0 4 minutes read

The garden of Hawk family was carefully designed.

Even in the evening,the garden of the house was also brightly lit.

Lucas was wandering around the garden with Evelyn.

Under the breeze,Evelyn,who had been a little drunk,gradually became sober.

When she thought of the scene that had happened just now in the restaurant,she almost was frozen completely,and her eyes were full of chagrin and embarrassment.

At this time,she didn't know whether she should release Lucas or continue to pretend to be drunk.

Just as she was struggling,Lucas found out something different about her.

"What's the matter?"

He looked down at the woman half hanging on him,his eyes full of tenderness that even he himself didn't know.

As soon as Evelyn raised her head,she bumped into the soft watery eyes and was stunned again.

Under the light,the man who had a perfect handsome face looked like a prince coming out of a fairy tale.

Looking at this,Evelyn's breath was sluggish and her heart was beating fast.

At this time,the original bright surroundings suddenly darkened.

Evelyn suddenly returned to reality,slightly frowned and looked around.

"What's the matter?Is the power off?"

She asked in a low voice,but there was no response from her side.Instead,there was a short breath.

“Lucas?”

She cried softly when she realized that something got wrong.

However, no one responded to her, and that breathing became heavier and heavier.

Evelyn suddenly thought of something that Lucas couldn't stay in the dark for a long time. She quickly helped him and said urgently, "Lucas, hold on. I'll take you back now."

She helped Lucas and wanted to take him back, only to find that the man beside her fell straight at her.

Suddenly, both of them fell to the ground.

"Lu... Lucas, are you ok?"

Evelyn quickly sat up from the ground and looked for Lucas.

In the moonlight, Lucas was seen to curl up on the ground, shivering all over.

Evelyn's complexion changed greatly. She hurriedly came forward and picked up the man from the ground. To her surprise, what she saw was a pair of desperate eyes, and she found that Lucas's face turned gray, as if he could faint at any time.

It could be said that she had never seen such a Lucas.

It was impossible to take Lucas back to the room by herself. Suddenly Evelyn thought of a claustrophobia emergency treatment she had seen before. Maybe she could use it for reference at this time.

She hugged Lucas tightly and kept whispering in his ear.

"Don't be afraid. Relax. I'm with you."

"Lucas, I'm here..."

She said, kissing Lucas's forehead that was full of cold sweat.

Maybe her pacification had any effect. Lucas's body, which had been shaking badly, slowly eased down.

Evelyn noticed that, and her eyes flashed with joy. Then she continued to pacify him.

When Mo Li came here, she saw such a picture.

Her eyes flashed over sullen and undisguised jealousy.

“Young master!”

She pretended to scream in panic and tried to take Lucas away from Evelyn.

“What are you doing?”

Evelyn was shocked, and Lucas, who had eased down after all the trouble, trembled again. He seemed to have difficulty breathing and gasped heavily.

“What am I doing? I’d like to ask what you are doing! Why don’t you take my sir back to the doctor, but leave him in this dark place? Do you want to kill him?”

Being refused to touch Lucas by Evelyn, Mo Li shouted at her!

As her words fell, the situation of Lucas became more and more serious.

Evelyn didn’t want to argue with her. She stared at Mo Li and yelled, “Shut up! If you want to kill your sir, then just shout!”

Having said so, she no longer cared about her. She lowered her head to appease Lucas again.

“Lucas, don’t be afraid. I’m here. It’s OK.”

She tightly hugged Lucas, leaned close to his ear and repeated it over and over again.

Lucas held her dress tightly.

He knew that he was ill, but he couldn’t help it. It was like falling into a strange circle. There was a bottomless abyss under him, which kept dragging him down.

He struggled, but he couldn't break free, just like before.

However, when he was about to give up his struggle and fall into the abyss, a gentle female voice suddenly sounded in his consciousness. With this voice, there was also a beam of light shining into the dark corner, which made his restless heart slowly recover.

Gradually, Lucas in Evelyn's arms recovered calm. Were it not for his pale face, no one could imagine that this man who fell asleep had just had a serious and horrible illness.

Evelyn felt relieved when she saw Lucas who finally calmed down.

But Mo Li just stared at them incredibly.

She couldn't believe it. Her sir who could only be relieved by tranquilizer before could sleep peacefully under the comfort of this woman!

When she was in a trance, the garden suddenly was lit up. Meanwhile, the housekeeper found something wrong and took someone to hurry over.

"Young master!"

When he saw Lucas who was sleeping in Evelyn's arms, he was completely nervous.

He asked his men to help Lucas. This time, Evelyn did not stop them. She followed them to the room with Lucas.

Mo Li, with a gloomy face, followed behind them.

People in main house also noticed that something had happened, and everyone rushed here, including Envy who came to visit Hawk Family as a guest.

"Mo Li, where is Lucas?"

Sophia came to the new house and asked immediately when she saw Mo Li standing in the living room.

Other people were also concerned and looked at Mo Li.

Looking at them, Mo Li thought that just now she had wanted to help Lucas but was refused by Evelyn. Her eyes twinkled, "Young master is upstairs in the emergency room, and lady asked me not to go up to make trouble."

Sophia was even more worried when she heard about the emergency, especially when she knew that there was only Nora upstairs.

"She asked you not to go upstairs, so you just follow her words? Is her words or Lucas more important?"

She gave a bad scolding and hurried upstairs at the same time.

Other people followed her, and Vivian couldn't help asking, "How did Lucas get ill?"

Hearing this, Mo Li lowered her eyes and answered, "It's the young madam who insisted on going to the garden, and suddenly the garden had a power failure half the way."

"As I thought, it is the bitch Nora that wants to kill Lucas!"

After hearing Mo Li's explanation, Sophia was so angry that she gnashed her teeth in great anger.

Envy followed the crowd, while her eyes were full of doubts.

"Lucas has illness? How come I never heard of it?" She thought in mind.

She followed the crowd to the bedroom, pressing her doubts.

When Evelyn saw them, she just wanted to get up to say hello. Before she could say anything, she saw Sophia stepping forward and slapping her.

"Bitch, do you want to kill Lucas?"

She stared at Evelyn fiercely and her eyes were almost burning, "Remember, if Lucas... I will make your life a living hell!"

Evelyn was shocked. When she reacted, Sophia had come to the bed to ask about Lucas's condition.

"The young master has temporarily stabilized, but because he was not treated in time, I don't know if it will affect his illness and he requires further observation."

Doctor said the test results, which made Sophia worried.

"What does it mean to not get treatment in time?"

She questioned sternly, and before getting an answer, Mo Li, who stood at the door, suddenly spoke.

"Nora did not let us move sir, so we missed the first treatment!"

Evelyn heard this and looked at Mo Li surprisingly.

Mo Li found Evelyn's sight, and her eyes did not look at her.

At this moment, Sophia screamed loudly in the room.

"Nora Davis!"

Evelyn trembled, and couldn't care about Mo Li, immediately turned her head and explained, "Mom, things ..."

Before she could finish her speaking, she was slapped face-to-face again, the strength was stronger than before.

They saw that Evelyn's white cheeks swelled, showing the five-finger marks clearly, and the blood on the corners of her mouth also overflowed.

"Slut, Lucas is good to you, I didn't expect you to be so cruel and even want to kill him, drive her out!"

Sophia stared at Evelyn with a flash of light in her eyes, commanding sternly.

"Sophia, isn't it too light to punish her, she's killing Lucas!"

