from the Hawk's house here. As long as she ran to the door, these people would not dare to abduct her.

"Okay, I'll go with you."

She pretended to agree with them, and took the handbag to get on the car.

However, as soon as approaching the door, she slammed the bag in the bodyguard aside, turned and ran.

She even lost her shoes to run fast.

The bodyguards didn't expect things to turn out like this, and they reacted after a while.

"Catch her!"

The bodyguard dropped the handbag angrily and roared.

Hearing this, Evelyn looked back and found the several bodyguards behind, she became flustered, and she pushed all her strength to run away.

However, the physical strength of men and women had long been doomed.

No matter how much Evelyn exerted, she was easily surrounded by these professional bodyguards.

"Miss Davis, you are not to know what's good for one, so don't blame us for not being polite"

The bodyguard stared gloomily at Evelyn.

When the words came out, he looked at his men.

Seeing that Evelyn was about to be caught, at this moment Mo Li finally took action.

She wanted Evelyn to be unlucky, but it didn't mean she allowed her to be arrested.

Mo Li kicked off the bodyguard who wanted to catch Evelyn and dragged her to run to the Hawk's house.

"Stop them!"

The head of the man coldly ordered.

In a short time, four or five strong men besieged two people.

"Find a place to hide!"

Mo Li looked at the bodyguards around her and pushed Evelyn coldly.

Evelyn looked at her back, her eyes were full of complexity.

She thought that this woman wouldn't care about her, she did measure the stature of great men by the yardstick of small men.

In order not to increase the burden on Mo Li, she planned to go to the Hawk's house for rescue.

But they didn't expect what those bodyguards wanted was to separate the two.

Some of them were entangled with Mo Li, and two people to catch Evelyn.

Mo Li realized that the intentions of these bodyguards, but it was already over.

She saw those bodyguards easily catch up with Evelyn.

"Let me go!"

Evelyn's struggle was futile.

Mo Li looked at them anxiously.

After all, if Evelyn was arrested, she couldn't explain to Lucas at all.

Mo Li made every effort to fight with these bodyguards, but these bodyguards only defended and did not attack, they were dragging her so that she couldn't go away to care about Evelyn.

It was just like that, she watched Evelyn being taken away by these people.

As Evelyn was caught, the bodyguards entangled with Mo Li also evacuated orderly.

Mo Li watched the bodyguards leave, but she couldn't catch up, her face was cold and flustered.

Right now she just hoped that Mr. Hawk can give her a chance to make up for the work.

She lowered her eyes, picked up her mobile phone, and instructed her staffs to investigate these who took away Evelyn.

Within ten minutes, they called to report.

“Captain, they have been tracked down. The direction they left is the Morgan family. We have sent some people there.”

Mo Li replied softly, then hung up and called Lucas.

“What’s wrong?”

After a while, Lucas’s cold voice sounded on the phone.

Mo Li listened, her heart trembled, but she still honestly told him what happened.

“Sir, Mrs was taken away.”

When Lucas heard these words, he suddenly became serious.

“What’s going on? That guy made it.”

Mo Li shook her head and denied: “It wasn’t them. My people traced it out, most likely it was the Morgan family. The route they left was toward the Morgan’s house.”

When Lucas heard this, his heart sank.

“Okay, keep sending someone to stare at them, I’ll be there soon.”

After a while, he hung up the phone.

But he didn’t move, only staring at the phone as if waiting for someone to call.

After a while, the phone rang again.

He looked at the strange number on the screen, his eyes flickered, and he pressed the answer key.

“Lucas, Nora is now in my hands. If you don’t want her to have any accidents, let someone let Amelia go!”

He heard the somber voice of Mrs. Morgan on the phone.

Lucas narrowed his eyes dangerously. What he hated most was being threatened.

But when he thought that Nora was in his hands, he finally agreed.

“I can let Amelia go, but you have to make sure my girl is not damaged!”

Mrs. Morgan snorted coldly, “Lucas, you should understand that now you are not qualified to negotiate with me!”

After she spoke, she hung up the phone.

Lucas looked at the phone which was hung up, his eyes were full of the hazy.

He immediately called Cater and started making arrangements.

At the same time, the Morgan family.

After Mrs. Morgan hung up the phone, she went to the living room.

She saw that Evelyn was tied up and thrown to the ground.

“Miss Davis, I really underestimate you before.”

She looked at Evelyn condescendingly.

When she saw her and instantly understood why she was kidnapped.

It's for the sake of Amelia.

And indeed it was.

She saw Mrs. Morgan arrogantly approached her, bent over and caught her chin, sneered with humiliating eyes: “You really have a dame face, no wonder my daughter will lose in your hands.”

Evelyn was hurt because of her actions, she was struggling to break free from her.

“Mrs. Morgan, aren’t you afraid of offending the Hawk family completely?”

She resisted the tension in her heart and tried to negotiate with Mrs. Morgan.

Who knew that Mrs. Morgan was unmoved at all.

“Offend? It seems that you have not understood the current situation. Our family had broke up with the Hawk family long ago, because of you.”

She talked with anger in her eyes.

When Evelyn didn’t react yet, the crisp applause sounded in the room.

She saw the n.aked swelling on her fair cheeks, and the pain spread instantly.

“If it wan’t you who destroyed everything in the middle, how could our family and the Hawk family come to this point, it would be impossible for Amelia to be crazy about love and to do these irreparable things!”

Mrs. Morgaan gritted her teeth and stared at Evelyn, as if wanting to tear her into pieces.

She especially thought of her daughter, because of the b!tch, she’s unmarried and pregnant, the child’s biological father was unknown, and the anger in her heart was rising.

After listening to her, Evelyn only felt that her world view had been subverted.

She never knew that people who destroyed other people’s families could be so righteous.