Vivian saw Evelyn's embarrassment, and her eyes were full of chills, "If I said that such a stupid woman should be sent directly to the police station, she must not out for life!"

Evelyn heard the words and shivered.

But Sophia didn't care, and snorted softly.

"I really want to, I am afraid that when Lucas wakes up, he will make trouble with us."

She said, savagely stared at Evelyn and called out again, "Butler, what are you waiting for!"

The steward froze, reacted, and went to Evelyn's side with apology.

"Ma'am, sorry."

He was holding Evelyn and took her away.

Evelyn didn't want to leave, and struggled, "Mom, listen to me and explain, I didn't harm Lucas."

Sophia ignored her at all.

"Hurry up and take her away, if you affect the rest of the young master, you will be fired too!"

She shouted at the housekeeper and others.

The steward's expression changed slightly, and he immediately winked at the men next to him, asking them to help.

Finally, Evelyn was taken out of the room by their joint suppression.

When she walked away, Evelyn reluctantly looked at Mo Li.

Although Mo Li noticed her eyes but ignored them.

After dealing with Evelyn, Sophia repulsively fired the electrician in charge of the garden.

And Evelyn didn't know this.

After being sent out by the housekeeper, she begged the housekeeper to let her in.

“Butler, please let me in? Please? I can just wait outside without entering the room. I just want to wait for Lucas to wake up.”

The housekeeper looked at the desperate Evelyn and shook his head helplessly.

“Evelyn, I can’t disobey the orders of the lady. You need to find a place to settle, and wait for the young master to get up and see what he will do.”

After he finished speaking, he apologized to Evelyn and closed the door.

Evelyn looked at the closed door, feeling aggrieved and uncomfortable.

She didn’t leave, but walked to the corner of the door, curled up and squatted.

She had nowhere to go, plus that Lucas didn’t wake up, which made her very worried, so she didn’t want to go anywhere.

Learning that Evelyn had not left, Sophia sneered.

“She can stay there if she wants to. No one of you is allowed to open her door.”

She didn’t know how long it was, the night was getting deeper, and the wind began to blow around.

Evelyn, who wore only one piece of home clothes, was so cold at this moment, the rain fell without warning.

Evelyn stunned for a while, and before responding, the rain changed from sparse raindrops to pouring rain.

In a second, Evelyn was wet.

Even so, she didn’t leave, hugging herself tightly and squatting at the corner.

She just felt wronged in her heart. At this moment, she couldn’t help but keep crying.

Tears accompanied by rain blurred her vision.

She didn't know how long she cried, her consciousness gradually blurred, which worried the housekeeper who had been observing inside the door.

Of course, he did not dare to disobey orders to put her in, but he could only turn around to report.

"Coma? Huh, I think she's playing tricks."

Hearing the steward's words, Sophia sneered coldly.

After a while, she reprimanded the housekeeper.

"Who let you pay attention to that b!tch? So, you want to get out of the house with that b!tch together?"

The housekeeper was terrified, "No, I am worried that the young master will ask the young lady when he wakes up. If the young lady is in trouble, the young master will certainly not ignore that."

When Sophia heard this, she suddenly became speechless.

Although she drove her out, she knew that when Lucas woke up, he would definitely find the b!tch.

Envy looked at the gloomy Sophia, and it was not difficult to guess what she was thinking.

Her eyes flickered and went forward: "Auntie, how about bringing Miss Davis in first? When Lucas wakes up and see how would he handle it, and it won't hurt the relationship between you and Lucas."

Whoever thought, as soon as she finished speaking, she was strongly opposed by Sophia and Vivian.

"No!"

After Vivian said, she looked at Envy in confusion.

Wasn't this woman always trying to drive Nora away? How could she suddenly help her?

She didn't understand, and didn't plan to keep thinking, she said coldly, "Sophia, a woman like Nora, we must not let her come in and wait for Lucas to wake up, otherwise she will surely confuse Lucas and let this matter go."

Sophia nodded, in fact she thought so too.

"I'll let someone kick her out!"

Her eyes flashed a strange light. This time, she would drive this woman away from Lucas anyway!

Vivian heard the words, her eyes narrowed slightly, and she proactively said, "Sophia, you don't have to send someone, I'll handle this."

After that, she did not wait for Sophia to respond, and turned out of the room.

After a while, she came to the gate with an umbrella.

Evelyn heard the sound of opening the door and woke up staggeringly.

She turned her head subconsciously, and saw Vivian holding out her umbrella and coming out from the inside, standing high in front of her.

Evelyn stunned, reacted, and stood up quickly. But because she squatted for too long, her legs had been numb.

She was holding on to the wall to stand firmly, stared nervously at Vivian and asked, "Vivian, is Lucas awake?"

Vivian hummed gently, and responded in a bad temper: "Thank you, he is not dead!"

When she heard the words, she knew that Lucas hadn't awoke and was worried.

"Why didn't he wake up? Didn't the doctor say he's okay?"

She looked at Vivian anxiously, intending to inquire about the specific situation, but before she finished speaking, she was interrupted indifferently by Vivian.

Vivian looked at Evelyn coldly, and her eyes were full of anger.

“Nora, my sister-in-law doesn’t care about your murder of my eldest nephew because of him, but it doesn’t mean that we can tolerate you staying in our house. If you are wise enough, you should go as far as you can, or we will be rude!”

She said, pushing away Evelyn.

Evelyn was leaning against the corner of the wall. Then she suddenly fell to the ground after being pushed by Vivian.

“Ouch...It hurts...”

She saw her knee hit on the stone. Her skin had been broken on it. The red blood kept overflowing, but it was soon washed away by the rain, which also stimulated the wound even more.

Evelyn was in such a state of pain that she took in the cold air and was in a state of embarrassment.

But Vivian was still warning coldly, “Remember my words. If you let me know that you are still here. Don’t blame me for being rude!”

She finished saying, and turned away with a snort.

Evelyn just sat on the ground and watched Vivian walk into Hawk’s house proudly. She could not tell whether it was tears or rain, which blurred her eyes.

She struggled to stand up against the wall, looked at the brightly lit villa in front of her, and finally limped away.

Vivian stood behind the door, watching Evelyn go further and further away. Her eyes were full of pride.

Until Evelyn’s figure disappeared in the villa group, she turned back to her new house.

Evelyn,who left,stood at the intersection and did not know where to go.

In the end,she had to go back to the rental where she had lived with her mother in the old town.

After a simple wash,she was exhausted and couldn't sleep.Lucas's situation was all in her mind.

She fell asleep after thinking for a long time.

In the middle of the night,she had a high fever.Her pale face had an abnormal flush.

Evelyn knew that she might be ill in her confusion,but she couldn't open her eyes at all.Her eyelids seemed to be so heavy,so she could only lie in bed weakly.

...

The next day,in Hawk's House.

Lucas woke up from a coma and looked at the ceiling above him.He was stunned for a while.

The memory of last night also played back in his mind.

Mo Li,who had been paying close attention to him,was so surprised and then cried,"Sir,you wake up!"

As soon as this word came out,the Hawk family members,who had been sitting on the sofa,opened their eyes and walked towards the bed quickly.

"Lucas,you are finally awake."

"Lucas,is there anything else wrong with your body?"

Sophia and Vivian asked hurriedly.

Devin also nodded happily,"It is good that you wake up."

Seeing that she had no chance to say something to care about Lucas, Envy smiled, "Uncle, aunt, you talk to Lucas. I'll ask the housekeeper to inform the doctor and make some food for Lucas by the way," she said with a sensible smile.

Sophia was very satisfied with her arrangement and nodded with a smile. "Thank you!"

Envy smiled more and more softly, and turned to command the steward.

When Vivian saw this, she couldn't help but curl her lips.

"This woman never wastes any chance to show off." She thought.

Then she decided to pay no attention to it. She cared about Lucas.

Seeing that his mother's face was full of worries, Lucas said, "Mom, don't worry. I'm ok."

He said, lifting his eyes and looking around this room. Then he found that there was no Evelyn in the room and asked, "Where is Nora? Why isn't she here?"

Sophia hadn't expected that her son would care about that bitch as soon as he woke up, and her face turned black.

"Don't mention her!" She was angry and scolded. Her looking at Lucas showed that she was somewhat disappointed.

"Why do you still care about her?"

When Lucas heard the words, he frowned.

Obviously something had happened during his coma that he didn't know.

"Mom, if Nora did something wrong that made you angry, I'll compensate you here. Anyway, if Nora wasn't with me last night, I might have died."

He tried to ease the relationship, but he didn't expect that his words to make his mother more angry.

"Lucas, what are you talking about? Are you crazy? That bitch saved you? Don't be fooled by her. She wanted to kill you!"

Lucas twisted his eyebrows and said coldly with dissatisfaction, "Why does she want to hurt me? Who said all this?"

Sophia was startled by his cold tone. She was stupefied and looked at Mo Li subconsciously.

Mo Li's heart trembled, but she still stood out and explained.

"Master, last night, the garden was out of power. You were in shock. I'd like to send you back to see the doctor, but Nora hugged you tightly and didn't let me bring you back."

The implication was that Evelyn's delay in his treatment was tantamount to harming him.

Lucas's face darkened in an instant.

Why didn't Evelyn let him go last night? Although Lucas was in a coma at that time, he was conscious.

So he knew that Evelyn was doing first aid to him at that time.

And if she let Mo Li take him away then, his condition would probably become more serious during the period of waiting for the doctor to come.

Although he understood that parents' care, he couldn't help worrying.

"Do you know that if I had been taken away by you, my condition would have got worse!"

He said, turning his eyes to Sophia, "Besides, Nora stopped you not for harming me at all, but for saving me."

"How could it be?"

Sophia and Vivian were shocked and didn't believe it at all.

Lucas gave them a cold look and said coldly, "Didn't I just say that? If it wasn't for Nora's first aid, I would have been dead."

When they heard this, Sophia and Vivian looked at each other and were at a loss.

Seeing this, Lucas asked again, "So now, should you tell me where Nora is?"

As soon as the words came out, all the people in the family were silent. They dared not speak, and their eyes were drifting.

Seeing this, Lucas got out of bed immediately.

"Lucas, where are you going?"

Lucas ignored her and went straight to the door to call Cindy.

He knew that Cindy was so kind and always loyal to him and Nora. She was also the servant who protected Nora the most.

"You're OK, young master. That's great."

When Cindy saw Lucas woke up and could walk, she suddenly cried with joy, then she immediately said in a hurry, "Young master, you should believe in young madam, she was not hurt you. Please send someone to find her back."

Lucas immediately lowered his face and asked in a cold voice, "Tell me what's going on."

Cindy sobbed and told Lucas what had happened last night.

"Madam thought that young Madam wanted to hurt you. She drove her out. It was raining outside. She was worried about you and kept at the door all the time. Later, Miss Hawk was angry, and she went to drive her in person. I saw that young Madam was injured and limped."

Sophia and Vivian hadn't expected that this little maid would dare to tell the truth about last night and glared at her fiercely.

When Cindy sensed their sight, she shivered and was frightened.

Of course, Lucas also noticed their small movements, and his face suddenly became very horrible!

Sophia looked at Lucas's extremely gloomy face and wanted to say something, but before she could say anything, she was ignored and interrupted by him.

"Mo Li, what are you still doing? Go out with me to find her!"

He passed by Sophia quickly, picked up a coat on the shelf, and strode out.

Sophia was in a hurry and stopped him.

"Lucas, what are you doing? Don't you know that you are still not in good health? Even if you want to look for her, let others do it for you."

Lucas gave her a cold look and pushed her away, "I'm fine. I can't feel at ease if I have others find her!"

He left with great strides.

Mo Li was also worried, but she didn't dare to refuse or object when she saw Lucas's cold face.

When they left Hawk home, Lucas went to Davis's house immediately.

John was surprised when he saw Lucas came.

"Lucas, why didn't you ask Nora to tell me that you will come in advance. I'm not prepared for anything."

He went downstairs with a smile and asked Lucas to stay for lunch.

Lucas refused directly, looked around his eyes and found that Nora wasn't here, so he couldn't help asking.

"Where is Nora? Is she not at home?"

John was more surprised to hear that.

"Isn't Nora in your house? Is something wrong? Or is that girl in trouble again?"

He asked in a hurry, which made Lucas realize for the first time that Nora hasn't come back at all last night.

"Something happened. Nora is missing now. I don't know where she is."

Lucas replied in a deep voice, and he didn't plan to stay for long.

After all, since that woman was not here, there was no point in staying here.

"I'll go to look for Nora first. If you have any news, remember to inform me at the first time."

Finishing saying, he turned and left.

When he left Davis's villa, Lucas looked at the blue sky, but he was at a loss. He didn't know where to find that woman.

After that, he thought of that Cindy had said that Nora was injured and immediately took out his mobile phone to contact Cater.

"Immediately check all hospitals in Jing Du to see if the young madam has checked in last night."

Although Cater didn't know what had happened, he still went to do it immediately.

At the same time, John also called Evelyn, but he couldn't get through.

He took the busy cell phone, pondered for a while, and called his private hospital.

"Mr. Davis, Miss. Davis has never appeared in the hospital."

John frowned when he heard this reply.

This was so weird. The girl didn't answer the phone and was not in the hospital. Where else could she go?

He thought, suddenly thinking of the old house where Evelyn's mother and her lived, he immediately asked someone to prepare a car and planned to find her himself.

After all, Evelyn was still useful to him, so he couldn't let her have an accident, otherwise his carefully arranged situation would be ruined.

In less than half an hour, John arrived at Evelyn's rental house.

“Mr.Davis,no one opens the door.”

Assistant knocked on the door for a long time,but it seemed that no one was inside,so he turned to report.

John squinted and said in a cold voice,”Break in the door.”

The assistant nodded.After a loud bang,the closed wooden door was kicked open and everyone rushed in.

“Mr.Davis,I have found Evelyn,but her condition seems not very good.”

Assistant found Evelyn in the bedroom and reported.

In old big bed,Evelyn’s face turned abnormal red,and her forehead was full of cold sweat.

She closed her eyes tightly,as if suffering from something,shook her head uneasily,and her lips were white and dry.

Seeing this,John immediately asked people to pick up Evelyn and send her to the hospital.

At the same time,he did not forget to inform Lucas.

In less than ten minutes,Lucas arrived at the hospital and found John.He asked,”How is Nora?”

Seeing the tension on his face,John flashed a faint light at the bottom of his eyes,and replied,”The doctor just had a preliminary examination,and the fever was nearly forty degrees.Because it was late,it had turned into pneumonia.Anyway,the situation was very serious.”

After hearing this,Lucas’s face became very gloomy.

“At the same time,they found many bruises on Nora.Lucas,should you tell me what happened?”John continued to say.