She couldn’t help smirking and said, “I finally understand why Amelia is so extreme, she doesn’t know how to repent, and even take pride in being a mistress. It turns out that there is such a mother behind her, Mrs. Morgan, I am really curious, is Amelia your biological daughter? Why did you hurt her like this? “

Evelyn’s remarks made her angry.

“You are smart.”

She stared gloomily at Evelyn, her face was full of danger.

Evelyn was also annoyed at how she stubbornly said those words just now.

She looked at such a Mrs. Morgan, she could not help but be afraid.

She didn't know if Lucas got any news about her being caught.

She knew it instinctively that this woman would certainly not let her go easily.

The fact was true.

Mrs. Morgan just wanted to recover all her daughter's suffers from Evelyn.

She instructed the maid to bring a wh!p and looked at Evelyn with a sneer.

"I'm going to look that if I ruin your face, what capital do you have to s.educe a man, will Lucas still want you?"

After she said it, she wh!pped her wh!p and swung at Evelyn's face.

She was terrified, and subconsciously avoided.

Although her face was avoided, the wh!p was drawn on her shoulder.

"Ouch—"

The severe pain made her cry out, and tears flowed from her eyes, her face turned pale.

But she didn't know what she looked like further stimulated Mrs. Morgan to a.buse her more.

"That's right, and the pain is still behind! Today I will teach you for Amelia!"

Her eyes were cold, and she shouted.

Evelyn heard this, her heart trembled.

Uh ...

At the same time, the Davis group messed up.

John was convening an emergency meeting and was talking, the assistant knocked on the door.

“What’s wrong?”

He asked impatiently.

Assistant hurriedly walked over, he was leaning over and whispering in his ear.

“That woman was taken away at the door of the Hawk family by the Morgan family. Should we send someone to save her?”

That woman naturally referred to Evelyn.

John heard the words, his face was cold.

It stood to reason that now Evelyn was Nora. If this happened, he should show up immediately to help.

Alas, he thought of the woman’s arrogance on the phone before, and this idea was eliminated by him.

It’s the time for the evil woman to learn something, so that she would not forget her identity.

“No, there must be movements on the Hawk family, just keep watching.”

He commanded in a deep voice, the assistant nodded.

When the assistant was planning to go out to arrange, John seemed to think of something again, then stopped him, “Yes, if anyone looks for me, just tell them I am away for business.”

Assistant nodded, indicating that he understood, then he left.

As he left, John reorganized to continue the meeting.

In administrative building, Jingdu City.

Mr. Morgan just finished the work and decided to go back to handle the family affairs.

When he wanted to take the elevator downstairs, he was stopped by someone.

“Mr. Morgan, my master wants to talk to you.”

The man said with an undeniable tone.

Mr. Morgan looked at him with a deep face, his gaze crossed over him, and landed on the car not far away.

“Okay, I’ll follow you.”

After thinking about it in his heart, he had the plan and nodded.

But the assistant beside him was worried.

“Mr. Morgan?”

Mr. Morgan gave him a reassuring look, and followed the bodyguard towards the car.

After he got in the car, he was surprised to see the man in the car.

It wasn’t that he knew the man, but that he was surprised by the man’s momentum.

He saw under the dim light, the man had this handsome appearance, and his evil eyes were full of unruly madness.

He sat lazily on the car seat, with his long legs crossing at will, but it was the best defensive posture.

“Mr. Morgan, I didn’t expect that we will meet under such circumstances.”

He played with the lighter in his hand and smiled lightly.

Mr. Morgan looked at the faint fire, his eyes were full of vigilance.

From this man’s words, he could know that this person knew his identity very well.

But he didn't know the man.

"Who are you?"

He asked carefully.

The man naturally saw his defense, and chuckled: "I'm Zhan Xingtian."

After Mr. Morgan heard his words, his face changed suddenly.

There's no other reason. He had heard much about the name of this person. He was doing gray business and was the most troublesome person for their department.

Because they knew that this man was doing illegal things, but they couldn't get the goods on him for wrong doings.

"Mr. Zhan, I don't know what are you doing for?"

He flashed many things in his heart, but he didn't show these on his face, and asked politely.

Zhan Xingtian listened to his insincere words, and he curved his mouth without smiling.

"Mr. Morgan, don't be so nervous, we are also a family."

Mr. Morgan compressed his lips, with resistance in his eyes.

After all, he was an official, and the most taboo thing was to be involved with such underworld people.

"You must be joking."

Zhan Xingtian heard the words and raised his brow slightly: "It seems that Mr. Morgan does not know that I am the biological father of the child in your daughter's belly."

Mr. Morgan froze.

"What?"

He opened his mouth with a stray face and became angry immediately.

Zhan Xingtian looked, and naturally knew that Mr. Morgan was angry, but he didn't care, and talked directly about the intention he found him this time.

"I know that Mr. Morgan may be biased on me, but for the moment, I think we should set aside these for a moment, the most important thing is to rescue Amelia, how do you think?"

Mr. Morgan looked at him coldly and did not speak.

Zhan Xingtian didn't care about it, he continued: "I know that you have arrested Nora to threaten Lucas, and he has also agreed to your conditions. However, I don't think it is suitable for Mr. Morgan and the Morgan family to deal with this matter in person. "

With this remark, Mr. Morgan's eyes flashed some special lights.

Obviously, Zhan Xingtian had prepared, and their actions were clearly identified.

"What do you want to say?"

Mr. Morgan said in a deep voice to Zhan Xingtian.

Zhan Xingtian laughed, with an intolerable refusal to say: "I will trade with Lucas for you."

Mr. Morgan's eyes flickered, and he did not immediately respond.

He thought for a moment, as if he was thinking about it carefully, before he agreed.

"You are right, this is really not convenient for us to deal with it in person. Since you are so helpful, thank you so much."