When Lucas heard this,his face became more terrible.

He glanced at John,who looked so concerned about Evelyn,and said in a deep voice,”I will give Nora an account of this matter.”

It meant that he didn't want to answer John's question.

John squinted. Although he was dissatisfied, he did not continue to ask.

"Yes, I hope you can make Nora satisfied with the result of your treatment, otherwise I, as her father, will not easily forgive you."

He acted like a loving father to warn Lucas.

Lucas glanced at him and said nothing.

Nobody knew how long it had taken when the first aid was over.

Lucas followed the doctor to the ward to settle down with Evelyn.

He looked at the pale face of this woman in the hospital bed. His heart seemed to be pricked by a needle, which made his breathing painful.

"Sorry, I'm too late."

He stood by the bed, caressing Evelyn's cheek and murmuring.

Seeing this, John could not help frowning, but soon relieved.

However, Mo Li, who was at the door, looked at the scene, and her eyes were red with envy.

Damn it! How can this woman still be rescued since her high fever is 40 degrees!

"Since Nora is OK, I'll go back then. I hope you can give me an account of this matter as soon as possible."

John looked at Lucas's concern for Evelyn, and his eyes were full of satisfaction.

He thought it was also good. He could rest assured of their marriage when Nora came back.

Lucas didn't know what John was thinking. He nodded and asked Mo Li to send him away.

When John left,Lucas watched Evelyn for a while,and then picked up his mobile phone to call Cater.

...

In Hawk's House

Since Lucas left,Sophia and Vivian had been very upset.

"Sophia, do you think Lucas will punish me because of that b!tch?"

When Vivian thought of Lucas's face,she was afraid.

"How dare he!"

Sophia scolded fiercely,but only she knew how much confidence there was in the tone.

As soon as the words came to an end,the housekeeper hurried over and followed Cater.

"Madam.Miss Hawk."

Cater took the lead in speaking before housekeeper said something.

When Sophia saw him,she was a little surprised.

"Cater,what are you doing here?What about Lucas?"

Cater glanced at her and Vivian and said respectfully,"Mr.Hawk is with the young madam in the hospital."

When Vivian and Sophia heard the words,they couldn't help frowning.

"Nora is now in hospital?"

Cater nodded,"Yes."

He told them Evelyn's situation briefly,which made Sophia and Vivian despise Evelyn's weakness and wonder at the same time.

"Since Lucas is in the hospital,as his assistant,why are you not in the hospital to help him?What are you doing here?"

Seeing that they finally asked the right question, Cater said with a smile, "I'm here on the order of Mr. Hawk to escort Miss Hawk to the African branch!"

When Sophia and Vivian heard this, they immediately changed their attitudes.

It was hard to accept, especially for Vivian.

"What did you say?"

Cater repeated again: "Mr. Hawk ordered you to go to the African branch immediately for a year, during which you could not come back!"

After hearing this, Vivian was angry.

"I won't go!"

She refused without thinking.

Cater, with the same face, apologized to Vivian, "Then please forgive me, Miss Hawk."

He said, winking at the bodyguard behind him, "Escort Miss Hawk to the plane."

As soon as he said this, the bodyguard behind him walked towards Vivian.

Vivian was shocked and angry.

"What do you want? Rebel against us?"

Cater explained, "Mr. Hawk said that if Miss Hawk resists, we can take desperate measures."

Vivian was so angry that she was about to explode with anger.

She didn't expect that Lucas should treat his aunt like this for the sake of Nora.

“Sister in law, look at what Lucas has done!”

She looked at Sophia angrily and embarrassedly and wanted her to stop them.

Anyway, she wouldn't go to the backward places like Africa, and stay for a year.

When Sophia heard the words, she immediately darkened her face.

She glared at the approaching bodyguard and shouted, “Who dares to touch Vivian and take her away!”

After that, she pulled Vivian to her side to protect her.

Cater saw this and frowned.

“Madam, please, don't make this so difficult for us. This is the order of Mr. Hawk.”

He tried to persuade Sophia, but it didn't help.

“Let him tell me his order in person!”

Sophia did not give in at all, so Cater had no choice but call Lucas.

Lucas received the phone call and knew that his mother was interfering.

His face was cold to the extreme.

“I see. I'll be right back.”

When he finished, he hung up.

“Mo Li, I need to go back to deal with something. You are here to take care of young lady.”

Mo Li didn't want to, but she dare not show it in front of Lucas who was raging.

“I see.”

She clenched her fist tightly and nodded to promise.

Although she concealed her anger well, Lucas still felt something unusual.

“This is your last chance. If you can’t take good care of her again, you will go back to Mo Zhui!”

Lucas glanced at her coldly and left by passing directly her.

Mo Li incredibly watched him leave, and her heart was full of unwillingness.

Why?

Why could Nora get the whole hearted love of Mr. Hawk?

She stared at Evelyn in the hospital bed, but she was helpless and had no choice.

.....

When Lucas returned to the Hawk family, Sophia and Cater were still at loggerheads.

“Mr. Hawk.”

Cater saw him and called him with a sigh of relief.

Lucas waved, glancing coldly at Sophia and Vivian.

“Mom, give me the little aunt, or blame me for using violence.”

He glanced at them lightly. The cold in his eyes made them afraid.

Vivian, who used to dare to shout loudly, was as dumb as a mute, too scared to say a word.

She tugged at Sophia’s sleeve nervously.

“Sister in law, help me!”

Sophia wanted to help her, but she was also afraid of her angry son.

“Lucas, this...”

Before she could say something to persuade him, she was stopped by Lucas.

“Mom, don’t reason with me. Now I want her. Either you give her to me or they will take her by force.”

He looked at them coldly with firm eyes.

Sophia was angry and embarrassed, strongly held back her feelings and scolded: “Lucas, do you treat your elder like this?”

Lucas sneered: “Elder? When she harmed Nora, has she ever thought she is an elder?”

When he finished, he thought of Evelyn, who was still lying in the hospital bed. His eyes were sharp, and he said in a deep voice, “Pull madam away and take Miss. Hawk to leave!”

“Yes!”

The bodyguard took the order and went forward to separate Sophia and Vivian without worries.

“Don’t you dare!”

“Let me go – I don’t want to go to Africa!”

“Lucas, you treat your aunt like this for the sake of an outsider?”

When Vivian was controlled and struggled, she was very angry and ashamed, especially when she thought of being sent to poor and backward Africa, she could not care about her fear but broke out into curses.

Sophia’s face looked not much better, and she scolded Lucas as well.

“You are fascinated by that fox spirit. So you are can’t distinguish the good from the bad!”

Lucas didn’t pay attention to their deeds at all. When Vivian was caught, he gave orders to cater, “Send someone to escort Miss Hawk to Africa. Make sure that she arrives, and then he can come back!”

Cat nodded and took Vivian away.

Sophia was furious to see Vivian being taken away.

She walked quickly to Lucas and tried to scold him and let him let go of Vivian.

“What kind of honeyed words did that b!tch said to you to make you treat your close relatives like this? Do you know who is really good to you, your little aunt...”

She was interrupted by Lucas before she finished speaking.

“Enough. You almost k!lled her. Why can you curse with an easy conscience?”

He said, looking at Sophia angrily with disappointment.

“I know you look down upon Nora and think she doesn’t deserve me, but mom, don’t forget that Nora saved my life. If it wasn’t for her, your son died at home last night!”

Sophia was stunned, and she could not speak for a long time with her mouth open.

When Lucas saw this, he pressed his l!ps and went on: “Not just the little aunt was punished. Mom, you need to apologize to Nora!”

When Sophia heard that she needed to apologize to Evelyn, she immediately showed a resisted look.

She wanted to scold, but before she could get out, Lucas spoke before her.

“Mom, it’s not the first time you’ve done this to Nora. Besides, do not think that I don’t know you put birth control pills in Nora’s soup with great secrecy. It’s just that I don’t expose you. Just think about it. Do you want to apologize or I tell these things to Grandpa?”

Sophia’s face was full of shock when she heard this.

Especially the last thing Lucas mentioned, she was shocked and guilty.

She never thought Lucas would know about the birth control pill.

For a while, she didn’t even have the courage to look into Lucas’s eyes.

Just then, the housekeeper hurried in.

“Madam, young master, the old master is here.”

The, the sound of crutch was heard from afar.

Lucas ignored, looked at Sophia with deep eyes.

“Mom, what’s your choice?”

Sophia was upset, but she had to compromise at this time!

“OK, OK, when that bit...Nora wakes up, I’ll apologize to her!”

She was subconsciously about to say the word “b!tch”, but she changed the word in Lucas’ silent threat.

For a while, she was so depressed that she even counted all these on Evelyn.

It was because that b!tch confused her son, so she made him fail to distinguish right from wrong!

Grandpa hawk didn’t know the agreement they have reached. After entering the living room, he asked, “Has you found Nora?”

Lucas nodded, “Yes, but her situation is not so good.”

He put Evelyn’s situation in a nutshell. After listening to it, Grandpa Hawk was angry.

“Sophia, you are confused. How can you do such a thing? If it’s spread out, others will think we’re abusing our daughter-in-law!”

In the face of Grandpa Hawk’s blame, Sophia could only bite her !lps, and she hated Evelyn completely in her heart.

As for the matter of Vivian, Grandpa Hawk had no problem with Lucas’ handling after learning the whole story.

“It’s time to change Vivian’s temper. You can deal with these things. I’ll see Nora when she’s better.”

Lucas nodded, then they said something, and Grandpa Hawk left.

After he saw off Grandpa Hawk, Lucas looked at Sophia, who was sitting on the sofa alone and was very sullen, he said he was going to the hospital and left.

After all, there was only Mo Li taking care of Evelyn, he couldn’t be rest assure.

...

The next day, Evelyn woke up drowsily.

She looked at the white ceiling above her head and didn’t react for a moment.

It took a long time for her to understand that she was in the ward and she was wondering.

Wasn’t she in the rental house? How did she get to the hospital?

Just then, the door of the ward was opened and Lucas came in holding his cell phone.

“Wake up? Do you have any discomfort?”

He saw Evelyn is in a daze, and hurriedly went forward to ask, with tenderness on his face.

Evelyn was stunned to see Lucas.

“Why are you here? Aren’t you...”

She was surprised and asked. Before she finished speaking, Lucas interrupted her.

“Don’t worry, I’m ok.”

When Lucas saw that she was ill but she did not forget to care about him. He was delighted, as if he was drinking honey water, and his face was more tender.

“How do you feel? Any uncomfortable feelings? I can call the doctor to come.”

Evelyn shook her head. “Well, I’m just feeling a little dizzy.”

She said, thinking of the problems she has been tangling with, she suddenly felt nervous.

“By the way, how did I get to the hospital?”

She was worried that Lucas knew about what happened in the rental house.

If it was Lucas who found her, she had to think about carefully how to explain it.

After all, she was Nora at the time. How could she live in such an old house.

But apparently her fears were superfluous.

Lucas responded in an usual way: “Your father found you and sent you to the hospital.”

When Evelyn heard this, she frowned, but she could not help but relax.

“So it is.”

She said softly, with the pallor on her face, which suddenly made Lucas’s heart ache.

Especially he thought of the grievances she suffered when she was in the coma.

“Sorry for making you wronged.”

He suddenly hugged Evelyn and whispered in her ear.

Evelyn was held in his arms and she was stunned for a moment. Then she reacted and heard the heartache in his words. Suddenly, she felt that for this hug, the grievances she has suffered before were nothing.

She held tight to the corners of Lucas’s coat, relaxing herself in his arms.

“I’m glad you’re OK.”

When Lucas heard this, his heart was softened into a pool of water.

He hugged Evelyn tightly and kissed the top of her hair.

And this scene was just seen by Mo Li who came in. Her face was distorted with jealousy.

They hugged each other for a long time. At last, Evelyn was hungry, so they let go of each other.

Evelyn was so ashamed that she even wanted to find a hole to hide herself.

It seemed that every time the atmosphere was wonderful, she would get hungry.

Lucas looked at the shy little woman who wrapped herself in the quilt. His eyes were full of doting feeling.

“Come on, no one here will laugh at you.”

He pulled the quilt and coaxed her softly.

It was stuffy, so Evelyn was uncomfortable. After hearing his words, she stuck her head out of the quilt. Her pale face turned red and her hair was messy.

Lucas looked at her and arranged it for her dotingly.

“Can I get you anything to eat?”

Evelyn felt his tenderness and was stunned. Then she shook her head.

“No.”

Lucas raised his eyebrows and thought that she has not yet been healed, he coaxed: “Then I’ll ask someone to buy you some light meat porridge and you can grab a bite. When you recover, I’ll take you to eat yummy.”

Naturally, Evelyn did not refuse.

Then Lucas sent Mo Li to buy porridge.

Although Mo Li didn't want to, she didn't dare to disobey Mr. Hawk's order.

After a while, she bought porridge and came back, watching Mr. Hawk feed Evelyn. Her jealousy rose again.

Naturally, Evelyn also noticed her angry sight. She was not comfortable with Lucas's feeding, but at this moment she enjoyed herself with a clear conscience.

Of course, it was because of her possessiveness, but she didn't find out.

After eating a few mouthfuls, she suddenly felt tired and panted a little.

Lucas looked at her, quite worried.

"Are you uncomfortable? I'll have the doctor come and have a look."

When he finished, he was about to press the call bell, but he was stopped by Evelyn.

"Don't bother the doctor, I'm just tired and want to have a rest."

Lucas watched her lie down. There was no other discomfort on her face except fatigue, so he stopped.

"Well, have a good rest. When you are hungry, I will get you something again."

He bent down to arrange the quilt and make sure Evelyn wouldn't catch cold, then he sat down, as if he was here to accompany her.

Evelyn looked at him in surprise and asked subconsciously, "Aren't you busy?"

Lucas understood what she meant, and smiled, "Yes, just have a rest."

Who knew as he said this, Mo Li couldn't bear it anymore.

She coughed softly and said in a deep voice, "Mr. Hawk, there is something urgent for you to deal with."

When Lucas heard this, he frowned and looked at Mo Li discontentedly.

Mo Li was shocked by the coldness in his eyes, and even more uncomfortable.

Why couldn't she share the tenderness that Mr. Hawk gave to that bitch?

The more she was not reconciled, the more she wanted to separate them.

"Mr. Hawk, it's urgent. You'd better deal with it first. I can accompany young lady here."

She summoned up courage and continued to persuade, and Lucas's face became very terrible.

When Evelyn saw this, she quickly said something to appease him.

"If you have something to do, go ahead and deal with it. I'm fine."

When she finished, she took a look at Mo Li without leaving any trace.

She didn't know why. She always felt this woman deliberately send Lucas away.