At the same time, Lucas also arrived at the police station.

Received in person by the director.

"Mr. Hawk, why are you coming here today? This way, let's go to the office to talk. Just now I just got a good bag of tea, which just happens to be for you."

He smirked and greeted, Lucas stopped.

“No, this time I have something to do.”

He said, referring to Amelia, “I want to take her away here, can I?”

“Of course, Mr. Hawk, you can do it, just take her away.”

In this way, Amelia was released.

She thought it was her parents who found someone and got herself out, but she did not expect that she would see Lucas here.

For a moment, her eyes flashed incomprehensible complexity and touch.

“Lucas ...”

Lucas frowned slightly when he heard these words.

“Take her into the car!”

He didn't look at her, he said to Cater in a deep voice, and immediately got into the car without looking back.

When Amelia saw this, she was going to chase him subconsciously, but she was stopped by Mo Li.

“Miss Morgan, please get in the car!”

She said and looked at the bodyguard aside.

She saw them approaching her and forcing her into another car.

“What are you doing? Let me go!”

She struggled, but it was useless.

Soon, they started the car.

But on the other side, the Morgan family.

Evelyn had been tortured by Mrs. Morgan into a coma.

But Mrs. Morgan still can't dissipate the hatred in her heart.

Just when she was going to call someone to wake up Evelyn, Mr. Morgan returned.

“How do you treat her like this?”

Mr. Morgan looked at the bruised Evelyn, frowned, and dissatisfied.

This made Mrs. Morgan dissatisfied too.

“Why I can't? How much hardship did she let Amelia suffer? And it has been my kindness to not kill her!”

Seeing her anger on her face, Mr. Morgan was too lazy to argue with her.

“Mr. Zhan, she is like this, Lucas may not be willing to give up, do we have to prepare plan b?”

He asked, turning his head sideways, with anxiety in his eyes.

Mrs. Morgan discovered Zhan Xingtian who was side next to Mr. Morgan, and her eyes were full of amaze and curiosity.

Before she asked. Zhan Xingtian took the lead to say, “Having plan b is inevitable. First let this woman take a shower, the time for the transaction is approaching, and I have to hurry.”

Mr. Morgan nodded and called for the housekeeper to help Evelyn take a shower.

Evelyn also woke up from the coma because of this movement.

She noticed that someone was dragging her clothes, and she had to resist subconsciously, but she was hurt all over, and she couldn't resist at all. She had to let these maids change her clothes.

Then she was helped out of the room and found that she was handed over to a strange man by Mr. Morgan and Mrs. Morgan.

However, before she scolded, she was stunned again.

She didn't know how long it took, when she woke up again, she found herself tied to the car.

She remembered the scene before she was stunned. She became panic.

Because she didn't know who she was sent to by the Morgan family, or even where she would be taken to.

She forced herself to calm down, while enduring the pain in her body, trying to sit up and observe the situation outside.

But she overestimated herself in the end, and her actions were useless. Instead, she was exhausted and the pain all over her body.

Evelyn was lying on the seat and her face was pale, with despair in her eyes.

At that moment, a chuckle sounded from above her head.

“Who's that?”

She asked in panic, looked around, and finally found Zhan Xingtian near the door.

She just looked outside and ignored the people around her.

Before she spoke again, Zhan Xingtian took the lead: “Miss Davis, if I were you, I wouldn't resist at this time.”

Evelyn compressed her lips and asked: “Where do you want to take me?”

Zhan Xingtian condensed his light in his eyes, and smiled, “In a moment, you will know.”

After he finished speaking, he would no longer care about Evelyn, he was leaning on the back of the chair and closing his eyes.

Evelyn felt the dangerous breath emanating from the man, and she dared not ask any more.

She, the pain in her body, had tolerated her to the extreme, and was in a coma again.

After she was in a coma, not long after, and the car was parked in a scrap factory in the suburb.

“Boss, Lucas have already in the factory.”

A subordinate hurriedly reported after inquiring about the surroundings. “No ambush was found around, Lucas only brought a few bodyguards.”

Zhan Xingtian nodded, waved his hand, and then looked sideways at Evelyn, who was unconscious on the seat.

He had no compassion for womanhood, and dragged the unconscious Evelyn out of the car and walked towards the warehouse.

In the warehouse, Amelia tried to talk to Lucas several times, but Lucas ignored her at all.

She was restrained by two bodyguards, and she couldn't walk in front of Lucas, so she could only stand up angrily.

Soon she noticed someone coming outside the warehouse.

When she saw the man, she had a look of confusion and panic.

Lucas also noticed the man.

However, his attention was not on the man, but on Evelyn who was held in his hand.

He saw that Evelyn was embarrassed, her rosy cheeks were now sickly pale, with sweat dripping from her forehead, and her brows frowned, as if to endure some pain.

When he looked at her, immediately his eyes slowly gathered into a violent rage.

“Exchanging hostages now!”

He also immediately proposed a transaction regardless of the identity of Zhan Xingtian.

Zhan Xingtian was a little surprised, but he did not object.

He made a look to the man next to him, let him give Evelyn to them.

At the same time, Amelia was also delivered to them by Mo Li.

In less than three minutes, the transaction was completed.

Lucas helped Evelyn returned, patted her cheek, "Nora, wake up."

She didn't respond, her head tilted to one side, and at the same time, the wh!plash hidden under the clothes was exposed.

Lucas couldn't help but be shocked. He wanted to check subconsciously, but he made Evelyn hurt, causing her to scream in a coma.

He calmed down instantly, picked up Evelyn and went out.

"Mo Li, drive the car, go to the hospital!"

In his tone, he was worried about her and he hadn't noticed this matter.

Amelia looked at the back of his departure, her face full of jealousy and unwillingness.

Just then, her face was pinched.

"Pain-"

Her eyes were red, her white cheeks were pinched and deformed.