But looking at the seriousness on her face, she cast off the absurd speculation.

Maybe there was something important to be dealt with.

Lucas didn't notice her little movements.

He put her outstretched hand back into the quilt, and said softly, "Nothing is more important than you now. Have a good rest. I'm here with you."

Evelyn was shocked when she heard the sudden honeyed words.

After responding, her heart beat like a drum, and crimson slowly climbed up her cheek.

She turned her head away with a coquettish look and pretended to close her eyes to rest.

Looking at her shyness, Lucas' heart became gentle again.

The interaction between the two people stimulated Mo Li's jealousy, which almost destroyed her reason.

However, her monstrous jealousy suddenly cooled down when she met Lucas's cold eyes.

"Mr. Hawk....."

She called carefully, but what she got was Lucas's cold, unemotional rebuke.

"Get out!"

Mo Li shuddered. Even if she was unwilling, she did not dare to disobey and turned out of the ward.

After she left, only Evelyn and Lucas were left in the ward.

Evelyn didn't say anything when Lucas drove Mo Li away.

She closed her eyes and didn't know if she was really tired. She fell asleep in a short time.

Listening to her gentle breathing, the coldness in Lucas' eyes gradually disappeared.

The sun came in, making people felt peaceful and cozy in the quiet ward.

...

At the same time, the Hawk family.

Since the company's project nearly completed, Envy no longer had the excuse to stay at the Hawk family, so she intent to say goodbye to Sophia.

But Sophia was reluctant to let her go.

"The business of the company belongs to the company. I invite you personally to live here for some time. I'll see who dares to complain."

She was holding on to Envy and didn't want to let her go.

Envy refused with a smile, "Auntie, it's different. I've lived here for a long time. It's not suitable to live any longer."

Sophia recognized her other meaning in her words. Her eyes flashed and then she sighed.

"Envy, you are a smart kid. You should have understood my intention as I let you live in. To be honest, I like you very much. I hope you can become my daughter-in-law."

When Envy heard this, she couldn't help sneering.

Because Sophia also said this to Amelia before.

Although she was a little uncomfortable in her heart, it was a good thing that this woman could tell her plan. At least she had another helper in the future.

She hesitated, "I know your plan, but now Lucas is busy taking care of Nora. I can't get in between them. I'm afraid I will disappoint you."

With that, she showed a wry smile.

"Originally, I thought I would take this opportunity to get along with Lucas day and night, to let him see me and be into me, but I overestimated myself. Lucas' eyes have never been on me, and you don't have to insist on this. I think it's OK. At least I can be friends with Lucas."

Sophia was not willing to give up, persuading: "Envy, don't have this idea. It's all the tricks of Nora that b!tch. You're so much better than her. Lucas will find that you are the best sooner or later."

Envy smiled and said, "Maybe, anyway, I won't insist on it now. Let it be."

She took a deep breath and didn't refuse it absolutely.

Naturally, Sophia also recognized that, but she was determined to use Envy to kick Evelyn out of the Hawk family.

Of course, Envy guessed that, and it was also the effect she wanted.

Later, Envy suggested having a meal together.

“I’ve troubled you a lot during this period. I’d like to invite all of you to have a meal in the evening. I want to thank you for taking care of me during this period.”

Sophia naturally agreed.

“Then I’ll tell Lucas’s father, and you tell Lucas by yourself.” Envy knew that she was creating opportunities for her and did not refuse.

“Okay, I’ll go to the hospital later and see Miss Davis by the way.”

At the same time, a slender man sat on the sofa in the presidential suite of a famous hotel in Jingdu.

In front of him were two big black men.

“Boss, all the important people around Lucas have been found out.”

One of the strong men with scars bowed his head respectfully and reported.

“Well, who are they?”

Murky words sounded from the man’s lips.

“We found that two women have a lot to do with him, one is Nora Davis, who lives with him, the other is Envy Miller, and her relationship with Lucas is not simple. They go with each other all the time as lovers and worked together.”

The black man with a scar said this, paused, carefully observed the man’s expression, saw the man’s silence, and then continued: “Another one is Lucas’s mother.”

He finished, stood aside respectfully, waiting for the man’s next order.

The man didn’t immediately open his mouth, but squinted dangerously and played with the lighter in his hand.

A “click” sound was heard. The orange flame rose from the lighter, but it looked extremely depressed in this quiet room.

After a long time, the man finally put away the lighter and asked gloomily, "Who do you think is the easiest to be caught in these three women?"

The two black men took a look at each other and replied, "Lucas's mother. The other two women have bodyguards around them."

The man nodded and made a decision.

"Good, then catch his mother. She should be the person he cares about, so he can be threatened."

He said, looking up at them. Then he said seriously, "Remember, you have to guarantee a complete success."

Two black men nodded and took the order.

Sophia didn't know she had been in danger.

After chatting with Envy for a while, she went back to her room for a rest.

Envy went to the company to deal with some documents first, and then rushed to the hospital with conciliatory gifts.

Outside the ward, Mo Li saw Envy coming fascinatingly, so she had precautions in her eyes.

Envy also noticed, but didn't take her seriously.

After all, in her opinion, this woman was just a subordinate of Lucas, and she was not worthy of being an opponent at all.

When she knocked on the door and walked into the ward, she saw Lucas feeding Evelyn water, which made her put a little more strength on her hand holding the door handle.

However, she quickly adjusted her mind and joked: "Well...Is it not the right time for me to be here? Do you need me to avoid?"

Lucas and Evelyn were shocked to see her suddenly appear.

"No, we are not doing anything."

After listening to her teasing words, Lucas didn't notice her unusual look at all, and he smiled and said to her.

And this was where Envy was brilliant.

When she heard Lucas's words, she put the conciliatory gifts in her hand on the desk aside and looked at Nora with concern.

"How does Miss Davis feel?"

Evelyn listened to her words. Although she felt weird, she replied with a smile: "Thank you for your concern. I'm OK now."

Envy's eyes flashed, and continued, "Great, or I'll be a sinner."

When Lucas heard this, he couldn't help laughing.

"How can you be a sinner? It has nothing to do with you."

Envy glanced sideways at him, and said a little sulkily: "She is ok now. Of course, it has nothing to do with me. But if something more terrible happened to Miss Davis, you must blame me for not helping. After all, I was there at that time."

Evelyn listened to Envy's words. Somehow, she always thought that there were other meanings in her words, but she couldn't find out anything wrong.

But Lucas didn't think much about it. Instead, he did not know whether to cry or to laugh at her words.

"In your eyes, I am such a person who does not distinguish right from wrong?"

He raised his eyebrows and asked, which made Envy laugh and argue for the sake of arguing.

The picture of the two people talking and laughing made Evelyn very uncomfortable, and the smile on her face was frozen.

Envy saw it, and the smile on the corner of her mouth was more and more brilliant.

Mo Li looked at them out of the door. Although she was also jealous, she was not so sad when she saw Evelyn's terrible face.

It was just that the picture didn't exist long. Lucas noticed Evelyn's bad face and went forward to care.

"What's the matter? Are you tired again? "

He helped Evelyn, adjusted the back cushion for her, and took good care of her thoughtfully, which finally made Evelyn feel better.

It was just that when she was feeling better, someone was feeling bad.

Envy incredibly watched Lucas taking care of Evelyn. He was different from the superior Lucas in her memory.

At the moment, her jealousy could no longer be concealed, and she stared at Evelyn with fixed eyes.

Because even if she had more than ten years of friendship with Lucas, or even studied with him abroad together, she didn't enjoy the care of Lucas.

It was not just her. Mo Li's eyes were also red with jealousy, but she was used to it.

At this time, her heart was full of contempt for Envy.

She thought that this woman could have any other means. It seemed that she had no use at all and couldn't even attract Mr. Hawk's attention.

Evelyn perceived the malicious sight and raised her eyes subconsciously.

However, in the moment when she looked up, the malicious sight disappeared, and she bumped into Envy's smiling eyes.

"Lucas, you are so sweet to Miss Davis. I never know that you will take care of people like this. It's really enviable."

When Evelyn heard this, she felt strange again, but She still had no clue. On the contrary, Lucas's next words made her heart throb.

“I didn’t know how to do it before. Now I can learn slowly. After all, I will take care of her for the rest of my life.”

Lucas said this very naturally, and as a result, not only he but also the three women in the ward were stunned.

Envy heard Lucas say that he would take care of Evelyn for the rest of his life, her smile almost collapse.

Mo Li at the door nearly went mad with jealous.

Her Mr. Hawk wanted to live with that b!tch all his life. How could that b!tch deserve?

Comparing with their anger, Evelyn was moved and sad.

Because she knew that the person Lucas was going to live with for a lifetime, was not her, but Nora.

Lucas didn’t notice the changes of the three women either. At the moment, he was shocked by his changed feelings for Nora.

However, he soon calmed down. After all, Nora could live with him for a lifetime if nothing unexpected happened.

He stopped the topic and asked why Envy came.

“By the way, I haven’t asked you why did you come.”

Envy collected herself, pulled up the corners of her mouth and smiled: “Well, the project is coming to an end. I’m going to take the rest home and deal with it. I’ll move back today.”

Lucas was surprised to hear that.

“Is it near the end?”

Envy nodded, “Yes, the R & D results of the project are not bad, and the rest will be reviewed.”

When Lucas heard this, he couldn't help apologizing. "I'm sorry. There are so many things in my family recently. I've neglected all these things. But before I could entertain you well, you're leaving."

When Envy heard this, the block in her heart was dredged a little.

"Don't be over polite. Besides, there will be a chance for you to make up for me and there is one now."

She looked at Lucas jokingly and rested her eyes on Evelyn without trace.

Lucas didn't notice, but when he heard this, he looked at her with raising his eyebrow: "Oh, what chance?"

"I'm going to move back in the evening. I wonder if Mr. Hawk would like to have a meal with me?"

Envy told him about the meal with a smile.

Lucas frowned.

"At tonight?"

Seeing this, Envy naturally knew what he was worried about.

"Yes, tonight, I've told aunt, but if you want to take care of Miss Davis, it's OK. Anyway, there are aunt and uncle with me."

She didn't go straight to Evelyn and ask her to agree, but let Evelyn know that Lucas must go to tonight's dinner in a roundabout way.

And the result was just as she expected. After Evelyn knew that Sofia would go to dinner tonight, although she didn't want Lucas to go, she still persuaded him to go.

"Lucas, you should go. I have Mo Li here. It's OK."

After hearing this, Lucas thought for a moment, and agreed.

After all, as he said before, he didn't give a good reception when Envy stayed in the Hawk family. She was leaving and invited them to dinner. If he didn't go, he seemed impolite.

Envy got the promise she wanted, and the smile on her face couldn't help but be more sincere again.

"That's the deal. I'll go there first with aunt in the evening. You can come after you help Miss Davis settle down."

Lucas nodded, then they said something about their work, and he sent Envy away.

That night, Envy and Sofia set out from the Hawk family.

They has just got on the private car and were about to leave. A group of big foreign men rushed out.

They had weapons in their hands, asked Envy and Sofia to get out of the car in awkward-sounding Chinese.

Sofia and Envy were scared, and they got out of the car nervously.

"Come with us!"

When the black men saw them get out of the car, they gave orders in a deep voice.

"Who are you?"

Envy didn't move, and her eyes twinkled at the black men in front of them.

Hearing her words, Sofia also calmed down, straightened her back and scolded: "How dare you kidnap us in our Hawk family's place. Be sensible to let us go. Otherwise, my son will never spare you."

Seeing this, the black man, as if exhausted his patience, said to the men beside him, "G get her."

Envy and Sofia were shocked. Fortunately, at this time, Envy saw someone running towards them in the distance, and joy flashed through her face.

Yes, she made a question just to delay the time and inform her bodyguards.

"Someone is coming!"

The black men also found the bodyguards coming from afar and were alert.

“Move quickly.”

When ferocity flashed through the black man’s eyes, they went forward to catch Sofia.

Seeing this, Envy’s face changed a little. She pushed Sofia away, then she fell into the black men’s hands.

The black man did not notice that he caught the wrong person. When he saw the bodyguards approaching, he immediately ordered his men to retreat.

As they left, Sofia responded that Envy was taken away to save her.

Sophia collected herself in shock and immediately took out her mobile phone to contact Lucas.

“Lucas, Envy was captured to save me. Send someone to rescue her, hurry up.”

Lucas was just about to leave the hospital for the dinner. When he heard this, his face suddenly changed.

“Mom, what happened? Tell me the details.”

Sophia quickly told him what has just happened.

“I see. I’ll be back now.”

Lucas hung up sullenly.

Evelyn looked at him and asked out of concern, “What’s wrong, Lucas?”

Lucas nodded and said simply, “Envy was caught by someone. I have to rush back now.”

When Evelyn heard this, she was surprised and didn’t stop Lucas. She watched him leave.

Lucas was on the way back, not staying idle.

He first contacted Cater, "Cater, now send someone to the Transportation Bureau to get the Video Surveillances near Hawk house. Meanwhile, call the police and report that someone was kidnapped. Let them cooperate with us to investigate."

Cater dare not neglect it. He did it right away.

After Lucas hung up, he called Mo Zhui.

When Sophia called him just now, she made it clear that those men's target was her. And those men were foreigners, he had to take a full consideration.

"Mo Zhui. Check whether there are people of Xiuluotang entering our country these two days."

Mo Zhui had some doubt after she heard these words: "Brother, what happened?"

After Lucas told her about the kidnapping, Mo Zhu's face changed a little, so she immediately sent someone to check.

Then she had some news in less than ten minutes.

"Brother, those men may be their people. My men reported that they haven't been actively pursued and attacked recently."

When Lucas heard this, his eyes became cold.

He hung up and rushed all the way back to the Hawk family.

...

At the same time, a abandoned factory on the outskirts of Jingdu was full of many foreign big men who were standing with fear. They dare not even take a heavy breath.

"Bastard!"

In the center of the factory building, a blond man kicked down the black man who caught Envy with a angry face.

“How did I tell you? I told you to catch the old one. What did you do? Caught this young one for me. Did you leave your brain on women’s belly?”

The man snapped, and everyone held their breath for fear that the next one to be scolded was themselves.

Then the black man was scared to death.

He kneel on the ground and dare not get up.

At this time, a subordinate came in a hurry outside the door and whispered to the man.

“Boss, the brother outside has received the news that Lucas is making great efforts to find this woman.”

The man was surprised to hear this.

He thought Evelyn and Envy were Lucas’s lovers, not as important as his mother. He didn’t expect to catch the right person accidentally.

However, he did not immediately let people find Lucas, but sent them to continue to watch Lucas’s actions.

And their conversation, word for word, fell into the ears of Envy who was pretending to be unconscious.