"Woman, have you forgotten my warning?"

Zhan Xingtian had a somber face and sternly questioned, "Who gave you courage to look at other men in front of me?"

Amelia saw this, her heart was full of fear.

She resisted the anger in her heart and shook her head again and again.

"I didn't, I just didn't want to let that b!tch go like that!"

She knew that this man couldn't disobey and she made excuses to hide.

Zhan Xingtian squinted and stared at her tightly, seeing that there was no dodge in her eyes, she let her go.

“Remember, you are my woman now, if I see you stare at other men, I will dig out your eyes!”

Amelia heard his words, she couldn't help shivering, and was even more angry, but she didn't dare to refute.

Because she knew what this person can do what he said.

For a moment, she felt a grievance.

Zhan Xingtian naturally also noticed, he directly held her out.

“You don't need to feel wronged, your mother has taught the woman for you!”

He said, mentioning the matter of her mother wh!pping Evelyn briefly, then Amelia eliminated some resentment.

Uh ...

Lucas hurried to the hospital.

Because the car was too fast, it's bumpy, Evelyn's wh!p wound was torn a little by the impact, exuding bl00d sp0ts.

Lucas noticed that, his complexion changed suddenly.

“Slow down and lower the part!tion.”

He commanded in a deep voice, while untangling Evelyn's clothes with the tension he didn't notice.

The mottled wh!p scars imprinted in his eyes instantly, making him startled, and his heart surged up.

“The Morgan family, very good, very good!”

He gritted his teeth and redressed for Evelyn.

Evelyn didn't know this, and she didn't know if she smelled the familiar taste of him, she was clutching his clothes corner tightly, whispering in pain, "Lucas, I'm hurt."

Lucas looked at her pale face, and his heart was painful.

"Baby, well, it won't hurt anymore, hold on."

He leaned against her head, comforted her softly.

Evelyn was in a coma and didn't hear what he said clearly, but realized that the person beside her was Lucas, and the whole person relaxed and leaned in his arms.

Lucas listened to her steady breath, knowing that she was calming down, so he took out his cell phone and called Cater.

"Cater, now accuse the Morgan Group of intentional kidnapping and murder!"

"Yes!"

Cater listened to Lucas's angry words and did not dare to be distracted. He responded quickly.

Lucas continued, "After doing this, I will send the materials collected before to the Ministry of Justice and report their company anonymously. I want to have no the Morgan family in this city after today!"

Cater was stunned, his eyes were full of disbelief, but he reacted quickly and replied, "Yes!"

After Lucas arranged these, they had arrived the hospital.

He hugged Evelyn and quickly got out of the car and headed for the emergency room.

Mo Li followed closely, looked at his nervous back, and his heart was jealous.

Damn it, why didn't that woman die at the Morgan's house!

Lucas didn't notice her vicious eyes, and hugged Evelyn to rush to the doctor for examination.

“Mr. Hawk, this lady has multiple welts on her body, some have very deep wounds, and there are faint signs of infection, so she is recommended to be hospitalized.”

He didn't know how long it had been. The doctor examined her and stepped out seriously to talk about the situation.

Lucas heard that and his expression became worse.

Mo Li couldn't help but raise her lips, but she was quickly hidden.

“Sir, I'll go and help the young lady to go for the admission procedure.”

She took the initiative to speak, Lucas nodded.

“After completing the formalities, you go back to take some clothes for Nora.”

Mo Li stunned for a while, and her heart was very repulsive, but she still agreed.

Evelyn was then sent to the ward.

Lucas looked at Evelyn, who was still asleep, and took out his mobile phone to contact Cater to inquire about the progress of the matter.

The call was connected after a while.

“The evidence had been sent to the police station and the arrest warrant will come out soon.”

Cater answered in a deep voice, reporting what he had done.

However, Lucas was not assured. The Morgan family, especially Mr. Morgan who was very cunning, he did not believe that he would not have his own news channel after being impregnated in the officialdom for so many years.

“Send someone to pay close attention to the Morgan family before the police caught him.”

He asked coldly.

Cater immediately replied and prepared for it.

And the facts were indeed as what Lucas thought before.

When he reported to the Morgan family, Mr. Morgan received news from his people.

“Secretary, the people of the Hawk Group went to the Ministry of Justice and we learned from the relationship that they are reporting you.”

After listening to these news, Mr. Morgan’s face was darker, especially the words that his people said even made him nervous.

“Lucas Hawk also went to the police station to report the case and accused the Morgan family of illegal kidnapping. They kept Mrs. Morgan’s call records as evidence. The two things will be very difficult to handle together. You have to make arrangements as soon as possible.

“I see, stare at the news from the justice side, and notify me as soon as there is a result.”

Mr. Morgan ordered.

After hanging up the phone, he walked out of the studying room and saw a happy family in the living room, he was feeling anxious in his heart.

It can be said that this stupid plan had destroyed the entire Morgan family.

But the family members had no feelings at all.

“Mom, why don’t you k!ll Nora that bltch!”

Amelia knew that Evelyn was beaten by her mother, but this was just a skin injury, but she couldn’t wait for the bltch to die.

“I really want to, but your dad doesn’t agree.”

Mrs. Morgan said so.

Mr. Morgan just heard their conversation when he went downstairs, and he couldn't help but yell, "You still want Nora to die. Is it because the family is not chaotic enough?"

"Dad, what's wrong?"

Amelia felt the anger and tension in her father's tone, and she was puzzled.

Mr. Morgan glanced at her and told her the news.

"Lucas reported me to the Commission for Discipline Inspection. I don't know what evidence he has in his hand, but the Commission for Discipline Inspection is already investigating. I think it will be called me today or tomorrow."

When Amelia and Mrs. Morgan heard this, their faces changed greatly.

"How dare he?"