At this time, Envy knew that those men wanted to catch the person who was important to Lucas.

For a while, her mind was complicated.

At this moment, she suddenly found that it became very quiet around her.

She was panic because of the silence.

She was thinking about whether to open her eyes quietly when someone talked to her in awkward-sounding Chinese. “Since you wake up, don’t pretend that you are asleep, or I will let you really fall asleep from now on.”

When Envy heard the threatening words, she trembled all over.

She opened her eyes carefully, and saw many foreigners standing in the old warehouse, and each of them was threatening and armed.

She saw the swarthy guns and shrunk her pupils.

The blond man saw all her expressions and raised his mouth corner bloodthirstily.

“I think you’ve heard what I said just now. Be obedient, we won’t hurt you.”

Envy looked down, but an idea came up to her.

They wanted to catch the person that Lucas cared about most...Maybe this was her best chance to get rid of Nora.

She arranged her thoughts, looked up at the blond man, and pretended to say calmly, “I heard your conversation just now, but I’m sorry to tell you that you caught the wrong person.”

The blond man didn’t expect Envy to be able to talk to them when she was afraid of them.

He raised his eyebrow slightly and said with a joking tone: “Oh, tell me about it?”

After hearing this, Envy took a deep breath and said: “Lucas is willing to save me because our two families are friends for generations. If something happens to me, he could not explain it to our family.”

The blond man was silent, and the smile on the corner of his mouth became lighter and his look became very dangerous.

Envy saw it and couldn’t help shivering in her heart, but when she thought of her plan, she forced herself to look into his eyes.

“I don’t know what you want from Lucas, but it’s impossible for you to threaten him with me. He doesn’t care about me as much as you think. In his eyes, I’m a sister at most.”

She said, with a wry smile on her face, “The woman he cares about is not me, but someone else.”

Listening to what she was saying, the blond man got interested. He asked, "Who does he care about? Tell me."

Envy saw that he was intrigued. A dark light flashed through the bottom of her eyes and she said, "If I tell you, will you let me go?"

Of course, this was her tentative question. In fact, she knew in her heart that it was impossible for this person to let her go.

And as she expected, the blond man didn't promise her, just gave her a vague answer.

"Tell me first, as for whether I will let you go or not, it depends on my mood."

He said jokingly and his eyes were full of interest in Envy.

Evelyn didn't know that Envy sold her down the river obediently.

"The woman Lucas cares about is Nora Davis."

When the blond man heard the name again, he was surprised and confused.

"What's her relationship with Lucas?"

"She's Lucas's wife and Lucas cares a lot about her," Envy replied.

The blond man was surprised at this.

"Lucas is married? How come no one knows?"

The most important thing was that there was no such information in his men's investigation.

"There are rare people who know about it," said Envy causally.

She said, explaining all she knew, and trying to attract his attention to Evelyn.

However, the man did not immediately send someone to catch Evelyn, instead, he stared at her with interest.

He walked to Envy with a few steps, raised her chin, and said with a smile, "Aren't you afraid that I will harm you, if you disclose too much to make me feel you are useless?"

Envy looked at his effeminate face, and a little fear rose in her eyes, but soon she restrained it.

“No!”

"Brother, those men may be their people. My men reported that they haven't been actively pursued and attacked recently."

When Lucas heard this, his eyes became cold.

He hung up and rushed all the way back to the Hawk family.

...

At the same time, a abandoned factory on the outskirts of Jingdu was full of many foreign big men who were standing with fear. They dare not even take a heavy breath.

"Bastard!"

In the center of the factory building, a blond man kicked down the black man who caught Envy with a angry face.

"How did I tell you? I told you to catch the old one. What did you do? Caught this young one for me. Did you leave your brain on women's belly?"

The man snapped, and everyone held their breath for fear that the next one to be scolded was themselves.

Then the black man was scared to death.

He kneel on the ground and dare not get up.

At this time, a subordinate came in a hurry outside the door and whispered to the man.

“Boss, the brother outside has received the news that Lucas is making great efforts to find this woman.”

The man was surprised to hear this.

He thought Evelyn and Envy were Lucas’s lovers, not as important as his mother. He didn’t expect to catch the right person accidentally.

However, he did not immediately let people find Lucas, but sent them to continue to watch Lucas’s actions.

And their conversation, word for word, fell into the ears of Envy who was pretending to be unconscious.

At this time, Envy knew that those men wanted to catch the person who was important to Lucas.

For a while, her mind was complicated.

At this moment, she suddenly found that it became very quiet around her.

She was panic because of the silence.

She was thinking about whether to open her eyes quietly when someone talked to her in awkward-sounding Chinese. “Since you wake up, don’t pretend that you are asleep, or I will let you really fall asleep from now on.”

When Envy heard the threatening words, she trembled all over.

She opened her eyes carefully, and saw many foreigners standing in the old warehouse, and each of them was th.uggish and armed.

She saw the swarthy guns and shrunk her pupils.

The blond man saw all her expressions and raised his mouth corner bl00dthirstily.

“I think you’ve heard what I said just now. Be obedient, we won’t hurt you.”

Envy looked down, but an idea came up to her.

They wanted to catch the person that Lucas cared about most...Maybe this was her best chance to get rid of Nora.

She arranged her thoughts, looked up at the blond man, and pretended to say calmly, "I heard your conversation just now, but I'm sorry to tell you that you caught the wrong person."

The blond man didn't expect Envy to be able to talk to them when she was afraid of them.

He raised his eyebrow slightly and said with a joking tone: "Oh, tell me about it?"

After hearing this, Envy took a deep breath and said: "Lucas is willing to save me because our two families are friends for generations. If something happens to me, he could not explain it to our family."

The blond man was silent, and the smile on the corner of his mouth became lighter and his look became very dangerous.

Envy saw it and couldn't help shivering in her heart, but when she thought of her plan, she forced herself to look into his eyes.

"I don't know what you want from Lucas, but it's impossible for you to threaten him with me. He doesn't care about me as much as you think. In his eyes, I'm a sister at most."

She said, with a wry smile on her face, "The woman he cares about is not me, but someone else."

Listening to what she was saying, the blond man got interested. He asked, "Who does he care about? Tell me."

Envy saw that he was intrigued. A dark light flashed through the bottom of her eyes and she said, "If I tell you, will you let me go?"

Of course, this was her tentative question. In fact, she knew in her heart that it was impossible for this person to let her go.

And as she expected, the blond man didn't promise her, just gave her a vague answer.

“Tell me first, as for whether I will let you go or not, it depends on my mood.”

He said jokingly and his eyes were full of interest in Envy.

Evelyn didn't know that Envy sold her down the river obediently.

“The woman Lucas cares about is Nora Davis.”

When the blond man heard the name again, he was surprised and confused.

“What's her relationship with Lucas?”

“She's Lucas's wife and Lucas cares a lot about her,” Envy replied.

The blond man was surprised at this.

“Lucas is married? How come no one knows?”

The most important thing was that there was no such information in his men's investigation.

“There are rare people who know about it,” said Envy causally.

She said, explaining all she knew, and trying to attract his attention to Evelyn.

However, the man did not immediately send someone to catch Evelyn, instead, he stared at her with interest.

He walked to Envy with a few steps, raised her chin, and said with a smile, “Aren't you afraid that I will harm you, if you disclose too much to make me feel you are useless ?”

Envy looked at his effeminate face, and a little fear rose in her eyes, but soon she restrained it.

“No!”