Mrs. Morgan shouted.

Mr. Morgan gave her a cold look, and said angrily, "Why not? I said it would be good to catch her back. You did do a good job, hit her, how could he let us go?"

He said, snorted and continued: "It's not only me who was reported, but your company has also been charged too."

When Mrs. Morgan heard his words, and her heart was a little stunned.

"What's going on? What does this have to do with the Morgan Group?"

Amelia was also anxious, the Morgan Group was the root of the Morgan family.

"Dad, what the hell is going on."

Mr. Morgan looked at them who now became anxious, and sighed deeply.

“Lucas has been collecting evidence since your mother asked someone to kidnap Nora. In addition, your mother hit her for you, which completely made Lucas angry. I guess he wanted to remove our family from Jingdu. “

Mrs. Morgan and Amelia heard the words, could not help but startled.

“How could this be?”

Amelia were unbelievably whispering.

But Mrs. Morgan was exasperated. “He’s so arrogant.”

“I don’t if he is arrogant or not, but this time, the Morgan family is definitely hit hard. Maybe it is really possible for him to do it.”

Mr. Morgan retorted her words and said slowly.

When he finished speaking, he looked to the side of Zhan Xingtian who had never spoken since he returned.

“Mr. Zhan, I would like to ask you a favor, can I?”

When Zhan Xingtian heard the words, he raised his eyebrows and looked at him.

“Without you saying, my woman, I will naturally protect her.”

When Mr. Morgan heard this, his heart’s worries eased.

“Well, if the Morgan family is in a state of weakness, I hope Mr. Zhan can treat Amelia well. She was spoiled by me and her mother from an early age, but she is a good girl.”

Although Mrs. Morgan didn’t believe that Lucas can destroy the Morgan family, she had already expected the results of the Morgan family in the future and had to make arrangements while everything was still undecided.

Suddenly, Amelia was dissatisfied when she saw that her father seemed to explain his affairs.

But she was afraid to refute when she was in front of Zhan Xingtian.

She intended to talk to her father after Zhan Xingtian left.

But the matter against her wish.

After Mr. Morgan arranged everything, he let Zhan Xingtian take her away.

“Dad, I won’t go!”

Amelia shouted in exclamation, with a look of resistance.

Before Mr. Morgan scolded her, Zhan Xingtian face was somber and gloomy.

“Do you just not want to go, or do you not want to go with me? Huh?”

The last word came out of the nasal sound, which was full of danger, which made Amelia shiver.

“No ...”

She retorted subconsciously.

When Mr. Morgan saw this, he felt a little angry.

He was still here right now, and Zhan Xingtian threatened Amelia in front of him. He didn’t know what would happen if Amelia was with him in the future.

But if Amelia stayed, their family would be over.

After thinking it carefully, he chose the former.

After all, he still believed in his daughter, and she can certainly tame this unruly Mr. Zhan.

“Amelia, be obediently, go with Mr. Zhan, when the matter of the family finished, and then let Mr. Zhan bring you back.”

He said and looked at Amelia.

Amelia naturally understood her father’s meaning, and in the end she agreed.

After all, the current situation of the Morgan family had not allowed her to be willful.

In this way, Amelia was taken away by Zhan Xingtian.

At the first time they left, they were notified to Lucas.

“Stare at them, I want everyone of the Morgan family can’t run away!”

Lucas said in a deep voice, and after finishing speaking, he hung up the phone directly.

At that moment, Evelyn groaned on the hospital bed.

“Water ...”

Lucas heard the words and immediately put down the file in his hand to pour water for her.

Evelyn leaned on Lucas’s arms and drank water, and her hazy consciousness gradually came back together.

“Lucas.”

When she saw the man beside her, and she was so touched.

She thought that before she was in a coma, she saw Lucas, she thought she was dreaming, but she didn’t expect that he was really beside her.

I wondered, her eyes slowly turned red, and tears flowed inadvertently.

“You are here, it’s so good ...”

She didn’t realize how much she depended on Lucas at this time.

Lucas listened to her choking voice, and somehow felt distressed for her.

He patted Nora on her back for comfort, but touched her lash wounds.

“It hurts ...”

Evelyn took a deep breath in pain, subconsciously acted like a spoiled child when she faced Lucas.

Lucas felt the trembling of the people in his arms, and then looked at her pale and weak appearance, and the anger against the Morgan family soared again.

No matter what, this time he would let the Morgan family disappear!

How Much She Had Loved Lucas Was How Much She Hated Him At Present

Maybe he knew that Lucas would not let Morgan family off easily this time.

After Lu Hongguo sent Amelia away,he began to make subsequent arrangements.

He couldn't escape,otherwise,the charge of Morgan family would be accepted.

When he and Amelia's mother were clearing up the property that could be transferred at home,the police and the judiciary came.

"Lu Hongguo,someone reported that you used your power for personal gain,corruption and bribery.Please come with us."

"Ms.Ye,Ye Xiulan,someone has accused you of kidnapping others illegally.The evidence is solid.Go to the police station with us for investigation!"

Even if two of them had already prepared in mind,they couldn't help shivering when they saw these people.

"Master..."

Ye Xiulan,also known as Amelia's mother,looked uneasily towards Lu Hongguo.

Lu Hongguo patted her shoulder comfortingly.

"Come on,it will be OK."

He said,following the Ministry of justice towards the door.

Ye Xiulan saw this and left with the police.

However,just as they went out of the villa gate,they were surrounded by a group of reporters.

It turns out that someone had sent them news anonymously,saying that Morgan's family would have big news.

These journalists were surely excited to see them being taken away by police and judicial personnel.

"Hello,officer.I'm a reporter from Xinhua news agency.I want to know what Minister Lu has done?"

"Ms.Ye,Morgan's group has become bigger and bigger in recent years.Is it related to your buying murderers or because your husband is behind you to support you?"

"Officers,can you tell us in detail what these two have done?"

Lu Hongguo and ye Xiulan keep silent,but the police who was in charge of taking them suffered a lot.

"I'm sorry,for the time being,there is nothing I can say.Please let us go."

"If you want to know,please keep an eye on judicial developments."

Police stopped reporters while escorting Lu Hongguo and others to get on the cars.

As the news of the arrest of Lu Hongguo and Ye Xiulan spread,the civil strife of Morgan's group became turbulent again.

The whole company was in a state of panic and the board of directors held an emergency meeting.

However,all the partners that had cooperation with them were afraid of implicating themselves,so they suspended cooperation one after another.

Lucas listened to Cater's report,and his eyes flashed.

"Wasn't Amelia caught?"

Cater nodded, "Our people have provided the police with information about Amelia, but it seems that the man who took her away is not simple. Not only the police, but also our people have lost it."

When Lucas heard the words, his face was cold.

"Then, let's put it down for a while, but it is still necessary to send someone to keep an eye on them to prevent them from coming back."

Cater nodded to show his understanding.

Lucas continued to say, "As for Morgan group, let's start to nibble at them."

...

In the evening, Evelyn had not known that Morgan family had changed dramatically.

At this time, although she was a little bit devastated, she calmed down completely.

She looked at Lucas, who came back with dinner, with a little uneasiness and coyness on her face.

The reason was simple. She thought that she was holding Lucas during the day, and at the same time, she was shocked by her dependence on this man, which seemed to exceed her expectation.

She didn't know what to do. She wanted to restrain, but she found she couldn't.

In the end, she could only force herself not to think about it, and she decided to live each day well.

Lucas didn't know what Evelyn thought. He helped Evelyn have dinner and then went on with his business.

Evelyn sat on the sickbed and quietly looked at the man on the sofa with soft eyes.

Lucas definitely had noticed her eyes, but he didn't care and focused on the affairs about his company.

Many things could happen in one night.

With the order of Lucas, the share price of Morgan's group began to plummet. Many of the projects that had been discussed were all broken in the evening and signed cooperation with Hawk's group.

Amelia and Zhan Jingtian escaped. When she saw the news of Morgan family, she burst into anger.

"Lucas Hawk!"

How much she had loved Lucas was how much she hate him now.

However, Morgan's group was in danger under the pressure of Lucas.

On the Internet, the crisis of Morgan's group and the enmity with Hawk's group made everyone in commotion.

"What's the matter with Hawk family? Why are they suddenly so cruel to block Morgan's group?"

"I don't know. Isn't it said that two families were friends?"

"It must involve interests. You forgot the previous plagiarism?"

When netizens saw the comment, they also thought of the plagiarism scandal that had been raging the other day.

"So, these businessmen have no friendship. For the sake of their own profit, they could call you brother the first second and stab you in the back the second after."

"Yes, as old saying goes that both actors and businessmen are merciless."

"I think the Hawk family are way too cruel and heartless. I heard that Amelia Morgan, the daughter of Morgan's group's president is very fond of the president of Hawk's group, Lucas Hawk. She was even willing to give up her identity and work for Lucas."

"If that's the case, the president of Hawk group is a big sc. um."

“No, it is not his fault. Morgan family are reaping the fruits of their own actions! It was them who pushed themselves into abyss. They can only get themselves to blame!”

When Evelyn woke up in the morning, she didn't see Lucas in the ward and only Mo Li was with her. So she speculated that he might have gone to the company.

She picked up her mobile phone to check the news on the Internet. Unexpectedly, she saw a bunch of comments attacking Lucas and subconsciously defended him.

However, her comment were soon overwhelmed by others'.

She looked at the heated discussion of netizens, and her heart was complicated.

She was both moved and worried.

She had expected that Lucas would not let Morgan family off easily, but she had not expected that he would do such things.

Lucas, whom Evelyn was worried about so much, was not in the company at this time.

He was called back by the elder Hawk family members who got the news.

“Lucas, you are always calm in your work. Why did you lose your temper this time? Do you know how the Internet comments on our family?”

Devin scolded Lucas with dissatisfaction.

Lucas, with a cold face, explained, “Dad, this time it's Morgan family's fault. What's more, Morgan family have always been covetous to us. If they don't take advantage of this fight, they will definitely plot to hurt our family and company in the future.”

He explained the kidnapping of Evelyn by Morgan Family and said some actions of Amelia's father in private, which made Devin less angry.

Although he was not angry, his wife Sophia became angry.

Although she was also annoyed that Morgan family had done these things, in her eyes, the culprit for these things was not them, but Evelyn.

“I said that Nora is the jinx, but you don’t believe. Because of her, we have become enemies with Morgan Family. No one knows what else she will arouse to hurt us!”

When Lucas heard this, his eyes flashed with unhappiness.

“Mum, it’s Nora who is the victim in this event.”

Sophia snorted coldly and didn’t listen to his words at all.

She didn’t want to argue with Lucas about who was right and who was wrong. She quickly changed the topic and talked about the Morgan family.

“It’s true that Morgan Family did something wrong this time, but it is unapt for us two families to become enemies. Especially Morgan family have been running their company for so long. It can not be broken up in one day. Listen to mom’s words and withdraw all the lawsuits. Don’t force people too hard.”

Naturally, Lucas understood the meaning of his mother, but he was not moved.

Sophia was in a hurry when she saw this.

When she was about to scold, the housekeeper hurried over.

“Madam, master, the old master comes.”

As he was saying this, Old Mr. Hawk came in from the outside on crutches.

“Dad, how are you here?”

Seeing him coming, Sophia and Devin got up to greet him.

Old Mr. Hawk nodded to them, and immediately sat down opposite Lucas.

“Lucas, I’m here to talk to you about my views on Morgan family.”

He didn't go around in circles but said his intention directly.

"Grandpa, please say it."

For his grandfather he always respected, Lucas sat upright and said in a deep voice.

"I know they Morgan family have gone too far. At present, they have been punished as they should, and we should stop at the right time. We can not let people think that we are cruel and heartless."

Hearing this, Lucas didn't respond immediately.

Old Mr. Hawk didn't care about Lucas's reaction and continued to convince, "I know you're trying to give vent to Nora's anger. I used to like Nora and couldn't see others bullying her, but we also have to worry about all aspects. Morgan family is not as simple as we see on the surface."

He said, squinting his eyes as the light passed through his eyes.

"Although you hurt them, but you didn't make them fall down completely, and their people will have a chance to fight back. As the saying goes, bare-footed people are not afraid of those with shoes on. When it comes to that time, it will really force them to rush. It's not good for our family. You can understand, right?"

Lucas naturally understood the concerns of the old man.

But he felt that he could deal with these problems.

.....

At the same time, Amelia, who had been taken away by Zhan Xingtian, looked at the news which was widely spread that Morgan family was going bankrupt, and her eyes were red with hate.

Especially when she saw the news of her parents' imprisonment, she was furious.

"Lucas Hawk, Nora Davis!"

She gritted her teeth and held her mobile phone with full strength.

She wouldn't just let it go. She must let them pay the price. Especially Nora. She wanted her to die!

It was because of this bch that made Morgan family become like this!

But the most important thing for Amelia was to save her parents first.

She had no idea how to save them.

For a while, she was so upset that she didn't like anything.

Especially when she think of her present situation, she was even more anxious.

She threw things in the room to vent her anger and dissatisfaction.

The servant who was looking after her outside heard her behaviour and hurried to report to Zhan Xingtian.

“Amelia!”

After a while, the gloomy voice sounded at the door of the room, which also made Amelia tremble.

“Why do you come here?” Amelia unwillingly put down the thing in her hands and asked, biting her lips

“Isn't you who let me come here?” Zhan Xingtian said with an unfriendly smile.

When Amelia heard the words, her eyelashes trembled slightly, and her eyes showed that she was flustered.

Yes, she made a move on purpose to let the man come here, just to ask him to help her.

She knew that the man valued her and her baby, but she didn't want to take the initiative to ask him.

But she hadn't expected that this man could see through her mind so easily.

Zhan Xingtian looked at silent Amelia with the cold light in his eyes.

He stepped up to her.

Amelia perceived his approach and subconsciously wanted to step back, but it was too late.

“Ouch...It hurts.”

Her chin was held tightly by Zhan Xingtian, which made her cry out in pain.

“Listen, I’ll remind you once more. I don’t mind your playing tricks, but if these tricks are used on me, I will be very angry!”

Zhan Xingtian got close to her, and was saying by her ear word by word.

When Amelia heard the dangerous words, her eyes were full of panic and her body began to shiver.

Zhan Xingtian felt her fear, so he was satisfied and decided to let go of her.

Amelia was free and subconsciously stepped back. She looked at him from a distance.

And her move also made Zhan Xingtian dissatisfied again.

But thinking of his threat, Zhan Xingtian thought that it was normal that this woman was afraid of him. Instead of approaching again, he went directly to the bed and sat down lazily.

“Come on, tell me what you want me to do.”

Amelia gradually relaxed his vigilance when she saw that he was not as dangerous as before.

Although she didn’t want to ask this man, he was the only one who could help their family now.

“I want you to help me save my parents!”

She clutched the corner of her dress and said in a cold voice.

Listening to her,Zhan Xingtian didn't think that her tone was like asking for help at all.

"Are you ordering me or something?"

Amelia's heart leaped and said,"It's not an order,but a trade!"

She took a deep breath and continued to say,"As long as you help me save my parents,I am willing to give birth to your baby."

Hearing her words,Zhan Xingtian coldly stared at her.

Although Amelia was afraid,she still insisted on looking at him.

When he saw the woman looking like this,he smiled.

The smile was so cold that Amelia could not help shivering.

"It seems that you haven't figured out the situation.My child has to be given birth.You have no other choices."

He got up and went to Amelia and warned,"As for your parents,it's not easy to save them,but if you ask me,I will try to find a way."

Amelia bit her lower lip.Until now,she knew that she had no right to trade with this man at all.

She had to give up her last pride and said,"OK,I beg you.Please help me save my parents."

Zhan Xingtian looked at the woman who finally put down her dignity in front of him,and his eyes flashed with satisfaction.

"If you are begging me,you have to show more sincerity."

He stooped over Amelia's ear and said.

Amelia naturally understood the meaning of his words,and her eyes flashed with anger and shame,but for the sake of her parents,she held back.

"You are right.I have to be sincere.Do you think this is enough?"

She gathered all the emotions in her heart, lifted her hand and took off her clothes, revealing her concave and convex body.

Zhan Xingtian was very satisfied with her behaviour.

He picked up Amelia and threw her on the big bed behind him, then he immediately lay down on the bed as well.

Amelia fell on the bed, clutching the sheet under him.

She was forced to endure the disgust in her heart and cater to it. In her heart, she put all the blame on Evelyn and Lucas.

In the next few days, the trends, especially the scandals of Morgan Family gradually disappeared online with other news headlines.

Of course, Zhan Xingtian's contribution could not be left unrecognized.

And these days, Evelyn had been almost recovered in the hospital.

On the day when she was discharged from hospital, Lucas put down his work and drove her back.

Evelyn was very moved to see him.

Especially when she thought about what he had done for her these days.

The defensive wall erected in her heart collapsed again, and some feelings were growing.

"What are you looking at?"

Maybe he realized that Evelyn's eyes showed too much enthusiasm, so Lucas couldn't help asking.

Evelyn's finally regained consciousness and her eyes were full of chagrin and a trace of shyness.

Her white cheek was gradually getting scarlet.

“Nothing.”

She didn't want Lucas to find out her own difference,so she looked out of the window and answered.

However,Lucas still found the crimson behind her ears and knew that she was shy.

He chuckled,but didn't ask any more.

Because he knew that his little wife was thin-skinned.If he kept on asking,she would only be angry.

After a while,they went back home.

Lucas sent Evelyn back and soon returned to the company because he still had work to do.

Evelyn went back to her room.After a wash,she sat on the workbench to sort out the work that she had left undone these days.

However,her mind had never been able to focus on her work.

She thought that in order to take care of her,Lucas kept coming and going from hospital and his company and had lost a lot of weight.She really wanted to do something to thank him.

But she thought for a long time and didn't think that Lucas lacked anything.

Finally,she planned to cook in person in the evening and make a table of dishes that Lucas liked to reward him.

When she had the idea,she immediately took action.

She went to find the housekeeper and told him her thoughts.The housekeeper was glad to help her.

In this way,Evelyn started cooking busily in the kitchen.

Seeing this picture, Mo Li, who had been ordered to continue to look after her, was so angry that her face was distorted by jealousy.

Especially she felt that after this time, the relationship between this woman and Lucas seemed better!

.....

On that night, Lucas came back and Evelyn greeted him with a smile happily.

“What’s the matter?”

Lucas was a little surprised by her enthusiasm and asked.

Before Evelyn could answer, the housekeeper on the other side let her out.

“Young master, young madam saw that you were busy in and out during this period of time, and lost a lot of weight. She specially made many dishes you like to eat, so that you can mend your body.”

When Lucas heard this, his face softened and his heart was filled with joy.

“Well, it looks like I will be having a good dinner time tonight.”

He looked at Evelyn with slightly raising his eyebrow, and his eyes were full of teasing.

Although Evelyn was embarrassed by his eyes, she still responded generously, “It’s good to meet your appetite. It’s been a hard time for you.”

Lucas looked at the gratitude in her eyes, raised his hand and rubbed the top of her hair. He said with a smile, “You are my wife. It’s my responsibility to take care of you.”

Evelyn was stunned, and then his face turned red.

The heartbeat was more like a deer bumping around, beating all the time.

His wife...

This was not the first time she heard this from him.

Was he so gentle as long as the woman was his wife?

She thought that, and the original joy faded and her face became pale.

Because she had never forgot that she was not Lucas's real wife.

When the real Nora came back, she would have to leave.

And all the tenderness she enjoyed this moment would belong to Nora in the future.

For a while, her heart seemed to be held tightly by an invisible big hand, which made her feel pain in breathing.

"What's the matter with you? Your face looks so bad."

When Lucas saw Evelyn's face suddenly changed, he asked about it.

Evelyn looked up, looked at his concerned eyes, and tried not to think so far.

At least at this moment she was Nora. As for the future, she didn't want to think about it.

"It's OK, but the wound suddenly hurts."

She opened her mouth and said perfunctorily.

Lucas believed and wanted to call a family doctor to have a look, but Evelyn refused.

"No need to do that. I feel better now."

She said, pulling Lucas to the dining-table, "Have a meal, or it will be cold in a moment."

Lucas hadn't wanted to agree with it, but Evelyn insisted that she was OK, so finally he had to compromise.

After having dinner together and Evelyn's intention to regulate the atmosphere, Lucas soon let go of his worries and chatted with her happily.

Mo Li looked at the harmonious picture of the restaurant. Her fingernails had been almost clasped into her hands.

Especially when she saw Lucas's gentleness to Evelyn, which made her wonder why this woman could get his love.

Especially after Nora had made so much trouble, how could she still accept the kindness of Lucas with no qualms of conscience. She really felt sad for Lucas.

No, she couldn't let her master get indulged any more.

She thought, a dark light under her eyes.

Wasn't Lucas mother always not expecting this woman all the time?

As long as this woman made unforgivable mistakes, Sophia would surely have a way to deal with her.

She didn't believe that Lucas could protect the woman against the his mother's wishes!

Evelyn did not realize that the danger was near.

She had a good chat with Lucas and couldn't help drinking some wine.

In a short time, she was all dizzy.

Maybe she was affected by the sadness just now., so after being drunk, she tangled up Lucas.

"Lucas, please go outside with me."

She stumbled to Lucas's side and nearly fell down when she was unsteady.

Fortunately, Lucas held her fast with his hands. Seeing the confusion on her face, he felt speechless.

"Drunk like this, are you sure you want to go out?"

He said, looking outside, and the light flashed through his eyes.

Evelyn didn't see it, grabbed his hand and nodded firmly, "Yes!"

She finished, as if afraid of Lucas's refusal, shaking his arm to act coquettish.

"Go, will you?"

Lucas stared at her for a while, smiled, and finally agreed.

“OK, I’ll take you out.”

When his words fell, he supported Evelyn and walked to the garden.

As soon as he left the restaurant, he was stopped by Mo Li who was worried.

“Young master, it’s too dark outside. It’s not suitable for you to go. I’ll go with the young madam.”

When she finished, she glanced at Evelyn without leaving any trace, and her eyes were full of anger.

Was this woman trying to kill her master?

Lucas didn’t notice her ferocity and knew that she was worried about him.

However, the reason why he agreed to Evelyn’s request was to prove one thing.

“No, I’ll go out with her.”

When he finished, he left with Evelyn.

Looking at the back of two people’s leaving, Mo Li felt so angry that her eyes were filled with envy.

The young master was willing to take risks for that bch!

She couldn’t believe it. At the same time, a plot formed in her mind.

She thought she knew how to get Sophia to deal with this bch!
